

Jack Elden Horn

May 28, 1931 – Nov. 10, 2019

Jack Elden Horn, 88, died on Nov. 10, 2019, at 8:45 p.m. at Peabody Retirement Community, North Manchester, where he was a resident.

He was born on May 28, 1931, in Alexandria, to Frank and Alice (Dikey) Horn. He graduated from Alexandria Monroe High School in 1945. Jack married Patricia Ruth Malicoat on June 10, 1951, in Alexandria.

Jack served 32 years in the Indiana National Guard and his rank was first sergeant. He worked 32 years at Delco Remy in Anderson and retired from there in 1991. After that, he worked at Petro Brothers in Warsaw as a parts manager for 10 years. Jack lived in the Akron area for 33 years before moving to Peabody Retirement Community 1 1/2 years ago with his wife.

He was an avid bowler and bowled several years in a bowling league at Norco alleys in Alexandria and Elwood where he once bowled a perfect game. Jack played basketball in high school and on a semi-pro team later. He was a die-hard fan of IU basketball. He loved to ride his Honda Gold Wing motorcycle and collected model cars, enjoyed watching car races on TV and was proud of his own cars and kept them clean and shined all the time.

He was a perfectionist in everything that he did and had all his tools neat, labeled and organized. He enjoyed mowing his yard and other people's too. He was a member of the Jimmy Swygart Media Church. He enjoyed having visitors and
