Cheryl Lynn Flohr Johnson Miller Terry, known by most simply as "Sherry," passed away at 8:47 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 5, in Warsaw Meadows Care Center. She was 69 years old at the time of her passing.

Cheryl was born in Rochester on Aug. 10, 1948, to Russell Flohr and Margaret E. Brooks Flohr. Raised in the family home, she would eventually graduate from Akron High School.

Cheryl was known for her strong work ethic and made a living doing what she knew best — caring for others. She had worked in home health care for many years. She also worked for Grace Village in the dietary department and may be best known for her time spent at Warsaw Community High School as the "lunch lady." Working in the school was a job she cherished as it gave her the ability to see her grandchildren through the day.

Cheryl loved her family and selflessly loved others, rarely knowing a stranger. She enjoyed shopping, reading, watching nature and many types of music. She loved her family and was a woman of great faith, attending Warsaw Community Church.

Surviving are three daughters: Stacey Miller, Warsaw; Jody (Darwin) Hurd, Warsaw; and Crystal Terry, Wabash; and adult grandchildren, Michele O'Hara, Winona Lake, and Austin Wadkins, Warsaw. In addition, she is survived by grandchildren: Zachary, Jacob, Alayzia, Tommy, Jameson, Landon, Grace and Clara; great-grandchildren, Kayden and Dani; her brothers, Ted (Carol) Flohr, Akron, and Sam (Wanda) Flohr, Rochester; a niece, Patsy Waymire, Akron; and many other nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in passing by her sons, William "Duane" Johnson Jr. and Aaron Steven Miller; her husband, Tommy Miller; her parents; and several brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be from 3 to 7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 11, in Titus Funeral Home, 2000 E. Sheridan St., Warsaw.

A graveside service will be at 3:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 27, in Oaklawn Cemetery, North Manchester.

Memorials to Cheryl's family, care of Titus Funeral Home, 2000 E. Sheridan St., Warsaw, IN 46580.

Carolyn Kay Thomas

Carolyn Kay Thomas, affectionately known as just Kay, of Silver Lake, passed away at 3:40 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 25, 2018, at Kosciusko Community Hospital of Warsaw at the age of 77.

She was born Nov. 9, 1940, in Dexter, Ohio, to Doug Chaney and Magie McClocklin Chaney. On April 29, 1980, she was married to Roy Allan Thomas, who survives.

Kay was a resident of Kosciusko County for the past 55 years. She had worked at Kosciusko Community Hospital of Warsaw, Maple Leaf Farms in Milford, and she also worked in the housekeeping department at Mason Health and Rehabilitation Center in Warsaw, retiring in 2001. She was a hard worker and enjoyed her time off.

She will be remembered as a loving wife, mother and grandmother and will be dearly missed by her family, friends and many, many nieces and nephews.

She will be lovingly remembered by her husband of 38 years, Roy Allan Thomas, Silver Lake; son, Ken (Jane) Meeks, Silver Lake; two grandchildren, Angie (Calvin) Reece, Warsaw, and Luke Meeks, Silver Lake; and three great-grandchildren: Kayla and Logan Meeks, Bourbon, and Alexis Reece, Warsaw. She also leaves behind her sister, Helen Sabo, Etna Green; as well as Tracie (Travis) Scott and their three children, Madison, Noah and Bentley.

She was preceded in death by her parents; brother, Odel; and her sister Mary.

Her memorial service will be conducted at 10 a.m. Friday, Sept. 28, at Redpath-Fruth Funeral Home and officiated by Pastor Dennis L. Bollenbacher.

Burial will be at a later date at Etna Green Cemetery.

Memorials to the Animal Welfare League of Kosciusko County, 3489 E. 100 S., Pierceton, IN 46562.
