Mentone's Finest Citizens in the Military

by Leafy Hudson

PFC Chad Bradley, son of Jacque and Bill Bradley, Mentone, is stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky. He has one brother, Nathan, at home.

Chad is a 1989 graduate of Tippecanoe Valley High School, where he was captain of the tennis team and a member of the Spanish Club.

Impressed by the training and college money offered by the Army, Chad enlisted November, 1988, in the Army's Delayed Entry Program. He left for active service September 6, 1989.

After Basic Training at Fort Bliss, El Paso, Texas, Chad was stationed at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas, for Advanced Individual Training. A Physical Therapy Specialist, Chad spent two days during his time at Fort Sam Houston training in their burn unit, which is the most sophisticated burn treatment center in the world.

Chad is now completing On the Job Training at Fort Knox, Kentucky. He will report for permanent assignment to Fort Irwin, California, October 31. Although the base, located in the middle of the Mohave Desert, is a training center for troops proceeding to Saudi Arabia, Chad does not expect to go to Arabia in the foreseeable future.

Chad says he's always wanted to be a soldier. He remembers, as a child, playing commando with his friends down at the creek. He is glad he joined the Army. He is happy with his choices and feels he's found his niche. Eventually he probably will strive to become a Special Forces Medic.

Chad says, "I want to thank God, and my parents for supporting me and showing me the right way. And I want to thank everyone who believed in me. No matter what happens," he adds, "Mentone will always be my home. I could live here forever."

Author's note. If you have a son, grandson, brother, sister, friend, or sweetheart, in the military, I would be happy to write about him or her for the paper. Call me at 353-7340.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

When budget cuts in the Defense Departments are forcing base closing, Jim Jontz has fought to make sure Grissom AFB received the new funding it needed to maintain its mission.

Congressman Jontz knew that the best insurance we could have against Grissom's closing was the upgrading of the base.

It's too bad his opponent has said its none of Jontz's business and the bureaucrats in the defense department are better qualified to make these decisions. These are the same bureaucrats that are looking for bases to close.

Our community, as well as our country, would be devastated if Grissom, was no longer here to protect us from foreign invasion. I'm going to support Jim Jontz, because I feel he has our best interest in mind.

Hoosier Lottery

The Hoosier Lottery is approaching the $500 million mark in total sales. Since the start of the lottery in October of 1989, sales have averaged nearly $10 million per week.

"Reaching the $500 million mark in sales will be an important milestone for us," said Hoosier Lottery Director John Weliever. "We have already transferred more than $125 million to the state, and we expect to transfer approximately $40 million in October." The lottery makes quarterly transfers of profits to the State Treasurer.

The Hoosier Lottery should reach the $500 million dollar figure in sales at about the same time another milestone is reached -- the Hoosier Lottery's first anniversary. "We've got a number of special events planned for our first birthday," said Weliever. "You'll be hearing more about them in the very near future."

As part of the Hoosier Lottery's anniversary celebration, the lottery will be introducing a second lotto game. Tickets will go on sale for Lotto America on Sunday, October 14. Lotto America is a multi-state lottery which will provide large jackpots for players. The largest jackpot in Lotto America this year was for $35 million. Tickets for Lotto America will be sold at more than 2,300 locations throughout Indiana. The Hoosier Lottery was prohibited by law from entering into a multi-state lottery for its first year of operation.

Indiana will be in 13th state to join Lotto America. The other states which take part in Lotto America are Iowa, Idaho, Kansas, Maine, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Oregon, Rhode Island, Wisconsin, West Virginia and the District of Columbia.

Navy Petty Officer 3rd Class Edward P. Richard, son of Ellen L. Richard, of 318 W. 10th St., Rochester, is currently deployed to the Middle East in support of Operation Desert Shield, while serving aboard the miscellaneous command ship USS LaSalle, homeported in Philadelphia and is permanently assigned to the Persian Gulf.

Operation Desert Shield is the largest deployment of U.S.

military forces since Vietnam. The operation is in response to Iraq's invasion of Kuwait and threat to Saudi Arabia.

A 1986 graduate of Rochester Community High School, he joined the Navy in July 1986.

IT'S A NATURAL!

A bench made from recycled litter? In 1988, 9,000 pounds of plastic "lumber" made from used polystyrene foam coffee cups, food containers and other plastics collected in Portland, Oregon were used to construct park benches, wildlife signs, walkways, kiosks and other outdoor installations.

Plastics collected by the Chicago Park District are also coming back to area parks as benches and landscape timbers.

The plastic wood can be drilled, planed, sawed and nailed in much the same way as real wood, says The Council for Solid Waste Solutions. Yet, unlike real wood, it's impervious to weather, insects and the decaying effects of time. Look for more such recycling efforts.

Mentone Business of the Week

Bill Winn dispensing a prescription. When asked about Mentone over these past few weeks, most people interviewed have mentioned first, as one of Mentone's strengths, The Pillbox and Bill Winn's friendliness and reliability.

The Pillbox

by Leafy Hudson

Pharmacists, Bill and Sherry Winn, are carrying on a century-old tradition with The Pillbox in Mentone. Bill's prior experience makes him a natural for the drugstore on the corner whose decor echoes Mentone's past.

A native of Atlanta, Georgia, circumstances caused Bill to live in several parts of the country during his teen years. He attended high school in Atlanta, Georgia, Trenton, New Jersey, and graduated from Barrington High School, Barrington, Illinois. A school with a highly academic curriculum, ninety-seven percent of Barrington's seniors matriculate to halls of higher learning. So, well prepared for college, Bill looked for a small mid-western school to study history and political science.

He entered Butler University, where he stayed five years, but didn't become a history teacher, deciding on pharmacy instead. Bill thoroughly enjoyed his years at Butler. He joined the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity, but more important, he met wife Sherry there the first week of school. He says, "It was lots of hard work, but very enjoyable time."

During college, Bill landed a part-time job at Hook's Antique Drugstore Museum at the Indianapolis Fairgrounds, where his single duty was to make chocolate sodas "the old fashioned way."

Everyone, both kids and adults, sometimes even school bus loads of kids, wanted an old fashioned chocolate soda made with genuine whipped cream. Bill would make 150 a day, often lined up fifteen at a time.

Having met Warsaw's Bob Brennan, who taught at Butler, Bill and Sherry came to Warsaw after graduation at Bob's invitation. Bill worked at Brennan's Drugstore and Murphy Medical Center, while Sherry worked for Joe Mendenhall. On a part-time basis, Bill filled in for Bill Westerman in Mentone's Pillbox. With perfect timing, Bill Westerman was looking for a buyer when Bill and Sherry were looking for a pharmacy to buy for their own. That was in 1979. "Bill (Westerman) made it real easy for us," Bill Winn says.

Bill, the would-be history teacher, is extremely interested in and proud of the heritage of his store.

Mr. C.W. Shafer was the original owner of the store, then called The Big Drugstore, located in the middle of the block where the Classroom Connection is today. A Mr. Goodman was Shafer's partner part of the time during his ownership. In 1927, The Big Drugstore moved to its present location, and the name was changed to The Big Drugstore on the Corner.

The store opened at 6:00 in the morning until 10:00 at night. It had a soda fountain to serve fountain treats and sandwiches. It was the congregating center of the town. Everyone came there to discuss weather, make political decisions and check out everyone else's business. It was a tradition to stop in for ice cream after the weekly "free shows" in the empty lot in the next block west.

Bill is justly proud of the old safe he still uses from those early days. A huge, heavy, steel cube, the safe is a work of art, with a delicate pastoral scene hand-painted on the door. Across the front, it reads: Cincinnati Safe & Lock Co.

W.C. Hickox & Co Gen'l Agt's Chicago.

Inside the thick walls is a second smaller safe, rimmed in a narrow strip of red felt. Bill found, within the safe, its handwritten combination on C.W. Shafer letterhead stationery, dated 1902.

About 1943, Glenn and Louise Denton purchased The Big Drugstore on the Corner, changing the name to Corner Drugs. Glenn and Louise ran the business until 1968. Bill says people still come into his store and say "I worked here for Glenn Denton," often naming a specific year.

When the Dentons decided to retire, Bob Hibschan and Bob Bowen bought the business in partnership. Bob Hibschan would run the store and Bob Bowen would do the work of remodeling. They gave the store its fourth name, The Pillbox, which it remains today. They incorporated as many artifacts from the Shafer and Goodwin days into the decor as they could. They dropped the ceiling, but above the attractive new panels, careful perusal reveals the old tin ceiling, still intact. They reinstalled the soda fountain and quaint customer seating unit, serving sandwiches at noon. But the crowning jewel of the renovation was the red and gold reverse-painted glass, encased in rich solid oak, proclaiming "Prescriptions and Family Recipes Carefully Compounded," signed "E. M. Bash, Painter." Having been relegated, by the Dentons, to the back room, the glass was installed by the two Bobs prominently in the pharmacy area of the store.

Bill doesn't know when E. M. Bash painted the glass, but Don Barrett, whom Bill estimates was about ninety years old when Bill bought the store, said as a small child he could remember Mr. Bash.

The fact that neither Bob Hibschan or Bob Bowen were pharmacists created a serious problem for them because employing a pharmacist was an exorbitant expense, making the success of their business venture extremely difficult. A business which should have been preparing up to 150 prescriptions a day was soon down to doing about a dozen daily.

Finally, in 1972, in a move that appeared to signal the demise of the Pillbox, Bob Bowen padlocked the door, drove to Warsaw, and stopped in at Walter's Drugstore to "cry in a cup of coffee." Walter's pharmacist, Bill Westerman, offered on the spot to take the store off his hands. So, The Pillbox was reopened.

The Westerman's removed the soda fountain, which didn't pay its way, but Bill's wife, Lola, who had a flair for decorating, used the marble fountain for a perfume and jewelry counter. She added a line of tasteful gifts, and together, Bill and Lola built the store back up to the thriving business Bill and Sherry Winn purchased in 1979.

Bill, the historian, feels a tremendous responsibility in running a drugstore that has served this community for about 100 years. "It's real heritage to be continued," he says. "My predecessors put their hearts and souls into it and I don't want to let them down." "For nostalgic reasons—or just for fun," Bill would like to reinstall the old soda fountain once again, so all the Mentone kids (young and old) could sample those "genuine old-time chocolate sodas."

Bill's 1990 Pillbox has added home health care products to its more traditional line of merchandise. "The trend now is for sick people to stay home and our future depends on diversity." Three employees help Bill run today's store. Melody Craig, Teresa Surface (still in high school) and Gloria Lowman all have been with him three years.

In 1987, Bill and Sherry opened a Warsaw Pillbox. But he only works there one day a week. To be effective, Bill says, "a pharmacist needs to work in the same store, so he and the customer know each other. Pharmacy is fifty percent a tangible thing and fifty percent an intangible. If the pharmacist knows the patient and knows what else he's been taking, he can advise him personally. If the patient isn't comfortable with his pharmacist, or doesn't get an explanation from him when he buys medication, he should find another pharmacist." He adds, "Our strength is our service."

Bill goes on to point out that there is an inherent danger in the mail-order houses and wholesale pharmacies becoming so popular today, because the patient loses that personal contact.

Bill and Sherry live in Winona Lake, with their three children, sons, Ashley, twelve, and Greg, 9, and daughter, Tracie, 6. Sherry works three days each week as a consultant pharmacist for three Warsaw nursing homes in addition to Bowen Center and Cardinal Learning Center. She works the other two days in their Warsaw Pillbox.

They don't have much time for hobbies, but sailing is Bill's favorite sport. They are active in the Warsaw Presbyterian Church, where Bill is a long time Sunday School teacher.

Bill says, "Mentone has been awfully good to me. A lot of small towns are cliquey. Although I didn't grow up here, the people here have accepted me readily." He notes that total strangers, waiting for prescriptions in his store, are often swapping life stories within about five minutes! "It's a great town, close knit, but very open. A great place to work!"

Talking Trash

"Don't forget to take out the trash," I have said to Mary Alice on more than one occasion. How presumptuous. She never forgets. I sometimes do and have been observed running barefoot down the street, trying to catch the truck as it left our place in the early morning. "Don't forget, yourself," Mary Alice responds. Touched.

Garbage is very personal stuff. Feelings run high around trash. The rest of the household can be in chaos, but if you mess up on collection day, you really mess up. There is no mystery to this. Putting out the trash is a simple but deeply rewarding household routine, a ritual cleansing—away with the old, make way for the new.

Recycling creates many new opportunities to feel good about trash. Because the consumption process runs more or less constantly in a household, the recycling process does, too. When you recycle you have daily opportunities to sort out the residue of your lifestyle—glass here, cans and plastic there, paper neatly stacked—and send it all back into the production loop. Recycling is about as close as you can get to turning garbage into gold. That's quite a good feeling all by itself, not to mention the swell of pride from doing the environmental-ly correct thing.

People are talking about old newspaper. "How come they're not paying for old newspaper?" "Why won't they accept it at my recycling center?" "Where's the $40 a ton my group used to get?" Newspaper recycling in Indiana isn't going as easily as it was some months ago. Spot checks at the end of August found the major buyers generally are still accepting old newspapers for recycling but are paying little. Some are paying nothing.

Recycling is not immune to the ancient laws of supply and demand. Newspaper collection programs are becoming so popular and successful that the newspaper deinking mills say they are swamped with old news. We are in that awkward period between rising supply and steady demand. It's a buyer's market, and that means sellers have to make certain their stacks of old news are attractive in the marketplace—right quantity, clean, free of contaminants.

Patience is the watchword. The paper industry reports—and mill activity in and near Indiana confirms—that deinking mills are expanding. As mill demand increases, newspaper recycling programs will benefit.

The best thing we can do meanwhile is to use more recycled paper and encourage others to do the same. For example, is your local newspaper printed in whole or in part on recycled newsprint? What are the plans? Ask the editor. Does your office copy center use paper made from recycled fiber? The ream wrapper or carton should indicate. High-speed copy paper containing 50% recycled fiber is available at prices that compare favorably with 100% virgin. Ask your purchasing agent.

"Lug-a-Mug." That's a reminder to reduce our use of those one-way (straight to the dumpster) plastic foam drink cups. Has your church or office seen the light and gone back to washable-reusable china cups? Just say Lug-a-Mug.

Rats and Nutrition in local classrooms

Dairy and Nutrition Council, Inc. provides schools with two female albino laboratory rats to conduct a four-week animal feeding demonstration in the classroom.

During this four-week period, the rats are fed identical nutritionally balanced diets with the exception of the control rat receiving milk, and the experimental rat receiving a sweetened beverage.

Each week the rats are weighed and measured, allowing students to see for themselves how the different diets affect the rats' health and growth.

Students also follow along with a filmstrip/cassette program and various classroom activities.

In addition to the nutrition knowledge gained, the students learn to make growth charts, are introduced to and work with the metric system and accept the responsibility of the rats' care.

Dairy and Nutrition Council's live animal feeding demonstration is designed to help educate and emphasize the benefits of a good diet.

The following teacher at these area schools are participating in the Dairy and Nutrition Council's animal feeding program.

Akron Business of the Week

R & B Home Furnishings

R & B Home Furnishings, 106 E. Rochester Street in Akron, celebrated its first year in business with an anniversary sale last month. The store was purchased by Russ and Bonnie Dunbar from Kent and Judy French, in July of last year, but painting and remodeling delayed their Grand Opening celebration until September of 1989.

The Dunbars' full-line furniture store occupies all three floors of the building which was originally a hardware store, but has housed furniture businesses for many years. Russ Dunbar recently completed the remodeling of the basement floor, allowing the Dunbars to combine their used and economy furniture business, originally in a separate building, with their fine furniture and carpet business.

Russ and Bonnie are proud to offer a broad price range of furniture to fit everyone's budget. The store is open Tuesday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. and on Saturdays from 9:00 to 3:00. It is closed on Sunday and Monday.

Some of the well known brands offered are: Tell City dining room furniture, Lane cedar chests, Barcalounger recliners, Therapeutic bedding and Brooks, and Smith Brothers sofas, which are also available with custom fabrics by special order. R & B also carries Armstrong and World Carpet and linoleum in addition to keeping at least 100 lamps in stock at all times.

There are accessories such as lead crystal, glassware and silk flowers for sale to compliment your new furniture and Russ is available to offer guidance on color selection and coordination. While not a trained decorator, he has a "very good eye for determining what goes with what" according to Bonnie.

New lines recently added to the store are Childcraft baby cribs and Lehigh children's furniture and bunk beds. R & B has also become a dealer for Sauder Gallery furniture, an inexpensive "knock down" line, designed for the consumer to assemble themselves. The difference, at R & B, is that Russ pre-assembles all of these items so the customer gets the finished product, without the headaches. R & B carries the full line of Sauder furniture, which carries a five year warranty. Also new to the store are hand-made country crafts and pillows.

Through a distributor, Russ and Bonnie are able to expand their inventory, by offering items from a catalog, many of which are available with one week delivery.

In the future Russ and Bonnie will be offering the Bassett furniture line and plan to expand into appliances.

The Dunbars offer many extra services through their store such as free set up and delivery (same day-if needed), senior citizen discounts (age 60 and over), 90 day lay-away and free removal of old furniture. Any of the removed items that are usable are donated to the Red Cross or Helping Hands for people in need.

In addition to the used furniture they sell, the Dunbars will also take used furniture on a consignment basis.

Another useful service R & B offers the community is dry cleaning. They are an agent for Xavier Cleaners in Plymouth and items may be dropped off and picked up at the store.

Although this is the first retail store they've owned, Russ and Bonnie, who came to Akron from Downers Grove, IL (near Chicago), have a great deal of retail experience.

Bonnie, who graduated from high school in North Manchester and college in Fort Wayne, worked in clothing and accessories with G.C. Murphy and Montgomery Ward. She was in management and was transferred to Chicago, by Wards to be a buyer for the company.

Russ, originally from upstate New York, served in the Navy as an air traffic controller at Great Lakes Naval Air Station. After leaving the Navy, he worked for Montgomery Ward, as a manager, in the appliance, furniture and carpet departments, in five different stores in the Chicago area. He also worked at New York Carpet World and managed the furniture department at Carson Pirie Scott's State Street store before returning to Wards as a buyer.

It was while both were buyers for Wards that Bonnie and Russ met and married. They have one son, Ryan, who is five and a half, and in Kindergarten at Akron.

The Dunbars decided they wanted to leave the city, and because Bonnie was from North Manchester and they frequently camped near Pierceton and liked the "lakes area" they chose northern Indiana. The search for a store to buy took a year. They were looking for a furniture or hardware store in a smaller community.

They first visited Akron on a Saturday morning and were struck by the number of people bustling about on the main street. To the Dunbars this showed promise of a thriving community. They were pleased to find there were a great many young people with children in the area and an excellent elementary school. "We just liked the community," said Russ. "The number of young families buying homes proved it was a stable community," he added.

As a girl, in North Manchester, Bonnie had known the Buchers, Judy French's family. "It was kind of odd buying a store from someone I'd known 20 years ago," she says. "It was quite a coincidence."

The Dunbars live in an apartment above their store and enjoy working together and having more family time. "In the city I commuted one and a half hours each way. Now it takes me thirty seconds to come downstairs," explained Russ. "That part is nice."

Russ and Bonnie find that being active in community activities has helped them to meet people and make friends in Akron. Bonnie is active in Kappa Delta Phi, the Friends of the Library and is secretary of the 4th of July Committee. Russ is also on the 4th of July Committee and is Secretary of the local Lions Club. Both are active in the Methodist Church.

Russ' hobbies include hunting and fishing, along with remodeling, which he learned from his father, whose hobby was rebuilding houses. Russ had completely remodeled the house the Dunbars lived in, in Downers Grove.

Russ and Bonnie are looking forward to the Christmas season this year. They will be putting up and decorating a ten foot Christmas tree in the store, and invite everyone to stop in to see it. They will be starting Christmas specials soon. Because furniture is like clothing in that you must purchase it six months ahead of time, this will be the first year that they did their own buying of Christmas merchandise.

The Dunbars are very pleased with their decision to move to Akron and open their business here. Russ says, "Akron is much friendlier than a larger city. There is more of a sense of community here." The community has also obviously benefited from their decision to locate here.

FCHS to mark grave of first Tarzan

Elmo Lincoln's final resting place in the Hollywood Memorial Park Cemetery, Los Angeles, California, will be marked with a bronze plaque, announced Shirley Willard at the Fulton County Historical Society meeting Sept. 24.

Born as Otto Elmo Linkenhelt in Rochester in 1889, Elmo rose to fame as the first Tarzan in black and white silent films in 1918. But when talking films came in vogue in the 1930's, his voice was not considered an asset and his career went downhill. He died in 1952 and his remains were cremated and placed in an unmarked community niche.

Bob Walters, former manager of the movie theater in Rochester, kept Elmo's memory alive and asked FCHS to honor Elmo in 1978 for the 60th anniversary of the first Tarzan film. In 1988 FCHS asked the Post Office to make a special commemorative cancellation and historic folder, which is still available at the Fulton County Museum.

For years Walters and Willard had searched for Elmo's daughter but could not locate her. They sought a way to mark Elmo's grave but the cemetery would not do it without consent of the surviving heirs.

When Bill and Shirley Willard visited their son Tom Willard in Long Beach, California, in August this year, they drove to the Hollywood Memorial Park Cemetery and looked up Elmo's final resting place.

Because his remains were in a community niche with a glass door, there was no way to put his name on it. So Shirley asked if FCHS could either purchase a metal door or move the remains to another niche where his name could be engraved. The cemetery caretaker said to write to the board of directors with the request.

Aug. 22, Shirley received a letter from the Hollywood Cemetery Association stating that they had located Elmo's daughter and she had given her consent to move Elmo's remains to a private niche. The cost of the moving and the bronze plaque would be $150.

Shirley immediately wrote to the daughter, Marcia Rudolph of Santa Monica, sending her one of the commemorative postal folders and the FCHS Quarterly containing Elmo's history.

Marcia wrote back, "I'm glad you found me." She expressed an interest in coming to Rochester to meet her father's people, visit the museum and see the Trail of Courage. She said her daughter paints and makes jewelry and "loves the American Indian culture."

She also said she had some things of her father's to donate to the museum.

Bob Walters has pledged to pay half the cost of the bronze plaque. He lives in South Bend now and comes to visit Rochester every month or so.

Vikings fall to Zebras

Friday, Sept. 28, the TVHS Vings played their homecoming game against the Rochester Zebras, and lost for the third year in a row.

"The team played well. Seven to eight out of ten plays were good and two to three weren't," said Head Coach Scott Bibler.

One touchdown was made on a 93 yard kickoff return by Scott Johnson and Greg Prater made a 25 yard run.

"We had one counter-play which was trouble, but we made adjustments during half time and we stunted more during the second half," commented Bibler. "Jeff Gray passed on screen plays, and I feel that we should roll Jeff out more for a passing game because of his good running ability," said Bibler.

The Vikings lost the game to the Zebras with a score of 21-14. The Zebras still have possession of the Viking Liberty bell.

Who's Who In Mentone

Beverly Surface in her Preschool domain. Her love for children and experience as a mother and grandmother make her a logical choice to be head teacher at Jack & Jill Preschool.

Profile of Bev

by Leafy Hudson

It's not unusual during the school year to see Beverly Surface commandeering a group of preschoolers down one of Mentone's sidewalks, on an outing to the park, a visit to the library, or just giving the young ones a breath of fresh air and exercise. Bev has been the lady in charge of Jack & Jill Preschool for several years.

Bev has been involved with the school since it started, nineteen years ago. At that time, she was babysitting for several children and had formulated a regular routine of craft, snack, rest and story time. She was also teaching Sunday School at the Mentone United Methodist Church. So, when some of the Methodist women began investigating the possibility of opening a preschool in the church, it was only natural that Bev as included.

Sara Russell was the school's first head teacher, assisted by Sherry Whetstone. At that point, Bev helped on a standby basis. When Sherry left, Bev slipped naturally into her job. Then, Sara left the head teaching job. Bev applied, and to her own surprise, was appointed head teacher. She has held that position since that time. Presently her assisting teacher is Lisa Hooley of Mentone.

Bev has seen many changes and much progress in the years since the school started. The school began with one four year old class, then added a three year old class. Now there are enough four year olds for a third class. It has always been held in the basement of the Mentone United Methodist Church.

While Bev and Lisa are teaching the students the concepts necessary to prepare them for Kindergarten, they have lots of fun, celebrating all the seasons of the year.

Bev named some of the special events ahead for this year:

Each student is honored at some time through the year as "Personality of the Week." That student's picture is featured on the bulletin board with snapshots from home and lots of information about his/her family and favorite things. A new treat this year is that on his/her day, the Personality of the Week gets to lunch with the teachers. Bev says she enjoys this as much as the kiddies do.

Birthdays are celebrated by painting a clown face on the student, who brings snacks for the class.

Currently, a fund-raiser is in progress with the students, as well as their parents and teachers, taking orders for apples from Teel's Orchard.

Learning safety is an October tradition at Jack & Jill. During October, local firemen, policemen and EMT's bring their respective vehicles to the school for hands-on demonstrations, and each group talks to the children about their specific safety area.

Every year the kids celebrate Thanksgiving with a feast they prepare themselves from ingredients donated from home. Bev says this is excellent training in table manners and sharing traditional family customs.

At Christmas, Bev and her helper take the children to visit nursing homes, where they sing carols and generally light up the lives of the patients there. This year, Bev says, they are trying to work out a gift exchange to be donated to those less fortunate than themselves, thereby teaching the children to be more aware of their own blessings, and instilling in them the desire to help others.

Eastern breakfast is another meal prepared by the children, with food donated from home and from community people as well.

This year Bev is trying a new and exciting event. The four year olds will celebrate Circus Day. They are busy now making their own costumes. Some will be lions, tigers, elephants, horses, bareback riders and dancing girls on the balance beam.

They will preform this spectacular show for parents, brothers and sisters, and the three year old class.

Springtime brings the sadness of parting, with a traditional graduation ceremony for the four year olds. Attired in miniature caps and gowns, each graduating student receives a certificate.

A native of Warsaw, Bev has lived in Mentone since she married Phil. She thinks one of the most interesting things about her life concerns her birth.

Bev's grandparents owned a grocery store in Morehead, Kentucky, where her grandmother was a midwife. So, when her mother was ready to have her first baby, she went home to have the baby there. Bev was born in the back room of Grandpa's store. Her mother tells her now that during the birth process, her grandfather urged her mother to try to be quiet, so the customers wouldn't hear!

Another interesting aspect of her birth was that her mother originally named her Barbara, but, for some reason, her father didn't agree. He insisted on changing the name to Beverly. Mother finally won out, though, because the other daughter born to the couple was named, and remained, Barbara!

"My original birth certificate," Bev says, "is a little piece of paper torn from a notebook."

Bev and Phil, who has worked thirty-five years at Kimble Glass in Warsaw, have four children and five grandchildren. Sharon and Chris Kindig, Krysta, 5, and Andrea, 3, live near Warsaw. Lori and Harold Carlin, Eric, 8, and Kasi, 6, live in Mentone. Bobby and Jody Surface, with Karissa, 1, live near Warsaw. Teresa, still at home, is a senior at Tippecanoe Valley High School.

Bev's hobbies are mostly handwork. She used to make many of her girls' clothes. Now, when she sews, it's mostly craft items. She does a lot of cross stitch, and she has crocheted an afghan for each of her children and their spouse's high school graduations. Right now she is helping work on a quilt being done by several ladies at the church. She and Phil got to spend some time camping this summer, something she has always enjoyed. "But," she says, "my biggest hobby is my five grandchildren!"

When asked about Mentone, Bev related an incident that happened that day. The children were out walking when an older lady, unknown to them (Bev knew her), offered to tell them a story. She sat down on a set of steps on Main Street, and held them enthralled as she told them her tale. "Yeah," Bev added, "I think this is a very loving community."

KCH Radiology Department

Yet another new service has begun in Kosciusko Community Hospital's expanding state-of-the-art Radiology Department. In addition to the ultrasound, CT scanner and mammography equipment added this summer, Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) began at KCH Sept. 22.

MRI is similar to a CT ('cat') Scan, except that magnetics and radio frequencies are used instead of x-rays. It is a painless exam which lets the physician 'look' inside the body without surgery or other potentially harmful techniques.

This service will be coming to the hospital once a week on a mobile basis, or more often if necessary. With the addition of a full-time Doctor of Neurology, several MRI procedures have already been scheduled.

MRI views are generated by a magnetic field causing the hydrogen atoms in the body to align in a certain way to receive radio signals from the MRI unit. When these are received the body sends a 'picture' of itself back to a computer for print-out.

MRI doesn't require a special diet or fasting beforehand; most patients drive themselves to and from the exam, which takes 30 to 90 minutes. The resulting 'pictures' from MRI look quite a bit like x-rays, but are actually 'slice' views of the body rather than one-dimensional, 'straight-on' views.

The General Electric-MAX MRI equipment represents just one more step in KCH's plan to completely upgrade its diagnostic imaging equipment and provide patients in the region with the most sophisticated medical equipment available.

For more information on MRI or the schedule an exam as requested by your physician, contact the KCH Radiology Department at 372-7608.

Manchester College News

For the fourth consecutive year, enrollment figures at Manchester College are up.

The total number of students enrolled for fall term is 1122, an increase of 22 from last year, according to statistics released by the registrar's office. This figure includes 1080 full-time students, up 17 from 1063 in the fall of 1989. Sophomore, junior and senior class totals all increased, while the number of freshmen declined.

"We're pleased with both the quantity and quality of our students," says Manchester President William P. Robinson. "The college has been able to keep its numbers at an efficient level without lowering its admissions standards. However, we share the concern held by colleges and universities in the Midwest over the decreasing number of high school graduates. The trend has begun to affect all of us."

Indiana residents make up the majority of the Manchester student body, with 11 other states and Puerto Rico also represented. Students from 15 foreign countries are included in the enrollment total. Approximately 19 percent of the students name the Church of the Brethren as their religious preference, 16 percent United Methodist, and 11 percent Roman Catholic with the remainder from more than 14 other denominations.

Manchester College is a four-year liberal arts college affiliated with the Church of the Brethren. It offers over 30 major areas of study and graduate degrees in education and accounting.

A LACK OF FAITH CAN BE THE WORST HANDICAP OF ALL

We usually think of handicapped people as the blind, the deaf, and those in wheelchairs, and we should do whatever we can to make life easier for them and help them maintain their dignity and self-reliance. These people are usually excellent prospects for employment, and they will give their all to the work to prove themselves capable of it. However, there are other handicaps that are not so obvious, because they are mental in nature. The worst one of all is a lack of faith. Those with physical handicaps soon discover God's sustaining power, and they can be a shining example to the rest of us. Thank Him at your House of Worship for this lesson in faith and courage, and for the doors of opportunity that He opens for these people.

"It is good for me
that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes."

Views On Dental Health

H. RAY HAZEN,
D.D.S., M.S.D., P.C.

SORES IN THE MOUTH

Most people get canker sores in their mouth from time to time. These sores can occur anywhere inside the mouth except the palate and gum tissue surrounding the necks of the teeth. Some people get them singly; others get them in bunches.

These sores -- known to dentists as aphthous ulcers -- are caused by a bacterium that is present in everyone's mouth. Why some people get them while others do not remains something of a mystery.

If the sores are very painful, your dentist can treat them. This will relieve the pain, but they will tend to heal more slowly. Sometimes eating yogurt with active cultures will speed healing.

Keep in mind, however, that not all sores in the mouth are canker sores. If a sore persists longer than a week, it is recommended that you visit your dentist just to be on the safe side.

Prepared as a public service to promote better dental health. From the office of: H. RAY HAZEN, D.D.S., J.S.D., P.C. 1329 Main St., Rochester, Ph. 223-3121.

Beautiful October

by
H.C. Whetstone

Taken from The Mentone News
October 5, 1966

The month of October reminds us that summer is over and autumn is in full swing. The gold tinted leaves dance in the breeze and ride up on unseen wings. The sky is pure blue with not even a blur in the blue heaven so bright. The night is likewise bright with its starstudded skies so lovely and bright. With a shining luster, the summer grapes cluster in their dress of a dark blue hue.

The apple trees bow their heads with big apples, red, that are kissed with the cool morning dew. The tall corn is brown with big ears hanging down and with the surroundings they blend. It is waiting to be plucked and loosed from the shuck to fill the space in the bin. The frost weeds are white, like a radiant light. They resemble a new fallen snow. Big yellow pumpkins shine on long matted vines in the fields where the tall corn does grow. The forest nuts are brown and they tumble down, bouncing to and fro. The busy squirrels are holding the nuts in their tree huts away from the ice and snow.

The Canadian goose is now on the loose in its flight from the winter's cold, cold mouth. Like soldiers they form rank from a natural instinct and wing their way to the south. Their cadence rings as onward they sing over landscapes that with autumn glow. Their winter quarters will be the warm southern wasters where the tall reeds and rushes grow.

No man-made resin from the beginning of time throughout this wide world can ever compare with the beauty so rare, one moment of the beautiful October.

Church News

Christine Tinkey opened the September meeting of the Women's Fellowship of the Church of the Brethren with a poem, "Thank You God for Everything." She announced that the district Fall Fellowship will be held at the Marion Church of the Brethren, October 13. Lana Bowser and Norma Weaver attended the President's luncheon recently at Kokomo.

Rozella Tinkey's devotions were "Laundry and Apple Pie." She mentioned the importance of sharing a piece of pie, a card, a phone call or even a smile to a shut-in or a lonely person. She read scripture from Romans 11:36.

Our hostess, Arlene Gearhart served refreshments to eleven members and several children.

The October meeting will be a work night at the church, cleaning the kitchen.

Perry Home Improvement Club

The Perry Home Improvement Club met in September at Alice Teel's home.

Marie Nestleroad, President, opened the meeting by reading two poems, "To a Red Geranium" and "A Patch of Blue."

The group sang "America The Beautiful."

For her devotions, Alice Teel revealed that everywhere we go, we carry with us a Bible. Since we are all Christians, each of us is my neighbor's Bible.

Marie brought to the club reports from Achievement Day and passed out perfect attendance ribbons. Our club members who attended were Marie Nestleroad, Pauline Miller, Marie Berger and Marjorie Miller.

Marie Long, for her Citizenship Lesson, read an article that told how a lady because of her honesty returned a very valuable ring that she found in a parking lot.

For "Family Life," Aurel Musselman read an article that told of the value of Diversified Farming in Indiana. Special mention was given to Miami County.

Helen Miller for her "International Lesson" told of her experiences on a recent trip to Mexico. Her visualized image of the country was revised.

The State Home Economic Creed was read in unison.

Contest winners were Marjorie Miller and Marie Long. Marie Berger was our "Lucky Lady."

Alice served delicious refreshments to Marie Nestleroad, Pauline Miller, Emma Burns, Marie Crum, Marie Berger, Helen Miller, Marjorie Miller and Aurel Musselman.

Reporter: Aurel Musselman.

Absentee voting now in progress

Harriet McAllister Romine, Clerk of the Fulton Circuit Court, announced that absentee voting is presently being conducted in the basement of the Fulton County Courthouse. The location makes the Absentee Voter Board accessible to the handicapped through the east entrance of the Courthouse. The last date to vote an absentee ballot in front of the Absentee Voter Board is Monday, November 5, 1990 at 12:00 noon. Any registered voter who expects to be absent from the county on election day may apply for and vote an absentee ballot in the Absentee Voter Board Room between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday and from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Friday. The Absentee Voter Board will also be open on Saturday, November 3, 1990 from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

Applications from confined voters and voters who are out of the county on Election Day are also being accepted at this time. Confined voters will be voted at the address designated on their application on Saturday, November 3, 1990.

Although the deadline for registering to vote has now passed, a person who moves within the same county within thirty days before an election can transfer their registration up to and until the Friday before the election. If a registered voter moves within thirty days of the election, that person must appear in the Fulton County Clerk's Office and sign an Affidavit that states that the voter has moved within thirty days and that the Clerk will transfer the voter's registration to the new location. This Affidavit must be signed by the Clerk and when completed, the voter may take a copy of it to this "old" precinct and vote in the election where his name appears on the poll list. Mrs. Romine stresses that the voter must come into the clerk's Office in person on or before November 2, 1990 to execute this Affidavit.

O'Neal announced this week that the Department is changing the color of its patrol car fleet from white-over-blue to all white. "Safety," O'Neal said, "is the number one reason for the change." IT HAPPENED IN MENTONE
TAKEN FROM THE NORTHERN INDIANA CO-OP NEWS
OCTOBER 4, 1950
40 YEARS AGO

There have been reports, at various times, of seeing a deer around Mentone, but as near as we know, Arlo Friesner came the closest to having venison served on a DeSoto radiator. He was driving to Ema Green Monday forenoon in Ora McKinley's car, when he came over the hill where the road "wiggles" just north of the Tippecanoe river bridge on highway 19, when a deer walked onto the pavement. She apparently was unaware of his approach, but the squeak of his tires on the pavement, as he tried to stop, through her subconscious reflexes in gear and in one leap from the edge of the pavement she cleared the fence and landed in the corn field. Arlo said she must have jumped 25 feet or more and seemingly did it easily. It's interesting to know that there are deer in this area and we sincerely hope we may have more of these residents of the wild locate here.

The members of the Mentone Volunteer Fire Department as follows: Arlo Friesner (who will soon complete his 19th year as chief.) Lyman Mollenhour, Assistant Chief. Harry Smythe, Secretary. Everett Long, Treasurer. H.V. Johns, Traffic Director. Ora L. McKinley, Clayton Holloway, Rex Tucker, Harold Smythe, Kenneth Barkman, Harold Utter, Philip Blue, Noble Oyler, Dale Tucker, Earl Anderson, Carey Landis. C.O. Mollenhour (Honorary member for being one of the oldest men on the department in regards to years of service.) In joining all other departments in the State of Indiana in recognizing the volunteer fireman on October 7th as proclaimed by Gov. Schricker, we would be very unfair if we failed to honor those men who have served in previous years. They served just as faithfully, and under circumstances that were likely much more difficult than it is today with our more up to date departments. To all the firemen-both present and past-the citizens of the State of Indiana take this opportunity to extend a word of thanks and appreciation.

The rise and fall of the interest rate. It's a story that's been chronicled by every financial page in America. And a story that's kept many investors away from traditional long-term certificates of deposit.

But it doesn't have to be that way. Because Lincoln National Bank is now offering the Rate Riser CD. The certificate of deposit that gives you the one-time opportunity to raise your interest rate if rates go up during the term of your investment.

Of course, its safety, security and guaranteed return also make it an ideal long-term investment for self-directed IRAs.

Which all goes to show you what smart investors already know. Prosperity is just around the corner. At your nearest Banking Center.

Who's Who in Akron

Jack Miller proudly displays the Pennsylvania engine and tender car given to him when he retired from Sonoco Products. (News Photo).

Jack Miller Model Train Enthusiast

The Erie Lackawanna may have abandoned its tracks at the south edge of town, but thanks to Jack Miller, the railroad is running in Akron again.

Jack's collection of model trains contains a total of 236 engines, cars and cabooses, dating from 1935 to the present, but he favors the Erie cars, of which he has several, because that company was the last railroad to go through Akron.

His train room is located in a converted workshop at the back of Jack's garage and contains 186 feet of track in three separate gauges (027, HO and N24). Each gauge of track has its own layout complete with a fascinating array of miniature villages, mountains, lakes, roads, people, animals, cars and trucks. Area residents would recognize several local buildings such as Wen Products, the Akron Depot, Akron Farm Supply and Sonoco Products along with log trucks from Pike Lumber.

Jack first became interested in trains as a boy living near Mentone. He would wave to the Nickel Plate crews and they would blow their train whistles for him. His first train was a wind-up model given to him as a gift when he was about seven years old. After high school, a friend of his went to work for the New York Central and wanted Jack to join him on the railroad, but Jack joined the service instead, serving in Korea. Jack's interest in model trains really took off three years ago this Christmas, when an anonymous Santa Claus left an HO model train set on his front porch. To this day Jack doesn't know who gave him the present that started his hobby.

Jack purchases most of his trains at garage sales, flea markets, auctions or swap meets. He attends conventions for model railroad collectors, one of which, held in Wheaton, IL at the Dupage County Fairgrounds, has six large buildings filled with model trains and their accessories.

Jack doesn't mind if an engine isn't in working order when he purchases it, because he is very skilled at repairing them. He keeps a copy of Greenberg's Repair and Operations Manual handy for assistance.

Jack builds all of the buildings in his layouts, himself. He is very resourceful, using corrugated cardboard, painted silver, for tin roofs, Sonoco paper tubes for silos and flexible drinking straws for pipes. Pine cones, from the city park, become trees, baby's breath becomes bushes and broomstraws become cattails. Jack collected ballast rock from the Erie right of way and coal from the former Harlan yard and using a hammer, broke them down to scale.

The miniature villages contain many displays that move. Cattle enter and exit a stock car, men unload milk cans and mail bags, a coal elevator loads cars, railroad gates go up and down, a saw mill cuts logs into lumber, smoke streams from an engine, lights flash, and a hobo runs along the top of a train. The cabinets that Jack built on both sides of the room, conceal the 2000 feet of wire necessary to make all this happen.

Model railroad collecting can be an investment as well as a hobby. Jack has one engine alone that is worth between $175 and $200. An American Flyer train he purchased a short time ago for $100 is now worth $225. Jack is very careful to keep all of the boxes for his trains because they add considerable value for collectors. Jack especially likes to collect advertisement cars, because if the company goes out of business, the cars increase in value rapidly. He also collects the special Christmas Series of Lionel cars that are released once a year.

Since Jack set up his train room, he has had 260 visitors, but the ones he's enjoyed the most are the third graders from Akron School who come each year. "They really get a kick out of it," says Jack. He's very proud of the train shaped books of crayon drawings the children did to thank him for the visit.

Jack's wife, Sharon, an RN at Woodlawn Hospital, constructed the papier-mâché mountains and the lake and helps with the painting of the layouts.

Jack and Sharon have two daughters. Lu Ann Stafford lives in North Manchester and has two children. Debbie Glaze lives in Syracuse and has a daughter and two step-children. All five of Jack's grandchildren enjoy the trains. Jack had a little trouble with one grandson being a bit too enthusiastic, so he bought him a train set of his own. "Now," Jack says, "he respects my trains more because he's found out what can happen if you aren't careful."

Although Jack retired last year after 30 years at Sonoco Products, he still keeps very busy. Besides working on his trains, he has remodeled his home and turned the former Akron News Office into two rental apartments.

Jack served four years as President of the Akron Town Board. During that time the new Fire Station/Town Building was started. It was a big project. During his last year in office, the board held 38 meetings instead of the usual 14. According to Jack it was "a lot of headaches, but well worth it."

Jack's love of statistics shows when he tells of being an ambulance driver in Akron for nine and a half years, making 156 trips and covering over 26,000 miles. He has also been an active member of the Chamber of Commerce.

Besides reference books and Model Railroader Magazines, Jack's train room contains other railroad items. There is a wooden train whistle, railroad spikes and a spikedriver and framed pictures of trains on the wall. One of his most prized possessions is the model of a Pennsylvania engine and tender car mounted on wood that was given to him as a retirement gift from Sonoco Products.

Jack is in the market for more model trains. "I'm always interested in trains for sale, whether they run or not," says Jack. So if you've got an old train gathering dust in your closet, you might want to give Jack a call. But be careful, Jack is so enthusiastic about his hobby that you just might find yourself wanting to join the fun, and buying more trains instead of selling one.

This elevator, which loads tiny pieces of coal into waiting cars, is just one of many moving displays in Jack's railroad layout. (News Photo).

Who's Who in Mentone

Mott and Millie Bryan in their mobile home near Warsaw. They are considering making Florida their year-round home, but admit that their hearts are still in Mentone. (Picture by Hudson).

Profile of Mott and Millie

by Leafy Hudson

After years away, long time Mentone residents Mott and Millie Bryan have come back to Indiana to spend their summers near their children. Although they would have preferred to settle back in Mentone, space for their mobile home wasn't readily available, so they moved into West Haven Estates near Warsaw.

Mott and Millie enjoy reminiscing about their past. They both grew up in southeastern Ohio. "We were hillbillies," they laugh. Mott claims, "It was so hilly, my mother stepped out of the car and fell into the next county!" By way of clarification, he adds, she had a flat tire right on the county line. She jumped out of the car to check it, slipped on the sloping ground, and was, indeed, in the next county.

Mott walked two and one-half miles to school. He went nine years before missing a day. When he finally did miss, it was to attend his grandmother's funeral.

Millie, one of nine children, was born on a one-hundred acre farm, of which only 20 acres were tillable. Her father died when she was 14, leaving Millie and one brother still at home with their mother. A sister, who taught in The Plains School, just four miles from Athens, Ohio, undertook to care for them. The Plains "real nice" School, a subsidiary of Ohio University, was ahead of its time. They had student teachers from Ohio U., and all of the teachers were required to have masters degrees.

Mott and Millie met at The Plains School. "We had a good English teacher," Mott remembers. If you got through her class with a D, you knew what the English Language was all about." Mott mourns today's neglect of correct English.

Mott and Millie remember their first date nostalgically. Millie, a sophomore, wasn't allowed to single date, so they went with a group to the movies and afterwards to the Betty Shop for ice cream. Mott was a senior at the time. "We saw The Hunchback of Notre Dame," Mott says. "It was a terrible movie!" He recalls, "You could go on a date then for a dollar, and have money left over."

The Bryans dated five years and married in 1934. In 1937, "back when the world was young," Mott says humorously, as only Mott can, he graduated from Ohio State University. (It had 8,000 students then, compared to 55,000 today.) In those days, "jobs were as scarce as old maid's children." They drove to Chicago to interview for a job with Swift & Co. On their way back through Warsaw, they noticed Creighton Bros' chicken houses, stopped and applied for work. "Hobart hired me," Mott says simply.

They remember those first days in Indiana. "We kept hearing about the Atwood Hill," they laugh. "We couldn't find it. We were surprised to find out Atwood was sitting on it. It didn't look like a hill to us!"

New Years Day, 1941, Mott and Millie moved to the farm northwest of Mentone that was to be their home for 27 years. In their hatchery, they raised chickens, sold eggs and baby chicks.

They produced 130,000 eggs a week. An interesting sidelight of their business was their association with the Eli Lilly Co. Lilly's technicians would inject eggs with bacteria, then harvest them in two weeks for vaccine.

"Peter McGowen worked for me for thirteen years," Mott recalls. "The best help I ever had."

During their sojourn in Mentone, both Mott and Millie, and their family were active in the Mentone United Methodist Church, where Mott sang in the choir for fifteen years. "Our whole family sang in the choir." A vivid memory of those days is serving on the committee to build the church's present parsonage. There was a lot of opposition. Many people thought the old parsonage, a deteriorating two story frame house located on the site of the church's recently completed new addition, was adequate. "The house we built is worth three times its original cost today," Mott observes.

After leaving Mentone in 1968, Mott and Millie held a variety of jobs. They sold mobile homes and managed apartments in Columbus and Lima, Ohio, and Daytona Beach, Florida. Their last position, and the one they liked best, was managing senior citizen's apartments. They lived in the same buildings, and although they were expected to keep a distance between themselves and the senior residents, they became very close to many of them.

Mott and Millie enjoy talking about Mott's unusual genealogy. His great-grandfather, a full blood Cherokee, was left orphaned after an Indian-white battle. A farm family, members of the victorious whites, took him home and raised him as their own. They gave him the surname, Foster, because he was a foster son. Foster married the farmer's daughter and Mott is their great-grandson.

On Mott's maternal side, an uncle was Colonel William Crawford, a slave owner and neighbor of George Washington. Waiting alongside the road for his son, after leading an attack on some Indians, he was captured by the Indians, and burned at the stake near Upper Sandusky, Ohio. A monument on the road where the atrocity occurred commemorates his death today. Mott and Millie have a copy of Colonel Crawford's will, which leaves his two slaves to his wife, Hannah, to be passed on to their son, John, after her death.

Now retired, they winter in Sebring, Florida, and spend summers in Warsaw, near three of their four children. Mary Ellen works in the Warsaw License Branch. Jim and Jenny both work at R.R. Donnelley and Sons. Jenny is also a successful model. Sherry, an RN, lives at Carmel, Indiana, and works at Methodist Hospital. They have ten grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, with another coming.

Mott and Millie enjoy Florida winters. There is always something to do. They play cards and Millie quilts and does crafts. They are members of the seniors band there, with Mott on the "idiot stick" and Millie playing the kazoo.

Although living at Warsaw's edge in the summer, they come back to church in Mentone. "Mentone has stayed relatively the same," they agree. "They've kept the town up. It seems the same to us. People always stop to talk."

Mott observes, "It's where we raised our kids." Millie sums it up, "I guess it's where our hearts are."

A Wonderful Discovery

This is one of the most remarkable discovery of 'em all. We had finished reading the Macy discovery of the case which contained the supposed to be gorilla, until we read of another discovery at Twelve Mile in which well-diggers, at a depth of fifty feet, struck a twelve foot stream of running water from which they caught eyeless fish, a five pounder of the bass type. Now comes the most remarkable discovery of 'em all. The ditch known as the F. S. Strong ditch, has been under construction for six years and is just now nearing its completion which was to pass through a lake called "Tamarack" which is known only to a few of the most venturesome whites and the map maker. On the sands most of the big swamps that surround the lake is every evidence that it was once the happy camping ground of the American Indians as Indian arrow heads are found by the hundreds and on the land now occupied by F. S. Strong and family are found many piles of stone that have been burnt supposed to have been warmed for the purpose of roasting the Indian's meals thereon. There are many deep cuts to be made in this ditch by reason of several big Beaver dams that were several feet high and last Saturday night ten minutes before quitting time while Day Strong and Albert Carpenter who were working with teams, cleaning the bottom of a twenty-five foot cut, heard a rumbling sound roaring like that of distant thunder. The workman became alarmed and just as they reached the top of the bank, the water burst out in a sixteen foot stream of water drowning the horses and carrying away all the workmans tools. After the first outbreak the water came hot and kept up such a hissing and raring sound throughout the night, that many along the channel thought the hour had come and many lights were kept burning along the waters course where could have been seen many heads bowed and knees bended, such perhaps as they had not done since childhood at the request of their mothers. By morning the water had disappeared as mysteriously as it came and at the opening in the ground where the water had burst out was found an Indian canoe fourteen feet long, several bull frogs that weighed over four pound each more than a wagon load of carp fish that averaged over nine pound each, a species of snake that while it was only thirteen feet and five inches long, it was over twelve inches in diameter. The outburst had thrown up a pile of mud some sixteen feet high and while parties were stirring in the mud with a stick they struck something solid and by uncovering it, it was found to be a full grown Indian which one day stood near six feet high. It was supposed he had drowned and sinking in the soft muck his body was preserved the same as those who was buried in Pompeii by the destructive volcano. As soon as the air struck the Indian he crumbled like dust. So nothing remained but his moccasins and buckskin breeches which was buckskin tanned with the hair on and which Mr. Carpenter took charge of. But Monday morning was pained to learn some one had stolen goods with doubtless be recovered as there is a posse of Detectives hot on the culprits trail.

Another very remarkable thing is the lake that once covered a deep bed of softest kind of muck and mud is now perfectly dry and the mud has become as solid as a Macadanized road, covered with tons of fish which the farmers were hauling off by the two horse wagon load and preparing to use as a fertilizer on their farms.

As to the facts of the above, and any one desiring further information we refer you to the following persons who will gladly answer any and all questions, provided that those who write will enclose a self addressed and stamped envelope: Wm M. Morrett, F. S. Strong, Day Strong, Albert Carpenter or any one of the hundreds of people who visited the scene last Sunday.

Mentone Business of the Week

Jay, Faith, Chantelle and Nellie with some of the products of Teel's Orchard. Jay says, "Customers are always welcome to borrow my knife and sample an apple." He notes that they raise bees and have honey for sale also. (Picture by Hudson).

Teel's Orchard

by Leafy Hudson

Jay and Faith Teel represent the third generation of Teels to supply apples to Mentone and surrounding communities from their family farm.

Teel's Orchard was established when Clement Teel planted apple trees on his farmland in 1925. The second generation became involved when Clem's son, Oliver, decided to leave a distinguished teaching career, in 1938, to settle down on the farm and help his father run the orchard.

When Oliver retired from education, he had served as teacher, principal, truant officer and school superintendent. Two of the schools he served were the Franklin School that used to be on Road 14, and the old Mentone School, where Doc Wilson's office is now. Among his many students was a girl who would later teach many Mentone natives, June Aughinbaugh.

In those days, Teel's Orchard offered fifteen varieties of apples and cider from their own press. Jay says, "Carol Boyer tells me she remembers coming here as a child to buy cider. They brought their own jug and filled it from a spigot."

Jay, the third generation, was born to Oliver and Edna Eizinger Teel. Many changes occurred fast in their family life after Jay's birth. His mother died in 1952, while Jay was still a baby. Grandfather Clem died in 1954, and in 1955, Oliver married Arvilla Van Gilder, who became the only mother Jay ever knew.

Jay recalls his early school days, when he had to help with the old cider press. "I'd get off the bus," he says, "eat some cookies and milk, and run out to get started on the press. I was the 'old mule' that turned the screw that ran the press."

Today, they still sell cider, but they have their apples pressed elsewhere. When Faith says wistfully she wishes they could press their own apples again, Jay hastens to advise her, "If you had to run the old press like I did, you wouldn't want to do it again!"

After Oliver died, the old orchard died out. It seemed for a few years that Teel's Orchard would be no more.

"Then," says Jay, "I finally got my head out from under the hood of a car long enough to realize there was something else. I realized the orchard was something my Dad and Grandpa enjoyed and I enjoyed it too."

The big day was in the spring of 1981. Jay had decided to plant 800 apple trees. On Saturday, which happened to be Prom Day for Karen May (Francis) and Jerry Francis, Karen, Jerry, Jim Long and his family, Greg Powell, and Dan and Doug Bruner planted over 700 trees. The following two days, Jay finished out the 800 trees himself.

"It's a pile of work," Jay says. "I couldn't do it without my wife and children."

Pruning begins in February and continues through November. "Lots of days we leave the house at 4:00 a.m. and don't return to it until 8:00 p.m. Dawn to dark!"

Faith is obviously as enthusiastic as Jay. "When I first came here," she says, "I hated apples. I thought they were all the same." Now she is so involved with growing and harvesting apples, that when she was asked to speak at Washington School, Warsaw, she was able to thrill the students with information they didn't know about apples. "For instance," she says, "I asked them if they knew how to identify a Red Delicious apple. One little boy did know. It's that they have five knots on the bottom. I like the orchard real well, now," she adds. One thing she likes about it is dealing with customers. "But, my favorite time is blossom time," Faith says. "It looks just like snow out there."

Faith, a native of Leesburg, came here because she chose to have her children in Tippecanoe Valley School system. She says the first thing that caught her eye when she drove by Teel's Orchard to her home was the tire swing in the yard. "Kids always rush for that," she says. They both blush a little as they recall that Jay caught her attention by, appropriately, sending her a fruit basket for Christmas.

Jay's tress began bearing in 1982. He had six bushels that year, which amounts to about one apple per tree. It takes about four years to get much volume. Each tree is good for 15-20 years. Jay replaces damaged or diseased trees immediately.

Jay has eight varieties. They are: Paula Reds, Jonamacs, Joneses, Red Chief (red delicious), Smoothies (yellow delicious and grimes Golden crossed), Ida Reds (the best pie apples), and just ten trees of a novelty apple, Wolf River. So far, he's had only one apple from them, but they are so big, one apple makes a pie. Jay hopes to add more varieties in years to come.

During the summer, Faith takes apples to Warsaw's Farmers Market every Saturday. They don't advertise much, but they drive a purple truck. People soon learned to watch for the purple truck for quality apples. "One day when we took another vehicle," Faith laughs, "our customers were asking us where to find the purple truck with the good apples!"

Jay still laughs about the day two Texas couples in motor homes, one motor home worth $90,000 and the other worth $140,000, wandered into their driveway (one with the help of a video camera mounted on the back!). The Texans were so impressed with the beauty of Indiana's green trees and rolling hills, they had decided to leave the main road and just happened to see the Teel's Orchard sign. They loved everything they saw, but they only bought 20 pounds of apples and one zucchini, because, "that was all they had room for!"

Jay says, "When Dad and Grandpa were running the orchard, people normally bought as many as ten bushels of apples at a time. They stored them in their root cellars." Today's customer is just as likely to be a "guy in a Porsche who buys four pounds."

But he's not complaining. They set a sales record last weekend by selling 62 bushels. Jay says if the apples are stored in a cool, dry place, they will keep until April.

The orchard is truly a family operation, with Jay, Faith, and their daughters. Their family consists of Trisha, 16, who sings in the high school choir, Melody, 15, a high school cheerleader, Chantelle, 10 and Nellie, 9.

Jay and Faith both hold other jobs. Jay has been in bus maintenance for Tippecanoe Valley Schools for nine years. Faith works at Bertsch Vending in Warsaw. But right now, keeping the tradition of Teel's Orchard alive is number one in their lives.

Jay and Faith like Mentone and the good people who make it what it is. "It's nice to know," Jay says, "that as well as everyone knows everyone else, when a person needs help, there will be someone to know it and give that help."

LET FAITH GUIDE YOU ON YOUR VOYAGE TO HAPPINESS

Old Columbus set sail on a definite quest,
For a route to the Orient, traveling west.
Though he never succeeded he nonetheless found
He was right in believing our planet is round.
In the uncharted ocean his plans went astray,
For a land called America stood in the way;
But he wasn't aware when his voyage was through
That he'd done what he never intended to do.
His belief in the Lord gave him courage to try,
So remember this lesson we all can apply:
To embark on your voyage, let God lead the way;
He will help you discover a happy new day.

— Gloria Nowak

Columbus found a

Akron students have been participating in a program that has been going on for two years. The program has been conducted to see if chewing sugarless gum cut down on tooth decay. Sugarless gum has been proven to cut down on the chances of tooth decay, even chewing regular gum has been found to have many benefits for teeth. It helps in ways to clean the gums. Pictured above are some students getting their teeth checked.

Akron School 6th grade science project in Mr. Stearley's class made these animals to show how animals bodies are made so they can survive in the wild. Students also wrote reports on the animals they chose. Pictured with their animals are Cassie Garrison, Beth Crissinger and Greg Runkle.

Dear Fulton County Voters,

Election Day, Tuesday, November 6th will soon be upon us. Most of you know me as your Sheriff for the last 8 years. My last term as Sheriff will soon be over, but I would like to continue to serve the people of Fulton County as your Assessor.

Rich McLochlin
Democrat Candidate
For Assessor

I wish it were possible for me to personally meet with each of you and discuss my candidacy. Since this is not possible, I would like to take this opportunity to introduce myself to you as a candidate for Fulton County Assessor and to ask for your vote on November 6.

I am a lifelong resident of Fulton County. I attended Relter Elementary School and graduated from Rochester Community High School in 1959.

My wife, Cindy, the former Lucinda Kindig, and I live on a farm southwest of Rochester. We are the parents of four children and have two grandchildren. My parents, Bob and Marie McLochlin, my sister, Pat (Mrs. Bill) McMillen reside in this area.

As stated in my past campaign, I pledge total dedication to administering a fair, effective and efficient Assessor's Office that will earn the public trust. I wish to serve all Fulton County citizens as their Fulton County Assessor.

I ASK FOR YOUR SUPPORT NOV. 6

Scenes Around Town

by Leafy Hudson

Jerry and I had a welcome note recently from former Mentonites, Denton and Harriet Abbey, now living in Fayetteville, Pennsylvania. They enjoy reading about old friends still in Mentone, through the News, and keep in touch with several who have moved away as well. It was good to hear of Pam, whom we remember watching grow up. Who was it that said, "Old friends are the best"?

I stopped in at Rosemary Bazini's the other day to borrow a corn-husk doll. (Why I wanted a corn-husk doll is another story.) To my delight, Rosemary came to the door with two dolls in her arms—a corn-husk doll and an exquisite living doll named Christa. Christa weighed in at birth, August 28 (her daddy's birthday), at four pounds, eight ounces. This precious little person belongs to Tom and Teresa Bazini Breeding, of Warsaw.

Jerry's fancy camera continues to baffle me. I experienced disappointment and embarrassment when the Roy Jeffer's J & J Sales article appeared the other week without a photograph. Jerry continues to say, "Here's all you do..." confident that I will do it. I shot about half a roll of film of The Girls at breakfast in Teel's the other Saturday, and got just one shot of about half of the group. Oh, well, to be true, "C'est la vie."

Which reminds me. I had the pleasure of spending a morning a couple of weeks ago with Barbara Lawson. We oohed and aahed over snapshots and souvenirs of their recent anniversary trip to Paris. Barbara brought back a collection of French phrases and a taste for yummy French pastry and coffee. Ah, c'est magnifique!

Mentone first graders were busy learning all about fall. The students wrote a poem and painted leaves. Mrs. Eiser is shown above working with some students on their leaves.

The Tippecanoe Valley Schools will be providing red ribbons for all students and staff members in the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation. Each individual school will also participate in various activities throughout the week in support of a drug-free America.

The Red Ribbon Campaign originated when federal agent Enrique Camarena was murdered by drug traffickers in 1985. The red ribbon became a symbol to reduce the demand for drugs, just as the yellow ribbon symbolizes trapped hostages in foreign lands.

Akron Business of the Week

Bud Harris prepares to fill a prescription in the pharmacy of Harris Drugs. (News Photo).

Harris Drugs

Located at the corner of Rochester and Mishawaka Streets, Harris Drugs offers Akron all the departments of a large chain drug store, with the added personal service only available in a small town drug store.

In addition to the prescription center, the store offers greeting cards, school supplies, books and magazines, office supplies, cosmetics, photo finishing and camera supplies, baby products, candy, gift items, Fuller O'Brien paints and carry-out liquor. The lunch counter and booths, at the back of the store, are a popular local meeting place and offer breakfast and a hot lunch special daily, along with sandwiches, salads and ice cream.

The store is open from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Saturdays and 8:00 till noon on Sundays and holidays. There is a registered pharmacist on duty at all times the store is open. Owner Lyle E. (Bud) Harris is assisted in the pharmacy, one day a week, by relief pharmacist Midge Decker, who is from Huntington. Besides the pharmacists the store has three full time and seven part-time employees.

There has been a drug store at the location since just after the turn of the century. The original owners of the store were Eva and Albert Scott. In 1946, the Scotts sold the store to Isabelle and Roger Mishler. Bud Harris assumed ownership of the business from the Mishlers in January 1960.

Bud came to Akron from Columbia City, at the age of four, with his parents, Walter and Gladys Harris. Local residents will remember Walter and Gladys working regularly in the store until recent years.

After graduating from Akron High School, Bud attended Purdue University, where he was a member of Kappa Psi Fraternity, Purdue Reamer Club and the Purdue Military Band. Bud enlisted in the Air Force in 1951 and graduated from USAF Officer Candidate School in March of 1953. He was assigned to a USAF Hospital in England. It was while stationed in England that Bud met his wife, Betty, who as a nurse, was also an officer in the Air Force.

After returning from England, Bud went to work, as a pharmacist, at Dowagiac Drugs in Dowagiac, MI. He also worked part-time at the hospital there.

When Royce Mishler decided the time had come to sell his drug store, he thought of Bud Harris. "It was always my goal to own a drug store of my own," says Bud. So the Harrises returned to Akron.

Bud and Betty have three children, Sally Day lives in Akron, and is employed as a CPA in South Bend, Dr. Mark Harris is an optometrist in Akron and Dr. Mitchell Harris is a physician at Riley Hospital in Indianapolis. The Harrises have three granddaughters and one grandson.

There are several pharmacists in the Harris family. Bud's great uncle and a cousin on his mother's side were pharmacists and helped inspire Bud to make it his career, too. Bud's son, Mitch, is a pharmacist, in addition to being a physician and Mitch's wife, Dr. Jennifer Meyer Harris, is also a pharmacist.

It is Mitch who fills in at the store occasionally and allows Bud to enjoy one of his favorite pastimes, which is travel. Besides traveling, Bud also tries to find time in his busy schedule for bridge, golf and fishing.

The prescription records in the store are completely computerized. This allows Harris Drugs to offer its customers the added service of being able to track their prescription purchases, payment records and insurance claims submissions. "Service is our strong point," stresses Bud. "People appreciate it when they find we are willing to do more than just fill their prescriptions."

Bud enjoys his work as a pharmacist in Akron, and likes being able to help people.

It is Bud's dedication to service and being helpful that makes shopping in his well stocked store such a pleasant experience.

Bridal and Formalwear

How many times have you imagined yourself in your wedding gown? Dreamed about wearing one that you saw in a bridal magazine? Those fantasies will help form an important basis for selecting the perfect wedding dress at Wedding Traditions Bridal and Formalwear, Waraw. There is probably a certain type of gown that you see yourself wearing.

When you shop, you're not just buying a dress-but a whole ensemble: gown, headpiece, undergarments, and shoes. They will probably cost more than any outfit you have owned in the past or will purchase in the future. Most importantly, the style of your apparel will set the pattern for guest and members of the wedding party. Obviously, you should take your time in making this important purchase.

Helvey takes a Bike Tour

Akron resident, Dennis Helvey, recently completed a three day bicycle tour in Northern Michigan with the Christian Adventures Group. Helvey owns Insurance 1 Services and several other participants were Brotherhood Mutual Agents from Virginia, Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. Dr. Bradley Camp, an optometrist from North Manchester, was also a member of the group.

The 11 bikers began their tour Friday evening, September 7th, twenty-five miles north of St. Ignace, MI. The first evening they peddled south to St. Ignace on the north side of the Mackinac Bridge. "It was to have been an easy warm-up for the next day," Dennis said. "But some of the guys were pretty competitive and we rode really hard."

On Saturday morning, the riders met at 6:00 a.m. to ride south across the bridge with a police escort. The five mile long Mackinac Bridge is the world's longest suspension bridge. "It was a clear morning," said Dennis. "There was a beautiful orange sunrise, in the east, over the lake, while we rode across the bridge. It was definitely the highlight of the trip."

The group rode 17 miles and then stopped for an outdoor breakfast. After eating, the group continued south along the east shore of Lake Huron to Roger's City, MI, where they stopped for lunch. By 6:00 p.m. that evening the bikers were peddling into Alpena, MI, completing a 100 miles (or a "century" as bicycling aficionados call it) that day.

The tour concluded Sunday morning with a worship service overlooking the rocky shore of Lake Huron.

There was only one mishap on the ride, when the lead rider missed a shift on a hill causing five bikes to collide and go down. Dennis' 12 speed Cross bicycle ended up on top of another bike and suffered a broken spoke but he escaped without any "road rash." None of the other cyclists were injured either. All were wearing helmets as required by tour organizers.

Dennis found the experience very rewarding and is looking forward to next summer when he plans to do more bicycle touring.

Adult Viking Club thanks you

The Adult Viking Club has been proud to serve our school with great pride. The club would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the parents, coaches and community members that have helped accomplish the club goals in the past two years.

We would like to ask for help in attaining working members from the parents of athletes participating in sports this year. Our number of working members has been declining due to various reasons. If the decline continues, the club can no longer support these activities.

The club only has two fund raisers a year which require members to participate. The club could attain a larger income if more members participated. We cannot continue unless we get parents from the community and parents of athletes.

As can be seen from the list of expenditures, the club has tried to make an unbiased attempt to support all sports. Some sports did not apply to the club for funds and therefore did not receive any.

Please phone the following people if you can help. Donita Secrist, 491-5002; Leslie Davis, 491-5395; Lou Ann Parker, 352-2656; Martha Whetstone, 491-3811 or Lew Goodwin, 491-3272.

The Adult Viking Club is not affiliated with the High School Athletic Council and does not participate in the council's fund raisers. The club is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of parents of athletes and community members.

Who's Who In Mentone

"I'm blessed with good health," says Ruth Cullum. Having made a "wonderful recovery" from cancer surgery 13 years ago, and now recovering nicely from recent cataract surgery, Ruth says prayer has always been important in her life. "My faith has carried me through." (Picture by Hudson).

Profile of Ruth

by Leafy Hudson

A native of South Whitley, Indiana, Ruth Cullum has made her home in Mentone for almost 50 years. But it was a circuitous route that brought her here, through Michigan and Montana.

Ruth Gardner was born April 30, 1907, in a house in Buffalo Addition, South Whitley, IN. While she was still small, they moved to Berrien Springs, Michigan, where her father pastored a United Brethren Church. His next appointment took the family to Morroco, IN. There, when Ruth was eight years old, her father suffered a ruptured pancreas. Because of the seriousness of the illness, he was rushed in vain to a hospital in Chicago, where he died.

The tragedy left Ruth's mother with four small girls to raise alone: Ruth, Esther, Mary and Bethel (Betty). She moved with her girls back to South Whitley, where they lived for a time with Ruth's grandparents, until they could move into a house of their own in town. So, it was in the friendly little community of South Whitley that Ruth grew up.

An interesting sidelight to their family situation at that time is that Ruth's maternal grandfather and paternal grandmother had both died previously. The remaining spouses later married each other. It was to their household that Ruth's family first retreated after her father's death.

Arley Cullum's Hoosier parents had homesteaded in Eastern Montana when he was just three years old. They remained there 12 years, returning to South Whitley when Arley was 15.

It was a South Whitley High School that Ruth and Arley met and began dating. Married in 1925, the year of Ruth's high school graduation, they started up housekeeping in the same house Ruth was born in.

That fall, in a most unusual move for those days, Ruth enrolled in Manchester College. The powers that were did not approve of married women teaching school. So, although Ruth completed teacher training, she only taught as a substitute, and that in a country school, which was a new experience for her. Ruth says, "I could have gotten a school, but it would have been away, and I didn't want to leave, nor was I comfortable in a country school setting."

During their first years of marriage, Arley was working and gaining valuable experience in the print shop and office of the South Whitley Tribune. Although he sincerely liked Indiana, his most impressionable years had been spent in Montana, and, a true Westerner at heart, he was always homesick for that state.

So, about 1930, Arley took Ruth "back home" to Circle, Montana, where there were still many people he knew from his boyhood.

In Circle, Arley opened a print shop and a weekly newspaper, The McCone County Sentinel. Arley did all of the printing himself. Ruth helped by going out to gather news.

Those were depression days, when making a living was difficult for everyone. To make the paper a financial success, it was almost necessary to win the contracts for the county legal notices. But the newspaper was legally required to be established one year before qualifying to bid for the county business. So, those first years were a time of real struggle. The rival newspaper, The Circle Banner, owned by a Mr. Larson, had been there when Arley was a boy, and always won the contracts. Eventually, Arley did get the county contracts, holding them for several years, making business easier.

"Western living is very different," Ruth recalls. It wasn't unusual to drive 75 miles on dirt roads to visit with friends on Sunday. "And we'd still be in McCone County!" It helped that when the Cullums moved to Montana, Ruth's sister and brother-in-law, Charles and Mary Davis went along.

The Cullum's two children were born in Montana. Joan Lynn was born at home without complications. But, when Jon Lee announced his impending arrival prematurely, they decided Ruth should make the long trip to Glendive, where the tiny boy arrived safely in a larger hospital than Circle offered.

The town of Circle had a population of about 600. There was a dormitory to house country students attending high school in Circle. Farmers came from as far as 40 miles around to trade in town.

Winters were extremely cold with excesses of snow. One particularly beautiful, sunny winter day, Ruth recalls, not realizing the severity of the cold, she let Joan walk the four or five blocks from home to the print shop. Her face was almost frozen when she got there.

The Cullums attended the United Brethren Church, whose pastor had been there when Arley was a boy. They formed many friendships that were "special." "I learned to like Montana," Ruth says, "but I missed the trees."

As for Arley, "I think we would have been there yet; he was perfectly contented." But, they were living in perilous times. With Pearl Harbor and the onset of war, Ruth found herself beset with thoughts of home and family, and the great distance between them. "I got to thinking that the children would grow up, marry and stay there. So, we came back to South Whitley."

When Ruth and Arley left Montana, her sister and husband moved to Western Montana, where they lived out the rest of their lives.

Shortly after their arrival home, a friend told Arley about a Mr. Krathwohl in Mentone who had a printing press and weekly newspaper, The Co-Op News, for sale. The rest, as they say is history. The Cullums ran the Country Print Shop and Co-Op News in Mentone for many years.

A popular feature of the paper each week was Ruth's homey and conversational column, "Counterpoint." She finally gave it up, she says, because "when my grandchildren grew up, I no longer had anything to write about!"

The Cullums, upon their arrival in Mentone, moved into the big house on three acres, with a big chicken house, at the south edge of Mentone. Their landlady, Mrs. Lyons, lived in one room upstairs, when she wasn't with her daughter, Nell Reed, in Reed's Funeral Home on Main Street (now King's). Finally, Mrs. Lyons suggested, "I believe you folks love this old place as well as I do." With that she sold them the house that is still Ruth's home.

"The children enjoyed the creek so much," Ruth says. "And we had a horse they like so much." Today, other houses fill in the acres of bare land that once surrounded the house.

Arley retired several years before his death in 1980. Before his retirement, they had sold the Mentone business, which merged into the Akron-Mentone News, and bought a print shop and newspaper in Bourbon. They subsequently sold that newspaper, and the print shop, Harmony Press, Inc., is run today by Joan's husband, Tom Harmon, their son, Tim, and his wife, Rita.

Much of Ruth's time these days centers around her family and church. Joan and Tom's children, Tim and Rita Myrcia Harmon, and daughter, Rebecca, 12; and Bill and Lisa Harmon Gothan, with son Zachary, 2, live nearby. Their son, Joel, is a senior at Tippecanoe Valley High School.

Jon and Martha Helm Harmon, with daughter, April, live at Parker, Indiana, where Jon ministers with his father-in-law in Revival For Our Day.

Son-in-law Tom Harmon presently ministers to the church Ruth attends, the Mentone Christian Fellowship, in Atwood, where he "brings a good message each Sunday."

Through Revival For Our Day, Ruth has had her greatest thrill, traveling to The Holy Land, Spain, Italy, Germany, Liechtenstein, and Norway. She's also been to England, with a "special" trip to John Wesley's home, and to Greece, where she stood on Mars Hill to observe where Paul preached at Ephesus. Two years ago, her nephew, Larry Carey, took Ruth and her sister, Esther, on an "unforgettable" trip to Hawaii.

In spite of all the traveling, Ruth calls herself a homebody. Her greatest outside activity now is the Mentone Nutrition Site, which she attends daily. "We're all about the same age and have good rapport," she says. Ruth plays piano for the Scrambled Egg Band.

Last weekend was very special for Ruth and her family. Her nephew, Michael Davis, a Montana State Policeman, came and the whole family gathered at Joan and Tom Harmon's house.

Ruth says both she and Arley always liked Mentone. Although Arley never stopped missing the West, he became acclimated and was happy here. As for Ruth, she finds Mentone a "very comfortable community with good Churches and schools."

Care for Half-Way House residents

MedPark Center at 2501 E. Center Street in Warsaw, now offers continued residential placement for those patients who have completed the alcohol and drug inpatient program. The half-way house at MedPark Center is designed to meet the needs of the alumni who are ready to return to their employment, however, they are not able to return to their home environment. Often times recovering alcoholics or drug users do not find the support system they need at home to continue a recovery program or the family structure has been damaged by the alcoholics activities and returning home is not an alternative for them.

MedPark Center's half-way house provides the residents with a comfortable, stable, environment, meals, continued group support for their program of recovery, assistance with getting to and from self help meeting, and mandates participation in MedPark Center's Continuing Care Program.

Junior Achievement imposter reported

Junior Achievement of Northern Indiana has received complaints about a young man posing as a representative of Junior Achievement selling candy and cookies to raise money for the program. Areas that have reported this so far are Columbia City, Warsaw, Kendallville, Decatur, and Peru.

The man does not represent the local Junior Achievement program. Junior Achievement raises its funds almost entirely through direct letter campaigns to local businesses.

Residents are warned to check the identification and credentials of people soliciting private donations and call the organizations they claim to represent to verify any fundraising program. The Junior Achievement area office phone number is (219) 484-2543.

Mentone Business of the Week

Jerry and Jill Gross with their Corvette collection. Although Jill knows all the NFL football players by name, Janell has a black belt in Taekwondo, and Jenna loves jazz dancing, cars are the really important interest in all their lives. (Picture by Hudson).

Jerry's Body Shop

by Leafy Hudson

Eleven years ago, Jerry Gross opened his own body shop just South of the railroad on Road 19. In the years since he has expanded his business four times. Over the years he has expanded his business four times. When asked to what he attributed this steady growth, Jerry and wife Jill both answered at once. "Good work" was her answer. "Too many hours" was his. They are probably both right. Jerry has worked hard and has developed a dependable business with a faithful clientele.

Jerry went to work in 1970 for Mentone Body Shop, a job he held for nine years, until establishing his own business in 1979. But it could be said his career started much earlier. Jerry has always loved cars. By age 17, he had his own Corvette. Applying his natural love for autos, his expertise is largely self-taught.

Jerry's business has changed through the years. He has graduated from doing all types of body work to doing almost nothing but collision work. Most of the cars he works on now are only one or two years old.

One reason for this, he explains, is that he had the foresight in the early 1980's to buy equipment to work on the new unibody auto construction. Jerry specialized in repairing this type of car before there were many of them, and before many other body shops had the necessary equipment. When all car manufacturers went to this construction in 1985, Jerry was in excellent position to work on the new cars.

Jerry's customers come from as far as 50 miles each way, once he has done their work, they always come back. "It takes a long time to learn to fix cars properly," Jerry says. "But when they are fixed right, they are as good as new."

Jerry mixes all his own paint, always insisting on a perfect match.

He keeps a photo diary on file for each repair job. His pictures show the original wrecked condition, the car taken apart, repairs in progress, and finally, the repaired vehicle, "good as new."

An important part of the business is the Wrecker Service. He has two wreckers and a flatbed, but no longer gives 24 hour service, as he did for many years.

The latest expansion of the business occurred a year ago. Jerry and Jill gave their building a face lift and added a pleasant office to the south side of it. At that time, Jill came into the business as Shop Manager. Business has doubled since then and "Jill has made the difference," Jerry says. Her duties include: receptionist, writing estimates, ordering parts, scheduling jobs, working with adjusters and keeping the books. This frees Jerry to spend his time on the actual repair work without interruptions.

"It runs much smoother with her here," he says.

It has taken most of the past year for many customers and business people to accept Jill in what has traditionally been considered a male role. But, they have come to realize that she is very capable and reliable in her job. "It wasn't hard to learn things like estimating costs," she says. "I have a guide to go by and Jerry helped me." She adds with a grin, "One third of the insurance adjusters I work with are women."

Two of Jerry and Jill's hobbies revolve around cars. When a customer enters their office, he is greeted by their extensive collection, 21 in all, of Jim Beam Genuine Royal China Corvettes, all dated. They have two 1954 models, a red and a black, of which only 800 were made. The newest in the collection is a yellow convertible pace car from the Indianapolis 500.

But Jerry and Jill's hobbies don't stop with miniature cars. They own two real Corvettes, a 1967 and a 1990. The latter, Jerry says proudly, a ZR1, "is the fastest production car built today." With a Lotus engine, it competes with such cars as the Lamborghini and Ferrari. In May, 1990, the ZR1 broke 15 speed records. Jerry's car will go at least 180 miles per hour. The car, made in Bowling Green, Kentucky, took one and one-half years from order to delivery. "It's a collector's item," Jerry says.

Another hobby that has kept the whole family busy, including Janell, 11, and Jenna, 6, is restoring their vintage home. Jerry and Jill bought the former Chris Fleck home from Doris Yarian in 1984.

Before moving in, they gutted the entire house, down to the studs, replacing all the plastered walls. Some woodwork was replaced with the new pieces matching the old. They also replaced the fireplace with a more efficient one. The house has 14 rooms and ten foot ceilings. A 60 inch by 10 foot mirror is mounted on the wall in a walnut frame in the living room. All the doors have leaded glass transoms.

Jerry and Jill have a "mystery picture" of their home surrounded only by wild flowers, showing a round tower and stucco walls. The unusual round window, still extant on the east side of the house, is in the photo also. They would welcome information from any source about when and why the tower was removed, and the year of the picture. The stucco covering mystifies them because, when the house was renovated, no telltale signs of old stucco showed up anywhere.

The latest addition to their property will add the finishing touch to the landscaping they have enjoyed doing recently. With the help of an antique dealer, they found 300 feet of lacy Victorian iron fence which came from a house in Wabash. The tip of every tall rod has a star design. Jerry says the star and eagle were important designs on fences of the 1890's. When he's finished with the necessary sandblasting, straightening and welding, Jerry says, "the fence will be good for another 100 years!"

Jerry and Jill like living and running a business in Mentone. He says, "We are thankful for our faithful customers. They all come back and we try our best to take good care of them."

Scenes Around Town

by Leafy Hudson

Mott and Millie Bryan have discovered through their Profile in last week's News just how small the world is -- and always was. I was having lunch in Warsaw with a friend, Edna Pringle, who is "into" genealogy. She described a copy of a will she has of an ancestor who parceled out his thousands of acres to various relatives and slaves. The story reminded me of Mott and Millie's Colonel William Crawford, and I proceeded to tell her about him. His name was barely out of my mouth when she exclaimed, "They were brothers!" Edna's ancestor, Valentine Crawford, had a brother, William, who was burned at the stake by Indians near Upper Sandusky, Ohio (Mott and Millie's William). The Crawford's half-brother, Colonel Hugh Stephenson, is Edna's direct ancestor, a grandparent of many "greats." I put Edna in touch with the Bryans, and together, they are now searching for further information on their mutual forebears. Edna, born and raised in Iowa, and the Bryans, born and raised in Ohio, had never met, nor known of each other before last week. I don't know who's more excited about all this: Edna, the Bryans or me!

Saturday morning was mincemeat day in Mentone. That day the Lawrence D. Bell Museum board members and friends met at Mentone School to make their famous mincemeat. They use Agnes Rans' recipe. Old-timers will remember Agnes' (Fern Besson and Grace Lewis' mother) wonderful cooking, including her chicken pie that was always so popular at Mentone Penny Suppers. To get your mincemeat, by the quart or baked into pies, see the crew at Miller Hardware.

Vikings lose to Whitko Wildcats

Friday, Oct. 12, Tippecanoe Valley Vikings played the Whitko Wildcats.

"The team played really well during the first quarter, and the defense played well throughout the entire game," said Tippy Valley's head coach, Scott Bibler.

Three of Valley's players, Mervin Jones, Greg Prater and Tyson Silveus didn't play Friday night, which really hurt the Vikings.

"The team threw some interceptions that caused Whitko to score. Whitko has a good ball club this year," said Bibler.

"We had some penalties that were questionable, but one that hurt us was rushing the passer," said Bibler.

"Overall I feel that everytime we play, we take one step further toward our goal," said Bibler.

Whitko, who won the Three Rivers Conference, ended up winning the game against the Vikings with a score of 26-0.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

We were enjoying our son's Jr. High football game at TVHS when all at once the high school band director felt that the band had to practice the music scale. Up and down at least 5 or 6 times and then they tried to play parts of what was to be a song.

I guess there was no where else but directly behind the grandstand in the parking lot to practice.

We really feel sorry for the band director for not having a true heart, feelings of others (both players, coaches, parents and true fans) and for not being educated to have or know what common sense is all about.

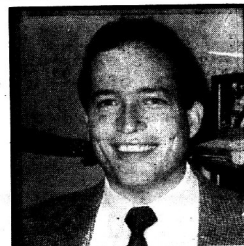

We are to have happy memories of being a fan at the grandstand not having our nose in the newspaper to find out the results. That is if a local newspaper can make time for a story about it.

H. RAY HAZEN,
D.D.S., M.S.D. P.C.

SEQUENCE OF DENTAL TREATMENT

If you are in the position where you face restorative dental treatment -- anything from fillings to crowns -- you should have a thorough periodontal examination first. This could be important in determining the sequence of dental treatment.

Don't put the cart before the horse. If you do need periodontal treatment, it should always be done BEFORE the restorative dentistry. For one thing, your gum line may be at a slightly different level after periodontal treatment, and the new dental work must relate to the new gum line. In addition, it is difficult for a periodontist to treat the gums surgically after restorative dentistry without opening spaces between the teeth. On the other hand -- operating in the correct sequence -- it is often possible that restorative work can be used to close some of the spaces created by periodontal surgery.

Naturally, your dentist can best advise you on treatment after evaluating your condition.

Prepared as a public service to promote better dental health. From the office of: H. RAY HAZEN, D.D.S., J.S.D., P.Co. 1329 Main St., Rochester, Ph. 223-3121.

FAITH AND SERVICE CAN HELP US FORGET ALL OUR WOES

We all have times when either things go wrong or else we're afraid they will, and these real and potential calamities seem to come all at once. We worry about our health, our job security, bills, taxes, and so on. This can throw us into a real fit of depression, and we often wonder if it's all worth it. But take heart; there are some constructive things you can do while you're waiting for the answers. First, go out and help someone who needs you. This will give you a good feeling and take your mind off your own troubles. Second, attend your House of Worship and pray for God's guidance. Talk to your clergyman, who will also pray for you. Remember that he is there to help you whenever you need him, so just let him do it.

It is always darkest just before the day dawneth.

Tippecanoe Valley Awarded $30,450

The Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation was awarded $30,450.21 by the Indiana Department of Education, it was announced this week. The money was a portion of the $10 million in Indiana Schools Incentive Awards given to 1,085 schools that showed improvement in at least two of the following categories: attendance, language, math, Indiana Statewide Testing and Education Progress Scores (ISTEP).

Akron Elementary received $14,533.09 for showing improvement in math, language, ISTEP and attendance. Mentone Elementary received $8,581.03 for showing improvement in ISTEP scores and attendance. Tippecanoe Valley High School was awarded $7336.09 for its improvement in math and attendance.

The schools may use the money for any purpose except salaries, bonuses or athletics. According to Superintendent Baxter Paige, each building has its own committee to determine how the money will be used.

The only school in the Tippecanoe Valley Corporation not receiving an award was Burket Elementary. The awards are given for improvement only and Burket's scores were already quite high. According to Paige, it would have been difficult to raise them. Burket did, however, show an improvement in the attendance category.

Other area school corporations also receiving awards were: Rochester $33,594; Caston $6,125; Culver $10,001; Argos $6,315; North Miami $14,878.

Akron Town Council

The Akron Town Council met in regular session on October 16, 1990.

Ordinance 90-1 was adopted in full and passed three ayes and 0-nays.

The stop sign from the Akron School parking lot at Rural and Johnson Street has been installed and Mr. Boggs has suggested a 3-way stop at Center and Rural Street to relieve congestion.

The office radio has been ordered and should be in soon. The signage grant that Superintendent Gearhart has been working on has been completed and sent in.

The figures for the 12' alley on North Maple Street is $8,000 to $10,000 from Phend and Brown that would not include the labor. Town Board President Robert Allen said nothing would be done until litigation has been completed.

Several area Town Lake residents attended the meeting in regards to the fish kill that happened in late August. Robert Allen read a letter that was addressed to Charles Miller from Kelly M. Boatman from the Department of Natural Resources (Lake Enhancement Program Specialist). Robert stated the Town does not feel and has never felt that the problems of Town Lake were the result of an overflow from the Town's Waste Treatment System. He stated that he could not accept that the Akron's problems impacted the contents of the lake due to the large area that also drains into Town Lake. Residents of Town Lake did not agree. There were heated comments and many concerns and frustrations were expressed. A final agreement was reached that when there is a discharge from the Waste Treatment Plant the Town would contact Raymond Wood and Charles Miller to monitor when the discharge is taking place into the lake. Meanwhile the Town would do what they could. However, money is not available to upgrade the system, at this point.

The town received a letter from the Schnilker Engineering Firm offering to contract with us at $125.00 per month for one year and a list of itemized costs. The Council decided for now

4H NEWS

Although we should not live in the past, it is fun to visit it every now and then to remember some of the good times. A great way for a 4-H member to record their 4-H experience so it can be remembered is through the Achievement Record Book Program. A 4-H Achievement Record Book outlines a 4-Her's experiences and growth during his/her 4-H career.

Achievement Record Books are a great way for a 4-H member to keep a journal of their 4-H involvement. Achievement Record Books for the senior division can be completed by any 4-H member who will be 15 years old or older in 1991, while books for the junior division can be completed by any 4-Her who will not turn 15 years of age in 1991. At the county level, the top 5 record books in both the junior and senior divisions will receive special recognition and awards. The county winning senior books will advance for state competition.

Although Achievement Record Books are not due in the Extension Office until February 1, 1991, it is a good idea to get an early start. A workshop for 4-Hers completing Achievement Record Books will be held this fall. The Extension Office also has copies of past state winning books, a video tape that discusses guidelines for completing the national form and a booklet with suggestions and examples on completing the national form to assist you in completing your Achievement Record Book.

Why not invest some time in a 4-H Achievement Record Book so you can have it to look back on your 4-H experience?

Mentone Business of the Week

Gary and Julia Teel in their store, the Classroom Connection. The local schools are very supportive of their store, for which they are grateful. (Picture by Hudson).

Classroom Connection

by Leafy Hudson

Classroom Connection, owned and operated by Gary and Julia Teel, is a specialty store that attracts educators from many miles around Mentone. They come from places like Logansport, LaFontaine, Maconaquah, Wabash and Indianapolis. One lady, a Warsaw native who teaches in Hawaii, comes each summer with a long list of supplies to purchase for use in her Hawaiian school. This past summer, an Alaskan teacher visited the store and stocked up for the coming school year.

Classroom Connection is primarily a store for school supplies, from preschool through senior high, but they also have materials for Churches, Sunday Schools, and libraries.

All kinds of workbooks, bulletin boards and bulletin board materials, stamp sets, charts, construction paper, incentive awards, record books and book marks are just a sampling of the many items available to help the teacher spruce up the classroom and to help meet various teacher and student needs. "It's a store," say Julia, "where all educational supplies and children's needs can be met."

Another potential market area for the store are parents and grandparents, with party gifts, supplies and favors. An example of an exceptional gift possibility is a colorful, sturdy jigsaw puzzle map of Indiana, each piece of the jigsaw representing an Indiana county. It's interesting to note that just a few places of interest are briefly listed on each county piece. Two of Kosciusko County's places of note listed are Mentone's big egg and the Lawrence D. Bell Aircraft Museum.

An important part of the business is their laminating service. From George McCutcheon's famous cartoon, "Injun Summer," to a sixth grader's precious leaf collection, almost anything can be protected for keeping by lamination at Classroom Connection.

Julia and Gary, both teachers themselves, saw a need for this type of store in our area. It was a new idea here, but, Gary says, "In teaching, so many times the sample page shown in the catalogue a teacher orders from is the only page in the book. We felt it was important for teachers to be able to see what they are buying."

The Teels opened their store in August, 1983, in the back of Roger Moriarty and Gail Law's Neighborhood Store. A year and one half later, the business had grown enough to warrant moving it into its own location, into the building on the alley west of Teel's Restaurant. In 1986, when The Neighborhood closed its doors, The Classroom Connection moved back into its original location, this time occupying the whole store as it does today.

The store is basically retail with some mail-order business. The Teel's perceive a potential for a larger mail-order business, but are reluctant to branch out further on their own. With their teaching duties—Julia teaches fifth grade at Akron Elementary and Gary teaches fifth and sixth grade math at Piercetown Middle School—the store already takes up the remainder of their time. They do ordering, bookkeeping and filing at night. They feel that as teachers, they have the necessary expertise for their business. Gary says, "We have worked hard to build up a good reputation. We go out of our way to locate specific materials for teachers—to be of service. We take pride in that."

Although they're very busy, the Teel's enjoy their store. "It's fun to open up boxes of newly arrived merchandise," Gary says. "Especially Christmas items. Kinda brings out the kid in me."

The Teels have participated with displays in many in-service and special days for teachers in various Northern Indiana high schools, but they find these very time consuming. So, they have chosen to limit this type of participation to a display at the Logansport Reading Council's annual day for educators. Experience has taught them that for their type of store, this kind of advertising, along with word-of-mouth, is the most effective.

Gary, a Mentone native, holds a B.S. from Manchester College and a Masters degree from St. Francis. He has taught at Akron High School, Milford Junior High, Triton, and for the past twelve years at Piercetown Middle School. This past summer he took a course in science at I.U. Kokomo, a necessary step to extend his life license from 7 through 12 to 5 through 12. He also is licensed to sell real estate and life insurance.

Julia, a native of Tippecanoe, Indiana, received both her B.S. and Masters degree from Indiana State University, Terre Haute, where she taught public school several years before coming to Mentone. Along with the other Tippecanoe Valley fifth grade teachers, she recently took a Quest Workshop, defining values for fifth graders. A goal of Julia's for "someday" is to write an Erma Bombeck style book around her teaching experiences. "My life is teaching," she adds.

The Teels have three daughters, Amy, now Mrs. Rusty Zimpelman, of Mentone, Stephanie, 16, and Brooke, 11. Amy works at Lake City Bank in Warsaw. Stephanie, a sophomore at Tippecanoe Valley High School, is a Junior Varsity Cheerleader and works at Teel's Restaurant. Brooke, a student at Mentone Elementary, goes directly to the store after school each day, where she helps "Grandma," Kathryn Teel, the store's only other employee. Brooke is proud of having had her picture taken with three celebrities, Marilyn Quayle, John Hiler and Bobby Knight.

The Teels enjoy collecting. Gary's passion is baseball cards. He has over 20,000. He says he loves the Cardinals. Brooke eagerly chimes in here that she loves the Oakland A's. She's a stamp collector, or she says with a grin, a "Philatelist." Julia has over one hundred Precious Moments figurines, but has stopped accumulating them. Now she adds to her collection of porcelain dolls, mostly Ashton Drakes. "They are a good investment," she notes. "If we weren't at the store every Saturday," they both agree, "we'd be at antique auctions."

Julia and Gary like to live near Mentone and have their business here. "It's a good place to raise children," Gary says. "We need to do everything we can to help our community stay nice looking and keep the friendly atmosphere we have. Little things like the flower pots and benches on Main Street and the landscaping around the egg are nice." He also notes that Mentone's industries have helped to keep the town alive.

Julia seconds Gary's observations, and adds, "I have been to many science fairs at surrounding schools. People in our community need to realize how big and well organized ours is. It's better than the others, something to really be proud of."

Mentone Alumni Faces Hanging

by Leafy Hudson

The multicolored brick wall, originally the outside north wall of the Mentone Gym, built in 1954, now functions as the south side of the hall joining the gym to the new elementary rooms at Mentone Elementary School. Since the recent remodeling, several Mentone alumni have considered the beautiful brick expanse "a wall to be recognized." The obvious solution, they feel, to its use also solves another problem--the need to preserve and display the neglected, casually hung and in some cases, deteriorating composite graduating class pictures that have heretofore crowded around the school cafeteria entrance.

Thus, the Mentone School Graduate Picture Committee was formed of Linda Cochran, Joan Harmon, Marcia Scott and Jack Shinn. For those people curious enough to check out the project they have gotten underway, a visit to the new part of the school building will illustrate a temporary display of what the committee is planning to do. The committee's goal is to eventually hang a composite picture, or failing that, a class list artistically executed in calligraphy by Vicki Swihart, of every Mentone graduating class from 1892 through 1974.

One phase of the project is to reglue, reframe and rehang the seventeen composite pictures that have hung on the walls near the cafeteria for decades. The glue on many of the individual pictures had dried and allowed them to slip out of place in their frames, when a more pressing problem with the pictures was discovered. During a tornado warning exercise, an unusually strong wind funneling through the halls, where the children were gathered for safety, shook the pictures on the walls above them. The frightened teachers present, inspecting the situation closer afterwards, realized the pictures, each hung only on one big nail by a long wire, constituted a threat to the students using the hall. There was danger of the pictures hitting the children as well as broken glass resulting if they fell.

But those pictures form an integral part of the Mentone community heritage. Thus, the desire to find a better method of displaying them.

Extensive planning has gone into this project already. The committee has had two sturdy, flat, oak cases constructed and fastened securely to the wall at "bifocal level." The pictures in the cases cannot be reached through the safety glass without the cases being dismantled by authorized personnel. As additional funds become available, enough cases will be built to house pictures or member lists of every class, along with available pictures of sports teams and the old school buildings.

The committee is trying diligently to secure photos of every graduate. Class composites will be created for classes that never had them. Donated pictures will be appreciated. Loaned pictures, also appreciated, will be reproduced and returned to their owners. Reproductions can be made from books as well as individual pictures. Enlargements and reductions can be done as necessary.

Many pictures have been collected already. For example, they have a picture of the 1912 Mentone Girl's Basketball Team. One set of pictures, covering a span of many years, is referred to as the "Dale Kelly pictures," because he's in them all. All unidentified pictures in the committee's possession were displayed at the recent Alumni Banquet. At least fifty were identified, with some tentative identifications corrected. The conversation, overheard, went like this: "Oh, you remember her. She married. . ." and on and on!

Nostalgic trivia to accompany this rogue's gallery is requested also. Much of that has been gathered already. For example, Did you know--Remember--Would you believe--That Mentone High School was a three year school from 1892 - 1896? What's in the cornerstone of the old building (they say Pete Mellott knows)? That a peephole existed somewhere in the old gym that led directly to the girl's locker room? That Mentone's school colors were black and orange until about 1937?

The committee wishes to make three requests of the Mentone Alumni.

(1) They need pictures (group or individual) of the following years: 1892, 1893, 1896, 1897, 1899, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912, 1913, 1914, 1915, 1917, 1918, 1920, 1923, 1925, 1926, 1928, 1930, 1932, 1966, 1967, 1971, and 1974.

(2) Through the years, a few of the old composite pictures hanging on the school walls have been misplaced. Any information or return of these pictures would be a great service to the whole community.

(3) It will be necessary to raise funds for the additional cases before this project can move forward. Donations are welcome.

Send your check, old pictures and anecdotes of your Mentone school days to: Marcia Scott, R.R. #1, Box 208, Mentone, Indiana 46539, or call her at 353-7460.

With everyone working together, that jewel of a brick wall can be appropriately hung with Mentone Alumni!

The Akron-Mentone News - October 24, 1990
REMINISCING WITH THE NEWS
TAKEN FROM THE AKRON NEWS
FEBRUARY 2, 1906
84 YEARS AGO

The good citizens of Mentone were awakened last Thursday morning early with a startled finish to the snores and slumbers. The cry of "fire" went ringing out on the cool crisp morning. It has only been a few months since Mentone sustained a real ugly conflagration, and the fiery elements means horror to the citizens. The trouble was soon located by the anxious people and found the starting point was in Ben Sells meat market. The flames spread rapidly before the fire engine could be brought in to action. But when the force gathered and the engine was in full action the blaze rapidly subsided leaving five buildings in as his on the south side of Main street but West of the M.E. Church. The five victims are Ben Sell with insurance to cover large part if not all of loss; Jenkins general store total loss; W. B. Doddridge, jewelry in same room with Jenkins; J. W. Aughinbaugh; harness shop; David Elsworth shoe shop. The buildings were all frame and insurance come; hence none was carried except as given above. The loss amounts to $10,000 to $15,000 and is a severe one on the individuals.

While returning home from Yellow Creek Lake church last Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. James Showalter lost a good horse blanket on the way, and for which they will suitable reward the finder, if he will return to the old mill in Akron.

G.K. Brundige sold the big black span of horses to R. M. Gast last Sat. for use of the Saints at Anderson. Mr. Gast and Mr. Thomas Judd departed Monday morning overland to deliver the horses at Anderson. The church people are moving their immense printing plant from Moundsville, W. Virginia to Anderson and work on the buildings will begin Feb. 1st. And this team will be needed in the work.

Family Health Month

Letter to the Editor

October is Family Health Month.

Family practice is the recognized medical specialty which takes care of your entire family. Family physicians are trained to treat people of all ages and both sexes in a convenient and affordable manner. With one doctor taking care of the entire family, the physician can get to know all of the members, their lifestyles, problems and medical needs.

When choosing a family doctor, consider the four A's - availability, ability, affordability and accessibility. Ask for a get-acquainted appointment before you need the physician's services. Consider whether you feel the physician has a friendly and professional manner, a fee schedule you find acceptable and is readily available on call or is covered on call by associates. Feel free to ask about the physician's background, training and professional memberships. Be sure to discuss fees, billing and hospital affiliations in advance.

Remember the best time to look for a family physician is when you are well. This helps you, and it also helps the doctor establish baseline records based on your present good health.

Where to start? Ask family and friends whose opinions you respect for recommendations. You can also call the KCH Marketing Department at 269-6303 or 1-800-446-7288 for information and/or a copy of their Physicians' Directory.

During Family Health Month or anytime, you can conduct your own family health inventory by asking yourself the following questions:

1. Proper nutrition-Are you and your family eating properly?
2. Physical fitness-Do you and your family members exercise regularly and get adequate rest?
3. Mental health-Can you recognize and deal with stress?
4. Hazard control-Are there safety hazards in and around your home?
5. Periodic Checkups-Do you schedule regular health screening exams and immunizations for your family?

6. Tobacco/alcohol-If necessary, have you sought assistance from your family physician in smoking cessation or treatment for alcohol misuse?

7. Partnership for health-Do you work with your family physician to keep your entire family healthy through regular checkups, screenings and special recommended self-examinations or other test?

This checklist is just the first step toward keeping you and your family healthy. Your family practitioner provides the key for successful implementation and follow-up. Check with him or her today.

Dear Editor:

This is an open letter to Jim Stackhouse and to anyone else who does not have all of the facts.

The TVHS Band and Auxiliary corps work very hard. Their practice started immediately after Memorial Day. Practice was every Monday and Wednesday from 7 to 9 p.m. until school started. Then practice was scheduled from 6:30 to 9:00 p.m. They also had one week at band camp and one full day practice in September.

All of this is in preparation of marching competitions starting in September. At these competitions the judges sit in the press boxes or on top of them so they can see the formations and general effects. This brings us to the reason why the band has a football field painted on the parking lot next to the grandstand. In order for the band director to check formation and placement, he must go up on the grandstand and look down upon the band just as the judges would do. Please notice he did not do that during your game.

In reference to your comments that the band had to practice the scale at least 5 or 6 times, scales are warm-ups just as a football team goes out to exercise as a warm-up. A band will play song parts at practice until they get it right just as a coach will have his team practice plays until they get it right.

It is impossible to schedule all the high school activities without overlapping. Add to that some Jr. High activities, the congestion is unavoidable. If we want to be supportive of these extra-curricular activities, then we must show some understanding of everyone's needs and not be too quick to accuse or judge.

I believe, Mr. Stackhouse, you owe the band director a public apology.

Sue Pyle

Who's Who in Akron

Dick Drudge Accomplished Woodworker

Akron resident, Dick Drudge is a woodworker of the highest caliber. He makes everything from spice racks and moving wooden yard ornaments to fine handcrafted walnut and white oak furniture.

Dick first worked with wood while attending Akron High School where he took Manual Training and Mechanical Drawing classes. But it was after retiring, in 1976, from Standard Oil Company having served as an agent for 27 years, that Dick finally had the time to perfect his craft.

His first projects were fairly simple pine medicine chests and work benches. Then one day his wife, Mary, showed him a picture of a large hutch with glass doors and asked, "Could you build something like this?"

"Why sure," Dick replied, with all the confidence in the world. Then he sat down with the picture and tried to figure out how to do it. After studying the photo, Dick drew up blue prints for a similar hutch that would fit the available space in their kitchen and went to work. The project took from the fall of one year through the spring of the next to complete. The finished white oak piece measures over seven feet tall and is truly beautiful. The top part contains oak shelves in front of a mirrored back and behind two glass paneled doors. The middle part has a fold down desk with cubby holes and a small drawer and the bottom has three large drawers. Dick's version puts the one in the catalog to shame. The hardest part of the job, according to Dick was counter sinking the glass for the doors.

The projects Dick is the proudest of are the rocking baby cribs he is making for each of his grandchildren, to use for their children. Also made of white oak, the spindled cribs are suspended between two pedestals and stand about four feet high. They are made to fit a standard 18"x36" baby mattress. Dick also designed the plans for the cribs after being inspired by another photo in a magazine. So far he has completed three of the cribs.

"It's quite a challenge when someone hands you a picture and says 'Can you build this?'," Dick says. Obviously Dick likes a challenge.

Originally Dick worked in his basement, but the sawdust became a problem in the house. So in the early 1980's, Dick partitioned off half of his garage and made a workshop to house his hand saw, joiner and planer, router and other power and hand tools. He does most of his work in the mornings.

Although working with pine is easier, Dick prefers to make his furniture from hardwoods. The white oak is acquired through a local lumber company. The beautifully grained walnut Dick uses comes from a woods near Moline, IL owned by Mary's brother and former Akron resident, Donald Lukens. The walnut trees were felled by Don and then turned into lumber with a portable saw mill. Dick has turned the walnut lumber into a finely crafted entertainment center, a bookcase and several letter holders.

Besides the items already mentioned, Dick has made several rocking chairs and tete-a-tetes (two chairs, with a table between) to be used as porch furniture, piano benches, doll cradles, shadow box shelves, 'tater' boxes with separate onion compartments and a microwave cabinet. In fact, he has completed well over a hundred items for himself, family and friends.

Although Dick does sell pieces and does some custom work for other people, the biggest share of his projects end up as gifts for his daughters and daughters-in-law.

Dick and Mary were married 12 years ago and their combined family consists of six children, 21 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Dick's daughter, Diane Medley, lives in Ocean Springs, Mississippi; his son, Dennis, lives in Monticello and Charles lives in Akron. Mary has three daughters: Patricia Goshert, in Warsaw; Diane Zolman, Mishawaka and Peggy Gilger, McHenry, IL.

Dick and Mary will be leaving soon to spend their winter months in Florida, as they have for the last three years. They have a 35 foot trailer that they stay in at Highland Wheels Park, near Sebring, FL. In Florida, Dick is a member of the park's Kitchen Band. The group performs at the Ag-Center and various rec. halls in the area, making music using kitchen utensils as instruments. They gave 13 performances last year, one of which was at the Annual Fulton County Breakfast. This is an event where residents of Fulton County, IN, who spend their winters in Florida, all get together for breakfast. Last year there were 253 in attendance. In fact, there are four other couples from Akron, who stay in the same park as the Drudges.

Dick is also an accomplished horse shoe pitcher and has won several tournaments in Florida. He also pitched in the '85 World Tournament in Lafayette.

In addition to his woodworking, Dick has also remodeled his home, turning a basement coal bin into a bathroom and converting what was once a wood shed into a lovely bedroom. He has also helped several friends with remodeling projects.

The only problem Dick has with his woodworking is keeping enough time for his own projects. His fine reputation causes him to get a lot of requests to build items for other people. "Once word gets out, someone is always wanting you to make them something," says Dick. "The first thing they always say is 'it's not a big job,'" he adds with a chuckle.

It's obvious, though, that Dick is proud of his talent and rightly so. "I don't want my arm to get sore from patting myself on the back," he says, "But maybe I am handier at this stuff than I thought I was."

That is quite an understatement, as a good look at any of Dick's projects will prove.

Some of Dick's other projects are displayed above in his workshop. In front is one of three oak cribs he has completed and behind are walnut letter holders and a 'tater' box. (News Photo).

New books at the Akron Public Library

Jim Craig's Battle For Black Rock, by Ralph Connor--This Stories of Yesteryear is a series of novels which goes back to nostalgic times of bygone years--times which, if not easier, somehow yet seem less complex, even with their hardships, than these present years.

Valiant Bride, book 1; Ransomed Bride, book 2; Fortune's Bride, book 3, of the Brides of Montclair Series, by Jane Peart. A historical family saga of enduring beauty.

Thomas Skyler, Foothills Preacher, by Ralph Connor--Another story of the Yesteryear series.

Jewel Of Promise, by Marian Wells--A novel concerning the Civil War; the 4th book in the Treasure Quest Series, of which we have the other three.

All Things Heal In Time, by Jeanette Gilge-Emma's constant struggle to keep her family fed and well in their rural Wisconsin community is complicated when the death of her daughter leaves her to raise her infant granddaughter.

Mark: Eyewitness, by Ellen Traylor--The story of the Church is Mark's story, however, for deeper reasons than politics and human history. The life of the Church is meant to be a life of usefulness, power and rest. Mark needed to learn this, as must we all.

Message From Nam, by Danielle Steel--In this monumental work about America's most recent past, Danielle Steel creates a powerful portrait of those who sent a Message From Nam. It is a message you will never forget.

The Women In His Life, by Barbar Taylor Bradford--An electrifying story of one remarkable man--and the women who have loved him. He is Maximilian West, billionaire tycoon and corporate raider extraordinaire, a living legend, blessed with irresistible charm to women. A new novel.

LET HALLOWEEN 'EVIL' REMIND US TO MEND OUR WAYS

One spooky night of every year
Some dressed-up figures will appear
With paper sacks, and then you'll hear
A knock upon your door.
Arrayed in costumes quite complete,
Or simply draped beneath a sheet,
Their voices holler, "Trick or treat!"
Just like in days of yore.
Now we outgrew those childhood days
And entered in another phase,
Where we adopted evil ways
That rules of faith deplore.
So let its lessons intervene
Against the evils of that scene,
That we'll recall when Halloween
Comes back again once more.

Four young men, three from Rochester and one from Culver, were injured in a one-car crash early Tuesday morning when the car in which they were riding went off Indiana 110 near Indiana 25. The driver of the car, Steven Purdue, 18, Rochester, was transferred from Woodlawn hospital to the Howard Community Hospital in Kokomo with multiple injuries. Skidding another 81 feet, it went end-over-end down an embankment and landed on its wheels. DeMarco extricated him self from the car and sought help from George Thompson who was at work in the state highway garage, located at the intersection of the two highways. Thompson and Darrell King of Mentone used a metal pipe to pry the car doors open and free the other three passengers. All the boys were enroute to work at Hales and Hunter. Roe had begun work there on Monday and the other three boys were to begin work on Tuesday.

Letters to the Editor

Editor's Note: The question had been raised in the community as to why the Viking Guard did not perform at the Festival of Champions. Director Pearson was contacted by The News and the following letter is in response to that question.

Dear Editor:

On Saturday, September 29th the TVHS Marching Band received a division II rating at the ISSMA District contest. The band missed qualifying for the Regionals by 4/10ths of a point! Everyone involved was very disappointed.

The band had already entered two contests to be held the following Saturday, and I decided to go ahead and compete in these events. As a band director, I felt it important the band not end their marching season on such a down note. As a teacher, I felt this was an opportunity for the kids to learn some very valuable lessons: (1) "Winners Never Quit and Quitters Never Win." (2) "Success Is An Attitude."

The band really pulled together. Most of the members remained highly motivated and continued to work very hard. That Saturday the band's score jumped an amazing 12 points, and we beat three of the bands who had qualified for the Regionals! Many directors commented they didn't see how we could have missed a 1st rating at District. They also asked how in the world we kept the kids motivated enough to work another week.

I was very proud of my kids. Many of the students now felt exonerated. This was to be the high point of the band's season. This excellent showing provided a sense of closure - a "completeness" to the Viking Guard's 1990 marching season.

We all have high expectations for the Viking Guard. Last year the band gave 32 performances spread out over 11 months of the year. In addition, the Color Guard competed in 9 winter guard contests, winning the Class B State Championship, and individual members of the band participated in the District and State Solo & Ensemble contests and both the All State Concert and All State Marching Bands. All of these activities are educational and rewarding. Together they provide a well-rounded music education. The problem we face is "burn-out." In the fall, we have band members involved in Varsity Football, Tennis, Cross-Country, Swimming and Cheerleading. Several members have jobs and many also rank in the top 10% of their class. Over the past four years, two valedictorians and one salutatorian have been band members. All of this really makes one stop and re-evaluate the expectations we have for our students.

When and where the band is to perform is a decision that rests with the band director. In making such decisions I always consider the pros & cons of each situation. My main concern must be: What is best for the band and for the kids?

In regards to performing at the Festival of Champions, I felt strongly that the sacrifices the kids would have to make to perform - sacrifices such as an additional 10 hours of practice outdoors, and another Saturday of required attendance - far outweighed any benefits that could be gained. Many students were looking forward to working at the contest acting as hosts to the visiting schools, but as we found out with our first Festival in 1988, it is not possible in our situation for the students to work and give a quality performance at the conclusion of the show.

The Festival is an excellent fundraiser for the TVHS Band Boosters and we wish to continue to host it annually. (This year we had 11 bands totaling over 1600 students, and a paying audience of over 1000.) In order to have the bands return each year we must run a well organized contest. This year we used 43 adult workers including parents, grandparents, band alumni, band parent alumni and one of my own personal friends. We also relied heavily on the help of the band members, of which 33 worked. All of these people worked and we were still short-handed! Certainly the Festival would not have gone so well this year had we asked the band to perform.

Dear Editor:

In closing I apologize for the length of this letter, but, as you can see, this is a complicated matter, and I don't think anyone can appreciate my decision without knowing all the various factors. I stand by the decision I made, and fully believe that it was in the best interest of the Viking Guard and its members. Thanks.

TVHS/Winamac Sectional

by Billie Marshall
TVHS Reporter

The tension was on as sectional action took place between Tippy Valley and Winamac.

"It wasn't as much downfalls that caused us to lose the sectional, it was that Winamac had a good team," said Tippy Valley's head coach, Scott Bibler.

One of the things that coach Bibler plans to work on for next year is attitudes. He feels that losing is contagious and when you start to accept losing, then you start to become a loser.

Some of Valley's best players for the 1990-91 season were: Tim Sleeth, Ed Haines, Jeff Ellenwood, Mervin Jones, Tim Shoemaker, Dan Tucker, Jeff Gray, Tyson Silveus, David Sleeth, Greg Prater, Scott Johnson, Ben Baker, Pat Jamison, Ryan Bowers and Eric Secrest.

"I enjoyed my first year of coaching at TVHS because it was a very good year for building character and mental toughness," said Bibler.

As far as meeting goals for the year, Bibler felt that the team met some of their intended goals and they are still working on others.

"I will try to be a good motivator next year and to be positive with each individual so that we will have a better team next year," said coach Bibler.

"As far as the sectional is concerned, I really thought the kids played hard, especially in the second half," said Bibler.

The Vikings lost to Winamac in the sectional with a final score of 18-0.

Akron Business of the Week

Ray's Service

The service station at 121 E. Rochester Street in Akron, has been a part of owner Raymond Wood's life for as long as he can remember. Now known as Ray's Service, the business has been in operation since at least 1952. It was first owned by Ray's grandfather, Elwood Arthur and later his uncle, Harvey Arthur. Ray purchased the business, in partnership with his father, Richard Wood, four years ago. Mary Wood, Ray's mother, contributes to the family business by serving as the bookkeeper.

The station, which carries Sunoco products, is open from 7:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. weekdays and from 7:30 to 6:00 on Saturday. They are closed on Sundays.

Ray's Service still offers old fashioned full service, checking the oil and tires and washing the windows, in addition to self-service pumps. But Ray says his gasoline is about 80% self-service "until it rains."

Gasoline sales only account for about one quarter of Ray's business. The rest comes from the garage and mechanical repair portion of the business. According to Ray, "If we had to rely on the gas we'd have closed years ago."

The garage offers complete engine rebuilding and repair, tire repair and balancing, brake and exhaust work for automobiles as well as heavy trucks and tractors. One part of the large, modern garage is specially constructed to accommodate semi trucks. Besides Richard and Ray, who are both experienced mechanics, the station also employs Arthur Norman. All three mechanics are certified through the nation wide ASE (Automotive Service Excellence) program and frequently attend manufacturers seminars. They recently attended a seminar on the latest thing in cars, electronic mufflers. The garage is always quite busy, but Ray takes his commitment to service seriously. If a customer has an emergency, such as a broken belt or a flat tire, he'll get their car right in. The garage stocks Cooper, Goodyear and Armstrong tires, but can order any brand. Ray's also sells batteries and over the counter parts for the "do-it-yourselfers."

The newest feature added to the garage is four wheel alignment. In order for the newer front wheel drive cars to handle properly and get proper gas mileage, all four wheels must be aligned instead of just the front end, as on older cars. This requires special equipment. Ray recently purchased an FM 9909 Visualiner computerized alignment machine. This state of the art computer allows Ray to offer a service not available at many garages. And according to Ray, he is less expensive on this service than garages in Rochester and Warsaw.

The garage can handle any aspect of auto repair. "Everything to do with a car, we do it!" says Ray proudly.

The recent increases in gas prices have hit service stations hard. People frequently complain about the high prices. "A lot of people think it's all us," says Ray. "But it's not. We don't have anything to do with the price of gas." Each load the station gets costs more than the last load. Sometimes, Ray is selling gas in the afternoon, for less than he paid for it that morning. The diesel and kerosene the station sells have already gone up 50% and will probably reach $2.00 a gallon. Ray predicts that soon, though, the prices will begin to level off.

Another problem facing service stations is the high cost of disposing of used oil, antifreeze, batteries, old tires and soiled shop rags. These items were once just dumped or burned, but the environment can no longer tolerate this, and the laws have changed. These items must now all be disposed of through a licensed hauler. It costs Ray $25 for each 55 gallon drum of used oil that he disposes of. Ray's Service has met all the requirements of the new laws concerning underground tanks. However, in the future, all service stations will have to carry special insurance to cover the possibility of spills or leaks. Ray thinks before long service stations will be forced to charge an environmental surcharge to help offset these expenses.

Ray's Service is also a Hoosier Lottery outlet. They carry Lotto America in addition to Lotto, Daily and scratch off games.

Ray grew up in Akron and served in the instruction battalion of the Navy after graduation. He worked as a timber cutter for Pike Lumber Company before buying the service station. Ray has been married for two years to the former Jill Fites. Jill, who studied chemistry for six years at Indiana University, is employed by Torx in Rochester. After their marriage, Ray and Jill built a new home at Savatowla Acres (also known as Town Lake) and they have been spending quite a bit of their free time working on the house and landscaping their yard.

Ray also enjoys hunting, both with gun and bow, and fishing. He gets a deer every year but hasn't been successful so far this bow season.

By keeping up with the many changes in automotive care and purchasing the necessary new equipment, Ray is confident that his business will remain good in the future. He credits his many faithful customers with keeping the station "real busy."

With the cold, hard winter that is being predicted, Ray would like to remind people to begin getting their cars ready now, to avoid the rush later. Antifreeze may need added or changed and batteries should be checked. It is also time to start thinking about snow tires. Ray's Service can help with all of your winterization or other car care needs.

PSI approves Environmental Charter

PSI Resources' board of directors, adopted at 10-point Environmental Charter formally recognizing the company's obligation to do business in an environmentally responsible manner.

"We believe that we're the first U.S. electric utility to have an Environmental Charter endorsed at the highest level of its organization; the board," Rogers said. "Our charter says to our employees, customers and those we do business with that being a good environmental steward is a top priority in everything we do."

To develop its charter, PSI Resources formed an environmental advisory council. Participants included Indiana leaders from state government, business, labor and the environmental movement.

"Their insight and guidance was a tremendous help in developing the charter," Rogers noted. "It formally recognizes several practices we already do and accurately reflects our corporate attitude on environmental issues. The advisory council's input will also be evident in our one-, three-, and five-year environmental stewardship plans, now being finalized." Among other things, the charter pledges that PSI Resources and its subsidiaries will incorporate environmental considerations in business planning and make environmental responsibility and innovation a guideline for measuring employee performance. The charter also says that these companies will pursue methods to prevent pollution and conserve raw materials through recycling and promoting the efficient use of energy.

Who's Who in Mentone

John Hart, of Mentone, in his Kosciusko County Deputy uniform. John says he's thankful Mentone gave him the opportunity to get started in law enforcement.

John Hart

by Leafy Hudson

Kosciusko County Sheriff Deputy John Hart, a native of Mentone, has always wanted to be in law enforcement. He has been able to see his dream come true.

Attending Mentone School all twelve years, where he excelled in High School Track and Cross Country, John was a member of Mentone High School's last graduating class in 1974.

Following graduation, his first job was in his father's business, Hart and Sons Contractors. During that time, about 1977, he became involved in the Sheriff's Reserve, a Kosciusko County Sheriff Department volunteer agency—for which he is now a coordinator.

It was a Mentone Town Marshall, Earl Beattie, who gave John his first opportunity to work in law enforcement. He offered John a part-time position as his assistant. John gladly took it. Then, when Beattie left for Idaho, in 1979, where he is a policeman now, John became Mentone's full time Town Marshall. He held that position for five and one half years.

Feeling a financial "crunch", with a growing family, John left his Town Marshall's position in 1984 to accept a job with Niff-Tone south of Mentone.

Having previously applied for work with the County Sheriff's Department, he accepted the offer of a deputy position in 1987.

John describes the main purpose of a deputy as, "to serve the county court system, to serve subpoenas, warrants, citations, orders for payment, divorce papers, and restraining orders." But, in reality, he gets involved in much more than that.

Even the tame sounding duties just mentioned can be interesting. Subpoenas, for instance, must be delivered personally. He remembers one instance when the gentleman being subpoenaed refused to accept it. John says, "I left it on the counter top."

John gets involved with many accidents, problems caused by drunkenness, and even drug raids. He notes it was "an eye-opener" going from a small town marshall's job to being a deputy. "It's a lot more dangerous working for the County," he notes. "There are lots of drugs, heavy vandalism and drunks are always unpredictable."

There are 1300 miles of roads in Kosciusko County to be patrolled. There sometimes used to be only one officer on duty at night in the whole County. He would sometimes have to rush as far as from Syracuse to Sidney to investigate accidents or other problems. Five additional deputies were added the first of 1990, and there are now three deputies on duty at all times. John says that really helps.

In dealing with drunkenness, John never knows what to expect. Those involved are very emotional. They may cry one minute and laugh the next. It keeps him on his toes!

John notes the drug problem has worsened since he started with the Sheriff's Department. It involves all ages and all professions. Many times the people arrested are people one would never expect to be involved.

Although John is not a member of the County Drug Task Force, he helps in drug raids. He says they often anticipate problems on those occasions, but so far they've all turned out quite well.

"It makes me feel good," he says, "To get the criminal off the streets and know that he can no longer deal in marijuana, acid, cocaine or other substances."

But the final outcome is often far from satisfying. When a crime is solved, it is turned over to the courts and probation departments to decide on punishment. "A lot of times, not just the arresting officer, but the public in general is disappointed because sentences are not strong enough."

He adds, "When the crime is solved, there are those who say, 'thank you,' and those who complain because we don't do more."

A lot patience is required in a deputy's job. An investigation can sometimes take months before the crime is solved. Some crimes are never solved. He details the progression for a burglary he did solve in a short time. He had gathered evidence at the scene of the crime, compared notes with the Warsaw Police Department, and was able to get information from another person. For the "clinch," the suspect had the instrument used in the crime in his possession.

One of the satisfactions of John's job is in helping people. For example, one day, when he was working an accident, a man came up to him and asked John if he remembered him. John didn't. He said, "You came to our house when we called the police one night because we were having trouble. You took time to talk to my wife and me and recommended we get counselling. You told us we both needed to change. Your advice helped us both. I just want to thank you."

John works a variety of shifts. On some shifts, he hardly sees his wife, Becky, who works nine to five at Mentone Egg Products, and daughters, Carmen, twelve, and Shelley, eight. But Becky agrees with John that they cope with his changing schedule very well.

John was honored in 1984 by Warsaw's VFW Post 1126. They named him Policeman of the Year. Both John and Becky were very surprised and thrilled. His father, Russell Hart, his deputy in Mentone at the time, had nominated him without his knowledge. Becky says, "I thought he deserved it. He had done a lot of investigating to solve burglaries and vandalism in Mentone. He was very devoted. He didn't put on the uniform to play God, but to serve people. I've always been proud of him."

John has also served as a Mentone Volunteer Fireman for ten years. He holds the rank of Lieutenant. He was named 1988 Mentone Fireman of the Year. He says he sleeps "when he gets a chance!"

John and Becky, from Rochester, met at a ballgame at Mentone when they were sophomores. They began dating then, and married soon after graduation.

In spite of their difficult schedules, the Hart family pursues a variety of interests.

John and Becky enjoy golfing together, but, while Becky's pretty good, John's "just a beginner." Becky golfed in high school.

John has worked at becoming a licensed pilot and hopes to complete it someday. He's completed ground school and has done his short cross country solo. He got a thrill this summer when the family attended the South Bend Air Show. They walked through a B17, one that had been used to fly a U.S. President and was down in the movie, Tora, Tora, Tora. John notes he had previously assembled a model B17.

Shelley is outgoing and likes to play baseball and basketball, but John and Becky describe Carmen as shy. Just recently she's expressed a desire to play basketball or be a cheerleader. She is learning to play the trumpet. "At last," John laughs, "she's found homework I can help her with!" He remembers his trumpet playing days in Mentone High School Band, and looks forward to getting one for himself again, so they can play duets.

John says he's glad he went into police work, although it usurps a lot of his family's time, and causes much stress for him. He likes to help people and says "accidents and family fights affect him. But, I would do it over again."

Becky says, "A wife must be understanding of things a policeman goes through, especially when he has to draw his gun."

John adds, "I'm thankful Mentone gave me the opportunity to get started in law enforcement."

Popcorn was one of the treats enjoyed by the American colonists at their first Thanksgiving dinner. It was offered by Quadequina, brother of the Indian Massasoit.

Watch for Deer

Fall is the time for Hoosier motorists to be especially alert for deer along Indiana roadways, according to Jim Mitchell, the Department of Natural Resources deer management biologist.

Mitchell reports that almost one-half of each year's deer-vehicle accidents occur in October, November and December. Deer movement increases during the fall breeding season. Deer are most vulnerable to vehicles in November, and one-quarter of the year's deer-vehicle accidents occur during this month. Indiana's deer vehicle collision rate has remained constant for the last three years at one accident per 5 million miles traveled.

The frequency of deer-vehicle accidents depends on local deer populations and amount of traffic on area roads. Motorists on heavily traveled roads in good deer habitat may encounter more deer.

Mitchell cautions motorists to watch for deer between dusk and 9 p.m. and in the early morning hours before sunrise, periods when most accidents occur.

Although most Hoosiers will never be involved in a deer-vehicle accident, the DNR has tips for drivers who travel in areas where deer are numerous:

- When traffic conditions permit, use highbeam headlights to help spot deer along roadsides. Passengers can help the driver watch for deer.

- Slow down when deer are seen along the road. Sounding the horn or blinking the headlights may scare the animals away from the roadside.

- If a single deer is seen crossing the road, be alert for other deer which may be following.

- If a collision is unavoidable, try to keep the vehicle in the proper lane. Swerving to avoid deer is not recommended, because it can result in loss of vehicle control or collision with other vehicles, trees or roadside structures.

DNR wildlife personnel evaluate deer-vehicle accidents each year when formulating deer harvest recommendations. Efforts are made to minimize accidents by maintaining deer populations in each county at moderate levels.

From the Editor's Desk

Today many of you may be reading The News for the first time and hopefully enjoying what you are reading. We have sent out a sample copy to every home in the Akron, Burket, Claypool and Mentone areas this week.

We have recently made many changes in the format of our weekly community paper. We have added Jerry and Leafy Hudson as our Mentone correspondents, Tonya Weller as our Akron feature writer and Billie Marshall as our T.V.H.S. reporter. New stories that are featured each week are Who's Who, Business of the Week, T.V.H.S. Viking of the Week and Academic Student of the Week which are chosen by counselors and coaches at the high school. Our Community Corner on front page enables folks in the community to send in any announcements they would like the public to be aware of and much more.

As Editor of The News I encourage everyone to get involved in their hometown paper. If you are at a special event, call the office and tell us about it or if you have a picture or something special drop it off and we'll be more than glad to run it and a story about it. We want to share your good news with everyone.

We are in need of more recipes, if you have a favorite recipe drop it off and share it with all of us.

I can relate to how S.N. Shesler felt a hundred years ago when he put out his very first Akron newspaper, he said he was very nervous, he wasn't sure if people would like the paper and his ideas on what should go into it. Many, long hours go into The News each week and you are never sure if you are writing about the right things or if your giving people what they want to read. With the recent changes we have made here at The News I think we are on the right track and encourage any suggestions folks might have.

We will be having a special for the next two weeks. Thirteen weeks of The News for $2.00. See the ad at right for more information on this great special.

In regional action, the girls placed 5th.

Tennis season ends

The Tippecanoe Valley Boys Tennis team has ended its 1990-91 season.

"The two most satisfying victories were over Rochester and LaVille. They were both close matches, but the team came from behind to win," said Coach Hamman.

A banquet was held October 8 at Teel's Restaurant in Mentone. Awards were as follows: Captains: Keith Ruberg and Shane Gamble; Most Improved: J.V.-Craig Broyette, Varsity-Josh Smithson; Best Record: Shane Gamble with 9-5; Hustle Record: Todd Brooks.

"All the seniors had winning records, and they all led the way for the Varsity. If the underclassmen continue to work and put in time, we will be all that much better next year," said Coach Hamman. The tennis team did not make it to sectional, they were beat by Warsaw.

The Varsity team ended its season with a record of 3-6, while the JV ended its season with a record of 4-4.

Scenes Around Town

by Leafy Hudson

Do you love to walk through the crispy, crunchy leaves and see the glowing trees dressed in glorious reds and yellows as much as I do? It heralds my favorite time of year, Autumn, looking forward to the coming winter. But, another harbinger of winter ahead leaves me a little sad. Dean and Helen Meyer pulled out Wednesday morning for their winter home in Avon Park, Florida. They will visit their kids, Dennis and Helen and family, in Florence, Kentucky, on the way. Helen told us that Russell and Leona Eber have already been gone a week to their winter home in St. Petersburg, Florida. Others of our friends will soon follow. Let's all wish them a good winter and a quick and safe return!

We attended the annual Chamber of Commerce dinner at Teel's the other night. It was fun, as always.

Orabelle Meredith presided over the evening for President Ron Secrist, who is under the weather. Other board members this past year who did a fine job were: Nikki Norris, Jerry Secrist, Jerry Gross, Karen Francis, Gail Law, Rita Simpson and Darrell King. Karen, Orabelle and Jerry Gross received plaques of appreciation because they've "served their time," and are going off the board. New members are Meloday Craig, Deb Baumgartner and me.

Emma Zolman was honored for the many early hours she puts in at the Mentone Fair Stand and Jim and Lori Miller were honored for fulfilling the grueling job of fair stand buyers.

Beautiful planter door prizes, donated by Boggs and Nelson Agency, King Memorial Home and Lake City Bank, were won by three lucky people, Linda Montel, Bill Ettinger and Chet Smith.

Tonya Stavedahl highlighted the evening by singing to us.

Scheerer Insurance to represent AllState

Scheerer Insurance Agency, a multi-line property and casualty insurance agency since 1973, with offices in North Manchester and Mentone, has contracted with Allstate Insurance Companies to offer Allstate policies and related services from the North Manchester and Mentone offices. According to David Hanna, Independent Agency Manager for Allstate in Indianapolis, Indiana, "Allstate Insurance adds a national company with a Best's A+ rating to a select number of independent agencies in Indiana. The Scheerer Agency with its experienced staff, is the type of agency that Allstate chooses to appoint in communities without representatives."

The Scheerer Insurance Agency, serving North Manchester and Mentone for many years, will continue all contracts with its existing regional insurance companies. According to George Scheerer, owner of the agency, adding the new affiliation of Allstate to their existing companies will allow Scheerer agents a greater opportunity to serve area auto, homeowner and substandard automobile needs. In the next few months, the North Manchester office will be supplied with an on-line computer to provide direct correspondence with the central Allstate terminal for quotations, applications, policy changes, and policy service information. The Scheerer Agency will sell and service any Allstate product. The Scheerer Insurance Agency is a member of the Independent Agents of Indiana.

Kerry Waymire receives Quality Improvement Award

Kerry Waymire, senior electromechanical development technician for FMS software, is invaluable in our ongoing quest to produce software of the highest possible quality. Financial quantification of his contribution to quality is impossible because Kerry has been a quality standard bearer in FMS for many years, since before "quality" became a buzz-word, since the prior charting of PONC, etc. It would be hard to conceive of trying to produce quality software without the steady assurance that comes with knowing that the support equipment and contracts are always in order, that needed components, boards and so forth will be scrounged and prototypes built at a moment's notice, and that even mundane tasks like providing endless sets of EPROMs will be handled as "quality-critical."

"Yet we frequently take all of this for granted, tacitly assuming that Kerry will be able to bail us out of or keep us out of troubles. And he does all of this and innumerable other tasks in support of two departments, quietly working behind the scenes, never compromising his high quality standards."

Kerry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Waymire, of Akron, and is a graduate of Tippecanoe Valley High School.

School Pictures

The students of Akron Jr. High have adopted "Fly the Friendly Skies" as their motto. To expand on the theme of friendship the student council is starting a new program called "Best Friends." Each week a student will nominate his or her best friend for the honor.

This week Bethany McFarland has selected her best friend, Casey Pontious. Both girls are eighth grade students at Akron.

Casey was born on January 13, 1977 and feels the best thing about school is the friends. Bethany lists Casey's favorite T.V. show as Dick Van Dyke, her favorite group as Aerosmith, her favorite song as "Wait" and her favorite color as navy.

Besides being cute Casey would want a boy to have a good sense of humor, a nice personality, to not be shy and to be intelligent before she would want to date him. She would also want him to have a nice bod!

According to Bethany if Casey had a magic wand she would change the name of "The Cosby Show" to "The Huxtable Show."

Mrs. Rock's 4th grade class performed the play "No Choice But Peace." The play is set in the 1790's when Americans were moving into the Indian territory of Indiana. Little Turtle, a wise Miami Chief, tried to persuade his warriors not to fight Anthony Wayne's army. The Miami's chose a new chief and went to battle. They were defeated at the Battle of Fallen Timbers. When he signed the peace treaty Little Turtle said, "I am the last to sign it, and I'll be the last to break it," and he never broke the treaty.

The boys in Mrs. Rock's class memorized their parts. The girls made the scenery and were the squaws in the village.

Mentone School spent last week celebrating Red Ribbon Week. As a part of the celebration Junior High students would be allowed to throw pies in five teachers faces if 80% of them signed pledge cards not to use drugs. The whole school had an extremely good time last Friday, as the Junior High Students did make the 80%. The lucky teachers with pie on their faces were Mr. Landis, Mr. Eaton, Mr. Hoyt, Mr. Pratt and Mr. See.

Mrs. Ryman's first grade class is shown with their awards for good behavior. Mrs. Ryman commented, "Where ever my class goes, they always are complimented on how well behaved they are." (News Photo).

Potential earthquakes and Hoosier schools

Indianapolis--The Indiana Department of Education (DOE), as well as the State Emergency Management Agency, has been fielding telephone inquiries in regard to whether or not schools should close in response to predictions by an Arizona climatologist that a major earthquake will strike the New Madrid Fault on Monday, December 3.

"Whether schools should close on December 3 is not a decision the Indiana Department of Education should be making," said Dr. Evans. "It is not within our jurisdiction, and frankly, I don't believe it should be. The decision to close schools, either because of inclement weather or a perceived danger due to earthquakes, is one that must be made at the local level. Obviously, if an earthquake were to strike the New Madrid Fault on that day or any other day, the consequences, according to a climatologist, would be more severe for Evansville than for South Bend. Such local factors have to be taken into consideration."

If it is determined locally to delay, dismiss or cancel instructional time, that time must be rescheduled or a waiver of the financial penalty must be requested from the Indiana Department of Education. Thus school districts should expect such decisions to be treated as a weather-related emergency.

Dr. Evans added, however, that while the department does not instruct schools when they should or should not close due to predictions of this nature, the DOE is encouraging all schools to be prepared for potential earthquakes every day, rather than basing decisions on predictions.

"Perhaps Dr. Iben Browning has done us a favor," said Dr. Evans about the climatologist responsible for the December prediction. "If his predictions cause us to think even more about disaster planning and actually implementing a response plan, then this cloud does have a silver lining."

According to Dr. Evans, the DOE provided Indiana's 296 school corporations with a copy of the Guidebook for Developing a School Earthquake Safety Program in 1987. The guidebook, developed by the Federal Emergency Management Agency, is designed to serve as an aid for developing plans to avoid or reduce the adverse consequences of an earthquake. Topics covered by the manual include how to identify hazards in the classroom, conducting earthquake drills, response priorities following an actual earthquake, communication needs and post-earthquake shelter planning.

41st Christmas Gift and Hobby Show opens

Indianapolis--The 41st Annual Original Christmas Gift and Hobby Show opens Saturday, November 3, at the Indiana State Fairgrounds Exposition Hall. This year's theme is "Fly into the 90's" and the show will feature airplanes by the Hamilton County Radio Controlled Modelers.

There will be over 260 selling booths at the show, which is the largest of its kind in the Midwest. Visitors can shop for products and services ranging from the traditional to the latest in high tech. New products this year include hot tubs, environmental gifts, children's products, beverage makers and Sante Fe art and pottery.

As always, there will be entertainment (this year from the Indianapolis Department of Parks & Recreation) and daily demonstrations and seminars by the exhibitors.

There will also be a variety of holiday cooking seminars by various Indiana Commodity Groups and appearances by Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus for photos with the children.

Another new feature of this year's show will be prize drawings. Visitors can win a car or truck from Blossom Chevrolet and American Trans Air is giving away two memberships in Ambassador and two tickets to Orlando.

Marsh Supermarkets will be giving away two turkeys daily.

One of Indiana's favorite holiday traditions continues, and continues to improve, with this year's Christmas Gift & Hobby Show.

Parking is free and lighted, the famous red carpeted aisles will return and there will be a cafeteria with a view of the festivities. Once again, the show is a classic family event.

LET US HELP THE LIVES THEY WERE PREPARED TO GIVE

They fought for us; the battle's done,
And freedom is the prize they've won.
Their heroism was revealed
On every foreign battlefield,
And even when there was no war,
Their mission on some far-off shore
Was dangerous, and our concern
Was always for their safe return,
For which we'd go each Sabbath day,
According to our faith, and pray;
But now they're home, and we must show
Our gratitude for what we owe
The lives they were prepared to give,
So that the rest of us could live
The way our founding fathers planned:
In liberty throughout our land.
