Bell Library celebrates 70th anniversary

This month Bell Memorial Public Library in Mentone is celebrating seventy years of service to the community.

A vast change has taken place in the years since 1916 when library service was begun with a collection of 644 donated books in a small room above the Farmer's State Bank.

In 1918 the library moved to a larger space on the north side of Main Street, and also that year Miss Frances Clark was appointed librarian. In October, 1920 Mrs. Cora VanGilder was named librarian and served in that position for twenty-six years until her death on July 7, 1946. At that time, Mrs. Pearl Lackey took the posi-tion and remained until her retirement in 1973. Since then Mrs. Harold (Madeleine) Fisher has served as librarian.

In 1936 the Board of Trustees purchased a building on the south side of Main Street and the library remained there until 1960 when the present building on North Broadway was built with a bequest to the Town of Mentone from Lawrence D. Bell, aircraft pioneer and native of Mentone, memory of his parents.

In 1971 a one-room addition was added to the back of the building, and in 1980 a handicapped entrance was added for the back parking

During this past year a workroom was added, the flat roof was changed to a hip, and insulation and cedar siding was added to the sides and back. These improvements have been made with funds from the Library Improvement Reserve Fund, a twenty thousand dollar federal grant, and a modest loan which is being repaid from the library's operating budget without a tax levy

Today the library has a collection of over 28,000 books, 600 sound recordings, and over 100 magazine subscriptions. The local newspaper microfilms span from 1885 to the present. A downmicroward-projecting film reader is available for comfortable viewing of these papers.

Bell Library is a member of the Indiana Video Circuit, which sends fifty-six new video tapes bi-monthly, and the library maintains an evergrowing permanent collection of videos for its patrons. The Friends of the Library organization has donated a video tape recorder for patron use, as well as many other popular items around the library.

Special library services include two sessions children's weekly story hours, summer reading club home book delivery, postal delivery of books, and talking book service enrollment.

Among the 28,000 volume collection, which is kept strictly up to date, are: Reference, Arts and Crafts, Biblical, Science, Cookery, Gardening, Medical, Sports, History, Home Repair and Improvement, and a large section on Agriculture. In the reference room with the regular materials one might expect to find there is an Indiana collection and an excellent Genealogy section. The fiction collection includes: Westerns, Mystery Romance. and Detective. Historical, Science Fiction, Fantasy, and the Supernatural. Along with the many books in the children's area are toys, puzzles, and a record player recordings.

Bell is a member of the ALSA organization (Area Library Services Authority) which gives its patrons access to materials from the collections of a wide assortment of special libraries as well as all the public libraries in the state. A special courier delivers these items twice a week to Mentone. Library is also able to offer its payrons reciprocal borrowing cards in order that they may personally visit and items from other libraries

Over the past ten years the library has experienced a sixty-eight percent increase in circulation, and expects an even more impressive total during the next year because of its involvement in the video circuit.

Until 1980 Bell Library was 'town library" funded by the Town of Mentone and held contracts with the townships of Harrison, Franklin, and Seward. At that time, Harrison Township merged with the town to form a new 'town-township library. Bell is presently funded by, and serves, the Town of Mentone and Harrison Township only. Non-residents may purchase yearly cards.

"As you slide down the hanister of life, may the splinters be pointed the right way". This is just one of the many quotes written by Ruby Dawson, Akron. If anyone knows Ruby, he or she would agree this describes Ruby's phylosophy of life. As one of Akron's oldest citizens, Ruby can tell you anything you want to know about Akron's history. At the tender age of 93, Ruby is able to care for herself and her home. Ruby was born in the house that her father built when he moved to Akron. Caring for her flowers in the back yard helps pass some of her time when the weather is nice.

Although Ruby Dawson never had any children of her own, she has helped raise many "youngens" in Akron. She cared for her newborn niece because her sister was not well. With all her own personal responsibilities she also had six different Girl Scout groups and one Brownie group during her lifetime. Many children have played on Ruby's porch and with many dolls she has made. A basket full of toys still awaits any young person who happens to stop and see Ruby.

In her lifetime, Ruby has had a first-hand look at much of our countries history. She had gone from the horse and buggy to the voyages of outerspace by means of her television. So much history and knowledge is held by this lovely lady.

Over the past years, Ruby had kept journals of her family history, as well as some of the history of Akron. She had also written her personal thoughts as well as some poems. Miss Dawson has consented to share her writings with the community. Starting with this issue, the NEWS will begin to publish parts of Ruby's journals. Be sure to look for her column in the paper! It is entitled "Reminiscing with Ruby" will ramble along, some times saying things over Papa was born July 1863 in a log cabbin, as a young man he worked a while on railroad, later in awnill Papa Lought two lots in Akron a long time re he was man ed.

George, Papa's brother got married so George Papa built a house of door know how long George ived there but they had two children when they moved to Detroit, Mich.

Papa and Mama got married Jan. 1st, 1891 and moved in the house; all of us children were born there. It was a square house, a big pantry, two bedrooms, kitchen and dining room in one, a small front room, a stand in the center with a oil lamp, a rocking chair beside it and I can see Nomma in it sewing or reading. when sewing her thimble would be used to tap us on the head if we were doing something we should not.

Also there was a pretty lounge which you could open up into a bed. The bed in the front bedroom to me was beautiful. I remember when Mama bought it from the furniture store - white iron with big (I thought all gold) gold balls on the posts. The carpet was put down over straw to keep the room war. The square kitchen stove where we toasted our bread by putting a fork in slice and sticking in front of coals. Oh, the pumkin seeds on top of stove and when they popped we would take the shell off and eat them, also dried sweet corn.

The old lady and her Civil War husband lived across the street. They seemed to take us under their wing, we called them Grandpa and Gramma Graham The whole lot side of them was in cherrie trees. Gram-pa Graham fell and broke his hip. He also was a fancy carpenter and had a big work shop where his grand daughter, Blanch Wade, and I played. In a big wood sh where we had a play house, oh those little pies Grandmother Graham would make for us.

Father built a nice new wood house and made the celler over and made it round and a wide shelf around it so Mother would have plenty of room for her canned things.

In the fall he would put a barrel in the ground on its side and fill with apples and cover with straw so they would not freeze. He fixed an end so he would dig in and get apples to eat - oh apples, popcorn, taffy and nuts. You went to bed early.

Monday was always a big day ordeal - you washed on Monday rain or shine or cold. If it rained you strung lines in around rooms. "Oh boy."

There were lots of clothes, shirts, overalls, wash rhere were ors or cromes, shirts, overails, wash dresses, big calico aprons, long stockings, and of course lots of longhandled underwear, both "male and female". First tubbed, and 'soaked an' boiled, when they was all wrung out, they had to go out on the outdoor line, even if the weather was zero.

In the good old days with a long clothesline with everything frozen stiff, when it came time to take in the clothes in late afternoon, it was like carrying in a of logs.

These you piled on the big table so they could be wilted down for the next step. Chairs were arranged around the stove and draped with damp clothes to linish drying, which took sometimes all night.

Now you can guess what it's like to go through the kitchen and dining room on a bad winters day when clothes could not finish drying outside.

Can't you just smell the drying of wool socks, etc.

WHY I LIKE AKRON

I really like Akron. It is a really neat town, I love it. It may not be as big as Rochester or as busy as Warsaw, but I like it just the way it is. I hope everyone that lives in Akron feels the same way. It is a very nice little town.

The park is nice and very safe. You never have to worry about you or your kids getting kidnapped or injured, as you would in a big city. It is fun and safe. The park is a great place for a picnic and a great way to spend an afternoon.

BEING A PART OF AKRON

Akron is a great place to live because the town is small. The air is not badly polluted with smog and big factory smoke and fumes like Chicago and San Francisco. The people that you live by are mostly kind and willing to lend a hand when someone is in need. Akron is not a busy town because the factories get off of work at different times. The factories are Wens, Sonoco, Akron Foundry and Pike Lumber. There are: the grocery store, the two drug stores, the dentist, the eve doctor, doctor, two funeral homes, dime store, bank, post office, three beauty salons, police station, furniture store, freezer fresh, three gas stations, fire station, realtors, and hardware store. Akron is a wonderful site.

It's Mushroom Time: Beware

For many Hoosiers, hunting wild mushrooms is like the thrill of finding Easter eggs. It lends an air of mystery and satisfaction. But, for whatever reason people hunt mushrooms, there is danger as in any hunt in the wild.

According to the Indiana State Medical Association (IMA), some mushrooms are poisonous, and only those hunters who are wellacquainted with the fungustype growths can tell the difference.

The most common, edible mushroom is Indiana is the morel. Its texture looks like a sponge and its shape is like a cone. The color of the morel can range from tan to black to a pinkish tone. However, some poisonous mushrooms may look like the edible ones. While there are seven types of mushroom poisoning, two general rules apply: symptoms of poisoning that occur within an eight hour period after consumption are probably not fatal. Symptoms that occur after eight hours may result in death if not treated immediately by a physician. Indications of mushroom polisoning may include: vomiting, bloody diarrhea, dizziness, and hallucinations or disturbance of sleep and

According to the ISMA, any suspected symptoms of poisoning should be brought immediately to a physican's attention. Also, a sample of the type of mushroom ingested should be given to the doctor. This will help to better identify the type of poisoning involved.

It is hard to resist foraging in the great outdoors when the weather turns warm. However, the ISMA urges all mushroom hunters to take a field guide or enroll in a class that will help identify edible mushrooms. Such a simply precaution could save your

Contest set for top egg recipe

Hoosier 4-H'ers have the opportunity to turn their favorite egg recipes into dollars this summer signing up now for the second annual Indiana 4-H Cooking Contest. Egg Scholarships totaling $1,050 will be awarded to contest winners.

Entries are due by June 15, says Andy Rhorer, State Egg Board administrator, who emphasized that each recipe entered must utilize at least one egg per serving. Finals of the contest will be held during the 1986 Indiana State Fair in Indianapolis. Any Indiana 4-H member may enter. There is no entry

The egg cooking contest has two sections: the preliminary recipe contest in which entries compete for top honors in the five Cooperative Extension Service districts. The two top contestants in each district will then vie in the State Fair egg demonstration cook-off for the scholarships.

Rules for the preliminary contest state that the recipe can be for an appetizer, dessert, beverage, salad, main dish, or any other prepared food. All recipe ingredients should familiar and easily available to most people.

Recipes should specify the amounts of ingredients, cooking time and temperature, and number servings. Prepared packaged food items may be used.

There is no limit on the number of entries that can be submitted by an individual 4-H member, Rhorer said. All recipes, however, should be typed on a separate sheet of paper and should contain the member's name, address and phone number. stressed. In the event of duplicate entries, the earlier postmark will determine whose recipe is allowed.

The recipes will be scored for nutritional quality, taste and ease of preparation. Appearance and creativity also count.

Recipes must be submitted by June 15 to the Indiana State Poultry Association Inc., c/o Egg Cook-Off, Purdue University, Science Building, Lafavette, 47907

The top recipes will be demonstrated by the 4-H members at 10 a.m., Aug. 15 at the state fairgrounds.

Wood Broker

John W. York & Associates, a local Akron Hardwood Wood Broker has developed comprehensive management program for the Hardwood Sawmill. It manages the operation from the woodlot to writing the invoice to sell the product. It was written mainly by Douglas York, John's son and other programmers. They have spent more than four man years in writing this program. They have been advertising in Hardwood Lumber and Newspapers and related media and are getting responses from as far away as Canada, Australia Oregon, Vermont, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, New York, Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, to mention programs that could be used by the small to medium sized sawmill. The only programs that were available, were for the large mills who could afford to have programmers write their own private program. These programs would cost from $50,000 and more to have them written Small mills could not afford to spend that kind of money, so they were forced to do without the benefits of the computer. The company is continuing to expand the program so that it will be easily adaptable to suit the various way each mill may run the operation. However, there is a limit to the extent of these changes.

They now program installed in four states and have appoint-The program was written ments to demonstrate it in because there were no several more states.

Tips on Asparagus

Despite the fact that many Indiana farmers are just now getting into the fields for spring planting, the harvest of some crops has already begun, according to Lt. Governor John Mutz.

Early spring is the time to harvest Grown-in-Indiana asparagus and this year's crop will ripen about April 15 and lasts into the month of June," said Mutz, Indiana's commissioner of agriculture. This popular early vegetable's season lasts about six to eight weeks with little asparagus available after the end of June. The Indiana Department of Commerce. Division of Agriculture, would like to remind consumers that there are over 200 acres of commercially cultivated asparagus in Indiana, and at least 14 growers who sell asparagus at roadside markets and u-pick farms throughout the

When buying fresh asparagus, one should look for closed tips and smooth round spears with a dark green color over most of them. The spears and stalks should be tender almost as far down as the green extends. Tips that are open, spread out, moldy or ribbed indicate tough asparagus with poor flavor.

Jack & Jill Nursery School plan registration

1986-87 school year will be held on Tuesday, May 13, from 8:45 a.m. - 11:15 a.m. and on Wednesday, May 14, from 7:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m., at the nursery school, located in the basement of the Mentone United Methodist Church. The non-denominational nursery school is combined effort of the Mentone community and the Mentone United Methodist Church to provide a Christian atmosphere for social, physical, and emotional development of the three and four vear old child.

The three year-olds meet on Mondays and Tuesday from 8:45 a.m. - 11:15 a.m. Classes for the four year-olds are offered both in the morning and afternoon; the morning session is from 8:45 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. and the afternoon session from 12:30 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. The four year-old classes meet on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Class time is spent in both and nonstructured structured play at various activity centers. Some of include puzzles, blocks, paints, a puppet theatre and a housekeeping center. Social skills fostered with the child by learning how to share, pick up toys and materials. and following listening simple directions. A daily lesson, reciting the Pledge of Allegiance, snack time, story and the use of the Weekly Readers are part of the structured classroom time. Emphasis is placed on the child as an individual and preparing the child for kindergarten. Learning the child's address, phone number, colors, numbers 1-10, using paste scissors, and recognizing the alphabet are included in this

Activities such as games, singing, finger-plays, exercise and outdoor play, as weather permits, help develop gross motor skills. Special activities include short field trips and holiday parties for both classes while the four year olds enjoy hosting a Thanksgiving Feast, Easter Breakfast and the year end highlight of graduation, complete with cap and gown. This year the Nursery School Board will be sponsoring a float for the current 3 year-old and any pre-enrolled children to ride on in area parades

Parents play an important role in the Jack and Jill program. Bake sales from the past few years have enabled the nursery school to purchase a child-sized, four piece housekeeping center, a camera and a record player tapeplayer which can be utilized by the entire class or four individual children by using earphones. A part of the money raised has been set aside for a copier fund that hopefully can be purchased within the next few years. Throughout the year parents are encouraged to participate in class outings, parties and coffee klatches with various board members.

Children must be 3 or 4 on or by August 1, 1986 for enrollment and class size is limited. Speech and hearing screening is provided during the school year by the Tippecanoe Valley speech and hearing therapist, Susan Kinney. For more information call: Bev Surface 353-7357, Jackie Leiter 353-7619 or Janice Koch 223-6551

Town awaits results of survey

The first steps toward the Mentone sewage utility were discussed at the Mentone town board meeting.

The board announced it has received more than 275 completed sewage questionnaires, and town attorney Lee Bazini is working on a new sewage ordinance. The questionnaires and the ordinance are needed order for the town to revise its MCP before the May 17 deadline.

The town hired Jo Poquette to survey the town for $1 per house in order to attain the needed information immediately. When the survey is completed, the board will go over the questionnaires, dividing the town into those with on-site absorbency systems and those without.

Those who presently have on-site systems will be required to put a system in if space is available. The town purchase land in order to put in a community cluster absorbency field for those who do not have enough space on their lots. Residents using the cluster will pay a small sewage bill each

The town is not required to

The board also received notice from Rick Phillips, who had recently taken the job of caretaker for the cemetery and park lawns.

The board is presently considering several indivi-duals for the water meter position, although it will be taking applications for the caretaker position during the next month.

Goal Ball coming to Mentone

Jerry Secrist, Girl's Basketball Coach at the Mentone Jr. High, has announced that on Sat., May 17 from 12 p.m. to 5 p.m. there will be four teams playing goal ball at the Mentone Gym.

team from Indiana. Illinois, Michigan and Kentucky will participate in this game.

Several students and teachers at Mentone Jr. High have played this game and have enjoyed it very much. Goal ball is a game that is played on the gym floor. There are three players on each team out on the floor at the same time. They are blind folded so they cannot see anything. Two teams at a time on the floor. String is taped to the floor so the players can feel their way around the gym floor. There is a ball bigger than a basketball with a bell inside it. The bell inside is to let you know where the ball is on the floor at all times. The idea of this game is to roll the ball past the other team without them stopping it.

These four teams are the best four teams in the United States and will play other teams in California in June for the Goal Ball National Championship.

If you want to see a different game than you have ever seen before, come to the Mentone Gym, on May 17. The proceeds will go to the Girl's Basketball Program.

"Being A Part of Akron"

The reason why I like living in Akron is because of the people. Anytime you walk up town you don't have to be afraid of getting mugged or bothered. You can walk up there without being run over by some maniac.

The good thing about Akron is that you know everybody that lives there. It's a nice quiet town with little excitement, but if there is some, everybody knows about it.

On the Fourth of July everybody from all around comes to see the parade and the entertainment.

Most of my friends live around the Akron area. We sometimes, in the summer or after school, I like to go uptown to the cafe to get a coke or something to eat. We have a lot of fun in town because of the people. We know everybody.

I've lived around Akron all my life, but I've only lived in town for about four years. Akron has lots of stores with friendly people working in them and a nice public school. They are building a new jr. high school because the old one is getting pretty run down. Most of the people who live in Akron went to that same jr. high which was then the high school. It would be very hard to leave the little town of Akron.

Akron has a little over a thousand people living just in town. That's a lot of people for that small of town.

I could go on and on about the history of Akron and how it was founded but it would take me a long time and I am concerned with the present and future of Akron.

Kim Willard 7th Grade

AKRON MY HOME TOWN

In and around the United States are many small towns Each small town has a rich historic background. In each of these small town sour can meet many interesting people with a variety of ideas. This variety of backgrounds keeps the small towns continuously on the move.

Most of these communities sponsor events which help to draw people from miles around to their town. The hope of those who sponsor these events is that visitors will spend money in their own town or perhaps, many chose to live in this community.

Akron, Indiana, my hometown, is very much like all other small towns in the United States. The people in my hometown like other towns are interesting. In the event of an emergency, most people are willing to help their friends and Since money to pay for firemen and medical helpers is limited, most of the people who help are volunteers. This is one of the reasons a small town is nice to live in.

Akton, my hometown, has small businesses located here: a bank, a variety store, a drug store, a supermarket and restaurants.

Besides these businesses are several factories that employ many workers. This helps the people in Akron to make a living right here in town.

An important part of any community is the school system. My school is a part of the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation. Although my school is consolidated, it still has a very small town atmosphere. Almost everyone in the school knows everyone else.

These are reasons why I like to live in Akron.

Bridget Gearhart

In 1835, a medical doctor by the name of Dr. Joseph Sippy left Medina County, Ohlo. He and his family wanted to move west to see if there was some good land on which he, his family, and friends could settle. Soon the wagons were ready to leave and any lives it 1826 feets. dy to leave, and on June 1, 1836, forty-seven people started west

While on this journey, they had to face many problems.
While trying to cross the Maumee River, their cattle would jump off of the poorly built flatboat and swim back to where jump off of the poorty built national and swim back to where they started. This made the trip harder and more tiring. The mosquitoes were terrible! They built a fire so the smoke would keep them away. Another problem the travelers faced was very deep water in the rivers because of the constant

They reached their destination on July 4, 1836. At this time they named the town "Newark", later changed to Akron because they found out that there was another town called Newark. This caused confusion with the mail.

Newark. This caused confusion with the mail.

As the population grew, Akron progressed. The past one hundred and fifty years have brought many changes to Akron, but most of them have "progressive changes."

Today, Akron has a population of about one thousand people. It is not a big city like Fort Wayne or Indianapolis, but it has many special qualities. It is small, has friendly people, and is a town with a family-like atmosphere.

Akron has many activities for kids during the year. Some of these are: a girls' softball team, a boys' baseball team, many different church parties and activities, a 4-H Club, and a Fourth of July Parade and Festival. These are activities that a Fourth of July Parade and Festival. These are activities that

During the school months, the kids enjoy the following: volleyball, basketball, football, band, dances, parties, and other fun and exciting things to do.

Akron is a great place to be.

We want to thank our friends, relatives, children and grandchildren for the cards, gifts and your visits on our 50th anniversary. It made our day special George and Geneva Miller

Hike Akron because the people are so friendly, when you want them to donate some money, they'll do it. In Chicago or some big place like that they probably wouldn't do it.

I like Akron because it's a small town there is not as much traffic as New York or Chicago. In New York or Chicago it's so busy and crowded and the people aren't as nice as the people in Akron

I like Akron because the people keep Akron clean. In some towns there is trash laying all over the place, but in Akron the trash people come and pick it up.

I like Akron because on the Fourth of July after the parade and everything there are fireworks. Some small towns on't even do that, all they have is the parade and that's all, like Akron because of the people that work in the stores. The clerks help you find what you are looking for. They are not as mean as some people might think they are. I like Akron because the air is fresh and clean. In Los Angeles there is lots of fog and smog.

I like Akron because I like where it is located. Like if you wanted to go shopping in a big mall, it isn't very far away.

I like Akron because there is a variety of places to eat.

There is also a nice variety of gas stations.

I like Akron because there are a doctor and a dentist. In some small towns there isn't a doctor or dentist.

I like Akron because there is not as much rapes or crimes. It's omething would happen to you in Akron you know the people will help you. In like New York they won't help you. That's why I like Akron.

People in Akron really don't realize how much it has changed especially the school it seems as if that school has stood forever, but many changes have been made.

According to a census released in Akron 1930, the population of Akron in the last ten years had grown from 930 to 931! 500 of these people were students from the first grade to the twelfth grade. That really doesn't seem like a lot of students, but four-fifths of all the schools in Indiana had a naller enrollment. Akron was really a "Big Time" school

Sports in Akron have also changed. From basketball in 1911, the "Flyers" in honor of the air craft "The Akron".

The first Akron High School basketball games were held The first Akron High School basketball games were held on the old dirt and gravel court on the north side of the building. Some of the first indoor games were played in the old Opera House. Later, games were played on the indoor dirt floor of a barn until a gymnasium was built.

Now the old Akron High School; including the gymnasium, is going to be rebuilt. Some students are happy to see the school go, but many think it is going to be add because of all the memories it holds.

In Akron's beginning it was founded in the early 1860's by a man named Dr. Sippy. In 1910 the railroad line ran from Goshen to Warsaw to Mentone through Akron to Peru. This railroad source was the main transportation until it was disbanded in 1965.

The oldest houses in Akron are presently owned by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Murphy also Josephine Slaybaugh Merley. She also has West End Beauty Shop in her house. They have had their house in their family since the 1660's.

The only family to originate here in Akron and to stay here were here.

here was the Whittenberger family. Dr. Joseph Sippy was the man who founded, he only founded it because he cut down sapplings on his path.

The town was oridinally called Newark, this is the new one meaning, they had made a covenant to seek new homes for the people that, that time has arrived.

From 1836 on, was marked on one (1) word "progress". Akron schools were started first in cabins then in one room school houses. There were churches and buildings in our community built and rebuilt. Today Akron is a small town with a little over one thousand in population.

Take time to visit the elderly

There is a saving that as long as a nation care, about its elders, it cares about itself. This has always been the case in our country when it comes to caring about our senior citizens.

National Nursing Home Week is an opportune time for all Americans to focus special attention on the part our older citizens have played in molding our country. Our elder citizens are a source of strength and continuity through which we merge past with present, traditional ways with new approaches.

of us to pay respect for those who brought us up, who cared for us, who taught us and saw us through both difficult and happy times. We cannot forget how much we owe to those who worked for, fought for, and prayed for our nation and preserved the liberties which we now enjoy.

nd-

igh Irai Many of those people are now in nursing homes. We know our nursing home industry strives for excellence in medical care and social services for the elderly. But institutional care is not sufficient. Make a time to show appreciation and love, and, yes, take a youngster with you to visit an older relative or friend so that hands and hearts can touch across generations. This simple act of caring and love can work wonders.

Physical Fitness Month

May is physical fitness month which is a good time to begin a personal fitness program. According to the Indiana State Medical Association (ISMA), achieving fitness through regular exercise would eliminate many of the health problems plaguing Americans today. example, high blood pressure, obesity, and stress could be treated or avoided by exercising. Exercise can also: improve blood circulation; help one to deal with tension and aid in relaxation; and, help the body make better use of fats and sugars.

The first rule of thumb is starting a personal fitness program is to get a physical. Anyone who is middle-aged and older, or persons over age 30 who are overweight or have chronic health conditions should consult a physician. A check-up may reveal some physical limitations. Your doctor will be able to advise you on the type of exercise program best suited to your capabilities. The ISMA also suggests considering your interests and the equipment (gym, track, or pool) needed for the particular exercise you may choose.

Card Interest

A recent Associated Press story noted that while mortgage, credit purchase, savings and loan, and other types of interest rates have all declined, the excessive rate on credit cards has not moved.

One bank officialand and banks usually handle these cards--said that was because banks had not felt the heat from card holders. Consumer groups don't buy this.

They have lowered rates they pay to their customers but haven't lowered rates paid by their customers on credit cards.

One would hope to see a lowering of rates soon, in view of the recent action of the Federal Reserve in lowering its rate to banking institutions from 7.5 to 7 percent. How much longer do credit card holders have to wait for banks to pass on the savings they're realizing, or some of them, to customers?

RIDICULOUS BUT TRUE!

A government proposal intended to reduce a tax deduction would end up costing federal, state and local treasuries billions of dollars.

treasuries billions of dollars.
The plan is to limit the deduction for business manketing meals and business travel meals to 80 percent of actual dollars spent. According to the experts at Chase Econometries, this could cause a loss of 395,000 restaurant jobs in the first year alone. Increased unemployment means less income tax and increased welfare and unemployment payments. During the first year, these losses would exceed any revenue gain by one and a half billon dollars!

ALWAYS A WAY

There's always a way, but we have to try; through life is a gift to you and I.

We can't expect to merely sit, with never an effort to merit it.

There's always a way, though the goings rough, and only our best is good enough.

We haven't the time to count each loss, if the bridge is out, we swim across.

There's always a way, life's not in vain, though joy may be the twin of pain.

Whichever way we chance to go, the Master walked it first, you know

"Scrambled Eggs": music to your ears

The "Scrambled Eggs" believe practice makes perfect. Their director, Jean Harmon, donates her time to help the band.

Have you thought of going to a symphony program? One need not travel many miles to find one. Mentone has its own symphony orchestra located at the R.E.A.L. Nutrition Site. The orchestra is known as the 'Scrambled Egg Symphony Band" from the Egg Basket of the Midwest.

Since organizing in September 1984, the band has grown in popularity, not only in Mentone but throughout north central Indiana. The band has performed at the Elks in Warsaw, different Avon meetings, and parades along with many other functions. They will he performing at the Egg Festival and the Talma Egg Alumni Banquet in June. A highlight of their summer will be performing at the State Fair in the Senior Citizen Building later in the summer.

What makes this orchestra so unique? Not only is the group comprised of neighbors and friends, it is full of very unusual instruments. Rather than trumpets or french horns, the brass section is made up of funnels and plastic liter pop bottles. Percussion instruments include a triangle, woodblocks and seed shakers. Then there is a unique category which includes vegetable graders, washboards and a musical

In describing the instruments, one cannot forget the 'contraption' which was made by Denton Abbey, and is played by Olive Tucker. Mr. Abbey also made the bow fiddle which he plays. Other special attractions include the violinist, Everett Rathfon; the "whistler", L.G. Alber, and the painist, Ruth Cullum.

The band began as a Senior Citizen activity of the R.E.A.L. Nutrition Site. It is still a Senior Citizen activity but it has grown into a 'pride and joy" of the Egg Basket community. This is just one fine example of people themselves and others at the same time. If you have a chance, be sure to hear the "Scrambled Egg Symphony" at the Egg Festival. After you have enjoyed the evening, be sure and tell members of the orchestra how much you enjoyed their performance.

Hope for mentally ill

There is a brighter ray of hope for people suffering from illnesses such as depression, for the mentally ill who are homeless, even for those who have been hospitalized for a long time.

The Mental Health Association in Wabash county, promotes good mental health, is an advocate on behalf of the mentally ill and through volunteers, gives great assistance in linking people who have need with local services

The Bowen Center for Human Services provides a wide range of mental health services for the five counties of Kosciusko, Huntington, Marshall. Wabash, and Whitley. There is a 24 hour Emergency Service. Call toll free 1-800-342-5652. Professional staff persons are available to respond.

A pr sent reality is that fewer than one fifth individuals identified with a mental health need in a recent 6 month period, used any mental health service from either mental health specialists or from general medical physicians. It is quite evident that there continues to be myths and misconceptions which prevent people with mental health problems from taking important steps to secure help from mental health facilities.

Reminders that so many local people are "Working Mental for America's Health" and that many more believe that "Reaching Your Potential Sometimes Means Reaching For Help" can encourage people from our community to seek and to promote good mental health.

Final planting date explained

May 31 is the final planting date for insured hybrid seed in most Indiana counties. according to Harlan Stull. District Representative for the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC).

Insured hybrid seed planted by the final planting date of May 31 must be reported by June 15 in order to receive full crop insurance coverage. The acreage report reflects the actual acreage planted and reported by the farmer.

"During the growing season, if damage occurs, notice should be given promptly," Stull said

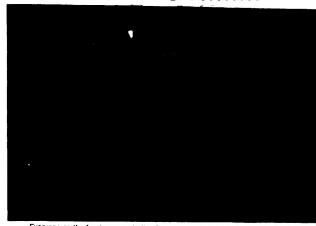

A new crop insurance plan, called Actual Production History (APH), is available this year to producers of soybeans, wheat, barley, oats and rye in addition to corn, sorghum, peanuts, cotton, rice and other crops.

'Increasingly, our insured producers are discovering that with a yield guarantee which reflects production capability, crop insurance establishes a farm income floor. Thus, cash flow and the ability to repay a loan may be more accurately projected." explained Stull.

TOPICAL ANESTHESIA

The principal objection patients have to local anesthesia is the sensation caused by the entry of the needle. If you have this fear be open and frank with your dentist. Several techniques have been developed to eliminate this problem.

Most needles used in dental offices today are disposable. They come presternized, are used only once, and are then disposed of This means a smoother entry, since needles used more than once may roughen slightly on the edge and make penetration more

To protect the area being injected, dentists often use a topical anesthetic, frequently in the form of benzocaine or indocaine in a cream base. The solution is painted on at the point of injection and causes numbness that may help eliminate the sensation associated with the injection

A recent innovation is the forcing of a drop of anesthetic into he area to be injected via a charge of compressed gas. This rapidly numbs the area and the anesthesia can then be given with no ser

Kantner hearing resumes Poppy Day huge success

A public hearing, with members of the Tippecanoe Valley School Board action as the decision-making body, began a marathon session Monday, May 12, to decide Forrest Kantner's teaching fate at TVHS.

cted with

The board hired attorney
Jeff Abbott to serve as a hearing chairman and advise the board of the legal aspects of the informal trial. Abbot placed the burden of proof on the school administration.

Jim Claxton from the Indiana State Teachers Association and representing Forrest Kantner in hearing, responded opening remarks by saying that the community should be asked how they feel about the program since it is a program where the student and teacher both are out in the community. The ICE program allows students to work a part-time job during the school day and receive a grade for their work. As part of the responsibility teaching the class, Kantner must make job-site visits with the students employers. During testimony Hill told the board his reasons for recommending a termination of Kantner's contract.

Areas where Kantner was judged by Hill to need improvement, included control in the classroom, individualizing lessons, using outside resources, informing students of assignments, keeping lesson plans up to date, professional performance, and cooperation with the administration.

Hill's major source of proof during the questioning was based on observations made throughout the year, a factor that Claxton played on heavily in cross-evaluation.

Claxton also questioned if

Hill had ever made any attempt to find out if his observations were correct and what "appeared to be" in the classroom was what was actually happening. Claxton tried to point out that the ICE program and classroom portion may have to be taught differently than other more structured classes.

Kantner and the school administration had a hearing with the Indiana Education Employment Relations Board last fall. Kantner and the Classroom Teacher's Association charged that Kantner was being discriminated against and that changes in his contract were made without his approval. The hearing examiner from IEERB found the school administration in-nocent of all charges.

Notice

A Memorial Service will be connected by the Mentene American Lagion Post 425 at the Memorial Circle in the Memorial Circle in the Memorial, May 26, at 2:00 p.m.

At Gettysburg, at San Juan Hill, In Flanders Fields now all is still, But men still drill and march away, Like you who made Memorial Day.

In Normandy, and on Bataan, At Inchon, Khe Sanh, and in Iran, Selflessly the need you met. And now we know we must not forget.

Those who fought and those who fell, To hear the bell of freedom knell. We crouch beside your graves today; These wreaths of vernal buds to lay.

And to you who died for freedoms sake, A pledge to carry on we make; The torch that you so bravely bore Shall be our beacon evermore. We pray that by its guiding light We'll find our course and hold it right. We hope it may throughout the years Bring an end to blood and tears.

For we're a nation proud and free, And sometimes it is hard to see Where friendship for our cause abides And where a foe of freedom hides.

You have found peace while we still weep And wail o'er charges we must keep. There'll be no peace until we find A way thats just for all mankind.

This poem was written by William J. Acker, at the age of 91. Mr. Acker served under Gen. Pershing during W.W. II.

Submitted by Robert Whetstone, American Legion, Mentone.

Reminiscing with Ruby

Articles taken from Ruby Dawson's Journals

There were three churches in Akron. The Seven Day Advent, The Christian, and the Methodist. Father was a Luthern and Mother belonged at Rochester to the Presbyterian. Grandmother Hoffman and Grandmother Eber both were German Lutherans.

Mother sent Carl and when very small to the M.E.

Sunday School. Carl when he grew older was sec. for Sunday School. I think we were in all the programs. I remember once on Easter I gave a peace and it was about my new Easter dress and Mother made me a pretty yellow dress and had a lace hat made for me with ribbons down the back and some of the neighbors thought she was to extravagant in having lace hat made for me.

Mother and Father both loved pretty things and she was a wonderful sewer and seemed to be able to nake anything. Sometimes making patterns for so-

Aunt Sarah came from South Bend and staved with us a week. She only had Donna at that time they were going to Calif. to live. Donna had a little fox terrior which she hated to part with but I had saved seventeen cents which I gave her for the dog. I don't know how long I had the dog but One day Father moved some lumber and a rat bit the dog. The dog died and father made a box to put it in and we buried it by a tree and covered it with flowers.

Now there are three of us, Vance and Aunt Anna had Joseph who was named after father. Vance and Joseph were nothing alike but were most always Vance was always trying something out or so he said. We had a preacher who lived close by who built a church and called it the Church of God. They would get very happy and jump up and down and we would try to preach out in the woodshed. One spring day when it was too wet to play out Mother told us to play in the wood house

It was the time of year when the sun would shine a few minutes and then sprinkle a little. Vance stuck his head out the little window and prayed for it to rain. A few sprinkles came down, then he prayed for it to stop and the sun came out. Then he shouted that his praying was answered. The lady who lived close by and her barn was close to wood house watched him and it was her that told the story about him. She lives close by and still laughs about it.

In the summer I spent many weeks with my Grandmother Eber. I suppose it was one way of giving my Mother a little change. It was a long way. She would come the fifteen miles with horse and buggy, sometimes coming early in morning and staying for dinner, then starting back. I always enjoyed being at Grandmother Eber's. I think Mothers sisters spoiled me. Alice, Margrette, Lola, and Uncle Frank were not married. There were grandsons who came but I was the married. There were grandsons who came but I was the first granddaughter. Mother was the oldest of eleven, nine girls and two boys. Cousin Vern lost his mother when he was a baby so grandmother raised him. Then we had some good times. Oh, we had to do some chores or rather he had some to do and of course he could not play till they were done. Feed the chickens, ducks, turkeys. Gather the eggs - oh, those old setting hens we had to put in a place of their own. Pick up apples. Grandmother had lots of nice apples and we try to keep them picked off the ground then grandmother would dry them. She dried lots of corn and did lots of canning

A Day To Remember

Memorial Day is a marvelous day to celebrate the beginning of summer, a marvelous time to fly a kite, or barbecue some steaks, or go for a walk on the beach. But, even as you celebrate, remember that Memorial Day has another purpose, a deeper and sadder and more important one. It is a day to mourn the war dead, all the dead in all the wars, a day to reflect on what their deaths have meant to us all

There have been arguments about where the idea of Memorial Day was born, but Congress finally agreed 20 years ago that it was in Waterloo, New York. There, roughly one year after the surrender of the last confederate forces, a druggist and a county clerk began urging their fellow citizens to shift all the stores and deported the return contribution. to shuffall the stores and decorate the town graveyard on May 5, 1866. And so it was done. Flags flew at half-mast, not for one man but for all. Two years later, John A. Logan, Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, proclaimed May 30, the date of the discharge of the last Union Army volunteer, as Decoration Day for the purpose of strewing volunteer, as Decoration Day for the purpose of strewing with flowers or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in defense of their country.

American soldiers have called themselves many things through the years. Yanks, Rough Riders, dough boys, Gi's. Most of the names bespeak a sardonic sense that war is a hard business, that many of the ordinary soldiers will die without anyone nearby who loved them. These soldiers well die without anyone nearby who loved them. These soldiers were making the world safe for democracy, or resisting the threat of aggression, or whatever we all believed in at the time, and we can only thank them for having fought for our illusions.

Walk through a military grave yard, and the stones keep repeating ages like 22, 24 and 19. These were our children. And the waste! Each stone commemorates a life unlived, work undone, new children unborn. They are the ones we must remember today. Go and find the grave of one of these young men, and, if it is bare and unattended, leave a bunch of flowers there...any kind of flowers will do.

God Bless you and yours.

Claypool woman visits Kiev

Mrs. Carol Swonger, a Claypool nurse employed with the State Board of Health along with 31 other American health officials have returned from the Soviet Union after spending four days in Kiev during the Chernobyl nuclear plant explosion, which emitted radiation throughout much of the northern hemisphere.

Mrs. Swonger was tested by medical officials upon returning to Chicago and was told she was healthy.

Even though Mrs. Swonger and her group arrived in Kiev the same day as the explosion, she did not learn of the accident until seven days later when she arrived in Moscow. It was through the American press that she was informed of the

The American group was offered free medical checks by the Soviets in a dark room which lasted about two minutes. All of the Americans were told they were 'safe''.

The lack of information concerning health care disappointed Mrs. Swonger in what was supposed to be an open exchange of ideas. Most of the tours and presentations were cancelled, supposedly due to the May Day vacation and other inconveniences. She felt most of what was learned in Russia could have been studied here at home.

Most of Russian health care has an emphasis on whereas the prevention, United States concentrates on curative measures, noted Mrs. Swonger.

Mrs. Swonger's family managed to keep their sense of humor during the Chernobyl accident despite seriousness of the incident. When her son telephoned her from Winslow, Ark., he wanted to know if her hair was falling out or whether she was glowing!

One hundred and fifty years ago, forty-seven people set in search of new land. Little did they realize that the new

Dr. Joseph Sippy, his family, William Whittenberger, Str., and his family started the westward journey on June 1, 1836. All They reached their destination at 4 p.m. on July 4, 1836. All members are started to the started to the members who started the trip arrived at what is now Akron.

The lown was first titled Newark. Later, it was changed to the present name because it was found that another town in Indiana had also acquired the name. Newark, This caused much confusion in mail delivery, therefore resulting to a change of names.

It is now 1986, one hundred and fifty years later. Akror has grown and changed in many ways. Local businesses, industries, schools and churches have sprouted up on land that was once covered by brush and trees.

While Akron has progressed in many ways, it is still very much like that small of only two cabins at first. Everyone befriended everyone. All people were neighbors, all were friends. It is unlikely to not run into someone you know at the local supermarket or one of the drugstores. Whether it's talk of the best fertilizer or the latest fashion, you're bound to wind up talking to someone.

Akron could not be what it is today if it wasn't for the kind, willing people living in our fair city. Many times residents are seen trying to improve the community.
Akron, way to go! One hundred and fifty years of friends, neighbors, and progression. Who knows that lies ahead in

AKRON

Why do I like to live in Akron? I enjoy living in Akron because it is a small town. In a small community, there is not much crime. If a crime would be committed in Akron, our police force on the corner would probably know them or figure it out sooner or later. With everyone knowing each other, crimes are few.

Since Akron is a clean yet small town, I think that is why most people really enjoy living here. However, there are some things that Akron really needs to become a better place to live.

Akron could build or remodel somewhere for a movie theater to enjoy entertainment, a YMCA for both adults and children to get physical and mentally fit, an update remodeled library would improve the shape of our minds. A new edition of an audio visual center and a computer center in the library would be of benefit to us all. The computer center could help not only the students but even parents to learn basics and operations of computers. The library could even give computer classes.

The one big development that Akron needs is a municipal city swimming pool. Again all people, young and old, could not only go to have fun, but could also take swimming classes from beginners to life saving classes.

Today in Akron there are about four places for students to get jobs. One answer to solve this problem and bring a lit-tle more business into Akron would be to build a mini-mall a small variety of stores.

All and all Akron is a nice and pleasant town.

I. Lisa Bowman, like the town of Akron because it is lit tle. I like it's reputation and it's kindness. Akron is a real good town even though I've only lived here four years. When I first moved here this town made me teel like I was wanted and the people were really out-going. When I moved here my relatives were all here and that made it great.

It also like Akron because of the places it has, for instance the Freezer Fresh also known as the Fluff. That s where everybody hangs out and goes for ice cream. Also when I first moved here I use to spend most of my time at the Fluff playing video games.

Fluff playing video games.

Another thing I love about Akron is the 4th of July when we always have a big celebration. Usually we have it down at the school but this year I don't know where we're going to celebrate. I like the fireworks at night time because it's real exciting. Akron is a quiet and peaceful little town. There is not a whole lot that goes on but enough I think.

I sure am glad Akron has a Youth League and girls softball. Softball occupies my time in the summer time. This is wall set year to play and I'm sure going to miss it. Well leits.

my last year to play and I'm sure going to miss it. Well let's get out of the subject softball and go into the Akron Park. The Akron Park is a pretty cool place to hang out. Akron Park is a good place to have a picnic or a family gathering so I like Akron because it's a groosom place

Jackie Shepherd, like this town, Akron, Indiana

I. Jackie Shepherd, like this town. Akron, Indiana because of many reasons. Some of the reasons like this town are because it is nice, clean, fun, has a nice park and bail diamond, does not have trash laving on the streets or sidewarks, and also its fun to ride your oke in this town. I like this town because there are rots of things to do some of the things you can do in the similar and you gard and to the control of the things you can do in the similar and you have also because it the bail diamond by the park and you gard and had not because the surface and the second of the things will be and the second triends in a game of softbail games. I pray on the Bear's Our colors are purple and my team. I play on the Bears. Our colors' are purple and also like this town because there are a lot of nice and clean places to eat at. Some of the places you can eat at are Harris Drug Store, Arters, Akron Cafe, Bears Den, Polish Pub, and last but not least The Freezer Fresh, or also sometimes called the "Fluff.

I also love going to the Akron Public Library. It is a great, quiet and awesome place to study. I think that the new Akron Junior High is going to really be a clean and nice place. I only wish I could be in the new school.

AKRON

Akron is a great town - small, but great. We have a good school system with nice teachers. There is always something to do in Akron. In the winter you can get all your friends together and have a big snowball fight with the nice, clean snow, or you can make snowmen, or just sit by the fireplace and watch the snow gently fall to the ground. In the summer, you can go hiking or camping in the many forests around Akron. There is always Little League every summer, or, if you don't like baseball, there are plently of good fishing spots. If fishing isn't you thing, then you can go hunting, biking, running or just "goof off" in general. There are plently of kids around and if you are bored, just look around for awhile. Before long you'll probably find somebody your age with something he would be willing to share. Then comes fall. Time to get out the football and get your friends together. There are plenty of places to play; the school, the park, a vacant lot, or just an empty field. If you join the school football team you may not win all the time, but if you like football re bound to have fun.
There are plenty of things to do any time of the year. You can always jog down to the Akron Public Library and check out a few books, with the friendly librarians, Gloria Bowen and Velma Bright, you're always welcome, just like any other place in town. I think that Akron is a good place for a kid to spend his childhood.

AKRON

I like Akron because of the people and the town. Akron has been a hard working town since 1835 when it was founded by Joseph Shppy at the age of fourty-four.

The original settlers and the only name of a family that has remained in Akron over the past one hundred and fifty years has been the Whittenberger family.

There are many things that have not changed much over the years. For example, the people are still as nice as they were around one hundred and fifty years ago.

We are lucky that Akron has not turned into another New very popular in the big cities.

In the 1860's Dr. Joseph Sippy ran an underground railroad for runaway slaves in Akron. In 1882 Chicago and Atlantic built a railroad through Akron. It served the community until December 31, 1979.

In the Year 1899 a fire destroyed a block of the downtown Akron.

I think the Fourth of July and the parade is always fun, even if it rains. I remember trying to find a seat next to the road so I could see the parade well. lots of trees, bushes, and grass.
Akron has a very interesting history. When Dr. Joseph Sippy and friends and relatives made a hard journey across treacherous terrain, it had to take courage. To travel slowly through western Ohio and across the Maumee fliver when the water was at a very high stage was incredible. The travelers had to cross the river on a bad flatboat, but they got all the people and animals across without losing anybody.
They finally reached their destination, Akron, on July 4, 1836 at 4:00 p.m. If they'd never reached their destination, we would not live here.

WHICH TOOTHBRUSH FOR YOU?

Although we don't often think about what kind of toothbrush to buy, there are differences, and important ones. Toothbrushes must rescribed for individual use just as medicines are

Not long ago, the hard, natural bristle brush was almost universally recommended, and with some dentists it still is. However, the natural bristles have almost knifelike tips that can cut the gums and, when used to remove plaque under gums, can break and create irritation in the area. Consequently, more and more dentists are recommending the soft, multi-tutted nylon brushes with rounded bristles. These are ideal for plaque removal. These bristles won't break under or irritate the gums. When properly used, the many bristles loosen the plaque and scrub it away.

In general, the straight handles are better than one with a curved or angled handle and the kind with ti-fts shaped into waves or bumps are not required unless you have wayy or bumpy teeth. If your dentist recommends a particular brush for you, use it. He knows your condition and what's best for you

Burket to use state funds

Members of the Burket town board have agreed to pursue state funds with a measure aimed at alleviating the town's burden financing needed ditch work.

Town board president Roger Warstler said plans are being made to apply for cumulative capital development funds this summer.

Application for the funds will occur during the upcoming budget meetings. Details of how much money could be obtained are still unclear, but increase the town budget by more than $1,000. The total amount for the three-year fund would be received at the same time.

Most of the money would be targeted toward needed street repairs and ditch work. Last year, numerous ditch problems absorbed much of e town budget, leaving little money projects, he said.

The board began considering application for the money after residents voiced concern last year about ditch problems.

The state award is based on assessed valuation of property within the Burket town limits.

"Retirement Open House"

The Beaver Dam United Methodist Church cordially invites you to attend the "Retirement Open House" for the Rev. Wayne and Mary Johnson, Sunday, May 25, from 2-4 p.m.

After forty years of untiring service to the Lord, the Rev. Johnson is leaving the pulpit to enjoy his retirement vears.

The Rev. Johnson began his ministry as pastor to the Beaver Dam-Burket-Fairview circuit. His life as a minister has been unusual in the fact that he was able to obtain his own home and minister to various churches from Warsaw to Rochester rather than move from one district to another.

The Rev. and Mrs. Johnson are the parents of four children and have nine grandchildren. Their home for the past many years has been in Claypool.

Local doctor's hearing results

Local physician, Steven A. Musselman, is fighting for the survivial of his medical practice.

In a series of events which have taken place over the past ten days, Dr. Steven Musselman's Akron office was entered and drugs were reported stolen; he has been suspended from the Woodlawn Hospital staff, and his state medical license has been suspended pending a hearing before the Indiana Medical Licensing Board.

The Woodlawn Hospital Board has accused Steven Musselman of endangering staff and being in emotional difficulty.

In a hearing held last Friday in Fulton County Circuit Court, the doctor denied the charges. The court session was held to determine if an "emergency restraining order" barring Musselman from the local hospital should be a permanent order.

According to the psychia-

Articles taken from Ruby Dawson's Journals

Grandmother house was large, three bedrooms up stairs and two had each two beds, the other one was stairs and two had each two beds, the other one was for company. She also had two bedrooms downstairs, one was called the parlor bedroom. There was a big parlor with rocking chairs and a big chair, fancy lamp and a organ which I thought was grand. Sometimes early in evening close neighbors would come and stand around the organ and sing. Aunt Lola played, she later gave lessons. Margrette taught school.

Sunday was a big day. Everyone went to Sunday School. You walked, I suppose it was two miles. Uncle Chas was Sun and Lola played the organ and Aunt.

Chas was Sup. and Lola played the organ and Aunt Margrette taught a class. Someone always seemed to come home with them for Sunday dinner.

I know I loved it, the girls had beaus and sometimes they (the boys) would take the girls a ride, most of them had fancy horse and buggy, sometimes they would take me along.

On Saturday the day before was a hussel and bussel. The house must be spotless. Those pantry shelfs was something. Pies, cake and also pie shells to be filled before going to Sunday School. Grandmother's dinners was something. The good china, but what was good was all that food and some fancy must be for there boyfriends. You did not go out Grandmother had plenty of meat. Cold sliced ham from their home-butchered and smoked in that log cabin smokehouse. Homemade bread, pear and quince honey, cream or pumpkin pie. After the dinner aunts cleared table and washed dishes. Big dish pans, hot water from the big stove, someone stopping to put some wood in the stove. Just picture this big old kit-chen with a big table loaded down, an old fashioned cupboard in the corner, a cot in one corner, if you wanted to rest a little, a rocking chair with a good padded bottom where Grandmother rested. A door opened close by to a fence with all kinds of old fashioned roses. The rose petals were gathered and dryed to put in a small pillow to make things smell good Sometimes the door was used to follow a path down to the little house which seemed sometimes a mile away, but when the dishes were to be done you could stay out there a while till you thought someone else was do-ing them. Of course in eve we took the lantern and made a hurried trip but in the night there was always a little white pot under the bed. The lid had a tancy crocheted cover so no noise would be heard. Sometimes to get out of bed you had a little shock to set on it for it seemed so cold.

Grandmother had a very large living room, rag carpet all over tacked down, chairs, a lamp or two. It was more for family.

Grandmother had two old log houses on her place or rather three. One close to the big house was used for a smoke house, it had two rooms, the first room had a tub just small where the men could carry a few buckets of water and wash up or rather take a bath. The other two were way down the lane and non one lived in them anymore so Vern and I used to pretend we were traveling and call them our hotels. Down through the big woods was a creek and we would fish there. Sometimes we had to drive the cows to the creek to Open air valves on hot-water radiators occasionally to prevent "air lock." After hissing sound stops and water begins to drip slightly, close the valve.

Mail Box Improvement Week

Each year a week in May is designated as mail box improve-ment week. The purpose is to call attention to the need to provide mail receptacles that are conveniently located, safe to use, neat in appearance, and are designed to protect the mail from the weather. There is no question that neat, attrac-tive mail hoves improve. tive mail boxes improve the appearance of country roads and suburban streets, however, Mailbox improvement Week means more than eye appeal. If the mail box is dented with sharp cutting edges or is too small, hard to reach or obstructed, then the mail would be stamped undeliverable and the customer would have to pick their mail up at the Post

We need the customer's cooperation to maintain service at its highest level. Mail boxes must be located in the right hand side of the road in the carrier's direction of travel. The address should be clearly printed on the box to assure more efficient delivery. Customers are requested to remove obstructions including vehicles, trash cans, etc. that make delivery difficult

Changes in building plans approved

The Tippecanoe Valley School Board was given an updated report by the Skillman Corp., contractors for the $4.2 million building project in the school corporation, during the last monthly meeting.

Changes which the board approved in the project are to redirect sewer lines out of the Akron gymnasium at no additional cost; add $4,650 to the price of the project for installation of an 8-inch cast iron piping instead of a pipe at the site, and deduct $600 from the project by using a different building

Authority was granted to Superintendent Paige to make changes in the project as needed up to a $5,000 limit. The board must approve any changes above the $5,000 limit. Paige stated the board would be notified of all changes and that he was visiting each site of construction at least once a

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Nearly 400,000 children (aged 1-14) visited emergency soms in 1985 because of one of the most hazardous vehicles on the road today - bicycles.

Researchers estimate that 75 percent of fatal bicycle accidents dan be prevented if children would wear safety helmets. Serious head injury has been reduced in other recreational activities through the use of protective helmets. However, studies show that helmet use among children riding bicycles is extremely low. The U.S. bicycle death toll

As schools let out and the weather gets warmer, children will be dusting off their bikes and hitting the streets. Parents, physicians and educators must take an active role in bicycle safety by promoting helmet use and teaching children the basic "rules of the road."

When a child receives a tirst bicycle, a litelong pattern of vehicle operation is begun. Children should be taught that bicycles are not a toy, but a first vehicle. Sincerely, Michael A. Hogan, M.C. Chairman of the Indiana chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics

I like to live in Akron because it's a quiet, quiet, caim town. The people are all nice. I would like to live near Akron all my life. A lot of my friends feel the same way. In Akron someone getting mugged is very unusual. In a big city, like New York, you wouldn't be safe. Also, people around Akron are willing to help out. In a large city, most people wouldn't want to help.

I'm glad Akron will be celebrating its sesquicentennial I'm glad Akron will be celebrating its sesquicentennial birthday this year. Sesquicentennial means one hundred and fifty. One hundred and fifty years is a long time, and Akron will probably be around another one hundred and fifty. I'd like to look into the future and see how long Akron is around. It'll be a long time that's for sure. This Fourth of July will be exciting and I'll probably have a lot of fun.

Kantner decision awaits

June 2 has been set by the Tippecanoe Valley School Board to make a decision concerning the status of high school teacher Forrest Kant-Remaining witnesses and final arguments were heard by the board at last weeks hearing.

Principal Dr. John Hill Lad recommended to the include that Kantner's contract to teach the Interdisciplinary Cooperative Educatio classes not be renewed at the end of the current school year and by law Kantner had the right to request hearing. Contradictory testimonies by the two sides were heard repeatedly as different sessions and incidents were recalled. Both sides attempted to show some community support during the 61/2 hour session. The school administration, represented Charles Rubright, an Indianapolis lawyer, presented as evidence a letter to the school board signed by 30 employees of the high school stating they were happy with the current administration and were not threatened or harrassed in any way by Hill On Kantner's side. Roger Moriarty, a member of the Interdisciplinary Cooperative Education advisory council, presented a survey that concerned residents distributed to the employers involved in the ICE program.

A summary of 29 of the questionnaires sent employers received showed favorable responses to the ICE program and Kantner. The survey asked questions concerning only the ICE procam and Kantner's role as the teacher.

Kantner later testified that he was not aware his job as full-time ICE instructor was on a probationary status since his job requirements of teaching part-time vocational agriculture and part-time ICE was changed to full-time ICE

Kantner also testified that Hill had made certain suggestions for improvements that Kantner later learned to be directives rather than helpful hints.

Valley gains revenge

Tippecanoe Valley gained revenge when the Viking golf team defeated Three Rivers Conference Champion Manchester 160-161.

The Vikings only placed third in the conference meet last week, but edged the Squires thanks in part to a three-over par 39 from No. 4 golfer, sophomore Donnie Fellows. The Vikings were two down before Pellows' total revealed his score was seven better than Manchester's No. 4 golfer Tim Spang.

Deron Manwaring, who was medalist with 37, had eight pars and one bogey and Parker also praised the play of Dayne Manwaring and Fellows with 39's each.

Ben Anderson fired a 41 to pace Valley to a 186-221 victory in the last junior varsity match of the season. The Vikings finish with a 12-2 mark.

Valley loses to Manchester

Manchester jumped out to an early lead, then held on at the end for an 8-5 Three Rivers Conference baseball win over Tippecanoe Valley last week.

The loss, putting Vikings at 4-16 overall and 0-4 in the TRC, came despite the continued hitting prowess of junior Jamie Cullison, Cullison went 3-for-4 at the plate, and had a home run, double and four runs batted in for the game. The batting effort raised his average to .614 for the season, and his slugging percentage to 1.053.

Darren Goff led Manchester with three hits, including a leadoff triple that led to a three-run first inning for the Squires. Manchester added two more in the third for a 5-0 advantage before the Vikings got on the scoreboard. The lead increased to 8-3 in the top of the seventh before a two-run home run by Cullison closed margin to the final dif-

Putting up a new antenna, or taking down an old one, is dangerous work. You can be seriously burned or even killed if it touches a power line.

If you're working with an antenna or any other tall equipment, remember:

Akron Town Board has meeting

The Akron Town Board held their regular board meeting May 20, 1986. The board approved a parking space on N. Mishawaka St. for handicapped. (1st space north of fire hydrant). The board also heard a report from Supt. Gearhart that the doors to the park restrooms have been widened and railings installed. Ramps to both restrooms are being planned. This will complete the federal requirements for now.

Methodist Church presented a written request for a variance on building regulations. The town ordinance says buildings will be set 5 feet back from the street or alley. The church wanted 3. The request was denied because the board felt it should not begin a practice of changing ordinances.

President Miller presented the results of questionnaires sent to water customers - 360 were sent out; 180 returned and 125 said they would attend a public meeting on the rust removal proposal. Clerk Sutton was instructed to contact engineer for a date and then to put a notice in the bills mailed June 2

Marshall Fisher reported complaints about children playing in the street at Greenlawn Apartments. Since the street is not in the town jurisdiction, the board will place a sign of "Children at Play" on the street at the entrance to the complex.

The town clerk received a ..tter from Fulton Co. Health Dept. concerning burning at the old dump site. Citizens should be aware that only the following materials can be taken there: concrete, bricks, or earth - no lumber, metal or trash.

Town employees reported that the chain on the lock at the lagoon gate has been cut 2 times recently. The board wants people to know they will be prosecuted if caught doing this. Only authorized personnel are allowed inside the fence at the lagoons.

Larry Howard presented a lengthy and detailed account of the excellent progress made by July 4th Committee. They were given permission to use town lots on West Rochester for a flea market at that time and the board agreed to several items involving parking and street barricades during this time. Beginning July 2 at 6 p.m. there will be no parking allowed in the town lot behind the stores as the area needs to be clear for the carnival to be set up.

The board is still trying for co-operation to get the old feed mill site cleaned up before the 4th of July.

Clerk Sutton reported that Ohio Casualty Co. has cancelled liability, auto and workmens comp. insurance for the town. Tinkey Insurance is currently seeking another source.

The board has instructed town employees to unlock the restrooms at the park each morning and the Marshall will lock them at night. All citizens are asked to help keep the park clean. The brush has been cleared from the area west of the Little League diamond.

All citizens are always welcome at the town board meetings held the 3rd Tuesday of every month.
