MEMORIES OF THE OLD MENTONE SCHOOL will be re-lived at the September 12 alumni carry-in din-ner at the Mentone school. Built in 1893, the building housed all 12 grades and was used un-til 1932 when the present building was built. The old building, which stood on the corner of Broadway and Harrison streets on the present site of Dr. Wymond Wilson's office, was de-stroyed by fire in 1944 or 1945. Special re-cognition will be given members of the classes of 1926 and 1951 at the 12:30 p.m. dinner. Alumni officers are Everett Long, president, and Elaine Fugate, secretary. Trail of Death this weekend will honor Indians

Trail of Death--what an ugly name for a Bi-centennial event. Bet-ter to forget such a thing ever happened. The Trail of Death re-moval of the Potawatomi Indians from northern Indiana has been over-looked and almost forlooked and almost forgotten by most Hoosiers. But the Fulton County Historical Society is planning a rendezvous and re-enactment of the march across Fulton Co. as a Bicentennial event. Why? Not to celebrate a sad and disgraceful treatment of the first inhabitants of Indiana, inhabitants of indiana, but to commemorate their courageous suffering and to remind people that to remind people that Indiana means "Indian land."

The Rendezvous, which includes three major events, will be center-ed on a 50-acre field on SR 25, four miles south of Rochester. The three events are a re-enactment of the march, the Rendezvous and the dedication of two his-torical markers. On Saturday, Septem-ber 4, local residents will re-enact the forc-ed emigration across ed emigration across Fulton Co., strictly ad-hering to events and across and route recorded in the diary of Jesse C. Douglas, enrolling agent for the original march in 1838. The modern day trek will begin at 9 a.

Education vs

Economics

Dear Editor, Education Versus Econclassroom" at Akron or classroom" at Akron or Mentone? Maybe not this year but what about next year? Each time a class year? Each time a class comes along which does not have over 30 students per room, you could have a split class. We were told this was done strictly for econ-omic reasons (not better education) and is not necessarily a one year project!

These classes were set nese classes were set up last spring during the school year to save members. The school board members we have question-ed, have told us it is not an economics proed, have told us it is not an economics pro-blem. We do have the money for the teachers. do have the Hiring a grade school P.E. teacher proves this. The "split-class" stu-dents were NOT selected according to their abil-ity. They were selected ity. Theywere selected at random, basically on the qualification they and their parents would be the path of least re-sistance. The parents and the school board were kept in the dark. Dr. Harrell's said be

Dr. Harrell* said he expects a certain amount failures with this gram. When asked aof of failures with this program. When asked a-about this, Mr. Rager agreed, the way the class is set up there, will be failures. Do you want this to be your child?

If you are concerned about your child's education, contact the school board members. Let them know how you feel. Also attend the school board meeting September 20 at 7:30 p.m. in the superinten-dent's office at Tippecanoe Valley High School.

If these classes re-main split this year, the other grades could be split next year! Yours truly,

Concerned parents Mr. and Mrs. John Feldman

Capitulation Dear Editor, At last week's school

At last week 5 board meeting Forbes said other boards are capitulating and going broke. I thought our inted when broke. I thought our board capitulated when they fired you and then rehired you and gave you a five thousand dollar raise and also created a new position we never needed before and don't need now. Many schools much larger than ours do not have business do not have business managers. We are paying more for administrators per pupil then any sys-tem around. All the taxpayers I have talked to are of the opinion that if Mr. Harrell is not capable of handling the position without a business manager we should get one that could.

could. Since Forbes took over our schools we have had lawyers and law suits which have cost the taxpayers many thousands of dollars.

of dollars. Forbes also stated "If we don't stand up to the labor forces they will bankrupt the farmers." I say if we do not stand up to the admini-strators they will bank-rupt the taxpayers. If we could only get three good, intelligent and honest board members at one time things would at one time things would straighten out. I hope we have them on our new board.

In case Forbes doesn't agree with me, explain why Dr. Wilson and Dick Goshert were so badly beaten in the last election. If they had not rehired Forbes they both would have been reelected. Gerald Clinker

Mother delivers own baby

By Ann Sheetz

Ordinarily, the birth of Carla and Jim Beery's first child would have been reported: Mr. and Mrs. James Beery, R. 2, Akron, are parents of a five pound, 8½ ounce son, Timothy Paul, born September 10. Grandparents vare Mr. and Mrs. George Grossman, R. 2, Akron, Jack Beery and Mrs. Earl Vánce, Rochester.

But Timothy Paul's birth was not an ordi-nary one, nor was it one his parents, grandmoth-er and neighbors will soon forget. Timothy Paul Beery was born at home. The only other person pre-sent was his mother. In a time when many parents are opting for bone deliveries, this home deliveries, this is not remarkable in itself, except that it hadn't been planned that way and, besides, he did surprise them by arriv-ing more than a month early.

Carla Beery felt ill at work and consulted her doctor on her way home. He agreed that her pains were probably a recurrence of a troublesome kidney infection and gave her some medi-cine and instructions to go home and rest.

But she became more and more uncomfortable, and finally her husband rushed to get his mother-in-law, who lives a few miles, south of the couple's Barr Lake trailer home.

By the time they re-turned, 17-year-old Car-la Beery had delivered Timothy Paul, and her startled husband turned to shout to his mother-in-law, "Hurry up, Grand-ma! The baby's here!"

of the contamination is from septic tank effluent and not raw sewage. Kantner replied, "Why not have a water sewage treatment plant and eliminate the solid waste collection plant?"

Jim Snyder, a repre-sentative of Commonwealth Engineers, the firm that designed the proposed sewage system, replied, "You have to replied, You have to have some way of getting all sewage to the treat-ment plant, and if you plan to use an EPA (En-virnomental Protection Agency) grant, you not build a syste can not build a system to treat storm water, and if you use existing sew-ers, that's what you system to ers, that's while you would be going. There is no other way if you want EPA funds.

Many residents asked Many residents askeu if it would be possible to let each homeowner update his own septic system and eliminate the need for a treatment officials to ask how this would be funded. "If you can force us to hook onto a sewer, you should be able to force hook us to have our so systems inspected repaired," audience septic and audience mem-repaired, bers retorted. Others, however, not-ed the high cost (esti-mated at $1,500-$3,000) of installing a com-lete septic system, for annual cleaning ($60-$70), the lack of space on most lots for leach fields and the problem of enforcement.

Dr. Donald VanGilder, who asked many ques-tions and taped parts that the petition pre-sented at last town board meeting from more than 300 Mentone property owners gave permission to have septic systems checked. Realtor Jo Gamble said it would cost $15 each to have the individual systems checked to see if they are working they working properly, but Gibson re-plied that the best way to do this was by flush-ing dye through the sys-tem, limiting the test to one per day and therefore requiring more than a year to complete than a year to complete.

In response to Ron Brown's question, "Is this meeting for no-thing?" Carl Fox of the permit section of the Stream Pollution Con-trol Board said, "If you can meet water quality standards without treatstandards without treat-ment and if you can make people periodically clean their septic sys-tems, this might work. But at this point in time, there are no funds for this type of in-spection and cleaning." in-He said any group could make a request to the technical secretary for inclusion on the board third Tuesday of each month meetings, the re-quests to reach him at least three weeks prior to that date.

Bob Whetstone challenged protestors to con-sider the cost of replacing present septic systems, which he esti-mated to be 25-40 years old and in no way meet-ing size standards, with the estimated $13 per the estimated $13 per month cost for the ave-rage homeowner if the new system is put into operation.

Jim Miller, owner of Miller's Mobile Home Court, diagrammed the type system he was re-pured to install and quired to install and said it was adequate, in spite of the fact it did not require as much area as residents were told each home should have.

Ralph Mollenhour read an article from a Florida newspaper describing ida newspaper describing the septic systems in Jacksonville and asked if a city of that size could use septic tanks, why not a town of Men-tone's size. Whetstone said Jacksonville 'is like Indianapolis---it bas annexed a lot of has annexed a lot of has annexed a lot of adjacent territory. "I'll bet you wouldn't find many septic systems in the former city lim-its," he said. Dr. Wymond Wilson con-luded the received cluded the remarks by backing the board. He said, "The town board is facing a situation had nothing to do inging on. The they in bringing on. The facts are, septic tanks facts are, septic tanks aren't working. Streams will clean themselves if they are not over-whelmed, but this is not the case here. We can't bury our heads in the sand. The board is doing what they think best and this is a golden op-portunity to get the portunity to get the system in with a govern-ment grant (75 percent from federal funds, ten percent from state and 15 percent from local revenue to be raised through monthly sewage charges). If you wait until you get mandated without any federal funds, it could cost without any federal funds, it could cost $100 per month instead of the estimated $13. If you keep putting this off, excalation will be greater and greater. The board doesn't want to spend money, but they are facing the situaare facing the s tion as it is and tion as it is and try-ing to correct it." Town board members are Gerald Romine, Wayne Tombaugh and Frank Har-Gerald desty. Also present were clerk-treasurer Kate Whetstone and town attorney Lee Bazini.

60 YEARS AGO 60 YEARS AGO Mr. E. L. Bright, Jack we call him, brought to this office two ears of speckled corn last Saturday, that he raised this year in 90 days. They were solid, fully developed, of a yellow speckled variety and he called it the Merley corn as he bought the seed of Bill Merley last spring to plant the eight acre field. These two ears are fair-sized, one with 14 rows and the other with 16 rows of grain. They are on exhibition at the State Bank. The City Water Company is having some trouble with the great automatic pressure tank. It has been shipped from the factory, but is lost on the way or sidetracked somewhere. It's delay in coming has hindered Samuel Miller in his work on the water works building. The tank must be installed before the building is enough to admit it to place. J. W. Swick filled his silo with silage Tuesday. He is one of our up to date farmers and believes in scientific farming. Mrs. Allen Perry saw Ernest Bright's two ears of early corn at the State Bank the other day and she made haste to beat them, by bring-ing with her last Saturday two of the nicest, biggest ears of yellow corn you might wished to see. ### Librarian conducts search for Hoosier authors

A state-wide search for Indiana authors who have published works since 1966 and those who may have been previous-ly unknown has begun in preparation for the third edition of "Indi-ana Authors and Their Books." Donald E. Thompson. state-wide search Books." Donald E. Thompson, librarian at Wabash Col-lege, is compiling and editing "Indiana Auth-ors" under a federal grant received through the Indiana State Library.

The result of the search will be a ten-year supplement to two earlier editions, which covered Indiana authors from 1816 through 1966. The new volume will in-clude authors who were not represented in the first two editions and those whose work began not after 1966.

Carrying his search from rural areas through metropolitan centers in the state, Thompson de-fines an Indiana author as anyone influenced by Indiana residence, in-cluding anyone born, raised and educated in the state and persons chose Indiana as a whio place in which to spend a major portion of their lives.

The collection will list all publications of more than 24 pages that have been credited to the authors. Thompson requests information on all sug-gested authors would in-clude their connection clude their connection with Indiana, a complete list of all publication titles and, if possible, the date and place of publication, plus a the date and place of publication, plus a brief biography of the writer or a reference to a biography in an ex-isting publication.

All information for the third edition of "Indiana Authors and Their Books" should be sent to Donald E. Thomp-son, Wabash College, Constructed wille. Indiana son, Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Indiana 47933.

"A heat pump's a big reversible refrigerator -without the lettuce," says Electric Living Consultant Connie Pucciarelli.

An energy-saving heat pump doesn't generate heat, it transfers it. Just like your refrigerator squeezes heat from inside the box and exhausts it into your kitchen. In winter, a heat pump extracts heat from outside air and transfers it inside, then reverses itself in summer and moves inside heat out. A heat pump may cost more to install and service but in most cases it will save you money on your electric bill. ## School board ends split classes

A round of applause and a chorus of thank you's followed the Tip-Valley school 5-0 decision night to elimipecanoe Val board's 5-0 nate what audience mem-bers called "split" classes.

"We prefer the word 'combined,'" Superintendent Dr. Lloyd Har-rell told the 50-60 people who crowded into the meeting room and over-flowed into the hall. Defending an administra-tive decision to com-bine sections of first and second grades at Ak-ron and second and third grades at Mentone, Har-rell said, "I think ed-ucation in a combined class is as good or better than any other type of arrangement." But audience members did not agree. "Children in split classrooms are not get-ting a fair education," John Feldman said. "We ting a fair education, John Feldman said. "We have good teachers, but this isn't fair to them either. Is this an ex-periment or a trail properiment of gram?" he asked. "It depends on next year's enrollment," Har-"all said. "This type her been of scheduling has been done for years. The one-room schools were the same thing."

Fresh baked buns can create a feeling of warmth and hospi-tality for family and guests alike. This versatile recipe for Cherry Buns serves all occasions — breakfast. Lunch or dinner — plus hailing our first President. George Washington, and the delightful red tart cherry. Brighten your kitchen reputation with these Bicen-tennial Cherry Buns... made from unbleached flour for better floure and tarture. lavor and texture 1 package active dry yeast

- 1 No. 303 can red tart cherries 3 cup sugar 2 tablespoons unbleached
- flour tablespoon butter

Few drops red food coloring

1/2 cup shortening 1 teaspoon salt 1 egg 4 to 4½ cups sifted unbleached flour

1 cup milk, scalded

Drain cherries thoroughly. Combine sugar and flour. Add cher-ries and cook until thick. Add butter and food coloring. Cool and reserve

Soften yeast in warm water. Add hot milk to shortening, sugar and sait. Stir until shortening is melted; cool to lukewarm. Stir in 1½ cups of the flour. Add softened yeast and egg; beat well. Stir in remaining flour or enough to make a soft dough. Cover and let rest 10 minutes. Knead on lightly floured surface until smooth, about 5 minutes. Place in a greased bowl; cover and let rise in a warm place until double in bulk, about 1 to 1½ hours. Punch down; cover and let rest 10 minutes. Roll dough to slightly less than ½-inch thick. Cut with a 2½-inch cutter. Place 2-inches apart on a lightly greased baking sheet. Cover and let rise until light, about 45 minutes. With fingers, press down center of buns; spoon in cherry filling. Bake at 375° about 15 minutes or until done. Makes about 1½ dozen. Soften yeast in warm water. Add hot milk to shortening, sugar

But they are still alive. They have a message for you.

On July 31 these women hastily left a weekend retreat in the Colorado Rockies. They had been warned to flee a flash flood which was roaring down the canyon. They started out, but never reached the bottom of the canyon alive. More than 100 others also lost their lives in the Big Thompson Canyon that same night. A tragedy, people say. It is certain that these seven women who were part of the staff of Campus Crusade for Christ International will be deeply missed by family, friends and fellow staff members. But what these women and their families would want you to know is that they are more alive than ever-in heaven. That they lived a full and wonderful life on this earth. And that they now are better off in the presence of the loving God and Savior whom they served.

If you were to die today, do you know for certain that you would go to heaven? Would you spend eternity in heaven with Christ or separated from Him forever. reserve. Soften yeast in warm water. Add hot milk to shortening, sugar and salt. Stir until shortening is melted; cool to lukewarm. Stir in 1½ cups of the flour. Add softened yeast and egg; beat well. Stir in remaining flour or enough to make a soft dough. Cover and let rest 10 minutes. Knead on lightly floured surface until smooth, about 5 minutes. Place in a greased bowl; cover and let rise in a warm place until double in bulk, about 1 to 1½ hours. Punch down; cover and let rest 10 minutes. Roll dough to slightly less apart on a lightly greased baking sheet. Cover and let rise until light, about 45 minutes. With fingers, press down center of buns; spoon in cherry filling. Bake at 375° about 15 minutes or until done. Makes about 1½ dozen.

These women lost their lives in the Colorado flood ...

Alenwood Springs, Colorado June Jujiwara Thain Hawaii

Barbie Leyden monroe Michigan

Cathie Loomie Precy Thonougdo Carol Rhoad Seattle, Wachington Queyon City, Philippines Frantville, Pennsylvania

But they are still alive. They have a message for you.

On July 31 these women hastily left a weekend retreat in the Colorado Rockies. They had been warned to flee a flash flood which was roaring down the canyon.

They started out, but never reached the bottom of the canyon alive. More than 100 others also lost their lives in the Big Thompson Canyon that same night. A tragedy, people say. It is certain that these seven women who were part of the staff of Campus Crusade for Christ International will be deeply missed by family, friends and fellow staff members. But what these women and their families would want you to know is that they are more alive than ever—in heaven. That they lived a full and wonderful life on this earth. And that they now are better off in the presence of the loving God and Savior whom they served.

If you were to die today, do you know for certain that you would go to heaven? Would you spend eternity in heaven with Christ or separated from Him forever. For those who have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, death's sting has been taken away. God is our refuge and strength. A very present help in trouble

Just as there are physical laws that govern the physical universe, so are there spiritual laws which govern your relationship with God. GOD LOVES YOU. AND OFFERS A WONDERFUL PLAN FOR YOUR LIFE.

(References should be read in context from the Bible wherever possible.)

(Christ speaking) "I came that they might have life, and might have it abundantly" (that it might be full and meaningful) (John 10.10). Why is it that most people are not experiencing the abundant life?

LAW TWO

MAN IS SINFUL AND SEPARATED FROM GOD THEREFORE. HE CANNOT KNOW AND EXPERIENCE GOD'S LOVE AND PLAN FOR HIS LIFE.

HIS LIFE: Man Is Sinful "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" (Romans 3.23) Man was: created to have fellowship with God, but, because of his stubborn self-will, be chose to go his own independent way and fellowship with God was broken. This self will, characterized by an attitude of a clicker rebellion or passive indifference, is evidence of what the Bible calls sin.

Man Is Separated "For the wages of sin is death" (spiritual separation from God) (Romans 6.23)

HOLY GOD

t SINFUL MAN

This diagram illustrates that God is holy and man is similal. A great guilt separates the two. The arrows illustrate that man is continually trying to track God and the abundant life through his own efforts, such as a good life, philosophy or religion. The third law explains the only way to bridge this gulf

LAW THREE LAW THREE JESUS CHRIST IS GOD'S ONLY PROVISION FOR MAN'S SIN THROUGH HIM YOU CAN KNOW AND EXPERIENCE GOD'S LOVE AND PLAN FOR YOUR LIFE He Died in Our Plan

He Died in Our Place

THE LARGE IN CALL FLACE "But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us" (Romans 5.8).

He Rose from the Dead

"Christ died for our sins. ...He was buried. . .He was raised on the third day. according to the Scriptures. ....He appeared to Peter, then to the twelve. After that He appeared to more than five hundred...." (I Corinthians 15.3-6) He is the Only Way to God "Jesus said to him, "Jam the way, and the truth, and the life, no one comes to the Eather, but through Me⁺⁺ (John 14.6).

Me^{rr} (m. Es MAN

This diagram illustrates that God has bridged the guilt which separates us from God by sending His Son, Jesus Christ, to die on the cross in our place to pay the penalty for our sins.

It is not enough just to know these three laws LAW FOUR

LAW FOUR WE MUST INDIVIDUALLY RECEIVE JESUS CHRIST AS SAVIOR AND LORD. THEN WE CAN KNOW AND EXPERIENCE GOD'SLOVE AND PLAN FOR OUR LIVES

We Must Receive Christ

"But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name" (Johri 1.12).

We Receive Christ through Faith "For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God, not as a result of works, that no one should brast" (Ephesians 2.8.9).

When We Receive Christ, We Experience a New Birth (Read John 318)

we Receive Christ by Personal Invitation (Christ is speaking): "Behold, Istand at the door and knock stany one hears My voice and opens the door. I will come in to him" (Revelation 3.20) Receiving Christ involves turning from sell to God (repentance and trusting Christ to come into our lives to lorgive our sins and to make us the kind of person He waits us to be Just to agree melleticitually that dasse. Christ is the Son of God and that He died on the cross for our sins is not enough. Non is it enough to have an emotional experience: We receive Jesus Christ the tarth, as an act of the will

METRICS AT MEALTIME the Metrics are coming! the Metrics are coming! 15

What are the metrics? Why the metric system of measurement, of course John Quincy Adams proposed in 1821 that the U.S. change to the metric system, but Congress never got around to adopting his proposal.

Still, you can't keep a good idea down and in December 1975 Congress passed the Metric Conversion Act which provides for a complete adoption of the metric system over the next ten years.

Now, metric measures are cropping up in more and more areas of American life from cameras to cars, eye glasses to snow skis

Metrics have even entered the kitchen. If you'll look at the packaged foods in your cup-board, you'll probably find over half of them list the ingredients in metric as well as customary units. You may even be cooling a one-liter bottle of soda pop in your refrigerator.

Right to trespass is big farm issue

By Clark Q. Lewis, Indiana Farm Bureau

A referendum in California giving union or-ganizers the right to ganizers the right to trespass on private farm property is receiving national attention. The referendum, known as Proposition 14, will ap-pear on the November Voters in that state will decide whether farm labor union organizers will be able to continue secondary boycotts and will be able to continue secondary boycotts and other tactics that they have been doing for years under the direc-tion of Cesar Chavez. Among the things that would be allowed, should the referendum pass, would be that union or-ganizers could go right on farmers' property to try to sign up farm workers into the union. Naturally, such a proposition that allows trespassing does not set well with farmers. Pro-viding blanket access viding blanket access to farm properties by nonemployee union organ-izers is just unheard of, but it will come a-bout if the voters in bout if the voters in California adopt Proposition 14.

On two occasions, Democratic presidential candidate Jimmy Carter has endorsed Proposition 14. The first time, he later called Allan Grant, president of the two-and-a-half million two-and-a-half million member American Farm Bureau, and said he did not understand the question. However, in the past few weeks, Carter told a Los Angeles Times reporter that he would "have no objection" to Proposition 14.

This prompted Grant. a California farmer him-self, to blast Carter, and say that Carter has apparently written off the farmers of California and many others aross the nation. Grant says if trespassing on farms by union organiz-ers gets an okay in Cal-ifornia, it will likely spread across the coun-

Plaudits to EMTs

Dear Editor:

Dear Editor: EMT at Akron deserves a hand. It just so hap-pened that the driver of the wrecker called to the scene of the Forbes-Harrell accident is a licensed EMT. The training was helpful as borith besurance craylhe with assurance crawled into the wrecked car to determine the plan for removal of one victim. And then attended wounds in the ambulance on the trip to the hospital. Another EMT noticed the police car and ambulance passing and quickly went to the scene and provided calm and efficient assistance.

Our community should thank God that such dedicated persons have sac-rificed to qualify to assist in emergencies. I would feel yo much better to be attended by such a technician by such a technician rather than a concerned untrained bystander.

Thank you, EMTs. Hugh Wildermuth Akron

60 YEARS AGO

60 YEARS AGO Miss Hannah McCoughey of Rochester won the Maxwell automobile at the Rochester fair last Saturday evening. There was an immense crowd, anxious, jamming crowd about the stand as every body had one to a dozen or two of tic-kets. The winner is a maiden lady of 45 summers and as many winters and says she can run the machine without a man near it. She appreciated her good fortune and received the congratulations of friends with real dignity. We will be late reaching our readers this week, by reason of the fact that the express coming lost 'our weekly shipment of paper. Just when it will come we do not know. We ought to be off press at this hour, six Thurs-day eve, but no paper in sight. We will pub-lish as soon as it arrives. Later: We are printing all white paper this week, printing Friday forenoon because the ready print is running around over in New York state. The Beaver Dam high school is now thinking seriously of buying a new Victrola with the surplus funds left from the play given last spring. An entertainment to increase the fund will probably be given in the near future. Several editions of new books and a sectional

The light crop over the country will necessitate promptness on the part of buyers if they care for apples at moderate prices. The rains of this week that commenced Wed-nesday have refreshed vegetation. But it will take a lot more to spring fall pasture. There are quite a lot of cement sidewalks being built in this little city this fall. Nothing brings lots on back streets, or homes so situated into market and into prominence or convenience so well and so surely as good walks. Every home in town should be reached by good walks. And that time is coming on rapidly. 39 YEARS AGO

Almost 140 girls at Tippecance Valley High School will join other members of the Sunshine Society across Indiana next week in celebrat-ing "Indiana Sunshine Week," which has been proclaimed by Gov. Otis R. Bowen.

Now beginning its 76th year, the Sunshine So-ciety was founded in Crawfordsville in 1901 by Marguerite Dice, a senior, and the school senior, and the school principal, Anna Wilson. A group of high school girls had already done

"Wasted hot water is money down the drain," says Energy Consultant Tom Burns.

One of the big energy users in your home is your hot water heater so it pays not to waste hot water. Here are some easy ways to get more hot water for your money

- Check the hot water temperature at your kitchen sink; have the thermostats on your water heater set so that water temperature is not above 140°
- Fix faucet leaks promptly to trim both water and energy loss.
- Switch to quick showers instead of tub baths
- Don't waste hot water in a garbage disposer; most run better with cool water
- · Insulate hot water pipes when practical

In 1816 a boy named Abraham Lincoln came to Indiana from Kentucky with his mother, father and older sister. Bi-centennial researchers at Indiana University have learned that two dappled horses carried all the Lincoln's pos-all the Lincoln sessions. The family lived in a pole and brush shelter for the first year in Spencer county. Then a one-room log cabin was built. Tragedy struck in 1818 when Mrs. Lin-coln died. Her husband Johnston, a widow who had three children.

Young Abe Lincoln grew to be a tall, bony youth who wore deerskin caps and homemade trousers -- which were always sers--which were always too short! He was a reluctant farm hand. He preferred reading and talking--and would tell stories at great length. Yet, he attended school for less than one year during his entire life. Lincoln grew up in Indiana and then at the age of 22 left the state in 1830--destined to become President of United States. the

The cheapest way to have your family tree traced is to run for ofhave fice.

Men and nations tend to behave wisely after having exhausted all al-ternatives.

To those doctors who are contemplating going on strike, remember that time is a great healer.

The old believe ev-erything; the middle-aged suspect everything; the young know every-thing thing.

It always impresses us when someone who is supposed to be an ex-pert shrugs his shoul-ders and admits he doesn't know the answer to some question. Our con-fidence in him zooms immediately.

CHERRY PAN DOWDY Filling

- 2 No. 303 cans red tart pitted cherries ½ tablespoon lemon juice ½ tablespoon almond flavoring 2 tablespoons butter or margarine few drops red food coloring
- 1 cup granulated sugar ¹⁄₄ cup cornstarch dash salt ¹⁄₄ teaspoon cinnamon ¹⁄₈ teaspoon nutmeg
