Dutch Girl Visits Dorris Harrold Home

Miss Geeltji Feenstra poses with Mr. and Mrs. Dorris Harrold and Sharon and joins them in admiring "Paul", Sharon's grand champion Angus bull. Paul won grand champion in the Gold Metal class at the Elkhart county fair last week.

Miss Feenstra shows her wooden shoes to Mrs. Harrold who also admires a small doll dressed in the native costume of the Netherlands. Miss Feenstra is holding the Dutch flag.

BUDGETS PRINTED

The budget for Mentons, Burket, T.V.S.C., the library, Harrison and Franklin townships appear in this week's paper.

10 M.P.H. Limit On James Lake

Enforcement officers of the Department of Natural Resources will issue warnings up until August 15, 1965 regarding the operation of speed boats on James Lake (Little Tippecanoe Lake). After that date, any person caught operating a boat over the ten mile per hour limit will be arrested.

The new law was put into effect after it was learned the lake was smaller than the 300 acres required for speeding, having 271.36 acres. For many years a so called "gentlemen's agreement" had kept the operation of the high speed boats limited between the hours of 10 a.m. until 4 p.m., leaving the early morning and later afternoon and evening hours to the fishermen, but it has been felt that the continued violation of the agreement and the demands of increased boats has created the need for the new enforcement of the ten mile per hour limit.

LUCKY FRIDAY 13

Many people in this area will be lucky this Friday the 13th. See the back page for details.

Wooden shoes and leather boots sound together around the Franklin township home of Mr. and Mrs. Dorris Harrold since the arrival last Saturday of their guest, Miss Geeltji Feenstra of Jounstep, Netherlands.

Miss Feenstra will visit the Harrold home until August 27 under the International Farm Youth Exchange program. She will accompany the Harrolds to the state fair and will participate in the girls' school there before continuing her visit to Indiana with several other farm families.

Miss Feenstra is employed in the Netherlands in a position which would compare to the county home extension agent in Indiana. She visited Georgia before coming to Indiana and hopes to go on to Wisconsin to visit two married sisters. She will return to the Netherlands around December 15.

"Just in time for Christmas," we remarked, and she replied, "Christmas is not the same in our country. It is more of a religious observance and few give gifts. We do have a Santa Claus around December 5, a little man with a long beard who comes from Spain and who gathers up bad little children in his big bag and takes them back to Spain with him."

She also remarked about the cool weather we had had on Monday and compared it to the cool temperature in her own country. Displaying her attractive wooden shoes, she explained that they were mostly worn in the wet fields but that many wore them in their homes as well. Her own wooden shoes were very colorful and were painted to simulate shoe laces. She wears them only in the fields or in grass.

Miss Feenstra has been making the round of 4-H fairs with the Harrolds and seemed as proud of their champion Angus bull as they were.

In the Netherlands, she pointed out, most of the farmers have Holsteins and Angus cattle were new to her.

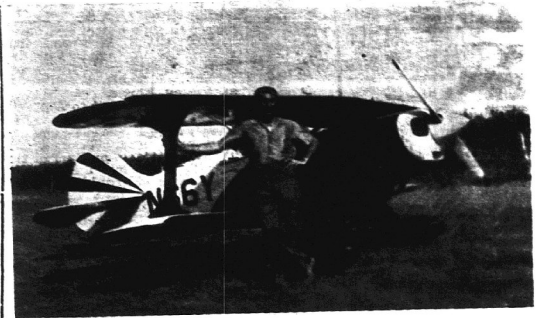

Miss Feenstra's purpose here is to observe farm, home, youth and community programs.

The IFYE is a foreign exchange activity of the National 4-H Club program.

Harrison Hustlers Place Well At The Fair

The Mentone boys 4-H club displayed 62 different entries in the Kosciusko County Fair last week. There were 33 members completing out of the original 38 enrollees with one member carrying only crop projects which will be completed later this year.

Janice Davis Gets B. S. Degree

Miss Janice Davis graduated from Cedarville College, Ohio, with a B.A. Degree in May. Sunday she graduated with a B. S. Degree in Education from Central State University in Wilberforce, Ohio. The colleges are six miles apart. She attended both at the same time, plus summer school at Central State for two summers. Cedarville College is certified and is planning on being accredited within the next few years. Future students wishing to attend Cedarville College will not find it necessary to attend both schools to acquire a B.S. Degree in Education.

Mrs. Ina Davis accompanied her daughter to attend the graduation program. They both stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tarter in Cedarville. Mrs. Tarter was Janice's former employer in the college cafeteria.

In addition to finishing her studies this summer, Janice is also employed as assistant cook to Mrs. Agnes Rans, at Crystal Lake Baptist Youth Camp.

Some of the entries were shown in combinations and also in open competition which would bring the total exhibitions to a higher number than the entries. Exhibitors and their highest award in the various areas were:

AT A FARM SALE the auctioneer asked for bids on an old hand-down whisky bottle. It soon went to a collector for $7.75. An elderly farmer sauntered over and took a long look at the bottle. "God heavens!" he muttered. "It's empty!" Catholic Digest—July.

$20,000 Fire Destroy House

A fire destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bartlemay of Beaver Dam Lake on Monday night, doing an estimated $20,000 damages.

The cause of the fire has not been determined although neighbors reported hearing an explosion. Fire units from Burket, Silver Lake and Akron were summoned to the scene but flames were shooting from the windows by the time they arrived.

Art Wise, a member of the Burket fire department, was injured when he stepped on a nail but received treatment until the fire was quelled early Tuesday morning.

Completely gutted, it was reported the walls of the house stood only because of the insulation.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mrs. Sheetz:

I want to thank you for the article about Dr. and Mrs. Davidson's roses. I passed there several times and they were so beautiful I wished that everyone could have seen them. It was such a lovely sight that even a person who wasn't a nature lover would have felt a thrill.

What beauty our God has created for all to see.

I know I'm late in writing this as I was negligent in writing you about putting an article in the paper regarding the roses. I just don't take the time to do some of the little important things I should do. It only takes a few minutes to say "thanks".

I enjoyed reading the paper. May it continue to bring news to the readers.

Thanks again.

Very truly yours,
Mrs. Viola Adams

Revolutionary War Heroes...

MASTER OF THE DRILL

Midway through the American Revolution, a bemedaled Prussian officer appeared before the Second Continental Congress at York, Pa., and volunteered to serve in the American army without rank or pay. He asked to be rewarded only if his services contributed to victory. It was an offer the besieged Americans could hardly afford to turn down, and so on February 23, 1778, Baron Friedrich Wilhelm Ludolf Gerhard Augustin von Steuben reported for duty to General Washington at Valley Forge.

Steuben was sent to America by Benjamin Franklin, who had met him in Paris the previous summer. The vigorous, personable baron was a product of the best trained army in Europe at that time, and Franklin thought him just the man needed to train the brave but unskilled troops of the Continental Army. Steuben wasted no time in proving that he was. He chose 100 men from the hodgepodge troops and drilled them himself, creating a model company whose example the rest of the army could follow. When they were fully trained, each was given command of 100 men of his own.

Although he spoke no English, Steuben made himself well understood. When his pupils made mistakes, he would snatch up a rifle and demonstrate correct procedure, following instructions in explosive German which his aides translated with flavorful accuracy.

The men liked their fiery taskmaster and outdid themselves to please him. By May 5, when Steuben was appointed inspector general of the army with the rank of major general, the once ragged assemblage of amateurs had become a poised, disciplined fighting force.

Steuben was even more than an inspired drillmaster. He advised General Washington on all phases of military operation.

He wrote a manual called Regulations for the Order and Discipline of the Troops of the United States, which became the military bible of the army. At the decisive battle of Yorktown in 1781, he commanded one of Washington's three divisions, and his experience in siege warfare contributed heavily to the success of the campaign.

Washington deliberately made it his last official act as commander in chief of the army to write Steuben a warm letter of gratitude. In 1790 the newly formed federal government awarded him a pension of $2,500 a year. Sadly, Steuben was unable to enjoy it for long—he died in 1794 while wintering at his estate near Utica, N. Y. His grave in the state park at Remsen bears a bronze plaque reading "Indispensable to the Achievement of American Independence."

Baron Von Steuben is one of seven heroes of the Revolution featured in Cinema '76—light-hearted educational screen show at the Continental Insurance Pavilion at the New York World's Fair. Their tales are told in songs created by noted composer and choral arranger Ray Charles.

ROCKVILLE, MD., MONITOR: "What this country needs... before it drops more billions of tax dollars into welfare and anti-poverty programs... is for someone to come up with a few clear, concise answers and or illustrations on just what, if anything, these astronomical billions are buying and or accomplishing. Federal-state welfare programs alone currently are costing us in the neighborhood of five billions a year. Something like 41 separate antipoverty programs which will cost the taxpayers 15 billions in 1964 are in the hands of six separate Federal agencies."

Here's how to send hogs to market 2 weeks sooner...
32 lbs. heavier...on
40 lbs. less feed

Today hogs fed the Purina Way go to market 2 weeks sooner—at 32 lbs. heavier weight—and on 40 lbs. less feed than just 10 short years ago!

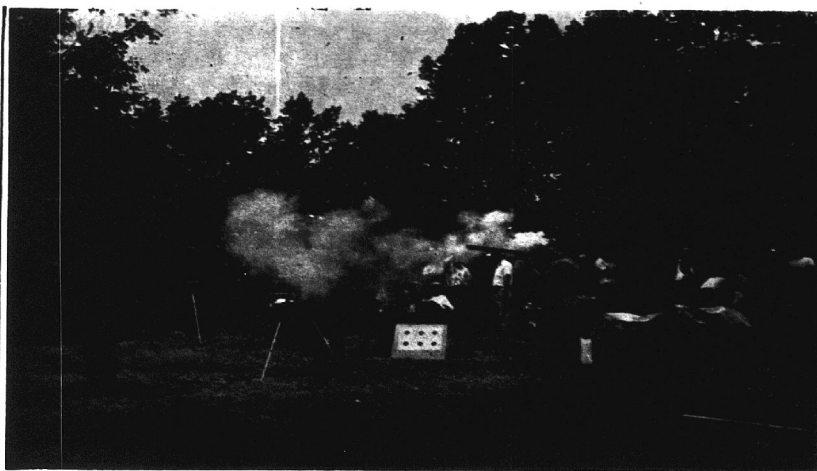

These benefits are a result of improvements continually being made in Purina's Hog Program. Purina Hog Chow and your home-grown grain will help you market your hogs fast and at economical cost.

Getting hogs to market in a hurry is important—the longer they stay on your farm the more feed they consume. Resolve now to send 'em to market in a hurry the Purina Way. Ask for Purina Hog Chow at our store with the Checkerboard Sign. Prove to yourself Purina feeding can cost you less!

GRASSROOTS OPINION

FAULKTON, S.D., RECORD "Government in business usually operates—at a loss and completes with private industry. We have occasion to know that here at the Record office because the government sells printed envelopes. Now it develops that in the past four years government envelope printing has resulted in the $7,500,000 loss. You and we have had to underwrite that loss, Mr. Taxpayer. It's just peanuts for the government but the envelope business that the post office gets would improve our business substantially."

KEMMERER, WYO., GAZETTE: "The location of any economic activity such as the production of fertilizers is, in a free market economy, governed by the various factors of availability of natural resources, labor, supplies, distance to and size of the markets to be served. Whenever a governmental decree upsets the balance by arbitrary heavy subsidization of any of the cost elements that go into the process, the balance of the whole economic structure is upset. Government should not have the power to select one process over another, or more particularly, to select any producer for special favoritism. Any deviation from this fundamental principle means planned economy in America."

INDIANOLA, MISS., ENTERPRISE-TOCSIN: "There is no law in (the United States against Communism, says the President, and it is still a Free Country. We fail to understand why we have no law against Communism in this Country and still send our troops into foreign nations to give their lives fighting something that is allowed at home."

Club Has Picnic

Fifteen members of the Mentone Home Demonstration Club and one guest and two children enjoyed a picnic dinner at the Mentone park last Thursday.

The meeting opened with the singing of "America, the Beautiful" and by reading the creed. Meditations were given by Mrs. Gates and health and safety remarks on safety in boats were given by Minnie Busen-burg.

A report of the town's zoning was given by Maud Cox and Alice Secrist.

An invitation was given the club to attend the Seward Club picnic at the Akron park on August 25. Everyone attending should meet at the home of Mrs. Norman at 11:30 a.m.

The meeting closed with the club prayer song.

THANKS

The Mentone Park Board, wishes to take this opportunity to thank all those who in any way assisted in the Park-O-Rama, on Sat. July 31.

We would like to thank the Chamber of Commerce for sponsoring the Bar-B-Cue. The Lions Club for their serving of the meal. The Boy and Girl Scouts for their participation. And congratulation to the boys with their muzzle loaders for their work in putting on a good show in spite of a light rain at times. Also to the ball players that entertained during the afternoon.

Sometimes being a member of the Park Board, seems to be an unrewarding job, with more problems than anything else. But all the worry and effort is more than justified when we see the Park being used as it was Saturday.

The good food and fine spirit shown by all during the festivities is ample reward for the time and energy spent to keep the Park in readiness. We hope we can continue our improvements and so make our next Park-O-Rama even more enjoyable.

We would like to thank one other person who has served unsung and unseen, Marie Rath-bun, has been instrumental in keeping the Park Schedule for reunions, meetings etc. She has also done the many little chores before and after these meetings, as cleaning tables, picking up, and mowing around the shelter.

Read II Corinthians 5:1-10

We labour, that-we may be accepted of him. For we must all appear before the judgement seat of Christ. (II Corinthians 5:9-10)
In 1579, Lord Astley prayed: "O Lord, Thou knowest how busy we must be this day; if we forget Thee do not Thou forget us; for Christ's sake. Amen."
Our day's labor may keep us from much active person-and-Christ communing, but how about our leisure time? Spare moments are segments of life most fruitful for good or evil.

Leisure time proves profitable if set aside to read God's Word, to praise Him, to learn of Him. It can be a time of companionship through prayer—a time to speak, to listen, to rest in Christ, to concentrate on His goodness.

In yet other times of leisure we may get our assignments from Christ of work to do. He brings to our remembrance those for whom we should pray and gives us opportunities to witness for Him.

PRAYER: Heavenly Father, may we give Thee the same place in our hearts that Thou hast in the universe. Direct our labor, and our leisure, into Christ-approved channels. We thank Thee for daily opportunities of being useful to others. Through us may they see Christ. In His name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

We cannot make a moment, but we can use each one profitably.

Move Here From Pennsylvania

Rev. and Mrs. Lee Kantenwein and four young children moved Saturday into the house formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Griffiths, two miles east of Mentone on Road 25.

Rev. Kantenwein resigned pastorate in Limestone and Reidsburg, Penn., where he had pastored six and a half years, to enter Grace Seminary, Winona. He will be working for his M.A. Degree. Monday afternoon he began work at Jomacs in Warsaw. Mrs. Kantenwein, who is a teacher of piano, sings and also plays the organ. Seven year-old Murry will enter the second grade, six-year old Cindy the first; and five year-old Scott kindergarden. At home is Sheryl, who will be two Saturday.

Progress Club Has Picnic

The Tippecanoe Progress Club held their annual picnic Tuesday in the Bremen Park with 16 members, one guest, Mrs. Dottie Rohrer, and 11 children present. The committee was Mrs. Ray Tevaut and Mrs. Arnold Flory. Games and contests were enjoyed and a birthday auction was held in the afternoon. The president, Mrs. Harvey Elliott, presided at the meeting. Devotions were given by Mrs. Condia McIntyre from two articles, "Test of Christian Character" and "A Warm of Bees in May." Roll call response was the picnic dish each brought. Plans were made for entertaining the folks at the Marshall County Home. A report was given by the quilt committee and donations made to the tornado area. The next meeting will be held at the Arogs bank and the county officers will be entertained. A blind goods speaker will be present.

Bob Hills Tour New England

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hill and family have returned from a very interesting week touring New England. The Hills first stop was a look at Niagara Falls. From there, they went to Bennington, Vermont, home of the famed Revolutionary War 'Green Mountain Boys'. In the town where Bennington Ware is made, they saw the first Church built in the state of Vermont. As they traveled on to Plymouth, Mass., they were interested to learn they were in an area which had no less than fifty ski resorts. In Plymouth there were many historic sites. First, of course, was Plymouth Rock. Other things were the Mayflower, old original houses which have been restored, museums, the Pilgrim's first Church, and Burial Hill, where those Pilgrims who didn't survive their first American winter were buried. The next stop was Cape Cod, and on to Hyannis Port, where the Hills curiosity was aroused by a cluster of people around the Post Office. Investigation revealed it was sight-seers taking pictures of Robert Kennedy's children. There were guards who keep the public away from the Kennedy home, about a block away. Some of the things they saw in the next town, Sandwich, Mass., were the Christopher Wren Church, an old grist mill, and museums. This village claims to be the first town in the United States. The famous Sandwich glass was made here. Next on the itinerary was Philadelphia, where the Hills saw Independence Hall, Betsy Ross House, Carpenters Building, Maritime Museum, Admiral Dewey's Flagship, the U.S.S. Olympia, Ben Franklin's grave in Old Christ Church Cemetery, and much, much narrower streets than those in the town of Mentone. The Hills came home through Gettysburg, where, from a tower on the battlefield, they were able to view the Eisenhower Farms.

Parson Jones Speaks

Dear Mr. Publisher

When I was a little boy going to school I read about a hundred years war in my history book. That's a long time for one war. But, the way things are going in Viet Nam now it looks like we gonna set a new world's record. If the money holds out this one may go 500 years. Everybody is talking about this war from the President to my barber, but nobody don't seem to know what it's all about. My next door neighbor said he use to believe that everything in the world had a purpose until Viet Nam come along. Fact is, he put the question to me, "What's that war good for?" Wellsir, that really made me think, but I've finally come up with the answer. It's a good text for a sermon. To tell the truth I done announced I'm gonna preach on Viet Nam next Sunday.

My little talk will have 3 points. (The madam claims my sermons are like steer horns - a point here, a point there, and a lotta bull in between.) In my first point I'll tell 'em that the human race is like Viet Nam - in a heck of a mess. We're going around in circles, which wouldn't be so bad if everybody was going in the same direction - but they ain't. I read somewhere that ole Columbus was really confused. On the way to America he didn't know where he was going. When he got there he didn't know where he was, and when he got back he didn't know where he'd been. Viet Nam is worse than that. We have no idea how we got there - don't know what to do now that we are there. On top a that we got no idea on how to get out. If we stay there the mess is gonna grow into World War III. If we don't stay, Communism is gonna gobble up the world like a hog eating slop. Now Mr. Publisher, if that ain't a mess what is?

Course, all of this is just a good example of the rat-trap the hole human race is caught in.

My second point is that we'd like to get outa our mess - just like we want outa Viet Nam. The only trouble is that wanting out and getting out are two different things. We're kinda like that fella who jumped in a hole with a bear while trying to get away from a bull.

The third point, which wraps up the hole thing, is that there ain't but one way outa Viet Nam - and that's by the hand of the Almighty. Them boys over there fighting already know that. One sergeant told me he dug down deep with one hand reached to heaven with the other. Only trouble was, he couldn't get deep enough or high enough.

Yes sir, the Good Lords our only answer - that's what Viet Nam teaches us anyhow.

Yours truly,
Parson Jones

Shower Honors Mrs. Barry Blalock

A unique baby shower was given Mrs. Barry Blalock recently by Mrs. Garwin Eaton and her mother Mrs. Clarence Tinkey. The theme was based on nursery-rhymes. Gifts were placed around a large, cleverly decorated "shoe-house" depicting the "The old-woman in the shoe, who had so many children." This was built, painted and decorated by Mrs. Eaton's grandparents.

The guests dropped a forfeit of ten pennies into a piggy-bank for the baby if they could not complete the nursery-rhymes corresponding to the cut-out character tags given by Mrs. Tinkey at the door.

"This is Your Life" slides pictures of Linda Blalock were shown with the narration read by Mrs. Eaton. A human skit depicting how the father-to-be will react and dramatized by Mrs. Eaton also.

Gifts were opened after Linda found the first four, which had been hidden. Clues to the four were given in nursery-rhymes. The children who attended thought this great fun.

Colorful and delicious refreshments were served buffet style, by candlelight, from a beautifully decorated table, to the following guests: Mesdames Roy Goshert, Dean Goshert, Max Goshert and daughter Terry, Richard Reidel, Richard Goshert and daughter Teresa, Robert Goshert, Ned Miller, Zanna Hammer, Charles Hammer Sr., Dick Hepler and daughters Brenda and Marsha, Mrs. Robert Nottingham and daughters Roberta and Nina Marie, Belva Drudge, Don Besson, Larry Westphal of Urbana, Rex Kling and daughter of North Manchester, Larry Polk and daughter Sally of Leesburg, Norman Tinkey and Lana, Merl Tinkey and Lichelle, and Tobie Blalock. Kelly Jo, Greg and Kevin Eaton were also present, as were Mistess Clarence Tinkey, Robert Goshert, Garwin Eaton and Barry Blalock.

Gifts were sent by others unable to attend.

By Mary Whitman

What's a hobby the average person can learn in a few minutes? Answer: coin collecting. "You can become a coin collector right away," says Richard S. Yeoman, one of the country's top numismatic authorities. "All you have to do is go to a hobby or coin dealer, and ask for the few basic tools that are needed."

Among these are coin folders on which dates and mint marks of coins are arranged in sequence, eliminating any guesswork. The few simple explanations you'll need are included on the folders, so you have only two decisions to make: what denominations to start with, and how far back to start.

You can add flavor to the pursuit by purchasing an inexpensive coin handbook that serves as a guide to numismatic values, continues Yeoman, who is Vice President of the Coin Division at Whitman Publishing Company, Racine, Wis.

Recommended for beginners is "A Handbook of United States Coins" known as the "blue book," published by Whitman. It contains a variety of information to aid the starting collector.

"As an embryo collector you'll soon be delighted to see that a few of the coins you've found are already worth a premium," says Yeoman. "Your reference book, coupled with personal observation of high and low mintages will readily show why some coins are worth more than others."

Try to collect coins in the best condition you can find, or afford. If you obtain a second coin at a later date, use the one in better condition for your collection. Over the long run, coins in higher condition are likely to command the best prices.

A few other accessories will make your hobby more enjoyable, notes Yeoman. These include a modestly-priced magnifying glass, transparent plastic tubes for sorting coins, and paper envelopes for compact storage of your collection. All are available at hobby shops and coin dealers around the nation.

Wayne Wertenberger Services Are Held

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon in Warsaw for Wayne W. Wertenberger, R. R. 5, Warsaw, who died Saturday morning in Murphy Medical Center after having been a patient for one day. He had been ill for one and one-half years.

A public accountant, he was a member of the Mentone Lions Club and the Indiana Society of Public Accountants.

He was born in Mentone on Feb. 16 1905, the son of Abraham and Myrtle Tucker Wertenberger. He married Carolyn Blosser on Feb. 24, 1946 and she survives with his mother. Also surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Jerry (Kay) Lowe, Syracuse; a son, A. J. Wertenberger, at home; and three grandchildren.

Lon Walters Dies At Home

Alonza A. (Lon) Walters, 82, died at his home in Mentone Saturday afternoon after being in failing health for five years.

Mr. Walters moved to Mentone 27 years ago from near Telma. He was a member of the Talma Methodist Church, a retired farmer, a former employee of the Northern Indiana Co-op, and had served as town marshal from 1955 to 1957.

The son of Abraham and Nancy Jane Matthews Walters, he was born near Packerton on July 9, 1883. His first wife, the former Golda Harsh, died in 1918 and he married Hazel Clyer Powers on Nov. 1, 1919, and she survives.

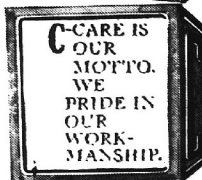

Other survivors are a son, Harold H. Walters, Mentone; a daughter, Mrs. Clifford (Cleo) Kelly, Granger; two step-daughters, Mrs. Earl (Ruth) Davis, Tippecanoe, and Mrs. Edward (Margaret) Souther, Argos; 10 grandchildren; five great-grandchildren. A son, David Earl Walters, preceded him in death.

Services for Mr. Walters were held Tuesday in the King-Reed Memorial Home by Rev. Howard O. Addleman, pastor of the First Baptist Church. Burial was in the Mentone cemetery.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

TOWN OF MENTONE, INDIANA
ORDINANCE NUMBER 167
AN ORDINANCE CREATING A CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT FUND

WHEREAS, the 50th session of the Indiana General Assembly by its acts of 1965, Chapter 225, Section 8, required that Board of Trustees of the town create a cumulative capital improvement fund into which to pay the proceeds allotted to the town received from the State of Indiana, as its share of the cigarette tax fund; and

WHEREAS, all of the members elected to the Board of Trustees of the Town of Mentone were present at this meeting, and the motion has been made, seconded and unanimously adopted that the rules be suspended and it being the unanimous consent of the Board that said funds be created; now,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE TOWN OF MENTONE, INDIANA, SECTION 1.

There is hereby created a cumulative capital improvement fund for the Town of Mentone, Indiana.

SECTION 2.
The Clerk-Treasurer shall credit such fund with all receipts received from the State of Indiana, as the Town of Mentone's share of the cigarette tax fund, such fund to be cumulative, and expended as may hereafter be law or by the Board of Trustees provided.

SECTION 3.
Said funds shall be used for no purpose other than the construction or improvement of city owned property, including buildings, streets, thoroughfares, sewers, drains or for the retirement of any general obligation bonds of the Town of Mentone issued for the purpose of the construction for any improvements which would qualify for the use of such funds.

SECTION 4.
This ordinance shall be in force from the date of its adoption. Ordained this 2nd day of August, 1965.

The Chef's Choice

A supertime dish to please the entire family—you know what a problem it is, mom! Junior goes for hot dogs, dad's choice is ground beef and the teen-agers ask for chili. Now combine all three favorites in Corn Bread Con Carne Tumble. Takes just minutes to prepare with oodles of relaxing time leftover for the cook. Mmmm—taste it now—that spicy meat sauce over crunchy toasted corn bread squares. Of course, the secret of Con Carne Tumble is the quick corn muffin mix for preparing the corn bread. It's made in the cool morning hours or even the day before.

Serve Corn Bread Con Carne Tumble soon—it's the chef's choice. Just see how easy it is to please the whole family with one dish, mom. Mmmm—tastes so good!

CORN BREAD CON CARNE TUMBLE

Makes 6 servings

Corn Bread:
One 12-oz. pkg. (2 cups)
Flako Corn Muffin Mix
1 egg
2/3 cup milk

Topping:
1/2 lb. ground beef
6 wieners, thinly sliced
1/4 cup chopped onion
One 11-oz. can condensed chili beef soup
3/4 cup water

Heat oven to hot (400°F.). Empty contents of package into bowl; add egg and milk. Blend only until dry ingredients are thoroughly moistened. (Batter should be slightly lumpy.) Pour into greased 8-1/2 x 8-1/2 square baking pan. Bake in preheated oven (400°F.) about 1 1/2 minutes or until golden brown.

For topping, brown ground beef, wieners and onion in skillet. Add soup and water; mix well. Heat thoroughly. Cut corn bread into 6 pieces; split horizontally. Toast under broiler until lightly browned. For each serving, top 2 toasted corn bread pieces with meat sauce.

Herendeen Gives Air Show

Several local residents gathered at the Mentone Airport Monday evening of last week, to watch an exhibition of daring and skill by Bob Herendeen, of Santa Monica, California. He performed in his homebuilt Pitts Special, a single seat experimental Bi-plane. Some of the 'stunts' that so thrilled spectators on the ground, and captured the interest of people all over town were: 4 point slow roll, 8 point slow roll, snap roll, 1 1/2 snap roll, double snap, triple snap, loop, loop with double snap on top, Cuban 8, Cuban 8 with 1 1/2 rolls, inside - outside Cuban 8, vertical snap, outside snap, spin, inverted spin, outside loop, the Lomcevsk, plus variations of all of these.

Herendeen, son of Allen Herendeen, of Mentone, and Mrs.

Kenneth Mollenhour, R. R. Warsaw, made the trip from California to his father's Mentone Airport in two days. He left Compton Airport, near Los Angeles, Saturday morning. He was accompanied by two friends, one in another homebuilt Bi-plane. The Little Toot, and the other in a Stinson Station Wagon. The men stopped for the night in Tucumacri, New Mexico. Then Herendeen, whose place is faster, came ahead by himself to Indiana. His friends flew on to the Experimental Aircraft Association Fly-In Convention at the Greater Rockford Airport in Rockford, Illinois. Except for a little rain and low ceilings the weather was favorable all the way. The entire trip took 16 hrs. flying time, with a total of 9 stops.

Herendeen, a veteran of the Korean conflict, has many missions over Korea to his credit. Following Korea, he toured with an Air Force Jet team, which demonstrated fire power. They traveled all over Europe and North Africa. Upon leaving the Air Force he took his present position with T.W.A. as a pilot.

Recently Herendeen won the Bi-plane races and tied for first place in Aerobatic competition in the Los Angeles Invitational Air Races held at Lancaster, California.

He flew from Mentone Tuesday morning to Rockford, Ill. to attend the Experimental Aircraft Fly-In.

Although he didn't take part in this show, he hopes to participate in more in the future. He plans to compete in the Aerobatic competition and races in the National Air Show at Reno, Nevada, September 9 - 12. Also he plans to enter the Air Show at Las Vegas, where he will fly in both the races and the show. In November he will compete in the Bi-plane races at Palm Springs. It's a busy and exciting life for this former Hoosier, turned pilot!

Local People

Attend Fly-In

Local people who flew to the Experimental Aircraft Association Fly-In last week at Rockford, Illinois were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Herendeen, Alden Jones, Jr., Jerry Hudson, and Kenneth Menzie. Ricky Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Parker of Claypool, accompanied the Herendeens one day. Don and Dennis Herendeen, of Lafayette, made the trip by car, and spent two days at the show.

Also accompanying the Herendeens were Johnny Craig and Jimmy Doud.

RABBITS:

Dennis Norris, 1st; Joyce Norris, 2nd; Jay Teel, merit.

Kyle Gibson, horse and pony club leader; Frank Nellans, swine club leader; Freeman Gruenewald, sheep club leader; and Loren Tridle, beef club leader, gave considerable time and effort to the 4-H club in an attempt to assist boys and girls in their areas of special interest. An award program will be held later this year where each boy and girl who completed one or more projects will be awarded a pin for their accomplishment.

Many of the 4-H projects require attention in the fall so potential members for next year who like to collect blue ribbons and top dollars should begin now to plan next year's program.

This is how Herendeen looked in the air as he flew alongside his father's larger plane, headed for the Rockford Air Show. He calmly flies close enough to make less daring pilots a little nervous!

TROPHIES were presented to each player on each team. No individual trophies were presented this year. The trophies for the teams are from left to right; 4th place, 3rd place, second place, and first team.

Little League players from Mentone attended a picnic dinner last Friday night at the ball diamond to wind up the year's activities. The Little League Association provided the dinner with the exception of dessert which was furnished by Little League mothers.

Following the picnic, awards were presented to the various teams. Instead of awarding individual players this year awards were given on a team basis with each member of each team receiving a trophy showing the placing of his team.

Little League Placings

Wayne Baker, president of the Little League Association, has announced the following placings in this year's Little League action.

MINOR LEAGUE - 3rd & 4th grade

1st - Orioles - 12 wins, 2 losses (Coaches Frank Hardesty and Jerry Secrist); 2nd - Braves - 9 wins and 2 losses (Coaches Jack Fawley and Dick Kindig); 3rd - Twins - 6 wins and 9 losses (Coaches Paul Rush and Wayne Baker); and 4th - Pirates - 1 win and 13 losses (Coaches Jerry Hudson and Ted Peterson).

MINOR 5th and 6th grades

1st - Giants - 8 wins, 5 losses (Sid Alber and Guy Baker, coaches); 2nd - Red Sox - 7 wins, 7 losses (Bill Grimm and Jim Miller coaches); 3rd - Yankees - 6 wins, 7 losses (Towry Jacks, coach); and 4th - Dodgers - 6 wins, 8 losses (Everet Welborn, coach).

MAJOR LEAGUE - 7th, 8th, and 9th grades

1st - Tigers - 9 wins, 2 losses (Harold Gates and Wayne Baker, coaches); 2nd - Cubs - 6 wins, 5 losses (Ray Grubbs coach); 3rd - Sox - 3 wins, 6 losses (Junior Fore and Walter Kelly, coaches); and 4th - Cardinals - 2 wins, 7 losses (Bill Moriarty and Jim Plank, coaches).

Mr. Baker has extended his gratitude to all who helped this year and to the Board of Control, the managers, the concessioners, umpires and the helpers at the picnic.

He also has reminded all boys who still have uniforms out to take them to a manager, a board member or to Baker's Appliance Store downtown.

Attend Homemaker's Council Meeting

Mrs. Deryl Tucker and Mrs. Elmer Sarber attended the National Extension Homemaker's Council at Purdue last week.

The theme of the council was "Homemakers Role in Community Development."

Delegates from 41 states and Puerto Rico were present.

Linda Meyer, 15, Dies After Surgery

Linda Meyer

Miss Linda Meyer, 15, Mentone, died Friday afternoon in the Murphy Center of complications following an appendectomy which was performed Thursday.

An autopsy Saturday revealed a brain tumor had caused death.

The daughter of Dean H. and Helen Anne Chapman Meyer, she was born in Rochester on May 31, 1951 and she would have been a sophomore in the Mentone High School this fall. She attended the Mentone Methodist Church.

She is survived by her parents and a brother, Dennis, 14, at home. Also surviving are the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Chapman, R. R. 5, Rochester.

Services for Miss Meyer were conducted Monday in the Mentone Methodist Church with the Rev. Wayne Johnson of Athens and the Rev. Glen R. Campton of Mentone officiating. Burial was in the Mentone cemetery. King-Reed Memorial was in charge of the services.

191 New Readers Join Subscription List

We knew we had a good advertising medium, but now we are even more convinced of the value of a MENTONE NEWS advertisement. As a result of last week's subscription special, we have welcomed 191 new subscribers to our paper.

A similar special to the AKRON NEWS netted 215 new subscribers, giving the two papers nearly 3,000 readers.

We are happy to have so many readers and we hope they enjoy the papers as much as we enjoy printing them.

Gospel Music Festival To Be Presented

On Saturday night August 21, at Center E. U. B. Church, there will be a program of gospel music. Appearing in person will be the Stephenson Family of Kalamazoo, Michigan and the Temples Quartet of Flint, Michigan. The public is invited to come and worship and enjoy this program. Center E. U. B. Church is 1 mile north of Silver Lake on R. 15.

Merry Molly Club Hears Readings

The Merry Molly Home Ec Club held their August meeting at the home of Mrs. Dale McGowan. The meeting was opened by giving the pledge to the flag and by repeating the club creed.

Mrs. Gene Sacher read two articles for meditation entitled "Monkeys View of Life" and "Questions".

Roll call was answered with a problem each day with her hair.

Secret prizes were received by Mrs. Dean Meyer and Mrs. Marie Gibson. The social hour was enjoyed playing Fifty-Fifty and prizes going to Mrs. Joe Tucker and Mrs. Leland Lett.

Delicious refreshments were served to eleven members, three guests, Mrs. Hershel McGowan, Mrs. William Ettinger, and Mrs. Howard Allen, and three children, Tom, Sherry, and Lori McGowan.

Parson Jones Speaks

Dear Mr. Publisher:

You shoulda been in our Junior High Sunday school class last Sunday. We had a real head-on collision between the teachers and the pupils (I looked up the word pupil in Webster's Dictionary and found out it comes from 2 words meaning "boy orphan".) Well sir, these pupils shore looked the part with their shaggy haircuts. The boys and the girls in the class look so much alike that I had to make 'em wear signs "him" and "her".

The Sunday School lesson was on "Great People of the World". The teacher was telling about men like Moses, St. Paul, Martin Luther, and Billy Graham, when one boy went to sleep and fell out of his chair. He brushed his britches off and climbed back in his chair - then he raised his hand to speak. He allowed as how the hole lesson was boring cause it was out of step with the times. He wanted to know how come we couldn't talk about the great people of today. I told him "alright, name somebody." Well sir he popped up as big as you please and said, "the Beetles."

The teachers replied that he couldn't see nothing great about them long-haired Beetles. Mr. Publisher, that teenager had his teacher caught cause he had read in the paper where the Queen of England had give the M B E to the Beetles. Now in case you've ain't heard yet, that means "The Most Excellent Order of The British Empire." Nothing but the top dogs ever get this award - that is until of recent. The teacher told how one winner of he award had turned his in on account of the Beetles getting theirs. The kids swore that was because older folks was jealous and badly adjusted to the present generation.

Well this argument went on til the bell called it a halt. I'm glad I set in on the class cause it shore did teach me a lot.

First off, it taught me that the human has walked so far off he beaten track that we ain't got a map no more.

Another thing all this has taught me is that Samson was right when he said his strength, wa sin his hair. If you cut the Beetles hair off they couldn't sing a note.

In the third place these boys have pointed up the danger of insects being shipped in from other countries. But, most important Mr. Publisher, it shows that a full head of hair is more important in making money than a education. Its more democratic, cause even if a boy can't go to college he can let his hair grow, buy a guitar, and hollar "Yah, yah, yah," and make a site more than the President.

Gotta go, go, go.
Yours truly,
Parson Jones

LA GRANGE, ILL., CITIZEN:

"It is a sad commentary upon Americans and American practice that special legislation should come to be needed to assure minority group members equal opportunity. In the event that such laws are necessary, we urge that they be ones that proceed from and confirm Constitutional principals, rather than slip through loopholes of the Constitution and work to strengthen one area of rights at the expense of another."

CHESTERTOWN, MD., NEWS:

"There is little argument against the belief that all who are qualified are entitled to as much education as they can and wish to absorb. It is traditionally true, too, that no one with ability has been denied an education in the United States. The pages of history are filled with examples of the poor who have become great by working their way through the loftiest institutions." Harlowton, Mont. TIMES: "Our forebears had to rely on their own endeavors and by working had they achieved independence. It's an old fashioned heresy to advocate having to root for a living, but we still think it's a better answer than Appalachian Aids, Wars on Poverty, etc., etc."

Indiana Has New Historical Landmark

By official proclamation of the Department of Interior, New Harmony, Indiana—the scene of a long list of major “firsts” of an infant nation—will become Indiana's seventh National Landmark on Saturday.

It joins Angel Mounds near Evansville, the Benjamin Harrison Home, the William Henry Harrison Home (Grouseland), the James Whitcomb Riley Home, the Joseph Bailly Homestead and the Tippecanoe Battlefield.

The significance of New Harmony, a little community of 1400, comes from its being the site of two widely known communal living experiments developed there two years before Thomas Lincoln brought his family across the Ohio River from Kentucky.

The dream of New Harmony's communal system lasted only 13 years. First founded by George Rapp and his son of Germany it was later purchased by Robert Owen. Rapp was preparing for the coming of the Saviour while Owen hoped to achieve peace of mind through learning.

At the height of the Harmonist prosperity, 2,000 acres were under cultivation, plus fifteen acres of vineyards and thirty five acres of apple orchards. There were six two story dormitory-type dwellings each 60 x 60, forty-two brick and frame houses, eighty-six log homes, two distilleries and one brewery.

Some of the firsts begun were the first kindergarten in America, the first infant school, the first trade school, the first free public school system in America, the first free library, the first civic dramatic club, the first woman's club and the seat of the United State Geological Survey.

Much of New Harmony remains as originally constructed during the peak years of the experiments. Homes, buildings, gardens, religious edifices, and cultural artifacts are everywhere. Descendents of Robert Owen continue to live in the area.

SBA Representative To Be In Area

Robert V. Hinshaw, Regional Director in the Indianapolis office of Small Business Administration, announced today that Mr. William L. Bayt, Management Division of the Indianapolis office, will represent the SBA in Hammond on Wednesday, August 18th, in South Bend on Thursday, August 19th, and Ft. Wayne on Friday, August 20th. In Hammond he will be at the City Hall; in South Bend and Ft. Wayne at the offices of the respective Chambers of Commerce.

Mr. Bayt will consult and confer with operators of small businesses in order to present to them the various phases of SBA assistance.

Anyone interested in consulting with Mr. Bayt should make an advance appointment at any of the aforementioned offices on the date designated.

County Entries Top Elkhart Fair

Beef cattle from Kosciusko County placed high in the Northeastern Gold Medal Beef show at the Elkhart County Fair on August 9th at Goshen.

Exhibitors included D. O. Harrold and family of Akron, J. Bernard Roberts and Sons of Syracuse, Robert Bishop of Leesburg, Bill and Kit Langohr and family of Piercetown, Dennis Conley and family of Claypool, and Devon Davis and family of Milford.

The Harrold herd shown by Sharon Harrold in the Angus classes exhibited the first place bull and placed 13th and 14th in the yearling heifer classes.

Art Display In Warsaw

A total of 73 people viewed a commercial art display recently at the L. M. Berry Company in Warsaw. The display was set up by Art Director Jerry Hudson, of Mentone, and his staff. It was made up of the posters which had been taken to the L. M. Berry Company's 4th Art Director's Conference in Dayton, Ohio, in May. Thirteen Divisions of the company, from over the United States were represented by their Art Directors at the Conference. The posters will now be sent to each Division for showing to company personnel, and other interested persons.

Mr. and Mrs. William Every were called to Hartford City last week because of the death of Mrs. Evelyn's uncle, Glenn Wheeler. Mr. Wheeler was killed in a car-truck crash four miles north of Elwood.

Rev. Francis Speaks At Baptist Church

“We are instructed to care for the fatherless in a number of places in the Bible,” said Rev. Ernie Francis at the Sunday evening service at the local Baptist Church. Rev. Francis is founder and superintendent of Baptist Children's Home, near Kouts, Indiana.

Rev. and Mrs. Francis followed this command by starting a home for needy children. Plans began in 1951. The first unit of the home, under sponsorship of the national General Association of Regular Baptists, opened in '59 with 17 children. Later another unit was added and additional buildings were built on the beautiful wooded tract of land. At present 28 children are being cared for. Twenty-six of them will enter school this fall and one will enter Cedarville College at Cedarville, Ohio.

Applications are continually being turned down because of lack of room. Nearing completion is another unit which will help. This unit will house the girls and their house-parents.

Rev. Francis showed colored slides of the Home's grounds from the air, close-ups of the buildings, children and workers, telling bits of interest about them. He also spoke of the need for more such homes, as so many children are homeless and in need of spiritual, as well as physical care.

Burket School Establishes Textbook Rental Program

The Burket School will operate under a textbook rental program for the first time this year. The following fees will be charged: Kindergarten, $3.00; grades 1 to 3, $10.00; grades 4 and 5, $9.00. The fees include all textbooks and workbooks for grades 4 and 5. Textbooks, workbooks and supplies will be furnished for kindergarten and grades 1, 2, and 3.

The book rental fee may be paid at the school on the following days: August 25, 26, and 27 from 1 to 7:30 p.m. daily. Also at this time the school will purchase used books from students. These books will be purchased at a predetermined price according to the number of years they will still be used. The value of these books may be deducted from the book rental fee.

Organization Day will be held at Burket Tuesday morning, August 31, starting at 8:25 a.m. The first full day of school will be September 1.

Book Store Set At Beaver Dam

Morris Alger, principal of Beaver Dam Jr. High School, has announced that all students of the Beaver Dam school who have used textbooks to sell may turn them in at the school on Thursday, August 19. Books will be received from 8-11 a.m., 6-9 p.m. and from 6-9 p.m.

Only books which will be used in grades 6, 7, and 8 will be accepted. Since arithmetic books will be new, it is requested they not be taken to the school. Persons who turn in books will be given a receipt. The books will be valued according to condition, age, and the number of years they will be used.

Payment will be made after the books have been sold. If any books are not sold, they will be returned to the owners.

RETURN FROM WESTERN TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ross and Mr. and Mrs. Devon Dunnick have returned from a week's vacation. They visited Grand Teton National Forest and Park and Yellowstone park in Wyoming where they saw many geysers, bears, moose and deer. The highlights of Yellowstone was Old Faithful. They returned home through Black Hills and Custer National Forest where they saw Buffalo and herd of wild donkeys. While at Mt. Rushmore they ate lunch of roast buffalo in the Wild Buffalo Room. They also visited the Bad Lands and arrived home early Sunday morning tired but happy.

Children Under 16 May Not Work On Farms During School Hours

Farmers in Indiana were reminded this week that children under 16 years of age are not permitted to work on farms during school hours, under Federal law.

Speaking for the Labor Department, Earl F. Haverson, regional director of the department's Wage and Hour and Public Contract Divisions, reminded farmers that the Fair Labor Standards Act prohibits minors under 16 from working in agriculture during school hours for the school district where they live while working. This applies to children of migratory workers as well as local children.

He pointed out that the 16-year age minimum does not apply to children who work on the home farm for their parents or guardians. He also said the Act places no restrictions on farm work by minors 16 years old or over.

Additional information and literature on how the law applies locally can be obtained by writing

Square Dancing Is Popular Here

GRADUATES ALL: Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Reese of Akron, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bowerman of Mentone, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Finney of near Talma, Mr. and Mrs. James Van Curen of near Akron, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cumerford of near Akron, and Robert Trump of Tippecanoe. Pictures by Janice Perry.

Jim Tibbets is the caller and recently taught a beginner class in the fundamentals of country style western square dancing.

Square dancing is fast growing in popularity around Mentone and local square dancers have formed a club called the Scramblers. An egg shaped pin identifies each dancer. Jim Tibbets is the caller for the group and recently graduated a class of beginning square dancers, most of whom joined the Scramblers. The pictures are taken at the "graduation." Not pictured in the beginner group are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weid, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hardesty and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gottschalk.

Ray Hennes visited his sister Mrs. Cliff Ficus and her husband Dr. Ficus, in Indianapolis last week.

Kathy Blalock and Jeri Pritikin spent four days visiting Kathy's brother Barry and wife Linda at Urbana.

WHAT AN INITIATION STUNT: To become a member of the Scramblers the new dancers were required to dance while holding eggs in their hands. They seem to be having a good time in spite of the difficulty encountered.

The Bell Memorial Library, located on North Broadway Street, was built in 1959 and dedicated to I. E. and Harriett Sarter Bell, parents of Lawrence D. Bell. Mrs. Walter Lackey is the librarian.

Bell Corporation Has 30th Birthday

The giant Bell Aircraft Corporation, an aviation company begun by Mentone's Lawrence Bell, or Larry Bell, as he preferred being called, recently celebrated its 30th birthday. Had Mr. Bell lived to help the company observe its anniversary he would have been 71 years old. He died, however, on October 20, 1956, acknowledged as the dean of American aviation pioneers with 44 remarkable years in the industry.

Born in Mentone on April 5, 1894, Mr. Bell only lived here twelve years but returned frequently for periods of rest from the hectic aviation industry. He left a living reminder of himself in the Bell Memorial Library which is not only filled with books but with mementos of his life and his business.

His rise in aviation has been compared to the Horatio Alger tradition. His first airplane, a model made of wood, cloth and fire, was constructed in 1910.

During his teens he went to work for Glenn Martin in California as a mechanic and that same year he helped Mr. Martin convert a pusher-type biplane into the world's first bomber for Pancho Villa with bombs made of gas pipe stuffed with dynamite.

He was made shop superintendent at age 20 and became factory manager when the plant moved to Cleveland the next year. He became vice president and general manager of Martin in 1928 and then transferred to Consolidated Aircraft Co. as a vice president. The company moved to the West Coast in 1935 and Bell decided to begin his own factory.

His first plant employed 56 in one corner of the sprawling former Consolidated plant on Elmwood Avenue in Buffalo, New York. By 1937 the company had expanded to 100 employees.

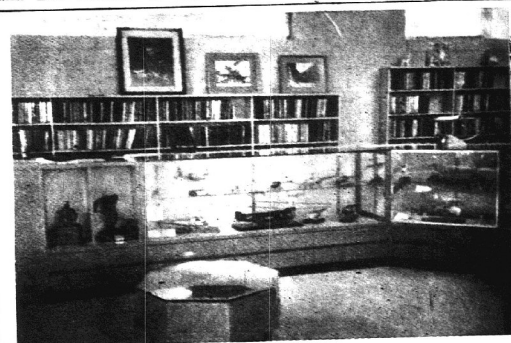

During World War II employment jumped to 55,000 and there were plants in Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Burlington, Vt., and Marietta, Ga. Today, the plant in Niagara Falls employs 4,000.

In addition, there is a rocket engine testing facility at Model City, an air cushion vehicle test basin at Buffalo, a Cleveland facility and a radio test center at Tucson, Ariz.

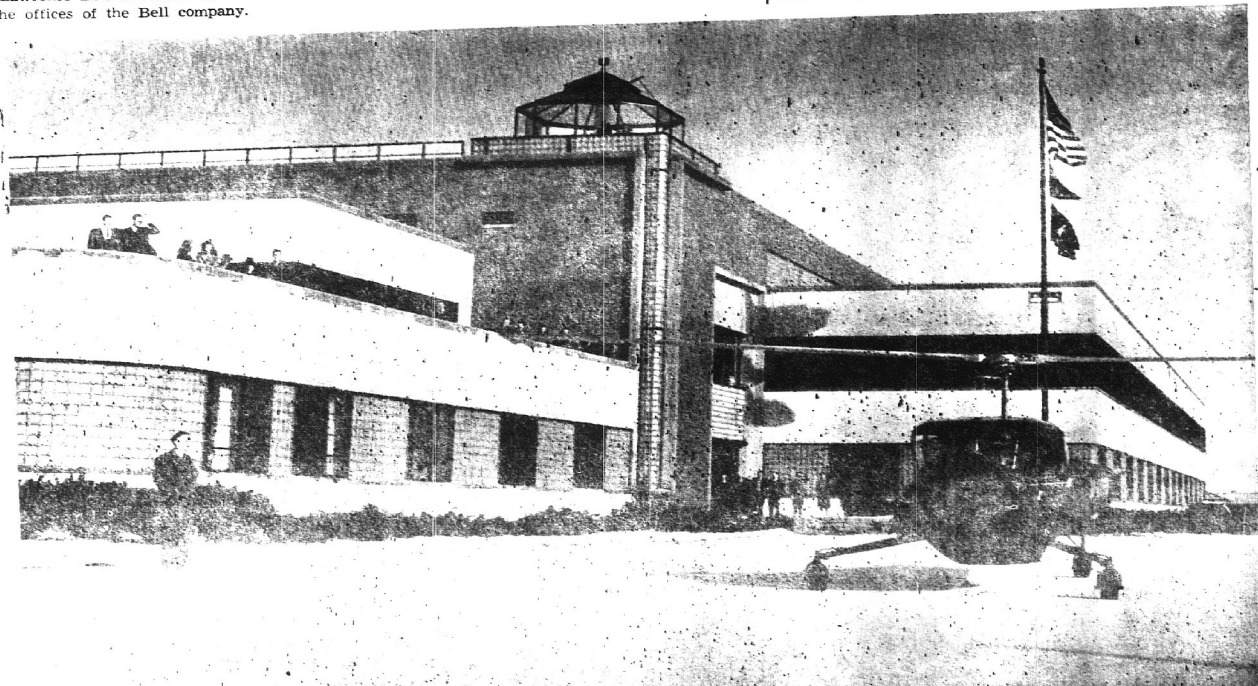

Mr. Bell is remembered by older residents as a hard working youngster and he is remembered by the rest of us as the man who built the community library that others might learn and grow in stature through learning.

The Bell Corner of the library is filled with models of Bell planes and helicopters as well as with awards and other mementos received by Lawrence Bell during his lifetime.

Akron Rainbow Plan Picnic

Linda Beigh, worthy advisor, presided at the stated meeting Tuesday, August 10th with 22 members and 2 adults present. Those who professed were Charla Gast, Debra Hiers, Susan Patterson, Priscilla Mitchell, Martha Whittenberger, Marjorie Kendall, and Nancy Huntley.

A Thank-you note from the Russianville Assembly for the money contribution sent them when their Assembly was destroyed by the Palm Sunday tornado was read.

Each girl may invite one guest and should bring a bathing suit, a dish of food for the evening pot luck supper and service for herself and guest. Chaperons and transportation will be provided by the Advisory Board but parents of the girls are invited and are to contact the Mother Advisor, Mrs. Virgil Miller.

Plans were made for the formal initiation of 4 new members August 24th, and the Decorating committee is Sue Johnson and Jo Ann Moore. Serving Committee is Nancy Huntley and Debra Grinnard. The refreshment committee is Jane Martin, Susan Patterson, Martha Whittenberger, Marion and Marjorie Kendall, Priscilla Mitchell and Charla Gast.

The committee to plan the Mosonic Guest Night September 29th, is Melody Ballinger, Jane Macosonic Guests Night September 29th. Gast.

Jolly Janes Meet With Mrs. Cole

The Jolly Jane Home Ec Club met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Annabelle Cole.

After the usual ritualistic opening, the health and safety remarks were given by Mrs. Cole and meditation was given by Mrs. Loren Tridle.

Roll call response was "A nice thing a neighbor has done for me." Members voted to go to Enchanted Hills Playhouse next month for the club trip. Members also voted to purchase three season tickets for Talma students to go to the travelogue at Warsaw. The meeting was closed with the club prayer song and collection.

Mrs. Harold Markley and Mrs. Jim Romine received birthday gifts from secret pals. Mrs. Elias Bozzini won the door prize.

Delicious refreshments were served to the members and the guest, Mrs. Irene Stone.

Richard Tombaugh Named To Purdue Post

Richard Tombaugh, Mentone, who holds two degrees from Purdue University, has returned to that campus as an assistant director of admissions.

Harland W. White, director, said Tombaugh will develop an admissions research program for the office besides his general duties in student interviews and applications and visits to Indiana high schools.

Tombaugh returned to Purdue after two years as assistant manager of a residence hall colony for 3,000 students at the University of Wisconsin.

Previously he had been head adviser in a men's residence hall at Michigan State University while working toward a PhD in student personnel work. He lacks only a dissertation for that degree. While working on his Purdue MS degree in guidance and counseling in 1960-61, he worked as a graduate assistant in the office of the dean of men.

Tombaugh participated in basketball, baseball and track in Mentone High School and earned a BS degree in physical education at Purdue in 1960. As an undergraduate, he served as president of Alpha Phi Omega, Boy Scout service fraternity; Tomahawk, honorary sophomore service society, and Reemers, honorary activities club.

Tombaugh's wife, the former Phyllis Cook of Bourbon, is a 1960 graduate in home economics who once served as an assistant foods supervisor in Wiley Hall, men's residence. The Tombaughs and their sons, Brian, 3, and Bradley, 10 months, will live in Lafayette.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pritchard have returned to their home in Zanesville, Ohio, after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pritchard and family in Mentone.

Local People

Visit Chicago

Mrs. Clyde Johnson, of Mentone and Mrs. Carolyn Bennett, Steve and Mike, of Rochester, spent Sunday and Monday in Chicago, sightseeing and visiting with Mrs. Johnson's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Olson. Among the places they saw were Field's Museum, the Planetarium, the Aquarium, the Museum of Science and Industry, and Marshall Field's. A highlight of the trip was a guided tour aboard a boat on Lake Michigan. From the lake, they could see the skyline of Chicago, with many individual buildings and places of interest pointed out to them.

DID YOU KNOW?

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smythe, of Mentone, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Krontz, of Bowling Green, Ohio, returned recently from spending a few days traveling in Michigan and Wisconsin. They visited the locks at Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan and came home through the Wisconsin Dells.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Horn visited Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clipp, of Elkhart.

Today's MEDITATION

from
The World's Most Widely Used
Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

THE UPPER ROOM NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Thursday, August 19, 1965

Read Mark 10:1-16

If any man, come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yet, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. (Luke 14:26)

The above text is one of the most misunderstood in the New Testament. Many people have either passed it by as being too harsh to follow, or have actually thought that Jesus meant that he has to hate his family or he cannot love Christ.

Jesus looked upon the home a man and his wife made and the children in it as blessed, and said that such a home was intended from the beginning. Jesus also said that a man must hate his family in order to follow Him and do His will.

There seems to be a paradox in Jesus' teaching concerning the home and discipleship. The paradox is understood when we see that Jesus' strong words simply mean that we are to put Him and His kingdom first in our lives.

Putting Christ first in our lives and homes makes for the finest and strongest type of home the world knows. The home is destroyed only when we leave Christ out.

PRAYER: Our Father, give us faith to follow Thee closely, and the courage to build Christian homes, in a day when both are so needed. For Jesus' sake we ask these things. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

When Christ has first place in our lives, we give Him first place in our homes.

C. Lacy Van Norman (Penn.)

Rev. Norman

Attends Camp

Rev. Ernie Norman of the Mentone Church of Christ is spending two weeks at Camp Indagon near Angola as a counselor. Greg and Susie Witham of the local church are participating in the camp for the same period. Christie Horn attended her camp earlier.

During Rev. Norman's absence members of the church are filling his pulpit. Alton Bruner spoke at the Sunday evening services. Dale Kelley will speak at next Sunday morning's service and Delford Nelson will be the evening speaker.

DID YOU KNOW?

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Washburn, Todd, Brand, and Amy, of Cincinnati, Ohio spent several days visiting their mother, and grandmother, Mrs. Mary Cox. They left Wednesday for Hammond where they will spend some time with Mr. Washburn's mother before returning to Cincinnati.

Crusade In Progress At

Billy Sunday Tabernacle

A two-week Crusade For Christ service has begun at the Billy Sunday Tabernacle at Winona Lake and will continue until August 29. The tabernacle seats 5,000 people and admission and parking are free.

Speaking this week are Dr. Paul Smith, pastor of People's Church (Toronto, Ontario), Dr. John Walvoord, president of Dallas, Texas Theological Seminary and Dr. Walter Wilson, physician and author, from Kansas City, Missouri.

The crusade is held at 7:45 nightly and Bible teaching is held daily at 8:45 and 10:45 a.m. There is a special Hillside Service at 6:30 each evening, just prior to the nightly crusade. Kenneth Masterman is director of music and Hilding Halverson is crusade soloist.

Dr. Myron Augsburger, the evangelist, will arrive on Friday, August 20. He is president of Eastern Mennonite College in Harrisonburg, Va. and has been active in the ministry for the past ten years.

Tippe Mission

Society Meets

The Women's Missionary Society of the Tippecanoe Congregational Christian Church met at the home of Mrs. Wendell Moriarty Wednesday afternoon. The meeting opened with the president, Mrs. Glen Morrison, reading a poem "Making Friends." The group sang "Savior Like A Shepherd Lead Us." Mrs. Luke Ritter read scripture from John 2:1-11, and the group sang "I Love To Tell The Story."

The Missionary group purchased the new American and Christian flag and statutes were given blessed by the Lord's prayer. The lesson "Road To Cana" was given by Mrs. Olla Elkins. She was assisted by Mrs. Ray Tevult, Mrs. Tony Hoover, Mrs. Ralph Jefferies, and Mrs. Cal Fritz.

Roll call was answered with a favorite Bible verse.

Officers re-elected were President: Mrs. Glen Morrison, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. A. B. Rhodes. Other officers will be appointed by Mrs. Morrison next month. Fourteen members and 6 children were present.

Refreshments of sandwiches, fancy crackers, nut cups and coffee were served by Mrs. Tevult and Mrs. Rhodes.

DID YOU KNOW?

Mrs. Myrtle Leininger spent Sunday and Monday with the Masa Nelson of Rochester. On Sunday she was surprised with a birthday dinner. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Don Nelson of Arogs, and Mr. and Mrs. Elgie Vandermark of Rochester. While visiting in Rochester, Mrs. Leininger called on the Lum Smiths of that town. Mrs. Smith is greatly improved following her recent illness.

CAN A CHILD BE FAR AWAY?

If there is a puppy about the chances are good that children are not far away. Wherever one finds a child at play, more often than not, there will be a dog or two joining in the frolicking. Children and dogs seem to have an affinity for, and a natural understanding of one another. They have another thing in common—a wonderful trust and belief.

Parents, you have one duty that rates first. That duty is to see that through training, teaching and example your children retain that God-given trust and belief, and to see that it is nourished. It is also your duty to guard against that trust being blighted by fear. To this end make it your business to know those who teach and train your children. Above all take the children to church.

Children love to go to church and the Church has always been their champion. It has gone into lands where life is cheap, especially for orphans, and it has justified that love. Because it has brought joy and hope into the lives of many children the Church has been the means of furnishing to the world men and women of good will and service.

Progress Club Entertains Co. Home Residents

Eleven members of the Tippecanoe Progress Club and four guests, Mrs. Treva Moore, Mrs. Owen Tracy, Miss Eldonna Tracy and Mrs. Blanche Poring, spent Tuesday afternoon at the Marshall County Home entertaining the folks there with group singing. Mrs. Moore gave two readings and Mrs. Don Tracy sang a solo. Several of the people at the home also entertained.

A lunch of pie, ice cream and coffee was served.

DID YOU KNOW?

Mrs. Dan Smith of Mentone and Mrs. Neva Smith of Burket visited Mrs. Helen Smith of Akron on Thursday.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Everly were Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Vermilyer of Rolling Prairie.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clark and sons of Los Angeles, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Clark and Cindy, of New Haven, are visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, of Mentone. The Bill Clarks will be in Indiana about two weeks. It is their first trip east in some time, so it is a happy reunion for the entire Clark family.

New Recipes Issued For Preparing Fish And Shellfish "Over The Coals"

The Department of the Interior's Bureau of Commercial Fisheries today announced publication of a new recipe booklet containing tested recipes and suggestions for preparing fish and shellfish "over the coals."

Developed especially for those who enjoyed cooking outdoors, the new booklet contains recipes for lobster tails, whitefish, in foil, flounder with crab stuffing, rainbow trout, charcoal broiled scallops, and many other tasty seafood delicacies.

Bureau home economists tested and approved nearly 40 new recipes and serving ideas which are illustrated in color in the 24-page booklet. It also contains helpful suggestions for buying fish for quality and quantity, and tips on starting on maintaining the charcoal fire.

Fish and Shellfish Over the Coals, (Test Kitchen Series No. 14), is available for 40 cents from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C. 20-

Donald L. McKernan, Director of the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries, said the new publication is part of the continuing consumer education program being conducted in cooperation with the fishing industries of the United States.

"Publication of Fish and Shellfish Over the Coals will help many more consumers realize the economy and nutritive value of fish as an everyday food," Director McKernan said.

7-Year Old Boy Killed Near Here

Seven year old Christopher D. Hodges was killed late Monday night as he played on the Gene Black farm which is located near the Nichols cemetery in the southern part of Kosciusko county. The lad met almost instant death as a flatbed hay rack toppled on him, crushing his chest. Dr. Joe Bill Mishler, Kosciusko county coroner, said the boy died of asphyxiation.

After a late supper Christopher and his brothers and sisters had gone out to play and when called at midnight Christopher did not appear. A search was immediately launched by his mother and the Blacks and his body was found at 12:10 a.m. Kosciusko Sheriff Holbrook said the rack had been removed from a wagon and leaned against a tree and tied there. It appeared the boy had untied the rope, permitting the rack to fall on him.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Hodges and was born in Wabash on Nov. 9, 1957. The family moved to So. Bend three years ago.

Surviving with the parents are a sister, Kathryn; a brother, Theodore; three half-sisters, Judy, Jeanne and Patricia; three half-brothers, James, Gregory and Michael, all at home; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hodges of So. Bend and the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Lottie McDonald of Elkhart.

Services for the boy will be conducted Friday in So. Bend.

T.V.S.C. Budget Hearing Thursday Night

The official hearing for the 1966 budget of the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation will be held Thursday night, August 26, in the office of the school superintendent.

First Woman J.P. Is Sworn In

Mrs. Kenneth (Pat) Shoemaker of Mentone was sworn in as Kosciusko county's first woman justice of the peace recently by Miss T. Ethna Scott, county clerk.

Mrs. Shoemaker replaces Clarence Eiler as Harrison township justice of the peace. Mr. Eiler died before his term of office began in January 1963. He had served the township for a number of years in that capacity, and the post has remained open since his death.

Mrs. Shoemaker will maintain her office in her home.

Tucker Ponies Win Honors

Ponies owned by Rex Tucker were shown in competition at Crown Point on Saturday and Sunday and won several high honors. The horse show there is a yearly affair and preceded the annual fair.

Joy Tucker showed the second place pony in both the registered Shetland roadster class and the harness show pony class. He also placed third in the stake classes and third in roadster classes in a second show.

Miss Janet Reed, Cleveland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reed of Mentone, showed the registered roadster in the ladies class and won first place.

This space reserved for your news item. Phone 893-3265.

The budget, as advertised in the Mentone News, calls for a rate of $3.98, the same as was advertised in 1965. The 1965 rate was later cut to $3.78 after hearings had been held.

Pictorial Masthead Is New This Week

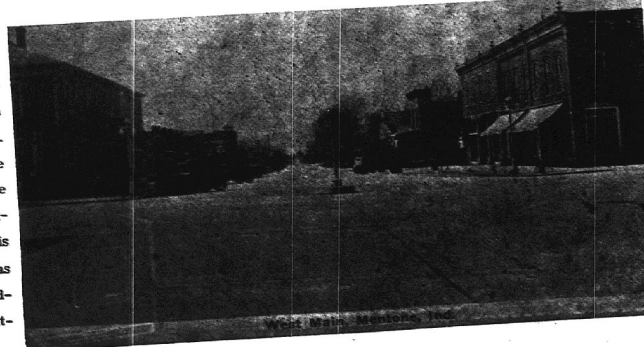

A picture will appear on the masthead of this paper from now on. There will be no identifying caption and sometimes the subject matter will be as well known as Mentone's giant egg which is pictured this week and at other times the subject will be more vague. Our purpose is running this series is to promote the image of Mentone in the masthead, the first thing which greets the reader when he opens the paper. We hope you enjoy it.

O.E.S. Program Scheduled

Mentone Chapter #331, Warsaw Chapter #88, and Pierceton Chapter #56, Order of the Eastern Star will have their official visit of Sister Sallie Turner, Worthy Grand Matron, and Brother Clayton L. Herruck, Worthy Grand Patron of the Indiana Grand Chapter, O.E.S., on September 1, 1965 at the Warsaw Masonic Temple. All members of the O.E.S. are cordially invited to attend. The program is as follows: Dinner (by reservation) 6:00 p.m.; Baby Dedication 7:10 p.m.; Inspection 7:30 p.m. Worthy Matrons presiding are Marguerite Campton, Louise Miner, and Virginia Logan.

REMEMBER WHEN?

Do you remember when West Main St. looked like this? Cars have certainly changed since this was taken as have the buildings and lighting system.

A bond of $20,000 will procure funds for a new town hall and fire station in Mentone. A petition bearing the signatures of fifty or more owners of taxable real estate located in Mentone was presented to members of the town board on August 16 requesting the trustees to authorize issuance of bonds in an amount not to exceed $20,000.

Taxpayers are notified of this in the legal section of this week's paper and are further notified that remonstrances may be filed as provided by Sec. 64-1910

Burns Statute, 1961 replacement.

Plans for the new building include enlarged storage space for fire fighting equipment, a public meeting room, public rest rooms, police office, and a meeting room for the town board as well as an office for the clerk-treasurer.

Double Rites Held For Crash Victims

Double funeral services were held today for two brother-in-laws, Charles Lee Lozier, 22, and Theodore Ulmer, 23, both of Etna Green. Both are well known here and having surviving relatives in this community.

The two were riding a motorcycle and apparently failed to see a Nickel Plate freight train at a crossing one and one-half miles west of Tippecanoe Sunday afternoon. Their cycle crashed into the side of the train, killing both instantly.

Lozier is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lozier, Tippecanoe, a brother at home, and three sisters, Mrs. Devon Dunnuck, Mentone, Mrs. Luke Carpenter, Bourbon, and Mrs. Danny Cormican of Tippecanoe. His wife, the former Patricia Ulmer, sister of Theodore Ulmer, and a son, Charles Thomas, also survive.

Surviving Ulmer are his wife, two daughters, Teresa and Tina, a son, Theodore Ulmer, Jr., three sisters, Mrs. George Cook of Etna Green, Mrs. Charles Pletcher of Bourbon and Mrs. Charles Lozier of Etna Green. His parent, Mr. and Mrs. George Ulmer of Etna Green, also survive.

Lozier was buried at Summit Chapel cemetery near Bourbon while interment services for Ulmer were held at the Etna Green cemetery.

Attend Student Council Workshop

Mike Orcutt and Dennis Feldman of the Mentone Student Council recently attended a student council leadership workshop at Indiana University. The workshop is held annually and assists officers of local student councils in preparing the program for their school during the year.

Orcutt is president of the local student council and Feldman is vice president.

Received Master Of Arts Degree

Miss Sue Ann Borton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Silveus of Route 1 Silver Lake received her Master of Arts Degree in Elementary Education Friday August 20 at Ball State University in Muncie. Miss Borton received her bachelors degree from Manchester College in 1961. She has been teaching since then in the Concord Community School system in Elkhart Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Silveus of Silver Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Marshall of Mentone attended the commencement exercises which were held on the South Terrace of the Arts building.

P.T.A. Program Committee Meets

Planning for the P.T.A. for the coming year got underway at a meeting held in the home of the Program Chairman, Mrs. Tom Harmon, Monday evening. Mrs. Russell Hoffman, Regional Vice President of the State P.T.A., and Mrs. Cecil Langdoc, District Director of P.T.A. were present at the meeting. Others attending were Art Wise, Bill Ettinger, Mrs. George Hatfield, Mrs. John Huff, Mrs. Jack Pritchard, Mrs. Gordon Hackworth, and Co-Presidents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kralis.

It was announced the first P.T.A. meeting for the coming year will be a 'Get Acquainted Night', September 8, at the Mentone Gym. The evening will be highlighted by a dessert smorgasbord.

Summer Weddings Held Around The World

KABUL, ROME, ABIDJAN,
HONG KONG, KAMPALA, AND SANTIAGO

Within the next two months, 29 Foreign Service Secretaries will be getting married in 26 cities around the world. This is to be expected. It happens every few months. Romance doesn't limit itself to our country's borders.

Foreign Service Secretaries are selected for their sense of humor, their spirit of adventure, their ability to adjust to any circumstances. There are girls who like people and, as a result, people like them. Therefore, it is no wonder that men entice them from their exciting Foreign Service careers to enter into matrimony—and as a result the Foreign Service must recruit new secretaries to replace these girls.

Getting married in most countries outside of the United States isn't very easy. The couple with local laws and two ceremonies are usually required: the legal marriage ceremony at the Town or City Hall followed, within 3 days, by the religious ceremony. Marriage contracts are still required in some countries and American style dresses and wedding cakes may not be available on the local economy. But this is no problem to the Foreign Service staff at the post. Everybody pitches in and the bride's problems disappear and the ceremony and reception is individual, gay, and lovely. Perhaps a bride and groom in Taipei will ride from the church in a pedicab; a marriage ceremony will be performed at the Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris, a reception will take place in the Ambassador's garden in Tehran, or perhaps the honeymoon will be on Safari in Kenya.

Secretaries who are over 21 and who would like to travel and live in strange sounding places may receive employment literature concerning the opportunities in the Foreign Service by writing to Department of State, Post Office Box 1327, Chicago, Illinois, 60607.

LEMLER'S

Parson Jones Speaks

Dear Mr. Publisher

The folks at our church are hopping mad. Some fella has opened up a junk yard right next door. Pretty soon they'll have old bent-up cars stacked so high you won't be able to see the church. At my last country congregation we had a human cemetery out back. I came to the city to get away from it and now I wind up with a car grave yard. It wouldn't be so bad if they buried 'em underground. One of my deacons has suggested that we write the President of the United States and see if there ain't some law that will move that junk. Well sir, we wrote a letter and sent a copy to the junk dealer. He called me on the phone and reminded me that the constitution forbids mixing church and state, not church and junk. Anyway, maybe the President will help us, cause I been reading in the paper how he's afraid our country will turn into a pile of junk.

It's a real shame Mr. Publisher that all the pretty country-side the Good Lord made is being cluttered up with hub caps and trunk lids. Jesus would have a hard time using nature to get this point across now a days. Some how I just can't picture him saying "Consider the junk-yards how they grow." Its sinful sir, cause its like throwing mud on a pretty Easter dress.

I was reading about the Arabs the other night, and they give me a idea on how to lick this problem. Their prize possession is a camel. They plow 'em, use 'em for transportation, and when they get too old for either one they eat 'em. The bones are used to make tools, the hide is tanned and the gristle is used for chewing gum. You don't see no ugly camel junk yards. With all the brains we swear we got, how come somebody don't come up with a kind of transportation we can eat when it wears out. I've eat some peanut brittle that would hold up pretty good. Come to think of it my wife's pie crusts would make awful good fenders.

Just think how it'll be in a few years if something ain't done. They'll be writing songs like, "While strolling through the junkyard one day," "Down by the ole junkyard," "She'll be coming around the junkyard," "When the moon comes over the junkyard," and "Junkyard here I come."

Well, I gotta close now and pack my bags to move. I just found out that the fella who owns the junkyard is a member of our church. I learned a long time ago the unpardonable sin - fooling with a man's money maker. See you back in the country if I don't get things straightened out.

Yours truly,
Parson Jones

Visit Boston

Mr. and Mrs. David Peffley and sons Tim and Richard returned Thursday from a week's visit in the East. Mr. Peffley, pilot for Zimmer Mfg. Co., flew an emergency hospital traction bed frame to Baltimore for Zimmer's.

Also on the trip as far as Newark, New Jersey, was Mrs. Harry Goehring and children. They are visiting Mr. Goehring's sister there.

The Peffleys flew on to Boston where they spent four days sight-seeing. A few places of interest were the Old North Church, Old Ironsides, Paul Revere's home, the road he traveled on during his historic ride, Wayside Inn, the Old Grist Mill, (which is still in operation for Pepperidge products), Sturbridge Village (a historical colonial village), and the location of the Battle of Concord.

Also of great interest but most modern, was the Shoppers World, in Framington. It is a unique shopping center.

ORGANIC FARMING MAGAZINES

The magazine that promotes better gardening and farming the natural way. It is said that one should not strive to cultivate good soil; good plants will naturally follow.

A few titles are "What is Good Soil?", "What's for Mulch", "Our Strawberries Beat the Heat", "Turn Corns into Hummus", "Irrigating Organically", "For Beauty, Fragrance and Utility, plant Shrub Roses", "Pick Vegetables Garden Fresh All Winter", "Healing plants - Today."

Editorials by Robert Rodale - "What's Happening to our Food", "Silent Spring - Two Years Later", "Florida Organic Citrus Growers Can Start Shipping Again."

Also, each month are reports on Electroculture in plant growth, and reports on organic news in general. A few reports have been on "Effects of Insecticides", "Chemical Residues Float Freely in Cigarette Smoke", "Firms Enter Organic Field."

Articles on fower and vegetable growing, reader's letters with practical, tried, garden hints, garden calendar, question and answer column, etc. are regular departments.

Organic Farming is a magazine to help make gardening more enjoyable, healthful, and profitable.

I FOUND A LEAF - written and illustrated by Sharon Lerner. Of general interest but particularly to students required to study trees and their leaves. Gives descriptions and pictures of a wide variety of leaves, tells where tree is grown, its use, and other bits of interest about it, or the leaves.

A POCKET OF CRICKET - by Rebecca Caudill. "A small child's affection for his world is beautifully expressed in this appealing story about Jay, a young farm boy loved the sights and sounds of everything around him."

ATOMIC SCIENCE - one of the Visual Science Series books. A picture book of atomic science plus explanations.

THE AVAILABLE MAN - The Life behind the Masks if Warren Gamaliel Harding, by an English writer, Andred Sinclair.

THAILAND in pictures, a Visual Geography book.

A GIFT FROM THE BRIDE - by Gladys Yessayan Cretan. A story about an Armenian child's dream come true.

Be-Abouts Meet

Monday evening the Be-Abouts Missionary Group of the Baptist Church met at the home of President Phyllis Bowser. The opening song was "Near The Cross", followed by prayer by Mrs. Tobie Blalock.

Minutes were read by Secretary Mrs. Howard Addleman and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Charles Hunter. Other business followed devotions. Mrs. Raymond Lewis read from portions of the book of John on the subject of rejoicing each day. "Concentrate on the roses in our lives and not the thorns," was a story illustration.

After bandages were rolled, delicious refreshments were served to the above, plus Mesdames: Kenneth Romine, Verne Wittkamper, Lee Norris, Jim Unick, John Bowerman, Brad Moore, David Peffley, Vick Lantz, and Richard Creamer.

With The Sick

Mrs. Richard Manwaring who is a patient in St. Vincent's Hospital, Indianapolis is reported as feeling good and plans to return home Sunday.

Read Romans 13:7-14

Love is the fulfilling of the law. (Romans 13:10)

An editorial in a newspaper carried the question, "What is the greatest thing in the world?" Replies of many kinds were received—faith, religion, freedom. The best one also came: "Love is the greatest thing in the world."

Paul had tried to work his way to heaven by keeping the Ten Commandments plus the many other laws. But he was to learn "Love is the fulfilling of the law."

If we, like Paul, are convinced that the most important thing in the world is love, we must show our love for our Lord, whom we have not seen, by loving those about us whom we can see. New Testament love means that we are to have toward others the same attitude which God has toward us. His love is for everyone; "he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust."

If we look to Jesus and learn to know Him better, we see what true love is, though a whole lifetime is not sufficient to unlock the meaning of divine love.

PRAYER: Dear Father, Thou art love. Teach us to love one another as Thou hast loved us. Help us not to be content to do no harm, but discontented if we are not doing all the good we can. In the spirit of Jesus Christ, our Savior, we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:
Christian love seeks to express itself in deeds.

Surprise Party

Honors Bressons

Friday evening the Baptist Berean S.S. Class, Men's Class, and Dorcus Missionary Society members and their wives or husbands, surprised Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bresson at their home east of Tippecanoe.

The group of 35 brought homemade ice cream and cake. The occasion was due to the Bressons departure date - before September 1 - for duties as housemother and handyman for Cedarville College in Cedarville, Ohio.

The following poem was composed by Denton Abbey, director of the group, in memory of Linda and was brought to us by the girls who were in the group.

We stand upon life's great stage, as our little skit we play. But when the last song is done, and the instruments in order are laid.

We know the last number is not finished, nor has life's last act been played.

For we will stand again on a stage, from which celestial music will ring, For the Lord will be our conductor, and the angels will join in and sing.

SMALL TOMATOES ON POTATOE VINES

To propagate potatoes true to variety, it is necessary to use a piece of the tuber (actually stem tissue) containing an eye (true bud.) This is the normal method used for seed potatoes. This type of reproduction is known as vegetative propagation and is a seedless or asexual (no sex) method.

The "small tomatoes" growing on your potato vines are potato seedballs. Occasionally, when weather conditions are favorable, we get this natural seedball formation naturally. This is an unusual event. To create a new variety of potatoes, the plant must grow, form flowers, pollinate the flowers and then allow the seedballs to develop.

For white potatoes, about one million seedling plans must be grown to obtain one selection worthy of being named as a new variety. This is slow, expensive and almost impossible for an individual to do.

Akron Rainbow Initiates 4 New Members

A lovely initiation was held at the Akron Masonic Hall, Tuesday, August 24th, with 35 girls and 6 adults present. Those who pro-temed were Sherry Olsen, and Marilyn Smith. All officers wore corsages, and the honored Masonic guests wore boutonnières made by Martha Jo Whittenberger and her mother.

Those initiated were Judy Teeter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Teeter of Silver Lake; Pamela Elaine Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Budd Moore of Athens; Jennifer Hackworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ballard Hackworth of Silver Lake and Jennifer Gast, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gast of Akron. Big Sisters are Linda Beigh for Judy, Jo Ann Moore for Pamela, Melody Ballenger for Jennifer Hackworth and Mellisa Gast for Jennifer Gast.

Special guests escorted by the Drill Leader, Debra Groninger, were Mr. Norman Moore, Worshipful Master of Akron Lodge #659; Mr. John M. Teeter of Sidney Lodge #579; Melody Ballenger, Grand Representative to Mississippi and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Beigh, Worthy Patron and Worthy Matron of Akron O.E.S.

Merit bars were presented to Sue Johnson, Jane Martin, Marilyn Smith, Adria Morgan, Drusilla Morgan, Melody Ballenger, Linda Beigh, Melissa Gast, and Jo Ann Moore.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served in the dining room from a table decorated with a white bowl of Rainbow hued roses grown by Mr. Emerson Johnson. Others who decorated the hall and table and also served were Jane Martin, Jo Ann Moore, Marna Stephen, Sue Johnson, Debra Groninger, Martha Whittenberger, Priscilla Mitchell, Charla Gast and Marion Kendall.

ADVERTISEMENTS FOR BIDS

The Mentone & Tri-Township Cooperative Fire Control Board, Mentone, Indiana, until 7 o'clock P.M. on the 16th day of September, 1965, in the Town Hall of Mentone, Indiana, will receive sealed bids for a Fire Station and Town Hall, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud. Proposals will be received separately on the work as set out under the mechanical contract.

Each proposal shall be accompanied by an acceptable certified check or bank draft, or a satisfactory bid bond executed by the bidder and a surety company made payable to Mentone & Tri-Township Cooperative Fire Control Board of Mentone, Indiana, in an amount not less than the amount of the proposal as liquidated damages in the case of failure of any successful bidder to enter into a contract or furnish a satisfactory performance bond in an amount equal to the bidder's contract price, and for the opening of said proposal. Contractor awarded work shall furnish an acceptable surety bond in the amount of 100% of the contract price.

Proposals shall be properly and completely executed on proposal forms furnished by the Engineer in accordance with Form 96, and with non-renewal affidavit required by the statutes, and must be accompanied by questionnaire Form 96a as set out by the State Board of Accounts for any proposal of $5,000 or more.

The contract documents, including plans and specifications, are on file in the office of the Town Clerk-Treasurer of Mentone, Indiana, and at the office of Hugh Rickel, Engineer, at Palestine, Indiana, (R.F.D. 5, Warsaw, Indiana). Copies of the documents including plans and specifications may be obtained at the office of Hugh Rickel, Engineer.

The Mentone & Tri-Township Cooperative Fire Control Board, Mentone, Indiana, reserves the right to reject any or all proposals and waive any formalities in bidding.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS TOWN OF MENTONE

The taxpayers of the Town of Mentone are hereby notified that a petition has been filed by fifty or more owners of taxable real estate located in said Town requesting the Board of Trustees of said Town to authorize the issuance of bonds of the Town in an amount not exceeding the sum of $20,000.00 for the purpose of procuring funds to be applied on the cost of remodeling, reconstruction and otherwise improving the town hall of said Town. Remonstrances against the issuance of said bonds may be filed with the Board of Trustees by owners of taxable real estate in the manner and within the time provided by Sec. 64-1915 Burns Statutes, 1961 Re-Placement.

Taxpayers of said Town are further notified that the Board of Trustees did, on the 16th day of August, 1965, adopt an ordinance determining to issue the bonds of the Town in the amount of $20,000.00 for the purpose of procuring funds to be used as above stated, including incidental expenses in connection therewith. Said bonds will mature over a period of approximately 10 years from date of issuance, and will bear interest at a rate not exceeding 4-1/2% per annum (the exact rate to be determined by bidding). Objections to the issuance of said bonds may be made by ten or more taxpayers filing a petition in the office of the Auditor of Kosciusko County, within the time and in the manner provided by statute, which petition, if any, will be heard and considered by the State Board of Tax Commissioners as provided by Sec. 64-1915 Burns Re-Placement.

The net assessed valuation of taxable property in the Town of Mentone, as shown by the assessment made for state and county taxes in the year 1965, collectible in the year 1965, is $1,339,720.00 and the outstanding indebtedness of the Town, exclusive of the above mentioned bonds is $106,000.00.

A public hearing on the question of appropriating the proceeds of the above mentioned bonds for the purpose hereinabove set forth will be held by the Board of Trustees at a meeting on September 7, 1965, at the hour of 7:00 o'clock P.M., at which time all taxpayers interested may appear and be heard. The additional appropriation, if finally made, will be automatically referred to the State Board of Tax Commissioners, which Board will hold a further hearing within fifteen days at the office of the Auditor of Kosciusko County, or at such other place as may be designated. At such further hearing taxpayers objecting to said additional appropriation may be heard, and interested taxpayers may inquire of the County Auditor when and where such further hearing will be held.

Dated this 17th day of August, 1965.

STUTTERING

THE cause of stuttering has been classified as physical in nature, but its true cause is not known.

Many great men have been stutterers. Aristotle, Charles Darwin and Sir Winston Churchill all suffered from this affliction.

Stuttering usually begins between the ages of two and six and takes the form of a chronic spasm or block that prompts the excessive repetition of sounds.

The child's effort to avoid his stuttering is expressed in such reactions as closing his eyes, dilating his nostrils or slight breathing abnormalities.

Stutterers are usually aware of tension in other parts of the body during the stuttering phase.

Stuttering is sometimes reduced or even eliminated with repeated reading of a certain passage or during group reading or singing, and when a mother's voice drowns out the stutterer's hearing of his own voice.

Family, friends and teachers are urged not to overemphasize the defect but to help the child with reassurance and affection.

Stutterers are usually normally intelligent and often more intelligent than nonstutterers.

THANK YOU

An open letter to all of the wonderful people who helped us through the loss of our precious daughter, sister and granddaughter. Dearest Friends and Relatives,

We wish we had the words to express how very, very wonderful we think you all are. We actually never knew before that people could be so kind, considerate and thoughtful.

We don't know where to start or to stop giving special thanks, as everyone did so much, so this is to each and everyone of you who helped make our grief a little easier to bear. You will never know until you go through a similar experience, how very much it means.

Some of our out-of-town relatives remarked that they could see now why we liked to live here and wouldn't want to live anywhere else.

It's very true, it's the best place with the best people in the world.

Thanks again to each and everyone of you from the very depths of our hearts. We will never forget and may God bless and keep you all.

Very Sincerely,

Dean, Helen and Dennis Meyer
Russell and Clara Chapman

Is This A Good Advertisement?

If your advertising could be printed in a special kind of invisible ink that became visible between 5:00 and 5:01 Tuesday and then disappeared, the chances are you wouldn't think such an ad was worth much. You'd only reach a small fraction of the total newspaper's audience—those who happened to be reading the newspaper Tuesday afternoon at precisely the time your ad appeared, and who in fact happened to be turned to the page your ad was on at that precise moment.

And yet this is what happens to advertising in media other than newspapers. A survey showed that 75 per cent of all shoppers check the newspaper ads before making their main shopping trip.

Newspaper messages are available at the convenience of the customer. He doesn't have to be at a certain place at a particular time of day or night to get the message.

Perhaps equally important—he looks at newspaper advertising because he wants to. It is never an unwanted interruption.

VACATION IN MINNESOTA

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Utter, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Whetstone, Cindy, Peggy, and John, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sarber, Luanna and Diana spent last week in Hackensack, Minnesota. The weather and fishing were good. The Uters and Whetstones returned Sunday evening but the Sarbers took a few days longer for sight-seeing. Allen and Todd Utter stayed with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Slabaugh at Bourbon, and Greg stayed with the Bob Holloways.

Two Showers Honor Miss Barnhart

Mrs. Jerry Kralis was hostess Tuesday evening at a linen shower in her home for Miss Diane Barnhart. The gift table was decorated with a lovely white wedding bell. Refreshments were served to the following guests: Mesdames Herschel Grubbs, Howard Horn, Fred Mellott, Bob Webster, Jack Pritchard, George Barnhart, Larry Hanes. The Misses: Susie Cole, Connie Teel, Sherry Bryan, Janet Barnhart, Judy Decker, Susie and Cindy Kralis. A gift was sent by Mrs. Leonard Smith, who was unable to attend.

Thursday evening a linen shower was given for Miss Barnhart by Mrs. Gene Brown at the home of Mrs. Everett Warren in Burket. An umbrella decorated in gay colored crepe paper and lily of the valley centered the gift table. The theme was repeated in the refreshments with gay umbrellas on individual pieces of cake. Those present were the Mesdames: Hollis Nine, John Huff and daughter, Gene Brown, Everett Brown, Russell Long, Chick Hani, Clifford Warren, Virgil Haupt, Everett Montel and daughters, Garland Kiefer, Jack Hartman and sons, Guy Baker, Tom Warren, Everett Warren, John Erwin, George Barnhart, and Miss Janet Barnhart. Gifts were sent by Mrs. Forest Miner, Mrs. Dale Dinneen, and Helen Kinnard.

Halfway House Aids Residents

Evansville, Ind.—Collage-type living is the new vogue at Evansville State Hospital for patients making an active move back into the community.

Known simply as "Halfway House" apartments, the arrangement is unique in that it calls for the only hospital-operated halfway house in the state.

Patients, or residents as they are called, have their own apartment beds and may come and go and do as they please. Their only check is a housemother. At any time during the day or night, they are privileged to pick up the telephone and call one of the hospital psychiatrists.

The average length of stay since Halfway House was opened a year ago in a re-decorated building, is turning out to be about a year. Of the original nine residents, three are getting ready to move off campus.

Most have jobs, some go to school, some do both. Few have families to support them financially or emotionally.

One is an orphaned high schooler with a long record of hospitalization. Since his stay in Halfway House, he has gone from a "D" student to a "B-plus" student.

Another is a highly intelligent college student who is working part-time and completing his sophomore year of school. He had been in and out of state mental hospitals since youth.

A young mother, separated from her son, can now visit him frequently, through the cooperation of the Department of Public Welfare which has placed the boy in a foster home.

"Halfway House is less expensive for the hospital than the regular treatment programs," says Adam Lathom, supervisor of the project. "Much of the equipment has been donated and residents give the hospital a percentage of their income as soon as they are able."

The social worker predicts that the days of the chronic patient are finally behind mental hospitals.

"With today's philosophies of treatment, self-help, self responsibility and resocialization—the backbone of Halfway House—hospitals will gradually work themselves out of the chronic patient," Lathom says.

Today's average length of stay for new admissions at Evansville is about 11 weeks.

Notes From Your County Agent

PURDUE BUILDING at the State Fair will feature: conservation, the Peace Corps, farm safety, civil defense and many others in nineteen Purdue exhibits when this popular building opens its doors the first day of the 1965 Indiana State Fair, August 28.

Summarized below are a few of the exhibits highlighted in this year's Purdue displays.

AGRICULTURE DEPT.

THEME: Big Shoes to Fill in Agriculture

This display covers eight areas of agricultural training, emphasizing the fact that most future agricultural job opportunity can only be filled by college-trained people.

HOME ECONOMICS DEPT.

THEME: Effective Kitchen Planning and Management

This display illustrates how to minimize a housewife's efforts in the kitchen. The actual display shows two well-planned kitchens, one where expense has been limited to $1,000, and one where the planning budget is unlimited.

FARM SAFETY

THEME: Safety in Any Language

This display is centered around a few automobiles emblem that can be attached to the back of any moving vehicle which is restricted to 25 mph or less (i.e. tractor). The symbol is large enough for immediate identification and will glow at night, when a car's headlights hit it. The emblem communicates a definite farm hazard and, it is helped, will prevent rear end collisions.

SOIL AND WATER

CONSERVATION

THEME: Effective Community Planning

Three large murals depict the effect of community planning over a 20-year period - 1955, 1965, and 1975. These murals will illustrate improvement in water and sewage treatment, wind breaks, soil erosion, community development and expansion, beautification and or elimination of city dumps, etc.

VETERINARY MEDICINE

THEME: Animal Obstetrics

This display will center about animal obstetrics, with emphasis on Caesarian deliveries for farm animals. Supplementary material will include a continuous movie plus pictures and farm animals.

TURF EXHIBIT

THEME: "How Yer Lawn."

This display will show different types of grasses and will be manned by experts who will give advice to lawn-conscious fairgoers.

AGRONOMY

THEME: Weather Tips and Forecasting

This display features weather information in conjunction with rural and urban problems. Displays of weather maps and instruments will be featured including pictures of the Palm Sunday tornado.

4-H

THEME: Adolescent Social Problems

This display features a mock-up of an IBM computer being fed representative problems of teen-agers. Results of the computer demonstrate how 4-H activities meet these problems.

There will be 4-H demonstration by 4-H'ers either every hour or every other exhibits will be in the fields of animal science, forestry, agricultural engineering, entomology, botany, and plant pathology, and horticulture, plus displays on Purdue admissions, and extension center, civil defense, and Purdue athletics.
