Attends Sales Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Zanna Hammer of the Hammer Insurance Agency attended Meridian Mutual Insurance Company's annual sales convention at the French Lick Sheraton Thursday and Friday, March 28 and 29.

This two day event is held each year to acquaint agents representing the company with new sales techniques, lines of insurance and other similar topics relating to company policies. Agents who attend belong to the Meridian Achievement Club. Membership is restricted to those who have reached a specified premium volume.

Registration for the workshop-type sales clinic included more than 300 agents from Indiana, Michigan, Ohio and Kentucky.

Nellans Among Top 100

Two basketball players from our county have their names placed among the final 100 cagers in the state — eight of which will be selected to participate in the Indiana-Kentucky all-star game in June.

They are Mentone's Bill Nellans and Warsaw's Dave Johnson. The final 100 is arrived at as each sports writer in the state selects 10 seniors he believes qualified for the Indiana team. The list is then cut to the final 100 players who received the most votes and the sportswriters vote again to select the final eight.

SERVICE LEAGUE ORGANIZED

A volunteer group known as the Women's Service League has been formed at the Murphy Medical Center. The purpose of this organization will be to occupy a Visitor's Pass Desk. COUNTERPOINT

By The Editor's Wife

Here is a new type of oven to watch for (it may be on the market next year). It has no front, back or sides. Heat is applied to food at higher rates, with less heat loss into the kitchen. In place of walls, aluminum reflecting sheets drop down from above, concentrating heat on the food. An air screen in front keeps the heat in, and overhead infrared heaters do the baking. This is being developed by the American Gas Association.

In reading an obituary in the home town (Circle, Montana) paper last week, I ran across one line which was pure (and to us unexplained) tragedy. The line stated, "Mr. Selleck's wife and children preceded him in death in August, 1928."

"Cooking out" used to be considered as a form of "roughing it", but have you ever counted the items lugged into the yard when we want to "warm-over" a couple of wieners? (Charles V. Neal asks the question) Just the same, it's still a lot of fun.

One businessman (Vermont) has suggested that the government grant business a tax credit of $1.00 for every additional dollar the advertiser spent in a 12-month period above his last year's total. (And why shouldn't we, of all people, agree?)

How to wipe out the wheat surplus in less than a year and eliminate Los Angeles' smog in one bold stroke—The Southwest Research Institute of San Antonio has found an answer. Turn the wheat into alcohol and dump some of it into gasoline, and smog producing exhaust gases will be reduced by 60 per cent (This will also reduce the rent bill for stored grain which runs $1,000,000 a day to taxpayers.) Let's hope someone is able to get this plan "on the road".

Isn't this the truth?

Many Oppose Repair Of Beaver Dam

At the regular meeting of the Tippecanoe Valley School Board on Monday evening, more than thirty citizens were in attendance. Twenty two of those present went on record as being opposed to the improvement of the Beaver Dam School. Their reason being they felt that they did not want to put tax money into an old building that may soon be condemned. Too, they felt that the Board should consider the repair of the Burket School (old building). After much discussion the superintendent tried to convey the feelings of the Board, that in their estimation the Beaver Dam School was in a much better state of repair than Burket, also that the State School House Planning would not permit a Junior High of eighty pupils, and that the repair of Beaver Dam should be good for a period of five years, without additional expenditures. Also he stated that the Beaver Dam School has ten usable rooms or stations where Burket only has four.

Too, he added, the School Corporation has no money available for new classroom construction. To be real truthful they are almost a half-million dollars in debt.

The School Board president, Edward Bucher, then thanked the delegation from Burket for their attendance and stated that they would consider the complaint. The delegation, then in a very orderly manner, departed.

The next audience was given to the teacher's salary committee, who presented their proposed salary schedule to the school board. The schedule that was presented, however, was not used in its entirety by the School Board, although parts of it were used.

The teacher schedule, if it would be used, would give some teachers as much as $600.00 a year increase in salary.

The schedule, as adopted, gave the teachers a $100.00 raise as long as they taught in their area.

They also decided to go ahead with the additional appropriate

Hold Annual Meeting

General Telephone Company of Indiana held its annual shareholders meeting in Fort Wayne on March 27. Mr. L. H. Meyer, the company president and chairman of the meeting, reviewed the company's progress, particularly during the past year, but also its growth since January, 1957. The company is adding to its plant investment at the rate of between $15 and $16 million dollars per year.

Today the company's total investment in telephone plants is $135 million dollars. The company has added to its facilities throughout its operating area and has improved service by converting manual exchange to dial. He now points proudly to the fact that their telephones are now 99 per cent dial operated and will be completely dial by the end of 1963, except for four small newly acquired exchanges.

They operate 100 exchanges throughout the northern two-thirds of Indiana and serve 391,000 telephones and expect to install the 400,000th telephone in mid-1964. He stated that they gained 16,823 telephones and acquired 678 during 1962 and that total construction expenditures were $15,357,000.

Mr. Meyer reviewed the year's operating results, indicating that 1962 had been a good year. Particularly to the significant increases in the total tax burden and depreciation expense as being the two expense factors which have increased the most and over which the company management has little control. Operating expenses increased $599,815, or 4.5 per cent, while taxes and depreciation make up 65 per cent of the entire increase in operating expenses and taxes.

The expansion and improvement program will be continued in 1963 and plans were outlined in his remarks to the shareholders. The 1963 construction budget is $16 million dollars. Exchanges at Connersville and Brookville have already been converted to dial operation in 1963 and the exchanges in Liberty, North Manchester and West College Corner are all slated to be converted in October of 1963.

Nearly every exchange will feel the effects of the construction work and the expansion which will take place in both local and long distance facilities. Extended area service networks will be introduced in several locations and a few of the smaller offices are slated for a complete equipment change out. They expect to gain in the excess of 17,000 telephones through internal growth; and through the placement of new and additional outside facilities and central office equipment make service available on the immediate basis to all new customers. He indicated they are pushing the program of providing one-party service to all who want that type service.

He announced that the following persons were elected directors of the company for the ensuing year: George S. Anderson, Elkhart; Edward D. Auer, Fort Wayne; Thomas A.

Boyd, New York; Roger D. Branigan, Lafayette; Anton Hulman, Jr., Terre Haute; John P. Lontz, Richmond; W. A. McCullough, Fort Wayne; L. H. Meyer, Fort Wayne; and W. C. Rowland, Fort Wayne.

At the organizational meeting of the directors immediately following the annual meeting, the following officers were re-elected: L. H. Meyer, president; W. C. Rowland, operating vice president; W. A. McCullough, vice president revenue requirements; Robert Mutch, secretary and treasurer; Ronald C. Mitchell, controller; H. W. Purdy, assistant secretary and assistant treasurer; Richard D. Lavery, assistant controller, all of Fort Wayne.

First Aid For Furniture

After a party, hostesses often find minor stains on their furniture. First aid treatment applied promptly may prevent permanent damage, says Ezelle Johnson, a Purdue University home furnishings specialist.

A white ring left from a glass can usually be removed by rubbing the area with rottenstone and a light oil, such as mineral oil or sewing machine oil. For deeper or older rings, rub with table salt and oil.

A cigarette scorch can be removed, if it is not too deep. Rub only the charred area with 3/0 steel wool wrapped around the end of an orange stick. After removing the charred dust, fill the spot with oil stain added to sealer or varnish. Use a small water color brush to apply it. If the depression is deep, fill it with stick shellac, the same color as the wood.

A solution of mild soap and warm water will remove spots of sticky candy, cake filling and jam. But be sure to wring out the cloth until it is very dry.

Give all of your furniture an inspection now, one room at a time. To solve most minor stain problems, remove the accumulated wax and start with fresh waxing. Of course, constant general care is most important in preventing marks and stains on furniture.

This year about 815,000 Americans will be under medical care for cancer. Many of them will be saved because their cancers were detected and treated in time. The American Cancer Society urges an annual health checkup as the best safeguard against death from cancer.

Remove a white "glass" ring from furniture by rubbing with rottenstone and a light oil, such as mineral oil or sewing machine oil. For deeper or older rings, home furnishings specialists at Purdue University suggest rubbing it with table salt and oil.

Protect trees from construction damage, advise horticulturists at Purdue University. Fence them off, and make sure that soil isn't pushed around the tree trunk, since this can kill the tree.

"Tech Day" Planned

Between two and three hundred students, their parents and guests, from throughout the mid-west are expected for the fourth annual "Tech Day" program which will be presented for prospective young engineers and scientists at Indiana Institute of Technology on Saturday, April 6.

Reservations have gone to students living in the seven states from which Indiana Tech draws the greater portion of its enrollment, including Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Registration will get underway at 8:30 a.m. at the college's gymnasium auditorium, with the session to be opened at 9:00 with C. A. Overholt, vice president of IIT, presiding.

Following the invocation to be delivered by the Rev. Robert G. Long, First Presbyterian Church, president Archie T. Keene will welcome the student guests, and Dr. Ralph W. Young will describe campus life at Indiana Tech, the courses which are available to young scientists and engineers and the philosophy which governs the college's operation.

After the various department chairmen have been presented by Prof. Robert C. Ruhl, dean of engineering, the students and parents will meet in separate sessions with members of the faculty for counseling regarding the numerous departments of science and engineering.

President Keene will preside during the noon luncheon in the campus cafeteria and will introduce the guest speaker, Earl G. Schwalm, president of the Lincoln National Bank and Trust Company, who will discuss the subject, "How You Can Finance A College Education".

To conclude the session Dr. Robert L. Pickering, dean of students, will discuss student activities and services and Oren B. Huffer, registrar and director of admissions, will explain procedures to be followed in enrolling at Indiana Tech.

Tech officials pointed out that while invitations were extended largely to students residing in the Fort Wayne area and to seven key states, the program is open to any interested student regardless of where he resides.

A special invitation is extended to parents and friends of students who are particularly concerned with the types of educational programs being offered at Indiana Tech and with the methods which are available to finance a college education today. The program is free of cost to everyone.

Purdue University horticulturists say if you have space for a large vegetable garden, you can plan on planting crops which take considerable room, such as sweet corn, cucumbers and melons.

Slimming Tips For Children

If you have wondered how to help a chubby child lose some of his or her roundness, consider the ideas of Mrs. Elaine T. Dolch, child development specialist at Purdue University.

She recommends that first of all have your physician give your child a physical examination. If he says that the plumpness is part of the child's growth pattern, probably the child soon will begin to grow up instead of sideways.

However, the physician may suggest that your child should have increased exercise or a change in eating habits. Remember, children, especially those who are older, usually collect too many pounds for the same reason adults do—too many calories and too little exercise.

When you make any changes in your child's routine, try to be casual, kind, patient and affectionate to help the child adjust happily to different habits and foods. Nagging, scolding, shaming or bargaining with your child only seem to make her more determined to continue her old habits.

Relax some routine and emotional pressures, if you can, and encourage the child to play games that will provide lots of exercise. Running, jumping rope, tag, skating and bicycling are good.

Instead of making a radical change in the diet of a too-plump child, try some of these suggestions. Use smaller plates in serving meals, so that the portions will look larger. Then encourage the whole family to eat slowly and really taste the food.

Keep a large supply of raw carrots, radishes, celery sticks and fresh fruit for snacking. If your child is especially fond of sweets, don't cut them out completely. But do count calories here and cut down on the amount eaten. Twenty small gum drops (95 calories) or 10 jelly beans (65 calories) contain fewer calories than a one ounce chocolate bar (145 calories).

You can trim fat from meat and cut down on butter, salad dressings and gravies. You might serve two per cent or skim milk instead of whole milk.

The problem of over weight children can be prevented more easily than cured. She points out that remedies always require large investments of time, patience and love.

Use sturdy boxes of all sizes, especially ones with hinged lids, to store toys, recommend home furnishings specialists at Purdue University. Gallon ice cream containers can hold large items while cottage cheese cartons are good for jacks, marbles and colored pencils.

Now Includes All Townships

The Soil and Water Conservation District in Kosciusko County now includes all townships of the county as the result of a referendum completed March 29th, according to Donald E. Frantz, County Extension Agent.

The townships of Etna, Harrison, Jefferson, Plain, Prairie, Scott, Tippecanoe and Turkey Creek, Van Buren and Wayne participated in the referendum. The remaining townships of the county formed a soil conservation district in 1957.

A total of 2,175 votes were cast in the referendum which was 66.3 per cent of the total eligible voters. All townships in the proposed district met or exceeded the sixty per cent goal which is a legal minimum. Owners of tracts of land exceeding ten acres were eligible voters.

Of the total vote, 2,098 voted to approve the inclusion of the townships in the Soil and Water Conservation District and 77 were opposed.

CUB SCOUTS RATE

Our local Cub Scouts were informed this week of having placed among the blue ribbon winners in Kosciusko County for their window display.

Cubmaster, Walter Kelley, showed the boys the blue ribbon that had been presented to him. Den mothers Lois Miller, Doris Leslie and Annabelle Cole worked hard with their Cub Scouts on the nice looking displays that won this special recognition.

Our customers cut feed bills to only 5¢ a dozen

Here are results our customers can be proud of! Only about a pound of Murphy's Vig-O-Ray Poultry Concentrate, plus grain, can feed a hen a full month. Our customers report that figuring only 60% production, they feed only about 5¢ worth of Murphy's per dozen eggs.

We recommend Murphy's high quality because a little bit goes such a long way. And you can feed either free-choice with grain, or mixed with ground grain if you prefer a mash. No matter which way you feed, hens need such a small amount of Murphy's that you can cut feed bills as low as 5¢ per dozen eggs. Phone us, or stop in. We'll be glad to show you the Murphy Cut-Cost Vig-O-Ray way to extra poultry profits.

Donors To Palestine Dam Project

A report of the progress of the repair of Palestine Dam is as follows:

In addition to donated labor, the expenditure to date of the repair of the Palestine Dam is $951.00. A little more repairing should be done and more donors will be appreciated.

Without the dam, Palestine Lake would shrink to a couple of small ponds. The original government survey shows a creek and no lake in this area. For 125 years, one of the best of the fishing lakes of Kosciusko County has been made possible by this dam. The promoters of the repairing project wish to express their appreciation for the splendid cooperation of the people of this and adjoining communities. May you enjoy Palestine Lake for many more decades to come.

Irradiated food will be fed GI's to see if they can tell the difference between bacon (irradiated) that has lain on a shelf at room temperature for up to two years and bacon refrigerated conventionally. Irradiation—bombarding the food with gamma rays—preserves it perfectly, enabling soldiers in the field to operate without refrigeration or extensive cooking facilities, according to the Army's Natick (Mass.) Radiation Laboratory.

An aspirin-size pill has been developed that can lop $1 million from design and construction costs of a typical $4 million hydrogen producing plant, reports Chemetron Corporation. The company's new material is said to permit a greater reduction of carbon monoxide, principal impurity in most commercial hydrogen producing processes, in one step than was previously possible with several stages of purification. Demand for hydrogen, used in production of ammonia, liquid missile fuel, numerous foods, chemicals, drugs and metals, is at an all-time high.

Radar systems that "see" 180 miles, 30 miles farther than previous airborne weather radars, and give better weather pictures will soon be installed in some U.S. medium range passenger jets. Benefit: three more minutes of decision making time for in-flight weather evaluation.

Ninety-seven per cent of a group of narcotics addicts treated and released from a government hospital in Lexington, Ky. became re-addicted during the following five years, reports the Public Health Service. The report was based on a study of 453 addicts.

The 'average man', says a national association of retail clothiers, owns three suits and the 'average woman' thinks her husband should not pay more than $60 for any one of them.

'Death boxes'—abandoned refrigerators—claimed the lives of 35 children, a record, in 1952 reports the National Safety Council. The danger season for refrigerator suffocations begins in the spring and remains crucial through the summer. Suggested precautions: remove the door, padlock it or insert a firmly fixed wood block that leaves a sliver of air between door and cabinet.

Auto operating costs have dropped to an average 14.47 cents a mile from 15.60 cents in 1961, says the Automobile Legal Association.

This past week end the State FFA Convention was held at Purdue University. The Mentone FFA had eight members and their advisor as delegates to this convention. During the convention, the four boys shown above were elected from Kosciusko County as District FFA officers. From the Mentone chapter, Steve Mellott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Mellott, was elected district secretary. The boys in the picture and their chapter are as follows: Lester Krull, district president, Milford; Mike Zimmerman, district vice president, Milford; Steve Mellott, Mentone; Joe Hirschman, district reporter of Syracuse. Gale Nellans and Bruce McDaniel of the Mentone FFA received their Hoosier Farmer Degree.

D.A.R. Tea

Sunday afternoon a tea and program in the home of Mrs. Walter Lackey honored the DAR Good Citizens sponsored by the Anthony Nigo chapter Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. Fred Surguy presided and announced to members that the district meeting of DAR would be in Peru on May 9.

Mrs. Frank D. Smith, chairman of the program committee, welcomed the Good Citizens and their mothers and gave a resume of what DAR stands for and what the DAR works for. She said, "We are for the faith of our fathers. We are for the constitution as it was before the Supreme Court started changing the balance of power between the Judicial, Legislative and Executive departments of our government. We are a true republican form of government. (Not a democracy as it is often called.) We are for States Rights as instituted by the Constitution. We are for a pay as you go policy in spending—a balanced budget and a retirement in the national debt. We are for outlawing the communist party and cutting trade relations with communists and their satellites. We are for keeping the United States strong militarily and economically so that our enemies do not dare attack us. We are for old-fashioned patriotism and teaching Americanism rather than internationalism or one worldism. We are for capitalism rather than socialism, the stepping stone to communism. We are for the United States of America—now and forever."

The chapter chairman of the Good Citizens, Mrs. Eldred Paulus, introduced the Good Citizens as follows: Miss Donna Bruce of Claypool; Miss Sue Warner of Silver Lake; Miss Elaine Stackhouse of Etna Green, the county winner; and Miss Cheryl Horn of Mentone. Miss Jeanine Swartz of Sidney was not present. Mrs. Paulus introduced Mrs. Leroy Garrigus and her daughter, Miss Alice Garrigus of Indianapolis. Mrs. Garrigus is the state chairman of DAR Good Citizens. She spoke briefly and emphasized that the girls were each outstanding in their schools to have qualified for the honor of being chosen a Good Citizen. The qualifications are: dependability, which includes truthfulness, loyalty, punctuality; service, which includes cooperation, courtesy, consideration of others; leadership, which includes personality, self-control, ability to assume responsibility; patriotism, which includes unselfish interest in family, school, community and nation. There are two gifts with no price tag within the reach of all, namely a pleasant smile and friendliness. She gave the success family story as follows: The father of success is work and the mother is ambition. There are many children. The oldest son is common sense and some of his brothers are honesty, truthfulness and enthusiasm. The oldest daughter is known as Character and two of her sisters are Tolerance and Patience. The baby is known as opportunity; do not forget to get well acquainted with the baby. If you learn to know the father very well, you will succeed. She presented DAR Good Citizen pins and certificates to the four girls present.

Mrs. Myron Blue of Bourbon played a medley of accordin numbers to the delight of those present and Miss Linda Smalley of Akron High School, very ably gave an oration "Statistics of Survival", which she had previously given at the County Speech Festival.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Bernice Rush, Mrs. Merlyn Holt and Mrs. Earl Yeiter, served refreshments from a beautifully appointed table during the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baker attended an Indiana Retail Hardware Association district meeting at the Moose Lodge in Rochester Tuesday evening. Others present were Mrs. Wayne Baker, Linda Baker and William Gohman.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Weisjohn of Plymouth were guests of the Zanna Hammers during the past week end week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Devon Eaton returned recently from spending the winter in Florida.

ROGER BRIDGE TO COACH AT MENTONE

FLOYD HENSON AT AKRON

Word was received today from Superintendent Robert Forbes that Roger Bridge, now coach at Etna Green, will assume head coaching duties at Mentone next year.

Roger, a native of Columbia City, and a 1961 graduate of Manchester College, is in his second year of coaching. His first year he was assistant coach at Royal Center and last year did a splendid job at Etna Green.

He was married in 1958 to Beverly Jean Harrold, and they now have two sons, Mark and Daniel.

The Bridges are quite elated about being chosen as the head basketball coach at Mentone, and although Paul Bateman has had a wonderful record, Roger hopes that he can improve upon it.

They plan on moving to our community later this summer.

AKRON

Robert Forbes also released the appointment of Floyd Eugene Henson as head coach at Akron for the next season.

Mr. Henson, a 15 year veteran, comes to Akron from Linton, Indiana, where he has been head coach for several years.

Possibly the highlight of his coaching career was in 1959 at Oden, Indiana, where his team play-off in the final game of was defeated in a sudden death the semi-final state basketball tournament.

Floyd is replacing the present coach, Mr. Riley, who will continue in the Akron School in a teaching capacity.

Mr. Henson has attended Bradley University, Eastern Illinois University, Indiana State College, and Indiana University.

Mr. Henson, his wife and two sons will be moving to Akron in the near future.

COUNTERPOINT

By The Editor's Wife

When you read these shocking articles on shoplifting take an extra moment to shift the picture to our own community, for it does happen here.

According to reports from all over the country, much of the shoplifting is done by teenagers.

An editorial in The Pointer, Riverdale, Ill. (thanks to the Luechts) has this to say:

"Parental neglect and idleness play an important part of juvenile delinquency . . . The most important thing they can do to prevent delinquency in their children is to know where they are."

"When a woodshed stood behind every home, such cases of thievery were handled out of court, but modern parents shudder at the thought of woodshed discipline. In fact, parents who have a smattering of psychology believe that discipline of children was a phenomenon of the dark ages."

The editorial continues by quoting:

"Yes, we love our children. Don't we give them everything they ask for? Don't we see that school life is pleasant? Don't we tell the teachers off if they mistreat our little darlings? Don't we insist that they give in to their whims just as we do at home? Above all, we must protect our children and see that they have it easier than we did when we were young."

"These are the children who must carry on when we are gone—who must pay the national debt we created—who must fight communism, or be enslaved. These are the patriots who must carry on the American traditions skipped by us. We haven't taught them patriotism and love of country, that's old fashioned. The commies love us for that . . ."

Mr. and Mrs. Garrie Rose celebrated their 56th wedding anniversary on Monday, April 8. Edith has been bedfast for several years, and Garrie has kept the household running in spite of personal ailments. Congratulations, neighbors, and

File Petitions Against
B.D. School Repair

Petitions with 153 signatures have been filed with the state tax board against the Tippecanoe Valley School Board's plan for spending $25,000 on repair of the school at Beaver Dam.

The petitioners are asking the state tax board to turn down a request by the school board for additional appropriations. The state tax board will meet in Warsaw on April 16th to consider the request for additional funds to pay for the repairs, which include new floors, paint, new wiring and other repairs to the Beaver Dam structure.

The Tippecanoe board was informed several weeks ago by the state fire marshal's office to repair the building or there was a possibility it would be closed. The building now houses seventh and eighth grade students.

The petitioners, in their paper filed at the county auditor's office, alleged the additional appropriation calls for the expenditure to be used upon an old building and such cost would be excessive in relationship to the proposed benefit to be received.

Some asked for additions to the Mentone School, and one group favored holding funds and building a new school.

EX-COMMUNIST TO SPEAK

She was not simply a card-carrying member, but in active direction of the communist conspiracy. (Complete story in other portion of the News.)

Ex-Communist To Speak At First Baptist Church

Mrs. Helen Wood Birnie will speak at the First Baptist Church of Mentone at 7:30 p.m. on Sunday, April 14th. Mrs. Birnie was a member of the communist party from 1930 to 1935. During that period she was district organizer for the party in the entire Rocky Mountain states region, and later was International Labor Defense organizer for the midwestern states. She was not simply a card-carrying member, but in active direction of the communist conspiracy.

She became disillusioned with the Party and then was reached with the Gospel of Christ, with the result that she became a Christian with a brilliant testimony of the power of the Gospel to save from the depths of Satanic conspiracy. Her testimony is positive and certainly is up-to-date in the light of the peril that faces America today. She has testified extensively before congressional investigation committees supplying valuable information on the organizational structure and objectives of the Party. Her testimony has led to the conviction of several top communist leaders in the U.S.

Mrs. Birnie has set out on her present work because she feels strongly that the most effective weapon against communism is the militant Christian ex-communist. She has dedicated her life to arouse the citizens of this nation to the greatest peril the free world has ever faced. She is absolutely convinced that Christianity is the only movement dynamic enough to compete with the world sweep of communism.

Her story is different. She speaks from a point of view few can, for she was on the inside of the conspiracy. She identifies the spirit behind communism as a Satanic one.

Dr. Fred Swartz, president of the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade, has said, "Of all the ex-communist speakers I have heard in this country, Mrs. Birnie is far away the best speaker."

We urge all of the people of the Mentone area to hear her message this Sunday evening at 7:30 at First Baptist Church.

Family Finances

Buying a home is the biggest investment you will ever make. It pays to be extra careful in your selection.

Mortgage and real estate experts say that the price of a new home shouldn't exceed 2½ times your annual salary. Arrange monthly payments that won't be a burden on your budget.

Be sure that the neighborhood is the best one for you and your family. Check into restrictions on the deed and the zoning regulations. Find out the tax and water rates and the possibility of special assessments.

Check both the house and lot with future needs in mind. Is there enough space for possible expansion?

Be sure there is adequate public transportation to and from your new home. Are schools, churches and shopping centers close by?

Finally, find out if there is regular service for rubbish collection, gas, sewers, etc. Be sure your new home has everything you want and need.

COON HUNTER QUITTING

I have quit coon hunting that is all,
Not roving the woods another fall.
In the weeds, rain, and cold,
Coon are scarce and I am getting old.

Bengel is lazy and not to wise,
The old lantern is dim.
And I am losing my eyes,
The kids are all married and I am left alone.
The best place for me is at home.
I am thinking this over the Fourth of July

While eating a piece of strawberry pie.

Oh boy it is fall now and frost is on the ground,
Coon tracks any place around.
Bengel is fat and very fast,
And I have a nice seven cell flashlight at last.

To help me tramp through rain and cold.

I don't feel that I am getting old
My eyes are good and got gray-ing hair.

I am not going to cling to the old rocking chair.

It is 4 a.m. and I am waiting for the car,

I have roamed the swamps near and far.

As I stand here in cold and rain.
All I can hear is a Nickel Plate train.

I'll sell that dog if he don't come in.

As the morning air is very cool.
And a man that coon hunts is a dad blame fool.

MARY DOW

I ask what your name is little girl?

It's Mary said she, Mary Dow.
As she carelessly tossed off a curl.

That played on her delicate brow.

I listen to the birds sing,
They fill the air with glee.
When winter comes they fly away,
And fly back in the spring.

All day I listen to the birds sing
And it is very lonesome here at night.
As I am walking through the garden,
Where the roses bloom so fair.

How pleasant the life of a bird must be,
Flitting about in each leafy tree.
The leafy trees so broad and tall.

Like a green and beautiful police hall.

The earth's crust is 30 miles thick in eastern Colorado, 20 miles thick in the mountains of central Nevada and only 10 miles thick in fertile central California. The Geographical Survey reports these findings from seismic probings made in underground nuclear blast areas. Under the crust, the scientists say, is an 1800 mile thick hot hantle, less rigid than the outer shell, and underneath that is the baffling inner core of our planet, about equal in size to the planet Mars.

TV stars who never rode a horse are on view at Northwestern University's Dearborn Observatory in Evanston, Illinois, where a television camera has been attached to a 100 year old 18½ inch refracting telescope to bring the universe to astronomers via a closed-circuit monitor. The "image orthicon" TV tube is said to be 100 times more sensitive than photographic film in recording faint and distant stars.

Modern canning techniques are far removed from the way

Grandma put up preserves, reports Votator, whose rotary-piston fillers can fill from a few dozen to 1,200 glass, metal or plastic containers (3 to 48 fluid ounce) per minute with food, petroleum or chemical products. A "magnetic monitor" on each of the machines eliminates valve jam to guard against costly prolonged mechanical interruption.

The ecology of the Holstei will be researched by the University of Missouri through a grant of $18,200 from the National Science Foundation. What is ecology? A branch of biology dealing with mutual relations between organisms and their environment. What is Holstei? An order of primitive predatory fishes comprising the gars and bowfin. What's the point? Raising these fossil fish under controlled conditions may yield findings of value to fisheries management.

A 'good' night's sleep varies from person to person, says the Nathaniel Kleitman, Ph.D., Santa Monica, California, but it is easy to tell the next day if you got enough. If you wake up spontaneously in the morning and don't get drowsy in the afternoon, that is enough.

Delicious Home-Grown Strawberries

For luscious home-grown strawberries, start with virus-free plants advise Purdue University horticulturists. Virus produce more fruit under adverse conditions than plants infected with virus diseases.

Popular virus-free varieties include Sparkle, Vermillion and Sure Crop. These varieties are also resistant to Red Steele disease and are well adapted to home planting. Order them from a reputable nursery.

Set strawberry plants as soon as the soil can be worked in the spring. If you aren't able to set your plants when they arrive, heel them in—a moist, well-drained, shaded area is best. Before planting them, work five pounds of 5-20-20 fertilizer per 100 feet of row in the soil.

Set your strawberry plants 16 to 24 inches apart in the row with three to four feet between rows. Crowns should be flush with the soil surface and the soil should be packed around their roots. Water the plants well after setting.

Clothing Magic For The Homemakers

Adapting the current styles to an individual figure may be difficult, but unless you do fit fashion to your own personality you may never look stylish or even well dressed.

Knowing your own figure's faults and good points is the first step to being well dressed. But knowing what is wrong is not much good without knowing how to correct it.

Sometimes a bit of magic will turn the trick. Clothing specialists at Purdue University have compiled "Clothing Magic for You" in a neat publication to help women learn how to use line, design and fabric to emphasize their assets and disguise their figure problems.

The pamphlet shows how the magic of line and design can improve the appearance of large arms, thin legs, prominent abdomen, large hips and other figure problems. It also gives special advice for the plump, thin and angular figures. A chart on how to match your appearance to your personality closes the publication.

Single copies of "Clothing Magic for You," HE-446, are available through county extension offices, or Agricultural Publications, AES Building, Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind. Single copies are free to Indiana residents. Be sure to list both the name and number when requesting the publication.

In 1962 about 275,000 Americans died of cancer. The American Cancer Society estimates that 280,000 will die of the disease this year. Many of the deaths will be unnecessary — because the cancer was not detected in time and treated promptly. This is why the American Cancer Society urges adults to have a health checkup each year.

NEWS NOTES
from our
County Agent
DONALD E. FRANTZ

The wheat crop has come through the winter in excellent condition. Farmers have been applying nitrogen whenever the ground is dry enough. We should be in better shape on soil nitrogen than normal. There was very little loss in the late summer and fall and the color of the wheat and bluegrass would indicate that. There should be some good pasture available from some of the fields of Monon or Dual varieties for a few weeks yet. What we are seeing now is leaf growth and these leaves will be gone before the growing point starts up the stalk. They could be pastured for a little while.

The next meeting of the County Poultry Association will be on April 16th with Dr. R. L. Kohls of the Purdue Agricultural Economics Department as speaker. He will discuss the egg market outlook.

The County Angus Breeders Association will meet April 19th at the M & M Cafe at North Webster. Henry Mayo of the Purdue Animal Science Department will discuss beef carcass quality.

Bob Lucas is a soil scientist at Michigan State University. He is a native of northern Indiana and worked for many years on the Gehring farms. This is what he has to say about some of the sales of fertilizers that are recommended to be sprayed on the leaves.

"The application of liquid fertilizers on the leaves of plants is a good way to correct or prevent most micronutrient deficiencies such as manganese or copper. It is not recommended for nitrogen, phosphate or potash because of the excessive cost, inability to supply enough nutrients for plant growth and the possibility of plant injury."

The referendum on the new wheat referendum will be coming in May. This time growers of smaller acreages will have a vote if they establish their eligibility. Letters will be sent from the local ASCS office some time within the next few weeks explaining this. My advice is to take a good look at all this information in order that you not get caught up in some technicality.

We have planned one meeting for the purpose of explaining the wheat program that is being offered. It will be held the evening of April 25th at the Lake City Bank. Walter Rusk, County Agent at Huntington, will come over to do the explaining. This meeting is certainly not to encourage nor to deter anyone's voting for or against this new proposal but there are some things in this bill that you ought to know about.

Cleve Shuder, ASCS County Chairman, will also be on hand to help with the questions.

We do not know whether or not it will pay to spray alfalfa and clover fields for spittlebugs this spring, but it will pay to look and see. Within the next few days, if the weather is fairly warm, they will hatch. The first sign is the small drops of water that are on the stem or in the crown of the plants. They look like dew drops, but if we see them in the afternoon when the dew should be dry, then there are little bugs inside. If there is an average of one per plant, then spraying should be profitable.

Conducting Sale

The Mentone FHA chapter is conducting their annual sale of the famous cookbook, "Favorite Recipes of Home Economics Teachers". The 1963 edition features desserts and party beverages. These cookbooks are sold only for fund raising. The 1962 edition featuring meats can also be obtained from the chapter.

Homemakers will find in this book the most complete collection of dessert recipes ever printed. It contains over 2,000 recipes submitted by home economics teachers in every section of the United States. The recipes are very practical and are suitable for everyday meals as well as creative and gourmet attractions.

The "Desserts Edition" contains a separate section for cakes, cookies, pies and candies. Cooking tables, charts, and helpful pointers, plus many photographs make these sections very useful. A desserts calorie chart, frozen dessert section and dessert spice charts are included.

Other sections feature frostings and fillings, puddings and custards, frozen desserts, fruit desserts, shortcakes, jiffy desserts, dessert sauces and toppings, dessert for large groups and many others.

Party beverages occupy a position of importance in this grand collection of recipes. An entire section is devoted to recipes on party punch and beverages.

For information on how to obtain this book, contact the home economics teacher at the Mentone High School or an FHA member.

To Hold Craft Workshop

A craft workshop on tooling of copper will be held at the Women's Building, Warsaw fairgrounds, on Tuesday, April 30 from 9:30 to 3:00. The material used in this craft could be used in 4-H, Vacation Bible School, Girl or Boy Scout work or as a creative craft for an adult who is interested, another hobby. Mrs. McCleary, Extension Agent, Home Economics, will teach the lesson.

Those interested should send 75 cents to the County Extension office for pre-registration along with their name and address. This will be applied toward some of the materials to be used. All enrollers should bring a pad of newspapers or a magazine, a nut pick, a pencil, old cloths, and scotch tape.

This is an inexpensive yet creative craft and it is possible to use the knowledge gained for planters and book ends, as well as pictures for walls. This workshop is open to the public.

The death rate from uterine cancer has dropped 50 per cent in 25 years. According to the American Cancer Society, much of this is due to the fact that more women are having an annual "Pap" test for uterine cancer. This is a simple procedure by which uterine cancer can be detected early enough to be cured.

When spring cleaning, Purdue University farm safety specialists suggest using a step ladder or sturdy stool to take down and hang curtains, or to reach high places. Avoid climbing on chairs.

Prune Shrubs For New Life

It takes only a short time to give shrubs "new life" through pruning. H. W. Gilbert, Purdue University extension landscape architect, has advised Hoosier homeowners.

When old shrubs are left up-pruned, new shoots grow up from the crown as slender bare canes overcrowd the shrub. The result is sparse blooming and foliage as well as general loss of vigor. If one or two of the older canes or stems are removed to the ground each year, the shrub may be kept open and bushy to permit the new growth to develop its normal branching form.

Some shrubs have dead wood which should be removed each spring. Some Deutzias, Hydrangeas, Buddleia, Snowberry, Tamarrix, Kerria, Abelia, Callicarpa and Mahonia need a spring clean up of dead stems and twigs.

If a deciduous shrub must be heavily sheared or cut back annually to preserve a desired size, it was poorly chosen in the first place and should be removed to a location in which it may be allowed to assume its natural form. A shrub of lower growth should be planted in its place.

Shrubs such as lilacs or bush honeysuckles which have become "leggy" with sparse foliage and light bloom, may be restored to good form and vigor over a period of two or three years by the removal each year of one or two of the old stems. Some thinning of the new growth should be done the following June.

Information on the best time to prune various types of shrubs is contained in Purdue Extension Bulletin 324, "Ornamental Shrubs". The publication can be obtained from the Agricultural Publications Office at Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind., or at the local county extension office.

Your Easter Lily

You will enjoy your Easter lily more if you plan before you buy, says Don Scheer, Purdue University horticulturist.

If you select a plant with buds of several different sizes, it will have flowers for a long period. For home display, choose a compact plant with bright green foliage all the way to its base.

To arrange an interesting setting for the plant, you might place it on a low table set with harmonizing statuary or candles as a focal point in the room and wherever you decide to put it, be careful to choose a pleasing background. And make sure the area is free of objects that compete with the plant for your attention.

Also, water carefully and if possible, keep at a moderately cool temperature and in a draft free location where there is considerable light. Then your Easter lily will hold its blooms for several days.

For further information on Easter lilies, write to the Agricultural Publications Office, AES Building, Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana. Ask for Mimeo HO-744, "Easter Lilies". Single copies are free to Indiana residents.

When planting trees and shrubs, dig a hole two times as wide and six inches deeper than the spread of roots or the size of the ball. Horticulturists at Purdue University advise planting so that your tree or shrub is two to three inches deeper than it grew in the nursery.

10,000 Reward

Wanted, a man between five and seven feet tall, with a large scar on his face that looks like a smile, and who has his pockets full of charity. This man is no robber, but he has more than his share of the virtues of life. He has been endowed with the ability to see in the face of fellow man and the image of his Creator. His life has been spent not only in his pursuit of material things, but in giving a helping hand to those about him. He knows that only as he gives can he receive. That the full measure of devotion is not in what you can demand, but in what he can give. Without reward, without credit and without pride. For if such as these is the hope of mankind. To whom humility, loyalty and honesty are a way of life and not an exception.

Perhaps we have too few of this type, or maybe again we do have those who qualify, but continue unnoticed and unseen by virtue of the fact that no recognition is given them. They go about their daily task of doing good secure in the knowledge that this is why they were created, and this is their reward. No, the 10,000 reward won't be in silver or gold, but in the myriad shouts of laughter being sung in the hearts of children as they scamper about the Park. It is such a man as this that the Park Board would like to find.

This past year, the Park has purchased or acquired numerous small items like a mowing machine, playground equipment and tools that are necessary for the continuance and upkeep of the grounds. We need a small building to house these items.

I am aware, as I travel about the county, that the people in this area have numerous small buildings that are not being used. And it was our hope that some good friend would donate or sell at a reasonable price, a small building that could be used at the Park for this purpose.

We would prefer a gable or peaked roof building, of about 60 to 100 sq. ft., in good shape with a floor.

If the man mentioned above reads this notice, we would be happy if he would contact one of the members of the Park Board, Bill Rathbun, Art Kendall, or myself, Denton Abbey.

P.S. We would also like to take this opportunity to acknowledge a very generous donation from the Lions Club, to help defray the expenses of a mowing machine that was recently purchased.

Adapt your salad to fit your meal, advise Purdue University food specialists. Serve a light, leafy salad with a hearty meal, a tart salad with fish, hearty salads with a light meal, or as a main dish.

Bridal Shower

Mrs. Werner Gasteiger of Fort Wayne, the former Janet Capes who made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kendall of R. R. 1, Tippecanoe while in school, was guest of honor at a bridal and kitchen shower at the Kendall home recently. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Kendall were Miss Karen Beaupre, Mrs. Donna Braun of Fort Wayne. The table was centered with a bouquet of snapdragons and mums.

Other guests were Mrs. Becky Montel, Mrs. Mona Shepherd, Mrs. Kay Shepherd, Mrs. Freda Witham, Mrs. Kathryn Gasteiger, Mrs. Clarence Taylor, Miss Linda Long, Miss Sandra Lackey and Miss Sally Tyron. They were from Fort Wayne, North Manchester, Mentone, Claypool, Etna Green and Warsaw. Refreshments of orange ice, a cake decorated with tangerine flowers on white, punch, nut cups with mints were served.

Mrs. Gasteiger is a graduate of Mentone High School and Werner's Beauty School at Fort Wayne. She was married in Fort Wayne on March 1.

If you have an established lawn and it's growing well, apply ten pounds of 10-6-4, or its equivalent, per 1,000 square feet to maintain its vigor, advise horticulturists at Purdue University.

Success Is Based On Will To Win

It has been said that America's greatest contribution to the world is the opportunity it presents to live in a land where life is richer and fuller.

This generation has realized the realities of this contribution of freedom, but it is also faced with the responsibility to leave this rich heritage to succeeding generations.

When we read in the Declaration of Independence that "all men are created equal", we know that the writers were saying that men are equal before God and the law.

The fathers of the Declaration of Independence were also saying that the majority would rule in this new nation, but that the minority had the right of peaceful persuasion. The Declaration gave many rights, including trial by jury, appeal, freedom of worship, and choice to live as one would choose.

One of the wonderful facets about the Declaration of Independence is revealed in the assertion that ideas and rights are derived from belief in God.

Governments are made for man, not man for governments. God creates man with certain rights which government should not take away. Liberty has both statute laws and moral laws, and if freedom in America is to be preserved, personal responsibility must be assumed, and a high standard of morality must be maintained by its citizens. If we fail to observe these laws, our liberty will be lost either through governmental restraint or by dictatorial regimentation.

As one of our leaders expressed it some time ago:

"Freedom is a satisfying and contagious concept but only as freedom is put to good use. Otherwise, a life of freedom becomes a life of boredom from which men seek release at almost any price."

At this critical time in the history of our country when we face a powerful, determined adversary whose goal is world domination and who has boasted that he will bury us, there is no room for complacency, and this is no time for defeatism or passivism.

It is a time when much is required and rightfully expected of the citizens of America. It is a time when we must show our love for our country by active patriotism — by a willingness and an eagerness to devote our talents and our energies to the cause of freedom.

We must want to prove ourselves worthy of America's heritage. We must not only stand ready to fight and die for our country, but we must also be ready to live for it.

One outstanding way to serve is through devotion to worthwhile causes and good citizenship. There is always a time and a place for participation in community affairs where one may discharge his community responsibilities.

America's spiritual and material strength is great. It has the capabilities to outlast and to defeat communism. But the key to success is possession of the will to win. If we lack the will on individual and collective bases, America's hope for victory and survival as a free nation is lessened considerably.

As we revere the past and the legions of heroes who stand out in the annals of history, we must meet the challenges of today in an all-out effort to win the present and to assure the future. We must dedicate our skill, efforts and service to our country, fully aware of the importance of our individual contribution and our individual responsibility.

We must never think that one voice is lost in the crowd. The individual's voice will always be heard when he has something to say and when he has the courage to speak out. The voices of millions of Americans can be a powerful resounding roar for freedom.

About 46 million Americans now living will eventually have cancer, according to the American Cancer Society. At present rates, it will strike one in four persons. A health checkup every year is your best protection.

Crabgrass Control

It is easy to control crabgrass, according to Purdue University turf specialists. One uniform, timely, adequate chemical application and you've stopped crabgrass, and left desirable grasses.

Crabgrass seed may start to germinate as early as April 1 in the midwest. So you will want to get crabgrass preventing materials on the lawn before this time so sprouting seedlings are destroyed. Crabgrass is not as easy to kill later.

Several different chemicals are available to prevent crabgrass. Chemicals include the arsenic compounds, chlordane, and others. Be sure that you apply enough of any of them. Follow the directions on the label. Skimpy rates are worthless. Excessive rates may damage desirable grasses.

Uniform coverage by criss-cross, repeat applications, by careful marking of each pass, by using only good equipment, makes sense.

Also, good general lawn care will help control crabgrass indirectly. Fertilization in the spring plus cutting at a two inch height helps keep the desirable grasses vigorous so they overshadow crabgrass.

Films Available

Availability of a new railroad film strip program designed for women's clubs and organizations was announced recently by Joseph W. Gagen, chairman of the speaker's bureau of the Railroad Community Service Committee of Indiana.

Entitled "More For Your Money", the film strip was produced by the women's division of the Association of American Railroads. It deals with the effect of the high cost of transportation on the family pocketbook as related to commodities used by the average housewife and members of her family.

The program is available free of charge and comes with a complete script for use by the program chairman. Organizations requesting the film strip are required to provide their own projector.

In addition, they have speakers available for those clubs desiring a lengthier program, or wishing to incorporate a question and answer period with the film strip presentation.

Requests for the program may be made to Mr. Joseph W. Gagen, New York Central System, 625 Big Four Building, Indianapolis.

Diversion For Sick Children

Spring brings many pleasant things, but it's also the season when children's communicable diseases spread rapidly.

In addition to good physical care, a sick child needs some diversion and amusement while he recovers from measles, flu, mumps or chickenpox. Mrs. Elaine Dolch, family life and child development specialist at Purdue University, offers these quiet activities to help your child pass the long hours while he is recovering.

Keeping an active child happy while quiet is difficult. But he probably will enjoy manipulating a small pocket mirror to make sunlight dance all around his room. When the room darkens he will enjoy playing with a flashlight.

Mobiles are attractive to watch. Make a simple one by suspending small paper cutouts or a toy airplane from the light fixture, the window shade pull or from a toy clothes line.

The little patient can do some bedside gardening if you put a few carrot or beet tops in a shallow dish of water. An inch or two of the vegetable top will sprout in a few days and grow green foliage.

Several goldfish or a tiny turtle are interesting to feed and watch. This activity could grow into a pleasurable hobby.

Urge your child to be creative and give him modeling clay, crayons, paper, paste and yarn to work with. Then display his efforts on a small bulletin board or a table top.

Your child will also enjoy making things from ordinary household items. Let him use a large blunt needle and thread or a large shoe string, to thread pieces of macaroni, buttons or pieces of straws into necklaces and bracelets.

To ease the work of caring for a sick child, she suggests using drinking straws, paper cups and plates, as well as disposable tissues.

Paper bags turned down at the top and safety pinned to the mattress are useful in several ways. Use one bag as a wastebasket. Use another one or two pinned to the opposite side of the bed to hold bedside treasures and necessities such as crayons, paper, small trucks or dolls and clean paper tissues.

A bed table for eating or playing is more convenient than balancing objects on his legs. To make a table, rest each end of a dining table leaf or a long board on a chair back or orange crate on either side of the bed. You might make a bed table from a sturdy rectangular cardboard box. Simply cut a "tunnel" in the long sides so the box will fit over the child's legs.

Children as well as adults should heed this month's Chicago Motor Club poster theme, "Signal For Safety." Children should remember that when they are riding their bicycles, especially in the street, they too are subject to all rules of the road. One of these rules is to signal when making either a left or right hand turn. This allows both the motorist who is approaching and the motorist behind sufficient time to anticipate the cyclist's next move. Always be safety conscious and courteous when riding your bicycle. The April safety poster was distributed by the Chicago Motor Club to some 33,000 grade school classrooms in the Club's Illinois and Indiana territory.

Leukosis Controls Coming—
Dr. Walter F. Hughes, Kimber Farms, Inc.

There is a lot of information accumulating concerning avian leukosis. Although there is no sure-fire method of control today, there soon may be.

We have done a lot of work using a tissue culture test to detect chickens and hatching eggs carrying the leukosis virus. Using this technique and isolated rearing, we have raised chickens free of the leukosis virus and hatched from them. Their progeny are now 40 weeks of age and are still free of this leukosis virus. The experimental work has been successful enough to warrant trying this technique on a commercial scale.

Most of the leukosis outbreaks are due more to environment exposure than egg transmission. The female parent is the only parent that passes the virus to its offspring, according to our findings.

While Looking The Other Way

We must guard against the tendency to lose so many of our freedoms while we look the other way.

If we take the trouble to look, we can see that year after year, there are fewer areas that remain untouched by federal regulation.

Government bureaus regulate farming, jobs, communications, relations between employers and employees, and broad areas of business operation.

Excessively heavy taxes make it more and more difficult for an American to accumulate sufficient savings.

All these things have been done one at a time. Each advance along the road that leads away from freedom probably seems a small, hardly noticeable movement. More often than not, each step away from freedom was made possible by a promise of something for nothing. A far-reaching system of grants, subsidies, rewards and penalties has been established to finance the flight from freedom.

And the end is not in sight. Every year, additions to the regulatory system are proposed, and every year some of them are adopted. Each of these offers something to somebody or some group.

Every regulatory proposal demands the surrender of a little more freedom of the individual. At the same time, it requires the transfer of more power from the citizen to the federal government.

Those who give up their right to decide their own affairs may find it temporarily profitable. Those who protest or rebel find it costly. In the final analysis, both suffer great harm.

The reason is simple:

Once freedom is lost, it is difficult (and sometimes impossible) to regain.

We can do something more than wring our hands over this state of affairs.

First, we can make a clear and conscious choice in favor of freedom. We can make our choice, and then we can actively seek out others who also choose freedom.

This is a time for patriotism in America. This is a time for the citizen to be proud he is a patriot, and let his fellow Americans know that he stands up for freedom.

National Examinations For U.S. Coast Guard

The 88th annual examination for admission to the U.S. Coast Guard Academy at New London, Connecticut, will be held December 7, 1963 in over 1,000 cities of the United States, its possessions and selected cities abroad.

Appointments as Cadet, United States Coast Guard, are made solely on the basis of competitive examination and prospective adaptability to military life. There are no Congressional appointments or geographical quotas.

An applicant must be a high school senior or graduate, who has reached his 17th, but not his 22nd birthday by July 1, 1964. Applicants still in high school must graduate and earn 15 units by June 30, 1964. The units must include three in English, two in Algebra and one in Plane Geometry. Applicants must be in excellent physical condition, between 64 and 73 inches in height, with proportionate weight, and have at least 20/30 vision in each eye, correctable to 20/20.

The Academy curriculum includes academic subjects and military training. Courses are conducted in engineering, the humanities and subjects related to the professional duties of a Coast Guard officer. Cadets are also schooled in the fundamentals of atomic science through the use of a nuclear reactor on the Academy grounds.

During their training, cadets are paid $1333.80 per year.

Upon completion of the Academy education, cadets are commissioned as Ensigns in the Coast Guard and awarded Bachelor of Science degrees.

Extra curricular activities include a variety of clubs and athletics. Coast Guard teams compete with many colleges in football, basketball, swimming, track, and other major sports under the direction of the well-known athlete, Commander Otis Graham.

Coast Guard Cadets spend a portion of each summer at sea, training aboard the bark Eagle and major cutters. Past training cruises have taken the cadets to such interesting ports of call as Oslo, London, Copenhagen, Lisbon, and Antwerp.

The Coast Guard is a military service and is one of the five Armed Forces. While history finds the Coast Guard fighting in all of our wars with many recorded deeds of valor, traditionally the service takes its greatest pride in peacetime activities. Search and Rescue, Law Enforcement, Aids to Navigation, Merchant Marine Safety, Boating Safety, Ocean Weather Stations, International Ice Patrol, and many other duties provide aid and comfort to people of all nations using the air or sea lanes. Its duties are truly humanitarian and it is the successful performance of their jobs that gives real satisfaction to Coast Guardsmen everywhere.

Post-graduate courses are conducted at advanced military schools and leading universities and colleges throughout the country.

Aviation is of increasing importance to Coast Guard operations, calling for many young officers to enter this exciting branch of the Coast Guard's organization to prevent disaster on the sea or land, during peace or war.

Chickweed is a late winter and early spring lawn seed. Horticulturists at Purdue University say seed germinates in the fall, and the plant dies the following summer when the weather gets dry. Control it by spot treatment with 2,2,5T or spread an arsenical crabgrass killer in the early spring, and control crabgrass as well as chickweed.

And, growth-rate is mighty important to young pigs! Fast-growing pigs just seem to outrun trouble! Long before lots of baby pig difficulties have a chance to appear, Purina-fed pigs aren't pigs any more... they're hogs!

Purina-fed pigs grow fast because Baby Pig Chow contains built-in vitamin, mineral and antibiotic fortification little pigs need to help them through the dangers that threaten their very lives. Pig Startena, too, has developed over years of careful testing at Purina's own research farm.

Mentone Reading Club

The April meeting of the Mentone Reading Club was held at the social room of the Farmers State Bank on Wednesday evening, April 3.

Hostesses were Arvilla Teel and Harriet Abbey.

Betty Boggs and Dorothy Herendeen were in charge of the program.

Mrs. Ford Hardman, of Warsaw, was a guest speaker. Her topic was, "My Place As A Local Clubwoman". She compared the Federation of Clubs, (beginning at the General Federation on down to the local club) to the components of a wheel. She discussed the "diseases" of clubs and told of the care and treatment to produce better clubs.

The May meeting will be the anniversary dinner and details will be issued nearer that time.

Small Gardens Worth While

A home vegetable garden, even though small, represents a worth while investment in time and money, observes Don Scheer, Purdue University extension horticulturist.

To get the most out of a small garden, plan carefully before you plant. Choose a good location—one exposed to a minimum of five to six hours of sun-light daily. Too, soil should be fertile and free from competition of tree roots and shade.

Select vegetables that will give "home grown" freshness, advises Scheer. Tomatoes and snap beans top this list. To save space, stake your tomatoes and grow pole type beans.

Although it takes up considerable space, sweet corn is a good choice. Roasting ears from your own garden excel purchased corn because of their freshness, Scheer explains.

And don't forget the easiest of all vegetables to grow—the radish. It grows fast and takes little space. Carrots and beets also are especially well adapted to small gardens, the horticulturist adds.

To Plant More Corn and Soybeans

Hoosier farmers intend to increase their 1963 soybean and corn acreage, but to reduce oats, barley, potato, sorghum and tobacco acreage, report state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University. They plan no change in hay acreage.

The statisticians, deporting March 1 planting intentions of Indiana farmers, said soybean acreage would total 2,924,000 acres—five per cent more than in 1962 and 21 per cent more than average.

Farmers expect to plant 4,703,000 acres in corn. This is five per cent more than in 1962, but two per cent less than average.

On the other hand, prospective plantings of oats will continue the downward trend which began in 1955. A sharp reduction in barley acreage is also planned.

Outstanding Junior Member Contest

Mrs. Wayne (Shirley) Smalley has been selected as Anthony Nigo Chapter's candidate in the DAR 1963 Outstanding Junior Member Contest. Shirley is the mother of two children, a boy four years old and a daughter two years old.

In 1959 she joined the local DAR and at once became an active and interested worker. She has been an excellent public relations promoter of many chapter activities such as one of the sponsors of a community meeting with Herbert Philbrick, famous counterspy as speaker. Shirley sold more tickets for the event than any other chapter member.

She typed over 20,000 words in connection with a state winning essay entitled, "The Constitution of the United States versus World Government", as well as typing other papers necessary for DAR work.

She served as floor page at the state conference, prepared and helped present an entire chapter program on American music which was educational and delightfully entertaining. She sold a good number of fifty star flags and also served as a model in a historical fashion show sponsored by her chapter to raise money for philanthropic projects.

At present Mrs. Smalley is a Sunday School teacher and an active member of the music committee of her church.

Recently she was elected the treasurer of the Anthony Nigo chapter. In all of her activities, she helps to promote our National society's motto, "Home and Country".

Akron Principal Resigns

Granville Deaton, principal and supervisor of the Akron Elementary and High Schools, announced his resignation recently.

Mr. Deaton, a native of Kosciusko County, has been with the Akron schools since 1951. While at Akron he secured a first class commission in 1953. During the time he has served in the Akron schools, a new grade school building was built and extensive remodeling of the high school was accomplished.

Mr. Deaton is president of Akron Lions Club; on the board of directors of Akron Chamber of Commerce; a member of National Education Association; Indiana State Teachers Association; and affiliated with Phi Delta Kappa, national honorary fraternity for school men.

He received his bachelor's degree from Manchester College and his master's degree from Indiana University, and has done additional work at Purdue and Indiana universities.

Grow a new utility building in a corn field?

It's not fantastic! And here is why:

The chart (right) shows how one farmer increased his net profit on corn $27.10 per acre after application of Phillips 66 Ammonia. He picked a total of 7200 extra bushels of corn on 200 acres and netted $5,420 extra net profit. This kind of money will go a long way toward buying a new all-steel utility building.

See us today! Let us show you how this 82% nitrogen fertilizer can help you live better through higher profits per acre.

YOU CAN CONQUER CRABGRASS!

Last spring a contractor's bulldozer and shovel invaded our front lawn to dig up and replace a drainage bed. It was too late to reseed, so we let the area lie fallow through the summer months. In no time at all a fine crop of assorted — or should we call them sordid? — weeds had sprouted, where nothing but perennial grasses had been growing for many years.

Where did the weeds come from, to hot sunshine in lawns which are and what has this to do with not well cared for, except for their conquering crabgrass? What is your phobia?

A phobia (to quote) "is a persistent, unreasoning fear of something that is objectively groundless or greatly exaggerated."

Childhood phobias may be fear of the dark, of the bogeyman, or animals.

Many adults have phobias. Do you find yours in the following list?

Acrophobia is the dread of being at a great height. Agoraphobia is the fear of being alone in a large open space. Claustrophobia is the dread of being shut in an enclosed place and often is accompanied by panic, increased heart rate and a feeling of suffocation.

Astraphobia is the fear of storms and thunder and lightning. Amaxophobia is the morbid dread of being in a vehicle, particularly when it is in motion.

There is even phobophobia—fear of one's own fears.

Spent an afternoon with Dorothy Herendeen a couple of Sundays ago. If you don't want to "catch a fever" to see Hawaii, don't talk to Dorothy. They had a wonderful trip. Chick had some extra adventures while sightseeing by bicycle. He met a beachcomber who lived in an antiquated car; was bitten by a dog; and picked up a fist-full of "balloons" which turned out to be the dreaded Portuguese men-of-war, a sea creature whose sting is painful and sometimes serious. (National Geographic for March had a most comprehensive article called The Deadly Fisher.) Dorothy's brother is stationed with the Army, and they were able to see many places of interest,

Special School News

Spring is in evidence in the grades this week. The pupils and teachers have been busy working on pretty displays since our somewhat nicer weather has arrived on the scene. Mrs. Helen Irelan's first graders have been studying birds quite extensively. These children can identify twenty five different birds, parts of a bird, their nests, and even the migrating habits. In keeping with this study, they have bird pictures all around the room. Wild life has also been discussed and their next study project will be on flower identification. Surely this type of study has been enjoyable and interesting for the boys and girls, and will undoubtedly be a hobby for them in years to come.

Another item that caught our eye in Mrs. Irelan's room was their Spring News, a bulletin board that each child may contribute to, such as a bird seen on the way to school, a flower up in their yard, a pussy willow twig brought for the class, etc. We believe that these children really are getting the most out of this spring season!!!!

Mrs. Florence McKinley's kindergarten room is now enjoying the efforts of a project which was begun last fall. At the beginning of the school year they discussed the seasons, how many plants, seeds, bulbs, etc. slept through the winter, to come alive again in the spring. To help the children learn this lesson, and to give them a chance to participate, they were given the opportunity to bring pennies and then bought 40 crocus bulbs with the money. These bulbs were planted across the front of the school yard, and this spring 40 anxious children watched and waited for the first shoot of green to appear. Of course now, these flowers are getting more than enough attention from the kindergarten, and are also out where others can enjoy their beauty. These children have been studying the seasons all through this year, and their project for the Science Fair was a lovely display on our four seasons. Mrs. McKinley said she hopes this planting of bulbs can become an annual thing for the kindergarten.

Mrs. Gladys Wittkamper's fifth graders have continued their Science Fair project on Rocks and Minerals. They have a very complete collection of 101 different rocks and minerals that are in a nice display and are all classified. Two students most responsible for the identifying are Keith Remy and Kristine Hoffer. The other students have all helped, gathered, collected and given moral support during this.

The FHA girls have planned a tea for the teachers this week. The girls will even take over the classrooms while the teachers are enjoying the tea.

Awarded Scholarship

One of Mentone High School's top senior students and ace basketball players has been awarded a Rector scholarship by DePauw University, Greencastle. He is Jon Newcomb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Newcomb,

COUNTERPOINT

By The Editor's Wife

There is a rabbit living on our premises—a nice, brown, sleek rabbit. This pleased me until I caught this rascal happily munching on our lovely tulip leaves. Now I am a creature of mixed emotions. This can lead to frustration, you know. (Please page Mr. Freud, somebody.)

It was good to see E. E. Wagner out walking in the sunshine one day last week.

A low calorie spread (even less than butter or margarine) is soon to be at your grocers. A less happy note is that 10c candy bars are to be smaller. (Guess, in its own way, this means less calories, too.)

You are partly responsible for this item. The potted plant and shrubbery business is doing better than ever before in history.

A few years ago, one bought a potted plant for rare or very special occasions, now we give them on all sentimental holidays.

Greenhouses are climate-controlled so that plants are produced exactly when needed or wanted.

More people are interested (and have the time) to grow plants indoors.

Our decorating trends call for indoor plants.

Think, now, don't you buy more flowers and plants than you use to?

We enjoyed this:

David was helping his grandfather clean house while grandmother was ill. As they worked, grandfather told David that he was a good worker and he could stay and help him a couple of days, if he wished. David said that he could not miss school.

"Why?" asked grandfather. "Well, they have substitutes for teachers, but they don't have any substitutes for kids."

Additional Appropriation Viewed By State Board

The Indiana Tax Board has viewed the request for additional appropriations for the repair of Beaver Dam School.

There was a group who spoke against the repair, feeling that the money could be spent more wisely in the construction of a new cafeteria at Burket and some new grade rooms at Mentone. As a show of this feeling they submitted a petition bearing 153 names.

Also speaking was a group in favor of the repair of Beaver Dam. They stated that we needed the space that was there to house the students. Too, the money being spent should keep the building in a satisfactory state of repair for a sufficient length of time until adequate building can be made available.

This group also had a petition which they submitted, which was in favor of the remodeling. There were 568 names listed on it.

The school board will be opening bids for the remodeling of Beaver Dam next Monday night at 7:30.

Beaver Dam Alumni Banquet

The Beaver Dam School gym was the scene of a highly successful and the largest alumni banquet ever held in the 49 years of the association.

After a turkey and trimmings dinner, Roger Nellans, alumni president for 1963, welcomed 149 alumni and guests.

Despite the fact that Beaver Dam is no longer a high school, the never before equaled attendance dispelled all doubt as to whether the members wished to continue with the yearly meeting or not. Mr. Nellans read a note from Mr. Fred Haney, principal of Beaver Dam Junior High School, and at present a patient at the Murphy Medical Center, expressed his warm welcome and regrets of being absent.

A short business meeting revealed a new slate of officers, who were promptly elected.

They are president, Robert Hoffman; vice president, Betty Lowman; secretary, Evelyn Smith; assistant secretary, Janet Woods; treasurer, Margaret Adams; assistant treasurer, Karen Thomas.

Due to the lack of a senior class to honor, as in previous years, the officers chose to select an honor class. The 1938 class was chosen since they were celebrating their 25th anniversary. Glen Longenecker, principal of Warsaw High School, who was principal of Beaver Dam School in 1938, was introduced by Gerald Smalley, chairman of the honor class committee.

Mr. Longenecker gave a very humorous and informative resume of the class of 1938, as he remembered them particularly during their senior year. He also brought their histories up to date with material supplied him which had been gathered through letter writing by Mr. Smalley's committee. Eleven of the 16 members of that class were present. Too great a distance or illness being the main factors for not having a 100 per cent representation, although many traveled 100 miles or better to attend.

The "would-have-been" seniors who now attend either Akron or Mentone high schools, were invited back as honorary members.

An interesting and, as always, mystifying magic act was presented by Nelson Auer, well-known local magician from Syracuse, Indiana.

The beautifully decorated tables showed much talent, time and effort put forth by the decorating committee.

Dale Tucker, well-known Warsaw, formerly of Beaver Dam, and acting as auctioneer, used his talents to successfully conclude the evening by auctioning off several Easter bunny dolls and flower bouquets used as decorations.

Palestine Homemakers Met Thursday

The Palestine Homemakers met April 11th at the home of Mrs. Albert Tucker. A carry in dinner was served to the eight members and guests, Mrs. Bill Hatfield and sons Rickey and Ryan and Albert Tucker.

The meeting was opened by the president, Flo Shirey. The pledge to the flag, club creed and prayer was given by the group. Meditation was given by Edna Jones. A birthday card was sent to Bessie Pletcher from the club. Next meeting will be May 9th with Rosa Hipsher in Palestine with a carry in dinner.

However, the American Cancer Society says that about 88,000 cancer patients will probably die in 1963 who might have been saved by earlier detection and treatment. GETTING THE MOST... FROM YOUR GARDEN

by Dr. W. A. Liddell
Director of Information, Agrow Seed Company

SPRINGTIME IS FOR LETTUCE

In the spring a salad-lover's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of home-grown lettuce. And with good reason, for several kinds of lettuce with the greatest appeal for eye and palate are often hard to find at the supermarket. If you've never eaten home garden lettuce, you don't know what you've been missing. It's quite a different vegetable from the leathery heads that you buy in the store.

White Boston.

The surprising thing is that more people don't try growing their own. It takes very little space, and very little time and effort, and home garden lettuce plots are seldom seriously affected by insects and plant diseases. Here are some pointers for those whose spirit of adventure is not yet dead.

The main requirements for a good crop of backyard lettuce are: fertile soil and plenty of moisture to promote the kind of rapid, uniform growth that will make your lettuce tender and sweet.

You can probably improve your soil for lettuce by adding one or more of these materials to your soil before preparing the seed bed.

Fertilizer: about 4 or 5 lb. per hundred square feet of one of the standard garden fertilizers. Lawn fertilizer can be used, but only about 1/3 - 1/2 as much. Organic matter, such as peat moss, old hay or straw, decomposed grass clippings, poultry litter, manure (if you can find it), etc. — and the more the better.

Lettuce plants have a rather small, shallow root system, so it is important to keep the upper soil from drying out. This is usually no problem in the spring, but summer plants, using the pulled plants for lettuce will benefit from a layer of lawn clippings, or similar material spread around the plants. This conserves moisture, keeps the soil cooler, and eventually returns or serves moisture to the soil when you turn it under for the next crop.

The early maturing leaf-lettuces reach full size in six to eight weeks. The heading types may take 10 to 12 weeks for full maturity. To avoid the gluts and famines, make a small planting every week or so.

Varieties

For earliest picking in late spring, Simpson's Curled (Black your back yard, send your name, Seeded Simpson) (light green), on a postcard, to Agrow Garden Grand Rapids (darker green), and Guide, PO Box 406, New Haven 2. Prize Head (red-tinged), are popular.

lar non-heading or leaf varieties. They can be picked a few leaves at a time. Salad Bowl (light green), and Ruby (dark red) are good leaf-types for later plantings, as they stand hot weather very well. Among the loose-head or semi-head types there are several good ones to choose from. White Boston (medium green), Bibb (small, dark green), and Mignonette (red-tinged) are good for cool season. Matchless (dark green) Buttercrunch (dark green) are better suited for warmer weather. These varieties are popular for their rather thick, heavy leaves and their rather mild, sweet flavor.

Another type well suited for home gardens and adapted for a wide range of growing conditions is romaine, the upright, rather tall, long-leaved rather loose-headed kind. Parris Island or Dark Green Cos are widely used.

After spading, work the soil free of stones and clumps to prepare a fine seed bed. Lay out your rows to allow between 12 and 24 inches between rows, and plant to a depth of about 1/4 inch at a rate of about 6 to 8 seeds per foot. As the young plants begin to grow, thin 'out' to space of about 8-12 inches between plants, using the pulled plants for lettuce.

The early maturing leaf-lettuces reach full size in six to eight weeks. The heading types may take 10 to 12 weeks for full maturity. To avoid the gluts and famines, make a small planting every week or so.

If you would like free information for earliest picking in late about how to grow vegetables in spring, Simpson's Curled (Black your back yard, send your name, Seeded Simpson) (light green), on a postcard, to Agrow Garden Grand Rapids (darker green), and Guide, PO Box 406, New Haven 2. FFA BOYS' TRIP TO ST. LOUIS DELAYED BY BUS TROUBLE

Forty five Mentone High School F.F.A. club members are now just beginning to maneuver in a normal manner after arriving home from a trip to St. Louis at 3 a.m. Sunday morning, some ten hours after their scheduled time of arrival.

The group had their unexpected delay when the school bus in which they were riding broke down on U.S. 40 near Effingham, Illinois. They had left Wednesday evening to visit the Purina Food Mills in St. Louis.

The students soon felt the warm hand of friendship as the Effingham High School dispatched a bus to the broken vehicle and took the students into town where they enjoyed lunch, movies and "window shopping."

The motor of the bus reportedly blew a piston about 11 a.m. Friday, 10 miles from Effingham. Morris Bitzer, FFA chapter leader, said that mechanics in Effingham worked straight through in order to get the vehicle on the road by 9:20 p.m.

Not only did the mechanics grind the valves, replace bearings, and hone cylinders in practically rebuilding the engine, the bill came to just $97—usually at least a $200 job. Morris McDaniel, of Atwood, also accompanied the group.

The community of Mentone is extremely thankful for the way the Illinois people took care of the boys.

Purdue University horticulturists say you can plant early garden vegetables outdoors this month. Sow peas, lettuce, radishes and spinach as soon as you can work the soil.

Highly palatable . . . baby pigs love 'em . . . eat 'em by the time pigs are 7 days old! High in milk products . . . vitamins, proteins, and carbohydrates — all easily digestible in the baby pig's delicate digestive system.

A new feature of PIONEER Pig Tasties makes carbohydrates more completely available to the baby pig than ever before . . . more available energy means bigger pigs on less feed.

For the first time, scour causing bacteria (both gram-positive and gram-negative bacteria) can be controlled with NF-180 PLUS Terramycin in PIONEER Pig Tasties! One pound of PIONEER Pig Tasties produces one and two-thirds pounds of pork . . . at a time when the baby pig needs available nutrients, vitamins, and disease-fighting drugs.

PIONEER PIG STARTER FEED 35# PER PIG

PIONEER Pig Starter produces healthy 40-pound pigs in less than eight weeks. Pioneer Pig Starter has been improved with special ingredients that make energy and carbohydrates even more available. Highly palatable, Pioneer Pig Starter performs under a vast range of field conditions. Contains 75 grams streptomycin and 15 grams penicillin . . . plus arsanilic acid. We recommend Hygromycin in Pioneer Pig Starter to control worms during this most important time in the pig's life.

John O. Rauch, age 12, grandson of Arthur and Jean Kendall, has returned from Germany and is residing at their home. He arrived on March 3rd in Warsaw after having lived in Germany and Austria for three and one-half years. John made the trip to the United States by himself. He left France on the M.R.S. Kill flies like magic!

Your best attack against disease-carrying flies this spring and summer is a combination of Purina Fly Killers. Here's how to use 'em:

Put Purina Fly Bait and Purina Fly Checkers in alleyways, near manure, in sunlight wherever you find flies.

Spray Purina Dairy Spray on your cows at milking time. Dairy Spray kills and repels hornflies, stable flies.

Use Purina Dairy Oiler Insecticide in a backscratcher set up in your barnyard. Let cows protect themselves!

Purina Spray & Dip or Purina Malathion Spray gives long-lasting protection against flies when you spray barns.

COUNTERPOINT

By The Editor's Wife

Since the coming of the new ball-point pen, one feels a small surprise when someone mentions a fountain pen. Our grandchildren are apt to say, "Fountain pen? What's that?"

When one expresses an opinion, whether in the company of friends, or in a column, someone is likely to disagree or take exception to some of those remarks. If, on occasion, a remark made here makes you uncomfortable or irritable, please remember, it is because you are standing in the "neighborhood" of the thought. One doesn't deliberately "aim" an arrow of opinion. Where one reader disagrees, another may agree. One might term this an "occupational hazard".

Parents, if you want your children to live, teach them to "fear the fearful things". Don't let your teaching be of the emotions, but give a sensible understanding of why certain things or people are dangerous or harmful, and what can happen.

You have heard the expression "take your heart out of deep-freeze". Which means, of course, thaw out and express appreciation where it is needed and deserved.

Clifford Ward says: "Almost every one in this life needs a few cheers now and then."

"It's amazing what the right words from the right person will do to elevate morale that needs elevating."

Here are some sound words of advice to young people planning to go to college. They are from Charles V. Neal, Jr. Think on these. They were suggested to Mr. Neal by three college students.

1. Despite increased need for specialization, students should absorb as much general knowledge as possible before specializing. It is much easier to train a broadly educated person than a person with a narrow spectrum of learning.

2. An education extending into business administration is almost essential today. While a large corporation can be virtually paternalistic to its employees in matters relating to invest-

Lions Entertain Seniors

Last Wednesday evening thirty Lion members entertained forty-three seniors to a Smorgasbord supper at the Steer Inn.

The program was presented by the Warsaw High School music department, under the direction of and accompanied by Miss Margaret Ann Viorol. Songs by a boy's duet and a girl's trio were enjoyed by the group.

Lion president, Lloyd Bowerman, gave an informative and amusing talk, centered around a "Report Card". This talk was especially for seniors present.

Storm Causes Fire

Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Davison were awakened early Monday morning by a terrible crash. Upon investigating, they found all the wires in the furnace room were on fire. Evidently lightning came in on their television lead-in wires. Damage was slight to the TV and water softener.

The fire department answered the call in record time.

NEW ENTERPRIZE NO.

Beginning May 1, Mentone customers of General Telephone will ask for a different Enterprise number in order to contact the company's business office, according to C. J. Lohman, division manager of General Telephone.

Customers who wish to contact the company business office should dial 110 (long distance) and ask for Enterprise 3000 instead of 6000 as in the past. This will route calls to Wabash instead of North Manchester where they will be handled more efficiently than ever as there will be a much larger office force available to handle calls. This is the only change in procedure.

Roses Need Pruning Now

Indiana's unusually severe winter inflicted more than normal damage on roses, but odds favor their survival if you prune them properly now, according to Purdue University extension horticulturists.

Types that should be pruned prior to blooming are the common hybrid teas, floribundas and grandifloras. Remove dead canes from climbers now; prune old flowering canes after bloom.

Before you prune, remove the mulch gradually, and, with sharp shears and leather gloves, begin the "operation".

First remove the dead wood; cut the cane back an inch into the green, live wood. Don't worry if you have to cut the bush almost to the ground, since it will usually produce good roses if only one or two inches of stem remain above the graft union.

Spindly canes, bent or broken canes and diseased and interfering canes should also be removed.

If the remaining live canes are tall, prune them to approximately a ten inch height. Your bush will look better if you stagger the height. If possible, make the cuts just above a bud that is pointing outward.

This job done, the only other pruning that lies ahead is removal of blooms after they have faded.

Prune your evergreens, such as junipers, yews and arborvitae during April when you want to change their shape, or to maintain a special form, or simply to keep them within bounds recommend horticulturists at Purdue University.

Horticulturists at Purdue University say you can plant dormant rose bushes and perennial flowering plants in your garden during April. It's satisfactory to plant container grown roses earlier; in fact, as soon as you can work the soil.

Add fertilizer before you seed new lawn, advise Purdue University horticulturists. Add 20 pounds of 10-6-4 fertilizer, or its equivalent, per 1,000 square feet for best results. Mix the fertilizer into the surface before you seed.

Family Finances

It is common knowledge that the college graduate will make a much better living, on the average, than the person who goes to work right after high school.

This time of year, many high school seniors receive word from the colleges of their choice that there is no room for them in next fall's freshman class. Being turned down by a good school is discouraging, and often leads the high-schooler into deciding to pass up college.

There are two special college placement services available to students who want to find the right college — and one they will be admitted to. Over 90 per cent of the students who register with these placement services are admitted to college.

If your high school senior has been turned down by a college, have him write to: College Admissions Center, 610 Church St., Evanston, Illinois; or College Admissions Assistance Center, 535 East 80th St., New York 21, N.Y.

Posters are on display this week in the News window pertaining to drinking, and its bad effects. This contest was sponsored by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in our county. Children who are in the Loyal Temperance League entered the contest and the four winners have their posters on display.

Winners are Becky Lee, Warsaw; Janet Garner, Claypool; Gary Firestone, Syracuse; and Sharon Frederick, of Syracuse.

TRACK SCORES

In track last week Mentone was defeated by Bourbon 61-47 and by Pierceton and Roanoke in a 3-way meet at Pierceton.

The scores were Pierceton, 74; Roanoke, 33; Mentone, 30.

Lyle Welty again set a new school record in the mile, both at Bourbon and at Pierceton. His current time is 4:52.3.

The fire department answered two calls for grass fires Sunday. One was at the Bob Flenar home and the other at Ed Meredith's farm west of town.

Easy Care Of House Plants

Find a sunny spot for your house plants, advises C. E. Hoxsie, Purdue University horticulturist.

House plants need light as well as moisture and a cool temperature, so place them near a window with a sunny exposure.

Bulb plants such as the lily, tulip, hyacinth and daffodil do not flourish in warm temperatures. They prefer a 60 to 62 degree F. temperature, which is too cool for comfort in most homes. Place these plants in a cool window or on a cool, but not freezing, porch at night. Keep the plants moist but not wet.

To make flowering plants more attractive, florists usually remove the pollen bearing anthers of open flowers so that falling yellow pollen won't mar the flower's appearance. They can do this to all open flowers, but you will have to remove the anthers of new buds as they open.

Remove faded blossoms before they seed or they will take strength needed for new growth from the plant.

Many plants can be transplanted outdoors when the danger of frost is past. Cyclamen and azalea—too delicate to grow outdoors—can be put into large containers after they have grown at least one season.

Florists usually include a card tag with gift plants. This tag gives information on plant care. Obtain further advice from the florist if necessary.

GETTING THE MOST... FROM YOUR GARDEN

by Dr. W. A. Liddell
Director of Information, Asgrow Seed Company

WHAT'S IN YOUR FRONT YARD? GRASS OR A LAWN?

There's a big difference, you know! Most of us have grass of some kind, but many of us, to judge by the questions in the mailbag, wish we had something better — a lawn.

Now, it's not too difficult to grow grass of a sort. Most front yards have dirt of some kind, and some kinds of grass will survive for a year or two in almost any kind of soil. Crabgrass, for example, seems able to persist almost indefinitely on even the poorest soils, provided there's no competition from other plants!

But this is not a lawn, and in terms of overall expenditure of time, effort and money, it doesn't take much more to have a decent lawn in your front yard than it does to have just grass. Maybe a couple of hours more in the early spring, early summer and early fall, but possibly a few hours less of lawn-mowing.

The first requirements for a lawn are these: a general understanding of what a lawn really is, and a general plan of action to have a lawn in your front yard, instead of just grass.

A lawn, we have said many times, is really a garden. Just as you wouldn't think of having a garden without at least a minimum plan of action, so, with a lawn, some kind of reasonable program will produce wonderful results in converting your front yard from a patch of non-descript grass into an attractive area of restful green, from early spring until the onset of cold weather in the late fall.

Here are the basic elements for such a program:

Fertilizer. Many of us have come to recognize the importance of early spring fertilizer for the lawn, but "follow-through" applications in late spring and late summer are needed to maintain the steady uniform growth and vigorous green color. This is the kind of program followed by the turf experts at such well known institutions as Yankee Stadium, where the grass is usually greener in late August than on many of our lawns even as early as mid-June.

Water. Most turf grasses require about one inch of water every week or ten days, to keep going through the summer. Drought does not ordinarily kill the perennial turf grasses. They come back with autumn rains, but it takes irrigation — not just casual sprinkling — to maintain steady growth.

Mowing. For most of us, lawn care begins and ends with mowing-and-manicuring. This is unfortunate, because without the other basic elements of a lawn program, most of us would be better off to let the grass grow without mowing for a year or two!

The closest cropped lawn isn't necessarily the best looking or the healthiest. It is much better for the looks and well-being of your lawn to think in terms of removing at most only 1/3 of the height of the plants when you mow. Also, you would do well to resist the urge to mow during hot, dry, weather. Grass in shady areas under trees usually does better if allowed to grow taller.

Weeds, Pests, Diseases

The chemical industry has developed effective weapons to combat many of the enemies of a good lawn. Your garden supply shop is ready with good advice on choosing the right material for your particular problem.

It's not necessary to become a worry-wart about the grass in your front yard. These fairly simple steps will help you to convert it into a lawn.

For a free booklet to help you have a rich green turf, print your name on a postcard and send to Living Lawns, Asgrow, PO Box 406, New Haven 2, Conn.

Criminals Face Atomic Weapon

One nuclear weapon is in daily use, not in international conflict, but in the fight against crime, reports the American Nuclear Society. Science has provided a tool of great sensitivity and accuracy called "neutron activation analysis" to detect and identify evidence. Material for test is exposed to neutron irradiation, causing some atoms of each element present to become radioactive. Identification is then made by radiation characteristic. This technique enables investigators to establish the identity of persons, establish the origin of contraband narcotics, to detect traces of gunpowder on the hands of a person who has fired a gun, verify art masterpieces, date archeological findings and even tell the age of wine.

An old oil well, long past its producing days, has been put to new use in the Pierce Junction field south of Houston, Texas. Pan Geo Atlas Corporation has converted the 8,200 foot deep shaft into a test-well, enabling the company to test its oil detecting and well perforating products under actual field conditions.

The great pyramid of Giza,

482 feet high and 756 feet square at the base, could be duplicated in the U.S. today for a mere $62 million, including labor, equipment and materials, according to imaginative engineering students at Harvey Mudd College in Claremont, California, who undertook a study of the ancient wonder as a class project. The structure would be two years abuilding and would require five million barrels of cement and 1.5 million cubic feet of granite.

Trinidad drug plants are being studied as possible sources of anti-virus serums. Among them are colorfully named specimens such as Love Vine, Wild Coffee, Shadow Bence, Chandclair and Man-Better-Man.

Leprosy today afflicts 15 million persons, chiefly in warm climates and underdeveloped countries, according to the Leonard Wood Memorial, American Leprosy Foundation.

Niagara Falls, on both the Canadian and U.S. shores, have suddenly grown 16 feet taller. Hydroelectric projects have taken water from the Niagara River and increased the distance from the brinks to the pools below.

The Horseshoe Falls are now 176 feet high, the American Falls 183 feet.

They're literally blowing the whistle on excess foam, a nuisance in production of beer, soap and other items. A compressed air whistle gives off high pitched sound and resulting vibrations and shock waves collapse soapsuds and other foams.

Identical twin beef calves are in demand by the Department of Agriculture for nutrition and breeding studies at its Beltsville, Maryland research center. Purebred, grade or crossbred beef animals less than five years old, preferably bull or heifer calves, are sought, though steer calves are welcome, too.

So you think TV and radio commercials are too loud? You are experiencing a "subjective and psychological phenomenon" that can't be proved, says the National Association of Broadcasters. Reason is, they point out, no device can "hear" sound as the human ear does and no two humans agree on how loud "loudness" is.

from our

County Agent

DONALD E. FRANTZ

Much of the work done by the Soil Conservation District has been in water control through proper drainage. It is not generally understood that one of the best conservers and users of water is a field that is well drained. This permits the entire layer of topsoil to act as storage area. This can permit the saving of as much as 4 or 5 inches of water that would be run off had the drainage been poor. Of course, the soil has to be in good condition in order to hold this water.

Don Sisson, drainage engineer at Purdue, has this to say about drainage principles:

Outlet drainage ditches need to be of the proper type. Ordinarily, tile mains of up to 24 inch diameter cannot be depended upon to furnish adequate drainage for watersheds larger than 200 or 300 acres. Even then an overflow surface drain may be needed to supplement the large tile.

In the flatter land with watershed areas of over 300 to 500 acres, an open ditch drain is the best outlet. These open ditches should have the required depth and capacity for farm tile and surface drainage systems.

Maintenance of many existing outlet drains has been sorely neglected. Many large tile mains and open drains serving as outlets for several farms need repair. Landowners will both make and save money by annual maintenance rather than to neglect the outlet for ten years or longer, or until an emergency.

Groups of landowners can organize mutual community organizations for ditch reconstruction and maintenance projects or organize through Indiana drainage laws.

Flooding and poor drainage have been severe in some areas. By approaching these problems on a watershed basis, it is possible to work out a solution to both by storage of flood runoff in retention reservoirs and by down-stream channel cleanout and maintenance. The local soil conservation district can furnish assistance in most cases.

The peach crop throughout the Mid-West has been practically all destroyed by the severe winter. Northern Michigan will have a crop, but the entire remainder of the area north of the Gulf states has been greatly reduced.

Orchard men are reporting a considerable amount of damage to the wood. They advise the delaying of pruning until the tree begins to grow this spring and then we can see how much of the wood is dead. The pruning can then be made to the live twigs. This probably could be done best in late May.

Dr. Paarlberg, who is on the Purdue Agricultural Economics staff and formerly Chief Economic Advisor to President Eisenhower, made this statement the other day. He said he believed that the United States had passed the high tide of government intervention in the production and pricing of farm products.

He based this on the fact that even though strong efforts have been made to extend production and price controls, there are no more commodities under control than there were a few years ago. Most of the direct efforts, notably turkeys, broilers and dairy products, have failed.

The Spring Cattle Feeders Day will be held April 26th at the Purdue Livestock Research Farm. Tours of the feed-lots of the feeding trials will start at 9:00 a.m. The program explaining the various tests will begin at 10:00 a.m.

Start Early Vegetables

You can get all of your early vegetables started in April, reminds Don Scheer, Purdue University extension horticulturist.

Up to now about all you could do was start seeds indoors. But now you can transplant asparagus and rhubarb roots and cabbage, broccoli and cauliflower plants outdoors. And you also can sow pea, lettuce, beet, carrot and radish seed outside.

He suggests fertilizing your garden with 3 to 4 pounds of 12-12-12, or a similar analysis fertilizer, per 100 square feet before you plow or turn it over. Don't delay preparing and planting—and mechanize the job too. It is likely to rain anytime and be too wet to plant for weeks.

When you are going to sow fairly small seeds, be sure you rake the garden until the soil is fine and smooth. Lettuce, beets, carrots and radishes need a fine soil for best growth.

Wait until the soil warms up to plant tender crops like corn, green beans and cucumbers.

Wolfe - Creamer Nuptials

Miss Sonia J. Wolfe and Floyd DeWayne Creamer were united in marriage recently in the First Methodist Church. Rev. Donald LaSuer read the nuptial vows before an altar graced with baskets of stock. White satin bows marked the pews. The wedding music was presented by Vernon Rector.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wolfe, of Route 2, Warsaw. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Creamer, of Route 5, Warsaw.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of rice paper taffeta and Chantilly lace with a lace bodice and a scalloped Sabrina neckline trimmed with sequins and French pearls. The bouffant skirt was bordered with lace and caught up in front with three tailored bows over a gathered lace flounce which flowed into a brush train. Her waist-length veil of imported illusion fell gracefully from a cloche of lace petals edged with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations centered with yellow pom-poms.

Miss Priscilla Wolfe, of Warsaw, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of gold satin fashioned with a bateau neckline, cap sleeves and full skirt. Her matching veil was caught to a crown of petals trimmed with drop pearls. She carried a bouquet of gold tinted carnations.

Gary Tusing, of Leesburg, served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Bob Shull and Terry Lynch, both of Mentone.

The wedding reception was held in the church social hall following the ceremony.

The bride, a graduate of Warsaw High School, is a student at an Indianapolis University. The bridegroom, a graduate of Mentone High School, is a carpenter.

How does he do it? He keeps "fit as a fiddle" and is a living repudiation of the belief some hold, "that retired men must fold up and quit." He plays softball with the youngsters and radiates enthusiasm. When he is around he is their leader. They love and are willing to follow him.

Churches need his kind to lead youth along the right road of life, to create responsibility and help curb delinquency, to furnish the kind of leadership that will make noble men out of impressionable boys.

It follows that dynamic people, people with energy and enthusiasm, need and can serve the Church. The Church of their choice will bring to them faith, faith that will enable them to render a greater service to God and humanity.

ments, insurance, housing, taxes, and consumer needs, a displaced employe often finds the outside world a terrifying place when forced to make his own financial decisions.

And the hard truth is that even the professional men of today spend too much time struggling with economic realities — time they could better spend on improved techniques and services.

3. Call it what you will, life adjustment, philosophy, peace of mind, or inner security; the will and ability to carry on comes high priced today. One must be mobile, flexible and curious. This comes from education in the broad sense.

Note on communism.

More than a century ago, Alexis de Tocquille, brilliant French political philosopher, wrote the following description of the welfare state:

"It provides for their security, supplies their necessities, directs their industry and subdivides their inheritance . . . what remains . . . but to spare them all the care of thinking and the trouble of living?"

"The will of men is not shattered but softened, bent and guided. Men are seldom forced by it to act, but they are constantly restrained from acting."

"Such a power does not destroy, but prevents existence. It compresses, enervates, extinguishes and stupefies a people, until each nation is reduced to timid animals, of which the government is the shepherd."

He was actually warning us of the dangers of Communism. It is later than we think.

One is blissfully unaware of trouble as we watch the "catchy", "clever", "compelling" parade of detergent ads on television. But the $1 billion-a-year detergent industry is in real trouble.

Detergents (syndets) do not decompose as soap does when discarded. They are still detergents when they reach the underground water table and may cause water contamination. Now Congress is going to do something about this. (Many states are considering legislature to restrict the use of detergents.) So, at the moment, there is a multi-million dollar race to find a better detergent.

We enjoyed this:

The sixth graders were discussing something they had just read in social studies class. Mr. Hasson asked, "What was the name of the channel where the British fleet fought the Spanish Armada?"

Answered one boy, "I think it was Channel Five."

One of a series of reports by this newspaper and the Print Advertising Association on the advantages of print media

Don't you read before you buy?

Most people do.

They count on advertising in print to give them the information they want on products that interest them—information on features . . . designs . . . and prices, for example.

People not only read about products and services, they show ads to their family and friends; they clip coupons for information and samples; they tear out ads to take along when they go shopping.

When you add it all up, print advertising—the kind you read in the pages of this newspaper—makes sense.

And because it measures up to the buying habits of most consumers, print makes sales.

Most people read—and then buy. Don't you?
