TVCTA wins bargaining rights

by Diana Streevey Bucher

TVSC teachers recently elected, by a vote of 51-43, the Tippecanoe Valley Classroom Teachers Association (TVCTA) their official bargaining representatives for the next two years. During the last four years, the Tippecanoe Valley Educators Organization (TVEO) had been recognized bargaining agent; before that the Professional Teachers Organization (PTO) had been the negotiators.

The TVCTA, affiliated with the Indiana State Teachers Association (ISTA) and the National Educators Association (NEA), successfully challenged the TVEO, a local organization. This is the TVCTA's first opportunity at negotiation since the 1973 law was passed giving public employees the right to bargain.

Bernadean Howard, president of the TVCTA and a fourth grade teacher at Akron, explained that the TVCTA is the oldest teachers organization in the TVSC. The TVEO organized four years ago from the PTO.

The election, held February 20, was conducted by four officials of the Indiana Educational Employment Relations Board (IEERB) an independent mediating organization whose members are appointed by the governor.

Teachers in Indiana sign yearly contracts, and Ms. Howard pointed out they negotiate only for salary and fringe benefits. Stating "We're looking forward to starting negotiations with the board", she informed us she had already sent a letter of intent to the board and Dr. Lloyd Harrell (who represents the board in these matters), hoping they will soon set a date to begin.

Negotiations are temporarily delayed as Dr. Harrell has objected to the IEERB that the election was not conducted properly. It is not certain what action the IEERB will take at this time.

April 1 is Census Day

by Diana Streevey Bucher

April 1, 1980, has been officially declared the Twentieth Decennial Census Day by President Carter. On that day, an estimated 222 million Americans in 86 million households will be identified through the census questionnaires that will be delivered by mail on March 28. 90 percent of the questionnaires will be earmarked to be returned by mail, while the remaining 10 percent will be picked up by census takers. Indiana is in a 'mail-back' area.

The original purpose of the census, as stated in the Constitution, is to provide population totals needed to apportion seats in the US House of Representatives. The Bureau of the Census expects to find 11 seats in the House will shift as a result of the 1980 census. Indiana is not expected to have any changes in its number of representatives (now 11), although it is possible that population shifts within the state could result in adjustment of district boundaries.

The NEWS wanted to help you in understanding the 1980 census: its history, its benefits and how to prepare your questionnaire. We hope the article on page 11 is helpful.

Notice

New street signs authorized

Akron Town Board approves lights in Saner Addition

All members of the Akron Town Board and Akron Clerk-Treasurer Ernie Smith attended the regular session of the Akron Town Board on February 19.

Vernon Waymire advised the board that he had attended a meeting of a joint committee to discuss erecting signs in the towns of the TVSC proclaiming that the TVHS Vikings had won the state class AAA football championship in 1979. The cost to the town for this project would be approximately $100. Other meetings will be held before the project is finalized.

It was decided to instruct Public Service Indiana to install four wood poles with 150 watt sodium vapor bulbs in the Saner addition. Public Service had given the options of installing four wood poles or seven ornamental poles with the same type bulb. Monthly cost per pole would be $7.32, but the ornamental poles required a down payment of $500. Dr. Charles Miller moved to have the wood poles, Vernon Waymire seconded motion and it passed unanimously.

Marshal Ed Hauser submitted a police report for the period January 15 - February 19. There were 33 regular complaints, 6 dog complaints, 8 open doors, 3 acts of vandalism, 8 accident investigations, 6 title checks, 5 funeral escorts, assistance with 4 blood runs, 1 attempt to locate, assistance with 4 wrecker calls, 5 warning and 1 arrest. The police car was driven 3266 miles.

In other business: *The board discussed the problem of parking violations at the trailer court in Akron. Violators have made driving through the park difficult, and it has created a hazard in case of fire. Deputy Marshal Charles Clawson was urged to ticket violators in the future.

*Another problem for the town involves snowmobiles. They cannot be legally driven within the city limits, and continuous violators will be ticketed in the future.

*The board recognized and congratulated Marshal Ed Hauser for his participation in the February 16 drug bust that resulted in the arrest of three people.

*The board authorized Mr. Smith to order 20 'No Parking This Side of Street' signs to replace some faded and damaged signs.

*Clerk Ernie Smith told board members a reply had been received from Hack Chemical regarding a rust-removing product for clothes. Mr. Smith said he will contact one of the Akron merchants to see if they would like to stock the product.

*Board members decided not to sign a resolution initiated by the Southern Illinois Mayors Executive Committee to be forwarded to President Carter. The resolution urged the president to propose a five-year moratorium on federal rules and regulations against burning high sulfur coal by electric utilities.

Agnes Tibbets appointed to Planning Commission

Mentone Board will take action on unpaid bills

by Diana Streevey Bucher

The Mentone Town Board met at the Mentone Fire Station on Monday, March 3. Board members Frank Hardesty, Jim Miller and Wayne Tombaugh, town attorney Lee Bazini, Clerk-Treasurer Kate Whetstone, Marshall John Hart and town employee Harry Sullivan attended.

Marshal Hart presented the police report for the month of February. The Mentone Police Department logged 2432 miles on the police car while answering 53 calls. They handled 5 thefts, 5 accidents, 2 dog complaints, 2 disturbances, 3 record checks, 1 traffic hazard, 1 case of vandalism, 2 gun permits, 17 information assists, 3 agency assists, 7 public assists, 2 runaways and 2 title checks. Five adults and two juveniles were arrested and 23 citations were issued.

Board members discussed what action should be taken as to unpaid water bills. Clerk Whetstone informed board that after 10 days a penalty is assessed on overdue bill (10% of first $3 owed and 3% on remainder of bill). Stating, "...if you shut one off, you have to shut them all off." Board President Hardesty suggested that in the future anyone owing for more than two billings will receive a 10 day written warning before water service is disconnected. Mr. Bazini advised that the board was within its rights as the offenders are "...already in violation of town ordinances." A few households in Mentone that have already received verbal warning will have their water shut off on Friday if their bills are not paid.

The board appointed Agnes Tibbets to replace Geraldine Smith on the Mentone Area Planning Commission. Planning Commission members are: Frank Hardesty, Jim Miller, Wayne Tombaugh, Agnes Tibbets, Jack Simpson, Jo Gamble and Richard Dickerhoff.

Clerk Whetstone reported the Mentone Motor Vehicle and Highway fund (MVH), from which the town purchases gasoline, limestone gravel, salt and other necessary highway items, balance is $4985.

The Road and Street fund, which is received monthly from the state for road repair, is approximately $6000.

In other business: *Mr. Sullivan was asked to check on an 18 horse, 4 foot wide, 1974 mower that is for sale for $1700. He will report at the next meeting.

*Mr. Bazini was asked to check the insurance policy for the Mentone and Tri-township Cooperative Fire Control Board to see if the Mentone EMTs are covered for liability and malpractice.

Jim Miller, Frank Hardesty, Kate Whetstone, Lee Bazini and Wayne Tombaugh discuss overdue water bills at the Mentone Town Board meeting.

My Side by Vern Hucks

Sometime back, near Ahmedabad, India, a man had the misfortune to fall into a pit of sludge. Cheers must go to the six passers by who took it upon themselves to plunge into the pit in a valiant rescue attempt. Unfortunately, they all died.

This little true story is very similar to our current situation here at the NEWS. For the first eight weeks of this year, our paper has averaged 14½ pages per week compared to 11 pages per week for the same period last year. We've added extra people and have re-distributed the work load and, in a sense, are plunging in to help each other.

Sue Greene is our Office Manager and she's the one to talk to if you have a question about your billing or your subscription. If you're in the Mentone area, call Betty Blackburn at our Mentone office. Betty is in on Monday, Tuesday, and Friday mornings and Monday afternoon.

If you would like to pass along any new releases, ideas for feature stories or anything else along those lines, speak to our Assignments Editor, Diana Bucher.

I'll be taking care of sports and all display advertising while Bob and Renee will still handle management and the technical end of the business.

If you have any compliments to pass out, you can give it to Sue, Betty, Bob, Renee, or myself. Complaints go to Diana.

New deadlines will be Monday noon for display advertising, 5:00 p.m. on Monday for news items, and Tuesday noon for classifieds.

These changes have been made in an effort to serve you better and, if we don't all drown, they should work.

Thank you for cooperation

AKRON SCHOOL PATRONS:

Thank you for your cooperation and concern during the storm Monday and Tuesday. I know it caused worry and inconvenience for many. However, you should feel proud of your community and children. Everyone did more than his/her fair share whenever possible. As they could, parents not only picked up their own children but children of neighbors and relatives as well. Efforts to pick up children continued until about 11 p.m. Blankets and sleeping bags were delivered to the school by community members and the civil defense; local merchants were most cooperative in efforts to secure such items as bread and contact lens solution; bus drivers remained at school until late Monday afternoon awaiting the slim possibility of getting children bused home before dark; the cafeteria staff took the responsibility to insure children had dinner and breakfast; teachers living near school rounded up blankets, pillows, sleeping bags, and televisions to bring in for the evening.

In the grade school some teachers popped popcorn, children played, listened to records, and watched television. In the junior high building it was much the same with students using the gym until 10:30 p.m. The student council opened up the concession stand and treated everyone to popcorn. At bedtime 161 students remained - elementary students slept in classrooms, while the junior high girls turned the home economics room into a temporary dorm and the junior high boys made use of the library as a sleeping facility. Students conducted themselves very well and were most cooperative.

In any emergency situation inconveniences are to be expected. But thanks to the efforts, cooperation and understanding of so many individuals our inconveniences were minimal. While the situation was difficult for many, the response of students and adults alike reflect most positively upon parents and the entire Akron community. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Daniel Kramer
Principal

Congratulations to Kramer

EDITOR:

We'd like to congratulate our principal, Mr. Kramer, on his excellent handling of the snow emergency situation at Akron Jr. High and Akron Elementary Schools last Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. Kramer had the safety and well-being of each student uppermost in his considerations. The situation was one in which many people are often criticized for one reason or another, but Mr. Kramer did what needed to be done in a very efficient manner. We, the faculty and staff, know the responsibilities and the strain under which Mr. Kramer was placed. Mr. Kramer did a fine job and we appreciate this leadership. We also know that some things are beyond even a principal's control.

The NEWS Asks:

"How do you feel about the census?"

Judson Hutchinson, Akron: "As far as I'm concerned I think it's alright. Technically I suppose they have to take a census. A lot of people object because they feel it gets in their business, but for statistical purposes it's alright."

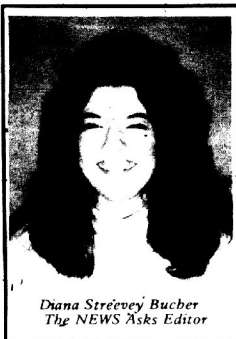

Dennis Meredith, Mentone: "Some are good and some are bad. We turn in a dairy census every three or four months. I suppose they've got their purpose, but they get misused."

Nina Murphy, Mentone: "I guess it's alright. It's one way to keep track of things."

Jean Waymire, Akron: "I have never minded the census as long as it's on the up and up, and I don't know why it shouldn't be."

Margaret Webb, Akron: "I'm all for answering up to a certain point. Some of the categories are necessary, but some of them aren't. It's necessary up to a point, then it's time to draw the line."

Ovella Blair, Mentone: "I hadn't given it any thought. It just comes round and I fill it out. I suppose it's just something we have to do."

Jabberwocky

By Diana Streevey Bucher

Not long ago, a young woman in Denver phoned the Census Bureau and asked how she could find out the number of unmarried men in her city. The Bureau employee said he could supply that information, broken down by neighborhood if she so desired. "Fantastic!" she replied. "And can you tell me the neighborhoods where the men are young and wealthy?"

The Constitutional purpose of the census, to provide a basis for reapportionment among the states of seats in the House of Representatives, has been constant since 1790. But in modern times, particularly since the advent of the computer three decades ago, other applications of census data have become increasingly diverse. Census information is used daily everywhere in the US. For instance: -- In Illinois, a real estate firm uses census data to give interested home buyers an instant mini-profile of prospective neighborhoods. -- In large cities, transportation planners rely on census info when selecting bus routes, subway stops and highways that need widening. -- In Detroit, a pizza chain consults census statistics when choosing the best site for a new restaurant.

Evidence of census information exists in our communities, also. Federally funded nutritional and social service programs for the elderly bring senior citizens together at least five days a week to share hot, nutritious meals and companionship in local firehalls, church basements, and in our case, the Lion's building. Congress has specified that each participating State should receive funds according to its over-60 population as determined by the census.

So if you want information for opening a pizza parlor, buying a house, finding a job or finding young/old, wealthy/extremely wealthy, single/married men/women, you can call or write: The US Bureau of the Census, 165 North Canal, Chicago, IL 60601 - phone (312) 886-6309. Happy hunting!!

Lenten service will feature University players in unique drama

The Akron United Methodist Church will serve as host church for a Lenten service to be at 7 o'clock Sunday, March 9. Coming to the church will be the Indiana Central University Players of Indianapolis. Drama students from the university will be performing in the drama, Christ In The Concrete City, a drama particularly suitable to the portrayal of the pilgrimage action and events of the Christ. The public is cordially invited.

The players have performed in England and coast to coast on several nation-wide tours in the States. They have in recent years come to tour churches throughout the state of Indiana with a Lenten drama.

This Lenten drama which was written especially to be presented in the chancel of the church, and performed by a cast of six, attempts to portray the Passion of Christ from three points of view, the first being that the actors both step into and out of the role of actual historical characters. Secondly, the story speaks timelessly to all mankind with the cast acting as a chorus and as one unified voice. And finally, the third level of action centering in the Crucifixion and Resurrection events and relating to our modern times.

The service is being sponsored by the United Methodist Church of Burket, Beaver Dam, Talma, Mentone and Akron.

"Pilgrim's Progress" will be featured at Talma

Pilgrim's Progress, a feature motion picture based on the book, will be shown Sunday, March 9, at 7 p.m. at the Talma Bible Church (across the bridge at Talma).

Second only to the Bible itself in volume of sales, Pilgrim's Progress, was written three centuries ago by John Bunyan. A common man by trade and lifestyle, Bunyan none-the-less became an astute student of the Bible. As a result of his studies, he voiced sharp disagreement against many of the religious practices of his day. Although never brought to trial, he spent twelve years in prison. It was while he was in prison that he wrote the book.

The motion picture version, produced by Ken Anderson Films, selects highlights from the extensive story. Pilgrim is shown on his flight from the City of Destruction, as he seeks the Way to Eternal Life. He encounters such well-remembered characters as Pliable, Obstinate, Help, Faithful, Hopeful, Mr. Interpreter, and of course his arch enemy Apollyon.

Scenes along the route of the film-story include the Slough of Despond, the Cross, Vanity Fair, the Delectable Gardens, Shepherd's Fields and, finally, the Celestial City.

Uniquely, Pilgrim's Progress, was filmed just outside of Belfast, Northern Ireland, where terrain and facilities for production requirements were found to be ideal.

The Tippecanoe Valley Aquatic Club, better known by their nickname of "JAWS", has been selected to host the Indiana AAU State Junior Championships this year. This is quite a prestigious event as it is the final major AAU meet of the season in Indiana. The running of a meet of this size is quite a financial undertaking and TVAC could sure use some help. There are to be 106 events run during the course of the meet and ribbons alone will run over $5.00 for each event. Relays will run about 4 times that figure. The Club is asking for individuals to sponsor events for a donation of $6.00. For your six bucks, you'll provide ribbons and medals for the top six finishers, help defray the expense of running the meet, and have your name listed in the "Heat Sheet" to be sold at the meet.

TVAC is turning out some really quality swimmers that our area can be proud of but a program like this takes money to run. If you can see your way clear to shake loose a few bucks to help out, contact Becky Skinner at 353-7716.

Finish regular season 11-9

Valley drops finale to Plymouth

If the third quarter was all that counted, the Tippecanoe Valley soundly thrashed Plymouth in their confrontation on Plymouth's home court last Friday. Unfortunately, there are four quarters in a ball game and Valley, in a sense, won a battle but lost the war, 78-65.

After spending halftime contemplating a 46-38 deficit, the Vikes roared out for the third period and outscored the Pilgrims 17-8 to take a one point lead, 55-54, into the fourth.

Cold shooting in the final period once again doomed Valley as they could only manage to sink two of fifteen attempts from the floor down the stretch.

Valley Coach Roger Fleetwood noted that Plymouth played well in the fourth quarter and that Valley was outscored at one time 18-2. Fleetwood had no alibis, admitting that the Vikings missed some good shots.

The loss of Greg Utter and Scott Tilden to fouls with over 5 minutes remaining in the contest hurt Valley's chances also. Tilden fouled out with 18 points and Utter had collected 10 before his exit.

High scorer for Valley was senior Mike Coplen who had 19.

Plymouth sophomore Scott Skiles led all scorers with an even 20 points.

The Vikes outrebounded the Pilgrim's by five but the edge went back to Plymouth as they turned the ball over 6 fewer times than Valley.

Coach Fleetwood added that while winning the last game before the tourney is important, "we feel better going into the sectional this year than last year even though we won our final regular season game last year. This year we lost to an excellent Plymouth team and our last three games have been our best all year. We're ready."

Do you know this man?

SUPER FAN: ubiquitous, scornful Mr. Loudmouth?

(Note: This article satirizing the typical loud mouth adult fan at high school games was submitted to a newspaper anonymously. It is reprinted herewith for your pleasure of its humor, clever presentation and truth, though at times exaggerated.)

There is an old saying that the only two sure things in life are death and taxes. Like everything else in these times of change, we need to update this tired old cliché to include two other sure things—the inevitable emergence of the pesty 17-year locust bugs and the annual emergence of Harold Hugemouth, Super Fan and grandstand coach of this and every year.

In order to enjoy watching a schoolboy game, it is necessary for an individual to be able to identify "Super Fan" as quickly as possible to be able to sit far away from him. Even though Harold Hugemouth comes in various shapes and sizes, he is really very easy to recognize because of the one single distinguishing characteristic that pinpoints him immediately. Simply follow the loudest sound you hear until you see a mouth surrounded by obnoxious abrasiveness. No question about it, you've spotted him. He lives in Every Community, U.S.A., and his one purpose in life seems to be to criticize schoolboy athletic teams in general and high school coaches in particular.

This individual normally goes into semi-retirement during the summer months in order to allow his lungs to recuperate. Those long schedules make it tough on the old boy, since he involves himself in every play and every situation of every game he attends, but alas, his recuperative powers are marvelous.

As a new school year approaches with the exciting possibilities of new "targets" to feed upon, Harold Hugemouth begins to stir with eager anticipation envisioning fumbles, blocked punts, missed foul shots and mistakes. It will be a glorious year, and rest assured, our No. 1 fan will be ready.

The prerequisite for obtaining a "license" to practice as a full-fledged Super Fan is simple. Purchase a ticket for $2.50 at the ticket window and presto—an instant authority is born with full rights and privileges of castigating 16-year-old boys, your sons, and their coach. For $2.50 this has to be the greatest bargain in the world for Super Fan.

This cost happens to be quite a lot less than the "price" your son and his buddies have to pay to make the team, or his coach pays for the privilege of being a teacher of athletics.

Make no mistake, no athlete or coach is immune from Harold Hugemouth. There is absolutely no way he can ever be satisfied with the athletic program, the players, or the coaches. No boy in the game is as tough, skilful, aggressive, fast or as clever as H. H. was in his day; no team is as spirited, rugged, well-coached, or imbued with as much of the old "fighting spirit" as were the ones in his day. It is plain to see, or rather hear, that Super Fan has forgotten more about coaching than that "dolt" on the sidelines will ever know.

When it comes to the coach, this is where Harold the Mouth really comes alive. All his frustrations, pet peeves, pettiness and viciousness roll forth in an unending stream of vocal abuse toward that incompetent character on the sideline sometimes known as "coach".

It makes no difference that the coach's wife and children are within hearing distance (who isn't?) and even though they try to ignore the criticism, it hurts. But according to Super Fan, he paid his $2.50 and a coach is fair game. After all, isn't he responsible for everything that happens to the team during the game?

His criticism runs the whole gamut from the uniforms to pre-game warmups, the game itself, and, of course, the final score. No matter what occurs during the game, it should have been better and would have been if the coach were really competent.

"Proof of the Puddin'" though is told by the scoreboard. If "our" team loses, that simply proves what Super Fan has been saying right along—the coach is a bum and he's got to go.

The saddest part of Harold Hugemouth's performance though is the part he saves for the boys (or girls). When a 16-year old makes a mistake this becomes an unforgivable sin that takes on catastrophic proportions in Super Fan's little mind, and he never fails to rise to the occasion. He loudly challenges the boy's skill, courage, intelligence, desire, ancestry and the coach's stupidity for allowing such an inept

Jaws win 8-under, and 9-10 conference divisions

In the conference championship swim meet held on Sunday at the Cass County Y Pool in Logansport the Tippecanoe Valley Aquatic Club placed 4th in the 7 team conference in overall scoring. The teams in the conference are Manchester Aquatic Club, Marion Aquatic Club, Cass County Y, Honeywell, Rochester Royals, Warsaw Y, and Tippecanoe Valley Aquatic Club.

The bright spot for the Jaws team were their 8-under and 9-10 boys and girls. Those two age groups each walked away with the high point trophy for their respective age groups. The 8-unders won by only seven points while the 9-10 age groups won by more than 20 points.

Individual results were not available at this time.

individual to stay on the team, let along play in a game; all without pausing for a breath. It's an incredible performance and one that has obviously been tuned to a fine pitch through years of practice and dedication—a labor of love.

It makes no difference to H.H. that these are young boys simply playing a game the best they can because they like it. Nonsense, this schoolboy game will probably change the course of the world. After all, he never made any mistakes, so why should a 16-year-old boy.

1980 Census - factfinder for the nation

History of the Census

The first census in 1790 was directed by then Secretary of State Thomas Jefferson. At that time, there were 17 US Marshals, and Jefferson delegated responsibility of the census to these men, who in turn hired assistants known as census takers.

The census takers were paid between one-third cent and two cents for every inhabitant they counted in the 16 states and southwestern territory. They traveled by foot, boat and horseback through areas with few roads and bridges. Maps were scarce, town and county boundaries were vague or unknown and scores of superstitious or untrusting citizens refused to cooperate.

The first census only asked five questions: number of free white males 16 years or older; number of free white males under 16 years; number of free white females; number of other free persons; and number of slaves.

Census takers recorded answers on any kind of paper they happened to have and posted the lists in each town or city in a public place. Anyone missed was expected to add his or her own name to the list. Thomas Jefferson was one of those missed the first time around, for he added his name to the list posted in Philadelphia. The first count took 18 months and showed a population of just under four million.

During the next 50 years the census questions remained largely unchanged, although a major improvement in the census during this period was 1830 introduction of a printed census form.

In 1840 the government expanded the scope of census information, introducing a Census of Agriculture and a Census of Mineral Industries. By 1860 six separate census questionnaires posed 142 different questions covering a variety of subjects. Hand tallying led to many errors, but no attempt was made to verify data.

By 1880, with 50 million people in 38 states and nine territories, Congress created a temporary civilian census office headed by a presidentially appointed Superintendent of the Census. This new office was swamped by the record number of census questions in 1880; after publishing 21,203 pages of reports through 1888, the work stopped even though there was more data to be tabulated and published. About that time a former census office employee, Dr. Herman Hollerith, patented a punch card system of electrical mechanical tabulation that revolutionized information processing.

It was not until 1929 that Congress set up the modern-day standards of strict confidentiality that still govern the Census Bureau. Current law requires that any information from an individual be used for compiling statistical totals and that no data be published until an individual is unidentified.

By April, 1951, an electronic digital computing system known as UNIVAC I was installed for use by the Census Bureau. In fourteen months the new equipment tabulated data from the 1950 census. UNIVAC I continued to be used until 1963, when it was retired to the Smithsonian Institution, where it is still on display.

Innovations in electronic data processing continue to increase the speed and accuracy of the Bureau's work. In 1970, one clerk using a pencil could process about 30 items per minute; in 1980 the most sophisticated data processing system in the history of the Bureau will tabulate 45 million characters per minute. Thomas Jefferson would be staggered.

Benefits of the Census

Besides the constitutional purpose of providing the basis for fair apportionment in the House of Representatives, census data has many other uses. The federal government uses census information to guide the distribution of federal funds to state and local programs. These programs include agricultural research, energy research and development, programs for the elderly, unemployment insurance, student loans, rural development, emergency school aid, and the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA).

The 1980 census will provide more statistical information about more geographic areas than any prior census. It will provide feedback to both federal and state government about such matters as economics, education and employment. In gathering and tabulating the more than three billion items of information, the census will sketch a portrait of the nation. It will reveal not only numbers of people living in the US, but their location, living conditions and activities. Census 1980 will document the changes in lifestyle over recent years, such as the number of women who are heads of households; show how many families have both husband/wife working for income; provide data on poverty; show economic impact of the 'baby boom' young adults as they exert economic pressures solely because of their number; show housing and mortgage costs, including real estate taxes, property insurance and utility and fuel costs; and it will reassess the status of women by releasing information on employment, marriage, childbearing and educational/career opportunities.

Census questionnaire

Every household in the US will receive a questionnaire on March 28. Those households that do not mail back a completed questionnaire as requested will be visited by census takers. Every 1% of the population that cooperates with the questionnaires save taxpayers approximately $2 million in follow-up costs.

There are two versions of the questionnaires. About four out of five households will be asked to answer 19 questions on the short version of the questionnaire, while the remaining households will answer the long version with 46 additional questions. Both questionnaires, besides age, race, sex, education questions, ask about living conditions: size and type home, whether it is owned or rented and value of home or rent paid. The long version then goes into greater detail concerning utilities and fuels used and costs, age of building, type of rooms in home, insurance and tax costs, type and place of work, place of birth and income. The Census Bureau estimates the short form will take 15-20 minutes to fill out, while the long form will take about 45 minutes.

While Federal law requires everyone to answer the census, the same law assures that every person's answers to the census are confidential. Neither names nor addresses of anyone on a census questionnaire go into any government computers, including those of the Census Bureau. The original forms are photographed on microfilm that is kept under strict security in protected buildings. The information can be retrieved only by authorized persons. The original forms are maintained under tight security, accessible only to Census Bureau employees, until processing is complete. Then the forms are shredded, dissolved in acid and recycled into pulp.

Census information remains confidential for 72 years. Then the microfilmed census records are turned over to the National Archives for permanent storage. People interested in genealogy often use these old census records in tracing members of their families.

If someone wants to look at one of their own census records, however, it is possible to do so. If they present proper identification and pay a small search fee, they may obtain facts about themselves in the population censuses from the microfilm records at Pittsburg, Kansas. Anyone who falsifies a name to get information is subject to prosecution.

While some of us may object to some of the confidential questions asked on the census forms, it remains a necessary tool of a government that rules over a large territory and vast numbers of people. It is plain to see that without some form of 'counting', it would be virtually impossible to keep track of the nation's citizenry. So sharpen your pencils and fill out the form known as a 'census' and mail it in promptly on April 1. I wonder if it's a coincidence that Census Day is also April Fools Day?

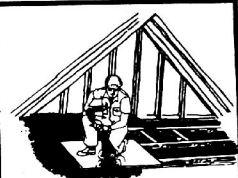

Questions are answered by filling in circles with pen or pencil.

Three schools in district will receive major facelift

by Diana Streevey Bucher

A final decision as to the scope of the building project was reached at the Tuesday, March 4, meeting of the TVSC School Board.

After debating and discussing several possible alternatives, the board voted 3-2 to have Daverman Architectural Firm proceed with the revised plans for two K-8s (Mentone and Akron) and one K-5 (Burket). This plan includes new construction of approximately 109,000 sq. ft. at the three schools and complete remodeling of the older sections, approximately 105,000 sq. ft. of the buildings.

Several motions had been made on alternative plans, but most died for lack of seconds. The first such plan, motion made by Don Snipes, was to proceed with the middle school project and three K-5s. It died for lack of a second.

Everett Besson made a motion to hold re-modeling costs and construction costs at $7 million for two K-8s and one K-5. Lee Norris seconded the motion, but it lost by a vote of 3-2, as the other board members rejected this scheme.

Norris then explained his reasons for wanting to hold

Red Cross raises challenge to Valley residents with visit

The American Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit the Mentone, Burket, and Etna Green area on Thursday, March 13, when the mobile will be in operation from 12 noon until 6 p.m. at the Tippecanoe Valley High School gym.

Dwight Bechtol, area top donor, having given 11 gallons; Merdina Bechtol, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Latimer, Mrs. Eva Eherenman, Rosalind Mentzer, Mrs. Howard Horn, and Mrs. Geo. Reed, area Red Cross volunteers, are co-ordinating arrangements for the visit.

Tippecanoe faculty members assisting with the visit are Wayne Cumberland, George Welch and Mrs. Benton Graham. Lori Lafferty, student council president and Jennifer Manwaring, student council vice-president, are in charge of "teen-age" donors.

This is the 16th year in which Mentone and Tippecanoe Valley High School students have participated in the bloodmobile and have set un-beaten records in Kosciusko county. This year they are being challenged by Wawasee High School, who had 68 students and 14 faculty giving blood at the Jan. 14 visit.

One hundred fifty donors of all types are needed to meet the quota for the day. Donors between the ages of 17 and 66, in good health, who have not given for 56 days, are encouraged to visit the mobile unit. Community participation is needed to assure a quota visit.

Correction

In last week's NEWS, Henry Township Trustee Clair Ellis reportedly announced that Henry township residents had until April 15 for assessment. May 15 is the deadline rather than the April date.

Ellis has also reported that supplies from the state have not yet arrived at his office and he requests that assessments not start until Monday, March 17.

"Hire an older worker" is emphasis of special week, March 9-15

The NEWS recognizes and appreciates the major contributions older workers have made and are making in our area.

Ernie Smith, 69, is the Akron Town Clerk-Treasurer, a position he was first elected to in 1975. News Photo.

National Employ the Older Worker Week will be observed March 9-15, 1980 as proclaimed by President Carter. For over two decades public employment services have joined with Green Thumb, Inc., Area Agencies on Aging, and other Organizations in observing National Employ the Older Worker Week. Employment service participation in this annual event emphasizes services provided year-round to help overcome negative stereotyping of Older Workers and to increase opportunities for their employment.

Older Workers are coming out of retirement and going back to work, bringing with them maturity, experience and wisdom.

They've got a lifetime of experience, and together they represent every field of human endeavor. Many of them have successfully managed businesses, most of them have raised families. They're dependable, accurate in their work, and have a low rate of absenteeism, and a low accident rate.

If any business group, organization, or individual would be interested in learning more about the employment of older workers, or if any business or individuals want to hire an older worker, you can contact: Indiana Green Thumb, P.O. Box 687, Seymour, Indiana 47274. Phone 812-522-7930.

New books at the Akron Public Library

New books received at the Akron Carnegie Public Library include the following:

A DOCTOR'S LIFE by Nicholas S. Assali. This is the true story of a modern man of medicine who rose from poverty and imprisonment, a story of the excitement of science, the rush of discovery, the rivalry of factions, the rough and tumble of personalities in a supposedly objective world.

MADAM PRIME MINISTER, MARGARET THATCHER AND HER RISE TO POWER by Allan I. Mayer. In April of 1979 a state-ly, strikingly handsome blond woman in her early fifties took to the hustings with a promise to halt Britain's "slither and slide to a socialist state" and to restore its "unquenchable belief in Freedom". The following May the British voters made Margaret Thatcher the redoubtable "Iron Lady" of the Conservative Party, the first woman to occupy No. 10 Downing St. This is a fascinating portrait of Mrs. Thatcher and her remarkable ascent to political power.

YANKEE ARTILLERYMAN by John W. Rowell. This is the story of Bill Lilly and his men, largely told in their own words from their journals, letters, and other documents. The author presents here a close-up, full and accurate account of what a Civil War Battery was, how it was equipped, and how it functioned on the march and in combat.

HOOR OF THE CAT by Jean DeWeese. A modern novel of suspense by a former Rochester resident.

LET THE LION EAT STRAW by Ellese Southerland. This is the story of one black woman's struggle to survive. But it is more than that, for Abeba's story is the story of thousands of blacks who came north in search of a better life.

SAVAGE JOURNEY by Allan W. Eckert. This is an unusual adventure story of a thirteen-year-old girl lost in a vast unexplored region of the Amazon jungle.

KOREA REBORN by Park Chung Hee. Economic development and modernization have been the single most important theme of the Korean government over the last decade or so. This book is the result of random observations recorded and notes taken in the course of promoting that policy.

Newsview

by Bob Norlander

Jimmy Carter is right in asking for the registration of women for the draft. He is more consistent about equality for women than are some of the loud feminists who oppose him.

Any honest feminist must agree that young women should share with young men the duty and responsibility of serving their country. Granted that many women, like many men, lack the physical strength or size needed in a few military jobs. But the draft, even for men, is not supposed to select only perfectly formed giants.

Its purpose is to select people who can be trained in the skills that the armed services need. And in the modern military, the most-needed skills are in the technical categories in which civilian women already work by the millions.

To rant about Carter drafting women for the "trenches" as Ronald Reagan does, is cheap demagoguery.

Feminists argue that we can't expect to draft women if we deny them ERA. They're going the wrong way around the barn. They should be eager to include women in the draft, thus removing the last possible argument against granting Constitutional equality to women.

Exhibit of Earthenware on display at Mentone

During the period, March 10 to April 10, the Mentone School will have on exhibit, Indiana Earthenware, and stoneware spanning the period 1840-1910. The exhibit will be housed in the library on the third floor. Exhibit hours will be from 8:30 - 3:30, Monday through Friday. The exhibit will be closed the week of March 17-21, because of spring vacation.

This display is part of the Indianapolis Museum of Art's State Traveling Exhibition Program and part of the cost for this exhibit was paid by various organizations in Mentone. Organizations are welcome to view the display and any group may view in the evening during this period if you call the school and set a date.

If you have any questions call 353-7465.

Sound off

"I'd like to see the Mentone town board make a decision about the Mentzer Park bridge. It's unsafe and with summer coming I would like my daughter to enjoy the park. With the bridge the way it is I wouldn't trust it."

"I would like to congratulate the Vikings on another fine season. The ending didn't turn out the way we wanted it to, but you're still No. 1 in our hearts. I'd also like to congratulate Coach Fleetwood and his assistants on a job well done. The cheerleaders did a great job of arousing spirit in the pep block. I agree with Vern Hucks when he said that the adults acted like they were at a funeral. Why can't you, the adults, show your support instead of complaining about the coach or the referees? If you think you can do such a better job of coaching or officiating, then why don't you try it and then you'll see how tough the job really is. Next time, before you open your mouth to complain, why don't you open your mouth with cheer and support for the team!! GOOD JOB VIKES!!"

Alcohol could help

EDITOR:

Alcohol could be a big part of our independence from OPEC; could use up our surplus farm products; and could cut the balance of payment deficit drastically. All these are positive results, but the federal government is dragging its feet in my opinion. Farmers don't need government money, they just want to shake government restrictions and regulations. Example: The federal government wants farmers to add a "denaturing chemical" (so you can't drink it) at 20 cents, but 1 or 2 gallons of gasoline to 100 gallons of alcohol would denature it at a much cheaper rate.

The production cost is misunderstood, also. Yes setting up would be costly, but, once in operation, the result is a cleaner fuel and a high protein mash for animals. Selling or using both would make production cheaper than gasoline.

Another point: The collecting of excess fuel could be done the same way a milk truck collects milk. The correct amount would be paid to the farmer and then sold to a co-op or "commercial" gas station.

The main point of this is the farmer and national independence. For more information contact the American Agriculture Movement, PO Box 100, Iredell, Texas 76649, and ask for the free "Alcohol Special" copy of their newspaper. It has pictures and explanations of stills already working and ways to get more detailed information.

I am happy to see the interest in alcohol in the midwest.

Sincerely,
Ernest M. Hughes

"Now that President Carter's deadline for Soviet withdrawal in Afghanistan is past, do you think we should carry out his threat to boycott the summer Olympics?"

Barb Hardesty, Mentone: "Yes. I don't think we should have the Olympics."

Mary Buck, Akron: "No, I've been against it from the first. I think if the athletes want to go, they should be able to go."

Tammy McClone, Akron: "Yes."

Mrs. P. J. Byrer, Mentone: "I say yes, I think so. It's for the safety of the athletes to me. At times I don't think it would be safe for them."

Cathy Lukens, Mentone: "No, I think the athletes should be able to go since they trained so hard. They are the ones who will be hurt by all this more than anyone else."

Dale Craft, Akron: "In a way, but not completely. If we boycott completely it will disrupt things. This may be the last one, who knows? They should participate but make it known they are unhappy."

Mrs. Dale Harsh, Akron: "Yes, absolutely. I think they should take it back to Greece where it originally started and have it there every four years."

60 YEARS AGO

Reports by school teachers from all over Fulton county show that this community is suffering from a lack of properly built and equipped schools for the children. There are 35 rural schools in this county and 34 of them completed the survey as requested. Of all the schools there are only two modern buildings of the one-room kind. All teachers complain of small libraries, the majority having but 25-100 books in fair shape. Six have no reference books or dictionaries. Outbuildings in six of the schools are reported to be in good sanitary condition. Twenty of the teachers say they cannot afford to teach because their salaries are too low. The average daily wage of the rural teacher is $3.40 a day for five days a week during school time only. According to Mr. Berry, the only solution for correcting the present condition is to build modern consolidated schools.

Jabberwocky

By Diana Streevey Bucher

When you hear people talking in a gentle brogue about Kissin' the blarney stone, the wearin' o' the green or the three-leaved shamrock, ye'll know tis March 17.

St. Patrick is the patron Saint of Eire, or Ireland, and we in the US celebrate his day along with all loyal sons of Eire. This quiet man brought Christianity to Ireland in 432 after he had a vision in the French monastery where he lived. It's been said he "found Ireland all heathen and left it all Christian." It may be true, for he founded 300 churches in Ireland before his death on March 17, 461.

One American custom that has emerged on St. Patrick's Day is the annoying habit of pinching anyone who isn't wearing green. So prepare yourself for next Monday; stuff your green underwear in the back of your drawer and bring out your green socks or blouse or tie. And if that isn't blarney, nothin' is.

Messages on the "Home" to be presented

A series of messages on the HOME will begin this next Sunday, March 16, at the 10:30 morning service of the First Baptist Church, Mentone. Questions like, What is a family? Pastor Marken, with 15 years experience in school teaching and administration, 22 years pastoral experience, and the father of six will bring the series in an attempt to help parents with the problems that are faced in rearing children today.

The church is located at Broadway and Harrison in Mentone.

I'd like to take this chance to congratulate Roger Fleetwood and his Tippecanoe Valley basketball team on a fine season. Maybe they didn't win the sectional this year but even after a disastrous second period against Warsaw, they refused to roll over. It took a lot of courage to come out of the locker room for the second half down by over 20 points and still play tough.

Valley finished this season with a record of 12-10 and that's pretty impressive when you consider their schedule. Four of those twelve losses came at the hands of teams that are regional bound (Argos, Warsaw, and Manchester), one was a narrow loss to South Bend Riley, one was to regular season undefeated Whitko, and one was to a good Plymouth team that finished the season 17-6. Not bad at all for a team that many area coaches felt would not win half their games.

I spoke with Fleetwood after the sectional and he said that this year's team was "the greatest bunch of kids I've coached in my eight years. They worked their tails off all year." He added that 3 elements are necessary for a winning basketball team. Quickness, shooting, and hard work. These Vikings were not really all that quick and we all know that they've had problems with their shooting so to win 12 games on hard work alone really says a lot.

I think Coach Fleetwood deserves a lot of credit for the way he's stuck to his program. Fleetwood inherited a team that had a legacy of high-powered offense but, in spite of being highly regarded, had not won a sectional championship. Its true that run-and-gun, high scoring, wide open teams are a lot of fun to watch but where you put your priorities determines how you want your team to play. Defense, especially on the high school level, wins championships. Wait and see when the Final Four get together on March 29th. I'll just bet you that the team that wins it all won't give up over 55 points in either game.

Valley placed three players on the All-Conference team in the recent TRC voting. The three are all seniors. Forward Scott Tilden was voted to the first team, center Mike Coplen made second team, and Jeff Murphy was an Honorable Mention. Congratulations to these deserving Vikings.

Lose semi-final to Warsaw

Vikings win sectional opener

by Vern Hucks

The Tippecanoe Valley Vikings managed to avenge one of their regular season losses in sectional competition at Triton last week but their second revenge effort fell way short.

Valley and Warsaw opened this year's sectional with an excellent defensive effort from both squads eventually decided in the Vikings favor, 44-39.

Warsaw's Bart Bowser definitely came to play and whipped in all four of his first quarter, long range shots and helped the Warriors to a 14-10 first period lead.

As they have done almost all year, Valley went to the boards hard and, despite hitting only 32% of their field goal attempts in the half, took a 22-22 tie into half time. The Vikes pulled down 11 caroms in the second quarter and allowed Warsaw only one.

Valley led 22-20 with only seconds remaining in the half and were playing for the last shot when Warsaw managed to force a jump ball. The Warriors controlled the tip to Bowser who sprinted the length of the court with the tying lay-in at the buzzer.

The Warriors and the Vikes swapped the lead 5 times in the second half. With just over 2 minutes to play in the third period Scott Tilden muscled in an offensive rebound to put Valley ahead to stay.

The Warriors closed to within one point with under a minute to play but Tilden slammed the door with his final four points.

Viking Coach Roger Fleetwood said that the key to Valley's come back after the Warriors hit their first seven shots was that "we kept our composure and played good defense after the first quarter."

Tilden was the game's leading scorer and rebounder with 18 points and 14 rebounds. Greg Utter was the only other Viking in double digits adding 10 points. Mike Coplen and John Dorsey helped Valley to a 35-19 rebounding edge with 7 and 6 caroms respectively.

Despite their poor shooting, the Vikes played well committing only 10 fouls and 10 turnovers.

Friday's semi-final contest with Warsaw was a horse of a different color. Valley continued to shoot very poorly and this time they paid the price.

In the first quarter the Vikes got off 18 field goal attempts but could only manage to put 8 points on the scoreboard. Valley's defense forced the Tigers to commit seven turnovers and the game was at least close with Warsaw owning a 12-8 advantage going into the second period.

Valley and Warsaw probably both owe their poor first quarter performances to Rochester and Triton who took the opening game into double overtime. Sitting in the locker room for that long had its effect. Fleetwood also feels that "we wanted to win so badly that we couldn't relax."

For all practical purposes, Tippecanoe Valley's season was over after the disastrous second quarter. Warsaw's Tigers tried 15 shots in the period and made good on 12 of them. They also added four free throws en route to a 28 point eruption.

The Vikes seemed shell shocked and could only match their output of the previous period with eight points. Valley shot less than 20% from the field to seal their own fate.

Not satisfied with their poor showing in the first half of play, the Vikings sucked it up and outscored Warsaw 44-41 for the rest of the game including a 28 point outburst in the final period.

Valley shot well enough in the second half to pull their shooting percentage up to 36 but the Tigers shot 50% for the game. Warsaw also outshot the Vikes at the charity stripe hitting 63% to Valley's 47%.

As he's done most of the year, Scott Tilden led the Valley in

TVHS sports banquet Thursday

Tippecanoe Valley High School Athletic Director Bob DuBois has announced that the Valley winter sports athletic banquet will be this Thursday, March 13, in the high school commons.

The program will begin at 6:30 p.m. with a pot luck supper. The public is invited and requested to bring covered dishes and table service. Meat and drink will be furnished.

The awards program is scheduled to begin at 7:30. Those teams to be honored are: gymnastics, girls basketball (freshmen, JV and varsity), wrestling, boys swimming, boys basketball (freshmen, JV and varsity), and the cheer-leading squad.

TV softball league meets

The Tippecanoe Valley softball league met on March 8 in the Lions Den at Akron.

Eight teams have told the Board of Directors that they will be in the league and three others are possibilities. The eight are: Akron Bank, Delft Blue, Don's Building Service, Duzan Electric, Freezer Fresh, Mentone, Mid-West K-9, and Van Duynes Pre Cast. The three still considering are: Burket, Safeway Steel, and Sonoco Products.

Deadline for entry fees has been set for March 22. March 22 is also the date for the next league meeting.

All members of both the Board and the Umpiring staff are requested to meet on March 29.

scoring. Tilden scored 23 points, 8 in the final period, and cleared off 11 rebounds. Mike Coplen chipped in 13 points and led the team in rebounding, also with 13. Jeff Murphy, who didn't try a single shot in the Wawasee contest, added 10 points.

If you forget about the differences in shooting, the game was remarkably even. Warsaw pulled down just one more rebound and committed only three fewer errors than the Vikings. Unfortunately for Valley, games are decided on scoring not rebounding and turnovers.

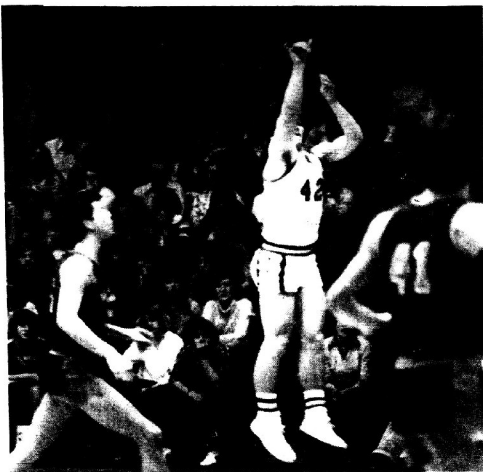

Regarding the season and the sectional loss, Fleetwood summed it up by saying, "we're very disappointed but still proud."

TVSC plans for building construction/improvements

to hold re-modeling costs and construction costs at $7 million for two K-8s and one K-5. Lee Norris seconded the motion, but it lost by a vote of 3-2, as the other board members rejected this scheme.

Norris then explained his reasons for wanting to hold costs and construction down. Stating he was confident that the square footage in the plans for the K-8s and the K-5 were "over inflated" he cited figures to prove his premise. He concluded, "The facts remain we are operating with 126,000 sq. ft. including Burket. We will abandon 21,000 sq. ft. (old Akron High School with the exception of the gym). If we have 100,000 sq. ft. of new construction (as opposed to the proposed 109,000 sq. ft.) and remodel 105,000 sq. ft., we will have a total of 205,000 sq. ft., giving us an increase of 62%. I'm confident that, with the architects and staff and administration we have, the program can be enhanced at the $7 million figure and it can be paid for.

Besson pointed out that if they authorize the $7 million fee for the construction and remodeling, the total cost would be about $8 million by the time other expenses are paid. The Corporation would pay an estimated $6 million in interest, bringing the total cost to approximately $14 million before the debt was paid.

After further discussion, Vernon Meredith raised the question of maintenance costs. "We can go the $7 million figure and have essentially what we need, but we would have constant uplifting. If we go the $9 million figure (estimated figure for total remodeling), we could reduce maintenance costs and have new, efficient quality inside and out."

Sandy Stevenson of Daverman told the board that the $7 million figure would not include some of the latest energy saving construction. It would provide the minimum remodeling to get by the codes and regulations. Norris replied he was proposing they do the best job possible on remodeling, but that they cut back on 9000 sq. ft. of new area.

Norris then made a motion they keep the K-5 with two sections. (2 classes) at Burket, a K-8 with two sections at Akron and a K-8 with three sections at Mentone. It passed by a vote of 4-1, with Snipes voting no.

Meredith moved to adopt the complete remodeling program presented by Daverman on Feb. 18 at the dollar amount estimated ($9,116,000). Motion failed for lack of second.

Norris moved to limit new construction to 100,000 sq. ft., have a complete remodeling job on the old buildings and set no dollar limit, but the board would retain approval or rejection on individual projects. It also failed for lack of a second.

Snipes then moved to adopt the entire construction program at Daverman's estimated cost (same motion Meredith had made minutes earlier). Meredith seconded, but motion failed by a vote of 3-2.

After more discussion, Norris made the motion of proceeding with new construction of 109,000 sq. ft., complete remodeling and board retaining control of new remodeling projects. He stated he felt his original premise was still correct, but he felt it was imperative that the board come to a decision. The final vote was: Lee Norris, yes; Vernon Meredith, yes. Everett Besson, no; Don Snipes, no; Con Shewman, yes.

As it stands now, Akron will receive approximately 50,550 sq. ft. new construction and remodel 38,450 sq. ft. (including old gym) for a K-8 with 500 students. Costs are estimated at $3,727,250.

Mentone will have new construction of 35,400 sq. ft. and retain 57,200 sq. ft. of remodeled space for a K-8 to accommodate 725 students. Estimated cost is $3,885,000.

Burket will receive new construction of 23,275 sq. ft. and uplift the present 9,360 sq. ft. for a K-5 for 350 students. Estimated cost of this project is $1,503,750.

In other business: *Board unanimously agreed to re-call the Building Advisory Committee (BAC) to review the need for an auxiliary gymnasium and a multi-purpose building at the high school. BAC meeting will be at 7:30 on February 17.

*Board accepted Dr. Harrell's recommendation to hire ProMa Con Incorporated (construction/management firm) for the building project.

*Board voted to hire H. J. Umbaugh, CPA from Plymouth, as financial consultant for building project.

*Board voted to retain Böse and Evans Law Firm for labor-relations advice.

*Executive (closed) session was set for March 10 at 7:30 P.M. for personnel evaluations.

The next regular meeting of the school board will be Feb. 17 at 7:30 P.M.

Everything you ever wanted to know about County Court ...but were afraid to ask

by Vern Hucks

So...you finally got caught going through Athens at about 50 miles an hour. Chances are that you're just about to take a look at our judicial system first hand.

You and your ticket will be asked to appear at a Wednesday evening session of Fulton County Court presided over by Judge John Delworth to face the music. What follows then can be relatively simple. If you want to confess to your sin, Judge Delworth sets your fine, levys court costs and sends you on your way. If you don't happen to feel that you are guilty of the charge, then you plead not guilty and the Judge sets your trial date for a time at least two weeks in the future. Could it be any simpler?

Yes. Unless you have been charged with certain offenses, all that is required of you is that you report to the Clerk's office and request to pay your fine and costs. Those offenders not having this privilege are those charged with indictable offenses, offenses resulting in an accident, offenses under I.C. 9-4-1-54, criminal recklessness, leaving the scene of an accident, driving under suspension or revocation of driver's license, driving without being licensed to drive, exceeding the speed limit by more than 25 miles per hour, or a moving violation charge within 6 months of a conviction of a moving traffic violation.

On the back of your Uniform Traffic Ticket, you'll find what is called an Appearance, Plea of Guilty and Waiver. After you complete and sign this form and pay your fine and court costs, the violation is considered disposed of.

"But," you say, "I didn't go to court so why should I be expected to pay court costs?"

Good question. According to Ms. Connie Bingle, Deputy Clerk, what you're actually paying could be better termed handling costs and these costs are determined by the State Legislature rather than the court itself. If you plead guilty to your traffic violation, your costs will probably be $32.00. The break down on that charge is:

State Docket Fee...$5.00
Judicial Fee...$1.00
County Docket Fee...$5.00
Prosecuting Attorney Fee (state)...$14.00
Prosecuting Attorney Fee (county)...$4.00
Safety Responsibility...$3.00

The $3.00 Safety Responsibility Fee goes to the Department of Motor Vehicles. In the event that you are charged with a violation unrelated to a motor vehicle (for example, certain conservation violations), the fee is dropped resulting in costs of $29.00.

Suppose that after stopping you for speeding, the arresting officer discovers that you are unable to walk well or speak distinctly and asks you to submit to a of the State traveling portion of the Indianapolis Museum of Art. It will be open to the public in the school from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday thru Friday (except during spring vacation). The exhibit will be on display until April 10. Questions concerning the exhibit may be directed to Mr. Fisher. The Chapter voted to give the School $10 to assist in the expense connected with the transportation charges.

Mrs. Wm. Cox gave the resolution "Women In Combat", which applauded women volunteers but opposed a draft of women into the services.

Mrs. Robt. Whetstone, clerk-treasurer of Mentone, spoke on the duties and responsibilities of her office in which she said that she had never realized, before being elected to the office, how much the local government is constantly under the thumb of the State Board of Accounts. In order to learn more about her work, Mrs. Whetstone, said that she attends Clerk-Treasurer School in Indianapolis every June where questions are answered by the State Board of Accounts and the Tax Commission. She gave members an insight into the preparation of the town budget and the necessary steps taken until it is finally approved by the State Tax Board of Accounts. Members learned that the Mentone water rate will increase May 1, from the minimum of $10.80 to a minimum of $14.70 for three months.

Mrs. Whetstone invited Mentone citizens to attend the monthly Town Board meetings on the first Monday evening at 7 p.m. in the Town Hall.

Gov't. has free booklet on toy safety

Toys are great for kids. They bounce, waddle, cuddle, whistle, rattle, jump, run, and sing. But some toys aren't so great. They can cut, choke, shock, or burn.

Although there are now mandatory government safety standards all toy manufacturers must follow that will prevent most toy hazards, it still pays to keep a watchful eye out for problems. To help you, the Consumer Product Safety Commission's booklet SUPER SITTER has a special section about toy safety. Other tips included for sitters are about medicines, poisons, high chairs and cribs.

Be especially aware of sharp edges. Toys made of brittle plastic or glass can break easily, leaving dangerous, sharp, cutting edges. Wooden, metal and plastic toys sometimes have sharp edges due to poor construction.

Watch out for small parts. Tiny toys and toys with small removable parts can be swallowed or become lodged in a child's windpipe, ears or nose. The squeakers in some squeeze toys can be removed and swallowed. The seams of poorly constructed stuffed dolls or animals can break open and release small pellets that can be swallowed or inhaled.

Broken toys can expose dangerous prongs and knife-like sharp points. Pins and staples on dolls' clothes, hair and accessories can easily puncture an unsuspecting child. Even a teddy bear or stuffed toy can have barbed eyes or wired limbs which can cut or stab.

Projectiles (guided missiles and similar flying toys) can be turned into weapons and permanently injure eyes. Children should never be permitted to play with adult lawn darts or other hobby or sporting equipment with sharp points. Arrows or darts used by children should have soft cork tips, rubber suction cups or other protective tips intended to prevent injury.

Improperly constructed or wired electric toys can shock or burn. Electric toys must meet mandatory Federal safety requirements for maximum surface temperatures, electrical construction and prominent warning labels. Electric toys with heating elements are recommended only for children over eight years old. Children should be taught to use electric toys cautiously and under adult supervision.

And finally, toys that may be safe for older children—like a chemistry or hobby set—can be extremely dangerous in the hands of little ones.

And never allow children to play with plastic wrappings on toys or other packages; they could suffocate. Whether you are a sitter, a parent, a grandparent, brother or sister, keep toys safe for children. And, if you see an unsafe toy for sale, report it to the toll-free Product Safety Hotline. Just call 800-638-8326 (In Maryland only, call 800-492-8363).

Never assume your child's toys are safe. Check!!

My Side by Vern Hucks

I guess that it was just a matter of time. Environmental Action magazine has released a report telling us that the Alaskan polar bear has become the latest in a long list of drug abuse victims. It seems the bears are fighting a losing battle against a "snow" that they've not accustomed to...cocaine.

After reading the opening line to that report, I got a mental picture of a bunch of wildly grinning bears with runny noses either dying of overdoses or drowning when they fell off their icebergs. The plot runs much deeper than that.

The drug problem actually belongs to local Eskimos who have, in a matter of speaking, found a way to convert bears into cocaine. Along about here, I got another wild mental picture of Eskimos herding bears into an incredibly complex piece of machinery that ground the helpless mammals into white powder. Wrong again.

Actually the Eskimos, through a sophisticated underground smuggling network, are swapping bear pelts for cocaine. The bears are protected by law but Federal wildlife protection officials claim that their people are far too outnumbered to be effective. Pity for the bears.

Maybe when the Eskimos go through all the Polar bears, we can send them to Iran and find out how much cocaine an "Ayatollah pelt" would be worth.

Sound off

"The Tippecanoe Valley High School Winter Sports athletic banquet was held this week. What a joy to see these fine young men and women recognized. We are very fortunate in the Valley to have such super people coaching our youngsters. How many will remember the won - loss record 5, 10, or 20 years from now -- that's how important that is. But the philosophies and attitudes that these coaches have given our youngsters will last a life time. There is no finer coaching staff in the State. I am very glad our school board had the foresight to hire such outstanding individuals."

"Last week a Mentone senior citizen was knocked down by dogs, injured and will be in the hospital for several weeks. WHY? Because the town board and marshal do not enforce a town ordinance. For quite some time two black dogs and others have run over town tearing garbage bags, string garbage and expelling secretion over lawns and property owners have to clean up the stench and mess. Why doesn't the marshal do his job? Fine the dog owners as he does the speeders and as often as necessary until they obey. Dogs injure people too!"

"As an adult sports fan I would like to reply to the letter in Sound Off. Before the students complain about the adult fans not cheering they should take a look at their own student body. I have gone to many of the games and especially at the away games and the few students that were there, were doing everything but cheering! I don't think that there has been a time when the adults have been called on to cheer that we haven't done a great job! I understand one reason there were more tickets available this year for the tourney was because there were less students attending. As we all know, it's much easier to cheer when we are winning than when losing, but we can't win all the time. I too, would like to congratulate the team and Coach Blewwood for a job well done!"

At last! Through the clever use of reverse psychology, an unknown male has come up with a fail-proof diet for all of us compulsive dieters. Acting on the premise that No One can stick to a diet, he has come up with a plan called the "Art of Staying Fat." His diabolical mind assumes we dieters won't have the willpower to stick with his regimen to gain weight, so we will in fact lose weight! Sound crazy? Here are some of his suggestions:

BUY CLOTHES ONE SIZE TOO LARGE. Eventually you'll gain weight and everything will fit.

AVOID STRENUOUS EXERCISE. Whittling, addressing envelopes and counting dimes are acceptable.

EAT BEFORE YOU ARE HUNGRY. Known as preventative eating.

STAY AT THE TABLE LONG AFTER YOU ARE FULL. You'll get all the leftovers.

ALWAYS USE HEAPS OF SUGAR. The consumption of glucose will compensate for the thinning effect of salad and tea.

ALWAYS CLEAN YOUR PLATE. The particularly skillful eater may even perfect the discrete art of plate-licking without being seen.

I started my diet immediately. I, adventurous soul that I am, decided to flirt with danger and spend my vacation in an Italian restaurant. I'll let you know how it turns out.

gin on Palm Sunday and run through April 27. The theme of their program is "Two-hundredth Year - Celebrate Here". Percentage increases in each class will be kept, with the two losing classes furnishing a ham and bean dinner in May to all other classes. They urge everyone to help celebrate the two hundredth birthday of Sunday School by attending this Sunday.

In an effort to get their recently revived football program well on the road to success, The NEWS has learned that Indiana University is reportedly considering several changes in their 1980 schedule.

If the new schedule is approved, IU will be facing Brownie Scout Troop 14 on October 18, World War I Veterans on October 25, the St. Joseph's Boys Choir on November 1, and, in the seasons finale on November 22, the Tippecanoe Valley junior varsity girl's volleyball team.

Those loyal to IU realize what a step up this is for the Hoosiers so all you IU fans (that's right...both of you) should really get behind your team.

Congratulations to Kay Hively, senior guard from Tippecanoe Valley, on making the All Three Rivers Conference Girls Basketball team. Kay was voted to the second team and was the only Viking honored by the TRC.

Tradition of making syrup continues at Sevastopol

by Eula Romaine Smith

Among the young people who attended school at Sevastopol earlier in this century were Arnold and Ralph "Jakie" Jeffries, Ed and Lester Creakbaum, Max and Ray Smith, Lucile (Jeffries) Fisher, Doris (Creakbaum) Feldman, Blanche Smith, Ruth Igo, and Thelma Eherenman. For some of them maple syrup time was an opportunity to get together for a cookout. They took eggs and chickens back to the sugar camps to roast or boil and used some of the bubbling syrup to make taffy.

I doubt if the men who operated the sugar camps considered it all fun and games because sap, or sugar water, flows in late winter when the ground freezes at night and thaws during the day, so the men had to work outside in the snow, mud, or chilling wind.

The prime requisite for a sugar camp was a woods which had a number of large black maple or sugar maple trees.

A recent issue of Horticulture magazine gave suggestions for tapping a tree. Select trees that are more than thirty-one inches in circumference. With a brace and sharp bit (7/16 inch) bore a hole on the south side of the tree about a yard or meter above the ground. Usually this is three inches deep, but two and a half is better for the tree. Angle upward ten degrees so hole will drain. Carefully insert a spile and hang a bucket on it. (Before metal spiles were available men made spiles from sumac, elder or pawpaw). A tree forty-five to sixty inches around can have another tap on a different side.

It is necessary to collect and boil down forty or fifty gallons of sap for each gallon of finished syrup. During the season a tree may produce enough sap to make a quart or two of syrup. The amount of sugar in the sap varies from tree to tree, and the amount of sap varies with the weather. It can take two hours or two days to fill a bucket.

One Sevastopol farmer emptied the wooden buckets into a barrel that he set on a horse-drawn sled. They made the rounds so often that the old white horse knew where to stop.

Back at the sugar camp shack he transferred the sap from the barrel to a large shallow pan to start evaporation. The pan was four by eight by one foot and set on bricks above the fire. Once the sap was boiling, extra wood wouldn't speed up the change of clear sugar water to amber syrup, but if the fire burned too low and boiling stopped, more time was required.

Sometimes when it was nearly done, farmers took the syrup to the kitchen to clarify and finish. Commercial maple syrup must weigh eleven pounds per gallon compared to plain water which weighs eight and a third pounds.

Sugar and black maple trees are native to eastern North America, so the first Europeans learned about this golden syrup from the native Americans. After Indians slashed the trees with a tomahawk, a procedure that soon killed the trees, sap ran down into a container on the ground.

Braves must have loved maple products because sugar making was one time they helped with household chores. To keep the kettles boiling day and night they cut the wood and tended the fires.

Some people think that in the time before fur traders brought metal kettles, the Indians boiled down water by dropping hot rocks into it. Before they started adding rocks they probably discarded the layer of ice that had frozen on top, leaving the more concentrated part.

One of their products was a thin syrup stored in underground containers to use for medicine and cooking. Another was a thick syrup which was poured over pop corn with a result similar to our caramel corn. However, the most practical product was maple sugar; it was easy to store and to carry.

Perhaps they tested for doneness of maple sugar like the early settlers did, by dropping a small amount into cold water. When it was brittle and snapped readily that was time to remove it from the fire. They stirred it with a wooden paddle as it cooled for granulated sugar or poured it into buttered pans to solidify.

Although Sevastopol School has been closed many years the tradition of making maple syrup is being continued by Dennis Johnson and the Mentone second grade teachers and students.

Sunlight penetrates the ocean to a depth of about 600 feet.

asks you to submit to a breathalyzer test. If you go over the legal limits, you're about to be charged with a Class A misdemeanor in addition to the speeding charge. Other examples of Class A misdemeanors are check deception, resisting law enforcement, theft, battery, and possession of a controlled substance.

If, on your court date, the judge finds you guilty of both offenses, you will wind up paying the $32.00 costs on the speeding ticket plus another charge of $42.50 for driving while intoxicated. The only difference in the two is the amount which goes to the state under the Prosecuting Attorney fee. That particular charge goes up to $24.50 for the misdemeanor.

The amount of your fine varies from offense to offense at the discretion of the court. All fines and costs are payable at the time of judgement but terms can be worked out for those who can't afford to pay at that time. If you are given more time to pay, you will be ordered to appear at a future date to insure payment. All fines and costs are payable only in cash, money order, or lawfirm check. Personal checks are not accepted.

Obviously, the arresting officer is not going to write you a ticket for driving under the influence and let you drive off. The Sheriff has the authorization from the court to hold any person that he has good reason to feel may be dangerous to himself or others until the court convenes or he maybe safely released.

When the Sheriff feels that you may be safely released, he can fix a bond price and release you when the Bond is posted. If the Sheriff has good reason to believe that you will appear when ordered, unless ordered by the court not to, he can release you on your own recognizance.

If you're a resident of Indiana and are stopped for a traffic offense, you have the right to be released on your written promise to appear at a set time. If you're not a resident of Indiana, you can be released by depositing the amount of the fine and costs, your driver's license, or an approved motor club card.

County Court can work to your advantage as well. County Court is also Small Claims Court and can be used for civil claims of up to $1500.00. An individual can begin a small claims procedure by filing with the Clerk of the Court and paying a filing fee of $10.00.

After the claim is filed, a Notice of Claim is sent to the defendant by certified mail. If the Notice of Claim is disregarded, a second one may be sent through the Sheriff for another $10.00 fee.

If the decision is reached in your favor, the defendant is ordered to pay your claim plus your court costs (filing fees). If he is unable to pay at once, the Court will order him to pay 8% per annum interest on the judgement and costs. As long as you're not a corporation, you don't even have to have an attorney.

County Court may not always go in your favor but it is the judicial process that's closest to the level of the people.

The Seward Home Extension Club met Wednesday, March 12 at 1:30 p.m. in the social room of the Burket United Methodist Church. President Ruth Igney led the group in the pledges and the club creed.

Meditation was given by Elva Longbrake. Roll call was answered by 15 members.

The secretary and treasurers reports were read and approved. The president told of upcoming county club trips and the membership day, April 16. Minnie Smalley read the County Club Constitution. Anne Williamson read the local club constitution and some amendments were made.

New officers for 1980-81 are as follows: Minnie Smalley, president; Merdena Bechtol, vice-president; Hester Clinger, secretary; Elva Longbrake, treasurer; and Garnet Latimer is to be the assistant to the secretary and treasurer.

The lesson on "Effective Communication" was given by Garnet Latimer. The meeting was closed with group repeating the club collect.

The April meeting will be in the church social room with Linda Tucker and Alice Golding as co-hostesses.

School Board sets standards

by Diana S. Booker

The TVHS School Board met in a secret session last evening to discuss the pending teacher contracts.

In a startling unanimous decision they have set their criteria for all female teachers in the Valley school system. When the board announced the decision, they stated firmly, "We will not negotiate these changes." The Classroom Teacher's Association of officers responded with, "You'll not get away with this!"

Future Rules of Conduct for Women Teachers are:

*You will not marry during the term of your contract. If you are already married, you must get a divorce.

*You are not to keep company with men.

*You must be home between the hours of 8 p.m. and 6 a.m. unless attending a school function.

*You may not loiter downtown in ice cream stores.

*You may not travel beyond the city limits unless you have the permission of the Superintendent.

*You may not ride in an automobile with any men unless he is your father or brother.

*You may not smoke cigarettes.

*You may not dress in bright colors.

*You may, under no circumstances, dye or curl your hair.

*You must wear dresses and they may not be shorter than two inches above your ankles.

*You must wear at least two petticoats.

*To keep the school rooms neat and tidy (and to save on janitorial expenses) you must: Sweep the floor at least once daily; scrub the floor at least once a week with hot, soapy water and scrub brush; clean the blackboards at least once daily; clean the chairs and desks once monthly. You will be held responsible for the hallway outside your room.

The NEWS was able to ascertain that this building is being used as the prototype for the remodeling project at the Burket Grade School. It is still not known if this facility will include a teacher's lounge. NEWS Photo.

On Monday, March 3, the Mentone Town Board decided to take decisive action about delinquent water bills. This man, who preferred to remain nameless, was hired by the board to collect the outstanding monies. NEWS Photo.

AKRON FAMILY DECIMATED - This unidentified local family was found expired in their home by an anonymous person. The bodies were huddled around a collection of unsafe toys. Last week's NEWS carried a warning of these items, but obviously not everyone believes everything they read. P.S. The cat was saved by emergency measures.

Demands action by town board

Akron Civil group gathers

by Vern Shucks

A new politically motivated group of individuals have burst upon the local government scene and are calling for reform of local statutes in Akron. The group, known as Akronites for Action on Governmental Hysterics (AAGH), is reportedly prepared to recommend ten new laws to the Akron Town Board for consideration.

Spokesperson for the group, D. S. Butcher, claims that the proposed statutes will help put local government back on the level of the people and will generate new respect and admiration for our lawmakers. The proposals are:

1. It shall be illegal for women wrestlers to appear within the town limits of Akron.

2. All persons appearing on the streets shall be covered from shoulder to knee.

3. At no time will the marching of geese be permitted.

4. The fire department will be required to practice for a minimum of fifteen minutes before attending any fire.

5. All town employees will be required to wear coats and ties whenever on duty.

6. The lassoing of fish within the town limits shall be strictly prohibited.

7. Advertising shall no longer be permitted on tombstones.

8. At no time, and under no circumstances, shall more than eight rabbits be permitted to live within one square block.

9. It shall be illegal for any person to wilfully or negligently permit any unaltered horse of the age of one year or more to enter any public place of worship or any establishment where alcoholic beverages are served.

When queried about the practicality of AAGH's proposals, Butcher responded, "We feel that these revisions are relevant and necessary for the continuance of life as we know it in the town of Akron."

Happy
April Fools Day!

School Board recognizes TVCTA as certified representatives

At the regular session of the TVSC School Trustees, held on March 17, the board members voted 4-1 to recognize the Tippecanoe Valley Classroom Teacher's Association as the certified, exclusive bargaining agent of corporation educators. Superintendent

Lloyd Harrell reported on the contested election and the final decision from IEERB, and he read a letter from TVCTA President Bernadean Howard requesting the beginning of contract negotiations.

Dr. Harrell read a letter from the Dept. of Public Instruction requesting Tippecanoe Valley become a site for other schools to study and evaluate and for permission to interview participants in the adult education program. Only three or four sites in the state are chosen for this.

Dr. Harrell informed board members that all nine new school buses had been received. The Board approved payment on condition that all buses be inspected and approved by Dr. Harrell and Steve Heller.

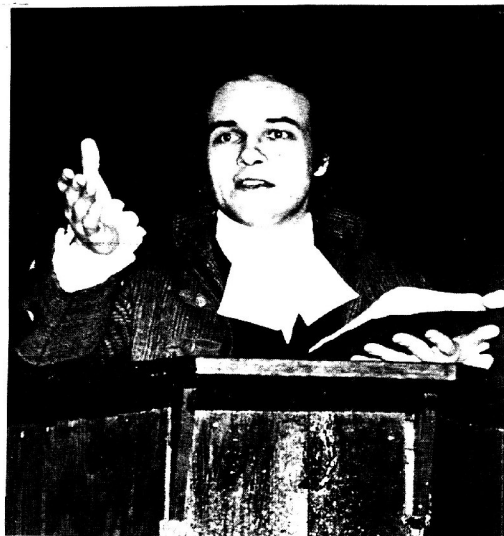

In other business:

*Bill Fanning of ProMaCon gave a short report and introduced the people that would be working with the corporation on the building project.

*Contracts for Fred Rakestraw as TVSC attorney for the building projects were signed.

*The Building Advisory Committee recommended to the board that an auxiliary gymnasium at the high school not be built. They did recommend that girl's locker facilities and administration offices be added to the present high school.

*An executive (closed) session of the board was set for March 25 at 7:30 p.m.

Abandoned animals - an annual dilemma

by Diana Streevey Bucher

There are various ways to tell when spring finally arrives each year. We can tell by the date on the calendar, by the warm, rainy weather, by the appearance of the first robin and by a visit from the Easter bunny. And we know it must be spring when people start dumping unwanted animals on lonely country roads.

The Mentone/Akron communities are particularly prone to this problem because they are rural areas. Each year dozens of unwanted dogs, cats and entire litters of baby animals are abandoned on isolated backroads and streets. A few animals may be lucky enough to wander to a farm or house where they are adopted, but most are ignored and either starve or are killed by automobiles or other animals.

Although it is breaking both state statutes and local ordinances, many people go to great lengths to abandon animals. They seek deserted roads on which to dump the unfortunate creatures, giving no thought to the suffering the animal must endure or the problems it creates for surrounding residents. Possibly the worst aspect of this unsavory situation is that it is totally unnecessary. There are three animal shelters in our area that will accept unwanted or stray animals and save them from slow or painful deaths.

The Kosciusko County Humane Society has its office and shelter at 823 E. Winona Avenue in Warsaw. They will accept any stray animals at no cost to the person bringing them in. Their hours are: Mon., Tues., Thurs. and Fri. from 10:00 to 5:00; on Wed. from 10:00 to 7:00; and on Sat. from 9:00 to 4:00.

Nikki Greenwood, Associate Humane Officer, explained what the Humane Society does with the animals. "If an owner releases an animal, we keep it for three days. If we have a spayed animal come in, we keep it as long as we can and try to find a home for it. If we get a litter of cute, adoptable puppies, we keep two of them and put the others to sleep with sodium pentathol. We hold them in our arms and play with them until they fall asleep, so they're happy and there's no fear or pain involved. They just go to sleep."

You may adopt a pet at the Kosciusko animal shelter. An unspayed animal costs the most, as they ask $30 for a dog and $20 for a cat. However at the time you pick up the animal, the shelter gives you a certificate. If you have the animal spayed within six months and take the documented certificate back to the shelter, they will return $20 for a dog and $10 for a cat. The remaining $10 fee covers shots the animals receive at the shelter. Animals that are already spayed cost $10.

The Fulton County Humane Society shelter is located on Monticello Road in Rochester (north on Main Street towards old US 31, turn west, or left, on Monticello Road). Their hours are: Mon., Wed. and Fri. 10:00 to 6:00; Tues. and Thurs., 10:00 to 12:00.

Kathy Rans, Animal Warden, explained that the Fulton County Society will take strays without a donation, but if an owned animal is brought to the shelter, or an animal from another county, they do request a $1 donation. Ms. Rans quickly pointed out they will accept any animal without a donation however, as their main concern is for the welfare of the unwanted pet.

The Rochester shelter also offers other services within Fulton county. If someone dumps an animal/animals anywhere in the county, you can call 223-4720 and someone from the shelter will come to pick up the animal. Too, the shelter will respond to reports of neglected or abused animals.

Ms. Rans informed the NEWS that people should also contact the animal shelter if they lose a pet. The shelter can only keep strays or picked up animals for five days before they are euthanized. If the shelter picks up a pet, and the owner finds his pet at the shelter, they require a $5 em-poundment fee and $2 a day boarding fee. If the shelter picks up the animal a second time, it costs $15 to get the pet back. If it happens a third time, the owner will not receive the animal back.

All adopted animals at the shelter cost $10 now, and this fee covers shots and worm medicine. The price of adopting an animal at the shelter may soon increase, however, as they are in the process of developing a spay and neuter program.

The Wabash County Animal Shelter, on 390 Smith Street, also provides a pick up service for abandoned animals in Wabash county.

The number to call to report strays is 563-5232. This shelter is open between the hours of 9:00 to 5:

00 Mon. thru Fri. Again, no fee is requested if you bring in animals from Wabash county; but if you are from another county, they ask you make a donation to the shelter. The Wabash shelter fee for adopting animals is $10 for dogs and $5 for cats.

Linda Conley, the Assistant Animal Warden, told us they try to keep animals for a week and find them homes, but then John Swango (the Animal Warden) has to put them to sleep.

So this spring, if you see abandoned animals on the road, remember you have a shelter in your county that will help and give them a call. If you have an unwanted animal or animals, don't dump them on the road to starve or be hit by a car; drive the few extra miles to the nearest shelter and let them take care of the animals in the most humane way possible. You'll sleep better.

Finally, if you see someone dump an animal, don't hesitate to take down their license plate number and report it to the police. There are local ordinances and state statutes against this cruel treatment of helpless animals, but the police cannot enforce them unless we are willing to speak out.

If we all take a little responsibility for this inhumane problem, perhaps we'll be a part of the solution. And by the way, you might remember your local animal shelter with a small donation. It's a worthy cause and the donation will be appreciated and put to good use.

New books at Akron

New books received at the Akron Carnegie Public Library include the following:

LIFE SENTENCE by Charles W. Colson. This is a gripping narrative of danger, conflict, hard choices. From one man's search for truth about himself and his faith come deep insights about commitment, fellowship repentance and obedience. Charles Colson presents a challenge to the individual who is floundering spiritually to take a bold step of faith and accept as he has, the life sentence that can become the biggest and most fulfilling adventure of all.

STANDING INTO DANGER by Cassie Brown. 203 American sailors died as the Wilkes, the Pollux and the Truxton were battered against the icy shore by the treacherous North Atlantic. And those who survived would return home to receive not a hero's welcome, but the harsh interrogation of their naval superiors. This recounts the never before told story of this dramatic disaster and its heroes, survivors and fateful aftermath.

WILDERNESS NEIGHBORS by Bradford Angier. Soon after they were married Brad Angier and his wife Vena decided to forsake city civilization and move to a log cabin deep in the Canadian wilderness. They went off to live the life of Thoreau in the woods of British Columbia. Their own story has been written before and enthusiastically received by a generation of young men and women who dream of cutting the tie that binds. Here now, are woods - lore - filled stories of the people who have been the Angiers' wilderness neighbors over the years in the vicinity of Hudson Hope on the Peace River.

Mentone Flying Club buys new aircraft

At the recent meeting of the Mentone Flying Club Harrison Crabill, president, announced the purchase of a 1976 Cessna 150. Marti Clupper was appointed as crew chief for the new aircraft.

Crew chiefs, Rex Sullivan and Tim Youngstrom, gave reports on recent maintenance done to the other airplanes.

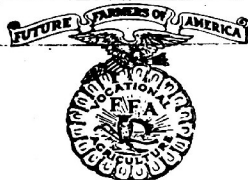

At the next meeting the local activity committee will have guide lines ready for contests to be held throughout the summer pertaining to ETA, gas consumption, precision landing, etc.

James Sellers was the recipient of the free hour.

A HOME IN THE WOODS by Howard Johnson. These are the reminiscences of Oliver Johnson who tells of pioneer life in early Marion Co., Indiana.

WOMEN'S HANDBOOK OF INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT by Steven James Lee and Karen Athena Hassey.

IN THE VINEYARD OF THE LORD by Helen Stiner Rice. Helen Steiner Rice sees herself as "just another worker in the Vineyard of the Lord." The testimony she shares provides an enthralling look at a remarkable woman - one who is an unparalleled vehicle of expressing God's loving message. The story of her life is an inspiring example of the power of God in lives placed completely within His mighty hands.

Newsview

by Bob Norlander

Newsbit: If the current 13 percent annual inflation rate continues, the car that costs $8,000 today will cost $29,000 10 years from now, and the $60,000 home will cost $200,000.

Those surprising figures are the result of "compounding". Each year the 13 percent is on a bigger figure so the increase in terms of dollars is more.

Most of us haven't bothered to sit down to figure out exactly how much more things may cost one year or 10 years from now. We only know that prices are going up and we're pretty sure they will continue to go up. We don't have much faith in government being able to halt inflation.

We also know that prices are going up faster than we can save money to buy things. So we go into debt to buy things at today's dollars, figuring to pay for them with tomorrow's dollars.

We only have to look around to see that the people who have done best are those who went into debt years ago to buy a new home or a piece of property. The more they went into debt yesterday, the more they are ahead today.

Inflation penalizes the savers. The inflation rate is greater than the interest on the savings or the dividends from stocks or bonds.

We also know that if inflation should end, we would be caught with some high-priced purchases and a lot of debt on which we're paying high interest. But more and more of us are willing to take that risk. We see inflation steadily getting worse instead of better.

Finally, we get to the point where most of us can't live without inflation. Without it, our wages won't go up enough to pay for the stuff we've gone into debt for. We're hooked.

We've got a feeling that this country is hooked. Unfortunately, we don't know how fast or how far this thing is going to go. Worse, nobody else knows either. If they did, they wouldn't have to make a living writing about it.

Fulton County Players present "Rainmaker"

DEAR EDITOR:

The Fulton County Players will present their fall production, "The Rainmaker" Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 27, 28 and 29 at 8 p.m. in the Rochester High School Auditorium.

The witty, whimsical, romantic comedy is the story of a mid-western family named Curry, whose daughter they are more concerned with getting married, than they are the drought which is destroying all of their cattle. Into their life comes a garrulous con-artist whose charisma convinces them he can change all their lives by sorcery.

Director Ted Denton states that although the cast is small, the play is fast moving and entertaining.

Tickets for the performances will go on sale at Cook Brothers Furniture Store, Rochester, March 24, 25 and 26 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and March 27 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Season ticket holder exchanges can also be made at this time. Tickets will also be available at the door on the evenings of the performances.

Most sincerely,
Dorothy Zartman
R. 1 Rochester, IN 46975

Thanks

DEAR EDITOR:

I want to thank all the help, those who donated, and those who bought at the Phil Heckathorn Benefit Fish Fry last Saturday. Special thanks to the Akron Fire Department. The fish fry was a huge success.

The NEWS Asks:

"If you had to vote today, who would you vote for as President?"

Rex Tucker, Mentone: "That's a good question. I really don't know yet. You can put them all in a sack and shake them up, you know?"

Erda Royer, Akron: "Say, that's what I said the other night. I'm just not sure, I haven't made up my mind. I'll listen to one and think I like him, then I listen a little more and decide I don't."

Arlo Friesner, Mentone: "I would select Jimmy Carter. I don't care about Kennedy at all, and I'm a democrat, so I'd vote for Carter."

Charlotte Keesey, Akron: "Right now I don't feel like I have a good choice. I don't know who I'd vote for. I think it will be between Reagan and Carter, I really do believe so, and I just don't know which I'd vote for."

Doris Dawson, Mentone: "I really don't know. I don't think any of them are very good. I'm undecided."

L. A. Nestleroad, Akron: "I hadn't thought too much about it. I suppose Carter."

Benefit fish fry for Laketon family

The Laketon Lions Club and the Laketon-Pleasant Township Assn. will sponsor a benefit fish fry on March 28 at the Laketon School cafeteria for the Bob Roth family of the Laketon area.

The Roth's 14 month old daughter, Joselyn, spent 30 days or more in the Ft. Wayne Hospital after she was burnt in an accident at home when hot grease spilled over her body. The Roth family moved to this area from Elkhart in the fall of 1979 for employment locally and his insurance was not effective yet when the accident happened. This has caused a large hospital bill of several thousand dollars to be paid.

All proceeds from the supper will be turned over to the Roth family to help pay hospital costs. As a service club, the Laketon Lions and Laketon community felt the need to help out.

Serving time will be from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. with the cost for adults of $3, and children $2. This is an "all you can eat" supper, and carry-outs will be available.

Jabberwocky

By Diana Streevey Bucher

My husband and I got back from a vacation south just last week. We went to Florida so he could golf and I could be warm for a change, and it really was very nice.

One of the places my aunt wanted to see was Plains, Georgia, home of Jimmy Carter. Although it was about three hours out of our way, we finally found the place.

Plains is a pretty boring little town, and that's being kind. About the only thing worth seeing is Billy's gas station and choo choo train, and even that isn't worth much. Ten minutes in Plains and we'd seen everything.

When we stopped at Americus, Georgia to eat lunch, we found copies of the Plains Georgia Monitor, the weekly newspaper of Plains. Of course we had to buy a couple of copies, which we read as we headed down the road.

Along with the expected political cartoons of Teddy Kennedy and stories of the Carter family, we found something totally unexpected on the masthead of the Monitor. The publishers of the Monitor are Larry and Althea Flynt. That's right, the same Larry Flynt who publishes Hustler magazine, the porno magazine that gives the word pornography a bad name. I was a little dismayed at discovering this, because I wouldn't have dreamed Flynt had such a direct line of communication with the President (although to be fair I must say there was nothing unusual in any of the Monitor's articles).

Akron librarian Velma Bright looked up some information for me when I returned home, and she found that the Sept. 4, 1978 issue of Newsweek magazine had the story of Flynt and the Monitor. Flynt bought the paper in Jan. of 1978 when the Monitor's founder couldn't make a financial go of the paper. Newsweek reported the Plains townspeople had been alarmed when Flynt bought the paper, because they feared he would turn it into a 'racy rag'. But this has proven to be unfounded, as Flynt has little to do with the paper other than paying it's bills. Flynt told Newsweek, the paper is "more or less a plaything...it's a great novelty item."

And after all, every paper has to be owned by somebody. Just ask Bob and Renee.

the side lines

by Vern Hucks

It was a long, long weekend. If you don't believe me, ask Patty Paris or Jo Manwaring or Wayne Cumberland.

On Friday afternoon, the first of over 750 swimmers from 58 AAU swim clubs began arriving at Tippecanoe Valley High School for the 1980 Indiana AAU Junior Championships. Teams from as far away as Evansville and Vincennes made the trip for the final meet of the 79-80 winter season. When you consider that most swimmers bring two parents and a brother or sister to a big meet, it adds up to what can conservatively be called, a whole bunch of people.

As with any mob, everybody was hungry and JAWS parents who manned the concession area were faced with an endless line from 7:15 a.m. Saturday until about 4:00 p.m. on Sunday. The horde gobbled up 320 pounds of various meats, 275 pounds of french fries, and over 3,000 pancakes.

Patty Paris and Jo Manwaring served as co-directors of the meet and much of the credit for its success must go to them. Another big chunk of praise has to go to Wayne Cumberland who was seemingly everywhere. All comments that I heard from parents, coaches, and officials were favorable. Most anyone you talked to was impressed that the Tippecanoe Valley Aquatic Club (TVAC) could host a meet so large and make it run so smoothly.

Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation (and members of the staff) are deserving of a whole bunch of thanks for allowing TVAC to use the facilities for what is probably the largest single sporting event in the history of our area. Charlie Smith, who fried hamburgers, judged turns, filled out scorers cards, swept floors, and tried to keep control over the bedlam in the gym, would probably agree.

For those of you who read something in the NEWS besides the sports page, I've got to admit to a mistake. On last week's front page was a picture of Herb King and the caption read that Herb was going to play football for Bluffton. That much is true. What isn't true is the part about Bluffton being in Indiana. Bluffton is in Ohio. Sorry Herb.

Take Six Gold Medals

TVAC Swimmers In Junior Championships

Members of the Tippecanoe Valley Aquatic Club who qualified to swim in the Junior State Championships, held in their home pool, gave a good showing for JAWS.

TVAC fielded three relay teams with all three winning medals. In the free style relays, the boys 10 and under team took second place as did the 15-18 year old boys. The older boys also took third place in the medley relay.

Gold medals were won by Tom Alexander, Chris Paris, and Dave Reuter. Winning silver medals were Dayne Manwaring and James Swihart.

Almost every JAWS swimmer recorded their own personal best time in the events they swam. Individual results for the meet were:

10-Under: Tom Alexander, 5th 200 free; 1st 100 back, 1st 50 fly; Chris Paris, 1st 200 free, 3rd 100 free, 8th 100 back, 8th 50 back, 14th 200 IM; Craven Lynn, 37th breast, 58th 50 free, 32nd 100 breast; Clinton Alexander, 26th 50 breast, 54th 50 free; Dayne Manwaring, 2nd 50 fly, 4th 100 fly.

11-12: Jolie Skinner, 23rd 50 breast, 36th 50 back; Ellen Brudge, 8th 100 back, 7th 50 back; Randy Paris, 1st 500 free, 8th 50 breast, 1st 100 back, 7th 100 breast; Deron Manwaring, 12th 50 breast, 4th 50 fly, 21st 50 free, 6th 200 IM, 5th 100 breast.

15-18: Dave Reuter, 13th 500 free, 3rd 100 free, 1st 50 free, 10th 200 free, 5th 100 fly; Brett Cumberland, 5th 100 breast; James Swihart, 11th 100 free, 2nd 50 free; and James Feldman, 22nd 50 free.

Mentone Athlete Named Head Coach

Mentone's most successful runner, Jeff Shoemaker, has been appointed head track and cross country coach at Delta High School in Delaware County.

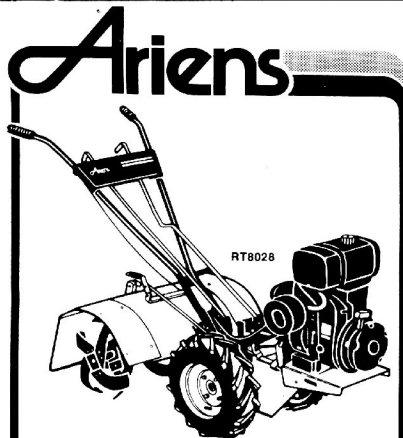

Shoemaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Shoemaker, Mentone, has been teaching and coaching at Wes-Del Middle School since his graduation from Ball State University in 1977.

During his career at Ball State, Shoemaker lettered all four years in both track and cross-country and also qualified for the NCAA finals several times.

Shoemaker is scheduled to begin his new duties immediately.

Craven Lynn splashes to his best time ever in the 10-under boys 100 yard breast stroke. Craven qualified for this State Meet at the age of 8, an accomplishment in itself. (NEWS Photo)

Indiana Junior Championships At Valley

BOTTOM LEFT: Frying hamburgers was Dot Linn's idea of fun for the weekend. Dot had plenty of practice at her hobby as JAWS parents fried 125 pounds of hamburgers.

BOTTOM RIGHT: Clerk of the Course was in the Valley gym. This is where swimmers had to report to be placed in heats for their events. Some events had over 15 heats of swimmers.

TOP RIGHT: PATTY PARIS takes advantage of one of the few breakers for TVAC parents to chat with one of the 750-plus swimmers who participated in the meet.

60 YEARS AGO

Gas is selling here for 28 cents. In nearby towns dealers want 29 cents. It is said that it will be selling for more than 35 cents before many months. In England gas costs $1.56 a gallon.

John McCullough and several of the local baseball fans are trying to organize a ball team for Akron. Merrill Whittenberger has promised the use of a field just north of town, which will make a splendid diamond. Akron has some good timber and if the local citizens promise to support the team, one will probably be organized. The men who probably play are, Cloyde, Dale and Walter Leininger, Fred Martin, Claude Kindig, Willis Cook, Ralph Hoffman, Harold Read, Bud Meredith, Joe Wilhoit, Floyd Geiger, A. B. Chipman, B. Clayton, Ralph Arter and others.

39 YEARS AGO

Don Whittenberger and Ralph Young have just completed a good piece of community work. They donated their time in wiring Pleasant Hill Church and the lights were turned on last week.

Plans made for the smelt jamboree, March 28, are rapidly being worked out. Several hundred guests are expected to be served. Proceeds from the affair are to go to the Akron Jonah Club silverware fund. The club has purchased three hundred sets of silverware and hope to pay off the indebtedness on Friday night.

25 YEARS AGO

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of Frank Rarik of Warsaw for postmaster in that city. Mr. Rarik is well known in Fulton County, and is a former GOP county chairman and state representative.

An Oldsmobile belonging to Earl Hoffman is a total wreck as a result of an accident on state road 14 west of Akron. Jim Bucher was driving the car when it went out of control on a curve. He was accompanied by Eugene Floor. The two were testing the speed of the car, which was for sale.

10 YEARS AGO

A move towards the establishment of a one high school plan for the Tippecanoe Valley School Corp. was made at Monday night's board meeting when members voted 3-2 to send all high school students in grades 10, 11 and 12 to Mentone.

Akron students, unhappy at the prospect of having grades 10, 11 and 12 sent to Mentone next year, gathered in the school gym, some carrying signs, but all orderly to listen as Superintendent of Schools Robert Forbes answer their questions. Some of the questions asked were: what about class rings, name of school, how about the ball team and, what about the teachers they now had? The question and answer period followed a short sit-in, but both were considered orderly, and students returned to their classes.

Beaver Dam Alumni Banquet

It happened in Mentone

Taken from the April 1, 1953 issue of The Northern Indiana Co-Op News:

An entertaining feature of the Lions Club meeting was the illustrated lecture by Franklin Heisler, of Rochester, assisted by his father, Mr. Heisler was a lieutenant in the Medical Administration Corp with the U. S. Army of Occupation and had the privilege of extensive travel in Bavaria, Germany and Switzerland. He secured many beautiful colored pictures of the places he visited, and these were shown.

Mr. and Mrs. David Cooper and daughter Debra Lee, of Port Austin, Michigan, are enjoying a 10 day leave with friends and relatives in Mentone.

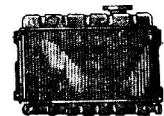

Burglars who ransacked two schools at Akron and one at Piercetown, included Mentone Tuesday night. Approximately $85 in cash and a few other items were taken at Mentone. Indications were that the same unholy crew operated at all the establishments as the tactics employed were identical.

Mrs. Orpha Blue moved to Martinsville where she plans to make her home with her son, Sam. Sam served as prosecuting attorney last term for Morgan county, and is associated with the law firm of Hurtt and McNutt. Mrs. Blue will be greatly missed in our community, having had a close connection with the public during her many years in the post office, and more recently, in the County Print Shop. An open house farewell was held for Mrs. Blue at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Riner. Mrs. David Gosser and Mrs. F. B. Davison served the guests.

The hare is larger, heavier and longer in the ear than the rabbit.
