Approve "Un-named" school contracts

Four final contracts for Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation's "Un-Named High School" were signed at a special school board meeting Monday night and an advertisement for sale of $3,580,000 worth of first mortgage bonds was approved. Complete text of the bond sale advertisement can be found in this week's NEWS.

The bonds will be sold April 24 in the superintendent's office indentations of $5,000 each, with principal and interest payable at the Farmers State Bank, Mentone, the trustee bank, or at the option of the holder, at the Akron Exchange State Bank, Akron, or the American Fletcher National Bank and Trust Co. of Indianapolis.

In an attempt to thwart suspected remonstrances against the bond sale, the board unanimously passed this resolution: "Be it resolved that the attorney, Fred Rakestraw, study and be prepared to take legal action on behalf of the Tippecanoe Valley taxpayers to recover money which may be lost rebidding bonds or rebidding construction contracts, from individuals who may cause these delays in the Tippecanoe Valley School building program."

Board member Philip Lash hesitated before casting his yes vote, saying he was afraid the resolution could be construed as an attempt "to pull the wool over the eyes of the taxpayers." Assured that this was not the intention of the board and reminded that the people who attempted to block the building's construction should be held financially responsible for any money their action cost taxpayers, he voted with the rest of the board.

TVSC Superintendent Robert Forbes said a remonstrance could not prevent construction of the school but it could delay progress, and Rakestraw said a 30-day delay of sale of bonds because of a remonstrance would cause taxpayers to lose money, as much as $100,000 in interest if the rate 40 YEARS OF SERVICE HONORED: Dale Kelley, a charter member of the Mentone Lions Club who is still active in Lionism, was honored at the club's 40th anniversary dinner Saturday night. THE CARDINAL HANDBELL CHOIR of Warsaw will give a concert at the Akron Church of God at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, April 8. The choir was at the church three years ago and proved to be a great inspiration as members performed for a full house. The choir is composed of 19 mentally and physically handicapped young adults between the ages of 16 and 28. Last year it performed before the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped at the Washington Hilton Hotel where it received a standing ovation from a very sophisticated audience of representatives from every state in the Union and from a dozen foreign countries. Everyone is invited to the Church of God to hear this group.

GOOD CATCH: Proving that fishing is a good way to spend a school vacation, Jeff Whetstone, 11-year old grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Wilvin Teel, R. 2, Akron, proudly displays a five-pound bass he caught Tuesday at Loon Lake. The Fort Wayne youth, a guest of his grandparents, used a plover on a casting rod to catch the fish. He also caught another bass that weighed one pound and 13 ounces.

Tentative Clean-Up Set For Mentone

The town of Mentone's tentative date for the annual clean-up is April 28, according to a decision reached by the Town Board Monday night.

Board members set the date and said they would check with the sanitation contractor, Trash-A-Way Sanitation of Culver, to see if that date would be agreeable. The sanitation service will bring a truck into town on clean-up day to haul away trash residents have cleaned from around homes.

Formal announcement of the date is expected later.

Board members also warned that junk cars in the town will have to be taken care of or a junk car ordinance will be enforced against violators.

Dwight Reichard, Mentone, was re-hired as caretaker of the Mentone cemetery and park for the coming summer.

Attending the meeting were board members Bill Boardman, James Whetstone and Kenneth Bush, Clerk-Treasurer Marie Coleman, Superintendent of Water Works Harry Sullivan and Mentone Deputy Marshal Richard Peterson.

Ellis Named Henry Trustee

Clair Ellis, Akron, was named Henry township trustee by the Fulton Co. Board of Commissioners Monday. He will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Norman Burkett who is moving from the state.

Human beings are not perfectible. They ARE improvable.

Be Careful If You Get A "Free" Prize

Indiana Attorney General Theodore L. Sendak this week urged Indiana consumers to use extreme caution in making a purchase after being notified they have won a so-called "free" prize.

Sendak stated his Consumer Protection Division in recent weeks has received an increase in the volume of complaints regarding "free" prizes. The pitch usually asserts these prizes are directed to customers who did not win the "grand prize," but are being awarded a consolation prize anyway. The "winning" consumer often will not remember entering the contest, and it will usually be awarded by an out-of-state company. Then comes the bunko--the prize will most often be used to induce the purchase of a vacuum sweeper or sewing machine.

The Attorney General cautioned these "winners" to be on their guard when dealing with such a company, and to remember that the offer of a free vacation in Florida or another resort area is likely to be an attempt solely to gain the consumer's presence at a land sales presentation.

Consumers who are notified that they have won a prize or a contest should be cautious when they claim their winnings. Remember, little if anything is really "free." If you have to pay for your prize in some fashion, it is not "free." Such a practice should be brought to the attention of the Attorney General's office in writing. Send all information to Theodore L. Sendak, Attorney General, Consumer Protection Division, 219 State House, Indianapolis, Ind. 46204.

Despite Rising Prices—

U.S. Food Still Rated A Bargain

Despite all the talk about rising costs of food, it's still the biggest bargain in the U.S. marketplace today.

A comparison of how food prices have behaved in the last 20 years as contrasted with prices of other items sheds some interesting light on the question. For example:

If egg prices had gone up as much as first-class postage stamps, they would be selling for $1.61 a dozen today.

If milk prices had advanced as much as medical care, you'd be paying 83 cents for a half-gallon.

If a one-pound loaf of white bread had followed the wage increases of skilled construction labor, it would be costing you 50 cents a loaf.

As these figures indicate, food prices have not risen as high proportionately as most other items.

What's surprising about all this is that the farmer who produces the nation's abundant supply of food and fiber has been just as hard-hit by inflation as his city counterparts—if not more so.

For instance, a three-plow tractor that cost him $1,200 about 20 years ago now carries a price tag of $6,800. A two-row mounted corn picker has gone up from $800 to $2,100, and a manure spreader that cost $390 in 1950 today costs $1,934.

If the farmer's price for eggs had followed the cost for manure spreaders, eggs would now be selling at $2.98 a dozen.

Daniel Smith Listed in International Scholars Directory

Dr. Charles Daniel Smith, son of Mrs. Cleotus Smith, Akron, and the late Mr. Smith, has been listed in the 1973 edition of INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARS DIRECTORY published in Strasbourg, France. He is the grandson of Dan Leininger, founder of Dan Leininger and Sons.

Dan, as he is known in Akron, was editor of his high school newspaper, the Akron Hi Times, which appeared in the Rochester News-Sentinel 1931-32. He received the A.B. degree from Indiana University in 1936, served as a major in the Infantry in World War II and received the Ph.D. degree from Washington University (St. Louis) in 1954.

In the fall of that year, he joined the faculty of Syracuse University where he served for three years as chairman of the Department of Speech Education and for four years as chairman of the Department of Public Address. He has also served for two years as associate editor of the Quarterly Journal of Speech.

Dan's specialty is debate in the 18th century British House of Commons. He has spent six summers in England. His mother joined him there the summer of 1971 for a three weeks' tour of the British Isles. He has a book nearing completion on Lord North, the Prime Minister during the American Revolution. He plans to return to England this summer where he will prepare a series of lectures for Wroxton College, a branch of Fairleigh Dickinson University located at Lord North's estate near Banbury.

Dan is a member of the British Historical Association, the Royal Historical Society, and is also listed in the DIRECTORY OF AMERICAN SCHOLARS.

Keeping Young People on Farm Big Challenge

Unless ways are found to make farming a profitable enough career to attract competent young people, the nation is headed for trouble.

This was pointed out recently by Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz in an address to the National Cotton Council.

He noted that the average age of today's farmer is between 51 and 52.

"It will take 20 years to correct this deficiency," the Secretary warned, "and unless we move on this problem quickly, our country is going to be in trouble as far as food and fiber are concerned."

Indiana Authors Are Sought For Inclusion in Publication

A final effort to identify Indiana authors whose published works have heretofore been unknown is being made by a Wabash College research team that later this year will publish an updated volume titled INDIANA AUTHORS AND THEIR BOOKS.

Donald E. Thompson, Wabash College librarian, heads up the research project that is funded in part with a grant through the Indiana State Library from the Library Services and Construction Act of the U.S. Office of Education.

The new publication will serve as a 50-year supplement to the original volume which was published in 1949 and covered the state's first 100 years from 1816 to 1916. The revised edition will include those authors who were not represented in the first volume, or whose work began after 1916.

Thompson emphasized that they would rather check out duplicate names of Hoosier authors, than to limit the name of someone whose works are little known.

An Indiana author is defined as a native of the state, anyone raised and educated in Indiana, those whose literary work began during residence here and was obviously influenced by Indiana residence, and persons who chose the Hoosier state as a place to spend a major portion of their lives.

Information needed includes the name of the author, the Indiana connection, a complete list of all publications, including, if possible, the title, place and date of publication.

Types of publications to be included are books and pamphlets of all kinds as long as they qualify under the definition of an Indiana author. All information should be sent to Donald E. Thompson, Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Indiana 47933.

EDITORIALS

"Books, the children of the brain," as Jonathan Swift put it, are truly remarkable creations. They reflect the very spirit of man--his triumphs and tragedies, his knowledge and innermost feelings. Too often books are taken for granted, yet without them man is little more than a savage. Step into a library, and you find yourself in the midst of an enchanted world where books wait to whisk you away on a magic carpet of adventure and excitement. There are books to make you laugh and cry, to teach and intrigue. All that is needed is an inquiring mind and a desire for knowledge.

National Library Week, April 8-14, honors the most precious possession of mankind--books and the libraries that house them. And well it should, for literature has perpetuated the philosophies, sciences and artistic endeavors of man down through the ages, making progress and technological advances possible. So whenever you feel the need to expand your horizons or just relax and unwind with a good book, make a trip down to the local library. You'll be glad you did.

Mrs. Joseph Hoover done us clever Tuesday evening, when she called at this office, bringing with her, her niece, Miss Flavilla Tracy, as her guest. Miss Tracy is a clever and genial young lady, and dropped off in Akron to visit a day with her aunt and uncle Joe while enroute to Oberlin, Ohio, where she is attending the musical conservatory.

Rev. E.Q. Laudeman departed last Tuesday for Indianapolis to attend the annual conference of the Evangelical church that is in session there this week. As a result there will be no preaching at this appointments over next Sunday. His return is quite probable as he is an able minister, liked by his congregations and likes them and their very cordial treatment. Besides, he is pursuing studies that he can have time for, rather than on a heavier work.

With the town half under water the other day Delphi voted dry by 168 majority, on petition presented by the wets. The vote was a surprise to both the wets and the dries. But the business men of Delphi have learned that poor men buy more goods in dry towns when they do when the town is wet, and they pay their bills more promptly. Poor men are just as honest as any other class of men, but if they have contracted the habit of "beer" the appetite will push the grocers bill back while they take one more drink. The wise business man sees this and votes that way.

READY FOR THE SHOW are these "oil wash drawings" of Nancy Luckenbill. Along with others, they will be displayed at a two-woman show in Huntington, beginning Sunday, April 8.

Art is her way

By Ann Sheetz

"Art is a form of communication—a way of making someone else feel what you're feeling," says Nancy Luckenbill.

Art is the Akron artist's way of life. Now planning a two woman show at Huntington's Franklin Street Gallery from April 8 to May 11, she continually explores new ways of communicating her feelings through her paintings, which she describes as "oil wash drawings."

In her search for ways to more effectively communicate her feelings about the subjects she paints, she has worked

NOW IN THE PROCESS of remodeling her farm home, Nancy Luckenbill takes time from her busy schedule to pose with one of her paintings, casting her own shadow over the canvas. Her love of line and texture are reflected in her choice of materials for her home.

News Of Interest To Homemakers

BY ANN HANCOCK
Area Extension Agent, Kosciusko County

A homemaker checking out at a grocery store had the following items: paper towel, a chicken, a magazine, a gallon of milk, dog food, panty hose, instant coffee, a carton of carbonated beverage, and ten pounds of potatoes. After the check out girl rang up the total, the homemaker exclaimed, "The high cost of groceries is more than I can bear!" Perhaps this is an exaggeration but next time you shop examine your grocery sacks and see what you bought.

With the cost of food rising, homemakers need to shop more carefully to get the most for their food dollar. When figuring your grocery budget non edible items should not be included. About 20¢ out of every dollar you spend in the grocery store goes for paper products, health aids, etc. These items should be included with household supplies in your family budget.

A wise shopper will use the newspaper ads to plan her menus. Meals should be planned around the meat specials for the week. Always make a list before going to the store and stick to it. If at all possible leave the children and your husband at home. The children will distract you and men tend to do more impulse buying. Go grocery shopping on a full stomach. It has been found that hungry shoppers buy more items because they look good. Compare prices, it is usually cheaper to shop at more than one store. Store brands are often times less expensive and just as good as name brands.

It is difficult to be objective about food prices. Since it is an out of the pocket expense, the homemaker cringes when she spends that forty or fifty dollars on food. We don't notice the rising cost of items that we buy less often, or put on our charge cards. We as a nation spend less of our disposable income on food than do most other countries. We are affluent enough to enjoy color television, camper trailers, boats, college educations, and T-bone steaks if we decide we want these things. Perhaps we should be concerned with the cost of high living rather than the high cost of living.

Just some food for thought perhaps.

WEIGHT CONTROL SERIES

A special series of six classes will begin Tuesday, April 3, at 7:00 p.m. at the Women's Building. This Weight Control Series is open to any interested individual. Topics for discussion will include choosing a diet, basic nutrition, meal planning and simple exercises. To enroll contact the County Extension Office.

predominately with figures although various other subjects are included in her works. "A tree is to touch and to smell, not to paint," she says, explaining why she seldom paints nature scenes. Besides, she loves people, and her sensitive drawings reflect this love. She says when she has finished a drawing or painting of someone, she feels she knows the subject personally. The lines of their faces, a slight bend of the wrist can be indications of their personalities, expressing feelings of superiority, inferiority, dejection or joy. "Lines speak," she says. "They can be irresponsible, aggressive, bold, sensuous or nervous. They can reflect indecision or lack of confidence."

She has been drawing and painting as long as she can remember, starting on brown paper bags when she was a child and graduating through all the other mediums, including ink and acrylics, until her mother gave her a set of oils in 1965. A self-taught artist with the exception of one class and a group session in which members did "quickie" drawings of many different subjects, analyzing and discussing each other's work, she has exhibited all over northern Indiana, including Michigan City, So. Bend, Warsaw, Logansport, Rochester, Indianapolis, and Fort Wayne. Her works have been selected for two juried shows this year—"Exhibit 100" in Indianapolis and the Ft. Wayne Tri-Kappa show where her "Alpaca III" is still on display.

In addition, she has taken pottery lessons, done plaster work, sculpting and silk screen. Now in the process of remodeling her farm home, her feeling for aesthetics is evident in her choice of texture in the use of hewn timbers, macrame lamps and antiques.

A member of the Fulton County Art Colony, Lakeland Art Association and the Logansport Art Guild, she is also active with the Fulton Co. Players, having worked on sets for the past four years. She is head set artist for the forthcoming play, "Two By Two."

Many hours of work have been spent preparing for the two-woman show in which she will share the spotlight with Alison Adams of North Manchester. The Franklin Street Gallery is located opposite the courthouse in Huntington and is open week-day afternoons and on weekends by chance or appointment. It will be open Sunday afternoon from 2 to 5 p.m. when tea will be served and Mrs. Luckenbill and Mrs. Adams will greet visitors, serving refreshments they prepared themselves.

The schedule is grueling and hectic but it is her way of life.

Tell April Fool Jokes

"An April Fool Joke" was the answer to roll call given by 18 members and four guests, Diane Spangle, Betty Nettrouer, Ethel Tinkey and Dorothy Ring, at the recent meeting of the Jolly Good Neighbors Extension Homemakers Club at the home of Mrs. Eunice Jamison with Mrs. Lillian Jamison as assistant hostess.

Following the ritualistic opening of the meeting, conducted by Sharon Parker, the history of the song of the month, "How Much Is That Doggie In The Window?" was read by Ann Reuter, then sung by the group. Mrs. Reuter also gave meditations, using an article entitled "What Is Springtime?"

In her health and safety remarks, Eunice Jamison told how birds and animals are monitors of pollution.

Citizenship leader Betty Bowen presented facts on Social Security. The lesson on "Cookery Bags and Wraps" was presented by club president Linda Hathaway.

During the business session, the constitution and by-laws were read along with the names of the club's newly elected officers. The bonds are redeemable prior to maturity at the option of the Corporation, in whole or in part and in inverse numerical order, on any interest payment date not earlier than July 1, 1979, from funds other than proceeds of any borrowing made for such purpose, or (b) on any interest payment date not earlier than January 1, 1984, from any moneys made available for that purpose, at face value plus the following premiums:

- 4% if redeemed on July 1, 1979, or thereafter on or before July 1, 1983;
 - 3% if redeemed on January 1, 1984, or thereafter on or before July 1, 1993;
 - 1% if redeemed prior to maturity;
- plus in each case accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption, on 15 days' previous notice in a newspaper or financial journal published in the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, and in one (1) such newspaper or financial journal published in the City of Chicago, Illinois, and the mailing of notice to the holders of registered bonds. Interest on the bonds so called for redemption will cease on the redemption date fixed in said notice, if funds are available at the place of redemption to redeem the bonds so called on the date fixed in said notice, or thereafter when presented for payment.

Each bid must be for all of said First Mortgage Bonds and must state the rate or rates of interest which the bonds are to bear, stated in multiples of 1/8th or 1/4th of 1%. No rate shall exceed 6% per annum. Not more than three different interest rates shall be specified in any bid, but rate may be repeated without being considered a different rate. The difference between the highest and lowest rates specified in the bid shall not exceed 1%. Bids specifying two or more interest rates shall specify the amount and maturities of the bonds bearing each rate, but all bonds maturing on the same date shall bear the same rate. Bids shall set out the total amount of interest payable over the term of the bonds and the net interest cost on the bonds covered by the bid. No bid for less than the face value of said bonds, including accrued interest from the date thereof to the date of delivery, will be considered. The bonds will be awarded to the highest qualified bidder who has submitted his bid in accordance herewith. The highest bidder will be the one who offers the lowest net interest cost to the Corporation, to be determined by computing the total interest on all of the bonds and their maturities and deducting therefrom the premium bid, if any. No conditional bids will be considered. Bids may not be conditioned upon the printing of CUSIP numbers on the bonds. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. If an acceptable bid is not received for the First Mortgage Bonds on the date of sale hereinbefore fixed, the sale may be continued from day to day thereafter, during which time no bids for less than the highest bid received at the time of the advertised sale will be considered.

Each bid must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Corporation and marked on the outside "Bid for First Mortgage Bonds", and must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check for the amount of $35,800 payable to the Corporation as a guaranty of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as a liquidated sum if such bid is accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. The checks of the successful bidder will be returned immediately following the award of the First Mortgage Bonds.

The successful bidder shall make payment to Farmers State Bank, Mentone, Indiana, as Trustee, for the bonds and accept delivery thereof from said Trustee within five days after being notified that the bonds are ready for delivery, at such bank in the City of Chicago, Illinois, or in the City of Indianapolis, Indiana as the successful bidder may designate. The First Mortgage Bonds will be ready for delivery at the office of banking hours on the thirtieth day after the date of sale. If the Corporation fails to have the bonds ready for delivery prior to the closing of banking hours on the thirtieth day after the date of sale, the bidder may secure the release of his bid upon request in writing, filed with the Corporation.

The unqualified approving opinion of the Miller Donnell & Company, bond counsel of Indianapolis, Indiana, together with a transcript of the proceedings relating to the issuance of said bonds, printed bond forms with the legal opinion printed thereon, and closing papers in the usual form showing no litigation questioning the validity of the bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder at the expense of the Corporation.

Tippecanoe Valley School Building Corporation was organized for the purpose of erecting and leasing a school building to Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation. All action has been taken and the bonds are issued in compliance with the provisions of the Indiana Code of 1971, Title 21, Article 5, Chapter 11, formerly Chapter 27, Article 5 of 1947. The bonds will be secured by a trust indenture to the Farmers State Bank, Mentone, Indiana, and will be subject to the terms and provisions of said indenture.

The property to be covered by the indenture has been leased for a period of 22 years to the aforesaid Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation at an annual rental of $298,000, plus the payment of taxes and assessments, which rental is payable semi-annually on June 27 and December 27 in each year commencing with the completion of the school building to be erected thereon or on July 1, 1975, which ever date is later. All bidders shall be deemed to have agreed as to the provisions of the above mentioned trust indenture, lease and the provisions of the aforesaid Indiana Code of 1971, Title 21, Article 5, Chapter 11.

Said bonds constitute an indebtedness only of Tippecanoe Valley School Building Corporation, payable in accordance with the terms of the above mentioned indenture and the provisions of the aforesaid Indiana Code of 1971, Title 21, Article 5, Chapter 11. Under the provisions of the governing statute, the First Mortgage Bonds and the interest thereon are exempt from all taxation in Indiana, except, however, inheritance taxes. In the opinion of bond counsel, under the existing federal statutes, decisions, regulations, and rulings, and interest on the First Mortgage Bonds is exempt from federal income tax.

Further information relative to said issue may be obtained upon application to H. J. Umbaugh & Associates, Post Office Box F, Plymouth, Indiana 46593, financial advisor to the corporation, or F. E. Rakestraw of the law firm of Brown, Broom & Rakestraw, Indiana 46775, attorney at law, or Robert M. Forbes, Superintendent of Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation, Farmers State Bank Building, Mentone, Indiana.

If bids are submitted by mail, they should be addressed to the Corporation, attention of W. E. Creighton and Farmers State Bank Building, Mentone, Indiana 46539.

Dated this 2nd day of April, 1973.

New Hospital Prayer Chapel Will Feature Unique TV System

A unique, closed-circuit TV system has been selected by the Architect and Building Committee for Warsaw's new $6.5 million Kosciusko Community Hospital.

Key element of the system will be a camera mounted in the new hospital's Inter-Faith Prayer Chapel. Clergymen from area denominations will be invited to present Sunday services on a rotating basis throughout the year. These services will be conducted "live" before those ambulatory patients, visitors and staff who are assembled in the prayer chapel; but every patient room in the hospital will also be able to "tune-in" via the hospital's closed circuit TV system. This will bring meaningful religious observance to each patient, regardless of his illness and provide an extra, valuable technique to assist the clergy in their regular hospital visitation programs.

During visiting hours, children will be welcomed in a special area set aside for Visit-vision. The TV camera will again beam their pictures to parents or other loved ones who may be patients to offer that extra measure of comfort and assurance that only seeing and hearing them at play can provide. In addition to this special service, the TV sets in each room may be tuned to the full range of regular network broadcasts.

Missionary Will Speak At Akron Church

The Rev. Phil Kinley, missionary from Japan, will be guest speaker at the Akron Church of God Sunday morning at 10:25.

Pastor J. D. Thomason states that the missionary work in Japan has involved the traditional approach along with a strong educational ministry.

The public is invited to hear the Rev. Kinley.

The LTL met at the library basement on Friday evening.

Janet Bowen served as president, Cindy Harding as song leader, and Ryan Teel was flag-bearer.

After the missionary story, a film called "Fact or Fancy" was shown by the leader assisted by Steve Carr and Jimmy Shriver.

Twenty-two members were present.

The next meeting will be a combined meeting with the WCTU on April 10.

Local Groups Plan Meeting

The YTC, LTL, and WCTU organizations of Akron will meet at the library Tuesday evening, April 10 at 7:30 p.m.

A program is planned for the evening.

The awards for the poster contest will be given at this time.

Hammond Church Has World's Largest Sunday School

The largest Sunday School in the United States is the First Baptist Church of Hammond, according to a recent survey by Christian Life Magazine. Ranked fourth last year--1970-1971--the average Sunday School attendance jumped to an average weekly attendance of 5,917 for 1971 to 1972.

This extraordinary growth has been accomplished through an aggressive Sunday school bus ministry and active door-to-door visitation, according to the pastor, Dr. Jack Hyles. Seventy-six buses were carrying more than 2,200 riders to and from the services; the number has grown to a present 119 carrying more than 3,000 passengers.

The nation's largest Sunday school utilizes over 600 teachers and helpers to instruct students of all ages, using materials written by the church. Special classes are conducted for the deaf, the educable handicapped and for a large Spanish speaking constituency. A large nursery provides excellent care for babies.

The Hammond church averages over 75 baptisms each Sunday. It owns a building complex near Hammond known as Baptist City that includes a grade school, high school and college. A second grade school is located about one and one-half blocks from the church. The college, named Hyles Anderson College, opened for the fall semester of 1972.

A weekly broadcast, LET'S GO SOUL WINNING, shares the person-to-person evangelism methods used by the church with listeners on over 60 radio stations across the U.S. A daily broadcast is aired in the Hammond area.

On Sunday, September 17, 1972, Dr. Elmer Towns, the Sunday School editor of Christian Life Magazine, attended the morning services of First Baptist Church and presented Dr. Hyles a plaque in recognition of this achievement.

Approve "Un-Named" School Contracts

raises one-fourth of one per cent.

The final four bids accepted Monday night bring total construction cost of "Un-Named High School" to $4,249,337.39, of which the school corporation will pay $1,455,506.39 and the holding company will pay $2,793,831. In addition, the holding company will pay $40,000 for carpeting, $139,032 for construction management and approximately $172,977 for architect-engineer fees. The school corporation will pay $71,320 for construction management and $88,655 for architect-engineer's fees.

The board rejected all bids in some categories in order to arrive at the final approved list, doing this on the advice of the architect, Kenneth Brown, a member of the Everett L. Brown architectural firm that designed the school.

Brown said these bids were too high and negotiated lower prices with other companies. In one case, the low bidder withdrew his bid and the contract was awarded the next low bidder. The board accepted a tentative bid from Medart for roll-away bleachers on the advice of Forbes and fellow board member Dr. Wymond Wilson who examined them at a meeting in Atlantic City.

A complete list of bids approved for contract letting can be found on another page of this week's NEWS.

Board member Richard Goshert moved that the sports programs of Akron and Mentone high schools be consolidated this year but joined the rest of the board in voting no after hearing Forbes report he had discussed this with both principals and had found that neither of them favored it because the year's programs had already been established. Forbes also said that while the Mentone gym could seat 100-200 more fans and the playing floor was regulation size, neither gym would be able to handle the expected number of spectators.

Attending the meeting in addition to the school board and Forbes were members of the holding company and Rakestraw.

Brethren Church sets dedication

Pastor Charles E. Zunkel of the Akron Church of the Brethren has announced dedication services of the new church addition and improved facilities will be conducted in an all-day celebration on Palm Sunday, April 15.

The new addition provides for a baptistry, three new church school classrooms for youth, junior high and primary, a pastor's study and new restrooms on both basement and main floor levels. These have all been needed in the life and program of the congregation. In addition to these, the entire interior of the church has been re-decorated, including the addition of new pews and chancel furniture. A limited parking area has been developed west of the church.

Plans for the new addition were sketched by Arthur L. Dean, A.I.A., St. Petersburg, Fla., who drew the plans for the addition made about fifteen years ago.

Since the erection of the exterior shell late last summer, members of the congregation, both men and women, have spent many hours finishing and refinishing the interior, under the leadership of Kenneth Ryman, chairman of the building and properties committee, and Mrs. Stanley Shewman, chairman of the planning and decor committee.

The dedication service will include a dedication of the people at 10:30 a.m. with the sermon by the District Executive Secretary, the Rev. Carroll M. Petry; a basket dinner at noon for everyone, and the dedication of the building and furnishings at 2:30 p.m. with the Rev. Ralph D. McFadden, a former pastor and now a member of the denomination's General Staff at Elgin, Ill., giving the sermon.

Pastor Zunkel and the congregation extend an invitation to everyone in the area to participate in the day's celebration, including the noon carry-in meal.

Easter egg hunts set

Easter egg hunts have been planned in Akron and Mentone for the fun of local youngsters.

Akron's annual Chamber of Commerce sponsored egg hunt will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, April 21, in the town park. Prizes will be awarded in various categories.

All children of the Mentone community up to grade six are invited to participate in an Easter egg hunt Saturday afternoon, April 21, from 1 to 2 p.m.

Maundy Thursday services set

The Mentone, Talma, Burket and Beaver Dam United Methodist churches will unite for Maundy Thursday services, including a sacrificial supper and holy communion.

A committee of lay people from the four churches has planned a special Holy Week Communion service with a sacrificial supper at the Mentone United Methodist Church Thursday, April 19, at 7 p.m.

The people seated around the table will try to remember the experience of the original 12 disciples as they sat at the table with Jesus during that original Lord's supper in the upper room in Jerusalem. The United Methodist practice open communion and all who love Christ as Lord and Saviour are invited to participate, according to the committee.

Nursery service will be provided for preschoolers.

Plan Good Friday Service

The Henry Township Union Good Friday services will be conducted Friday, April 20, at 1:30 p.m. in the Silver Creek Church of God with the Rev. Forrest Carlson, a former pastor of the Akron Church of God, speaking.

Special music will be presented by two of the churches.

The Rev. George Reser of the Silver Creek Church of God is in charge of arrangements for this annual combined service for all churches in the township.

Mentone cemetery updating

The Mentone cemetery is currently undergoing an improvement program that includes having new roads constructed and new lots marked, according to an announcement by Jerry Secrist, chairman of the cemetery and park boards.

Secrist said the board plans to eliminate all trees and shrubs that are not in the line of monuments and asks lot owners to assist this plan by moving any shrubs or bushes that are located elsewhere. Anyone having questions should contact him in Mentone or leave a message at King's Furniture Store by April 15.

It is hoped all the work can be completed by Memorial Day.

Kite Flying Contest Set Saturday

A kite flying contest for all boys, girls, moms and dads in the Akron community has been set Saturday, April 14, from 2 to 4 p.m. at the J and D Co., west of Akron.

The company hopes to make the contest an annual affair.

Trophies will be presented to the owner of the highest flying and the most original kite.

All kites must be made by the entrant.

Henry Farm Bureau Amateur Contest Set

The Henry Township Farm Bureau Amateur Contest will be conducted April 23rd at 8:00 p.m. in the Akron library. Cash prizes will be given.

Anyone wishing to enter should contact Mrs. Orville Ellis by phoning 893-4963.

Indiana Lions Clubs Raise Funds For $750,000 Machine

Indiana's 18,000 Lions have so far raised $525,000 towards the purchase of a 40 million electron volt linear accelerator which will be the focus for one of the world's primary centers for the radiation therapy of cancer at the Indiana University Medical Center in Indianapolis.

Dr. Glenn W. Irwin Jr., dean of the Indiana University School of Medicine, described the Indiana Lions' fund campaign as "... one of the most outstanding examples of private philanthropy and dedication to public service ever achieved in Indiana and, for that matter, the entire nation."

Dr. Joseph C. Dusard of Bedford, president of the Indiana Lions Cancer Control Foundation drive as "... the desire of the Lions of Indiana to see that the cancer victims in our state will have the best possible chance for survival in those cases where radiation therapy is the best treatment."

The 40 million electron volt accelerator, the first of its kind in the world, generates an intense beam of very high energy radiation. The beam, precisely focused on the patient's tumor, destroys cancer cells.

The $750,000 device will be installed in a new underground radiation therapy center that is now under construction immediately adjacent to the Indiana University hospital. Estimates are that the accelerator will be installed within the next 15 months and be in operation within two years.

In a report to the Indiana Lions, Dr. Ned Hornback, chairman of radiation therapy at the Indiana medical school, said that the accelerator and special optional equipment will make the new center unique in the world for radiation therapy of cancer.

AKRON/MENTONE NEWS
April 12, 1973

EDITOR, AKRON-MENTONE NEWS, PARENTS, TAXPAYERS:

Attention of the reader should be directed to the re-printing of a public notice published March 22, 1973. This notice by the school board states that the taxpayer has a right to petition for a public hearing before a lease agreement is approved.

NOTICE OF EXECUTION OF LEASE BETWEEN TIPPECANOE VALLEY SCHOOL BUILDING CORPORATION AND TIPPECANOE VALLEY SCHOOL CORPORATION

Pursuant to action duly taken on March 20, 1973, a lease with Tippecanoe Valley School Building Corporation, in the form submitted to said meeting, was authorized and approved by the Board of School Trustees of Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation. The lease in said form was executed on behalf of Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation on March 20, 1973.

Fifty or more taxpayers in Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation (other than those who pay poll tax only) who will be affected by the Lease and who may be of the opinion that no necessity exists for the execution of such lease, or that the proposed rental provided for therein is not fair and reasonable rental, may file a petition in the office of the Auditor of Fulton County or the Auditor of Kosciusko County within thirty (30) days, setting forth their objections thereto and facts showing that the execution of said lease is unnecessary and undue, or that the lease rental is not fair and reasonable, as the case may be. Upon the filing of any such petition the County Auditor will certify a copy thereof to the State Board of Tax Commissioners. The State Board of Tax Commissioners will hold a hearing thereon at a time and place within Fulton County or Kosciusko County to be fixed by said State Board of Tax Commissioners.

Dated this 21st day of March, 1973.

TIPPECANOE VALLEY SCHOOL CORP.

John W. McKee, Secretary
Board of School Trustees

What does this mean? It means that if I and 49 other taxpayers of TVSC feel that if 8 million dollars is to be spent for a high school that we do not need; we have the right to stop it for a public hearing by the State Board of Tax Commissioners.

I intend to file this petition. It is my right to do so as a taxpayer.

Read the Public Notice of March 22, 1973 again.

I am going to file. What are the rest of you going to do?

Come to my office or to the office of Dr. V. C. Miller and sign.

We do not like to be intimidated by this school board and we trust that you do not like it either.

Many have already signed.

If we must give up our high school and our children must be bused, let us bus them to Rochester. At least they will be on a safe road!

NEW BOOKS

BELL MEMORIAL LIBRARY

New books at the Bell Memorial Public Library include:

THE DIABETIC GOURMET by Angela Bowen, M.D. A doctor's guide for the diabetic, with recipes and information applicable for good eating habits for the entire family.

JOHNNY, WE HARDLY KNEW YE, by Kenneth O'Donnell and David Powers. Written by the only two men who remained John Fitzgerald Kennedy's closest confidants from the beginning, here's a startling account of Kennedy's career from his first campaign to his tragic assassination.

NO PAT ANSWERS by Eugene Price. If you have always believed the "pat" theory that those who disobey God are going to suffer tragedies, disappointments, pain, hardships and that those who obey will somehow be protected, then this book may shock you. In this book the author has developed what she considers one of the biggest restrictions Christian believers have put upon their Lord - "Pat Answers" - which do not jibe with the way life is.

NOTHING TO MAKE A SHADOW by Faye Lewis. The delightful story of the early homesteading experiences of the author and her family in South Dakota in the early 1900s. How strange were the people, the land and the way of life in that barren country at the end of the railroad.

BRIDE OF ISRAEL, MY LOVE by Richard Llewellyn. A powerful story of love, hate and passion, set against a background of intrigue and conflict as the state of Israel struggles to maintain itself among the hostile and arid desert sands.

BURNT OFFERINGS by Robert Marasco. A novel of the supernatural, this is a tale of mounting horror, of menace and malevolence, of seduction and possession.

STRANGERS IN COMPANY by Jane Aiken Hodge. When Marian Frenche signs on as a companion to rich, unstable young Stella Marten for a tour of classical Greece, she is plunged right into a deadly maze of political intrigue and murder.

60 YEARS AGO

There is yet some due on Rev. Krauss' salary. Since he has stood so manfully for all of our interests, it behooves every man to see that that salary is paid in full every cent. He would certainly do as much for us.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weaver have sold their little farm home east of town to James Hart who will occupy it soon. The Weaver family have purchased the old Peter Noyer property. This property embraces two lots, with improvements on one. On the other they will build a neat bungalow cottage this summer and thus add another house in that neighborhood as well as improve that part of town. We welcome these people back to Akron.

Mrs. Thurman Smith entertained the "Ben Hur" and "Queen Esther" classes of the Mt. Hope Sunday school Sunday in honor of her daughter Lena's 19th birthday. All were taken to the dining room where they enjoyed a sumptuous dinner. The afternoon was spent in music and outdoor games. Present were Cora Zimmerman, Emma Utter, Bertha Wines, Ethel Deardorff, Pearl Quick, Vleda Putnam, Grace Smith, Glen Smith, Blanche Smith, Ruth Kern, Mae Kern, Pearl Freels of Leiters Ford, Sumner Rhodes, Estle Ginn, Clyde Graham, Lee Coplen, Garrett Ginn, Floyd Deardorff and Chester Clemans, all of Rochester. A fine time was reported by all.

Daniel Slaybaugh closed his third term at Prairie Union last Friday and Saturday morning packed his grip and departed for Bloomington to enter the University for the summer. Daniel understands that qualifications bring good positions and higher salary, both at the same time. This makes four from Akron at that place.

The Famous Akron Jonah Club was featured in the Fort Wayne News-Sentinel of March 20, and a full page of pictures appeared in the rotogravure section. The picture showed Mrs. Forrest Higgins and Mrs. Ronald Richards adding the "essence of bluegill" to the fish batter, Ralph Tucker performing the "square and triangle folds" upon the advice of fellow Jonah Club members Roy Jones, Orville Ellis, Maynard Summe, Harold Norman and Forest Higgins. Other pictures were the fish fry line, Tucker, Summe and Mollenhour, State Patrolman Estil Bemenderfer, pouring a drink of tomato juice and Lyndes Latimer supervising the salting of the fish. Marjorie Barnhart wrote the accompanying article, which told the history of the organization, and quoted the vice-king-fish, "If we get some money we can't get rid of, we call a meeting and eat up the profits."

Mrs. Abe Caldwell accompanied Linda Lou Lukens to Chicago Wednesday where she posed for a commercial advertisement.

Area firemen become

By Ann Sheetz

Any man volunteering to become a member of the Burket or Mentone fire departments automatically becomes part of a highly skilled fish fry team.

For the past eleven years, the Burket Volunteer Fire Department Inc. has had a carry-out fish fry on the first Saturday night of each fall and winter month. When they first started frying fish, they used about 300 pounds each night but the popularity of the monthly event has pushed sales to around 700 pounds.

Money from the Burket fish fries has been used to buy C. B. radios for the fire trucks, since replaced with township funded two-way FM radios. A few years ago, the firemen purchased and remodeled the building that is now known as the Firemen's Civic Center, site of several regular meetings including the Scouts, who are sponsored by the firemen. In addition, the Burket department also sponsors and maintains two cabins at McClure Lake for Boys Camp during the summer.

Two of the department's latest projects have included having a four-inch well drilled at a cost of more than $2,000 and having a larger electrical entrance installed at the fire station to provide better service at fish fries. They also sponsor many small projects, according to Fire Chief John Huff.

Officers of the Burket department include John Huff, chief; Claude Swick, captain; Tom Herendeen, treasurer, and Bill Leininger, secretary.

The Mentone Fire Department entered the fish fry business several years ago, selecting the third Saturday night of each month for their fund-raising event.

Proceeds from the Mentone fish fries have enabled the department to purchase equipment necessary to operate fully as a fire department without having to ask taxpayers to fund it. They have purchased rescue operators, automobile extrication tools such as air cutting tools, portable power tools, come-alongs, etc., which, according to firemen, enable the department to extricate injured people from wrecked cars. Other equipment purchased includes two-way radios in all the trucks and at the base station.

partment, assisted by Gilbert Griffis. Kenneth Bush is treasurer.

Twice a year, department members invite their families for a special meal in order to show their appreciation to their wives for answering the fire telephones and assisting in many other ways.

In addition, the Mentone department contributes to worthwhile organizations and assists needy people. It also supplies a Santa Claus for the community on Christmas Eve.

Lots of work? You bet. Handling all those fish, starting with them in frozen blocks and proceeding through the dipping, frying and selling stages is hard work and there is still clean-up duty later.

All of this is in addition to their regular jobs, fire fighting work and routine fire meetings in which equipment is kept up-to-date.

Being a fireman is no small job -- especially when you must also become expert at frying fish.

SLICING AND DIPPING FISH at Burket are Shorty Keifer, Frank Swick, Dick Shepherd, Guy Baker and Alton Bruner.

Electric waste-watching isn't a big thing... it's a lot of little things:

There's no shortage of electric power in our area. But, waste of power not only adds to your electric bill but, also wastes natural resources. Here are six little ways you can help save.

Keep fins behind the exhaust grill of your refrigerator dust-free by vacuuming often.

For a real energy-saving bonus, dry the kid's wet tennis shoes and boots in front of your refrigerator's warm air exhaust.

Close the damper when it's not in use. Left open, it draws out heated air, makes your furnace blower run longer, and wastes electricity.

Set your electric water heater thermostat at either 150 or slightly above the "normal" setting. Higher setting wastes heat—and electricity.

Hold dishes until there's a full load, which costs no more to wash than a partial load. Save on hot water, detergent and electricity.

Closing draperies at night can save up to 16% of the heat lost through windows.

Cover pots and pans when cooking on electric surface units, permitting a lower heat setting. Retains food flavor, too.

One drip per second will waste 700 gallons of water in a year. If it's heated electrically, that's money down the drain.

From the Living Bible

"Rejoice greatly, O my people! Shout with joy! For look—your King is coming! He is the Righteous One, the Victor! Yet he is lowly, riding on a donkey's colt! I will disarm all peoples of the earth, including my people in Israel, and he shall bring peace among the nations. His realm shall stretch from sea to sea, from the river to the ends of the earth. I have delivered you from death in a waterless pit because of the covenant I made with you, sealed with blood. Come to the place of safety, all you prisoners, for there is yet hope! I promise right now, I will repay you two mercies for each of your woes!

Lenten Drama To Be Featured At Center Church

The Indiana Central Players, under the direction of Richard A. Williams, Chairman of the Speech and Drama Department, will present the Lenten drama "Christ In The Concrete City" in churches throughout Indiana during the Lenten season, including a 7:45 p.m. presentation on April 15 at the Silver Lake Center Church, which is located on SR 15, two miles north of Silver Lake.

The play, performed by a cast of six, attempts to portray the Passion of Christ from three points of view. First, it is the story of something that happened. The actors step into and out of actual historical characters. Secondly, the story of the Passion is one of universal significance, speaking timelessly to all mankind. Here the cast acts as a chorus, as a unit with a number of voices, rather than as a group of individuals. Finally, the Crucifixion and Resurrection are events of personal significance speaking intimately to the individual in the secret places of his own soul and urging him to action here and now. Consequently, there is a third level of action that tries to show the modern equivalent of the events of ideas brought out in the other themes.

Christ In The Concrete City has been presented throughout the world, in small country churches and in huge cathedrals. Wherever it has been presented, it has been widely acclaimed and enthusiastically received.

1994	235,000
1995	250,000
1996	265,000
1997	275,000

The bonds are redeemable prior to maturity at the option of the Corporation, in whole or in part and in inverse numerical order (a) on any interest payment date not earlier than July 1, 1979, from funds other than proceeds of any borrowing made for such purpose, or (b) on any interest payment date not earlier than January 1, 1984, from any moneys made available for that purpose, at face value plus the following premiums:

- 4% if redeemed on July 1, 1979, or thereafter on or before July 1, 1983;
 - 3% if redeemed on January 1, 1984, or thereafter on or before July 1, 1988;
 - 2% if redeemed on January 1, 1989, or thereafter on or before July 1, 1993;
 - 1% if redeemed on January 1, 1994, or thereafter prior to maturity;
- plus in each case accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption, on 15 days' previous notice in a newspaper or financial journal published in the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, and in one (1) such newspaper or financial journal published in the City of Chicago, Illinois, and the notices to the holders of registered bonds. Interest on the bonds so called for redemption will cease on the redemption date fixed in said notice if funds are available at the place of redemption to redeem the bonds so called on the date fixed in said notice, or thereafter when presented for payment.

Each bid must be for all of said First Mortgage Bonds and must state the rate or rates of interest which, the bonds are to bear, stated in multiples of 1/8th or 1/10th of 1%. No rate shall exceed 12%. Bids specifying two or more interest rates shall specify the amount and maturities of the bonds bearing each rate, but all bonds maturing on the same date shall bear the same rate. Bids shall set out the total amount of interest payable over the term of the bonds and the net interest cost on the bonds covered by the bid. No bid for less than the face value of said bonds, including accrued interest from the date thereof to the date of delivery, will be considered. The bonds will be awarded to the highest qualified bidder who has submitted his bid in accordance herewith. The highest bidder will be the one who offers the lowest net interest cost to the Corporation, to be determined by computing the total interest on all of the bonds to their maturities and deducting therefrom the premium bid, if any. No conditional bids will be considered. Bids may not be conditioned upon the printing of CUSIP numbers on the bonds. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. If an acceptable bid is not received for the First Mortgage Bonds on the date of sale herebefore fixed, the sale may be continued from day to day thereafter, during which time no bids for less than the highest bid received at the time of the advertised sale will be considered.

Each bid must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Corporation and marked on the outside for First Mortgage Bonds, and must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check in the amount of $35,800 payable to the Corporation and a guaranty of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid is accepted and the bidder fails to make up and pay for the bonds. The checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned immediately following the award of the First Mortgage Bonds.

The successful bidder shall make payment to Parmesan State Bank, Indiana, as Trustee, for the bonds and accept delivery thereof from said Trustee within five days after being notified that the bonds are ready for delivery, at such bank in the City of Chicago, Illinois, or in the City of Indianapolis, Indiana as the successful bidder may designate. The First Mortgage Bonds will be ready for delivery within 30 days after the date of sale, if the Corporation fails to have the bonds ready for delivery prior to the close of banking hours on the thirtieth day after the date of sale, the bidder may secure the release of his bid upon request in writing, filed with the Corporation.

The unqualified approving opinion of Ice Miller Donadio & Ryan, bond counsel of Indianapolis, Indiana, together with a transcript of the proceedings relating to the issuance of said bonds, printed bond forms with the legal title, designation, and closing papers in the usual form showing no litigation questioning the validity of the bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder at the expense of the Corporation.

Tippecanoe Valley School Building Corporation was organized for the purpose of 22 years or less, as a school building to Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation. All action has been taken and the bonds are issued in compliance with the provisions of the Indiana Code of 1971, Title 21, Article 5, Chapter 11, formerly Chapter 273 of the Acts of 1947. The bonds will be subject to a trust indenture to the Farmers State Bank, Menteone, Indiana, and will be subject to the terms and provisions of said indenture.

The property to be covered by the indenture has been leased for a period of 22 years to the aforesaid Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation at an annual rental of $298,000, plus the payment of taxes and assessments, which rental is payable semi-annually on June 27 and December 27 in each year, commencing with the completion of the school building to be erected thereon on or July 1, 1975, which ever date is later. All orders shall be subject to the provisions of the above mentioned trust indenture, lease and the provisions of the aforesaid Indiana Code of 1971, Title 21, Article 5, Chapter 11.

Said bonds constitute an indebtedness only of Tippecanoe Valley School Building Corporation, payable in accordance with the terms of the above mentioned indenture and the provisions of the aforesaid Indiana Code of 1971, Title 21, Article 5, Chapter 11. Under the provisions of the governing statute, the First Mortgage Bonds and the interest thereon are exempt from all taxation in Indiana, except, however, inheritance taxes. In the opinion of bond counsel, under the existing federal statutes, decisions, regulations, and rulings, and interest on the First Mortgage Bonds is exempt from federal income tax.

Further information relative to said issue may be obtained upon application to H. J. Umbaugh & Associates, Post Office Box F, Plymouth, Indiana 46563, financial advisor to the corporation, or Robert H. Forbush, Esq., attorney for the corporation, Post Office Box 524, Rochester, Indiana 46785, or Robert H. Forbush, Esq., attorney for the corporation, Post Office Box 524, Rochester, Indiana 46785.

If bids are submitted by mail, they should be addressed to the Corporation, attention of H. J. Umbaugh & Associates, Farmers State Bank Building, Menteone, Indiana 46539.

Dated this 2nd day of April, 1973,

Michael F. Nelson, Secretary
Tippecanoe Valley School Building Corporation

Jean Roberts asked when the school would be named and was told, "Sometime." When she asked how the students were supposed to order class rings, she was told by board president Maurice Coplen that the school would eventually be named and that he was certain the ring companies would be patient in waiting for the students' orders. She also suggested the student councils of Akron and Mentone high schools be given permission to meet to plan school colors and mascot. She was told that some form of getting the student's opinion would be sought. She also asked when teachers' contracts would come up for renewal and was given no specific answer although Superintendent Forbes said teachers are on continual contracts.

A financial report by Forbes showed $1,446, 713.23 in all funds, with $1,402,900 in investment.

Wayne Cumberland was given a supplemental contract for intramural activity.

Forbes announced the basketball schedule for 1974-75, the first year in the proposed school, has been set. Included are Argos, Rochester, No. Miami, Whitko, Northfield, Laville, Caston, Lewis Cass, Winamac, Wawasee, Triton, Maconaquah, Manchester, Southwood, Culver, Northwood, Bremen and Jimtown with a holiday tourney at Culver. The schedule includes nine home and nine away games.

Forbes said a special meeting will probably be called April 9. Dr. John McKee requested that discussion of the policy manual be placed on the agenda of the April 16 regular meeting.

Present at the meeting were Forbes, Dr. McKee, Richard Goshert, Coplen, Philip Lash, H. J. Umbaugh, Rakestraw, and members of the building corporation, Ed Creighton, Maurice Peterson, Jay Swick, Mike Nelson and Paul Fites.

School Board approves lease agreement

The Tippecanoe Valley School board executed a lease with the school building corporation Monday night that calls for yearly payments of $298,000 for approximately 20 years. The 12-page agreement was presented by school attorney Frederick Rakestraw. Petitions may be filed protesting the action, according to a legal notice published in this week's NEWS.

In addition, at Rakestraw's suggestion, the board approved a petition for appointment of three appraisers for the actual land on which the proposed high school will be built and the access route (approximately two acres.) Also granted was authorization for signing of contracts of behalf of the school corporation.

Members of the Mentone Merry 4-H Club requested use of three buses to transport members to Rock Lake for a skating party. Permission was denied on the basis of an Indiana statute that forbids use of school buses by 4-H clubs.

Max Johnson presented a petition that he said bore the signatures of parents and other interested persons who requested the dismissal of Mentone coach Jim Weber. The petition was made a part of the minutes but no action was taken.

The petition, a matter of public record once it was presented, and the names of those who signed it can be found

Mentone United Methodist Church Sponsors "March On Missions"

"You will be missing much if you miss the mission march in March," is a statement taken from the February issue of the Interpreter. It sometimes takes a catch phrase to catch people's attention when something special is being planned at local and surrounding United Methodist churches say members of the Mentone United Methodist Church, sponsors of the "March of Missions" as they issue the following invitation:

"Please march with us to the Beaver Dam Church of March 25 at 7:30 p.m. to hear Harold Amstutz, a native of Indiana who was a long-time pilot and mechanic before becoming a missionary to the African nation of Zaire. He and his wife Virginia graduated from Ft. Wayne Bible College before becoming missionaries, spending the next six years at Kapang, Zaire, flying supplies, missionaries, sick people, medicines and mail over the southern part and keeping the planes running and the 19 bush airstrips usable. His wife helped by operating the radio and doing the paper work involved in aircraft operation.

Rev. Roy Severance

"It will be 'ladies' day" on March 28 at 1:30 p.m. at the Mentone church as they meet to hear Rev. Roy Severance bring news of a neighbor state, Kentucky. As Director of Development and Missions to the Cumberlands, he will tell about two Advance projects, Henderson Settlement and Red Bird Mission. He specializes in building churches and working with young people and has served pastorates in Vermont, New York and Kentucky. He will speak again in the evening at 7:30 at Talma.

Irwin Lewis' busy schedule allows him only one night to participate in the conference—March 29, at 7:30 p.m. at the Mentone church. A black man coming from a city whose population is 55% black, he will give some insights of intercity and minority groups, dealing with cooperative programs, services and recreation.

The speaker on Friday night will be Mrs. Dorinda Guillermo, a native of the Philippines, who is currently director of Christian Education at the First United Methodist Church in West Lafayette. A Deaconess in the United Methodist Church, she has served on the staff of the Conference School of Christian Missions at Epworth Forest. Especially adept at working with children and young people, she came to America in 1962 and has since made 400 appearances speaking about the Philippines to finance her college education.

Rev. Peter Buller

Men of the community will look forward to meeting an old friend, the Rev. Peter Buller, at breakfast on Saturday, March 31, at 7:30 a.m. He served as pastor at the Beaver Dam and Burket churches in 1964-65 while on furlough from Zaire. A graduate of Goshen College, he currently holds the position of visiting professor in French and Religion at Bluffton College in Ohio.

Rev. Leslie McKown

When the Rev. Leslie McKown comes to the local church Saturday evening, March 31, at 7:30 members will see his unusual presentation of slides, in which he uses two projectors and two screens. A native of Indiana, he graduated from Evansville High School and College and Boston University. He is married to the Director of Christian Education in the United Methodist Church. After serving as pastor of several Indiana churches, he spent two years at Gatun Union Church, Panama Canal Zone, and is presently at Terre Haute's Grace United Methodist Church. He has traveled in Mexico, England, Scotland, Nicaragua, Europe, Middle East, Costa Rica and Guatemala.

Paul Kasambiri

Paul Kasambiri is a familiar name to the people at the Mentone church because he is listed in the Missionary Advance Specials and also because he is partially supported by one of the adult Sunday School classes that makes a point of taking two offerings each Sunday. One of ten children and the other half of a set of twins, he will eat breakfast with the youth Sunday, April 1, at 7 a.m. His father was a United Methodist minister for 33 years. After attending an American Methodist Mission High School in Rhodesia, Paul started teaching. Because of his financial situation, he spent several years as a teacher and trainer of teachers before coming to Taylor University at Upland. With him in the states are his wife and 16 month-old son who are happy to be here but who are looking forward to the time when he can go back to Africa and teach. He will share his life's story during the 9:30 worship service at Mentone and immediately will go to Talma to be there for the 10:45 a.m. service.

Bringing the March of Missions to a close will be Rev. Yung Sheng Chen, a native of Taiwan and third generation Christian, on the evening of April at 7:30 p.m. at the Burket United Methodist Church. Before coming to the U.S. in 1955, he spent eight years as a missionary to the Taiwan mountain people, to a leper colony and did evangelistic work among the natives. Several pastorates in Indiana have had the benefit of his services as have the School of Missions in both South East Asia and China. He likes sports and is very active in community and church affairs, sings, directs choirs and collects pictures of Christ and New Testaments.

Rev. Yung Sheng Chen

Fay Whetstone, publicity chairman of the Mentone United Methodist Church, says, "Circle these dates on your calendar and remember 'if you're missing from missions the mission is missing.'"

The Donor

By Chuck Barnes
Lions Eye Bank Chairman

The month of March is eye bank month nationwide. Most of the Eye Banks are funded by Lions. Our basic program is to get eye donors and set up collection centers. The only way we can get donors is by letting the public know about our program. The only way we can get collection centers, is by the help of the Lions of Indiana.

The following poem I felt fit very well what I am trying to say. It is titled "The Donor" and was written by D. Wilder, R. N. who works with an ophthalmologist in Watertown, N. Y.

My eyes have seen the glory
Of a sunset on the bay,
And the spectacles of nature

And a group of kids at play.

I have witnessed the miracle
Of a baby's birth at dawn,

On God, that someone Might see and carry on.

I have seen the panorama
Of the seasons as they change,

And walked along the seashore
And climbed a lofty mountain range.

I feel a patriotic tingle
When I see the flag unfurled,

Oh God, that someone else may see
The beauty of your world.

My soul will leave my body
When my eyes are closed in death,

And my life will then be over
With the stillness of my breath.

I'll leave no mark of eminence
I'm neither skilled nor wise,

But God, please give another soul
A chance to use my eyes.

Let's go to work!

Un-named school still un-named

The un-named high school to be built for the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation is still un-named after four members of the TVSC board failed to reach an agreement in an executive session during Monday night's school board meeting. Absent was board president Maurice Coplen.

asserted the responsibility of the library media center was to provide materials and background information of all kinds, including opposing sides of controversial issues and representative of the many religious, cultural and ethnic groups. The two-page policy was described as a routine necessary to comply with the government's regulations.

The board discussed the policy manual at length, making some changes in substitute teacher pay and other matters not identified except by policy number.

During this policy manual discussion, Dr. John McKee, at whose suggestion students in the TVSC schools had submitted three names for the new school, suggested that the name decision should be reached. The suggestion was tabled until a later executive session, but the board reported a failure to reach a decision.

In other board action, members heard a list of teachers who will go on tenure with their next contract and adopted a school calendar for 1973-74 that can be found in this edition of the NEWS.

Forbes discussed football equipment to be purchased with school athletic funds and said preliminary work was being done to have a team ready to play for the new school within a few years.

The board met in executive session prior to the public meeting, meeting at that time with the principals of the various schools.

The next meeting will be April 24 at 2 p.m. in the superintendent's office when the bonds for the new school will be sold.

Forbes said he did not expect to anticipate remonstrance to affect the school very much, saying at most it would only slow it a bit. He

A petition asking for a special hearing on the proposed lease between the Tippecanoe Valley School Building Corporation and the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation was filed with Fulton County Auditor Ernest Walters Wednesday.

During the meeting, conducted by vice-president Richard Goshert, board members heard a financial report from Superintendent Robert Forbes that showed a total of $1,371,328.96 in all funds with $1,255,000 of this invested. The investments are expected to earn $68,475 in interest, Forbes said.

The board approved a policy for selection of media materials under Title II in which the corporation affirmed and

Mentone sets clean up day

April 28 has been set as "Clean Up Day" in Mentone and members of the town board urge all residents to co-operate in helping spruce up the town.

The sanitation contractor, Trash-A-Way of Culver, has promised to bring a large truck to haul away the debris.

The board reminds that this is not a regular trash pick-up but a once a year clean-up.

They also remind that no garbage is to be left--the pick up is for trash only.

Flying Farmers Meet At Mentone

Eighty-five members of the Indiana Flying Farmers met Sunday at the Mentone airport.

After a smorgasbord dinner at Teel's restaurant, the group viewed slides taken during the Mentone Flying Club trip to Alaska that were shown by Harrison Crabill.

THE EASTER BUNNY, in the form of a pinata, was created last week by two Mentone Brownie leaders to surprise the girls in the Brownie troop. Well filled with candy and goodies, the giant rabbit was covered with pink crepe paper--47 rows of it. Leader Lou Teel said the first row took a half hour to put in place. All that work and it's a safe guess the girls had the poor rabbit split open in no time flat.

CLEAN UP AKRON: Members of Akron Girl Scout Troop 221 and the Brownies are shown here as they cleaned up Akron Wednesday afternoon. They were also assisted by the Cadettes who are not pictured. The Girl Scouts cleaned the downtown area while the Brownies are shown at work in the parking lot area.

Church of God Plans Special Easter Events

Easter Sunday will be a very special day at the Akron Church of God with various programs and activities planned throughout the day.

A Sunrise Service is planned at 6:30 a.m. Three young adults, Denise Saner, Merlin Fish and Dale Thomason, will speak on various subjects, and the youth choir will sing. Scott Slaybaugh will lead the congregation in singing hymns. The youth will then have a breakfast together in the church basement.

Sunday School will follow at 9:30 and morning worship will be at 10:25. Everyone is invited to attend these services and would be most welcome, say members.

The sanctuary choir will present an Easter cantata at 7:30 p. m. The cantata, "Glory to the Lamb," by Norman Johnson, is under the direction of Ray Bradway. It is a cantata of Negro spirituals that are woven together to tell the story of the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ. Slides depicting these significant events have been arranged by Paul Eiler to be shown in conjunction with the program.

Everyone is invited to participate in this service, also.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING. . . .

The following editorial by William Mollenhour was broadcast on WRSW on March 20:

Many is the time I have sat in a box at the Indianapolis Speedway and heard them open the great 500 miler with the song, "Back Home Again In Indiana." When you are in Indiana, it is just another pretty song. When you have been away a while as we have been, "Back Home In Indiana" takes on a special meaning. It has been my privilege in the news profession over the past 35 years or so, to travel to most parts of the United States and yes, the world. But I have never found that special place where I would rather be than back home again in Indiana, except for an interesting vacation or to flee the cold of the worst of our winters.

Now that we are back and I am settled comfortably into this familiar studio with the microphone, the switches, the teletypes I know so well, it is a good feeling. I have taken a quick look around the community since arriving back last night, and find things improving and yet strangely the same. Give you one example. Apparently the long drawn out battle for the Tippecanoe Valley High School is over and the thing will be built. But darned if they aren't arguing over the name now. The powers that be asked the kids what name they wanted and the kids responded with Tippecanoe Valley, geographically descriptive of the area and has a nice musical ring to it. But by golly they are having a bit of donkey brook over that too. Personally, I think the kids are right. It's a nice name -- Tippecanoe Valley -- even historical.

Now I say this factitiously, ingood fun and not to be taken seriously, but for those of you familiar with the song and in light of the history of the TVSC squabbles, they could appropriately name it the "Harper Valley PTA." Now having gotten off to a good start by getting immediately into trouble, we'll talk tomorrow about "how to recognize a big shot."

It seems that more hitch racks are needed in Rochester, and the Sun and some other people including some of business men want the county commissioners to bear three fourths of the expense. That is gall with whisksers on. Akron needs hitching racks and hitching room and Akron belongs to the county the same as does Rochester. But our Akron merchants little dream of asking the whole county to bear the expense of putting them up or any part of the expense. Whenever the Sun or any other newspaper asks the taxpayers of the county to erect hitching racks that paper exceeds proper courtesy to the rest of the county outside of Rochester.

For the past three or four years, the potato growers of Fulton county with their zeal for their particular crop have been changing the potato map of the country. Indiana has moved up from twenty-seventh place to seventeenth place in potato production in recent years, and Fulton county enjoys the distinction of being the center of attraction. Deac Stauffer and his many prizes and records and Whit Gast with his championship yields, as well as many other extra good growers of reknown, are the contributing factors.

The hot beds in east Akron, managed for the past eight years by Whit Gast, have been taken over by Bill Thompson for the 1934 season. Heat was started in the beds on March 10 and the beds are now filled with small seedlings which will be ready for the gardener when the season arrives for each particular kind of plant.

Attend Special Services in Decatur

By Rev. Claude Fawns

Mrs. Helen Utter and the Rev. and Mrs. Claude Fawns were in Decatur Sunday where they attended special Palm Sunday services in the First United Methodist Church of which the Rev. Harold Leininger is senior minister. The featured speaker was Bishop Ralph T. Alton, Bishop of the Indiana area. The new District Superintendent the Rev. Benjamin E. Antle, also was present and participated in the service. The sanctuary was filled to the point of overflowing with enthusiastic worshippers.

All of the music was super, from the processional led by the children's choir waving palm branches and including all the special numbers and hymns.

At the close of the service, all the ministerial group and families and others, including the Catholic priest, retired to the parsonage where Kay, as the perfect hostess, served a delicious dinner for the whole crowd.

At 2:30 in the afternoon, we all gathered at the Belmont High School gymnasium where approximately 24 churches were represented by their ministers and members and friends of their churches--a packed house--all boosting the Kay 73 movement. An unusual musical program was presented; many ministers had some active part in the service and our Bishop Alton delivered the stirring and inspiring sermon.

Akron may well be proud of our Harold! Yes, he is a product of Akron, and is a graduate of our Akron High School, also holds degrees from Indiana University and the Perkins School of Theology. But also it was he, as head chairman of the Key 73 movement of Decatur and surrounding area, who sparked the whole thing into life, and this high day in Decatur is due to his efficient leadership.

COLORING EASTER EGGS is lots of fun for these Mentone third graders, students in Mrs. Susan Learnard's and Mrs. Lynn Caraway's classes. Of course, it is doubtful any age group has more fun than third graders do, but the exuberant expressions on some of these children shows that the time and mess of coloring 30 dozen eggs must have been worth it. In the top left picture, a girl uses a tool that inscribes lines on the egg while everyone else impatiently waits a turn. The other pictures are self-explanatory.

Bonnie Burkett creates

By Ann

Eggs keep Bonnie Burkett busy. Presenting a never-ending challenge, they make every day like the day before Easter with ordinary eggs constantly being transformed into objects of intricate beauty.

While most housewives store eggs in the refrigerator, coloring and decorating them only at Easter time, Mrs. Burkett works with them constantly. She buys them by the case, cuts doors and windows into them with a high-speed hobby saw and proceeds to convert them into jewel boxes, fairy coaches and curios.

EGGS BY BONNIE include these goose eggs. The back two were double-yolked. The one on the left has intricate snow scenes painted inside while the one on the right has been converted into a jewel box. Lined with satin, it won a prize at last year's Indiana State Fair. The egg in front is a regular goose egg. It has a hinged door in front and a gilded window in back. A bone china figurine was used inside. In the insert is a turkey egg that has been converted into a turtle that opens to reveal a frog.

Although she gives many talks at area clubs and has twice appeared on television with her eggs, Mrs. Burkett says her greatest satisfaction comes from seeing something she has designed and created with her own hands.

And the eggs are solely her own work since her right hand man--her husband--quit opening them for her a few years ago after cutting into two rotten ones. She now does the entire process herself, first, carefully sketching the location of doors and windows with pencils and then cutting them with the saw. The high speed of the saw prevents chipping and breaking. After the eggs are emptied and carefully cleaned, they may be covered with eight-eleven layers of colored lacquer or may be coated with natural lacquer, depending on the type of egg she is working with and on the desired finished product. Some eggs, she feels, are beautiful enough without having extra color added. She works mostly with infertile eggs, sometimes doing as many as 200-300 at one time.

She enjoys working with goose eggs and is proud of the double-yolk goose egg jewel box that won an award at last year's Indiana State Fair. Since geese lay only in the spring, she devotes these months to working with those eggs. Some are painted on the inside, others are lined with satin. All are weighted to make them more durable. In fact, she says, between the lacquering and the weighting, they are not nearly as fragile as they seem, and she reports few are broken.

Each egg's doors are hinged, a time-consuming job that must be carefully done. The hinges are smoothly functional, too, a tribute to the detail she puts into each egg.

The Akron housewife uses only quality trimming and decorations in creating her "Eggs by Bonnie." "If they are to be collector's items, they have to be made of good materials," she says. "Plastic decorations would only cheapen them." She obtains most of her bases and miniature objects from her sister-in-law in New York, Marcia Robbins, who originally interested her in the fascinating craft.

The smaller the egg, the more difficult it is to work with, she says, noting the quail egg is the smallest she has used. She has a rhea egg that she plans to decorate and hopes someday to work with an ostrich egg, which she says is the size of a volleyball.

The Burketts own a herd of dairy cattle, and since Mr. Burkett works nights, it falls Bonnie's lot to do the milking. She laughs now when she recalls her first television appearance. She arose at 3 a.m. to do the milking and found the ground and trees glistening with a layer of ice. It was still there when she finished the milking. After repeated calls to the state police, she finally decided to make the trip to South Bend, arriving after the program had begun. With seconds to spare, she was placed before the cameras without time to get stage fright. Everything worked out better for her March 29 appearance on Homemakers Time and she feels more like a pro now.

Between her farm work, her household cares, her public appearances and her egg business, Bonnie Burkett has little time to spare, but what time she does have is spent planning new egg projects to challenge her imagination.

"It's a real challenge to see what can be done --there's just no limit," she says enthusiastically.

THE RHEA EGG, the largest Bonnie has, makes a sharp contrast with the quail egg, shown by the "door" of the rhea egg. It is the smallest she works with and is more difficult than the large. The size of the rhea egg can be determined by comparing her hands and the scale of the bride and groom that she is trying out for size.

AKRON CARNEGIE LIBRARY

AND THE HILLS SHOUTED FOR JOY by Bernard Postal and Henry W. Levy. The central theme of this book is reserved for the exhausting, unforgettable and perilous days before and after that day in May on which the dream of the state of Israel became a reality. The book is based on the papers and recollections of governments and politicians, diplomats and ordinary citizens on the scene, both Arabs and Jews.

SO SLOW THE DAWNING, by Inge Trachtenberg. This novel is set in Berlin in the 1930's, the city of the author's childhood. It is her answer to the persistent question of why the German Jews did not act sooner.

GENTLE GREAVES by Ernest Raymond. From the hand of a master storyteller comes this marvelous love story. This could be called a tale of three loves, as it deals with a boy's love for his father, a young man's passion for a beautiful, delicate girl and an old man's tender affection for his daughter.

AUGUST 1914 by Alexander Solzhenitsyn. This novel is set at the outbreak of the First World War, and its moral concern is to establish the responsibility for Russia's defeat in the battle of Tannenberg. Limiting itself to the opening two weeks of the war, the novel describes Russian offensive into East Prussia, which resulted in the encirclement and defeat of General Samsonov's Second army by Hindenberg. This disaster hosted the downfall of Czarism.

THE HIGH WIND by W.E. Butterworth. This is the story of NASCAR Racing and contains the complete 1971 Nascar International Stockcar Racing Rule Book.

SATAN IS ALIVE AND WELL ON PLANET EARTH by Hal Lindsey. Satan is Alive and Well will show you how to have the strength and authority to combat the strongest enemy we have. It is a handbook of battle strategy for every life.

Take your problems to Church this week —

"MY CHURCH" HAS A SPECIAL MEANING

When a church becomes "My Church" to people, be they children, youths or adults, that church takes on a different meaning and aspect than when it is "such and such" a denomination church. It becomes a part of that person's life, something in which he or she shares in common with neighbors and friends of the community.

"My Church" is not just a place where one attends occasionally, at Easter or Christmas Time. It is at once a place of refuge and a place of joy. It is a place of relaxation and a place of renewal of hope, strength and courage to be attended and used frequently. It is a place to rejoice in success and a place to find solace and strength in moments of grief and despair. One shares and glories in ownership and support of it and in its fellowship. In truth IT IS MY CHURCH.

Late Spring?

In case you are an old-timer, or if there is one in your family, you no doubt "know" you are going to have a late spring.

Why? Very simply. We have a late Easter this year. So, unless you live in warm climate, don't hurry along your garden and flower plantings and let them get nipped by a frost in May, for instance.

Easter, falling on April 22 this year, is about as far into the spring calculations ever permit. The latest it can be is April 25. Easter, 1886, fell on that date and so did Easter 1943.

The earliest Easter can be is March 22. It has not come on that date since 1818 and will not do so again during this or the next century.

Has Three Books On Religious Best Seller List

Lt. Col. Merlin R. Carothers, a former Claypool United Methodist Church pastor and retired Army officer, has made religious publishing history in becoming the first author to have three books on religious best seller lists simultaneously.

Carothers, a former United Methodist, left his pastorate in Claypool in 1954. He is author of "Prison to Praise," "Power in Praise," "Answers to Praise," all published by Logos International. The first book has sold more than a million copies, and the others are moving in that direction, according to the publisher.

Carothers now heads an interdenominational congregation, the North County Christian Center, in Escondido, Calif.

A TIME TO DIG AND PLANT was observed by these lively Talma sixth grade students Tuesday afternoon. In observance of Arbor Day, which came during last week's school vacation, the youngsters planted flowers and trees at the school under the direction of teacher Miss Janet Goshert.

Tippecanoe Valley churches plan Crusade

A united campaign for more active church participation is being made by many churches in the area. Called Tippecanoe Valley Crusade, the combined churches are working towards a rally to be conducted at the Mentone school from September 23-30. A banquet in June is also planned. Plans for both these events were discussed Monday night at a meeting at the Akron Church of God that was attended by representatives of the participating churches.

The Rev. Don Poyser of the Burket United Methodist Church is general chairman. Other officers include Mary Hammer, Mentone, secretary, and Leo Pike, R. 1, Claypool, publicity.

The Rev. J. D. Thomason of the Akron Church of God is evangelistic chairman. Other members of his committee are Poyser, the Rev. Walter House and Harold Lucht of the Mentone United Methodist Church and Wayne Baker, a member of the Bethlehem Baptist Church.

The Rev. Junior Bose of the Bethlehem church is prayer co-ordinator. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fugate of Mentone will be the financial chairmen. Wayne Tombaugh is in charge of properties and Wayne Baker is chairman

Featured speaker for the September rally will be Herb Bowdin, a non-denominational minister who currently has a radio program on an Elkhart station.

Further information and details concerning the rally will be an-

Marvin Lowman of Cook's Chapel is youth chairman and the Rev. Ray Bradway of the Akron Church of God will be choir chairman. Merdena Bechtol of Burket is in charge of housing.

Woman's Club to honor Akron's Senior Citizens

Senior citizens of the Akron area (those residents who admit to being over 60) will be honored at a special dinner on Thursday, May 3, at the Akron Church of the Brethren.

Hostesses for the annual event are members of the Akron Woman's Club who will prepare the 12:30 p.m. dinner and provide special entertainment.

The senior citizen committee is composed of Mrs. Norman Tinkey, chairman; Mrs. Charles Swick and Mrs. Joe Boswell.

Members of the committee planning the dinner are Mrs. Larry Klein, chairman, Mrs. Carlos McNeeley, Mrs. Winnifred Summe and Mrs. Loren Sheetz.

General Telephone To Improve Cable Facilities At Mentone

General Telephone Co. of Indiana has begun work on a $17,300 project to improve telephone cable facilities at Mentone, according to R.E. Knafel, Service Manager.

GTCI is placing telephone cable containing 100 pairs of telephone wires from Jefferson St. in Mentone, south on SR 19 to County Road 600 South.

Knafel said the new telephone cable facility will reduce the high maintenance being experienced with the existing cable. Placement of the new facilities will also enable GTC to make better telephone service available to rural customers in the Mentone area.

The project is scheduled for completion late this spring.

TVSC Bond sale halted

The sale of bonds for the new Tippecanoe Valley high school, set for April 24, was cancelled because of the petition filed with the State Board of Tax Commissioners by a group of local residents who decried "burdening the taxpayers with a huge debt for a sports complex."

Superintendent Robert Forbes said of the 73 persons who were listed on the petition, that he had determined by challenging the listed names that only 49 of the petitioners are bona fide property owners or taxpayers. Of that 49, he said, eight indicated they wished their names removed, leaving a number short of the required 50 certified tax payers that are necessary.

The bond sale was cancelled by Frederick Rakestraw, Rochester attorney who represents the school board and the holding company.

Forbes said his office had received notice that the bonds to be sold by TVSC had received an "A" rating, meaning they would sell at the best interest rate--hopefully one-fourth of one percent lower than if they had received the next highest rating. He said the bond sale delay might affect the rating.

Forbes said Wednesday a hearing has been set with the State Board of Tax Commissioners in response to the petition filed last week. It will be conducted at 10 a.m. May 9 in the Mentone gym.

He said if the tax board acts promptly, it will still be possible to at least have the school open by the September 1, 1974 target date.

Mentone sets clean up day

Residents of Mentone will clean up their town April 28, according to plans formulated by the Mentone town board.

Trash-A-Way Sanitation of Culver will bring a large truck to haul away the debris and it is hoped everyone will co-operate in this yearly clean-up crusade.

Town board members remind that this is not a regular trash pick-up.

Board members remind residents that the pick up is for trash only and that garbage is not to be left for pick up.

Any senior citizen desiring transportation can contact any member of either committee or any other club member.

Kindergarten Pre-Enrollment Planned At Mentone

Mentone school will have pre-enrollment for next year's kindergarten on Monday, April 30, at 9:30 a.m. in the school cafeteria. Children need not be present at this meeting, according to John Hurst, principal.

He reminds that parents should take their child's birth certificate to verify age.

Children must be five years old by August 1, 1973, to be eligible for kindergarten.

Assessing Reminder Issued By Henry Twp. Trustee

Henry township trustee Clair Ellis urges residents to complete their assessing by contacting him at his office daily from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. or on Saturdays and evenings by appointment.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The NEWS welcomes letters for publication but prefers that they be kept under 200 words. The letters need not express the views of this paper; however, they should not be libelous or in poor taste. Anonymous letters will not be published. The name of the writer must appear with his letter.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

We consider the statements of Charles Miller utterly ridiculous, completely undocumented, and in a word—assanine.

In reference to the statement that "we do not need a new high school" we question your qualifications to make such a judgment.

During the past two years we've realized how "cheated" the students of Akron-Mentone or Tippecanoe Valley really are. We feel that on a whole, the quality of education at Akron High School, in comparison with area schools is obviously below average. We don't believe the actual problem stems from the teachers themselves but from the conditions they have to work with. For example Akron's foreign language department consists of Latin and Spanish while most schools offer French and German in their curriculum. Basic courses such as Economics, Journalism, Business English, and conservation, etc. are not offered simply because there aren't enough students in an unconsolidated school to have a class. Students are often forced to take classes they don't need or want because nothing else is offered.

We suggest that Mr. Miller should consider the fact that if the dentistry profession had followed his type of non-progressive thinking dentists would still be pulling teeth with a string and a door knob.

If the educational standpoint isn't bad enough the extra-curricular features are hurting too. Football, wrestling, debate teams, swimming, tennis, etc. are not offered at Akron but are considered standard features at most high schools.

We were glad to see that the school board was finally waking up and building a new school unfortunately do to your petition this action may be delayed. We wonder if you have stopped to consider whether your actions are in the best interest of the students.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE TIPPECANOE VALLEY SCHOOL CORPORATION

Once again Akron's favorite pumpkin farmer, dentist and milkman have thrown a roadblock in the way of a new school. They are doing this for purely selfish reasons—not once—ever—have they considered all of the children of the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation, only their own selfish motives. When they talk about busing "if we have to bus, we'll bus to Rochester" this gives a clear insight as to who they are talking about. Practically all of the children are already being bused—only those few who live in the towns are not—but then—maybe their children are better than anyone else's).

People of T.V.S.C., arise—let these selfish dictators know exactly how you feel. Call them, write to them, sit on their front steps, whatever it takes. Let them know you are no longer going to stand for their selfish, dictatorial, intimidating methods.

We need a new school—we are so far behind the rest of Indiana, it's pathetic.

These children being affected are our future. Stop these men. You must do it and do it now. It's up to YOU to stop them. Now.

Dear Editor:

Did you know that there is a real bell behind the bell symbol of the National Association for Mental Health? It weighs 300 pounds and was cast from chains and shackles once used to restrain mental patients. The metal was melted down on April 13, 1953, in Baltimore. On the bell is inscribed these words: "Cast from shackles which bound them, this bell shall ring out hope for the mentally ill and victory over mental illness."

The Kosciusko Co. Mental Health Association is no longer a member of the United Fund. Therefore it is imperative that those people who specified portions of their contributions to the United Fund for the Mental Health Association get in touch with me.

The Kosciusko Co. Mental Health Association has speakers and films available to any group that desires more information on the many forms of mental illness. It also has a wide variety of programs such as the "Adopt-A-Patient" through which any individual may contribute.

I want to thank any and all of you who find it in your heart to make a contribution. Let's conquer Mental Illness. Give me a call, won't you?

Thomas was the son of William Whittenberger who came to this part of Indiana and settled west of Akron on a farm when wild game was plentiful, Indians were common, houses built of logs, roads were mere trails through the great forests. David was born in a log cabin in the woods near Pleasant Hill. He heard the call of his country and with his brother Joseph, enlisted on the 8th day of August 1862 for three year's service, suffered the hardships and privations of war, was in eight severe battles and was spared to return.

Attorney J. Rowley, Judge Isaiah Connor and C. C. Campbell were all in Akron Wednesday noon enroute to Warsaw, where the first suit in the late Citizens Bank troubles was set to come up Thursday. He wants possession of them but the bank has placed them to its assets. While here Judge Connor left us a wheel for which to continue this paper in his name.

Time For Regrets--Not Apologies

"This tractor cost me $10,500--how much did you pay for the pork chops you had for dinner today?"

This is not just an isolated example of today's food cost comparison--you can apply it to today's ever skyrocketing costs of an automobile, clothing, construction costs, labor, gasoline. Whether pork chops cost the consumer 49¢ a pound or a dollar and a half--the farmer is still getting short-changed. His costs to produce are increasing at a much higher rate than the monies he gets from livestock and chops produced: Feed--up, Supplements--up, Labor--up, Marketing--up.

Farm prices of food products have gone up 11% in 20 years--retail prices (what you buy at the grocery) have gone up 46%, while livestock prices have fluctuated up and down these 20 years--labor, the cost of distribution has never taken a down price--it's been continually up! Industrial workers had a 129% increase, marketing employees 148% increase, medical are up 120%--in the meantime, farmers were selling a lot of $14 hogs.

Still, the consumer blames the farmer when he should be blaming the real culprit--INFLATION.

Way back in September, 1972, Glenn Kreuscher, director, Nebraska Department of Agriculture, pointed out that if the cost of agriculture products had risen in the last 22 years in proportion with the cost of a medium-sized tractor--eggs would be $3.28 a dozen, chicken $3.10 a pound, round steak $4.05 a pound and milk $1.94 a gallon.

Farmers have nothing to apologize for--it's time for the producer and consumer to pull together--we are all in the same boat, caught in the undertow labeled inflation. It behooves each person to insist our elected officials stop continual deficit spending by the Federal Government; decrease the number of poorly handled programs, and insist on adhering to sound financial planning.

In last week's action in the Fulton Circuit Court, custody of Kenneth R. Schnitz Jr., 22, Rochester, was changed from the Fulton county jail to the Indiana Reformatory on motion of Prosecutor James Wells. He is charged on three counts--first degree burglary at the home of Steven Croussore on Aug. 29, 1972; conspiracy to commit forgery on Aug. 29, 1972, and cashing a forged bank money order for $500 at the Akron Exchange State Bank, also on Aug. 29, 1972. He was charged Nov. 8, 1972 with the first count and on Dec. 8, 1972 with the other two. Wells said Schnitz has been in the county jail since Nov. 10, 1972 and that trial is scheduled for Sept. 11, 1973 and asked that he be moved from the county jail to wait trial. The affidavits state that Schnitz conspired with another person to forge Croussore's name on a bank money order and that Schnitz then cashed the forged money order at the Akron bank.

FOR BETTER WEED CONTROL ON VARIABLE SOILS

USE

LOROX + Lasso

Time was when soils varied so did your weed control. But no more. Now you can mix LOROX linuron weed killer and LASSO* together and get consistent, uniform weed control, even if soils vary 1% to 2% in organic matter.

You'll get better control of • barnyard-grass • crabgrass • foxtails • lambs-quarters • pigweed and • ragweed. And the cost is low, too.

Meet The Mentone 4-H'ers.

For the next few weeks, the NEWS will feature members of the younger generation, specifically members of the Mentone Merry 4-H Club.

Written and prepared by the members themselves, the features will highlight the members who have helped the club win many honors and trophies.

We think you will enjoy meeting these kids.

Diana Peters, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Peters, is county junior leader and vice-president of the local girls club. She also is a cheerleader, church member and honor roll student.

She is proud of her perfect club attendance, radio interview and WKJG-TV appearance. Diana loves to perform and has done so with other club members for local extension clubs. Ceramics is her favorite craft and this year she plans to make her own mold. Diana also is aware of teenage pressures and has this to say, "Appearance or looks do not matter, but it is the inside that counts."

Joy Lucht was so scared when she appeared on the 4-H In Action television show that she told the M.C. her favorite dish of meat, which is chicken, instead of her name. Joy is one of the three girls who are trying to start a bicycle program for the youth of Mentone. She enjoys riding bicycles and believes that the area kids will enjoy it more when they know the parts, safety and games. Joy is not only active in 4-H but she also takes tumbling lessons and is a member of the United Methodist Church. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lucht.

Crafts is the favorite project of Jill Haney, 14-year old eighth grader at Talma. She enjoys making things that she can be proud of. Jill is a county junior leader and club teen leader. Besides being active in school, she has appeared on WKJG-TV, performed for local extension clubs and been interviewed for Elkhart radio.

Jill's sister, Penny, is beginning her third year of 4-H work and attends Talma Jr. High. She takes piano lessons, plays soft ball and is a Student Council member.

This year she is enrolled in three different projects and plans to compete in the county demonstration contest. Penny is a club teen leader and hopes that 4-H has helped her become a better person. The girls' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Haney.

Vows Exchanged

Mrs. Pearl R. Lackey became the bride of Philip A. Egolf at 2:30 p.m. Easter Sunday at the home of the Rev. David Gosser, associate pastor of the Trinity United Methodist Church of Warsaw.

Mr. and Mrs. David Bowser were the couple's attendants.

The bride is librarian of the Bell Memorial Public Library, Mentone, and the bridegroom is engaged in farming.

It Happened In Mentone

Taken from the April 26, 1944, issue of the Northern Indiana Co-Op News:

Get your bathing suits out of moth balls, boys. Sunday, April 23, Calvin Wagner, Toughy Grubbs and Jimmie Jacks went swimming in the creek south of town. They said the water was fine, not too warm. Just right in fact. (They report hot lemonade is good for a bad cold).

With the enlistment of Ernest A. Wagner, it makes six brothers in the navy. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wagner of Mentone. The Wagners also have one son-in-law and one daughter-in-law in the navy, and a grandson, Albert Lamont Wagner, of California, only child of Albert Wagner of California, in the navy. Eight sailors and one WAVE in one family is quite a record.

Mrs. C.O. Mollenhour, Mrs. Emma Yocum, Mrs. Rloyd Tucker and Maurice Dudley went to Indianapolis Tuesday to attend Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star, which meets there Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Mrs. Eileen Fenstermaker and Mrs. Guido Shirey planned to go on Thursday to attend the last day of Grand Chapter.

Cpl. Thomas A. Stanford has just written his mother, Mrs. Ellen Stanford, that he is in a navy hospital but it is not anything serious. Tommy is a Marine and has been in action recently. He stated he was in the battle for Tarawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kester and son of Akron visited with Mrs. Louis Staddon Sunday afternoon.

PAT RADECKI pours plaster of Paris into plastic molds. She and other mod-podge enthusiasts have found it is cheaper to buy the powdered plaster of Paris and mix their own than to purchase ready-made plaques to finish. They also advise covering all work areas with plastic as Pat has done here.

Mod-Podge opens a venue

By Ann

The dining room table at the Artley Cullum home in Mentone is used as sort of a mod-podge factory, although most of the items made there are given away instead of being sold.

When the Cullums' daughter-in-law, Martha, learned the art, she in turn taught other members and friends of the family, and the joy of creating plaster of Paris

RUTH CULLUM and her granddaughter, April Cullum admire some of the finished plaques. Some of them have velvet ribbons for hanging while others have concealed hangers. A humorous "Craftsman's Creed" is shown in the right foreground. NEWS photos.

News Of Interest To Homemakers

BY ANN HANCOCK
Area Extension Agent, Kosciusko County

The many small herb gardens which have recently sprung up have awakened a new interest in herb cookery. Unfortunately many people are reluctant to use herbs as they are afraid of not choosing the correct one for a given dish.

There are no fixed rules for using herbs. There are a few customs, such as sage for stuffing and mint for lamb, but even these do not have to be followed. The beginner learning to use herbs may want to start with a few suggestions and then develop an individual herb philosophy.

Whenever herbs are grown in the home garden, they are used fresh. Crisp green herbs have a finer flavor than any that are dried. In cooking with fresh herbs use about four times as much as when dry herbs are used.

If the cooking time of a dish is very short, dried herbs will give a more delicious flavor if they have been moistened with a little warm water or salad oil and allowed to stand for 30 minutes. Foods which require long cooking should have the herb added during the last hours of cooking for the best flavor.

Even the beginning cook can turn out dishes that are simple yet culinary "masterpieces" by following some simple rules. A good rule of thumb for dried herbs is to use 1/2 teaspoon to a recipe for four. And remember herbs are used to enhance the flavor not disguise it.

A free bulletin entitled "Herb Gardens" is available in the Extension Office to help you start your herb garden. It contains information on location, harvesting, drying and winter care. Stop in and pick up your copy.

is plaques became so contagious that everyone joined in. How contagious was summed up by one member of the family who reported waking in the middle of the night with a new idea, and Martha acknowledges that she sometimes gets up in the wee hours of the morning to try a new decorating scheme.

The craft of mod-podge is similar to decoupage but much different, too, in that plaster of Paris is used instead of wood and the time involved is not as long as for decoupage.

Actually, Mod-Podge is the brand name of the finish that is applied to the plaque first. After this, a picture can be applied. This can be from a greeting, a napkin, a bit of wrapping paper--almost any design on paper that appeals to the craftsman. Or it can be decal, a time-consuming process in which the craftsman actually "lifts" the design from a sheet of paper, even copying pictures from books.

After the design is secured in place, other finish coats are applied that give antique or crackle finishes. This can involve several layers and takes time as each layer must dry before another can be added. Some of the plaques are edged in colors from the print while others have gold touches. Hangers are applied to the back or by velvet ribbons.

The plain plaques can be purchased in hobby shops but they are too expensive for the amount of work these enthusiastic hobbyists do, and they have found that it is cheaper to purchase one hundred-pound bags of plaster of Paris and make their own forms. They use some ready-made molds but they have also improvised with plastic lids from various kitchen items.

Martha Cullum, who now lives in Muncie, continually finds new techniques that she shares with her mother-in-law, sister-in-law Jody Harman, niece Lisa Harman and Pat Radecki, a friend of the family who lives at the Cullum home. These ideas include baking the green plaster of Paris forms in the oven to speed up drying time and bending drapery hooks to form stands for some of the smaller mod-podge items, an idea that has proved both effective and far less expensive than buying custom-made stands.

Although described as a simple craft, mod-podge has proved to be a fascinating one, one that deeply involves the people working on it and that constantly opens new avenues of expression and communication.

ENGROSSED in mod-podging are, from the left, Lisa Harman, Martha Cullum and Pat Radecki. Mrs. Cullum is shown bending a drapery hook, an inexpensive way of creating stands for some of the smaller items. Lisa is finishing the edge of a plaque while Pat, scissors in hand, looks for a new design to try.

The first walk-through environmental sculpture in Fulton Co. will be on display at the second annual spring art show of the Fulton Co. Art Colony Friday through Sunday at the First Baptist Church in Rochester. It will also include a variety of art forms from all over the state. The environmental sculpture is a nine foot by 11 foot by seven foot room created by Haline Gregory of Rochester and Nancy Luckenbill, Akron, in the former's garage. Called "Offerings", the sculpture includes body casts that the women made of themselves in poses that are meaningful to them. These will be significant offerings in the environment created in the room which has one entrance and is partitioned into several areas. A tape recording of conversation between the two will be playing. Other offerings are being added as they become meaningful to the creators. The outside as well as the inside will offer something of the artists to the viewer, who becomes a part of the environment. This sense of becoming part of the environment is heightened by a mirror in which the viewer sees himself in relation to the offerings around him.

HAMMEL CHRYSLER-PLYMOUTH

Hal Hammel - Owner

Hammel Chrysler-Plymouth, located at 1702 Main in Rochester, phone 223-2711, is a leading auto dealer for this area.

In this day and age when every car maker has such a wide selection of models to choose from, it is really difficult for you to decide where to go for a new car. All the companies advertise that their cars are the best, but who is to say which car really is.

Obviously all the cars on the market today must have their good points or they wouldn't have survived the ups and downs of the business. We, therefore, can conclude that the real difference in buying a car is the dealer you buy it from.

The ideal dealer to buy a car from offers a fair price on the new unit, as well as an honest dollar for the car you trade in. However, the most important factor is the service that you receive on your new car year after year.

Hammel Chrysler-Plymouth has 19 full time employees, including 7 full time mechanics. Customers here can expect and do get full time service.

The writers of this 1973 Review would like to point out a dealer that considers the most important part of selling a car the quality service he can offer you after the sale. We are talking about Hammel Chrysler-Plymouth, dealers for the famous Chrysler, Dodge, and Plymouth automobiles, and Dodge and GMC trucks.

See them today for a new or quality used car, and you'll see why we say "Customer Consideration" is their byword.

Fulton County Tire Company is independently owned and operated.

We all know that worn tires can be extremely dangerous, but sometimes the cost of buying new tires can make us put off taking the steps of retiring our car or truck. Don't let that factor bother you anymore. The management at this well liked tire store has made arrangements for fair prices on your tire purchases.

Along with their fine line of reasonably priced tires, you'll not find a more friendly and honest firm to do business. Everyone in their employ is fully trained in selecting just the right tire to do the job and they also make sure that when it is mounted it will be in perfect balance.

In this 1973 Town and Country Review, we, the authors, are pleased to recommend this tire dealer to all of our dealers, and commend the management for continued efforts to serve the people of this section to the best of their ability. Remember the name, Fulton County Tire Company, for all your tire needs.

Law Day Program Set In Local Court

Law Day will be observed in Fulton Circuit Court on Tuesday, May 1, with a presentation of state and national flags to the court by members of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The gifts were triggered by a question an Akron fourth grader posed Judge Wendell Tombaugh on a recent visit to the court. "Why don't you have an Indiana flag?" she asked. Not only has the lack of flag been remedied, the girl will be a special guest of the court on that day.

A talk will be given by Frederick Rakestraw, a Rochester attorney.

Local law enforcement and government agencies will be represented.

The public is invited to participate.

HEALTH HINTS

BY LYLE HARRIS, R. Ph.

Drug costs are now the smallest part of America's health-care dollar. Twenty years ago, you spent 17.5 cents on drugs, but now you're spending only 14 cents — and about five cents of that is going for non-prescription items. At the same time, these drugs are saving you money because they are more effective.
