WHAT I SEE FOR 1981

(or, move over Jean Dixon, it's my turn)

by William Smith, Jr.

Every year at this time, famous Astrologers and soothsayers make predictions for the next twelve months. They seem, at the end of the year, to hit 98% wrong. Let us see, just for the fun of it, how well I do at the guessing game.

1. Dick Day will sell hardware!
2. The Akron Exchange Bank will handle money!
3. Murphy Furniture will sell tables, chairs, sofas, etc!
4. Akron Concrete will make burial vaults!
5. Akron Foundry will pour hot iron!

6. Akron Supermarket will sell food!
7. South End Motors will sell Fords!
8. Bahney Chevrolet will sell cars and trucks, too!
9. BJ's will sell stuff!

I could go on like this forever. The plain fact is that I only stated the obvious, and a couple of weeks from now all that I wrote will have been forgotten. At the end of the year, I could drag this out and say, "See how smart I am?" and every one would say "Big deal." even though I will have been 100% right. The point is, I could have made some really wild statements, and if, by chance, hit ONE right, while claiming that I can read the stars, or tea leaves to tell the future, the same people that called me a fake the other way, would shove wads of money down my throat to tell THEIR fortunes.

Could it be the wilder the claim, the more people want to believe?

A short story

The Rev. Sam McKeg was a sight to behold!

He was bug-eyed like Charlie Hamm's green frog, and red faced, with a large bulbous nose that looked as if it were pasted on.

Old Sam always wore a Prince Albert suit, which had a long-tailed coat split up the back to the waistline. The Reverend was rather chubby, especially his rear. The Prince Albert made him look like he was wearing a bustle. The tight-fitting coat didn't quite fit over his rear, or come together in front, and you could see his white shirt sticking out. The coat was pulled and pinched together in front with a safety pin.

I was six years old in this year of 1889, yet I remember vividly preacher Sam McKeg. He was called a circuit rider, which means he would preach various Sundays all over Madison County.

Rev. Sam would preach at Adsbury Church the first Sunday of the month, then Linwood Church, near Anderson, on the second, and Joyce Chapel, near Alexandria, the third and fourth weeks. Then he would start all over again.

My Pa, my little sister, Beulah May, and me, Ethyl May, Charlie Hamm, our cousin, and my Aunt Beck, went to all these services. They were all held in the same county, where Pa had a small farm and did carpentry work in the winter.

Charlie, Beulah May and me didn't much want to go to Church, "cause it seemed as though the services lasted three hours or more. Old McKeg got carried away with his sermons, and would drone on and on, or he would get to hollering about the bad place, where you went if you weren't good.

This usually scared Beulah May, and she would start bawling 'til sometimes Pa had to take her outside and give her a lecturing. In the summer it was awful hot and in the winter you nigh froze to death.

Folks had to sit quite a ways back on the hard oak pews, because old McKeg "chawed tobacco". He didn't always hit the spittoon, which was a shiny brass vessel next to the pulpit.

Aunt Beck always said, "A feller might even carry an umbrella, to be on the safe side!"

One very hot Sunday, Pa hitched old Moll, our gray mare, and we drove to Joyce Chapel in Alexandria. Aunt Beck had dressed Beulah May and me in look-alike dresses of red and black calico. Charlie dressed in his best cotton shirt and knickers held up with suspenders.

Since we only wore shoes on Sunday in the summer, they felt tight, and made us squirm and wiggle until Aunt Beck poked her finger at us and shook her head hard. We were supposed to be seen and not heard.

Joyce Chapel was a small one-room frame Church with a black iron pot-belly stove in the middle of the room. The door was ajar. There were two rows of pews with an aisle down the center, the American Flag standing in the right corner. A reed organ was parallel to the pulpit on the left. The organ had pedals that the organist pushed alternately with her feet, and the reeds were sounded by a key-board.

Almyra Tate, the organist, was already seated at the organ when our little group walked in. Her four-year-old, Rodney, was being cared for by some kind soul in the congregation. He was Almyra's "pride and joy", and she always dressed him in white to show off his curly blond hair. Rodney looked like one of those chubby angels carved on Aunt Beck's bedstead.

Trouble was - Rodney was a "Squirmer". No one could hold onto him for more than five minutes. He would somehow get loose and wander up and down the aisle, and in and out of the pews. Since he didn't make much noise, no one paid much attention to him.

"Praise God" offered Preacher Sam. "We will now stand and sing page 72, 'When the Roll is Called Up Yonder I'll Be There'."

Well - we all commenced singing at the top of our voices. We were slightly off-key, but that don't make much difference to Methodists, cause we surely do love to sing.

"When the Roll is called up Yonder-r-r," bellowed Sam McKeg, holding his hymnal high. After a while it seemed as if old McKeg was singing a solo.

New books at the Akron Library

New books received at the Akron Carnegie Public Library include the following:

THE COURAGE OF CAROL by Robert and Arvella Schuller. In 1978 while Dr. and Mrs. Robert Schuller were in Seoul, Korea, completing a three week ministry to chaplains and ministers in the Orient. Word was received that their 13 year old daughter Carol was gravely injured in a motorcycle accident in Iowa, where she was vacationing with her cousins. Her left leg had been amputated and further amputation might be necessary. This family moved into the troubled and untraveled paths of human grief which would test their faith as never before. This book is their testimony. They want the world to know that the right kind of faith turns tears into pearls of priceless spiritual value.

A LADY OF REPUTE by Janice James. This is a marvelous novel of romance and manners set against the changing social order of late nineteenth century England.

LITTLE GLORIA, HAPPY AT LAST by Barbara Goldsmith. This is the story of money, glamour and scandal; a story of American society and European royalty; a story of family strife exploding into one of the most dramatic and publicized court battles of the century - the battle for a solemn ten-year-old child, LITTLE GLORIA Vanderbilt, who in 1934 was the object of the epic custody suit between her mother, the beautiful and penniless Vanderbilt widow, and her aunt, the famous Gertrude Vanderbilt Whitney, whose $78 million could buy her anything she wanted. And what she wanted was "Little Gloria". Her is the story.

HOW MANY MOUNTAINS by Russell S. Schultz. This is a story of triumph -- of how a person, wed to a wheelchair, can design and build a series of eleven cars and special equipment to make life a little easier; how he can face countless dangers; how he can love and find romance; and how he even worked as an undercover agent to break up narcotics sales.

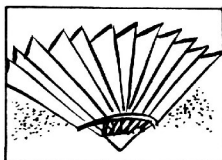

THE GENESIS ROCK by Edwin Corley. A small fissure has opened in bedrock under Manhattan, and miles beneath the surface of the earth an awesome natural time bomb is ready to spew steam, boiling hot sediment, and molten rock down every street and avenue of the city. There is one person in New York who knows what is happening - Janet McCoy, a beautiful and brilliant young geologist. If she's right, New York has only hours to prepare for the most horrifying natural disaster in modern history. This is a novel of real suspense.

DAR Good Citizen from TVHS

Charles Sheetz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sheetz, R. 2, Akron, and a senior at Tippecanoe Valley High School has been selected the county winner of the DAR Good Citizen contest. He was sponsored by the Anthony Nigo DAR Chapter of Mentone. His papers have been forwarded to the State for further competition.

Each year a student in the senior class is selected to compete in this contest. He or she must have the qualities of leadership, dependability, service and patriotism to an outstanding degree, as well as being in the top part of his class scholastically. A test is given that has been furnished by the National DAR Committee. The first part consisted of personal questions and the second part was an essay reflecting knowledge of American History and government and appreciation for the principles of freedom, equality and justice upon which our country was established. It was to express a whole-hearted desire to protect the hard-won freedoms for future generations.

Anthony Nigo members congratulate Charles and his parents for this honor. A banquet will be held in April, honoring him as well as the students selected at Warsaw and Wawasee.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Christians and politics

DEAR EDITOR:

I regret there are so many hard feelings concerning fundamental Christians informing people of Congressmen's voting records and policies, etc. I feel, if people were more knowledgeable of the fundamental's view point, they would be more understanding. Please don't overlook the fact that various organizations have corrupt practices.

Our Country was founded under God and Biblical Principles. Our Colonists didn't hesitate to make a stand against Immorality, such as: Murdering unborn babies; Homosexuality; Humanism; Pornography; ERA; Government regulating family and Church Ministry; etc., in which our Country has made a stand against, since the Pilgrims landed. According to many Liberals, you would think it's a major crime, to make this same stand today. It seems that good has become evil, and evil has become good. God Forbid!

Many people are saying that Christians are trying to legislate Morality. We know righteousness cannot be legislated, this will have to come from the heart. What we tried to do was, inform people on moral issues, some Congressmen's voting records and policies; in order to defend our Christian heritage, which we cherish dearly. We feel then, that we have done our part, then it's up to the Lord. Many of our Founding Fathers, lost all their worldly possessions, and some even their life, for this right.

I feel it's a duty of a true Christian and/or a Patriot to preserve our Christian heritage, which our Founding Fathers fought so diligently for. "The fear of the Lord is to hate evil..." (Proverbs 8:13).

Historical Society achieved 1980 goals

DEAR EDITOR:

The Fulton County Historical Society would like to thank the many people, clubs and businesses that helped us attain our goals for 1980. When the board of directors decided on four goals last January, we knew we were biting off quite a lot of work. And it is with considerable relief that we announce the completion of three of these goals and the near completion of the fourth.

The four goals were (1) lay railroad track and build a shed for the rolling stock at Leiters Ford depot museum, (2) repair foundation of Rochester depot museum, (3) microfilm the old newspapers, and (4) publish "Fulton County Folks vol. 2."

The undertaking of these four tasks alone was staggering, but coupled with the many other activities FCHS carries on, plus the Trail of Courage Rendezvous and special displays during the Round Barn Festival made 1980 one of the busiest years ever.

Now at the end of the year we pause to reflect and evaluate, and at this time we want to thank the population of Fulton County for their tremendous support of the historical society. For a "little" county like us to have a historical society with a membership of 600 is indeed remarkable.

We specially thank our sponsors who made publication of our Quarterly possible. We increased the size of the Quarterly from 40 to 60 pages in order to more quickly publish the back-log of stories given us by the many persons interested in preserving history. Right now one of our major targets is the publishing of histories of each of the one-room schools in the county, and there were over 110 of them!

We are sorry that we had to raise our dues, but the high cost of silver caused film prices to rise, and film is used in off-set printing. But at $10 a year most people will agree that this is a real bargain. For about the same as the cost of a nice Sunday dinner, your dues to the historical society will accomplish much that will be preserved, used and appreciated for many years to come.

Shirley Willard
FCHS, president

Ralph Severns

DEAR SIR:

Would you please put the following in your newspaper:

Ralph Severns would like to thank everyone who sent him cards and letters over the Christmas holiday. He was deeply touched and would enjoy hearing from you in the future. Health and Happiness to all in the New Year.

Thank you,
Mrs. V. Kronewitter

Animal rights

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

How many people in Akron and Mentone had a Merry Christmas while animals were tortured in steel-jaw leghold traps to satisfy the greed of luxury? Animals are subjected to prolonged agony when caught in the steel traps which account for a large majority of animal furs. Ever think about the young that starve to death while their mothers are dying of torture?

The leg bone of an animal is broken. As the animal struggles to free itself, the jaws of the trap tear into the flesh, causing extreme fear and pain. The animal is held in the trap unless it chews off its paw and escapes. Trapped animals swallow fragments of their own bodies - broken teeth, fur and claws in attempts to chew themselves free of the traps. Why? Animals never hurt anyone,

Frank Conibear, the Canadian trapper who invented the instant-kill trap wrote, "It is probable that no instrument was ever invented that caused as much suffering as the common steel-jaw leghold trap." So, to all you ladies with your expensive furs, remember the only people you will impress are the socially prominent. Not the little animals that died in agony to satisfy your tastes of luxury.

I heard fur trappers never remove their shirts so no one can see the yellow streaks down their backs.

Deaf Man Designs Tiny Hearing Aid

OFFERS FREE MODEL

A remarkable tiny hearing aid has been perfected by a man who has been hard of hearing for nearly ten years.

This small device has no dangling cords or separate transmitting units and is worn completely in your ear.

It was developed especially for those persons who can hear but can't understand. This new hearing instrument provides "ear-level" hearing with the wearer picking up speech, sounds, television and radio at his ear. Due to the use of transistors, the user cost is extremely low.

A true life actual size replica of one of the smallest all-in-the-ear hearing aid ever made will be given absolutely free to anyone sending in this advertisement while supply lasts. So we suggest you write for yours now. No obligation whatsoever. Write to Hear, Box 360, Garrett, IN 46738.

Girl Scout cookie sale to begin

"You're buying more than cookies and crackers, without a doubt. You're help - each and every Girl Scout."

What has become an annual tradition - Girl Scout Cookie Sales - will begin in the four counties served by Indiana Lakeland Girl Scout Council on Friday, January 9, 1981. The sale in Elkhart, Kosciusko, Noble, and Whitley counties will end January 19. Cookies will be delivered to customers between February 21 and March 4. The first nationally franchised cookie sale was held in 1936.

The Girl Scouts will be taking cookie orders door-to-door, and in some cases over the telephone. In addition booth sales will be held. Dutch'n Such, made without artificial flavors, colors, or preservatives is a new item this year. These can be ordered in addition to the existing line of Girl Scout favorites: Golden Yangles, Savannah, Thin Mint, Chocolate Chip, Scot-Teas, and Chocolate and Vanilla Creme Cookies. Every penny earned by cookie and other product sales remains in the Council. It is used to benefit girls both directly and indirectly.

Each troop keeps twenty cents profit from each box sold for Troop activities of their choice. The cookie sale helps the Council purchase equipment, maintain camp singing hills, for camperships, and to pay for cookie incentives, including camp fee credits. Last year 543 campers attended resident camp. Of this total 362 were from Elkhart county; 95 from Kosciusko; 37 from Whitley and 49 from Noble: 254 girls attended by using full cookie credit; a total of $18,462.00 of cookie credit was used during the summer.

That's a lot of cookies! Incentives this year include camp credits, which start at $5.00 for 40 boxes sold with 140 boxes sold giving a girl $50.00 credit which is the cost of one week at camp.

Some girls have earned three weeks camp credits. Other incentives offered are: Cookie Fun '81 Pencil, for participation; Patch - 50 boxes sold, Eagle charm - 100 boxes sold; Charm bracelet - 200 boxes sold; Tote bag or T-Shirt - 300 boxes sold; quiz kid calculator - 400 boxes sold; silver pendent necklace - 500 boxes sold.

The council cookie sales chairman is Mrs. Robert Lefforge, who has volunteered for this position for over 15 years. The association sales chairmen for the 1981 cookie sale are: Mrs. Fred Call, Mrs. Claude Tipton, Mrs. Marilyn Heal, and Mrs. Dallas Fox for Elkhart County; Mrs. Jack Knotts for Kosciusko County; Mrs. David Nicolet for Whitley County; and Mrs. Marge Piver for Noble County.

Service unit sales chairmen are Mrs. Maureen Holycross, Bristol; and Jane Lung for the troops in the Middlebury School Corporation. Service unit sales chairmen for Elkhart include Debbie Miller, Mrs. Gordon Eslick, Mrs. Richard Ellsworth, Elaine Griffy, Fran Stoll, Rose Schneider, Rose Watson, and Sharon Leazenby. If you would like more information on a particular school area in Elkhart, contact the Girl Scout Office, 264-3144. Working with Mrs. Fox will be Linda Pollom, Bargo Schools; Janice McDonald, Goshen;

Shirley Doane, New Paris; and Mary Lou Hansen, Concord Schools.

Working with Mrs. Knotts will be Nancy Nelson for Syracuse; Mrs. Beverly Flannery for the Milford Troops; Aloha Gest for the Leesburg Troops; Sue Ann Ray for North Webster; Mrs. Cherrie Lenz for Atwood; Dixie Secrist for Mentone; Mrs. Phyllis Milbourn for Claypool; Diane Sherard for Piercetown; Dee Jaynes for Lincoln and Seared Heart Schools; Polly Babbett for Jefferson Township Schools; Donna Keough for Madison School; and Lynn Weaver for Burkett. Service unit chairmen for Whitley county are Sandra Hossler for Larwell; Jerry Phelps for South Whitley; Mrs. Tony Elliott for Coesse; Nancy Adams for Churubusco; Valerie Puckett for Thorncrest; Wilma Cox for Marshall Memorial and Mary Raber Schools; Peggy Sturgell for Columbia Township; Judy Hill for Jefferson Township. "Girl Scouting can make the difference for any girl, it makes for better people in a changing world."

Brownie Troop No. 142 from Mentone will be taking orders from Jan. 9 to Jan. 19, 1981.

These cookies will be delivered between Feb. 21 to March 4, 1981.

If you wish to buy some cookies, but no Brownie called on you, please call Mrs. Ron Secrist, 353-7933 to place your order.

Mentone United 4-H news

How many are there? That was the question asked of every 4-Her at the Mentone United 4-H Club meeting. How many what? Red-hot! Roll call consisted of a guess at how many of the small, red candy pieces were in a bowl. Tracy Mikel won the prize of a candy cane by guessing closest at 450.

Laura Ryman and Troy Kistler led the pledges as the meeting was called to order. A treasurer's report was given of a balance of $92.90 with a fill of $7.19 being subtracted during the meeting. A new rule was passed to help keep confusion out of the meetings. After one warning, anyone talking out of place will be charged five cents, we had one collection already!

Tammy West made an announcement on the freeze-branding and nose printing for Beef and Dairy Beef on December 6, and January 10. A Christmas gift exchange was held, and enrollment cards were available and are due March 1, 1981.

Betty Smith gave the special health and safety report that follows:

'Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house, the mouses were stirring in fear of the house. The stockings weren't hung by the chimney with care, in fact they were scattered around everywhere! The children were nestled all snug in their beds while visions of sugar-plums, (twinkies, Hershey Bars, candy canes, popcorn balls, and crackerjacks) danced in their heads. Moms in her kerchief and I in my cap had just settled down for a long winters nap.

When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter, I sprang from my bed to see what was the matter. Away to the window I flew like a flash, tore open the shutter (which fell on my foot) and threw up the sash.

The moon on the creast of the new fallen snow, gave a luster of midday to objects below. When what to my wondering eyes should appear, but a miniature sleigh and eight tiny reindeer.

I pulled in my head as if was turning around, down the chimney he came with a leap and a bound (and a fall as he tripped over the extension cord). He filled all the stockings and turned with a jerk, and laying a finger aside of his nose (he was running around to everybody's house with a terrible cold) up the chimney he rose. As you have probably noticed this poem isn't quite right, I've used it to make you think a little about health and safety tonight. But, let me explain as I go out of sight, healthy Christmas to all, and to all a good night!

Our next meeting will be Wednesday January 21, 1981 at 7:30 in the Youth League Building. January is membership month so come join the fun.

County Historian Program

Local historical information will move closer to every Hoosier's fingertips under a County Historian program to be developed during 1981.

Sponsored jointly by the Indiana Historical Bureau, a state agency, and the Indiana Historical Society, a private group, the program will be built around an official historian to be named for each of the state's 92 counties.

The Indiana Historical Society's co-sponsorship is part of an expanded service program to mark the organization's sesquicentennial, which will be observed during 1981, according to Gayle Thornbrough, executive secretary.

TVHS committee plans OEA project

The Advisory committee for the Tippecanoe Valley High School OEA met on December 8th to plan their projects for the year.

The money making projects for the last summer were discussed and the need for more projects for the coming district and state contests for the OEA, which will include entry fees for the contestants previously paid by their yearly dues.

The Bee Line party which is sponsored by the IOL/OEA members was a success again this year, adding to the treasury money to be used for transportation and expenses incurred during trips to the contests. The money made by the committee members and OEA members during the last summer's projects, the Mentone Egg Festival and Akron 4th of July chicken Bar-B-Q, has been added to the treasury for use by the students on their trips to contests.

New business included the replacement of committee member J. C. Rhodes, who has moved from the community. A list of people interested in being on the Advisory Committee was discussed and several names will be suggested to the school board during their next meeting for approval.

The Vocational Education Department of the State of Indiana has postponed their evaluation of the TVHS intensive office lab until the spring of 1981 because of the corporation administrative changes. The Advisory Committee will be involved in the evaluation as to goals and objectives for the Office Education Association. Mrs. Graham, the advisor for the committee gave the members a list of goals and objectives for study and requested that the people revise and discuss them for changes to be made before adoption of the goals for TVHS OEA.

The date of the next Advisory Committee meeting will be Monday, Jan. 26, 1981 at 7:30 p.m. at the TVHS Intensive Office Lab rooms.

Winamac's head football coach Rex Bowser is the 1980 Loganland high school football "Coach of the Year."

Bowser led the Winamac Warriors to the best record in the area at 9-1, and the team barely missed a chance to make the football playoffs. Winamac's 9-1 mark this season was a school record and the team was just three points away from a perfect season, Northwest Hoosier Conference championship and playoff spot. Bowser commented he was "really surprised and very pleased" with the honor.

He has been at Winamac for nine years, the last five as the head coach.

Sweetheart of Mentone

HEART SURGERY FOR BABY ROBYN

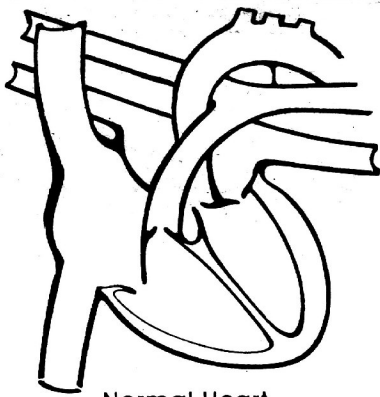

Text and photos
by RICHARD LYNN

Copyright © Richard Lynn 1981, All Rights Reserved

January 26th, Robyn Engle will be eight months old. February 4th, surgeons at the James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for Children will operate to repair the heart of little Robyn.

Blue-eyed Robyn is the youngest child of Sam and Kathy Engle, residents of Mentone. After Robyn was born last May, the nurses in Warsaw observed how blue her skin became when she cried.

"She went from Warsaw to Fort Wayne, and they diagnosed the problem," said Mrs. Engle. "Then they took her on down to Riley Hospital in Indianapolis. They told us she would need surgery."

Normal Heart

Normally the pulmonary artery is attached to the right ventricle and carries blood to the lungs to receive a fresh supply of oxygen. The aorta, arising from the left ventricle is the passageway through which oxygenated blood is sent to the rest of the body.

Congenital heart defects are sometimes diagnosed at birth, as in the case of Mentone's little Robyn. In some cases it may be difficult to make an exact diagnosis in an infant less than one year old. A heart defect may be discovered at some time in childhood, or it may not be discovered until the adult years.

If a doctor believes there is a problem, he will refer the patient to a heart specialist or cardiologist, preferably one who is familiar with heart ailments in the patient's age group.

A child born with a heart defect has a better chance today than ever before to overcome this handicap and live a normal life. Many defects of the heart were once thought to be hopelessly beyond repair, but recent progress in diagnosis and surgery now makes it possible to correct certain defects.

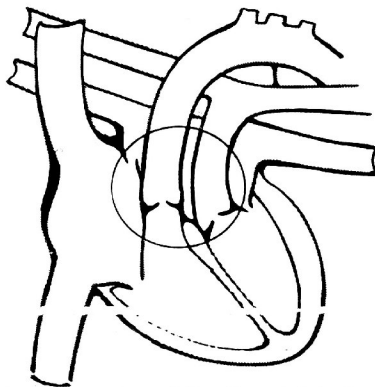

The human heart is a hollow organ weighing less than a pound, and only a little larger than an adult's fist. It is a pump made of muscle. Blood is pumped through the four chambers of the heart, assisted by a series of valves which open and close to regulate the flow of life-giving fluid.

The blood returning to the heart is low in oxygen. It returns to the heart through veins and enters the right atrium or upper chamber. This low-pressure chamber then empties into the right ventricle or lower chamber through the tricuspid valve.

The heart's right ventricle drives the blood under low pressure through the pulmonary valves and pulmonary artery to the lungs where the blood receives oxygen. Now the blood is a bright red color.

Now the blood returns to the heart through the left atrium. The left ventricle pumps the blood out the aortic valve into the body's circulatory system, and the oxygen is distributed to all parts of the body.

Baby Robyn was born with a heart defect known as transposition of the great vessels. That means the pulmonary artery and the aorta are reversed. Because they are reversed, oxygenated blood (blood carrying a fresh supply of oxygen) is carried needlessly back to the lungs; and blood that is low in oxygen is sent through the aorta to the body.

Transposition of the Great Arteries

In "transposition," the pulmonary artery is attached to the left ventricle where it receives oxygen-rich blood and returns the oxygen-rich blood to the lungs for more oxygen. The aorta is attached to the right ventricle where it receives blood that has just returned from the body after giving up most of its supply of oxygen to the body tissues. The result is, blood that is low in oxygen is sent through the aorta to the body again.

In a normal heart, one artery takes blood from the right side of the heart to the lungs for oxygen. A second artery takes oxygen-rich blood from the left side of the heart to the body. When the two major arteries are transposed (reversed), oxygen-poor blood goes to the body and oxygen-rich blood goes needlessly to the lungs.

Mrs. Engle said, "They can't switch these arteries back. They've tried it, I guess, and it's real fatal, so what they're going to do is repair surgery - where they will take out the wall between her upper chambers and put in a baffle to reverse the blood flow."

Children born with transposition of the great arteries survive only if they have one or more additional heart defects, such as abnormal passageways which counteract the effects of transposition by allowing oxygenated blood to reach the aorta. The mixture of oxygen-rich blood with blood which is low in oxygen is adequate to sustain the child for a limited time, depending on the size of the compensating defects and the amount of oxygenated blood his body receives. The child's skin has a bluish tinge because blood which is low in oxygen is a dark bluish red.

"We've had a wonderful cardiologist, Dr. Caldwell, the doctor who did the second ballooning on her. He's really great! He sits down and explains everything to you. He acts like he's got all day to talk to you, and you know they're busy down there. They've pretty well explained and they've drawn pictures for us," said Kathy, "and they send pamphlets to us and stuff about the surgery, so it all helps.

Dr. Caldwell told them that twelve years ago doctors couldn't help children who were born with transposition of the great arteries.

Sam said, "He told us that usually Riley Hospital averages about twenty-five cases a year, like this. By November of this year, they already had twenty-nine or more cases of transposition."

Riley Hospital is the only place in Indiana where this kind of surgery is available.

"In Intensive Care they're a little fussy. You can only visit a half hour on the hour, but the last time Robyn was at the Riley Hospital, she was in what they call the 'live-in' area, where one of the parents can stay with the child around the clock. We took turns staying with Robyn."

The operation in February will take about four hours, and is scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, February 4th.

Recently the TV program "That's Incredible" showed scenes of open heart surgery performed in Canada.

Sam said, "They go in there, and they take the wall out between the top two chambers of the heart and they put a baffle in there. It will reverse the blood flow at the top. I know they put a baffle in a milk truck to stop the sloshing. This must be a different type of baffle."

According to Webster's New World Dictionary of the English language, one definition of "baffle" is "an obstructing device, as a wall or screen to hold back or turn aside the flow of liquids, gases, etc."

"It's reversed at the bottom," Sam said, "so they're trying to reverse it at the top so that when the blood gets to the bottom, it'll be right for her. It'll be reversed, but it'll be right for her system."

Robyn's parents received the following letter from Indiana University School of Medicine.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Engle,
"Our blood bank will assume the responsibility for securing the fresh, properly matched blood we shall need for Robyn's operation. In turn, we encourage your family and friends to donate blood at the blood donor room here (University Hospital Room N442) or to donate blood in the blood program of your community. More than eight million pints of blood are needed each year to fill the needs of hospitals everywhere. The blood you give will help meet this vital need."

Sincerely yours,
Sandy Thompson,
Dept. of Surgery

In a letter written June 24, by the Medical Director of Indiana University, Robyn's parents were told:

"Only one to two percent of our population supplies the blood for the remaining 98 percent who refuse or are unable to donate. I hope you will ask your family and friends to replace the two units of blood your child received from our blood bank."

According to information received by the Engles from the Warsaw office of the Red Cross, they have a good supply at this time.

Little Robyn Engle poses for the NEWS photographer with sister Tracy, age four, and brother Jason, age six.

"Good company and good discourse are the very sinews of virtue."

HOW TO SUCCEED

Success doesn't always come from what you know. Often it comes from how effectively you can put your own and others' knowledge and resources to work.

Since buying a radio station in 1953, J. B. Fuqua has acquired 40 companies, building what is known today as Fuqua Industries, Inc., a $2 billion Atlanta-based conglomerate composed of energy, transportation, recreation, service and farm businesses.

Interviewed in Adele Scheele's new book, "Skills for Success," (New York: William Morrow & Co.) J. B. Fuqua offered advice to young business managers and executives who seek to be more successful in their ventures.

Six Specific Hints

1. Establish yourself financially so that you can "use other people's money to make your own."
2. Concentrate on high quality and high price—that's where the most profit is. Terminate unprofitable operations.
3. Hire intelligent people, even if they are "smarter than you."
4. Motivate employees by showing appreciation for their work. Morale flows from the top down.
5. Establish progressive training so that each employee in a responsible position has a successor—and a place to move up to.
6. Get involved in politics to better understand government.

J. B. Fuqua also stresses the importance of individuality. "Here in Atlanta, there are hundreds of monuments to individuals, but I've never seen a monument to a committee. When giving an executive responsibility, we also give him the authority to make the decisions."

Akron E.M.S. prepares for frostbite emergencies

The Akron Unit of Fulton County E.M.S. met for its first monthly meeting of 1981, on Sunday, January 4th at 6:00 p.m. Eight members were present. During the month of December the Akron unit had four ambulance calls.

The Akron Lions Den was the setting for the Christmas party held December 7. Held that evening was a carry-in supper and gift exchange. A total of 23 attended.

This month's inservice was over Cold Exposure Emergencies and how to treat them. Local injuries from the cold fall under the term of "frostbite." The most commonly affected parts of the body are the hands, feet, ears and exposed parts of the face.

General treatment for frostbite includes: Firm steady pressure of a warm hand, blowing hot breath on the spot, holding finger's motionless in the armpit, or early in the week. Cards can be sent to the Friesners at 8415 E. 23rd St., Tucson, Arizona 85710 % Steve Charleston.

Mr. and Mrs. George Parker and Violet and Mr. Onel Martin were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miller.

Mrs. Mary Teel entertained her employees Sunday evening with a Christmas supper and party.

by immersing the affected part in warm water between 100-105 degrees F.

The following DON'Ts should be observed.

1. Don't make matters worse. Treat injured parts gently to prevent further damage of the tissue.
2. Don't apply pressure or constriction on the injured area. The tissue should be bandaged lightly to protect it from contamination.
3. Don't run or abrade the tissue. Frozen cells contains ice crystals which can cut or destroy the tissue.
4. Don't apply snow or thaw the part in cold water.

The question has been asked as to how far the Akron Ambulance will travel to an emergency call. The ambulance will go on a run as long as it's a reasonable distance to the scene. The number to call for an ambulance is Fulton County E.M.S. 223-4911. There are E.M.T.'s on duty 24 hours a day.

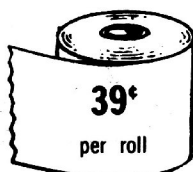

FANCY TAIL

A dog who's feeling comfortable can be easier to train. It also helps to reward your dog. When he obeys an order, and gets a tidbit and your approval as a reward he'll want to do it again.

Dogs can have dandruff. It's often caused by too-frequent washing with strong soap, or skin conditions like seborrhea or dermatitis. A specially formulated medicated shampoo for dogs is a help in such cases, removing the itching scales and flakes.

Water rates increase asked by Akron Trustees

The Akron board of trustees petitioned the Indiana Public Service Commission, at a special hearing held January 5th in Indianapolis, for permission to raise water rates in the town of Akron. Attending the hearing were Akron's town attorney Jess Brown, board president Ronald Fenimore, clerk-treasurer Ernest Smith and Garland Sparks of Akron.

A representative of H. J. Umbaugh and Associates, the Plymouth, Indiana consulting firm that prepared a study of Akron's Municipal Water Utility, also attended the hearing.

Lakeland Art Association

The Lakeland Art Association met Tuesday, January 13, at the Cardinal Center, Warsaw, for their monthly meeting with Jean Coverstone, Art Department Chairman, Grace College, as featured speaker. She showed slides of her recent three month trip to western Europe.

Mrs. Coverstone has a special knack of making art and art history a meaningful experience, even to her freshman students. Art appreciation is a required subject. Her vast knowledge of details and sidelights on Artists and their work, make her lectures human and humorous.

The Professor of Art is a native of Kosciusko County, has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Art Education from Goshen College. She did graduate work at St. Francis College, Ft. Wayne, and earned the Master of Art Degree from Notre Dame in 1972. She was honored with a grant from the National Endowment Fund to attend the Seminar on American Art History at the University of Illinois, Champaign.

Spring Community Ed. at Valley

We are planning our Community Education Program for this Spring. We plan to offer non-credit courses in any subject where there is sufficient interest to justify a class. If you or someone you know would be interested in conducting a course, please fill out the attached questionnaire and return it to Tippecanoe Valley High School. You do not need to be certified to teach in this program as it is non-credit. A class may be offered in almost any subject, such as, tennis, macrame, woods, antiques, or any other hobby or recreation area.

NOTICE

The Trustee of Henry Township, Fulton County will meet at Trustee's office at 7 p.m. on January 26, 1981, to receive ideas from the taxpayers of Henry Township for the use of Federal Revenue Sharing Funds during the calendar year 1981. The unappropriated balance on Jan. 1, 1981 was $50. In addition, Henry township anticipates receiving approximately $5400.00 during 1981. This makes a total of approximately $5450.00 available during 1981. All citizens including senior citizens are invited to participate in planning the use of this money.

Do your throw rugs curl at the edges? Try this: paint the back of the rug with two coats of clear shellac, one at a time. This stiffens the fabric, lets the rug lie straight. But be sure the rug's dry before placing it on the floor.

If you find it hard to screw a wood screw into wood, coat the threads of the screw with soap and it should slip in more easily.

Save 100 lives in '81

Superintendent John T. Shettle today urged all Indiana citizens to join with the Indiana State Police in a new program to reduce traffic fatalities by at least one hundred in 1981. To date 1,152 persons have been killed in traffic accidents.

The program has been named 'Save 100 Lives in '81', and includes many of the same enforcement and public education programs that were successful in reducing fatalities in 1980. The main thrust of the program will call for more citizens awareness and participation in saving lives.

Superintendent Shettle stated that, "for too long all of us have tolerated senseless slaughter on our highways, and only through awareness, participation and cooperation can all of us, joined together, make our highways safer for all citizens."

Superintendent Shettle further asked that all motorists adopt as one of their 1981 New Years' resolutions to become a participant in "Save 100 Lives in '81". Superintendent Shettle added that only through a combined effort by the public and law enforcement could this program enjoy success.

Clarence M Basanda elected to membership in American Angus Association

Clarence M. Basanda, Akron, has been elected to membership in the American Angus Association, reports Dr. C. K. Allen, executive vice-president of the national organization with headquarters in St. Joseph, Missouri.

The American Angus Association, with some 38,000 active life and junior members, is the largest cattle registry association in the world. Its computerized records include detailed information on nearly 10 million registered Angus.

The Association records ancestral information and keeps records of production on individual animals for its members. These permanent records help members select and mate the best animals in their herds to produce high quality, efficient breeding cattle which are then recorded with the American Angus Association. Most of these registered Angus are used by the U.S. farmers and ranchers who raise high quality beef for U.S. consumption.

Things to do when you are bored

by William Smith, Jr.

1. Buy a yo-yo, and see how many times you can make it go up and down without stopping.
2. Get a photograph of your least favorite person, paste it to a dart board, and see how many holes you can put in it.
3. Get a map of Russia, some toy soldiers, and plan how you would handle an attack on Moscow.
4. Get a map of Iran, and plan a raid there.
5. Complain about the dumb shows on television.
6. Write letters to the president of the United States, telling him how to grow better peanuts.
7. Call your mother, just to say "Hi!"
8. Get out your old high school yearbook, look up your old girl friend's photo, and imagine how she looks today, with 40 or 50 extra pounds added on.
9. Look in the same yearbook, find a picture of that guy you hated most (the one who never had a pimple, captain of the football team, Mr. Perfect), and imagine him fat, bald, and henpecked.
10. Get out the typewriter and write silly things like this (actually I enjoy doing this; it keeps me out of trouble).

As you can see, there are all sorts of things you can do when you are bored, all you have to do is do them. It may save your life (it did mine).

Akron Senior Citizens

by Onda Good

The Akron Senior Citizens are ignoring the uncomfortable elements of winter and are enjoying the beauty of the winter and each others company. Just think - no weeds to pull!

A large group enjoyed the carry in lunch Thursday in spite of the cold, snow and icy conditions. The Birthday Party and Blood Pressure Clinic were not held due to illness and icy conditions but will be this Thursday, January 15. The blood pressure clinic will be from 11-12. Come get your blood pressure taken and stay for the dinner and birthday party. See you Thursday, January 15 at 11!

The jig saw puzzles were brought out! The first one was received with enthusiasm and was put together the first day. If you have a jig-saw puzzle not in use, how about loaning it to the senior citizens. They can't seem to keep a good supply!

Checkers, UNO and other games have been played recently. Come visit and play or just come visit and watch. It can be a fun winter!

If you need transportation to the site or anywhere in town please call 893-7204 or 893-7263. For "mini bus" transportation try to call early so plans can be made for prompt service.

The Government's CENSORSHIP of the Network and Newspaper Coverage of the Conventions

by William Smith, Jr.

During the Republican convention in Detroit, and the Democratic convention in New York, there was a news blackout, the likes of which the Soviet Union would have been proud. Nothing that the government wished not to be seen by the people at home was allowed to be covered.

In Detroit, the Secret Service, aided by the Detroit Police Department, used the hard-handed tactics of an S.S. unit to break up, at their inception, any, and all peaceful demonstrations in favor of the ERA, and anti-Reagan protests; even though these people were given parade permits, they were forced, at club, and gun point, to dis-band and take their matters elsewhere. Thus was the sight and sound of unhappy people kept from the view of the people at home.

In New York, the same tactics were used against anti-Carter protesters, and again, the people at home saw nothing. To all intents and purposes, the convention coverage was as phoney as a six dollar bill. The government allowed the people across the land to see only what it wanted to see, not what really took place.

It is a sad state of affairs, when a government tells its own people what they can see, or cannot see, but this was even lower. The government didn't even tell you, they just censored your news without telling you. In this respect, 1984 came four years early.

Now, I realize that it's late, and dead news, when it comes to speaking of the conventions, but the point is this; think about it. If the United States Government can refuse coverage, during the conventions, what else happened in this country, that your rulers decided not to let you see? How many riots, demonstrations, police blunders, or government mess-ups were not permitted coverage? What happened to Freedom of the Press?

Let me say, right now, that I refuse to be censored. If this paper comes under pressure, from the government, to keep me quiet, I will, to keep the publisher out of trouble, not present my articles for publication. I will type my articles out, and xerox them. Then I will hand them out, free. In other words, I will go underground, but I will not give in to any kind of censorship, when the truth needs to be told.

Extenson Homemakers meet

President Pearl Horn had charge of the business session. State and county membership dues are to be in by Feb. 1. The club's constitution was also read.

Members and one guest, Melva Smith, answered roll call to "Something I would like to learn more about."

Esther Sarber's lesson, "Housing Facts" was very interesting. There are many things to consider when choosing a place to live. First, how to decide to rent or buy, might depend on age or cultural background. Single persons might be happy in an apartment. Mobile home is less money.

The meeting closed with the club prayer song and collect. Refreshments were served. The door prize was won by Esther Sarber. The February meeting will be with Genevieve Warren.

Service Notes

Daniel W. Reed

Senior Airman Daniel M. Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth B. Reed, R. 1, Roann, has arrived for duty at Grissom Air Force Base, Ind.

For meditations Eula Smith read some very interesting excerpts from a book written by Patricia Penton Leimbach. Garden remarks were given by Mary Norris on caring for poinsettias during their dormant season. Citizenship leader Eula Smith gave a report on consumer problems and helps on how to get results. Pearl Horn's remarks were about the many things that can be classed as cultural arts.

Vice-president Esther Sarber announced the Program Planning Committee will meet February 17th.

Mr. William G. Wittig enjoyed his 82nd birthday on Sunday, January 4th, when his Sunday School class, the Golden Rule Class, of the Beaver Dam Church, sang happy birthday to him. When he arrived home, he received a telephone call, with the nicest gift of all, the arrival of a great-grandson, born on his birthday, and named after him. We all wish Bill a wonderful year ahead and many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Heighway attended a Torin Credit Union supper at Rochester on Saturday evening. Lori Baker was an overnight guest of Ginger, Amy and Heather Heighway.

Red, White and Blue Day

LETTERS FOR RETURNEES

A PATRIOTIC DEMONSTRATION in front of the Akron Post Office, as flag-waving school children observe "Red, White and Blue Day" to honor the release of the Americans held hostage in Iran. The students are members of the Akron third grade.

NEWS photos by Richard Lynn

To honor the release of the Americans held hostage, Friday, January 23 was proclaimed "Red, White and Blue Day" at the Akron School. Students in all classes and school personnel dressed for the day in red, white, and blue colors.

In the elementary grades a variety of activities were taking place, as evidenced by numerous signs, banners, flags, ribbons, hats, and even letters written to President Reagan and the ex-hostages.

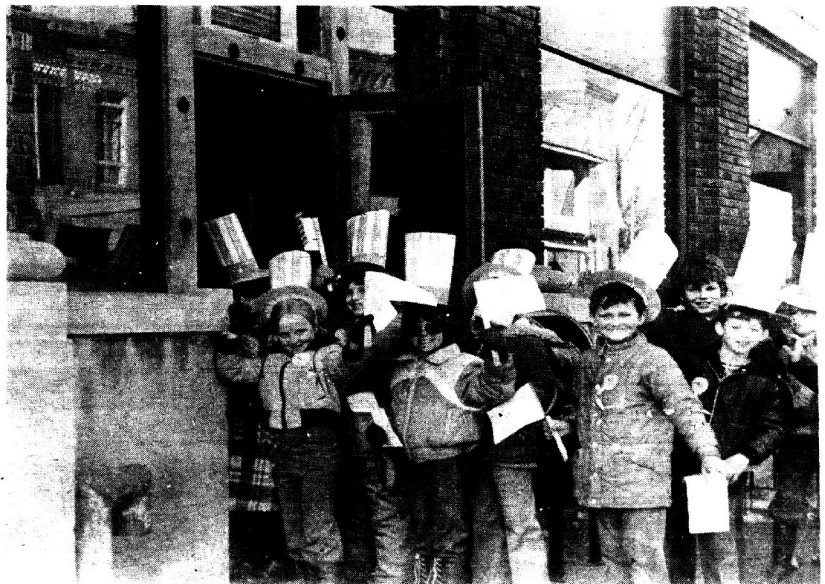

The hostage release, being a joyous occasion throughout our country, provided an excellent opportunity for the teachers to work with the children to develop an appreciation for the gift of freedom and to generally focus upon a patriotic theme.

The second grade learned to make flags, while the third-graders wrote letters to the President and returnees. Fifth graders wrote essays on the meaning of freedom, and decorated a paper tree with ribbons bearing the names of the hostages. Sixth-graders sent letters to the Algerian government and different people in the State Department, thanking them for their assistance in securing the release of the hostages.

It was an exciting day for the students, and for all citizens of the United States of America.

Postal worker Bill Yeager cancels a stamp on the letter being mailed by this young patriot, who, with his classmates, wrote to the hostages and the new president of the United States, Ronald Reagan.

Dressed in "Uncle Sam" costumes, these third grade students marched from the Akron schoolyard to the Post Office, where they stood in line for their opportunity to send letters to the returnees.

Mrs. Ihnen's sixth graders made a map, on display in the Akron School cafeteria, to show the home towns of the Americans returning from captivity in Iran. Each flag on the map bears the photograph of a returnee. NEWS PHOTO by Richard Lynn

by David Barnes

The Tippecanoe Valley High School Girls Varsity Basketball Team has just completed their 1980-81 season with another winning record of 11-6. But that is just the end of the first season, as the second season, more commonly known as the state tournament, will begin this week with the first level of play in the sectional.

The sectional, which will be held again this year at Warsaw, finds five teams going for the right to advance to the regional, which will also be played at Warsaw. The five teams are Tippecanoe Valley, Triton, Argos, Wawasee and Warsaw. The pairings for these teams shape up like this: on Wed. Jan. 28 at 7:00 p.m. Warsaw takes on Wawasee. On Thursday Jan. 29 at 6:30 p.m. Argos tangles with Tippecanoe Valley and at 8:00 p.m. Triton plays the winner of game one. Then on Sat. Jan. 31 at 7:30 p.m. the winners of the Thursday night contest will meet for the championship.

Bill Leininger, the girls varsity coach, after being asked about the draw said, "A lot of people might think I did the drawing ...but it (the draw) couldn't have come out any better."

He was also quick to add that on any given night, any one of the teams could emerge as the champion. When asked about the teams readiness Bill answered, "we couldn't be any more ready at post-season time than we are now."

As Bill has stated, the Girls team is ready. We, as fans, should ask ourselves the very same question: Are we ready? Think about that for a second. But as you do, remember the long, hard hours, and hard work the girls have put into this season. Not only for themselves; but for the pride of the school, and the enjoyment of the fans.

Finally, I have a little saying for each and everyone of us in the Valley district. Win, Lose, or draw, we are the proudest community of them all. So go out and support our local athletes, because they deserve us as their proud fans.

Akron Senior Citizens The Return of the Hostages

by Onda Good

The Akron Keen-agers have been enjoying the winter in spite of the snow, ice and cold. They have been putting jig saw puzzles together, playing UNO and other cards, playing bingo and reading or reciting poetry. However, the favorite activity is visiting. Some old time tales are told from time to time. These tales get better with memory and lose nothing in the retelling! Come share your old time tales with the group. Schools attended and tricks played are favorites.

The Akron Lions Club Keen-agers are doing some quilting. This quilt top was made by a woman 70-75 years ago. She now is 93! The prints are so interesting. If you haven't been to a quilting bee lately, why not join us. Bring your favorite needle and a thimble.

The February Birthday Party and Blood Pressure Clinic will be Thursday, February 12. Plan to get your blood pressure taken from 11 to 12 and stay for the lunch and birthday party. It should be a fun day!

Site day will be February 9 and there will be a short special program.

The Akron "mini-bus" is still in operation for your use, call 893-7204.

For information or reservations call 893-7204 or 893-7263.

Scheduled menus for the week of February 2-6 are:

MONDAY: Roast pork and dressing with gravy, broccoli, applesauce, roll, vanilla pudding, milk, coffee.

TUESDAY: Spanish rice, green beans, bread, cranberry sauce, milk, coffee.

WEDNESDAY: Fried chicken, peas, vegetable jello salad, brown bread, apple crisp, milk, coffee.

THURSDAY: Fried fish, tartar sauce, tossed salad, macaroni and cheese, brown bread, jello with fruit, milk, coffee and tasty foods prepared in the kitchens of the Akron Senior Citizens.

Beaver Dam News

by William Smith, Jr.

Last week, fifty-two Americans returned to the arms of their fellow Americans. After 444 days of captivity, they are at last in the custody of this country. I, as well as the rest of the people in this country, welcome them home. But remember this;

Thank God that it was James Earl Carter that got them free. This only proves what I have always felt; that peaceful negotiation is the least expensive, and best way to settle differences. Mr. Carter has the blood of only eight people on his hands.

Let us compare this with the record of President Reagan while he was governor of California, and the statement he made at the Inaugural Ball, last Tuesday.

In the late nineteen sixties, there was a small anti-war demonstration on the campus at Berkeley, then Governor Reagan over-reacted to the peaceful demonstration, called out the California National Guard with orders to break up the demonstration with fixed bayonets, stating "if there is to be a blood-bath, let it begin here."

When the Hearst family was giving two million dollars worth of free food to the poor of California, as part of the ransom demands of the S.L.A., for the release of their daughter, Mr. Reagan said "Maybe we ought to poison the food."

Last Tuesday, at the Inaugural Ball, when he learned that the Hostages were, at last free, Mr. Reagan made the following statement, "I have just heard that the Hostages are free. No, I won't call them hostages. They were Prisoners of War!"

That, in itself, should tell how the mind of the man you elected President of the United States works. Mr. Reagan has a tendency to resort to violence as a first choice.

I hope to God that no other nation crosses this guy, in the next four years. This I hope, for the sake of our young, and the young people of the world.

To Mr. Reagan, I say, "The lives of the people in this country, as well as the whole world, are in your hands. Don't mess-up. And, for Gods sake, think before you react."

To the Hostages, I say "Welcome Home!"

He showed slides and pictures of many different kinds of airplanes, and instructed the students in identification of aircraft. During the slide presentation there were discussions of parachuting, (showing Bob making a jump), how to fly, and flying as a career.
