The rates were proposed by Umbaugh and Associates of Plymouth after a study authorized by the board and are designed to prevent the utility from operating at a loss.

The present minimum rate, based on a 5/8 to

Anthony Nigo Chapter, DAR, hears Indians discussed at meeting

"The Historic Indians of Kosciusko County and Associated Areas" was the subject of Donald Boggs' program when he spoke to members of the Anthony Nigo Chapter, DAR, at the home of Mrs. James Bitting, Warsaw. He displayed several items from his collection of Indian artifacts and explained their use and also showed a chart of Kosciusko and Fulton counties that detailed reservations of chiefs prominent in this area. Treaty lines developed between the whites and Indians were constantly revised as settlers moved west, he said, and after the War of 1812, the treaty lines in Indiana were moved up from the southern part of the state and down from the South Bend area, leaving this area in Indian territory.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. David McGuire and Mrs. Kenneth Riner. The regent, Mrs. Glenn Clauss, opened the meeting according to ritual, and the president general's message was read by Mrs. John Frederick. Mrs. Riner reported the needs of Indian schools.

Mrs. Wayne Smalley's national defense report, "The War Against Terrorism—Another No-Win War," stressed court-imposed restrictions placed on police have enabled the criminal element to win most of the battles. She said police complain that when they apprehend a violent criminal, he is out on the streets before they can complete the paperwork, the FBI has been severely curtailed in its ability to investigate terrorists, bombings have increased and kidnappings are a grim possibility for everyone.

Mrs. Clauss gave a report on the state conference and a letter from the state regent was read in which she urged members to write their congressmen designating the month of February as American History Month.

The chapter's next meeting will be with the Tippecanoe River Chapter at the Church of Christ in Etna Green on Nov. 8. Members should take gifts for DAR schools.

60 YEARS AGO

Mrs. Mary Harsh sustained a vigorous surprise last Wednesday evening, at her home, about 8 o'clock, when a dozen of her lady friends called on her all of them masked beyond all possible recognition. After the surprise and she had named her guests the weenies were roasted and a great time enjoyed by all.

A deed has already gone on record which closed the last open link and gives the State Bank of Akron a clear and indisputable title to the ground on the corner now occupied by the Corner Grocery. This is without doubt the most desirable location in Akron for a bank and plans are already under consideration for a new building there. It is to be largely of pressed brick, stone and iron, with two stories and basement and steam heated throughout. It will not only be the very last word in safety, convenience and comfort as a home for the bank but will also be an ornament to the town and a source of pride to all its people.

The Hammond Bros. force of bricklayers finished the work on the power house Tuesday afternoon. It will make a very pretty appearance. The brick has been well selected in color and in finish, and the style of the building is modern. The trench digging for the water pipelines is going merrily forward, perhaps not as speedily as was contemplated by the builders or by the people, but it has been found to be a pretty big job. The improvement is being awaited by a good many people and home owners in town, as they are anxious for the use of the added conveniences. There will be quite a demand for a good reliable plumber and plumber's supplies when the job is finally finished.

39 YEARS AGO

Preparatory to the District Corn Husking Contest the Akron high school Vocational Agriculture Department conducted its local contest last Wed. with thirteen entries at the farm of Ivan Clinker, northwest of town. All boys enrolled in Vocational Agriculture were assigned duties necessary to carry to completion this greatest of rural sports. A starter gleaners, referees, a weigher, and a computer were delegated to do their bit. The winners of this thirty minute contest were in their order of fourth place - Homer Carr, Norman Thompson, Dick Drudge and Cleotis Utter.

The Akron Flyers begin their 1937-1938 basketball season at Chester township high school in No. Manchester Friday. Coach Claude Rieth has announced that the probable starting lineup for the varsity will be: Cleotis Utter and Ed Secor, forwards, Herb Severns, center, and Rich and Drudge, guards. The second team lineup will probably be, Stout and Helvey, forwards, Haldeman, center, and Klise and Rhodes, guards. Bill Shipley and Dean Sheetz are student managers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Anderson and family have moved from Rochester into the M. T. Kreider property. Mr. Anderson is a mechanic at the Akron Motor Company.

The Misses Nancy Irelan, Harriet Whallon and Ruthalys Dawson spent the weekend in Bloomington with Judy Jontz and attended the IU football game Saturday.

The penny postcard will soon be a thing of the past. President Truman recently signed the postal increase bill which will boost postal charges $117 million annually. This affects the penny postcard which will cost 2c effective next Jan. 1.

Tuesday is election day in Akron, and even though there is but one ticket on the ballot the town is forced to go through the motions of holding an election. Local Democrats didn't file a ticket, and although there was some talk early this year of a Citizens ticket, it failed to materialize. So, the Republican ticket is the only one on the ballot. Town officers to be voted on are three trustees and a clerk-treasurer. The trustees are the same as now, namely, Dr. V. C. Miller, Frank Dawson and Don Noyer. Joe Bidwell, who has been clerk-treasurer for two terms, refused to be considered as a candidate and the GOP convention named Charles Wells to take his place on the ticket. Election board members are Joe Bidwell, Harold Groninger and William Stout.

Fire, believed to have begun from spontaneous combustion, partially destroyed a large barn on the David Leininger farm. Prompt action from four fire departments, Akron, Mentone, Burket and Rochester is credited with saving most of the barn.

The Akron High School student body will stage a giant pep rally tonight to launch the 1966-67 basketball season.

Production expenses on these farms totaled $20,536,000 in 1974.

The figures are for farms qualifying under the definition first used for the 1959 Census of Agriculture: A farm includes all agricultural operations conducted at any time during the census year under the control of an individual management, provided that sales of agricultural products amounted to, or normally would amount to, at least $250 for places of less than 10 acres or $50 for places of 10 acres or more.

Figures for farms with sales of $2,500 or more are shown for 1974 and 1969. These farms accounted for $28,057,000 of all agricultural products sold in 1974 and $15,200,000 in 1969.

There were 902 of these farms in 1974 compared with 880 in 1969. The average size decreased from 219 to 218 acres during the five years. The value per acre increased from $349 to $628, raising the average value per farm from $76,440 to $136,576.

The market value of livestock and their products on farms of $2,500 or more of sales was $12,573,000 in 1974; poultry and their products, $1,231,000, and crop sales, including nursery products, hay and forest products, $14,253,000.

Farms reporting less than $1,000 in sales numbered 44 in 1974.

The value of agricultural products sold on these farms totaled $10,000.

CPR classes to be offered at Akron

Four classes in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) will be conducted at the Akron Junior High School the weeks of November 29 and December 6.

CPR, or basic cardiac life support, is an emergency technique used to externally stimulate blood flow and oxygen supply for victims of heart attack, electrocution, drowning, suffocation or other accident in which the victim's heart stops and breathing ceases.

These classes will be conducted by instructors certified by the American Heart Association and successful completion will earn the student the AHA certification of Rescuer.

There are no minimum or maximum age limits for enrolling in these classes except that it is preferred that children under the age of 13 not be enrolled since they normally don't have the strength or weight necessary to obtain sufficient chest compressions.

No charge will be made for these classes.

Each class will be approximately six hours in duration. Three hours of the first evening will be devoted to lectures and films describing CPR--the How and Why and When. The second evening will be spent in practice and testing using life-size manikins.

David Kruger, an instructor, said in announcing the classes, "If you have someone in your family, or perhaps a close friend or neighbor, with a history of heart problems, are a volunteer fireman, a Civil Defense or REACT member, or just plain interested in gaining knowledge that might save someone's life, fill in the form and mail it to me."

Robin Secrist is winner

TV offers chemical application classes

The Tippecanoe Valley Agriculture Advisory Committee, in cooperation with the Kosciusko Co. Extension office, will sponsor a series of classes on chemical licensing designed to enable farmers who successfully complete the classes to obtain a license to apply restricted chemicals for his own use.

There will be two classes, each approximately two and one-half hours long. Classes will be conducted in the lecture room of Tippecanoe Valley High School on Monday nights, January 10 and 17.

Classes will be open to any farmer or farm employee who would like to obtain a license to apply restricted chemicals in their own farming operation. Although farmers do not have to be licensed until October 1977, they are urged to get their licenses well before the deadline to avoid the expected last minute rush. The license will be good for three years, beginning in October 1977, and will cost $5. There are no minimum or maximum age restrictions in the license law. Therefore, high school-aged students may receive a license if they otherwise qualify.

Other class topics and dates will be available at a later date.

Community band is planned

Area adults interested in forming a community band are urged to attend a 2 p.m. meeting November 28 at Tippecanoe Valley High School.

The band will be directed by TVHS band director Kenneth Bush.

"If you don't have an instrument," he said, "don't worry. We'll try to get one."

The band will meet on a monthly basis until the group completes its plans.

Church of God youth to fast for hungry

Before you go to bed tonight, some 12,000 human beings around the world will have died of starvation or diseases related to malnutrition.

With these staggering figures of misery and suffering in mind, a group of young people at the Akron Church of God have decided to begin a 24-30 hour fast Friday, November 26, at 8 a.m. that will continue until 8 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 27.

The starve-in project will have a two-fold purpose. It is hoped the youth participating in the program will be able to identify with hunger and learn more about it. Many factors contribute to hunger--affluent lifestyles, the energy crisis and others. The youth will learn more about them through various audio-visuals and other program material.

ODDS and ENDS

By Ann Sheetz

Bite the bullet, quadraphonic, brown-bag, samizdat, stonewall, white-collar crime. Or, how about jet lag, man-mography, ethnicity? A real potpourri of words, a mixed bag, some would say. What do they have in common? Well, if the dictionary you're using is as old as the one I've battered about for the past 13 years, what they have in common is that they aren't in it.

I'd been perfectly happy with my 1963 edition until our elder son returned from his first week of college with a new paperback dictionary. I fingered its crisp pages, savoring the new words.

"That's a neat book," I said, and my family laughed. I leafed to the word "neat" and found a slang definition: nice, pleasing.

Looking up words became fun, and I found interesting new ones, like schussboomer. Know what it means? A skier, especially one who schusses expertly. How about frag? To intentionally kill or wound a superior officer, as with a hand grenade.

"That's gross," our youngest said when I read the meaning to him. I flipped to gross.

"Very bad?" I asked. "Yeah, it's very bad, but that's not what I meant by gross."

"What is gross?" "Oh, you know, kinda super-yucky. I couldn't find yucky."

"That's sure a dorky dictionary." I turned to dorky. It wasn't there, either.

"How about bioclean?" I asked.

"Who cares?" he demanded. "The guy that wrote that must be a turkey."

"That's something we eat," I said.

"Not always," he said, pausing as his brother came in, his eyes sparkling with excitement.

"You should've seen the humungus tractor I saw today. It was really tough."

I didn't know how to spell humungus (rhymes with fungus), but there wasn't anything even close. Tough meant something strong that would not break if bent. I made the mistake of reading the definition.

"No way," the boys said as one. "Tough, like a tough girl."

"When I went to school a tough girl was not a person wither of you would want to know. Tough meant her reputation was bad."

"Far-out," they said, leaving me with the dictionary. I looked for klutz, which is what I felt like, but it wasn't there, either. I found small comfort that my own definitions and the dictionary's were similar for such words as bummer, ego trip and right on, but I couldn't shake the melancholy that accompanies the feeling of being detached from the world, watching it go by without really being a part of it.

"What's wrong?" my mate asked.

"I'll never be a schussboomer," I replied sadly. "I didn't want him to know his wife was a person without a description."

"What's the matter? Can't schuss?" he asked brightly.

I considered using the dictionary as a hand grenade, but another word caught my eye. Future shock. "An inability to cope with rapid social changes that have not been properly anticipated."

So now I know. As described in Alvin Toffler's book, I'm suffering from future shock. And I'll bet every lexicographer in the world is, too.

Rip-off

Dear Editor,
To the People of the Tippecanoe Valley School Corp.

Okay, you've seen it again! Now I would like your opinion on the issue. I'm talking about the annual rip-off at the TVHS basketball ticket sales.

I agree, the immediate families of the players should be able to get their tickets first as should the cheerleaders and their families. However, I cannot be convinced that there are 25 members in any of these families, though some families invariably end up with nearly this many tickets.

After these people get their tickets, the remainder should go on a "first come, first serve" basis. Beginning with the people in the TVHS area who have children attending school at TVHS. I know for a fact that there are people, who shall remain nameless, in Wabash, Rochester, and other small towns, not in the TVHS corporation, who received tickets before they went on sale to the public on November 9! This should not happen!

What can be done about it? Nothing.....this year. But if the School "Bored" doesn't get off its better idea and take action before next year, I have a suggestion.

Our athletic program is financed primarily through the receipts of these ticket sales. Face it, without ticket sales, much of our athletic program would dwindle. My suggestion, don't buy the tickets next year. How much would missing one season of "Hoosier Hysteria" hurt? If the tickets wouldn't sell, maybe whoever set up this "system" would put down his pat-a-ball and change it! Let the School Board hear you!

- Mike Petrosky

New books at Akron Carnegie Public Library

NEW GIRL IN TOWN by Faith Baldwin.

BOLD LEADERS OF WORLD WAR I by Colonel Red Reeder. Here are portraits of twelve men and women both little known and famous who contributed to this crucial time in the history of the modern world.

THEY CAME TO STAY by Marjorie Mangolies and Ruth Gruber. This is a unique and moving story. This is Southeast Asia and its enormous tragedy as reflected in the lives of a young unmarried American career woman and the two orphan girls, one Korean, one Vietnamese, who she adopts and rears in Philadelphia and New York City and the unexpected adventures that follow. If ever truth turns out to be stranger than fiction, it is in this hard to forget book.

ULTIMATE NORTH by Robert Douglas Mead. In 1789, fur trader and explorer Alexander Mackenzie set out by canoe to find Canada's Northwest Passage—that great river rumored to lie beyond Lake Athabasca which would link the Atlantic to the Pacific, Europe to the Orient. Nearly two centuries later, in early June of 1974, two modern voyagers set out by canoe on Mackenzie's track. Their goal, like Mackenzie's, was knowledge and also to re-experience the epic voyage. Rich in history, high adventure and personal observation, is an unforgettable reading experience.

THE TIME OF THE DRAGON by Dorothy Eden. Sweeping from China to the Thames Valley, spanning seventy-five years in the fortunes of a great trading dynasty, Dorothy Eden spins a spellbinding tale, of three generations of the Carrington family whose dealings in priceless antiques take them to Peking on the eve of the Boxer Rebellion and embroil them in a struggle that will determine their destinies and reach out to touch their heirs even to the present day.

THE BUFFALO WAY by James L. Haley. This book tells the history of the Red River uprising of 1874, the final campaign of the white man verses the Southern Plains Indians. This is illustrated with thirty-two pages of rare photographs.

An electric heat pump can cool and heat your home and do it with less energy than any other system. And less energy means a lower electric bill for you. This super-efficient comfort machine takes the place of both a furnace and central air conditioning. In winter, it takes heat from outside air and transfers it into your house. During the warm months, the heat pump automatically reverses itself and moves hot, muggy air out. If a new heating or cooling system is in your plans, get the facts on the energy-saving electric heat pump from Public Service Indiana or your heating/cooling dealer.

IN MEMORY
In one sense there is no death. The life of a soul on earth lasts beyond his departure. You will always feel that life touching yours. That voice speaking of you, That spirit looking out of other's eyes. Talking to you in the familiar things he touched. Worked with, loved as familiar friends. He lives on in your life and in the lives of all others that knew him.

terials and discuss how they can be part of the long-range solution. The FAST-30 program also has a practical side in that each youth will contribute $5 of his own money to participate. They will seek sponsors to contribute $5 donations who will also be asked to skip one meal and pass along a program sheet to two other individuals so that they too might become involved. Funds raised will be channeled mainly through World Vision International, an interdenominational Christian humanitarian agency supporting a number of hunger-related relief and development programs in two dozen Latin American, Asian and African countries.

Realizing no one group or organization can help all the missions of people who are hungry, the local youth believe that people become hunger statistics one at a time and that they can be helped the same way.

Individuals interested in learning more about the FAST-30 program or in helping the young people meet their goal can contact Ray Bradway at 893-4121 or 893-4346.

95% parent participation reported in parent-teacher conferences

Ninety-five percent of the parents participated in parent-teacher conferences at the end of Tippecanoe Valley's first nine-week grading period, according to a report made at Monday night's school board meeting.

At the same time, praise was given a new absentee policy that has resulted in a high school attendance rate of 96 percent, a two percent increase over the same period last year.

Board member Vernon Meredith questioned one of the claims, which was never publicly identified, and was finally told he would be given a written report prior to the next meeting. Another question on the claims came from Everett Besson who said there is too much variation in REMC bills for the high school.

Superintendent Dr. Lloyd Harrell reported on Judge Lee's findings in a recent court case.

(These were detailed in the Oct. 28 NEWS.) He also noted the State Board of Accounts audit of corporation books from July 1, 1973 to June 30, 1975 had been received and is available to the public. He said the audit was "fine" with the Board making a few minor suggestions.

Adult education classes at the end of the first semester show 12 enrolled in sewing, 12 in welding, nine in accounting, 20 in cake decorating and 12 in ceramics. These classes are operated on a non-profit basis at no cost to the corporation, the teachers' salaries paid by student enrollment fees.

Tippecanoe Valley High School's 1976-77 basketball season opens Friday night with the Vikings meeting Argos in an away game.

Schedules, rosters and pictures of both boys' and girls' teams appear in this week's NEWS together with congratulatory messages from area business and professional people.

The special section is designed as a pull-out for your reference through the coming months of "Hoosier Hysteria."

Jim Miller heads Mentone C of C

Jim Miller has been re-elected president of the Mentone Chamber of Commerce, and Larry Pyle and Terry Hammer have been re-elected secretary and treasurer. Kenneth Bush was elected vice-president.

New board members are Paul Haist, George McAlpine and Dr. David L. Cook. Other board members, in addition to the officers, are Ron Sechrist and Lee Bazini.

At a recent ladies night dinner meeting in Teel's Restaurant, Bill Westerman and Raymond Lewis, retiring directors, received plaques for having served three years, Westerman as board member, president and vice-president and Lewis as board member. The third outgoing member is Geraldine Clark who served the balance of Lloyd Bowerman's term after he resigned.

After dinner entertainment was provided by Frank and the Hittimes.

Church to have weekend revival

Beginning Friday evening, November 19, there will be a weekend revival at the Akron Church of God. The Friday and Saturday night services will begin at 7:30. There will be a 10:25 a.m. Sunday service. Closing service of the meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. Sunday. This closing service is also the annual Community Thanksgiving Service with most of the churches in the area being involved.

The speaker for this meeting is the Rev. E. E. Wolfram, Anderson, who served the Church of God as pastor in Wisconsin for 10 years, as field secretary for Church of God World Service for 10 years and as executive secretary of the Board of Pensions for 13 years. He has preached in countries throughout the world and is widely known as a speaker for conventions, camp meetings, etc. across the United States.

* Recommended approval to sell used buses. (See legal advertisement in this week's NEWS.)

* Recommended an addendum to the bus drivers' policy manual.

* Signed supplemental contracts for Phillip See, Jenny Helfrich, Diane Sincroft and Robert Hinkle because of extra duties and approved Ted Deal for a bus route when there is an opening.

During the audience period, Akron third grade teacher Phyllis Gearhart said she had been told teachers could not speak at board meetings unless they had prior permission to be placed on the agenda. "But when we try to be put on the agenda, permission is denied," she said.

Dr. Harrell said the policy is that if the matter concerns school, then teachers must go through channels by first seeing the principal. If the matter is still unresolved, the teacher and principal together should contact the superintendent and if it still cannot be resolved, all three are to appear before the board. "However," he said, "if it is not a school problem, they are welcome to speak as taxpayers."

Asked who determined is the issue was school-related or not, he replied, "I do."

Tony Smith, whose wife Diana formerly was TV swimming instructor, said, "My wife tried to go through channels and by the time she got through, she'd been replaced."

A patron, Norman Moore, reported his daughter had attempted to take shorthand both in summer school and in her fall schedule but had been unable to work it in since only one class is offered. He said she is being tutored individually by one of the business teachers and her papers graded with the rest of the class. He said school principal Forst Dunnuck had told him she would not get credit for the course. "I think she should," he said.

Moore also voiced his objection to the absentee policy that requires notes from family doctors before students can be re-admitted. "Sometimes the kids are too sick to be in school but not sick enough to go to a doctor," he said.

Moore also complained about the mandatory insurance program for boys participating in football. He said he had adequate insurance of his own but had been forced to get a school policy because he was told the insurance company demanded 100 percent participation. He also suggested the corporation charge a fee for using the pool as a method of eliminating out-of-corporation residents. Board members said they felt this would involve more work than it would be worth and said they had had no complaints about crowding at the pool.

Board members Con Shewman, Don Snipes and Everett Besson will attend the Nov. 30 Indiana School Board Association meeting in Warsaw with Dr. Harrell and business manager Robert Forbes.

The next regular board meeting will be Dec. 13, a week earlier than the usual third Monday night.

A man rocked a boat to see if it would tip. It did!

A laborer stepped on a nail to see if it would go through his shoe. It did!

A man looked into the gun to see if it was loaded. It was!

A woman looked into a patent medicine booklet to see if she was sick. She was!

Last June a helper smelled escaping gas and lit a piece of oily waste to find the leak. He found it!

A young girl kept late hours to see if it would really injure her office work. And it did!

A young man tried drinking to see if it would make him act like a fool. It did!

Perfect answer

Dear Editor:

In answer to Mike Petrosky's letter to the Editor about the TVHS basketball "rip-off," I have the perfect answer.

When my daughter was in school and played in the band, it was easy to get tickets for the basketball games. Once she graduated it was harder to find tickets than sweet potatoes in Jimmy Carter's peanut patch.

So a friend and I started going to Grace College to the games. The price is about half what the high school charges. The grade of basketball is much better. There are plenty of front row seats even at the Turkey Tourney. And I do believe the cheer leaders are prettier.

However, I grant that the parents who have children in school, on the team, or in the band should have first chance to buy tickets to the games.

This Is A Farmer

This is not the first time this column has appeared in print--and it's pretty sure not to be the last. The original author is unknown but whoever he (or she) is, he knows a thing or two about farmers.

Farmers are found in fields plowing up, seeding down, returning from, planting to, fertilizing with, spraying for and harvesting if. Wives help them, little boys follow them, the Agriculture Department confuses them, city relatives visit them, salesmen detain them, meals wait for them, weather can delay them, but it takes Heaven to stop them.

When your car stalls along the way, a farmer is a considerate, courteous, inexpensive road service. When a farmer's wife suggests he buy a new suit, he can quote from memory every expense involved in operating the farm last year, plus the added expense he is certain will crop up this year. Or else he assumes the role of the indignant shopper, impressing upon everyone within earshot the pounds of pork he must produce in order to pay for a suit at today's prices.

A farmer is a paradox--he is an "overallled" executive with his home his office; a scientist using fertilizer attachments; a purchasing agent in an old straw hat; a personnel director with grease under his finger nails, a dietitian with a passion for alfalfa, animals and antibiotics; a production expert faced with a surplus; and a manager battling a price-cost squeeze. He manages more capital than most of the businessmen in town.

He likes sunshine, good food, state fairs, dinner at NOON, auctions, his neighbors, Saturday nights in town, his shirt collar unbuttoned, and above all a good soaking rain in August.

He is not much for droughts, ditches, thoroughways, experts, weeds, the eight-hour day, helping with the housework, or grasshoppers.

Nobody else is so far from the telephone or so close to God. Nobody else gets so much satisfaction out of modern plumbing, favorable weather and good ice cream.

Nobody else can remove all those things from his pockets and on washday still have overlooked: five "steeples," one cotter key, a rusty spike, three grains of corn, the stub end of a lead pencil, a square tape, a $4.98 pocket watch, and a capful of chaff in each trouser cuff.

A farmer is both Faith and Fatalist--he must have faith to continually meet the challenges of his capacities amid an ever-present possibility that an act of God (a late spring, an early frost, tornado, flood, drought) can bring his business to a standstill. You can REDUCE HIS ACREAGE but you can't RESTRAIN HIS AMBITION.

Might as well put up with him--he is your friend, your competitor, your customer, your source of food and fiber, and self-reliant young citizens to help replenish your cities.

He is your countryman--a denim-dressed, business-wise, fast-growing statesman of stature.

And when he comes in at noon having spent the energy of his hopes and dreams, he can be recharged anew with the magic words: "The Market's Up."

Today is greatest

To the Editor:

Today is the Greatest

A little two year old girl, so cute, so smart, with her lovely mother. A young couple, both 17 years old, to be married. (He will go into the army.) Eating with 40 Senior Citizens...turkey and the trimmings. A boy and his sister, seven and nine, stopping to say hello on their way from school.

All but one has gone home from the hospital, some we were not sure about. A letter asking to have their baby baptised. A card from a young couple who had just had twins. Green onions still out of the garden.

Christmas candy ordered. Making plans to celebrate our wedding anniversary (34th.) I thing I have fallen in love again with a beautiful woman, both inside and out. It's great.

Let us not get tired of living. Life is so great. Mentone is wonderful, and the people are just like those one has always loved. Life is good and getting better all the time. Of course we all have problems. But the sun comes up in the morning, and the dinner bell rings three times a day. The baby smiles. Life holds the key. Thanks to one and all. Morning light.

60 YEARS AGO

After Mr. E. J. Walton had closed up his grocery store known as the Corner Grocery last Monday evening and he went home, fellow or fellows accidentally or otherwise broke in the glass in the front door of the store. He was called from home and on reaching the store, some one grabbed his hat and made haste with it to the burning gums. The burning of the hat is not an occasion for soreness, on the part of Mr. Walton as that was the game of the evening. The breaking of the glass, however, is a trespass, not on the program.

Mrs. Walter Kreig is a new clerk at the Strong novelty store during the holiday season which has begun.

We embraced an opportunity Monday to ride with S. S. Hoffman over the new east gravel road which is practically finished as far east as the A. J. Shewman farm. There are spots where Mr. Hoffman says more gravel needs to be put on. It is all nicely drained, the bed wide enough and the top oval sufficient. Mr. Hoffman pointed out one error, that he calls serious, but not one that he cannot over-come and that is, where the road turns at the A. J. Shewman corner. A culvert should have been put in to carry the water south, rather than across the road west, or better both drains or culverts used. The error was made by an oversight of the viewers and the surveyor. The contractor has followed the blue print and Mr. Hoffman was helpless to relieve that error, excepting that he will bank with stone or cement.

Quarts and pints are up one cent, coffee cream is up two cents, and whipping cream is up three cents. Milk bought in quantities of four quarts or more, will remain 10c per quart.

The final planting has been made in the East Tulip Gardens, west of town, and it is estimated that there will be over 29,000 bulbs in bloom there next spring. The flower garden will be located directly west of the house, on state road 14, west of Akron, and is believed to be an ideal location for displaying the tulips.

Hoosier farm prices down sharply

West Lafayette, Ind. Prices Indiana farmers received for their raw products declined 10 per cent from mid-September to mid-October, report state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University. Purchasing power of Hoosier farmers fell nine per cent during the 30-day period.

Lower prices for corn, soybeans and wheat contributed principally to the 12 per cent decline in farmer's income from crops. A nine per cent drop in livestock returns resulted largely from a 17 per cent decline in hog prices.

Prices paid by farmers for feed, except middlings, were unchanged from mid-September to mid-October.

Will do custom shell-ing, narrow or wide rows.

Tips on turkey preparation

By Patricia Braman
Home Extension Agent

You've purchased the big bird, so now you ask yourself what you're going to do with it. Don't despair. You now get to prepare it for the big feast.

First, the turkey must be thawed. Thaw the bird in its original wrapping on a tray in the refrigerator for two to four days. For more rapid thawing, place the bird in its original wrapper in cool water. Change the water frequently until the turkey is just pliable enough to handle. This will take approximately one to three hours for small birds and six to eight hours for large ones.

Never allow the turkey to stand in water after thawing. Refrigerate or cook it immediately. It is also an unsafe practice to thaw your turkey in the oven with the pilot light on in a 200° oven. It is not necessary to thaw commercially frozen stuffed turkeys. The only reason unstuffed turkeys are thawed is to remove the giblets and neck from the body cavity.

Turkeys may be roasted with or without stuffing. If not stuffed, rub salt generously in the body cavity, about 1/8 tsp per pound. An unstuffed turkey requires about 1/2 less roasting time as compared to stuffed.

For stuffed turkeys, allow 1/2 cup stuffing per pound of purchased weight. The bird should be stuffed loosely due to allow for the expansion of the stuffing. Home stuffed turkeys should be roasted immediately to avoid bacteria growth. Do not store it overnight in the refrigerator with your stuffing in.

To roast turkeys, place the bird breast up. Insert a meat thermometer in the stuffing or in the thigh. The exact cooking time will vary with the size of the bird, temperature of cooking, size of oven, accuracy of oven temperature regulator, whether turkey is stuffed or unstuffed, covered or uncovered. When the turkey is done the thermometer will register 180° to 185°F in the inner thigh or 165°F in the stuffing. Roast at 350°F.

To prevent over browning and drying out, cover the bird partly with aluminum foil when the thermometer reaches 150° or if the turkey begins to get too brown. Place the turkey on a warm platter and allow it to stand 20-30 minutes to aid in carving.

Send your questions to "Food Facts", County Extension Office, R. 4, Box 284 C, Warsaw.

Old Fashioned Bread & Celery Stuffing

4 cups diced celery, 1 cup chopped onion, 1 cup butter, 4 quarts dry bread cubes, 1 T. salt, 1 1/2 tsp poultry seasoning, 1/2 tsp sage, 1/2 tsp pepper, hot broth or water.

Cook celery and onion in butter over medium heat till onion is transparent but not brown; stir occasionally. Combine with bread cubes and seasoning and toss lightly. Add enough broth to moisten as desired. Makes enough stuffing for 14-18 pound bird.

Indiana farms had $2.6 billion in 1974 sales, census report shows

Indiana farms sold almost $2.6 billion worth of agricultural products in 1974 compared with $1.4 billion in 1969, according to a preliminary report of the 1974 Census of Agriculture released this week by the Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce. Total production expenses were $1.7 billion in 1974 and $1.0 billion in 1969.

There were 92,349 farms in Indiana in 1974 occupying about 72 percent of the state's total land area. Places of less than 10 acres were counted as farms if sales of agricultural products amounted to or normally would amount to at least $250. Places of 10 acres or more were counted as farms if sales of agricultural products for the year amounted to or normally would amount to at least $50. This definition was first used in the 1959 Census of Agriculture.

The value of sales from crops, including nursery products and hay, almost tripled between 1969 and 1974, increasing from $597 million to $1.5 billion, while sales of livestock, poultry and their products accounted for $1.0 billion of 1974 sales, rising almost $225 million from 1969.

The average size of an Indiana farm increased from 173 acres in 1969 to 180 acres in 1974, while the number of farms with 500 acres or more rose from 5,931 to 6,979. The average value per acre climbed from $406 to $726.

The amount of Indiana land on which corn was harvested for grain increased between 1969 and 1974. During the five-year period, the number of acres rose from 4.4 to 5.0 million, but output dropped from 430 to 362 million bushels, and the total of farms harvesting corn for grain declined from 63,000 to 59,000.

The number of farms harvesting wheat decreased from 39,000 to 37,000, while acreage rose from 830,000 to 1.2 million, and production jumped from 32 to 43 million bushels. Fewer farms harvested soybeans in 1974-51,000 versus 53,000--but soybean acreage rose from 3.1 to 3.7 million. The total number of farms harvesting oats fell from 17,000 to 11,000 and the amount of land on which oats were harvested was recued from 277,000 to 156,000 acres.

The number of cattle and calves increased from 1,794,000 to 1,810,000 with beef cow inventories growing from 661,000 to 751,000 head and milk cows declining from 227,000 to 202,000 head. The number of farms with cattle and calves dropped from 52,000 to 48,000. Fewer farms raised hogs--24,000 versus 35,000--and hog inventories decreased from 4.4 to 3.3 million animals.

The number of farms raising sheep fell from 10,000 to 6,000 and sheep inventories were cut from 283,000 to 156,000. Fewer farms had laying hens--9,000 versus 11,000--but inventories of hens and pullets of laying age increased from 11 to 13 million birds.

The number of full owner-operated farms decreased from 64,000 to 59,000, while the number of part owner-operator farms dropped from 24,700 to 24,300. Tenant-operated farms declined from 12,000 to 9,000. The average age of farm operators increased from 49.8 to 50.6 years. Almost 45 percent of all farm operators reported that farming was not their principal occupation.

Data for farms with sales of $2,500 or more are shown for both 1974 and 1969 in the report. There were 70,175 of these farms in Indiana in 1974 and they represented 76 percent of all farms. Moreover, these farms accounted for 99 percent of the value of agricultural products sold and averaged $36,139 in sales. This compares with 67,264 of these farms in 1969 with an average of $20,218 in sales.

Farms with sales of $2,500 or more averaged 221 acres in size and accounted for 99 percent of the bushels of corn harvested and 95 percent of the cattle and calves sold in 1974. Farms with sales of $40,000 and over increased from 7,730 in 1969 to 17,792 in 1974. There were 5,401 farms with sales of $100,000 or more in 1974.

The preliminary report, "1974 Census of Agriculture: Indiana," contains more than 600 facts about agriculture in the state. The same items of information have also been published for each county having ten or more farms. Copies for all states and published counties are for sale from the Subscriber Services Section (Publications) Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233, or through any Department of Commerce District Office. The price is 25 cents a copy.

Farm survey begins

During the next few weeks several Kosciusko County farmers will be asked to participate in a nationwide survey to develop Indiana and United States' estimates of winter wheat plantings, and livestock and poultry numbers.

Margaret Clark of Silver Lake, who will be contacting the local producers for the Indiana Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, says that the farms were scientifically selected to represent a cross section of the State farmers. Farmers' responses to interview questions will play a significant part in establishing 1977 wheat acreage estimates; cattle, hog and chicken numbers; and the expected pig and calf crops.

Early American Art described to DAR members

"Early American Art" was described by Madeline Fisher at the Oct. 26 combined meeting of Anthony Nigo and Tippecanoe River chapters of Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. Fisher, art teacher at Triton High School and librarian at Bell Memorial Library, Mentone, followed the beginnings of American art from the first immigrants, who were mostly of lower class families not considered patrons of the arts. She noted many of the early paintings had rural backgrounds because farming was the primary industry. As time went by, pictures became historical in nature although portrait painters still made the most money. From these painters evolved other painters, some of whom were realistic in their approach, some who painted in dimensions and others who developed paintings not from what they saw but from what they felt when observing the subject.

The meeting in the Etana Green Church of Christ was preceded by dinner. Mrs. James Weakley gave the table grace, and Mrs. George Slabaugh conducted an auction of homemade items.

Greetings were exchanged by regents Mrs. Lewis Klinefelter and Mrs. Glenn Clauss. Mrs. Frank Smith invited everyone to the Mentone Bicentennial Commission's final program.

The next meeting will be December 28 at Annabel Mentzer's home. At that time, the money tree will go to either the Bell Memorial Museum or Milburn School. Members are asked to specify which project they wish to support.

Accident Report

A southbound car driven by Gary Lippy, 18, R.1, Silver Lake, struck and killed a deer on SR 15 Saturday evening. Damage to his car was estimated at $150.

On Sunday evening, a deer was struck on SR 19, two miles south of Mentone. Driver of the southbound auto was James D. Richard, 25, Mishawaka. Damage was estimated at $300 to his vehicle.

It Happened In Mentone

Taken from the Nov. 19, 1947 issue of the Northern Indiana Co-Op News:

Mr. and Mrs. John Knecht arrived home last Thursday from China. They flew from China to San Francisco and came on to Chicago by train; Mrs. S. M. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bowser met them there. Mr. Knecht's mother, Mrs. Kirkwood, of Hartford City, came here last Thursday to meet them. Rev. and Mrs. Knecht have spent the past year in China in mission work and had planned to remain for another four years before illness forced them to return home.

The "rum" and euchre players have been more jittery than a near-sighted window peeper the past few months since the old hotel was torn down, but their hopes are being renewed. Lee Ernsberger, with the aid of Fred Horn and his construction gang, are putting up a brick and cement block building on the Peterson lot just west of Pete's Lunch where Lee plans to have an up-to-date game room. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saemann recently returned from a trip that took them to Europe.

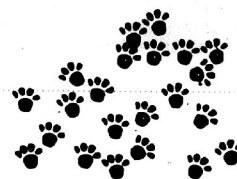

The Country Print Shop had a new printer yesterday, a recent graduate of the Mergenthaler Linotype School in Brooklyn, who thought he'd like to work in our plant--and still does--but the town sounded too much like a grave yard to him. Being without an auto to travel to the church of his choice and other entertaining affairs, his nerves just wouldn't stand the pressure in our isolated and noise-free community. He was a swell lad, and his parting response was that he'd be back if he ever got a car.

Reception honors Wilson

Several hundred area residents greeted Dr. and Mrs. Wymond Wilson at an informal reception and tea Sunday afternoon in the commons area of Tippecanoe Valley High School.

Sponsored by Mentone civic organizations, the affair was the community's way of expressing appreciation for Dr. Wilson's dedicated medical service since he opened his practice in 1954.

Among the guests was Marcia Nellans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Nellans, Warsaw, the first of 759 babies Dr. Wilson delivered until discontinuing obstetrics in 1969. Born Jan. 1, 1955, she is now a senior at Purdue University. The youngest is Kimberly Keirn, born Oct. 3, 1969. Although his first and last deliveries were girls, boys outnumbered girls 391-368, and there were four sets of twins--Debbie and Tami Ward, Michael and David Julian, Bryan and Ryan Murphy and Deanne and Denise Harshman.

The son of Harvey Newton and Bertha Jeanette Boyer Wilson, Dr. Wilson was born at Angola, attended school at Flint and graduated at Pleasant Lake. After attending Griffin Jr. College in Van Wert, Ohio, for two years, he served three years in the U.S. Air Force, receiving an air medal with four oak leaf clusters. He graduated from Indiana University in 1949 and received his M.D. from IU in 1953.

Married June 27, 1953 to the former Esthel Arleda Hemry, he interned at Edward Sparrow Hospital in Lansing, Mich., until opening his office in Mentone in 1954.

A program distributed Sunday quoted from Who's Who In The Midwest in saying Dr. Wilson was on the staff at Woodlawn Hospital from 1954 to 1962, served as chief of staff at Murphy Medical Center, Warsaw, in 1970 and was on the staff there from 1954 to 1976; is presently a member of the board of directors and on the staff at Kosciusko Co. Community Hospital and is medical director at Miller's Merry Manor, Inc., Warsaw.

In addition, he served on the Tippecanoe Valley school board from 1972 to 1976, has been chairman of the administrative board of the Mentone United Methodist Church since 1969 and is a member of the Mentone Masonic Lodge, Mentone Flying Club, Inc., Lions Club, American Legion, Chamber of Commerce, Bell Aircraft Museum committee and the Warsaw Elks.

Our Readers Write

The NEWS welcomes letters for publication but prefers that they be kept under 200 words. The letters need not express the views of this paper; however, they should not be libelous or in poor taste. Anonymous letters will not be published. The name of the writer must appear with his letter.

Dear Editor,

Why not make Thanksgiving Day a day of remembrance for persons not as fortunate as we are, as each of you gives thanks for good fortune and health? The concern shown by a fellow human being who buys a gift for a hospitalized mental patient can provide a real lift for someone who is cut off from the kind of Christmas festivities most of us take for granted.

The Fulton county chapter of the Mental Health association is collecting presents for patients at Logansport state hospital. Many of these gifts will stay within our own county and can be distributed to patients in local nursing homes who have no family and would otherwise not be remembered at Christmastime. These gifts will be assembled and assigned to various patients on a selective basis.

Personalizing presents for patients is time-consuming, so we need to have gifts by Dec. 7.

Gifts should be new, unbreakable, of large sizes, and not wrapped. Gifts can range from sweaters, dresses, or less expensive items such as cosmetics, hose, tooth paste, or hand soap. Gifts of $1 or less are accepted and greatly appreciated. Gifts can be deposited at the following places:

- Akron Methodist Church
- Akron Exchange Bank
- Bethlehem Baptist Church

Christmas Gift Chairman
Mrs. Nelson Hunter, Jr.

Dear Editor,

The Trail of Death commemoration which began here Sept. 4 was completed with a commemoration Nov. 4 at Paola, Kansas, right on schedule at 3:30 p.m., the exact time the Potawatomes arrived there according to the diary kept by Jesse C. Douglas, the enrolling agent.

The Fulton County Historical Society wrote to all the counties from here to Kansas last spring, telling them of our plans to commemorate and inviting them to take part. Sister M. Charles McGrath, president of the Paola Bicentennial committee, answered and expressed great interest. We told her of the documents and historical records here in Indiana. She told us of the Potawatomes in Kansas and what they did after they arrived in 1838.

The most authentic part of the whole thing was having the Potawatomi Indians from the northern part of Kansas descendents of those who made the trip in 1838, come to take part in the event. There was one who can remember his grandfather telling him about the trip, a little boy who remembered crossing a big river and riding in a wagon.

Eighteen Indians, men, women and children, from the Indian reservation in northeast Kansas, came to Paola Nov. 4 at the invitation of the Paola Bicentennial committee and followed a wagon trail to Osawatimie, where they were met by people at that town near the site of their original crossing of the Osage river. Originally they followed Bull Creek to Osage and then to Potawatomie Creek, where they ended their two-month-long trek, called the Trail of Death because of the large number lost by death and sickness on their way from Indiana.

Arriving in Osawatimie, the group was taken to the city auditorium where a short program commemorated the event. The Rev. Thomas Bowdern of Kansas City, representing the "black-robes", missionaries who established a mission for the Potawatomes near the present site of the city of Osawatimie, gave the opening prayer. Sister McGrath gave the history of the Trail of Death and the Methodist and Catholic missions to the Indians. The Potawatomi presented a program of song and dance.

Pictures of the Indians riding horses and wagons into town were printed in the Paola newspaper, along with an account of how the residents of Fulton County and Rochester, Indiana, began the event with a Trail of Death Rendezvous on Labor Day. The Miami County (Kansas) Historical Society plans to mark two or three points in the county where the Potawatomes entered, spent the night, etc.

We are gratified that the Trail of Death is at last getting its place in history instead of being forgotten and ignored. All it needs now for Jessamyn West to write a novel about it. And we wrote to her and asked her to do just that, but she wrote back that she was already engaged in a writing project. But maybe in the future....

Meanwhile, the Fulton County Historical Society is making plans for an annual event, the Trail of Courage Rendezvous. It will be the third weekend of Sept.

Notice of this and all the other festivals in Fulton County were sent to the Readers Digest for a book on folk festivals to be published next year.

--Shirley Willard

President Melva Smith told about her trip to Pennsylvania. She also told about certain goals for 4-Hers.

Robin Secrist told about her achievement book and about collecting pictures, letters, articles with your name, etc. If you win at county you get a jacket, at state you go to National. There are six groups at National and if you win you get a scholarship.

We elected teen leaders. They are: Aramenta Gross, Carol Kantner and Beth Fugate.

We appointed Marilyn King, Teresa Bazini and Tina Robbins to plan the Christmas party next month.

We talked about a money making project.

To end the meeting, we sang "Children of the Lord" and Coni met with the officers.

60 YEARS AGO

An impromptu meeting was held last Thursday at the Exchange bank lobby to talk over and look into the prospects for a milk bottling station at this place. Mr. Metzger was here, representing the Bowman Milk Company of Chicago. He is working in conjunction with the C & E railway management to locate a bottling station at this point. At the meeting held Thursday a pledge was asked from the Akron milk producers for 200 cans of milk daily. There were a dozen farmers present at this meeting and they pledged about half of the amount. This encouraged Mr. Metzger so much that he agreed to report to his company favorable. Here is an opportunity for the farmer to do something for themselves, by bringing the head of the milk market right near them, at their very door as it were, and also to help Akron to one more industry. The industry may lead to an ice cream plant, and an ice factory. If it does, the establishment will employ 25 to 40 men every day.

It has been raining for twenty-four hours as we go to press which is hard on the open trenches for the waterworks system, and which are not yet tested.

The Mother's Club met in open meeting at the home of Mrs. Cleotis Smith, the Public Library having been closed on account of coal shortage. Responses were civic problems. The next meeting will occur at the Public Library at which time the Boy Scout Movement will be discussed. Every mother of boys should make special arrangements to attend this meeting. It will pay you. Remember the date.

Announcement was made this week of the resignation of Albert M. Price Jr. as cashier of the Akron Exchange State Bank. His resignation will become effective Jan. 1 when he will assume the office of vice president of the First Nat. Bank in Rochester. The directors of the bank met this week and elected Randall Leininger, present assistant cashier, to the post of cashier.

"Our bargain-minded computer helps keep your electric bill down", says System Operator Len Fieler.

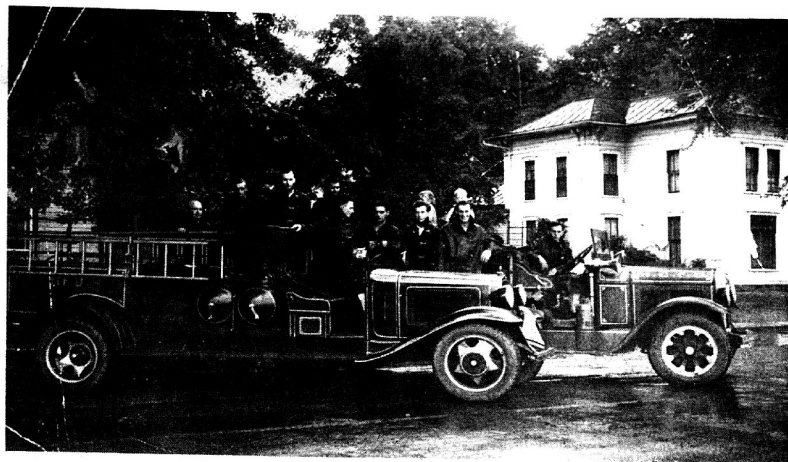

System Operator Leonard H. Fieler, Plainfield

Electricity can't be stored. We have to make it the instant you want it. As your need for electricity changes, a computer in our system control center automatically increases output of the most economical generators available. Or decreases output of the least economical generators. This means that the lowest-cost generators are meeting your electrical needs around the clock. And we're able to supply you with the lowest-cost electricity possible. It's one more way we're working to hold the line on your electric bill.

New books at Akron Carnegie Public Library

CARRYING THE FIRE by Michael Collins. For more than a decade, the world watched man hurtling into space, experiencing new dimensions, walking where no one had gone before, and we asked: "What's it like up there?" Michael Collins, the Gemini 10 and Apollo II astronaut, answers the question. In this remarkable book, he captures, in a very personal way, the drama, beauty, and humor of one of man's greatest adventures.

THE GOLDEN GATE by Alistair MacLean. This author, whose best selling novels have long marked him as the master of the suspense-adventure-espionage tale, here fetches up a chilling story of political abduction non-pareil.

GAME IN DIAMONDS by Elizabeth Cadell. In her inimitable way, Elizabeth Cadell has once again artfully blended romance and mystery.

THE ITALIAN WOMAN by Jean Plaidy. This historic novel portrays Catherine de' Medici in the middle stages of her career, when she was no longer the neglected wife and the most humiliated of all the queens of France, but the powerful mother of kings. At this stage Catherine was not yet the infamous woman she was to become towards the end of her life, but was already beginning to show definite signs of that ruthless monster. Without conscience, without morality, she used now one, now another, as seemed to her most expedient, in order to keep the throne for Henry and rule France through him.

THE LONELY HEROES: PROFESSIONAL BASKETBALL'S GREAT CENTERS by Merv Harris.

Senate adopts rules of procedure

State Sen. Robert E. Peterson (D-District 18) reports the State Senate had adopted its rules of procedure, one of which requires all standing committee and subcommittee meetings shall be open to the public. The rule during the 1975 session required committee meetings, whenever possible, be open to the public. Sen. Peterson supported the rule change because he felt the 1975 rule permitted an abuse of the executive session. Peterson reports the Senate has also proposed all Senate-House conference committee meetings must be open to the public. The House must agree and adopt a similar rule in order for the conference committee rule to be effective.

Peterson said he also supports the proposed change in the law that would move the deadline for adjournment in odd-numbered years, such as 1977, from April 30 to March 30.

Indiana in danger of losing local school control, says IAPSS official

Citizens of Indiana are in danger of losing control of their local public school systems, according to Dr. Charles E. Fields, executive secretary of the Indiana Association of Public School Superintendents (IAPSS).

In making this statement Monday, Dr. Fields said the warning note was sounded in anticipation of the strong push to expand the collective bargaining process that will be made by school employee lobbying groups during the 1977 General Assembly.

Dr. Fields said efforts were made in this direction throughout the 1976 Indiana General Assembly when House Bill 1395 was introduced. The legislation called for mandated bargaining of "fringe benefits; procedures for the promotion, demotion, transfer, assignment and retention of employees; school calendar; class size; pupil-teacher ratio; curriculum development and revision, preparation time, extra curricular activities, student discipline, expulsion or supervision of students, agency shop and general working conditions."

Dr. Fields said, "This bill passed the House of Representatives by the vote of 65-30, but, fortunately for the people in Indiana, died in the Senate Education Committee. Unfortunately, however, similar legislation will be introduced during the 1977 session."

"National and state school employee groups have pushed hard for legislation that will expand the scope of collective bargaining, because such legislative action is in line with their major objective of 'self-governance,'" he said. "This concept basically calls for teacher (professional) control of our public school systems and would seriously erode public control." He added, "Self-governance means 'professional (or teacher) governance.'"

The executive secretary said IAPSS believes staff members should have input into the areas that will effect their ability to carry out their responsibilities as school employees. He said, "The present collective bargaining law (Public Law 217) provides for such input through the 'discussible' process. All of the areas cited, with the exception of agency shop, are, under the present law, mandated areas for discussion between local teacher groups and local school officials. They are not, however, mandated as bargainable items."

He continued, "Local school boards must retain the final decision making authority and determine whether or not they will bargain over these important areas. If the public is to retain control of the educational process in Indiana, this is absolutely essential."

Fields stated, "School board members are elected or appointed representatives of the people; they must have the authority to act on behalf of the citizens of each local school community. Local public control of our schools is the keystone of the American public school system."

"School officials have voiced their opposition to this erosion of public control for many years. Their unified voice in opposition has not, however, been loud enough to hold back the forces lobbying for expansion of the collective bargaining process for school employees. The general public must become concerned and vocal in opposition to expansion of that process," Fields said.

Concluding his remarks, Fields said, "Each citizen of this state with a concern regarding the public control of education has an obligation to become informed regarding the issue of expanded collective bargaining rights for school employees. Those citizens should then communicate their concerns in this area to their representatives in the 1977 Indiana General Assembly. The members in both the House of Representatives and the Senate will respect the will of the people regarding this important issue. They cannot respond, however, until the general public makes its voice heard. Who will control Indiana's public schools tomorrow? Will it be the public or will it be the teaching profession? The decision rests with the citizens of this state."

Troop 221 met Monday November 22. We received patrol books and made baskets and cards. The remainder of the meeting was a Thanksgiving program. Refreshments were furnished by Bonnie Holloway, Pat Trippiedi and Byrdie Smith. The meeting was closed with telling of something they are thankful for.

Purchased from Blackhawk Films, the black and white silent movie was made in 1915.

A free-will offering will be taken to help pay for the film. The public is invited.

Turkey winners

Five area residents won turkeys in last week's Akron Jaycee-sponsored drawing.

They are Grace Arthur, Cora Copen, Alta Hudson and Violet Smoker, all of Akron, and the Rev. Fred Landolt, Silver Lake.

The turkey drawing, for which there is no element of lottery involved since no purchase is necessary, is an annual project of the Jaycees.

Separation of church and state could hardly be more complete. The church teaches that money isn't everything and the government keeps telling us it is.
