PUBLIC MEETING
ON WATER NEEDS

There will be a special public meeting at the Mentone town hall on Monday evening, Dec. 7, for the purpose of discussing the present and future needs of our water department. A representative of the Clyde Williams & Associates engineering firm will be present to tell us of his findings on a recent survey.

The survey is being made to attempt to evaluate our needs for more adequate water supplies and distribution. One of the thoughts is that perhaps a water tower for extra water would be an asset. The opinions of the citizens is desired and your attendance will be appreciated by the officials.

Vaccinate Hogs For Cholera

A recent epidemic of hog cholera in northwestern Iowa and western Illinois points out that such an outbreak could appear next in Indiana swine, says Dr. T. M. Curtin, Purdue University extension veterinarian.

Several times the disease appeared to be checked, only to break out in an adjacent area. However, it appears to have been stopped before reaching Indiana.

Many Indiana farmers failed to vaccinate their herds recently because hog cholera losses have not been serious. As a result, the state now has a large population of susceptible swine in which the disease could gain a foothold.

Veterinarians estimate that less than 35 per cent of Indiana's swine has protection. Control on an area or sectional basis requires more than 60 per cent immunization.

Dr. Curtin urges hog raisers to protect their herds against cholera. Only vaccination can prevent this disease, he emphasizes.

Those home for the Thanksgiving holiday were: Janet Law, Mary Jo Vandermark, Marilyn Horn, Keith Besson, and Bruce Sullivan from the David Lipscomb college, Nashville, Tennessee.

LIBRARIAN'S ANNUAL REPORT

Because patrons have asked questions about the organization and administration of the library, in this last month of the year I am submitting to the public this report of the operations of the Mentone Public Library.

The library serves and is supported by the towns of Mentone and Etna Green, and by Harrison, Franklin and Etna townships. In addition, at the present time the library is giving limited contract service to the Burket school and Franklin school.

The library is governed by a board of five members who serve without pay. Three members are appointed by the judge and two by the town board, each for a term of four years.

The library board must pass on the yearly budget, approve all bills, and sign vouchers for all money paid out. In addition, the board hires a librarian and decides all matters of library policy.

The librarian is required to have two years of college training, an additional semester of library science and a librarian's certificate issued by the State of Indiana.

Although the budget is published each year, it is not itemized. I here submit an itemized statement of the library budget for 1960 which was passed by the library board, approved by the State Board of Tax Commissioners, is on file at the library and may be examined by any taxpayer as required by law.

Salaries: Librarian $130 per month, assistants $96 per month which is divided among the assistants according to the time worked by each at an hourly rate of 75c per hour. Allowance for janitorial work $200 per year.

Trial fuel allowance to be adjusted when the actual expense of firing the new furnace is known, $400 per year.

Allowance for lights $100 and water $17 per year. Telephone $100 per year.

Advertising budgets $75 and insurance $53 per year. Transportation of books $10 per month.

Retirement fund $100 and miscellaneous expense $100 per year. Repairs and equipment $200, supplies $200 and books and magazines $1800 per year.

The operation of the library is under the supervision of the State Library. The budget each year must be published and approved by the State Board of Tax Commissioners. The financial records of the library are examined regularly by a representative of the State Board of Accounts and all expenses for each year must come within the amounts published in the yearly budget.

HOSTESS TO WAR MOTHERS

Mrs. Sadie Ellsworth was hostess to the Mothers of World War II, Mentone Unit 106, Nov. 9. Edith Young, president, opened the meeting by the presentation of the flag, giving the pledge to the flag, singing one verse of the "Star Spangled Banner" and prayer by the chaplain, Emma Cook. Twelve members answered roll call. The secretary's report was read; also the treasurer's report. Communications were read and placed on file.

Maude Romine, Dora Norris and Blanche Whitmyre were appointed on the nominating committee.

We were to meet on Thursday evening with Dora Whetstone to pack Christmas boxes for the boys overseas, the articles to be purchased by Edith Young and Dora Whetstone.

Several reservations were voted for the district meeting to be held on Friday at Akron. Several members paid on their project and birthday donations were given.

The annual Christmas meeting will be held at the home of Edith Young, with a six o'clock pot luck dinner and Christmas exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cumberland.

Magic With Leftovers

There are few more delightful displays of the art of sleight of hand than the one the American housewife performs with leftovers. Whether it's done, for example, with the remainder of the Thanksgiving turkey or the Sunday roast, the result is a new, tasty, nourishing meal set before the family.

That's OUR happy story. But for two-thirds of the people of the earth, just getting enough to eat is a trick they can never pull off.

There's hunger, disease, despair.

And that's where another feat of American magic comes in. It's done with the super-plenty of America's farms.

After all relief needs are met in our own country, CARE is given milk powder, flour, and corn meal by the government, purchases rice, beans, margarine and meat, and for each $1 contributed sends a package of life-giving food to the needy in 15 countries of Europe, Asia, Latin America and the Middle East.

Your donation to the CARE Food Crusade, Chicago 3, Ill., delivers help to the hungry in your name, bringing a message of hope and friendship from you and your country.

(In times past, many Mentone citizens have received letters from needy and appreciative recipients of CARE packages in foreign countries. Wouldn't you like to get a few of those letters? Send a contribution to CARE and see what happens.)

Storage Of Farm Machinery

Changes in the weather are as hard on farm machinery as the work it does.

Different moisture and temperature levels during "off season" storage leave moisture deposits in bearings, fuel tanks, and on crop or soil working parts of machines. This moisture causes rust and shortens the life of bearings and moving parts.

C. L. Hill, Purdue University agricultural engineer, says most Indiana farmers recognize this problem. Many of them use plastic sheets to combat the harmful effects of weather. The sheets need not be new—they can be used plastic from last season's bunker silo, corn crib or hay stack.

Use of this plastic as a moisture barrier makes good sense, says Hill. And so does its use to cover machinery inside a shed.

Farmers should read and heed instructions of the manufacturer of an engine to be stored unused over the winter.

Diesel tractors in particular require special procedures to protect their injection systems.

A practice which can pay dividends in dollars and tempers is blocking up implements to relieve the load on rubber tires. Care given tires can mean savings in time and money over a period of years.

Rust remains the biggest enemy of soil working parts on discs, plows and planters. Rust pits the steel surface, leaving craters in which wear can easily start. Frequent applications of grease or a single application of available rust preventative compounds can prevent rust.

PLACES HIGH AT INTERNATIONAL

Latimer & Son made a fine record at the International Livestock Show with their exhibits of Shropshire sheep. They won four of the six top awards and placed in several other positions to come away with the best overall record of any competitor in the show and class.

They came out first place in the ram lamb class, under one year; ewe lamb class, under one year; pen of 3 ewe lambs and flock class. They also had the champion ram, and reserve champion ewe.

They also placed 3rd and 5th in the ewe lamb class and 4th in the pen of 3 yearlings.

The Latimers were competing against the best of the United States and Canada, which included some sheep that won over all breeds recently in Canada.

LIONS LADIES' NIGHT DEC. 16

Next Wednesday evening the Mentone Lions Club will hold their annual ladies' night program at the Mentone school.

The meeting will start at 6:30 with a delicious dinner, after which there will be a program of entertainment. The entertainment committee announces that Capt. Jay Moore of the Bunker Hill Air Force Base will be present and show pictures on supersonic flight.

TRADES PLANES

Members of the Mentone Flying Club were given quite a "shot in the arm" Friday night when Dr. Dan Urschel had a Beechcraft Bonanza airplane hanged where he usually kept his Tripacer. Dr. and Mrs. Urschel had been in Dallas, Texas for a meeting and Dan seemingly encountered the "plane he had been looking for." The trip home was made in four hours and 40 minutes.

One more issue for advertising and then our Christmas greeting issue Dec. 23.

CONTRACT FOR WATER SURVEY

The Mentone Town Board, following a public meeting at the town hall last Monday evening, entered into an agreement with the engineering firm of Clyde Williams & Associates of South Bend to make a preliminary survey of the Mentone water system. The engineers will evaluate all the facts and conditions now present, and then proceed to determine not only the present but future needs of the town system.

The cost of the survey is to be $700 and the water company is under no obligation to retain the firm as engineers should any future construction be made.

The town hall was filled to capacity at the meeting Monday night. A group of citizens was present and they unanimously endorsed the proposal to hire the engineering firm to make the survey.

The primary need of the system today, it appears, is larger trunk lines to bring sufficient flow of water to some of the outlying areas of the town. The matter of an elevated tower for additional supply of water for emergency use was discussed, but all these facts will be determined by the survey.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS OF ADDITIONAL APPROPRIATIONS

Notice is hereby given the taxpayers of Harrison, Franklin and Etna Townships, Etna Green and Mentone, Kosciusko County, Indiana, that the proper legal officers of the Mentone Library at their regular meeting place on the 17th day of December, 1959, will consider the following additional appropriation which said officers consider necessary to meet the extraordinary emergency existing at this time.

That said emergency exists by reason of the fact that the Bell Memorial Fund is not sufficient in itself to complete payments for the construction and equipment of the new Bell Memorial Library building. To complete these payments, the proper legal officers of the Mentone Public Library will consider the appropriation of the sum of money received from the old Library Building as follows:

ADJUST FOR WINTER HAZARDS

Disregard for nature's traffic laws may be more deadly than a violation of man-made laws, says F. R. Willsey, Purdue University farm safety specialist. This is especially true when nature's wintertime laws are in force.

Most accidents do not occur during heavy snowfalls when traffic is slowed almost to a standstill and many persons stay at home, he adds. Such things as slush, light freezing drizzle, isolated slick spots, muddy spray on the windshield and fogged windows are likely to lead to a rash of accidents.

Even on dry roads it pays to know and obey the natural laws that apply to safe driving. When special winter hazards are involved, stopping distances increase and visibility often decreases.

Willsey says much of the problem could be solved if we would adjust our speed to the conditions. Pumping the brakes when attempting to stop on snow, ice or wet pavement helps, as does turning the front wheels in the direction of the skid when the car starts to slide sideways.

People going from heavily traveled highways where snow and ice have been worn away must adjust when they reach country roads that often remain slick much longer.

Winterize your driving to fit nature's driving laws, Willsey advises.

PLAN BOOK ON HOG EQUIPMENT

A new book containing more than 60 plans for swine equipment has been published by the Midwest Plan Service, according to Purdue University agricultural engineers.
The 56-page book grew out of the increasing need of Midwestern farmers for holding crates, farrowing stalls, portable feeders, equipment for floor heating, and other special equipment to provide increased efficiency in the rapidly changing hog business.
The Midwest Plan Service is a non-profit activity of 13 cooperating land grant colleges and universities, including Purdue. Sale of plans pays for the service. The Midwest Plan Service

AFRICAN QUARTET AT MISHAWAKA

The Ambassadors Quartet from Southern Rhodesia, Africa, will be presenting a program to the youth and adults of the Warsaw District of the Methodist Church in a united rally in the First Methodist Church, Mishawaka, Monday evening, December 14th at 7:30 D. S. T.

None of the Ambassadors sings professionally, and all are taking a leave of absence from their jobs or studies in order to make this trip to America. During their musical program, the quartet will wear the garb of witch-doctors and the animal skin garments which the villagers like to wear on festive and ceremonial occasions. They will demonstrate the use of African drums and will have a variety of musical instruments. The African folk songs, lullabies, hymns and chants to be sung will be new to most of their American audiences.

The quartet arrived in the United States June 29, having spent the previous two months touring Methodist churches in Central Europe and Scandinavia. Their itinerary includes appearances in 29 states before their performance before Methodism's General Conference in Denver, Colorado in April of 1960.

RICHARD CLARK MARRIED SUNDAY

Double ring rites in St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Monroeville, united Miss Carole Sprague and Richard Clark in marriage Sunday afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sprague, near Monroeville. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Clark of Mentone.

The Rev. M. D. Kilver conducted the vows before an altar decorated with flowers. White bows and holly decorated the pews. Music was by organist Mrs. Ethel Krick and Gene Brown, vocal soloist.

A princess gown of taffeta and Chantilly lace was worn by the bride. It was styled with Empire bodice, scalloped scoop neckline and long, tapered sleeves. The full skirt was highlighted by a back panel of lace with taffeta bow and streamers. It ended in a chapel length train. Her waist-length veil fell from a tulle loop crown. She carried a bouquet of red poinsettias with lily-of-the-valley and white ribbon.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Chas. Nord, was matron of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were the Misses Linda Koehlinger and Guyla Teague. Miss Virginia Sprague, another sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. The attendants wore street length dresses of red velvet with long waistlines, scoop necklines and brief sleeves. The skirts, with tiny unpressed pleats, featured deep hems. They wore white feather half-hats and carried white poinsettias.

Robert Haynes of Fort Wayne was best man. Serving as ushers were Gary Miller of Mentone; William Clark of Warsaw, the bridegroom's brother; Frank Manwaring of Mentone; Bill Bennett of Highland, and the bride's brother, David Sprague of Monroeville.

A reception in the church basement followed the ceremony. Serving were Mrs. Jerry Dager, Mrs. Richard Schumann, Mrs. John Meyer, Mrs. William Clark, Mrs. Harold Klien and the Misses Deloris Lepper and Marjorie Bultiemeyer.

For their wedding trip the bride wore a gray suit with black accessories. When they return they will make their home in Lafayette.

Those in attendance from Mentone in addition to the parents of the groom, were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Arnsberger, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Riner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Livengood and family, Mrs. Frances Carter.

DECEMBER READING CLUB MEETING

The December meeting of the Mentone Reading Club was held at the home of Mrs. Arley Culum on Wednesday evening, December 2. Mrs. Vance Johns was assisting hostess.

For devotions Mrs. Don Wentzel read a descriptive Christmas poem, recalling the Yule holidays as they have been celebrated during the past generations.

Following the business meeting the ladies sang several Christmas carols with Mrs. Don Ruth accompanying.

Mrs. F. B. Davison gave the traditions which are related to many of our Christmas customs, such as the Bayberry candles, Advent wreath, holly, mistletoe, Christmas tree, etc. She had a small Christmas tree decorated with such old-fashioned items as strings of popcorn and cranberries, candles, cookies, and a gold foil star. There was one group of glass Christmas tree ornaments which had been in her family for 45 years. Mrs. Davison stated that just as she had given some of her own personal Christmas traditions, each one probably had rituals which were a part of their own family keeping of Christmas.

Mrs. Walter Lackey then gave a reading, "With Bells On," the story of a Pennsylvania Dutch family of many years ago and a segment of their frugal but happy lives at the time of Christmas.

A social hour followed. The January meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Harold Nelson on Wednesday evening.

SONIC BOOM IS EXPLAINED

Captain Moore of the Bunker Hill Air Force Base, was the guest speaker at the Mentone Lions Club ladies' night program held at the Mentone school Wednesday evening. He showed a number of slides to illustrate his lecture on the sonic boom, what it was, why it could not be avoided, yet he gave every assurance that the flyers are doing everything possible to protect the public from any damaging sound vibrations.

Capt. Moore, in discussing some of the planes today, had no hesitancy in stating that we have planes that travel two to three times the speed of sound, even one that will break the sound barrier going straight up.

There was a large number of Lions, ladies and other invited guests present to enjoy the delicious banquet dinner and the program. Lewis Pulling, president of the club, presided.

FIGHT AGAINST
FILTH CONTINUES

Much concern is being shown about the mail-order shipment of obscene and filthy magazines to young people. Our own community is no exception.

If your child receives any such magazines which shows obscene photographs, vile, vicious and filthy reading material, save the mailing envelope and take it to your postmaster, and file your objections.

It is only as you parents get up-in-arms that this evil practice can be defeated. It is no disgrace that your child has received such material. His name has been put on their mailing list entirely unknown to him, and your child is one of many hundreds of thousands who are victims.

Postmaster General Arthur Sumerfield has asked for support from members of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and their help in recruiting the aid of parents in this vital matter. In 1959 70,000 protests were filed with the postal department and there were 315 arrests. In New York they found a mailing list of 100,000 names of students and confiscated 15 tons of printed material.

Remember, your postmaster can do nothing in this matter until you bring the matter to his attention.

Check your child's reading material, at home or elsewhere.

Kos. Co. Conservation Needs

The Kosciusko County Conservation Needs Committee completed the inventory for this county at the third meeting held at the First National Bank, Monday, November 30th, reports Robert C. Martin, chairman of the committee. The fifteen members present made estimates as to the number of acres in the county that need treatment to prevent further soil deterioration. These estimates were made for cropland, pasture land, woodland, and other land.

In a previous meeting, estimates were made as to major land use changes that will take place in the county between 1959 and 1975.

Figures for this inventory were obtained by making a physical soil survey of two percent of the county. The 160 tracts that were surveyed were scattered over the entire county to give a representative sample. The information was then projected to give acreage figures for the entire county.

The committee arrived at the following conclusions in comparing 1959 figures with 1975 estimates. Cropland will decrease from 251,000 acres to 236,000. Pasture land will decrease from 17,000 in 1959 to 15,000 acres in 1975. Woodland will decrease from 34,000 acres to 20,000 acres. Other land—which is land in farmsteads, idle areas, and rural housing developments—will increase from 18,000 to 19,000 acres. About 30,000 acres will go out of the above mentioned categories and into housing developments, industrial sites, roads, and recreational areas.

Of the 236,000 cropland acreage it was estimated that 80,000 needed treatment—either drainage or erosion control. The local inventory was made as a part of the State and National Conservation Needs Inventory carried out by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Members who assisted with the inventory from the County Agent's Office were Don Frantz, Frank Miller and Jack Hart. Soil Conservation District Supervisors, Howard Silveus, Gordon Tuttle, Bob Norris and Leland Kinsey; County Commissioners: Millard Stookey, Dale Sponseller, Raymond Lash and Ray Nine, County Highway Superintendent. Also assisting were Eddie Creighton, Maynard Johnston, Woody Koher, Delford Nelson, Ray Ferverda, Bill Stinger, and C. O. Mollenhour. From the State Department of Conservation assistance was received from Jim McCall, Tri-Co. Fish and Game Area; J. M. McAllister, District Forester; Mike Paterson, Wildlife Representative and Bill Davis, local conservation officer. Other representatives assisting with the inventory were Lloyd Felkner, of Grange; Sam Knoop, Farm Bureau; Vic Hillery and Charles Rose, ASC Committee; Lucille Weaver, ASC Office Manager, and Neal Carlson, First National Bank. The Soil Conservation Service personnel that assisted were Sam Lehman and Robert C. Martin.

A LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Observations of a Citizen:
A thing I have seen many times by two different state highway crews, the latest time on Thanksgiving morning: a state highway truck going down the highway with the snow plow down and accomplishing only one thing - tearing up the pavement and wearing out the blade on the snow plow. The main thing was there was no more snow on the pavement than in the middle of the summer. I wonder who is being fooled.

A Former Highway Worker.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Romine and Janet has as their guest over the week end, a cousin, Emmett Smith from Clarks, South Dakota.

Switches To Corn That Feeds Further

SAYBROOK, ILLINOIS — After several years of raising different kinds of corn, Stanley Holsclaw has all of his acreage in one brand this season.

Holsclaw planted all Moews because his Big "M" varieties didn't stalk break last fall when his other corn was so dry it was hard to pick. But before making his decision to switch entirely to Big "M" varieties, Stanley made additional comparisons.

"The Moews Giant Ears shelled out more corn than the other kinds," he reports. "Then I found that Moews corn makes a better feed corn. My cattle did good on it. They were never off feed and it seems to take less of the big-kernel, mellow-starch Moews grain to do the job of feeding."

FEEDERS' FAVORITE Big "M" varieties are pictured in full color, in new Moews Catalog-Broadside. Ask your MOEWS MAN for your copy and recommended feeding corns for your area.

For more corn on less acres in 1960 plant MOEWS HYBRIDS. Ask the men who grow it. See one of these dealers for Corn, Alfalfa and Clover Seeds—

PALESTINE HOME-MAKERS MEET

The regular meeting of the Palestine Homemakers Club was held recently at the home of Mrs. Jesse Jones. The home was beautifully decorated in keeping with the season.

A pretty Christmas cake, baked and decorated by Geraldine Perry, centered the dining room table where a bountiful potluck dinner was served. After all present had enjoyed the meal and social time, they adjourned to the living room around the beautifully decorated Christmas tree. A short business meeting was held, then the gift exchange and the revealing of our secret sisters.

Members and guests present enjoying the day so much were: Mrs. Edwin Shirey, Mrs. George Hipsher, Mrs. Charles Baum, Mrs. Mont Lohrer, Mrs. Albert Tucker, Mrs. Gordon Hackworth, Mrs. Wilbur Perry, the hostess, Mrs. Jones. The guests were Mrs. Bob Smith of Mentone, her mother, Mrs. Cooper of Tippecanoe, Mrs. Isaac Horn of Warsaw, and one child, Debbie Hackworth.

The 1960 state grain and seed show and junior corn and soybean show will be held January 25-29 at Purdue University's Memorial Center in West Lafayette.

HOUSEWIVES ASSURED CHICKEN SAFE

Action taken Friday by the drug, poultry and retail food industries has assured the nation's consumers they can continue to purchase chicken with full confidence it is safe and wholesome.

This statement by Lloyd H. Geil, General Manager of the Poultry and Egg National Board of Chicago, followed on the heels of the announcement by Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, Arthur S. Fleming, that firms manufacturing and using Diethylstilbestrol (stilbestrol) had agreed voluntarily to terminate the use of the drug.

Better than ninety-nine percent of the dressed poultry during its growing period has never been treated with stilbestrol, Geil stated. The other less than one percent treated with the drug can be identified by the retailer who has agreed to remove it from the meat counters for sale to the U. S. Department of Agriculture to provide relief to the poultry producers and handlers for the difficult inventory position in which they suddenly find themselves.

Geil stated the Food and Drug Administration had found traces of residue only in the skin, liver and kidneys, but no evidence of residue in white and dark meat.

These extraordinary steps are being taken to provide the consumers with every possible precaution and to remove any uncertainty which might otherwise exist if the less than one percent of poultry produced, which has been treated with stilbestrol, were allowed to remain in the retail markets.

With the diversion program announced by the USDA and other action being taken, consumers can continue to buy poultry with complete confidence that it is safe and wholesome.

Good management practices in dairy husbandry provide separation of dry cows and heifers from the milking herd, assert Purdue University dairy scientists.

NOTICE OF CLOSING

The Mentone Lumber Co. will be closed all day Friday and Saturday, Dec. 25-26 for Christmas.

Also, we will be closed Friday and Saturday, Jan. 1 and 2, for New Years.

All newly purchased breeding animals should be isolated for at least 30 days before turning them into the herd, according to Purdue University veterinarians. They recommend retesting for brucellosis and leptospirosis at the end of the 30-day isolation period.

A new definition of a farm is being applied in the 1959 Census of Agriculture now being taken. A farm must have 10 or more acres with agricultural sales of $50 or more a year. Or, if it is less than 10 acres it must have minimum sales of $250 a year.

Dairy cows prefer warm drinking water during the winter, Purdue University dairy scientists point out. Drinking water for dairy animals should be kept above the freezing point.

CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR NEWCASTLE LIONS

The Newcastle township Lions Club and their families of Talma will hold their annual Christmas party with a carry-in supper on Monday evening, Dec. 21 at 6:30 in the old Talma gym. Santa Claus will come later in the evening with treats for the children.

Keep broiler house litter dry and loose even though the necessary ventilation means higher fuel bills, advise Purdue University poultry scientists. Wet litter is conducive to development of breast blisters.

Schools Face Revolutionary Changes

(As Printed in the Indianapolis Star)

By David G. Watson

More than two-thirds of Indiana's nearly 1,000 public school systems are scheduled for oblivion.

They will go within the next decade, and more likely within the next four years, one of the state's key education researchers estimates.

Most authorities agree that it will be the most revolutionary development in school administration in the last 100 years. They also regard it as one of the most desirable.

The Indiana General Assembly agrees. Early this year it passed the law which made the revolution possible. It is called the School Corporation Reorganization Act.

With this tool provided by the legislature, weak school systems may be merged with the strong, the rich with the poor, and the districts may be better divided and arranged for the convenience of pupils, their teachers and those who foot the bills—the taxpayers.

As envisioned by leaders in education, small high schools should be able to broaden courses of study; teachers concentrate on subjects for which they are trained, and new schools should be easier to pay for.

"There is considerable resistance to the proposition of reorganizing school corporations," said David D. Davis, Chairman of the State Commission. "There are many factors which contribute to this resistance."

"In some communities the attitude boils down to this: 'I went to school here; my parents went to school here; we have done well and there is no reason why our children should not do as well as we have.'"

In some districts parents oppose a merged school system because they might lose a school band; a basketball team might lose its identity; a rich community might balk at sharing its wealth with a poor neighbor.

Some communities exist only because they have grown up around a school. People in them fear consolidation as the first step in a decline through loss of identity with the school.

These differences are minor only to those not faced with the task of resolving them.

When the state's Constitution was adopted in 1816, the need was for schools in settled areas and within walking distance for the pupils.

As a result, the area school system was established and the management of schools set up on the basis of attendance districts. Supervision was vested in district trustees.

The system was not mandatory. It was not invoked in many sections of the state and thousands of children were left without a chance for schooling.

There was no change until 1852, following adoption of the second Constitution in 1851. With a constitution mandate to provide a uniform system of public schools available to all, state authorities abolished the district system as an administrative unit and replaced it with the township unit. Cities and towns also were being authorized to set up schools independent of the townships.

Township school boards operated the township schools for seven years, but in 1859 the powers of the boards were shifted to civil township trustees.

In the following 100 years the Legislature passed a few laws allowing consolidations and creation of township school boards. But the law passed this year is the first to provide for a systematic, comprehensive reorganization of all school administration.

It means the finish for township trustees as one-man operators of school systems.

Friendly Neighbors Christmas Party

The Friendly Neighbors Home Demonstration Club held their annual Christmas party December 10 at the home of Ellener Manwaring.

After partaking of a delicious dinner the meeting was opened by the president, Ottie Walburn. All joined in singing "America the Beautiful."

A letter from Stella Studebaker, a member vacationing in Florida was read by Ottie. The meditation was given by Helen McGinnis reading the Christmas story from Luke, and a poem "Recipe for Christmas."

In a little play directed by Frances Olson eight members presented the true meaning of the Club's collect in action.

Mary Welch then welcomed and introduced Dorothy Christian and Janet Romine. The girls entertained by showing slides of their trip to Hawaii during the summer. The scenery was beautiful and the ladies all "enjoyed the trip."

The new officers for the coming year were installed by Fern Beeson.

Roll call was answered with each trying to guess her secret pal.

"With the sound of Christmas carols

Unusual Program At Talma Church

The Christmas program last Sunday night at the Talma Christian church was unusual in the fact that the participants were seated in the pews!

Kodachrome slides were previously taken of the Junior and Intermediate classes portraying the Biblical characters. The Young People's class, reading the narration, and the adult choir numbers were recorded on tape. A complete series was arranged to correspond with the slides.

Climaxing the Christmas story and the full meaning of this season, Sallman's head of Christ lighted the screen. The final recording of "Gloria in Excelsis" filled the sanctuary, after which the benediction was offered and treats were given to the children.

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICES:

October Hog Slaughter Record

The October commercial slaughter of hogs in Indiana was the largest since slaughter records began in 1947, state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University report. And the liveweight of these hogs also set a record.

The statisticians estimate 452,000 hogs were killed in October. Their liveweight totaled 108,028,000 pounds, eight percent more than the September total and 12 percent above that of October, 1958.

Liveweight of all commercially slaughtered livestock during October totaled 163,416,000 lbs., five percent higher than September and four percent above October. Their liveweight totaled Liveweight of the 52,000 cattle killed was 52,052,000 lbs., one percent below the September total and seven percent below October, 1958. The 7,000 calves killed had a total liveweight of 1,498,000 pounds, 8 percent below September and 49 percent below October of last year.

The 20,200 sheep and lambs slaughtered had a total liveweight of 1,838,000 pounds, 18 percent higher than September and 15 percent more than the October, 1958, total.

Commercial slaughter includes that of packing plants and local butchers, but excludes farm slaughter. Totals indicate the marketings of livestock by farmers and the availability of meat.

National October production of red meat in commercial plants totaled 2,403 million lbs., seven percent above September output and four percent higher than production in October, 1958.

210 Bushels Corn Per Acre

J. Herbert Roadruck, White county farmer living near Brookston, last week became the first five-time winner of the senior division of the Indiana Five-acre Corn Growing contest with a 1959 official yield of 210 bushels an acre.

Roadruck's previous championships came in 1957, 1953, 1951 and 1950.

The 1958 winner was Karl Moser, Montgomery county, who had a yield of 226 bushels an acre.

The contest is sponsored by the Purdue University agricultural extension service and the Indiana Crop Improvement Association. Nearly 3,800 farmers participated in the 1959 contest, according to Gilbert P. Walker, Purdue extension agronomist.

Indiana's record corn crop this year averaged an estimated 64 bushels an acre.

Roadruck's 210-bushel yield gave him his seventh membership in the exclusive "200 Bushel club," according to Walker. Total membership in the club is now 21.

The remainder of the "high ten" are Robert Hopf, Dubois county, 194 bushels; Harold Milburn, Benton co., 193; Wayne, Milburn, Benton county, 192;

Desco Newton, Daviess county, 192; Gwen Rudolph, Pike county, 191; Harry McKowen, Madison county, 190; Maurice Bossick, Clay county, 186; Melvin Peters, Jackson county, 185; and W. R. Orr, Tipton county, 185.

Roadruck's winning yield was grown on a Brookston silt loam field, planted to corn the fifth consecutive year.

The field was plowed last November after an application of 300 pounds 45 percent urea, 400 pounds 47 percent superphosphate and 400 pounds of 60 percent muriate of potash per acre. It was disced and harrowed twice.

Corn was drilled May 21 in 40-inch rows with grains seven inches apart, making a population of about 23,000 plants per acre. It was side dressed with 230 pounds of nitrogen in anhydrous ammonia per acre.

At planting time the corn was sprayed for weed control. It was cultivated once with a rotary hoe and twice with a cultivator. For insect control it was sprayed with a five percent DDT.

Of the contest, Walker observed that "there were fewer very high yields this year than in 1958 as a result of moisture deficiency in some areas and extensive leaf blight damage in the southern half of the state."

ADVERTISE! IT PAYS!

Corn Prices May Advance

A Purdue University agricultural economist says corn prices may rise slightly in the next few months. And, he says, if corn is in good storage don't sell in the near future.

W. S. Farris points out that prices likely will advance enough to justify holding corn now in storage. The November 15 average price for corn in Indiana was 97 cents a bushel. In the coming months the price is likely to average around five to ten cents a bushel below last year's price level; for example, the February, 1959 price was $1.06.

The 1959 corn crop in the nation and Indiana is the largest in history. The United States total is in excess of 4.4 billion bushels; the Indiana crop is nearly 350 million bushels. In addition the carry over of 1958 stocks is nearly 2 billion bushels.

The economist explains that in addition to corn, total supplies of other feed grains (oats, barley and sorghum) and con-corn will be fed to livestock. concentrates stand at record levels, processed into other products and exported. This leaves 500 to 600 million bushels to be added to the present stockpile.

Switches To Corn That Feeds Further

SAYBROOK, ILLINOIS — After several years of raising different kinds of corn, Stanley Holsclaw has all of his acreage in one brand this season.

Holsclaw planted all Moews because his Big "M" varieties didn't stalk break last fall when his other corn was so dry it was hard to pick. But before making his decision to switch entirely to Big "M" varieties, Stanley made additional comparisons.

"The Moews Giant Ears shelled out more corn than the other kinds," he reports. "Then I found that Moews corn makes a better feed corn. My cattle did good on it. They were never off feed and it seems to take less of the big-kernel, mellow-starch Moews grain to do the job of feeding."

FEEDERS' FAVORITE Big "M" varieties are pictured in full color, in new Moews Catalog-Broadside. Ask your MOEWS MAN for your copy and recommended feeding corns for your area.

For more corn on less acres in 1960 plant MOEWS HYBRIDS. Ask the men who grow it. See one of these dealers for Corn, Alfalfa and Clover Seeds—

GREETINGS FROM FAR-AWAY JAPAN

QM Subsistence Supply Div.
U. S. Army Japan Depot Comp.
APO 343, San Francisco, Calif.

Greetings for Christmas 1959:

Some of you will be surprised at the above address. Others know that I left Indianapolis for Japan on October 10, 1959. I was transferred from the Army Hospital at Fort Benjamin Harrison to the Subsistence Supply Division of Quartermaster in Japan.

Miss Beulah Murphy, a librarian going to Korea, and I traveled together all the way from Indiana to Japan. We came by train to San Francisco and by Military Air Transport across the Pacific Ocean with brief stops at Hickman Field in Hawaii and Wake Island. We arrived at Tachikawa Air Base in Japan on October 16, 1959.

My chief duty here is to write the menus for the Armed Forces in Japan and Korea. The two sergeants and three Japanese girls in the office have been very helpful and congenial. The girls speak and understand English very well so we have had no difficulty in communications.

There is a beautiful view from my desk. Trees and shrubs border a green field, which was formerly a parade ground, above these and in the distance are the mountains. Sometimes I almost forget to write menus when I look at this beautiful and restful scene.

I live at Camp Zama, but work at Depot Complex which is nine miles away. Several people from Zama ride the Army bus to Depot Complex. Since the roads are narrow and crowded with pedestrians and many types of vehicles, I am content to ride the Army bus and let the driver be responsible for getting through the traffic.

I had planned to bring my Ford to Japan but was not given enough time before Port Call to drive it to San Francisco. Civilians are permitted to ride in Army and Navy buses. Japanese electric trains run frequently and on time. Since I do not have an automobile I am learning how to get around on buses and trains. It is essential to learn how to pronounce Sobudaimae, the train station near Camp Zama. The first week-end I was here I went to Tokyo to meet Miss Murphy at the Imperial Hotel. On Sunday we toured Kamakura, the temple city. Here we saw the Great Buddha which is 42 feet high and 87 feet around; it was cast from bronze in the 13th century. Last Saturday I went with one of the teachers to Yokosuka via Army bus and electric train. So I am seeing some of this part of Japan even though the Ford is not here to drive.

My house was rented furnished to a couple with a teenage daughter. They signed a two-year lease, the length of the time I shall be in Japan.

June 20, 1959, Mother was moved by ambulance from my house to my brother's home in Urbana, Illinois. At that time it was hoped that Mother would be able to return to my house in September. But Mother's condition became worse, that is more senile and incontinent, so on August 20, 1959, the doctor advised taking her to a nursing home. She is at the Unord Nursing Home, 618 West Church Street, Champaign, Illinois. Most of the time Mother is rational; she would appreciate letters from relatives and friends. If Mother's condition becomes gency leave via Military Air critical I can go home on emergency Transport.

I hope the next two years in Japan will be interesting and pleasant as the past two weeks have been.

Yours sincerely,

BERNICE L. ANDERSON

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Johns and Mr. and Mrs. Artley Cullum enjoyed an oyster supper at the Fred Lemler home Monday evening.

Dr. Rouch to Speak At First Baptist Church

Dr. Jon Rouch will be the speaker at the First Baptist Church of Mentone, at both the 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. services on Sunday, December 27.

Dr. Rouch, his wife, Betty and their four children have recently returned home on a furlough from French Equatorial Africa. Dr. Rouch has been serving as a Medical Missionary in the Ippy Hospital under the auspices of Baptist Mid-Mission. He is the son of Mrs. Caddy Rouch of Mentone, and both he and his wife are members of First Baptist Church. The church has an annual pledge of $1200.00 for their support, and during December raised an additional $500.00 for their furlough expenses.

Dr. Rouch's sermon topic on Sunday morning will be, "The Mystery of The Magi—Their Search"; and on Sunday evening "The Mystery of The Magi—Their Sacrifices."

Susan Doyle of Atlanta, Ga., and Connie and Diane Doyle of Fort Wayne, will be home for Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Doyle.

James Manwaring returned home from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, for the Christmas holidays. His guest over the week end from Miami U. was Viki Thiele, from Chevy Chase, Maryland.

Farm animals often contract pneumonia following weather with extreme temperature variations, Purdue University veterinarians point out. Owners should watch for coughing, increased breathing rates or nasal discharges. They recommend calling a veterinarian before the disease becomes well established or spreads.

Sales at 13 southern Indiana feeder calf and 25 feeder pig auctions in 1959 totaled $2,419,112—$695,965 more than the 1958 total, Purdue University animal scientists report.

Broadcasting phosphate and potash on the basis of soil tests saves farmers time because at planting time less fertilizer will be needed in the row, Purdue University agronomists assert.

Purdue University agricultural engineers suggest that now is a good time to get infra-red lamp units ready for the coming pig farrowing season. They recommend repairing defective cords, wiping dust from bulbs and replacing metal, rubber or plastic sockets with porcelain units.

In the consolation game Tuesday night, Akron overpowered Silver Lake 45 to 40.

In the championship game the Mentone boys had a big third-quarter lead of 17 points at one time, and then had to battle to defeat a determined Beaver Dam team 57 to 51.

RESOLUTIONS

A little less impatient with those we deem too slow;
A little less of arrogance
because of all we know;
A little more humility,
seeing our worth is slight;
We are such trivial candles compared to stars at night!
A little more forgiving and swifter to be kind;
A little more desirous the word of praise to find;
The word of praise to utter and make a heart rejoice;
A little bit more careful to speak with gentle voice;
A little more true eagerness to understand each other;
A little more real striving to help a shipwrecked brother;

Only God can understand.
But with the dawning of each

Our heartaches will all be over
When God calls us home above
Forever we will be happy
Safely sheltered in His love.

PTA EXECUTIVE MEETING HELD

Mentone PTA president, Del Nelson, recently called a special meeting of all PTA officers and committee chairmen. Those present were Vice President and Program Chairman, Mrs. Zanna Hammer; Mrs. Guido Shurey, secretary; Mr. and Mrs. Loren Tridle, hospitality co-chairmen; Eldon Horn, ways and means chairman; Joe Long, Bulldog Boosters chairman; Mrs. Del Nelson, publicity; John Frederick, principal.

Mrs. Raymond Lewis, Mrs. Kenneth Romine and Mrs. James Tibbets were unable to be present.

New leadership for 1960-61 was discussed and an evaluation of the 1959-60 PTA programs and committee activities, to date, was made. The committee feels that progress is being made in building up our organization — but that much remains to be done. With the progressively fine spirit of cooperation between the faculty and parents shown the past four months the Mentone school children can be assured of everything possible being done for the betterment of their education.

The completion of the Junior library was discussed and a committee appointed to purchase the two tables and 12 chairs needed. Denton Abbey, chairman; Mrs. Florence Caldwell, school librarian, and Mrs. Raymond Lewis, a member of the Mentone library board, were those appointed. The order has been sent and it is the committee's desire that the furniture will arrive by Jan. 4th.

Joe Long, Booster Club chairman, discussed the sale of the Booster Club tickets. Tickets are on sale to the fans for $1. Proceeds from the sale of these tickets will be used for club activities. It was suggested by the group—and Mr. Long accepted the suggestion—that the Booster Club take complete charge of the March Athletic banquet this year.

Plans for a panel discussion were made for the January meeting and the speaker for the evening is a gentleman from the Leader Dog school in Michigan. The January meeting will be on Jan. 13, 7:30 p. m. There will be movies for the children. Further details will be in next week's paper.

The Mentone school music department presented their annual Christmas program Dec. 22. This took the place of the December PTA meeting.

The Junior Band played several Christmas carols and each grade sang a Christmas song which Donna Kay VanGilder had just read the origin of. The girls who accompanied the grades at the pianos and organ were: pianists, Janet Besson, Janice Davis, Tana Henderson, Linda Goshert, Vivian Hurst, Louise Cox, Martha Nelson and Cheryl Horn. Organist was Janice Mollenhour.

Susie Sullivan and Janice Mollenhour sang a duet; Kathy Boggs sang "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer," and Linda Goshert sang a solo.

The music department received $66.00 in the free-will offering taken by the PTA during the evening. This money will be used to meet the program expenses. It was estimated that there were 500 children and 500 adults present for the program.

Do remember to mark the second Wednesday of each month as PTA night. You need a good PTA and the PTA needs you!

Allen Herendeen made a trip to Fort Knox, Kentucky Sunday and flew home a used Cessna 120 airplane which Dr. O. L. McFadden had recently purchased.

Good visibility is essential for safe driving, says the Chicago Motor Club. Before starting to drive make sure your front and rear windshields and side windows all are clear of obstructions. Make sure your windshield wipers and defroster are in perfect mechanical condition. And always carry an ice scraper in your glove compartment. "Peephole" driving can be fatal.

Cold weather, warns the Chicago Motor Club, increases the chances for a skid. Motorists should not jam on the brakes when a car goes into a skid, but should slowly decelerate and turn the car wheels in the direction of the skid. Remember—greatest skidding dangers exist when it's cold enough for water to freeze.

CUTBACK TO 300 SCHOOL SYSTEMS SEEN IN 4 YEARS

Indiana has 970 separate school systems with a total enrollment of 881,621 pupils in grades one through twelve.

Within the next four years the enrollment may climb, but 670 to 720 school systems will disappear.

"I'm foolish for doing this," said Dr. Clarence A. Pound of Purdue University, "but I will make this estimate. I think we will have only 250 to 300 school systems actually in operation within the next four years."

Pound, a Purdue authority on public school administration, said he expects the reduction because of the big reorganization and consolidation movement authorized by the 1959 General Assembly. He also bases his estimate on consolidation surveys he has made in the past.

County committees throughout the state are now working out master plans for the overhaul of local school administration where needed. They will submit the plans to state officials for approval.

Most approved reorganizations will involve consolidations of schools or merger of school districts.

While the reorganization movement is considered one of the milestones in the last century of Indiana public school education, consolidation is not new in the state. But it is just now gaining acceptance.

"We are beginning to get the idea across," Pound said. "A new idea in education requires a generation to simmer down and become accepted. We have done better with consolidation. It has taken only about 12 years."

One stimulus to acceptance is the obsolescence of school buildings. Before the war we didn't have money to build them. Then the war came and we had the money, but no materials," he said.

Some township school systems have recognized the advantage of joining forces to pool resources for construction. But the movement has been spotty.

The pattern has shaped up in this manner.

There were 1,062 school systems in the peak year, 1955 although there were only 1,033 in 1952.

In 1933 there was only one consolidation and before 1947 the state had only four reorganized, or consolidated districts, Pound said. Since then there have been 154, and within the last year there have been 29.

All told there have been reorganization or consolidations in 79 counties, leaving only 13 counties without some sort of merger. In 1948 only two school corporations asked for surveys and recommendations on possible consolidations. In the 1958-59 school year, 30 requests for surveys were made to Purdue alone. Surveys also are made by Indiana University and the state teachers' colleges.

"It seems to me this indicates a recognition of the need on the part of the people," Pound said. "In recent years there has been a great concern about the quality of education and we can well ask the question, how good an education can a small school system provide?"

Pound said national surveys show that a school system must have 1,500 pupils in grades 1 through 12 to provide an adequate, well-rounded education.

He pointed out that counties without reorganization or consolidations generally are the more wealthy ones with the highest amount of assessed property valuation backing up each child in school.

However, this does not always follow. Marion County has five metropolitan school systems within its townships.

The state average of assessed valuation behind each pupil is $7,935, Pound said. It runs as low as $500.

Counties without consolidation or reorganization to date, Benton, $17,600; Boone, $8,800; and their valuations, include Huntington, $9,500; Jasper, $9,200; Jennings, $3,600; Johnson, $6,000; Lawrence, $5,000; Perry, $3,700; Pike, $6,300; Rush, $10,700; Vermillion, $6,300; White, $10,500; Crawford, $3,000.

The 1959 reorganization law is broad in scope. It will allow reorganization of township schools into a metropolitan school district, merger of township and city schools, township with township schools and the merger of schools in one county with those of another. It also permits creation of county-wide systems in which no city or town operates a school.

There now are three county school systems in Indiana, including Floyd, Brown and Ohio Counties. Brown was organized in 1949 and Floyd and Ohio in 1956.

There are ten school systems composed of school units merged across county lines. These include Clay-Parke, Carroll-Clin-ton, Elkhart-Kosciusko, Fulton-Cass, Miami-Grant, Putnam-Owen, Dearborn-Ripley, Starke-Pulaski, Steuben-Dekalb and Franklin-Union.

Many township trustees, sincere in accepting their responsibilities for providing good education have provided the leadership necessary in reorganizing and merging school systems, Pound said, despite the resistance displayed by some of their colleagues.

An example, he said, is Wabash county, where five trustees proposed a merger based on recommendations contained in a Purdue University survey.

A new school corporation was formed, taking over administration from the offices of the trustees. The trustees, however, are serving together as an interim board of school commissioners until an election replaces them in the spring.

Under the direction of a superintendent, the combined resources of each township can now be thrown behind all the schools and long range, orderly plans for uniform development can be made.

Winter Driving Tips Given

Skidding is a common occurrence when driving on snow and ice, and to help ease the dangers the Chicago Motor Club issued the following tips on how to recover from a skid:

1—Keep yourself under control. A person who cannot control himself in an emergency may have more trouble than others.

2—Avoid braking. Slamming on the brakes in a skid locks the wheels, causes loss of traction and increases the skid.

3—Steer in the direction the rear end is skidding. As the car begins to straighten, straighten the front wheels as well.

4—Avoid oversteering. Turning the steering wheel too far whips the rear end into a skid in the opposite direction.

5—Keep the clutch engaged, or the selector lever at D. Holding the car in gear helps reduce speed and produces maximum control.

6—Avoid lifting your foot from the accelerator suddenly. Some expert drivers even accelerate moderately to get out of a skid.

Matthew C. Sielski, director of the Motor Club's Safety and Traffic Engineering Department said that ordinary stopping distances are often doubled and tripled on slippery winter streets. He urged motorists to hold down speed when driving on ice or snow.

Switches To Corn That Feeds Further

SAYBROOK, ILLINOIS — After several years of raising different kinds of corn, Stanley Holsclaw has all of his acreage in one brand this season.

Holsclaw planted all Moews because his Big "M" varieties didn't stalk break last fall when his other corn was so dry it was hard to pick. But before making his decision to switch entirely to Big "M" varieties, Stanley made additional comparisons.

"The Moews Giant Ears shelled out more corn than the other kinds," he reports. "Then I found that Moews corn makes a better feed corn. My cattle did good on it. They were never off feed and it seems to take less of the big-kernel, mellow-starch Moews grain to do the job of feeding."

the possibilities of financial aid.

This affair was open to all girls in the sophomore, junior and senior classes, since many do not realize until too late the need for taking certain subjects.

The girls were guests of the Kosciusko County Home Demonstration Council with Mrs. Dean Brown, 1959 president, acting as chairman. The committee arranged a very festive table using the Christmas theme and served cookies, punch, mints and nuts to the group. The members assisting Mrs. Brown were: Mrs. Darrell Leap, North Webster; Mrs. Everett Darr, Syracuse; Mrs. Gerald Bucher, Akron, R. 2; Mrs. Vesta Cauffman, R. 2 Claypool; Mrs. Boyce Howard, Seventh St., Winona; Mrs. Harvey Smith, Akron, R. 2; Mrs. W. E. Creighton, Warsaw, and Mrs. Gordon Tuttle, Warsaw, R. 1.

Those high schools sending representatives were: Sidney, Claypool, Atwood, North Webster, Syracuse, Beaver Dam, Mentone, Pierceton and Milford.

The girls expressed their appreciation for this type of a program offered to them as they had not realized the opportunities, other than teaching, that were open to them.

Mrs. Ruth McCleary represented the state extension staff and told of being a Home Demonstration Agent and how this person works with all homemakers and 4-H club members toward better home life.
