Board ok's $6,300 for tower repair

by Renee Norlander

At the regular session of the Mentone Town Board on Monday, April 2, trustees Frank Hardesty, Wayne Tombaugh and Gerald Romine signed a contract with Leary Construction Company of Greenfield, Indiana for the repainting and repair work of the water tower.

After listening to bid presentations from representatives of the Leary Company and the Pittsburgh Tank and Tower Company of Kansas, the trustees agreed to sign with the Leary Company for the job.

The total cost for the work to be done has been contracted at $6,300, with $4,950 for inside and outside work, and $1,350 for an OSHA approved ladder. Repair work, if it is necessary, will cost $1.50 per pit and $7.50 per linear seam.

The bid that the Pittsburgh firm presented was quite close to the Leary price, but the board chose Leary because of their Indiana location and because of the quick response they had made on emergency calls last winter. Pittsburgh bid price was $6,581, but they did not set a per pit price on repairs. This would have been given as a total cost after inspection of the tank.

Work on the tank is scheduled to begin soon, however no specific date was set.

In other board action:

-Board president Hardesty reported that the Youth League will not require the use of Mentzer Park for summer softball games, however, they will need it for practice. The Youth League will be responsible for insurance coverage.

-The trustees agreed to meet in special session on Monday, April 7, to review town ordinances and to plan for withdrawal from the Koscusko County Planning Commission. Scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. at the Town Hall, this meeting will be open to the public.

-Minutes of the previous March meetings were approved as read by Clerk-Treasurer Catherine Whetstone, and all claims were paid.

The next regular session of the Board is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. at the Town Hall on Monday, May 7.

Fithians office on wheels to visit in area next week

Congressman Floyd Fithian's office on wheels will visit communities in Kosciusko, Marshall and Wabash counties next week.

Fithian announced that a member of his staff will be available in the mobile office to help individuals facing problems with the federal bureaucracy. Citizens also will be able to convey their views to Fithian's aide on matters facing Congress.

"A congressman must stay in touch with the people he represents," Fithian said, "and the mobile office is one of the best means of doing that. This service gives all citizens equal access to their congressional office, regardless of where they live."

Fithian noted that the 2nd District covers more than 5,000 square miles, including 113 cities and towns in 14 counties.

"The Office on Wheels enables me to bring Washington a bit closer to Indiana," he said.

"April Fool Jokes are fine, but a front page on a weekly newspaper is something else. Some one sure lost a lot of sleep making up that news. It ruined the rest of the paper last week. The school news is fine but how about rural news between Akron and Mentone?"

"The person who called in last week about Akron not having any pride is wrong. Sure, there is going to be some mess around after the winter months. The town in my opinion is doing their best to keep up with the load. By the way it surprises me that no one has said anything about the good job the crews did this winter in handling the snow."

Valley students plan for upcoming production of "Guys & Dolls"

by Christine Rhoades

The Broadway musical, "Guys & Dolls" is coming to the Tippecanoe Valley High School stage April 20 and 21. The play and music was written by Jo Swerling, Abe Burrows, and Frank Loesser. The TVHS production of the play will be directed by Nancy Yeiter and Dale Pace.

The story concerns the exploits of the New York City gambler, Nathan Detroit and his quest to find a place for his crap games. In the midst of all this gambling and corruption is the Save-A-Soul Mission headed by Sargeant Sarah Brown. When Nathan can't come up with the $1000 needed to "rent" a spot for his game, he bets Sky Masterson, the highest betting gambler, that he cannot take this Sarah Brown to Havana, Cuba for dinner. Nathan feels he cannot lose this bet, because Sarah would never go anywhere with Sky - or would she?

Nathan's own romantic interests are on rocky ground because Adelaide, Nathan's fiancée of 14 years is definitely ready to tie the knot but Nathan seems to be dragging his feet.

PAM ZIMMERMAN (PICTURED above) will have the lead of Miss Adelaide on Saturday night.

The musical has a variety of songs and comical and serious moments. So why not come and see what happens? Will Nathan and Adelaide every marry? Will Sky take Sarah to Havana? You won't want to miss it! All seats are reserved so call 353-7888 or 893-7221 to reserve your tickets.

Ambulance Log

New books and records featured at Akron Library

New books received at the Akron Carnegie Public Library include the following:

AT ANY COST by Anita Bryant and Bob Green. At any cost shares the true cost of Anita's unpopular stand, and reveals why she has decided to continue her commitment to America's families despite the onslaught of ridicule and personal belittlement. Anita and Bob's story will serve as an inspiration and an example to all who dare to publicly witness for their faith.

MY YEARS WITH CORRIE by Elen de Kroon Stamps. This is the story of two remarkable women who shared nine precious years with each other while serving their Savior and constant Companion.

THE STREET SPARROWS by Rose Ayers. Wonderful plotting of a heartwarming tale, marvelous characters and the writer Dickensian craft make this a lovely novel of character and sentiment.

THE RED TURRENTS OF ORNE by Candace Connell. The saying, "The sins of the father will be visited upon the sons" hangs heavy at Orne Hall. Years ago, brothers John and Joshua Orne had built the hall as they did the town around it. Now dead, Jewel Avigny Orne, a chronicle that disguises a terrible danger to its author and those around her.

GWENDOLEN by Clare Darcy. Three vivacious young women, a set of dashing suitors and a merry mix-up of romantic entanglements make Gwendolan Clare Darcy's most delightful Regency Romance ever.

WILL YOU DIE FOR ME? by Tex Watson as told to Chaplain Ray. The man who killed for Charles Manson tells his own story. WAIT FOR WHAT WILL COME by Barbara Michaels. The ancient stone mansion stood proudly on the steep cliffs of Cornwall, its back turned to the threatening yet enticing sea. It was an unlikely legacy for a young American school teacher: but it happened, it was hers. Carla Tregallas could hardly believe it. Carla could only wait for her lover to reveal himself and her destiny, whatever it might be.

Our Equal Payment Plan

...A Tailor-Made Solution To Budget Problems

For NIPSCO Gas and/or Electric Customers

The best way to smooth out those high winter gas bills and those summer electric air-conditioning bills is to take advantage of NIPSCO's Equal Payment Plan. It's convenient, and a big help in planning your budget. You pay the same amount for gas and electric service each month throughout the year.

Here's How The Plan Works

Normally, the Equal Payment Plan runs from June through May; however, it can be started at any time.

We determine from our records what you have used in the past and, from that experience, estimate what you can be expected to use during the coming year.

The annual cost is then calculated and divided into 12 equal monthly payments.

As your meters are read, the amount of energy actually used and the cost appears on your bill. In this way, you can keep track of your actual costs; however, you pay only the budgeted amount.

If, for some reason, your meter readings are estimated, you pay only for what you have used, based on actual meter readings, at the end of the Equal Payment Plan year.

Any difference between what has been paid and the total amount due at the end of budget period—based on actual meter readings—is reflected in the May service bill or in the final bill, if service is terminated before the end of the budget year. If you have overpaid the amount actually due, a refund is automatically sent to you. If you have underpaid, the balance is shown on the May service bill.

No Surprises

You receive a bill for the same amount each month, so that you can plan your budget accordingly. And, with the Equal Payment Plan, there are no deposits required and no late payment charges, so it may even save you money.

Your Account is Reviewed Regularly

We review your budget account twice each year, checking it against increases in energy costs, addition or discontinuation of large use appliances, and whether the amount budgeted is in line with actual usage and costs. If a change in the budgeted amount is indicated, we notify you.

REMEMBER YOU PAY ONLY FOR THE ENERGY YOU USE DURING THE BUDGET YEAR; NO MORE, NO LESS.

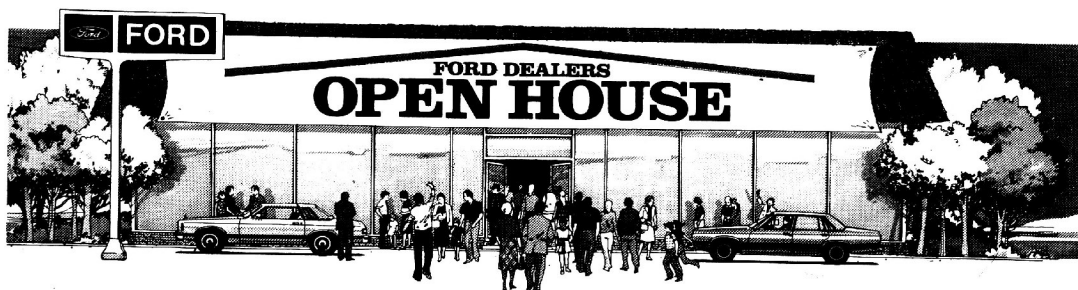

Call or stop in at your local NIPSCO office for more details about our Equal Payment Plan. Our customer service representatives will be happy to explain it to you and make all the arrangements for you to join, if you desire to do so.

Family Life

By Renee Norlander

Well, it has happened already. The price of gasoline has reached a dollar per gallon at some stations in Chicago, according to news reports on WLS. And it didn't take long to get here, did it?!

I remember watching a news program several weeks ago when one of Carter's chief economic advisors said it would be 1980 before that happened. Seems strange to me that a man in such a position couldn't have a more accurate prediction. Do you suppose someone is trying to pull the wool over our eyes?!

In other good news, we have the problem in Harrisburg, PA with the nuclear reactor. I sympathize with persons living there - it has got to be very scary. But what happens now?

We can't just close our eyes and HOPE it doesn't happen again. But I'm not in favor of abandoning nuclear energy as an alternative resource either.

Obviously, existing plants need to be double, triple rechecked and any new work must be constructed with utter perfection.

I think the days when we can depend on oil and gasoline are quickly coming to an end, and unless we want to go back to the pilgrim life, we must find alternatives. I for one am not prepared to carry wood in from the stock pile every morning.

Maybe I sound too simplistic, but I doubt if many Americans are prepared to live as their great grandparents did. We must continue in search of energy alternatives. And nuclear energy can not just be discarded.

I went to the community benefit last Saturday at Mentone School, and found the place swarming with people. The teachers, churches, and organizations who planned and worked so hard on this project should be commended. It was terrific! And I'm sure the family in Talma who needed the financial assistance for medical bills were overwhelmed.

It never fails to amaze me how people in a small town can pull together in times of need. Everyone attending should feel a great sense of pride in our community. I hope the money raised will truly aid and lessen the strain of the people who needed it ... we should all be proud!

If anyone has a complaint on the April Fool's Day front page last week - call Bob! I only take the "good" comments.

Keen-agers display culinary talents in Akron

by Onda Good

The Senior Citizens of the Akron Lions Club Site have had a busy and pleasant March. April will be interesting and exciting too. Many Keen-Agers recited or read an interesting or favorite piece of poetry during the poetry session Monday. Many remembered the long pieces they committed to memory during their school days. Many can still give short passages of those old classics. Did you memorize "Horatius at the Bridge", "Thanotopsis", "Little Orphan Annie", "When the Frost is on the Pumpkin", "The Wreck of the Hesperus", or "Barefoot Boy"?

The Thursday meals are proving to be the high point of the week. Thursdays are "Akron Cooks Day", that is Akron Senior Citizens become the cooks for the day. They haven't lost their touch for this skill they practiced on their families of past years. The perfection salad, potato salad, bean salad, apple salad and other salads, deviled eggs, chicken and noodles, macaroni and cheese, cherry pie, apple pie, peanut butter pie and other such foods are just good examples of the culinary arts these cooks have exhibited. Thursday, April 5, will feature meat loaf, frozen peas, chicken and noodles and gooseberry pie. You may come to the site on Thursday with a food as your donation or come as usual with a small money donation. Bingo is planned for Thursday shortly after lunch. Come try your luck.

Monday, April 9th, is blood pressure clinic from 11 to 12 and Akron Site Day. Thursday, April 12, plan to help celebrate the April birthdays at the birthday party. April 19 is hearing clinic. Saturday, April 21, is fun time at the Area V Get-together at the Miami YMCA in Peru. Several from the Akron Site are planning to attend, why not join them? Please call 893-7263 or 893-7204 to be assured of a luncheon reservation for the get-together. The luncheon will be donation just like our regular lunches here at the Akron Site.

Scheduled menus for April 9-13 are:
MONDAY: Liver and onions, peas cranberry sauce, pudding, roll, milk coffee.
TUESDAY: Fried chicken, whipped potatoes, gravy, turnip greens, apple crisp, biscuit, milk, coffee.
WEDNESDAY: Weiners and sauerkraut, buttered carrots, mashed potatoes, peanut butter cookies, cornbread, milk, coffee.
THURSDAY: Akron Cooks Day
FRIDAY: Chef's Special, come and be surprised.

played at the Heckman Bindery, Inc. in No. Manchester.

 A June 9 wedding is planned.

Students to learn of phone awareness

Area elementary school students will learn about using the telephone in an emergency situation April 3, 4 and 5 at Burket, Akron, and Mentone schools because of a special telephone awareness program sponsored by General Telephone Company of Indiana.

Rhonda Harter, public affairs representative for the company, presents separate "Youth for Communications" programs for kindergartners, fourth grade students, seventh graders, and high school seniors. The kindergarten program teaches young children how to make emergency telephone calls, and fourth graders are taught proper telephone usage.

Students in the seventh grade see a program depicting man's methods of communication from the beginning of time, through today, and into the future. High school seniors, upon request, are shown an outline explaining General Telephone & Electronics (GTE) and the opportunities existing within GTE and General Telephone of Indiana.

General Telephone offers these programs to schools throughout the exchanges it serves. The programs are designed to promote proper telephone usage and understanding of the complex telephone industry.

Be selective with childrens television

by Patricia M. Braman

Parents are not powerless to shape the impact television has on their children. Parents can be effective if they adapt parenting skills to influence childrens viewing.

TV viewing can be compared to a good diet and selecting nutritious foods and limiting snacks. The first step is to examine your own viewing habits. Young children learn by example, so be selective in your own viewing.

Secondly, encourage teamwork in finding the good programs you want to watch. Check TV listings and plan family viewing together. Don't promote a sense of "overall goodness" in TV by offering extra viewing time as a reward for good behavior.

Young children don't understand everything they see on TV and often mistake drama for reality. They need you to explain and interpret what's happening on the screen. You'll be surprised that a comment or two from you will be remembered more than a half-hour of non stop TV.

One danger of TV viewing is that its passive activity. There's no audience reaction as there is in a movie theater. Without laughter, applause, or criticism, everything on TV passes in silence. Children may interpret this silence as unvoiced approval. Don't allow this to happen. Reach out loud to what's on the tube. Express your disapproval of something that offends your families values. Encourage your children to do the same. Then discuss these opinions among family members.

On the positive side, TV can foster family communications on some topics that are difficult to talk about. Drugs, violence, and human relationships are all common topics of TV drama.

Parents can be effective in helping their children to be more selective in their TV viewing. It takes time, communication and the willingness to accept the responsibility. TV can have a positive or negative influence on children. Let yours be positive and make TV viewing a family affair.

Questions and Bible Answers

Is "Once Saved, Always Saved" True?

■ Dear Brother: Please explain "Once saved, always saved" for me. One of our members believes it, and I do not understand it. —M.H.

The teaching of "once saved, always saved" is sometimes called "eternal security" or "the impossibility of apostasy." There are assurances in the gospel that Christ saves, and protects, those who belong to Him. And because He has promised to be faithful, some assume that there is no necessity for man's faithfulness to assure salvation. Such is not the case.

Over and over in the gospel are warnings given about falling away. 1 Cor. 10:12, "Let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall." How silly that warning, if we cannot fall! Again, Gal. 5:4, "Ye are severed from Christ, ye who would be justified by the law; ye are fallen away from grace." It is by grace we are saved (Eph. 2:8; Titus 3:7); obviously, then, if we fall away from that which saves we are no longer saved.

Scriptures speak of some who did fall. The example of Israel is given in Heb. 3:12-19, "Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God... For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses... We see they were not able to enter in because of unbelief." The very next verse then warns: "Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it." It clearly stated here that the believer may become an unbeliever, and that entrance into God's rest is refused such. Exhorting brethren in Christ to be concerned about one another, James writes, "If any among you err from the truth, and one convert him; let him know, that he who converteth a sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall cover a multitude of sins." (Jas. 5:19-20). These mentioned are "brethren" in Christ, yet they need to be converted or their soul will be eternally lost. It is obvious they were no longer in a saved state.

Just as a lost person can be saved, a saved person can become lost. When one turns from Christ, "there remaineth no more sacrifice for sin" and God's punishment in fire is promised (Heb. 10:26-31). We are "saved by grace through faith" (Eph. 2:8). Yet the saved person can fall from grace (Gal. 5:4) and return to unbelief (Heb. 3:12). Only when such a person returns to Christ is his soul "saved from death." Yes a person CAN fall from grace.

Sanctuary choir to present Houseplant care "No Greater Love"

The Sanctuary Choir of Akron Church of God will present the cantata, "No Greater Love" by John Peterson, Sunday, April 8, at 7 p.m. It is the musical story of God's love and will be directed by Associate Pastor, Greg Kendall. Accompanists will be Evelyn Kreig and Pat Mitterling.

Mr. Peterson reminds us that love is the greatest and most indispensable ingredient in all the universe, and that the greatest single fact in all human history is Calvary, where God's "no greater love" for mankind was profoundly and eloquently expressed in the vicarious death of His Son. This inspiration led to a masterful work of music.

The church is happy to present this musical worship opportunity for our community and invites the public to attend.

If you owe and can't pay, then what!?

"Where's my refund?" and "What if I can't pay my taxes?" -- these are the questions Hoosiers are asking most often of the Internal Revenue Service as the April 16 tax filing deadline nears.

The answers, incidentally, are (1) refunds are currently taking up to eight weeks, and could eventually take up to ten. The IRS asks taxpayers to wait until ten weeks are up before calling about their refund. And (2) if you can't pay what you owe, the IRS strongly urges you to file on time anyway, paying what you can. The IRS will then bill you. Then, if you still can't pay, call IRS to work it out. If you owe and can't pay, there is a 6% interest charge, and a failure-to-pay penalty of 1/2% per month on the unpaid balance, up to a maximum of 25%. However, if you owe money and don't file on time, in addition to the other charges, there is also a failure-to-file penalty of 5% per month on the unpaid balance, up to 25%. So it's cheaper to file and not pay on time than it is to not file on time, if you owe money.

Does that mean if you have a refund coming it's okay to file late? The IRS responds that there is always the possibility of your being audited, and the audit resulting in your owing money instead of getting a refund. And if you owe the money, the penalties and interest for not filing on time would apply. So it's best to file on time even though you believe you have a refund coming.

What mistakes are Indiana taxpayers making on their returns? Entering figures on the wrong lines, math errors, and turning to the wrong tax table or schedule to figure taxes--these are the most common errors.

Returns from Indiana are coming in a little faster than last year, slightly more Hoosiers are receiving refunds, and the refunds have increased. As of March 16, the comparison figures are: Indiana returns filed: 1979 - 1,269,702; 1978 - 1,257,290. Percent receiving refunds: 1979 - 78%; 1978 - 76%. Average refund: 1979 - $543; 1978 - $536.

Use of the peel-off label decreases chances of error in recording name, address and Social Security Number and increases the changes for a speedy refund.

And the tax people have noticed fewer people this year checking off any box in the Presidential election campaign fund contribution -- that's the portion directly under the taxpayer's name and address. The IRS urges taxpayers to mark one of the boxes.

Those same people you mail your returns to offer free help. Their toll-free telephone operation runs Mondays through Fridays, 8:30 AM to 5:30 PM EST. In Indianapolis, call 269-5477. Anywhere else in Indiana, toll-free (1) 800-382-9740. As of March 16, the IRS had received 300,739 calls from Indiana taxpayers, at the rate of over 5,000 per day.

Concentrating on low-income and elderly, the IRS also offers free walk-in help at its offices throughout Indiana, Monday through Fridays, 8 AM to 4:45 PM, local times. So far, the IRS has helped prepare 28,600 returns in Indiana. For those in areas not convenient to an IRS office, community volunteers trained by IRS Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program, may be available for free help. Call the IRS to see if there is a VITA center near you.

One young mother visiting an Indiana IRS office was seen dragging two toddlers in with her, prompting another taxpayer to comment, "I didn't know they made you prove your dependents by bringing them in."

Obituaries

Word has been received from Mrs. Isabelle Lantz of the death of her brother, William Marks, of Put-In-Bay, Ohio, on March 21, 1979.

Funeral services were held at the Neidecker-LeVeck Funeral Home at Port Clinton, Ohio, and burial was in the Mapleleaf Cemetery, Put-In-Bay, Ohio.

Born in Limestone, Ohio, on May 14, 1890, Marks was the son of George and Ellanora (Boose) Marks. He was a World War I veteran of the U.S. Army and U.S. Navy, and retired as Captain from the Marion, Ohio National Guard Unit in 1931. He served as Chief of Police in Marion for twenty years, and was the first engineer for the construction of the International Peace Memorial at Put-In-Bay. He was also a member of the American Legion.

Survivors include four daughters, eleven grandchildren, nineteen great-grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Ellanora Yazel; and two nephews, Victor Lantz of Mentone, and Quentin Lantz of Warsaw. His wife preceded him in death on January 24, 1979, and a brother in 1978.

IH begins part program

"Spring is just around the corner" for farmers, and field work will begin soon and continue until all the crops are planted. April and May are critical field months in this area and once the work starts, farmers need the advantage of every hour of every day with their machines.

Because service parts are important in keeping these machines operating, International Harvester will go on its Emergency Parts Supply System beginning April 14th until May 27th. During "Stand-By-7" as IH calls it, all Company parts centers and facilities in the U.S. will be manned seven days a week. Akron Implement Company, Akron, local IH dealer is part of this emergency parts supply system.

Just a phone-call by the dealer puts "Stand-By-7" into action. The Company's national computer network has access to some 460,000 different parts and locates them in a matter of seconds.

"This is our fifth year of 'Stand-By-7' and in each year it has become more important and useful to our customers as they become aware of this special service," said IH spokesman.

Wind storm blasts through area

THE AKRON TOWN patrol car was demolished Thursday night when this giant tree fell on the car while Dep. Marshall Charles Clawson was inside. He was not injured. (Photo courtesy of Jerry Kindig).

Storm winds estimated up to 90 hours per hour at times, ripped through the area last Thursday night, causing several trees in the area to be uprooted as well as some personal property damages.

Two large trees on West Street in Akron were uprooted, and one struck the Akron police car while Deputy Marshall Charles Clawson was inside on duty.

At approximately 9:30 p.m., Clawson was on patrol in the Akron Church of God area when he stopped briefly to talk to a person who had just come out of the church. Clawson said "I saw it coming, but I just didn't have any time to get out of the way".

The tree struck the rear portion of the car, demolishing it. Deputy Clawson said if the tree had just fallen a foot forward up the vehicle, he would have been killed. He then had to crawl out the driver's window to get out of the car. He was uninjured in the accident.

The Fulton County Sheriff has loaned Akron the use of a State patrol car until the new police car on order from South End Motors in Akron arrives.

In Mentone, a 12 foot brick block tore lose from the roof of the Pill Box building, downtown, and smashed down onto the sidewalk below.

Several trees were reported down in the area also by town employee Bruce Barker.

Several reports of area power shortages also resulted from the storm.

Life at "Pucky Huddle" featured in new publication

BORN AGAIN...BUT STILL WET BEHIND THE EARS, a collection of columns written by Ann Kindig Sheetz while she was editor of the Akron/Mentone News, was published April 9 by Christian Herald Books of Chappaqua, New York.

Available at bookstores and through Christian Herald's distribution network, the book details life at Pucky Huddle, population 4, with humor and Christian perspective. The primary characters are the author's husband, Loren, their sons, Todd and Doug, and the author herself, whom she describes as a former "closet Christian."

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kindig, Mrs. Sheetz graduated from Akron High School and attended Indiana University and Manchester College. She and her husband purchased the Akron News in 1962 and the Mentone News in 1964. They combined the papers into one publication in 1968. They sold the paper in 1977 and have since continued their interests in publishing, he as the Local Printer in Akron, and she as a part-time freelancer in addition to her fulltime position at the Akron Exchange State Bank where she is marketing director and head teller. In addition to writing a monthly column for Tri-State Trader, she is a frequent contributor of the South Bend Tribune's Michiana section and has also written for the Indianapolis Star magazine, Women's Circle, Boys' Life, Highlights for Children, Farm Wife News and a number of other publications. The book is her first.

Will form local BZA Board begins review of town ordinances

by Renee Norlander

Members of the Mentone Town Board met in special session on Monday, April 9, at the Town Hall to begin the review of town ordinances.

Upon Mentone's withdrawal from the Kosciusko County Plan Commission, it will be the town's responsibility to form their own Board of Zoning Appeals and to establish ordinances that the town can follow.

Trustees Frank Hardesty, Gerald Romine and Wayne Tombaugh began the review of existing town ordinances, established in 1961, and will continue such at another special meeting on Wednesday, April 18, at the Town Hall. The meeting will begin at 7 p.m., and the public is invited to attend. It was determined at Mondays meeting that the local BZA will be formed with the three Board members and four other residents, to be named at a later date.

In other business, the Board granted their permission to Dr. David Cook, president of the Mentone Chamber of Commerce, for the closing of Main Street during the Egg Festival. This year's closed route will be the same as last years. The festival is being planned for June 7, 8 and 9.

Dr. Cook informed the trustees that the Chamber has polled the downtown merchants in regards to closing the streets, and only two preferred that the festival be held in another location. The Chamber, therefore, decided again on the downtown location.

NOTICE

The Mentone Town Board will meet in special session on Wednesday, April 18, at the Town Hall to review ordinances. The public is invited to attend, and the meeting will begin at 7 p.m.

It Happened in Mentone

Taken from the April 9, 1952 issue of The Northern Indiana Co-Op News:

Starting about 2:00 in the morning last Sunday, the Mentone firemen had a busy time. They made a run to the John Downs farm home, in Marshall county, to help extinguish a basement fire, and soon after their return they were called to the Ernest Igo farm, about five miles southeast of Mentone where a 66 x 80 barn burned. After returning from the fire the firemen gathered at the Mentone Cafe for coffee and a bite to eat. K. A. Riner and George Clark volunteered as the cooks and soon had a meal for the boys. Everything tasted fine - they said - even after they found out the boys used salad dressing for shortening to fry the potatoes.

Girls needed for teams

Any girls interested in playing on the girls A or B Travel Teams at the Mentone Youth League should come to the Youth League Park on the following dates: April 22, 2 p.m., and April 29, 2 p.m. For any other information call 353-7460.

Those from the community who enjoyed the Parade of Barber Shop Quartets last Saturday evening at the John Adams auditorium in South Bend were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Eber, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sullivan, Martha Sullivan, Mrs. David Johns, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lemler, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Johns, and Mr. and Mrs. Artley Cullum. The featured quartet was the Chordettes from the Arthur Godfrey radio program.

Mrs. Dearl Tucker has the misfortune to sever the tendon in her thumb on Monday. She was taken to the Murphy Medical Center at Warsaw where surgery was necessary. She came home Tuesday. Her hand is sore and badly swollen, and it will be three weeks before she is allowed to use it. Latest word from Ted Peterson states that his outfit is now on its way to Germany.

Due to the illness of Faun Tucker, the April meeting of the Everfaithful Club was held at the home of Mary Tucker. After the business meeting club pal gifts were presented to Margaret Butts and Frances Marshall. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in playing buncos. Prizes going to Othello Huffman for high and most buncos. Travel prize to Roselynn Neilans and low to Georgia Nellans. Bernice Valentine will be hostess to the May meeting. Sfc. Cal Wagner is home on leave from Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.

Facility and organizational needs to be presented at TVHS

Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation taxpayers and patrons will have an opportunity to hear recommendations on facility and organizational needs Tuesday, April 17th at 7:30 p.m. at Tippecanoe Valley High School.

The recommendations and report will be given by Dr. Norbert Nelson, Purdue, and Dr. Merle Strom, Ball State, who conducted a study of the needs in Tippecanoe Valley over the past six months.

4. What methods of financing are available to the taxpaying community?

Input from the Community will be solicited through a discussion session following the report.

Hopefully the following questions will be answered:

1. What organizational arrangement is conducive to improving the quality of the educational program in Tippecanoe Valley?

2. What facilities are needed to meet these different organizational arrangements?

3. What are the anticipated costs?

State "Sunshine" laws, School Board ethics and community ethics demand that any new building program be handled in the open, not in Star Chamber meetings of Board members or taxpayers. Stand up and be counted as a responsible citizen now, if you are interested in your schools.

Honor "100 Club" volunteers

Poetry readings can be enjoyable

The Keen-Agers are celebrating the April birthdays on Thursday, April 12. A carry-in lunch will be served also. You may bring something to eat instead of donating money on Thursdays. The meals cooked by the Akron ladies are very popular and the last one broke the attendance record. Spaghetti and meat sauce and birthday cake will be featured April 12. Also on April 12 there will be someone from Rochester to give you information about fuel assistance or help you with the application.

The group recently enjoyed the reading of poetry and indicated they wanted another poetry session. On Monday April 16 bring a favorite poem to be read to the group. Some recite verses they have learned in past years and others read old favorite or other interesting verses. It's lots of fun. Poetry isn't my "thing" but I like the poetry sessions. A hearing clinic will be on Thursday, April 19. Don't forget the coffee hours each morning at 10:30.

For reservations or information call 893-7263 or 893-7204 near the noon hour.

Scheduled menus for April 16-20 are:

MONDAY: Bar-B-Q beef sandwich, corn, spinach, rice pudding with raisins, milk, coffee.

TUESDAY: Chicken and noodles, green beans, carrot and raisin salad, brown bread, coffee, milk.

WEDNESDAY: Ground beef and macaroni goulash, mashed potatoes, tossed salad, whole wheat bread, tapioca pudding, milk, coffee.

THURSDAY: Akron Special Menu

FRIDAY: Fried chicken, baked potato, peas, fruit jello, bread, milk, coffee.

The views expressed in SOUND OFF do not necessarily reflect the opinion of the NEWS.

"To the person who answered the comment on the Town of Akron's Pride, from the week before got it all wrong. It had nothing to do with the Town crew or the snow removal. They are a fine crew, and do their work well. The subject was concerning the area around certain properties and the clutter is not just during the winter months either. It's been this way for the last two to three years. If there is any doubt in anyone's mind, just cruise down a few streets, such as North Maple St. and South Cherry St."

"Why doesn't someone want our old magazines and catalogues?"

"The idea behind the April Fool front page was fantastic. I can only imagine the consternation in many homes when persons found themselves half way through the page before realizing they were conned."

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Thank You!

DEAR EDITOR:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their support of the Mentone Benefit Carnival held at the Mentone School on March 31.

Although this was not a school sponsored event, the teachers saw a need to help someone in our school community. Cathy Sucheciki, a second grade teacher, organized the carnival. All of our teachers gave their time to help with this project. All of our cooks donated their time to help with the chili supper. We were helped with donations of food and money from business organizations in the community. Many service organizations gave their time and money to help, especially Psi Iota Xi, Tippy Valley River Club and Tiosa Brethren Women's Missionary Society.

Finally, I would like to thank all of the people attending this event. Because of them, we have over $1,000.00 to give to a good cause.

Thank you,
Jack R. Fisher
Principal, Mentone School

Let's Talk About

Our Equal Payment Plan

...A Tailor-Made Solution
To Budget Problems

For NIPSCO Gas
and/or Electric Customers

The best way to smooth out those high winter gas bills and those summer electric air-conditioning bills is to take advantage of NIPSCO's Equal Payment Plan. It's convenient, and a big help in planning your budget. You pay the same amount for gas and electric service each month throughout the year.

Here's How The Plan Works

Normally, the Equal Payment Plan runs from June through May; however, it can be started at any time.

We determine from our records what you have used in the past and, from that experience, estimate what you can be expected to use during the coming year.

The annual cost is then calculated and divided into 12 equal monthly payments.

As your meters are read, the amount of energy actually used and the cost appears on your bill. In this way, you can keep track of your actual costs; however, you pay only the budgeted amount.

If, for some reason, your meter readings are estimated, you pay only for what you have used, based on actual meter readings, at the end of the Equal Payment Plan year.

Any difference between what has been paid and the total amount due at the end of budget period — based on actual meter readings — is reflected in the May service bill or in the final bill, if service is terminated before the end of the budget year. If you have overpaid the amount actually due, a refund is automatically sent to you. If you have underpaid, the balance is shown on the May service bill.

No Surprises

You receive a bill for the same amount each month, so that you can plan your budget accordingly. And, with the Equal Payment Plan, there are no deposits required and no late payment charges, so it may even save you money.

Your Account is Reviewed Regularly

We review your budget account twice each year, checking it against increases in energy costs, addition or discontinuation of large use appliances, and whether the amount budgeted is in line with actual usage and costs. If a change in the budgeted amount is indicated, we notify you.

REMEMBER YOU PAY ONLY FOR THE ENERGY YOU USE DURING THE BUDGET YEAR: NO MORE. NO LESS.

Call or stop in at your local NIPSCO office for more details about our Equal Payment Plan. Our customer service representatives will be happy to explain it to you and make all the arrangements for you to join, if you desire to do so.

BUDGET YOUR MONEY—AND YOUR ENERGY—WISELY!

Ladies help with securing Wetlands safety

The story of the Manitou Islands Wetland Area, located at the south end of Lake Manitou in Fulton County, was told by Wetlands Biologist Carl H. Eisfelder, at the April meeting of Akron Women's Club. Eisfelder is associated with the Indiana Department of Natural Resources. He was introduced by Dr. Charles Miller of Akron, a member of Gov. Bowen's Council on Water and Mineral Resources.

Akron Women's Club made a donation of $25 toward the purchase of the more than 100 acre tract of wetlands being set aside at Manitou. Mrs. Ralph Sheetz of Ft. Wayne, former owner, contacted the Department concerning the project, Eisfelder related, as a way of honoring her late husband. "We immediately went to work to find a way of securing the partial for preservation as a wetland," he said. Showing slides of the area, Eisfelder spoke of the open water bounded with a cattail marsh and dotted with hardwood islands. A unique feature of the local is the stand of Tamarack, perhaps one of the most southern in the country, the biologist stated.

"I know some customers have a tough time paying their electric bill. Our Equal Payment Plan is one way I can help."

Hazel McDermont, clerk

The Equal Payment Plan lets you even out payment of your electric bills. Plus, it lets you plan ahead. So you always know what your bill will be. With EPP, you make the same payment for eleven months. In the twelfth month, your bill is adjusted higher or lower depending on the amount of electricity you've used during the entire year. Ask about EPP when you're in our office, or give us a call. We'd like to help.

Electricity is costing more than ever before. We don't like that any better than you. But compared with anything else you can buy today, electric service is still a fair value.

Board plans for sale of bonds; prepares specifications

by Renee Norlander

Trustees of the Tippecanoe Valley School Board continued their action in the process of purchasing nine new school buses for the school corporation, at Monday evening's regular Board meeting at the Tippecanoe Valley High School. Attorney for the school corporation, Fred Rakestraw, informed the Board that he will be meeting with the Bond Commission on Wednesday, April 18, and if the request to sell bonds is approved, the Board will then be able to continue with their purchase plan.

Rakestraw informed the Board that May 15 would be the earliest possible date for the bidding on the bonds, but he preferred a later date of May 22 or 23. Dr. Lloyd Harrell, Superintendent of Schools, suggested that the earlier date of May 15 would be better for the trustees, as their next regular session is scheduled for May 21.

After some discussion of publication requirements on "notice to bidders", the Board gave Rakestraw a preferred date of May 15, but offered May 22 as their second choice for the date to sell the bonds. Public notices will be published to adverse bidders on the actual date, time and so on.

Dr. Harrell will be accompanying Rakestraw to this Wednesday's meeting.

In other business concerning the bus purchases, trustees Con Shewman, Don Snipes, Everett Beeson, Vernon Meredith, and Lee Norris approved bus specifications to be provided to bidders.

After lengthy consideration of suggestions from six prospective bidders, the Board finally approved a final set of specifications for all nine buses. Further information on these specifications will be published in future "notices to bidders."

Rick Ralston, director of the Corporations Adult Basic Education program, reported to the Board that the program was very successful this past year, and that a total of 78 persons participated in this year's school.

Operating on a budget of $17,365.00, Ralston informed the trustees that only $650 of this money came from local sources, with the remainder being funded by the State and Federal governments. Next year's budget will increase to $17,551.00.

He explained that next year's classes and sites will be the same as this year, and persons with zero to nine years of education will especially be sought for the program. Ralston also hopes to receive a new Federal grant for a pilot program that will be funding transportation and child-care for persons enrolling in the programs.

In other board action:

* The warranty deed for Lot 2 at Tippecanoe Estates was signed by the trustees. This lot was sold to Verne and Gladys Wittkamper for $3,750 at the March 29 special meeting of the board.

* A letter from Mrs. James Anderson was read by the trustees for a request that her daughter, who will be five years old on August 20, be permitted to begin school next year.

It is policy at this time that children must be five by August 1 to begin kindergarten. Stating that no exceptions have been made in the past, the Board denied Mrs. Anderson's request.

* Dr. Harrell requested that the trustees recommend persons from the community (representing business, industry, and labor) to serve on a Vocational Advisory Committee next year.

* Upon recommendation from school principals Mark Barker and Jack Fisher, and Dr. Harrell, the trustees approved the organization of a National Honor Society at both the Akron and Mentone Junior Highs beginning with the 1979-80 school year. Two teachers will be needed to supervise the Society, at a present cost of $202 each per year. This will be an extra-curricular activity for the teachers and students.

* A tuition transfer was granted for Angela Blair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Blair, to attend the Jesse Center at Plymouth next year instead of Cardinal Center at Warsaw. Angela attended Jesse Center this year, and her parents informed Dr. Harrell that they are very pleased with her progress and with the Center. She transferred last year because of bus transportation problems at Cardinal.

* Pat Hoover, nurse for the school corporation, was granted permission to begin a volunteer program at the schools, so that someone with First Aid knowledge would always be present at each school. As it is now, Mrs. Hoover can not possibly be at four schools at the same time, and she feels it is important that someone be present at each school to handle emergencies.

Each volunteer would be required to participate in a First Aid class to be instructed by Mrs. Hoover.

ver. This program will begin next year.

* A motion made by trustee Don Snipes, to sign two year contracts with basketball coaches Roger Fleetwood and Mike Sipe failed for a lack of a second.

After hearing Dr. Harrell's recommendation that the two men are fine teachers and coaches, trustee Norris stated that "I agree with what you said about the coaches", but he objected to special contracts for coaches. He stressed that he felt the Board's policy was that classroom education comes before sports, therefore, coaches should not receive two year contracts if classroom teachers do not.

No further discussion of the issue followed.

* Juna Graham, director of O.E.A., was granted a professional leave for May 11-14 to attend a National Leadership Conference at Cincinnati; and Miriam Ruple was granted a one year "child rearing" absence.

* Claims totaling $69,618.16 were paid by the board, along with a net payroll of $56,391.82 for March 31, and $56,293.44 for April 15.

The trustees will meet again in regular session on Monday, May 21, at 7:30 p.m. at the TVHS lecture room.

Hunters outwitted Easter rabbit

APPROXIMATELY 250 Young egg hunters pounced upon the park in Akron last Saturday afternoon, to find Easter Eggs hidden by members of the Akron Chamber of Commerce. 27 dozen eggs were scattered in the park, and children finding the most eggs were awarded prizes. Winners were: Jill Sommers, Carrie Fisher, Jamie Morgan, Rodney Hedson, Krindra Wright, David Manford, Derrick Alber, Brad Scott, Christine Bowers, Ben Faught, Roger Montique, Khris Montique, Nathan Clock, Monica Hammond, Billy Hall, and Randy Cumberland.

Supporting actors vital to success!

"Guys & Dolls" to be presented this weekend

Everyone knows that a lead role in a musical play requires much time and effort, but students cast in supporting roles for TVHS' production of "Guys & Dolls" have found that their roles take just as much practice and work. Four of these students are Herbie King, Gail Weirick, Brett Cumberland and Tim Stokes.

Herbie, a TVHS junior, will be playing the part of Big Jule, the "out of town" gambler who threatens to either bankrupt or break Nathan Detroit into pieces during their dice game. Big Jule's success in the dice game only comes when he begins to use his own specially made pair of dice without any spots, but of course he "can" remember where the spots formerly were!!

Gail, also a junior, will be cast as Arvida Abernathy, Sister Sarah Brown's grandmother who helps her run the mission and always lends a calming voice and influence to the mission life.

Cast as Nathan Detroit's sidekicks, Brett and Tim will be playing the roles of Benny Southstreet and Nicely-Nicely Johnson. Not only do these two gamblers add much of the humor to the play, but they also carry much of the musical talent of the show in such songs as "Fugue for Tinhorns," "The Oldest Established," "Guys & Dolls," "Luck Be A Lady," and "Sit Down, You're Rockin' The Boat." As a sophomore, this is Brett's second year in TVHS dramatic and musical productions and Tim, as a senior, is a four year veteran of the stage.

Without the talents of these four performers, the show could not go on! Come and see Brett, Tim, Gail and Herbie in the TVHS production of "Guys & Dolls" April 20 and 21.

Tickets may be reserved by calling the high school at 353-7888 or 893-7221. For the best seats, call soon! Tickets may also be purchased at the door.

Mentone Police Report

Two persons were cited, by Marshal Earl Beattie, for traffic violations on Sunday, April 15 at 7:30 p.m. at the intersection of Jefferson and Morgan Streets in Mentone. Nancy J. Prater, age 16, of 739 N. Lake St., Warsaw, was cited for driving without an operators license; and Robert W. Senff, age 17, of Route 1, Mentone, received a citation for permitting a violation. Court appearance for both was set for April 20.

Suelyn Carey, age 18, of Route 4, Bremen, was cited for disregarding a stop sign at the intersection of High Street and No. Morgan. Court date was set for April 18.

On Saturday, April 14, at 9 p.m., Todd K. Sheetz, age 21, of Route 2, Akron, was involved in a mishap when he hit and killed a deer on State Road 19, one quarter mile south of County Road 800 South. Damage to Sheetz' auto was estimated at $900. Deputy-Marshal John Hart investigated.

A two car collision occurred on State Road 25, one quarter mile east of Mentone, on Monday, April 9, at 6:20 p.m. when an auto driven by Lori McGowen, age 18, of 428 W. Center, Warsaw, was struck from behind by an auto driven by John Ray Amburgy, age 21, of 401 W. Washington, Mentone.

According to Beattie, McGowen was headed east on St. Rd. 25, and was waiting for traffic to clear before turning left into the Harmony Inn Drive-In, when her auto was struck from behind by Amburgy. Estimated damage to the McGowen auto was set at $1200, and to Amburgy's auto, owned by Willis Adams of Silver Lake, was $300. Amburgy was cited for leaving the scene of a property damage accident by Beattie, as Amburgy allegedly fled the scene after the accident. And Willis Adams, age 18, a passenger in the Amburgy auto, was cited for permitting the violation. Court appearance for Adams was set for April 18 and for Amburgy was set for April 20.

New books at Carnegie Library

New books received at the Akron Carnegie Public Library include the following:

STRIKE BACK AT CANCER by Stephen A. Rapaport. If you or someone you love have cancer, take heart. There's a new hope. This book is the life-saving sourcebook of cancer treatment that includes the more extensive directory of Oncologist's (Cancer specialists) hospitals and treatment centers available anywhere.

FEELING ALIVE AFTER 65 by Robert B. Taylor, M.D. This is the complete medical guide for senior citizens and their families.

NIGHTMARE IN PEWTER by Jean DeWeese.

THE LOVE FEAST by Graham Kerr. Recipes and advise and special notes with nutrition profiles from the author of the Galloping Gourmet. This book gives the Christian approach to good food for family and friends.

I DARED TO LIVE by Sandra Brand. This is another true story coming out of World War II. Only a few trusted friends knew that "Cecylia Szarek has been born from the ashes of a burned armband identifying her as a Jew and was kept alive by false identification papers -- that behind her smiling, vivacious demeanor was the frightened daughter of a pious Hasidic family, a wife and mother desperate for news of her husband and child.

THE TULIPS ARE RED by Lee-sha Rose. This remarkable true account, written by the woman who lived through it during World War II, is an incredible story of intrigue, adventure, love, hate, courage, anguish, and, ultimately, triumph. It sheds new light on the strength of a people subjected to the worst atrocities and oppression, as well as the courage and fortitude of the many Dutch Gentiles who risked hiding Jews in their homes because they knew it was "the Christian thing to do."

THE SMILE OF THE STRANGER by Joan Aiken. Juliana Pagot was seventeen, the only daughter of the historian Charles Elphinstone. For ten years they had lived quietly in Florence, then the history and intrigue overtook them. The rumblings of the French Revolution, the threat of invasion and a suspiciously inquisitive stranger force the pair to flee the country and take their chances crossing France to England, as the dangers multiply, Juliana's character-intelligence matched by unwavering receives a harsh test.

"Sunshine Boys"

DEAR EDITOR:

The Fulton County Players will present their spring production, "The Sunshine Boys", Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 19, 20 and 21 at 8 p.m. in the Rochester High School Auditorium.

The hilarious Neil Simon comedy tells the story of a retired vaudeville team and their 30 year old agent's attempts to get them in the spotlight again, much to the chagrin of everyone involved.

The team of Lewis and Clark has been cast by Director Ted Denton with Dr. Carson McGuire as Willie Clark and Joe Jacobs as Al Lewis. Tim McGuire will portray Ben Silverman, the harried agent. All three men are veterans of Fulton County Players productions.

Tickets for the performances will go on sale at Cook Brothers Furniture Store, Rochester, April 16, 17 and 18 from 9 a.m. to noon. Season ticket holders exchanges can also be made at this time. Tickets will also be available at the door on the evenings of the performances.

-Mrs. Ann Wilson

ODC now has office in Akron

The Occupational Development Center of Fulton County will open a branch office in Akron starting April 10. A representative from the ODC will be in Akron every Tuesday from 9 a.m. until 12 noon. The branch office will be located in the town hall.

The ODC is a federally funded job training program. Training is offered that can help a person get and keep a job. There are five training opportunities with the ODC: job readiness training, adult education, work experience, on-the-job training and vocational school opportunities. A participant is paid minimum wage $2.90 for his involvement with the ODC.

Job readiness is a small group of people who meet for eight weeks and learn about things that are important when considering what kind of job to look for. Participants learn about their own talents and skills, the different types of careers available in this area, the skills necessary for a specific job, communication skills, and interviewing skills.

Adult education opportunities are offered through the Adult Learning Center. Persons can study for their high school diploma (GED) or study to improve their basic educational and living skills. The program provides job information and consumer education as well as help in gaining proficiency in reading and math. The Adult Learning Center holds its free classes Mon., Wed., and Thurs. evenings from 6 until 8:30. Classes are held in the Civic Center in Rochester.

Work experience is temporary employment that offers the opportunity to develop basic job skills and a good work record. The jobs are with non-profit organizations such as public schools and city or county agencies. Supervision is provided by the non-profit organization.

On-the-job training is an opportunity for those who are ready to accept the responsibilities of a job and need an individual and agrees to train them for a specific job. At the end of the training period, about six months, the employer is reimbursed for part of the employee's wages.

Vocational school opportunities are also available. Depending on a person's interests, ability and need, and if money is available, the ODC can send a person to an area vocational school to get training in a specific field.

Anyone interested in training can stop in at the Akron town hall on Tuesdays from 9-12, or the main office in the Rochester Civic Center Monday-Friday from 8-5. The ODC is Ivy Tech sponsored and offers equal opportunity training.

Keen-agers discuss possibility of booth at 4th celebration

by Onda Good

The Keen-Agers of the Akron Lions Club Site celebrated the April birthdays Thursday with a carry-in dinner, music and birthday cake. Eva McHatton, Mary McKinzy, Cleo Shafer, Greg Kendall, Garth Irey, Mabelle Ramsey, Helen Day, and Margaret Slaybaugh had birthdays in April. The honored guests present gave short autobiographies of their lives. Bernice Bowen favored the group with some beautiful Easter music.

Thanks Bernice. A few games of Bingo were played after lunch. Josephine Robinson made and donated several nice prizes. Her crochet hook manipulated colored yarn into chickens, rabbits, gosling in shell, and doll hotpads. They were greatly appreciated Josephine. Thanks.

Thursdays are carry-in lunches for the Akron Senior Citizens. The donation for lunch may be something to eat or money on Thursdays. The hearing clinic will be on Thursday, April 19.

The Akron Lions Club Senior Citizens are having some thoughts about a booth for the Akron July 4th celebration this summer. Senior Citizens from the Akron site could exhibit and sell their hobbies and handicrafts. If you are interested in such a project please contact Onda Good or the regular volunteers at the site so plans can be made.

Bring your favorite poem to be read to the group on Monday.

Homemakers celebrated 45th anniversary

The Mentone Extension Homemakers met recently at the home of Gertrude Hill to celebrate their 45th anniversary. The committee in charge included Gertrude Hill, Esther Sarber and Blanche Whitmyer.

The tables were beautifully decorated and each person received a favor of a crocheted cup and saucer in which there were spring flowers.

The noon meal was enjoyed by thirteen members and one guest, Mrs. Lois Lemler. Gertrude Hill gave thanks.

Regular club schedule was followed during the afternoon and each member answered roll call by giving the number of years they had belonged to the club.

Esther Sarber, vice president had charge of the business session. Announcements were made concerning Spring Achievement on May 2; Homemakers Week May 6-12; Homemakers Conference at Purdue June 6-8; and on the trip to the "Tulip Festival" at Holland, Mich. on May 17.

The next meeting will be May 10 at the home of Genevieve Warren with Mary Borton as her co-hostess.

Some poems are short, humorous or catchy while others are more serious but we enjoy them all. It is surprising to me how much fun it is.

For reservations or information call 893-7263 or 893-7204 near the noon hour. Scheduled menus for the week of April 23-27 are:

Family Life

By Renee Norlander

Why is it that always on Tuesdays, my busiest week-day - inside, the weather turns nice? Today, the sun is shining, it's going to be beautifully warm - and it's Tuesday.

Of course Easter weekend was better than I expected, but it's supposed to rain again for the rest of this week. I'm beginning to wonder if I'll ever be able to get Robby outside for an afternoon.

Anybody out there know of any dances or rites for getting continuous sunny, warm weather from Mother Nature?!

Well, Monday was the deadline for filing your tax return with the IRS, and I haven't heard anyone say they were happy about it.

I know that three and a half months seems like plenty of time to get your form ready, but I also know that Bob and I weren't the only ones sweating it out last weekend.

I think the deadline should be June 15. That way, we'd have six good months to prepare, and extra time to earn the money this year that we owe for last year. Does that make any sense?

And speaking of taxes ... Do you realize that if you are in the 25% bracket (for example) and you work 40 hours per week, ten of those are for the government?!

Phew! It upsets me a bit. Not that I can think of a better way, but I sure could think of better ways for the government to spend it! So much, it seems, is wasted. Studies for this, studies for that. And paper and postage. You wouldn't believe how much "junk" mail I get from government offices, legislators, the Army, the Navy, and so on. It is incredible!

I think the government should form a budget committee of housewives, who are used to budgeting, to plan their expenditures. I'm sure there would be a lot less waste!

Anyway, tax time is over for another year. I hope you all had a wonderful Easter, and Happy Spring! Don't forget to go see "Guys & Dolls" this weekend at the high school. I heard them rehearsing last night and it sounds terrific!

Plan for third workshop

The Genealogy Section of the Kosciusko County Historical Society is sponsoring their Third Annual Genealogical Workshop on Saturday, May 12, with registration beginning at 10:30 a.m. followed by a get acquainted time and book displays.

The all-day event will be held at the Claypool Lion's Club Building in Claypool and guests from Eveton Publishers will be the featured speakers.

Send advance registration of $5 by May 1 to Mrs. Cloise Metzger, Route 2, Box 97, Warsaw, IN 46580.

Lesson on advertising presented

On April 11 the Seward Home Extension Club met at the Burkett Church basement with Lulu Eaton as hostess and Elva Longbrake as co-hostess.

President Garnet Latimer opened the meeting with pledges, club creed and all of the members sang "April Showers", the song of the month. Devotions were given by Frances Warren.

The lesson, "Influence of Advertising" was given by Elaine Rhodes showing that advertising is really big business and very convincing. Sometimes advertising makes us buy things without us really realizing that it influenced us that much.

Health and safety on "Physical Fitness" was given by Veta Lowman; the garden report on "Planting Shrubs for the birds" was given by Edna Sarber; and citizenship (about Tell City Chair Co.) was given by Linda Thompson. Cultural arts about "Bone Prairie" was given by Elva Longbrake.

Roll Call (wear your homemade Easter bonnet) was displayed by 16 members and the secretary and treasurers reports were given.

The meeting was dismissed by repeating the club collect.

The next meeting will be a Mother's Day party with a salad bar at 12:30 p.m. on May 9 with Iva Gayle as hostess and Linda Thompson as co-hostess.

"Love Trio" to perform special concert in Akron

by Linda Mason

For folks in the Akron community, The Love Trio has become a household term.

A special night in the life of the trio will be this Sunday evening when they will present a sacred concert in the Akron Church of God sanctuary at 7 p.m.

The concert will provide the trio -- Cathy Murphy, Donna Loer, and Mike Love -- with one last performance in their home church with Mark Fairchild, their drummer, before he and his family move to Houston, Texas, so that he may pursue training for the ministry.

Fairchild decided last fall to enter the ministry after becoming a Christian in October of 1975. The decision for a ministerial career has been a family decision; and his wife, Julie, and children, Lori and Denny, share in the prospect of working in the church fulltime.

The Fairchilds will leave Akron on Sunday, April 29, immediately following the morning church service at the Church of God to begin their four-year venture through Gulf Coast Bible College. Gulf Coast is a Bible-training school affiliated with the Church of God, Anderson headquarters.

There were never any set plans to begin a trio. The Love family was asked to perform at a sing-spration in their local church. Then in August of 1974 they were asked by former Akron minister J. D. Thomason to arrange a concert for a church picnic at Yellow Creek Lake Campgrounds. This was the initiation of The Love Trio.

Fairchild became their drummer in January of 1975, while Mrs. James (Pat) Mitterling has been their piano accompanist since their first official concert. Fairchild has also played harmonica, spoons, Jews (jaw) harp, the kazoo, and a variety of "contraptions" with the trio.

In March of 1976, the trio cut an album, "That's All I Ask", at Bill Gaither's Pinebrook Recording Studio in Alexandria. Fairchild played the drums for the recording, while all other instrumental accompaniment was provided by Pinebrook. They pressed 1,000 copies of this album. The trio hopes to record another album, but no plans have been made to begin in the near future.

The trio has mixed feelings about Mark's departure, although they all agree that it's right if it's what God wants, and they are all convinced that this is what God wants in Mark's life, as well as his family's life.

THE POPULAR "LOVE TRIO"

His absence from the group will definitely affect their sound. Donna, Cathy and Mike like a lot of beat to their music. However, they have discovered in travelling to churches that there are still some religious groups who are reluctant for a musical group to bring drums into their services.

Presently, the trio does not plan to audition musicians for the drummer position. If someone with this particular talent comes along, then they might consider an addition to the group.

The Sunday evening concert will reflect some of their best musical tunes. Also, the Love children -- Lori and Denny Fairchild, Stacy and Brandon Loer, and Heather invitation to the entire community to attend the admission-free concert at 7 p.m. in the local church located at the corner of West and Central Streets. All are welcome to join in this special concert and farewell to the Fairchilds.

Karen Bahney to wed

Mr. and Mrs. John Bahney, R. 2, Macy, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Karen Sue, to John Mark Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sutton, Peru.

Miss Bahney, a 1976 graduate of North Miami High School and Upper Wabash Vocational School, is employed by the Miami-Cass County REMC.

Mr. Sutton, a 1973 graduate of Peru High School, attended Brigham Young University, and is employed by Sutton's Standard Service Station.

An October 20, 1979 wedding is being planned.

Recommend building of new middle school

TVSC patrons hear results of school survey

by Renee Norlander

A small group of interested residents and members of the Tippecanoe Valley School Board met on Tuesday evening, April 17, at the high school to listen to the findings and recommendations of two professionals who recently completed a survey of organizational and facility needs in the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation.

Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Lloyd Harrell, introduced Dr. Norbert J. Nelson, Purdue University, and Dr. Merle Strom, Ball State University, to the Board and citizens, stating that "I doubt if you can find two men who are more highly respected in the field of education in Indiana."

Dr. Nelson and Dr. Strom completed in February their survey of the School Corporation, and presented their findings to the School Board in March. Tuesday evening's meeting was an opportunity for taxpayers and residents of the Corporation to hear the recommendations of Strom and Nelson.

Dr. Nelson reported that the enrollment in the Valley schools has stabilized at 2100 students, and it is highly unlikely that the 1969-70 school year's peak enrollment of 2200 will be reached again in the foreseeable future. We will see a decrease in the high school enrollment but the elementary enrollment will stabilize, according to Nelson.

It was their finding, after much investigation and on the spot surveillance, that the present arrangements "are workable", with one exception, and we have a "good school system now" at the elementary and high school levels.

However, it was Nelson and Stroms most stressed recommendation that the Corporation offer a new, completely autonomous, unit for grades 6 thru 8 to be located at the same site as the high school. It was their feeling that the corporation could not afford to build two middle schools, but one unit should be seriously considered because the situation at present is lacking. Nelson stressed that at the junior high level, "we don't have the breadth of classes and/or facilities to accommodate" the students. They feel a new middle school should be built to accommodate 500 students, and be available for use by the school year opening in 1982.

Strom cautioned that it should "not be a miniature high school" but "for the pre-adolescent". He added that there is "money to be made" by not putting it off, due to rising inflation.

In discussing the advantages of a middle school, Dr. Nelson stated that the state has set up guidelines for such schools, and facilities for expanded cultural activities would be available. Also stressed was the fact that teachers would be teaching in their major subject area, and teachers would spend less time traveling between Akron, Mentone and the high school, and the new school would provide a better identity for the junior high pupils and faculty. Also included among advantages was the fact that the elementary students and teachers would no longer have to be disturbed by junior high students changing classes. The quality of the program would outweigh the disadvantages, according to Strom.

After the in-depth study of all the facilities now being used in the corporation, the two professionals also recommended changes and improvements for the elementary schools and high school.

They stated that the high school is exemplary for our system, but some improvements are required. New construction should consist of an auxiliary physical education, intramural, recreational and athletic unit designed to provide practice and playing floor area for formally established boys' and girls' teams. The facility should provide: (1) a wrestling room; (2) restroom facilities for spectators and participants in outside events; (3) storage space; and (4) minimum seating by use of roll-away bleachers.

They also recommended a new Central Administration Center for the school administrators, to be built near the high school, so as to free space at TVHS for other activities.

At the Mentone School, they found that the 1930 building is solid, but the rooms are too small for use in junior high. By moving grades 6-8 to a new school, there would be adequate space for expanding the services for grades kindergarten through fifth to include kindergarten through fifth to include resource centers, a library, improved fine arts, and classrooms for special education.

It was their recommendation that the Akron School facility should be renovated and enlarged to include one new regular classroom, a special education resource room, a library, expanded fine arts and physical education areas, and rooms for special education. As soon as this new unit and the new middle school were completed, they would recommend that the old 1912 and 1926 complex be retired from further use.

The only building they found to be "fine and very workable" as is, was the Burket Elementary building.

In the discussion which followed, the two men explained ways in which the corporation could finance construction and renovations. "You're pretty financially well off", Dr. Strom told the patrons, and in comparison to other school districts of our size, throughout the state, the tax rate is low. The tax rate for TVSC in 1979 is $.92, compared to the average in Indiana of just about $.55.

Fire destroys summer cottage

A FIRE AT PALESTINE LAKE on Monday, April 23, destroyed the summer cottage of William Lewis, Route 5, Warsaw, and partially damaged a neighboring trailer and nearby woods. Burket firefighters were called to the scene at 1 p.m., but, according to Fire Chief John Huff, the home was almost completely burned before firefighters arrived. Assisted by the Mentone Department, the firemen were on the scene for more than 2½ hours, and were called back later in the evening to water down the area. No one was injured in the blaze.

Akron Board approves initial steps to adjust fluoride levels in water

In their regular monthly meeting Tuesday, April 17, the Akron Town Board was told that the fluoride level in the town water system was below state recommended levels for optimum prevention of tooth decay.

Board members Ron Fenimore, Vernon Waymire, Dr. Charles Miller, and Clerk-Treasurer Ernie Smith were all present at the session.

Dr. Mercer, an Indiana State Health Officer, said that four recent samplings from the water supply show that current natural fluoride in the system is amounting to less than one-half the recommended level of the state. He further mentioned that even though the level is one-half the recommended amount, this does not mean that residents are receiving "half the protection". If levels are less than the desired 1 part per million, fluoride protection drops off to nearly nothing.

When asked what the costs of setting up such a program to adjust fluoride levels in the water system to the desired guidelines, Dr. Mercer estimated that $3,000 would cover the initial set-up of equipment. He also said $2,500 of this cost would be paid by a grant from the State Dental Association, leaving only an amount of $500 for the town to pay. Chemicals would cost roughly $3.00-$4.50 per week thereafter.

Akron Marshall Ed Hauser, who was also present at the meeting, asked if fluoride was a poisonous substance. Dr. Mercer replied that testing from several decades show that a person would "have to drink 50 bathtubs full" in one sitting to be harmed by the sodium fluoride in the water. He also said that there have been no cases reported of anyone being found to be allergic to fluoridated water.

Dr. Charles Miller, who is a dentist in Akron, said that it was of his opinion that adjusting the water fluoride level to state recommendations would be a "benefit to young children and unborn children" and that the adjustments is a "good, public health measure".

The other members agreed that if the specific costs were within reason they would support and act upon implementing a supplemental fluoride adjustment program. The board then asked Dr. Mercer to determine

During last Tuesday's Akron Town Board meeting, an important opportunity was turned down by the trustees' to possibly sell, or just talk about selling, some of the town dump extra acreage to an interested firm looking for a location to build a small plant, to employ about 15 people.

The board turned down the opportunity because of their desire to keep the extra land available for future expansion use.

We are very disappointed that the board feels that a big town dump is more important to a community than jobs and increased tax bases.

If we're not going to push for new industry, small businesses, or jobs, that big dump will never need to be ready for expansion.

In appreciation

DEAR EDITOR,

Thank you! I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the Mentone School Staff, (Teachers, Aids, Cooks, janitors and students) who gave of their time to help with the Mentone Benefit Carnival.

A warm thank you to the cooks for the great chili supper, and to the individuals, churches, organizations and businesses for all of the donations of food, money and prizes. I wish I could name everyone, but for fear of leaving someone out, I'll just say, you know who you are and God bless you for your thoughtfulness and generosity.

Finally I would like to give special thanks to Cathy Suchecki, Mr. Jack Fisher, principal of Mentone School and above all to the wonderful people of the community who cared enough to give of themselves. May God do for you what you have done for me.

All my love,
Sincerely,
Emily

Sources of income to finance the projects could include a cumulative building, a lease rental agreement with a holding company, and general obligation funds. They pointed out that the corporation is in a favorable and sound fiscal position, and it was their feeling that all of the aforementioned recommendations could be accomplished without raising the total tax rate more than $.30 over the present rate with the projected assessed valuations.

In their written summary, Nelson and Strom stated that "All in all, it can be said that the parents, patrons, and taxpayers of the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation have more than adequate financial resources to provide educational programs, services, and physical facilities of whatever quality and quantity they feel is 'good enough' for the children, youth, and adults of the area. The resources are such as to permit school officials to provide needed facilities and educational programs of defensibly high quality without undue effort on the part of taxpayers of the school corporation."

Dr. Nelson concluded at the end of the meeting "what we did present, we think is professionally sound."

Copies of the study are available for public inspection at the Bell Memorial Library, the Akron Carnegie Public Library, the TVHS library, and Dr. Harrell's office at TVHS.

From Viet Nam

After escape, Tony's at home in Mentone

by Renee Norlander

He was born in a city south of the capital city of Saigon in South Viet Nam twenty-five years ago. He lived his entire life in a war torn country, but managed to escape just sixteen months ago, following the Communist takeovers of his homeland. He is now living in Mentone, learning to speak fluent English, and working hard at his trade.

I was quite impressed when Gerald Romine introduced me to Tony Luu. I'm not quite sure what I expected, or who I thought I'd see when I met Tony, but the young man I met was not what (or who) I expected as a refugee of Viet Nam.

He looked like any well dressed, young American male in his snappy shirt and slacks, with leather loafers, and clean cut looks. And his fluent knowledge of our difficult language stunned me. He's bright, witty, intelligent, kind, and happy - or so he seems. As happy as anyone could be after living through what he's been through.

Tony came to Mentone about one month ago to work as an electrician for Romine Electric through the CETA program. He had been living in Indianapolis, and he told me he moved to new neighborhoods almost every month. Not because he had to, but because he really wanted to "get to know" all of the different types of people in our country. And just like any one of us, he's liked some of the people and disliked some.

But how did Tony get here to Mentone? How does a person from after the globe settle in our little town?

The story of Tony's escape from Viet Nam is sad, and he found it difficult to talk about. But he told me briefly what had happened to his life in Viet Nam, and of his coming to America.

It was my impression that Tony's life in his homeland had been pretty nice, despite the war. He attended Catholic Schools all of his life, and after high school spent four years at a university studying to be an electrician.

After finishing school, he worked part-time at an airport for the government. He did not serve his country in the armed forces, and the conflicts of war did not effect life in Saigon too much.

After the Communist takeovers however, things changed. Tony told me that the communists took his family's home and farm, and when he fled, he was sure they were going to take his home.

He left Viet Nam on a twenty foot boat with sixteen persons aboard. After five days, they had run out of fuel, and wanted to shore in Malaysia. The shore patrol however would not help the refugees, and refused to let them land. Finally one night a storm sank Tony's boat, and the people were set adrift. Only six persons, survived that crash, and one of the deceased included one of Tony's sisters.

Being washed ashore, the survivors were taken to a refugee camp by members of the American Red Cross. Tony stayed in the camp for six months, until his sister in Indianapolis arranged for him to come to the United States.

All of Tony's surviving family are in the U.S. now. He has a brother in Rochester who works as a mechanic, and his sister (who is a beautician) and her husband live in Indianapolis.

TONY LUU AND Gerald Romine have been keeping very busy these days at the electrical end of the business. Tony is a CETA employee working at Romine Electric, and he's been quite busy finishing a job at the new Sambo's in Warsaw. As Donna Romine said, "he is quite a perfectionist".

I was curious to find Tony's reactions to the American way of life, and to the American people. He finds people friendly here, he said, but he notices those who are obviously prejudiced. He said he was surprised at the way Americans react to skin color. Obviously this must not be the case in Viet Nam.

But he admires how hard we Americans work to maintain our high standard of living. He seemed to feel that it was our right to be well-off since we work so hard for it. In Viet Nam, he told me, there is only a small middle-class; people are either very rich, or poor. And he likes what he sees in America's masses of middle-class families.

And American food?! Well, some of it is good, but I think he prefers his own cooking. Especially steak! But he "loves Kentucky Fried Chicken".

Tony hasn't had a lot of time to meet people in Mentone. Most of his days are filled with work in Warsaw, and he relaxes in Romine's trailer (where he's staying right now) in the evenings. He hopes to continue studying English in night classes (he finished at the top of his class at Marion College last year) and I'm sure he wants to make many friends in his new home. And of course (in the true American tradition) he wants to get a car.

Donna and Gerald are quite pleased with Tony's work as an electrician, and they seem confident that he'll be around for quite some time. Donna commented on Tony's work, "he's quite a perfectionist". And she added that she and Gerald are very fond of him.

I hope that America will prove to be the wonderful country we all think of it as. And hopefully Tony will find the peace and security he deserves here!

Family Life

By Renee Norlander

Last weekend as Bob and I were driving through Burket, we noticed several old refrigerators being stored out of doors. The first thing that came to our minds was the warnings we've seen on television about old refrigerators and children getting caught in them, with the results often being suffocation.

I don't know if the refrigerators we saw were locked, but I thought I'd remind everyone: Please! if you have an old refrigerator, freezer, or such, out where children can get at it - lock the door with chains, or remove it! The extra effort involved may save an innocent child's life!

This weekend, the students at TVHS will be enjoying their big night at the junior-senior prom. And that got me to thinking of how things have (or have not) changed so much since I went to the prom.

I've talked to several kids who are going this weekend, and even though I didn't think kids still get excited about such things - they do!

The girls are just as excited and nervous as I was ten years ago. Maybe clothing styles have changed; maybe girls ask guys now; and maybe they dance different dances, but I get the feeling that a lot of teenagers are just like I was when I was in school.

It's sad that so many of us "adults" look at teenagers from a prejudiced point of view. We think and talk only about the trouble-makers. How often do we commend those who are deserving of our praise?!

Maybe we are older, and more experienced, but some of the kids I've met here are going to be terrific adults. In the true sense of that word. Even Robby has a "crush" on one, and he has great taste.

I just hope all of those prom goers have as much fun Saturday night as I had at my senior prom years ago. It's a night you never forget.

Looks like Mother Nature finally heard our pleas for sunshine and warmth. This past week has been gorgeous; I can't think of a thing to complain about. Spring is Here!

Was happy to see that there are some interested persons in our school district who cared enough to attend last Tuesday's meeting with Doctors Strom and Nelson. If you didn't attend, you can read their survey results at the libraries in Akron, Mentone, and TVHS. It is interesting, and if you're a TVSC patron you should take the opportunity.

Plan to honor Akron writer

Guests have been invited to the annual May luncheon of the Akron Women's Club on Thursday, May 3, at noon in the lower level of the Akron Public Library. Hostesses are Joanna VanScoy, Miriam Cumberland, Thelma Kuhn, Grace Waechter and Lorraine Whittenberger.

All club members are asked to bring a dish of food and a place setting. Special music, with Berniece Bowen in charge, and installation of officers are scheduled. Members will share vignettes of international travel during the program.

President Elizabeth Gray led the delegation attending the Indiana State Convention of federated clubwomen this week in Indianapolis.

Plans are underway to honor Ann Sheetz, Akron writer, on the publication of her book, Born Again and Still Wet Behind the Ears. A "meet the author" reception is planned for Thursday, May 10, from 3 to 6 p.m. The public is invited to stop by the library to talk with Mrs. Sheetz. Copies of the book will be available, personally autographed, if desired.

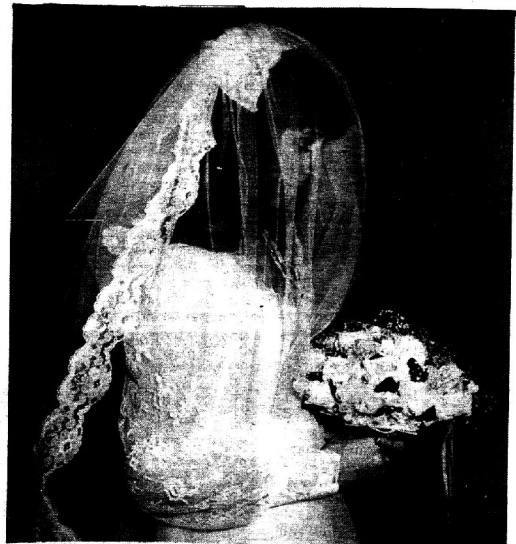

Akron Women's Club is coordinating the event with Librarian Velma Bright and members of the Akron Public Library board.

Don't be afraid to use mayonnaise, it slows bacterial growth

Don't be afraid of the store-bought mayonnaise you smear on your meat sandwich, say Purdue University food specialists. It isn't to blame for salmonella food poisoning!

Mayonnaise slows the growth of salmonella (bacteria which cause food infections). The storage temperature, length of storage time and type of meat used (processed or home-cooked) have more to do with food-borne infection than mayonnaise, says Jean M. Howe, Extension food and nutrition specialist at Purdue.

Spurred by conflicting reports about the involvement of store-bought mayonnaise in cases of food poisoning, Howe and Balasubramanian Swaminathan, assistant professor of foods and nutrition, studied sandwiches prepared with processed or home-roasted turkey meat, some of which were spread with mayonnaise, then inoculated with salmonella bacteria. The mayonnaise in the turkey sandwiches retarded the growth of salmonella.

According to Howe, "Dr. Swaminathan and I were intrigued by conflicting opinions as the safety of foods prepared with mayonnaise. Even authoritative sources seemed to disagree, terming the danger of food poisoning 'the oldest of old wives tales,' or 'the major culprit in (food poisoning episodes)'. So we decided to find out for ourselves."

Sets of sandwiches of home-cooked turkey and of processed turkey meat, some of which were spread with store-bought mayonnaise, were inoculated with salmonella bacteria. Some of each of the four types of sandwiches were stored in each of three temperatures -- a cool temperature such as might be found in a refrigerator, room temperature, and very warm temperature such as might be found in a lunch box left in the sun.

Samples of each set of sandwiches were tested in four, eight, and twenty-four-hour intervals.

When the results were in, Howe and Swaminathan concluded that home-cooked turkey meat supports the growth of salmonella more readily than processed turkey meat. And sandwiches stored in warm areas such as lunch boxes are likely to cause food infections if eaten after four hours of storage. Refrigeration controlled the growth of salmonella on sandwiches with and without mayonnaise. But the addition of mayonnaise retarded the growth of salmonella in sandwiches stored at the higher temperatures.

Howe explains that bacteria growth is inhibited by acid and mayonnaise is acidic because one of its main ingredients is vinegar. Salad dressing usually is even better at slowing the rate of bacterial growth than mayonnaise because it is more acidic.

"Don't let these findings lull you into a false sense of security," warns Howe. "Even though the growth of salmonella is retarded, it is not prevented. If meat is left for too long in a warm place, even though the growth of food poisoning bacteria is slower, you still can get mighty sick. So, take care to keep meats refrigerated and avoid eating meats that have been at room temperature more than four hours -- but don't be afraid of mayonnaise," she says.

the Rev. Leo Erny. They are the parents of three daughters, Sherry Yates, Terry and Lori McGowen and two grandsons, Shawn and Ryan, all of Warsaw.

The attendance of their friends and relatives at their open house will serve as a memorable gift for the couple.

"You don't need to know the same language, just the same Lord"

by Linda Mason

In all our American affluency, it's inconceivable to us that some persons on this globe cannot even afford the materials that it takes to build a structure in which they may worship God. However, this is exactly the case in Guatemala.

Recently the Rev. James F. Hall, of the Akron Church of God, along with Dean Ault, Lucille Doering, Fred Hammond, Carol and Osie Hopkins, and Jim and Pat Mitterling journeyed to Guatemala with a Venture in Mission (VIM) work camp team to build two churches.

The transient missionaries left Akron at 5:30 a.m. on Monday, February 19, and arrived in Guatemala City at 4:20 p.m. (5:20 p.m. our time). They returned Thursday, March 1.

Rev. Isai Calderon, commissioned by the Church of God Mission Board out of Anderson, met the group at the airport to take them to their destination of Pachaj when they learned that the church at Almalonga had already been built. Pachaj was a mere 12,500 feet above sea level.

Before journeying up the mountain, the VIM team worshipped at the Gallian Church in Guatemala City where Pastor Hall preached through an interpreter and the group sang.

Going up the mountain proved to be no easy task. The church bus that was supposed to transport them became incapacitated when it lost its motor. From there on out, the group had to rely on public transportation, walking or hitch-hiking to reach Pachaj. This proved to be the group's biggest problem the entire trip.

They arrived at their work site on Thursday morning and proceeded to build the Pachaj church in three-and-a-half days. Another problem faced them—lack of materials. When the annual, median income of the average family in Guatemala is only $430, materials are hard to come by. Most, if not all, of the building materials are supplied by the Mission Board of the Church of God through the support of local congregations like the Akron church.

The Akron Church of God fellowship dedicated half of her Easter Missions' Offering to the Church at Almalonga which was dedicated by the VIM group on Sunday, February 25. This special offering paid for all of the building costs which totaled $1,196.90, with extra to be given to another church yet to be built.

Since this was the first mission work camp that any of the local church people have participated in, apprehension would best sum up their feelings prior to leaving the boundaries of Fulton county.

Personalities are definitely unique in any group, and this group was no exception.

Fred Hammond assumed the title of the "Pied Piper of Akron Church of God" when he fell in love with the Guatemalan children and they with him. Fred would give the children a big bear-hug, and they kept asking for more. He thoroughly enjoyed sharing with God's people. Upon arrival home, he commented, "I hope those people saw something of God's love in my face."

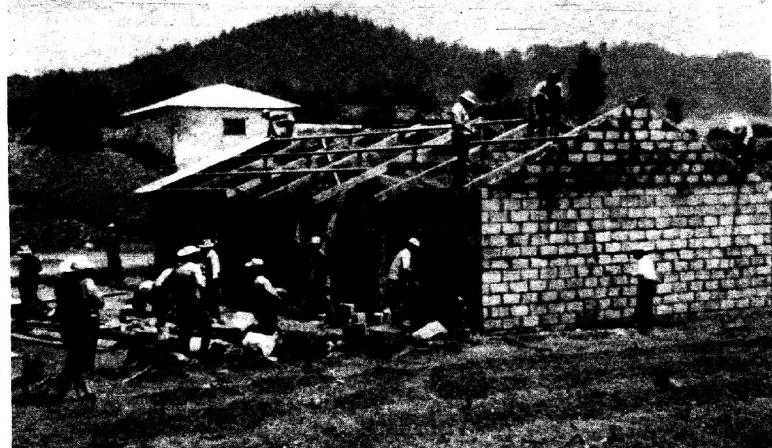

According to Dean Ault, the hardships they sometimes faced - like the air coming out of their make-shift air mattress beds - could not even compare with the looks on the peoples' faces at the dedication services. And he believes, "The only way you'll know is to go yourself."

The wind blowing and the sun beating down constantly took their toll on the fair-complected ones in the group. Lucille Doering turned a little red on the journey, so she really felt right at home when they joined the Guatemalan people to sing the "Family of God" in which it doesn't matter what color your skin happens to be.

"I wouldn't take the world for what I saw. I'm glad to be back home, but I'd go again," commented Osie Hopkins. Her daughter Carol concurs completely because she said, "I would go back, also."

Carol arrived home with an uncompleted term paper for Senior English, but the mission experience seemed well worth the grade sacrifice for this senior. She remarked, "I felt good because I had done something for them, but they helped me, also. I feel closer to God than I did before I went."

The thing that most impressed Pat Mitterling was that the Women's Missionary Society would meet every Thursday afternoon for two to three hours probing into how they could reach others with the Good News. She said, "Guatemala is like Jesus' day of 2,000 years ago. They don't have things to distract them like we do. I think

THE EFFORTS OF the Akron residents who traveled to Guatemala were not wasted to say the least. Sixteen new churches are under construction at the present time, and Dr. Calderon estimates that thirty more are needed. He had already established twenty-five.

Spirit. No, you don't need to know the same language, just the same Lord."

As their descent from the mountain top and Tuesday drew near, Jim's condition improved greatly. By the time he returned to the United States on Thursday, he was completely healed. He said, "We went to help—not to build a church for them." They wanted to do things for you, so as to help build their church.

Rev. Hall stated, "All of the churches which were destroyed by the earthquake of 1975 have been restored, plus new ones have been added to their number."

The joy of the people upon completion of the work cannot be expressed. They have absolutely nothing, yet they are willing to give anything and everything they have.

Those who ventured to Guatemala benefited in numerous ways. They were privileged to see others in a completely different culture. They most all of this initial group would like to go back. Rev. Hall says, "My home and dream is that our people will become involved in work camp missions throughout the world."

Presently, the Church of God Missions Board sends four or five groups out annually around the world. "This is mission work in the truest sense," remarks Rev. Hall.

"This type of work cannot be done by field missionaries, like Rev. Calderon, because they can't afford to build churches. It's more than building a structure, it's sharing love," commented Pastor Hall.

Through the involvement of the eight Akron community members and a slide presentation this Sunday, April 29, night at 7 p.m. in the local church, Pastor Hall and the VIM workers hope to share their experiences in Guatemala and feelings about the mission with the community.

Pastor Hall and the church invite all community members to come and view the slides, ask questions, and learn what it really means to be a missionary.

Service Notes

Pvt. Lance D. Knoop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burl Knoop, Surburan Acres, Warsaw, recently completed Phase 1 of the Two-Station Test at Fort Knox, Ky.

The test is being conducted to see if basic entry training can be effectively reduced from 16 weeks to 12 weeks and still be administered at two stations. The second phase is held at Fort Benning, Ga.

A husband and wife team Spec. 5 Kent D. Brookshire, and Spec. 4 Falanika L. Brookshire, recently was assigned to Fort Ord, Calif.

Kent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond I. Brookshire, Warsaw, is a truck driver with the 7th Infantry Division at the fort.

Falanika, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aumua Lui, 2128 Kalena Drive, Honolulu, Hawaii, is a truck driver and clerk with the 7th Supply and Transport Battalion at the fort.

IF YOU THINK working on a missionary trip is fun, think again. The group may have enjoyed interesting and different scenery from Indiana's, but as you can see, pushing a van up a dirt road in the mountains has to be hard work. All of the members though stated that they'd do it again!

that some of us need to sort out our priorities."

For Pat it became a particularly critical time when her husband, Jim (who was the foreman for the trusses and roof construction), became "deathly" ill on the final Monday of the trip. Guatemalans from miles around came to be with Jim as he struggled to regain his health and to be with Pat as she tried to comfort him.

Pastor Hall expressed, "You didn't know the language they were praying in, you couldn't understand the words, but you could feel the Pachaj. The amazing thing was that there was no parking lot, no one drove cars, they all arrived on foot. Needless to say, the small church building was filled, which in turn blessed all of the workers involved in the project.

The efforts of the group were definitely not wasted as 16 new church buildings are under construction presently. Thirty more churches will be needed when those are completed. Rev. Calderon has established more than 60 churches in the last 25 years of his mission work in Guatemala.

saw the need in a country that has little, but the most exciting part for the Akron group was seeing the beauty of the spirit of the people and the joy of giving of themselves.

These transient missionaries, although they paid their own expenses, were not independent in this mission venture. They were emissaries sent from the Akron church.

As a result of this work camp, a great deal of enthusiasm for missions and a desire for involvement has grown in the local church. Al-

Board turns down land sale specific costs and advise them later. Before Dr. Mercer left the meeting, he cited that statistics indicate that almost 95% of all Indiana residents drink and use recommended levels of fluoridated water and this has resulted in a 65% drop in tooth decay.

In other action last Tuesday night: —James Russell, an engineer from Fort Wayne, spoke to the board about the possibility of connecting a sewer hookup from the Akron Meat Locker Plant for disposal of non-blood/grease waste into the town sewer system. The board asked town Sanitation Engineer Val Duggins to check into the matter and advise his conclusions to them later.

—The Akron Chamber of Commerce, represented by Howard Van Scoy, informed the board that the chamber had received a letter from the State Commerce Department regarding a wood treating company that is seeking a location for a new plant in the area. The firm was seeking an area of 10-20 acres with a railroad access, and will employ about 15 people. Mr. Van Scoy asked if the town would consider selling some of the dump area property to this firm as no other land in the area to meet the rail requirements is available at this time. After some discussion, the board expressed their thought that the town should hold on to the land for future dumping space and decided against offering the land for sale. Mr. Van Scoy said he would relay the information to the state.

—Ben Barnett, representing the Fulton County Conservation Club donated 12 wren houses and 8 wood duck houses to the town for placement in the park and lagoon areas. The board expressed their appreciation on behalf of the town.

The Akron Town Board meets on Tuesday evenings, the third Tuesday of each month in the Town Offices.
