The farm shop can be used profitably during January to paint farm machinery, advise Purdue University agriculture engineers. Rusting of worn exposed metal surfaces on combines, corn pickers and balers can be prevented by painting.

Purdue University foresters advise that there is still a good supply of tree seedlings and transplants available for shipment next spring. Order blanks are available through your county agricultural agent and should be submitted as soon as possible.

Psi Iota Xi Luncheon

The annual Mid-year Luncheon of the National Psi Iota Xi sorority will be held Saturday, February 8, at the Murat Temple, Indianapolis, Indiana. Delegates and members of the 90 chapters will be guests for a coffee hour and registration from 10:30 - 12:00 o'clock. The luncheon will begin at 12 o'clock in the Egyptian.

Mrs. Cecil Long and Miss Barbara King of the local Psi Iota Xi will attend as official delegates.

Beta Psi chapter of Delphi will be the hostess to the 1200 expected members in attendance. Mrs. Joe Henderson, Delphi, is general chairman. The president of the Delphi chapter is Mrs. Norman Ebrite. Invitations in the form of musical instruments have been sent to all chapters carrying out the theme of the Mid-year Luncheon, "Mood, Music and Motion."

During the year the 5,000 members of Psi Iota Xi are busily engaged in working toward the philanthropic purpose of the sorority, furthering charitable enterprises and developing cultural activities in their respective communities. Once a year the members get together for fun and fellowship. The theme chosen this year, "Mood, Music and Motion" will be a natural setting for the Psi Iota Xi members because it will utilize the arts, music and the dance, and the entertainment and decorations will highlight both these mediums.

MRS. ANDERSON SORORITY HOSTESS

Mrs. Iris Anderson was hostess for the regular business meeting of Beta Epsilon Chapter of Psi Iota Xi. 17 members answered roll call.

It was decided to use the proceeds from the Sample Fair to be held March 29th for establishing a community emergency nursing fund. The next meeting will be February 18th with Mrs. Lee Arnsberger.

Windbreak Plantings

Want to add $1,000 to the value of your farm by investing $4 or $5? According to E. J. Lott, Purdue University extension forester, and H. W. Gilbert, Purdue extension landscape architect, this can be accomplished by establishing a wind break around the farm buildings. Many farm owners have declared that their farms are worth at least $1,000 more as a result of windbreak plantings.

In addition, windbreaks furnish an attractive background for the farm home and help in the reduction of winter fuel bills. March and April are the months to plant trees, and if you order your trees soon, you will get them in plenty of time. Fall planting is not recommended because winter injury and heaving cause many failures.

Trees should be planted north and west of the farmstead to stop the prevailing winter winds. For maximum protection, the specialist points out, the trees should be placed 150 feet from the center of the building group.

White and red pine are best trees available for windbreak planting from the state nursery. For landscaping effects, a group mixture gives a variation in color and form. Order blanks for state grown seedlings are available from your county agents office. The specialists also point out that state trees are only available for windbreaks, Christmas trees and wildlife refuge areas.

Additional information on the preparation of windbreak can be obtained from the county agent and a free copy of extension leaflet 294, "Ten Pointers on Tree Windbreaks," can also be obtained from the county agents office.

If we could know beyond today

As God doth know,

Why dearest treasures pass away

And tears must flow;

And why the darkness leads to light,

Why dreary paths will soon grow bright

Some day life's wrongs will be made right,

Faith tells us so.

If we could see, if we could know;

We often say,

But God in love a veil doth throw

Across our way.

We cannot see what lies before,

And so we cling to Him the more,

He leads us till this life is o'er;

Trust and obey.

"I understand we're headed over a dry state. Is there time to toy with my drink, or do I have to toss it off?"

Filling the tractor fuel tank at the end of each day's work will reduce water condensation during cold weather, remind Purdue University agricultural engineers.

Smooth brome grass can be used extensively in 1958 plantings, say Purdue University agronomists. The biggest seed crop in history is reported harvested. Practically all of this is southern brome grass of the Archenbach and Lincoln varieties both of which are well adapted for Indiana seeding.

Farmers will have to divide their gross income into two periods for purposes of paying their 1957 Indiana gross income tax, due January 31, Purdue University agricultural economists point out. Since the rate for farm income went up July 1 from one-fourth of one percent to three-eighths of one percent, gross income received after mid-1957 will be taxed at the higher rate. Total gross income must be divided into that received prior to July 1, 1957, and that received thereafter.

Batteries in engines which have not been used for two months or longer should be recharged, Purdue University agricultural engineers, advise. Recharging them helps carry the batteries through cold weather. Batteries should be stored on wood blocks in a cool, dry room.

A summary of soil samples received by Purdue University soil testing laboratories shows that lime is the element most lacking on Indiana soils, followed in order by nitrogen, potash and phosphorus.

Agricultural engineers at Purdue University urge the use of the proper size farm drain tile. Main lines should be designed in accordance with the total area to be drained and the grade or fall. The smallest size recommended for laterals is four inch. However, do not use more than 1300 feet of four inch tile in any one line.

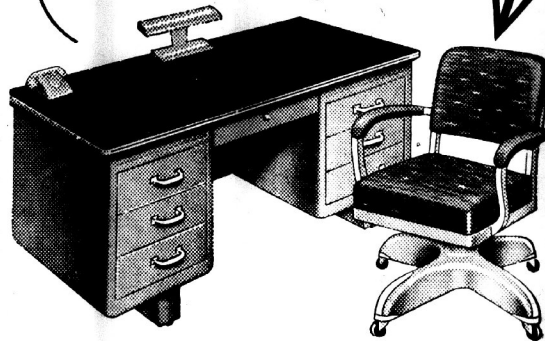

A hen must drink nearly a pint of water to make an egg. Purdue University poultry specialists assert. Egg production slumps if the layers find solid ice instead of water in fountains or troughs. An investment in one of the various types of heaters will soon pay for itself in more eggs and labor conservation.

According to the Indiana State Seed Commissioner at Purdue University, farmers are buying more tested and tagged seed each year. Taken as a group, the "tagged" samples are vastly superior to the "untagged" samples, especially in pure seed content and noxious weed content.

MENTONE HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL

By Larry Teel

Sparked by the brilliant play of Guards Irwin and Manwaring the Bulldogs romped to an easy 79-39 victory over the Claypool Knights Friday.

Mentone jumped to an early lead and the Knights trailed 13-2 by the end of the first period. At the end of the second period the Bulldogs had command of a 40 to 7 bulge. At the end of three periods the score read 54 to 25 in favor of the local team.

The second team had a fairly easy time of it also as they enjoyed an 18-point bulge at the end of their game. Sparked by Bob Long who scored 16 points for the victors, the Bulldogs frolicked to an easy 47-29 conquest.

GROUNDHOG SEES SHADOW

Whether or not a respectable groundhog would have ventured out in Sunday's snowy day, the sun did shine long enough for him to have taken a dim look at his alim shadow. Whether or not we have six weeks more of winter is problematical, but we have had a real touch of winter, snow and all.

First Teeth Are Important

Assuming that children's first teeth are not very important is erroneous and costly according to the Kosciusko County Dental Society.

This being Children's Dental Health Week, it is a good time to consider the fact that dental disease is so widespread that all the dentists in the country, working 24 hours a day for many years, couldn't begin to "catch up" with the problem.

Most Americans who have reached the age of 35, have at least 18 missing, filled or decayed teeth. Later many individuals are "jolted" to find that middle age, and a need for artificial dentures, arrive at the same time.

"Only if the dental disease rate in children can be slowed down," says Dr. William R. Alstadt, President of the American Dental Association, "can we hope eventually to achieve an adult generation in relatively good dental health. Prevention, beginning in childhood, is the one realistic means for bringing the vast dental disease problem under control."

When children's so-called "baby" teeth are ignored, several things can happen. Since they are the advance guard for the permanent teeth—the teeth that are supposed to last a lifetime—early loss of the baby teeth can cause the second teeth to come in, out of position.

The result may be premature loss of permanent teeth, so-called "crooked teeth," poor mastication of food, possible deformities or irregularities in development of the jaws and facial contours, and difficulty in speech.

In other words, the first teeth have an important job—and irregularities found in the permanent teeth can often be prevented if the first teeth are retained in good condition.

Sound and effective dental health habits formed early in life, will help to prevent later dental crippling.

Proper toothbrushing right after eating, cutting down on sweets, periodic dental checkups and water fluoridation will go a long way toward making permanent teeth really permanent.

Control Of Cattle Grubs

"Now is the time to start checking the backs of cattle for cattle grubs. When lumps begin to appear on the backs of both dairy and beef animals treatment should begin at once," F. A. Hall, Purdue University extension veterinarian, reminds Hoosier farmers.

Killing the grubs while on the backs of cattle will not only save money in meat and milk but will also reduce or eliminate the chances of propagating the pest for the future.

Hall says derris powder containing rotenone is the best treatment to kill cattle grubs. The treatments are designed to kill the grubs while the parasites are in the backs of cattle. Rotenone is most often used as a two to five percent powder although spray and wash formulations are also useful.

The dust solution must be worked into the animal's hair with a stiff brush to insure that the application will get into the air holes which the grubs have cut through the skin. There is no need to treat any part of the animal except where the grubs are located, Hall says. The first application should be made soon after the first lumps appear. If other lumps show up later, additional treatments are recommended.

If only a few animals are infested, dusting may be the easiest method. However, in larger herds or feeder cattle, the solution is best applied with a pressure sprayer.

SHORTHORN BREEDERS TO MEET

Breeders of Polled Shorthorns from all parts of the nation will meet in Indianapolis, March 17 and 18, when the American Shorthorn Breeders' Association holds its 18th annual National Polled Shorthorn Congress.

The Congress includes a show and sale and draws breeding stock from many of the country's best Polled Shorthorn herds. The show will be March 17 and the sale the following day. Sixty-three animals from top herds in nine states will be sold.

Shortly after starting a trip, motorists driving on winter's icy streets should test the traction of the pavement by gently applying the brake, the Chicago Motor Club advises. This will enable motorists to judge correctly a safe distance between their car and the one ahead.

Phone Company To Spend Much

General Telephone has planned for extensive service improvements and expansion in the North Manchester area during 1958, according to an announcement by N. E. Watson, district commercial manager.

As part of General's multi-million dollar construction budget for the current year, major cable projects in the North Manchester, Claypool and Akron exchanges are planned this year. Company plans also call for additional lines to the Bourbon central office.

Watson disclosed that General, the state's largest independent telephone company, will spend $14,500,000 to expand and improve telephone service throughout its operating territory this year. He added that with this construction budget, largest in the history of the 28-year old company, it is estimated that General will spend approximately $40,000 a day in improving and expanding telephone service to its 300,000 customers in the Hoosier state.

According to Watson, approximately $2,500,000 of the total construction budget has been allocated for the northern division, which includes North Manchester, Claypool, Akron and Bourbon.

Tippecanoe also won the preliminary game 50-39, but Mike Summe of Beaver Dam was high man of the game with 19 points.

On the following Friday night the Beavers avenged an earlier season defeat, topping Sidney, 61-50, on the Claypool court. Although the Beavers led at the half 31-23, Sidney came back with a strong third quarter to lead 39-33, but the Beavers pulled away in the final stanza.

Woods led the Beavers' attack with 20 points, while Bibler and Ummel contributed 19 and 13. Span and Evans topped Sidney scoring with 13 points each.

Daughter
Is Married

The marriage of Miss Judith Diane Teel, daughter of Mrs. Ava M. Teel of 228½ West Fifth St., Rushville, and Oliver C. Teel of Mentone, to Farrel Omer Coons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Coons of Rushville, was solemnized in the St. Paul's Methodist church there on Sunday, Jan. 26, at 3:30 p. m.

The double ring ceremony was performed before an altar decorated with five seven-branch candelabras, and live palms and ferns with white gladiolus. The pews were marked with white gladiolus and white ribbon.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a gown of white taffeta with a long waistline and bateau neckline with lace and iridescent beads at the neck and waist and long sleeves. Her full skirt ended in a train and her illusion veil was finger length with a double crown of pearls and iridescent beads. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible with a cascade of ribbons.

A dress of Dior blue with matching accessories and a rose hat in beige pink was worn by the bride's mother for the ceremony with a corsage of white roses.

The groom's mother wore a beige dress with light brown accessories and a feather hat with a corsage of white roses.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Durbin Hotel. Organ music was played during the reception and the room was decorated with white flowers.

Following a wedding trip to Chicago, the couple are residing at R. 3, Nashville.

Mrs. Coons is a senior at Indiana University School of Art Education and Mr. Coons attended Hanover College and is a draftsman at Cummins at Columbus in the engineering department.

INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. Edith Ummel, of the Beaver Dam community, suffered a broken wrist and other cuts and bruises in an auto accident three miles west of the Claypool overhead bridge last Thursday. She was taken to the Woodlawn hospital at Rochester and was expected to be released from the hospital this week. Mrs. Ummel suffered the injuries when an auto driven by her son collided with a truck operated by Howard Huffman, of near Silver Lake. He required treatment at a doctor's office in Silver Lake for cuts and bruises but was not hospitalized.

After the two vehicles collided the Ummel car hit a concrete corner post and the Huffman truck went through a fence and into a field.

MENTONE HIGH SCHOOL
BASKETBALL

By Larry Teel

Led by the sparkling efforts of Jim Manwaring, Mel Keplinger, Jim Irwin, Larry Nellans and Larry Hatfield, the Mentone Bulldogs captured their 8th victory of the season, 65-63 over the Milford Trojans.

Jim Manwaring was terrific from the field as he scored on eight one-handers scattered well throughout the entire game.

Keplinger did a good job off the backboards, scored 14 points and played a fine defensive game.

The player who fails to score 20 points is sometimes more important than the ones who score 20 or 25 points every game. Such is the case of Jim Irwin; although he failed to score but 3 points this young man played a terrific floor game for the Bulldogs as he set up numerous easy baskets for his teammates.

Larry Nellans scored 16 points and many of these came when the visiting teams lead had been cut to one point.

Red Hatfield played a terrific game as he and Keplinger dominated both backboards over the entire four quarters.

It was a close contest all the way, but Mentone trailed just 3 occasions. The first time was by a 2-0 count. The locals then rallied an took an 8-2 advantage. From there on until early in the 3rd period the Bulldogs led. Then late in the 3rd stanza Milford went ahead, but not for long, the Bulldogs came right back and led as the quarter ended. The final period was nip and tuck all the way as the two teams literally traded buckets.

All in all it was a terrific team effort and showed that they could apply the pressure when necessary.

The second team rode 21, 18, and 15 point efforts by Jim Teel and Dick and Bob Long as they recorded an easy 64-32 victory.

This Friday night Mentone plays host to Beaver Dam and the county's leading scorer, Larry Bibler in the local gym.

Fertilizer Pointers

To Indiana farmers, caught in the cost-price squeeze and wondering how they are going to pay their 1958 fertilizer bill, Purdue University agricultural economist and agronomist have some suggestions.

Paul R. Robbins and Stanley A. Barber point out that farmers pinched for capital should:

Test soil and fertilize only on a "prescription" basis.

Fertilize soybeans only on very low testing soils.

Fertilize pasture only if it can be very effectively utilized.

Plow down bulk applications of straight goods instead of mixed fertilizers.

Not fertilize for maximum yield. Even if severely pinched for capital, farmers cannot afford to discontinue:

Fertilization of small grains in which legumes are to be established.

Top dressing wheat where nitrogen is needed.

Row fertilization of corn unless soil is at a very high fertility.

Nitrogen fertilization on second or third year corn.

Liming program.

Robbins and Barber list four important considerations in reaching a decision on how much fertilizer farmers should use.

The anticipated response from any given fertilizer application.

An estimate of the price of the crop to be produced.

Determination of what the fertilizer will cost.

An estimate of other costs associated with fertilizer use, such as extra handling.

And farmers should not overlook the fact that each ton of manure will replace about 10 pounds of nitrogen, five pounds of phosphate and 10 pounds of potash, the Purdue specialists assert.

MIGHTY GENTLE HINT

It was about the turn of the century in southwestern Arizona and a rancher suspected his nearest neighbor of foul play when it came to the rancher's cattle which were grazing on a nearby area. The rancher had no proof that his neighbor was absconding with his steers but finally the situation got so bad that he could stand is no longer. He sat down and wrote the following message which he dispatched by messenger to the adjoining ranch. It read:

"Dear Sir: Please don't leave your red hot branding irons around any more so my cattle can lie down on them!"

Society Selects New Recruits

Dick Tombaugh of Mentone and Nancy Baumgartner of Syracuse were the Kosciusko county young people "tapped" for membership into the Tomahawks at Purdue University this week. The national sophomore honorary society at Purdue tapped twenty-seven students for membership into the organization.

At Purdue, the projects of the society are the handling of the miniature cannon fired at the Purdue-Illinois game with the help of Illinois Tomahawks, helping baby sit for the married students' dance, handling the putting up of the backdrop for the prep rallies, and maintaining an information booth at the football games. At present, Tomahawks are preparing a book of University traditions.

Check the strawberry bed to see that the wind has not blown the straw off the plants, suggest Purdue University horticulturists. They say it is important that the plants are well mulched if a good crop is to be harvested this year.

Law Permits Tax Exemption

M. O. Mentzer announced this week that the 1957 legislature passed an act that permits a tax exemption for persons who are or will be 65 years of age, or older on or before March 1st, provided they had a net income of $2250 or less during the preceding year, and further provided that they owned the real estate for at least one year.

It is understood that if the taxpayer qualifies, he will be exempt from county taxes on $1,000 of his taxable property.

The text of the law is not available, but those who may be affected can secure additional information. The applications for exemption must be filed with the County Auditor between March 1 and the first Monday in May.

Poultrymen at Purdue University say that portable brooder-houses should be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected before they are moved to their new location in preparation for the new brood of baby chicks.

Large Dairy Herd Facts

Cow numbers are no assurance of profitable performance in the dairy business, according to G. A. Williams, Purdue University dairyman.

A study of Dairy Herd Improvement Association records in an eastern Indiana county, shows that wide variations may exist between different herds in the county. The five high herds numbered 84 animals. These dairymen were more interested in net returns than the volume of output. The average milk production was 11,802 pounds for an average feed cost of $128 per cow. After paying the feed bill the average income above cost of feed was $376 per cow.

The five herds having the lowest production 6,844 lbs. of milk per cow, contained 143 cows. Their average feed cost was $116 each or $12 less than the top herds and their return above feed cost was $196. Thus for an extra $12 per cow spent for feed, the dairymen at the top list received $180 more per cow.

For each extra dollar spent for feed, there was an added return of $15.

The difference between the performance of the two groups is even more marked if totals are compared.

The 84 cows produced 991,368 pounds of milk which exceeded the production of the 143 cows by 12,676 pounds. Their annual feed bill was $5863 less than the other group, but the income was $4216 more.

At the time when dairy cow owners are considering an increase in the size of their herds, they may afford to study the comparisons which these groups provide. The size of the herd is no assurance of net returns. One cow producing 10,000 pounds of milk, Williams points out, returned almost as much income above the cost of feed as six cows averaging 4,200 pounds of milk.

POWER OF THE PRESS

A leading association of retailers recently held a convention. And one of the highlights developed, according to an Editor & Publisher account, is that "News-papers remain tops among retailers as the prime implement for moving goods."

That speaks well for the power, prestige and durability of the press, in this era when all manner of media are scrapping for a share in the advertising dollar. The printed word, in regularly-issued periodicals, has not lost its magic.

New Rabies Publication

Rabies is just as much a threat to society today as it was 50 years ago. Although rabies kills only rarely, it threatens often. During the past half-century 100 Hoosiers have lost their lives from rabies, and thousands have been forced to take Pasteur treatments because of exposure to suspected rabid animals.

This shows that you should know as much about rabies as possible. The Purdue University Agricultural Extension Service, the Indiana State Board of Health, and the Indiana State Livestock Sanitary Board have prepared cooperatively a publication on the causes, prevention, control, and eradication of rabies.

The publication is Extension Leaflet 383 and can be obtained free of charge to Indiana residents by writing to the Agricultural Publications Office, Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana. Copies are also available at County Agent offices throughout the state.

Indiana 4-H's Win Top State Awards

Five Indiana 4-H Club members began the New Year richer by practical experience and material rewards. They were judged best in the state for their 1957 project work, and each received a valuable award. Their 4-H records were reviewed by the State Extension Service which directs the 4-H programs in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Karen House

James Diss

Sue Siegesmund

John Baynes

Kenneth Masters

An Indiana teenager now knows how it feels to be a breadwinner. She is Karen House, 16, of Tippecanoe county, high ranking individual for the state 4-H Bread Demonstration award. She received a $50 U. S. savings bond, provided by Standard Brands.

Miss House's chief projects are cooking, canning and clothing, and her impressive list of awards proves she's more than competent at them.

A veteran of the limelight, she has made 18 personal appearances, six of them on radio and TV programs. Her 1957 championship demonstration featured old-fashioned home made bread, entitled "The Lost Art."

A green thumb and a willing hand proved a winning combination for James Diss, 18, of Allen county, winner of the state 4-H Beautification of Home Grounds award. For his outstanding work with lawn, flowers, and plants Diss received a 19-jewel wrist watch given by Mrs. Charles R. Walgreen, Chicago.

When the Diss home was remodeled, James found plenty to do and applied his project knowledge to restore and beautify the grounds. Diss was the county winner for the past two years. He has been active in his 4-H Club and community. He was chosen Junior Heart Board member and attended the Chicago board meeting last October.

A knack with milk tests a good cook's ilk, or so it seems to Sue Siegesmund, 15, of La Porte county, state champion in the 4-H Dairy Foods Demonstration program. Rewarding this talented demonstrator with a 19-jewel wrist watch is the Carnation Company.

Five years of 4-H work helped Miss Siegesmund develop into a blue ribbon baker, canner, and cook. As a frequent talent show performer, church soloist, high school cheer-leader and performing pianist, she was a popular recreation leader in her 4-H Club. Her 20 demonstrations in 4-H competition also did their share to accustom her to the public eye.

A friendly smile and a silver tongue paid off in top state honors for John Baynes, 17, of Monroe county. He was named winner in the 4-H Public Speaking program, and his persuasive oratory was rewarded by The Pure Oil Company.

Baynes received a certificate of honor plus a handsome 19-jewel wrist watch for his speech entitled "A Place in The Sun." He talked his way to other awards prior to this. In 1953, he won the county contest, and in 1955 and 1956 he placed in the state blue ribbon group.

Baynes' eight years of 4-H projects included rabbits, dairy, soil conservation and tractor. He won a blue award in dairy, 1956, and for baking and tractor maintenance in 1955.

He has served as president and treasurer of his 4-H Club and was a junior leader. This outstanding 4-H'er plans to enter the ministry.

Kenneth Masters, 19, of Henry county, is a boy who believes that livestock is both fun and fundamental to an all-round farm. Named state winner of the 4-H Meat Animal program, he received a smart pen and pencil set, the gift of Thomas E. Wilson, veteran donor of awards in the program.

In 1949, Masters' first year in 4-H, he won a red ribbon for his Angus steer. In the following years his animals took prize after prize in county and state fairs. He completed 86 projects in beef feeding and breeding, swine, soil conservation, forestry, wild life, field crops and poultry.

Masters showed the state champion Yorkshire barrows, and the champion Angus heifer. At the Muncie district show, he was a member of the first place county judging team. He won the WLS award for Henry county, and an Angus Heifer as outstanding Angus club state member in 1956.

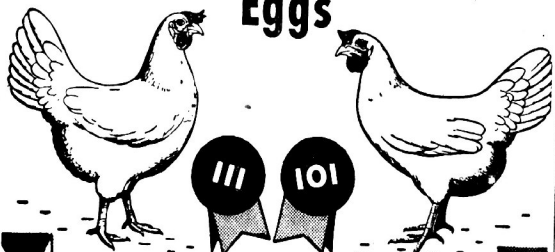

An officer of two swine associations, Masters served as 1956 president of county junior leaders. He has received the Key Club award, and last year won the Alpha Gamma Rho leadership contest at the 4-H Roundup.

Currently a freshman student at Purdue University, Masters still finds time to serve as assistant adult leader of the local 4-H Club.

Sheep And Lamb Report

The number of sheep and lambs on feed January 1 on Indiana farms is estimated by state-federal statisticians at Purdue University at 100,000 head. This is the largest January number on feed for Indiana since 1949 and is nine percent more than a year earlier.

The larger number on feed this year resulted from the increased feeding of native lambs which made up a larger than usual share of the January 1 total, the statisticians explained.

Western feeder lambs were generally heavier and higher prices than last year, resulting in a sharply reduced number shipped into Indiana for feeding during the July-December period, they pointed out.

When freezing temperatures prevail, motorists driving on hilly roads should ascend slopes with caution, anticipating possible slippery pavement on the other side, the Chicago Motor Club says. If the other side of the hill is icy, descending motorists may find it a hazardous task to apply brakes or shift gears without skidding.

Motorists should hold their own lanes on super-highways, the Chicago Motor Club advises. The few seconds gained by weaving from one lane to another is not worth the few seconds saved and the risk involved.

According to Purdue University agricultural engineers, improved drainage is needed for uniform disposal of excess soil moisture on wet lands. Good drainage will increase net farm profits without increasing investments in machinery, land preparation and fertilizer above present levels.

Clintland, Newton and Bentland are the oat varieties recommended by Purdue University agronomists for spring planting in the northern two-thirds of the state to avoid rust hazards which so severely damaged susceptible oat varieties in 1957. Clintland and Newton have excellent standing ability, while all three varieties have high yield and test weight records in Purdue University tests throughout the area. Farmers interested in early oats may want to try the new Putnam. Although it has shown its greatest yield advantage in southern Indiana, it is somewhat susceptible to crown rust.

Motorists should drive at reasonable speeds at all times and anticipate mistakes by pedestrians and other drivers, the Chicago Motor Club says. Even a well meaning motorist or pedestrian may do the wrong thing in a moment of inattention or confusion.

Livestock Slaughter Statistics

Commercial livestock slaughter in Indiana during December 1957 totaled 436,100 head, six percent below November, but three percent above December 1956, according to State-Federal statisticians at Purdue University.

The statisticians reported that the liveweight of all livestock slaughtered in December was 136,438,000 pounds, seven percent below November, but only one percent below December, 1956.

Slaughter totals indicate the marketings of livestock by farmers and the availability of meat. Commercial slaughter includes that of packing plants and local butchers, but excludes farm slaughter.

The liveweight of the 54,000 cattle slaughtered in December was 52,128,000 pounds, eight percent below November 1957, but only three percent below December 1956.

The 11,100 calves had a liveweight total of 2,301,000 pounds, which was 16 percent below November and 37 percent below the same month a year earlier.

The liveweight at the 351,000 hogs was 80,148,000 pounds, seven percent below November 1957, but two percent above December 1956. The 20,000 head of sheep and lambs had a liveweight of 1,861,000 which was four percent below November and three percent below December of last year.

Although the Indiana slaughter was lower, the red meat output by commercial slaughter plants showed a slight increase above November, but five percent below December of 1956. The total for the year was four percent less than the 1956 total. Along with the livestock production, Indiana broiler production was up also. Ten percent more broilers were slaughtered in 1957 than a year earlier. Indiana ranked number 12 in the list of important broiler producing states.

Stocks of potatoes in the hands of Indiana potato growers and dealers on January 1, 1958 totaled 390,000 hundredweight, according to the State-Federal statisticians. This figure is about 31 percent of the 1,260,000 hun-dredweight of the fall potatoes produced in 1957. This compares with 470,000 hundredweight on hand January 1, 1957 from a 1956 crop of 1,120,000 hundredweight.

The Indiana honey production in 1957 was 13 percent above the 1956 figure. An average yield of 35 pounds from each of the 186,000 colonies was four pounds above the 1956 yield.

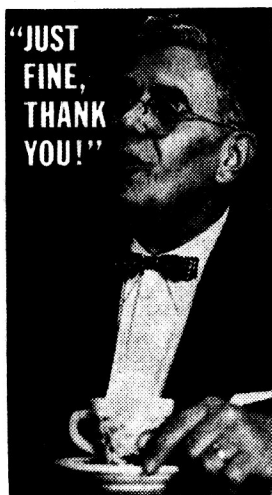

BILIN' MAD

The metal strips used to band birds are inscribed: "Notify Fish and Wild Life Service, Wash. D. C." and they used to read "Washington Biological Survey," abbreviated to "Wash. Biol. Surv." This was changed after a farmer shot a crow and disgustingly wrote the U. S. Government, "Dear Sirs: I shot one of your pet crows the other day and followed instructions attached to it. I washed it and biled it and served it. It was turrible. You should stop trying to fool the people with things like this..." —Smiles.

When a car is pulling away from the curb, a motorist about to park in that space should wait behind the car and not in front of it the Chicago Motor Club says. By waiting in front of the space, a motorist forces the driver pulling away to cross the center line or to enter the fast lane of traffic before he reaches a safe speed.

For early plants gardeners should have the hotbeds prepared for planting by late February, say Purdue University horticulturists. Allow 35 to 40 days from seeding time to the transplanting season. Ask your county agricultural agent for Purdue Extension Circular No. 433, "Hotbeds and Cold Frames."

P.T.A.'s to Celebrate Founders Day

11-Million Members Mark Organization's 61st Year

On February 17 the world's largest voluntary service organization will celebrate its 61st birthday.

This is the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, whose nearly eleven million members are active today in P.T.A.'s throughout the 48 states, the District of Columbia, Alaska, and Hawaii. They will mark the organization's Founders Day with a variety of activities aimed at strengthening and expanding parent-teacher work in their own communities.

Mrs. Rollin Brown, of Los Angeles, president of the National Congress, points out that these 43,000 P.T.A.'s have set the pattern for parent-teacher associations in areas where U.S. armed forces have established American communities overseas. And parents of school children in other nations have sought help from the National Congress in forming similar groups to promote education in their countries.

Founders Day activities, scheduled for February 17, will honor two women whose imagination and concern for children planted the seed for this still-growing organization.

It was in 1897 that Alice McLellan Birney and Phoebe Apperson Hearst conceived the idea of a National Congress of Mothers to promote the health and welfare of children by helping their parents learn more about how to fulfill a child's physical and spiritual needs.

They worked hard to interest other women in their aims and approached the date they had set for the organizing meeting with hopes of seeing a hundred or so delegates arrive at Washington's Arlington Hotel. But "if only twenty-five are there," admitted Mrs. Birney, "I shall be satisfied."

More than two thousand men and women turned out!

Their enthusiastic reception of the aims, as outlined by the Founders, and of the lectures, discussions, and conferences that made up the first meeting set the pace for a great national movement. Soon state congresses were founded, and before long the original "mothers' congress" was broadened to include the concept of parents working with teachers.

Since that founding meeting, the National Congress of Parents and Teachers has written an impressive record of achievement. It includes these activities in behalf of children:

Donated hundreds of thousands of dollars in scholarships to students planning to enter the teaching profession.

Initiated a program for the periodic health appraisal of well children from birth through high school—an extension of the Summer Round-Up campaigns under which nearly three million pre-school children have received physical examinations.

Promoted successfully thousands of school building projects, including preliminary surveys, educational campaigns, and school bond issues.

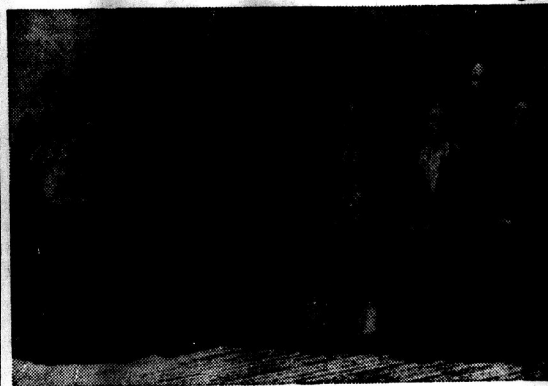

Alerted the public to violations of child labor statutes, stressed the need for improved juvenile detention facilities, and supported sound adoption laws.

Helped establish child-care centers for children of working mothers and worked to raise the standards of all child-care establishments.

Established and supported public kindergartens until public support could be secured.

Pioneered in establishing and maintaining thousands of hot school lunch programs long before the public in general became aware of their importance.

Helped to keep the schools open during the years of war and depression—an achievement for which it received a special citation from the National Education Association.

Standing: Mrs. Henry J. Finley, chairman of the Press Committee; Mrs. James H. McGill, chairman of the Entertainment Committee; Mrs. A. A. Birney, chairman of the Committee on Arrangements; Mrs. H. W. Fuller, chairman of the Transportation Committee; Miss Mary Louisa Butler, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Harriet A. McLellan, chairman of the Literature Committee.

Headquarters of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers stands today at 700 North Rush Street, in Chicago. The building, dedicated in 1955, won an award from the Chicago chapter of the American Institute of Architects and the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry for excellence in architecture.

Mrs. Rollin Brown, president, uses giant thermometer to illustrate how membership in the National Congress has more than doubled since 1947.

SHE QUALIFIES

A proud mother wished to enter her 5-year-old daughter in an exclusive school where the minimum age was six.

"She can easily pass the 6-year-old test," the mother told the principal. But the teacher was openly skeptical as he said to the little girl, "All right, say some words."

The precocious child looked at the man with great dignity for a moment, then asked her mother, "Purely irrelevant words?"

LOOKED A MESS

The clanging noise made by the garbage collectors aroused the family. The housewife suddenly remembered she had forgotten to put out the garbage. With her hair in curlers and her face shiny with various creams she sleepily leaned out the window and called to the collectors, "Am I too late for the garbage?"

"Certainly not," replied the collector, "hop right in."

TAKING THE KICK OUT OF MILKING

It has recently been called to our attention that tranquilizers have found a new market for their new soothing pellets. They have been used by humans to evade the perplexities of life in all branches, be it an irritating spouse, pestering bill collector, periods of sorrow or remorse, or just plain irritated cussedness. Now comes the enterprising concoctor of potent potions who has mixed a dose for bovines, primarily first-calf heifers who may be a bit leery of the dairyman as he starts hanging on the hardware for a milking machine for the first time.

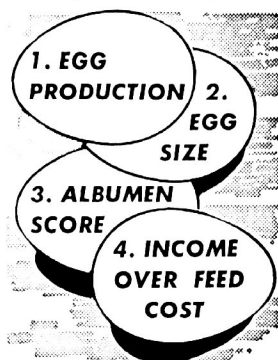

With this new dope, a scary heifer goes through the ordeal without lifting a heel or shifting her cud. (No mention was made of whether it immobilizes the proverbial switching tail.)

No directions of how to administer the new tranquilizers was given, but if you can't make it you might try a BB gun or the son's water pistol. At least, as a last resort, you can take them yourself and you won't care whether the cow kicks or not.

Regardless, after some twenty years—off and on—trying to strip a living out of range cows, I'll still stick to printing even with tranquilizers.

BEAVER DAM BETTER DAUGHTERS

The Beaver Dam Better Daughters met at the home of Karen Latimer on February 3. Karen, our president, opened the meeting. Pledges were led by Rita Lockridge and Bea Walsh. Marilyn Horn gave the secretary's report. A special collection was taken for the I. F. Y. E.

After discussing some old and new business we all took part in cake judging. This was something new for most of us and I think we all gained something from it. Linda Smalley gave a Health and Safety report. Karen L. gave a demonstration. Marilyn H. led in group singing and Marianne Tipmore and Betty Bibler led the recreation. Delicious refreshments were served to 15 members, 2 leaders and 2 mothers.

Ass'n President

Ora L. McKinley, of the Mentone Lumber Co., Mentone, was named president of the Northern Indiana and Southern Michigan Lumber Dealers' Association at its 57th annual convention held at Hotel Elkhart, in Elkhart, on Tuesday. Mrs. McKinley was vice president last year and has served four years on the board of directors.

Mrs. McKinley, was also named to serve on the convention committee for the ladies for the coming year.

Mr. McKinley had charge of the program at the 1958 convention, which was attended by 286 retail lumbermen in the Michigan area.

It is certainly a compliment to the McKinleys and Mentone, for them to be honored with these positions.

Mervin Jones, Mentone, has been named defendant in three separate complaints filed in Kosciusko circuit court asking judgment for damages totaling $40,-425.00.

The complaints were filed by Charles Holloway and Dean Goshert, Burket, as a result of an auto accident at the intersection of the Manwaring road and Road 25, east of Mentone, Feb. 18, 1956.

The accident occurred between cars driven by Richard Goshert, son of one of the plaintiffs, and Jones.

Holloway asks damages totaling $40,000 in two separate complaints. The first asks judgment of $15,000. The second asks damages of $25,000 for permanent injuries allegedly sustained by his son, Thomas, as a result of the collision. Thomas Holloway was a passenger in the auto operated by Richard Goshert.

The plaintiffs contend negligence in that Jones allegedly failed to stop for a traffic sign.

Goshert asks a judgment of $425 for damages to his car.

Marken asks damages of $2,000 for himself, $3,000 for injuries to his wife, Evelyn, $8,000 for injuries suffered by a son, Kenneth, Jr., and $1,000 for injuries sustained by a daughter, Peggy.

The accident occurred Feb. 26, 1956, three miles north of Mentone, on State Road 19, at the intersection with the Crystal Lake road. Delford Nelson's to Attend
National Food Conference

Mr. and Mrs. Delford Nelson of Burket, Indiana will attend the National Food Conference to be held in Hotel Statler, Washington, D. C. Monday, February 24, as Indiana delegates of the Poultry and Egg National Board. Mr. Nelson has served for the last seventeen months as Indiana finance chairman.

The National Food Conference is built around the theme that Food Comes First with the Nation's Health and will be opened by President Dwight D. Eisenhower speaking at the "Land of Plenty" breakfast. It will bring together a cross section of America's opinion leaders—including A. Boyd Campbell, Chairman of U. S. Chamber of Commerce, Dr. David Allman, President American Medical Association, Dr. Margaret Mead, Anthropologist, American Museum of Natural History, Charles B. Shuman, President of American Farm Bureau Federation, and other educators and representatives of leading voluntary groups—to consider food in every aspect of national life. Mr. Ezra Taft Benson, will appear at the noon luncheon speaking on "The Ritual of Meal Time". "The conference will be the most important food event of 1958, but it will not achieve its full mission unless its stimulates discussion of and action on better nutrition at the local level in communities throughout the nation," said Mr. Nelson.

It is believed an astonishing lack of information on good nutrition exists in most sections of the United States. One survey, for instance, showed that only about one-fourth of the women interviewed had even a fair understanding of good nutrition.

A study of skilled and well paid industrial workers in another area revealed that about one-quarter were getting less than the required amount of one or more nutrients considered necessary for best nutrition.

The eating habits of teen-agers in particular are very poor, surveys reveal. One study showed growth failures in nearly half of the teen-age girls. Three out of four boys surveyed tired too easily, and nutritional anemia signs were present in both sexes.

All of us eat, but too often there is little rhyme or reason in our food patterns. The Food Comes First theme and the National Food Conference hopes by focusing attention on proper nutrition, our schools, clubs, civic groups, agriculture and food organizations can help build a healthier community, state and nation. National organizations sending representatives to the conference are American Meat Institute, National Dairy Ass'n., Institute of American Poultry Industries, Poultry and Egg National Board, American Farm Bureau Federation, National Grange, National Ass'n. of Retail Grocers, Super Market Institute, Inc. and some thirteen other food connected groups.

Gold Medal Swine Project

Some changes have been made in the Hoosier gold medal swine project, according to Dick Hollandbeck, Purdue University extension swine specialist. These changes are to help bring the gold medal project in line with the newer trends in swine production.

The gold medal project is a practical herd improvement program for purebred breeders based on large litter sizes and heavy weaning weights of pigs. It is a method of identifying strains and families of hogs—strains of hogs which have top-notch brood sow productivity.

One of the changes in this program is to allow weighing nominated litters at either 35 or the usual 56 days of age. The same rule of plus or minus five days will apply. This will mean the farmers can weigh pigs as early as 30 days or as late as 40 days of age and this weight be adjusted to a 35 day weight. When weighing pigs at 56 days, the usual rules will apply.

Certificates will be awarded for sows and gilts which raised eight or more pigs that weigh the following at 35 days: sow's gold certificate for 175 pounds or more, sow's silver certificate for 150 to 174 pounds, gilt's gold certificate for 155 pounds or more, gilt's silver certificate for 130 to 154 pounds.

If the farmer weighs the pigs at 56 days of age instead of 35, the following rules will apply. Sow's gold certificate for 250 lbs. or more, sow's silver certificate for 200 to 249 pounds, gilt's gold certificate for 200 pounds or more, gilt's silver certificate for pigs weighing 230 to 299 pounds.

This rule change makes it possible for the farmers to make one weighing to comply with both the swine association production registry and the Hoosier gold medal testing project.

The swine testing project involves five simple steps:

Nominate litters of eight or more pigs at farrowing time.

Handle all sows on a herd basis without giving some litters an undue advantage by special feed and attention.

Weigh litters at 30 to 40 or 51 to 61 days of age.

Cull poor producing sows.

Check on type and quality of animals by exhibiting at county, district and state gold medal swine shows.

Hollandbeck points out that these shows are important because litters that have a large weaning weight might be undesirable because of type and quality. The farmer can determine the type and quality of his litters by watching the judge's decision in the show ring.

Litters qualified for a gold or silver certificate are given an exhibitor's card to make them eligible for competition in the gold medal show ring. The classes provided are as follows:

Pen-of-six from the same litter—they may be boars, gilts, or any combination of the three.

Single boar from the pen-of-six shown.

Single gilt from the pen-of-six shown.

Single barrow from the pen-of-six shown.

Medals are awarded on the basis of the placings in the gold medal shows. The top one-fourth in each class receive gold medals, the second one-fourth silver medals and the third one-fourth receive bronze medals.

Copies of the new rules are soon to be available at the county agent's office.

Freedom from Want,

The following letter was received recently:

Seoul, Korea
7 January 1958

Dear Mothers of World War II
UNIT 106

We'll don't know just how to start on this letter. First of all I guess I should say Hello, and hope this finds all of you fine. Seems like I am completely lost for words, as I never was very good at putting my thoughts on paper, but hope you will be able to make this out and understand what I am trying to say. The main thing is I want to thank you so much for the nice Christmas box. You don't know how much it was enjoyed.

Sure hope you all had a very nice Christmas and a very happy New Year, as you all sure do deserve it. I must admit I had a very nice Christmas for being here. Here in our Company we are sponsoring 45 orphans, and so for Christmas decided to have a party for them. We brought them in for dinner and gave them gifts. Sure had fun with them, and do believe they enjoyed themselves also.

It is rather hard to write as I don't know just what you are interested in hearing about. It is rather hard to write about the country as I don't get out very much, as my job with "A" Company is quite confining. But even so I still like the job. I don't have to work very hard, but keep busy most of the time. The most fascinating is the "A" Frame and just how much one person can carry with one.

Here where "A" Company is located is just at the edge of Seoul City which is the Capital of South Korea, also the 8th Army Headquarters is only a block or two away, so you see I have it real nice here. 8th Army Hd. is known here as SAC, which means Seoul Area Command. SAC is like a small town in itself. Here we have 2 theaters, snack bar, P. X., Service Club, churches and so on. The P. X. is just like going into a large super market in the States. You can buy most anything a person would want.

Maybe you might like to hear a little about my work, and just what I do. I rather enjoy my work, I am the company's Operations Clerk. My job consists of filing, typing and answering the telephone. I have worked at this job now for about 6 months and am getting along just fine. I like it more since winter is here, as I work inside all the time. Although it doesn't get as cold here as I thought it would. Just about like what we have back home. Was real warm today. We have had only 2 inches of snow here so far this winter. We didn't get this until a few days ago.

Think I have chattered about enough for now. So once again I want to thank you for the box. Sorry I haven't written sooner.

Hope you will forgive me.
May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You Always.

Sincerely Yours,
PFC John A. Matton

How Much Auto Insurance

Of all the kinds of insurance you buy for your car—collision, comprehensive, fire and theft, medical payments, etc.—bodily injury and property liability policies are the most important, according to the editors of Changing Times, the Kiplinger Magazine. In a copyrighted article appearing in the February issue, the editors declare that the hazard these liability policies protect against is by far the most serious.

Perhaps you could survive the loss of a $3,000 car, even though it would be a heavy blow. But one careless second, one unexpected mechanical failure could lead to a $50,000 damage suit and financial ruin, the editors go on to say.

In two states, Massachusetts and New York, you can't register a car unless you have liability insurance. Most other states require that any driver involved in an accident must either produce a liability policy or post a large sum of money or property. Thus the average car owner is in effect required to carry it, even though he cannot technically become a law violator until he is in an accident.

How much should you have? A $5,000/$10,000 policy, for instance would protect you up to $5,000 for injury to any one person and up to $10,000 for any one accident. Either a 5/10 (as these policies are described), or a 10/20 with $5,000 property-damage protection will satisfy legal requirements in most places. But say the editors, 5/10 is not enough, and 10/20 is skimpy. Any average driver should carry at least 25/50 if he can possibly swing the premium and 50/100 wouldn't be out of line. People of even modest means should consider going higher than that, claim the editors.

Once juries awarded $5,000 or $10,000 for bodily injuries. Nowadays verdicts of $25,000 or $50,000 are not uncommon, and awards have run as high as $100,000 or more.

Fortunately, the additional protection is not expensive. The big amount comes in the basic premium; pushing the limits of liability up a notch costs relatively little. For instance, rates for this kind of insurance in one locality increase only 21 per cent from 10/20 to 50/100, but the increase in protection is a whopping 400 per cent.

Don't compromise on liability protection in order to carry physical-damage protection or extra endorsements, warn the editors. Adequate liability insurance always comes first.

It's easy to entertain most people. All you have to do is listen.

Push Button Chicken Houses

Will eggs be gathered, sorted and cased mechanically, untouched by human hands ten years from now? Will the birds be fed and the house cleaned at the touch of a switch? And will the houses themselves be automatically ventilated and air conditioned to create a climate most suited to the hen's needs?

"The trend is certainly in that direction," states Joe Sicer, Purdue University extension poultry man. "The pressure of competition in the poultry business has, for some years, resulted in a decrease in the number of layers in flocks of less than 400 birds and an increase in the number of birds in the larger flocks."

"In 1939, only nine percent of the eggs sold from Indiana farms came from flocks of 400 or more layers. According to the U. S. Census, 38.5 percent of the eggs came from flocks of that size in 1954. The trend has apparently been even more pronounced during the last few years," according to Sicer.

"At present, there is an increasing amount of research to uncover the most desirable environmental conditions for hens," states the poultryman. "And as knowledge along these lines increases, the large commercial poultrymen can be expected to equip their buildings to put the knowledge gained to use. Very likely some improved system of ventilation and evaporative cooling of chicken houses during the summer months will result. Automation will be necessitated as a means of reducing labor costs. Small flocks, except for the very small ones that can utilize labor that would otherwise go unused, will be hard pressed to compete."

In the 1954 census, 103,208 Indiana farms reported chickens. But with commercial flocks, only 1,408 farms of 5,000 layers producing 225 eggs each in a year could produce all the eggs now being consumed by Indiana's 4,400,000 people eating an average of 260 eggs per person a year.

Bobby and Billy Everman, of Franklin, spent the week end with their grandmother, Goldie Kesler.

IS IT REALLY "HI-FI"?

Not every record player labeled "hi-fi" is in fact a high-fidelity system capable of reproducing sounds with lifelike clarity, say the editors of Changing Times, The Kiplinger Magazine.

Tru high-fidelity record players and components are capable of reproducing all the frequencies the human ear is capable of hearing—roughly from 20 cycles per second to 15,000 cycles per second.

In recent years, the term, high-fidelity has been used to describe virtually every kind of record player, radio and TV receiver from portables and table models to consoles.

The phonograph of many years ago could reproduce only the sounds between 100 to approximately 5,000 cps, and this, too, is the range for many cheaper modern day players. The difference in the quality and depth of tone is striking and this is what you pay for when you buy a true hi-fi set.

Builders Class Meets

The Builders Class of the Methodist Church held their monthly class party in the church basement recently.

Class members and guests enjoyed a potluck supper after which our president, Jim Tibbets gave a few words of welcome to our guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Urschel and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whetstone were hosts and hostesses this month. They presented a film strip entitled "Each With His Own Brush."

It was the story of Jesus. The pictures were African and Asian Art with Oriental music. A few games were then played.

There were 65 class members and guests present. Our next party will be on Sunday evening, March 9.

Agronomists at Purdue University say that nitrogen fertilizer should produce good increases in oat yields this spring. On light colored heavier soils and sandy loams, 20-30 pounds per acre of actual nitrogen is suggested, on darker colored upland soils 10 to 20 pounds is likely to be as much as oats can take without lodging.

Health Funds For Research

Mr. Russell B. Smith, president of the Kosciusko County Mental Health Association, has announced that the Indiana Association for Mental Health has placed into use $35,100 of a $14,250 Research and Training Allocation.

Mr. Smith said he had received a letter from Richard T. James, president of the Indiana Association, announcing the designation of the $35,100 from a $44,250 budget established last summer by the organization's board of directors for this new program.

"This is a tremendous achievement," Mr. Smith pointed out, "since it is the 1st known instance nationally where a voluntary mental health organization poured such a large sum into research and training."

Church Of Christ News

Last Sunday morning the first worship service was conducted in the auditorium of the new building at Rochester. There were 57 present for this service. The establishment of the Rochester church of Christ has been under the oversight of the Mentone congregation. The Rochester church of Christ is planning a song service on Sunday, March 9, at 2:30 in the afternoon. The public is invited to this service. The building, which is almost completed, is located at 120 East Fifth Street.

The Herald of Truth TV program is being seen each Sunday afternoon on the Elkhart station, WSJV-TV, channel 28, at 3:30. This program is sponsored by churches of Christ in the Michigan area.

The Mentone church of Christ is offering a six-lesson free Bible correspondence course to any who might enjoy studying the Bible in the privacy of their own homes. Address your letter or card to the local church.

The attendance at the services of the church has been good in spite of the adverse weather conditions and so much illness. We want to invite each of you to worship with us whenever you have the opportunity. Each visitor is an honored guest.

SCHOLARSHIP TESTS APRIL 29, 1958

The 1958-1959 testing program for students interested in a National Merit Scholarship will be given on April 29, 1958.

All high school students in their second-semester junior year or first-semester senior year are eligible to take the test.

Interested students are advised to contact their high school principal for full information before the registration deadline of March 20th.

THE WEATHER—TERRIBLE

If anyone should ask you about the weather, one word will give a rather complete answer—"terrible!"

However, we in this area have been favored over others in that our snowfall was not as great. The ground is well covered and as the temperature has remained in the zero area for some time there has been much drifting of the snow. Most roads have been passable.

FOR RENT—Apartment, four rooms and bath, available Mar. 1. Mrs. Myrtle Whetstone, ph. EL 3-3885.

AUTO-DAMAGED

The auto of Silas Moller, 76, of east of Mentone, was damaged to the extent of about $500 Tuesday afternoon when it and a truck operated by Cecil Whetstone, 24, of Mentone, came together at an intersection in Mentone. The icy condition of the streets was given as the cause of the collision.

Ward's Open New Store

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ward are now in their new store located in the old telephone building, just across Main street from their former location.

The 44-foot wide building has been completely rebuilt. The front is of ColorTone stone, and two large plate glass windows are at each side and a nice glass door and entrance is at the center. The interior is beautifully decorated with the sidewalls of a pastel shade and gray floor tile. Display racks have been painted with a new type "speckled" paint.

Back of the store portion there is an apartment of six rooms and the rear portion of the building, 22x42 feet, is in shop space, with openings large enough to drive equipment trucks through them. The building is 90 feet in depth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward plan an "official" opening later in the spring.

Thursday Mrs. Caddy Rouch and Mrs. Ina Davis were in Warsaw on business.

DAMAGE SUIT SETTLED

A complaint asking damages of $28,000 from Russ Campbell, Oswego, Ill., and James Logan Leslie, Mentone, has been dismissed on a motion by the plaintiff, as the result of a compromise settlement.

The complaint filed by Warren C. Thompson, an Indianapolis truck driver, asked the judgment as the result of a collision of two semi trucks near Henryville.

Leslie was named co-defendant as the alleged driver of a semi owned by Campbell. The accident occurred on U. S. highway 31, Sept. 4, 1957.

APPLY FOR LICENSE

Ervin Douglas Castle, 20, Warsaw, and Mary Alice Guler, 17, Mentone, have applied for a license to marry.

Present Indiana law requires a waiting period between application for a license and its issuance.

"SPUDNIK No. 1"
NOW "ORBITING" STATE

The school of home economics at Purdue University reports no delay this week with the launching of "Spudnik No. 1," a new deep fried potato to be known hereafter as "Sprize Fryze."

The new name was selected from a contest held recently, and according to Roscoe Frazer, Purdue horticulturist, was one of more than a 100 suggestions.

Frazer suggests that the home-maker need not peel the potato, just wash clean, cut into French fry strips, cover strips with flour, dip into egg-milk batter, roll in salted cracker crumbs and cook in deep fat. He suggests that "lovers of good potato eating try 'Sprize Fryze' at home.

"Everywhere the people like the new different tasting French fries, and the new delicacy was pronounced excellent by Beulah Gillaspie, dean of the school of home economics, Ruby Clark, Purdue home economics instructor, and a quantity foods class of Purdue undergraduates," Frazer said.

Critical Period
For Dairymen

Now is the time that dairymen must guard against vitamin A deficiency in the cow herd resulting from low quality hay, warns Blaine Crowl, Purdue University dairy specialist.

In the fall after leaving pasture, the cows have a reserve of vitamin A that will carry them for about three months. After three months, the cows must have access to high quality hay or silage in order to maintain their requirement of vitamin A.

Vitamin A deficiency will lower the resistance of calves born during the late winter and spring explains Crowl. Calves will be more susceptible to scours and pneumonia.

Crowl suggests several methods to offset poor quality hay and vitamin A deficiency. The dairyman can buy high quality hay or alfalfa pellets. Many times this method is too costly for the dairyman.

If the farmer is forced to use low quality hay, he should give the cows a large quantity so they can select the best hay. Good silage will usually provide the vitamin A requirement of the herd.

Crowl reminds the farmer that both hay and silage may be of poor quality and not give the cow as much energy or protein as she needs. If this is the case, the dairyman should feed higher percentages of grain and protein supplement to offset energy deficiencies of the low quality forages.

Crowl recommends being prepared this season to handle the first cutting of hay. Storing the hay or silage or drying the hay will protect the farmer from the threats of spring rains.

Almost Half A Century

Every American Scout should know the story of the American newspaper publisher, lost in a London fog, who was guided to his destination by a courteous lad who refused a tip for his services. When the American, W. D. Boyce, of Chicago, voiced his surprise, the boy explained, "I'm a Boy Scout, and Scouts do not accept tips for Good Turns." Boyce was intrigued and let the boy take him to the nearby Scout office, where Baden-Powell completely convinced his visitor of the value of the program. On his return to the United States, Boyce consulted with friends and set wheels in motion, resulting in the official incorporation of the Boy Scouts of America on February 8, 1910, the birth date we now observe each Boy Scout Week.

Cub Scouting was formally launched in 1930. Total registration of Cub Scouts in 1957 was 1,600,000.

Cub Scouts Celebrate Birthday of Scouting

Cub Scouts and their families of Mentone Cub Scouts, Pack 58 met Tuesday evening in the Methodist Church basement for their annual Blue and Gold Banquet with a total attendance of 104.

Each of the five dens decorated their supper table in keeping with the scout theme and the month of February—using chiefly blue and gold for color.

The group assembled in the church auditorium after the evening meal. The meeting opened with the pledge to the flag and singing "The Star Spangled Banner." Skits were presented by the Cub Scouts assisted by their Den Mothers.

Awards

Bobcat pins were presented by William Rathbun, Assistant Cubmaster to Lonnie Witham, David Tibbets, Rex Bowser, Steven Tucker, Mike Whetstone, David Smythe, Kenny Simcoe, Miles Nellans, Jack Keirn.

The following awards were presented by Frank Nellans, Cubmaster: Danny Manwaring, Wolf badge and gold arrow; Ken Romine, Bear badge; Teddy Shoemaker, Bear badge and gold arrow; Steven Lewis, Bear badge and gold and silver arrows.

Service Stars with gold backgrounds awarded to Larry Ervin, Tommy Teel and Mike Whetstone.

Adult Service Stars with blue backgrounds were presented by Mott Bryan, institutional representative, to the following Den mothers and Cub master: One year Stars: Mary Tridle, Doris Cooper, Maxine Haney, Alberta Hoogenboom, Viola Adams; Two year Stars: Kate Whetstone, Grace Lewis, Mary Shirey, Mary Esther Romine, Pat Shoemaker, and Frank Nellans.

The attendance banner was won by Grace Lewis's Den 1.

The high light of the evening was the guest speaker, Dr. Dan Urschel showing colored slides of his trips and experiences "Canoeing in the North along the Canadian border."

Meeting was concluded with singing "God Bless America."

Nitrogen topdressing on wheat should be a profitable practice this spring, according to Purdue University agronomists. Twenty pounds of actual nitrogen per acre on dark colored upland soils, 25-30 pounds per acre on light colored heavier soils, and 35-50 pounds on light colored sands should produce profitable yield increases. Applications are usually made in February or early March in southern counties and in the last half of March or early April in the northern half of Indiana.

The weather took a more agreeable turn the past few days and spring fever is the order of the day.

MENTONE HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL

By Larry Teel

Closing out the regular season last Friday night the Mentone Bulldogs suffered their 12th loss of the season, 71-50 loss to North Manchester. Playing good ball in the first quarter Mentone held a 17-15 advantage going into the second period. Then the visiting squires caught fire and quickly built up a lead they never relinquished.

On the brighter side the "B" squad completed their season unbeaten as they won by a 29-20 margin in a very good game. Bob Long had 12 points and Jim Teel 10 for the visitors.
