School board members elected

Maurice Coplen, Philip Lash and Dr. John McKee won seats on the board of trustees of the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation in a tight contest Tuesday. All ran for election on the "two school" platform, saying they prefer keeping high schools at Akron and at Mentone rather than establishing a single high school for the corporation.

Coplen defeated David Burkett, Newcastle Twp., while Lash defeated Dr. O. L. McFadden, Franklin township. Burkett and McFadden had recently voted with a third board member, Richard Goshert, not a candidate for re-election, to establish a 10-11-12 school at Mentone starting in September. McKee defeated Larry Klein for the Henry township seat now held by board president Ralph Davis who did not seek reelection and who, like McKee, favors maintaining two high schools.

The unofficial vote tally shows McKee defeating Klein 1505-1292, Coplen defeating Burkett 1466 to 1322 and Lash topping McFadden 1423-1379.

Coplen and Lash will assume their duties on July 1. Other board members are Davis, Goshert and Dr. Donald J. VanGilder. McKee will not assume his duties until July 1, 1970 as Davis is a holdover member until that time.

It Isn't Your Town - - It's You

If you want to live in the kind of town
Like the kind of town you like,
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip and start on a long, long hike.

You'll only find what you left behind,
For there's nothing that's really new,
It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town
It isn't your town--it's you.

Real towns are not made by men afraid,
Lest somebody gets ahead,
When everybody works and nobody shirks,
You can raise a town from the dead.

And if while you make your personal stake,
Your neighbor can make one too,
Your town will be what you want to see,
It isn't your town, it's you.

Akron Girl Scout Troop 221 had its regular meeting May 4. Kate Jennings called the meeting to order. Roll call was answered and dues were collected. Plans for "Play Day" May 9th at Lagrove were discussed.

"Write To Hanoi" Campaign Is Urged

The American Red Cross is launching a new "Write Hanoi" campaign urging Americans to write to the President of No. Vietnam expressing their indignation over that country's treatment of U.S. prisoners. There has never been anything pleasant about war, and certainly the perverse attitude Hanoi has taken in its treatment of captured Americans is one of the low points in the unhappy history of warfare.

In centering its appeal around World Red Cross Day, May 8, the American Red Cross is emphasizing the importance of the humanitarian efforts of 113 Red Cross, Red Crescent, Red Lion and Sun societies. This day is observed by 225 million society members worldwide in commemorating the birth of the movement's founder, Henri Dunant, Swiss financier and philanthropist.

No matter what political views each individual American has about war, all are in agreement that something must be done about treatment of prisoners as set out by the Geneva Convention. This agreement, which No. Vietnam signed in 1949, calls for prompt identification of prisoners, adequate diet and medical care, communications with other prisoners and their families at home, prompt repatriation if seriously sick or wounded, protection from abuse or reprisals and free access to prisoners and their place of detention by such a neutral intermediary as the all-Swiss International Committee of the Red Cross.

Dwight Bechtol, chairman of the Kosciusko Co. Red Cross Chapter which is sponsoring the new drive, says letters protesting the treatment of American servicemen should be sent to the following address. All mail letters weighing one-half ounce or less should carry 25 cents in postage:

60 YEARS AGO

Akron has had other excellent commencement exercises and other brilliant school events, but last Friday evening the exercises were superb. Rev. Harter of Mentone opened the program with prayer, preceded and followed by music. Of the class address by Dr. Moran, of Purdue, we must say it was an able one, full of vivid illustrations for optimists, the brave heart, who does not say no, but looks into the future for an uplift.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Russell treated Mr. and Mrs. H.C. Tidd of Kokomo, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Gordon of Peru, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Montgomery and son, Barr, and Mrs. Eliza Wideman to an elegant mushroom breakfast Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. It was greatly enjoyed and they are willing for the Russells to go mushrooming again.

The Senior High school or graduation class presented Prof. Busenburg with a handsome floor rug a few days ago, which he and Mrs. Busenburg appreciate very much as a token of remembrance from these young gentlemen and ladies, for his service as instructor in the play they so successfully rendered at the Opera House the evening of April 7.

Mrs. Virgil Shafer boarded a Winona car last Tuesday to Mentone and changing cars there went to Tippecanoe, where she visited a couple of days with her niece, Mrs. Chas. Polson and family.

Don Shipley, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Shipley, south of town, has a school record that his parents as well as himself can be justly proud. He attended school here the past two years without missing a day or being tardy. The first winter the school term contained 130 days and the term just closed contained 140 days. When the distance of three miles or more is taken in consideration and the stormy, zero weather is considered, it leads us to believe the lad is earnest about his school work.

40 YEARS AGO

According to the figures announced by the supervisor of the census at So. Bend, Mentone has a population of 701, gaining twenty three over the previous year. Silver Lake lost ten in population during the last ten years, its population now listed at 442.

Are you feeding blackbirds or chickens? You can spend your money in the chain stores and have it carried away to New York—never to return. That is feeding blackbirds. Or, you spend your money in the independent, home owned stores and have it remain here in your community help build it up—to improve our schools and streets—to provide wages for our workmen—to make our city prosperous. That's feeding chickens. Independent home-town merchants merit your patronage.

The town of Mentone has purchased a new and enlarged fire fighting apparatus which includes a pumper.

Mrs. Ted Jontz, assisted by Mrs. Joe Wilhoit and Mrs. Dale Leininger, entertained at a community dinner at the home of Mrs. Jontz Monday evening. The tables were decorated with tulips. The evening was spent playing bridge and prizes were won by Mrs. Cloyd Leininger, Mrs. Everett Showalter and Mrs. Sam Merley and Whit Cast, Garland Kline and Ted Baber.

25 YEARS AGO

At the Chamber of Commerce meeting Monday night it was decided that all stores and business houses that are not engaged in essential war work, will close their doors in observance of V-E Day when it is announced. If the announcement comes before 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon they will close the rest of that day. If the announcement comes after 2 o'clock, they will close the rest of that day and all the next day.

Claude Billings, publisher of the Akron News, was elected treasurer of the Indiana Republican Editorial Association at the annual meeting in Indianapolis.

Cpl. and Mrs. Gus Judd of Buckley Field, Colo., are spending a 10-day furlough with his mother, Mrs. Kate Judd, in Mentone and Mr. and Mrs. John Judd in Akron.

10 YEARS AGO

Fulton Co. Republicans gave Vice President Nixon a smashing victory in the primary Tuesday and rolled up a total vote of 2964 for him. Kennedy received 1034 votes from the Democrats.

Beaver Dam American Legion Award winners are John Zolman, eighth grade, and Roger Nellans, senior. Jerry Lackey was chosen to represent the school at Hoosier Boys State.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Moore, R. 2, Akron, are the parents of a son, Norman Moore, Jr.

Take your problems to Church this week — millions leave them there!

HOW MAY WE GET IN TUNE WITH THIS SCHEME OF THINGS?

There is a fascination in watching a power shovel at work. So awkward appearing yet so graceful and precision-like. Its action might be compared to the movement of the Heavenly bodies. Here too we have split-second precision. As we observe the giant and marvelous Universe machine we may ask "what is the source of power that makes it function so perfectly? Who controls it all?" When we try to answer these questions, this much we do know, that we each have a part to play in this overall pattern.

How may we place ourselves in harmony with the power that created and operates this Universe? We don't know all the answers but we do know that living in harmony and cooperating with one another is a step forward -- that we have an institution to help us gain this goal -- the Church of each person's choice. More and more people are putting themselves in tune with this scheme of things by attending church. If you are not now attending regularly why not give it a trial?

Practice Starts for 54th Annual "500"

The championship cars are running again at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway in preparation for the 54th annual 500-mile race on May 30.

More than 20 rookies are engaged in the required driver's test program, striving to become eligible for an opportunity to earn a "500" starting position for the first time this year, and the veterans are working up toward qualifying speed with each succeeding day.

The entry list closed on April 15 with an 84-car field, the same size as a year ago, but only the fastest 33 qualifiers will be in the lineup behind the Oldsmobile 4-2 pace car on Race Day; and most of the contestants expect to be on the track daily for practice and "tune-up" laps.

A. J. Foyt, seeking an unprecedented fourth "500" victory, heads the list of USAC veterans. Bobby Unser and Mario Andretti, who led the field home in 1968 and 1969, respectively, are the other two former winners entered. Andretti, incidentally, set the present race record of 156.867 miles an hour to win $206,727 of the 1969 prize money which amounted to more than $800,000.

Joe Leonard, who holds the one-lap and four-lap qualification records of 171.953 and 171.559, respectively, is another outstanding veteran and the list also includes such favorites as Lloyd Ruby, Dan Gurney, Gordon Johncock, Mark Donohue, Roger McCluskey, Jim McElreath, Lee Roy Yarbrough, Gary Bettenhausen, Art Pollard, Johnny Rutherford, Mike Mosley, Wally Dallenbach, Mal Kenyon, Denis Hulme, Bill Vukovich, Jim Hurtubise and Al Unser.

Hurtubise was one of the popular entrants who failed to qualify last year, after earning starting positions in eight other "Indy" races, and Unser was sidelined last May because of injuries sustained in a motorcycle accident.

The International flavor will be provided by Hulme and Chris Amon of New Zealand, John Cannon of Canada, Kevin Bartlett of Australia, Carlos Alberto Parrilli of Argentina and two drivers—not yet selected—for cars entered by Jack Brabham of Motor Racing Developments Overseas. Of the five named, only Hulme has driven in one or more previous "Indy" events.

...but how does it compare to XL-45?

When a highly advertised new corn variety comes along, farmers are bound to make the comparison: just how does it stack up against XL-45? The sensational performance of DeKalb Brand XL-45 has made it the most popular single-cross in the country. Farmers have found that short, tough XL-45 thrives at high populations, narrow rows and high fertility. XL-45 has some record for big corn yields.

Mentone Board Changes New Ordinance

Members of the Mentone Town Board met Monday evening to make a correction in Ordinance 184 passed in a special session recently.

The ordinance deals with civil emergencies, authorizing action by the board in an emergency and providing fines up to $500 and imprisonment up to six months upon conviction. Section six of the ordinance was changed to read imprisonment in the county jail instead of the city jail.

Board members were told that the Farmers State Bank had purchased some needed police equipment and also accepted a gift from the estate of the late Dr. F.B. Davison to be used by the board at the Mentone cemetery. The board members will determine its use.

Permission was given to Jerry Secrist, president of the Mentone Youth League, to use the mowing tractor when it is not in use at the cemetery.

Attend Meeting

Velma Bright, Mrs. Paul Bowen, Mrs. Ed Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Ellis and Randall Leininger representing the Akron Carnegie Public Library attended the District Meeting of the Indiana Library Association and Indiana Library Trustee's Assoc. at the Goshen Public Library on Thursday.

Hurt In Crash

Mrs. Ray Riley, Akron, is listed in fair condition at Murphy Medical Center with injuries suffered Sunday morning in a car-truck crash on SR 14 two miles west of Silver Lake. Investigating officers said an auto transport in front of Mrs. Riley slowed for some ducks crossing the road and Mrs. Riley did not see the slow-moving truck ahead because of the sun. She sustained multiple lacerations to her face and chin, multiple bruises and lacerations about her head, a broken right leg and possible chest injuries. Her 1970 Pontiac was a total loss, $4,200. Damage to the truck was set at $175.

D A R Chapters Honor Good Citizens

The Agnes Pruyn Chapman and Anthony Nigo chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution recently honored the winners of the DAR Good Citizen contest and their mothers at a smorgasbord dinner at the Westminster Hotel. The tables were attractively decorated with floral arrangements and floating candles in patriotic colors, red, white and blue.

Mrs. George Nye, Warsaw, and Mrs. Chas. Tucker, Mentone, regents of the hostess chapters, welcomed the guests and Mrs. Curtis Myers gave the invocation.

Following the dinner, Mrs. Nye conducted the opening ritual and led the pledge to the flag. Miss Bertha Bartol read the President General's message that emphasized the importance of making the general public aware of the three objectives of the National Society—historical, educational and patriotic goals. Mrs. H. C. Yeager gave the national defense report.

The Good Citizen contest chairmen for the two chapters, Mrs. Paul Shireman, for the Mentone chapter, and Mrs. G. R. Collins for the Warsaw chapter, introduced the senior girls from four high schools in the county and presented them with their Good Citizen certificates and copies of the book in Washington.

Winners of the certificates were Brenda Dawn Snyder, Warsaw Community High School; Amy Lynn Coy, Wawasee High School; Elaine Kessie, Pierceton High School, and Jane Ettinger, Mentone High School, who was also the Kosciusko Co. winner and who competed in the state contest.

The DAR conducts this annual nationwide contest, open to girls in the senior classes of accredited public and private high schools who possess to an outstanding degree, the qualities of dependability, leadership, service and patriotism.

Mrs. Ray Webster, Goshen, guest speaker, was introduced by Mrs. Tucker. She gave an interesting talk, "Ramblin' 'Bout Indiana" while using the art medium of chalk to express a beautiful moonlight scene of a covered bridge spanning a winding river, a site representative of the Hoosier state.

During her talk, Mrs. Webster gave a brief and colorful account of the beginning of Indiana and followed its history and growth to the present. Indiana has produced its share of great men, including statesmen, authors, composers, inventors and astronauts. She concluded the program with the singing of a favorite Hoosier song, "On The Banks of the Wabash."

Our whole social life is in essence but a long, slow striving for the victory of justice over force.

KEEPING CURRENT

homeowners can take a lesson from business. As they admire the dramatic play of electric lights on foliage and walls of new office buildings, they ask: "Why can't this be done at home?"

IT CAN. And you'll reap benefits from outdoor lighting besides having a house that is even handsomer after dark than during the day. Strategically placed lights make it easier to find the way up paths and steps. Floods put family basketball and badminton games under the lights. Low lamps planted in the garden create views to be enjoyed from both inside and outside the house. Dining alfresco is anything but makeshift if the patio is lit and there are outlets for an electric grill and portable appliances.

planning outdoor lighting is so new to most homeowners that they generally welcome experienced help. Public Service Indiana's Electric Living Consultants are happy to give it. If you'd like some enlightening ideas, call your local Public Service Indiana office. A consultant will be glad to call on you without obligation.

OUTDOOR electrical lighting has its own language. Here's a quick glossary:

up lights:

Send light upward to create shadows and highlights on trees, statuary, walls, fences.

down lights:

Fixture directs light down for accent, to flood game court or mark a path.

mushroom:

A form of down light with a low, wide shade that distributes light close to the ground without glare.

profile lights:

The light shines through the sides of decorative fixtures that are particularly good at marking paths and steps.

Future Citizen Pictures To Be Taken

For several years the NEWS has run a pictorial feature of the youngsters of this area as "Citizens of Tomorrow". In the near future we will again publish free a picture of all the children who are brought by their parents or other guardian to the Mentone town hall between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Friday, May 15, or to the Akron Lions Den from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, May 16.

A children's photographer will take the pictures in color and it is recommended that the children be dressed colorfully to take full advantage of the color. The pictures will run in black and white in the newspaper.

There is no cost or obligation to the parents. If they desire to purchase pictures, they must do so. The pictures will be shown this year instead of the proofs.

Appointments may be made by calling Mrs. Howard Allen, Mentone 353-4855 or Mrs. Kenneth Hartzler, Akron 893-4044. Mrs. Allen will be able to make evening appointments for the children who attend school.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The publishers of this newspaper do not necessarily agree with the opinions expressed in this column but do heartily agree with the right to express them.

Principle Purpose

To The Editor:

As a fairly recent graduate of Mentone High School I have been very interested in current developments in the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation. The election is now over, and as I am living in Indianapolis while completing my second year of undergraduate studies, I do not know who won the race for school board representatives, although knowing the general political climate of the area I can make a calculated guess.

I have always taken for granted that the principle purpose of the first twelve years of school was to educate students for the future; specifically, the first few years after graduation when one has little experience to draw upon. I find myself joined by no less an authority than the Indiana School Board's Association, who state in their Code of Ethics, as printed in the April 30th edition of the News, that a school board member should think "always in terms of 'children first.'" However, after reading some of the recent letters to the editor, I find that the people do not think of education and children first unless (a) it does not cost anything (b) it is convenient for the adults, and (c) it does not upset the status quo.

As I stated above, the first 12 years of school should prepare one for the immediate future. In my own case, and I imagine for many others, this education was woefully inadequate. This was not because I did not take advantage of what was offered, for I graduated third in my class, but simply because what was offered was not sufficient. This is not a problem just for Mentone. In talking to students from other small schools I find that they also suffer.

When a graduate from a small school continues his education he finds himself competing with people who have had four years of foreign language, done independent study, taken honors English classes and perhaps two or three years of biology. A small school cannot offer its students this wide range of studies because it does not have enough pupils to make it worthwhile.

Let me cite an example to illustrate my point. To my knowledge, Mentone students now have access to one foreign language—Spanish. Most colleges are presently de-emphasizing Spanish because many graduate schools no longer accept it in fulfillment of the foreign language requirement. So when a graduate of Mentone goes to college he may find himself studying a language he's had no exposure to and at the same time competing with students who have studies it for two years in high school. Certainly Spanish should be offered in high school, but students deserve a choice.

The only way TVSC can give its students the education they deserve is to combine the two high schools. I personally do not care whether it is in Akron, Mentone, or in between. I realize that it will cost some money and be inconvenient, but mankind has been blessed with a fruitful imagination, and surely if the people really want a good education for their children they can put their heads together and come up with a plan that does not put too much strain on the pocketbook.

I know I have dwelt, only of the effects of a small school on those who continue their education, but I am sure vocational students have the same problems. Many schools now have programs whereby students graduate ready to go right into their chosen work without further training. I have been told that Mentone can do this for secretarial students, but not everybody wants to be a secretary. Some schools now offer everything from computer programming to leather work. TVSC cannot go to this length, perhaps, but certainly more students would enable a wider vocational program to be put into effect.

Basically, what I am trying to point out is this: if there are only four or five students who would like to take a certain course the corporation cannot offer it to them, whether they need it or not for their education, because they will lose money by doing so. But if there were a larger number of students desiring this class it could be offered. I know this is true because we had this problem when I was in school.

It has been pointed out that a small school allows for better teacher-student relations and is certainly true, but even if TVSC adopts one high school it will have only about 700 students, which is hardly so big as to become impersonal.

Some of the candidates for the school board emphasized acquiring good teachers. I hope they practice what they preach. When I was home on vacation this year, I found that there were very few teachers left whom I knew. This surprised me, since I graduated in 1968. I subsequently learned that many of the teachers from the 1968-69 school year had also left. A large turnover in teachers is a sign that something is not right and perhaps TVSC should investigate and find out what it is. Good teachers are not a dime a dozen and I should think that the school board would want to hang on to those it has.

Since I'm talking about good teachers, may I point out that my second semester English literature class my senior year was taught by the basketball coach. I have nothing against basketball coaches, but they are not qualified to teach English Lit., and I found myself reading THE DIRTY DOZEN when I should have been studying William Shakespeare, Thomas Hardy and Joseph Conrad.

There has also been some emphasis during this campaign on providing good equipment for the schools. This attitude is certainly admirable, but equipment does no one any good unless it is used. There is speed reading equipment in Mentone, which I assume is rather expensive, and to my knowledge it was never used during my four years in high school. If it was utilized, it was for a few remedial students. Students who wished to improve their reading rate were given no chance to use it.

I'm afraid the last part of this letter has tended to lean toward personal reminiscences, but I hope they served to point out some of the flaws in the school system.

Since I've been away I've been able to look at things at home with more objectivity and a more experienced eye. When I'm home I talk to students and I know they are progressively growing more unhappy. Knowledge and education are changing rapidly. We cannot stay in the comfortable past. Change is not easy, but it must come. If the people of TVSC turn over a new leaf and put their children's education first instead of squabbling about a longer bus ride, I congratulate them, but if things remain the same I can only offer my condolences.

Sincerely,
Pam Abbey

We were shocked hearing of the tragic death of the son of Dr. and Mrs. T. Gerald Jones of Ft. Wayne, a minister for many years in the Methodist Church.

The parents were fine people, warm, friendly and congenial, very understanding.

I speak from personal experience, not elaborating on the thoughts of others.

Respectfully,
The W. E. Fowlers.

An Editorial

No Substitute For Work

A brief news item may help explain why it is so difficult to obtain repairs on a car or home appliance. It says this country needs 50,000 more auto mechanics each year, but the actual net increase is only about 16,400. The figures are taken from findings of the U.S. Department of Labor. Another news report notes that college students with the highest academic degree—doctor of philosophy—are among the hardest hit by the shrinking job market. Demand for college graduates in many fields is declining, and one college placement official observes, "... young people are going to have to work a little bit harder..."

After the millennium of a college education for everyone has been reached, the old virtues of willingness to work and common sense will reassert themselves, and those who possess them in the greatest measure will find opportunities on every side—including the repairing of automobiles.

The Lodge of Masons, of Mentone, put up a mighty nice Masonic entertainment last Sunday afternoon. They secured a Mr. Alberti, an Italian by birth, as the man to give the lecture. The Masonic brethren of Mentone live in peace and harmony, are energetic and enterprising and have the appearance of using their masonry every day in their dealings with one another and their associations with the rest of the human family. They have an elegant hall, reception room and banquet hall adjacent, provided for them by that prince of good fellows, Elmer Eddinger.

Trustee Whitcomb has finished the enumeration of the school children in Henry township and comes up smilingly with a count of 875, which is a gain of 23 over the count of last year and a decided gain over any other previous count.

You can always tell a young husband from an old one by the way he acts in the garden. Three months married, he digs, whistles, smiles and casts covert glances at the house, as though someone was looking at him from the window. One year married, he digs, smiles at turns and seems to be annoyed at breakfast being late. Two years married, he digs a little, looks sour and glum, kicks the dog and cat and looks toward the house as though, he would like to choke somebody. Three years married, he sits on the door step and smokes while his wife does the digging.

On every hand and in every phase of life there is an amazing indifference on the part of parents to the doing and associations of their young. Children come and go, by day and in the evenings, much as they please. For this reason a good many of them go to destruction. There is no sadder or more ominous spectacle in American life today than the neglect of parental duty, the failure to control and direct aright the childish mind, the practical abandonment of children to their own wayward impulses.

OMBUDSMAN is a Scandinavian word meaning one who listens to and acts upon the suggestions of customers.

As your OMBUDSMAN, I am concerned about you. If you have something you want to tell us about your gas or electric service, I want to know about it. I'm anxious to make our service the best that's humanly possible. If by chance you have a complaint, I want to know that, too.

Just call your local NIPSCO office and ask for your OMBUDSMAN. In Warsaw, that's me, and my telephone number is 267-8121.

Sincerely,

Rural Society Problems

Someone asked a successful farmer how he liked the trend to large scale farming. "The farming is all right," he replied, "but there is hardly anybody to talk to when I drive into town on Friday night."

Machinery can be substituted for people on the modern farm. But there is no substitute for people in the make-up of a community.

That's the problem facing us in the next 10 or 20 years. Today, for the first time in a generation, city people are talking about how they are getting fed up with the traffic and bad air and wondering how they can get back to the country.

What will it take to stop migration to the metropolitan areas and, hopefully, encourage people who want to return to the country?

Jobs, of course. We know that those jobs will not be on the farm because farming has changed permanently. The fact that a farmer today can turn out eight times as many goods as his grandfather makes it clear there will be fewer farmers.

WHAT WE NEED is a movement of industry, business, government and other services into the countryside. But every little town can't expect to get a factory, office building or research laboratory.

What is needed is for villages, towns, and small cities to get together and cooperate in the development of natural economic areas of several counties. The natural boundaries of such a new and larger community would be fixed by an hour's drive to work.

Jobs are necessary to hold young people and to stop the migration of families who are giving up farming. Jobs are even desirable for active farmers. Full-time farmers cannot have a full set of community services unless there are nonfarm people to help support them.

Furthermore, farmers, their wives, and children may at times want some work off the farm. The time is soon here when all small farmers and even some grain farmers with good-sized operations will be moon lighting. The two-pay-check family is becoming an American way of life. Farmers' wives are really not different from wives living in town. They like to work and they like the extra income.

GOOD SCHOOLS are an absolute necessity for the rural community of the future. Unless there are good schools, young parents will not stay. Unless the schools turn out educated and trained people to work in factories and service enterprises, these businesses will not stay.

Churches, recreational facilities, and transportation are equally necessary. These add up to livability in a community. Educated, ambitious young families insist on this livability, and industries that are considering moving into the countryside know they must have it or they cannot hold good help.

Anyway you slice it, the quality of livability in a community adds up to high taxes. An old idea that is being thoroughly discredited is that factories are hunting for communities with low taxes. Industry has learned they cannot keep good employees, especially employees in management and research, in a community with poor schools and services.

ONE OF THE FATAL mistakes often made by small communities looking for industry is to stress low taxes or to insure lower taxes for the future by skipping on community development.

It would be far better to work hard toward shifting the tax base away from real estate to other kinds of levies. Better this than getting along without the things that are absolutely necessary to keep the community growing instead of shrinking. In this search farmers can expect to get real help from the nonfarm resident who is living in a small town or on an acreage in the country.

During the next 10 years, most rural communities will be deciding whether they will grow and live, or shrink and die. Farmers have a real stake in this decision. Farmers should join with townspeople to figure the best way to keep their own community on the map.

Fire Destroys Hoffman Home

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hoffman, R. 1, Claypool, was heavily damaged by fire Tuesday night. It is thought lightning struck the house and garage. The garage was completely destroyed along with the family car.

Fire departments from Mentone and Burket were summoned and firemen were able to prevent the fire from spreading to surrounding buildings.

It seems that every year it takes less time to fly across the ocean and longer to drive to work.

Woodlawn Hospital Sets Open House

The week of May 10 to 16 is Hospital Week and Donald Logue, administrator of Woodlawn Hospital, Rochester, has extended an invitation to the public to attend open house on Sunday, May 17, from 2 to 4 p.m.

During the past year, Inhalation Therapy and Physical Therapy have been added, and a new laboratory has been added to the hospital.

Medical Diagnostic Services, Clinical Laboratory was formerly known as the Woodlawn Hospital Laboratory and is located in newly remodeled facilities downstairs in Woodlawn hospital.

In May, 1967, Milton W. Roggenkamp, M.D. and Paul W. Elliott, M.D., specialists in Pathology and Laboratory Medicine, took over the pathology practice of Clarence Cobb, M.D. at Woodlawn. Since that time, Thomas A. Randell, M.D. and David Alstott, M.D. have joined Drs. Roggenkamp and Elliott in their specialty practice. All are certified by the American Board of Pathology in Pathologic Anatomy and Clinical Pathology. Dr. Roggenkamp and his associates also maintain laboratories in Logansport and Lafayette and on Nov. 1, 1969 assumed complete responsibility of this laboratory.

While Medical Diagnostic Laboratory is located in Woodlawn Hospital and remains an integral part of the care provided to hospital patients, it is a separate unit and the services rendered are not included in the patients hospital bill, but separate statements are sent to the patient by the Medical Diagnostic Services. Complete inpatient and out-patient laboratory services are available.

Entrance is at the southwest corner of the hospital and down the stairs.

The newest service is the Inhalation Therapy Department, which is responsible for all I.P. T.D. treatments and Oxygen Therapy. This department is under the supervision of Mr. Chas. Rheinheimer with Mr. Armand O. Posa as therapist and Robert Kuyoth as his assistant.

Members of the Woodlawn Hospital Auxiliary will act as guides through the hospital and will serve refreshments in the dining room.

Thank You

To the voters of Fulton County, I wish to extend my sincere thanks for your support in the Primary.

LETTERS to EDITOR

Congratulations

Dear Editor:

We would like to congratulate the Corner Drugs for their new store. It's heart warming to see such a community improvement and an interest in giving our youth a meeting place for a snack in the evening.

Best wishes to the new owners.

Sincerely,
Mentone Reading Club

Won't Do

Ted Lewis, Akron, passes along this gem of wisdom:

Generalities won't do an effective selling job. Remember the lonely maiden who advertised her desire for more warmth and light in life and received three replies, two from electric companies and one from the gas company.

MOUNTAIN VIEW, ARK., LEADER: "We have only to look at the day's headlines to see signs of how disaffected much of our youth has become. But it seems worthwhile, even so, to ask ourselves whether or not we have made a hard, genuine attempt to involve them in a real comprehension of the American system. We cannot lay all the blame on the youngsters. We need to kindle their interest. Responsible participation will follow."

WE SALUTE OUR HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

A GREAT DAY- A GREAT MEMORY- A GREAT FUTURE- CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF '70 AND GOOD LUCK...

If There Must Be A Manifesto

This is the era of the manifesto, the ultimatum, and protest, the demand for reparation. Young Negroes want us to expiate slavery; young Indians want us to atone for the Manhattan Island swindle; young whites want us to pay for all other sins--our own and our fathers'--not included in the foregoing categories.

Since it is the fashion now to collect for ills and hardships suffered in the past, perhaps those Americans who came to maturity during the Great Depression and now range in age from 48 to 58--the people who are usually on the receiving end of today's protests--should announce their own manifesto.

Dumped inauspiciously in between the Lost Generation and the Beat Generation, they were the generation of the hungry and forgotten. And the frustrated--for besides not having enough to eat, they did not have enough money to buy airplane tickets and bus tickets to to distant places to protest their condition.

Their right to disrupt college campuses was impaired by the necessity of spending their spare time working in order to pay for tuition, books and dormitory space. After four years of college, if they indeed managed to make it all the way through, few could afford the luxury of attending graduate school; their right to postpone reality was harshly crushed by the exigencies of making a living.

They marched the streets--hunting for work. And no telling what would have happened to millions of them if war hadn't come along and plucked them from the streets and put them into military training camps.

After the war, they finally got their big break. They found jobs and became the middle class, whose principal privileges are those of paying the bulk of the nation's taxes and buying the jet airplane tickets for sons and daughters who travel distant places to protest.

It is time, we think, for the forgotten generation, 25 million strong, to point to the difficulties of the past and to confront American society with a demand for reparations. The payment would have to be a token, of course, for there isn't enough gold in Fort Knox to pay for all those missed meals.

But a little sum of, say $500 million--about what James Forman originally asked churches and synagogues to pay in atonement for racism--would be a suitable symbolic sentiment. It would provide each member of the forgotten generation at least enough to make a down payment on dentures, eyeglasses or hearing aids--which they can ill afford to buy after paying today's high tuition for the angry young collegian.

NOTE: The above article was clipped from the Indian DeMolay paper and sent us by a reader, Norman Moore.

OKABENA, MINN., PRESS: "Americans did things in a big way last year--we smoked 550 billion cigarettes, chewed six billion aspirins, used more than one trillion safety pins, ate more than three billion quarts of ice cream, mailed three billion Christmas cards and drove an estimated 800 billion miles in just going places and doing things. You can't say there are any halfway measures in this country."

An Editorial

By Coincidence

In May of 1919, at Dusseldorf, Germany, the Allied Forces obtained a copy of some of the "Communist Rules for Revolution." Nearly 50 years later the Reds are still following the rules. As you read the first-stop after each item and think about the present day situation where you live and all around the nation. We quote from the Red Rules:

A. Corrupt the young: Get them away from religion. Get them interested in sex. Make them superficial, destroy their ruggedness.

B. Get control of all means of publicity.

1. Get people's minds off their government by focusing their attention on sexy books and plays and other trivialities.

2. Divide the people into hostile groups by constantly harping on controversial matters of no importance.

e. Destroy the people's faith in their natural leaders by holding the latter up to contempt and ridicule.

4. Always preach true democracy, but seize power as fast and as ruthlessly as possible.

5. Encourage government extravagance, destroy its credit, produce fear of inflation with rising prices and general discontent.

6. Forment unnecessary strikes in vital industries, encourage civil disorders and foster a lenient and soft attitude on the part of government toward such disorders.

7. By specious argument, cause the breakdown of moral virtues, honesty, sobriety, continence and faith in the pledged word.

C. Cause the registration of all firearms on some pretext, with a view to confiscating them and leaving the population helpless.

Quite a list, but stop and think how many of these rules are being carried out in this nation today? How can any thinking person truthfully say that the Communists do not have any part in the chaos that is upsetting our nation?

COINCIDENCE? We think not.

Messrs. Thompson & Miller built a neat and very large old fashioned bake-oven this week for McGlennen in the basement of the Akron News building. It will be ready for use in a few days and Mr. McGlennen comes here with an established record as a good baker of bread at Silver Lake. He has his restaurant all fitted upon the first floor and it is one of the most attractive and best lighted rooms in town.

Sol Allman, the Rochester clothier, Kline Shore the politician and Fred Robbins, the famous autoist, all were in Akron Wednesday morning. They asked us how many trolley cars run through Akron daily on the Winona, and when we told them that twenty-two cars went through Akron daily, then them fellers wouldn't talk any more.

Take your problems to Church this week -

Faith Is The Key

Has this little Miss assumed this haughty pose for the benefit of our photographer or is she asleep while sitting upright? You may draw your own conclusions. But children can sleep in most any position, can't they?

Yes, a child sleeps peacefully, usually without dreams. No doubtful wondering about the day that has just passed—it has been filled with adventure and fun. Tomorrow will be something to look forward to and there is nothing to cause nightmares because there are no fears to kindle them.

The unknown future doesn't worry children but apprehension about the morrow often disturbs the sleep as we grow older. By what secret power may one face tomorrow as does the child—tranquil and unafraid?

The answer is BY FAITH.

One can find faith in the church and with faith one can face whatever tomorrow holds unafraid.

Nun Works With Church Council

One of the "new" nuns, Sister Ann Patrick Ware, S.L., a cousin of Mrs. Anne Mizgalski, Akron, is the first Roman Catholic sister to be elected to the permanent staff of the National Council of Churches. An ecumenical pioneer, Sister Ann Patrick believes that Christian unity is not only possible but is the goal toward which all Christians should work.

She assumes her duties on the staff with many credentials to her credit from her studies and degrees from several colleges and seminaries. For eight years she was chairman of the department of theology at Webster College, Webster Grove, Mo., from which she graduated in 1940.

Prior to coming to the National Council of Churches, she was assistant professor of religion at the University of North Dakota, which was unique for a Roman Catholic sister to be named to a state supported school.

MENTONE-AKRON NEWS

are next month's brides being married in the Year of the Electric Fondue Pot? Or the Year of the Blender? Annually there seems to be one appliance most brides receive. The bride's mother was probably married in the Year of the Toaster, her older sister in the Year of the Electric Fry Pan.

the young-married's kind of informal entertaining is a perfect setting for serving fondue. In addition to cheese, try beef fondue—if your pot is metal with sides that slope inward to control spatters. Adding a lump of sugar further tames the hot oil that guests need to cook their chunks of beef.

LUCKY is the bride who has an electric blender from the start of her cooking career. Using it will seem the natural way to tackle such tasks as mixing, grating, chopping. Do yourself a favor: Keep it right out on the kitchen counter where it will be on hand for mixing the morning frozen orange juice, crumbling bread for meat loaf and chopping cabbage for slaw.

when you select an electric appliance as a wedding gift, think of the couple's future. They'll be depending on that toaster or fry pan or mixer for the next 10 or 15 years during the budget-straining child raising and career building years. Quality appliances will go the route.

consider, too, how changing ways of life and new products will make demands on appliances. New frozen or packaged baked goods to be heated in a toaster are continually being introduced. A toaster with a slot wide and long enough to take them makes sense. More blender recipes call for a precise time and speed so pick one that will perform. There may come the day when the bride will move into a home before the range does. With such things as an electric tea kettle and electric fry pans, she'll be able to manage nicely.

Building Trades House Completed, Open House Set

Open house at the house built by the TVSC building trades classes this year will be held Saturday, May 23, from 12 noon until 8 p.m. and on Sunday, May 24, from noon until 5 p.m.

The house was built at the Saner addition in Akron by building trades students from both Akron and Mentone high schools under the direction of Raymond Pontius.

This is the second year of this building program. It was launched because the school board felt building a house is a means by which boys in the junior and senior years of high school can gain practical, pre-apprenticeship experience to help them make an advantageous entry into one of the various building trades as a career.

The single floor house is built with a crawl space and is completely electric. Completely modern throughout, the house meets the requirements of Public Service Indiana for a Gold Medal Home. The house contains three bedrooms, bath, living area, hall, utility room, kitchen, six clothes and storage closets.

The building trades students did more of the work on this house than on the two built last year when outside labor had to be hired to complete the houses.

Mailbox Improvement Week

This week, May 18--23, has been designated as Mailbox Improvement Week to call attention to the need for providing mail receptacles which are designed to protect the mail from the weather and which are neat in appearance, conveniently located and safe to use.

Neat, attractive mailboxes make a significant contribution to the appearance of the counties and towns, say Akron postmaster Otto Groninger and Mentone postmaster Kenneth Romine, noting that mailboxes that meet the four basic requirements contributed to a more efficient delivery operation and the result is an improved service to the entire route.

Two styles of boxes are approved by the Postal Department, one in a traditional arch design that comes in three standard sizes, and also a contemporary styled box.

Deaf Man Designs Tiny Hearing Aid

OFFERS FREE MODEL

A remarkable tiny hearing aid has been perfected by a man who has been hard of hearing for nearly ten years.

This small device has no dangling cords or separate transmitting units and represents a new unusual design idea in a product to restore natural hearing.

It was developed especially for those persons who can hear but can't understand. This new hearing instrument provides "ear-level" hearing with the wearer picking up speech, sounds, television and radio at his ear. Due to the use of transistors, the user cost is extremely low.

A true life actual size replica of one of the smallest all-in-the-ear hearing aid ever made will be given absolutely free to anyone sending in this advertisement while supply lasts. So we suggest you write for yours now. No obligation whatsoever. Write to A. J. Wilder, 809 Steuben St., Wausau, Wis. 54401. (Adv.)

Mrs. Waechter Honored By AHS

Mrs. Dean Rager, her daughter, and Krista McKinney, her granddaughter.

Pike Lbr. Co. Would Donate Land To Town

The Future Teachers Association of Akron High School presented a special appreciation day program Monday in honor of Mrs. Grace Waechter, who is retiring this year after having taught for 34 years.

Mrs. Waechter, a Latin, English and mathematics teacher, was escorted to a place of honor in the gym while receiving a standing ovation from the student body.

She was presented a corsage by Brenda Loer, and a short "This Is Your Life" skit was presented by three FTA members. Margaret Hill told of her early childhood up to and including high school. Diane Weaver unfolded past events in her college and family life, and Lisa Lewis related her teaching experiences. Roy Meredith, assistant superintendent of schools, also told of some of the facts relating to Mrs. Waechter's life. Greg Leininger introduced and dismissed the program.

Forst Dunnuck, the FTA sponsor, directed the audience to cookies and Cokes furnished by the FTA. Also assisting were Miss Janet Besson who helped arrange the program, and the art department who made tags saying "Mrs. Waechter Appreciation Day" for the students to wear.

Joining in the celebration were her husband, Walter Waechter;

At the May 14th Akron Community Open Information Meeting sponsored by Howard Utter, president of Pike Lumber Co. Inc., Akron, it was pointed out that those advocates of the present plan had been of the opinion that the ground the town already owns and has paid for is not suited to location of a self-contained sewage treatment plant from the standpoint of good engineering.

After this discussion, Mr. Utter announced that should the ground the town already owns not be adequate or suited for such a use, a contract would be entered into with the board, if they so desire, deeding free of charge suitable and adequate land for such a purpose, providing the Board actively pursues the plans for the installation of a self-contained sewage treatment plant utilizing dual sewers and adequate for the present needs and future growth of the community.

Time Trials Continue for "Indy" 500

Indianapolis 500-mile race officials are preparing for a busy week-end of track action on Saturday and Sunday with the continuation of time trials to determine starting positions in the 54th annual international event on May 30.

The field behind the Oldsmobile 4-4-2 pace car will be limited to the fastest 33 cars and drivers; and the usual last-day "scramble" is expected as late qualifiers attempt to "bump" earlier qualifiers from their tentative positions in the lineup. Saturday's schedule calls for practice beginning at 9 a.m. with time trials from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m. Practice also will start at 9 a.m. on Sunday with time trials from noon until 6 p.m. Admission again will be $2.

After that hour—if 33 cars have qualified—the track will be closed until Race Day except for a brief final practice session, which will not be open to the general public, on a day not yet selected.

Last May an average speed of 160.851 was good enough for a starting berth, but most members of the racing fraternity believe that anything under 162.5 will be too slow this year.

Much of the interest this week-end will be centered on the unusually large number of "rookie" contenders who have been showing steady improvement in practice since passing their required driver's tests earlier this month.

A few of the veterans, who came to the track this year without a firm commitment to drive a particular car, also will be "shopping for a ride" during the brief time remaining prior to the 6 p.m. deadline Sunday.

How would you like to see your footprints on the moon? ask the librarians at the Bell Memorial Library.

The club starts June 1 and will run until July 25.

Plans for the Clean-Sweep campaign in Akron were outlined.

Death Defying Auto Loop-the-Loop

This lithograph illustrates an ingenious mechanical device that thrilled the circus-going public in 1907. It was invented by Fred Gregg of Plymouth, Wisconsin. The intricate engineering built into the equipment was so delicate that the weight of each rider had to be checked before each performance. Ballast was added or removed to keep the equipment operationally perfect and precise.

Gregg toured this country for years with his famous rig. It was last seen on Aut Svensson's Thrillride. Swenson has now presented the equipment to the Circus World Museum in Baraboo, Wisconsin where an actual demonstration of "cars passing in mid air" is performed twice daily.

An OPEN LETTER to the Akron Community

We present the following questions to the Akron Town Board, the State Board of Health, Stream Pollution Board and Engineer:

1. What did you estimate the cost of extending the Sewage System you have planned to all property owners?
2. What do you estimate the cost of adding the omissions in your present plans, and when would the omissions be added?
3. Is the present Sewage Plan intended to meet the minimum requirements of the community's needs for growth and sanitation requirements (to get us off the hook), or is it designed for community long-range growth, and, if growth, what size growth?
4. Do the State Health Department, Stream Pollution Board, Town Board, and engineers believe that the proposed system will meet the criteria of the Federal and State standards now set for 1972 which the State Health Department and Stream Pollution Board will be enforcing?
5. Has the Board provided insurance for the town in the event we are sued for damages for sanitation and pollution violation and property damage resulting from our action?
6. Why did the estimated $234,000 lagoon-combination sewer plan by Phelps Engineering (in their report to the Town Board) become $416,000 four years later?
7. Where do we go with our drainage water if the drains are closed?
- 7A. How does the Board plan to pay for a storm sewer?
8. Which street drains will be open and which closed?
9. In your judgment, will the sand and calcium chloride from the State Highways washing down our sewers damage the machinery in your present sewage system plans in the event you leave sewer manholes open for drainage?
10. What amount of government grant do the Board, engineers, and accountants estimate available?
11. Does the Board believe that if we were to withdraw our obligation for a Federal grant at this time that we could not re-apply and get one later?
12. Why does the Board not wish to use land inside the town at no cost for the location of a sewage treatment plan instead of buying the ground, installing pipe and machinery to pump sewage through a half-mile of pipe?
13. Has the Board investigated the combination-sanitary/storm water sewage system (like the one planned for Akron) which Plymouth, Ind. cobbled up by converting their old drainage sewer into a combination sewer?

In a contact with Plymouth officials last week after a heavy rainfall, they stated their dissatisfaction with their system and indicated they were getting the usual calls from irate property owners, complaining of flooded streets and basements with sewage and storm water backed up in them.

Plymouth officials stated that their economy-intended sewer is most unsatisfactory, pollutes their river at times, and will have to be re-done. They welcome Akron to come up and look at it.

At the May 14 open information sewage plan meeting, Messrs. Smith and Kendall, of the Town Board, stated they would not answer questions in that meeting but would hold an open meeting soon and answer these questions at that time.

For this we are grateful and urge all people effected in the Akron Community to attend.

Akron Board Hears Pollution Problem

Open burning at the municipal dump will no longer be allowed, the Akron town board was told at Tuesday night's meeting. Merrill Kendall, clerk-treasurer, read a letter from Perry E. Miller, technical secretary of the Indiana Air Pollution Control Board, that gave the town three weeks to advise the board of its intentions of stopping the burning. The board was also notified that the present outlet for the town's garbage would cease in July.

Howard Utter said he approved the stopping of burning as it represented another form of pollution.

After some discussion of incinerators which would cost approximately $35,000 and landfill which would require a bulldozer and operator, the board decided to wait until they had an opportunity to speak to the county commissioners to find out what the county intends to do about the problem.

Kendall also announced a public informational meeting to be held May 27 at the multi-purpose room of the Akron Grade School.

He noted too that no tax money was available from the county for the June distribution as the county had not received its spring taxes because of the reassessment.

A clean-up day for Akron was set and will be May 28. Kendall urged all organizations in the town to volunteer people and trucks to aid in the clean-up and also asked homeowners to clean up their places.

Some after dinner speakers are so windy they should be called gusts of honor.

Award Winning Party Plans

LOOK TO TEENAGERS FOR GREAT PARTY PLANS

Original entertaining ideas won Janie Fields of Montana a $2,500 scholarship from Kraft Foods and first place in the Hostess Awards contest, one of America's Junior Miss Pageant activities.

Janie's plans for a pre-graduation party began with the theme "Bon Voyage Seniors." A crepe paper deck railing, styrofoam life preservers and a blue paper sky with imitation birds, converted the family rec room into a ship. Miniature nautical flags and confetti scattered about completed her whimsical decor.

Janie's buffet party menu appealed to teenage appetites and, most importantly, was easy enough for a young hostess to prepare.

Bon Voyage Party Menu

Ship Ahoey Fresh-Chilled Fruit Salad	Marinated Tomatoes
French Fried Shrimp a la Diplome	Valedictorian
Maritime Cheese Spuds	Anchor Away Bread Sticks
Aloha Punch	Top Class Sundaes
	Bon Voyage Cupcakes

MARITIME CHEESE SPUDS

Sprinkle with seasonings and 2 tablespoons cheese; dot with 2 tablespoons Parkay margarine. Close foil over potatoes, double folding edges tightly on top and sides. Allow plenty of room for expansion of steam. Bake at 375°, 30 minutes or until tender. Serve piping hot in foil. Sprinkle with additional cheese, if desired.

Help Recruit Teen Gallon Donors

Curt Ousley, president, and Christine Hoffer, treasurer of the National Honor Society at Mentone High School where both are seniors, appeared with Dwight Bechtol, chairman of the Kosciusko Co. Chapter of the American Red Cross, and Inez Devenney, executive director, before the senior classes at Pierceton and Wawasee High Schools to encourage senior high school students who are 18 years of age to donate to the Red Cross blood program. They challenged the students to top the record set recently by Mentone students when 34 out of a possible 40 eligible seniors presented themselves to donate.

Two sections of the Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit Kosciusko Co. on Friday, May 22. One section with six beds will be stationed at Pierceton at the new community building from 12 to 6 p.m. The other section will be at the Milford fire station from 1 until 5 p.m.

Board Hears Requests

Negotiation by teachers and bus drivers occupied most of Monday night's Tippecanoe Valley school board meeting.

Members of the teacher's welfare committee present were Ernest Beacraft, spokesman; Phyllis Gearhart, Marna Riedel, Keith Mathias, Forst Dunnuck, Marion Acton, Bill Davis, Genevieve Nelson, Dave Creighton, and Bob Huffman.

The teachers turned down a previous offer of $6800 for a beginning teacher as offered by the board. The teachers, who had asked that it be raised to $7,800, said, after a discussion period, that they would accept $7,500. The board went into executive session and later announced they would offer $6,900. The teachers, after another caucus, said they would talk to the rest of the teachers.

The extra-curricular section of the salary schedule was approved by both the teachers and the board. Present starting salary is $6,970.

The $6,900 starting salary offered by the board would also include a $100 "across the board" increase for all levels of degree teachers.

Bob Huffman, representing the bus drivers, said the drivers had met and had determined that they would like to have $10.50 per day plus an additional ten cents per mile for each mile over 25 miles. He was told that the hospitalization benefits for the drivers would increase $25 next year. The board went into executive session, returning to vote that the drivers be offered $11 per day with no change in the extra runs and to include the present fringe benefits plus the advance in insurance and with no allowance being made for mileage. Hoffman said he would present this to the drivers.

A motion by Richard Goshert to execute the contracts of the administrators was carried 3-2 with Dr. Donald VanGilder and Ralph Davis voting against it. Davis said he felt the move would be premature as the schedule would change after July 1 when the new board will take office. He said the list did not call for a principal at Akron High School and that two high schools would be maintained this fall by the new board.

In a brief exchange, Goshert reminded Davis that school board members should respect the wishes of their fellow board members and Davis told him he should also observe the rule. Davis replied that he was not refusing to sign the contracts but that just now he did not think he should because it was subject to change, and after the changes were made he would sign.

Other action taken by the board included setting open house for the building trades house at Akron on May 23 and 24 and the sale of the house and the Beaver Dam school ground for June 15.

The name of Wilbert Utter for a bus driver position was submitted.

Dr. Van Gilder moved that the March 16 vote to move grades 10, 11, and 12 from Akron to Mentone be rescinded and the motion was defeated 3-2 with David Burkett, Dr. O.L. McFadden and Richard Goshert voting against it. VanGilder said in making the motion that it was evident the school board policy would change and if it could be done now it would give the superintendent more time to get a better staff. Davis added that if two schools could not be maintained that the new school "probably would not be built in Mentone."

The board approved a summer remedial reading program and a summer shop program that would be 100% reimbursed by the federal government and also approved the programs using local taxes if federal funds were unavailable.

Akron Sets Summer Reading

The Summer Reading Club at the Akron Carnegie Public Library is now in progress. All school age children in the community are invited to participate. The theme of this year's club is "Costumes World Wide." After the child has read two books, he received stickers with pictures of children of the world in their native costumes. Upon the completion of eleven books the child receives a pin and a souvenir of some country of the world.

A party will be given later in the summer for all the children participating in the program.

Savings Stamps Discontinued

All post offices will discontinue the sale of U.S. Savings Stamps after June 30, 1970. The Treasury Department had announced in February that they were ending the sale of these stamps by the end of the fiscal year.

Patrons who have unfilled stamp albums are urged to either complete their albums or redeem them for cash at any post office prior to June 30.

The stamps, ranging in value from 10¢ to $5, were part of the Postal Savings Program prior to 1942 when they "joined" the War Bond Drive.

Mentone's Reading Club Has Space Theme

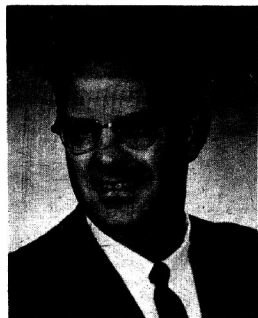

The 1970 Vacation Reading Club at the Bell Memorial Public Library will begin June 1 and end July 25.

The sticker cards this year will feature the astronauts on the moon. Each child participating in the program becomes an American Astronaut as he places the footprint stickers on the moon surface.

Any student entering the second, third, fourth or fifth grades next year is eligible to be a club member.

The library reported 75 club members last year and is hoping for 100 this year.

Smiley To Oppose Kendall For Clerk

Don E. Smiley, Rochester township, will be the Democratic nominee for Fulton county clerk in the November election, opposing Republican Merrill Kendall of Akron.

Smiley's appointment to fill the vacancy on the Democratic county ticket was announced this week by Frederick Rakestraw, party chairman.

Smiley, 51, is making his first political race. A lifetime resident of the Rochester community, he is a graduate of Rochester high school and attended Ventura Junior College in California.

"Mr. B." Retires

Claude Billings, former Akron News publisher who has been adviser of the Statesman, Indiana State University's student paper, for the past three years, is retiring from that post this summer, and was recently honored with a tribute and poem written in his honor by one of his students. The Statesman hailed Mr. B. as a noted newspaperman, newspaper owner and publisher, staunch Republican, high school teacher, rose gardener, the man with the twinkle in his eye, a huge understanding grin and an ever-present helping hand who is always ready to help young people in anyway he can.

Under the direction of Mr. B., the paper grew until it is hoped it will become a daily next year.

Mr. Billings plans to spend time in his newly acquired hobby shop and will remain active with Mrs. Billings in the activities of Parke Co.

library at 8 p.m. June 1. Cash prizes will be given the winners, plus one dollar for each of the participants. There will be three age groups.

Any township resident is eligible to enter.

Fast Field Ready for "500" Saturday

Veteran drivers in cars powered by turbocharged Ford and Offenhauser engines dominate the fast field which is poised for the start of the 54th annual Indianapolis 500-mile race at noon (EDT) Saturday.

It will be the 25th International speed classic under the direction of Speedway President Tony Hulman and most members of the racing fraternity regard this year's event as one of the most wide-open battles of the last decade.

All three front row drivers—including A. J. Foyt, who will be seeking an unprecedented fourth "Indy" victory—averaged better than 170 miles an hour on their official time trials; but they'll be hard pressed by such other former winners as Mario Andretti and Bobby Unser.

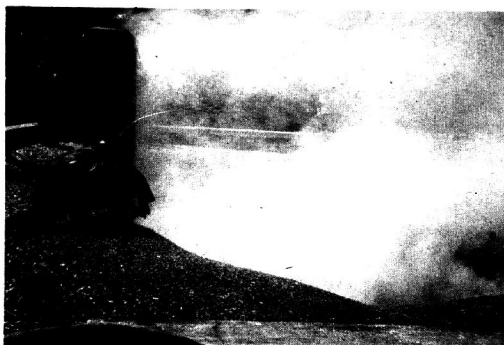

Bobby's younger brother, Al, who missed the 1969 race because of injuries sustained in a motorcycle accident, has turned in the fastest practice times as well as the fastest qualification time; but at least a dozen USAC veterans are rated as strong contenders for the winner's share of a purse which is expected to exceed $800,000.

Andretti, the defending champion, set the present race record of 156.867 miles an hour last year, including time spent in the pits on three stops for fuel.

The rookie contingent this year is headed by NASCAR driver Donnie Allison, Rick Muther and Tony Adamowicz.

All gates to the grounds will be opened at 6 a.m. Saturday and all race fans who have not yet purchased tickets will be welcome at the usual general admission charge of $5.

Pre-race ceremonies will get

As We See It

Dear Editor:

We are constantly reading, hearing it on the radio and television reports of areas in the cities; it is dangerous and unsafe to be outside your home after dark.

In Mentone, it's here already. A few nights past we had a gang fight in our community which also included two school girls in the thick of it. I could say much more about all this and the happenings seven days and nights of the week, a very unfortunate and frustrating situation. Thank you, W.E. Fowler

P.S. Believe me when I say the mosquitoes are traveling in groups, hungry and flying low.

I Was There

by Garrett H. Phillips

Three years pass quickly after they are passed. Mentone, the greatest little town in the world. I was there. We have everything here; good children, good stores, good youth, good preachers, good teachers, good weather, good soil, good school fight, good crops, good doctor, good undertaker, good veterinary, good service stations, good factories, good postoffice, good writers in Mrs. Shetz and Mr. Fowler, good bank, good restaurant, good barbers, good drug store, good churches. good Mentone Day, good dentist, good Youth League, good people back of all these. Also all good things that I could not think of.

I became senior minister of this area and have driven over 100,000 miles visiting sick. Very few persons or families I haven't said a prayer for. I have many friends in all of the churches. God must get quite a chuckle out of the way each church tries to separate from each other. I visited all the revivals, and loved them. When Mentone changes preachers often, it is surprising the fine men who serve the churches. Although the community and the school feel that none of them are big enough to preach the Baccalaureate sermon. This is foolish. Hundreds will rise up to call these ministers blessed in that Great Day.

As long as Mentone votes one party, we will ride like drunken people over Route 25. No party will fix the road when the community will vote for the one party with bad roads.

I have loved the town, the children, the youth, the people. It has been a great pleasure to pick up Adam Cochran and we have become warm friends. The walnuts and flowers he has brought will not be forgotten.

I did not attend all the ball games or the fish fries, I did not have that much money. I did hear the story of the man from Mentone who went up to the Gates of Heaven. St. Peter said, "Put him next to the big spring, he is a fish eater."

My church, The United Methodist, has many faults, and I have come to know their strength, their weakness, their problems, but they are wonderful, everyone of them. I love the United Methodist Church at Mentone. They shall always be in my prayers. I love the children. The Anglin children that helped me so much and often Nancy Ettinger and Doug Jordan, who worked so much. I wish I could have done more for the community. Now as I go to Main Street Church in Muncie, in a changing community downtown, I shall miss you all. I will not come back like the other ministers, but I hope to see you on that bright morning of the tomorrow. God Bless You.

If you need a recommendation, I will be glad to write you one and if any youth get into trouble, look me up. I was there and I was glad.

Garrett H. Phillips

YELLOW SPRINGS, OHIO: Antioch College was back to normal Wednesday after two weeks of tensions that were heightened by a sit-in against the failure of Antioch's Administrative Council to approve one of the student strike's original three demands—that the college contribute $50,000 in institutional funds to the Black Panther Defense Fund. A teach-in on Black Panthers was voted Friday, occupied six hours Monday, and a vote on alternative contributions was held Tuesday.

A Debtor

Rev. Daniel Bengston, minister at the Akron United Methodist Church for many years, will leave the pulpit there for a new appointment, and he wrote the following article relating to his leaving:

The apostle Paul once wrote, "I am Debtor to the Jew and to the Greek" (those on the inside and those on the outside). You name it, Doctors, Dentist, merchants, service garages, barbers, industry, school, individuals, print shop, locker plant, druggists, church people, others... "I am debtor"—the Bible says owe no man anything but love and I confess I owe a lot of love to Akron and its people (and the good bank would remind me, some money). Many thanks to you for your love and kindness to me and mine during our stay with you. We leave Akron extending our blessing to you and commending to you the ever present guidance of the Spirit of God (may the churches prosper getting this message out).

per getting this message out).

In Christ,
Daniel A. Bengston

Campus order

There is no longer any excuse for college authorities, city officials, or the police to allow rioting, vandalism, terrorism or just plain nastiness to continue on the campuses of higher learning. The time for a decisive, definitive, final crackdown on terroristic protest has come. Such activity must be brought to an end. And, there is reason to believe, we feel, if colleges and university officials are not strong and wise enough to do this on their own, the public will do it for them.

College or university, according to the dictionary, means institution of learning of the highest grade. Today it is a place where people kill, destroy buildings, riot and deprive others of a most precious privilege—an education.

There are signs that some colleges and universities are taking a definite stand against those who are rioting and disrupting classes. Among them are Purdue and Indiana Universities where college officials have stated that class will continue despite the efforts of some youths to shut down the schools. But in far, far too many cases youthful destructionists are still being allowed to trample on the rights of the great majority of students and faculty who merely wish to get on with education.

Highly significant is the overwhelming public support for strong and decisive action on behalf of campus order. More than four out of five persons questioned by the Gallup Poll recently believed that students who break laws during demonstrations should be expelled and stripped of federal education loans. And the surprising—and gratifying—thing is that more than seven out of every 10 persons aged 21 to 29 think the same.

This is a powerful public mandate and demand to end once and for all the lawless, destructive permissiveness which has enabled small groups, black and white alike, to terrorize campuses and withhold from the majority its civil right to education. It is also an indication that there are great numbers of Americans who might support strong outside, off-campus intervention wherever a college or university showed itself unable or unwilling to take the needed strong steps to produce lasting order.

Colleges and universities are places to learn—we feel it is high time that the era of weak-kneedness and bootless shilly-shallying on the part of some institutions of higher learning comes to an end.

Scott found a piano customer but the said customer was not anxious enough to make any particular concessions in order to consummate a piano deal, so he offered Scott a pair of horses for a piano. Scott was selling for money because he could run that through the cash box or bank it. But horses seemed like a sticker for him, but rather than to be shelled that way Scott told his customer to bring in his team last Saturday and a deal would be made. Sure enough Saturday the customer came with his team, and besides he came prepared to take out his piano if E. L. Scott would remain game. But E. L. was "Johnny on the spot"—took possession of the team, delivered customer his piano and then turned to the next man and sold the team for cash. That is resourceful and the cash went through the cash-box that evening just the same, and everybody was happy still.

Deaf Man Designs Tiny Hearing Aid

OFFERS FREE MODEL

A remarkable tiny hearing aid has been perfected by a man who has been hard of hearing for nearly ten years.

This small device has no dangling cords or separate transmitting units and represents a new unusual design idea in a product to restore natural hearing.

It was developed especially for those persons who can hear but can't understand. This new hearing instrument provides "ear-level" hearing with the wearer picking up speech, sounds, television and radio at his ear. Due to the use of transistors, the user cost is extremely low.

A true life actual size replica of one of the smallest all-in-the-ear hearing aid ever made will be given absolutely free to anyone sending in this advertisement while supply lasts. So we suggest you write for yours now. No obligation whatsoever. Write to A. J. Wilder, 809 Steuben St., Wausau, Wis. 54401. Adv.

HONORED WITH PARTY

Mrs. Treva Klein, who is retiring this year after many years of teaching, was honored by her fellow teachers Wednesday with a party. Refreshments were served and she was presented with a gift.

Miss Tucker Is Hostess For Anthony Nigo Chapter D A R

Children's Party Treats

Kids are cut-ups, so why shouldn't you be?

Here's a simple, but delicious dessert for children's parties, designed to appeal to young eyes and tummies, but eliminating tedious work that can make any mother feel frustrated when those little hands go to work on the party table, instantly casting elaborate party preparations into shambles.

This recipe lets a mother be a cut-up with a simple devil roll - the latest in ice cream cake rolls - decorated to suit the children's ages and interests. For example, boys of nine to ten might prefer soldiers decorating those masculine chocolate-cake covered slices, while a younger set of five or six might prefer little cars or trucks. For girls, the slices can be feminized for the pre-teen set with dainty pink icing, topped by miniature ballerinas. At the jewelry-conscious age that comes between six and ten, the young ladies might prefer a glittering display of rings and other trinkets from the local five and ten.

CHILDREN'S PARTY TREATS

Cut the devil roll into three even slices. (You can use either plain, frosted or colored sugar-decorated devil roll.) Cut each of the three slices in half, crosswise. Stand slices upright on cut sides on well chilled baking sheet and place in freezer to harden. Top center of rounded curve with a dollop of whipped cream or a ribbon of frosting. Plunge a tiny toy, fancy little candies or cookies into cream and return to freezer until serving time.

NOTE: Sugars may be colored ones or the multi-colored candy decorations used for decorating holiday cookies. Frostings may be whipped cream, creamy white or chocolate frosting, or softened ice cream.

THURSDAY, MAY 28

The Omega Community Club will meet at the home of Emma Burns with Rosemary Hollingsworth and Mary Runkle assisting. Elizabeth Maby is in charge of devotions, and Edith Walls is to have the program. The roll call is a "Tribute to Mother". This meeting will be the Mothers' Tea.

FRIDAY, MAY 29

The Akron L.T.L. will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the library basement.

TUESDAY, JUNE 2

The Martha Class of the United Methodist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Sam Merley at 7:30 p.m.

listening to women about their electric dishwashers, it's easy to see why they are such favorite gifts for a family to give on the day they tell Mother that she's pretty special.

"I've even made loading automatic," reports a mother of five. Everyone, including her burly husband, automatically picks up his dishes after meals, drops the bones and big scraps into the sink and puts the dishes in the waiting dishwasher. Today's dishwashers are equipped to take care of soft food particles—no need for rinsing.

"sure I do my wedding gift china," reports another. "If there is a time I love my dishwasher most, it's after a dinner party. Besides, American manufacturers today produce china and crystal with the idea that it'll probably go in a dishwasher." Some of the new dishwashers have a light-duty cycle that treats party dishes extra gently. With older models use less detergent and cut down on washing time.

"at last I've found an acceptable place to store dirty dishes," is another comment. New top-of-the-line models often have a rinse and hold cycle for partial loads. But old hands with dishwashers have long been successfully letting loads accumulate after scraping off food that might harden. Dishwashers also can be counted on as a place to store clean dishes. A front loader puts dishes on a level that can be reached by a preschooler just learning to set the table.

reducing the spread of germs is another talent of electric dishwashers. Water is used at temperatures (140° to 160°) hands can't stand. When extra health protection is needed, some machines boost temperatures even higher.

some dishwashers are "old soaks" with pots and pans. The load is run through a soaking solution and held for 15 minutes before the regular cycle begins.

Be ready for July and August

Install electric air conditioning now

The "dog days" of July and August are coming. If you don't already have air conditioning, you and your family are in for some hot, sticky days and some pretty miserable nights.

So why not install electric air conditioning now. Don't wait until you've suffered through the worst of the heat, and then risk placing your order when your appliance dealer or heating man is swamped. Order now . . . and assure yourself and your family of getting a good night's sleep all summer.

Install electric air conditioning. It is flameless safe.

IN MEMORY

IN LOVING MEMORY of our dear husband and father, Edith Burton, who passed away July 21, 1969.

God saw you getting weary
He told what he thought best.
He put his arms around you
And whispered, "Come and rest".
The Golden Gate stood open
One year ago today,
You gently left us
You kindly passed away.
