School board cuts rate 27 cents

A standing room only crowd attended Thursday night's budget meeting, and heard members of the Tippecanoe Valley School board of trustees cut 27 cents from the advertised 1972 tax rate of $5.17.

The cuts came after a period of audience participation during which Richard Manwaring, on behalf of a group of TVSC taxpayers, criticized board action in spending money "to confuse the public" and objected to the use of tax money to provide legal coverage for board actions. He said petty politics had caused many problems in the area, creating dissension between towns. Saying times change and that as reasonable men they could make reasonable decisions, he asked the board to consolidate Akron and Mentone high schools at Mentone until the long-range needs of the corporation could be determined.

James Goshert objected to the increase in the budget, saying he felt if the area's income was down, expenses should be adjusted accordingly. He had asked Superintendent Robert Forbes about money left over in the budget and had been told there was little left as the corporation had a bad adjustment factor.

James Manwaring asked about $100,000 appropriated for construction, saying Dr. John McKee, in placing that amount in the budget had specified that it be for shower rooms at Akron. Dr. McKee said that he had also stated there was probably work that needed to be done at Mentone of which he was unaware and Philip Lash, said anyone who had been in the shower rooms at either school would be ashamed of them.

GETTING AWAY FROM IT ALL, 1971, fashion is the Charles Morey family of Ontario, Canada. The family stopped in the Akron area Wednesday afternoon enroute to California and possibly a trip around the world. They left their home in southern Ontario six weeks ago and have already developed a fuller appreciation of what pioneers, experienced, although it must be said their sturdy wagon boasts things pioneers never heard of, such as hot plate and refrigerator. Family members include the father, Charles; mother, Robbin; daughter, Adrienne; sons, Dustan, Scott, Taylor and Drew. Roger Sleight is in charge of the horses, Dick and Prince. The family dog is Gretchen. The picture here is, one of a series being sold by the family. The wagon has been modernized since the picture was taken, and it now has rubber tires.

Akron library remodeling is completed

The Akron Carnegie Public Library has recently been remodeled and redecorated. All of the windows were replaced with glass block and some of the windows were closed on the inside to make more room for shelving and books. A new display case was added and the walls were painted light gold.

Enhancing the more modern and attractive interior are several paintings by local artists.

The Akron Library has much to offer the community. The library has 17,388 volumes and over 200 records. A microfilm reader was recently added and back issues of the Akron News are now on microfilm. Also on microfilm at the library are the 1840, 1850, 1860, 1870 and 1880 census reports for Fulton, Kosciusko, Miami, Wabash and other Indiana counties. These will provide valuable assistance for people doing genealogical research.

The library serves Akron, Henry Township,

Seward Township and Franklin Township. Anyone living in Fulton County also has access to the Akron Library through reciprocal borrowing. The library is open fifty hours per week.

Miss Velma Bright is the librarian, and Mrs. Paul Bowen is her assistant.

Members of the library board are Ernest Smith, president; Randall Leininger, vice president; Mrs. Ed Gray, secretary; Clair Ellis, treasurer; Mrs. Dean Rager, Mrs. Larry Wood and Harold Groninger.

Holloway Resigns

Clayton Holloway, Mentone clerk-treasurer, submitted his resignation at the town's tax hearing Monday night. The resignation, effective Aug. 31, will be acted on at the board's next regular session, September 13.

The budget was approved as advertised with a tax levy of $3.02, an increase from $1.87, last year's rate.

2113 enroll in TVSC

Tuesday was the first full day of school for 2,113 students enrolled in the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation.

This figure is down 34 students from the same date last year, the second consecutive year the TVSC enrollment has declined. Last year's enrollment was 73 less than the previous year, making a total decline of 107 pupils in the past two years.

Superintendent of Schools Robert Forbes said this is the smallest enrollment Tippecanoe Valley has had since 1967.

Enrollment at the various schools is: Talma, 276 with 73 in the sixth grade, 111 in the seventh grade and 92 in the eighth grade. Burket school had a total enrollment of 177, 30 in kindergarten, 29 in first grade, 24 in second grade, 27 in third grade, 31 in fourth grade and 36 in fifth grade. Mentone reported 653 students with 56 in kindergarten, 57 in first, 57 in second, 46 in third, 60 in fourth, 57 in fifth, 22 in sixth grade, 91 in ninth grade and 68 in the tenth grade, 70 in eleventh grade and 69 seniors. Akron elementary had 594 pupils with 70 in kindergarten, 81 in the first grade, 98 in second, 96 in third, 90 in fourth, 74 in fifth, 85 in sixth.

Akron High School had an enrollment of 413 with 82 in the seventh grade, 81 in the eighth and 77 in the ninth, 66 in the tenth, 53 in the eleventh and 54 in the twelfth.

The Superintendent's office reported that all schools appeared to start off in excellent shape with no particular overcrowding in any section and the start of school this particular year was probably as smooth as could be expected with all classes apparently functioning normally on the first regular day of school.

Akron GOP Picks Slate

Akron Republicans met in caucus Friday night to nominate a slate of officers for the town board in the fall election. Named to seek the post of clerk-treasurer was Mrs. Virginia York. Named for the town board were John Zimmerman, Ward 1; Ronald Fenimore, Ward 2, and Dr. Charles Miller, Ward 3.

Mentone Demos Pick Slate

Nominated for the office of clerk-treasurer was Marie Coleman.

Town board candidates named were Gene Hughes, first ward; Rodney Gible, second; and Conde Walburn, third ward.

Rochester police arrested two area men, Santush M. Lall, Akron, and Hubert D. Myer, Mentone, last week and cited them with speeding. Both will appear in city court Sept. 13.

AKRON LIBRARIAN Velma Bright demonstrates the use of the library's new microfilm reader. The library has the Akron News on microfilm as well as the census of a number of years as an aid to genealogists.

New Special Education Cooperative Formed To Include Warsaw, Lakeland, TVSC

During the 1971-72 school year, Lakeland, Tippecanoe Valley and the Warsaw Community School systems will have the services of a director of special education. Jointly, the three school corporations have employed Jack Cripe to assist in developing a comprehensive special education program that will eventually make available special programs and/or services to all exceptional children residing within the three school systems. This school year Mr. Cripe will concentrate on developing and updating records, will compile all necessary state reports, will provide psychological and consultative services to special and regular class teachers, and he will conduct necessary surveys for projecting future program needs for special education.

There are approximately 11,000 school age children within the three school corporations, and according to average projections 1200-1300 of these children will need special service from some facet of the special education program.

Currently, special education programs exist for mentally handicapped and speech disordered children. Eventually, as state laws are fulfilled, special programs and services will be provided for all eligible handicapped children. Most of the children will be served through special programs and services jointly financed by the three school corporations. However, in selected disability areas (physically handicapped, blind, deaf, and multiply handicapped) where there will not be enough students to permit the development of a comprehensive special education program for them, it will be necessary to cooperate with nearby special education programs, such as those located in Elkhart County, Starke-Marshall counties, Fort Wayne and So. Bend. The special education programs will be located in regular schools, with the children being integrated with regular classes whenever possible.

Mr. Cripe's office is located in the Administration Building of the Warsaw Community Schools and residents of the three school corporations who have questions about the new program are encouraged to call his office or to call the principals' or superintendent's office of their districts.

60 YEARS AGO

Our friend, Elias Leininger, north of town, came smiling into this office Tuesday with a nice basket of handsome peaches. They must have been "maiden blushes"—great big, rosy cheeked and juicy. Elias knows we need treating once in a while and is equal to the occasion. Mrs. Jasper Craig recently brought us a fine sample of plums as did also Joe Nicodemus at the same moment. We feel flattered at the good will our friends extend to us every week, in some useful and tangible way.

Messrs. Roy Morris and Loyd Achey, both young men of Miami County, have taken charge of the Palace livery barn here, having purchased the former proprietor's stock, horses, buggies, etc. These are earnest, honest, sober young men, full of push and pride. They inform us that no drunks nor blind tigers will be allowed on or in the premises and that children from the country going to school will not get into such company or under any damaging influences as blind tigers give, by patronizing this barn, leaving their rigs at this barn, but instead the young people will be courteously treated and every comfort and convenience extended possible. This is the line for young men to take who will win honor, and success by first winning favorable confidence of the public.

Lunch Policy Set By TVSC

T.V.S.C. today announced a free and reduced price lunch policy for Akron, Burket, Talma and Mentone school children unable to pay the full price.

Local school officials have adopted the following family size and income scale to assist them in determining eligibility.

Family Size	Income
One	$2,040
Two	2,670
Three	3,310
Four	3,940
Five	4,530
Six	5,110
Seven	5,640
Eight	6,170
Nine	6,650
Ten	7,120
Eleven	7,600
Twelve	8,080
Add'l. Family Members Add	480

Families falling within these scales or those suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships are urged to apply for free or reduced price lunches for their children. They may do so by filling in the application forms sent home in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. Applications may be submitted any time during the school year. The form itself is simple to complete and requests information needed to determine economic need based on the income and number of persons in the family and any unusual circumstances or hardships which affect the family's ability to pay for school lunches. The information provided on the application will be confidential and will be used only for the purposes of determining eligibility.

Under the provisions of the policy the Principal will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the local official he may make a request either orally or in writing for a hearing to appeal the decision. Robert Forbes, whose address is Supt. office, Mentone has been designated as the Hearing Official. Hearing procedures are outlined in the policy.

The policy also provides that there will be no identification of or discrimination against any student unable to pay the full cost of a lunch.

A complete copy of the policy is on file in each school and in the office of the Supt. where it may be reviewed by any interested patron.

Mentone P.O. Lobby Will Close Earlier

Due to an increase in vandalism at the Mentone postoffice, the lobby will be locked at 6 p.m. at the time the last employee leaves from now on, according to an announcement made this week by postmaster Kenneth Romine.

The lobby had in the past remained open until 7:45 p.m. in order to give patrons extra time to use their lock boxes.

School Board Cuts Rate

After questions by Forrest Miner concerning use of the additional $90,000 for maintenance, Dr. VanGilder asked Miner why the board could not invest money at the advertised rate, showing him a page newspaper advertisement. He was told that was banking business and should not be discussed at a budget hearing.

Virgil Doran asked if a basketball game had been scheduled between Akron and Mentone and was told there had not been. He said he objected to spending money on a building the rest of the corporation had no access to, saying he disliked the animosity between the schools. He said he felt if the curriculum was up to state standards there would be no need to transfer students between schools and ended by saying, "This set-up is so rotten it stinks."

Terry Walgamuth said he had seen the minutes of the last General Commission meeting and had noted transfers from all kinds of schools, including consolidated, indicating to him that consolidation was not the answer.

Harold Miller said he thought the cumulative building fund was quite a plaything since there was no long-range plan. Dr. Donald VanGilder answered Miller by saying the present school set-up is very good, the shop and building trades programs were second to none, vocational ag was coming, and until the voters changed the make-up of the school board there would continue to be schools at Akron and at Mentone. He said this board was not morally allowed to change their minds, the people were getting what they had voted for and if the board had not met resistance all the updating at Akron and Mentone could have been taken care of, the relocatables could have been eliminated and Talma could have been closed. He said Akron was lucky with a one-stop school while the north end had a three-stop set-up. He said the board had tried to get "get this thing in two centers" except for Burket, a desirable location for an elementary school. "We've been updating despite road blocks," he said.

Doran suggested if two schools were cheaper than one, five or six might be still cheaper, and the board went into a forty minute executive session, coming out to hear a series of motions including one by Richard Goshert to drop the rate $1 and one by VanGilder to eliminate the cumulative building fund. Goshert asked VanGilder why he didn't propose more tax relief by combining the schools and was told the question was entirely wrong and needed no answer.

Goshert moved to reduce the salary of the school nurse $3,000 but the motion failed to pass.

The board finally agreed to cut the instructional account by $28,000, to lower the amount for repairs from $100,000 to $80,000 and to cut $10,000 by deleting two buses proposed for purchase next year.

After adopting the budget, the board voted to purchase a lot from Mrs. Pearl Lackey that is located off SR 25 to be used by the building trades classes for the construction of a house.

Permission was granted Ernest Holcslaw, superintendent of No. Miami schools, to use bleachers from Akron for the football season.

Objection to the hiring of lay personnel if the piece freeze restricts old personnel to previous wage schedules was voiced by Dr. McKee. The meeting was adjourned with no action taken on this.

Mentone GOP Picks Fall Slate

Mentone Republicans caucused Friday night and selected Mrs. Lyman (Jenette) Mollenhour to seek the office of town clerk-treasurer.

All other candidates for the town board are incumbents, William Rathbun, from ward one; James Whetstone, from ward two; and Kenneth Bush from ward three.

Wayne Tombaugh was chairman of the meeting and Wm. Rathbun acted as secretary.

About half of high school graduates go on to college, and half of these drop out before completing any course of study.

Kosciusko Community Hospital Given Permission To Proceed With Plans For New Hospital

Kosciusko Community Hospital, Inc., a not-for-profit corporation, has been given permission to proceed with plans to construct a new 113-bed community hospital following formal action of the Hospital Authority of Kosciusko County last week.

The Authority, meeting in the commissioners' room at the courthouse, designated KCH as the participating hospital for Kosciusko County and moved to implement the KCH plan for construction of the $6.5 million facility.

Murphy Asks Re-Study Of Hospital Plan

A request for a 60-day continuance of the scheduled September 8 Hill-Burton fund hearing by the State Board of Health has been made by Murphy Medical Center in the hope that a single-hospital plan may be developed for Kosciusko county.

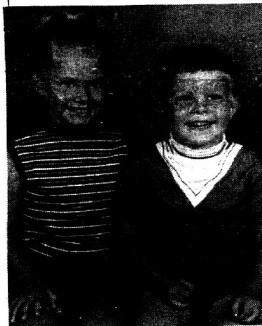

The petition was submitted Tuesday by Murphy attorney William S. Hall and asks that the hearing be continued and that a plan be developed to "bring about a unified effort to unite the community, using (not discarding) the existing hospital facilities to produce the one hospital concept."

The petition also asks that a plan be developed to employ an independent firm to conduct a cost study of the Murphy proposal and one to construct a new facility advanced by Kosciusko Community Hospital, Inc.

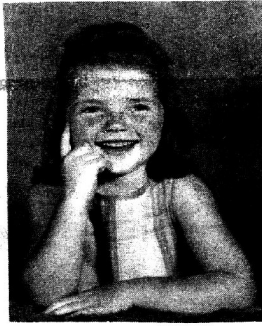

By formally recognizing KCH and accepting its construction proposal, the five-member authority rejected a proposal from Murphy Medical Center to purchase that existing facility for three and one-half million dollars and to construct an addition to the present complex that would increase its size to approximately 120 beds at a total expenditure of $6.7 million, which included the assumption of the existing mortgage of about $187,000.

The Authority was created by the county commissioners at the request of both KCH and Murphy officials under a new law passed by the recent General Assembly and includes Jerry Helvey, R. 1, Leesburg; Mrs. David (Carole) Delph, R. 1, Warsaw; Loren Miller, R. 2, Warsaw; Byron (Corky) Doran, Burket; and Dr. Wm. C. Parke, Warsaw, all appointed by Kosciusko Circuit Court Judge Gene B. Lee. Helvey is president of the group.

Tombaugh Attends Graduate Course

Judge Wendell C. Tombaugh of the Fulton Circuit Court has successfully completed a two-week graduate program at the National College of the State Judiciary in Reno, Nevada. The course, entitled "The Role of the Judge in the Trial of a Lawsuit," was held from Aug. 8 to Aug. 20.

The main objective of the program was increasing the awareness and sensitivity of each participant and widening his perspective of his role as a judge.

Topics dealt with included understanding minorities, methods of controlling backlog and delay, and the most effective means of verbal and non-verbal communications. The format included lectures, group discussions and role-playing.

Public Service Indiana Asks For Rate Review

Public Service Indiana asked Friday for a regulatory review of its electric rate structure and approval of its first increase in residential, commercial and industrial rates in 10 years.

The electric company, serving 450,000 customers in 69 counties, is asking the Public Service Commission of Indiana for approval to increase revenues by $18.4 million a year.

Carroll H. Blanchar, chairman of the electric company, said the proposed rate increases would average 11 percent. Until specific rate tariffs for all customer classes are filed within 30 days, however, it will not be possible to determine the impact of the request on individual bills.

Rate reductions during the past 10 years have resulted in annual savings of three million to residential, commercial and industrial customers of Public Service Indiana.

Blanchar said the request is being made because of the utility's urgent need for capital to continue its construction program to keep ahead of growing energy demands of the area and because the regulatory process requires many months.

He said the action does not conflict with the President's 90-day wage-price freeze since neither hearings nor any rate change could take effect before next year.

"With energy demands doubling every ten years we expect that our peak

Among the many prize winners at the recent Indiana State Fair were Maurice and Gary Lippy, R. 1, Silver Lake, Henry township residents, who showed the grand champion guernsey bull. They also showed the senior champion bull and garnered a host of other awards for their guernsey cattle.

A rural editor in Minnesota makes this pertinent observation: "Why is it? A man wakes up in the morning after sleeping on an advertised blanket, in an advertised pajamas. He will bathe in an advertised tub, wash with advertised soap, shave with an advertised razor, drink advertised coffee after his advertised juice, cereal and toast (toasted in his advertised toaster), put on advertised clothes and an advertised hat. He will ride to work in an advertised car, sit at an advertised desk, smoke advertised cigarettes and write with an advertised pen. Yet this man hesitates to advertise, saying that advertising does not pay. Finally, when his undervalued business goes under he will then advertise it for sale."

NEDERLAND, TEXAS, MID-COUNTY REVIEW: "For nearly 30 years, Uncle Sugar up Washington, D. C. way has tried to reduce farm output to certain levels---and has failed....For more than 40 years, the Russians have tried to raise farm output to certain levels, and have failed.... It just goes to show you that governments can't farm."

ODDS and ENDS

By Ann Sheetz

When your life settles into a drab month-in-month-out routine of get up, go to work, go home, cook, clean and scrub routine and the most exciting thing that happened all week was the unexpected matching of a pair of socks in your steadily growing odd-sock pile and the most fun thing you can recommend to your kids is making a batch of popcorn, it is time to do something.

Psychologists and a lot of other advice-givers suggest a mother's night out to get away from home and kids and to get a new outlook on life.

After a month of not matching a single sock, even the excitement of making popcorn couldn't break that bound-up in routine feeling and it was apparent the time had come. Three other mothers suffering similar feelings and I broke out of our cocoons and went to a Japanese restaurant for dinner. We would meet new people and forget our kids and housework for one night.

We were seated with a couple from Iowa, kindred spirits, free, they said, for a week-end without the kids. And, wasn't it true, they asked, that four and six-year olds were the worst? We debated the issue, each hating to agree that another age could be more difficult than that of our own children. Clearly, our night out was not off to a good start.

Only the arrival of our colorful waiter ended the discussion. Dressed in native Japanese fashion, a yellow chef's hat and matching scarf completing his ensemble, he held us spellbound while he prepared

If you think you're beaten, you are.
If you think you dare not, you don't.
If you'd like to win but think you can't
It's almost a cinch you won't.

If you think you'll lose you're lost
For out in this world we find Success begins with a fellow's will
It's all in the state of mind.

Many a race is lost
Before a step is run,
Many a coward fails
Before his work's begun.

Think big and your deed will grow,
Think small and you'll fall behind.
Think that you can and you will,
It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you're outclassed you are,
You have to think high to rise.
Your have to be sure of yourself
Before you'll win the prize.

Life's winnings don't always go
To the stronger or faster man
But sooner or later the fellow who wins
Is the fellow who thinks he can.

our meal in the middle of the table, which was constructed with wooden sides and a metal center. A gas burner under the center provided heat for cooking. With a flourish he tossed out shrimp and with a precise motion cut off the tails, pushed them into a pile and then halved the rest of the shrimp, cooked them lightly and placed them in our heated bowls. Just like me sorting socks, I thought, here a black one, there a blue one. I tried to push the thought from my mind. This was called getting away from it all, not thinking about it all the time.

Onions, bamboo shoots, bean sprouts, mushrooms and finally steak followed. If only I could do my housework with that much grace, I thought, dutifully clutching my chop sticks and hoping no one was watching while I tried to eat. First bite--success, then laughter all around. I was using them upside down. I never did get another bite to eat after they made me turn them over but the concentration pushed out thoughts of sorting socks until I finally sheepishly asked for a fork. The rice was much better with a fork than it appeared to be with chop sticks and though it made me think of bowls of popcorn, I tried to keep from wondering what the boys were doing for excitement while their mother took her night out.

As it turned out, the night out changed the direction of our lives. At least it added color. I brought the boys each a set of chopsticks and they have provided their own excitement by making popcorn almost every night so they can have something to eat with their chopsticks. The sight of those crazy kids eating popcorn with chopsticks while they watch television has brightened many a night of trying to match socks. And, would you believe it, on my very first attempt after our night out, I matched five pairs of socks, breaking my previous record of two and giving cause to believe there is something to be said for an occasional night out.

The kids agree. Seems they had a ball without mother here to yell at them. Besides, I think their chopsticks are wearing out from all that popcorn.

Fill your mouth with marbles and make a speech. Everyday, reduce the number of marbles in your mouth and make a speech. You will become an accredited public speaker--as soon as you have lost all your marbles.

The hour has struck, my smallest one
Is starting to school today
Trudging off with sturdy step
In quite a grown up way.

I wave a hand and try to smile,
It's nothing after all;
I tell myself I'm proud but yet
The traitor teardrops fall.

This will not do! I must not be
A sentimental fool
Across the land so many boys and girls
Are on their way to school.

It doesn't seem to help a bit
My tears will have their way!
My little child, my smallest one
Is starting school today.

Miss Debbie Strong commenced her work as teacher of music in the Mentone schools last Monday for the ensuing year. She will also teach in both the Sevastopool and Beaver Dam schools, filling the same positions she filled last year, which means that she was appreciated.

Mr. Bouslog and son of Peru and their automobile salesman were in Akron last Friday and called at this office in one of their famous Great Western autos. They graciously tendered this office force, compositors and all, a twirl in their car across the country with Mr. Bouslog Jr. at the steering wheel. We accepted as a matter of course. We never turn what we think is a good thing down. And the way we went was a caution. The great "40" fairly rode like a flying machine. Its smoothness on the roads, its great power, were easily noticeable even by a novice.

Anna Katherine McLaughlin, soprano, former instructor in the Conservatory of Music, New York City, and the Metropolitan School of Music, Indianapolis, will be in Akron early in September to organize a class in voice culture.

Last Friday evening Akron put up a delegation of nearly 300 people and sent them along with our Citizens band to Mentone to attend the grand old home coming at that place. The Winona furnished the transportation at 30 cents per round trip and almost everybody who could get away from home went on this occasion. The beautiful arches recently put up for their homecoming occasion made a brilliant effect and many a time did we hear someone say, "Wish Akron had arches too." There were five single arches across the streets and one double arch, erected at a cost of about $200, which was largely borne by donation. The extra cost of running the arches is $100 per year over the cost of the ordinary method.

We agree, Mr. President with your "belt-tightening" program.

Our retail electric rates will not be increased during 1971

...but, we're already at the last notch,

so we are asking for a review and our first retail rate increase in 10 years. Why now? A rate increase, as soon as it's in the public interest is the only way high standards of electric service can be maintained. There is no freeze on the use of electric power. (It doubles every ten years!) In the next six years alone, we must spend $621 million on new construction to keep up with demand. We're asking for a review now so that we won't be forced to delay planned construction and you won't be caught short on electricity. We're asking for a review now because rate studies and public hearings by regulatory agencies require many months to complete. We're asking for a review today so we'll be there when you flip the switch tomorrow.

News Of Interest To Homemakers

by Ann Hancock, Area Extension Agent
Kosciusko County

Now is the time to buy fresh produce and freeze it for use throughout the fall and winter. If you have the freezer space available, it is well worth your time and a real money saver to freeze produce. With wise use of your freezer there is no "out of season" for products from the garden and orchard.

Freezing is one of the simplest and least time consuming ways to preserve foods at home. It keeps the natural color, fresh flavor and nutritive values of most fruits and vegetables very well.

Some varieties of vegetables freeze better than others. Vegetables with high water content do not freeze well. This would include tomatoes, potatoes, lettuce, and celery. Cabbage will freeze in slaw if you follow a recipe specifically for freezing. (See recipe included in this column).

An important step in preparing vegetables for freezing is heating or "blanching" before packing. Practically every vegetable, except green pepper, maintains better quality in frozen storage if heated before packing. The reason for heating vegetables before freezing is that it slows down the action of the enzymes. If vegetables are not heated enough, the enzymes continue to be active and the vegetables may develop off-flavors, discolor or toughen. A good experiment to prove this point is to freeze a package of fresh green beans with no heat treatment and a package of blanched green beans on the same day. After a couple of months of storage cook the two packages and compare color, flavor and texture. The difference is quite noticeable.

For further help with home preservation of foods visit your County Extension Office.

FROZEN SLAW

1 medium cabbage, shredded, 1 carrot, grated, 1 green pepper, chopped, 1 tsp. salt. Mix salt with cabbage, let stand 1 hour. Squeeze out excess moisture. Add carrot and pepper. While cabbage is standing make the following dressing: 1 cup vinegar, 1/2 cup water, 1 tsp. whole mustard seed, 1 tsp. celery seed, 2 cups sugar. Combine ingredients, boil 1 minute. Cool to lukewarm, pour over slaw mixture, put into containers, cover and freeze. This thaw in just a few minutes for serving and leftover slaw can easily be refrozen.

They Call This Preaching

Thursday, 12 midnight. We shut the parsonage door. The last person had been sent on their way. Then to bed. The telephone rang at 2:15-the hospital calling saying "come at once." A baby was dying. It had not been baptised. To hospital, a little three pound baby in a special incubator. The nurse has the water ready. Baptise at 2:35 a.m. A few minutes talking to the parents, then home to bed at 3:15. The hospital calls again. The baby may live. To sleep, 6 a.m. The doorbell, a man is hungry. He has a job for the day but feels too weak to work without food. Fry bacon and eggs and fix a cup of coffee. He's gone, a lady comes, her boy is in jail. You will go with her to court 10 a.m. A funeral at 11. Just make it. Back five minutes to 12 noon. Three people waiting to see you. Noonday service at 12:15. Preach for 10 minutes a song. People want to talk. Senior Citizen meeting 1 p.m. They want you to go bowling with them. Then back for children's hour. 7:30 p.m. A family comes needing food. Boys wanting to play basketball on the side of the garage. Three meetings for tonight. Facing how we can raise enough money to see the church grow and go. The bulletins must be out. Ten calls to make, other contacts. Two calls wanting you to speak. A call for campmeeting. A church wants you to speak on inter-city work. A card from Aid to Community Service. Some traveling youth want to sleep in basement of church. They have sleeping bags. Youth meeting to get ready for. The sermon to get ready for Sunday morning and night. Discuss the outdoor scenery you are going to make. You get your dinner ready to eat. Doorbell. A man had not eaten for two days. You let him eat your dinner. The District Superintendent calls a special meeting. You have been appointed to go to a four day meeting. One call--they lost their gloves at church. They are in the seat where they sat Sunday morning. "Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable unto thee, Oh Lord." Plan good singing. Now for the sermon. "For this God is our God. Ps. 48: 14. Now the time for a final prayer. They call this preaching. It is God is good. Preaching 24 hours a day seven days a week, 265 1/2 days a year. This is preaching. Praise the Lord. Oh Lord, let me pray. Let me read my Bible. Let my Faith increase. Let me love everyone. They call this preaching. Thank you Lord. Garrett H. Phillips Main Street United Methodist, Muncie, Ind.

Opens Fall Season

The Akron Woman's Club opened its fall season Thursday afternoon at a meeting in the library basement.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Gary Brown, who showed a hand with five fingers and suggested each finger symbolized a reminder for prayer.

Mrs. Larry Wood, program chairman, introduced the owners of the Jack and Jill Wig Salon of Rochester who presented a wig style show -- and proved conclusively that some people just aren't meant to be red heads or blondes. They demonstrated the ways in which wigs could be styled and also stressed color selection that should pretty nearly match the person's own hair.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Tom Hauptert, Mrs. Con Shewman, Mrs. James Mitterling and Mrs. Larry Wood.

Homemakers Sing

"America, The Beautiful" was sung by members of the Friendly Neighbors Extension Homemakers Club to open their August 2 meeting at the home of Mrs. Herman Olson.

After members repeated the pledge to the flag and the club creed Mrs. M. O. Smith read the history of the song of the month, "For Me And My Gal," which was then sung by the group.

For meditation, Mrs. Oral Welsh read the September 2, 1946 club program and read the names of the members at that time, recalling many interesting events that happened during the year.

The proper procedure for transplanting and bringing blooming plants from the garden into the home for winter culture was discussed by Mrs. Everett Beeson.

Mrs. Monroe Romine gave an impressive talk, on volunteering for community service, naming many worthy organizations that need the help of anyone who will give time to serve the community effort.

Ten members answered roll call.

The meeting closed in the usual manner to meet in September with Mrs. Everett Beeson.

The new Mrs. Welschinger is a graduate of Warsaw Community High School and Gale Institute, Minneapolis. Mr. Welschinger is a graduate of Washburn High School, Minneapolis, and Bemidji College.

Still No Trace of David Gosser

Divers may be called to search a creek where the car of David Paul Gosser, 34-year old computer programmer from No. Hollywood, Calif., was found partly submerged last week.

Gosser, son of the Rev. and Mrs. David Gosser, Leesburg, was the co-salutatorian of the 1955 Mentone graduating class. He is an employee of Xerox Corp. and lives in North Hollywood with his wife and two daughters.

Gosser was last seen Aug. 27 by two friends at a motel, police said. The friends said Gosser intended to go home when he left them there. His car was discovered in Ballons Creeks three hours later. The creek is located a quarter mile from where the flood control channel empties into the ocean. Gosser was not found.

Police said the car windows were partially open and the car was partly filled with water. They added they doubted Gosser was knocked unconscious and floated away. However, divers may be called to search the creek bottom, Nieto said.

Named Homemaker Of Year

Mrs. Margaret Meese, Millersburg, a former Silver Lake resident and graduate of Warsaw High School, was chosen Elkhart Co. Homemaker of the Year for 1971. The award is given each year by the Elkhart Co. Extension Homemakers Association to an outstanding homemaker who has been active in extension and other community activities.

Mrs. Meese and her late husband Vernon raised six children, always striving to teach them the importance of church, Sunday School and education.

Mrs. Meese has been a member of the General Culture Extension Homemakers Club for 36 years and is currently club health and safety leader. She has held every office in the club at least once. Mrs. Meese has extended a helping hand to others in her community by furnishing transportation, by shopping for shut-ins and by teaching. She is an active member of the St. Peters Lutheran Church in Millersburg, the Goshen Order of Eastern Star and the Elkhart Co. Extension Chorus. In the past, she has been active in school activities, as a teacher, especially activities that involved the Millersburg band.

Mrs. John Buchtel summed up Mrs. Meese's Homemaker of the Year qualifications by saying, "Mrs. Meese is one of the loveliest persons to know and work with. She has contributed worthwhile ideas and services to our club." On September 13 and 14 she will be an honored guest at Camp Mack. On September 23 at 8 a.m. she will be a guest on WSBT, Channel 22, Homemakers Time.

Stripped by Thieves

A car owned by Darl D. Byers, R. 2, Silver Lake, was recovered by sheriff's officials last week after it had been burned by thieves. Byers reported the car stolen Wednesday morning and that afternoon a county employee spotted a burned car on CR 675 West, north of SR 14. Investigation showed the car belonged to Byers. Deputy Sheriff Roger Fellows investigated and said the car had been stripped and set on fire.

Accident Report

Carmen E. Strong, 17, R. 1, Akron, sustained the only injury in Fulton county's week-end traffic accidents, a cut lip. Her southbound car was struck head-on by a car driven by Jerry L. Miller, 17, R. 1, Akron, as the drivers were rounding a curve. The Miller car's brakes failed and his car went 172 feet into Miss Strong's lane before hitting her car. Damage was $450 to the Strong car and $60 to the Miller auto. Miller was cited by the sheriff's department for reckless driving and will appear in Abe Caldwell's Akron justice court.

One person, Roger E. Stutzman, 21, Etna Green, suffered minor injuries in a two-car crash on SR 25 near Mentone Monday evening. He was treated at Murphy Medical Center for cuts on his hands and arms when a car in which he was a passenger and a car driven by Jerry E. McClelland, 16, R. 1, Claypool, collided. McClelland and the other driver were not injured. Damage to the McClelland auto was set at $400 and a fence owned by Max Blackburn, R. 1, Mentone, was damaged $200.

In a two-car crash on SR 14 one mile west of Silver Lake Saturday damages of $1,250 were reported to an auto operated by Elizabeth Sausaman, 48, Akron.

Silver Lake Marshal Hayden Newhouse said Mrs. Sausaman pulled onto the state road from county road 450 west and her car was struck in the rear by one driven by Francis W. Hart, 51, Pontiac, Mich. Damage to the Hart car was set at $500.

Vehicles operated by Robert Lowe, 27, Akron and Esther Shoemaker, 58, Mentone, sustained damages of $400 each in an accident at the intersection of SR 15 and CR 700 S near Claypool Sunday.

Enrolls At IU

Lawrence Weirick, son of Robert Weirick and the late Willodean Weirick, Silver Lake, a 1971 graduate of Warsaw Community High School, left August 22 to enter Indiana University as a medical student.

COURTHOUSE NEWS

Six area men, Robert W. Miller, 21, Silver Lake, Phillip B. Larimer, 22, Millersburg, Bradley Heeter, 19, Goshen, George Dennis Schue, 19, Warsaw, Max E. Lichtenberger, 28, Warsaw, and Danny J. Newton, 24, R. 1, Mentone, pleaded not guilty to rape charges last week in Kosciusko Superior Court. They were arrested July 6 following a formal complaint signed by an 18-year old Silver Lake girl. No trial date has been set.

Gerald G. Dalrymple, 38, Claypool, entered a not guilty plea in the same court to a child neglect charge. He was arrested July 31 after charges were filed in connection with investigation of injuries suffered by his five-week old child. The case was heard by Judge Edward J. Meyers, Jr., Columbia City, after Judge Allan A. Rasor disqualified himself because he was familiar with some of the evidence in the case.

Linda Lee Kuhn R. 5, Warsaw, has been granted a divorce from David Lee Kuhn in Kosciusko court action. The Kuhns were married Nov. 11, 1967 and separated May 28, 1971. There were no children.

Ballard J. Hackworth, R. 2, Silver Lake, has been granted a divorce from Lucille Hackworth in Kosciusko court action. The couple married Jan. 10, 1946 and separated June 1, 1971. There were no minor children.

Merl R. and Thelma J. Blue, Mentone, have been awarded a judgment in the amount of $254.64 in Kosciusko Superior Court in a damage suit filed against Jerry Sellers, Silver Lake. They sought the amount for damages allegedly done to their auto when it was struck by a car operated by Sellers on SR 25 in Mentone on Oct. 31, 1969. The complaint said the Blue vehicle was parked along the state road.

Police Report

Charles Thomas Norton, 19, Mentone, was booked at Kosciusko county jail by his father, Mentone marshal Gene Norton, on charges of malicious trespass.

Eddie D. Meadows, 21, Silver Lake, was arrested over the week-end and charged with public intoxication and furnishing alcoholic beverages to minors. He was booked at the Kosciusko County jail as was James D. Thrasher, 34, Mentone, who was jailed on a body attachment warrant.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Larry W. Jagger, R. 1, Silver Lake, are the parents of a seven pound one ounce son born Sunday morning at Murphy Medical Center. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dean Zellers, R. 2, Silver Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. William Jagger, of Silver Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tilden, Akron, are the parents of a daughter born September 4 at Woodlawn hospital.

The fun and excitement of America's early motoring days come sputtering and backfiring to life at the annual Old Car Festival at Greenfield Village in Dearborn, Michigan September 11-12. Appropriately costumed drivers of the 325 pre-1926 automobiles participating will put their gleaming vehicles through a variety of tests and races in the tough competition for blue ribbons which is the main purpose of the two-day event. Visitors can also see more than 30 authentic, 19th-century high wheel bicycles in action when their riders demonstrate the techniques of maneuvering these unwieldy machines. Adding to the festivities will be parades, pretty costumed hostesses, a Dixieland band, a host of exhibits and crafts demonstrations and a gaily-painted antique calliope. In a high point of the day, the famous Model T Assembly Team will put together a pile of component parts from a Model T and drive it off the activities field in less than ten minutes.

Take your problems to Church this week -

ARE YOU A SPONGER?

When you gaze at a beautiful church window, especially one with the image of Christ shining forth, does it mean anything to you other than a pretty assembling of colored glass? Does the church and the window, which admits the sunlight, mean anything more than just another building with pretty windows?

As the nations flag is more than a piece of colored cloth—a symbol of sacrifice made to secure liberty, so the Christian Church is a symbol of the greatest champion of human liberty, the advancement of the dignity and importance of the individual.

What would life in a community without churches be like? Did you ever stop to consider what your lot would be if that church, and the thousands of others that dot the land, were not in existence, or, if the Master who founded the Church had not come to advance the cause of humanity and to save it from iniquity?

You surely will admit that you owe the lot that you and your family enjoy to the work of the Christian Church. If you admit that, then you owe it your support in both attendance and in a financial way. If you accept its benefits but do not support it, then you are a sponger. Attend and support your church! Don't be a sponger!

REGARDING THIS HUMAN RACE...

Population growth is rushing along too fast for anybody's comfort. CROP feeds hungry people and helps hunger victims produce more food. But CROP knows that overpopulation is one of the major root causes of hunger - that providing food, better seed, irrigation systems, and fertilizer isn't enough. CROP does these things - but also supports family planning, through education and village clinics.

Farm Power Show Will Be In Indiana

The 1971 Farm Power Show, sponsored by M & W Gear Co., Gibson City, Ill., will be held on the Bob Fields Farm near Battleground, Indiana, September 17, 18, and 19. This is the fourth time since 1965 that Indiana will host the spectacular. The farm is located 12 miles north of Lafayette on Route 43 and then two miles east. The Farm Power Show is one of the two largest outdoor farm shows held annually in the United States.

The Farm Power Show gives farmers in this area the chance to see agricultural products, manufactures and sold by over 300 different companies. The entire Farm Power Show exhibition is aimed toward the practical farming viewpoint with down to earth techniques and methods intended to benefit the majority of farmers and help them make more money in their own farming operations.

Every possible field operation will be in high gear during the three day show. Ensilage chopping and handling, corn combining, grain drying and storage will be demonstrated to show farmers the best ways to get their crops from the field, through dryer processing and into storage. Right behind the harvesting equipment will come every variety of tillage tools to prepare the fields for next year's crops.

Those who have attended the previous Farm Power Shows in Indiana will find a major change in the layout of the grounds. Due to the great growth of the show, the hollow square with the tractor pulling course in the center has been changed to a layout of "streets" for greater compactness and convenience in getting from one exhibit to another. First used at the show in Missouri two years ago, the layout was very popular with the many thousands attending the show.

Northern Indiana Public Service Company filed new gas rate schedules with the Public Service Commission of Indiana last Wednesday that include minor adjustments designed to "track" increased rates of pipeline supplies which have been approved by the Federal Power Commission.

"The petition was submitted with the understanding that no increase is sought during the 90 days while prices are frozen under the Economic Stabilization Act of 1970," Dean H. Mitchell, NIPSCO chairman and chief executive officer, said.

NIPSCO's filing is in accordance with the procedure outlined by the chairman of the Public Service Commission of Indiana on August 20, 1971, and an order of the Commission issued Dec. 11, 1970, authorizing gas distribution utilities in Indiana to recover increases in the cost of gas purchased from pipeline suppliers, when such increases have already been approved by the Federal Power Commission, by filed revised rate schedules with the PSC for approval within 30 days after filing.

State Rejects Landfill Site

Kosciusko County Commissioners were notified Wednesday that the State Board of Health had rejected a county application to open a sanitary landfill site for residents in the southwest corner of the county.

The letter was presented by Auditor Lawrence Butts. It denied the county permission to open a landfill on the Helen Brown farm northeast of Mentone, saying the soil on the farm was not suitable for a landfill operation.

The commissioners have been attempting to find a suitable site in that corner of the county for residents. There are presently no landfill sites west of SR 15 in the western half of Kosciusko Co.

Commissioners said they will continue searching for a site that hopefully will be suitable to the state.

Oct. 5 has been set as the date for receiving bids for landfill operations in the county for next year. Bids will be taken on excavation work, landfill operators and ground leases.

TVSC budget slashed $75,000

The Kosciusko Co. tax adjustment board cut a total of $75,000 from the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation's proposed budget Monday after hearing from three of five school patrons present at the review.

While the board has no authority to cut individual items in the budget it can cut the rate. In lowering the budget the board indicated the cuts were to be $70,000 from an account designated for maintenance of buildings and grounds; a $2,500 reduction in a proposed $5,000 legal fee funds; and a $2,500 reduction in the school nurse's $7,500 salary.

Superintendent Robert Forbes told the adjustment board the maintenance account had been raised from $10,000 to $100,000 for next year, saying he was not sure what the money was intended for although repairs at the Akron gym had been mentioned. He said the fund had been cut to $80,000 at the public hearing on the budget and that there had been some opposition to the amount at that time.

Byron (Corky) Doran, Burket, said since the school board had no specific project or plan for the expenditure of the money he felt it should be reduced and added further that the 1972 proposed general fund rate of $4.08 was too great an increase over the final 1971 general fund rate of $2.98.

Forbes noted the published budget of $1,576, 132 and an advertised general fund rate of $4.35 had been cut by the school board following the public hearing, the board cutting $58,000 from the proposed budget to arrive at the $4.08 general fund rate.

Forrest D. Miner, president of the Farmers State Bank, Mentone, said he felt the $5,000 appropriated for legal fees was too high and should be reduced to $1,000 and recommended the school nurse's salary be cut to $4,500. He also objected to a $9,000 increase in the fund to pay building heating costs.

Frank Manwaring also registered displeasure at the amount budgeted for the salary of the school nurse.

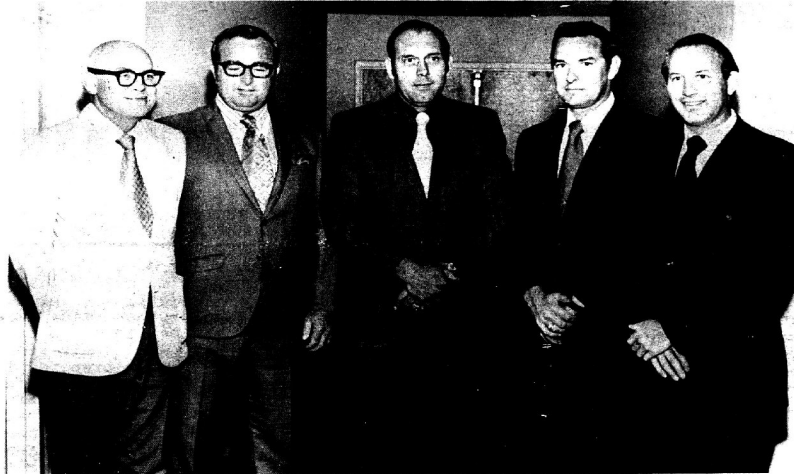

Jay Swick and Gerald Clinker were also present but did not participate in the discussion.

After hearing the discussion, the adjustment board made the cut in the budget, a cut that county auditor Lawrence Butts said would represent about 30 cents on the tax rate.

The Kosciusko county tax adjustment board has jurisdiction over TVSC, a corporation composed

General Commission sets Oct. 20 hearing

The Commission on General Education of the State Board of Education met Wednesday to discuss a policy that would set a minimum size standard of an average of 125 students per grade level or 500 in a four-year high school. The policy was not adopted, because the size of the crowd indicated a public hearing was needed before the policy could be officially be adopted.

A public hearing will be held at the October 20 meeting of the General Commission and any member of the public who wants to speak for or against the policy will be heard. After the policy is adopted it will be submitted to the Attorney General to determine its legality before it goes to the governor.

Appearing at Wednesday's hearing were Byron Doran of Burket and Richard Goshert, a member of the Tippecanoe Valley school board. Both spoke in favor of the policy.

At the time the policy was proposed State Sup-

Scout Registration Being Taken

Registrations for Girl Scouts and Brownies will be taken Tuesday, Sept. 21, from 7-8 p.m. in the Akron Grade School cafeteria. All girls in the second and third grades are eligible to join. Girls must be accompanied by a parent. Any mothers wanting to help with Junior or Brownie Troops can contact Mrs. Dick Day in Day Hardware.

Community Service

goal is $5,075

The directors of the Henry Township Community Service met recently and agreed to set the budget for the 1971-72 campaign the same as last year, $5,075.00.

Two agencies had requested a slight increase, but the board denied the requests and kept the amounts the same as last year.

Agencies and their requests are Red Cross, $900; mental health, $500; Girl Scouts, $200; USO, $175; Boy Scouts, $600; Salvation Army, $550; Fulton Co. Retarded Children, $500; Fulton Co. Cancer Detection Center, $300; Fulton Co. Heart Detection Center, $300; Akron Little League, $350; Fulton Co. Crippled Children, $500, and Henry Twp. 4-H, $200.

Last year's budget was oversubscribed $78, and the board hopes it can do equally well this year.

The annual kick-off meeting will be at the Akron library on Wednesday evening, September 29, at 8 p.m. Leaders and workers will receive their material and instructions at that time.

Three women, Mrs. Carrie Norris, Mrs. Irene Becker and Mrs. Donna-belle Hoffman, will be recognized for having worked 20 years.

Akron C of C Has Dinner Meeting

The Wednesday dinner meeting of the Akron Chamber of Commerce included a discussion of the possibilities the town faces in handling its garbage and trash in the future. The town board has been discussing the advisability of creating a landfill for Akron and has also considered buying a compactor truck and hauling the trash and garbage to a county landfill site. Bob Cotton, a sanitary engineer with the State Department of Health, and Clem Newman, Fulton Co. sanitarian, were present and joined in the discussion. The matter will be discussed further at the next meeting of the Akron Town Board.

A representative of a plastics company was present to discuss the town's Christmas lighting needs.

intendent of Public Instruction John Loughlin said the policy would meet the minimum standard recommended a few years ago by Dr. James B. Conant in his study of the American comprehensive high school and that it more nearly met the standard accepted by most professional educators. He also noted it would be more in harmony with the minimum standards for size of a reorganized school corporation in Indiana as established by the State School Reorganization Commission and still carried out by the General Commission.

At that time, Loughlin said building proposals by unreorganized school corporations would continue to be handled as special cases in conformity only if they did not impede completion of school reorganization.

The policy is one that will be closely studied by the residents of the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation as it will have a direct effect on this corporation's future and would probably make the decision that has been ten years in coming—one school or two.

Time To Register

Deadline for registration for the November 2 election is October 4. Persons desiring to register for the first time or to list change of residence are the clerk's office at the county courthouse.

TVSC budget slashed $75,000

The Kosciusko Co. tax adjustment board cut a total of $75,000 from the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation's proposed budget Monday after hearing from three of five school patrons present at the review.

While the board has no authority to cut individual items in the budget it can cut the rate. In lowering the budget the board indicated the cuts were to be $70,000 from an account designated for maintenance of buildings and grounds; a $2,500 reduction in a proposed $5,000 legal fee funds; and a $2,500 reduction in the school nurse's $7,500 salary.

Superintendent Robert Forbes told the adjustment board the maintenance account had been raised from $10,000 to $100,000 for next year, saying he was not sure what the money was intended for although repairs at the Akron gym had been mentioned. He said the fund had been cut to $80,000 at the public hearing on the budget and that there had been some opposition to the amount at that time.

Byron (Corky) Doran, Burkett, said since the school board had no specific project or plan for the expenditure of the money he felt it should be reduced and added further that the 1972 proposed general fund rate of $4.08 was too great an increase over the final 1971 general fund rate of $2.98.

Forbes noted the published budget of $1,576, 132 and an advertised general fund rate of $4.35 had been cut by the school board following the public hearing, the board cutting $58,000 from the proposed budget to arrive at the $4.08 general fund rate.

Forrest D. Miner, president of the Farmers State Bank, Mentone, said he felt the $5,000 appropriated for legal fees was too high and should be reduced to $1,000 and recommended the school nurse's salary be cut to $4,500. He also objected to a $9,000 increase in the fund to pay building heating costs.

Frank Manwaring also registered displeasure at the amount budgeted for the salary of the school nurse.

Jay Swick and Gerald Clinker were also present but did not participate in the discussion.

After hearing the discussion, the adjustment board made the cut in the budget, a cut that county auditor Lawrence Butts said would represent about 30 cents on the tax rate.

General Commission sets Oct. 20 hearing

The Commission on General Education of the State Board of Education met Wednesday to discuss a policy that would set a minimum size standard of an average of 125 students per grade level or 500 in a four-year high school. The policy was not adopted, because the size of the crowd indicated a public hearing was needed before the policy could officially be adopted.

A public hearing will be held at the October 20 meeting of the General Commission and any member of the public who wants to speak for or against the policy will be heard. After the policy is adopted it will be submitted to the Attorney General to determine its legality before it goes to the governor.

Appearing at Wednesday's hearing were Byron Doran of Burkett and Richard Goshert, a member of the Tippecanoe Valley school board. Both spoke in favor of the policy.

At the time the policy was proposed State Sup-

Scout Registration Being Taken

Community Service goal is $5,075

The directors of the Henry Township Community Service met recently and agreed to set the budget for the 1971-72 campaign the same as last year, $5,075.00.

Two agencies had requested a slight increase, but the board denied the requests and kept the amounts the same as last year.

Agencies and their requests are Red Cross, $900; mental health, $500; Girl Scouts, $200; USO, $175; Boy Scouts, $600; Salvation Army, $550; Fulton Co. Retarded Children, $500; Fulton Co. Cancer Detection Center, $300; Fulton Co. Heart Detection Center, $300; Akron Little League, $350; Fulton Co. Crippled Children, $500, and Henry Twp. 4-H, $200.

Last year's budget was oversubscribed $78, and the board hopes it can do equally well this year.

The annual kick-off meeting will be at the Akron library on Wednesday evening, September 29, at 8 p.m. Leaders and workers will receive their material and instructions at that time.

Three women, Mrs. Carrie Norris, Mrs. Irene Becker and Mrs. Donna-belle Hoffman, will be recognized for having worked 20 years.

Akron C of C Has Dinner Meeting

The Wednesday dinner meeting of the Akron Chamber of Commerce included a discussion of the possibilities the town faces in handling its garbage and trash in the future. The town board has been discussing the advisability of creating a landfill for Akron and has also considered buying a compactor truck and hauling the trash and garbage to a county landfill site. Bob Cotton, a sanitary engineer with the State Department of Health, and Clem Newman, Fulton Co. sanitarian, were present and joined in the discussion. The matter will be discussed further at the next meeting of the Akron Town Board.

A representative of a plastics company was present to discuss the town's Christmas lighting needs.

led as special cases in conformity only if they did not impede completion of school reorganization.

The policy is one that will be closely studied by the residents of the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation as it will have a direct effect on this corporation's future and would probably make the decision that has been ten years in coming—one school or two.

Time To Register

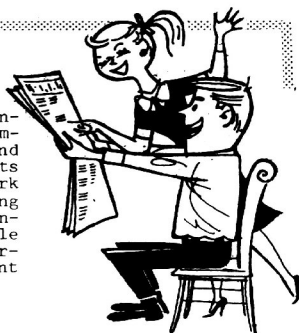

Deadline for registration for the November 2 election is October 4. Persons desiring to register for the first time or to list change of residence are the clerk's office at the county courthouse.

EDITORIALS

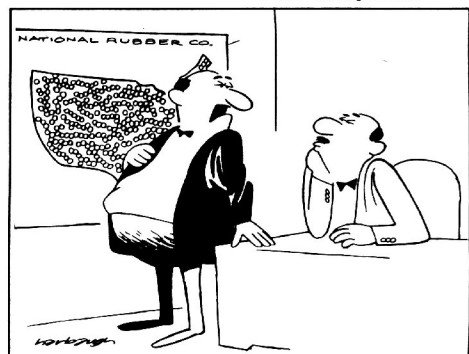

The publication "The American Rifleman" warns that present signs indicate that early action on the gun control issue will be forthcoming in Congress. It outlines the main provisions of one measure that include a requirement for the registration of all firearms, including rifles and shotguns, the gradual outlawing of individual private ownership of handguns entirely and the placing of rifle and shotgun ammunition sales back under the 1968 Gun Control Act, which specified all ammunition sales must be registered.

In gun controls, as in many other areas of government regulation that have been steadily narrowing the liberties of American citizens, it will be found that one control calls for another. This year, the drive is on against handguns. Next year, "loopholes" in the law will call for stiffer controls over all firearms. Eventually, the goal will become total firearm prohibition. Meanwhile, the criminal mind will be working on new and ingenious ways to prey on a defenseless citizenry. The result will be tragic if the criminal is ever freed of the fear of meeting an armed citizen who has a gun and knows how to use it.

As "The American Rifleman" observes editorially, "What needs controlling is not guns but criminals, a point that some antigun lawmakers persistently miss. And stiffer sentences for gunmen and ambushers seem like the very thing to take them out of circulation."

Also, as The Rifleman comments, "Certainly anyone who would kill a policeman is not going to register his gun first." Laws that destroy basic rights always boomerang. Outlawing gun ownership would be no exception.

A MATTER OF ATTITUDE

Your attitude toward many events which affect your life determines the extent of both success and happiness. A failure to one person may be a success to another—it is all a matter of attitude. The answers to the following questions tell why.

Are you Lucky? Luck is what happens when effort and opportunity meet.

Are you Courageous? Courage is not freedom from fear; it is being afraid and going on.

Are you Doubtful? When there is doubt, supplant it with action.
Are you Happy? Some act as though comfort and luxury were the chief requirements of life. All we need to make us really happy is something to be enthusiastic about.

Are you Lazy? Some folks never travel far enough to reach a destination because they plan their course by lassitude and loungitude!

Are you Optimistic? The same rain that saves the optimist's lawn, makes the pessimist's weeds grow faster.

Are you Positive? Positive anything is better than negative nothing.
Are you Miraculous? Miracles sometimes occur, but one has to work terribly hard for them.

Obscene Calls Require Special Handling

The obscene telephone call is becoming a common occurrence. It is a subject many people have knowledge of yet few know how to react to such a situation.

Obscene calls are usually attempts by the caller to fulfill certain of his emotional needs. (The people are nearly always male rather than female.) By startling someone he is gaining a sort of power over her. It is gained, however, at a distance and there is no personal involvement. This, personal involvement is very likely what he fears most.

A sexual motivation can also prompt such a call. By hearing the victim gasp on hearing his obscene words or messages he may gain some sexual excitement.

The silent or heavy breather is also considered an obscene caller. These are perhaps the more common types of obscene call.

Following are some proven methods of dealing with these calls:

1. Hang up immediately. This will thwart the callers attempt to gain power over his intended victim.

2. State emphatically that the police will be informed if the caller does not stop the calling.

3. State, without hesitation to the caller, "you're sick, you'd better get to a hospital, you need help," and then hang up.

Always remember that it takes two to carry on a conversation. The most important thing to do is to hang up immediately.

If the caller will not stop, the next step is to call the sheriff or police who in turn will work with the telephone company to identify the culprit and prosecute him.

ODDS and ENDS

By Ann Sheetz

In all honesty it must be reported that mothers are not the only people who sometimes need a night out, as the boys were quick to mention when they read last week's column. They reminded me they occasionally like to get away from it all and cited their recent cook-out as proof.

Roughing it was what they called their night away from the family table. The first plans to camp overnight were squelched by threats of rain and it was with some reluctance that it was finally agreed their night out would be supper only and would be eaten in a lean-to they recently built in the woods.

They were quite specific when they planned their menu: Beans with hot dogs, hot chocolate, hot dogs, potato chips, cookies, apples. I had no trouble with any of it except the hot chocolate. Have you ever tried to make cocoa in a teakettle, a special camping teakettle, that would be easy to pour from? All their food had to be prepared in pans they discovered we had left from a camping trip we took 13 years ago. It had not been used since for reasons they could not understand.

Nevertheless, the pans were soon filled with the beans and hot dogs and hot dogs baked with cheese and wrapped with crescent rolls. The latter were carefully covered with foil so they would stay hot and the teakettle of chocolate was placed in another pan and wrapped so it would stay hot. Cookies and potato chips went into a paper bag with the apples and napkins. "Really, Mom, napkins on a cook-out?"

When it was done, I called them and they reluctantly pried themselves away from Daniel Boone, wondering why the food had to be ready so early, and loaded it in a trailer behind the riding mower and chugged off to the woods.

Their father and I were barely finished with our own supper, the quietest one we could remember in years, when they returned.

"How was the chocolate?" I asked.

"Hot," they said in unison.

"How were the hot dogs?"

"Good."

"Did you have fun?"

"Sure. We made it back in time for 'Alias Smith and Jones, didn't we?' they said as they plopped their dirty pans on my clean cupboard, kicked off their shoes and headed back into the living room.

Their roughing it night out had taken exactly one hour.

in spite of parents and the Better Light Better Sight Bureau, much homework is done under less than ideal conditions. Needed: Upgraded lighting in places kids actually do study.

kitchen tables: That lamp hanging above it might be the basis of a good study light—or it can be replaced. Can it be pulled down so the lower edge of the shade is on eye level and 15 inches to the left of the work center and 12 inches from the table edge? Will it take two 100- or three 60-watt bulbs? Have a diffuser? Light color but opaque shade? Check the table itself. If it's dark or glossy, use a large, light blotter.

snack counters: If there is a cabinet over it, fluorescent tubes (at least two 20-watt) may be installed under the cabinet and a shielding board added so book workers don't look right into the tubes.

family rooms: If desk area is limited for togetherness study, save space by installing a lighted shelf rather than lamps. Mount fluorescent tubes at front edge of shelf, 15 inches from top of desk and 12 inches from front. Use a shielding board. For the sake of eye comfort, there needs to be good background lighting, too, particularly in dark wood paneled rooms. But light from the television screen is frowned upon!

there are "room" people—13-year-old girls are great room people. One can be expected to use that 38-inch bedroom desk with the 200-watt, properly shaded and placed study lamp you hopefully bought about the time she brought home her first homework.

Lots of power to be featured at show

Every facet of agriculture will be represented at the 17th Annual Farm Power Show to be held on the Bob Fields farm near Battle Ground, Indiana, Sept. 17, 18 and 19. The exhibit field can be reached by traveling twelve miles north of Lafayette on Route 43 and two miles east of driving south from Brooks ton three miles via Route 43 and two miles east.

Look, discuss and draw your own conclusions will be the theme of the thousands of farmer visitors. Past shows have drawn attendance from a radius encompassing Texas, the Dakotas and New York. The questions many farmers will be asking themselves is: "What is best for my farm". They can get a good idea from what they see on the Bob Fields farm.

The entire Farm Power Show exhibits are aimed toward the practical farming situation. Although some experimental machinery and methods will be shown for the interest of farmers, the overwhelming emphasis is on here and now equipment, products and techniques that will benefit practically all farmers and show them how to make more money in their own operations.

Every possible field operation will be in high gear during the three day Farm Power Show. The latest high capacity equipment from all the leading manufacturers will be in action combining corn, drying grain and putting it into storage. Ensilage chopping and handling will also be shown with big machines of every type showing the way to get crops from the field and into storage the most economical way. Right behind the harvesting equipment, tillage tools of every type will be seen preparing the fields for next year's crops.

In the stationary exhibit area covering over 52 acres, can be found the latest machinery, feeds, seeds and every imaginable farm commodity, displayed by some 300 different suppliers.

Farmers traditionally bring their wives and families. Free bus service will be provided for those wishing to fly in. It will run between the show and the Aretz Airport in Lafayette.

The Farm Power Show has also become famous as the home of the World Championship Tractor Pulling Contest. This year, the increasingly popular sport, will be divided into six competitive classes. Starting at 2 p.m. daily the fast moving sport will feature 5000 and 7000 pound stocks on Friday; 7000 pound modified and 12,000 pound stocks on Saturday and 9000 pounds stocks and 12,000 pound open on Sunday.

There is no charge for admission to the grounds or any of the exhibits and all parking is free. The nationally known WGN "Country Fair" program will be broadcast from the show grounds both Friday and Saturday. These performances are free and open to all. There are also many free entertainments planned by various exhibitors. The tractor pulling contest is the only thing with an admission fee on the 52 acres of exhibits. All other costs are underwritten by the sponsoring company, the M & W Gear Co., Gibson City, Ill., and the more than 300 commercial exhibitors. There will be plenty of food available on the grounds, prepared and sold by local church and civic groups.

News Of Interest To Homemakers

by Ann Hancock, Area Extension Agent
Kosciusko County

Homemakers and future homemakers see food prices climbing higher and higher. Are food prices really out of line? Actually food is not expensive in comparison to other goods and services you buy. Most items in the family living budget are fixed. The grocery bill is flexible.

We are living in a fabulous wonderland of food. Supermarkets stock some 10,000 different food products - most of which were non-existent ten years ago. We have asked for convenience and we have it. And in many cases the convenience food is cheaper. Frozen orange juice, costs only about half as much as that squeezed at home from fresh oranges. We want fresh lettuce in February and get it. Our food dollar can be divided into two parts - the farmer and the marketing agency. When we spend a dollar for food, less than 40 cents goes to the farmer for the raw material.

Are food prices really higher? Lets take a look. In 1951 we spent 23% of our disposable income on food, in 1969 we spent only 16.5% on food.

Perhaps we need to examine our shopping skills to see if we are shopping wisely. About one-fifth of most people's grocery bill is not groceries at all. If we examine the contents of our grocery carts, we find paper towels, cigarettes, dog food, magazines and detergent, none of which are edible.

To those who remember when a loaf of bread cost a nickel, a quart of milk 10 cents and sirloin steak was 59¢ a pound--it may seem strange to call today's food one of the consumer's best values. Food prices have gone up. But wages have gone up too, more than food costs.

Is food a bargain? When we consider what function it serves for us and the aesthetic value food serves; we do get much for our money. But food prices, much like the weather, are good pieces of conversation. Most people know intuitively that food prices are too high at any time or place.

LASAGNA

3/4 lb. ground beef, 2 cloves garlic, finely chopped, 1/2 cup onion, chopped, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1/8 teaspoon red pepper, crushed, 1 teaspoon oregano, 1 Table-spoon parsley flakes (if desired), 6-oz. can tomato paste, 8-oz. can tomato sauce, 3/4 cup hot water, 6 Lasagna noodles, cooked, 1 egg, 12 oz. cottage cheese, cream-style, 1 lb. process cheese, shredded. Crumble beef into large frypan. Cook over moderate heat, stirring as needed, until lightly browned. Add garlic and onion; cook until onion is tender. Add seasonings, tomato paste, tomato paste, tomato sauce, and water. Simmer, stirring occasionally, for 5 minutes. Blend egg with cottage cheese. Preheat oven to 350° F.

In a 7-by 12-by 2-inch baking dish, spread layers of one-fourth of tomato-meat sauce, then three noodles, and one-fourth more tomato-meat sauce. Add half the cottage cheese mixture and half the process cheese. Add another one-fourth tomato-meat sauce, then the remaining cottage and process cheese. Spread with remaining noodles, then sauce. Bake uncovered for 30 minutes. Cool 10 minutes before serving. About 6 servings.

Beaver Dam Club Has Meeting

The Beaver Dam Home Ec Club met at the Beaver Dam Church social room recently.

The meeting was opened by the president, Eva Huffer.

A letter of thanks from Clara Yeaman was read thanking the club for the gift that was sent.

Mabel Adams gave the health and safety lesson. Theresa Landis gave the garden remarks and Alta Hudson discussed the pollution problem.

Roll call by each member was observed with each member giving a penny for each letter in their full name.

Redinger-Acton Vows Said

Miss Jacqueline Ann Redinger became the bride of Daniel R. Acton recently in a 6:30 a.m. ceremony at the First Baptist Church of Mentone.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Marion R. Acton, Mentone, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Redinger, Argos.

The Rev. Norman E. McVey officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Three blue candles circled with fresh ivy on a white altar were used in a candle ceremony in which the bride and the bridegroom each took a lighted candle and together lighted a third candle symbolizing they were now one.

Miss Denise Acton, sister of the bridegroom, organist, played a solo "Only One Life."

Miss Beverly Spitzer, Argos, was maid of honor.

Randy Erickson, Hobart, a Pi Sigma Nu fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Don Acton, brother of the bridegroom, and Mike Redinger, brother of the bride, were ushers.

A wedding breakfast for 50 guests was served at the home of the bridegroom's parents with guest enjoying white doughnuts, Mexican wedding cakes, orange juice and coffee from a table decorated with blue candles and white roses.

Miss Jo Ella Woher, Scottsburg, assisted with serving and registered the guests.

The couple left immediately for a trip to Spring Mill State Park. They now reside at 115-7 Nimitz Dr., W. Lafayette.

Doub Receives Heroism Medal

Chief Warrant Officer Cecil R. Doub, W2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Doub, Silver Lake, who was seriously wounded September 15, 1970 in Vietnam and is currently hospitalized at Fort Gordon, Ga., recently received the Soldier's Medal Award for heroism not involving actual conflict with an armed enemy in the Republic of Vietnam.

The citation, signed by Maj. Gen. Charles M. Gettys, reads: "Chief Warrant Officer W2 Doub distinguished himself by his actions at the scene of a fire at the Long Binh ammunition supply depot Sept. 2, 1970. After noticing smoke billowing from an ammunition storage pad, Warrant Officer Doub immediately organized a fire fighting team and rushed to the blaze. Fully aware of the high explosive ammunition contained on the pad, Doub remained at the scene until the flames were brought under control. Then, as soon as the fire was almost extinguished, he ripped the smoldering boxes apart to cool the ammunition inside.

Due to his quick and competent actions, the possible loss of several lives was prevented and valuable explosives were saved.

Chief Warrant Officer Doub's heroic actions were in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service and reflect great credit upon himself, his unit and the United States Army."

KCH Gets Hill-Burton Funds

Kosciusko Community Hospital, Inc. won Indiana State Board of Health approval last Wednesday in its long battle for recognition and approval of federal Hill-Burton funds for the construction of a new community hospital.

The nine-member State Board of Health executive committee ruled KCH should be the recipient of any Hill-Burton funds available for the year 1970-71. The exact amount of money appropriated for new hospital construction in the state is not known, but it is thought to be approximately $300,000.

The state board denied a petition submitted by Murphy Medical Center Attorney William S. Hall that requested a 60 day continuance of the Hill-Burton hearing. His petition recommended a single-hospital plan be developed for the county and requested that an independent firm conduct a cost study of the Murphy proposal and one advanced by KCH.

Appearing before the state board on behalf of KCH were Lawrence Castaldi, president; board members Robert Maish and John Snell; board member-at-large, Thomas R. Lemon; Jerry Helvey, president of the Hospital Authority of Kosciusko county; Gordon Medlock, KCH financial advisor of Bache and Co., Chicago; William Darrough, senior vice president of Ketchum, Inc., a Pittsburgh-based professional fund raising firm; John Fleck KCH architect from Indianapolis; Jeff Fromelt of Herman Smith and Associates, hospital consultants, Chicago; and county physicians Dr. Wymond Wilson, Mentone, and Dr. Arthur Moser, Warsaw.

Representing Murphy Medical Center at the hearing were Murphy attorney Wm. Hall, Murphy administrator Robert Berryman and Mrs. Hope Luckenbill, a member of the board.

Slime Flux Hitting Shade Trees

Some shade trees are showing slime flux again this year, according to Lawrence L. Hoyle, Area Extension Agent in Landscaping. This condition, also known as wet wood, may be seen on a tree's trunk at various levels.

A frothy, foul-smelling substance may be seen seeping through the bark and down the trunk. In older lesions the bark usually is rotted where the flux seeps over it.

Oak and elm appear to be affected more often but maple, poplar and sycamore are also frequently affected. The condition is caused by sap pressure inside the tree caused by fermentation of bacteria and yeasts.

There is no ready cure or prevention for this condition, Hoyle explains. The best known method of stopping the condition or preventing damage to the bark is to drill holes into the infected area in order to relieve the internal sap pressure. If possible, drill holes from six to 14 inches below the fluxing area and slant upward if necessary to within a few inches of the other side of the tree. You may not hit the pressure area on the first try since the location is not always in the area tapped.

After tapping, insert a short piece of pipe screwed into the hole to carry the toxic sap away from the tree bark. This will prevent decay of the bark due to the toxic substance.

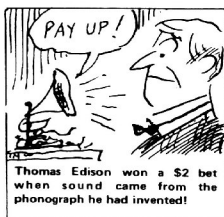

For more information showing the proper method of drilling the holes contact Lawrence L. Hoyle, Cooperative Extension Service, Box 259, Crown Point, Ind. 46307.

Constitution Week Is September 17-23

The week of September 17-23 has been set aside as Constitution Week. It is proclaimed officially by the President of the United States each year.

The constitution of the United States of America was adopted September 17, 1787, ratified June 21, 1788, in effect March 4, 1789.

On January 5, 1956, Senator William F. Knowland introduced the following Senate Joint Resolution 105:

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled, that the President of the United States is authorized and requested to designate the period beginning September 17 and ending September 23 of each year as Constitution Week, and to issue annually a proclamation inviting the people of the United States to observe such a week in schools, churches and other suitable places with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

This resolution was adopted July 23, 1956 and signed into law Aug. 2, 1956.

Anthony Nigo Chapter, NSDAR, Mentone, furnishes from "The National Republic" excerpts from the article entitled "What The Constitution Means To You."

'It establishes for you a stable and responsible government.'

'It makes you a citizen of the United States, if native born.'

'It gives you citizenship, if foreign born, on complying with liberal naturalization laws.'

'It allows you a voice in the government thru the officials whom you help elect.'

'It guarantees you, life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.'

'It defends your rights even against the government itself.'

'It makes you equal with all men before the law.'

'It confirms your religious freedom and liberty of conscience.'

'It accords you free, lawful speech.'

'It guarantees you together with all people the right of peaceable assembly.'

'It permits you to petition the government to right your wrongs.'

'It guards your property rights.'

'It prohibits the government from taking your property without due process of law.'

'It lets you hold any office in the gift of the nation for which you are qualified.'

'It enables you to be a citizen of any state.'

'It prevents you from being held to answer to a complaint unless you have been lawfully accused.'

'It insures your right of trial by jury of your fellowmen.'

'It grants you the right of habeas corpus, that is, the right to know why you are held a prisoner.'

'It assures you a speedy trial.'

'It permits your having counsel for defense.'

'It prevents your being tried again if once acquitted.'

'It permits you to have a trial in the state and district in which you may be charged with an offense against the laws.'

'It lends you the power of government to compel witnesses to appear in your behalf.'

'It relieves you from compulsion to testify against yourself.'

'It forbids excessive bail.'

'It forbids excessive fines or cruel punishment.'

'It protects you from slavery in any form.'

'It keeps any state from depriving you of your constitutional right.'

'It sanctions your bearing arms for the protection of your life and home.'

'It secures your home from search except by lawful warrant.'

'It guarantees you that the legal obligation of contracts shall not be impaired.'

'It permits you to participate in amendment of the Constitution from time to time.'

Each of us as citizens should realize that our constitution as written is what gives to America the freedoms sought by many nations in today's world.'

The Jesus Movement

For most of my ministry I have worked with the outcast. While in Mentone I was not able to reach as many as at other times. Everyone knows that Mentone supported two saloons, and that dope was not a problem for the youth to get if they wanted it.

So I worked with those who alcohol and dope had taken their toll. I have seen people who would do anything to get money to buy that which is not bread. How to deal with people without hope has been my great concern. A fix, a drink out of the bottle only brings the night of hopelessness. But the past year I have had contact with the Jesus movement. Two thousand at Ball State, a group from California came to give the service. It was wonderful. Christ was very real. Long hair, those that were dirty, those that were clean, all listen as these leaders told how they had given their lives to Christ. How they had been on drugs and whiskey but now they were High on Jesus.

Then two weeks ago I was in Times Square, where the Jesus people were having a rally. They had for weeks given out little round stickers with Jesus on them as people passed on the street. Thousands of them. About 2000 at the rally. Then sang, they testified. A bus load had come from Texas to help with the rally.

One youth said, I was on drugs four years, on booze five years, now it has been a year I only been High on Jesus. God has ways of working. I am sure there are things wrong with the Jesus movement, but that which makes people quit dope or the bottle, that which takes booze out of the rich home or shuts down drug stores or stops pushers among our youth, I am for. Why not get a group of the Jesus people to hold a rally for the Youth at Mentone.

TVSC board withdraws proposal

The final motion at Monday night's Tippecanoe Valley school board meeting was one by board president Maurice Coplen in which he asked Superintendent of Schools Robert Forbes to withdraw a project that had been sent to state school officials for approval for high school facilities at Mentone and at Akron.

Board member Richard Goshert charged the motion was being made after the fact, saying he had learned that board member Dr. John McKee, "Mr. Groninger" and Forbes had gone to Indianapolis September 13 to deliver a letter asking that the project be withdrawn. He asked Forbes who had given him the authority to submit the letter and was told it has been his (Forbes) understanding from the other four board members that this was to be done. Goshert charged the four with conducting star chamber meetings, which they denied. When asked how they were in contact with each other, Dr. Donald VanGilder replied, "Mental telepathy." Goshert asked him if that was what he really meant, and he said he "guessed so" and noted that the portion of the policy manual on ethics which included one that said star chamber meetings were illegal had been dropped. Goshert replied, "That's right! Now you have no ethics!" He said he did not disapprove the action, only the manner in which it was carried out. The vote on the motion was four yes and one no, that of Dr. VanGilder who remarked he thought "we have a good enough thing right now."

Other board action, in the order in which it was taken, included granting a transfer to Greg Shireman to attend Rochester High School to take vocational agriculture. The board had previously denied a request by his mother, Mrs. Paul Shireman, that he be transferred to Rochester to take German, also a subject not offered in TVSC. She said Greg's counselor had advised him to take the rest of his German classes in his junior and senior years and that vo ag was now his elective. The motion to grant the transfer passed on a 3-2 vote with Dr. VanGilder and Dr. McKee voting against it.

A financial report by the superintendent showed a balance in all funds of $1,396,550.76 with $1,211,456.64 out on investment.

While claims were being examined, Dr. McKee asked how many of his fellow board members had been aware that the superintendent was building a new structure at the Mentone shop before the walls were erected. All the other members said they had not been aware of the building program but agreed they had voted in February to give Forbes authority to expand shop facilities at Mentone so that all boys in the corporation could use it. Forbes defended his action in adding the new storage area by saying the three bays that had been remodeled into additional classroom and shop space had formerly been the storage area, a space that was needed. He said the new part of the building was an extension, not an addition.

McKee reminded Goshert

Blood collection site is changed

Acquisition of the Parish Hall at the St. Joseph Catholic church, Rochester, for the October blood collection was announced this week by Fulton Co. Red Cross officials who have been seeking another location for some time. The present site has been the American Legion Hall downtown.

The new site was chosen because it afforded better parking and because it had adequate space, good lighting, kitchen facilities and air conditioning.

The Parish Hall was made available by Father Harold E. Weller and the St. Joseph Parish Council Lady volunteers of the church who will handle the lunch program for the Red Cross staff and the volunteer workers.

Blood donor recruitment for October 1 will again be by the Woodlawn Hospital Auxiliary with Mrs. Harold E. Lowe, president. Mrs. Gates Thompson will arrange the volunteer nurse detail and Mrs. Burk Miller will be in charge of the clerical work done by Tri Kappa sorority. The canteen and other duties will be the responsibility of the Gray Ladies with Mrs. Mildred Robinson as their chairman.

Dr. Joe Bill Mishler of Pierceton has been named a charter diplomate of the American Board of Family Practice as a result of passing a certification examination administered under the aegis of the ABFP. To achieve diplomate status Dr. Mishler, through an intensive two-day written examination, proved his ability in the areas of internal medicine, surgery, obstetrics, gynecology, pediatrics, psychiatry, preventive medicine and other traditional specialties and now is certified in medicine's newest specialty, Family Practice.

The 3,285 doctors, nationally, who earned their diplomatic distinction, are the vanguard of a new type of highly competent "people doctor" who accepts responsibility for the patient's total health care and serves as the natural point of entry into the complex medical system. These specialists must continue to show proof of competency in the field of comprehensive, continuing care of the family by taking another exam and being re-certified every six years. No other specialty requires its diplomates to prove their competence on a continuing basis. Dr. Mishler, the son of the late Royce Mishler and Mrs. Mishler, is a graduate of Akron High School.

Sales Pitch

A real estate salesman was one not to be confined by the restriction of truth. One day, he was showing an out-of-town prospective customer a choice bit of property, and his enthusiasm for the climate knew no bounds. He ended his sales talk with, "Why, you know, no one ever dies here."

Unfortunately, just at that moment a funeral procession came into sight down the street. The real estate salesman was at loss for a moment, but, then, he removed his hat ceremoniously and said in a voice full of feeling, "Poor old undertaker. Starved to death."

"I'll have to wear my golf socks today," the husband grumbled aloud to his wife as he rummaged through the drawer.

"What golf socks?" she asked.

"The ones with the eighteen holes in them."

GRASSROOTS OPINION

TEMPE, ARIZ., NEWS: "We used to have the 3 R's that meant Readin', 'Ritin', and 'Rithmetic.' Today, the 3 R's stand for Riot, Restlessness and Rebellion. And if this continues, we will have Ruin, Rot and Regret. What we need is Respect, Religion and Responsibility."

UPSALA, MINN., NEWS-TRIBUNE: "What the country needs most is for everyone to pick up their shovel and start producing an honest day's work. Just maybe, the protesters who are feeding on past generations and the rest of us, may take the hint. A good soaking sweat will make them realize there is a joy in a day's accomplishments without being critical of the other fellow."

ODDS and ENDS

By Ann Sheetz

Someone with a lot of time to compile statistics has come up with the impressive fact that the average child by age 18 has spent 11,000 hours in classrooms and 15,000 hours watching television.

Today's youngsters, says this report, watch as much as 50 hours per week or 65 per cent of their waking time.

We know, of course, a lot of that time is spent running to the kitchen for snacks but a lot is spent watching aging cartoons and reruns--and violence.

"Children should not see so much violence on television," we are told. "They should be read to, listened to and played with." Surely no one could disagree with those statements especially after watching a blood-curdling western or after seeing the villain smashed flat on a so-called cartoon.

Because we do agree with these thoughts, we often censor the boys' television programs and we promote lots of reading because we personally prefer reading to televiewing and hope to promote an interest in good books in our sons.

BUT, have you seen some of the children's books? Some of the old fairy tales are terrible. Consider the witch sticking Hansel and Gretel into the oven and trying to light the fire. That book and several television programs have been outlawed at our house, and it appears more books will have to be placed on the censored list--and like there will have to be a definite time for censoring. No more just reading a book because it is recommended for a particular age group.

Seven-year old Doug likes to read to us and as his reward we read slightly more difficult books to him. One recent book I read to him was on the list marked "easy to read for beginners" and I read slowly so he could follow the words with me.

Can you imagine his horror when a fox picked up a little boy and put him in his bag to carry him off into the woods to eat him? Every muscle in our little boy tightened and he gasped in surprise. The little boy in the book got away and the fox was outsmarted but I wonder at the lesson. Did it teach Doug that the fox's greediness was his downfall or did it make him think foxes really eat little boys?

We tried to smooth away the horror that we also felt but we sensed that in one innocent moment our little boy had lost his relaxed attitude and had become very tense. It took a great deal of talking before he relaxed. It is not pleasant to think you have just read such a gruesome statement to your son, albeit in innocence.

Before we sick too many raiders on the television industry, it might be a good idea if we looked to our own bookshelves to see what bits of horror lie there.

We might be very surprised.

What I Miss About Mentone

I miss the fine corn that grew every year by the road to the parsonage. I miss the little garden in the back yard. I miss, in the three years, living next to my neighbors that I only saw maybe six times. The one thing that I miss most is the fine boys and girls that I had a few minutes to the worship service. I miss the children that lived back of the church who came to help me so many times. I miss the pop machine at the "Help Yourself Laundry" and talking with the fine lady that ran it. I miss the paper office. I miss talking to the people in the grocery. I miss my good friend that walked by my house every day. I miss the long chicken house. I miss the sheep in the pasture back of my house. I miss the train that went through, at a distance. I miss the nice church yard. Although I seldom ate at the Mentone Fine Restaurant, but I miss it. I miss the rough road to Warsaw that I made every day to the hospital. I miss, and my wife more so, the wonderful variety store in Mentone. I miss the good doctor. I miss preaching to a fine congregation. I miss the fine people at the bank. I miss the fine way the undertaker took care of everything. I miss the filling station and the fine car dealer and his family. I miss one of the Warsaw papers trying to prove me wrong when they knew I was right. I miss the cold shoulder I got after I came back from a political convention and told the truth on How It Was. I miss so many wonderful people in Mentone and round about. I miss Talma and all the wonderful things they brought me to eat.

I have forgotten, so I can't miss the one half dozen people who tried to make it hard on any minister! I shall always miss the good and there must not have been any bad or I have forgotten.

I was there and I was glad.

An Editorial

Against the background of confusion that surrounds our local schools, it is nice to note that the school board and the superintendent have re-instated two vitally needed programs in the school curriculum--remedial reading and speech therapy.

While there is still a long road to travel before the school dilemma is straightened out and there are still areas that need attention in the curriculum, let's not be so militant that we overlook those elementary students who need the extra help these two subjects will give.

We hope this time both programs can remain in the curriculum.

BACKCOUNTRY CAMPING by Bill Riviere. This is a practical guide to back-packing and backwoods camping. Recommended equipment and techniques for enjoying our wilderness areas.

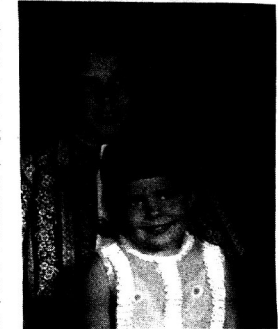

THE RA EXPEDITIONS by Thor Heyerdahl. Could men have sailed across the oceans in small reed boats centuries before the beginnings of recorded history? Thor Heyerdahl decided to find out by crossing the Atlantic in a boat made of papyrus reeds - not once, but twice. In this book, he tells how those expeditions were planned and carried out. He describes the search for men to build Ra and Ra II, and for a unique international crew to sail them. He portrays the excitement of discovery in the same compelling personal style that made Kon-Tiki and Aku-Aku best sellers.

THE FOUNDLING by Gergette Heyer. The Duke whose friends called him "Gilly", was one of the most unassuming and kindly of young men whose chief desire was to be for a while "plain Mr. Dash of Nowhere in Particular". With this story Gergette Heyer has enacted one of her wittiest comedies.

THE STORY OF THE TRAPP FAMILY SINGERS by Maria Augusta Trapp. This is the story of a remarkable singing family and of its devotion to an ideal.

News Of Interest To Homemakers

by Ann Hancock, Area Extension Agent
Kosciusko County

The children are all back in school now and the Extension Homemakers program is in full swing. During the summer months there are few activities other than the Fair.

The September President's Council meeting informed the presidents of all the up coming activities. The Fall Luncheon is planned for October 27 at the Shrine Building, Fairgrounds. The theme for the day is "This Ole House" and the program will be presented by the Roann Threesome. Tickets are available at the County Extension Office. At the luncheon a scholarship will be awarded to a college girl from this county. The scholarship is awarded on the basis of need, applicant's character, and reference. Applications are available at the office. Mrs. Richard Whittenberger reported on Homemakers Camp which was held September 13 and 14 at Camp Mack. It was quite evident that if you missed camp you missed a good time. Mrs. William Deerwester informed the presidents that the dates for the Christmas Bazaar had been changed to Nov. 12 and 13 due to teachers institute.

Mrs. Fred Kuhn, past president, reported on the success of the 1971 Kosciusko County Fair. The Women's Dept. had 1490 entries, an all time high. She also explained the new procedure for the educational exhibits for next year.

In the past, all twelve booths have covered topics of leader training lessons. Next year there will be four categories with three booths in each category - Health & Safety, Citizenship, Special Interest Lessons and Leader Training Lessons. It is hoped that this will stimulate more interest in the exhibits and inform the public of the various areas covered in the program.

Dates were given for several upcoming events and the meeting was closed. Any women interested in the Extension Homemaker Program contact the County Extension Office.

Eisenhower Scholarships Are Available

High school seniors and graduates who have not yet entered college are eligible to compete for a series of scholarships being awarded state-wide by the Eisenhower Memorial Scholarship Foundation, Inc.

All Indiana high schools have received information and materials packets on the scholarship program. Application deadline is Sept. 30, 1971.

Six $1,000 scholarships will be awarded Indiana students.

The scholarships will not be confined to the basis of need but will go to the six winners chosen by a distinguished panel of judges as best exemplifying the ideals of Americanism and Christianity as the Founding Fathers as personified by the late President Eisenhower.

The eventual goal of the Eisenhower Foundation is to establish scholarship awards comparable to the Rhodes Scholarship program.

Students who have graduated from high school but have not as yet entered college and current high school seniors may secure entry forms at their local high school or write directly to the Eisenhower Scholarship Foundation, Inc., Box 1324, Bloomington, Ind. 46401.

Under procedures of the Eisenhower Scholarship competition, interested candidates will submit essays of about, but not exceeding 2,000 words on the subject "What Should the Role of Government Be in a Society Which Safeguards Individual Freedom." The deadline is Oct. 30.

Anthony Nigo DAR Hears Coverlet Talk

The first fall meeting of Anthony Nigo Chapter, NSDAR, Mentone, was held Tuesday at the Rochester home of Mrs. Eldred Paulus. The ritual, pledge to the flag and national anthem were led by the regent, Mrs. Loren Gross. Fourteen members and three guests, Mrs. Ira M. Smyrl, Northern District Director, Mrs. Judith Rickes of LaPorte and Mrs. Blanche Whitmeyer of Roan, were present. The regent read a poem about September and turned the program over to Mrs. Frank Smith who introduced the northern district director who gave an inspiring talk about the Constitution in commemoration of Constitution Week, September 17 to 23 and also information on her collection of coverlets.

Coverlets are woven with threads on looms so that the colors are reversed on either side. Most are extremely old and came to this country with the settlers. There is a border and the design or pattern is in the center, many depicting the country from which they originated. Some have looped threads to bring out a specific design. Mrs. Smyrl's collection was started by her father and totals approximately 88.

In regard to the Constitution, she stressed the NSDAR theme for 1971-1972, "Where there is no vision, the people perish," Proverbs 29:18. Its foundation is spiritual in design and will give security intended by the men who wrote this declaration. She said, "We should have the faith of those forefathers, faith in themselves, faith in their fellow man, faith in their belief for freedom and above all faith in God. These men gave us material of which there is no equal and although there is much global struggle now that attempts to disrupt all we hold dear, we should be strong as they were to the cause of freedom. There were 48 signers of our constitution born on American soil and eight of British origin but all were believers in the Supreme Being."

"What makes a nation great? FAITH in God is the most important part. F-Fidelity and Foundation; A-Ambition; I-Industry; T-Talent; H-Honor. Are we each prepared to help our nation survive? Our servicemen will take care of the enemies without. It is up to us to take care of the enemies within."

Refreshments were served by the hostess and co-hostesses, Mrs. Ray Linn and Mrs. John Fredrick.

A short business meeting was conducted by the regent and the President General's message was read by Mrs. Ray Rush. They reminded members of their obligation and privilege, with the passing of the 26th amendment to the Constitution, of intensifying the education and training of the young people for future citizenship, to provide them with a thorough understanding of the moral, spiritual and Constitutional values on which the freedoms are based. They said, "We must look to the future for our youth."

The National Defense Chairman, Mrs. Thomas Fugate, read several articles regarding the security of the national defense, saying the objectives set forth in 1959 by Red China are slowly coming to pass and reminding members it is up to them to change the course they have set for this country.

A reminder was given members of the rummage and bake sale to be held October 15 and 16 at Smith's garage.

The state conference will be held October 19 and 20 at the Marott Hotel. Representatives who will attend are the regent, Mrs. Loren Gross; the alternate regent, Mrs. Frank Smith; delegate, Mrs. Ray Linn, and alternate delegate, Mrs. Glenn Clauss.

The meeting closed by repeating the American Creed.

The next meeting will be at Teel's restaurant in Mentone with the Tippecanoe River Chapter of Bourbon as guests. This will be a salad smorgasbord beginning at 6:30 and reservations are to be sent to Mrs. Loren Gross by October 8. The program will be on national defense and will be given by Mrs. W. D. Hissem, State Chairman of National Defense, from Ft. Wayne.

Special Meeting Set At Church

A special invitation to area residents who are concerned about the banning of prayer and Bible reading in the public schools, the liberal trends in churches and government, the thrust of communism as a tool of satan, the decline of loyalties to God and county and the matter of eternity and where you'll spend it has been issued by the Rev. T. U. Meyers, pastor of the Pleasant View Community Church, which is located on Road 200 N. off of Fox Farm Road, north of Warsaw.

Dr. George Hess, an authority on ecumenism and communism, a practicing physician and past president of the American Association of Physicians and Surgeons, will be the guest speaker. His messages, "The Irreconcilable Conflict Between Communism and Christianity," will be delivered at 7:30 p.m. on September 24 and 25 and at 9:30 and 10:30 a.m. September 26.

Ditty Bags To Be Packed Monday, Articles Still Needed

The Kosciusko Co. Chapter American Red Cross 1971 "Ditty Bag" project for servicemen and women in South Vietnam will be completed with the packing of the bags on Monday, September 27, at the chapter headquarters at 501 No. Lake St., Warsaw.

Mrs. Amer Koontz, Sidney, is this year's project chairman. She invites anyone wishing to help pack to report to the headquarters at 10 a.m. She advises there is still a need for additional articles for the Christmas bags.

Concerning last year's gift bag distribution, Col. John W. Norwald, Chief of Military Personnel Management and Services Division in Saigon, said, "The 1970 Shop Early Program is considered to have been a highly successful one and one that made a significant contribution to the morale of the U. S. Forces at Christmas time. The efforts of the American Red Cross and the thousands of volunteers responsible for the program are greatly appreciated."

Tim Jaqua, Winona Lake, a veteran of two Christmases in Vietnam, has told how pleased the servicemen and women were to receive gifts from some unknown person—who cares. Tim also told how he placed the gift "bags" on an improvised Christmas tree for distribution, and said it was most interesting to watch the "swapping" that took place after the bags were open. Many letters of those receiving the "Ditty Bag Gifts" make the local chapter aware of the value of the project.

The W.S.C.S. of the Island Chapel Church is sewing the bags. Mrs. Michael Zimmerman and Mrs. John Biller, Milford, are in charge of that phase of the project.

Silver Lake Board Rejects Three-Way Resolution

The Silver Lake town board recently turned down a request for a favorable resolution recommending a three-way liquor license for the Silver Inn owned by Eddie Smith. Smith presented the board petitions containing signatures of 134 persons in favor of approving the three-way license but town board members said only 22 of the persons who signed the petitions were lawful residents of Silver Lake.

Other petitions opposing the liquor license contained 170 names and the town officials said 108 of these were valid residents of the town.

After verifying the signatures on the petitions for and against, the town board ruled in favor of the majority and denied the resolution for the liquor license.

Smith is currently operating the inn under a two-way beer and wine permit but was requesting the resolution from the town board so he could apply to the Alcoholic Beverage Commission for the additional liquor license.

The best investments always are the ones you weren't clever enough to make.

Many women just can't tell the truth all the time. There isn't that much.

Compared Hog Checks Lately?

There are more offers to buy your hogs—more places to sell them than ever before. Wonderful! Competition assures hog producers a better price.

BUT . . . don't plunge into marketing traps!

Look beyond "high tops" and examine the actual check you receive. What good is the "top"—if you don't get it?

What's the value of a 50c higher bid—if you lose 50 to 60 cents in marketing costs?

What's the purpose of hauling 25 to 100 miles farther up the road for 25c more—if it costs you that much, and more, in shrink and trucking?

Next time you market hogs, satisfy yourself that you will receive the largest possible check—not the largest gross price, BUT THE LARGEST CHECK!

Do it by selling to your nearby Heinold Market. For market information that "his group" had threatened to sue the board if it took any action to continue the two-school policy and said he felt this was such an action. Board member Philip Lash said he felt the board should have been told as the members were the ones who would feel the brunt of such a project and that it was bad if they did not know what was going on.

Forbes said he felt he was within his authority in having the extension built but said if he had erred he was entitled to an official reprimand by three members of the board.

McKee moved that all claims be allowed except the ones for materials for the extension and the motion was voted down 4-1.

A contract for a speech and hearing therapist who began work six days after school started was approved. It was noted that she and the remedial reading teacher were using the nurse's station in each of the schools on alternate days. It was also noted that some speech therapy would be available for high school students.

A motion by Dr. McKee to appeal the County Tax Adjustment Board's cut in the proposed budget to the state board was passed 3-2 with Dr. Van Gilder and Goshert voting no.

Forbes reported the official enrollment was considerably higher than the enrollment figures announced at the first of the school year and said it appeared the total enrollment in the corporation was down only four or five from the same date a year ago.

The board approved a policy statement on lunch programs and agreed to the names of Lonnie Hopkins and Mrs. Max Van-Cleave would be put on a waiting list for bus driver vacancies in their areas.

Bloodmobile Sets Sept. 30 Visit

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit Kosciusko Co. Thursday, September 30. The unit will be located at Grace College gym from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m., according to Steve Devenney, Blood Program chairman for the chapter. Dr. Norman Up-house, education and psychology professor at Grace College and Red Cross Chapter Chairman, is in charge of the arrangements for the visit. The quota for this visit is 200 pints.

Mrs. Bush Is New Mentone Clerk

Mrs. Roberta Bush, wife of Mentone Town Board member Kenneth Bush, was named clerk-treasurer at a recent meeting of the town board. She will replace Clayton Holloway who resigned.

Lewis Parker, a representative of Lakeland Disposal Service, Silver Lake, was present to explain his company's garbage and trash pick-up service and expressed a desire to bid on a contract with Mentone for the coming year.

Purchase of 200 lot markers to be used in marking lots being laid out in a new part of the cemetery was approved by the board.

At a recent meeting of the Mentone Zoning Board of Appeals, special exception was granted Edgar Cochran and Roland Brown to place mobile homes in areas not zoned for mobile homes, and the town board, in accord with that decision, voted to make the amendment a part of the town board business.

In addition to being an evangelist, he is a writer and author of two volumes of gospel sermons, literature for ladies' Bible classes, and other books such as "Seven Ages of Man" and "The Days of Thy Youth."

Pastor of the local church, T. R. Jones, says Mr. Smith's lessons are always of great interest because of his diversified experience in the area of Bible and evangelism.

Banks Largest Lenders To Indiana Farmers

Indiana banks were providing farmers with more credit and other financial services than any other lenders at the beginning of this year, according to Harold Groninger, President of the Akron Exchange State Bank, who represents the Indiana Bankers Association as Fulton County Key Banker. During 1970, the banks maintained their leadership in agricultural credit services.

Based on the 30th annual farm lending summary of the Agricultural and Rural Affairs Committee of the American Bankers Association, Mr. Groninger reported that at the beginning of the year, Indiana banks were helping farmers with $500 million in loans, 8 per cent more than a year previous. This total included $304 million in production loans and $196 million in farm mortgages. At the same time, $177 million in farm loans was held by life insurance companies; $284 million by the Federal Land Banks; $176 million by Production Credit Associations; and $15 million in non-real estate loans, plus $3.9 million in real estate loans by the Farmers Home Administration. About 61 per cent of the production credit extended by lending institutions to Indiana farmers came from banks.

Mr. Groninger said the "bankers in Indiana are conscious of the large capital investments required in agriculture today and are making a concerted effort through improved lending program to meet these changing credit demands of the state's farmers."

The increased use of credit by farmers, according to Mr. Groninger, has been accompanied by a substantial gain in the total assets of farm families. Therefore, in the aggregate, the equity position of farmers, contrary to public opinion, is being maintained at a satisfactory level. Nationally, farm families have $258 billion of their own funds invested in agriculture. This represents 81 per cent of the total capital requirements of farmers.

Mr. Groninger stressed the importance of farmers and bankers working closely together to improve farm financial arrangements. He reported that almost nine out of ten insured banks throughout the country had agricultural loans outstanding, with nearly 98 per cent of the banks in Indiana extending credit to farm people.

Barber Shop Is Sold

Waechter's Barber Shop, an Akron institution since its founding more than 50 years ago, has been sold by its owner, Walter (Beanie) Waechter, to Ershel Carlile, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Carlile, Rochester.

The shop, closed much of the time since Mr. Waechter's retirement last year, has been reopened and active management and operation have been assumed by Mr. Carlile.

Ray Bradway Is Assoc. Pastor

The Rev. Ray Bradway, Anderson, has accepted a call by the Akron Church of God to become associate pastor of the local church.

Rev. Bradway is a graduate of Anderson College and also holds a Master of Religious Education Degree from the Seminary. He is a native of Wichita, Kan.

Mrs. Bradway, a native of East Canton, Ohio where her father is a pastor, is currently in her junior year at Anderson College.

LICENSE SUSPENSION

Driving privileges of Monroe Prater, Akron, have been suspended for a one year period ending Feb. 22, 1973, according to the Bureau of Motor Vehicles. The suspension was based on a drunken driving charge.

Rev. Bradway will work specifically in the areas of music and youth and will also work with the church in any expanded areas of service.

The Bradways will move to Akron in December but he will assume part-time work with the church beginning October 7.

THE EASTMEN QUARTET of Lansdale, Pa. will present a gospel concert at the Silver Creek Church of God Tuesday, October 5, at 7:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome to attend.

ODDS and ENDS

By Ann Sheetz

Insomnia is vicious and strange. Not actually a disease, yet it strikes its victims without warning and leaves them wide awake, neither knowing why they are awake nor when, if ever, they will fall asleep.

As a case in point, I cite my Sunday night bout with the sleep-killer:

Tired and sleepy, battling the remains of a severe cold, I went to bed early, snuggled comfortably and turned off the light. In that split second, the sleep-killer struck. Eyes wide open, heart beating rapidly, I began the endless tossing that identifies an insomnia victim.

Might as well use the time to plan our Christmas list, I decided, only to panic when I found none of us needed anything. I didn't say none of us wanted anything, just that none of us needed anything. It was a comforting thought and reminded me of the song, "Count Your Blessings Instead of Sheep."

Well, I counted. I have a husband. Zzzronk the husband snored into my ear. Have husband, he snores. I turned the other direction. Have two sons. "Stop him! Don't let him get past you!" one of them screamed from his room. Have two sons, one of them talks in his sleep. I flopped on my back. Have a nice house--well, not so nice that a lot of work wouldn't help it. Now if I put some fringe on the dining room curtains, would they look better? I debated the point, mentally pacing back and forth across the room, always walking around the sewing machine. Why does the sewing machine have to be in the dining room? Because there is no other place to put it. Mentally--I work better that way--I picked up the sewing machine and moved it into each of the other rooms. Once I built a special room for it; another time I hid it behind curtains. It always ended back in the dining room. Loren zzzronked in my ear again. I coughed in his. Doggone sewing machine. Must be a better place to put it. Loren zzzronked again; I coughed. We both rolled over. Sleep seemed imminent. "Don't let him get by you!" bellowed our 13-year old football fam. My body tensed, every nerve taut. The house was silent. Not really a bad house, I thought. Re-side it, get a new porch, a patio in the rear. The sound of the little cash register in my brain drowned out Loren's zzzronk.

After seven sleepless hours, I rose to face the world and a new week. I can't do it, I thought. Every bone in my body ached, either from actual fatigue or from carrying the sewing machine (psychosomatic fatigue hurts too, you know).

Surprisingly, I got through the day without getting sleepy. This worried me a great deal and I concentrated on a cure for the sleep-killer that seemed likely to strike again. The concentration was strictly mental--much more mental than carrying a sewing machine, so mental in fact--but wait,

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

We're mighty proud to see the cleanup and beautification which noticeably picked up this summer and is on the upswing. Up in our end of town, Gig Leininger kicked off a "PROJECT NEW CURB". Gig worked like a beaver in starting with his own curb; and then helping the rest of us with his know-how, materials, and encouragement.

I could point out dozens of people who rolled up their sleeves--cleaning up, painting, building sidewalks (take a look at Joe Boswell's project), and planting flowers and trees. Then when you swing out around the outskirts of town, you see a lot of people are in the show.

We discovered our own old Winona stock yard property was pretty "cruddy" so we decided to get busy and clean off the trash, weeds, and brush and tear down the old Winona grade so that we could level it off and make it presentable. Dean "Johnny Appleseed" Baker wants to plant trees around the border to dress it up a little. We hope you'll come down and look at it.

Again, Akron is a wonderful community with lots of prospects, and from the men and women of Pike Lumber Company--a healthy thank you!

Howard Utter

P.S. The town dump area might also be filled in, leveled off (as a land fill project), and put to vital community use with a little do-it-ourselves elbow grease work project. It could be given a little landscaping and tree planting when it's finished to complement the community.

I'm getting ahead of myself. The thing is, no effort is too great if it involves finding a cure for the sleep-killer, Big I, Insomnia.

Actually, I have already told you the cure. Yours may be different. Mine starts, "Insomnia is vicious and strange." By the time I got that far in mentally writing this piece I was asleep and it wasn't until the next night that I was able to use my waning strength to translate the thoughts into words.

And if just reading about it hasn't already cured your insomnia, you really have a bad case. Writing about it hazzzzz

News Of Interest To Homemakers

by Ann Hancock, Area Extension Agent
Kosciusko County

"Let's clean up our environment" has become a national battle cry. One of the many areas of concern to homemakers is the matter of washing either with no phosphates or with low phosphates detergents.

This poses several questions. What alternatives are there to phosphates? Should we return to using soap products? Will non-phosphate detergents perform satisfactorily and safely?

The first alternative is to wash with soap. Soap will give good results when used with soft water. And only one third of the American households have water softeners. There are water conditioning products but they contain phosphates, so if you switch to soap to eliminate phosphates you gain nothing by softening your water with these packaged preparations.

The other alternative is to use a phosphate free detergent. Extensive testing needs to be done to see if these detergents affect the life of automatic washers. The products were put on the market so fast that adequate testing was not done. Also it has been found that these detergents do not clean as well as those containing phosphates. These detergents are more dangerous to small children and should be kept out of reach.

What is the answer then? Perhaps a better answer would be to improve our sewage disposal plants to remove phosphates from waste. Taxpayers of Kosciusko County should be especially anxious to see adequate sewage treatment to protect our lakes. Let's work to stop the dumping of raw sewage into the lakes.

Homemakers are in a dilemma. We are all concerned with ecology and want to do all we can to help. In days gone by, homemakers took the clothes out of the water in conventional washers; now we take the water out of the clothes in automatic washers. This is what causes the problems and the need for phosphate. If substitution for the phosphate is not an ideal or even practical solution at this point, the alternative is to remove the phosphates from the waste water.

APPLE TUNA TOSS

In large, salad bowl, combine lettuce, apples, oranges, tuna and nuts, toss together. Combine mayonnaise soy sauce and lemon juice; mix well; toss dressing gently with salad. Makes 4-6 servings. Main dish.

Jack Layman Will Speak At District Convention

The Thirteenth District Convention of the Indiana Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at the Grace United Methodist Church in Rochester on Friday, October 8.

Jeffrey Jay, 11, Pamela Michelle, 7, children of Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Horn. R. 2, Akron.

Highlight of the day-long convention will be a talk by Jack Layman, director of the Sangralee Valley Home for boys near Onward. Mr. Layman will try to clarify the charges that were lodged against the home by an Indianapolis paper. Accompanying him will be Jim Hancock, a high school senior, who will play the guitar and sing three numbers.

Reservations should be sent to Mrs. Earl Barkman, R. 5, Rochester.

Two men robbed a bank but luckily the police got a description of the car. It was either a 1965, 1966, 1967, 1968, 1969 or 1970 Volkswagen.

After taxpayers go crazy or bankrupt or both, they are taken care of by the taxpayers who haven't gone yet.

How To Get The Most Out Of Your Gas Heat

You can stretch your gas heating dollars a little further this year by making a few preparations before cold weather arrives.

• Check your furnace filter; clean or replace it if necessary. • Take a look at your insulation, especially if you live in an older home. • Make sure your storm windows and storm doors fit tightly. • Carefully fill joints between masonry and wood if it needs it. • Weather strip doors. • Have your furnace inspected regularly by a reputable, qualified heating contractor to keep it at peak operating efficiency. • Check flues and chimneys at least once a year. A blocked flue should be cleared immediately. Replace rusting or corroded flues right away.

Keep comfortable all season long with NIPSCO's clean, dependable natural gas—and save, too.

Natural gas is still the least expensive fuel you can buy!

The Silver Lake Lion's entertained their ladies and guests with an appreciation Smorgasbord dinner at Steer Inn September 20th. Sara Thompson, daughter of Lion and Mrs. Cole Thompson, participated in the International Lion's Student Exchange Program and was sponsored by the local club. She spent six weeks in France, in the area of Chartres about fifty miles from Paris, and visited Paris three times. She expressed her thanks to the Club, and presented them with a banner from the Chartres Lions, then showed very fine slides of France. Stuart Lindzy was presented a floral arrangement in appreciation for their efforts in running the Fair stand this year. Guests at the dinner were prospective members and friends who helped at the fair stand.

Jolly Good Neighbors Meet

"My Husband's Favorite Food" was the answer to roll call given by sixteen members of the Jolly Good Neighbors home extension club held recently at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Hudson, with Mrs. Deverl Jamison as assistant hostess.

Mrs. Gerald Parker, vice-president, opened the meeting by reading the thought for the day, then led the group in singing "America, The Beautiful" and repeating the pledge to the flag and the club creed. For meditations she presented an inspiring article entitled "Make The Most of Today".

After Mrs. Eugene Polk read the history of the song of the month, "For Me and My Gal," the members joined in singing it.

Mrs. Dean Grandstaff, health and safety leader, presented a very interesting and enlightening article on the use and effects of coffee.

For garden remarks, Mrs. Henry Morrison told how to get rid of grasshoppers, when and how to separate and get out rhubarb and various spring flowers and suggested planting garlic around tomato plants and laying bits of charcoal around celery to help bleach it.

Mrs. Deverl Jamison, citizenship leader, told of the county trip being planned for Senior Citizens. Mrs. Riley Parker gave the lesson on "Indiana Tax Laws".

A report of the county council meeting was given by the president, Mrs. Perry Hathaway and several business matters were discussed. Cards were sent to sick members; and the meeting was closed by all repeating the club collect.

Take your problems to Church this week -

ON YOUR MARK! GET SET! GO!

In many respects life is comparable to a foot race, but before a young man is ready to enter that track meet there should be intensive preparation and training from childhood until he is called to the starting line. Before he is ready for "GO", knowledge, power and enthusiasm must be acquired as well as education and training for a special vocation.

Even with an abundance of these requirements there is another essential that is vital and necessary, even if not as tangible. That essential is Faith. Without it life is as a powerful ship without a rudder. Faith is needed from the time of childhood until the end of the race.

How may it be acquired and kept? There is no better source of supply, and for the strengthening of that supply, than the church of one's faith. Given the same sought-after attention as that expended in acquiring the other essentials the young man will have faith necessary for the race and he'll be ready for "GO!"

Always Walk In Sunshine". She was escorted to the East and presented a gift from the girls. At this time Sheri presented the Merit bars earned during her term to Vicki Bouse, Debbie Beasley, Linda Beasley, Marilyn Sellers, Deborah Ramsey, Adele Cumberland, Cindy Benzing, Debbie Manns and Connie Carr. Attendance bars for the term went to Sheri Schwiier, Cheryl Nicodemus and Deborah Ramsey and Lynn Casey. Sheri then presented to Vicki the Assembly traveling Worthy Advisor's pin which was worn by every worthy advisor since 1965.

As Vicki received her pin and the gavel, symbol of her office, the soloist sang "This Is Our Country". She introduced her family, friends and special guests. She has dedicated her term to her two brothers in the service of their country and who could not be present and to the fact that Patriotism was her first office in Rainbow. Her motto is "Obtain Peace Through Understanding", and suspended in the East in red letters on a white background. Her watchwords, Love and Peace were in the West in red and blue letters and her song, "Let There Be Peace on Earth". Her floor, the red and white carnation and her symbol the American Flag and her colors were red, white and blue.

Following remarks by the guests and the Benediction by the Chaplain the officers had the closing march. The guests were then served cake, nuts, mints, coffee and punch from a table decorated with the cake in the style of the American Flag, made by Vickie and one with tiny flags. Throughout the assembly room, the serving room and the dining room, the red white, and blue theme was carried out.

Servers were Beth Gillespie, Sue Grimm, Mrs. Sandra Sellers and Mrs. Harriette Zimmer.
