

Mentone to host town meeting

Citizens of Mentone will gather to hold a "town meeting" on November 8 at the Town Hall from 7-10 p.m. The town meeting to which the public is invited will demonstrate an effective, public meeting to deal with local concerns.

The participants will take a look at the challenges facing Mentone, and will then try to work out practical proposals for local solutions.

The town meeting is being sponsored by the Mentone Chamber of Commerce, with the cooperation of the Town Board. According to chamber spokesman, Paul Haist, ninety invitations have been sent to local civic leaders, group and organization members, businessmen, and citizens. However, the meeting will be open to any concerned citizen who wishes to attend.

"Town Meeting Indiana" is a product of the 1976 Bicentennial according to John Bengel, director of the Institute of Cultural Affairs office in Indianapolis. ICA is a private, non-profit organization with national headquarters in Washington, D.C.

The purpose of "Town Meeting Indiana" is to bring people together to think positively about their community and its needs.

During the meeting, participants will be asked to list some of Mentone's accomplishments, and then to list their hopes for Mentone in the next five to ten years.

The group will then meet to discuss the problems blocking the fulfillment of these dreams in terms of economic, political, and cultural issues.

It is hoped that this meeting will get the people of Mentone together to work out problems concerning them.

ICA will prepare a document after the meeting, summarizing the ideas, goals, and solutions, and will then distribute them to the participants.

More than 4,000 Hoosiers have already attended "Town Meetings". Governor Bowen, U.S. Senators, Congressmen, corporations, teachers, and common folk have all expressed support for these town meetings.

More information on the Mentone Town meeting may be obtained by calling Paul Haist at 353-7791. Refreshments will be served.

Akron Fall Festival is big success

HUNDREDS of kids of all ages gathered in the Akron gym Wednesday to take part in the school's first Annual Fall Festival.

People by the hundreds took some time out of their busy pre-Halloween schedules to enjoy a full evening of food and fun at the first annual Fall Festival held at the Akron School last Wednesday.

Teachers, staff, students, and parents all pitched in to make the event a memorable one.

Events for the evening included a chili supper (with its steady, long line of hungry but patient customers), a cake walk, haunted house, fish pond, and several other fun, carnival-like attractions.

Prior to the festival, students voluntarily competed to see who could sell the most chili tickets. The winning students were: Robbie Jones, a second grader in Mrs. Wards class. Robbie, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Garrell Jones, Akron, sold 66 tickets. First grader Amy Swick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Macks Swick, Silver Lake, sold 33 tickets. Amy is in Mrs. Bunnells first grade class. Jennifer Shewman sold 19 tickets, and is a fifth grader in Mrs. Raders' class. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Con Shewman of Akron.

The last winner was fourth grader Mark Shafer who sold 18 tickets. Mark's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shafer of Akron. He is a student in Mrs. Howard's class.

The winners received either a transistor radio or a "Little Professor" learning computer.

Sound Off!

"When the town ordered weeds cut in vacant lots why just certain lots were to be cut and others let weeds stand. If you order all vacant lots cleaned why not all."

"Every non-voter is casting a vote in favor of losing his freedom. How can anyone, physically able, mentally aware, and morally strong, dare profess to be a good American if he does not bother to vote. It's preposterous! So please vote Tuesday, November 7."

"If people can go to the trouble of putting up signs for garage sales, why can't they take the time to take them down afterwards. Have you ever gone looking for a garage sale that's over with?"

"It's very difficult finding a parking space at Valley, you can't see any parking lines! Are they going to re-paint them soon?"

TVHS sports banquet set

The Tippecanoe Valley High School athletic department will have its fall athletic awards dinner Thursday, Nov. 2, 1978, in the high school commons.

A carry-in supper will begin at 6:30 p.m. with meat and drinks furnished by the school. Persons attending are asked to bring a covered dish and table service.

The awards program, for the following sports, will begin at 7:30 p.m. - baseball, cross country, tennis, freshman football, girls golf and volleyball.

Following the awards program a community rally for the play-off bound Valley team will be in the gym.

Area churches sponsor bazaars

On Saturday, November 4, there will be a gift bazaar sponsored by the Akron United Methodist Church.

The bazaar, starting at 9 a.m. at the church, will feature breakfast, lunch, and supper meals.

Baked goods, plants, handicrafts and Christmas gifts will be among the several items on sale.

Everyone is invited to attend and join in the fun.

The Mentone United Methodist Women will be sponsoring a bazaar at the church on Friday, November 3, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. with a soup and sandwich luncheon from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Christmas gifts, household items, baked and canned goods, jellies and crafts will be on sale. There are some delightful toys available, and darling baby's wear. There will also be a special "antique what not" area.

Chairman for the event are Becky Skinner, Carol Boyer, Betty Blackburn, Cindy Law, and Rosemary Bazini.

Mystery of Sarah lives on

by Marilyn French

There's an old legend around the area about Sarah's grave. Having been there myself a few years ago, I decided it would be worth finding out more about it.

On Old Fort Wayne Road is a farm and on the land is some pine trees in a field - in between the trees are three graves. I must admit at night, with flashlights and a gang of kids pushing and shoving and screaming, my memories were somewhat eerie. No, I didn't see Sarah, but have recently talked to someone who did!

Before we go into to gory details, here's some background of our spook -- Sarah.

The story begins with Sarah and Ralph, who were married. Well, Sarah ended up marrying someone else and they had a child, named Nancy. This of course, left Ralph out in the dark -- so to speak. Anyway, Ralph was very upset so, he took Nancy down the road and drowned her in the culvert. Sarah, was upset over this deal.

and was running around the house in a rage, when she caught her night gown on fire in the fireplace. She ran upstairs and jumped out the window. So, everyone says Sarah will never rest till she and Ralph solve their differences.

Different people living in the house, claim Sarah is quite a show-off. She's always turning on the TV, or radios, and slamming doors, plus rocking the chair, her favorite. The fireplace, was bricked up, because of the constant appearance of her in the flame.

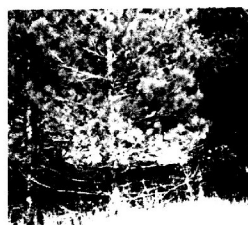

Now a certain family was living at the house and their girls had a slumber party. All the girls wanted to see some proof of the spirit that lived in their house. So first, they all went to the grave and jumped on it -- just to be sure they had her attention. There is a path to the grave, from the house, that is supposedly made from the many trips that Sarah makes. Most people feel her watching them when they visit the gravesite.

After the girls came back, they turned out the lights, and sat on their bed upstairs. As they held hands, they began to call Sarah, asking her to show herself. The first sign appeared -- the dog began to bark, which he always did when Sarah was walking about. Then, suddenly, the room became darker, as though more darkness swept in from one end of the room to the other. The girls opened their eyes, and there she stood.

She walked through the wall and passed through a desk. Leaning on a nearby dresser, she stared at them intently. Silently, the girls watched her, she stood about five feet, had long hair, and was wearing an off-white gown. Facial features were not clear, but dark holes were all that could be made out for her eyes.

One of the girls yelled, "Why don't you get back with Ralph?" Then she lunged towards them. Someone turned the lights on and Sarah pulled her arm over head and disappeared. Later that night the bed fell, and the slumber party was again in hysteria.

Hopefully, Sarah will find her peace and quit pestering everyone who lives in her house. But in the meantime, families continue to move out and the house is for sale very often.

At the bottom of these pine trees is the top part of Sarah's tombstone. It has somehow rolled down the hill several yards from the base. The base is back up through the trees on the far left. The other tombstones are there, also knocked over. The ground around the base of Sarah's tombstone is sunken in quite deep.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE VOTERS OF HENRY AND NEWCASTLE TOWNSHIPS

My name is Keith Kline. My wife, Joan, 17 month old son Daniel and I operate a small dairy farm in Richland township. Like everyone we feel the bite of inflation and high taxes. I feel that government spending is the leading cause of inflation and the more our elected officials spend the higher inflation goes.

For this reason I decided to run for Fulton County Council. It is the Council that approves all money spent by the county. This is a job that needs a person who is not afraid to raise questions about expenditures and vote against even popular projects that are not in the best interest of the tax payers. It needs a person who can admit mistakes when proven wrong and be flexible enough to change.

We in District 2 have not had this kind of representation. We have had spending when we needed to save. We have had closed minded representation when flexibility was needed.

I bring to this office the tough questioning yet thoughtful consideration needed in our Council. To this...

Smoke is thick!

If anyone could invent an economical, disposable oxygen mask, he could make an autumn fortune in our area.

Last weekend in both Mentone and Akron, the smoke from burning leaves was thick enough to make a lumberjack cry.

To help avoid future similar incidents, we offer the town boards these well-thought-out suggestions!

- 1) Allow burning of red leaves only on Saturday from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., from 2 to 5 p.m. allow yellow leaves only to burn. Sundays would then be available to burn all other colors.
- 2) Begin annual licensing of lawn rakes. Require annual rake inspections to make sure handles are free of splinters and rake prongs are of uniform length. Revenues from these inspections could be used to purchase a giant fan to flow the smoke towards Gary where they would never notice it.
- 3) Restrict leaf burning to inside the home only. This should help the outside environment considerably.
- 4) Outlaw matches and lighters. Fires must be started by rubbing two sticks together. Better yet, insist that fires be started by rubbing two boy scouts together.
- 5) Require that property owners cut down any tree that sheds its leaves. This would scare most trees to shape up.

Letters to the Editor

Festival was success

DEAR EDITOR:

The Akron Schools K-8 first annual Fall Festival was a tremendous success. This success can be attributed to three groups within the school community: the school staff, the students, and parents and relatives of students.

My thanks to the teachers who not only displayed much enthusiasm for the festival, but also generated immense enthusiasm within their respective classrooms.

My thanks to the cooks who gave of their time to prepare and serve the delicious meal which made the Chili Supper the success that it was.

My thanks to the many kindergarten through fifth grade students who sold advanced tickets for the Chili Supper. Also, thanks to the students who worked in the booths the night of the Festival.

Finally, my thanks to the parents who donated a pie or cake, worked in a booth, or simply brought their children to enjoy the Festival.

The school community is to be commended for working together to achieve this level of success.

—Mark A. Barker, Principal

Room completed

DEAR EDITOR:

The new Aubbeenaubee Township history room is completed and looks simply gorgeous. Virgil Emry, Harold Reese, and Herman Pickens did a marvelous job putting up the ceiling, paneling, and plywood floor. Cook Brothers Furniture will donate and install linoleum. So soon it will be all ready for the display cases and historical artifacts.

Anyone with display cases to donate, please call the Fulton County Historical Society at Rochester 223-4436 or Wilma McGlothlin or Linda Stayton at Leiters Ford. Already one display case has been donated by Tom White of The Book Store.

To show off the new room and let all admire its beauty, the next FCHS meeting will be Nov. 28, at 7:30 p.m. Movies of the 1978 Trail of Courage Rendezvous and the Leiters Ford - Richland Center 1950 basketball relay in 1977 will be shown. The public is invited.

Oppose U.N. Day

DEAR EDITOR:

Area members and friends of The John Birch Society do not view the United Nations as a supporter of true human rights and freedom. Instead, we believe that our contributions to the United Nations have helped to suppress basic rights and glorify tyrants. We also believe that UN Day on October 24 should be viewed as "a United Nations Day of Shame," and that we should withdraw from the world body. During the period around October 24, Birchers will be distributing literature, hosting film showings, and conducting other educational projects that support our beliefs.

These educational activities will be coordinated locally by Eugene Troutman, who serves as the Chapter Leader in Fulton County. According to Mrs. Troutman, "the United States has to pay at least 25 percent of the regular UN budget. By comparison, more than half the member nations of the world body individually contributes only 0.02 percent. As a group, these nations pay less than one-sixteenth the amount contributed by U.S. taxpayers. Yet, they make up a majority of the votes in the UN General Assembly." Mrs. Troutman adds that "this is only the tip of the iceberg. Besides the regular budget, there are also separate budgets for a number of UN agencies. Most of our contributions to the United Nations go to help finance these separate budgets. In fact, during the two-year period of 1976 and 1977, we gave the United Nations a cool $1 billion, which was about 40 percent of total UN spending."

—Rachel Templeton

Thank You!

DEAR EDITOR:

A special thank you to Marshall Beattie and Deputy Secrist for helping me find my cat. It is nice to know that they even care for little girls and Calico cats.

Thank you again.

Mittens

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 17th DISTRICT

It is not my policy to answer political propaganda ads, but the ones written by Stan Nice, Kosciusko County Democrat Chairman regarding the Fuel adjustment clause are so misrepresented, that an answer is needed.

The Accusations against me and the legislature are completely false. The amended fuel adjustment clause Senate Bill No. 535, on house roll call No. 718, April 3, 1975 is not a fuel adjustment charge. The legislature can not vote a charge on utility bills. The pledge by my opponent to eliminate the fuel adjustment charge, if elected, is absolutely false, as the legislature can not put on or take off a fuel adjustment charge on utility bills. The Indiana Public Service Commission is the rate regulator of utilities.

I voted against allowing sales tax on utilities, contrary to the Democrats accusation that I voted for the sales tax.

As your State Representative I feel you are entitled to the true facts.

Will appreciate your vote for Thames Mauzy on Nov. 7th. Thank You.

How about those apples?!

by Marilyn French

Welcome to the Doud Orchard in Denver, Indiana. Lorne J. and Betty M. Doud are the proud owners and the fourth generation in the "apple business".

"My great-grandfather planted the first commercial orchard here in 1894," says Lorne. Where the building stands used to be a one room school house. And in 1843, the land was purchased. So, it is quite a family heritage. David, their son, works with them and is the fifth generation to follow on the apple tradition.

A lot of work goes into an orchard, and the beautiful apples at the Doud Orchard were proof of all the right techniques for a good crop.

Most replanting done, is to replace old trees or obsolete varieties, which could be both on the same tree. Doud figured they've probably replanted one-third of the acreage in the last ten years, and in the next ten years, will replant another half of the crop.

Doud explains, "We're going to the dwarf trees for high density and we get 200 trees to an acre." "Before, with the larger or standard trees, we only got 30 to an acre." "In some areas of the northwest, they plant 600 to an acre." This is much easier for the apple pickers to reach, with the new dwarf trees, not to mention the amount of work done in less time. A lot of the heavy work is eliminated by using huge crates that can be lifted and moved around with a fork lift.

"The most difficult problem right now," says Doud, "is the hiring of labor, especially since it's seasonal work."

When it is time to pick the crop, ripeness is usually the middle of September. This early bunch consists of Grimes, Jonathon, and Red Delicious. In October comes the "Rome Beauty" and some later maturing kinds such as Golden Delicious, Stayman, Wine Sap, Melrose and Idared. These usually keep till the 1st of May in their refrigerated building kept at 33 degrees.

Pruning is done mainly for size control and thinning out the dwarf trees. Along with other care of the trees, comes spraying, which is mild and completely safe insists the Doud's. Lorne hasn't fertilized the last few years, and he explains, "It can cause the trees to be over 'vigorous'." The main damage to trees is probably insects and disease, which spraying controls. This is an all summer job.

Of course other damaging factors are winter injury, hail, drought, or too much rain, not to mention the threat of a Spring frost. Also, very interesting, is how a wild grape vine can completely take over a tree. This happens when the birds drop seeds into the orchard.

How long does a tree live? Well, the average tree is 40 years on the standard size tree, and 20 to 30 years on the dwarf size. But would you believe the Doud's have a tree that their great-grandfather planted? It's 80 to 100 years old!

As a final quote, and evidently a family saying, is "There's nothing worse than an old man with an old orchard." I don't think we can say that about the Doud Orchard, after testing a few apples the flavor is out of this world! (not to mention in my stomach!)

Lorne and Betty Doud are shown above with their son David. He is the fifth generation of the Doud family to follow in the apple growing tradition.

Lorne checks his dwarf apple trees for ripeness.

An example of the juicy apples grown in the Doud tradition.

The first baby show, on Oct. 14, 1854, included 127 exhibits, including a child of 5 months who weighed 27 pounds.

Family Life

By Renee Norlander

Bob and I took Robby to Akron School last Wednesday for the first annual "Fall Festival". Of course he couldn't eat chili, but he enjoyed watching all of the people.

I think anyone and everyone who worked at making the festival a success should be congratulated! It was terrific. There were dozens of desserts to choose from, the chili was hot and served by hard working cooks. The festival was a gigantic success, and all of the kids had a great time.

It was apparent that school activities are always well supported by Valley parents and children. Congratulations to all!

Congratulations go out to Valley Coach Charley Smith and his undefeated Viking football team also. They've worked terribly hard again for a 10-0 season, and we at the NEWS wish them the best of luck in the playoffs.

The Viking fans were terrific again - as usual, and I think they should be commended as well. I've never played on a team, but I'm sure fan-support always helps during those tough games. It must be great to know that everyone in Tippecanoe Valley is behind you!

Congratulations team!!

I also want to thank everyone who has sent recipes to me. I'll get them in the paper as quick as I can, and I really appreciate your saving my face. I was afraid I'd get egg all over it! (Is that a pun?!!)

Tuckers will celebrate 50 years

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tucker of Akron will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday, November 12, 1978, with an open house at the Akron Church of God from 2 - 4 p.m. The occasion will be hosted by the couple's son and his family.

Ralph Tucker and the former Imo Leininger were united in marriage in Warsaw on Nov. 17, 1928 by the Rev. Delbert Thomas.

The Tuckers have one son, Thomas, and two grandchildren, Christopher and Julianne.

Relatives and friends are invited and the couple requests that gifts be omitted.

Nov. 14 is
"Swap Day"
at TVHS

Tippecanoe Valley High School has announced that on Tuesday, November 14, 1978, the high school will be having a SWAP day. Swap day is a project in which a parent/guardian of a student replaces that student for one school day. The purpose behind this day is for the parent/guardian to experience and hopefully better appreciate the world and atmosphere in which their children are being educated.

It is the administrations hope that SWAP day will lead to better understanding between students, parents and the school community. It can and should be a meaningful experience for all involved. If it is not possible for either parent/guardian to substitute for a student, it will be permissible for a relative (at least 21 years of age) to be the swapper. Students must notify the TVHS office of their SWAP plans by November 8.

Students who have someone to attend for them are NOT to be at school on this day. If students do not have a swapper they ARE expected to be in school.

To celebrate 50th

Wendell Duzenbery and Marjorie F. Kochenderfer were married November 10, 1928 in the parsonage of the Presbyterian Church of Rochester by the Rev. Daniel Perry.

They are the parents of two sons, Richard of Akron, and Donald of Kewanna, and one daughter, Mrs. John (Barbara) Hunter of Roann. They have sixteen grandchildren.

November 1, 1978

Dear Mr. Wells:

Write this election only a few days away. I would like to take this last chance to share some thoughts with you. The campaign began in earnest after Labor Day. Since then I have tried to meet each of you on a one-to-one basis so that I could answer any questions you might have about me, my views, or the office I am seeking. I have been to all corners of the county, going door-to-door through each of our communities. My opponent did not try to go door-to-door. His expense reports show him spending four times the amount I have spent in the Shopper's Guide, Akron News, or Kewanna Observer (unless these are in his $451.00 miscellaneous expense). By taking my campaign to the voters on a personal basis, I have attempted to earn your vote, not buy it with a plate of beans, expensive mailings, or other gimmicks. My opponent has recently filed pleadings in the Fulton Circuit Court claiming he could not come to court more than twice a day because the steps are so exhausting; he has openly talked of ordering an elevator for the Courthouse. He has practiced law as a criminal defense attorney for 19 years in defiance of our Code of Judicial Conduct as interpreted by the Indiana Attorney General who says that no City Judge may ethically defend criminal cases in other courts. He has campaigned with bulk mailings which were personally signed, a clear violation of U.S. postal regulations.

As you are deciding how to vote November 7, keep in mind that you are deciding which man is the best man for Fulton Circuit Judge. If each of you keep that simple question before you, I am confident of the outcome. Thank you for your attention and remember, VOTE! on November 7.

Yours truly

Four Mentone residents recall WWI

Akron Did You Know?

Editors note: The Milburn Historical Society is compiling a history book of Mentone for the upcoming Centennial. The following article was contributed by the chairman of that group, Mrs. Eula Smith. Different articles will be appearing periodically in the NEWS regarding this historical endeavor.)

by Eula Romayne Smith

It was sixty years ago on November 11, 1918, that bells ring out loudly in Mentone to celebrate the end of the war to end all wars, and at least four veterans of World War I still live in this community.

Roy Rush was a member of the 16th Engineering Regiment, whose job in France was to build railroads and bridges. Roy worked in the office paying the troops.

The United States government took over the railroads during World War I, and at first Ralph Arnsberger served his country as a fireman on the New York Central from Cleveland to Buffalo. A fireman's job was to scoop the coal that kept the steam engine running properly. Later he entered the service and was stationed at Camp Beauregard, Louisiana.

Earl Shinn was one that was not stricken when the influenza epidemic reached his unit. After he returned to Mentone, he went out with the doctor to help with flu cases here.

W. E. Fowler, a Mentone resident for twenty years, was born in Noble Township, Wabash County. He kept a diary during his service in World War I which began when he enlisted at Indianapolis on December, 1917, and was assigned to the Aviation Section of the Signal Corps.

He spent a few weeks at Fort Thomas, Kentucky; Kelly Field, San Antonio, Texas; and Camp McArthur, Waco, Texas. In March of 1918 he left Newport News, Virginia to go overseas.

For awhile he was in the 648th Aero Squadron, where the company was split into three sections. In France he was in the Headquarters Company of the First Pursuit Group, and later in the 94th Aero Squadron which was commanded for a time by Captain Eddie Rickenbacker. "He was a splendid fellow!" Mr. Fowler said.

He also remembers Capt. Cook from Anderson - Wier Cook Airport in Indianapolis was named for him - and Lt. Quentin Roosevelt, a member of the 95th who was killed. The First Pursuit Group was made up of the 37th, 94th, 95th, and 147th Aero Squadrons.

After the Armistice was signed, the 94th made their way, step by step, to Fort Alexander at Coblenz, Germany. The progress was slow because of the destroyed roads and bridges. They moved by truck, train, or convoy.

On the 12th of December, Fowler had a 24-hour pass and went to Paris with a truck driver to get supplies. He particularly remembers the two huge captured German guns, Big Berthas, that were on display near the Eiffel Tower. "It seems like they were one-half block long, although actually they weren't," he stated.

When queried about Paris night life, he replied that he didn't know, because this trip was made in daytime to pick up food.

At that time he was a cook and thinks they had proper food, so they "fared very well."

Christmas of 1918 was spent moving. That night they stayed in a private home in Luxembourg.

One day a boy he went to school with dropped in to visit. This young man, Albert Mattern, was a motor cycle dispatch rider. After delivering messages in the vicinity, he located Fowler, who, until that time, had no idea where Mattern was.

They were deloused at Coblenz to get ready to go home. Shortly before Memorial Day, 1919, the 94th Aero Squadron, under the command of Major Reed Chambers, left Brest, France and in about two weeks arrived in Long Island, New York. After a three-week delay, due to measles quarantine, they were divided into groups and sent to the camp nearest home to be discharged. W. E. Fowler was discharged from Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio with two other Wabash men and one from Indianapolis, On June 2, 1919.

World War I brought back memories to Mrs. Fowler, too. Three of her brothers were in the service. The oldest, a lieutenant, was in Argonne Forest, ready to go over the top when word came about the Armistice. He came home in March, but the next Armistice Day was killed, falling from a frosty roof that he was repairing.

The government sent a message to her family that her second brother was lost and presumed dead. Later they received a letter from him telling that he had become lost, and lived three days on raw red beets before he got back to the company in the 5th Division. He was gassed three times, which left him an invalid and later caused his death. The third brother was injured when his truck hit a mine.

Some say sneezing on Saturday means you'll see your sweetheart on Sunday.

Enjoy Chicago trip

by Marilyn French

After a 6:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. day, most of the excitement and thrill of the Las Donces Chicago trip had diminished.

Aching feet, legs, arms, and hands from carrying all those treasures, was a few complaints we heard as the group boarded for the trip home.

Everyone did get some shopping done as they filled the baggage compartment under the bus, plus the storage above the seats. Quite an overload, as we turned some corners, a few landed on the heads below.

There was just a slight mix-up just before leaving. There were gals standing, because there wasn't enough seats. So the bus driver kindly announced over the loud speaker, "Will those of you that are not going back to Akron, please get off, or that's where you're going!" Then, there was quite a bit of shuffling and all of a sudden everyone had a seat. Whew! We women just can't get organized after a difficult day of decisions.

A stop near Gary for supper at "Bonanza" turned out to be quite a treat.

Finally, 10:00 o'clock came and the bus came rolling into Akron. This of course throws everyone concerned into a panic to grab packages. After switching seats three times in a row, it's difficult to remember where your belongings were last seen. Since it was only 38 degrees, and a lot of cold cars and no coats, the parking lot cleared out in a hurry. Only to leave a defenseless, head throbbing bus driver. Shouldn't he be used to women chattering by now?

New books at Akron library

New books received at the Akron Carnegie Public Library include the following:

THE HELPER by Catherine Marshall. We have no greater need today than to be informed about the Holy Spirit. We need to know who He is, why we need Him, what miraculous acts of love He longs to perform for us, and how we go about receiving Him. This is what "The Helper" is all about.

EMMA AND I by Sheila Hocken. This is the true and inspiring story of a young woman's triumphant search for sight.

THE QUEEN'S FAVORITES by Jean Plaidy. The scene is set at the beginning of the eighteenth century, one of the most glorious chapters of English history. While Anne was engaged in her private tug-of-war, the nation was obsessed with another, more public battle.

THE STRONG-WILLED CHILD by Dr. James Dobson. This assertive little fellow, whom Dr. Dobson calls, "The strong-willed child", is a precious human being who needs a special kind of understanding and discipline by his parents. This book is devoted to his unique needs.

MANYA'S STORY by Bettyanne Gray. This is the harrowing account of a Jewish family's ordeal in revolutionary Russia.

THE HEARTHSTONE OF MY HEART by Elizabeth Borton de Trevino. In this affectionate memoir, the author tells the story of her growingup years, of the people she has loved, those who have shaped her life and have shared with her some of the secrets of living a happy life.

WARWYCK'S WOMAN by Rosalind Laker. Set against the background of the England of King George IV, Warwyck's Woman is a rich period romance filled with the color of prize fights, the parties and elaborate balls of the gentry and the loves and passions of a powerful family.

THE SOLAR GREENHOUSE BOOK edited by James C. McCullagh.

A CONSUMER'S DICTIONARY OF FOOD ADDITIVES by Ruth Winter. This book contains definitions for the layman of ingredients harmful and desirable found in packaged foods, with complete information for the consumer.

The Akron Carnegie Public Library now has the 1900 Census of Fulton, Kosciusko, Miami and Wabash Counties in Indiana on microfilm. Also, the Library has all of the census that is available for the above counties.

To The Young People Of Fulton County, Their Parents And Interested Parties— WILLIAM H. (BILL) DENISTON

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR CIRCUIT COURT JUDGE

If elected Judge, I will also be Juvenile Judge. In my 40 years of practice in Fulton County, I realize the need for a correctional program for juveniles. I do not believe that every juvenile arrested should be declared a delinquent child. I feel that with public support and public aid, which I will ask for, I will organize a Big Brother-Big Sister plan to help the young people in many ways. This plan has worked successfully in several areas. I am sure that these volunteer workers can help me in devising plans and programs for our youth which will aid us in reducing juvenile delinquency.

I am asking you for your vote and support to elect me Judge of the Fulton Circuit Court so that I can put this plan for our young people into action. Eventually, it will be a tremendous aid to them.

Ad paid by Committee to Elect William H. Deniston, Circuit Court Judge.

Children of all ages took a chance on the 'cake walk'. The cakes were mighty tempting!

This young fun seeker seemed to be more interested in the crowd than the events.

The "pie in the face" booth was one of the most popular attractions, although these three volunteers may have had other opinions.

Mentone mourns for crash victims

by Renee Norlander

A tragic plane crash on Saturday morning, November 4, took the lives of Jerry A. Howell, 30, and his son Jeffrey, age 6, of Mentone, when the 1938 Monocoupe they were flying crashed into a cornfield southwest of Mentone. Both were pronounced dead at the site by Kosciusko County Coroner Kenneth Wyman.

According to a neighbor, Guy Alspaugh, Jerry and Jeff had taken off in the single-engine plane, and had made a wide sweep around the Mentone Airport, covering the city of Mentone, and had then headed south towards the Rochester Airport. Roger England, 32, of R. 2, Rochester, told police he heard the sputtering of an engine, and looked to see the plane plummet to the ground. The plane crashed in a cornfield on the Dale Ladsen farm, R. 2, Rochester, about one and one-half miles south of the Mentone Airport, near the intersection of Kosciusko County Roads 1300 West and 800 South.

The Mentone Fire Department and EMT's were called to the scene, and England and Ladsen had hurried to the site where they believed the plane had crashed. They found the plane with its nose in the ground, and the tail pointing up.

It is believed that the engine began to sputter as Howell was flying about 500 feet above ground, and over a line of trees. Apparently, Jerry, was trying to glide to a clearing to make an emergency landing after the engine had stopped. Authorities believe he had to raise the nose of the plane to clear the trees, when he lost air speed and crashed into the field.

Witnesses who heard the plane at take-off, and as it made the wide sweep around the airport said that they did not hear the plane sputtering as if it was going to stall. One observer stated that the plane was running well. The accident occurred at approximately 9:30 a.m.

The airplane, owned by Herbert A. Marsden, R. 2, Rochester, was scheduled to be sold, according to police. Authorities confirmed that the antique plane was owned 30 years ago by singing cowboy star Gene Autry.

Jerry and his wife Betty (Ulbricht) bought the Mentone Airport from Chick and Dorothy Herendeen in April of this year, coming from Argos. He operated Howell's Spraying Service and held a commercial pilots rating and an aerial application license.

Board discussion of withdrawal continues

by Renee Norlander

Discussion of possible withdrawal from the Kosciusko County Area Planning Commission occupied much of the time of Mentone Town Board members at their regular session on Monday evening, November 6.

Dan Richard, representative for the Commission, was present to explain the Commission's purpose and to try to persuade the members against a decision to leave. He expressed that he felt perhaps the Boards' reason for wanting to withdraw was a "lack of communications" between the Town Board and the Commission. He stated that the Commission was "not established to dictate anything ... (and that) we answer to you".

Present at the meeting were Board members Frank Hardesty and Wayne Tombaugh, Clerk-Treasurer Catherine Whetstone, and town attorney Lee Bazini. Trustee Gerald Romine, was absent.

Referring to some differences between county and town ordinances, Hardesty asked, "do we have to go by all of the Commission's ordinances? What another towns' needs are not necessarily what we need."

Richard explained that if the Town Board is not happy with a Commission ordinance, they can strike or change it.

Hardesty also explained that the Town Board has received numerous complaints from Mentone residents about the "run around" they've gotten from the Commission.

Richard responded by stating that residents often leave hearings in a huff when their requests are denied, and fail to wait to listen to the Commission's reasons for denial.

No final decision was made by the Board as to whether or not they will decide to leave the

Book Week to be observed

National Book Week will be observed at the Akron Carnegie Public Library November 12-18. "Light Up Your Life - Read" is the theme for this week.

The Akron Carnegie Public Library has something of interest for each member of the family. The library contains a book collection of 20,091 and 736 records which are available to all of the residents of Akron and Henry townships, and Franklin and Seward townships of Kosciusko county.

A good local history collection is available to people who are interested in family research. The Akron News from 1893 to date is on microfilm and is indexed as to deaths, births and marriages. The census is also available on microfilm.

There is a doll collection on display at this time in the library. The dolls were made by Mrs. Floyd Young. There are many dolls depicting various characters and various periods of history. Of special interest is the ROME BEAUTY BAND. These are dolls that are made from dried apples. Visit the Akron Library during national book week and light up your life!

Commission, but further discussion of the matter will be made at a future meeting.

In other Board action:

*Russell Hart was granted permission to set a mobile home on his property as long as he complies with the town ordinance regarding mobile homes. The home must exceed 35 feet in length, and must be made a permanent structure on the lot. Hart agreed to follow the ordinance.

*Park Board members Bob Whetstone, Rosalind and Annabelle Mentzer, Tom Fugate and Rosemary Bazini were present to turn over the park monies to the town.

Because Mentzer Park is city owned property, the State Board of Accounts states that the parks money must be part of Mentones budgeted money. Until now, the Park Board has handled the money separately.

*A signed lease was received from Richard Dickerhoff along with rent money for the 10 acres of town land he leases southeast of the city. The lease will expire in July, 1979.

*Hardesty informed the Board that Deputy-Marshall Mike Trent has resigned his post, effective October 30. Trent told Marshall Earl Beattie he was leaving for personal reasons.

Trent had been employed on a full time basis through CETA and had just completed ten weeks of training at the police academy in Indianapolis on October 6. No mention of hiring someone to replace Trent was made.

*The Board has not received any bids for the purchase of a new backhoe for the town, but will sell at an auction at their next meeting, the 1954 backhoe they now own.

*Minutes of the October 2, 9, and 23 meetings were approved as read by Clerk Whetstone, and all claims were approved and paid. The next regular session for the Town Board is scheduled for Monday, December 4, at 7:30 p.m. at the Town Hall.

Reeses enjoyed their South American ad

by Marilyn French

In the last five years, Wayne and Bernice Reese of Akron have had three exchange students from South America and one from Japan. Each student has spent eight weeks with them.

Last February, "as soon as we could get plowed out," says Wayne and Bernice, "we were on our way to Miami!" Their arrival in South America marked one of the "greatest re-unions" they've ever had, when they became re-acquainted with the three girls who had become a big part of their lives.

The taxi took them to a town called Bello Horizonte, which was in the mountains. Everyone treated Wayne and Bernice so kind, thinking they must have been dignitaries since they knew the Secretary of State.

Arriving at a gorgeous mansion, the Reeses were greeted at the door by Flavia's mother, who spoke no English and Flavia was not home. Until 7 p.m. that evening it took a lot of hand motions to get everyone acquainted. Finally Flavia arrived and was joyfully

The Reeses were taken to a farm near Flavia's, where dignitaries are entertained. They sure were surprised at this "farm". It was 150,000 acres. Of this, 40,000 was tapioca, and another 40,000 was tapioca strictly used for petroleum. Bernice says, "it was the White House for sure!" The owner of the farm was the mayor, but no one lived there, it was for entertaining guests only. As if in a hotel, the Reeses were given their own room. Wayne said that he was already impressed, then the mayor had to explain how he got his Mercedes. Would you believe he traded one Holstein cow for it? That's right, a cow for a Mercedes. I wonder what Henry Ford would say.

Open air markets are downtown, and you can buy your meat and vegetables, but the selection is nothing compared to what we have to choose from here in the states. But with the Brazil temperature 75 to 80 degrees year round and no flies, who needs choice?

Wayne and Bernice were lucky, they were told, because they got to see the carnival. It's a big event that thousand's from all over Brazil and the world come to visit. Every year this dancing parade is staged by the black people. With drums pounding and women, men and children dancing, the celebration goes on for a week. Only one thing made it rather unusual, none of them were wearing any clothes, as they danced the samba!

Next stop was Rio De Janero for a brief visit there with Flavia's relatives, then the Reeses were off to Sao Paulo.

At the Sao Paulo airport, they were met by Ediliza Cozerta. Ediliza stayed with Bernice and Wayne in 1973.

From the airport, the Reeses then journeyed for 400 miles. This was to visit more friends and relatives of the family. "They sure take good care of you when you are friends of the family," says Wayne. Ediliza's boyfriend, Ricardo, took Wayne and Bernice to meet his grandpa and grandma. They were in their 80's and owned 100,000 acres, and if that wasn't enough, grandma flashed a 15 carat diamond on her finger. By now the Reeses figured they must be in the middle of a wealthy family. As of yet it doesn't seem that they've met anyone too shabby.

Bernice recalled a strange experience in a South American beauty shop. "As they started on my hair, I noticed something funny going on beside me. The lady next to me was having the hair on her legs removed with wax and wax-paper." In back of her she heard constant snapping sound behind a petition. Women kept going around this petition and you couldn't see what they were doing behind there. Later Bernice found out that the women went around and got undressed. They, too, were getting a wax treatment, only all over. The skimpy bikinis in South America make our American ones look like a gunny sack. So, that's why there is 8 home, Aeraquipa, where an active volcano still puffs smoke.

An Indian woman on a burro bringing the morning supply of milk door to door was another unusual experience. "She pours it from her pan to your pan," says the Reese's. It took some persuading, but the old woman finally let Wayne take her picture.

Visiting a nearby Catholic convent proved to be a story in itself. This 200 year old relic supposedly imprisons young girls for life. Parents bring their daughters, usually between the ages of 14-21, and give them up, never to see them again.

Each girl is given a personal maid, so no work is involved, just a life of prayer and dedication to the Lord. As large as a city square block, this convent

These traditional dolls from Brazil and Peru are on a blanket of several types of Llama skins.

After a 9 p.m. to 6:20 a.m. flight, their dream came true. They arrived in South America. Their first stop was Brasilia, the capital of Brazil, where Flavia lived, Flavia's girl who stayed with the Reeses in 1974. Flavia's father is Brazil's Secretary of State, but the Reeses had no idea how important a man he really was. A telegram had been sent to Flavia, so she would know when Wayne and Bernice would be arriving and ready to be picked up at the airport. Much to their dismay, when they got off the plane, there was, "no Flavia anywhere," said Bernice. Plus, no one spoke English. After quite a search, a man speaking English, helped them out of their predicament. When the Reeses explained who they wanted to see, and that they were guests of this family, the man called a taxi and they were on their way.

re-united with her American family. It seems Flavia did receive the telegram but no date of arrival had been put on it. So for weeks, Flavia's parents had sent a chauffeur and limousine to the airport everyday until they finally gave up on the Reeses.

The house as Bernice described, "had all marble floors and walls." "Two maids waited on us and we were treated like kings." A town in the mountains was a little different, mainly because of the steepness of the roads. The roads are so steep, that many of them are one-way only, and that's down! "You really can't go up them in a car," explained Wayne. The sidewalks are really a sight, they are nothing but stair-steps. As you can imagine driving can be pretty wild. Wayne will vouch for this, as he often gets car sick. So a little trip uptown was not the fun he'd expected.

miles of beach that is quite a tourist attraction.

Another adventure behind them, the Reeses headed toward the airport -- bound for Peru to meet with the other girl that had lived with them in 1975, Roxanna Tolez. Their next home was downtown Lima, Peru at a hotel, where Roxanna met them. Before traveling to her home, she treated them to a bull fight.

Wayne explains, "the bull, who is partially dead or dying before he comes out to meet the matador starts the charging." To wear him down even more, a man, on a blindfolded padded horse comes out and puts 15 foot spears into the bull's shoulders which works on the nerves. After that mess, the matador continues the fight by showing a saber through the heart of the bull. If this doesn't work the first time they pull it out and try again. When the bull is finally dead, the fight is over. At $7.50 per person, most people cheer for the bull, who loses before he even comes out. Only the poor people come out on top, as the meat is passed out to them when the bloody mess is over. Bernice didn't seem to be thrilled about the fight, so when someone suggested they go to a cock fight next, she decided enough was enough!

Roxanna led the group high in to the Andes mountains to her is said to house women who usually live to be 80-100 years old.

The parents pay a dowry for their daughters imprisonment and may only speak to her through a blanket covered hole in a wall. Closely guarded, no one is allowed to come out once they are taken in. The girl only leaves through death, which is not known to the family.

The Reeses have many memories and stories to remember and enjoyed sharing them with me. They found out that good friends will take good care of you, which is very helpful in a foreign country.

In January 1979 the Reese's will be getting another girl -- they have no idea where she'll be from. This is sponsored through the Akron Lion's Club.

Wayne and Bernice found out something very interesting on their way home. They stopped at Panama City to find out what they could about the Panama Canal situation. For $22.00 they hired a taxi to drive them all over. Their main intent was to literally interview the Panamanians about the canal. After talking to store clerks, waitresses, and other people along the way they all said the canal meant nothing. So they asked just what was going on?

They were told that all they wanted was equal rights. A street simply divides the Americans and the Panamanians. The Panamanians say they have to pay twice the amount on most things. Americans can buy a car, but the Panamanians claim they pay much more, because of the royalty they have to pay. The job situation is the same. They pay is almost twice as high for the American's. So as Wayne and Bernice went out to look at the famous canal, they were still unsure of the reason behind all the trouble. Most Panamanians felt it was simply a political deal, which they had no understanding of at all. So American's don't feel bad if you can't understand the reason behind the Panama Canal treaty. Most of the Panamanians haven't figured it out as yet. The Reese's probably would like it explained that they have nothing against boys, as exchange students. The fact is that Bernice is usually with them the most and feels that a girls company is more suitable for her. I'm sure if anyone is interested in having an exchange student, please contact Wayne Reese, he'd be glad to give you any information about it, since he is a Lion's member.

Accident...

The Howells hosted one of the most successful air shows in Mentone's history in September 17. The air show was sponsored to raise money for the resurfacing of the airport runway, which has since been completed.

Jeffrey was a student at Mentone School in Mrs. Pam Smiths first grade class.

Area residents were shocked to learn of the deaths of Jerry and Jeff. As neighbor Guy Alspaugh said, "I felt he was a good neighbor and an honest person. We looked forward to being neighbors for a long time... and Jeff was talkative and real friendly."

Friend Bill Ettinger described Jerry as "genuinely nice and capable... a very nice family... there was no put-on, and Jeff was a sharp as a tack."

Funeral services for both Jerry and Jeff were held Tuesday morning at 10 a.m. at the Mentone First Baptist Church with the Rev. Gordon Chitty officiating. Interment was at the South Lawn Cemetery in South Bend.

Vikings send W. Noble into shock

A VICTORIOUS Tippecanoe Valley football swarms across the field Friday night after their commanding defeat of the visiting team from West Noble. Valley will meet the team from Fountain Central away this Friday.

The Tippecanoe Valley Vikings sent the West Noble Chargers into shock last Friday night by defeating them 36-0.

Every Viking player appeared to give their best effort. Dominating throughout the game the Vikings only gave up 57 yards rushing the entire night.

The Valley offense ran for 136 yards and passed for another 32 yards the first half. In the second half the Vikings ran for 92 yards and passed for 64 yards.

The Vikings took in the first TD, taking a 7-0 lead the first quarter. The second quarter, two more scores were added on, but both extra point attempts failed, ending the half with a Valley lead 19-0. Another TD in the third quarter left the Chargers dangling for a possible shut-out at 26-0. Before the end of the third quarter, Allen Utter kicked a 22 yard field goal, raising the score to 29-0.

Rhodes set a Valley season record on the final score of the night as he connected with Sechrist for a 16-yard scoring play. That gave Rhodes 11 touchdown passes for the year breaking the record of 10 set last year by Ray Sechrist.

Mark Shireman led the Valley defense with 39 tackle points.

The potent Valley offense was led by Alspaugh with 160 yards on 15 carries, while Rutherford finished the game with 53 yards on 12 carries. Both are over the 1,000 yard rushing mark for the Vikings this season.

The Vikings travel to Fountain Central Friday night, November

10, for the regional play off game at Veedersburg.

The Rev. and Mrs. Garth Irely admire a 140 year old love seat that they have restored.

New pastor and his wife feel at home in Akron

by Marilyn French

The Akron United Methodist Church has a new minister, and Garth and his wife, Florence, wish to thank everyone in Akron for making them feel so welcome and "at home".

The Irelys are natives of Wells County, where Garth graduated from Bluffton High School.

Garth and Florence have four daughters: Mrs. Stephen F. (Margaret) Cullison, Churubusco; Susan Reno, Tucson, Ariz.; Melinda Thatcher and Julia Irely, Muncie. They also have three grandsons that they are very proud of, and they are ages, 15, 14 and 10.

Before coming to Akron the Irelys were pastoring in Hoagland, Ind. Garth was the Howard County chairman of C.R.O.P. and worked with the mental health division of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Rev. Irely was twice named chairman of the United Fund, and also worked with the juvenile probation in Kokomo.

Irely has been a pastor for twenty-five years. Before entering the ministry, he had been an active layman in the First United Methodist Church at Bluffton. He also worked for 16 years at the Bluffton Post Office.

Earning his bachelor of arts degree from Taylor University, the Rev. Irely was awarded the bachelor of divinity degree from Garrett Theological Seminary in 1963. He was a pastor while furthering his education.

Mrs. Irely is an experienced secretary and at the present time is enjoying volunteer community work and helps organize activities for the church. She also enjoys cooking, sewing, and reading. A sports enthusiast, the Rev.

Irely may be seen hitting the ole tennis ball around. "It's one of my favorite sports, and I used to give some lessons," Mrs. Irely says, "he loves most sports, but is more eager to participate than just to watch."

As a hobby Garth enjoys re-finishing and restoring old pieces of furniture. They have several pieces in their home that has taken a lot of time and patience. A love seat, with a lot of detailed work, is approximately 140 years old.

A very warm and friendly couple, the Irelys are quite involved with community affairs and seem to have a deep concern for people and their needs. ## Mentone town meeting a success

by Renee Norlander

Forty-eight enthusiastic citizens of Mentone were present at the town hall last Wednesday evening, November 8, to participate in a unique town meeting. Sponsored by the Institute of Cultural Affairs, the event was called "Town Meeting, Indiana".

The purpose of the meeting as director John Bengel stated, "is to bring people together to think positively about their community and its needs". According to Paul Haist, spokesman for the Chamber of Commerce who hosted the meeting, seventy-five invitations were sent to residents of Mentone, and he was very pleased with the enthusiastic turn-out that occurred.

The evening began with residents introducing themselves and listing a past accomplishment for Mentone. Some of these included: the clean atmosphere of the town, the way neighbors and friends cooperate and work together, the money raised for the ambulance service, the good local schools, the stable businesses, well behaved youth, great volunteer fire department, and so on.

Present and future accomplishments included: additional housing, cultural improvements, completion of the Bell Museum, Centennial party in 1982, bring in more industries related to farming, and to do more for the youth and Senior Citizens.

Bengel then asked the group to list their "hopes and dreams" for Mentone for the next five to ten years. These were grouped into "challenges", and the large group of people was divided into smaller groups to discuss these challenges.

The six "challenges" were:

—"the fact that elders do not have adequate housing and cannot get from place to place easily ... this is illustrated by no bus service, city utilities are confined ... and lands are not available for sale to housing interests".

—"the fact that people do not attend meetings with their complaints and ideas for positive achievements. There is not enough rural involvement...."

—"the fact that mental attitudes fixed incomes and the tax freeze indicates the underlying block... is a lack of time and money and the need for expert counsel..."

—"in the arena of Economic Development, the fact that lack of industry, shopping out of town, dis-use of airport, indicates ... a lack of personal and group involvement and coordination. This is illustrated by the need for acquiring land for industrial park, promoting new industry, coalition of Town Board and Chamber of Commerce and other groups towards this goal."

—"the fact that there is lack of full time staff ... in getting government money."

—"in the arena of speeding, parking, alleys, (etc)... we haven't worked enough with state officials..."

Bob Bain of Purdue University at West Lafayette is shown above explaining what the purpose of the 'town hall meeting' was all about to Mentone residents. Bain, along with John Bengel and Jackie Speicher from the Cultural Affairs office in Indianapolis, are all volunteers who donate their time and energies to town meetings all over Indiana.

As each small group discussed the challenges, another small group, under the guidance of Jackie Speicher, a volunteer with ICA, was in another room writing a brief history of Mentone, developing a motto, and creating a song entitled "Mentone, Mentone" (sung to the tune of Daisy, Daisy"). The ongoing slogan of "Mentone - Egg Basket of the Midwest" was kept, but added was "we hatch goodwill".

A robust singing of the new town song was rendered by all at the end of the 3 1/2 hour meeting.

After a short coffee break, the groups presented their proposals for the future of Mentone.

Regarding "safer traffic flow", it was proposed that "in order to have a safer traffic flow ... a second full time police officer be obtained through: town budget and/or CETA funds.

For "services for the elderly" ... in order to create space for new housing and means of transportation ... propose voluntary call and services through: mini-van service for various activities for the elderly managed by the youth".

In "economic development ... we contact state Chamber of Commerce and Indiana prospects through (our) Chamber of Commerce and a special committee."

Under "participation in town affairs ... in order to help people see that their participation ... is need and appreciated, propose that we involve more people (including those in outlying agricultural community) in town meetings through recognition of their efforts by public notice of appreciation."

And with "funding ... in order to acquire skills in obtaining government funding for youth, park, etc., propose that we (1) get a survey of retired persons who have skills; and (2) send them to service training in "grants" ...

Viking state hopes ended by Friday's game

Mark Holt and Charles Secrist - tri captains for the Vikings accept the Fountain Central game ball. The other captain, Allen Utter, was not in the photo.

by Marilyn French

The Vikings came up short last Friday night, in one touchdown, to end their playoff hopes. Tippecanoe Valley's Vikings hit one of those nights when you wonder if anything is going to go right. Even when the ball bounced, it was in Fountain Central's direction. For some reason, it wasn't to be, and so the scoreboard read 27-21 at the end of the game. Most Valley fans walked out somewhat dazed, when you never lose it's hard to accept.

Neither team was able to establish any type of ground attack, forcing both ball clubs to the air.

Fountain Central was able to score in the first quarter and added another tally in the second quarter to take a 14-0 lead. The Vikings did come back and made the half time score 14-7.

In the third quarter the Mustangs put two more touchdowns on the scoreboard, something that Valley had been very stingy about all year.

Heading into the fourth quarter the Mustangs seemed quite comfortable with their 27-7 lead.

But the Vikings were not ready to give up. Fighting back, they were able to score when Rhodes let a pass rip over the middle to Secrist who clutched the pigskin and headed toward the endzone. A two point conversion pass was deflected.

With over five minutes left in the game, Valley tried for an onside kick, but was unsuccessful, so the Viking defense came in to hold the Mustangs on four downs to get the ball back.

On a second down from the nine, Rhodes passed to Rutherford in the endzone, desperately fighting back to bring the score to 27-21, making a good two point conversion.

Still hanging on to the last thread of hope with six seconds left, the Vikings tried an onside kick, hoping for possession. But as Fountain Central recovered, and time ran out, the Mustangs captured the Regional title.

Neither team showed much running as Fountain Central gained 109 yards and Valley putting only 56 yards on its stats.

Secrist, playing in the final game of his high school career at Valley, had an outstanding game as he caught five passes for 156 yards, two touchdowns and an extra point play. Secrist played most of the game with a hurt shoulder and cut in-between his fingers.

Jamison suffered an ankle injury in the third quarter and sat out the rest of the game.

Offensive guard and defensive linebacker Allen Utter was forced to stay out of the final quarter with a severe headache.

The organizational meeting of the advisory committee for Tippecanoe Valley High School's Intensive Office Lab was held last Monday, October 30, at the high school.

The nine members of the committee along with Superintendent Harrell and Principal Mr. Skinner were introduced to some of the student members and given a short description of the various stations and equipment the Intensive Office Lab uses in their training: Deb Zimmerman instructed on the memory typewriter; Tammy Mallott on the colating machine; Karen Wiley, the stencil cutter and mimeo; Leith Utter and Kelly Eaton, the IBM 6-5 transcriber and dictating equipment; Angie Ooley described a station and also explained the receptionist duties; Lori Smalley explained the office manager's duties and Penny Haney described the supply inventory.

Mrs. Juna Graham, the instructor for Intensive Office Lab, provided information on what the course covers, what the lab has accomplished in the two years they have had the course, the effectiveness of the equipment and new features. She also described the contests the students may enter; local contests, state and national contests. Mrs. Graham discussed the job placement of lab students and their work records.

An election of officers for the advisory committee was held during the meeting. Mr. Tom Fugate, Mentone, was elected president; Randall Leininger, the vice-president and Mrs. Walter Cumberland, secretary-treasurer, both of Akron.

It Happened In Mentone

Taken from the November 14, 1951 issue of The Northern Indiana Co-Op News.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Whetstone are the parents of a son born November 1 at the Woodlawn Hospital. The new son, who weighed six pounds, eleven ounces, has been named Timothy Lee.

It is reported in our school news this week that Coach Lorin Burt's orders to report for Navy service on January 8th have been cancelled. Mr. Burt is in the naval reserve and had already taken his pre-induction physical following his orders to report.

Bob Vandermark and Max Grubbs escaped with only severe cuts and bruises Friday noon when the steering wheel pulled loose from the gear box on the '35 Chevrolet coupe being driven by Vandermark.

Mrs. Harry Sullivan entertained the pre-school age Bible class of the Mentone Church of Christ Monday afternoon. Stories, games and contests were enjoyed. A lunch was served to Linda Smith, Jody Horn, Alan Camplejohn, Martha Nelson, Linda Barkman, Larry and Marilyn Sullivan.

This area has had plenty of heavy rain and violent wind the past few days, and this morning the west window in the front of the Denton drug store was blown out - or in, if we are to be more technical.

Dennis Blalock, two year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Tobie Blalock, escaped serious injury when he fell out of the rear car door, Friday evening. His head was considerably skinned but x-rays showed no serious damage done other than a slight concussion. He was hospitalized for the night in the Woodlawn Hospital. The accident happened just within the city limits at the eastern edge of Mentone. Neglect to lock the rear door was to blame.

Letters to the Editor

Has been busy

TO THE EDITOR:

Having been asked several times why I haven't written a letter to the editor, I thought that while I was resting for a few minutes I would write. Have been quite busy between doing my customary job and going places this fall have had a trip to Ft. Wayne, Archibald, Ohio, Wabash and even to Doud's Orchards and home thru Akron. The scenery was beautiful.

We are very busy here preparing for a big bazaar and dedicating our new health center wing. It is to be November 25 from 10 until 5 with time out at 2 for the dedication services.

Everyone is so interested and so many lovely things have been made for it and I just heard this morning that there will be a lunch along with everything else and anyone knowing me will know that food interests me.

It will soon be dinner time so better quit and I will be happy to see many of my friends at the bazaar.

Wishing each one a joyful Thanksgiving.

Yours in Christian love,
—Clara H. Yeaman

Thanks for saving kitten

DEAR EDITOR:

It was nice of the Akron/Mentone News to print the thank you letter November 2, 1978 by Dawn Brown and Mittens.

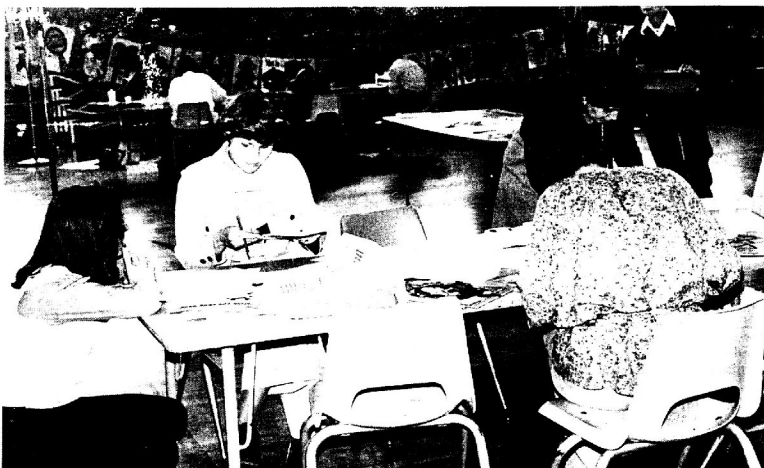

We have a 12 year old Calico cat so we well know how important it was to you when you lost Calico cat was found. We agree that Marshall Beattie and Deputy Secrist are to be commended for being so kind to animals - also for their consideration to people who love animals.

Unfortunately some people dump kittens and puppies on highways and forest preserves. 80 million cats and dogs as reported by the Animal Institute of America are abandoned. 50% don't live more than a year because they freeze to death, die of starvation, sickness or are sentenced to prolonged torture, starvation, mutilation and cruelty in sadistic medical research laboratories.

So, again I say thanks to nice people like Dawn Brown, Marshall Beattie and Deputy Secrist for being kind to a defenseless animal!

—Beverly Ann Hicks

Family Life

By Renee Norlander

According to Joseph F. Donnermeyer, community development specialist at Purdue University, most property crimes such as burglary, theft, and vandalism are crimes of opportunity committed by amateurs and not professionals.

He says that "the amateur criminal is seeking opportunities, not challenges, and more often than not, he does not have to look far."

According to Donnermeyer in a release from Purdue's Dept. of Agricultural Information, the victim of such crime is often the one who provides the opportunity by not practicing simple, basic, prevention techniques.

Here are a few suggestions for preventing criminals from "getting" you:

First, place ladders under lock and key, and make sure your lawn furniture can't be used for climbing in windows. Put them away if you're out.

Secondly, use the window locks on your windows, and have deadbolt locks on all of your outside doors - but NOT the type which require a key from the inside.

You should also keep your doors locked during the day. I know that everyone thinks this is silly, but it's easier for someone to walk in while you're vacuuming, or running the wash downstairs than you may think.

I got used to doing it in Jackson after a terrible incident happened to a co-workers daughter.

The daughter was working in the kitchen when she heard her washing machine in the basement start up. Fortunately she didn't investigate - she went next door and called the police. They found a man waiting for her downstairs!

Of course, Akron and Mentone are a lot different than Jackson, Michigan, but it doesn't hurt to be careful!

The most effective deterrent though, is something we're all lucky to have here - good neighbors! Donnermeyer states that "cooperation among trusted neighbors - watching out for each other's property - can be a big factor in helping to reduce any opportunity for the amateur criminal."

Showing a little concern at the right time, or calling the police when you suspect something can often prevent a burglary or vandalism.

And even though we here are luckier than most, it's "better to be safe than sorry".

I attended the Mentone Town Meeting last week, and thought it went really well. Everyone present participated enthusiastically and some of the challenges to be met were very interesting.

I think the Chamber of Commerce is to be commended for sponsoring such a great event, and a thank you is in order for everyone who participated.

Let's hope the solutions will be seen through to their goals of accomplishment!

Just a note to Coach Charlie Smith, all of the Vikings, and the assistant coaches at TVHS - you did Tippecanoe Valley proud and we're all proud of you! In our books - you're NO. 1!!

This Was News

63 YEARS AGO

A good time was experienced at the box supper at the Prairie Union school house last Friday evening. Nineteen dollars was received for which the teacher, Seth Carpenter and his pupils thank the public.

Our exchanges are ringing full of the scarcity of the Thanksgiving bird, the turkey. There are but few if any young turkeys in this locality. If there are many we have failed to chase one as we drove by in our Ford. The wet weather last spring is ascribed as the cause. The result means that turkey is roasting high. We have not even seen price quotations and this is strange since Thanksgiving is only two weeks in the future, while we have so many poultry buyers.

Will it not be amusing when we get to heaven and have an opportunity to visit all the churches? Some will be around the altar, some washing feet, some sprinkling, some pouring, some immersing backward, some forward, some with musical instruments, some without, and some with robes, and a cross, and a great number without. "Oh won't we have a time?"

Mrs. Edna Kuhn, the Akron librarian, is at Gary two days this week attending the state librarian association. The library here has reopened on its usual hours.

The Mothers Club of Akron went down to Rochester in three machines and were handsomely entertained at the home of Mrs. Glenn Young, a former Akron lady and yet a member of the Club.

39 YEARS AGO

The fire department put out a roof fire at the Gertrude Gray residence, on road 14 east of town, Friday which threatened to burn the house down. A new roof will have to be put on the house, but quick work on the part of the firemen saved the rest of the building.

Frank Lukens and Frederick and Mrs. Mary Lukens spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lukens and family near Akron. Robert Berger took his sister, Ruth, back to Cleveland last Friday and spent the weekend with his brother, Herrell.

Charlotte Rowe was an overnight guest of Suzanne Morris Wednesday night.

E. E. Gerig and Ralph Davis are both driving new Oldsmobiles.

25 YEARS AGO

The Akron Flyers opened their basketball campaign successfully Friday night by defeating Aubbeenaubee Township 72-57.

Members of the Mothers Club heard the latest information available on Civilian Defense at their meeting last Friday in the home of Mrs. U. S. Weeks.

Freddie Haney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haney arrived home Friday morning after a 14 month tour of duty in the Far East.

Four cheerleaders were chosen by the high school students last week to spark the cheering section during the coming basketball season. They are: Janice Ellis, Laura Curtis, Mary Jane Burdge and Paula Terrell.

10 YEARS AGO

Something new in the way of fund-raising projects will be held in Akron on Saturday, Nov. 16, as members of the Akron United Methodist Church WSCS plan a "Kitchen Tour."

Mrs. Ed Gray and Mrs. Paul Bowen attended a librarian's meeting on Saturday, which was held at the Stauffer Inn in Indianapolis.

THANKSGIVING

We have much to be thankful for in this great land of ours. For we live in a nation of abundance and opportunity, health and prosperity. Where freedom is our birthright... and brotherhood our life spirit.

This spirit of brotherhood is one that our forefathers exemplified on the first Thanksgiving. And from it we have established a lasting sense of loyalty, compassion and respect for one another. For this, we are truly fortunate.

Let's take this holiday as a time to reflect on all that we have to treasure. And celebrate Thanksgiving in the true tradition of peace, unity and love.

County firemen discuss grid system

The Mentone Fire Department was host to the Koscusko County Firemen's Association monthly meeting on Thursday, November 16, with most county units being represented.

Association president, John Huff, of Burket, called the meeting to order at 7:30 p.m., and secretary (Rex Mast of Pierceton) and treasurer's (Garland "Shorty" Keefer of Burket) reports were approved as read.

Plans were tentatively made for an "instructors school" to be hosted by Mentone sometime in January. It was reported that a minimum of twenty-five men will be needed to attend. Huff stated that it might be difficult to get 25 respondents, but he would send letters of invitation to all county fire units. If the minimum number of men do not sign up for the classes, invitations will be sent to fire departments out of Koscusko County.

The possibility of a "grid system" in the county was also discussed. Treasurer Shorty Keefer explained that this is a system which would number each property unit in the entire county. He explained that too many persons call to report fires, and can't explain to the department where they are located.

The grid system would allow the departments to look at their grid maps, and know exactly where a fire is occurring. The caller would not have to give directions, only his "grid" number, and the firemen, especially new ones, would know the location by locating their number on the map.

It was noted that volunteers will be needed in January and February to aid the Meals on Wheels drivers during difficult weather. The firemen were asked to consider volunteering their services.

After the end of the business meeting, the members viewed a film on arson, provided by the South Bend Police Academy, and three door prizes were awarded. The next meeting is scheduled for January 18 at Milford.

Seniors to celebrate "Lions Day"

by Onda Good

November birthdays celebrated this week at the Akron Lions Club lunch site included Florence Kinley, Elizabeth Good, the Rev. Claude Fawns, Anina Clemans, and Wayne Engle. The honored guests present told the group about their lives and families. All the senior citizens enjoyed visiting during the fine meal which ended with birthday cake. Don't forget the coffee hour and exercises at 10:30 each morning. Information about housing insulation and fuel bill assistance will be available at the site also.

"Lion Days" will be observed during the week of November 27 to Dec. 1. The Akron Lions Club has been very generous in donating the luncheon site and its facilities for the Senior Citizen Hot Lunch Program. The senior citizens appreciate the contribution. It is good public relations for the Lion members to see the program in action. What better way to observe than to participate. The Lion members and wives are invited to participate one day during the week of Nov. 27 - Dec. 1. If possible call in your reservation to 893-7263.

No price is set for the meal but a donation can be available at the registration desk just the same as for senior citizens. It is hoped the Lion members will take this opportunity to get better acquainted with the senior citizens and the program.

Due to illness and cooler weather the number of carry-out lunches has increased. Volunteers to take the lunches to shut-ins are needed. If you can donate such a service, please call your minister, church office or 893-7263. The local churches have cooperated in every possible way and are now helping to organize this transportation of lunches. This cooperation is constantly being shown by the churches, church members, community, citizens and everyone in and around Akron. I, Onda Good, director of the program, want to thank everyone in making the first few weeks of the program so successful. It is rewarding to see a community get behind a program like they have this one. Thanksgiving week seemed a good time to thank all of you for your wonderful attitude and cooperation. It has been a joy to work with you.

The scheduled menus for November 27 thru December 1 are: MONDAY - Turkey and dressing with gravy, harvard beefs, tossed salad, roll, margarine, peaches, milk, coffee.

TUESDAY - Swiss steak, whipped potatoes, gravy, spinach, biscuit, margarine, choc. pudding, milk, coffee.

WEDNESDAY - Spaghetti & meat sauce, peas, cole slaw, wheat bread, margarine, apple sauce cake, milk, coffee.

THURSDAY - Fried chicken, au gratin potatoes, cabbage, cornbread, margarine, apricots, milk, coffee.

FRIDAY - Baked ham, green beans, sweet potatoes, brown bread, margarine, fruited jello, milk, coffee.

TVSC Board to comply with state request

by Renee Norlander

At Monday evenings regular session of the Tippecanoe Valley School Board, it was decided by a unanimous vote of the trustees to comply with a request made by the State Board of Accounts regarding payment of mileage for extra-curricular activities.

Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Lloyd Harrell reported to the Board members that he had been in contact with attorney Fred Rakestraw of Rochester, and stated that Rakestraw had reiterated what he had stated before regarding the payment.

Dick Worley from the State Board had expressed his distress at the School Boards decision in September to continue payment of expenses and mileage for extra-curricular activities from the general fund. State Board of Accounts auditors had found that the payments were being made during their recent audit.

Worley had called Harrell regarding the payments, and informed him that unless the practice was discontinued, an extra audit would be ordered, and the State Board would have to file suit against the Treasurer of the Tippecanoe Corporation.

At Mondays meeting, Harrell informed the Board that Rakestraw had told him that he felt the Board could go either way in their decision, and that they had the option of questioning the State Board's decision. He stated that a court case would "cost several hundred dollars for the Corporation, depending on the time and effort spent in that case", according to Dr. Harrell. After hearing Rakestraw's position, Board President Con Shewman asked the trustees for their feelings on the matter.

Without further discussion, trustee Lee Norris stated, "I make a motion that we change our policy the first of the year". The motion was seconded by Vernon Meredith, and passed with a unanimous decision.

Dr. Harrell reported to the Board that in most probability the assessed valuation for Tippecanoe Valley, of $31,449,470.00, would be approved by the Tax Commission.

This would mean that a total amount of $977,909.00 would be raised for the general fund, and $273,610.38 would be raised for the debt service fund for 1979.

The tax rates in Fulton County will most likely be set at $3.11 for the general fund and $.87 for the debt service fund with a total tax rate of $3.98, down $.26 from 1978. In Kosciusko County, the tax rate will be $3.06 for the general fund and $.87 for debt service, bringing the total to $3.93 for 1979. This is down $.10 from the 1978 rate.

Rick Ralston, head of Adult Education at Valley, reported to the Board that this years enrollment is the largest since the beginning of the program. One hundred two persons are enrolled in the Community Education classes, and twenty-five adults are participating in the Adult Basic Education courses.

Ralston also reported that his recent attendance at the national conference in Oregon was very educational and profitable. He stressed that he had learned a lot, and that many of the ideas could be implemented at Valley.

The Board approved the acceptance of a hearing booth presented from Sonoco Products in Akron to the School Corporation as a gift. Akron School principal, Mark Barker, reported that all kindergarten students at Akron have been tested, and the trustees expressed their thanks.

In other Board action:
*Elementary school principals reported that the parent-teacher conferences were highly successful, and each school is now planning for Christmas programs. Barker also gave a report on the success of the "Fall Festival" held last month at the Akron School. Money raised will be used for school projects.

*Upon Dr. Harrell's request, the Board approved an increase in professional leave money for teachers from $2,000 to $3,000. This total amount of money is used by teachers for attending conferences, and such.

*Approval was granted for Dr. Harrell to attend the American Association of School Superintendents conference at New Orleans from February 10-17.

*Approval of "CAPPS" (Comprehensive Assessment Program Planning Systems) was requested by Dr. Harrell and granted. This is a State mandated plan, formulated by teachers, counselors, parents, and principals from Tippecanoe Valley, to program the goals and objectives for the School Corporation. Thirty-four local residents participated in writing the plan, and it will now be sent to the State. State approval, however, is not necessary according to Harrell.

*A resolution commending the Viking football team, Coach Charlie Smith, and his assistants was approved as read.

*Sarah Boggs was hired on a temporary contract to replace Vonda Ryman at Mentone School while Ryman is on maternity leave. A new, revised contract was also signed for ABE teacher Merdena Bechtol. Ralston described her "as one of the best (ABE teachers) in the state".

*Minutes of the previous meeting were approved as read, and claims totaling $50,030.49 were paid. Net payroll for October 31 of $54,667.52 and November 15 of $53,641.99 were also approved.

All members of the Board were in attendance at the meeting held at Akron School. The next regular session for the Board is scheduled for Monday, December 18, at the Burket Elementary School beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Newsview

by Bob Norlander

How is it, the reporter asked the old Indian trapper, that you manage to forecast the winter so well?

"It's this way," snorted the Indian.

"There's an old white man down the trail and he has his woodpile. Each year I go down, take a look at how high he's piling wood. If it's this high, it'll be a light winter but if it's up here ....

Here it comes

Some farmers predict the severity of the winter from the thickness of the husks on the corn, or when the geese go south.

Then there are the experts, the climatologists, who look at such things as the jet streams, those mysterious high speed winds at altitudes of over 30,000 feet. Still others look at sun spots, believing those outburst of gasses from the sun's surface somehow affect the amount of solar energy reaching earth, triggering weather changes.

And some "know" it's the Russians. They say the Russians who could stand better weather, are shifting the jet streams by electrical impulses.

There are also arguments when it comes to the question of weather the "mean" average global temperature is rising or falling. Even a tiny change could have catastrophic results. A drop of just 1 or 2 degrees hurts the wheat crops of Canada and Russia.

Depending on how you look at it, 2 substances which are on the increase could affect future weather. Or they might cancel each other out.

Some scientists say dust from industry and volcanoes and poor farming methods could cool down the atmosphere by reflecting the sun's energy away from earth.

Others say higher concentrations of carbon dioxide caused by cutting the forests and by furnaces, is preventing the escape of heat radiated by the earth and will thus increase the world temperature. This could melt the polar ice caps and raise ocean levels, flooding our coastal areas.

But Fred Ringlet, Canadian weather official, says "We can't really come out and tell people to start worrying. We don't know that much."

"Even with the best of computers and other forecasting equipment, we're kidding ourselves if we try to forecast more than 5 days in advance."

That brings us back to the Farmers Almanac, which has been publishing its forecasts for 162 years.

For the coming winter, editor Ray Geiger puts it this way: "We wish that we could give encouragement but we feel in our bones that another formidable winter will be with us, colder and snowier than normal."

Get out the woolies. Here it comes.

Mentone police report

A two car accident on Sunday, November 19, at 1:05 a.m. resulted when an auto driven by Russell H. McCleese, age 41, of R. 1, Mentone, collided with an auto owned by Brian D. Scrivens, age 20, of Roann.

According to Mentone Deputy Marshal John Hart, McCleese was driving west on County Road 500 south, and had stopped at State Road 19, then proceeded to turn north onto 19. Scrivens, who was turning west onto 500 South after driving south on 19, was struck by McCleese as he went into his turn.

Estimated damage to the McCleese auto was $100, and to the Scrivens auto was $600. No one was injured in the mishap, and no tickets were issued.

Marshal Earl Beattie is still investigating a three car accident which occurred on Monday, November 22, at 3:17 p.m., one-half mile south of Tippecanoe Valley High School on SR 19.

Involved in the accident were Brian L. Adams, 16, of R. 2, Akron; Scott E. Teel, 18, of 307 S. Cherry St., Akron; Bill C. Ramsey, 17, R. 1, Akron; Paul Roth, 17, R. 1, Silver Lake; and Jeffery Bickel, 17, R. 2, Akron.

According to Beattie, who is still investigating the cause of the accident, all five autos were being driven south on 19, when the first auto, driven by Bickel stopped. The following auto, driven by Roth, was able to stop, but the last auto, driven by Teel, could not stop in time, allegedly hitting the rear of the auto driven by Ramsey, who was then pushed into the Adams auto.

Estimated damage to the Adam's auto was $325; to the Teel auto was $950; and to the Ramsey auto was $1100. There was no damage to the Roth or Bickel autos. No tickets have been issued at this time.

Sound Off

"Some people are tired of hearing the excuses some fans are making over the Fountain Central - Tippecanoe Valley football game. Such is bad referees, bad football field, FC giving TV bad walkie-talkies and even saying FC had a third walkie-talkie listening to the Viking plays. All the fan is doing is acting childish and making excuses because in their game of ball, it's all 'win' and never 'beat'. Why can't fans praise the team and be proud they got as far as they did? FC and TV were pretty evenly matched, but FC just won. It's over, TV got beat but someone usually does. Some fans praise them whether they win or lose. It's the fans that can't accept the fact they lost (not cheated out of) a game that makes it really look bad for the fair minded fans. There are usually questionable calls on both sides in a game. So why don't you 'complainers' become 'praisers' instead?"

of Commerce, with the cooperation of the Town Board. According to a chamber spokesman, Phil Hays, many citizens have been asked to local city leaders, group and organization members, businessmen and citizens. However, the meeting will be open to all interested citizens who want to attend.

"Town Meeting Indiana" is a product of the 1970 Bicentennial. According to John Beeger, director of the Institute of Cultural Affairs, the purpose of "Town Meeting Indiana" is to bring people together to think positively about their community and its needs.

During the meeting, participants will be asked to list some of the community's accomplishments, and Mentone's accomplishments, and then to list their hopes for Mentone in the next five to ten years.

The group will then meet to discuss the problems facing the fulfillment of these dreams in terms of economic, political, and cultural issues.

It is hoped that this meeting will get the people of Mentone together to work out problems concerning them.

It will present a document after the meeting, summarizing the ideas, goals, and solutions, and will then distribute them to the participants.

More than 4,000 Hoosiers have already attended "Town Meeting" Governor Jones, U.S. Senators, Congressmen, corporations, teachers, and business leaders have all expressed support for these town meetings.

More information on the Mentone Town Meeting may be obtained by calling Phil Hays at 333-1751. Reservations will be served.

George is Valley's 'most loyal fan'

by Marilyn French

George Black was born in the house where he now lives — just a hop, skip, and a jump from Tippecanoe Valley High School. He thinks of Valley as his "second home." Years ago, his grandfather owned the land where the school now stands.

As an avid sports fan, George devotes much of his time to TVHS. He attends every sports event, and if there is one night that there is no game — he goes to watch the practice!

At 74 years of age, George says "I'm never lonely, guess that's why I feel so great!" "I really don't feel my age, in fact I wouldn't realize how old I am, if I didn't look in the mirror." When I asked George what his secret of good health was, he replied, "Dr. Herrick, I guess. He's taken good care of me."

Three years ago, however, George wasn't well at all, and after a rough surgery, he was told he'd probably never come back home. But he made it, and is very thankful.

In 1969 Vera, his wife died, and he lost his mother too. He also went through three surgeries — all that in one year.

So it hasn't always been easy, but sports helps fill the void and gives him a zest for life.

With the football season just finished, George commented how proud he was of the team this year, and at every game you could spot him a mile away, clad in green and gold from head to toe, and a huge smile for every passer-by.

At home George is surrounded by a jungle of plants as he sits in his favorite chair and watches out his picture window. From here he says he can see all his farm land. Pictures decorate the house, friendly photos stare at you from every knook and cranny, and on the table is an album full of Senior pictures, along with name cards.

George said, "I get a lot of pictures, and I even get invited to many of these kids weddings, and I kinda like that!" The Valley youth bring much happiness to his life.

The Valley students think very highly of George, too. Last year, just before the state football finals, a special pep session was scheduled. George, though a little hard of hearing, says this was one place he turned up his hearing aid to pick up the loud confusion. At one point in the pep session, everyone kept pointing at him and telling him to go down onto the gym floor. George said, "I had no idea what was going on," but he "very bashfully went down". He said he couldn't believe it, as he was presented a green and gold letter sweater. To top it off, a large poster was presented to him, which had every sport named on it and was assigned to him as a lifetime pass to any sports event. He also received a small one for his billfold, which would be a little more convenient to present to the admissions gate at each game. George sure lives up to the honor — "Tippecanoe Valley's most loyal fan".

After some of the ballgames, George stops with Devon and Wilma Tucker to get a bite to eat. You can imagine the looks he gets as he sports his brand new letter sweater. George just grins and says, "I've been a little slow getting through school."

When asked which was his favorite sport, George replied, "Girls basketball .... of course boys, too .... and volleyball. Didn't miss a baseball game either, swimming too, then there's cross country .... oh, I enjoy gymnastics, tennis, and golf too ...."

A well liked couple, Tom and Karen Roy are responsible for getting George started in sports. Tom was formerly a teacher and coach at Tippecanoe Valley.

What's it look like in a sports' enthusiasts home? Not the way a average 74 year old persons' home would be imagined.

When you come to the back door, the jungle of beautiful plants in the window makes one wonder if there is a passable route through this way. Above his kitchen sink is another tropical garden, that looks almost as dense as the one by the other window. But according to George, "that one above the sink looks a lot better since I cut some of it down."

Being a plant lover myself, I felt right at home. As I walked on into the living room, I was sure George had a rock band stashed somewhere. Not your expected music in an older persons' home, I was somewhat surprised until I saw the huge speakers and stereo set. Opening up into the living room was the brightest room I think I've ever seen. A teenagers dream — not just a bedroom but a sight for sore eyes! Red velvet wallpaper sets off the blinding black and white striped curtains and matching bedspread. The bed is so huge, I was sure it must be a couple of water beds on top of each other. I couldn't figure out why it looked like rolling hills. George explained that it was all feathers! Oh, I forgot to mention, the carpet is red too.

There's a story behind it, but I'm not sure I understand it yet. You have to realize that George is not your average 74 year old, he seems to have more energy than most people!

One of George's hobbies is playing the organ, which sets right outside the open bedroom. It seems that late one night when he is usually sleeping, George was still wrapped up at the organ. All of a sudden he heard a crash and as he peeked around the corner, he saw that the plaster and ceiling had caved in — on the bed. So he had to re-decorate anyway, so why not go all out?

As George sat down in his favorite chair for a picture he stared at a family photo. He said, "They're all I've got left." Just before that he'd named a list of all his close relatives and friends that had passed on from this world. The picture is of his only son, Brook Black, and his wife Loretta, and their five children. Brent, Cheryl, Rhonda, and Todd, are very lucky to have such a beautiful human being for their grandfather. And to think that George didn't want to do a newspaper story. He said, "I don't think I would make a very good story ... Why don't you wait till after I'm gone." No way, George!

GEORGE and his wife Vera.

Remembering the huckster truck

by Marilyn French

Black's country store, south of Mentone, was one of those nostalgic places where time had seemed to stand still.

It was a quaint little store cluttered with a little bit of everything! George Black and wife, Vera, ran the store for 45 years. George delivered his groceries three times a week, and owned one of the last grocery huckster trucks in the area.

George and Vera grew up on nearby farms and were wed after finishing high school — she at Akron and George at Beaver Dam.

For a few years they lived in Flint, Michigan, where George learned his trade in a fancy grocery. He had assistance from Geo. Grochel, a "retired Bohemian millionaire" who clerked for fun, according to George.

In 1927, the Blacks came home and paid Byron Spittler $2,500 for the Doran Station, which was then a stop on the old Goshen-to-Peru, Winona interurban and the community's social center.

In the busy years ahead Vera tended the store and George traveled the region buying eggs, poultry and cream, and also selling groceries to his clients from his "huckster" truck. The train being the only supply to them, another need was coal, so they started a coal yard too.

In the late 30's, their son, Brook, arrived. After World War II the Winona line died and so did the Black coal yard. After George's father died, he took charge of the family farm, raising cattle and hogs.

Three days a week George still would serve his 50 to 75 patrons in a 30 mile radius.

If you close your eyes and imagine cookies and candy in bulk boxes .... overalls, workshirts, galoshes .... hardware, ammunition, and drugs .... papers and magazines .... groceries and meats ... all crammed into a small, comfortably cluttered room, then you've been taken back through yesteryear, a time the years have melted away.

EVEN in earlier years George showed a flair for the sporting life.

Swappers could barely manage the day

Many parents took the place of their children at the high school last Tuesday during "Swap Day."

by Marilyn French

Last Tuesday, November 14, was "swap day" at Tippecanoe Valley High School. Students were asked to get a parent or guardian to take their place in school for that day. A relative at least twenty-one years of age could also "swap places".

Linda Mason's journalism class went from room to room interviewing the "swappers". Here are a few of the questions and results her class came up with while talking to several swappers.

The majority of "swappers" said that this "swap day" went smoother than the other ones they had attended.

These following comments are from the question "what did you enjoy most?" Several mentioned now much fun it was to see what their kids go through each day at school. One person simply described the day as "enlightening". Others couldn't believe how school has changed since they (the swapper) were in high school. Some enjoyed just observing and getting the feel of the classroom. "It was fun being around kids," was another comment, and someone said that lunch was their favorite part of the day.

Another question was, "what was the biggest problem you faced during the day?" The unofficial majority vote on that was, "opening your locker!"

Quite a few swappers complained that the rushing and constant pace practically "did them in". Others said that they had trouble with volleyball and getting wrong information. Still another problem to one person was math, and a complaint that the lunch period was too short.

The question of improvements that could be made for swap day were also interesting. A whopping majority said that name tags would have really helped them alot. Another suggested more helpers to be on hand to give directions. A few swappers were a little out of breath and said "we parents can't go that long without a coffee break!"

For some reason, a swapper suggested seat numbers - since there was no explanation, we presume he had a tough time finding a seat.

The idea was also written down, suggesting that the "swapper" prepare an assignment and let the student return it to class.

Everyone commented on how they really enjoyed themselves. Swap day was a big success and I'm sure every "swapper" is home recuperating for next year's big day - (pant - pant)!

Annual collection of gifts begins

The Fulton County Mental Health Association has started its annual program of collecting Christmas gifts for patients of Logansport State Hospital, and for patients of the local nursing homes who have no families.

Mrs. Nelson Hunter Jr., Rochester, chairman of the project, announced that this year's program is entitled "Let the Love Shine In." The Association is asking sororities, church groups, civic groups and others to solicit gifts from their members and friends. The gifts are sorted by volunteers who know what each patient wants and needs. Each patient will receive at least one gift of good quality - something nice to wear, with a small extra gift, such as lotion, cologne, soap or a piece of jewelry, tucked in the package for a little pleasure.

Mrs. Hunter said that gifts for men are in greater demand this year and can include caps (with earflaps), shirts, pajamas, tee-shirts, undershorts, socks, tobacco, pipes and shaving cream and lotion.

Suggested gifts for women include cosmetics, dresses, hand lotion, panty hose, hand soap and toothpaste.

Gifts of one dollar or less will be accepted. All gifts should be purchased in large sizes. Mrs. Hunter emphasized that gifts should not be wrapped and gifts should be new.

The deadline to give is Dec. 11. The following locations have been designated as collection stations for depositing gifts: Akron Methodist Church, Akron Exchange Bank, Tiosa Brethren Church, Kewanna F & M Bank, Leiters Ford Bank, Baxter's Drugs, Talma Bible Church, Whippoorwill Community Church, Berkway Super Market, Local Finance Office, Public Service Office, Wilt's Super Markets, Hart, Schaffer & Marx, Bethlehem Baptist Church, Fulton Baptist Temple, First National Bank-Fulton Branch.

High winds demolish barn

High winds and heavy rains blew this barn, belonging to David Cox of R.R. 5, Rochester, into utility poles during last Friday's terrible rain storm. The barn, located about 5 miles west of Mentone on Indiana 110, was blown into the road and Ind. 110 was closed as crews worked to clean up the debris.

Family Life

By Renee Norlander

We heard this and we can't resist passing it along.

A truck driver was eating alone at a roadside restaurant. 3 booted, leather-jacketed motorcyclists clumped in. One grabbed the trucker's hamburger. Another grabbed his french fries and the other walked off with his coffee.

The trucker said nothing. But instead of paying the bill, he left a 50 cent tip on the counter and walked out. The waitress called the owner who walked to the door and looked out.

A motorcyclist said, "He sure wasn't much of a man, was he?"

The owner said, "No, he's not much of trucker either. He just ran over 3 motorcycles."

I want to take this opportunity to wish each and everyone of you a very happy Thanksgiving; I hope that all of you will enjoy a blessed and joyous day with your families and friends!

I have found living this past year in the area that this really is a great place to be. We all in the Valley have much to be thankful for, and I for one am really happy to be here. Bob and I appreciate all of the help and interest all of you have shown in us and the paper - and we want to say "Thanks"! Happy Thanksgiving!

Notice

The Fulton County Development Council still has a representative in Akron every Thursday. However, the location and time has changed. Starting November 30 the representative will be at the Lion's Den building every Thursday from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

63 YEARS AGO

The fast line mail delivered the letter sack at this place Wednesday morning all torn up, ground pretty fine under the car wheels. Postmaster Fultz has some letters that are torn up so badly that he cannot tell to whom to deliver. One concerning two shipments of apples, where someone some where had $15 for apples sold for some farmer near Akron. This letter is important that Mr. Fultz asks us to write this in the hopes of finding the parties.

Charley Bickel and Charley Kercher, two enterprising farmers one mile east of Gilead, have wired their farm premises and the Akron Heat, Light and Power Company have wired out from Gilead and are serving those two farmers with electric lights. The Akron Company also wired Gilead, and is serving about thirty or more homes and business places in Gilead with electricity. That's push for you.

Last Sunday was the first read threatening day of the approaching winter season. It was a cold, chilly day and by night the clouds hung heavy and dark. At bedtime it was raining and on Monday morning there was a light skiff of snow. That practically melted during the day but on Tuesday morning we awoke to find another light snow, but heavier than the first one. This, also, melted during the day, and while it is pretty cool today, Wednesday, yet the sky is clear and the sun shines brightly. The snow made the fodder damp and corn husking is fine. But trade is dull.

39 YEARS AGO

Friends and neighbors of Emmanuel Kroft met at his home last Thursday and shucked corn for him. Mr. Kroft has a broken foot and was unable to do the work himself. Those who helped were Henry Hamman, Noah, John and Jesse Barnhisel, Paul Dewald, Bill Kreighbaum, Mose Bahney, the Rev. Wm. Harrington, Dow Brown, Arthur Shoemaker, Elmer Hartzler, Emanuel Zegafuse, Howard Craft and Frank Whisler.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gray are the parents of a baby girl, Bonnie Louise, born last Thursday morning.

Dick Gast, a freshman at Purdue University, has been named a member of the University Orchestra which plays for special events and programs on the Purdue campus.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Billings and Mrs. Carrie Hahn will be in Rochester, Indiana with relatives Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Rogers and son, Earl, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Estil Ginn and family at Albany, Ind.

25 YEARS AGO

Coach McCarter's Akron Flyers were clobbered by the Silver Lake basketball quintet at the local gym Friday night, 70 to 38.

Mrs. Byron Leininger entertained members and guests of Kappa Delta Phi sorority Monday night at her home. Contract bridge was won by Mrs. Al Jennings, Mrs. Howard Utter and Mrs. Richard Miller. Mrs. Charles Fellers and Mrs. Cleotis Daine won guest prizes.

Mrs. Earl Penrod entertained at a family dinner Sunday in honor of her nephew, Sgt. Dean Hoffman, who has returned to his camp in New Mexico. Guests were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hoffman and son, Mrs. Melissa Bright, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Helzel.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Willard moved Saturday from the Noral Strong apartment to the Della Carpenter apartment.

10 YEARS AGO

Men of the Beaver Dam United Methodist Church and neighbors of Leonard Beigh picked 24 acres of corn on Veterans Day. Leonard had surgery in August for an injured shoulder.

The Rev. and Mrs. Henry Miller of North Webster were recent callers at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Claude Fawns.

Akron student at Purdue to visit Venezuela

A 65 piece unit from Purdue's "All-American" marching band will visit Venezuela for ten days this coming January to participate in the fifteenth annual "Feria de San Sebastian" in the city of San Cristobal. Prof. Al G. Wright, director of bands, received the invitation for the band's appearance from Sr. Colonel Teofilo Velasco, Executive chairman of the San Cristobal Fair.

Expenses for the band's visit will be taken care of by the various Venezuelan government units and no tax funds are involved in the band's trip to Venezuela.

While in South America the band will present concerts, appear in parades, and provide music for various activities of the Fair. The band will fly out of Miami, Fla. on January 19 and will return on the 29th.

Mitch Harris, a graduate of Tippecanoe Valley High School, has been selected to travel to Venezuela this coming January.

In addition to the band's performances in San Cristobal appearances will be made in other cities throughout Venezuela.

There is also a strong possibility that the band will be invited to visit the capital city of Caracas to present a special performance for Venezuela's newly inaugurated president for which elections are now being held.

Incumbent president Perez has invited the band to visit and perform for him in "La Casona" the official residence of the presidents of Venezuela. On a previous visit to Venezuela in 1976 the band was the guest of President Perez in Caracas for five days.

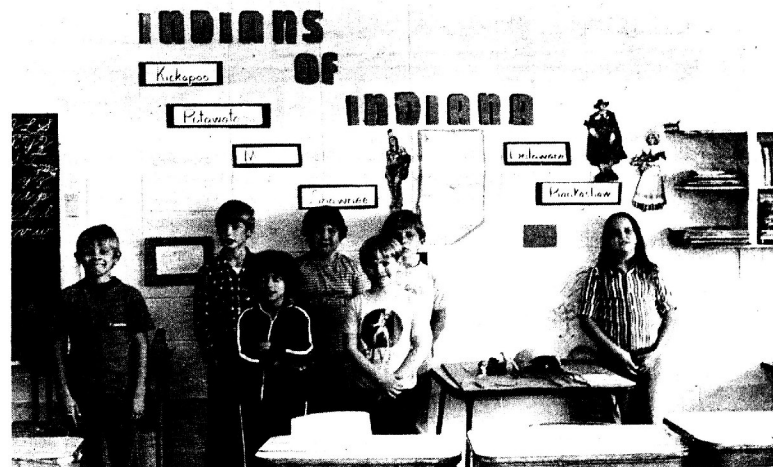

The band will also visit the cities of Maracaibo and Barquisimeto.

Students study Indians of Indiana

Students in Mrs. Jean Smith's fourth grade class at Burket Elementary School have been studying the Indian tribes that lived in Indiana. During their studies, the students made projects, and one boy, with the help of his mother, even made teepees of animal hides.

Pictured at the left are the students in Mrs. Smith's class. Earlier in the afternoon on Monday, November 12, other classes from the school came to observe the student-projects.

IN MEMORY

IN LOVING MEMORY of Winnie Sterk. This poem by Helen Steiner Rice tells of our feelings - Mothers Never Really Die - They Just Keep House Up In The Sky.

Death beckoned her with out stretched hand
And whispered softly of "An Unknown Land"
But she was not afraid to go
For though the path she did not know,
She took Death's Hand without a fear.
For He who safely brought her here
Had told her He would lead the way Into Eternity's Bright Day...
And so she did not go alone
Into the "Valley that's Unknown".
She gently took death by the hand
And journeyed to "The Promised Land"...
And there, with step so light and gay,
She polishes the sun by day
And lights the moonbeams silvery bright...
For Mothers really never die,
They just "Keep House Up In The Sky"...
And in the heavenly home above
They wait to "welcome" those they love.

Contract for new Akron police patrol car awarded

by Bob Norlander

Akron Town Marshall Ed Hauser and Deputy Marshall Charles Clawson will be driving a 1979 Ford on patrol in the near future due to action taken by the Akron Town Board last Tuesday in their regular monthly meeting.

The Board received bids for a new police car from the two local Akron automobile dealerships, Bahney Chevrolet, and South End Motors. Meeting the town's required specifications, South End Motors submitted a bid of $6876.00 for a 1979 Ford, while Bahney Chevrolet quoted $7280.25. South End Motors allowed a $1500. trade-in allowance for the 1976 Chevy currently used by the police and Bahney's allowed $1770 in trade. The net result of the bids were: Bahney's, $5510 with trade, and South End Motors, $5376 with trade.

The Board unanimously accepted a motion to accept the offer made by the Ford dealership.

In other Board action: — Board president Ron Fenimore told the Board that he and fellow board member Vernon Waymire had attended the "Town Hall Meeting" held November 8 in Mentone as interested observers. They were accompanied by the Rev. Garth Irey, pastor of the Akron United Methodist Church.

Fenimore stated that he thought the public meeting, which attracted over 50 interested citizens, was a successful way of getting the people together to talk out town problems. He also said he found "the results favorable" and suggested that the town of Akron consider holding a similar meeting in the spring. The Board agreed to reconsider the idea early next year.

— Discussion was held on the possibility of contributing to a retirement fund for town employees. Clerk Ernest Smith presented the Board information which showed participation in such a program would cost the town 14% of total payroll paid per year. The Board agreed that such a program was not budgeted and too expensive for the town to enter this year.

— Trustee Dr. Charles Miller commented to the Board and town that Clerk-Treasurer Smith should be congratulated for the "responsible way" he has kept the town of Akron free of financial problems found in other towns. The other Board members agreed with Miller, and also stated similar opinions.

— The Board also was advised by Fenimore that the possibility of installing a snow blade on the town's utility (4 x 4) truck was investigated and found not feasible due to the existing truck front winch attachment and parts being in the way of any blade installation.

— Town Marshall Hauser submitted the following police log for October 19 - November 19 to the Board:

Mentone C of C met; discussed Egg Festival

by Gerry Clark, Secretary

A Board of Directors meeting of the Mentone Chamber of Commerce was held at the Farmers State Bank on Tuesday evening, November 21, with Dr. David Cook, Jim Miller, John Williams, Kenneth Romine, and Gerry Clark in attendance.

The secretary and treasurers reports were approved as read.

Letters of appreciation were read from the Bell Memorial Library, Bell Museum, and Youth League for monies received. An intensive discussion of the "Town Meeting", held November 8, followed, and the Board found several avenues that are to be pursued.

An invitation was received from the Indiana State Chamber of Commerce, Indiana Area Development Council, to attend a meeting at the Indiana Lawrence Bank in North Manchester on November 22. President David Cook planned to attend.

A letter from the Milburn School Historical Assoc. was read requesting a representative to be appointed to serve on the Association's committee to compile a book of information on Mentone's history. The Board agreed that they would contact the Assoc. about this matter.

A motion was made by Jim Miller, that plans for the Egg Festival in 1979 be delegated to the Retail Division of the Chamber. Seconded by Gerry Clark, the motion was approved.

Plans were made to put up the Christmas decorations for the town on December 2. The committee members are to meet at Millers Hardware at 1:30 p.m., and any persons willing to aid in this endeavor will be very much appreciated.

With no further business to be conducted, the meeting was adjourned.

New books at Akron library

New books received at the Akron Carnegie Public Library include the following:

STARTING AND SUCCEEDING IN YOUR OWN SMALL BUSINESS, by Louis L. Allen. THE KIOWA by Elgin Grose. With divergent characters such as these the author has woven a powerful tragedy of two races on a collision course. In the midst of the turbulent 1860s, Sanjak searches for the meaning of the faith most white men espouse but few seem to practice - and none as completely as his beloved Ileta. THE ANN LANDERS ENCYCLOPEDIA A TO Z.

THESE TIGER HEARTS by Jane Land. What awaits a well-bred young Englishwoman who leaves the confines of good society for a life of her own? She is wife to a stranger, in a land whose language she doesn't understand. This is another novel of romantic suspense.

COPSI CASTLE by Juliet Astley. Norah Lofts, writing as Juliet Astley, captures brilliantly all the quirks and eccentricities of her characters. This story expresses that wonderful sense of pride, passion and undeniable pathos underlying "civilized" English country life that has long been its author's hallmark in the great best sellers.

WALK GENTLY THIS GOOD EARTH by Margaret Craven. From the depression to the present, from their idyllic childhood in the wilds of the Pacific Northwest to their ranching days in the wide-open spaces of Montana, the Westcotts stick together in a world where old-fashioned values are rapidly changing. Raised by Judge Westcott, a brilliant lawyer and wise father, and Maria, their loving, indispensable housekeeper, the four Westcott children and their adopted brother embrace a lasting tradition of good sense, wit and hard work. This is a book that will be read and treasured for years.

THE SEVENTH ON by Elizabeth Yates. With remarkable insight into the unique qualities of dogs, the award-winning author, Elizabeth Yates, has created a perceptively beautiful story around the special relationship between a dog and its owner.

Seniors look to busy December

by Onda Good

The Akron Lions Club Senior Citizens have had a busy November and are looking forward to an interesting December. The Christmas card craft instruction is on Thursday, November 30 and Wednesday, December 6. The Christmas card craft display was great and you too can produce a decorative item from your old cards. Bring your old cards and find out what work of art you can produce with the help of Joyce Bascom, the instructor.

On Thursday, November 30, a fuel bill assistance official will be at the Lions building for the convenience of senior citizens. Information about assisting with housing insulation is available also. This service will be available each Thursday for several weeks.

The next blood pressure clinic is scheduled for Monday, December 11th at 11 to 12 o'clock in the Lions building. A birthday party is planned for December 13, a puppet show for December 21 and a Christmas party December 22.

Did you get the second issue of "The Keen-Ager" newspaper? The second issue reveals interesting facts "or fiction" about some of our members and the group's activities. Be sure to get your copy soon.

This week at the Akron Lions Senior Citizen site the daily volunteer worker and Lions club are being honored. The volunteers do such work as set tables, serve food, wash dishes and transport food to the shut-ins. A program such as this is successful because of the volunteers. They do their jobs and never complain. Can you imagine volunteering to wash dishes for 20 to 30 people one, three or five days a week? Some of our volunteers do! Nellie Norman, Betty Gillespie and Flo McBroom have assisted regularly in getting the tables ready for lunch as well as serving and doing some dishes.

Elizabeth Sausaman, Florence Irey, Eva McHatton and Mary Krouse have regularly helped with serving, dishes and whatever needs to be done. Other volunteers for these duties include Mary Jane Thompson, Elizabeth Good, Ina Hatfield, Cora Coplen, Joyce Bascom and Elsie Hall. Florence Irey, Jim Lewis and Ted Waech have delivered carry-outs to the shut-ins. A new group of carry-out deliveries is being formed. This group will be listed at a later date.

Winnie Summe has done a tremendous job with "The Keen-Ager" paper and other publicity. The Sunday School classes and ministers of the local churches have been good publicity workers. There have been suggestions for programs and other activities that have been appreciated. Keep them coming -- that's the way to move forward to something even better!

Joyce Bascom, Jim Lewis, Vera Huffman, Ernest Eber, Mary Krouse and George McMillen have displayed some hobbies and they were great. Visits from Garth Irey, James F. Hall, and Fred Landolt, ministers of local churches, have been stimulating. Hugh Wildermuth, the County Health nurse, Don and Lester, the Rochester food deliverers should not be forgotten in our list of volunteers.

The list could go on and on, as so many have given information, time, talents, flowers, goods and many other things. I can't begin to remember all the names of those volunteers but I wish to thank you also.

How about joining us for lunch someday? Call 893-7263 for reservations.

Scheduled menus for December 4 thru 8 are:

MONDAY - Roast beef, peas, cranberry sauce, bread, margarine, peaches, milk, coffee, orange juice.

TUESDAY - Fried chicken, whipped potatoes, gravy, turnip greens, biscuit, margarine, apple crisp, milk, coffee.

WEDNESDAY - Smoked sausage, sauerkraut, carrots, bread, margarine, peanut butter cookies, milk, coffee.

THURSDAY - Fried perch, tossed salad, macaroni and cheese, bread, margarine, pie, milk, coffee.

FRIDAY - Chef's Special!

Merry Mollys celebrate anniversary

by Lea Hudson

The Merry Mollys Home Economics Club, with twenty-one members present, celebrated the club's twenty-ninth anniversary at the Mentone United Methodist Church on Monday evening, November 13, 1978.

The soft glow of kerosene lamps enhanced the fall decorations in the dining room, as the ladies enjoyed a "mini-smorgasbord" served by the United Methodist Women. Mrs. Douglas Simpson, president, presided over a brief business meeting following the dinner.

Phyllis Kantenwein, wife of Grace Seminary Professor Lee Kantenwein, provided entertainment. Her program began with comedy, featuring "Little Jack Horner," sung to the music of Handel.

Mrs. Kantenwein concluded the evening by singing favorite hymns, and playing requests on the organ.

Committee members for the evening were Mrs. Everett Welborn, Mrs. Maxine Haney, and Mrs. Carl Whetstone.

Mrs. Terry Stockman won the door prize.

In December, the Merry Mollys will meet at the home of Mrs. Marion Smith, Mentone, for the annual Christmas party.

MACRAME : Ancient interest in knots

by Marilyn French

An interest in knots has come from the Renaissance and Victorian eras. Many cultures, ancient and contemporary, have used knotting as a means of fabric construction or decoration. This includes ritual masks of tribal Africa and fringes on Mexican shawls. Perhaps the most vital heritage, however, has been that of the sailor. Sailors, who have spent their lives with rope, twine, and cord and their interlacings and fastenings, have made countless numbers of knots.

There are two basic knots in macrame, - the half knot and the half hitch - but the endless variations on these two knots is what generates the excitement of macrame. Macrame, like many other crafts, suffered a loss of popularity for a time and became almost a lost art.

The earliest form of "square knot" work is said to have originated in Arabia during the thirteenth century - macrame comes from the Arabic word, Migramah, which means ornamental fringe and braid. The Spaniards after learning the art from the moors spread it to southern Europe.

Also popular in Italy around the fourteenth century, macrame was introduced to a school where five and six year olds learned from their teacher, a stitch similar to the "double half hitch."

tion to macrame. Outstanding examples of sailors' work are to be found in the many maritime museums; two can be seen at the Seamen's Church Institute of New York City. These are large picture frames made with heavy twine, the traditional material used by maritime men. Macrame is thought to have been introduced into England in the 1600's by Queen Mary, wife of William of Orange, who learned the craft in Holland.

In 1925, it was again the law in Turkey to wear a fez.

Mentone to host town meeting

Citizens of Mentone will gather to hold a "town meeting" on November 1 at the Town Hall from 7 to 8 p.m. The town meeting is a public hearing in which the public is invited to meet with local officials to discuss local issues.

The participants will take a look at the challenges facing Mentone and will then try to work out practical proposals for local solutions.

The town meeting is being sponsored by the Mentone Chamber of Commerce, with the cooperation of the Town Board. According to chamber spokesman, Paul Hahn, citizen initiatives have been sent to local civic leaders, group and organization members, businessmen, and citizens. However, the meeting will be open to any concerned citizen who wishes to attend.

"Town Meeting Initiative" is a product of the 1976 Bicentennial according to John Bengel, director of the Institute of Cultural Affairs office in Indianapolis. ICA is a private, non-profit organization with national headquarters in Washington, D.C.

The purpose of "Town Meeting Initiative" is to bring people together to discuss positively about their community and its needs. During the meeting, participants will be asked to list some of Mentone's accomplishments, and then to list their hopes for Mentone in the next five to ten years.

The group will then meet to discuss the problems blocking the fulfillment of these dreams in terms of economic, political, and cultural issues. It is hoped that this meeting will get the people of Mentone together to work out problems concerning them.

ICA will prepare a document after the meeting, summarizing the ideas, goals, and solutions, and will then distribute them to the participants.

More than 4,000 Hoosiers have already attended "Town Meeting" Governor Roman, U.S. Senators, Congressmen, corporate leaders, and community folks have all expressed support for these town meetings.

The Akron basketball team went to Columbia City last Friday and in a thrilling game that was most excellently guarded lost the scalp 17 to 14 only. So prominent was the event that nearly every newspaper in the northern Indiana remarked about the Akron fast team losing so early in the season.

And by this move Mrs. C. A. Hoover gets possession of her own property for which she had been waiting but was only delayed because Fred could not get possession of his fathers farm which was occupied by a Mr. Young who had his crops to first take care of. Mr. Downs is the cigar manufacturer and thus becomes a neighbor to the editors family.

Mrs. Lewis Slaybaugh spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Doin Smoker.

Four new buses started service in Akron today, two east bound and two west bound, and will help Akron's "come and go" problem considerably.

INSURGENT HEROES OF AMERICA

Little Known Facts About People Who Help Us

Small Businessmen

Thirteen is a lucky number for all of us. That's how many millions of small businessmen are here to cater to our needs for products and services.

Enterprising entrepreneurs are the backbone of America's free enterprise system and the system has served them just as they serve us. For many small businessmen were immigrants and starting their own little shop or business was their avenue into the mainstream of our society. Even newcomers who didn't know English quickly became productive citizens contributing to America's growth. They opened restaurants, tailor shops, groceries, laundries, etc.

Now many small businessmen are again showing their ingenuity and penchant for productivity. As their businesses grow and our society becomes so complex that even individuals are drowning in paperwork, an increasing number of these businessmen are turning to computers to solve their paperwork problems.

MANY SMALL BUSINESSMEN are turning to technology to better serve their needs and ours.

THANK YOU

I, Herbert A. Marsden, of Argos, Ind., owner of the monocoque airplane involved in a crash at the Mentone Airport on November 4, in which Jerry and Jeffrey Howell lost their lives, wish to hereby thank Guy Alspaugh for taking over my responsibility for policing the site of the crash overnight and for organizing the following men to assist me in transporting the wreckage to a hangar at the Rochester Airport. Mr. Alspaugh furnished the truck - mounted hoist; Mr. Berry Peterson a large truck, and the following men assisted in loading and unloading in a most helpful, efficient way: Guy Alspaugh, Berry Peterson, Bill Ettlinger, Bob Marks, Rod Dutt and son, Mr. Roger England, on whose land it occurred, Art Swango and Ralph Stolte. My heartfelt thanks to each and everyone involved. If I have missed anyone, please forgive me. Thankfully, HERBERT A. MARSDEN.
