Egg Festival pays homage to egg

Every time you eat a bowl of Campbell's chicken noodle soup or a Morton chicken TV dinner, think Mentone. And if you take a flight out of Chicago's O'Hare Field and the stewardess serves you a hard cooked egg, think again of the town that has been called "The Egg Basket of the Midwest" since those early days when farmers pooled their egg shipments in train car lots.

The Mentone Egg Festival June 13 and 14 will pay tribute to this gigantic industry that long ago boosted the

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Ann,
I have been wanting to write you, but keep putting it off.

I have two things I would like to mention. The first is the letters of Goldie Kesler. I really enjoy these letters. I am glad Goldie like to write and keeps herself busy.

The only thing she left out was a night after the threshing was done, we always made homemade ice cream.

Keep it up Goldie.

The next is the chimes at the Methodist Church at 12 and 6 o'clock. They are beautiful. I always pause a moment when they ring at noon to count my blessings. I really have a lot to be thankful for. The chimes always bring good memories and I appreciate them very much.

Mentone is a good place to live.

Mentone Board considers water rate increase

Faced with rising costs, the Mentone Town Board is considering a boost in the town's water rates and plans an informal discussion with residents at the next town board meeting Monday, July 7. They urge all interested persons to attend.

At Monday night's meeting, board members met with members of the Bell Museum committee and other interested residents and expressed their support of the committee's attempts to found a museum to house artifacts of the late Lawrence D. Bell.

Trash pick up in the recently annexed areas began Tuesday and will continue weekly. Residents of this area, as well as the rest of the town, are reminded by board members that the trash haulers prefer use of plastic bags and refuse to pick up trash set out in barrels.

Mentone summer reading program

The summer reading program at Bell Memorial Public Library will begin June 9 and will run until July 5. Theme of this year's program is "The Wise Old Owl."

Children in grades two to six are eligible to enter and they can be

MARRIAGE LICENSE

J. Swihart, Mentone, and Geraldine Evelyn Meade, Mentone, recently applied for a marriage license in the Kosciusko Co. clerk's office.

Manwaring Leghorn Farms, Inc.

Back in 1911, Art Manwaring established Manwaring Leghorn Farms, Inc. with 4,000 breeding hens, and ever since chickens have outnumbered people in Mentone.

Known for years as the Egg Basket of the Middlewest, Mentone and surrounding Kosciusko Co. once boasted 20 hatcheries. Now, only Manwarings and Creighton Brothers remain. And the story at each is expansion.

Manwarings, for instance, once hatched 600,000 baby chicks a year. Now more than four million chicks a year are hatched, sometimes at the rate of 100,000 a week.

At one time, nearly every farm boasted a laying house and a few hundred chickens. Every spring farmers went to a hatchery and purchased baby chicks, the cockrels for summer eating and the pullets to be saved for laying production. Manwarings supplied many of these, also shipping chicks as far away as South America and Cuba, as well as all over the United States and Canada.

It's still possible for a farmer to purchase small lots of chicks at Manwarings, but most of the chicks now go to surrounding states or are kept for the firm's own production flocks.

The chicks that go to local farmers have been through a lot by the time they are a day old. Sexed and given shots, they may also have been debeaked (prevents their pecking each other), decumbed (keeps the tops of their combs from getting caught in cages and also prevents freezing) or dewinged—a simple operation that removes the lower joint of one wing so the bird can't fly into the farmer's trees to roost.

The brooder houses and range shelters that once dotted the farm known for years as the White City Egg Farm have been replaced by cages and mammoth poultry houses.

The pullets that remain at Manwarings will be placed in growing cages. Five to a cage, they will spend their entire lives in cages, touched by human hands only when moved from the incubator to the growing cage and then again at 20 weeks when moved into layer cages.

The use of layer cages has made it easier to keep many more hens in production in less space than would have been required in layer houses of the past. Manwaring Leghorn Farms, Inc.,

Sandra Gearhart, R.2, Macy, will graduate from Lutheran School of Nursing, Ft. Wayne, on June 11. Diplomas will be conferred at Holy Cross Lutheran Church, 3425 Crescent Ave., Ft. Wayne. Miss Gearhart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gearhart, R. 2, Macy.

Fined

The 1914 Club in Akron has been fined $100 for allowing minors to loiter. It was one of seven Indiana taverns fined by the Alcoholic Beverage Commission for violation of liquor laws.

c. have complete hatchery-egg operation with a sister firm, Midwest Poultry Services, Inc., oversees two complexes of 300,000 layers each in addition to its own large poultry houses. Each complex is fully automated. Fourteen miles of conveyor chain moves the feed for each of the complexes. (Each complex requires 3,000 acres of corn per year.) Another 28 miles of plastic egg gathering belts take much of the back-breaking labor out of gathering eggs, moving them from the cages through orientation where they are counted, washed, dried, oiled, graded, candled, cartoned, dated and sealed without being touched. And a day's production from either complex would be great enough to feed every

The family operation is now headed by Richard Manwaring, a grandson of founder Art Manwaring. Also active in management are Frank and Jim Manwaring, sons of the late Charles Manwaring and great-grandsons of Art Manwaring. One hundred and twenty employees oversee the layer complexes, hatchery, farming operation and all the other work involved in keeping those hens producing eggs that number in the millions of dozens per year and hatching the chicks that will in turn help boost that production and do even more to keep Mentone's chicken population far above its people count.

Beaver Dam Club to be 50

Invitations have been sent to former members of the Beaver Dam Home Extension Club to attend the club's 50th anniversary party Wednesday, June 11, at 1:30 in the Beaver Dam United Methodist Church. Any former member not receiving an invitation should feel free to join the group for the afternoon.

TIME TO VISIT was an important part of early egg celebrations as this picture of Manwarings' tent at a Mentone Egg Show indicates.

MOVING THE NEWLY HATCHED CHICKS from the incubator trays to specially constructed boxes are Deloris Foor, Doris Grubbs and Ruth Swihart.

Entry extended for Akron tennis tournament

Entry date for the annual Akron double tennis tournament has been extended until June 14. No entries will be accepted after that time. The $1 registration fee will be used to cover the costs of trophies to be awarded in three categories.

The July 4 event will start at noon at the town's tennis courts in the park. Age categories are 11-14, 15-17 and 18 and up. Registration is limited to residents of the Tippecanoe Valley school district, according to Steve Fleck, chairman.

By the time a hen is 18 months old, she's ready for soup. Or, as egg producers say, "She is spent." Still in the cage in which she spent the last 13 months of her life, she is shipped to Kralis Brothers Foods for processing.

There, at the rate of 85 chickens per minute, hens are advanced from the loading dock through three continuous moving lines. Under constant inspection every minute of the trip, the hen moves through the killing, picking, eviscerating and packing areas. Fifty-one minutes later, the thoroughly inspected and chilled dressed hens are packed in cartons ranging to 1,000 pounds in size for shipment to soup and frozen food companies. Some of Kralis' largest customers are Campbell's Soup, Swanson, Banquet and Morton, the latter processors of frozen TV dinners.

Established in Gary 53 years ago by Joe Kralis, father of present president Jerry Kralis, the company opened a pick-up station in Mentone in 1946. In 1951, the dressing plant opened at its present location northeast of Mentone. Offices in Mentone became the corporate headquarters in 1969 when the Gary office closed. A second plant is operated in Olney, Ill. The firm merged with Flowers Industries in 1973 and is now listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

Automation has lightened the work at each of the plants, but it still takes a lot of people to keep up with the demands of the convenience food industry--approximately 180 at Mentone, 150-160 at Olney.

Each of these workers is trained to handle a variety of jobs necessary to move 40,000 chickens a day through the Mentone plant and another 35,000 at Olney.

The actual route a hen travels begins with the trip to Kralis, still in her laying cage. She is then hung on a line and moved through the killing, scalded and picked clean of feathers by a series of mechanical rubber-fingered pickers. Next, the carcass moves to the hot cutter where the feet are removed. Transferred to the second of three continuous lines, the carcass advances automatically as eggs, ova and entrails are removed with specially designed vacuum equipment. United States Department of Agriculture inspectors are on duty constantly to ensure the Kralis product meets government requirements. If they are not there, the plant cannot operate. Each can stop a line at any time if a problem arises.

At this point in the hen's route, six inspectors search for any imperfections and disease. The bird then goes to another wash, is inspected by Kralis house inspectors and dumped into a chill tank. Ice made at the plant cools the carcass to 34-36 degrees. Now 17 minutes through its trip, the carcass will remain in the chiller 34 minutes before being placed on the third line that automatically drops it into boxes for shipment. Smaller orders go in 60 pound boxes, others go into 1,000 pound totes and are moved to giant chill rooms where they are held for shipment.

More than two refrigerated semi trailer loads of dressed chickens a day leave the Mentone plant bound for soup and TV dinners.

JUST 51 minutes after entering the plant, a dressed chicken automatically drops into a container for shipment to any of a variety of convenience food customers.

THREE CONTINUOUS LINES move chickens through the Kralis plant. Although much of the work is automated, the firm employs approximately 180 people at its Mentone plant and office.

Breaking eggs is

At M & R Egg Co. in Mentone, eggs are broken on an assembly line basis on specially designed machines that can each handle 1,000 cases a week. (That's 30,000 dozen eggs.)

Established in 1959 by Millard and Retha Laughlin, the firm supplies canned liquid or frozen eggs to noodle makers, bakeries, candy and pie companies.

In spanking clean work rooms and under constant USDA inspection, ten workers bring in eggs from area farmers, cool, wash and candle them as they are fed into the egg breaking machines. These gems of mechanical wizardry break the eggs, carrying them in stainless steel cups as they move to the next step--and each is capable of keeping the egg whole or separating the yolk from the white. The eggs are held in storage tanks until they are pasteurized and canned. The canned eggs--each can weighs 30 pounds--are frozen, ready for use by the customer.

All of which sounds simple, but that's a bit deceptive. Temperatures and conditioning play big roles in the production. For instance, egg whites are pasteurized at 137 degrees and yolks and whole eggs are pasteurized at 142 degrees, because the whites will set if pasteurized at higher temperatures. The temperature is held steady for three and one-half minutes and is then reduced to 40 degrees as the eggs come from the pasteurization room. Filtered again and packed in the 30 pound cans, the eggs are ready for shipment to the customer -- almost. Each customer has different specifications for the type of eggs he wants, and he receives what he orders, whether it be eggs with light or dark yolks, thin for cookies or thicker for noodles. Since the eggs retain their shape after they are thawed they must be conditioned before they are frozen. Or as owner Millard Laughlin says, "We don't just take an egg and freeze it. It has to be conditioned according to the use it will later be put to." However, once the egg is processed and frozen it will keep indefinitely.

Tip-E- Pak's specialty is hard cooked eggs

Newest of the Mentone area's poultry-related industries is Tip-E-Pak. Established at Mentone two years ago, it recently moved to the former Sun Metal building at Burket that was remodeled to Food and Drug specifications.

Like the other area egg operations, this, too, is a family project. Jim Newlin is president of both Tip-E-Pak and its parent organization, N-K Associates. Maurice "Bud" Newlin, father of NEWS sportswriter Ron Newlin, is general manager, secretary and treasurer. Jim's son Jeff works in the plant and his wife is receptionist and secretary.

Tip-E-Pak's specialty is hard cooked eggs --lots of them. Averaging 10,000 pounds of eggs a week (it takes approximately nine peeled eggs to make a pound), the firm employs seven women to peel eggs that have been cooked and chilled by Jeff Newlin and Rod Owens.

"Our operation is an adaptation of large scale commercial operations to the methods housewives have used for years," Bud Newlin says.

Six women work at stainless steel sinks, peeling eggs at speeds faster than most housewives could envision. Each is given 27 dozen eggs every 20 minutes, setting her own pace to get the eggs peeled.

The eggs are packed in 20 pound plastic containers prepared by the seventh worker. A citrus based preservative that leaves no after-taste will keep them good for nine weeks, ready for use as they come from the container. The tubs of eggs are held at 38 degrees for shipment in Tip-E-Pak's own refrigerated truck.

Pickled eggs are a specialty but the staple product is the hard cooked egg. Torn eggs go to salad companies. All of these go to distributors for resale to specialized markets. Three of these are in Chicago and include a salad company that makes tons of deli items for a large grocery chain, one that sells to airlines, serving all the flight kitchens out of O'Hare Field and Miami International Airport and a third that serves the major hotels and restaurants.

To ensure enough eggs, Tip-E-Pak and N-K Associates, which also own Burket Elevator, maintain an egg operation that is described as a continual process from day-old chicks to the growing facilities and caged layer houses. This eliminates the middle-man and gives the firm absolute control on its quality.

COOKED EGGS ARE cooled 20 minutes before being taken to the peelers.

Stapleton Auto Sales

For many years, automobile dealers considered "used cars" as a sideline to the business of selling new models.

Things have changed in recent years and one of the big reasons is the kind of business operated by Stapleton Auto Sales. They believe that the used car buyer is just as important as the new car buyer. They are determined to give each customer the finest quality, and the best possible price. They have a large "family" of customers who return because they know that integrity, service and assurance of quality are passwords here.

The safe way to buy a used car is at Stapleton Auto Sales located at Box 86 N. Main, phone 985-3186 in Mexico, because all their cars have been checked by a mechanic.

They take personal pride in every used car they sell. On-the-spot financing and insurance service truly makes them a "one-stop" headquarters for automotive needs.

As businessmen who appreciate an ethical, honest firm, we the writers, of this 1975 Review give our highest commendation to this company.

Still time to enter a float

With the Mentone Egg Festival only one week away, there is still time to enter a float or other decorated unit in the parade, according to Kenneth Bush, chairman. He said first place trophies will be awarded in band, drum and baton corps, float, cutie float, decorated bicycle, horse unit, walking unit, old vehicle and color guard categories.

No entry fee is required.

If at first you don't succeed, you'll get a lot of unsolicited advice.

Receiving this year's awards from Anthony Nigo Chapter, DAR, were Tim Stokes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stokes, R. 1, Warsaw; Penny Haney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Haney, R. 1, Mentone; Kevin Deardorff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Deardorff, R. 1, Akron, and Suzanne French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard French, R. 1, Silver Lake.

All-Star game Saturday draws two from here

Ready for Saturday's East-West All Star Game are Tippecanoe Valley's Ron Dittman and Melinda

Hartzler. Dittman, a 6'5" graduating senior, will play on the Northeast team and Miss Hartzler will participate as a cheerleader.

Game time is 7:30 p.m. East West is located at the corner of 9th and Gerry St., Gary.

Akron 4th celebration opens June 29

A PHBA-PHEI-NAPI-ISHA approved horse show on June 29 at the Akron school grounds will actually open this year's 4th of July activity.

Proceeds from the annual horse show are used to defray the expenses of the all day 4th celebration. Halter classes will begin at 10 a.m. with performance classes showing in the afternoon. Ribbons, trophies and cash prizes are financed by various area business people.

Theme of the 4th celebration is "American Spirit". Floats and other units entered in the 11 a.m. parade will be judged on the basis of adherence to the theme. Adult floats will be judged on an out-of-town and Akron basis with prizes of $70, $50 and $30 being awarded. Prizes in the youth category will be $35, $25 and $15.

Entertainment at the school grounds includes a 1 p.m. game between the Tippecanoe Valley Vikings and Lafayette Jeff baseball teams; a 3:30 p.m. slow-pitch softball game; 4 - 6 p.m. entertainment by the Country Travelers and the TV swing choir.

A garden tractor pull at 1 p.m. and an arts and craft display and sale in the grade school along with children's contests, kiddie rides and games round out the day's events. Highlight will be a fireworks display at dusk.

SEEDING FROM THE AIR is being tried by a number of area farmers this year, including Robert Runkle, R. 1, Akron, and members of Tippecanoe Valley's FFA Chapter. The latter two seeded 22 acres of soy beans in a field of standing wheat last Thursday, sharing the costs and later splitting the profits. Forrest Kantner is FFA advisor.

Egg Festival June 13-14

Chickens and eggs will share the limelight with fun at the Mentone Egg Festival, June 13 and 14.

Many of the events have chicken or egg-related titles, such as the Little Miss Chick and Mr. Rooster contest that will honor cuties under six years of age, an egg throw in which the advice is to catch low and to the outside and an Egg Festival Scramble.

The latter is a 15 kilometer run (9.3 miles) scheduled for Saturday afternoon. Open to area residents, there will be two classes: high school up to age 18 by day of the race and an open class of 18-year-olds and older. There will also be a 7.5 km race for those under 15. Registration will be at the Farmers State Bank from noon until 1 p.m. Saturday. Interested persons should contact Gary Peters, R. 5, Warsaw, 858-2433, or Charles Smith at Tippecanoe Valley High School, 353-2065 or 893-7221. He can also be contacted at his home in Bourbon, 342-7342.

Other events include sidewalk sales, horse-shoe tournament, "Handicrafters Huddle," flea market, carnival rides, guard dog demonstration by Midwest K-9, a fish fry, Youth League baseball tournament, a turkey shoot (muzzle loader), consignment auction, parade and tractor pull.

Lois and Fred Lemler will be co-grand marshals of the parade with Mariam and Earl Shinn as honorary marshals.

The two-day festival is sponsored by the Mentone Chamber of Commerce with members of the board of directors heading the various committees. Directors are Tom Fugate, Wayne Baker, Lloyd Bowerman, Terry

Letters to the Editor

Difference is amazing

To The People Of The Tippecanoe Valley School Area:

I realize that the baseball teams produced from the two schools of Akron and Mentone have been at best mediocre. I also realize that no one likes to watch a loser. But in light of the recent victories at the Manchester Sectional I believe that the people should re-evaluate their thinking.

These victories were not flukes. I was at both games and our Vikings played superbly. The difference between the past teams and the Viking team is amazing. The only thing lacking from the "well-oiled Viking machine" is polish. The MEN on this team are fine athletes and deserve a better following than they have. They are well-coached by two outstanding coaches, Tom Roy, whom I had the pleasure of playing under at Akron during my last year, and Bob Igney.

So where are all the people? There have been very few fans aside from the parents and the student following is almost nil. We've seen what our basketball, track, and football teams can do. Let's give the baseball team a fair shake too.

Speaking from an ex-player's point of view, it's hard to get into a game mentally, when the whole crowd is against you.

Mike Petrosky

Letter from Finland

Dear Folks,
I would like to announce a change of address from Helsinki to Vantaa, Finland.
We had an extraordinarily early Spring and warm, sunny weather for about five weeks, but now some cold rain and wind the last two weeks. Tulips gone by Mother's Day. I was quite disappointed not to be able to find an available plot of ground to put out a garden as Finns have so few green vegetables and we are missing them dreadfully.

There are many religious holidays here that usually take in a whole week end which covers three and many times four days. We expect the usual Mid-Summer holiday and celebration June 21 and 22, including such festivities as folk dancing, many bands and orchestras in the parks, water-fountain displays, etc. We have heard nothing but the finest music here, choral as well as orchestral, so are endlessly delighted. Helsinki's radio orchestra, which we hear often on TV, is really excellent.

Apartments are hard to find if one wants to rent, even though there is really a surplus of them. Reason: owners try to make you BUY! Many are forced to buy an apartment in order to find a living place.

I always think of Akron on "Decoration Day" and remember the blisters I used to wear on my heels marching in a stiffly starched embroidered new dress and NEW white shoes to the "new" cemetery. It was the day all our relatives came to visit, and I always looked forward to seeing them and standing around the cemetery with the Old Folks, listening to the family gossip. I remember Mother getting up early to dress chickens for guests, and gathering many bouquets for decorating numerous graves.

Very kindest good wishes to all.

Sincerely,
Marie Gast Talbot

On our front page we devote considerable arguing for a vote "yes" on the four gravel roads. We believe that is the right side of the question. If any voter interested thinks we have the wrong side and want us to take the "no" side, we would be pleased to have him call and tell us why we should Or better still write for the negative side over his or her own signature. It shall have as prominent a place and as close attention as the side we feel that we ought to take to serve this community the best.

Vikings win sectional

By Ron Newlin, NEWS sportswriter

The promise that the Tippecanoe Valley Vikings showed at the start of the season was fulfilled last week at the Manchester Sectional in spectacular fashion as Coach Tom Roy's men stole the show and brought home Tippecanoe's first sectional championship trophy.

Tippecanoe had to struggle through a 6-14 regular season before the tournament, and when the Vikings made the semifinals on the strength of a forfeit win, there were skeptics who doubted the Vikings' chances.

But Viking pitcher Bill Hardesty left no doubt that the Valley was for real in the semifinal. Hardesty, backed by the best defense Tippecanoe has played all year, hurled a nine-inning, 3-hit 7-strikeout masterpiece of a shutout over an 11-4 Northfield squad.

Hardesty, with his curve and screwball keeping the Norsemen batters jumping, was the story of the game but for an equally spectacular performance by Northfield's Mike White, who in addition to rapping the Norsemen's only three hits, shut out the Vikings for 8 innings.

The game was all goose-eggs until, in the bottom of the ninth, the fireworks started. Don Dickerhoff singled and stole second. Then Jim Webb beat out an infield hit and Tim Groninger walked to set up Jerry Whetstone's winning rbi. Whetstone lifted a sacrifice fly to center field, Dickerhoff tagged up and scored, and the Vikings had triumphed, 1-0, in a 9-inning gem of a game. R. Y. Rockhill and Whetstone had the other two hits.

In the championship game, it was Tippecanoe vs. Manchester as Tippecanoe's Chris Smalley and the Squires' Jack Rupley locked horns on the mound. In a game that spanned 4-days due to a rain delay, Tippecanoe came away 6-3 victors.

The Vikings grabbed a 2-0 lead in the first inning when Don Dickerhoff walked, Tim Groninger singled and Jerry Whetstone walked to load the bases. Jim Johnson then drove in two runs when the Manchester second-basemen threw his hit past the catcher. Manchester got one back in the bottom of the first, but Smalley frustrated the Squires from then on, striking out 6 and stranding every Manchester runner in his four-inning stint.

Meanwhile, Tippecanoe was building its lead. In the third inning, Jim Webb walked. Tim Groninger then hit into a force play, being safe at first himself. Jerry Whetstone singled and Jim Johnson walked to load the bases, then Max Huffman came through with a two-run single to right in the clutch. Tippecanoe topped off the inning with a double steal, as Johnson stole home while Huffman stole second, giving Valley a 5-1 lead.

The Squires threatened in the fifth, getting two hits before the Vikings brought in Hardesty, author of the Northfield shut-out.

The Vikings got out of the inning on a pair of fine defensive plays, a Johnson-to-Huffman force-out and a running catch by Mitch Harris. Manchester did get a pair of tallies in the sixth on two Viking errors, but it was a case of too little too late. Tippecanoe scored again in the seventh when Jim Webb and Tim Groninger singled, and Webb scored on a balk, to end the scoring at 6-3.

Manchester did get two runners on in the seventh, but a Dickerhoff-to-Webb force play ended the game and touched off a wild-post-game celebration. The Vikings, named Manchester Sectional Champions with a 10-14 record, then prepared for a regional duel with Marion at Lewis Cass.

electricity isn't made by elves in the forest

Magic as electric service may seem, it takes a lot of plain hard work and planning to build and operate power plants and do the many other skilled jobs in an electric company.

At Public Service Indiana, our "elves" are some 3,300 trained and productive people who keep a billion-dollar system working smoothly. Twenty-five years ago one employee could serve only 86 customers; today he serves 144 customers.

But even greatly improved productivity of our people can't offset all of inflation's impact. The cost of fuel, of capital, of construction, of taxes, all keep going up. At some point, so must the price of electric service.

Marion stops Vikings

By Ron Newlin, NEWS sportswriter

Tippecanoe Valley's miracle drive during the state tournament playoffs came to an end Saturday at the Lewis Cass Regional when the Vikings fell to a powerful Marion team, 8-5. But the Vikings had nothing to be ashamed of as they wound up their first-ever spring season.

Marion, sporting a 22-10 record, was the same school which had won the state basketball championship in March. But the Vikings were not awed by the Giants' record, and proved it once by jumping to an early lead and again by battling back from a 7-run deficit to put more than a little scare into Marion.

Tippecanoe lead-off hitter Don Dickerhoff opened the game by blasting a double. Following walks by Tim Groninger and Jim Johnson, Dickerhoff scored on a wild pitch to give the Vikings a 1-0 lead, and Marion was lucky to get away with that as Max Huffman then flew out to within a few scant feet of the left field fence to end the inning.

Marion scored in their half of the first when Dave Colescott doubled and scored on a wild pitch. Then after the Vikings were blanked in the second, the Giants dealt the killer blow - a 6-run second frame in which 11 batters came up and 6 hit, including a homerun by catcher Andy Lawing. That inning gave Marion a 7-1 lead which they never relinquished. In fact the Giants added another run in the third for an 8-1 score, but they were to find the game was far from over.

Despite such frustrations as loading the bases and failing to score in the third, the Vikings refused to die, and in the fifth inning it finally paid off. Don Dickerhoff bounced a single up the middle for his second hit, and Jim Webb walked. Then Jerry Whetstone came through with his 8th home run, a towering shot over the right-center fence, to bring the Vikings to within 8-4. Max Huffman and Jeff Beasley then drew walks, the former scoring the Valley's fifth run when the Marion centerfielder mishandled a hit by Ray Rockhill.

From then on Bill Hardesty and the Viking defense stifled Marion, but some fine Giant fieldwork also stymied Tippecanoe and the game ended 8-5.

Bill Hardesty was the Viking pitcher, going the distance and, after that fateful second inning, successfully shut off the free-swinging Giants. Marion's mound man was all-stater Dave Colescott, who hurled a three-hitter and struck out 9, but the Vikings managed to wait him out for 10 walks.

The Vikings, though holding only an 11-15 record, now enter summer league play boasting a 3-1 tournament record and the title of Sectional Champs, after only one season as a team.

Coach Tom Roy named Don Dickerhoff offensive player of the week and Jim Webb defensive player of the week.

Honored for special achievement

Carmen Strong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Strong, R. 1, Akron, received the Marie Kolter award at the May 28 commencement ceremonies of Parkview-Methodist School of Nursing. She was cited for best exemplifying "self-forgetfulness" and unselfish devotion in patient care nursing. She was also named to the honor roll for outstanding academic achievement.

Gas Dryer!!

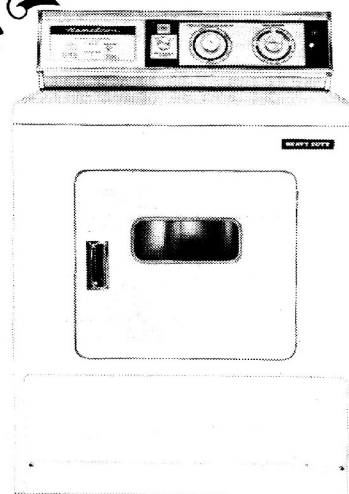

Now with practically all your washables permanent press, doesn't it make sense to have a dryer that's made for these fabrics? Manufacturers of "no iron" clothing say they should be gently tumble dried for best results. New gas dryers have the exact heat and timing controls necessary for this kind of gentle drying.

You can save hours of tedious drying... save energy, too. Many articles of clothing come out of the dryer ready for the hanger or folding. Others may need just a little "touch up." A new gas dryer can be a real work-saver for you.

Why don't you consider replacing that old dryer now.

ESSENTIALS OF A GOOD LIFE

The qualifications to become a first class drum major are more than just a flawless physique. Coordination of mind and muscle, with a keen sense of rhythm and timing are more important. These make for poise, assurance and a nervous system under rigid control. The latter are also requisites for a successful and healthful life.

Here again coordination between these physical senses and that invisible essential we call spirit is also of paramount importance. Regular church attendance helps develop the spirit so that we may be aware of it, be guided by it in building a happier, better disciplined, more useful life.

There is a church for you. Use and get its full benefits.

What a difference a Bilco Door makes!

Here's the way to add new beauty to your home. Replace that wooden hatchway with a modern, all steel Bilco Door. It's ruggedly built, weather-tight, and so easy for everyone in the family to use! What's more, it will make your basement more secure against intrusion. And it will pay for itself many times over by saving repair and replacement costs.

If your home was built without the convenience of a direct basement entrance, ask us for Bilco's new handbook "How to Add Valuable Living Space to Your Home."

Stop in and see our display. We'll give you free literature on how to do it. Or, we can suggest a man to install it for you.

$200,000 Richer

A former Mentone resident and her husband are $200,000 richer this week because they invested $25 last December in the Michigan lottery.

They are Jerry and Rowena Norwood, Roanoke. Mrs. Norwood, the former Rowena Lackey, is the daughter of Pearl Lackey Egolf, now of Roanoke, and the later Walter Lackey. A teacher, she and her husband, a crane operator, have six children.

Both plan to keep on working although they will probably take a trip to Las Vegas in October and fully expect to hear from Uncle Sam shortly about the cut he would like.

THANK YOU

Words cannot express the comfort each card, the food, flowers and prayers given at this time of sorrow, for our aching hearts. I love this small town. Don't home, my home, our love for each of you. I fell short so many times, my love for you. Your world had crumbled, only because I couldn't express myself, so please forgive me. God has promised us he would never allow more than we could bear, through His promises and Holy Word we will carry on. We're waiting for the day when God says "welcome home". Don will be there waiting for us. Many thanks to the Rev. J. D. Thomason, Dale & Edith Sheetz, the pall bearers and the Masonic Lodge.

TVSC non-instructional personnel get 11% increases

An 11 percent across-the-board salary increase was granted all Tippecanoe Valley non-instructional personnel at Monday night's school board meeting. The motion was made by president Dr. John McKee with the stipulation that replacement personnel be hired in at a lower figure unless their previous experience dictates otherwise. McKee has long contended it is unfair to hire new people at the salary earned by those who have worked in the same job for several years.

Passed on a 4-1 vote (Fred Kindig voted no), the motion was the last in a series that began last month when superintendent Robert Forbes suggested what amounted to a 15 percent increase. This was voted down and a motion by Fred Kindig to grant ten percent increases to those people with from five to ten years of experience and 20 percent to those with more than ten years, keeping the people who had worked less than five years at the present rate, was tabled. After discussion Monday night, it was defeated as was a motion by Don Snipes that all non-instructional personnel except bus drivers be given a ten percent across-the-board increase with an additional five percent to those with more than five years in TVSC. His motion would grant bus drivers a ten percent increase, $2 per hour and ten cents per mile for field trips. Most of the other members felt ten cents per mile was too high since the drivers had no investment in the trips other than their time.

While janitors, bus drivers and secretaries have been given wage increases, still unsettled is the teacher negotiation situation. Duane Smith, speaking for Tippecanoe Valley Classroom Teachers Association, urged school board members to remove postings of the Professional Teachers Association as the official bargaining agent. He said TV-

Akron's 4th celebration starts June 29

Congressman Elwood "Bud" Hillis will once again be marshal of Akron's 4th of July parade.

The annual celebration will get underway Sunday, June 29, with a horseshow on the school grounds. Sanctioned by the PHBA, PHEI, ISHA and NAPI, the show will attract entrants in 42 classes who will vie for trophies provided by area business and professional people.

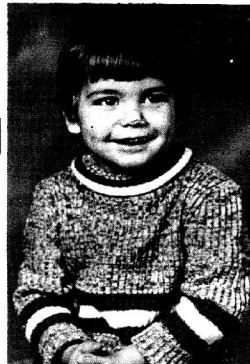

Dr. James Morgan is 4th of July chairman and can be contacted by anyone desiring information or wanting to enter the parade. Registration can also be made at Day Hardware.

Members of the committee are Dr. and Mrs. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Day, Pam Madeford, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Gag-

Want a stand on July 4th?

Organizations wishing to have a food stand or game at Akron's 4th of July celebration are asked to contact Dick Day so that space and electricity can be planned. Twenty-five percent of their profit will go toward the cost of the fireworks.

Tractor Pull re-scheduled

The rained-out Mentone Egg Festival tractor pull has been re-scheduled for Friday, June 20, at 5 p.m. Paul Haist is chairman.

EASY THERE! Good for a lot of laughs, a few anguished gasps (would a stray egg actually hit someone in the crowd?) and a lot of broken yolks the egg throw during the Mentone Egg Festival Saturday afternoon drew a lot of spectators and quite a few participants in three age groups. With each throw, the team members each stepped back one step, making some of them have to hurl the eggs a long ways to reach their partner. More Festival pictures inside.

TVSC non-instructional

CTA speaks for teachers, not for the administration, and charged that many teachers signed authorization cards for PTO because they feared administration reprisals if they supported TVCTA. He said TVCTA is legally certified by the Indiana Education Employment Relations Board and asked that all further negotiations with PTO cease.

Speaking for PTO were Jean Smith and Lewis Shoemaker. Mrs. Smith said PTO had followed procedure and had tried to cooperate with everyone, something she said TVCTA had not done. She asked the board to grant PTO its continued consideration as the negotiating unit. Shoemaker said he felt the whole matter needed to be updated and challenged TVCTA's right to say it represents the teachers.

In other action, the board accepted bids for $535.60 for a paper drill and $3,407 for a Challenge paper cutter from Addressograph-Multigraph; $2,773 worth of furniture and equipment that includes a glass top coaster, engraving table, dark room developing sink and other graphics - related equipment from Broadhead-Garrett; $357.20 - unspecified item and $425 for a Jet Speed folder from McMilligan Industrial Supply, and $435 for a film storage cabinet, $2,327 for a Nu-Arc camera and $1,051 for a plate maker from Lincoln Graphics. Forbes said these bids represented the balance of the graphics arts equipment for the new high school.

Two houses built by building trades students were offered for sale but received no bids. Both are located in Mentone. One had been appraised at $34,900 and the other at $35,200. Either could have been purchased for a minimum of 90 percent of the appraised value. The bids will be held open and buyers may contact the superintendent.

Contracts approved included those of Jon Parker for 20 days of driver education, $820; Mary Ann Rogers as a remedial reading teacher for 40 days this summer; Russell Isaacs, Jr., a nine-month contract that will include junior high football coaching and high school wrestling in addition to yet to be announced classroom duties and a summer contract for $858.33, and Linda Sue Schultz, a nine-month contract for $7,900 as either remedial or elementary teacher.

A notice to bidders was authorized for equipment that includes a wrestling mat.

Kindig complained that the baseball diamond looks like a pasture field and questioned Forbes about its condition and future plans.

Kindig presented Dr. McKee with a plaque in appreciation for his service on the board. McKee, president for the past year, will be replaced on the board by Con Shewman at the July 1 reorganizational meeting. Holdover board members are Dr. Wymond Wilson, Richard Goshert, Snipes and Kindig.

The July 1 meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. New officers will be elected and Lloyd Harrell will replace Forbes as superintendent. Forbes will become business manager.

Dr. Harrell and Shewman attended Monday night's meeting as did a number of non-instructional personnel and teachers.

Bike safety is everyone's concern

It's summer and what with swimming classes, band and remedial subjects, school is not really out. Instead, the roads leading to Tippecanoe Valley High School are busier than ever, all day. And instead of school buses and cars, there are now bicyclists and pedestrians.

There are so many cyclists it seems advisable to list a few bike rules, not only for their benefit but as reminders to drivers that the two-wheeled vehicles also have rights.

Important rules for bikers include: Remember to be careful to keep your bicycle under control. Never zigzag.

Be sure your bike is in good condition, especially the brakes.

Don't ride after dark unless you have to, and be sure your bicycle has lights and reflectors. Light colored clothing also helps a bike rider to be seen in the dusk and after dark.

When traffic is heavy at a busy corner, dismount and walk your bike across.

Important to bicycle safety is to know and obey the traffic rules. Watch out at all times for autos and trucks. Let them go first. A car or truck driver deserves courtesy from the bike rider, just as the bicyclist expects courtesy from the car or truck driver.

Parade prizes

Prizes in the Mentone Egg Festival parade went to the Tippecanoe Valley high school band, a float depicting "Little Miss Muffett" entered by Janelle Kistler, the Mentone Flying Club's red baron entry, the Kistler walking unit, the King children's decorated bicycle, their parents' old car and Sally Miner's horse.

Chick got the goat

What do you tell someone who has just won midnight delivery of a billy goat? Allen (Chick) Herendeen received the following letter from the Bell Aircraft Museum committee informing him of his "win."

Dear Sir:

Congratulations! You are the lucky winner of the first "Get Your Goat" contest sponsored by the Lawrence D. Bell Aircraft Museum.

The board of directors of the Lawrence D. Bell Aircraft Museum feels that in order to protect their good names and the integrity of each member, that you should be informed that a prominent local attorney selected your name from a giant green waste paper basket containing all of the "goat" tickets sold. Your name is clearly printed on the ticket in pencil. If you desire you may examine same ticket but handwriting analysis will be at your own expense.

The goat, affectionately called Katevel Sylvester by some of the board members, has proven to be worthy of a good home and any news of mistreatment will be reported to the NSPCA. This goat is free and clear of any financial obligations and holds no mortgage. It is not essential to have title for goat as goat owners have problems with goats eating legal documents. The ticket with your name on it is proof of ownership and you may sell or lease goat at your own discretion.

What God has joined together let no man put asunder.

Yours very truly,
Mary Jane Hill, Corres.

Letters to the Editor

He got the goat

Dear Editor:

Thank you for your fine coverage of the proceedings of the Lawrence D. Bell Aircraft Museum. We wish to thank all those involved in making our first fund raising project during the Egg Festival a tremendous success. Our goat give-a-way has created a lot of interest and we cannot keep the outcome of the drawing a secret any longer. The goat has been delivered to the lucky winner, Chick Herendeen. Bike riders

Dear Ann,

It has come to my attention that many students are bike riding to TVSC activities this summer. Could you mention they should use flags on their bikes to make them visible at a greater distance?

Also, isn't it nice to have the streets swept?

Amen to Lois Miller's letter of appreciation of Goldie's writing. As for the Methodist chimes, I thank God for the persons memorialized--Ethel Shafer and Bob Hoover, and the dedication of their families, who wanted to give this lovely gift to our community.

Historical Society gets help

Dear Editor:

The Fulton Co. Historical Society has had a wonderful piece of good luck. The federal government is paying three people to work in our museum this summer.

Mrs. Albiona Hutton was hired by the Green Thumb project for 20 hours a week and by Comprehensive Manpower for 20 hours. She is cataloging, typing, filing, cleaning, arranging displays, making new signs, etc. She is a talented artist and has produced puppet shows coast-to-coast, so when she gets more familiar with county history, she may write a puppet show about Fulton County history. She is a sister to Dick Miller and grew up in Rochester.

Dee Ann Mayhew and Martin Jonushaitis are being paid by Manpower's SPEEDY (Summer Program for Economically Deprived Youth). Dee Ann will help Albiona inside the museum, and Martin will paint the museum and the freight wagon outside, first scraping off loose paint, nailing back loose boards, caulking cracks, etc. He will also install the air conditioner, replace broken glass, later work on the log cabin.

Dee Ann is from Leiters Ford and Martin is from Rochester.

Our depot-museum was built in 1877 and will soon be 100 years old. Even an economic recession has its good side, and we are sure happy that the old museum is getting a new lease on life with a little boost from the federal government's work programs.

This means the museum will be open five days a week from 8 to 5. So drop in and visit any time and really make use of the educational facilities offered by the museum. Volunteer hosts will still open the museum from 2 to 5 p.m. on Sundays.

We thank Terry Shumaker, member of the board of directors of Fulton Co. Historical Society, for arranging for the hiring of these people.

Manpower jobs available for area youth

Representatives of Comprehensive Manpower, Title I, will be in Mentone's Bell Memorial Library Friday, June 20, from 2 to 4 p.m. to discuss a summer program for economically disadvantaged youths that began in Kosciusko Co. on June 16 and will end on August 15. Under the program, young people 14-21 who meet the economic requirements will be given jobs.

The program was created to provide employment on municipal job sites in the area and to be a learning experience. Comprehensive Manpower trainers develop the interests of their enrollees and assist them in their career development, according to Bill Katip, Kosciusko Co. Summer Generalist. The young people will be paid $2.10 per hour.

Those applying will also need to furnish a social security number and an "intention to employ" card if they are under 18.

Volunteers to supervise the young people are also needed and interested persons should attend Friday's meeting for additional information.

Anyone interested in this program should attend the meeting and be prepared to show that his or her family is economically disadvantaged. Proof of this will come from records of the parents' 1974 income. The term "economically disadvantaged" is used to designate a person who is a member of a family that receives cash welfare payments or whose annual income falls on or below the following schedules:

Family Size	Non-Farm Family	Farm Family
1	$2,590	$2,200
2	3,410	2,900
3	4,230	3,600
4	5,050	4,300
5	5,870	5,000
6	6,690	5,700

A family with more than six members should add $820 for each person if it is a non-farm family and $700 each if it resides on a farm.

DAR members work on float at meeting

Fourteen members of Anthony Nigo DAR chapter met recently at Mrs. Frank Smith's home to decorate their float entry for the Mentone Egg Festival.

Highlights of the DAR float were an old fashioned Studebaker wagon that once belonged to the late Arthur Brown. Riding on the wagon were Mr. and Mrs. Steve Johnson and their son Jeff. Mrs. Johnson, the former Yvonne Rathfon, wore a dress that had belonged to her great-great-grandmother. The float followed the theme: Home and Country.

Committee chairmen for the coming year were named by the new regent, Mrs. Glenn Clauss, and work committees for the booth at the Egg Festival were volunteered.

Mrs. Clauss and Mrs. Smith served refreshments.

Take your problems to Church this week -

Old Enough To Know

When my work is finished for the day I like to stroll out here of a late afternoon to look over the fields and hills and to watch the sun set, forget worries, petty annoyances and self, yes, and to pray and give thanks. It seems to aid me in evaluating the deeds, words and thoughts of the day, to enable me to separate the worthwhile from the unworthy that I may avoid repeating past mistakes. In short it acts as a means of bringing me closer to our Heavenly Father.

Don't misunderstand me though. While I gain inspiration and help from these moments of solitude, spent close to nature, they do not take the place of regular attendance at church. They cannot do that for the Church is a place of fellowship and I am old enough to know that church going gives you a sense of security and contentment that nothing else can.

Heifer Project director in Akron Sunday

Marion Lehman, Midwest
Director of Heifer Project Inc., will be the guest speaker at the Akron Church of God Sunday, June 22, at the 10:30 a.m. worship service. He will show pictures of Heifer Project work at 2 p.m., following a carry-in noon meal.

Heifer Project International, the inspiration of Dan West, a member of the Church of the Brethren who lives near Goshen, was founded in 1944. Since then it has grown to be a worldwide, self-help organization, non-profit, non-sectarian, supported by voluntary contributions.
It provides livestock and related agricultural services to people in developing areas of the world, including the United States. It is registered with the U.S.
Treasury as a tax-exempt charitable agency and is a member of the American Council of Voluntary Agencies for Foreign Service and of the International Council of Voluntary Agencies.

HPI's purpose is to help people produce food and income for themselves and contribute to ward the solution of the world hunger problem.

Its philosophy is that a helping hand is better than a handout. Each recipient passes on his animal's first offspring
to a needy neighbor.
Animals used are cattle,
both dairy and beef,
heifers and bulls; goats,
sheep, pigs, rabbits,
honey bees and poultry.
Those receiving livestock are trained by HPI representatives in livestock care, including feed, disease control, breeding and management, etc. HPI has sent more than 50,000
animals and a million and a half chickens to people in 90 countries and 18 states. Current HPI programs are in 12 states of the United States and 35 overseas countries. Over the past five years, HPI has sent stock valued at more than one million dollars each year to those in need. Sources of income for this work are entirely voluntary contributions from churches and individuals of all faiths, by farmers,
businessmen, service clubs, youth and other organizations. HPI books are audited annually with reporting to each state in which HPI operates, to the U.S.
Treasury and State Department.

Heifer Project International is governed by a 32-member board of directors, representing 15 religions, philanthropic and farm organizations plus 11 directors at large. Marion Lehman is its Midwest

director, having served with HPI for 12 years.
He is an active church-
man, a committed person, a skilled photographer and has traveled as a "seagoing cowboy" in the deliveries of animals.
In the afternoon service
he will show pictures of this work.

A cordial invitation is given to all interested persons to share in any or all of the day's service by the Rev. Charles E. Zunkel, pastor of the church.

CALENDAR

TUESDAY, JUNE 24

Regular monthly meeting of Fulton Co. Chapter American Red Cross at noon, Lakeside Inn, Rochester.

Newcastle Twp. Farm Bureau will meet at 8 p.m. at Bethlehem Baptist Church. Florence Erp will show slides and tell of her trip to the Scandavavian countries. Ice cream and drink will be furnished by the Farm Bureau. Those attending should take table service, cookies or cake.

He'll preach from the roof

"I'll preach the Sunday evening service from the roof of the church if we have 50 present in the morning to hear the 'Happy Sound,' the Rev. Lee Stubblefield has promised members of his church, the Omega Church.

The "Happy Sound" is a group composed of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harvey and their eight children. They will sing at the June 22 morning service, and if the crowd is large enough, the Rev. Stubblefield will take to the roof in the evening.

Members of the church urge everyone to attend.

Horse show Sunday starts Akron's 4th celebration

Akron's annual 4th of July celebration will kick off Sunday with a PHBA-PHEI-NAPI-ISHA-approved horse show at the Akron school grounds.

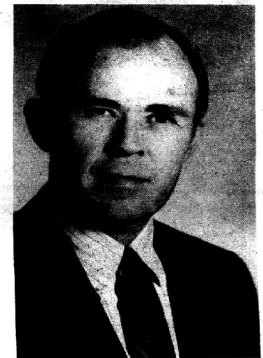

Proceeds from the show will be used to defray expenses of the all-day 4th celebration. The show, scheduled to begin at 10 a.m., is organized each year by Helen Terrell.

"American Spirit is the theme of this year's 4th celebration and it will be used throughout the parade, which will be led by Congressman Elwood Hillis.

The parade will begin at 11 a.m., moving from the line-up area in the southern part of town to East Rochester Street and then to the intersection of State Roads 14 and 19 where it will pass the reviewing stand before turning on SR 19 and making its way to the school grounds.

PREACHER ON THE ROOF TOP: Last week the Rev. Lee Stubblefield told members of the Omega Church, located southwest of Akron, he would preach the evening service from the roof if there were 50 present at the morning service. When 56 showed up, the Rev. Stubblefield was true to his word and gamely climbed to his lofty perch. Music for both services was provided by "The Happy Sound," a group composed of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harvey and their eight children.

Manpower jobs still available

Anyone who missed the interview for Comprehensive Manpower jobs last Friday at the Bell Memorial library, Mentone, should call 269-2102.

Complete details and eligibility were outlined in last week's NEWS.

Local cartoonist's work featured

The cartoon in this week's NEWS showing two members of the "uni-sex" generation confronting each other will serve to introduce readers to the humor of Noelle Hammer, a talented artist who, with husband, Terry, was the subject of a full-length feature several months ago.

Mrs. Hammer said the cartoon was inspired by a letter to an advice column in which the writer protested she could no longer tell boys from girls.

TVHS pool is a busy place these days. Beginning and advanced classes meet daily and time is given for adults in special "over 18" sessions.

TWIN AXE, a Rock'n Roll group from Warsaw, will create their own special sound at the teen dance during Akron's 4th of July celebration. The dance will be from 3 to 6 p.m. in the school gym.

Our Readers Write

The NEWS welcomes letters for publication but prefers that they be kept under 200 words. The letters need not express the views of this paper; however, they should not be libelous or in poor taste. Anonymous letters will not be published. The name of the writer must appear with his letter.

To the Editor:

Today I become a rich man. I was raised in a poor family of 14 children. I was 14 years old before I ever wore a new piece of clothing. Working all of my way through school during the depression, serving poor churches in rural settings and in the depressive area of our great cities; never owning a house or any land, (nor will we ever.) We learned to love people, to preach, to write a bit, to be happy with a lovely wife and my children, who do not even know what town they can call home.

Often through the years, Mrs. Phillips and I would say, "if we only had a lilac bush." This evening one of the good men of our church drove up with his station wagon and one hour later we had, standing and planted, in our back yard, of all things, a lilac bush that is taller than my head. Now at long last I am a rich man. We are a producer of beauty. Just wait until spring when we pick our first bouquet of lilacs for the church altar. As that beautiful, heavenly smell of the lilacs floats over the people in the church, I can shout to high heaven, "I am a rich man, I have produced beautiful lilacs and the heavenly smell."

Each day this summer, fall and winter I shall look at Mrs. Phillips and my lilac bush and say, "thank you, God, for letting me give beauty to the world."

Garrett H. Phillips

Dear Editor,

The Bicentennial log cabin is going up! Thanks to the Comprehensive Manpower program and several others who are donating their time and knowledge of construction.

June 13 four Manpower boys, supervised by Merrill Waltz, tore down the log cabin Ted Merley had donated. We thank them and also Roland Calvert for driving the fork-lift and truck. Thanks to McMahan-O'Connor for lending the truck and fork-lift to move the logs to Lakeview Park.

This week is your opportunity to watch a log cabin being built. Under the supervision of Carl Davis, Bob Waltz, and Claude Wagoner, several Manpower boys are reconstructing a real log cabin from the logs of two cabins over 100 years old. You might want to show your appreciation by bringing them a cold drink one of these hot days.

Fulton County Historical Society will meet June 30 at 7:30 in the Edison Room to plan for the Round Barn Festival. Some important decisions will be made so all are urged to come.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors June 5 the following action was taken:

-Voted to bid for the Rochester Middle School so as to make it into a Bicentennial Civic Arts Building. Several other groups have pledged their support in this project.

-Empowered the president to contract for a concession trailer.

-Drew up guidelines for the work at the museum this summer being done by Manpower and Green Thumb people.

-Amend constitution to have meetings every two months instead of every three. This will be voted on at the next meeting.

Float judging criteria

Floats in each of the divisions of the Akron 4th of July parade will be judged on a point basis, 10 in each category for a total of 50. These are originality, appropriateness to the "American Spirit" theme, adherence to design principles (color, balance, etc.), sound construction and neatness, and on how appropriately the people on the float are dressed. All floats will be asked to stop momentarily in front of the judges' stand in Gearhart's parking lot before continuing the route to the school. All entries will receive a plaque, regardless of placing.

VFW winning color guard will lead parade

The color guard from Warsaw VFW post 1126 that recently won the state championship in Indianapolis, will be the official color guard for Akron's 4th of July parade. The unit is under the direction of Sgt. Frank Copeland.

60 YEARS AGO

The citizenship of Akron were awakened Wednesday morning, by the cry of fire and the telephone girls were ringing up the slumbering populace to startle it with the announcement that Central Lumber Company mills were on fire. It only took a few minutes to congregate a large crowd of people. The company is undecided as to whether they will rebuild. They have made no plans for the future, yet one member of the firm informed some friends that lack of fire protection here would have some influence against their rebuilding.

Wilson Friend of Deedsville, and two or three helpers were here a couple of days this week picking the cherries on the Utter property which he recently purchased, and while here got on our subscription list.

It is reported at this office that last Sunday evening just before nine o'clock three young ladies stopped at the W. P. Burns home on Walnut street and tore up and fairly destroyed some of her porch flowers. In a moment they destroyed the things on which Mrs. Burns has spent much time and patience to develop. The young ladies were seen at the porch by men across the street and have given almost conclusive description by dress and headgear, until almost any one can identify them from that description.

The members of the Ladies Aid of the M. E. church enjoyed a pleasant outing at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Judd Curtis. They were taken out in automobiles and the ride itself was a treat on such a perfect June afternoon. At the conclusion of an interesting program, tempting refreshments were served. Miss Mildred Smith and Miss Helen Curtis rendered some very pleasing music and all came home feeling that it was good to be present.

Vance Hoffman went to Chicago last Sunday to take a course in electrical engineering.

Suzanne Morris was the guest of honor at a birthday party given Wednesday afternoon by her mother Mrs. Jack Morris, and her sisters, Betty and Kate. Games and contests were played and some of the guests enjoyed rides on the pony.

Mrs. Sam Merley entertained the Mu Gamm club and guests at a one o'clock luncheon last Friday at her country home. Four tables of bridge were enjoyed later in the afternoon and prizes were won by Mrs. Cloyde Leininger, Mrs. N. Clair Moore, Mrs. Forrest Higgins, Miss Margaret Kistler and Mrs. C. W. Branning.

Vikings win 3 with defense

By Ron Newlin, NEWS Sportswriter

The Tippecanoe Valley Vikings' baseball team continued to play the brand of ball that won them a sectional title in the first 2 weeks of summer, capitalizing on strong pitching and defense to win 3 games. The wins ran the Vikings early-summer surge to 8-1 since the start of the sectional, and left their season mark at 14-15.

Tippecanoe jumped on LaVille for 9 first-inning runs and went on to beat the Lancers 11-1 in the first of the three games. Viking pitcher Chris Smalley fired a two-hitter and went the distance to pick up the win.

The following night at home the Vikings came from behind to beat Argos, 3-2. The Valley scored two runs in the bottom of the sixth to win when Mitch Harris doubled home Ray Rockhill and Max Huffman. Bill Hardesty was the winning pitcher.

Then Hardesty threw a 3-hit shut out against Oregon-Davis to top the Bobcat's 6-0. It was Hardesty's 5th win in his last 6 decisions, and second shutout of the year. Jerry Whetstone rapped a pair of doubles, while Jim Webb and Don Dickerhoff each added two hits to the Viking offense.

Tippecanoe Valley is currently undefeated at 4-0 in the Northern Indiana summer league in which it is competing.

Old 31 and SR 10 now 4-way stop

All traffic at the intersection of SR 110 and Old US 31 at the Marshall and Fulton Co. line will be required to come to a complete stop, due to an official action signed Friday by Indiana State Highway Commission officials.

According to Executive Director Roger F. Marsh, the change from a flashing red for Old US 31 and flashing amber for SR 110 was due to a recommendation from LaPorte District Engineer Leonard E. Lucas.

After studying the intersection, LaPorte District traffic engineers learned that some motorists on Old US 31 ignored the red flasher. Although no serious accident have occurred at the intersection, the switch to a four-way stop will reduce the possibility of future accidents.

Work crews will change the lights within the next two weeks.

I am Jane's...", this book's concept is at once unique and ingenious--a perfect blend of pleasurable reading and valuable information--as the major organs and tissues of the human body tell their own stories.

SHARDIK by Richard Adams. The author of "Watership Down" has created another fantasy, this one of somber indeed of tragic character--centered upon the long-awaited reincarnation of the gigantic bear Shardik and his appearance among the Ortelgan people.

Once 'pon a time...

...A man who was too cheap to subscribe to his hometown newspaper sent his boy to borrow his neighbor's copy.

In his haste the boy ran over an $80 hive of bees and in ten minutes he looked like a warty squash.

His father ran to his assistance, and falling into a barbed wire fence, he cut a hole in his anatomy and ruined a pair of $10 trousers.

The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and killed herself eating green corn.

Hearing a racket, the wife ran out, upsetting a four-gallon churn of cream into a basket of chicks, drowning the entire batch.

In her haste she dropped a $135 set of false teeth, which the family dog buried thinking it was a new type of bone.

The baby, having been left alone, crawled through the spilled cream and into the parlor ruining a $250 carpet.

During the excitement

the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, a stray dog broke up 11 setting hens,
the calves got out and chewed the tails off four fine shirts on the cloths line, and the cat had a batch of kittens.

Silver Creek WSCS members hear 'Witness' defined

Witness is Worship, Interest, Testify, Now, Evangelize, Sharing, Service, members of the Silver Creek WSCS were told at a recent meeting in Sue Murphy's home. Co-hostesses were Ruth Gagnon and Zelma McCloughan.

Roll call response was "where I spent my honeymoon." The thought of the month is: Never be too big to be kind; many are too small.

A great deal of enthusiasm was shown in the white elephant auction.

Mrs. Maurice Lippy will be hostess for the July 21 meeting.

25th anniversary to be noted

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Kelley will honor their parents with an open house at their home in Atwood Sunday, June 29, from 2 to 4 p.m. in observance of their 25th wedding anniversary.

In 1899, a fire destroyed the corner of Akron now occupied by Akron Insurance Agency, Arter's Drug Store and Swygart's Furniture. The buildings were then frame and housed a millinery shop, the Hall and Kline Drug Store, a one-story barber shop and a hardware. The building shown in the picture is now Hill's grocery and an annex for Doering Radio and TV. It was then Strong's grocery and a bank. The men in the picture are holding blankets that were used to form an awning that was soaked with water and used to protect the store front from flying debris. A windmill and the town pump can be seen on the site now occupied by the Akron Exchange State Bank. Not shown in the background is the Methodist Church, which was severely threatened by the fire.

1916 Fourth of July parade

Akron has shared

The United States will be 199 years old on the 4th of July. For 139 of those years, Akron has noted the anniversary of its founding on the same day. Often obscured by the nation's anniversary, the settling of Akron was in reality a continuation of the spirit that fostered the Revolution. The town's founder, Dr. Joseph Sippy of Medina Co., Ohio, was the son of a Frenchman who came to America with Gen. DeLafayette's fleet and assisted in establishing American independence.

On June 1, 1836, a group of people led by Dr. Sippy left Ohio with wagons loaded with their household possessions, headed for a section of northern Indiana. Dr. Sippy had prospected the previous year, the first white man to visit the area. Each family took with them pigs, sheep and cows. Travel by ox team was slow. Detouring through White Pigeon, Mich., because the road through Fort Wayne

By Ann Sheetz with assistance was a black swamp, impassable for heavy wagons, the group travel-

INA BRUNDIGE, a descendant of one of the founders of Akron, William Whittenberger, wrote the history of Akron in 1936. Portions of it were used in this article. The entire history was reproduced last year by the Fulton Co. Historical Society.

DR. JOSEPH SIPPY was portrayed in the 1936 100th anniversary celebration of Akron's founding by the late Adam Stout. Dr. Sippy was 44 years old when he first prospected the area, the first white man to visit this part of the country.

U.S. birthday for 139 years from the late Ina Brundige

ed to Goshen on a fairly good road, but from Warsaw to a point near where Mentone now is, the road was bad. Then it ceased. The settlers were forced to cut hazel brush and saplings as they made their way through territory where wagon wheels had never before rolled.

At last, they reached the crossing of the Trails, now known as the intersection of state roads 14 and 19, and Dr. Sippy announced, "This is the Place." They climbed off their wagons and knelt in front of where the United Methodist church now stands and thanked God for the safe journey.

Poles were cut and tents pitched for temporary homes on the east side of the trail from the present site of the Akron Exchange State Bank north to the church. Homesteading began at once, and with it came progress and involvement, not only in the affairs of the community but in state, national and world activities. Men from Akron would participate in every war. They would be elected to office, build buildings, educate other men and travel the globe.

It has been 139 years since Dr. Sippy led his group of settlers to Akron. There have been good times and bad times, people have come and gone, but the spirit that is Akron has remained.

Some of that spirit is reflected in the collection of old pictures and memorabilia that appears in this week's NEWS. Other notable events, perhaps not photographed, have slipped from memory but all had their share in forming Akron.

AKRON'S 100th BIRTHDAY CAKE required 100 pounds of flour, 100 pounds of sugar, 40 dozen eggs, 15 pounds of butter and five gallons of milk. It was baked by the Akron Home Bakery.

Once is not enough

William Wrigley of chewing gum fame was said to have been riding on a train with a friend when the friend pointed to the frequent Wrigley gum signs along the right of way and adjacent highways. "Why do you spend all this money on advertising?" asked the friend. "Your business is established, your gum is famous and the competition is almost nonexistent."

"Well," answered Wrigley, "how fast do you think this train is going?"

"Oh, about 60 miles an hour," answered the puzzled friend. "Why?"

"Don't you think that is fast enough?" Wrigley asked. "Why don't they just take off the engine and save all that expense?"

The friend had no comment.

Don't let your business run like a train without an engine. Advertise. In the NEWS.

HAVING FUN has always been easy for people in Akron, as evidenced by these happy smiles from the 1936 parade.

Elected at Girls State

Linda Coplen, R. 2, Akron, was elected to a city or county office at 1975 Hoosier Girls' State which is in session this week on the campus of Indiana State University. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Coplen, she will be a senior at Tippecanoe Valley High School.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN is the Akron Fair which every year was located in the town parking lot behind what was then Leininger's Store. A portion of the building at right was once the Methodist Church but was moved to that site when the present church was built. Once a feed mill, it has since been replaced by General Telephone Company's block building. The signs across the entrance to the parking lot have also been removed.

BSU plans Bicentennial series

In honor of the nation's 200th birthday, Ball State University will present a special Bicentennial series in Emens Auditorium.

The three-part series will include Fredd Wayne in a portrayal, "Ben Franklin, Citizen: The Story of the Uncommon Man." He will perform on Citizenship Day, Wednesday, September 17.

Second in the series will be ragtime pianist Max Morath presenting his musical, "At the Turn of the Century," on Friday, November 7.

A six-member New Orleans jazz group will revive the memory of Jelly Roll Morton in the third program, "The World of Jelly Roll Morton," on Thursday, Feb. 19.

synonymous with mirfh.

Today, however, as any doctor or nutritionist will point out, there is nothing funny about being fat. Although it may be little consolation to the overweight individual, the problem of excess weight is probably one of the country's most frequently heard health complaints.

According to a recent Public Health Survey by the Dept. of Health and Welfare, between 25 and 45 per cent of the adults in this country are more than 20 per cent overweight. Obesity may lead to a shorter life span, heart disease, high blood pressure and diabetes.

It is becoming increasingly apparent from evidence accumulated over recent years that the root cause of obesity in many cases can be treated directly to eating patterns established in early life. The total number of fat cells that we carry into adult life is largely dependent on eating habits established during childhood.

One of the oldest theories concerning the cause of obesity still holds true today - overeating. For people who are victims of "creeping obesity", excess poundage is largely the result of overeating combined with inactivity.

The obvious solution for most overweight adults is to be more active and consume fewer calories. Let's get in shape during these nice summer months. Your life depends on it.

30 MILES FOR ICE CREAM by Murray Hoyt. What ever did people do? Back when there was no television, no radio, no movies, no cars, no fast boats, no water skiing, no plumbing. Just nothing? Murray Hoyt's answer to this question, from a sweet young thing in her late teens, is the story told in this book. The time, pre-World War I into the 1930's. "I thought very simply, that it was Paradise," the author says, and proves it in fifteen humorous, eventful chapters about how "nothing to do was done."

BRIGHT EYES, THE STORY OF SUZETTE LA FLESCH, AN OMAHA INDIAN by Dorothy Clark Wilson.

Energy saved is ...EER.

Frugal, penny-stretching Ben Franklin would approve of today's efforts to conserve our natural resources. EER spells one important way you can have air conditioned comfort this summer and still help stretch energy reserves.

EER means Energy Efficiency Ratio* and it measures the energy efficiency of all types of air conditioners.

Before you buy an air conditioner this summer, check its EER. By making sure the EER is 8 or higher, you'll be helping America stretch its fuel supply . . . and get more for your energy dollar as well. As Ben would say, "A penny saved is a penny earned."

Help your country . . . help yourself.

PUBLIC SERVICE INDIANA

To figure EER, divide the BTU output of a unit by the wattage required to run it. A unit rated at 13,000 BTUs that takes 1,360 watts has an EER of 9.6 (13,000 divided by 1,360).

Things I Remember

By Goldie Kesler

Grandma said the hens needed poke root. Just why I don't know. Poke is that plant that grows in the woods and has the beautiful red berries. We were taught never to eat anything from the woods for fear it might be poison. Grandfather hitched "Mug" to the one-horse wagon, put the spring seat in place and we started down the lane. At the first turn was a hog house with a mother pig and ten fat babies in it. A mother pig could eat a little girl alive so we tiptoed around and peeked through a crack to see the mother with all her babies stretched out asleep. A little farther on a robin had a nest on a rail fence and we held our breath as we went past so as not to disturb her. Then we came to the end of the lane and there was the foot log across the creek. We didn't have to cross the creek but Grandpa always took time to let us walk across and back. He could walk the log as well as he did the path in the lane but the creek looked so wide and deep he had to be helped. Grandpa said he was born on a foot log as his folks came from Ohio to Indiana to live. Our uncle said a turkey buzzard laid him on a stump and he hatched out in the sun. We could see the very stump from our front window. We knew our good old doctor brought all new babies in his old black pill bag so it was hard for us to know which was right. Our old doctor was such a good doctor, he always gave us pink sugar pills and he never forgot to leave some for the dolls. He had a twisted leg and walked with a cane. I never knew how he got me all doubled up in the short bag but I was born in August so if my feet stuck out they must have been warm enough anyway.

But I seem to have digressed from the poke roots. We drove slowly back into the big woods. Grandfather loved the tall elm and hickory trees, the squattier beeches and all the maples in the sugar camp.

He loved the flowers too and always took some to Grandma, being very careful not to disturb the roots so they would bloom next spring. John jump ups, trillium, wild phlox, spring beauties and the red buds, wild plum and dogwood. He said they were heaven-sent because they required no care.

We dug enough poke roots to last the hens all summer, I think, and then got home before sundown as we always had to do when we went places with Grandpa.

Grandma cooked the roots in the big iron kettle and gave some to the hens. They began to lay more and bigger eggs right away.

Wheat allotment filings due

A new farm wheat allotment may be established for 1976 crop wheat acreage for farms that did not have a 1975 allotment, if they meet eligibility requirements, according to Harris D. Lease, chairman of the Fulton Co. ASC committee.

A 1976 wheat allotment will be established automatically for most farms that had a wheat allotment in 1975.

To be eligible for a new farm allotment, the operator must expect to receive more than 50 percent of his income from farming. Neither the owner nor the operator may have an interest in any other farm that will have a 1976 wheat allotment, and the person making application must have had at least one year production experience in a prior year.

Applications for a new farm allotment must be filed in the county office on or before July 1, 1975.

ODDS and ENDS

By Ann Sheetz

You can make electricity by stroking a cat and Boy Scouts are told you can start fires by rubbing together two sticks, but I'm the only person in our family who can make a sink magnetic.

It's not a difficult trick. In fact, it's more difficult not to do it.

All I have to do is fill the sink with water to wash dishes or scrub vegetables and suddenly I'm the most popular person in the world. My family materializes as if by magic, surrounding me completely. Except they don't really want to see me, they want a drink. The magnetic sink has done it again.

Perhaps the sound of water draws them, I conclude and I change my habits.

It's 10 p.m. and the house is quiet. My mate is burning midnight oil at the shop, our sons are in bed. But, I discover as soon as the sink is filled, being in bed and being asleep are not the same. An outstretched hand holding a glass shows the sink has lost none of its magnetism.

It's late at night and my men are working in the field, trying to beat a rain. The house is strangely silent and I put off washing pots and pans in favor of a chance to read in peace and quiet. At 11 or 12 or 1, my conscience bothers me, and I move to the sink. Within seconds, the hand is there.

I would attempt to patent my magnetic sink but there's no demand for it. The women of the world would pay more for one that is less magnetic, unless I can create one that brings a hand carrying a towel instead of a glass.

SUMMER OF ENJOYMENT

That's for sure what you'd have ahead of you if you called today about this property. The owner has just painted the pool, plus redecorated everything inside including the basement. All you have left to do is move in. This 2 (possible 3) bedroom home with a great location is in the friendly town of Bourbon (Triton School District). All the enjoyments of "the good life" can be yours and on contract too with a very favorable interest rate. (M2004)

DON'T PAY RENT!

You might as well bury that money. Invest your money in something that's yours. We've got a great starter home of Mentone. Two bedroom, attached two-car garage, a lot almost an acre in size, and the owner will even consider selling on contract. Call us. (M2001)

TIME IS RUNNING OUT

And these people want to sell! Now is certainly the prime time for you to come see this 4 bedroom home located on the edge of Bourbon on a 2 acre tract. The kitchen is built-in and the living and dining rooms are carpeted. Plenty of room for your children to play. (M4001)

WHAT IT AIN'T GO

Ain't worth mentioning. What is worth mentioning is the location (Bourbon--a friendly little town with a great school system) the home itself (3 bedroom, fully built-in kitchen, attached garage), and the fact that it's just been redecorated. Give us a call. (M3001)

MOTHER-IN-LAW COMING?

Here's a big 4-bedroom home near the park (so you can escape) in Bourbon. On the same lot is a small rental house (in case she stays more than a day). Or if worse comes to worse, take refuge in the cement block building that's also there (it's new and large) and invite your buddies to throw a party. Now if you've got a nice mother-in-law, pardon my bad jokes and consider this as an income property. Either way--you win. (M8001)

RETIRE CLOSE UP TOWN

If you've been waiting on an easy care close-in retirement property in Bourbon, wait no more. This 3 bedroom, nice size, aluminum sided home can be yours without spending your life's savings. You can walk to almost any need. Call about this one. (M3002)

FORGET IT

If you're waiting on the interest rates to lower I've lived 35 (yes gads) years and have never seen it go down! NOW is the time to invest in a home and build your life some equity. We have a low priced 2 (possible 3) bedroom home in a nice location in Bourbon. Call us. (M2003)

PALESTINE LAKE

Lot 100 x 61 on a slope. Nice to build on or just hold. Taxes extremely low. Priced right. (M6001)

40 ACRES

Located near Akron. It's ready for a house with well and septic already established. Buy now and start building tomorrow. With most of the land tillable this is just the spot to start your "country estate". (M5001A)

LOT WITH LAKE EASEMENT

Not only does this lovely lot have easement to the lake but a lovely view, also. And what could be lovelier than the $1,000 price tag on this one! (M6206A)

WANT A PLACE FOR A BUSINESS IN YOUR HOME?

If so, we've got the home for you. It's a lovely 3-bedroom home with formal dining room, cheery kitchen and comfortable living room. The two-story garage and shop can be made into anything from a rustic antique shop to a wood shop to possibly even an apartment. Call and start your extra income project. (M3001B)

EXCELLENT BUILDING SITE.

FANTASTIC VIEW

With a beautifully established yard, this building site offers a fantastic view of the lake. Also an easement to the lake. Located on Yellow Creek Lake. You can enjoy fishing, boating, swimming and skiing. This one-acre lot is priced right too! Call and see for yourself. (M6190B)

WANT TO GROW A TRUCK PATCH?

You certainly could on this 2 1/2 acre place. The older two-story home has three bedrooms (a possible 4th) aluminum siding and includes many new major appliances. Outside you'll be able to plant enough garden to keep you busy all summer. You'll also find fruit trees and grapes. Located in Tippecanoe school district and priced at only $18,500. (M3723B)

LOOKING FOR A HOME AND 5 ACRES?

We've got it! The older 2-story home can be either a 3 or 4 bedroom home with lots of room and endless possibilities. The outbuildings are in good shape with cement floors, water and electricity. Located in TVSC school system. This is one of our best buys at only $20,000 with contract term possible. (M7049B)

232 ACRE FARM

All but about 20 acres tillable. Good buildings and house. Field has excellent yield. Located in Tippecanoe area. Call and take a look (M7047A)
