Valley looks to sectional finals

The Valley Vikings are gearing up for a contest Friday evening that many thought inevitable. The Vikings will face Whitko, the only team which placed a black mark on Valley's seasonal record, for the sectional title.

To reach the sectional finals the Vikings defeated Oak Hill last Friday. Valley gained the victory by controlling Oak Hill's offense, allowing one yard rushing in the first half on its way to the 23-13 victory.

Except for Oak Hill's second drive of the evening, the Vikings accomplished controlling Oak Hill's offense. On a third and two play Brad Detamore hit Duke Stroup on a quick toss on the right flat that ended in a 67-yard touchdown pass. Stroup hit the PAT to put the Eagles up 7-0 with six minutes left in the first quarter.

"Our defense just missed the coverage on that play," commented Phillips. "Other than that play our defense played an exceptional ball game."

The Vikings took the next possession and drove down to the Eagle one, where a fourth down pass fell incomplete. On Oak Hill's first play from scrimmage, Valley's John Taylor sacked Detamore in the end zone for a safety with :26 left in the first period of play.

Valley marched 56 yards on the ensuing kickoff to take a 9-7 advantage. The drive included a nine-yard run by quarterback John McDaniel on a crucial fourth down situation. McDaniel scored on a four-yard quarterback sneak for the score. Steve Barnhart kicked the PAT to give Tippecanoe its two-point lead.

The Vikings used the half-back option on their next series of plays to grab a 16-7 lead. On second down McDaniel pitched to John Taylor, who pulled up and threw a 41-yard scoring strike to Brian Peterson. Barnhart once again converted the PAT.

The Eagles put the pressure on the favored Vikings with a score late in the third quarter. Oak Hill recovered a Valley fumble and took advantage of the break, driving 60 yards for the score. Previous to this drive, Tippecanoe had shut down the running game of Delmar Terry, who ran for 197 yards last week. Terry had only one yard on three carries before the scoring

A Printer Remembered

Editor's Note: This article was reprinted with permission from the editor of Printing Impressions, October 1986 issue.

Dr. Charles Wesley Krathwohl was the printer in a northeastern Indiana village called Mentone during the '20's and early '30's. He had founded the area's weekly paper, The Community Farm News, but when he felt satisfied and "peaked", he advertised for a "sober newsman" to take it over.

I saw his ad, following a fight with my managing editor at the Wisconsin State Journal, in Madison, and drove my Model T Ford 245 miles nonstop to the Indiana town. When you're single, and unburdened by mortgage, lease or spouse, you can make sudden moves.

Late that afternoon I chugged into town. It was easy to find the print shop - it was the storefront with the dirtiest windows. Dr. Krathwohl, tall and stately, was working at the type cases. He appeared strangely familiar.

"You look like Lincoln," "Thank you," he replied. "I like you already."

"Saw your ad, Mr. Krath-"
"Doctor Krathwohl!" he snapped back.

I quickly apologized. "One question," Dr. Krathwohl said. "Do you drink?"

"No," I lied.
"You won't do," he said. "I want someone to get drunk with Saturday nights - escape from hicktown dullness."

I smiled, recalling "sober newsman" in his ad. "I don't believe you."

"OK. You're the new editor, advertising manager and circulation director of The Community Farm News. I'll print it for 50 percent of advertising income. Yearly subscriptions are a dollar and a half, and you can keep all of it. Here's your key. Stay out of my way and out of my desk."

I wisecracked about his liquor supply in the desk.

"We go to press every Wednesday. And never bother me on Thursdays - that's when I go to college."

I soon learned that his going to college was reading The Literary Digest, one a popular news and cultural weekly that later died after its poll grossly miscalculated the 1936 election outcome. That's how he became a Ph.D. The magazine advertised that reading it for a year was equivalent to two college semesters. Krathwohl once added up the number of years he had read The Literary Digest and proclaimed himself Dr. Charles Wesley Krathwohl, Ph.D., and none dared addressing him otherwise.

Was he really educated? The Methodist Episcopal Missionary Society invited me to a chicken dinner to kick off its study of India. The speaker, Dr. Krathwohl, held us spellbound for over an hour, rambling on extemporaneously about the people, the caste system and the life of Mahatma Gandhi. Later I asked Dr. Krathwohl how long he had lived in India. He replied he lived in only two places: Mentone and the northwestern Ohio town where he was born. His knowledge of India came from reading The Literary Digest.

DEAR READERS:

REACT Volunteers Help Everyone!

Although you may not be among those who have directly benefited from the volunteer Public Service activities of Fulton County REACT, you can be thankful such an organization exists in our community. November is designated International REACT Month. Among their activities REACT members monitor CB Radio EMERGENCY Channel 9 and GMRS Channels. Even if YOU don't have a CB or GMRS radio, the next call for assistance could be made for YOU, by a passing motorist with a CB or GMRS radio, to a local REACT volunteer who will respond by notifying the proper authorities - Police, Fire, Ambulance, or Road Service. If YOU have a CB or GMRS Radio, you could be the caller REACT helps.

REACT members are trained to answer calls for assistance of any kind - motorists in distress, crimes in progress, boating EMERGENCIES, and a multitude of others.

Another major program that REACT participates in is called "IMPAIRED DRIVER ALERT" which encourages the reporting of ERRATIC DRIVING behavior to REACT monitors who then notify the Police who attempt to intercept the reported ERRATIC DRIVERS before an accident can occur.

REACT members average eight hours of volunteer services weekly - many perform a lot more than this - as well as expending their own gas and funds, without compensation of any kind. Their only Thanks is the gratification and sense of accomplishment which occurs with the knowledge of a job well done.

Fulton County REACT is part of an International organization of approximately 1000 Teams active in each of the 50 states as well as Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Canada, and other countries worldwide where CB Radio and GMRS are authorized.

IT HAPPENED IN AKRON
TAKEN FROM THE AKRON NEWS
NOVEMBER 10, 1905
81 YEARS AGO

Burglars have made their first visit to Akron of the season. Three men in a buggy apparently driving through Akron about four o'clock last Sunday morning drove up to Charley Day's harness shop. One jumped out of the buggy gave the big glass in the door a kick and then went in. Charley had occasion to go to the shop about day light Sunday morning and broken glass on the sidewalk attracted his attention. Investigation developed the fact that the visitors had taken two heavy lap robes, three ordinary horse blankets, one bridle specially made for Jacob Eber, one set of heavy lines, two leather halters and one set of hames and traces. Harry Showalter, the night telephone operator heard the crash of breaking glass, but remembering his experience with burglars two years ago, at once planted himself deep down in the bedclothes in the telephone office and heard no more of the burglars. H.B. Harter met a buggy going east at the same hour and a man running in the street following the buggy, carrying something like a bundle. He was coming up town to call a physician and knew nothing of the burglary until later. No particular efforts were made to catch the fellows so far as we know. The goods they took amounted to nearly twenty five dollars and means a loss to Charley.

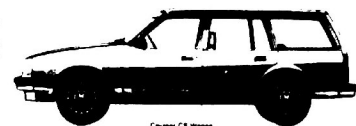

Last Thursday evening Miss Ethel Swartz gave a kitchen shower for Miss Maude Patterson, one of Akron's new brides to be. About twenty-five of Miss Maud's girlfriends responded to invitations and either sent or brought a mysterious package, which when the wrapper was removed by the heroine of the occasion, proved to be a useful kitchen article, wherewith the young housewife can become an adept in the culinary art and also prove true the old saw, "The heart of man can be reached thru his stomach." The evening was pleasantly spent by all present and departed at a reasonable hour.

A few moments before the ceremony occurred that united Mr. Arnold Priest and Miss Minnie Pontius heart and hand, a number of the lady's friends appeared on the scene laden with a large number of articles that would constitute a "kitchen shower." The articles were all of common usefulness and are duly appreciated as tokens of esteem from her friends.

A Printer Remembered

He had come to this village about 30 years before to install its telephone system. That project completed, he invented a safety ladder and set up a small factory. He sold the business when he believed he could no longer improve the product or its marketing. Then he started the print shop, concentrating on the weekly paper until he believed he could no longer improve it.

That was his philosophy: Stay with a project as long as you can make a contribution. Get out if you find yourself coasting or sitting back satisfied. I asked: "When will you ever be satisfied?" His reply: "When I'm dead."

Mail order job printing offered him varied challenges. He delighted in composing form letters for professions and businesses and test mailing them. If he received five orders from a test mailing of a hundred, he had it made. His collection letters for physicians and dentists were very successful. Satisfied customers for letters sent him other printing business.

He enjoyed little social life. In bed every night at 8 p.m., he opened the shop at 5 o'clock six days a week. Thursdays he went to college by reading The Literary Digest. Sundays he experimented. Tired of setting type by hand, he purchased, sight unseen, a broken down Linograph and had it shipped from Michigan. It took him seven Sundays, handtooling missing or broken parts, to get it running. He practiced at the keyboard until he was very efficient and then hired a young woman who he instructed. He never trusted her alone at the Linograph, always sitting by her side ready to catch any wrong move while composing a form letter on a large yellow tablet.

Our association terminated after two years. The final press run completed, he pointed an accusing finger at me. "You're satisfied!" It sounded like a charge of a hideous crime.

"Of course I'm satisfied," I shot back. "For many months I worked 18 hours a day, seven days a week. Now I can take things easier. I'm earning enough."

"Enough to live in a furnished room," he interrupted. "And share a toilet with five strangers. Enough to eat in a cheap restaurant."

"But I'm lucky to have that. Haven't you heard of the Great Depression?"

"A plague on you and all satisfied excuse makers." His voice mellowed. "Collect for this week's advertising and keep it all."

"But the subscribers? Paid in advance?"

"Took care of that." He yanked a paper from the press, pointing to a boxed item: "Regretfully, this is the final issue of The Community Farm News. Pro-rated refunds on subscriptions will be made by Dr. Charles Wesley Krathwohl, Ph.D."

"You're pulling my future out from under me."

"No," he insisted. "You have peaked. When you peak, you have to get out quick before plunging into hell."

"But I like this town!"

"You like this hypocritical, Klan-ridden cesspool?"

"You, too, are swimming in this cesspool."

"I have my escapes you can never understand. Sure, there's a depression, and you'll find it tough. You'll curse me plenty. Eventually, you will achieve greater happiness than you ever can here. And you will thank me."

He was right. When I last saw him shortly before his death 10 years later, he was still working weekdays from 5 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and still experimenting on Sundays. His latest project: putting a discarded sound movie projector into working condition. He donated it to the local school. Instructing teachers and older pupils on its operation and maintenance. His only complaint: "I miss The Literary Digest. I don't know what to do every Thursday to continue my education."

When I lived in that town, I found writing poetry a better escape than getting drunk. In the paper I conducted a poetry column headed "The Guiltin'." Almost all contributions were written by me and signed "anonymous." One poem: Dr. Charles Wesley Krathwohl, Ph.D.

Never went to college for his degree.

From eighteen eighty-nine to nineteen thirty-three

He studied The Literary Digest faithfully.

Reading it, as boasted in the magazine's advertisement.

Was equivalent to higher scholastic achievement.

(And year later, when the magazine died, I added.)

But now, alas, The Literary Digest is dead.

What else for a college degree can be read?

Cold facts

Americans contract an estimated 1 billion colds each year, but a recent national survey finds that most adults know very little about the causes, spread and treatment of colds.

The survey for the CONTAC Physicians Advisory Board showed nearly 82 percent of the 1,004 people polled, wrongly believed kissing was a frequent culprit in the spread of colds. And 61 percent said getting caught in a draft or not wearing enough warm clothing was thought to lead to a cold.

"Recent research proves conclusively that hand contact with a cold sufferer is most responsible for the transmission of a cold virus," said the CONTAC board.

Mentone class learns history of clowns

Mrs. Rock's students wrote stories about clowns while studying their origin during reading class. Three of their stories are being shared for your enjoyment.

ALL ABOUT CLOWNS

There are six different kinds of clowns. Here are their names: Grimaldi, Pierrot, Auguste, Grotesque, Character, Midget. There is on other clown it is a Harlequin clown. It likes to mess up other clowns jokes and tricks.

Clowns get ready to perform at a Clown Alley. Other performers stay out unless they want a trick played on them.

Some of the clowns invented stuff. Grimaldi was the first clown to wear white make-up. The Auguste clown wore red, white, or blue faces. The Grotesque clown wore the silliest face white face and a big red nose.

A clown's face is very important. They may try from many faces before they chose the face they want to wear. Once a clown has chosen his or her face no other clown can copy it.

Clowns go to school to learn how to be a good clown. It takes a person who has patient to be a good one too. They have to learn alot of stuff.

By Betty Jo Roberts

CLOWNS

We have been reading about clowns. I would like to tell you a little about clowns. There are not only happy clowns, there are also sad ones too.

Some of them have baggy suits on, and others have suits just right for them.

Clowns didn't have their face's painted with white make-up until Joseph Grimaldi came along. He was the first person to wear white make-up. He also became very popular.

There was a clown named Pierrot. He wore a special costume. It had a loose shirt and a ruffled collar. He also wore white make-up.

There is the Auguste clown. He has a red, blue, or white face. He wears anything that pleases him. So that means that you could see a pretty silly looking clown.

There is the Grotesque. He wears the silliest costume he can think of.

By Eric Mikel

Mrs. Rock's fourth grade class at Mentone has been studying clowns and their history. Last week the students dressed as clowns and read some of their clown stories to the other classes.

CLOWNS

Clowns have been around for over 1000 years. There are many different kinds of clowns. The most common are the Auguste, Grotesque, Character, and the Midget. They call their act gags.

Some clowns wear make-up and some don't. It's very important that clowns choose the right face. No clown has the same face.

There's a place where all the clowns in the circus get ready. It's called Clown Alley. The other performs stay away.

Clown school is a place where clown's learn how to juggle and how to do pantomime. The circus has changed a lot through the years, but people still enjoy clowns.

Multiple Sclerosis Readathon

Area schools are filling up with Mystery Sleuths as students begin reading in the 1986 MS READaTHON.

Schoolchildren volunteer to read books and find sponsors who contribute a quarter, a half-dollar, or more for each book read during the MS READaTHON period. Because the money they raise is used to investigate the mysterious disease of multiple sclerosis, the children are called Mystery Sleuths.

Multiple Sclerosis is a chronic, often disabling disease without a known cause or cure. An estimated 500,000 Americans have MS or related disorders and an estimated 2 million family members are affected by its heavy social and economic burdens. By joining the MS READaTHON, children can help to finance the research that seeks a cure for the disease, as well as support services for people living with MS in northern Indiana.

In 1985 an estimated 2000 school children from 1st to 8th grades enrolled in the Northern Indiana MS READaTHON. Among them they read about 20,000 books.

The program was originated and developed by the National Multiple Sclerosis Society in 1974 for its more than 150 chapters and branches throughout the United States. The MS READaTHON has gained the acceptance of several educational associations such as the International Reading Association and the U.S. Department of Education.

Geneticist speaks to Freshmen

One in ten women get pregnant before age seventeen. Ninety percent of teen mothers are unemployed and eighty percent of marriages under sixteen end in divorce. These statistics are a grim forecast for the teenager who becomes a parent.

Freshmen at Tippecanoe Valley have had the opportunity to participate in a human sexuality mini unit as part of their freshmen physical education class. The goals of this program are to help students understand their responsibilities and choices a pregnant teenager would have to make. Through the use of films, filmstrips, speakers and pamphlets, these teens learn decision making and assertiveness skills, contraceptive information and think about their feelings toward their own sexuality.

Dr. Sam Rhine, a geneticist, speaks to the students for three hours on birth defects and their responsibilities. Student response to this unit has been very favorable and appreciative.

A Parents' Night will be held on Monday, November 10 at 6:30. The purpose of this program is to view materials used in the mini course and discuss ways parents can talk with their children about sexuality.

Views On Dental Health

LARRY W. PAMPEL, D.D.S.

THE PREVIEW TECHNIQUE

Do you have apprehensions about taking your child to the dentist for his or her first checkup? Could that be one of the reasons why you haven't made that first important appointment?

Well, your child's first visit to the dentist does not have to be for a check-up. There's no reason why it can't be a social visit just to "get acquainted".

If your youngster hasn't been to the dentist yet, the next time you have an appointment take him along. Let him watch the dentist check your teeth, clean them, etc. There's no better way for a child to understand that dental care is important for your health and good looks.

Believe me, the worst first dental experience is an emergency visit for a toothache or accident-caused injury. Extensive treatment or repair on a first visit may set your child up for a chain of future needless anxieties.

Don't avoid your child's first visit. The sooner your youngster creates a confident relationship with the dentist, the better. Start with a preview.

Prepared as a public service to promote better dental health. From the office of LARRY W. PAMPEL, D.D.S., 1329 Main St., Rochester, Phone 223-3121; 114 Mishawaka St., Akron, Phone 893-4545.

Buckle up reminders

In 1984, U.S. Secretary of Transportation Elizabeth Dole ruled that automatic seat belts in all passenger vehicles be installed into new cars over a three-year period. "My decision affords us the opportunity to begin saving lives, preventing injuries and cutting costs to our families and our nation immediately," she said.

Dole's emphasis on the importance of seat belts cannot be over-stressed. According to the Indiana State Police statistics, seat belts could have saved the lives of more than 660 Hoosiers and prevented the injuries of nearly 45,000 Indiana residents in 1985. So why don't people wear them?

According to the Indiana State Medical Association (ISMA), people may use a thousand different reasons for not buckling up. One excuse often used is that seat belts are not necessary for short trips. Actually, 80 percent of deaths and serious injuries occur in cars traveling under 40 mph, less than 25 miles from home.

In fact, says the ISMA, a vehicle does not have to be speeding to cause serious injuries to occupants in an accident. Scientific research, including actual vehicle crashes under controlled conditions, proves that seat belts can be extremely effective in protecting motorists from injury and death. For example, a person without a seat belt involved in a 30 mph crash will hit the windshield or other interior surfaces of the vehicle with the same impact as a fall from a three-story building.

To reduce traffic fatalities and injuries, Indiana motorists will be required, by law, to wear seat belts beginning July 1, 1987. The law will apply to all front seat occupants.

The ISMA supports this law and urges all Hoosiers to fasten their seat belts before turning on the ignition.

Vikings geared to meet Whitko

Friday's game with Oak Hill proved to be as exciting as expected. The Vikings are gearing up to take on Whitko in the sectional championship game. (Photo by Chris Moore)

march. Terry handled the ball seven times for 29 yards on the drive. The touchdown came on a one-yard plunge by Terry with 3:42 left in the third quarter, to bring the Eagles to within three points of the Vikings, 16-13.

The score inspired Oak Hill, who stopped Valley on three plays to gain possession of the ball once again. Their drive stalled at the Tippecanoe 42, and on fourth and one, Edds decided to punt the ball. The ball rolled into the end-zone, resulting in a touchback for the Vikings.

The running of Jamie Cullison allowed Valley to work the clock and march down the field at the same time. With :51 left in the contest, McDaniel sneaked over from the one to assure the Vikings' victory. Phillips was able to rest Cullison earlier in the game at spots, with John Taylor taking over the workload.

Friday's sectional championship will be played at Whitko.

Fishing law changes

Fishermen in Indiana should be aware of three new changes in the fishing regulations which went into effect Oct. 21, 1986, according to Ed Hansen, director of the Department of Natural Resources' Division of Fish and Wildlife.

Anglers will now have a 12- to 15-inch slot size limit on largemouth bass at the lakes in Shakamak State Park and Celina, Indian, Tipsaw and Saddle lakes in Perry County. Bass measuring 12 to 15 inches in length cannot be kept; however, largemouth bass smaller than 12 inches and larger than 15 inches may be taken.

Another regulation change concerning largemouth bass adds six lakes to the 14-inch size limit and prohibits the harvest of bass at another lake. The six lakes with the 14-inch minimum size limit are Cree, Skinner and Sacarider lakes in Noble County, Beaver Dam in Kosciusko County, Reflection Lake in Vanderburgh County and Lilly Lake in Marion County.

In addition to the largemouth bass regulation changes, fish spearing and gigging is prohibited on a 2.5-mile stretch of the Tippecanoe River below the Oakdale Dam. Gigging is allowed, however, in the Tippecanoe River from its confluence with the Wabash River upstream to a point one-half mile below the mouth of Big Creek in Carroll County.

For more information, contact the Division of Fish and Wildlife, 607 State Office Building, Indianapolis, IN 46204, or call 317-232-4080.

Toy Time

Millions of parents are now in the planning or buying stage for Christmas toys. In recent years the quality of toys sold to the public has improved, but much junk still floods the market-and sits under Christmas trees every year.

A word to the wise is thus in order now-in time. Take a close look at all toys. If they are not sturdily-built, if they appear fragile or flimsily constructed, opt for something else.

One can be sure children will give most toys some abuse. Too often in recent years the delight of Christmas morning for millions of children has become worthless by Christmas evening, or after a few days.

Students collecting labels

Students at Akron Schools are again participating in the Labels for Education program sponsored by the Campbell Soup Company. Labels are being collected in the drive beginning November 3, 1986 and ending February 1, 1987. A goal of bettering last year's total of 18,000 labels has been set. Schools may redeem the labels for free education materials.

Labels from Campbell's Condensed Soups (red and white label), Campbell's Chunks Soups, Campbell's "Soup for One" Soups, Campbell's Low Sodium Soups, Campbell's Bean products, Campbell's Tomato Juice, Campbell's Quality Soup & Recipe Mix, "V-8" Cocktail Juice, Franco-American products, Swanson Canned and Frozen Food products, Recipe Dog Food products, and Vlasic Pickle products are all redeemable.

All those in the community who wish to help may do so by saving their Campbell's labels and giving them to students. Or, simply drop them off at school. Collection containers are also located at the Akron town offices and the Akron Exchange State Bank.

Mentone Town Board calls special session

The Mentone Town Board will be having a special meeting on Thursday, Nov. 13, at 7 p.m. at the town hall, regarding the proposed sewer project for the town.

The meeting was requested by Commonwealth Engineers, from Indianapolis, to receive public input on the state's options for the town to solve its sewer problems.

The town has been notified to stop all dumping in Yellow Creek Lake and the Swick-Meredith Ditch. Town officials had sent three options on remedying the situation to the state earlier this year, but the state rejected all the options. Now the state has offered a solution for the town's consideration.

Town officials would like the public to attend for discussion of this matter.

Letters to the Editor

SOUTH AFRICAN SANCTION UNFORTUNATE

I believe it's unfortunate that we're posing sanction against South Africa. Leonid Brezhnev stated in 1973, "Our aim is to gain control of the... mineral treasure house of Central and southern Africa." Could it be just a coincidence that there has been so much attention focused on South Africa?

May I ask our National News Media, why we haven't been more informed that apartheid is being phased out in South Africa? Public places are being integrated; job discrimination legislations are being repealed; equal pay for equal work is being phased in; etc. Too, more informed regarding some black African Dictators who have killed thousands of blacks, who resisted their reform.

Also, why haven't we been more informed regarding the African National Congress (ANC), and its policy of violence to overthrow the South African Government, using racism as a tool to further their goal? Virtually ignored is an amendment to Representative Dellums' (CA) bill (HR 5183) adopted by a 7-1 Committee vote, concluded that the ANC is a communist organization. A TV network news has shown the ANC placing a tire over the shoulders of Blacks, (who oppose its revolution), filling it with fuel, and lighting it. Our U.S. Senate Subcommittee on Terrorism determined that ANC terrorists were being trained by PLO in Libya and the Soviet Union.

I heard Senator Lugar state, "We are out to stop tyranny." If this is true, may I ask why on July 11, 1985, did the Senate, including him, vote against sanctions against some Communist Countries, which I believe have more human rights violations than South Africa? Shouldn't our Government at least be consistent in our foreign policies?

Did our Representatives in Washington vote for sanction because our National News Media made it the popular thing to do, if not, why then? I believe it's past time for our Representatives, and our news media to recognize the communist threat in South Africa, along with the racial problem.

JUST A MINUTE

Come and help me Just a Minute,
My good spouse says to me,
I leave the dishes in the sink
And rush out to help He.

Just a minute isn't long,
But then three hours later,
The dishes still are in the sink,
And it's time to peel the 'laters.

The, "Just A Minute," all my life,
Keeps house work in a tizzy,
And, "Just A Minute," interruptions
Can sure keep one busy.

'Tis a Farm wives way of life,
This, "Come help Just A Minute,"
When hours later the job is done,
'Twas to be only "Just A Minute".

TO BE A FARMERS WIFE

What does it take
To be a Farmer's Wife?
It takes love of the outdoors,
Love for the trees:
Getting a kick
From the seasons breeze.

Love for all life,
Love watching things grow,
Livestock and poultry,
Need loving care so.

Willing to work
Love for the soil,
Able to take failures
After a hard toil.

A Sense of Humor,
To see the Bright side
And Faith in the Lord

Isaac Striver saw some wild ducks in a pond last Monday forenoon near his home, and he concluded to get his gun and kill a few of them. He procured his double-barreled shot-gun and slipped up cautiously to a fence within shooting range of the wild game, rested the gun on the fence, raised both triggers and let fly. He held the gun loose and it "kicked" back breaking his nose and wounding his face quite severely besides rendering him unconscious to such an extent, that he could not remember how he got home nor how he was wounded. But in his dazed condition he picked up the gun and went to the house, looking more like as if he had been in the war with the Russians than shooting at ducks on Phillip Arter's big pond. Dr. Hosman was called and fit Isaac's nose back in place as well as possible and plastered his face with court plasters until his handsome congenial face looks scary. But he will be better again soon.

In their new home with everything new and convenient they will be as happy as two bugs in a red rug and the NEWS extends congratulations.

PANTYHOSE TRICKS — Whenever pantyhose are no longer wearable, I cut off one-inch strips and use them for tying my plants to stakes. What's not cut into strips goes to the local hospital where the ladies there use the pantyhose to stuff dolls for the children in the pediatrics ward. The elastic tops can be used as elastic bands around large boxes and file folders that are bulging or contain loose material. Virginia T., Somerset, Mass.

VISIBLE BOTTLE MARKERS — I wear glasses, and it's often difficult for me to find the arrows which are supposed to line up on certain medicine bottles. When I have such a bottle, I get my glasses, line up the arrows and dab a little nail polish on both the cap and the bottle to mark the spots. If the cap or bottle happen to be a dark color, I use typewriter correction fluid. When I need to open the bottle again, I don't have to go and hunt for my glasses! Sylvia L., Mesquite, Tex.

*Thanks for your wonderful vote of confidence.
I will serve to the best of my ability.*

Sincerely,

Who's Making It?

"So your son is in college? How is he making it?"

"He isn't making it. I'm making it and he's spending it."

Over-Budget

When Sam was asked how he budgeted his income, he replied: "Oh, about 40 percent for food, 30 percent for rent, 30 percent for clothing, and 20 percent for amusement and incidentals."

"But that makes 120 percent."

"Don't I know it!" agreed Sam, with a groan.

Wanda (Hiers) Bruner offering PLT programs

An exciting new teaching resource has just become available to Indiana Educators. That resource is Project Learning Tree (PLT), an award-winning supplementary environmental education program for students.

PLT's multidisciplinary approach provides for a wide variety of needs and objectives. Primary and secondary school teachers are not the only beneficiaries. Scout leaders, park naturalists, museum tour guides and other educators will find PLT materials a great source of ideas and guidance for teaching about natural resources conservation.

PLT sponsorship in Indiana has come from the Department of Natural Resources, Division of Forestry, who recently held the states' second PLT Leadership Workshop October 23 and 24. At the workshop participants were trained in the design and use of PLT materials. Qualified to present PLT workshops in this area is Wanda Bruner, Education Co-ordinator for the Fulton County Soil and Water Conservation District of Rochester.

Wanda Bruner, formerly Wanda Hiers, graduated from Akron High School.

Currently PLT is available in 44 states and three foreign countries. Materials for PLT are available free of charge to persons who attend a six hour workshop. Educators interested in scheduling a workshop in their area should contact State PLT Coordinator Shelly Mitchell, Education Specialist for DNR's Division of Forestry at 5610 Crawfordsville Road, Suite 2200, Indianapolis, IN 46224 or phone 317-248-4324.

Gifts from Indiana

With the holidays approaching, Hoosiers are reminded to begin planning holiday meals and finding special gifts for friends and relatives. And what could be a better touch than using products made in Indiana for those holiday plans.

The "Indiana Directory to Cottage Industries" is available as a guide for people looking for home-made goods. The directory lists 21 categories of Indiana food products and some of the state's cottage industries where those products can be purchased.

Indiana's cottage industries always have produced goods made with care and pride. They are an excellent example of Hoosier quality, according to Lt. Governor John Mutz, Indiana commissioner of agriculture.

Candy, confections, baked goods, fruit, butters, preserves, and cheese are examples of some of the products produced by Indiana's cottage industries. Such products account for more than $10 million in annual sales throughout the state. Many of today's large corporations began as cottage industries with family members as the work force.

NSDAR chapters join for October meeting

The October meeting of Anthony Nigo Chapter, NSDAR, Mentone, met with Tippecanoe River Chapter, NSDAR, Bourbon at Teels Restaurant in Mentone at 6:30 for a delicious salad bar buffet. The regent, Mrs. Elaine Fugate welcomed everyone and the chaplain, Mrs. Helen Brown gave the dinner blessing.

Following the dinner the regent conducted the opening ritual, including the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of our country and 2 verses of the Star-Spangled Banner. The Bourbon Regent, Mrs. Mary Poulson was introduced and she thanked the chapter on behalf of their members, the members then introduced themselves.

The program chairman, Mrs. Pauline Becknell, introduced the program, Mrs. Carol Swonger who is a registered nurse and travelled with 32 other nurses from 27 states to Russian to the Soviet/American Conference on Geriatric Nursing. They were there from April 21 thru May 5, of 1986 which was during the time of the nuclear accident. They were supposed to visit a long-term care facility at each stop and receive actual comparison the advances in care of the Aging. They travelled from New York to Finland and then flew into Leningrad because no planes but Russian are allowed to fly into the country.

There was no news given about the disaster in Russia until they had been there 9 days and this was a call from an American Journalist that accidentally got through to them at their hotel. The travel guide was just as much in the dark as the Americans.

The tour itself did not accomplish what was intended. The only facility visited.

was for WW II veterans and it was like a retirement home, no nursing facilities at all. In Russia there were never older or youngsters on the streets. The only children at play were in organized groups in the parks. Very few separate homes, all complex apartments and they move them into smaller spaces as they get older and are never seen or heard from as individuals when no longer workable.

The tour found out that the American Embassy could not even notify the families of the ones on the tour and the tour company itself did not offer to help.

Mrs. Swonger had many lovely photographs and leaflets that she passed around for all to enjoy. They visited also besides Leningrad, Kiev, Minsk, and Moscow. One unusual aspect to the building in Russia were none were over 10 stories high and the people dress very plainly and comfortable. The food is very high in fat content with very few fruits and vegetables. Practically the same diet every day with no variety.

The Russian people were not informed of what was going on in their country or anywhere else in the world, only what the government wanted them to know. Very few cars are driven by the ordinary people, and they do lots of walking and bicycle riding.

An enlightening question and answer period followed with Mrs. Swonger relating so many personal observations about the situation.

The meeting closed with the repeating of the Americans Creed. The next meeting will be on November 15 at Timbercrest Home in North Manchester at 12:30 with Mrs. Helen Spitzer as the Hostess.

Everyone who likes the idea of throwing away tax deductions for interest payments stayed to have their picture taken.

Everyone else is applying for a Home Equity Line of Credit at Lake City Bank.

Tax reform is eliminating interest deductions on consumer loans. And there aren't too many people who like that idea.

But Lake City Bank has the answer - Home Equity Line of Credit. Not only does this line of credit let you access up to $100,000 but under the new tax laws, the interest you pay can be tax deductible.

You can buy a car, take a vacation, make home improvements - anything you wish any time you wish just by writing a check. There are no annual fees. And because you may be able to deduct your interest payments, having a Home Equity Line is more sensible than having an auto loan, a vacation loan, and a home improvement loan.

Check with your tax counselor. Then fill out the coupon below and we'll send you your Home Equity Line of Credit application. Or call 267-6144. It may be the last application you ever need to fill out.

the great american smokeout

Georgia Nyland, RN, President of the Fulton County Unit, of the American Cancer Society, announces the 10th annual Great American Smokeout on November 20th.

From its beginning as a national program a decade ago, the Smokeout has been a huge success, both in creating an awareness about the dangers of cigarette smoking and in getting millions of Americans to give up the habit.

Larry Hagman is once again the National Chairman. He suggests placing a rubber band on your wrist and whenever you want a cigarette, instead of striking up a match, you just SNAP the band. Do this enough times and you could kick the habit. Then when your friends ask you how you did it, you can say, "it was a snap."

Diane Jones, County Health Nurse, has distributed posters and promotional materials to all schools throughout the county.

"Max", NM9K, talks around the United States

While many of us sit back and wonder what the world is doing, Maurice Kessler of Akron finds out! The Rev. Kessler, a retired United Methodist minister, is an "ole pro" using a ham radio. He has had contacts with eyeball" reunion at Geneva Center, Rochester.

The United Methodist church members are also starting a ham group here in Indiana. They are known as MARK or the Methodist Amateur Radio Koinonia knowledge and transcribes other call names or takes messages down to be remembered. She keeps a log for her husband of different call names which they use while traveling.

A ham radio is not to be confused with a C.B. radio. Anyone can apply for a license to operate a C.B. To operate a ham radio, you must obtain a license by passing tests involving different levels of code knowledge. The ham radio frequencies are also policed very carefully. Foul language is never permitted.

"The ham radio plays a very important role for communication," said Kessler. "During an emergency it is sometimes the only means of communicating since it is battery operated," he added. During the tornadoes of 1974 the local ham radio operators worked with the Civil Defense in notifying families of the stricken victims. Rev. Kessler explained how the Japanese code was intercepted during World War II by a friend of his in Hawaii. The code was eventually broken and many of our ships, bases and soldiers were saved because of a ham radio operator.

Ham radio operators share a bond that no other group has. Friendships have developed over the years between people who have never met and possibly never will. They are known by their code names as is Rev. Kessler. If you are an operator, be sure and give your regards to Max! (Better known as Rev. Kessler). Just call for Max, NM9K!

Canada, Washington, and the Caribbean. While living in Florida, he can contact Buenos Aires.

Rev. Kessler became involved with the ham radio several years ago. In fact while in high school as a student he helped teach a physics class because of his technological knowledge. He has seen the ham radio grow from "the wireless" to an advanced computerized system. "It is remarkable what can be accomplished now with the (ham) radio," exclaimed Kessler. "you can put a message into a computer, program who is to receive it and the time you want them to receive it, then know it is done!"

Rev. Kessler belongs to a unique category of ham radio operators. He has obtained his extra class license which will enable him to work through satellites, or in "ham language", work'n through the bird.

Once he obtains these satellites, he will be able to contact almost all parts of the world. To achieve the extra class license, Rev. Kessler had to pass a difficult exam for which he studied most of last winter. About 10% of the nearly 400,000 ham operators have achieved this goal. Other classifications of operators include the beginning novice, technical, general, advance and then extra.

The Disciple Amateur Radio Fellowship, more commonly known as DARE, is Rev. Kessler's main group to which he talks. He can also talk to this group in Florida. There are approximately 400 members in the group. Last year a portion of the DARE group held an "eyeball" re-

Students recognize Veterans Day

All Akron Jr. High social studies students co-operated in decorating the school hallways for Veterans Day, November 11, 1986.

Some students drew soldiers from 10 different American conflicts. Others made various posters, signs, and banners. One class made a 5'x8' American Flag.

This activity was supervised by the sixth, seventh, and eighth grade social studies teachers, Jeri Good, Kathy Good, Linda Studebaker, and Jerry Jackson in an effort to help students develop a gratitude for the enormous debt owed to the American veterans.

DON'T IGNORE "PINK" TOOTHBRUSH

If your toothbrush turns pink after brushing, you have a dental problem - one that should not go unattended. You are experiencing bleeding gums, a likely indicator of gingivitis (or inflamed gums). Gingivitis is the first stage of periodontal disease which accounts for the greatest tooth loss in adults. But if you catch it early, you can reverse it with the help of your dentist and a proper home brushing and flossing regimen.

There are other symptoms of gingivitis, such as soft or swollen gums. Rather than go into all the details, take this advice. Go straight to your dentist and let him examine your gums and evaluate your situation. With a little looking and painless probing, and perhaps an x-ray check, he'll immediately know how far advanced it is and what can be done to save you a lot of future problems.

If left untreated, it will only get worse. If you do nothing about improving your home care along with proper professional care, the disease may eventually destroy the tissue and bone supporting the affected teeth. This could likely result in the loosening and eventual loss of teeth which could have been kept healthy.

BASEBALL • • • •

By Pete Fritchie

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- The exciting seven-game World Series just concluded should prove even to skeptics that instant TV replay is badly needed in baseball.

Runners were called safe at first when out, out when safe, plays were missed at second base, strikes and balls were frequently miscalculated, and at times these errors were critical or even decisive.

Bob Costas of NBC, editorializing in an emotional spiel at the onset of the Series, opposed instant TV replay, which is working well right now in the National Football League. He claimed correcting umpires' mistakes would take color and tradition out of the game, but there is little to this romantic notion.

Quiz Bowl winners

Tippecanoe Valley, who received first place honors, was among six schools competing in the Annual Quiz Bowl hosted by Triton High School Saturday, November 8. Competitions were held for both junior and high school teams.

The high school questions were taken from the Genus II Edition of Trivial Pursuit. Competition was conducted in a modified spell bowl format. Questions were both read and projected on an overhead screen.

Teams were made up of three members. The captain of the team submitted the teams answer to the appointed judge. The high scoring team of each level was awarded a trophy.

Valley placed first with a score of 30, followed by Triton with 27 and Rochester with 26.

Chuck Howard, Jeff Feldman, Clinton Alexander, John Sikora, John King and Chris Moore comprised the Valley team.

Valley defeated by Whitko

The Tippecanoe Valley High School football team was eliminated from the Class 2A playoffs with an 18-0 Sectional 27 championship game loss at Whitko.

Whitko, ranked second in Class 2A, overpowered sixth-ranked Valley. The Warriors held the Valley offense to season-lows of 62 yards on the ground and 145 total yards. Whitko runners gained 204 yards, led by Jeff Larson's 94 and 26 carries.

Whitko scored its first touchdown after time ran out in the first quarter. Face-mask and encroachment penalties on the Vikings moved the ball from the Valley 27 to the seven and Mike Kline ran the ball over. Whitko missed the extra point.

Kline scored again on a 12-yard run in the second quarter. A conversion run failed. Valley had a chance to get back into the game with a drive that reached the Whitko eight-yard line, but time ran out in the first half before the Vikings could score.

Whitko's final touchdown came in the fourth quarter when Valley quarterback John McDaniel went back to pass from his own end zone. The ball was knocked out of his hand and David Boggs covered the ball for Whitko.

It was the first-ever shut-out loss by a Valley team since the program started in 1975.

Whitko had added incentive to win the sectional championship. Ryan Hoff, Whitko's punter and backup running back, was killed last Saturday in an auto accident. His funeral was Wednesday.

Alcoholism stigma continues

by Bill Brooks

Stigma still hangs over the heads of sober alcoholics as well as drinking alcoholics.

Evidence of this came to light recently when Dave Schellhase, former star Purdue basketball player and former Indiana State University coach, disclosed he was suing the university for breach of contract and violation of his rights under the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, after he either resigned or was fired as coach there in March, 1985.

Schellhase claims he never resigned. He said he was fired before he went through a rehabilitation program paid for and arranged by Indiana State University.

When Schellhase got back to ISU after completing a treatment program in St. Louis, he was reassigned to a desk job in another department than coaching. He then applied for 74 coaching jobs - and got one interview.

In fairness to ISU, let the record show that it declared that it DID arrange and pay for the rehabilitation program, DID honor his contract by giving him a job his final year, even though it had nothing to do with the basketball program, and says it tried to help him find a new job.

Whether the university did all it could or whether Schellhase did all that he could is not the point here. The point is this, and I quote Schellhase:

"When I was drinking a lot, I was a successful coach and got good jobs. Now that I'm not drinking, I can't find a job. Somehow that doesn't make sense."

And so, I pose this question: Is Schellhase unable to get a coaching job because he is a sober alcoholic or because he is a bad coach?

If it's because he's a nondrinking alcoholic, then what's the point of alcoholics getting treatment? If society considers him practically unemployable in his chosen profession because he is NOT drinking, what does that say of society's attitude toward drinking?

When the late Marty Mann, a recovering alcoholic and founder of the National Council on Alcoholism, was asked what the big problems facing alcoholism treatment were in the early 1970's, she replied, "Stigma! Stigma! Stigma!"

The United States is a drinking society. One hundred million imbibe alcoholic beverages. Ten million can't handle it. They are alcoholics. They have a disease. It isn't a matter of good or bad or willpower. Their brain chemistry is different. Alcohol is as big an allergy problem for the ten million as pollen is for hay fever victims.

But the ninety million who CAN handle alcohol in their so-called "social drinking" look down their noses at the 10 million who CAN'T handle it. To the majority, it's a disgrace that these unfortunates "can't hold their liquor like us."

The American Medical Association declared alcoholism a disease in 1956. The World Health Organization and the American Psychiatric Association agreed. And yet there hangs over the head of many sober alcoholics the cloud of suspicion, of distrust, of shame - of stigma.

If Schellhase had had a heart attack and recovered, his coaching job probably would have been re-offered, as long as his doctor assured the powers-that-be of a recovery.

We have heard it often in this field of alcoholism and drug abuse: If you keep your drinking secret, you'll be OK. If you make your recovery and abstinence known to folks, then watch out!

The first kindergarten was opened at Blankenburg, near Kellhuau, Germany, in the year 1837.

Christmas basket project underway

Names of needy families are being sought for the 1986 Christmas Basket Project, according to Conde Holloway, President of United Ministries of Rochester. The project is sponsored annually by the United Ministries with assistance of numerous community and church volunteers throughout the area.

Anyone who would like to submit the name of a needy family, may fill out the blank below and return it to United Ministries. A screening committee will review each name to make sure of need.

Christmas baskets will be delivered Saturday, Dec. 20. They will contain chicken, canned goods, flour, sugar, boxed desserts, cereals, paper products and other donated items.

Families with infants and/or pregnant women also will receive baby vitamins, powder and baby food.

Wrapped toys for children to open on Christmas Day also will be part of the project.

"It is our hope that all families will have a meal for Christmas and each child will have the joy of opening a gift," Holloway said.

Donations of food items, toys and cash to purchase perishable foods, special diet foods and to repair donated toys also are needed.

Cash donations can be sent to United Ministries Christmas Baskets, P.O. Box 531, Rochester, IN. 46975. Details on where donated foods and toys will be collected will be announced later.

Last year, 295 baskets were delivered to families in Akron, Argos, Athens, Culver, Delong, Disko, Fulton, Kewanna, Kings Lake, Leiters Ford, Macy, Rochester and Silver Lake.

Leftover money is used to operate the United Ministries Food Pantry, which provides a three-day supply of food to needy families on an emergency basis.

This year, the Pantry has served 183 Fulton County families, including 333 adults and 284 children, with 5553 meals.

Tips to help protect your child

At the shopping center you see large posters of missing children hanging in store windows. Later as you unpack your groceries you notice the picture and description of another missing child on the side of a milk carton. You snap on the six o'clock news and listen to stories of kidnappings and child pornography rings. You look at your children, trying to grasp how you would feel if something happened to them. How can you protect them, other than not letting them out of your sight for the next 18 years?

You can start by teaching your children how to avoid trouble, how to spot trouble, and what to do if trouble happens to them.

It is not easy to talk to children about personal safety and yet they need to know how to protect themselves. Some basic knowledge will increase their confidence and self reliance. Remember that young children can't absorb a lot of information at one time, so don't present too much.

Teach your children to be wary of strangers. Make sure they understand that a stranger is anyone they do not know well. Most strangers are well-meaning and not to be feared. But because children are trusting and vulnerable, they can fall for offers by adults who seem kind, but are not.

Here are some basic rules to teach your children about strangers: Never accept rides, candy, gifts, money, or medicine from a stranger. Never give your name or address to a stranger. Never open the door to anyone you don't know. Never tell callers that you're home alone. Say mom or dad can't come to the phone, and will call back.

Be sure your kids know how to "play it safe" when they are on their own. Playing in deserted areas such as the woods, a parking lot, an alley, deserted buildings, or new construction is dangerous and invites trouble. So have them play as close to home as possible and use the same safe route in traveling to and from school or a friend's house. Make sure they always try to walk with friends, and that they know homes, stores, or other places to go when in trouble. Teach your children that the police are friends whose job is to protect them. Make sure they know that if a police officer can't be located easily, they should run to or seek out a trusted teacher, a neighbor, or a friend's parent when frightened or feeling endangered. Your children should know their full name, address including the city and state, and phone number including the area code. Teach them how to reach the operator and how to call long distance.

Mentone Sewage options heard by local residents

More than 50 people attended the special town meeting held in Mentone to hear the wastewater treatment options available to the community. State Legislators Greg Mishler and V. Richard Miller and County Health Sanitarian Jon Cupp also were on hand to hear the presentation.

The town will have to make a decision on how to best solve the problem of polluting Yellow Creek Lake.

To correct the problem the town must look at three alternatives. Option "A" could cost the entire Mentone community $3,100,000; $2,320,000 on Option "B" for the areas north of the Norfolk & Western railroad tracks, or $430,000 on Option "C" for only the downtown area.

If Options B or C are implemented, it would mean all other residents would still be in violation. These residents would have to upgrade their own septic systems at their own expense.

Board President Jim Miller reminded those attending, that the infiltration problem at Yellow Creek Lake has existed for 15 years.

Miller then told the crowd the town has to come up with a compliance plan to either stop the discharge, or have a processing plant before the waste water reaches the creek.

Project Engineer G. Edwin Tinkle II, of Commonwealth Engineers Inc., told the town people that the orders and mandates were now coming from the attorney general. Tinkle said these orders and mandates apply regardless whether the town is in an economic position to begin the plan. Because it will take 4-6 months for the design and then approximately one year to build a treatment plant, such a plan must be decided by the town within the next 60 days.

Mentone is not in a position to receive federal funding for a plan. The town is number 103 on the priority list and funding from the Department of Environmental Management will not go that low on the list.

Initial efforts to provide wastewater collection and treatment facilities for Mentone began in 1972 when the town applied for EPA Construction Grant funding. In November 1973 the town received a preliminary report to give officials a look at the costs associated with the implementation of a wastewater facilities project, and in 1976 there was a preparation of the EPA financed facilities planning report.

Two changes were made in the EPA grants program in 1977, and continual changes in the program and public opposition to the proposed project forced town officials to terminate work on the project in February of 1979.

No action on the project was taken between that date and May, 1985, but at the latter date the town was informed by the state that malfunctioning septic tank systems overflowing to drains and storm sewers discharging to Yellow Creek were no longer permitted and the town was required to correct the problem. In October 1985, the town was issued a National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System Permit (NPDES Permit) which required the town to correct the problem by constructing sanitary sewage collection and treatment facilities or eliminating the illegal connections to the existing storm sewer system.

When no action by the town was forthcoming by early this year, the state initiated enforcement and compliance actions against Mentone. A prehearing settlement in March was held in Indianapolis, and town officials were informed they would not be allowed to continue a "no action" policy. The deadline for compliance was set for July 1, 1988 and the state

Friends lend helping hand

Members of the Akron Church of God Home Builders Class gathered Saturday, November 8, to pick and haul corn for Lillian and Forrest Kamp.

It took the group approximately six hours to harvest the 30 acres of corn. Those helping were Howard Hunter, Frank Nellans, Joe Wildermuth, Richard Slaybaugh, Gordon Heltzel, Don and Tim Kuhn and Harvey Kamp.

The women joined in the project by serving dinner to the hardy workers. The good deed was very much appreciated by Forrest and Lillian.

"Batters Up" for the Tippecanoe Valley girls

Members of the Tippecanoe Valley School board voted unanimously, recently, to allow the high school to organize a girls softball team. Up to this time, tennis and track were the only spring sports available to girls at Valley.

The decision was made after Dr. John Hill, Valley principal, presented a survey conducted with surrounding schools and with the local high school girls. Six schools, Wawasee, Eastern, Northwood, Logansport, Maconaquah and Rochester, have agreed to play Valley at least once during the spring season if a team was formed last spring. 49 Tippecanoe High School girls said they would try-out for a team if available.

The board discussed the possibility of using diamonds at the Akron and Mentone sites for games. The board also voted to begin looking for a coach.

Kay Goshert, interdisciplinary Cooperative Education program instructor for Valley, reported to the board that there are 39 students involved in the program. This program allows the student to be in class part-time and on the job work site the rest of the day.

Eight of the students are employed in the food business and eight in offices. Further breakdowns include seven in automotive, six in farming, four in retail, three in personal services, two in manufacturing, and one in lumber.

The majority of the students are working in Warsaw, but others are employed in Mentone, Akron, Rochester, Burket, Leesburg, and Silver Lake.

In other matters:
* The board accepted bus bids from Kerlin Bus Sales of Silver Lake for the purchase of three Chevrolet chassis and Thomas bodies at a cost of $24,324.28 each. The Kerlin bid was accepted as the low bid with the stipulation that the bodies have a * Tippecanoe Valley School Corp. will advertise for bids for temporary loans for $506,800 for the general fund; $225,600 for the debt service fund; $112,500 for the transportation fund and $216,900 for the cumulative building fund. The loan is to be payable on June 30, 1987 from taxes collected within the corporation. Superintendent Baxter Paige gave estimates on the amounts of taxes to be raised from $54,230,330 assessed valuation in the district. From the assessment and tax levy of 2.2185 in Fulton County and 2.3973 in Kosciusko County, the school district will raise $633,601 in the general fund; $282,106 in the debt service fund; $140,727 in the transportation fund and $271,151 in the cumulative building fund. The temporary loan is needed to continue paying operating expenses until the taxes are raised.

* A construction report was given by Paige. At Akron the roof is on the new elementary and junior high section and all concrete work inside the building is completed.

Paige said he was optimistic about an early completion date at Burket. New walls are complete and workers have finished the concrete work.

The Mentone site is still behind schedule with workers hooking up electrical panels so work can continue through the winter.

The board approved one change in construction plans for the project. It was originally bid to have painted surfaced water coolers. Paige recommended changing that to stainless steel for easier upkeep and longer life. The change will mean an additional cost of $224 for the building corporation at Akron and $144 for the school corporation at the Mentone and Burket schools.

* Members passed two resolutions, one honoring the high school marching band which placed seventh in the state competition last month in Indianapolis. The second honored Forrest Kamp, an 18-year bus driver with the corporation who retired this year.

* The high school graduation date was set for Saturday, May 23, at 7:30 p.m. as requested by the senior class.

* School board members voted to pursue legal action to receive reimbursement from Fulton County for transfer students now living in the school district. The school corporation will have to file a petition with the state board of education for a hearing to determine if Fulton County should be made to pay the transfer fees for minors placed in a foster home.

* A leave for Scott Carmichael to be a part of the NCA visitation team to Union City High School Dec. 9-12 was granted.

* Members signed a contract for bus driver Phyllis Goodwin.

* A GED certificate for Terrance Hester was approved.

* Girls season basketball ticket prices were raised from $8 for adults and $5 for students to $10 and $7, because of an increase in the number of home games scheduled. There will be nine home games this season.

Silver Lake breaks with Public Service

Silver Lake Town Board members have instructed town attorney Max Reed to file the final papers with the Indiana Public Service Commission, which will sever the town from the jurisdiction of the PSC.

This referendum was approved by 71.9 percent of Silver Lake votes during the last election Nov. 4, which now places the town waters under the jurisdiction of the local board.

Akron Police Report

Views On Dental Health

LARRY W. PAMPEL, D.D.S.

INFECTION FOLLOWING SURGERY

If you undergo any kind of an operation in a hospital, you normally spend time in "recovery" where you are carefully cared for to insure no "post-op" infection develops. A dentist does not have this luxury (nor does the patient). If a surgical procedure is done (such as an extraction), the patient normally leaves the office with verbal or printed instructions about what to do or not to do to prevent infection and promote healing. If you ignore the instructions, you may be flirting with the possibility of post-procedure infection.

Signs of infection would be pain, swelling, and perhaps a feverish feeling. Swelling after surgery doesn't necessarily mean you have an infection, as some swelling is normal. But if it keeps getting bigger, feels warm and firm and is painful, see your dentist immediately.

He may put you on an antibiotic, or he may have to open and clean out your wound. Do not take the attitude that it will probably get better by itself. It may, but if it doesn't, it's going to be harder and longer to treat later.

Prepared as a public service to promote better dental health. From the office of LARRY W. PAMPEL, D.D.S., 1329 Main St., Rochester, Phone 223-3121; 114 Mishawaka St., Akron, Phone 893-4545.

Albert Bitters thinks "The Akron News rejoices because the trolley line is laid out to pass the printing office. It will be handy for the editor to look out of the window and see the wheels go round." Exactly so, Bro. Albert and we expect to be the first editor in the county to see the trolley wheels turning and it may be along time before any other editor in the county can do the same act. Akron is strictly in it.

Chester Frislinger came sauntering into this office last Friday. We put him to work because he looked as if he wanted to. In thirty minutes he was running the job press. Chester is fifteen years old, as bright and happy as any other boy, and yet is almost always busy.

Mr. Zimmerman and his mother were both present and done their best to relieve the burning woman. But after all their efforts her clothing was nearly burned off and the flesh deeply burned, and though her suffering has been intense yet the attending physicians say that she will recover.

Christmas Gift Lift under way

The Indiana Mental Health Association's annual Christmas Gift Lift project is under way, according to local chairman Mrs. Nelson Hunter, Jr.

The statewide project provides Christmas presents for mentally ill people in state institutions, health centers and nursing homes.

Locally, gifts are collected for patients at Logansport State Hospital and for residents of the Canterbury Manor and Rochester nursing homes who do not have families.

Gifts are sorted and are wrapped by volunteers. Each person receives one gift of good quality and a smaller gift such as lotion, perfume or a piece of jewelry.

Presents for men are in great demand this year, Mrs. Hunter said. Appropriate gifts include caps with earflaps, pajamas, T-shirts, underwear, socks, tobacco, pipes and shaving cream.

Suggested gifts for women include gloves, slippers, sweaters, cosmetics, hand lotion, dresses, panty hose, soap and toothpaste.

Plastic containers, less likely to break than glass, and easy-to-handle large sizes are preferred.

Cash donations of $1 or more is accepted and appreciated.

The deadline for donations is Dec. 10. That will give time for sorting and wrapping the gifts. They should be new and not wrapped. Collection boxes have been set up at:

Coaches view "Hoosiers"

Two area high school basketball coaches who have seen the movie "Hoosiers" both have given it their strong approval.

Logansport coach Phil Hershberger stated, "Hoosiers" is an excellent movie. He felt the movie gives the viewer the true sense of 'Hoosier Hysteria'.

Lewis Cass coach Shannon Jones was reminded of his own playing days while viewing the movie.

The movie is about how a coach who has been out of coaching for 10 years (Gene Hackman) takes a small town high school (Hickory) to the Indiana state basketball championship in 1952. The film is loosely based on Milan's 1954 state title team and was written and produced by Indiana native Angelo Pizzo. It was directed by David Anspaugh, who was a fraternity brother of Pizzo's at Indiana University.

Both coaches believe the basketball scenes in the movie were, for the most part, well done. Only one person on Hickory's team is an actor, the rest are all former high school or college basketball players.

Using disposable ware for holiday packaging

Wrap up your homemade holiday treats using disposables. Disposable ware can provide attractive and practical packaging for your Christmas cookies, cakes and candies. Paper and plastic plates, bowls, trays and cups are convenient. You don't have to wash them when the holiday goodies are gone. They are also safe packaging for mailing your holiday treats to far-away friends and relatives.

Disposable ware comes in a variety of designs, shapes and colors. Clear disposable ware can provide a sparkling showcase for your tasty treats. Brightly decorated disposable plates, bowls, trays and cups can show off your gift to its best advantage.

For example, a red or green disposable plate or tray provides a festive background for butterball cookies. Cover the cookies with plastic wrap, then top your special package with a green or red ribbon.

Clear or white disposable ware provides an attractive package for your favorite holiday fruit nut bread. Place the bread on the disposable tray or plate, then surround the bread with holiday fruits and nuts. For that extra special touch, place a lace paper doily or placemat underneath the bread, fruits and nuts. Cover it with plastic wrap for a tasteful gift.

You can make a batch of the season's sweets and distribute them to your co-workers or friends. A peanut cluster or a pecan tart packaged individually in disposable ware is an inexpensive but special gift.

Because disposables are an attractive, practical and convenient way to wrap up your goodies, they are the wise choice in this gift giving season.

Mentone Nutrition Site

Olive Tucker

Phone 353-7555

The Mentone Nutrition Site had a very enjoyable Nov. 11th birthday party. Bedi, our director arranged the program and Ethel Whetstone helped to decorate the table with a fall candle and leaves. The program was a combined Veteran's Day and birthday party. We faced the east at 11:00 a.m. with silent prayer and repeated the Pledge to the Flag.

We had a very interesting film on Washington D.C. Marguerite Campton played several selections on the piano. Harriet Abby read of "Freedoms Price" and of the courageous men that signed the Declaration of Independence. Also of the 7 principles that made America great. The ills that have hurt our country were noted.

The six people enjoying birthdays were Marie Rathbun, Joy Miller, Isabelle Hatfield, Harriet Abby and Dora Norris.

Monday, the 17th was games, and Madeline Fisher of the Bell Library, came on Tuesday. Wednesday was band practice. Rev. Lester Taylor of the United Methodist Church was the Thursday area minister. The Site thanks and appreciates Dennis Fitzgerald, son of Iris, for the generous donation.

Now that the hot summer is over and the fall work done, why don't you come join the fun with the Senior Citizens. We always like meeting new friends and we'll be sure to make you feel welcome. If you come once or twice, we're sure you'll come again and again.

Real Services Nutrition Program invites persons age 60 or older to attend the Meal Site at the Community Room, Fire Station, Mentone. The telephone number is 353-7555. Please make reservations 24 hours in advance.

Monday - Vegetable cocktail juice, swiss steak, scalloped potatoes, buttered lima beans, cracked wheat bread, margarine, banana, milk, tea, coffee.

Tuesday - Pear nectar, ravioli, broccoli w/cheese sauce, tossed salad with Italian dressing, Italian bread, margarine, fruit cup, milk, tea, coffee.

Wednesday - Apple cider, roast turkey, mashed potatoes and gravy, garden peas, cranberry sauce, soft dinner roll, margarine, pumpkin pie, milk, tea, coffee.

Thursday - Thanksgiving Day Holiday!

Friday - All Sites Will Be Closed.

Mentone options

requested the town prepare a Municipal Compliance Plan, which would present a proposal for correcting the problem along with a time schedule for implementation.

The town then hired Commonwealth Engineers to assist the town to prepare the Municipal Compliance Plan.

The next step is now to decide which plan will be taken by the town, and to help in that matter the board scheduled the public hearing Thursday night.

While all residents at the meeting were in agreement that Option A would be favored - if they had to choose any - the costs are a big concern. As Miller explained, Mentone's assessed valuation is $3 million and with Option A the town people would spend $3.1 million to take care of the sewage.

The other alternative is not good, either, as Tinkle remarked that the plans to stop all discharges must be met by the 1988 date.

The Option A, although more costly, would serve all the town residents through the construction of three raw sewage pumping stations. The southern most pump station would pump all flow to the proposed waste stabilization lagoon treatment plant site. The proposal is for such a treatment plant to be on the northeast side of Mentone, because that would be in the same area as the sewage facilities planned for use by Mentone School.

Reasons cited for putting the treatment plant on the northeast side were that generally soils north of the tracks were more of a clay composition, while those south are usually sandy. Tinkle added that he hasn't seen a lagoon yet that didn't give off some type of aroma, so winds from the west would take the aroma farther eastward. It would not be to the best advantage to have it located west of town and have the smell go into the community.

When asked if another area was more suitable, however, Tinkle said that other sites would be studied.

Cost estimates for Option A were listed as $2,287,000 for construction and $813,000 for non-construction costs. Since the community has to finance 100 percent of the project, several funding sources will have to be looked at. Figuring total annual expenses for Option A estimated at $43,000, the estimated revenue would be $141,120 based on 420 users times average sewage billing of $28 per month.

The $98,120 cleared from subtracting the expenses from the revenue can be divided by the factor for 6 5/8 interest for 40 years with a 20 percent reserve coverage allowance, to determine the total amount of maximum borrowing capacity. This would leave a bond capacity of $1,140,000.

Even with that, however, this would leave a tax assessment required of approximately $1,960,000 times the number of users (360) to come up with a tax of $5,444 per user. This will be divided upon a given number of years, so if it is taken over a 10 year period the average consumer will pay $540 more per year.

One suggestion was made that leech beds be put in at three different locations as a way of reducing the expense, while another citizen questioned the method of taxation for each person. The individual felt that taxing on the basis of land size would be unfair to some people who had as large a property as a business who discharged much more flow. He felt that basing it in usage would be a more fair way.

For alternatives B and C, the amount of tax per user would increase, because fewer individuals would take part in the program. For B, it was estimated at $5,793 tax per user, while Option C (for only the businesses) would be figured at $13,900.

As was mentioned, however, to limit the amount of program participation to businesses would hamper future growth for Mentone and the hope of more industries coming there.

The board's next regular meeting is Monday, Dec. 1, and a decision may be made at that time or at a special meeting prior to that.

TRC squad named

With nine players gaining first team honors, Three Rivers Conference champion Whitko led the way for the league's all-conference football team for 1986.

Named to the all-TRC squad from the Wildcats were linemen Rick Hobbs and Greg Howard, quarterback Mike Kline, fullback Jeff Larson, linebacker David Boggs and Bryan Sherwin, safety Scott Striggle, defensive end-placekicker Jim Juilliat and punter Ryan Huff.

Juilliat and Hobbs were selected at two positions, with Hobbs picked as an offensive and defensive tackle.

League runnerup Tippecanoe Valley and No. 3 Southwood garnered most of the remaining spots on the first unit. Valley, whose only two losses in a 9-2 season were to Whitko, had six first team players, while Southwood had five players named.

Two-way lineman John King joined Hobbs as a first-team pick for both offensive and defensive tackle, while Roger Webb (guard), Jamie Cullison (running back), Dwayne Leiter (linebacker), Andrew Wood (cornerback) and Tom Finney (defensive end) joined King as Valley players on the first team.

First-team selections from Southwood were Fred Denison (guard), Brad Weiss (defensive end), wide receiver J.D. Ayres and the backfield combination of quarterback Matt Preston and running back Gary Hunter.

Rounding out the first unit were Oak Hill players Duke Stroup (receiver) and Scott Deaton (secondary), Eastern linebacker Kelly Granson and Manchester defensive stars Hoss Kennedy (linebacker) and Chris Cornell (secondary).

American Education Week Nov. 16-22

The following stories were submitted by students at Akron and Mentone elementary schools in honor of American Education Week.

The stories were picked at random to print.

Mrs. Sanders Class Mentone Why You Need A Good Education

You need a good education to help you to do things in your later life. Sometimes people need help because they never listened in class. Please, help by listening and trying to learn it can help. Help by doing some of the below: (1) Listen to classroom discussion and a lesson. (2) Don't goof off by talking etc. (3) Turn in your work on time. (4) Most of all don't ever not go to school. If you don't go to school you'll be sorry. If you do the good things from above you'll be glad you did. Why? Later in life there are times where you need school skills to pay bills, be good with money, and help you do things you couldn't do without school skills. A better thing is going to collage and get a better job than starting from scratch. I hope you will think about what I said. Do those things and you'll be happy I promise!

Sincerely,
Stuart A. Baney

Education is very important! You have to have diploma to get a good job. My mom is a executive secretary at a Holiday Inn. She has to know how to write good, to math good, and she has to know english very well. When I grow up I want to be like my mom she does her work well. She did good in drivers aid so now she drives to work in warsaw. I want to go to Indiana University collage. I have 8 year of school left so that pretty long. I'm only in 4 grad and 10 years old.

Travena Witham

I'm nine years old and in forth grade. I think that if you want a nice house, some food, and a family you need to get a job, and in order to get a job you have to know some special skills. So it's a good thing that you know how to read, write, know math well, and other things. Have you ever thought about when you have children? What will you do when they ask you to help them with their homework? What will you say to them? You won't lie to them will you? Think back when you were a kid, did you listen in class at school? I'm glad if you did.

Julie Johnston

Education

You will need to know reading and math real well in the future. You will need to get a job in the future if you want good education. First you would probably have to take college then you will know a little more about a job. Sometimes Education is important cause when you are in a bank you will need to count money. When you by a house you will need to sort your insurance.

Phillip Egolf

Education

You need education cause when you grow up you want to be smart not dum. When your at work you need to understand what to do. When you graduate from college you want to get a career and know to do it properly. When you do get a career it is important do it right so you don't get fired. If you get fired you'll have to get a new career. If you don't get a career you'll probably have to watch over the house and kids. I would rather get a career and do it properly so I don't get fired.

If you work at a restaurant you may have to serve people their food. It might be fun and it might be hard so be careful.

By: Amanda Johnson

Why is education important? Education is important because when you are older you can be a big success but, to get good education you must listen in class and follow the directions and you should always do you work the way you'r teacher tells you to do it. So when you'r older you will be a success

By Sarah Brown

Mrs. Smith's 5th Grade Akron

I want a good education because when I get older I can get a job, like a lawyer or doctor, architect, and a teacher. If you didn't know how to read and you got sick you wouldn't know how much medicine to take. You might eat rat food or something. If you wanted to take a walk you might go somewhere dangerous. If the sign says "Keep out!" you could just walk in. Or if you didn't know what a stop sign said another car could hit you or you could hit another car.

Angela Howard

I want a good education because I want to learn more about the world. I also want a good education because I want to work at a bank. I am going to go to Indiana University.

Sally Haines

I want a good education because when I grow up I can have a good job. I will be smart and have a good home and car and move to Florida and be a policeman there. I will make a lot of money.

Joey Barnes

I want a good education because it will come in handy in the future. I will need to write checks and balance my bank account. I will also need a good education for a good job because I want to be a teacher.

By Kristin Deardorff

I want a good education because, I need to know road signs and amounts of money, to know if you have enough to buy food. I need a good education to get a good job and so people can't trick me on deals. I need to know how to read, write, and communicate. Also I need to use proper English and know things so people respect me and don't think I'm dumb.

Written By Jeff Barnes

I want a good education because, I'd like to be able to get a good job and so I'll know how to do that job. Most people don't like going to school, but I think they would like a good education as well. People who didn't get a good education have a hard time finding a job. They have car wrecks also, because they can't read the stop signs, and railroad crossings. If you want to be a banker you have to know how to count money. If want to grow up to be a president you need good grammar. Having a good education is one of the most important things in life.

Michelle Bailey

Mrs. Rutherford's 5th grade Akron

I want a good education because when I grow up the job that I want to have will probably need a good education. Also I need a good education or else when I get older and it comes to the time to pay taxes I will probably mess up. I hope when I grow up I will have a very good education and get the job I want.

Brian Hill

I want a good education because I want to be an archaeologist. They need to know how to read and write. They need to know geography to write where they saw something. I also like school but I don't like to get up in the mornings.

By Shannon Dittman

I want a good education because I want to be a farmer just like my dad. To be a farmer you must know your math facts.

by Jeff Runkle

I want a good education because. You need to know your math if you get a job. If you going to be a historian you got to know about history. You might be a proffesor so know your science. You might go to college. If you are an all A student you can be on the honor roll. If you're going to have a good education you need to listen, watch, read, and study very very hard. You might want to be a teacher and you need to know all you can know.

Dustin Petrosky

I want a good education because if you want a job you should know how to count money back, read, write inventories, and add your money up and that means a very good education. My grandma, aunt, and mom are all teachers, so they must have gotten a good education. I guess I'll be a teacher when I grow up. By the way I'm in my aunt's class.

Missy Saner

I want a good education because I dont want to grow up and be unable to get a job and unable to make a living.

spotlight on health

Endurance Depends On More Than Muscles

Now that a healthy lifestyle has become a permanent way of life for many people, more and more people are depending on exercise to help them lose weight, stay in shape and even improve their self-image and mental health. Moderate exercise, of course, is recommended for people of all ages to help maintain good health.

A balanced diet is important to provide the basic energy and nutrients for those who exercise. Even with a good diet and a programmed approach to exercise, however, you may not be functioning to capacity, or have the endurance for which your body is fully capable.

A number of scientific research studies have been completed recently that indicate there is a direct relationship between your level of endurance and the level of vitamin E in your body. These studies basically point out the advantages of supplementation in order to attain "optimum" levels for the vitamin. Deficiencies are not often found in people, but there is a great deal of difference between an optimum level and a deficiency, especially where exercise is concerned.

During exercise, the body takes in and metabolizes oxygen at a greater rate than when at rest. That's good because the heart, lungs, muscles and other organs need more oxygen to function during exercise. But it also means that a tissue damaging process involving oxygen, called lipid peroxidation, takes place at a greater rate.

Lipids are basic components of cellular membranes. During lipid peroxidation lipids are damaged, injuring the cell. Vitamin E is known to interrupt the process of lipid peroxidation, thereby preventing damage to the cells during exercise.

Structures within the cell which are most easily damaged by lipid peroxidation are mitochondrial membranes. Mitochondria inside the cell extract energy from food and make it available to the cell for work. Because of this energy related function mitochondria are nicknamed the "powerhouses" of the body. Damaged mitochondria can't provide adequate energy for the cell to work.

Research conducted at University of California, Berkeley suggests that damaged mitochondria are a major cause of exercise fatigue. Additional studies indicate that there is an increased need for supplemental vitamin E during endurance training. It appears that vitamin E is used up by the working function of muscles during strenuous exercise. One study of exercising rats found clear evidence that vitamin E is depleted from both the liver and muscles during exercise. These facts lead to the conclusion that cell tissues are protected against the damaging process of lipid peroxidation during exercise by using up the body's vitamin E supply.

Scientists are continuing to explore the connection between exercise-induced tissue damage and fatigue and vitamin E. So far, the evidence points to a need for supplemental vitamin E in endurance exercise training such as swimming, jogging, and other aerobic exercises as a convenient way to reduce the damaging process of lipid peroxidation.

To provide the maximum protective value from supplemental vitamin E during exercise, it is important to know that there is a difference between natural and synthetic vitamin E. It has been proven that natural source vitamin E is 36 percent more potent than the synthetic form. To tell the difference between natural source and synthetic, simply check the label on the bottle. Look for "d" in front of the words alpha tocopherol or alpha tocopheryl, which indicates it is natural source. If the label indicates a "dl", it is synthetic.

Project SAFE guidelines explained

Heads of household under age 60 may apply for State Allowance for Energy (Project SAFE) assistance which began Monday, November 10, according to Jean Merritt, executive director of the Indiana Department on Aging and Community Services, the state agency which administers the program.

Applications are being accepted only at Community Action Agencies.

Those who are 60 or older, who began making application October 15, may continue to apply for Project SAFE assistance at Community Action Agencies, at Area Agency on Aging offices, or at electric or gas utilities. All applicants must present their most recent utility bill and proof of income when they apply.

Emergency SAFE, which is a crisis program designed to assist households whose utility service is disconnected, also began November 10. Emergency SAFE applications may be made only at Community Action offices.

Certain families will be required to pay from 10 to 23 percent of their outstanding bills before they can qualify for either Emergency SAFE or Regular Project SAFE. Emergency SAFE assistance will be available for bulk fuel as well as for utility payments.

Heads of household who are 60 or older may qualify for Emergency SAFE without making co-payments. All applicants for Emergency SAFE must meet Regular SAFE income guidelines. For those 60 or older, they are:

Number in Household	Gross Annual Income
1	$8,040
2	10,860
3	13,860
4	16,500
5	19,320
6	22,140

If there are more than six people in a household, $2,820 should be added for each additional person.

For those under age 60, the guidelines are:

Number in Household	Gross Annual Income
1	$6,700
2	9,050
3	11,400
4	13,750
5	16,100
6	18,450

If there are more than six people in a household, $2,350 should be added for each additional person.

The emergency component of SAFE will provide assistance up to $300. The payment will be made only if it results in the re-establishment of utility service or a delivery of fuel.

Once a family qualifies for Project SAFE, it cannot be disconnected from regulated gas or electric service between December 1, 1986 through March 15, 1987.

In a related development, Scott Severine, Project SAFE director, clarified a possible misunderstanding. He emphasized, "Residents of subsized housing who are separately metered, and who meet income guidelines, will be eligible for SAFE assistance during the 1986-87 heating season."

Anticipated funding for Project SAFE this winter is $47.8 million, about $5 million less than last winter, Mr. Severine noted.

He also stated, "Individuals do not receive payments from Project SAFE. Rather, the utility or fuel vendor claims a credit against its state retail sales taxes. SAFE funds are then sent to the Indiana State Department of Revenue to pay the credited amount of taxes."

Plans for fire station heard by Akron Board

The Akron Town Board heard tentative plans for the new fire station at its regular monthly meeting last week. Mike Strang presented the plans. Fire Chief Mike Stephens and Assistant Chief Mike Gearhart reviewed the requirements for the new station with Mr. Strang.

Several citizens have voiced concern about retaining the large oak trees at the building site. Mr. Strang pointed out sometimes when building too close to trees the roots are damaged and the trees eventually die. The need for access of parking by firemen and the EMS volunteers was also discussed. Mr. Strang will return to the December meeting with further plans.

Hugh Wildermuth presented a proposal by the Lions Club for another "Plant a Tree" project. After hearing the proposal, permission was granted by the town board to prepare a notice which will be included with water bills. Residents wishing to get trees will then need to return their orders with the water bills.

The Akron town employees were commended for their promptness in removing the snow. Jim Barnharts help in getting vehicles moved off the streets was also noted.

In other matters:

* The board reported a new sewer line to the storage shed barn has been installed.

* Tractor has been repaired and is back in use.

* Job description for billing clerk has been composed and signed.

Nature's Showcase

For the beauty of the earth...even after a heavy, wet snow God can be seen in His Glory. Remember to give thanks this Thanksgiving Day for not only the 'big things' in life but also for His everyday blessings. (NEWS Photo)

For all the blessings of the year,
For all the friends we hold so dear,
For peace on earth both far and near
We thank Thee, Lord.

For life and health, those common things,
Which everyday and hour brings,
For home, where our affection clings,
We thank Thee, Lord.

For love of Thine, which never tires,
Which all our better thought inspires,
And warms our lives with heavenly fires,
We thank Thee, Lord.

Shade trees available Gift Lift program seeking donations

The small shade tree planting started last spring will again be offered. These trees are offered to the Akron community and will be delivered and planted for $1.00 each. Those receiving town water should return the tree planting slip included with their bills to the town office. Others in the community may register their wishes at the Akron Exchange State Bank. All payments are to be made at the bank.

These orders need to be in as soon as possible to place the order at the most favorable price. The Akron Lions Club and others are sponsoring this project.

Species offered are Red Maple, Silver Maple, White Ash, Green Ash, Douglas Fir, Hemlock, Red Oak, Sweet Gum, Tulip, Bald Cypress, Red Bud, Black Walnut, Shellbark Hickory and Sassafras.

Once again, it's time to donate to the Fulton County Mental Health Association's annual Christmas Gift Lift.

The Gift Lift provides Christmas for mentally ill persons who must spend Christmas in a state hospital, health center, or nursing home.

Giving gifts is good therapy for you and the person who receives it. Share the joy by becoming involved with the Mental Health Association Christmas Gift Lift.

Mrs. Nelson Hunter, chairperson of the Gift Lift, says that the association aims to provide seasonal cheer for a population often forgotten and overlooked by seeking donations from civic, social and religious groups as well as private individuals.

The gifts will be distributed to local nursing homes who have patients with no families and to the Logansport State Hospital. Gifts are sorted by volunteers. Each patient receives at least one gift of good quality in addition to a smaller gift such as lotion, perfume or a piece of jewelry tucked in the package.

Gifts for men are in great demand. Mrs. Hunter notes these can include caps with earflaps, pajamas, T-shirts, underwear, socks, tobacco pipes and shaving cream.

Gifts that are suggested for both men or women are playing cards, puzzles, or candy and instant coffee — hand soap, toothpaste.

Ideas for women could include gloves, slippers, sweaters, cosmetics, dresses, hand lotion, party hose or purses.

Donations from organizations and clubs or individuals are greatly accepted and "special gifts" can therefore be purchased.

The deadline for gifts has been set for Dec. 10, Wednesday. These gifts should be new and not wrapped.

An estimated $20,000 damages resulted from an early Tuesday morning fire at the King Memorial Home in Mentone. The funeral home, located on SR 25 in Mentone, is also the home of owners Mr. and Mrs. Darrell King and their five children. The family was asleep when the fire broke out but all managed to escape safely. Most of the fire damage was in the second floor bedrooms. But the rest of the house and the funeral chapel were damaged by smoke and water. Fireman from Mentone and Burket answered the call at 6 a.m., and volunteers assisted in carrying furniture and caskets from the frame house. Mentone Fire Chief Lyman Moellenhour said faulty wiring was the cause of the fire. The King family has moved into a basement apartment at the Wayne Tombaugh home.

W.C. Miller is an active and earnest man and maybe this accounts for his frequent awkward positions. Early in the campaign last spring his horse and buggy was taken by error and used a whole day. And the laugh seemed to be on him in good shape. But another "cracker" comes on again. Frank Arter went to Billie's barn long before day light and took the best horse in the barn out to put new shoes on him. This was done according to orders given the previous evening. A half hour later Billie went out to feed and missed his best horse. The barn doors were all open and Billie suspected a thief had been at his place. He made some hasty examinations about the place and could find no horse nor trace of him. So he went out on the streets and made inquiry of all he met if they had seen his horse. No one having seen the horse in the gray dawn of the morning Billie began to get weak kneed and tremble. He was afraid some foulminded cur had taken the horse and hiked the tall timbers. Billie hunted long and rapidly and finally some fellow felt sorry for Billie and suggested to him that the horse was at the Arter blacksmith shop getting a new outfit on his feet. And Billie tumbled.

There is no question but what Akron's holiday display in former years, surpasses many other towns and equals the very best and largest town with electric lights and with the skill that is developing among our young merchants. Akron is well to the front in its beauty of holiday display. It is not cheap, trashy stuff, but of the very best. Money has not been spared to make our town shine.

There was a mighty welcome visitor arrived at the home of Mrs. Catherine Yeagley's last Monday evening. It was Mr. A.C. Onstott, of Springfield, Missouri. Mr. Onstott seems to her very much like an own son, and a brother to Kelsey. Onstott's mother died near Gilead, when he was an infant of three weeks, and at the age of three months he was brought to Mrs. Yeagley to the same house she now lives in and she cared for him as a mother for a dozen years or more. Forty-one years ago he left this locality and finally settled in Springfield, where he was married and has one child, a young lady. Lately he took a notion to revisit the old home and opened up communications with the Yeagley family of whom he had not heard from for nearly a quarter of a century and this resulted in his trip here, which all are enjoying so well.

The Mentone Nutrition Site's Scrambled Egg Band played at the Warsaw Elks on Saturday, November 15th. We were very well received and think they enjoyed our salute to the veterans. We introduced a couple of new things into our program.

"Our Red Headed Gal" went over big as well as "Did You See My Jimmy Marching?" (Tom Harmon). He certainly needs to practice some more!

Thank you Tom and Dorothy Krull. We are starting a Christmas Program now. Our Yankee Doodle Sweetheart was Joan Harmon. There were games on Monday and Tuesday as Madeline Fisher didn't come on Tuesday. The band practiced on Wednesday and Rev. Les Taylor of the United Methodist Church was the area minister. There was a film on Friday.

Monday will be games, with dirty bingo on Tuesday, and band practice on Wednesday.

Project 'Lead' available

A sixth-grade level activity book on juvenile delinquency prevention is available for schools, community groups, 4-H clubs, and others as a guide for Project 'Lead' - Legal Education to Arrest Delinquency, says Michael H. Stitsworth, state 4-H youth specialist at Purdue University and primary author of the publication.

Project LEAD is a new 4-H Program that seeks to prevent delinquency by encouraging positive youth development. More than 33,000 juvenile cases were filed in Indiana during 1984 which led to youth entering the probation system, he points out.

"With this need in mind, 4-H has the opportunity to step out of its traditional role and confront a social issue which is facing society in growing proportions - the problem of juvenile delinquency," Stitsworth says.

The 43-page workbook contains 13 activity sections that discuss "Making Laws", "Police - Who Needs 'Em'?", "Jeff Goes to Court" and other topics about interacting with others, laws, arrests and the courts. The publication sells for $2.

The activity book is designed to be taught with the help of audio-visual materials. Field trips and classroom visits from police officers, lawyers, judges, and others are also suggested. Stitsworth explains that the latter permits community officials to become involved with the program and lessens the teacher workload.

Through the workbook, students are presented situations involving shoplifting.

Story hour scheduled

Pre-school story hours will be held at the Akron Carnegie Public Library each Friday morning at 10 a.m. through December 19th.

November 28th - Cartoon Day. Bring your favorite cartoon book, stuffed animal, toy or whatever you would like to show us.

December 5th - Sesame Street Day. Bring any item you'd like to show us about Sesame Street.

December 12th - Care Bear Day. Bring any item that you'd like about Care Bears.

December 19th - Christmas. Bring any item you'd like to share about Christmas. All pre-school children in the community are invited to attend.

vandalism, runaways, and theft. Presentation and discussions in the book are purposely open-ended to allow students to discuss the options and make a decision.

"In some activities, additional circumstances are introduced and the children must decide how their decisions would change based on the new information," Stitsworth says.

Through Project LEAD, children are encouraged to have empathy for others, especially those associated with law enforcement. "They see how police officers have to judge each potentially dangerous situation very quickly, often with only limited facts," he says.

Stitsworth also developed a "Scale of Juvenile Legal Attitudes", to measure Project LEAD effectiveness. A videotape designed to train volunteers and teachers who use Project LEAD is expected to be completed by late November.

Teachers, 4-H leaders, youth group advisors, and community officials interested in using the new materials are encouraged to contact the Extension Youth Agent at 219-223-3397 or Stitsworth at Purdue 317-494-8422.

Selective Service gets names of men from Grant Applicants

More than 22,000 men who either applied for, or received federal pell grants - student financial assistance - have recently registered with selective service. They had been identified by a new computer matching program as possible lawbreakers, but their registrations have brought them into compliance with federal law.

Although each man was required by law to register within 30 days of his 18th birthday, government records indicated none had done so. Their identities were discovered by selective service through a computer match of department of education pell grant applicant and recipient lists and selective service registrant files. Male students whose names didn't match a record in the selective service registration database received letters informing them they were suspected nonregistrants, and that they would be ineligible for federal financial assistance unless they registered, or could submit proof of previously registering, or being exempt from the requirement.

The sharing of records between education and selective service stems from a provision of public law 97-252. An amendment to the military selective service act requires that men be in compliance with the registration law to be eligible for student financial aid under Title IV of the higher education act. The rationale behind the solomon amendment (named for its sponsor, Rep. Gerald B. Solomon, R-NY) was that young men unwilling to risk being called to serve the nation in a future crisis should not be allowed to benefit from federally funded student aid programs.

According to selective service acting Director Will Ebel, men born after Dec. 31, 1959 who have reached the age of 18 but are not yet age 26 must be registered. There are few exceptions. Ebel reports that 97 percent are complying with the law.

Failure to register is a felony. Besides being ineligible for student grants and loans, nonregistrants forfeit eligibility for appointment to federal employment and job training programs. They also risk criminal prosecution and, if convicted, face a fine of up to $250,000 or a jail term of up to five years, or both.

I wish to thank everyone for the cards, prayers and gifts while I was in the hospital. Also a special thanks to the doctors, nurses and the the Rev. Robert Loughheed.
May the Lord bless you all.

Reavis honored

On Dec. 7, 1986 at 7 p.m., Drs. Ingrid and Kendall Rogers will be presenting slides of China at the Akron Church of the Brethren. They recently returned from a six month stay in Dalian, China where they had served as directors of the "Brethren Colleges Abroad" program. The slides will depict life in modern China, including the famous sights as well as pictures of Chinese people.

The Rogers family and four college students established an exchange program between the Brethren Colleges Abroad program and the Dalian Foreign Languages Institute. In addition to administering the exchange program, the Rogers taught conversational English at the Dalian Foreign Language Institute. Dr. Kendall Rogers is a Professor of Religion and Philosophy at Manchester College; the Rev. Ingrid Rogers is pastor of the Akron Church of the Brethren. They and their two children have much to share about their China experience.

Thanks are extended to Pat Walgumuth for his help in clearing the streets after last weeks snow.

Comment on Sports

Football

by Pete Fritchie

Washington, D.C.—Although it's early to make comparisons, it looks like the Orange Bowl, in Miami, will have the pick of the match-ups January 1.

The Orange Bowl will host either Oklahoma or Nebraska, from the Big Eight, and pit that team against Miami, assuming Miami will favor an Orange Bowl bid.

Miami beat Nebraska 31-30 January 1, 1984. The Hurricanes beat Oklahoma during the season. So Miami will be favored, unless the situation is changed by injuries or unexpected changes in team standings.

Where will Penn State play? Penn State won a game in the sugar Bowl, by forfeit, in 1972. Oklahoma won, 14-0, but later forfeited to Penn State.

The Sugar Bowl might be the spot for the Nitanny Lions. In 1983 the Lions played a memorable game against Georgia which Penn State and Bulldog fans won't soon forget. Penn State won in the final seconds, 27-23. (The Bulldogs beat Texas in another thriller, in the Cotton Bowl, next year—10-9.)

The Rose Bowl is committed to Big Ten and Pacific Coast conference teams. None in those conferences are likely to be number one at the end of this college football season. The daddy of the bowl games is once again unable to host the top college team.

Frosh defeat Rochester

Tippecanoe Valley started its boys freshman basketball season Thursday, with the Green team beating Rochester 58-47, and Gold topping the Zebras' second unit, 32-20.

Scott Smith had a fine overall game for the Viking Green, stealing the ball 11 times, while adding five assists and nine rebounds. Steve Dunnock had eight rebounds, while Greg McCleese and Derek Eaton had 15 and 14 points, respectively, to lead the winners in scoring.

Larry Cripe topped Rochester with 15 points.

In the Gold game, the Vikings led from start to finish, with Scott Nelson topping the scoring charts with 10 points. Sam King and Brian Johnson each added eight points to the winning effort. King also had a game-high nine rebounds.

Girls win opener

The Lady Vikings opened their 1986-87 basketball season by defeating Caston 56-32.

Valley exhibited a good balance of offense and defense in the opener. Adding to the success was 15 points from Jody Yochum and 10 points from Leslie Miller.

Darci Jordan helped the Vikings hold Caston's leading player to only eight points.

Although Caston led at the end of the first quarter, Valley was able to retaliate during the middle two periods. Valley out-scored the Comets' 14-4 in the second period and 24-10 in the third to take a 20 point 47-27 advantage when the buzzer sounded.

The Vikings were also victorious in junior varsity action with a 35-31 victory over the Comets.

In Fashion

For pure elegance, your wardrobe should include classic winter white. A suit in wool gabardine featuring a peplum jacket takes you from the office to a dinner date.

Coats in white flannel, seen in shops, give a hint of luxury for day or night wear.

Accenting winter white will be gold or silver costume jewelry. Shoes in gold are striking with evening dresses.

Girls Cross Country award winners at the Tippecanoe Valley sports banquet were Diana Erp, most improved, and Danita Boggs, most valuable runner. (Photo by Chris Moore)

The town board wishes to thank all citizens, especially the children for the way they conducted themselves at Halloween. No vandalism made it a great time for all. Thank you.

Views On Dental Health

LARRY W. PAMPEL, D.D.S.

GUM BOIL (ABSCESS)

An abscess (sometimes known as a gum boil) in the gum tissue can be a painful experience. It may result from an infection within the tooth itself which means the nerve is dying or has died. The breakdown products move in the path of least resistance through the bone and then through the gum.

The abscess could also be caused by a trapping of food or bacterial products in the gum space we call a "pocket" (an opening between the gum and the tooth) which is a symptom of periodontal disease. If the entrance to the pocket closes tightly around an area of heavy breakdown, then the toxins accumulate and create pressure in the gum wall. Again, you may have pain with the swelling.

It will be painful, will not cure itself and will only get worse without treatment. Whatever the cause, you should call your dentist and tell him of your emergency. He will relieve your discomfort, determine the cause of the abscess, and treat the tooth or gum pocket if the tooth is worth saving.

Prepared as a public service to promote better dental health. From the office of LARRY W. PAMPEL, D.D.S., 1329 Main St., Rochester, Phone 223-3121, 114 Mishawaka St., Akron, Phone 893-4545.

Students need homes

Intercambio International de Estudiantes, A.C., a student exchange program, is offering local families the opportunity to share their home life with a young boy or girl from Latin America. Students will arrive in December, or January for a two month stay.

Founded in 1959, the Intercambio Program has successfully arranged for well over 50,000 students and families to meet and experience one another's cultures. Intercambio is designed for younger students, ages 11 to 16, who are looking for a home which has a youngster of the same age, sex and of similar interests.

These students are sponsored by their own parents, are covered by insurance for health and accident, and will bring their own spending money. Besides the goal of personal formation for the student, Intercambio is taking a big step toward establishing international friendships.

Families interested in providing room, board, and sharing their activities can learn more about Intercambio by calling toll free the Coordinator of Placement's office at 800-437-4170, or writing INTERCAMBIO, 3122 Broadway, Fargo, ND 58102.

BUCKLE UP FOR LIFE!

Everyone who likes the idea of throwing away tax deductions for interest payments stayed to have their picture taken.

Everyone else is applying for a Home Equity Line of Credit at Lake City Bank.

Tax reform is eliminating interest deductions on consumer loans. And there aren't too many people who like that idea.

But Lake City Bank has the answer. Home Equity Line of Credit. Not only does this line of credit let you access up to $100,000, but under the new tax laws, the interest you pay can be tax deductible.

You can buy a car, take a vacation, make home improvements - anything you wish any time you wish - just by writing a check. There are no annual fees. And because you may be able to deduct your interest payments, having a Home Equity Line is more sensible than having an auto loan, a vacation loan, and a home improvement loan.

Check with your tax counselor. Then fill out the coupon below and we'll send you your Home Equity Line of Credit application. Or call 267-6144. It may be the last application you ever need to fill out!

Goldenaires invite newcomers

On Tuesday, November 18, the Goldenaires met at the fellowship hall of the Church of God for their Thanksgiving carry-in dinner. The group (55 and older, with younger coming as guests) had a very interesting and informative lecture on India and Nepal. Dr. and Mrs. Howard had many artifacts which they used in explaining the different aspects of India's culture, and the necessity for our understanding their way of life. Dr. Howard assisted the young athletes from India at the Olympic Games.

Many people contributed for this occasion making it a success for the eighty people who attended. The group meets once a month and is open to the seniors of Akron and several surrounding communities.
