Melissa K. Roberts

Melissa K. Roberts, 46, known by many simply as "Missy," passed away on Dec. 17, 2016, as the result of a car accident near her home in Albany.

She was born May 20, 1970, to Ward T. and Sally M. Williams Ladd. She was a native of Kosciusko County, having graduated from Tippecanoe Valley High School in 1988.

On Nov. 23, 1996, she was married to Mark Roberts in Atwood.

For the past 20 years, she had been living in Albany with her family.

She enjoyed reading and was an advocate of the local library system, borrowing large stacks of books at a time; she chiefly enjoyed reading mysteries. She loved music, especially that of the 1970s and '80s. Her favorite band was Styx; she was privileged to meet the lead singer, Tommy Shaw, and was able to go backstage. She was an avid collector of CDs and enjoyed going to concerts. She had a special connection to her cats but was a loving mother and wife above all.

Those left to cherish her memory include her husband of 20 years, Mark Roberts, Albany; a son, Rhett Tiger Allan Roberts, at home; her mother, Sally Ladd, Atwood; a brother, Blake Ladd, Denver, Colo.; and two sisters, Debbi (husband Bart) Fore, Mishawaka, and Jody Torpy, Atwood.

She was preceded by her father, Ward Ladd, on May 14, 1994; and by three cats whom she loved like children: Junior, Layla and Tully.

Friends may join family for a time of visitation from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesday in Titus Funeral Home, 2000 E. Sheridan St., Warsaw. A funeral service that celebrates Melissa's life will follow, beginning at 1 p.m. in the funeral home. Pastor Mike Beezley of Atwood's Aldersgate United Methodist Church will officiate.

Burial will take place in Harrison Center Cemetery.

Memorials may be given to the family, care of Titus Funeral Home, P.O. Box 705, Warsaw, IN 46581-0705.

Debra Craft Robinson

Debra Craft Robinson, 66, Etna Green, passed away Monday, Jan. 1, 2018.

Deb was born Jan. 23, 1951, to Darl and Norma Tinkey Craft.

Deb was in the first graduating class from Triton High School in Bourbon in 1969. She married Ronald Robinson on May 24, 1974.

Deb is survived by her husband and their three children, Melissa (Greg) Burns, Sara (Richard) Grossman and Michael (Stacy) Robinson, all three of whom live nearby in Etna Green. She was blessed with four grandchildren and her fifth due in February: Bailee Burns, Breann Burns, Carter Grossman and Heidi Grossman. Also surviving are her brother, Greg (Kandi) Craft, Bourbon; her mother-in-law, Jean Robinson, Syracuse; and her brother-in-law, Donald (Kathi) Robinson, Syracuse.

Deb was preceded in death by her parents.

Deb began her working years with a newspaper delivery route for the TIMES-UNION. From 1987-1990 she was the matron of the jail while Ron was sheriff of Kosciusko County. After her time as matron, Deb returned to her paper route, usually with her two youngest kids in the back seat. She became a homemaker once her first grandchild was born.

She was the selfless caregiver, baby-sitting all four of her grandchildren. Deb truly enjoyed watching each of them grow. Her greatest joy was being the matriarch of her family.

Calling is scheduled from 9 to 11 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 6, in McHatton-Sadler Funeral Chapel, Warsaw, with a memorial service following at 11:30 a.m. at the funeral chapel. Pastor Rich Maron will officiate the services.

Larry Lee Rohrer

Sept. 19, 1945 – March 10, 2017

Larry Lee Rohrer, age 71, Claypool, passed away Friday evening, March 10, 2017, at his residence, doing what he loved best, bringing his wife of 52 years, Carolyn, safely home from yet another of their many life's journeys.

Following Larry's wishes, there will be no formal funeral service, but there will be a public visitation and viewing at Earl-Love Funeral Home, 811 E. Rochester St., Akron, on Thursday, March 16, 2017, from 5-8 p.m. Burial will be in the Graceland Cemetery, Claypool, with a private graveside ceremony.

Larry was born Sept. 19, 1945, in Claypool to Noble and Myra (Scott) Rohrer. He graduated in 1963 from Mentone High School and a year later married the girl next door and love of his life, Carolyn Konkle.

Growing up on the farm put Larry's keen ability to fix things to the test. Larry would eventually use those skills to form his own business, Larry's Appliance Service, serving the North Manchester and surrounding communities for nearly 30 years. Larry didn't meet a problem he couldn't solve and was known for doing it the right way, endeavoring to educate along the way.

Larry loved and cared for his children and grandchildren with the same remarkable ability, helping them laugh when they wanted to cry, showing the way when life presented its many roadblocks, and always seeking the truth and bringing you along for the journey. He is loved and will be dearly missed. He made it home.

Larry is survived by his wife, Carolyn; his son Nathan and daughter Darla (Scott) Miller; his grandchildren, Chas Wilson, Brooklyn (Jack) Wilson, Ashley Miller, and Madeleine and Hannah Rohrer; his great-grandchildren, Chaston and Alannah Wilson; his brother, Leon (Darlene) Rohrer; his sister, Linda (Dave) Lock; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and neighbors. Larry was preceded in death by his father, Noble and mother Myra; his sister, Janice Method; and his daughter-in-law Lori Colvin Rohrer.

Cheryll Ross, Glenwood, Iowa, passed away Oct. 17, 2017, at Hillcrest Country Estates in Papillion, Neb.

Cheryll was born Nov. 2, 1945, to William and Margaret Bunn in Newton, Iowa. On Sept. 11, 1965, in Rock Island, Ill., she married Patrick Ross, who preceded her in death on May 9, 2017.

She is survived by two sons, Thomas, Claypool; and Timothy and spouse Ellen, Council Bluffs, Iowa; one daughter, Theresa, of Omaha, Nebraska; one brother, Ed Bunn, Colfax, Iowa; three sisters-in-law: Sarah "Sally" Cassady, East Lansing, Mich.; Barbara "Sue" Wilkinson, Huntsville, Ala.; and Gerry Ross, Montezuma, Iowa; a brother-in-law, Raphael "Joe," Afton, Iowa; many nieces, nephews and friends. She greatly loved her four grandchildren, Maxton, Meg, Andrew, and Aaron.

She was preceded in death by her parents as well as her brother, James Bunn; brothers-in-law Michael Ross, Donald Cassady, and Dick Wilkinson; sister-in-law Myrna Bunn; and daughter-in-law Heather Ross.

Cheryll was an avid follower of her children's and grandchildren's sporting and extracurricular activities and was always present at their events. She loved to travel with her husband Pat and their friends and especially loved the ocean. She was an avid fan of the Iowa Hawkeyes and Notre Dame Fighting Irish. She loved the political process and was honored to be part of it.

Cheryll graduated from Newton High School in Newton, Iowa. She worked at several banks and for Glenwood Community Schools before being elected as Mills County Auditor in 1988 and winning re-election two more times. In 1999 she became deputy auditor for Pottawattamie County, retiring in 2007.

Living most of her adult life in Mills County, Cheryll's love of helping others led her to be involved in numerous community groups including director of the Pottawattamie County Red Cross, Holy Rosary Catholic Church Rosary Altar Society, Glenwood Community High School Ram Booster Club, director and volunteer at the Mills County Storehouse.

Visitation will be at Holy Rosary Catholic Church in Glenwood, Iowa, Oct. 22 from 3 to 5 p.m. with a prayer service to follow. A funeral mass will be held Oct. 23 at 10 a.m. at Holy Rosary Church. Interment will be private.

Patrick Timothy Ross

GLENWOOD, Iowa — Patrick Timothy Ross, 73, Glenwood, Iowa, passed away May 9 at the Josie Harper Hospice House, Omaha, Neb.

Patrick was born Nov. 22, 1943, to James and Alice Ross in Newton, Iowa. On Sept. 11, 1965, he married Cheryl Bunn in Rock Island, Ill.

He is survived by Cheryl, Glenwood; son, Thomas (spouse Heather), Claypool; son, Timothy (spouse Ellen), Council Bluffs, Iowa; daughter, Theresa, Omaha; sister, Sarah "Sally" Cassady, East Lansing, Mich.; sister, Barbara "Sue" Wilkinson, Huntsville, Ala.; brother, Rafael "Joe" Afton, Iowa; brother-in-law, Ed Bunn, Colfax, Iowa; and sister-in-law, Gerri Ross, Montezuma, Iowa. He was an adoring "Papa" to his four grandchildren: Maxton, Meg, Andrew and Aaron.

He was preceded in death by his parents as well as his brother, Michael; brothers-in-law, Donald Cassady, Dick Wilkinson and James Bunn; and sister-in-law, Myrna Bunn.

Devoted to his family, he was an avid photographer who enjoyed taking pictures at family events and the extracurricular activities of his children and grandchildren. His unique sense of humor and quick wit entertained many. He loved chocolate and dessert. He was a fan of the Iowa Hawkeyes, Notre Dame Fighting Irish and Creighton Bluejays.

Patrick graduated from Dowling Catholic High School, Des Moines, and St. Ambrose University, Davenport, Iowa. Working his entire life in the financial industry, he worked his way up from teller to bank president, retiring from Mills County Bank as branch president in 2009.

Living most of his adult life in Mills County, his giving heart led him to be involved in several community groups, including chairman of the building committee for Holy Rosary Catholic Church, president of the Glenwood Community High School Ram Booster Club, director and volunteer at the Mills County Storehouse, director of the Pottawatomie County Red Cross, and Rotary Club fellow.

Visitation will be at Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Glenwood, from 2-5 p.m. June 11, with a prayer service to follow. Catholic services will be at 10 a.m. June 12.

A private burial is planned at a later date.

Peterson Mortuary, Glenwood, is handling the services.

The family would like to thank all of the caregivers and friends who have provided so much care and assistance to Patrick and his family in this difficult time.

Memorials to Mills County Relay for Life; Mills County Storehouse; Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Omaha; Saint Albert Catholic Schools Fine Arts Department, Council Bluffs, Iowa; or Chapman Lakes Conservation Association, Warsaw.
