COUNTERPOINT

By the Editor's Wife

We urge you to visit our new library soon, if you haven't done so. We can be proud of our library — it is a beautiful building, seen from the outside or inside. It isn't until one sees the blonde finish on all the shelves, tables, and chairs that he begins to partially appreciate the hours and hours of hard work our librarian and her husband gave to this project. (Incidentally, we learned that four coats of paint were used on all the furniture, etc.) This might be the time and place to say that there are still several items needed; and that those clubs and individuals who have been planning gifts to the library could get suggestions from our librarian, Mrs. Lackey.

We mentioned children's TV programs last week. How about adult TV programs? The National PTA magazine, National Parent-Teacher, says, "We'll raise a rumpus about programs that take you on a voyage of violence or give you an undistilled hour of horror." Continuing, "No parent can shrug off the responsibility for what appears on the TV screen in his home." More next week.

It was suggested that this column have an identifying by-line. It is always best to know "who" said "what," and, if possible, to decide "why." It would be rather silly to assume that the editor was interested in i. e. lemon pie, other than in the area of consumption. — Who had the idea for the by-line? Why, the editor, of course.

SORORITY GIFT TO LIBRARY

The February business meeting of Psi Iota Xi Sorority was held in the bank on Tuesday evening. The meeting opened by repeating the ritual in unison. Seventeen members answered roll call and the secretary's and treasurers' reports were read and approved. Bills were presented and allowed. It was decided not to contribute to the State Symphony Fund this year, but to use the money in the community. Mrs. Harold Utter, chairman of the Civic Betterment project, reported on statistics gathered in the past three weeks. Because of the expense involved, it was decided that our local group was too small to finance a girl this spring for the Purdue Speech Clinic.

It was decided and voted upon to donate money for additional lettering on the front of the new library building. The lettering, "Bell Memorial," is expected to cost approximately $150.

It was announced that black walnuts are available and that a new order of pecans will arrive soon.

The meeting adjourned with the usual closing. The next meeting will be a party Feb. 16. Mrs. Curtis Riner will be the hostess.

Those present Tuesday evening were: The Mesdames Mott Bryan, Art Kendall, Wm. Hudson, Jr., Cecil Long, Lee Arnsberger, Don Ernsberger, Curtis Riner, Kent Riner, Paul Quinn, Lyman Mollenhour, Harold Utter, Kenneth Simcoe, Ralph Ward, Richard Dickerhoff, Iris Anderson, Jean Pritchard and Miss Barbara King.

Facts Pertinent To Education

The education of children today is not only for the local community. This has been brought about by the rapid movement of people from one community to another.

Minimum standards are criteria for judging proposals at the lowest level of acceptability. Much of our progress has occurred because of our pride in exceeding requirements.

A reorganized unit is simply a larger school district administered by one set of officials and one tax level.

Some districts which have reorganized before the state standards were set are not large enough, and have proved inadequate. They only partially provide for wiser use of money for schools.

Ordinarily, a school system of 2,000 pupils in grades 1-12 guarantee the maintenance of 500 pupils in high school. Research has shown that school expenditures tend to level off after high school enrollments reach 500.

It should be kept in mind that being in a reorganized school district system does not necessarily make a school a good school. It still will depend on community effort.

School districts vary greatly in size, population, and wealth. The New York City school district has more pupils than are enrolled in 42 of the 50 states. Both the Elko County school district and the Nye County school district, in Nevada, are larger than Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island combined. At least one school district (in California) has $1 million in assessed valuation per pupil in average daily attendance. On the other hand, there are school districts which are very small, which have very few pupils, or which have very little financial ability.

Small schools are free to bargain for, and actually to create a demand for, poorly educated teachers.

Contrary to popular opinion, the taxable wealth per pupil in rural areas often exceeds that of nearby cities and towns.

Excessive costs per pupil are found in the very small high schools, and this has been shown over and over again.

One of the objectives of school reorganization is the creation of a school administrative unit enrolling enough pupils to justify employment of principals, supervisors, specialists and superintendent of schools. The fiscal result is not reduced costs, but prudent provision of first-class schools at reasonable costs.

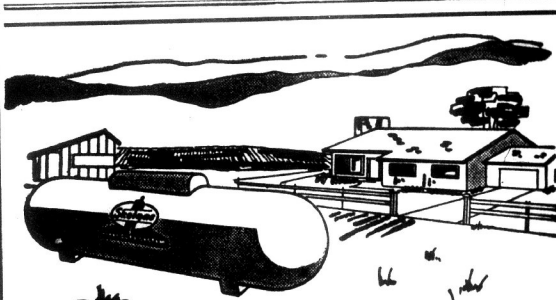

Indiana spends more for pupil transportation per pupil than do some states having mountainous terrain, steep mountain grades, and dead-end valley roads.

An undereducated child is a liability to any community.

If a rooster's comb gets frozen, promptly cut off frozen portions and pen him away from other chickens for a few days, advise Purdue University poultry scientists.

Purdue University agronomists list oat varieties certified in 1959 and recommended for planting in Indiana this spring including Clintland 60, Clintland, Minhauser, Newton, Putnam, and Bentland.

Purdue University dairy scientists recommend checking dairy animals at least every two weeks for lice. Most likely places to find lice are the top of the head, withers, along the backbone and the tail head.

The annual meeting of the Mentone Chamber of Commerce was held at Peterson's Restaurant Tuesday evening. Following the dinner, with President Kenneth Romine presiding, committee reports were given by:

Wayne Bowser for the retail merchants' division.
Tom Harman (for Forrest Miner who was absent) on publicity and advertising.

K. A. Riner (for the late Ora McKinley who was chairman of this committee) on civic improvement.

Artley Cullum for the industrial committee.
Raymond Lewis on constitution and by-laws.

John Miller on membership, dues and finances.

Raymond Cooper on the zoning committee. Mr. Cooper, who had charge of the solicitation for contributions outside the corporate limits of Mentone, reported $300 in contributions towards the $350 guaranteed by the Chamber to the town of Mentone for the zoning survey.

A number who promised to contribute to the fund have not as yet made their contribution, according to Mr. Cooper. Those who have given $10 are: John Fenstermaker, Earl Tucker, Mel Cain, Zanna Hammer, Lee Ernberger, Chauncey Tucker, Howard Horn, Morrison Rockhill, Victor Lantz, Harold Utter, Elmer Rathfon, Al Minert, Kenneth Romine, Midwest Spring, Dan Urschel, Glen Secrist, Tom Raymond Cooper, Virgil Cooper, Harman, Ned Igo, Loren Tridle. $5 contributions were made by Deed Shirey, Milo Fawley, Albert McKeighan and David Cooper; $15 by the Farmers State Bank, $20 by Don Wentzel and $35 by the Manwaring Leghorn Farms.

Three New Directors

A nominating committee composed of Lloyd Bowerman, Lyman Mollenhour and Joe Baker, reported their nominations, and the following is the result of the election:

Zanna Hammer, 13 votes.
Raymond Cooper, 12.
Thomas Harman, 11.
Gerald Romine, 10.
Ned Igo, 9.
Ralph Mollenhour, 8.

Cooper, Hammer and Harman were declared elected to fill the expiring terms of Artley D. Cullum, Dean Meyers and Forrest Miner.

Chet Miller, night marshal, appeared before the gathering stating that a number of the boys had come to him wanting to know if someone or some organization would assist in getting a place for them to hang out. A committee of Ned Igo, Tom Harman and Ralph Mollenhour was appointed to investigate the possibilities.

At the reorganization meeting following the regular meeting, Tom Harman was named president, Raymond Lewis vice president, John Miller treasurer, and M. O. Mentzer as secretary. The group gave a unanimous vote of thanks to Secretary Mentzer for his fine work during the year.

A committee composed of C. E. Walburn, Lloyd Bowerman and Kenneth Romine was named to meet with the township trustee and his advisory board relative to future school matters.

Reduce Farm Pest Damage

Reduce pest damage in the garden and yard next spring by removing overwintering stages of insects and diseases during the winter.

Purdue University extension plant pathologists suggest these practices which home gardeners can do now to help control plant pests

Prune dead, diseased and excess branches from shade trees fruit trees and shrubs. They may harbor overwintering stages of diseases or insects.

Pruning dead or dying parts of plants now not only will eliminate many of the overwintering stages, but it will also open up many plants so they can be sprayed more easily next spring. Remove prunings to a safe distance and burn completely.

To prevent heart rots from entering, dress wounds of shade trees with commercial wound paints.

Pull up dead or discarded plants, such as ornamentals, and burn. Rake leaves and other debris and remove from the immediate area of ornamentals and shade trees. And remove or turn into the soil the remains of annual plants.

Prune dead or dying canes from roses and burn the debris. Also prune dead, dying or excess wood from apple trees.

ADVERTISE! IT PAYS!

1960 Income Tax Deadlines

Purdue University agricultural economists remind Hoosier farmers, starting to prepare their income tax reports, the job will be easier if they have complete, accurate records from which to calculate the amount of their taxable income.

Farmers who closed their business year last December 31 have until February 15 to pay their federal income tax. Those who end their business year at some other time may file a return and pay their tax before the 15th day of the second month after the close of the business year.

The Indiana gross income tax is due March 1. The gross income tax rate for farmers is three-eighths of one percent.

More detailed information is needed for the federal tax report. To assist them, farmers may obtain a copy of the 1960 edition of the Marmer's Tax Guide from county agricultural extension agents.

Generally, 1959 farm records should include the amounts of sales of livestock raised, crops and livestock products, miscellaneous farm income, and sales of purchased livestock and other purchased items.

Deductible farm business expenses must be itemized according to the classification on the report form. The economists emphasize the importance of including all expenses for small items, such as nails, bolts, screws and repair items.

Depreciation schedules for all depreciable farm property should be included in the records.

The amount of cash wages paid to each agricultural employee during 1959 is needed to prepare Social Security forms for hired labor. Farmers must pay self-employment (Social Security) if their net earnings for the year were $400 or more.

REPORT ON "ARMY" AID

This program could well be called operation "Bootstarp" as the men actually support themselves under the guidance of the manager, Brigadier L. A. Peterson.

The Brigadier calls attention to the fact that it matters very much to whom the citizens give gifts of clothing, shoes, furniture and hundreds of other items in every day use. Should these be lessened, the capacity to help homeless men would be curtailed and some even be denied help because of limited means.

All through the years a strenuous effort is made to obtain newspapers and magazines, which are sorted, sold to mills and the income used to aid in supporting the program.

Supporting territory includes fifteen counties surrounding Ft. Wayne. Eight pick-up trucks make regular calls in the area.

Provide pasture and legume hay for ewes during the winter, Purdue University animal scientists recommend. Ewes should gain 20 to 35 pounds during the 146-day gestation period. Some sheepmen feed some grain, one-half to one pound daily, the last month or six weeks before the lambs are born.

COUNTERPOINT

By the Editor's Wife

One of the editor's favorite quips is that "as long as one has to ride in a car to the airport, flying will never be safe." This gives me an opening to say that many things can happen to a column from the time it leaves the desk until it appears on the printed page. For example, last week my "exempli gratia" (e. g.) became an "id est" (i. e.) in one of the items, which made a shade of difference. However, the fault has been placed right back on my desk "lack of legible copy." Why didn't I learn to type??

Right here we want to commend the members of our town board for the action they have taken to keep our main streets clean. We understand that someone has been hired to maintain the streets.

Our responsibility now as citizens, is to see that we do not litter the streets. We would remind our farmer friends to be sure to bring along that big tarp when coming to the elevators for cobs.

It is encouraging to learn that NBC is to clean up their shows for children. They plan to eliminate extreme violence and leering sex.

Mrs. James C. Parker, president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers urges that we consider "the real issues: TV's distortion of truth and reality throughout its absorption in the trivial and the unimportant; its relative neglect and shoddy treatment of the serious and significant in human experience. If we would honor truth, we cannot ignore it or be careless with it, let alone assail it, in so powerful a medium as TV. Failure to find the answer and act upon it is to risk grave consequences to the intellectual progress and moral power of this nation." — Now read it again slowly, and digest its meanings. Mrs. Parker has said a great deal.

What sort of reading material do you plan to take along into your bomb shelter? No, I'm not kidding. Think it over. Remember, there won't be any TV programs; and little radio (if you have a battery set—or.....).

From Kiplinger's Changing Times we read and enjoyed this: A child is something halfway between an adult and a television screen.

Mrs. Alexander
Dies Wednesday

Mrs. Agnes (Gurney) Alexander, 56, died at 7:00 a. m. Wednesday at the Murphy Medical Center at Warsaw where she was taken after suffering a stroke a week ago.

Mrs. Alexander, who taught school for a number of years, resided north of Beaver Dam Lake.

The deceased was born September 8, 1903 in Miami county, the daughter of Charles and Eva (Shaw) Ramsey.

Survivors include the husband; three sisters, Mrs. Merle Crumrine of Wabash, Mrs. Marie Abner of Knightstown, and Mrs. Geneva Miller of Akron; four brothers, Paul Ramsey of Amboy, Verlin Ramsey of Akron, Walter Ramsey of Denver, and Roscoe Ramsey of Peru.

Funeral services will be held at the Reed funeral home, Meantone, Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. John Jones of Leesburg, will officiate, and burial will be in the Palestine cemetery.

On Trip to Kansas City Conference

Two 4-H club members and two students in Vocational Agriculture will participate in the 7th annual Junior Poultry and Egg Fact Finding Conference in Kansas City, Mo. The conference, scheduled Feb. 11-14, is held in conjunction with the Institute of American Poultry Industries' Fact Finding conference for business.

The Indiana young people are: Marshall Noel, 17, Spiceland; Dallas Miller, 17, Corydon; Dave Thompson, 17, Owensville, and Phillip Nelson, 17, rural route, Warsaw. Nelson will be one of the junior experts discussing the production and marketing of broilers. The group's expense-paid trip is provided by the Indiana State Poultry Association.

Phillip Nelson, an eight-year 4-H club member, lives on a large commercial poultry farm and hatchery. Instead of this being helpful to his record it limits the work he can do in 4-H poultry projects. However, Nelson makes up for it by his activities in judging, demonstrations and the assistance he gives with the home poultry operation. He markets his broilers through the local processing plant. His future plans include a college education.

The Indiana delegates to the three-day educational conference will be accompanied by Robert Hewlett, Vo-Ag instructor, Mentone high school, and J. W. Sicer, extension poultryman, Purdue University.

Seventy-five delegates from 24 states will participate in demonstrations, discussion groups and hear experts from the poultry industry at the Kansas City meeting. New developments in poultry processing, marketing, and distribution as well as poultry industry career opportunities will be featured at the 7th annual Junior Poultry and Egg Fact Finding Conference. The event is co-sponsored by IAPI, Cooperative Extension Service, the Vocational Agriculture board of the Office of Education and the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work.

day evening in the home of Pat Leiter with Francis Mellott as cigarettes were given by Velma Horn. We all agreed to have a Runnells gave the lesson on "Food Fads and Fallacies." It is the homemaker's responsibility the necessary vitamins and the basic energy calories each day.

Many foods are a fad which do not give us the necessary food requirements we need.

Dirty bingo was played by all.
Secret pal birthday gifts were received by Betty Sarber, Helen Meyer and Oretta Stiffler.

Frances Mellott received an

"IN MEMORY OF OUR BELOVED IRENE"

Who left us 5 Years Ago Feb. 11th
When we say good-bye to loved ones
As one by one they go,
And through our tears we wonder
Just why did God say "no."
Tho' He leads us through deep waters
They shall never overflow;
So from a heart that loves us
God must sometimes answer "no."
Some day we'll know the reason Why God sometimes answered "no."
Some day we'll know and understand
Just why He willed it so.
When we're anchored in the harbor,
Safe from chilling winds that blow;
Then we will fully understand it
Why He sometimes answers "no."

Get the quiet proof of Chevrolet's superior performance on the road—
No other car in the low-priced three can match the borne-on-the-wind sensation you get from a ride in the 1960 Chevrolet. But that's not surprising when you consider to what lengths Chevy has gone to provide for your comfort at no extra cost to you. As you drive, count the ways
Chevrolet has been thoughtful:

Supple Full Coil suspension— Coil springs at all four wheels melt bumps as no other suspension can.
Taking the punch out of rough roads is their only function—they don't have to anchor the rear axle.

Butyl rubber body mounts— Thicker, newly designed body mounts further insulate you from the road.

Body by Fisher—Only Chevy in its field offers the polish and craftsmanship of Body by Fisher.

Foam cushioned seats—Chevy offers foam cushioned seats in both front and rear in all series but one.

Safety-Girder frame—X-built and not merely X-braced, the Safety-Girder frame affords greater rigidity to minimize twisting and squeaks.

Hydraulic valve lifters—Oil hushed hydraulic valve lifters reduce engine noise to a whisper.

Cushioned steering shaft—
A universal joint and cushioned coupling keep those annoying road tremors from the steering wheel.

Precision balanced wheels and tires—Here again Chevy has shown concern for your comfort by eliminating vibration in this vital area—tire life is longer, too.

Easy steering ratio—Chevy's high ratio Ball Race steering takes the work out of steering for you.

Superior weight distribution— Chevy rides better, handles better and stops better because the car's weight is more equally divided between the front and rear wheels.

Wide choice of power teams—
Choose from 24 different power combinations to satisfy the itchiest driving foot—more than any other car.

Hoosier Spring Barrow Show

Farmers from throughout all parts of Indiana will compete for trophies and cash in the 11th annual Hoosier Spring Barrow show February 9 and 13 at Indianapolis.

The "on foot" show will be held in the Swine barn at the Indiana state fairgrounds, Tuesday, February 9. Lightweight and mediumweight barrows will be judged as individuals, in pens of three and truck loads in this competition.

Four days later, Saturday, February 13, the best will be rated in the carcass event at the main plant of Kingan division, Hygrade Food Products Corp., on West Washington street.

Sponsors for the show are Purdue University's agricultural extension service, Kingan's, the Indiana Swine Breeders' Association and the Indiana Commercial Pork Producers' Association. Cooperating state and national breed associations and Kingan's are offering premiums and trophies of more than $5,000.

Entries closed February 1, according to Dick Hollandbeck, Purdue extension swine specialist.

Fifty classes of purebred and crossbred barrows of eight recognized breeds will be shown along with three classes for all other barrows. The first place winner in each "on foot" class for single barrows will be automatically entered in the carcass contest. In addition, each exhibitor is permitted one entry in the carcass event regardless of the animal's placing in the barrow show.

Farm Bureau Group To Study Tax Structure

President George Doup, of Indiana Farm Bureau, Tuesday announced the appointment of a state Farm Bureau Tax Study and Fiscal Policy Commission. Purpose of the 11-man tax study group is "to study the complete tax structure of local and state government, and to help find the best and most suitable sources of revenue that are available to supplement, replace or ease the burden on property taxes."

In announcing the Commission appointments, Doup said: "Local and county government costs are largely financed by money raised from property taxes. This places an excessive burden on farmers and other property taxpayers. Farm Bureau has for many years been represented on state committees and commissions studying taxes. In order that Farm Bureau possible in presenting our tax will be in the soundest position policies to the 1961 session of the General Assembly, we place priority on this thorough-going study of state and local taxes."

due marketing economist and executive secretary of the Indiana Farmer-Retailer Committee.

The morning session will be of particular interest to the livestock, grain, dairy and poultry industries. C. B. Cox, Purdue agricultural economist, will discuss "Specification Buying and Group Action." Representatives of producer, processor and retailing interests then will discuss long range consequences of specification buying and selling.

Rep. J. L. Whitten (D-Miss.), chairman of the Appropriations sub-committee of the House Agricultural Committee, will address the noon luncheon. Congressman Whitten has been a key legislator in developing funds for agricultural programs.

The afternoon program will consist of meetings for individual commodity interests—livestock, grain, poultry and dairy. Latest research results pertinent to the Clinic's theme will be presented for discussion.

The Indiana Farmer-Retailer Committee and Purdue University will again co-sponsor this year's program. With the interest shown at previous Clinics and the outstanding program being planned, the 1960 Marketing Clinic should attract 400 of the Mid-west's top agricultural leaders, Wilson said. Those interested in attending should send for reservations and further details from Wilson, care of AES Annex, Purdue University, Lafayette.

"How can I save to buy the things I want?" How many times have you asked yourself that?

A better way to begin a savings program for a specific purpose is to ask yourself three questions: "What is my goal for saving money?" "Can I realistically afford it?" "What practical steps can I take to accomplish this goal?"

Now take a paper and pencil—it'll help you to be more specific—and write down the goal and its exact cost. Then fit it into your budget and set aside the money just for the one item.

Warning: Your problem may be income or a need to sacrifice something else. You might not be able to afford a six-week tour of Europe with any type of savings plan, but you might buy that new washer by cutting down on your smoking and taking a less expensive vacation trip.

ANNUAL MEETING MENTONE PRODUCERS

Irene Meyers, a dynamic and entertaining speaker with a wonderful warm touch in her picturization of people, will be the featured speaker at the Mentone Producers annual meeting to be held at the Mentone high school, Monday, Feb. 22, beginning at 7:00 p. m. (EST), according to Jim Tibbets, manager of the market.

Miss Meyers, a native of Fort Wayne, Indiana, joined the General Electric Company there in 1919 as a factory clerk. Shortly thereafter, she was transferred to factory work at her own request. There, she learned to know and love the women of industry.

She was later named supervisor of Women's Activities of General Electric in Fort Wayne, a post she held for more than 20 years. She is best known, however, for her work as adviser to the Elex Club, believed to be the largest organized club for women in the United States. Its hundreds of members, under the leadership of Miss Meyers, served a threefold purpose; Social, Service and Education.

During her years as adviser to this club, she directed 33 trips for women, the best known of which was "The Magic Flight to Europe" in 1953. At that time it was the largest civilian group ever to cross the Atlantic Ocean by air, and the first trip of its kind to be recorded in the Congressional Record.

The business part of the meeting will feature reports of the local and state activities of the Producers Marketing Association. Advisory Committee members and delegates to the state annual meeting, to be held in March will be elected.

Tickets for the dinner, which will precede the business meeting, are available at the Mentone Market or may be obtained from Advisory Committee members. Persons desiring tickets are urged to get them early, as of necessity, the number that can be served is limited. Patrons and friends are urged to attend.

American History Month

America has a rich heritage, full of heroism and greatness. Reminding us, young and old alike, of this heritage is the purpose of American History Month, sponsored every February by the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution. The DAR through its 2,850 Chapters and 185,000 members, will undertake the leadership of those annual observance at the chapter level, it was announced today (January 31) by Mrs. Ashmead White, President General of the National Society.

"American History Month is an opportunity to remind Americans that freedom is not free. To pay our debt to the past and understand our obligations to the future, Americans must we not forget that the freedom which is ours to enjoy and challenge to keep, came about through the sacrifice, wisdom, perseverance and great faith of our forebears" Mrs. White said.

"To preserve our freedom, we must understand our heritage and be inspired by it, for if one does not know this heritage, the more we will want to prove worthy of it," Mrs. White continued.

The DAR has long been known for its activities to keep the embers of patriotism aglow. Historic markers and shrines have been a project of the National Society for a good number of years. Probably the best known are the Valley Forge Memorial Bell Tower at Valley Forge, Pa., consecrated "To the Glory of God and in memory of our American heroes," as well as the Madonna of the Trails, a series of twelve statues depicting the pioneer mother and child on the route of the National Old Trails Road. The first of these ten foot statues is located in Bethesda, Maryland and the last in Upland, California.

Among the various activities of the DAR Chapters observing American History Month, will be essay contests in the schools, proclamations by our governor, Harold Handley, and mayors of cities and towns, historical tours and open house during February, designed to draw public attention to this annual observance.

For the benefit of the youth in our country today, the educational system, the legislative system, the family, the religion, and all cultural influences should be so tuned that they build a mind and a character with an understanding of the American heritage and moral values; a confidence in our constitutional system, our government by law, our economic system of free enterprise. Associated with this there should be a national patriotism that will immunize the youth against the very insidious Communist propaganda that surrounds us today.

The first thing to do is to educate young people to believe in their God, their country, their family, their Constitution, their liberty under law and to be proud of their heritage. Then they will not easily be swayed by Godless, materialistic concepts.

We must strive once again to rebuild a strong defence for one God, one flag, and one country, lest this Nation, as a symbol and demonstration of liberty for people everywhere perish from the earth.

Why Milk Cows For Exercise?

Why milk cows for exercise? Milk 'em for money!
Ed. A. Gannon, Purdue University extension dairyman, lists these fundamentals of profitable dairy farming:
Get rid of the low producing cows; they have no place in today's or tomorrow's herd.
Follow a simple program of producing a 365-day quality forage program. (Renovate pasture, put up early cut forage as both silage and hay.)
Feed cows a balanced ration according to their production and treat them kindly.
Use desirably proved sires and raise heifers from only the best cows for herd replacements.
Control disease, especially mastitis, tuberculosis, brucellosis and leptospirosis.
Save energy by simplifying work routine and keep production records.

Size of the herd alone does not insure a higher income for the dairyman. It is the high producing cow he feeds and takes care of that produces the profits, Gannon emphasises.

Top Dress Wheat Early

Early top dressing of wheat increases harvest time yield, says Howell Wheaton, Purdue University extension agronomist.
Nitrogen applied in January and February will give greater returns than nitrogen applied in March and April, he points out.
Nitrogen applied after February 1 in northern Indiana will be available for use by wheat plants at a crucial time.
On light colored soils 30 to 40 pounds of nitrogen per acre may be needed. Heavier dark colored soils may profitably use up to 25 pounds per acre. On many sandy soils where wheat follows corn 50 pounds or more an acre may be needed, Wheaton asserts.

MRS. RUSH*HOSTESS TO D.A.R.

The Anthony Nigo Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met Feb. 9 at the home of Mrs. Bernice Rush. The meeting was brought to order by the regent, Mrs. Bud Paulus. The pledge to the flag and singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," followed the usual ritualistic opening. Agnes Surguy, secretary, read the minutes of the December and January meetings and they were approved. Mrs. Mary Cook, vice regent, read the message of the President General and of the State Regent.

The regent announced the state council meeting on March 16 at the Claypool Hotel, Indianapolis. The regent and vice regent, along with Mrs. Ray Linn and Mrs. Frank Smith, plan to attend.

Mrs. Lena Igo, treasurer, gave a detailed report.

Mrs. Frank D. Smith, national defense chairman, reported that she had recently spoken to the Bourbon Progress club on the subject, "The Communist Mind and Diplomatic Relations." She also reported that she had written numerous letters, with the assistance of Mrs. Wayne Smalley, to senators and representatives concerning opposition to Federal Aid to Education, opposition to any concession to Panama on the flag issue, urging that the loyalty oath and affidavit in the National Defense Act be retained (any American worthy of educational assistance from our government should be proud to stand up and pledge allegiance to the United States). Letters also were sent in regard to opposition to the passage of Senate Resolution 94 or any other legislation to repeal the Connally Amendment to the World Court Treaty, thus preserving existing safeguards against intervention of World Court in domestic affairs of our Nation. This dangerous proposal is offered in the beguiling name of "peace" and we must be ever vigilant. It is offered as a threat to our constitutional liberty and to the survival of our Republic. It is a part of a long range plan to firmly and irrevocably entangle us in a socialistic world government.

Mrs. Kenneth Riner, chairman of the committee to purchase a gift for the new library, announced that plans have been tentatively made in connection with the American Legion and Auxiliary to purchase a United States flag and Indiana flag.

Delegates to the 69th Continental Congress in Washington, D. C., April 18-22, were elected. Mrs. Frank D. Smith will be the delegate and Mrs. Ray Linn the alternate.

Members briefly discussed the sponsoring of a sale of new 50-star United States flags. Plans will be announced upon more investigation with the flag company.

Mrs. Fred Surguy gave an article concerning our Founding Father, George Washington, in which she stated that years of war, strife, sickness and death did not drain his courage to make our country free.

Mrs. Ray Linn gave a narration along with colored slides, entitled, "A Tour of Indiana." The tour included historic spots, historic buildings, state parks, and many interesting things and plates in our wonderful state.

Very tasty refreshments were served by the hostess and co-hostess, Mrs. Dale Cook.

The next meeting will be held at Pete's Lunch, March 8, and will be the annual Good Citizen meeting. Six Good Citizens and their mothers will be entertained.

ELECTED TO EXTENSION BOARD

Leon Nelson of Bedford, was elected chairman of the Extension Board at the annual meeting of the group recently. Bedford Nelson of Bedford, was named vice chairman and Mrs. Herschel Alberts, Leesburg, secretary. Executive committeemen elected were Mrs. Dean Brown, Mrs. Raymond Helser, Mrs. Wilbur Latimer, Harold Gawthrop, Leroy Norris and Gerald Smalley. The extension board has the function of directing the agricultural and home economics extension educational work in the county.

Reports of 1959 activities were presented by Mrs. Ruth McCleary, Home Demonstration Agent; Jack Hart, assistant agricultural agent; Frank Miller, assistant in charge of "Better Farming — Better Living" program, and Donald E. Frantz, county agricultural agent.

Miss Eva L. Goble, state director of Home Demonstration work, was the afternoon speaker on the "Responsibilities of Extension Work."

NEW FACILITIES AT NICA MILL

Workmen have been busy the past few days adding another story to the Northern Indiana Cooperative Association mill at Mentone. They are, in their language, extending the head-house another story to provide for the cleaning of grain at this point.

Other additions, according to Everett Rathfon, manager, will be a new cob crusher, two new grain crushers, new cob bin and loading arrangement. The latter are intended to alleviate some of the difficulties encountered in the past with loose corn husks and other debris blowing outside the mill.

The estimated cost of the improvements is $6,500.00.

HAROLD MILLER
DIES AT 62

Harold E. Miller, 62, chairman of the Fulton County Council, died unexpectedly of a heart attack Sunday evening at 6 p. m. in his home in Newcastle Township, located one mile north of the Olive Bethel Church on the Fulton-Kosciusko County line. Mr. Miller had not been ill.

He was elected to a third four-year term on the County Council in 1958 to represent the Fourth district of Henry and Newcastle Townships. He twice was named chairman of the council and had been vice chairman one term before. Mr. Miller's County Council service dates from May 29, 1948, when he was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Ralph Lukens.

A farmer in Newcastle Township for twenty-six years, Mr. Miller was born near South Bend on September 26, 1897, the son of Grant and May (Greenwood) Miller. He was married in 1928 to Edith Drudge.

He was a member of the Brethren Church at South Bend and was a Past Master of the Akron Masonic Lodge. Before moving to the community he had worked 12 years for a Chicago engineering firm.

Surviving are the wife; one brother, Charles of Warren, O.; one sister, Mrs. Mary Monesee, South Bend; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. at the residence with Rev. Claude Fawns officiating. Burial will be made in the Nichols cemetery on Ind. 19, north of Akron. The Tom Hauptert funeral home of Akron will be in charge.

COUNTERPOINT

By the Editor's Wife

Today we want to quote from Gerald Beadle, who is director of the British Broadcasting Co. He says, "Next to the home and school, I believe television to have more profound influence on the human race than any other medium of communication. * * * It is impossible to believe that children are not influenced by the constant knifeings and killings on television * * * it becomes a narcotic. Similarly the wise-cracking comedians' vulgarities can become a fashion."—George Sokolsky.

I've been thinking about my reading list to take along into the bomb shelter. I think I'll ask around and find out what books you folks might take with you. A good set of encyclopedias? A complete world atlas? Would this do for a start? Next week we'll tell you about a book list of a famous news reporter, Jim Bishop.

March is National Egg Month. Who should be more interested in this promotion than our community? What can we do? Well, we produce the eggs but do we use them? Think I'll have two eggs for breakfast instead of one during March.

We enjoyed this: Of course two can live as cheaply as one. Ask any mother and father with a son in college. — Changing Times.

CITIZENS HEAR
SCHOOL MAN

The county school reorganization committee, interested citizens and many of the advisory committee members were present at a meeting held at the Lincoln school at Warsaw, Tuesday evening, where J. B. Kohlmeier, director of the state commission for school reorganization, spoke.

Mr. Kohlmeier is a very capable speaker, and his gentle remarks, interspersed with his personal experiences in the "old days" did much to alleviate any apprehensions that might have been in the minds of the people who had gathered.

Mr. Kohlmeier stated that the county committee has no official power to make any changes in the school structure of the state, that no schools will be abandoned until its usefulness has been fully utilized, and the construction of new facilities will not be held back.

In all reorganization moves, the patrons in the affected areas must approve of the reorganization.

The state's hopes are that the schools be grouped in units of about 1,000 students but not to cover more than 144 square miles.

The county and state reorganization groups are actually the planners who will endeavor to improve Indiana's school systems, and every individual in the groups want to know what the school patrons really desire.

BURGLARS VISIT
TRUCKING FIRM

Saturday night thieves entered the Dickerhoff Trucking repair shop in Mentone, broke into wall cabinets and walked away with a quantity of merchandise. Eight "hot-shots" used for driving stock, two 10:00x20 truck tires and about $100 in other tools were among the missing items. The break-in was investigated by Deputy Sheriff Bob Bayne.

HAS OPERATION

Dennis Blalock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tobie Blalock, was dismissed last week from the Memorial hospital in South Bend where he was a patient for five days, for removal of a growth from his throat. He returned to his classes in the 4th grade at Beaver Dam school this week.

A "FIRST" FOR MENTONE FIRM

Richard Dickerhoff, of the Dickerhoff Trucking Co., Mentone, announces that last week one of their trucks hauled the first truckload of sheep from Ogden, Utah to Brooklyn, N. Y., a distance of nearly 2,400 miles. The experimental run was very satisfactory as the hauling loss was much better than had been anticipated.

As an indication of some of the details included in a nationwide trucking operation, the Mentone firm trucks hogs from Columbus to Ogden, Utah, and then loads up sheep for the trip to Brooklyn.

DID YOU KNOW?

(Information supplied by the County Reorganization Committee)

Did you know that there have been 16 or 17 previous bills on School Corporation Reorganization in Indiana, but the 1959 act is the only one which made reorganization compulsory?

Did you know that the county studies of school reorganization needs in Indiana will probably represent the most comprehensive re-examination of our public school system in more than a century?

Did you know that there are probably more statutes on school corporation organization in Indiana than on any other subject, but the 1959 Act is the first of that type to affect all of the school districts in the state since the school law of 1852?

Mr. and Mrs. John Hipsher of Wabash and Mr. and Mrs. Con-da Hipsher of Mishawaka, were Sunday dinner guests of their mother, Mrs. Geo. Hipsher.

Fertilizer Labels Are Important

Farmers should refuse to accept for delivery fertilizer that is not labeled because the label is the manufacturer's guarantee to the farmer of the quality of the fertilizer he purchases.

This advice comes from F. W.
Quackenbush, Indiana state chemist at Purdue University, who is responsible for carrying out and enforcing Indiana's commercial fertilizer law.

This law requires all commercial fertilizer to be labeled. Fertilizer bags may be labeled by printing the guaranteed analysis on the bag or on a tag attached to the bag. Bulk fertilizer is labeled by invoice. In any event, farmers should see the guarantee in writing.

The buyer has the responsibility of reading the label carefully to be sure he is getting his money's worth of available plant food. For example, a fertilizer guarantee may show available phosphoric acid or it may show total phosphoric acid. Available forms are worth more, so the emphasis should be on the availability to plants.

Inspections and tests of fertilizers are made regularly by the state chemist's staff. Tests are made for the amount of total nitrogen, available phosphoric acid and water-soluble potash.

Any Indiana farmer may request inspection from the state chemist's office of any fertilizer he has purchased. He should not send a sample, but should make his request in writing.

If the fertilizer is found to be deficient a refund is calculated and paid to the purchaser.

A good maternity pen can help prevent troubles at freshening time, according to Purdue University dairy scientists. The pen should be clean, dry and free from drafts.

Late February to early March has proved to be a good time for broadcasting small seeded legume seed on frozen wheat ground, Purdue University agronomists say.

Purdue University agricultural engineers recommend that infra-red heat lamps be stored in their original cartons. Scratches can be avoided if the bulbs are kept away from rough surfaces such as concrete.

LOOK AT THE LOWER PRICES

List prices as much as $76.05 lower on popular models with popular equipment

The '60 Chevrolet models most people buy, equipped the way most people want them, are actually priced lower than last year's models. This two-tone Bel Air V8 sedan, for example—with Turboglide, push-button radio and de luxe heater—lists for a whole $76.05 less! Prices are lower for all comparable V8 models throughout the line. Also for all comparable 6-cylinder models with Powerglide. Yet Chevy's loaded with more of the things that put pleasure into owning a car. (Just look at the list!) It's the greatest year yet to get into a Chevy!

Softer, more silent ride with coil springs at all four wheels and new butyl rubber-cushioned body mounts.

Big brakes for quicker, surer stops.
Riveted bonded linings mean they last longer, too.

More room to relax in. Chevy sedans offer roomier seating than any car in their class. Lower, narrower transmission tunnel means more foot room.

Only full wraparound windshield
among the leading low-priced cars.

Electric windshield wipers keep sweeping even when you speed up to pass.

Vent windows crank open and closed.
So much simpler than fighting those tricky little catches.

Keyless locking of all doors. Quick and easy. The same key opens door, glovebox, trunk and starts the car.

Economy Turbo-Fire V8. Or how to get up to 10% more miles per gallon of regular and still have lots of "git."

Thriftest 6 in any full-size car. It's the '60 version of the engine that got 22.38 miles per gallon in the 1959
Mobilgas Economy Run.

Widest choice of power teams. 24 engine-transmission teams in all, with output up to 335 h.p.

A trunk that's made for long trips with up to 22.5% more actual luggage space. Sill's lower for easier loading.

Fisher Body craftsmanship. Look at the finish, the fabrics, the detail work. You'll see the difference.

Hybrid Corn Performance Bulletin

Thinking of trying a different corn hybrid this year? If so, you'll want to see a new Purdue publication, Research Bulletin 689, entitled, "Performance of Commercial Dent Corn Hybrids in Indiana, 1955-1959."

This publication presents the results of field experiments conducted in 10 locations throughout Indiana from 1955 through 1959. Both open-pedigreed and commercial hybrids were tested to evaluate their performance under varying soil and climatic conditions over different years.

Performance averages for as many as five years appear for the older hybrids. Tables of results include the yield per acre, percentage of broken or lodged plants and the percentage of moisture at harvest for each hybrid. In the 1959 trials the percentage stand was also obtained.

A handy index makes it possible to quickly find data from all the locations where a particular hybrid was grown. A useful list of the better than average hybrids on various types of soils, appears on the back cover.

The authors, Paul Crane and Dave Alvey, mention some pointers in selecting a hybrid: Decide on the appropriate maturity for your location, soil type, soil condition and probable planting date; select hybrid that has this growth period or a slightly shorter one and a consistently good performance record; buy good quality seed, and try the hybrid you select on a small area and compare it with one that has done well on your farm before planting it extensively.

Copies of RB 689, "Performance of Dent Corn Hybrids in Indiana, 1955-1959," are free to Indiana residents. You may obtain your copy from your county extension agent or by writing to the Agricultural Publications Office, AES Building, Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind. Be sure to include both the number and title of the bulletin in your request.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE ONE EGG MAKES

An egg, you may say, isn't a very large thing, yet when Americans eat one less per person per year, we're in a heck of a shape around the Mentone area. That is one of the economic problems of our farmer friends in this area. Egg prices are so low most producers are raising eggs just to while away the time.

The Wall Street Journal, under date of Feb. 3, states:

"Per capita consumption in 1959 plummeted to 354 from a peak of 402 in 1945. In the same span, output per hen has bounded from 152 eggs a year to about 200 eggs—and there are about twice as many hens as humans. Egg economists are afraid Americans will let their egg consumption slip another four eggs per capita in 1960.

"Efforts to glamorize the egg are shaping up along a broad front. Pickled, perfumed, diced, curried, curled, canned and even butterscotch flavored eggs are just a few of the possibilities. Important scientific breakthroughs such as vacuum dehydrated 'instant' scrambled eggs, frozen fried eggs and prefabricated French toast, which can be readied without cracking an egg or dirtying a frying pan, are just over the horizon, the lab men say."

And that's a part of the egg story. The TV advertising is changing the eating habits of Americans at breakfast time, and the egg industry may be compelled to get into the selling game on a big scale. "Package" breakfasts and mid-morning coffee breaks are weaning our citizens from the substantial early-morning meal. And in the meantime, some of our poultrymen haven't too good an appetite and aren't sleeping as well as could be.

FOOD COSTS IN WORK TIME

The industrial worker in Italy labors almost 12 times as long as the American workman to earn a pound of coffee.

The French worker is on the job more than five times as long to provide a pound of beef sirloin for the dinner table.

Bread, the most universal of foods, costs American and Canadian workers approximately five and one-half minutes of working time for one pound of enriched white bread. A pound of white bread in Austria costs 20 minutes in working time; in Belgium, seven minutes; in Denmark, nine minutes; in France, 12 minutes; in West Germany, 13 minutes; in Italy, 16 minutes, in the United Kingdom, six minutes.

A nine country food-cost-in-work-time study conducted by the National Industrial Conference Board, a non-governmental research bureau, shows that industrial workers in the United tained 1,050 calories, well within the limits set by the Department of Agriculture for an adequate meal.

The cost of food figured in terms of working hours in the United States, Canada and seven European countries for this meal is shown in the table.

The survey pointed out that the price of the meal was highest in the United States—as were hourly earnings. Danish workers, for example, could purchase the meal at approximately half the price paid by an American, and the West German worker spent only a few cents more than that.

	Hours Worked	Per Cent of Meal Bought With One Hour's Pay	Per Cent of U.S. Price	Hourly Pay (In U.S. Cents)
United States....	1 hr.	100	100	214.0
Canada.....	1 hr., 9 min.	87	92	171.0
Denmark.....	1 hr., 28 min.	68	52	76.7
West Germany... 2 hrs., 11 min.		46	56	55.2
United Kingdom. 2 hrs., 18 min.		44	72	66.7
Belgium.....	3 hrs., 20 min.	30	90	57.9
Austria.....	4 hrs., 14 min.	25	69	36.5
France.....	4 hrs., 37 min.	22	96	44.5
Italy.....	4 hrs., 58 min.	20	81	34.9

States spent one hour's pay in 1958 to provide a meal for a family of four. The meal consisted of white bread, 7.2 oz.; beef sirloin, 1 lb., 5.2 oz.; potatoes, 1 lb., 5.2 oz.; cabbage, 1 lb., 12.3 oz.; butter, 1.4 oz.; milk, 1 quart, and apple, 1 lb., 5.2 oz. The individual servings con-

"Only if earnings in each country were equal would the United States worker have the weakest purchasing power. Instead he is able to overcome the price disadvantage because his earnings are very much higher than those of other workers," the report said.

IN JUSTICE COURT

A plea of guilty to a charge of operating a motor vehicle with a leaky load on Main St. in Mentone, Indiana, on Feb. 4, 1960, was entered in the Court of Justice of the Peace C. O. Eiler on Friday night, by Artie W. Perry of Beaver Dam vicinity.

A fine of one dollar and costs totaling $18.75 was assessed by the court.

The original charge of depositing debris on a public highway, to which a plea of not guilty had been entered, was dismissed, at the instance of Prosecuting Attorney Allen A. Tator and consent of the arresting officer, Chester Miller, night Marshal of Mentone, and the leaky load charge filed instead, with the above result.

Self Feeding Best For Cattle

Fattening calves fed shelled corn and those receiving ground ear corn either free choice or by hand showed no significant difference in gain, Purdue University animal scientists have found.

Reporting on an experiment at Lynnwood Farm, near Carmel, the scientists said that cattle self fed tended to gain more rapidly than those hand fed.

A third phase of the experiment was designed to study the amount of salt necessary to control the intake of supplement fed free choice to cattle self fed on shelled corn or ground ear corn.

More salt was required to control the intake of free choice supplement for calves on ground ear corn ration than for those fed shelled corn. However, the scientists point out the amount of salt varied greatly from time to time.

The research showed that fattening cattle can be fed free choice safely and efficiently on either ground ear corn or shelled corn. Purdue supplement A (with from three to seven percent salt), hay and minerals.

ADVERTISE! IT PAYS!

good light
protects eyesight

It's very gradual and we seldom know it, but many of us fritter away our good vision through years of careless lighting. Bad lighting "traps" are everywhere around us—dim light, naked bulbs, dark shadows and harsh glare. Many of these "traps" can be avoided with a few simple changes in your present home lighting.

Above is a good example of lighting for close reading. This swing arm bridge lamp provides proper light diffusion. The shade is wide at the bottom to permit adequate light on the reading surface. It is also wide at the top for general room lighting. The shade permits some light penetration but prevents glare. As for the amount of light, use at least 150 watts—anything less is an invitation to eyestrain.

Why not install good lighting in your home? Almost everyone can afford a new, properly designed lamp, but no one can trade his eyes for a new pair!

CHEMICAL WEEDING RECOMMENDATIONS

Some 35 different chemicals are recommended for use to control weeds in Indiana. These are listed in a new publication, "Weeding with Chemicals—1960 Recommendations" prepared by the Purdue University Extension Service and G. F. Warren, county agent.

Chemicals are available to control weeds in growing crops, in lawns, for woody plant control and eradication of specific weeds. Selecting the proper material and using it in the right amount is essential to good results. Time and method of application also are important.

All the chemicals recommended in the publication have label approval. Users are cautioned to follow the recommendations on the label in respect to amounts specified, crops and time of application.

"Weeding with Chemicals—1960 Recommendations," ID 1 (BP, HO), is available to Indiana residents free of charge. It may be obtained by writing the Agricultural Publications Office, AES Building, Purdue University, Lafayette.

How much do you earn?

Really? Want to change that? It could very well be that your pay is 25 per cent greater than the amount you gave to the question above.

Pay today is a package. You probably think of pay as your wage or salary given to you on payday. This type of thinking may prove a disadvantage to you. You may make a mistake when you figure the money value of your job and compare it with another job offer.

American industry spends an average of $980 a year per worker in indirect pay—items which don't show in your pay envelope.

When comparing job prices figure these common indirect pay devices: social security payments; unemployment insurance; bonuses; health insurance and life insurance; paid holidays; vacations; medical, cafeteria, parking, recreational and other facilities; discounts on products or services; pensions; profit sharing; stock options; thrift plans.

Farm Science Days Notes

At the Farm Science Days meeting held recently at Lafayette, Purdue staff members discussed a wide range of agriculture topics from minimum tillage to beef cattle rations.

Paul Robbins, agricultural economist, advised farmers to try minimum tillage — raising crops with a minimum number of trips over the field in preparation of the seed bed and cultivation—on a few acres and determine whether the system works for them. Material requirements under this system will be higher than for conventional tillage, he said, but resulting savings should make it worth trying.

A. J. Ohlrogg, agronomist, reported on experimental work with Compact, a semidwarf corn mutant, tested at Purdue. He said it was the only one of the many different dwarf types tested at the University which showed unusual tolerance to high plant populations.

A. J. Ullstrup, corn breeder, reported that Purdue had developed three leafblight resistant, double-cross hybrids adapted to southern Indiana. Some were available to farmers last year and all of them—Ind. 851, Ind. 873 and Ind. 874—will be available this year.

T. W. Perry, animal scientist, told cattle feeders that "you should not expect any great difference in gain between fattening cattle fed shelled corn and those fed ground ear corn either under hand feeding or self feeding conditions." He added that feed cost per pound of gain would be slightly lower for cattle fed ground ear corn under both systems.

G. W. Isaacs, agricultural engineer, said storing high moisture grain for feeding livestock is becoming more popular throughout the state. Centralized high moisture storage utilizing mechanized feeding reduces chore labor, he said.

Merle Thomas, agricultural counsel for the Kroger Co., Cincinnati, urged beef producers to remove excess internal and outside fat from beef carcasses through better breeding and feeding practices. He added that this would add substantially to consumer acceptance of their product.

Thomas pointed out that retail cutting tests showed that excess fat and bone have increased above previous standards in the past eight years. Often retailers are reluctant to promote beef because of the expense of handling this excess fat, he explained.

Dr. Thomas J. Marlowe, Virginia Polytechnic Institute animal scientist, explained workings of the performance testing program for beef cattle in Virginia. The Virginia program attempts to measure directly two performance traits—growth rate and conformation—both about equally heritable and important in beef production.

Claude Wickard, former Secretary of Agriculture and now a Carroll county farmer, told how a quality forage program on his farm nearly doubled milk production per acre. He pointed out that in three years the herd size had doubled, but the acreage devoted to forage crops had remained constant; milk production had almost doubled.

G. W. Salisbury, head of the dairy department at the University of Illinois, said that events outside the industry have definite impacts on it. One of these is competition from the chemical industry in providing nutrients for man.

"The competition which could arise with the advent of synthetic foods will be settled by pure economics," Salisbury said. "This means we must produce cows which will be thoroughly competitive; one way to produce these cows is through a testing program."

J. S. Balis, Purdue agricultural engineer, told Hoosier dairymen that specialized equipment will be developed to speed up and simplify green forage feeding.

R. C. Dobson, Purdue entomologist, said the primary defense against houseflies in dairy is sanitation.

COUNTERPOINT

By the Editor's Wife

This is very interesting: Mrs. Lackey, our librarian reports that circulation for the first 17 days of February was double the circulation of the first 17 days of either November or December.

Hope I'm not the only one sneaking brief but wishful looks at the seed catalogs. Which brings that old frustration out in the open—I mean, Mr. Editor, my compost pile, Remember?

One of our soldier boys is receiving his Mentone News in Japan on Monday following its publication on Thursday, thanks to Aid Mail service by his parents. That's almost better service than some of our nearby subscribers get.

Back to Books—Jim Bishop, reporter, says, if he could have but one book it would be "Human Destiny" by Lecomte de Nuey, saying, "He is the only scientist, I think, who ever furnished proof that there is a God." Carl Sandburg, too, is another of his favorite writers.

We enjoyed this: An old-timer is one who can remember when a member of the "beat generation" was a lad leaving the woodshed.—Changing Times.

RATE HIGH AT

A third place rating was earned by a cornet trio composed of Linda Mellott, Roger Mollenhour and Mary Sult who substituted for Wayne Berkey who was ill.

Janice Davis was the accompanist for the horn duet and the cornet trio.

WORTH MORE BECAUSE THEY WORK MORE!

Compare this list of Chevy advances with the features ordinary trucks are still talking about. You'll see why Chevy trucks get more work done in a day... why they go extra thousands of miles before trade-in time. These Sturdi-Bilt Sixties aren't just new, they're a full scale revolution!

TORSION-SPRING RIDE

Each front wheel, suspended independently of the other, is free to step individually over bumps. And shockproof torsion springs up front soak up the jars and jolts before they reach the body. With three rugged new tailored-to-the-truck rear suspensions to further reduce road shocks, Chevy gives you the smoothest truck ride you've ever felt.

NO SHIMMY, NO WHEEL FIGHT

Drive a '60 Chevy. Just once. Right away you'll notice the absence of I-beam shimmy and wheel fight common on ordinary trucks.

With independent front suspension there's a brand-new, smoother, easier handling feel behind the wheel.

CABS FOR BIG GUYS

Big guys get a bigger break in a Chevy cab. There's plenty of space inside to stretch out and relax; more room for hats and hips, more room for wide shoulders and long legs. There's horizon-wide visibility through a windshield with 26% more glass area; a new see-at-a-glance instrument panel. Cabs are safer, too, up to 67% more rigid.

G'S SWORN TO SAVE

Chevy's 6-cylinder engines are set to squeeze extra miles out of every drop of fuel. They're long famous for low fuel consumption, high performance.

SHORT STROKE V8'S

Power-packed for peak performance, Chevy's husky V8's make child's play out of the toughest hauls. They have a mind tuned to economy, too, that keeps costs down, profits up.

SLICK NEW SUBURBAN CARRYALLS

These handsome new handy haulers "double in brass"—can transport eight passengers or up to 950 lbs. of payload. Rear and center seats are easy to remove and replace when necessary. For work or for pleasure, these double-duty beauties are best for both!

NEW DOLLAR-SAVING PRICES

Chevrolet's low prices make big truck news for '60. They mean money in your pocket on model after model. Step-Vans, 4-Wheel Drives, many light-duty models with automatic transmissions—all are lower priced. Also, prices have been reduced on all optional V8's.

SEE YOUR DEALER

It could be the most important visit you make in '60. When you've seen these new Chevies, you'll agree they're the world's most advanced trucks. Then drive one and find out why.

A HISTORY OF MENTONE

By M. O. MENTZER,
Secretary Mentone Chamber of Commerce

I have been asked by a number of people to write a history of Mentone, and having lived in this community for over eighty years I shall endeavor to tell the most interesting happenings as I remember them. There are no doubt a number of people living here as long or longer than I who will remember things that I have no knowledge of, and if they will get in touch with me I plan to give their version of past history.

In the year about 1880 there began to be talk of a railroad to be built through this territory. No doubt surveying had been done before this time but the general public was not aware of what was going on. In a short time actual surveying and probable locations were the talk of the community. At one time the road was to come through Sevastopol, then another time about half way between there and the present location, however the present location was definitely decided and work was started.

At this time there was no settlement in the present location of Mentone. There was a school house and a church located at the intersection of the now roads 25 and 19. The school house stood on the lot now occupied by the American Legion building; the church, known as Lee's Chapel, was diagonally across just west of the place where Utter's Service Station now stands.

With the building of the railroad it was necessary to move the church to a new location. This was done by securing the land where the Methodist Church now stands. The members decided to build a new church which as I remember was done quite shortly after this time. This church was so badly damaged by a tornado in the early 1890's that it was torn down and rebuilt about 1891 or '92.

At the time of the coming of the railroad there were a number of small settlements near: Sevastopol on the south, Palestine east, Bloomingburg west, Tippecanoe town on the river one mile north of present Tippecanoe, Big Foot southwest. Post offices were located in various places: One mile east where Abe Whetstone now lives was Oak Ridge, one mile west where Truman Long now lives was Yellowcreek. This was quite a little settlement. A store on the corner of the Truman Long place belonged to Allen Blue, directly west across the road was a church, (this was called the Methodist Protestant), a drug store was operated by a Dr. Chandler in the house now occupied by Fred Swick and my father had a saw mill on the ground east of Truman Long's place. Our house stood back from the road just a little west and south of the Burden house. William Myers had a blacksmith shop just west of the Fred Swick house and Mr. Garrison did shoe repairing in a little shop on the spot where Eugene Sarber now lives. The post office was in Allen Blue's store, until Mentone was made a regular post office. This also eliminated the office at Oak Ridge.

As a very young boy I can remember Mr. Garrison bringing the mail from Oak Ridge to Yellowcreek. I think it was carried from Warsaw to Palestine, from there to the various small post offices such as Oak Ridge, Sevastopol, Beaver Dam and Yellowcreek.

Mentone was platted and lots made available to purchasers by James Blue and Albert Tucker. Later Mr. Tucker brought into partnership with him Myers and Hackerdorn who platted the portion north of the Baptist Church. This is known as the Tucker, Myers and Hackerdorn addition.

From the start Mentone was an up and coming town. The men who were interested in making it go and grow were young men filled with get up and go. I can well remember how fast new homes were built. Almost before you knew it there would be a new home or business going up and Mentone was on its way.

There was no little squabble about where the business district on Main street would be located. Allen Blue put his store on wheels and the building was moved on the lot where Kenneth Riner now lives. Later it was moved on the lot west of the Methodist parsonage and occupied by David Lewis' store. The post office was moved on the lot where Mrs. Yocum now lives. This building also contained a drug store. The railroad built its depot at the present site so that pulled the weight of the business east and the main business section was settled in this way.

The Methodist Protestant Church followed by moving their building on the lot now owned by Mrs. Ray Rush and occupied by her son Paul. This building was later bought by L. P. Jefferies and moved on the lot where Raymond Lewis now occupies. This building was wrecked just a little over a year ago.

There will be plenty of session tickets on sale at 75c. The doors will open at 7:00 fast time. Session tickets will go on sale as soon as the doors open.

The county Junior High tournament will begin next week. Our team will play Etna Green next Wednesday at 7:00. The game will be played at North Webster. If we win, we will play our second game at Claypool on Friday, March 4, at 7:00.

Family Finances

I would no more advise a man to make out his own will than I would recommend that he give himself medical care.

If you have not yet made out your will, I urge you—for the sake of your family and yourself—to visit your family or business lawyer. If you don't have a lawyer, any competent lawyer will do. Find his name by asking your relatives or friends, a trust officer at your bank, or your insurance agent.

Once you have picked a lawyer, call him and make an appointment. Then be prepared to give him such information as your assets; business interests; names and addresses of your insurance agent, banker, real estate agent and others you rely on for advice; names, ages, birthplaces, relationships of your dependents; insurance policies; liabilities; possible persons to serve as executor of your will and guardian for your children; any special funeral arrangements.

ASKING FOR IT...

Does it worry you driving in a curve on a highway? Does it seem difficult to negotiate these turns in your auto? Likely all of us have found ourselves in difficult conditions on curves. And many times the reason for our difficulty is that we do the wrong thing — and actually aggravate a bad situation.

To better understand the situation we should get a picture of what takes place as we drive in a curve. The force of inertia of the vehicle throws more pressure on the wheels on the outside of the curve, and then, if one should apply brakes, most of this pressure swings to only one wheel—the front, outside one — and there is where many accidents develop.

Whenever possible, always brake your car before you enter the turn, then with the application of a little power the car will hold onto the curve easily. (That is, if you correctly evaluated the curve and your entering speed.)

Your car should not lose speed on a curve, but with good road conditions, you should be going about five miles an hour faster when you come out of the curve than when you entered it. With this method, a curve can be easily negotiated at speeds several miles an hour faster than when you slow down in the turn.

However, there is a word of caution, and that is to never apply—and generally not lessen—power while the roadway is slippery from frost, rain, ice or snow. Deceleration is about as dangerous as acceleration when roadways are slippery.

The above suggestions are not intended to tempt you to drive faster on curves, but to help you do it much safer at perhaps your present speed habits.

A. S. Carter, director of seed control and state chemical services, reminds farmers who buy pre-inoculated alfalfa seed to note expiration date on the special tag or label attached to the container. Seed not used by this date should be inoculated in the regular manner with a good commercial culture, he advises.
