COUNTERPOINT

By The Editor's Wife

Our sincere thanks to "the editor's daughter" for so smoothly writing this column for a couple weeks.

This sub-zero weather causes one to think twice about the new insulated underwear (has both comfort and style.) Haydn Pearson has this to say about the old fashioned longies: "Time was when citizens of both sexes and all ages put them on the first of October and wore blue, red or gray insulation until April's tantrums were over."

And do you remember how carefully you folded them over at the ankles so that your long black stockings would pull up without lumps and bumps?

Richard Kiefer, convicted slayer, was scheduled to die in the electric chair at 1:01 a.m. Tuesday. (At 3:50 p.m. Monday, he was granted a stay of execution for 180 days.)

What was he thinking as he witnessed the last whisper of each minute — each hour?

One thing, alone, marks the difference between your life and that of Richard Kiefer — he knew that at 1:01 a.m. he was to die — this was a certainty. But, could he not have died before 1:01 a.m.? This is the point to ponder. We have no assurance of the breath of life beyond this very breath, now, this instant.

Ask yourself, as I have, how much of this precious gift dare I squander on self pity, petty hatreds, or critical attitudes?

Read a household hint which suggests adding food coloring to white shoe polish for cleaning those colored party shoes.

Another use of food coloring, someone suggests, is to add a bit of yellow to chicken gravy or chicken and noodles to get that extra rich "yummy" appeal.

A recent survey found that the biggest complaint husbands have against their wives is their nagging. (So!!) If a man nags, he's called an efficiency expert. (We are told.)

We enjoyed this: Distracted mama bear to papa bear: "This is positively my last year as a den mother."

DIES AT SOUTH BEND HOSPITAL

Mrs. Bertha Drietzler, 75, of South Bend, died in a hospital there Tuesday of a stroke. Mrs. Drietzler was a former resident of Burket. She resided in Burket until three years ago when she moved to South Bend to reside with a niece, Mrs. Clarence Troutner.

Mrs. Drietzler was born in Burket May 28, 1885, the daughter of Levi and Grace (Matthews) Walters. She was married to George Drietzler March 18, 1912. He preceded her in death in 1949.

Surviving in addition to Mrs. Troutner are other nieces and nephews.

The body was brought to the Johns funeral home in Mentone where services will be held at two o'clock Friday afternoon, with Rev. Lloyd Overmyer officiating. Burial will be in the Palestine cemetery.

His present work is in general maintenance operations, but has assurances of an open position in his line of work soon. He is visiting in Mentone this week and goes back to Chicago on Thursday.

The fire department was called to the Lake Trail Monday noon after stove grease ignited. The fire was nearly under control with hand extinguishers when it flared again. There was no damage to the kitchen other than from smoke.

This year —1961— ushers in the beginning of the five-year centennial observance of the Civil War. As the year progresses, Americans throughout the country will be hearing and reading much about the many ceremonies that will be staged to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the start of the War Between the States.

Many Americans will want to participate in some of the centennial pageants and programs, and large numbers of tourists are expected to visit the historic Civil War battle sites and national monuments scattered throughout the South and East.

To facilitate interest in the centennial, the Chicago Motor Club's Touring Department has prepared the following list of some of the major commemorative events scheduled for 1961 and some of the key battles of 1861. The ceremonies and re-enactments will range in scope from programs requiring only a handful of participants to those which utilize extensively planned pageants.

With the election of Abraham Lincoln in 1860, talk of secession among the Southern states came to a head. In December of that year South Carolina became the first of many Southern states to secede. Throughout the South ceremonies will be held to commemorate this important event in American history. Some of the major ceremonies are:

Jan. 26, re-enactment of the signing of secession ordinance, Baton Rouge, La. Feb. 4, Confederate Constitutional convention commemorative ceremony, Montgomery, Ala.; Feb. 12-18, commemoration of the inauguration of Jefferson Davis, Montgomery, Ala.

On March 4, 1861, Lincoln was inaugurated as president. To commemorate this event, which preceded by little more than a month the outbreak of hostilities, a re-enactment of the swearing-in ceremonies will be conducted March 23 before a joint session of Congress in Washington, D. C. The following day a parade and inaugural ball will be held in Washington to commemorate the inauguration.

On April 12, 1861, Confederate artillery began shelling Fort Sumter, the Federal stronghold situated on an island at the entrance to the harbor of Charleston, S. C. The 100 Federal soldiers in the fort surrendered and the war had begun. A re-enactment of the event will be held at Charleston on April 12.

A Boy Scout pilgrimage to Lincoln's tomb in Springfield, Ill., has been tentatively scheduled for April 30. A ceremony will be held at the tomb on that day.

A re-enactment of the Battle of Lexington, Mo., will be staged May 18. Popularly known as the "Battle of the Hemp Bales," it ended in victory for the Confederate forces. The battle site now is a state park. Anderson House, which overlooks the battlefield, was used as a field hospital during and after the encounter and now contains a museum.

The first Union victory occurred at Philippi, W. Va., on June 3, 1861. The Battle of Philippi will be commemorated there with a five-day pageant ending with ceremonies on June 3.

The first battle of Manassas (also known as Bull Run) found the armies of the North and South struggling to capture this strategic railroad junction in Virginia. This was the first major battle of the Civil War. The conflict, which took place on July 21, ended with the Virginia city in Confederate hands. It was in this battle that Gen. Jackson received his nickname "Stonewall." A re-enactment of this important event in the war will be staged at Manassas, July 22-23.

A commemorative ceremony is scheduled Aug. 7 in Hampton, Va., in memory of the burning of the city in August, 1861. At that time the inhabitants and a Confederate force under Gen. Magruder burned the town rather than allow it to fall into Union hands.

Among the historic battle sites and campaigns of 1861 are the attack of the Manassas against the Federal fleet blockading the mouth of the Mississippi River, Oct. 12; the battle of Ball's Bluff, Va., Oct. 21; and the Federal amphibious Army-Navy expedition to capture Port Royal, S. C. Nov. 7.

These are some of the ceremonies that will be taking place throughout the year to commemorate the great historic events of the Civil War. The Chicago Motor Club's Touring Department presents them here for those who wish to gain a further knowledge of the war and a deeper appreciation of its significance by participating in some of the commemorative events.

Hoosier Co-Operative Clinic

Leaders of agricultural co-operatives will gather at Purdue University Feb. 6 and 7 for the 1961 Hoosier Cooperative clinic. Theme of the short course for those interested in agricultural cooperatives will be "Adapt, Adopt and Advance," according to R. B. Wilson, market service director for the agricultural extension service.

Following registration from 10 a. m. until noon, Feb. 6, in Purdue's Memorial Union, a luncheon will be held. Ralph Horine, director of field service of the Indiana Farm Bureau Co-operative, will be chairman.

William Smith, manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Rushville, will be key-note and W. S. Farris, Purdue agricultural economist, will discuss "Why Long Range Co-op Business Planning." Skuli Rutford, University of Minnesota will also speak.

A workshop on business planning, stressing sales finance and facilities will follow. Chairmen will be Clyde Clark, manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Muncie, sales; Gene Middleton, Producers' Marketing Association, Indianapolis, finance, and W. H. Alms, manager of the Miami-Cass County REMC, Peru, facilities. Case problem discussion leaders will be E. 7. Oesterle, Farris and G. Hussey, Purdue agricultural economists.

George Doup, president of the Indiana Farm Bureau, will be chairman of the dinner on that night. Jim Heizer, director of information, Farm Credit Banks, Louisville, and Dr. John Hicks, assistant to the president of Purdue, will speak.

The Tuesday, Feb. 7, session of which Bernard Marquiss, Producers' Marketing Association, Indianapolis, will be chairman, opens at 9 a. m., in Fowler Hall of Purdue's Memorial Center. Wilson will discuss "Dressing Up Co-Ops." Then a three-member panel will discuss changes needed in co-operatives.

Harold Jordan, general manager, Indiana Farm Bureau Co-operative Association, Indianapolis, will talk about marketing and supply. Walter Brown, senior vice president, Federal Intermediate Credit Bank, Louisville, will discuss credit and financing, and Dave Mueller, general manager, Indiana Statewide Rural Electric Co-operative, will take up "Power For The Future."

Kenneth D. Naden, National Council of Farm Cooperatives, Washington, D. C., will close the morning session. Jerry Voorhis, executive director, Cooperative League of the U. S. A., national federation of consumer, service and supply cooperatives, will be principal speaker at the luncheon concluding the clinic.

Norris Gilt Sets Record

Six new performance records were set in the sixth season of operation of the Indiana Swine Evaluation Station, according to Dick Hollandbeck and Jim Foster, Purdue University extension swine specialists.

The fourth Indiana Certified Meat Sire now holds the record low feed conversion on his first five qualifying litters. CJP Cooperdale Champ 9N, a Yorkshire Boar owned by John C. Palmer and Sons, Albion, has the record of 2.75 pounds of feed per pound of gain.

The Fifth Indiana Certified Meat Sire set the record for the highest percent of litters to qualify. This Yorkshire boar, PRF 10N, is owned by Elmer Rumble, Princeton. He's batting a 1.000 with five for five. There is an amazing uniformity, not only within litters but also between litters from different sow families, in the get of the boar, the specialists say.

A new low in feed conversion was set by a Yorkshire litter from Pleasant Ridge Farm, Jasper. This new record is 2.39 pounds of feed per pound of gain from 64 days of age to market weight.

The largest loin eye (6.40 sq. inches) ever produced in the Swine Evaluation Station was from a Hampshire gilt entered by LeRoy Norris, Mentone. It was sired by Explorer and was the second litter by Explorer to certify.

The new record low marketing age was established by a Yorkshire barrow from a litter of John C. Palmer and Sons of Albion. This pig was marketed at 118 days of age weighing 203 pounds.

The sixth season of operation saw a record number of litters go on test. One hundred fifteen litters from 45 breeders from 28 Indiana counties were tested in the 96-pen service unit in the Purdue University Farm Center.

Science in Swine Production

Feed costs affect swine production costs more than all other items combined, Hobart W. Jones, Purdue animal scientist, said. The successful livestock raiser knows the relationships between food elements or nutrients available and how efficiently animals convert them to meat, he asserted.

Understanding this transformation puts ration formulation and economical production within the reach of all good livestock producers, Jones added.

A trio of University of Illinois scientists discussed physiological and veterinary aspects of "disease free" pigs. "Disease free" pigs are removed from the sow at birth or taken by surgery before birth and raised in special isolation equipment.

J. A. Hofer, Michigan State University animal scientist, explained the purpose and operation of the National Research Council.

FEEDER CATTLE NUMBERS HIGHER

Indiana farmers are feeding more cattle and calves now than a year ago, report state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University. They estimated the Jan. 1 total at 195,000, three per cent more than a year earlier.

Cattle weighing 900 pounds or more totaled 38,000—20 per cent of the total; those on feed three months or longer were 37,000, while the 158,000 on feed less than three months made up 81 per cent of the total. Seventy per cent of the Jan. 1 total were steers.

Farmers marketed 62,000 fed cattle during the October-December, 1960, period. This was 16 per cent fewer than the number marketed in the corresponding quarter a year earlier. Farmers indicated they plan to sell 40 per cent of the cattle during the next three months and the remainder after April 1.

Check the evergreens around your house after every snow and shake or brush heavy snow off the branches, advise Purdue University horticulturists.

Must Fortify Hog Feeds

A Purdue University animal scientist says that proper fortification of corn-soybean meal rations and protein supplements is absolutely essential to a successful hog feeding program.

J. H. Conrad, speaking at a swine production session opening Purdue's Farm Science Days, reported on experiments using rations fortified with vitamins, trace minerals, growth stimulants (antibiotics and/or arsenicals) and minerals.

Soybean meal can be used to furnish all the protein required to balance corn for growing-finishing swine, he pointed out. However, corn and soybean meal do not make a nutritionally balanced ration since these two ingredients are good sources of only energy and protein.

Corn-soybean meal diets for swine must be properly fortified with minerals, trace minerals, vitamins and growth stimulants for optimum performance.

Several hundred farmers, business leaders and scientists attended the opening day of the week-long program which emphasizes science's role in modern agriculture. In addition to the swine production session, separate meetings dealt with soils and forage crops in the future.

Total cattle sales were $1,417,486, compared to $1,857,321 in 1959. Gross sales at the pig auctions were $591,462, compared to $561,791 the previous year.

A total of 40,136 pigs was sold. This was almost 4,500 fewer than in 1959. The pigs averaged 58 pounds and brought an average price of $14.78, compared to $12.59 at the 1959 sales.

Three hundred nineteen calves were auctioned at the first sale ten years ago. The pig auctions were started in 1954, when 1,385 pigs were sold.

Nine Hoosiers Win National 4-H Awards

Indiana 4-H Clubs claimed nine 1960 national award winners in their projects among some 200 named during the National 4-H Club Congress held in Chicago recently. Each was the recipient of a $400 college scholarship and expense-paid trip to the congress given by the program award donors. The Hoosier 4-H'ers entered their 4-H records in national competition with more than 1,800 state winners from across the nation.

Aldean Wolf, 19, of Attica, won the Ford Motor Company award for outstanding achievement in many areas of 4-H work. A 10-year club member, Aldean has successfully completed projects in 24 different categories, consistently winning county, district and state honors.

Laron Thompson, 17, of 3333 Sandpoint rd., Ft. Wayne, has enjoyed triple honors this past year. Besides being named a 4-H national and state winner in the automotive program sponsored by the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., Laron was one of the attendants to the Allen county 4-H king, and a delegate to the DePauw Junior Leader Conference. The Purdue freshman has been a 4-H member for seven years.

An 11-year 4-H'ers with a perfect meeting attendance record is Max Lee Lenderman, 18, of West Terre Haute, who won the beef project award given by E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co. The young cattleman raised nearly 200 animals on his parents' 310-acre farm in Vigo county. Max is a student at Oklahoma State University, majoring in agricultural courses.

Not many 4-H members can claim two national awards, but Linda Lou Lukens, Indiana University sophomore, has earned this distinction. Her latest honor was achieved in the citizenship program. Her scholarship comes from a fund set up in memory of the late Thos. E. Wilson, a pioneer in private support of 4-H youth. Linda, 18, has made a record for herself in junior leadership.

Nancy Sue Berkeiser, 18, of Rochester, is a leader in her community as well as in 4-H. She won the Wm. Wrigley Jr. Company scholarship for community relations work. Nancy is a true "blue ribbon" girl, according to the local 4-H leader and county Extension agent.

The field of electricity is not entirely a male domain in 4-H, for Rosellyn Phillips, 18-year-old Purdue freshman, won the Westinghouse Educational Foundation award offered in this program. She was the only girl among six national winners. A musician and dancer, Rosellyn has also pursued home economics projects, her college major.

Carol Thompson, 17, of Owensville, showed her skills in the frozen foods program supported by the Whirlpool Corporation. She has been in 4-H eight years, and in addition to foods projects has done well with poultry and beef.

The garden champion is Allan Goecker, 18, Purdue freshman who lives on a farm near Seymour. The Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co. provided his award. Allan is a 4-H junior leader and vice president of the state junior leader's council. He is a many-time winner of county awards in a wide variety of projects.

David Geise, 19, of Rushville, received the tractor scholarship presented by the Standard Oil Foundation. Also a Purdue student, David has been in 4-H for nine years, carrying on numerous projects. He has done much demonstration work in his area, concentrating on the safety aspect of tractor driving.

Foundation of High Yields

Two Purdue University agronomists—B. O. Blair and A. R. Bertrand—asserted that four factors control plant root growth. These are aeration, temperature and soil resistance to root penetration (hard pans).

Blair cautioned farmers to recognize the limitation of their own soils in relation to high crop yields. He stressed that microorganisms are extremely important because they create optimum soil conditions.

Bertrand pointed out that minimum tillage helps root growth, adding that farmers should prepare a deep root bed instead of a seed bed. Plow soles restrict root growth, he added.

Record Number of Cows Tested

A record number of cows—39,160—was on Dairy Herd Improvement Association production test in Indiana January 1, reports S. M. Gregory, Purdue University extension dairyman in charge of DHIA records. This is an increase of 4,077 cows over a year ago.

Of the 1,207 Hoosier herds enrolled in the DHIA program, 405 of them are having their records processed by the electronic computing method initiated in Indiana last July 1.

Gregory listed these counties with leading percentages of dairy cows in the testing program:

Clark 48 per cent, LaPorte 33 per cent, Delaware 28 per cent, Grant 23 per cent, Boone 22 per cent, Elkhart 21 per cent, and Parke 20 per cent.

MENTONE WINS AND LOSES

The Mentone Bulldogs romped to an easy 53-34 win over the Claypool Knights last week.

Mentone pulled away to a 13 to 6 lead at the end of the first quarter and was on the topside of a 27-12 score by the half. The third period saw the Bulldogs lead 36-23 as they moved on to win.

Bill Nellans was top scorer with 15 points with Teammate Allen Creighton right behind with 14. Jay Shoemaker marked 10 for the Knights.

In a game with Culver Saturday night Mentone came back from a 16-point deficit to tie the score with 23 seconds remaining, only to lose in the last four seconds as Culver's Dave Dillon popped in a two-pointer. In fact, Dillon presented a problem all evening as he scored 25 points. Boswell also added 20 points to the Culver score.

Mentone was paced by Bill Nellans with 18 points. Allen Creighton scored 16.

Nellans is now the high point scorer for the county at the present writing.

Culver pulled away to a 15-10 first quarter lead and then saw the margin tighten up to 29-26 at the half. A big third period saw Culver lead by 16 at one time, with the margin narrowed to 13, as the quarter ended 49-36.

State-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University estimate that 81,000 sheep and lambs were on feed in Indiana Jan. 1—a 10 per cent increase over the number on feed Jan. 1, 1960.

No matter what the weather, says the Chicago Motor Club, the driver still is the most important factor in accident prevention. Be a thoughtful, careful, considerate driver in good weather or bad.

Onion stocks held by Indiana growers and dealers Jan. 1 totaled 166,000 hundredweight, state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University estimate. This compared to 52,000 cwt. on hand Jan. 1, 1960.

COMPLETES DIESEL COURSE

Lee Norris, of near Mentone, has completed a four weeks of diesel shop training at Utilities Engineering Institute, a branch of Wayne School, in Chicago.

Local News

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tombaugh of Purdue, were home visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Tombaugh recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Miller of LaPaz, visited Tuesday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. John Fenstermaker.

Mrs. David Ellis and Bradley of Warsaw, visited Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Tom Harman, Timmy and Lisa.

Mrs. Sam Ware was guest of honor recently at a birthday get-together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Owens and family of Elkhart. Mr. and Mrs. Ware were also honored again with a birthday dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ross and daughter.

Sunday afternoon visitors with Mr. and Mrs. John Fenstermaker were Mr. and Mrs. Wes Smith of Hammond.

Michael Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Baker had a tonsillectomy at the Woodlawn hospital on Friday. He is recuperating at his home.

C. O. Eiler, in a postcard message mailed from Pensacola, Florida Jan. 23, states that "he left better weather in Indiana as it was 28 degrees the day before." For your information, Clarence, things have changed around Mentone since you left, and that "Florida weather" we had been having done went that-away.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baker were in Indianapolis Monday and Tuesday attending the hardware convention, an event they have not missed in 15 years. Mrs. Baker won a set of Boontonware as a door prize.

IN HOSPITAL

John Urschel, of Tippecanoe, is a patient in the Woodlawn hospital at Rochester.

Do not over feed beef cows which are nursing baby calves, advise Purdue University animal scientists.

Storm windows which steam up should be vented at the top with two 3/4 inch holes in the frame, say Purdue University agricultural engineers. This allows for better ventilation, but does not cause much heat loss.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all my friends, neighbors and Merry Molly Club for the many beautiful cards, flowers, plants, that I received during my recent illness. They shall all be remembered.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Our Beloved Irene who left us 6 years ago, February 11th.

"When Day Is Done"

When day is done,
and those we love,
Must leave us for a while,
When shadows fall
and evening comes
To dim that much loved smile.
There still is hope -

A new days sun
Will yet shine from above,
And some day in a brighter dawn
We will meet the ones we love.

Only whats done

For Christ will last."

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

by Harold R. Driskell

Read: James Chapter 3.

Of all the members of our body the tongue is the busiest.
We should try to control this member because it will destroy us if we don't. A gun can be used to kill the body, but the tongue can be employed to murder character.

James, a servant of Christ, wrote to Christians, "But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison." James 3:8.

Each individual is responsible to God for his behavior. The words which are used by a person are one index to that man's character.

It is easy to use words without considering their meaning.
One who attends church regularly can pronounce the words of a song without thinking of their meaning. It takes less time to sing "Jesus is all the world to me" than it takes to show the world that we mean those words by our lives.

Idle Words Prevalent

It is regrettable that there is so much disrespect for the name of God in our land. Many take the name of God in vain thoughtlessly rather than for the express purpose of being offensive toward Him. Take time to read these expressions and then think about them:

1. "Dickens" you are saying the Devil.
2. "Darn" you are saying Damn.
3. "Gosh" you are saying the equivalent of God. The same being true to "golly."
4. "Gee" you are in essence saying "Jesus."
5. "Many who throw up their hands in horror when they hear the "Hell" used in an oath, repeatedly say, "My heavens," or
"For heavens sake." If any thing, this is worse, for it gets closer to God and his throne. Christ said, "And he that sweareth by the heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him sitteth thereon." Matt. 23:22

Many more could be added to this list. Jesus said, "Every idle word that man shall speak, they shall give account thereof
in the day of judgement."

(See Webster's New International Dictionary for defini-

Forage crops in the Future

Ralph L. Davis, Purdue alfalfa breeder, predicted that a two-clone or line cross alfalfa with hybrid vigor would be available for farmers within five years. The two-clone or line crosses already have been produced experimentally.

Designating these crosses as "hybrids", Davis said that fewer than 10 percent of them exceed the present alfalfa varieties in yield. However, a few fewer than one percent have yielded 20 to 40 percent higher than present varieties.

Methods of producing hybrids economically are being tested at Purdue and crosses are being made in cooperation with the Oregon experiment station since seed can not be produced in Indiana. These and other two-clone combinations will be performance tested in Indiana, Davis said.

R. J. Bula, Purdue agronomist, said Indiana farmers get more grass and legume seed faster as a result of reproduction of seed in the Western states rather than the mid-west. The result may change varieties when seed is produced in an area where it is not adapted, but by using up-to-date methods of seed production technology these changes can be minimized to where they are of no practical significance, he explained.

Wayne Whitehead, Purdue agronomist, reported on research to improve standing ability of forage sorghums. Agronomists also are investigating carbohydrate and protein relationships in the different types of sorghums.

Whitehead said proper varieties, time of planting and harvest, adequate populations and good fertilization will combine to increase yield and quality of sorghum for silage.

COUNTERPOINT

By The Editor's Wife

Charles V. Neal, Jr., family financial counselor, says that many women spend money recklessly because they feel neglected (and are seeking attention), or because they hate their husbands and are trying to punish them.

Mr. Neal mentions that in ye olden days a husband would have been allowed to beat his wife for wasting his wealth, but that today the problem "demands an adult approach."

Much discord in financial matters could be avoided if young people were in agreement, before marriage, about what they wanted, in a material way, in life. George B. Anderson, playwright and author, has this to say: "Decide what you want, that money can buy; take a paper and make a list—decide if it is truly worth getting—for it is really important that a person gets what he really wants. If he doesn't, he will pay for it in frustration purchases for the rest of his life."

"Many people are miserably unhappy with purchases they have made simply because they didn't get what they really wanted in the first place."

How many "frustration purchases" do you have at your house? I'm thinking of a few of my own, so you're not the only one who is guilty. Wish the information had come a little earlier, don't you?

Postal officials are warning patrons to beware of three new types of chain letters (all illegal, by the way).

One involves children's books (falsely called a "Children's book club.") Another copies the 13th Psalm for "good luck." The third involves recipes.

Anyone who participates in these chain letter deals, violates U. S. Codes and is subject to prosecution, conviction on fraud or lottery charges, and possible imprisonment and fine.

It is estimated that by 1970 there will be three million more women than men in the United States.

RIGHT TO OWN FIREARMS

(Reprinted from the 'Life Lines')

Our mistaken foes cannot feel comfortably assured of our future surrender to them so long as we, the people of the United States, are permitted to own individual firearms.

For a long time, the Soviets have been trying to sell the United States on the idea of national disarmament. Naturally, they have given us to understand that if we will disarm, they will disarm. But since morality to them has nothing to do with telling the truth the Soviets cannot be trusted. To them, morality is only that which promotes the spread of world-wide communism and that by whatever means it can be effected. No nation which feels a sense of right and wrong has the slightest grounds for negotiations with Soviet Russia. The Soviets talk in a different language and they define a solemnly signed contract merely as "pie crust made to be broken."

And now, not only national disarmament on our part is their target, but even personal disarmament as well. Congressional legislation has been proposed which would compel such detailed government control of firearms as to discourage law-abiding citizens from purchasing and owning guns, even for purposes of sport or self-defense. Adequate laws already exist to safeguard ownership and use of guns in a sensible way. Proposed laws would require registration of every purchase of ammunition and close identification of each gun owner. No restrictive laws regarding firearms would affect criminals and gangsters because they customarily obtain their shooting-irons and ammunition by theft, anyway. It would be a gilt-edged invitation to thieves and killers to go into action; fewer law-abiding citizens could put up resistance.

In other lands, government enforced registration of privately owned firearms has always led to confiscation. Before a despotic government can take over, the people must be disarmed. Strict registration has been enacted. Then, just prior to invasion date, either internal subversives or external aggressors have checked the rolls, picked up the guns, turned over another helpless people to armed dictators. This procedure is too risky for Americans to follow. We must not make our downfall that easy. Let's remember that American independence is descended from a lot of revolutionary muskets, owned by sturdy pioneers who knew how to shoot. Sportsmen are keenly aware of the danger and have been fighting it for years. The average householder is unaware of the fact that he is liable to lose his revolver, pistol, or other means of defense for himself, his family, and his property in any emergency which might arise.

Cheap Corn vs. Heavy Hogs

With corn so cheap relative to hog prices, farmers may be tempted to feed their hogs even after they have reached 220 pounds or more, points out Ronald H. Bauman, Purdue University agricultural economist.

Farmers who do this run the risk of not getting back as much as market price for storable corn, he cautions.

The economist says this is one way to figure returns for feeding hogs to heavier weights:

First, figure the sale value of the hog when it reaches market weight of around 220 pounds. Then compute your estimated total value of the hog when it reaches a heavier weight. Be sure to make realistic estimates of both hog price trends and discounts per cwt. at heavier weights. Currently with 220-pound hogs selling at $18 per cwt.—or less when they reach that weight. Thus your 220-pound hog brings $39.60. Your 260-pound hog sells for $42.90. Increase in value by adding 40 pounds is thus $3.30.

How much does it cost you to obtain this added $3.30 in value?

Feed cost per pound of gain in feeding hogs from 220 to 260 pounds will average around 9 cents when corn brings $1. per bushel. Thus, the feed cost only is 40 pounds at 9 cents or $3.60.

In this illustration, therefore, the the $3.60 added feed cost increased the market value of the hog only $3.30 or 30 cents on feed cost alone was lost by feeding to the heavier weight.

Your feed efficiency may be higher than the average level used here. But when corn prices are low, as in the present situation, some farmers tend to feed to heavier weights. As supplies of larger animals rise, heavier hogs tend to be discounted in price. The result is that feeding to heavier weights may neither be profitable nor helpful to consumer acceptance of pork, Bauman asserts.

So, the economist suggests careful calculation before you feed your hogs to weights in excess of 210 to 220 pounds—unless you are caught with feed which is not storable and otherwise might be lost.

Bulletin on Hybrid Corns

Your corn profits depend largely upon hybrid you grow. A new Purdue University bulletin will help you compare profits you can expect from most available corn hybrids.

Results of performance trials conducted throughout Indiana by Purdue's agricultural experiment station are reported in Research Bulletin 711, "Performance of commercial Dent Corn Hybrids in Ind., 1957-60."

Yielding ability of a hybrid has the most important effect on profits, the authors point out. Compare the average yield of the hybrid you are considering with that of other available hybrids. Average yields over several years are more reliable than a comparison of two hybrids grown on your own farm for one year.

Select a hybrid of suitable maturity or growth period for your farm and farming conditions. A hybrid should mature before frost and unless drying equipment is available the corn should reach a safe storage moisture content by harvest time.

Indiana residents may obtain without cost a copy of RB711, "Performance of Commercial Dent Corn Hybrids in Indiana, 1957-60," from their county agents or by writing to the Agricultural Publications Office, AES Building, Purdue University, Lafayette. Be sure to mention both the number and title of the publication in your request.

1960 SOIL TESTS TOTALLED 46,000

Purdue University's soil testing laboratory processed approximately 46,000 samples in 1960, about an average number for each of the last five years, reports Marion F. Baumgardner, soil scientist in charge.

Some counties submitted fewer than 100 samples, while most of them ranged from 200 to 500. The top 10 counties and the number of samples: Decatur 1,707; Rush 1,233; Benton 1,232; Lake 1,194; Wayne 1,163; Elkhart 1,057; Jasper 1,027; Wells 911; Randolph and Whitley 877 each.

Agronomists agree a fertility program has its basis in soil testing.

And, Baumgardner emphasizes, now is the time for farmers to start planning for testing this spring. Soil sample boxes and instructions can be obtained from county agents' offices.

Don't wait until a week before you plant corn to send a soil sample to the laboratory.

If farmers send the dry samples with properly filled out forms and the correct remittance, they can expect to receive the results from the test within 10 days.

Two major points—be sure that the field cropping history form is completed in detail; make certain the samples are dry before they are placed in the mail.

FEBRUARY WE HONOR OUR GREATEST PRESIDENT

February is American History Month and in this month we celebrate the birthday of one of our greatest presidents, Abraham Lincoln. During his presidency we were engaged in the Civil War. We are now observing its centennial. So much has been written concerning Lincoln that one is inclined to feel that all has been said, but we are ever coming into contact with new approaches, new appraisals, and information on the man called Abraham Lincoln.

In the early years of our great country a song of America was in every man's heart. Our founding fathers had the foresight to set it down on paper, or as much as was possible to do so.

"Part of America's song will never appear in print, because part of it was sung in a language that no man can translate. Part of her song is earth and rock and oxygen . . . Another part is a raw-boned farm kid who became a mechanic, worked 16 hours a day, and eventually turned the plain name of Ford into something legendary. Another part was a boy named Lincoln, great not because he was born in a log cabin, but because he got out of it — because he rose above poverty, ignorance, lack of ambition, shiftlessness of character — and became a man immortal. Another part was buried in a tomb at Arlington . . . Yes, part of America's song is etched in nature and part of it is scrawled on the back of a piece of time — but the greatest refrain of all was written down and passed along with our heritage." — Dr. Sidney L. DeLove, author of "The Quiet Betrayal."

With the coming of the Civil War the song died within the heart of Lincoln because he realized then, as we must know now, that the price of freedom for all mankind, comes high. Are we aware of and alert to the dangers that threaten our freedoms today? Have we remained true to the principle that man is created with God-given rights and God-charged responsibilities? "Freedom has its life in the hearts, the actions, the spirit of men and so it must be daily earned and refreshed — else like a flower cut from its life-giving roots, it will wither and die." — Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Lincoln's speech to the 166th Ohio Regiment Aug. 22, 1864, bears a worthy message for us today. It was:

"It is not merely for today, but for all time to come that we should perpetuate for our children's children this great and free government which we have enjoyed all our lives. I beg you to remember this, not merely for my sake, but for yours. I happen to occupy temporarily this big White House. I am a living witness that any one of your children may look to come here as my father's child has. It is in order that each one of you may have, through this free government which we have enjoyed, an open field and a fair chance for your industry, enterprise and intelligence, that you may all have equal privileges in the race of life, with all its desirable human aspirations. It is for this the struggle should be maintained, that we may not lose our birthright. The nation is now fighting for, to secure such an inestimable jewel." — A. L.

I am sure Abe would have most sincerely joined us in this closing prayer —

O, Lord, let waste and woe of warfare cease, that man's labor may build homes filled with love and laughter. God give thy wayward children Peace.

SHORT COURSE FOR LUMBERMEN

A short course in kiln drying and seasoning of wood will be held Feb. 27 — March 3 at Purdue University, according to Michael O. Hunt, extension specialist in wood utilization. The five-day course is unique in that it combines the resources of a number of educational institutions and industrial firms.

Management personnel, kiln operators, lumber dealers, architects and other persons associated with the production and sale of forest products are expected to attend, Hunt said. Practical aspects of seasoning receive major emphasis.

Detailed information may be obtained by writing Michael O. Hunt, Department of Forestry and Conservation, Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana.

Conference For Farm Women

Some 2,000 farm women are anticipating the annual Women's Conference of the Indiana Farm Bureau in the Murat Theatre, Indianapolis, February 21-22. A wide array of talent in speakers and entertainment, and the usual, prevailing conviviality are counted on to attract a capacity house, according to Mrs. Guy E. Gross, Churubusco, state leader of the FB women.

The first session will open at 9:45 a.m., DST. Theme of the Conference is "Wake Up, America!" Mrs. Gross will direct her message to the topic "Liberty Is A Lady." Dr. Tennyson Guyer, Ohio, a popular lecturer, will address the Tuesday evening audience, February 21.

The international picture will be glimpsed through the addresses of Mrs. Nila Magidoff, Russian-born refugee, and R. H. Fosbrink, who has been active in the Purdue-Brazil project of establishing a rural extension program in that country. Mrs. Victor Haflich, Garden City, Kansas, who is midwestern member of the women's committee of the American Farm Bureau, will talk on her experiences.

The women's public speaking contest, which for several years has been held prior to the Conference, will this year take place on the Convention platform. The annual dinner for the county home demonstration agents, with the county FB women leaders as hostesses, will be served in the Indiana State Teachers' Building on Tuesday evening preceding the formal session in the theatre.

A style show by L. S. Ayres and Company will lend a spring-like fillip as the final number of the two day program.

Give her a GAS DRYER!

She needs one . . . she wants one . . . and it's easy to buy one for her. There's no better way to let her know you care. But be sure you give her the one she'll always like . . . a Gas Dryer!

A GAS DRYER DRIES CLOTHES FASTER!

No other dryer can match the speed of a Gas Clothes Dryer. It's the one that will dry your clothes as fast as your automatic washer washes them.

A GAS DRYER DRIES CLOTHES BETTER!

Because a Gas Dryer dries faster, it is better for drying woolens . . . especially blankets. Towels come out fluffier, too. Remember, speedy drying gives clothes longer life.

A GAS DRYER DRIES CLOTHES CHEAPER!

You can dry your clothes for just about a penny a load with a Gas Clothes Dryer. This is only about one-fourth as much as it costs to operate other kinds of dryers.

LET US PROVE A GAS DRYER IS THE ONE FOR YOU!

You'll Be AMAZED!

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

by Harold R. Driskell

Read Romans 12:17-21

When some one has done something to us that we do not like, how often do we have the urge to "get even" with that person? The desire to return evil for evil is an accurate gauge or thermometer for measuring the depth of the type of person we are. The very desire to retaliate, when one believes he has been wronged, is proof
he is, to that extent, unchristian.
Let us not forget the words of Paul: "Render to no man evil for evil"...

The price you must pay for vengeance is too great. Perhaps if we just set forth a few of the results of vengeance, suggested by the language of Paul, we will hesitate to indulge in this commodity of Satan. When we seek to "get even":

1. We yield to an evil desire.
2. We rob ourselves of the joy which could have come from well-doing.
3. We usually lose a friend — permanently.
4. We disobey God, who says,
"Vengeance is mine."
5. We reveal the shallow depth of love in our hearts.
6. The home is often robbed of happiness, and bitter feelings remain in its place.
7. We show that we are little men - not large enough to return good for evil.
8. Other great sins are encouraged, for vengeance is the brother of envy, jealousy, hatred, and other vile passions.
9. Satan chuckles with glee, knowing that his cause is prospering.

The next time you feel an urge to "get even" with someone who has wronged you, kill that desire! Now take time to read
I Peter 2:23.

February Meeting Palestine Homemakers

The February meeting of the Palestine Homemakers Club was held recently at the home

dinner was enjoyed by all at the noon hour.

The meeting was opened in the afternoon by the Vice President Mrs. Albert Tucker. The pledge to the flag and club creed were repeated by all. For meditation Mrs. Wilbur Perry

"I wouldn't if I were you." Mrs.
Perry also read the history of the song of the month, "Aura Lee."

Health and safety remarks, mostly on strokes, were given by Mrs. Mont Loher, who also gave the lesson on "Household Repairs."

Mrs. Jesse Jones read the secretary and treasurer's report.
The president, Mrs. Edwin Shirey, had charge of the business session. The meeting was closed by the club prayer song.

There were seven members and two guests, Mrs. Paul Bruce of Silver Lake and Mrs. Bill Hatfield and son Rickey of Akron.

The March meeting will be with Mrs. Wilbur Perry.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank all my friends and neighbors for mercy and kindness you have given to me during the death of my loving wife. At such a time as this, little one can say.

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith, I will live with the Savior forever. Prepare for death and meet me there.

COUNTERPOINT, Continued

credit to the newspaper, but the article is signed:

LITTLE MEMORIES WE'D LIKE TO FORGET

A woman came into our country store and handed the storekeeper a neatly wrapped package of butter she had made. She explained that she would like to exchange it for another because a mouse had fallen into the churn.

She had gotten the mouse out right away but she couldn't eat it knowing about the mouse. She explained: "I thought you'd give me another pound in place of it because what people don't know can't hurt them."

The woman clerk swallowed a couple of times and then nodded in agreement. She picked up the butter and took it into the back room. A moment later she handed the customer some butter.

After the woman left, the storekeeper looked at me and said, "I just changed the wrapper on her butter. After all, what people don't know can't hurt them."

MRS. H. E. CHRISMAN, Scottsbluff, Neb.

Because parents in Switzerland and Norway have protested, few toy guns are for sale in these countries. (No comment necessary.)

We enjoyed this: Young lad (doing home work:) "Dad, is water works all one word, or do you need a hydrant?"

NEW DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. David King of Bloomington, are the parents of a daughter, Lynda Marie, born Feb. 3. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Fenstermaker of near Akron. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. William King of Wooster, Ohio. The baby has five great-grandparents. David King is taking his Master's degree, in Science and teaching under Prof. Edmondson at Indiana University.

Reading Club News

The January meeting of the Mentone Reading Club was held at the home of Mrs. Wayne Tombaugh, with Mrs. Walter Lackey serving as assisting hostess.

Meditations, "Recipe For the New Year," was read by Mrs. Lyman Mollenhour.

Mrs. Harold Nelson gave a background story on Hawaii and then presented Mrs. Wymond Wilson. She showed a number of lovely colored slides which had been taken in the Hawaiian Islands last summer while the Wilsons were touring there. Of special appeal was a movie showing the volcano, Mauna Loa, in action. A number of lovely souvenirs added to the interest of this fine travelogue.

The February meeting of the Mentone Reading Club was held at the home of Mrs. Raymond Cooper with Mrs. Ralph Mollenhour assisting.

Officers elected for the coming year are: president, Mrs. Charles Manwaring; first vice president, Mrs. Joe Boggs; second vice president, Mrs. Miles Manwaring; secretary, Mrs. William Cox, and treasurer, Mrs. Herman Olson.

A poem, "The Heart of Man," was read by Mrs. Oliver Teel for meditations. Mrs. Dan Urschel gave a number of interesting and intriguing thoughts concerning the heart. The program committee, Mrs. Teel and Mrs. Urschel, had arranged for Dr. Urschel to speak to the group on The Heart From A Woman's Viewpoint. An emergency prevented Dr. Urschel from giving this talk. The ladies are eagerly anticipating hearing him at a future date.

COUNTERPOINT

By The Editor's Wife

See if you don't find your thoughts in agreement with Haydn Pearson as he writes about the February Thaw.

"... Sometimes a man grows impatient waiting for signs of spring. That is why the February thaw is so welcome. After a spell of zero temperature and wild winds, one morning on the way to the barn a man stops and sniffs the air. By mid-morning he is sure. The breeze is from the south - - -

"Water drips from the roofs, and rivulets course down the tracks from the woodlot. Chickadees chant their sweet two-toned spring song and bluejays bugle above the maple sugar orchard."

Abraham Lincoln had less than one year of formal schooling, and in his own eyes was an uneducated man. Yet one cannot read his Gettysburg address (and many, many of his speeches) without being moved to the core by the simple and direct beauty of his words.

"... the mystery and mastery of Lincoln came from books — a little; but from Life, the Great Teacher — vastly more." How true is this comment by Samuel B. Pettingill, former Indiana Congressman.

Right here, a few lines from the ancient Greek philosopher, take on real meaning — "Abundance of knowledge does not teach a man to be wise."

This question from four-year-old Lisa stopped me momentarily — "Grandma, is the mouse family related to the rat family?"

Timely household hint for those of us who wish to paint furniture knobs. (And how long did you have to hold that knob before it was dry enough to put down?) Attach them with their screws to a cardboard box. Simple but perfect! (Thanks to Columnist Bert Bacharach.

Sam Levenson, the well known TV personality, and former teacher, has written Ten Commandments For Parents. We would like to share them with you, as space permits.

Here is the first one: "Thou shalt guard thy children in the home and on the street.

The second is: "Thou shalt

WALTER PETERSON BURIED SATURDAY

Walter Peterson, 54, died Wednesday night of last week at the Logansport state hospital following a short illness.

Born Dec. 31, 1906, in New-castle township, he was the son of Charles J. and Katie Mickey Peterson. He was a member of the Mentone Church of Christ.

Surviving are three brothers, Clarence and Ransford, both of Rochester; and Joe, Mentone; and two sisters, Mrs. Jay (Mary) Long, Rochester; and Mrs. Raymond (Ruth) Rogers, Tippecanoe. One sister, Agnes, and two brothers, Frank and Boyd, preceded him in death.

Funeral rites were held at the Johns funeral home at 10 a.m. Saturday. Ernil Norman officiated and assisted by Harold Driskell. Burial was at the Sycamore cemetery near Mentone.

ZONING MEET FEB. 21

Preliminary plans and drawings have been prepared for the future zoning of the Mentone town and area, and the Mentone town council is holding a public meeting at the town hall on Tuesday evening, Feb. 21, for the purpose of submitting the original plans and to receive the suggestions of citizens for necessary changes.

Zoning is a service intended for the benefit of all citizens, and it is the desire of the officials to have the original draft as near perfect as possible. The help of the citizens will be appreciated.

make thy home a sanctuary of love and devotion."
(More another time.)

February is a very special time for mothers of six-year-olds who, carefully and proudly, are carrying their first love letters home—valentines which say in painfully awkward and sprawling print, "I Love you, mother." (Someplace, stored away with other "firsts" I have two such valentines. They are unique and priceless.)

We enjoyed this:
"These shirts are made of very strong materials," said the salesman. "They just laugh at the laundry."
"I know," replied the customer. "Some of mine came home with their sides split."

C. of C. HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Mentone Chamber of Commerce was held at Pete's Restaurant Tuesday evening, starting with a dinner at 6:30.

The first business to be presented to the membership by President Thomas Harman was the election of three directors. Lloyd Bowerman, Ralph Mollenhour and Gerald Romine were elected.

Various committee reports were made, showing the activity of each during the past year. Most of the committees had a number of activities to report.

In the executive session that followed the regular meeting, Gerald Romine was named president of the organization; Wayne Bowser, vice president, and Lloyd Bowerman, treasurer. M. O. Mentzer was continued as executive secretary.

M. H. S. BASKETBALL TO MAKE HISTORY

(The following story appeared in the Feb. 10 issue of the Mentone school Mentonette.)

Mr. G. Warren Phillips, Superintendent of Valparaiso City School, assisted by Mr. Paul Boston, retired Superintendent of LaPorte Schools, is writing a book on Indiana basketball. In order to get a true picture, he has chosen outstanding teams from schools of all sizes, and one of the teams he has chosen is our outstanding team for the year 1934-1935.

The twelve men on that team included Guido Shirey, Corlyss Paulus, Corlyle Paulus, Walter Songer, Paul Long, Leo Linn, Bill Cook, Don McGowan, Don Blue, Don Elick, and Herschell Teel. 'Hody' didn't get to play in the Regional or the State because he had played in too many games, so Paul Jones was the substitute. Harold Horn was the Student Manager, and Hardy Songer was the coach.

Mrs. Guido Shirey is now compiling data on the team, which will be forwarded to Mr. Phillips.

During the season of that year, we played Huntington, and the Regional was held at Auburn.

MHS can be justly proud that this team was chosen to represent the small schools of the state. It was a fine team and we are still proud of winning the Regional and getting to go to the State.

PRODUCERS' ANNUAL MEETING

W. R. "Dick" Cummins, general manager of the Producers Marketing Association, will be the featured speaker at the Mentone Producers annual meeting to be held Monday, February 20 at the Mentone School. The dinner preceding the meeting will be served at 6:30 p.m. fast time, according to Jim Tibbets, the market manager.

The topic for Mr. Cummins' speech is "Farmers Are Challenged To Solve Their Own Problems."

Mr. Cummins is a second generation livestock cooperative marketing man, as his father, "Jim" Cummins, was active in organizing and promoting the cooperative movement and served as the manager of a local shipping association, the Jay County Shipping Association, and director of the Indiana Farm Bureau Cooperative Association. He also was a director of the Producers Cooperative Commission Association at Buffalo, New York, for many years.

Dick is familiar with the problems involved in livestock marketing, having started as yard boy in the calf department in 1933 of the Producers Commission Association. In April, 1934, he was transferred to the cattle department as yard boy and was soon promoted to cattle weigher. With this experience he did feed lot visitation and was then promoted to cattle salesman.

When the Fort Wayne branch was organized in December, 1943, he took over the management of the branch and continued in that capacity until his promotion to General Manager of the Producers following the retirement of Scott Meiks in 1946.

Under the management of Mr. Cummins, an extensive expansion program started and 16 Producer branch markets have been established.

Election of operating committee members and delegates to the state annual meeting will be held during the business session of the meeting.

Tickets for the dinner are available at the Mentone market or may be obtained from operating committee members. Entertainment by the Washington Township, Allen County, Farm Bureau Kitchen Band will feature music from pots and pans.

Patrons and friends of the market are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Eiler returned Wednesday noon from a trip to Florida. Mrs. Eiler became ill at South Bay, Florida and spent 11 days in the hospital. Due to her condition, they took the plane home and were brought from Chicago by their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miekley. Mrs. Eiler is much better now but still on her ailing order.

Mrs. Cox Entertains Mentone Home Ec.

The Mentone Home Demonstration Club met Thursday p.m. with Mrs. Roy Cox. The meeting was opened by vice president, Mrs. Eloise Long.

The Club Creed was led by Mrs. Esther Sarber and the Pledge to the Flag by Mrs. Genevieve Warren. Meditation was given by Mrs. Mary Barkman. Reading, "Training for Tomorrow" and "Taking Some Time to Spread Sunshine."

History of the song of the month, "Aura Lee" was read by Mrs. Genevieve Warren. Eva Laird gave a lesson on Strokes for health and safety. Lesson on simple household repairs was given by Melissa Unzicker and Minnie Busenburg.

Roll call-what I look for first in the newspaper, was answered by the fourteen members present. Secretary and treasurer reports were read and approved. Esther Sarber, our president, was in charge of the business session. It was voted that our meeting day would remain on Thursday. An auction was conducted by Olive Tucker.

Genevieve Warren and Minnie Busenburg received Cherrio Pal gifts. Dessie Cramblet was winner of the mystery package. Meeting was closed with repeating of Club Collect.

TO QUIETLY OBSERVE 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Besson will observe their fiftieth wedding anniversary February 22 quietly, without open house, because of ill health, at their home five and one-half miles southeast of Warsaw, on route 3.

The Bessons were married February 22, 1911, at the Methodist parsonage in Burket by Rev. Conda A. Hile. They began housekeeping on Mr. Besson's home farm one and one-half miles east and three miles north of Mentone.

Their seven children were all born there. They are Earl, Everett, Mrs. Charles (Thelma) Eaton of Mentone, Dale of Warsaw, John of Leesburg, Paul of Claypool and Wayne (deceased). They also have 14 grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Besson have lived in this community all their lives, until they moved to their present address 17 years ago.

Russian Exile To Tell Story

Mrs. Nila Magidoff, Russian-born American citizen, who will address the February 22, Wednesday morning, session of the annual Women's Conference of the Indiana Farm Bureau, will bring a heart-warming story of exile in Siberia, work in Russian factories, exploring the wilds of central Asia--and all of it flavored with humor, possible only from a stout hearted triumph over her trials. The Conference, the thirty-first such event, will open February 21 in the Murat Theatre, Indianapolis.

Mrs. Magidoff returned to her native land in 1958 with Willie Snow Ethridge, eminent author, and out of their experiences came Mrs. Ethridge's book, "Russian Duet."

Governor Mathew E. Welsh will open the Conference with an official message of greeting to the 2,000 farm women expected to attend. Mrs. Guy E. Gross, Churubusco, state FB women's director and second vice-president of the organization, will speak on the topic "Liberty is a Lady."

A question and answer period, with Glenn W. Sample, IFB vice-president, as moderator, President George Doup, and department heads participating, will provide a new departure.

Tuesday afternoon, R. H. Fosbriek, Purdue University, coordinator of the Purdue-Brazil extension project, will bring the story of that venture into rural education in that South American country. District winners of the women's annual public speaking contest will compete for state honors to close that session.

Winners Have Class Party

On Saturday evening twenty two members of the winners Sunday School Class of the Baptist Church met at the Wagon Wheel in Warsaw and enjoyed a smorgasborg dinner.

Contests were conducted by Pastor Olson of which proved very interesting. Some were, "Do You Know Your Mate?", "Can You Top This?", and a Bible couple quiz.

Those enjoying the evening were, Pastor and Mrs. Irwin Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Norwood, Mr. and Mrs. David Phefney, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Zent, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Welborn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Besson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Horn, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Romine.

HIGHWAY KILLINGS MUST STOP

Nine out of ten accidents can be traced to human failures . . . failures to observe traffic ordinances and regulations; failure to exercise prudence and good judgement. Moreover, experience shows that drivers who recognize existence of hazards, who practice the rules of cautious driving, are seldom in an accident.

It is the hope of the highway safety leaders in Indiana that the information given will make our citizens conscious of their responsibilities; will stimulate our drivers and pedestrians alike to greater safety efforts, and that it will contribute to the successful solution of this community problem. Working together we can, and must, reduce the terrible toll of life, limb and property which is exacted annually by accidents. It is only by continuous traffic engineering improvements, and constant educational efforts that we can achieve our goal. Collectively we can make KOSCIUSKO County Indiana's SAFEST County.

Obedience to Law Enforcement Officers

Leaders in the law enforcement agencies are authorized to direct all traffic in accordance with the driving ordinances or in an emergency, as public safety or convenience may require. No driver of a vehicle or pedestrian shall fail or refuse to comply with an order or direction by an officer in the line of his duty.

Every person propelling any pushcart or riding on a bicycle or an animal, or driving an animal-drawn vehicle is subject to the provisions of the law, except those provisions which by their very nature can have no application.

The driver of every vehicle shall obey the instructions of all control devices unless otherwise directed by an agent of the law.

Noise and Smoke

It is unlawful for any person to make unnecessary noise with any vehicle or any device connected to it, or permit any vehicle to emit an unreasonable quantity of smoke or noxious gases.

All horns having more than one tone must be so regulated as to sound simultaneously and not in consecutive order.

No person shall use a warning on his automobile or any other vehicle similar to that now used by the Fire, Police and Sheriff's departments.

Traffic Control Signals

The State's Traffic law prohibits right-hand turns on a red light. Red means stop for all vehicles, including the driver who heretofore has been swinging to the right around an intersection into the flow of vehicles moving on the green. This driver must now stop on the Red and make his turn only when he has the Green.

Flashing Red means stop. It is to be interpreted the same as a stop sign. Flashing Yellow or amber means caution.

Green means that vehicles may go straight ahead, right or left, unless a sign prohibits turns. Vehicles proceeding on the Green must, however, yield the right-of-way to the vehicles and pedestrians lawfully within the intersections.

Yellow or amber when shown with green requires that vehicles be brought to a stop before entering the intersection if such stop can be made with care.

If a Green arrow is shown with the Red light, vehicles may cautiously enter the intersection to make the movement indicated by the arrow, but must yield the right-of-way to other traffic.

Legal placing of lights in signals calls for Red at the top, Yellow, or amber in the middle, and Green at the bottom.

The new Indiana Speed Law, recently enacted, is 65 miles an hour on the highways.

HIGHWAY SAFETY FOR OUR CHILDREN

-DO NOT PARK-

1. On that portion of a sidewalk improved for pedestrian use.
2. In front of a public or private drive.
3. Within an intersection.
4. Within 10 feet of a fire hydrant.
5. On a crosswalk.
6. Within 20 feet of a crosswalk at any intersection in a residential district; and within such distance of a crosswalk in a business district as shall be designated by sign or marker.
7. Within 10 feet upon the approach of any flashing beacon, stop sign, or traffic control signal at the side of a roadway.
8. Within 50 feet of the nearest rail of a railroad crossing.
9. Within 20 feet of the driveway to any fire station and on the side of a street opposite the entrance to any fire station within 75 feet of said entrance.

11. On the roadway side of any vehicle stopped or parked at the edge of curb or a street.
12. Upon a bridge.
13. At any place where official signs prohibit parking.
14. Vehicles parked on a restricted parking area which shall be moved not more than 50 feet during the limited parking period shall be deemed to have remained stationary.

-SPEED LIMITS-

The legal speed limit under Indiana's traffic law is 20 miles an hour in business districts and 30 miles an hour in residential districts.

Local authorities may establish higher speed limits in either business or residential districts.

All highways on which the limit is in excess of 30 miles an hour must be designated as through highways and adequate signs posted informing the motorist of the permissible speed. Entrances to such highways must be posted with stop signs.

Within cities and villages, the State Highway Commissioner may increase speed limits on State highways outside of business districts. Adequate signs will inform motorists of such limits.

Signs are not necessary in business or residential districts except where the limit is in excess of 30 miles an hour. Motorists driving on unmarked streets in either business or residential districts are subject to the 20 and 30 mile limitations.

-PEDESTRIANS-

1. Cross streets only at the intersection and at the crosswalks.
2. Cross only on the green light.
3. Wait at the curb for the green light.
4. Whenever practicable walk on the right half of the crosswalk.

6. No person shall stand in the roadway for the purpose of soliciting a ride from the driver of private vehicles.

PREPARE FOR THE FUTURE

I am thinking of heaven tonight. Of the beautiful home of the free. Where Jesus, my Saviour now dwell and where I am longing to be.

I am thinking of heaven tonight and my loving wife. Of the beautiful crown she will wear. Of the mansion prepared for her. Oh, what will it be to be there with my loving Wife.

I am thinking of heaven tonight. Of that glorified heavenly throng. All arrayed in the garments of white and singing victory songs.

I am thinking of heaven tonight and my loving wife. And of loved ones that dwell over there, of that beautiful land of delight and the bliss that they ever will share.

I am thinking of heaven tonight and my loving Wife. Of that beautiful shore where forever she will be in the light, with loved ones to part never more.

FEBRUARY P.T.A. MEETING HELD

A large group of parents and teachers met at the school on Wednesday, February 8th, for their P.T.A. meeting.

From the third chapter of James, Pastor Olson gave the devotions.

The fourth grade, directed by their teacher Mrs. Wayne Tombaugh, presented "The Life of Lincoln," by way of a puppet show, of which the children had made. These students did excellent in their reciting, and in closing lead the group in the Pledge to the Flag.

A very interesting television program was enacted by Mrs. Frank Manwaring's 5th grade. The script and commercials were the students' original ideas and their performance was fine. This class also won the grade count by having the greatest number of parents present.

Mr. John Smith, Child Guidance Director from Warsaw, was then introduced. He related some of his experiences and the need of the guidance program. Anyone having need of guidance are urged to contact Mr. Smith and take advantage of this program, as it is expanding and a clinic is in sight in the near future.

During a short business meeting, play ground equipment was discussed. Mrs. Jack Pritchard, president, expressed her appreciation for the success of the penny supper. The meeting was then adjourned and refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Tombaugh spent Saturday in Lafayette visiting their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tombaugh. Bill Nellans and Eddie Tridle made the trip with them and saw the big Purdue game that evening, and as an added thrill, the boys visited the Purdue dressing room after the game and Kosciusko county's high-point man shook hands with Purdue's high-point man.

TALK ON WATER CONSERVATION

Prof. Howard Michaud, of Purdue, widely known teacher of conservation, spoke to about 150 cooperators of the Kosciusko county Soil and Water Conservation District at their annual meeting, February 8. His illustrated lecture on "Water — Lifeblood of the Land", showed the need for controlling the waste of water through run-off.

Awards for outstanding work in applying conservation practices to the land were made to Guy Cripe, Jackson township. The land judging team from Claypool, which won national honors last year, were presented by their coach, Richard Sparrow. He also introduced the boys who are studying land classifications this year. Ronnie Hathaway of Claypool reported on his award winning conservation camp trip.

Howard Silveus, Seward township, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, reported on the administration of the district conservation program and Bob Martin, conservationist, gave the details of the technical work being done in conservation practices.

Loren Decker of Clay township, was re-elected to the district board. Hold-over members include Leland Kinsey, Lake township; Myron Metzger, Jackson township and Robert Norris, Franklin township. Two associate members of the Board are Howard Workman, Monroe township and Gordon Tuttle, Washington township.

Mrs. Fred Lemler spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Stan Yeiter and son of Oak Lawn, Illinois.

CARD OF THANKS

Sincere thanks to all who remembered me during my recent hospital experience. Your cards, visits and prayers were deeply appreciated.

OUR BEST WAY-OF-LIFE INSURANCE

The men of the Army and Air National Guard work as citizens and train as military men to protect our way of life. More than 472,000 strong, they stand at our first line of defense. But the Guard's protection does not end with its battle function. In peacetime, it is just as ready to cope with disaster... and just as admirably efficient. Today, the citizen-soldiers of the National Guard are better trained than ever before in the 300-year history of the Guard. A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

by Harold R. Driskell

Read James I;

What do you allow to come in your home? By asking this question, I have specific reference to reading material. What kind of literature comes into your home? Well, some of the things allowed ought not be allowed; some of it is almost unavoidable; some of it not only ought to be allowed but encouraged to be read. It is the responsibility of parents to govern and control what comes into the home.

Our nation is being subjected off the presses of our land. The motive and design of this devil-ish and lewd material is the dollar. There are many who to an ever increasing amount of filth and trash that is turned care not for morality; have no respect for the American youth;
have no regard for right and wrong; but who live for the money they can make regardless of how they make it. This vicious type of individual is the one that is behind this lascivious literature. Legally it can be sold. Morally it must be opposed by every decent minded citizen.

This material has an adverse effect on the young mind. Mr.
J. Edgar Hoover, of the F. B. I. warned that sex-mad magazines are creating criminals faster than jails can be built to handle them, that sex crimes and obscene literature go hand in hand.

The boy or girl in school, even your child has access to "newstand obscenity". But you say your girl or boy will not bother to read such as that. You say they are trained to know that such is evil. Let us hope that parents can have a very close relationship with their young so as to enjoy their confidence. But do you realize that any person, young or old, whether they ever read such trash themselves, can be exposed to grave danger because someone else does read it? They can fall prey before the perverts who read it, and who have been made perverts because of reading it, and who have been made per-verts because of reading such literature for a period of time.

Some of this literature is coming into our homes under the title of art, but are little more than "girlie magazines". Such as this should not find room in the home where Christ reigns and dwells.

What can a person do to combat this evil? First of all, create a close confidence with your child so that when exposed to such literature, either through the mails or school friends, they will tell you about it. Report every piece of sordid mail you receive through the mail to the postmaster, in the area which you live. (With the paper or envelopes in which they came.) Speak to your dealers about how you disapprove of his selling this kind of literature. Support those efforts designed to expose and oppose this trash.

This also could be said about other things that come into the home also. WHAT COMES INTO YOUR HOME? Let it be Christ, and that which harmonizes with Him.

Top Dress Wheat Soon

Purdue University agronomists advise Indiana farmers to top dress their wheat with nitrogen if they haven't already done so.

Nitrogen should be applied in southern Indiana before March 20 and in northern Indiana before April 20.

Such new wheat varieties as Knox, Dual, LaPorte and Vermillion can really make high fertility levels pay dividends at harvest, points out Howell N. Wheaton, extension agronomist.

On heavy textured dark colored soils, Wheaton says, up to 20 pounds of nitrogen per acre may be needed. On lighter colored soils, 30-40 pounds can be profitably used. Fifty pounds or more of nitrogen may be needed on sandy soils.

"These suggested rates are only guides and can be adjusted for each farm. One factor to be considered is the preceding crop. Here keen observation and experience of the farmer need to be applied," Wheaton adds.

Jolly Janes Meet With Mrs. Reichard

The Jolly Janes Home Ec. club met at the home of Mrs. Dwight

Reichard. Mrs. Max Freisner was the assisting hostess.

The meeting was called to order by our president, Mrs. Jim Miller, and roll call was answered by our first impression of our husband. We had a very interesting lesson on how to fix cords and which were the best and safest kind to purchase. It was given by Mrs. Tom Harmon. Also Mrs. Frank Hardesty gave us a lesson on how to fix leaky faucets.

There were three visitors, Mrs. Virginia Lucht, Mrs. Harold Driskell and Mrs. Lee Borders.

The door prize was won by Mrs. Leona Eber. Mrs. Richard Gross, Mrs. Dwight Reichard and Mrs. John Ellsworth received birthday gifts from their secret pals.

Mentone Wins
First Game

The Mentone Bulldogs started the sectional basketball tourney in great style at Columbia City tonight (Wednesday) when they won their first game over Lar-ville 65 to 41.

Those who listened to the game on the radio, heard the sports announcer state that Mentone showed lots of poise, played good defensive ball throughout, and exhibited a lot of ability in the fast breaks.

In the last minute of play, Blalock collided with another player and was taken from the game. The extent of his injuries is not known.

Mentone will play Milford Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the Columbia City gym where the sectional is being played.

The Milford-Piercetown score was 83 to 60 in favor of Milford in the second game Wednesday night.

ZONING MEETING WAS CANCELLED

Late Tuesday afternoon representatives of the Metropolitan Planning Service, Indianapolis, called stating no one would be able to be present for the public meeting on zoning scheduled on Tuesday evening. As a result, the meeting was not held. Another date is to be announced.

TWO "DRY
RUNS" SATURDAY

Mentone firemen were kept on the go Saturday evening. Around ten o'clock they were called to the Emma Clutter business building on Main street but no fire was found. Evidently the street lights and business signs, with the aid of the high wind on plexiglass window coverings, reflected into the building. Neighbors, seeing this, put in the alarm.

Shortly after midnight the automatic alarm at the Go-Op Mill let loose and the firemen were on duty again. Again, no fire was discovered.

Note To Citizens

The Mentone Fire Department telephone number is EL 3-2345. This line is connected to some eight firemen's home phones, and it frequently happens that when the number is dialed the caller will hear a busy signal. However, PAY NO ATTENTION to the busy signal and wait for an answer. There is a secondary signal to the firemen that, if they are using their phones, they will clear their lines in favor of the fire call.

Usually when folks are calling the department they are so excited they fail to hear this busy signal. However, Wednesday when Oliver Teel called, he heard the busy signal and hung up, going for help elsewhere, with a word to his wife to keep trying the call.

MOTHER DIES

Mrs. Joan Myrtle Mercer, 64, mother of Mrs. Everett (Dorothy) Busenbarg of west of Mentone, died in the Woodlawn hospital at Rochester Wednesday of last week after an illness of four weeks. Funeral services were held at the First Christian church at Rochester Saturday afternoon at two o'clock.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Randal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Riner, was released last Thursday after a week's stay in the Murphy Medical Center with an attack of the flu. He is still in a weakened condition, but is improving.

COUNTERPOINT

By The Editor's Wife

The passing of Valentine's Day does not mean that Dan Cupid will be on vacation. His bow and arrow activity will cause many a confused young person to ask, "How do I know he (or she) is the right one?"

According to one counsellor, if you can say "yes" to the following questions, your search is over:

1. Can I find happiness making the other person happy?
2. Will he—or she—see my faults and weaknesses and still love me?
3. Can I reveal my fears, ambitions and dreams and still be desired?
4. Can I see myself washing 50,000 dishes for him, or carrying out the garbage for 365 days a year for 50 years?
5. Will I love her when she's 30 pounds heavier, or love him when he's bald?
6. Am I a better person since we met—more thoughtful, less selfish?
7. Am I proud of the partner I have chosen? Do I enjoy introducing her—or him—to my friends?

New taste treat: Roll frankfurters in mayonnaise, then in bread crumbs, and bake.

Number 3—Thou shalt honor the teachers of thy children and teach thy children to honor them.

Number 4—Thou shalt not condone the faults of thy children through a misguided sense of loyalty.

An invention which will revolutionize our living is the fuel cell. This battery-like device uses fuel oil to make electricity, directly and continuously.

However, don't sell your utility stocks and buy oil stocks, as this invention is still in the testing laboratory.

A certain bakery insisted that their bread is tops for losing weight, although the Federal Trade Commission proved that, pound for pound, bite for bite, their bread was as fattening as other brands.

Their answer—"Our bread is less fattening because we slice

CHARLES BELLOMO
DIES IN SLEEP

Charles Bellomo, 61, died in his sleep at his place in Chicago Monday night. Tuesday Mrs. Bellomo attempted to reach him by telephone, and when she received no answer, she called a neighbor who in turn contacted the police. Upon entering the room they found Mr. Bellomo dead.

Mr. Bellomo was born Dec. 25, 1899, and has had a printing plant in Chicago for many years. A few years ago he and his wife purchased a farm along the Tippecanoe river, about three miles northwest of Mentone, and he spent his weekends there.

It is reported he is survived by four sisters in addition to the widow.

Funeral services will be held Friday at the Egan funeral home, 3700 West 63rd Street, in Chicago. No time of the funeral has been announced.

KRALIS ASKING
$500,000 DAMAGES

A suit asking $500,000 damages has been filed in U. S. district court at South Bend by Kralis Brothers Poultry Co., Inc., of Gary, which operates processing plants in Mentone and Gary and Olney, Ill. Defendant in the suit is the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America, AFL-CIO.

The suit charges the union has "coerced" 10 Kralis customers in Chicago, including Swift & Company and Wilson & Company, as well as a Kenosha, Wis. customer into halting trade with Kralis.

The alleged coercion is designed, the complaint states, "to force Kralis to recognize and bargain with" the union at its Mentone and Olney plants, which are not presently organized.

Union activities, says the firm, began last Dec. 28 and have forced the closing of the Kralis plant in Gary.

MARRIED MONDAY

Ronald Edward Severns, 20, R. 5, Warsaw, and Lillian Lee Bowen, 17, of Piercetown, were married in Warsaw Monday. They left immediately on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls. Upon their return they will reside in their new mobile home where Mr. Severns is affiliated with his father in farming.

PLACE IN STATE
MUSIC CONTESTS

Mentone music students were in Indianapolis Saturday where they took part in the state music meet.

Martha Nelson received a superior rating on a bass clarinet solo.

Fred Mellott, with a snare drum solo, was rated excellent.

Tanna Henderson and Janet Besson also were rated excellent in a clarinet duet.

Another excellent rating was received by Ruth Drudge and Mona Ross with a French horn duet.

Our students are to be complimented for their musical accomplishments, and it reflects the ability of their instructor, Kenneth Bush.

INFANT HAS
MENINGITIS

Debra Ward, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ward, was taken to the Murphy Medical Center at Warsaw last Thursday, where her ailment was diagnosed as meningitis. She is in an isolation room, is responding to sulpha treatments and taking nourishment. She is showing improvement although her time in the hospital is indefinite.

TO CLOSE BURKET
EXPRESS OFFICE

The Railway Express Agency has been granted the privilege of discontinuing the handling of express at its Burket agency.

The authority was granted on Friday by the Public Service Commission of Indiana. Eight other stations were listed, but Mentone was not on the list.

NEW DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Lee Puckett of Tippecanoe, are the parents of a daughter, Sheila Ann, born Sunday morning in Goshen General Hospital. She weighed eight pounds, four ounces. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Barrett of Tippecanoe are the maternal grandparents.

FIRE AT TEEL HOME

The fire department was called to the Oliver Teel home, southwest of Mentone, Wednesday. The fire started in the roof over the kitchen, evidently from a heatrola used for supplemental heat in that portion of the dwelling. The damage was not extensive.

New '61 Chevy with Jet-smooth ride!

Impala 4-Door Sedan—Jet-smooth traveler that rivals the luxury cars in everything but price

The '61 Chevy loves to go because it goes so well.
Purrs along pavements like a happy tabby. Takes rough roads in stride and all roads in style.

Just why does a Jet-smooth Chevy treat riders as royally as the high-priced luxury cars? It all came about through a delightful blend of Full Coil suspension, precision-balanced wheels, unique chassis cushioning, and a superb Body by Fisher insulated to hush away road sounds. All this adds up to less sway, less bounce, less dip, less dive, less tilt, less noise, less... well you name it.

Now combine this Jet-smooth ride with conveniences to pamper you and roominess to relax in.
Add a full measure of quiet good looks. Voila, you've got Chevy's formula.

And the proof is in the riding. When you sample a Jet-smooth Chevy at your Chevrolet dealer's we think you'll find it just to your taste.

ATTENDS WEDDING OF NIECE

June Aughinbaugh attended the wedding of her niece, Miss Carolyn Mae Aughinbaugh, and Robert Otto Olson of New York City at the Calvary Baptist Church in South Bend on Saturday evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Aughinbaugh, 735 Cleveland Ave., So. Bend.

Two baskets of white gladioli and snowdrift pompons, with branch candelabra, decorated the church. Mrs. Jerry Day was the organist; Mrs. Dewey Melton and Miss Phyllis Aughinbaugh, sisters of the bride, were vocalists, and Mr. Aughinbaugh, father of the bride, was the violinist.

Mrs. Melton was matron of honor and Miss Phyllis Aughinbaugh was maid of honor for their sister. Mrs. Dean H. Aughinbaugh, Mrs. Eugene Merrill, Mrs. Robert Davis and Mrs. Harold McGhee were bridesmaids. Shirley Jo O'Laughlin, New Carlisle, acted as flower girl and the duties of ring bearer were divided between David Melton, nephew of the bride, and Roger Olson, New York City, brother of the bridegroom.

Attending Mr. Olson as best man was Richard Olson, New York City. The ushers were Dean H. Aughinbaugh, Dewey Melton and Eugene Merrill, South Bend; Jerry Day, Warsaw, and Thomas Hill, Nappanee.

A gown of silk mist taffeta and re-embroidered Alencon lace was worn by the bride, who was escorted by her father. The princess style gown was appliqued with lace on the bodice and flowed into a double panel. The gown had a scalloped Sabrina neckline, bracelet length sleeves and the full skirt with side panels had a bustle back and chapel train. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenias, lace and pink hyacinth florets.

The matron of honor wore a mauve peau de soie sheath dress with petal floor length overskirt, sweetheart neckline and bracelet length sleeves. The maid of honor and bridesmaids' magenta peau de soie sheath dresses were made similar to those of the honor attendants. Their bouquets were open hearts of white pompons bordered with white lace tied with mauve and magenta shower ribbons.

The flower girl's dress of white floked nylon was over mauve peau de soie and made with a cape collar and scalloped overskirt with a bow in the back. Her flowers were like those of the honor attendants.

Mrs. Aughinbaugh wore a sheath dress of taupe floral lace over taupe satin, with a satin cummerbund and bow. Her accessories were beige.

Mrs. Olson wore a sheath dress of light blue silk, made with a V-neck of lace trimmed with beads. A nylon flounce was on the side of the skirt and she had matching light blue accessories. Each carried white Bountiful roses with pink lace ribbons.

A reception was held in the church social hall after which the newlyweds left for a trip in southern Michigan. They are now at home at 1126 California Ave., South Bend.

The bride was graduated from Central high school, South Bend and Bob Jones University, at Greenville, S. C. She is a teacher in the Muessel School, South Bend. Mr. Olson was graduated from Newtown High School, at Elmhurst, N. Y., and attended Pratt Institute, New York, and Bob Jones University.

USE SIMPLE GRASS SEEDING MIXTURES

Use simple grass seeding mixtures for best hay and pasture results, advises Howell Wheaton, Purdue University extension agronomist.

Farmers should avoid seeding grasses such as orchard grass, brome grass and timothy in the same "shotgun" mixture, he points out. Wheaton explains that these grasses mature at different times. If they are mixed in the seeding, part of the crop will always be too mature or too immature.

As examples of simple grass seeding mixtures, Wheaton suggests eight to 10 pounds of alfalfa and four to six pounds of orchard grass per acre; eight to 10 pounds of alfalfa and five to seven pounds of brome grass per acre, or six pounds of alfalfa, four pounds of timothy and one-fourth pound ladino per acre.

The clock has ticked another year,
It seems time flies so fast.
We hope things will be better,
Thou in the year just past.

Our politics have changed - we know,
The recession now is off.
We hope our Chief Executive Doesn't start out playing golf.

They claim they need more exercise,
"Recreation's" what they say.
If he'll come to Mentone
He'll get it a different way.

He doesn't have to go to Warm Springs,
And bathe out in the sun.
I am sure the exercise will help,
And he'll have a lot of fun.

He'll step into the White House
With a head crammed full of brains.
He'll be the kind of man we need
To hold the nation's reins.

If he wants recreation
And wants a lot of fun,
We'll have the best time ever
In Nineteen Sixty-One.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

by Harold R. Driskell

Read James I;

Alcohol poses one of the most serious problems confronted by parents today. According to the most conservative figures, approximately 70,000,000 citizens of the United States drinks alcoholic beverages to some extent. There are in our nation almost five million problem drinkers. Clinical observations now indicate that one out of ten drinkers will become an alcoholic.

Every parent faces the disturbance fact that a child of high school age must be prepared to meet the threat of alcohol. The pressures on young people to drink can neither be denied nor ignored. Mass media and social pressures are precariously appealing and demanding. An undeniable aura of happiness, romance, and success is thrown around drinking. Intoxicating liquors are glamorized as the key to distinction and popularity. Brewers are rapidly selling young Americans on the false idea that "beer belongs."

In view of the terrific impact that mass media and social pressures are making upon children, how shall parents deal with drinking? First, they must honestly examine their attitudes of the home environment. The next step is to decide what attitude you want your children to take regarding drinking. Then it is a matter of helping them to develop a good attitude toward alcohol and live by it. Unless parents are willing to examine their approach to drinking, they need not try to council their children.

Moral preachments and authoritarian restraints alone will not curtail drinking. Instead of lecturing and punishing a child for drinking, it is far better to give him the facts before he falls. Parents cannot depend on the church and the school to do this teaching. Conflicting viewpoints presented by these institutions often confuse young people. Parents should set up a family project to learn the truth regarding alcohol.

Children will look to their parents for guidance in the matter of drinking. Young people who understand themselves and who know the facts and fancies about alcohol are not likely to turn to drinking as a crutch or comfort in anxiety or boredom.
Realizing that "wine is a mock-er, strong drink for a brawler;
And whosoever erreth thereby is not wise" (Proverbs 20:1), they will THINK before they DRINK and then not drink.

Thanks to Paul Southern.

61, resistant to crown rust and stem rust, has been developed tural experiment station and the ture. Seed of the variety, also moderately resistant to yellow dwarf disease, is being made available to certified seed growers this year. It will be available to farmers in 1962.

THIS IS NATIONAL FFA WEEK

Future Farmers of America members throughout the nation are scheduling special activities to focus special attention on the work of their organization during National FFA Week, Feb. 20 to 27.

The Mentone FFA chapter has purchased welcome road signs which are being painted and will be exhibited at the four edges of town.

Membership in the FFA is made up of farm boys who are students of vocational agriculture in high school. The organization's activities are designed primarily to help develop rural leadership and good citizenship, and to stimulate the boys to better achievement in their study and work toward successful establishments in farming or related occupations.

The Mentone FFA chapter has 33 members. Officers are: President - Barry Blalock, Vice President - Fred Horn, Secretary - Doyle Eiler, Treasurer - Larry Rackeweg, Reporter - Gary Harmon, Sentinel - John Feldman.

Morris J. Bitzer, vocational agriculture instructor in Mentone high school, serves as advisor of the FFA chapter.

The national Future Farmer organization has 380,000 members, with 9,000 local chapters in the 50 states and Puerto Rico. Membership in Indiana totals nearly 10,000.

Future Farmers choose the week of George Washington's birthday each year for the observance of National FFA Week. Although usually recognized as a Revolutionary War General and our first President, Washington's first love was the farm he called Mount Vernon. There he was one of the first in the Nation to practice contour planting, crop rotations, fertilization and other soil conservation and improvement methods. It was more than a century after Washington's death before general use was made of many of the sound agricultural practices that he advocated.

F. B. LEADERS VISIT CAPITAL

Farm Bureau leaders from Kosciusko county were in Indianapolis on Feb. 7 to discuss progress toward getting property tax relief and several other pending legislative matters with their state organization officials. Following a forenoon briefing at the Warren Hotel, the farm leaders visited the General Assembly and visited with their Representatives and Senators.

The most vital issues which concern these farm leaders, besides the tax problem, are reapportionment of the state for legislative representation and amendments to the 1959 School Corporation Reorganization Act, and reform of present welfare regulations and their administration.

After lunching together, the group along with leaders from other counties in this FB district discussed completion of their 1961 membership campaign which is expected to bring the state total to well over 130,000 families and plans for next year.

Those who made the trip to the state capital from this county were: Mrs. Harry Mishler, County Women's leader of Farm Bureau; Harold Gay, District 2 Fieldman; Howard Silvius, Chairman of P.X. committee; Lloyd Rummel, Membership Committee; Don Stackhouse, County Vice President and Chairman of Membership Committee.

THANK YOU

We wish to thank all our friends for the gifts and many good wishes they extended at our Golden Wedding Celebration.

Sincerely,

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Haimbaugh

Purdue University agricultural engineers remind farmers that having their plow shares sharpened now will enable them to avoid the rush at plowing time next spring. Dull plow shares are a major cause of plow sole compaction.

In the picture is Jake Smith and his father, Frank Smith of Goshen who is 88 years of age and enjoys good health except loss of eyesight. Also Jake Smith's daughter, Anna Williamson and her daughter, Mrs. Don (Norma) Kuhn and her three children, David Lee, aged 11; Pamela Sue, 9, and Gary D., 4.

New Culver Alfalfa Available

Indiana farmers will have their first chance this spring to sow a new alfalfa variety that spittle bugs don't like. It is the Purdue-developed Culver, which has yielded excellently under heavy attacks by these irritating insects.

Some 100,000 pounds of certified seed are being distributed through the usual seed trade channels in Indiana for this year's seeding. More extensive seed production is planned for 1961 harvest in Western states, but for the current season interested farmers should contact their local dealers soon.

Culver compares favorably with Ranger and Vernal in wilt resistance and winter hardiness. It is superior to Ranger in resistance to leaf diseases. Like all hardy varieties adapted to Indiana, Culver recovers more slowly after each cutting than the non-hardy varieties.

A new pamphlet, "Certified Alfalfa, the Profit Factor in Livestock Farming," is available at seed dealers and from county extension agents. The pamphlet discusses performance of all varieties recommended for Ind.

Farmers Own More Livestock

Indiana farmers owned livestock and poultry valued at $432 million last Jan. 1, report state federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University. This is nine percent higher than the Jan. 1, 1960 value and four percent above the 10-year (1950-59) average.

Inventory numbers of cattle, sheep and turkeys exceeded those of a year ago, but there were fewer hogs and chickens on Indiana farms. The statisticians no longer estimate horses and mules.

Cattle totaled 2,103,000, two percent more than a year ago. Inventory of cattle and calves totaled $282 million, based on an average value of $134, compared to $139 in 1960. Milk cows declined one percent and the 473,000 on farms Jan. 1 is the smallest number since 1876.

Hogs, estimated at 4,801,000, dropped three percent from a year earlier. Their inventory value reached $126 million, 42 percent more than last year. Average value per hog was $26.30, well above the $18 value of a year ago.

Sheep and lambs totaled 522,900, one percent larger than on Jan. 1, 1960. Eighty-one thousand of these were on feed; the remainder were stock sheep. Average value was $14.40 per head, the same as last year.

Chickens, excluding commercial broilers, totaled 13,419,000, four percent fewer than last year. Total value amounted to $16 million, compared to $14 million a year ago. Average value was $1.30 compared to 99 cents a year ago.

Turkeys, including 40,000 breeder hens, but excluding turkey fryers, totaled 76,000. This is 55 percent more than in 1960. Average value of turkeys on farms was $4.40, up a dime from a year earlier.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

For the past year we have been listening to, and still are, to the man who is president of the United States.

He seems to have an obsession for down grading and discrediting this country of ours. He is vehement in uncomplimentary criticism and ridicule of the past administration and all Republicans.

Such speeches of downgrading and discredit, gloom and doom, we are sick, weak, in financial straits, unable to defend ourselves, we would be defeated.

Proclaiming this in speeches to the entire world. It certainly is an insult to the intelligence of the American people and I am sure is not the representative thinking of the American people.

Communist Russia could not possibly hope to manufacture any propaganda of their own to further their present aims of world communism. It certainly must be pleasing to Russia to hear such speeches.

What's ahead in Fertilizer?

Russell K. Stivers, Purdue University extension agronomist sees marked changes in fertilizer forms and their methods of application in the 1960s.

For instance, plastic coated fertilizer capsules may be available. University of Wisconsin researchers are working with wax and polyethylene coatings to slow down the release of nutrients. And pelleted poultry manure has been developed in a marketable form at the University of Delaware.

Bulk application of individual plant nutrients will increase, Stivers says. Nitrogen solution sales in Indiana increased ten times in total tonnage during the 1950s. The tonnage of anhydrous ammonia has tripled in the last four years.

Farmers will apply fertilizer more in accordance with the soil's needs. This is part of a trend in which farmers will become their own experts in fertilizer needs, Stivers points out.

They will start with soil samples sent to the Soil Testing Laboratory at Purdue. Then, to check the recommendations, they will make strip tests in their own fields. From these strip tests they can compare different rates of row and broadcast application. By weighing crop yields from these test strips farmers can decide for themselves which treatment was most effective.

Indiana Honey Crop Down

After setting a 20-year production record in 1959, Hoosier honeybees last year dropped their output about five per cent to 9,464,000 pounds.

State-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University attribute at least part of the decline in yield — about four pounds per colony—to late summer and early fall drought in several sections of Indiana.

The number of colonies increased from 178,000 in 1959 to 182,000 in 1960. The average yield per colony was 52 pounds.

Beeswax production declined too—a 15 per cent drop from 189,000 to 161,000 pounds in 1960. Value of the product totaled $74,000, about $9,000 less than in 1959. Average price per pound was 46 cents, up two cents from 1959.

Hoosier beekeepers received an average of 18.4 cents a pound for all honey. This was .4 cent higher than the 1959 price. Dollar value of the 1960 production was $1,741,000, compared to $1,794,000 in 1959.

The statisticians estimated honey stocks on hand at mid-December, 1960, to be 2,461,000 pounds, a decrease of five per cent from a year ago.

Indiana is one of the 10 top honey producing states in the country.

STATE AIRPORTS HELD INADEQUATE

At a meeting in Bloomington this week, Indiana's airports were called inadequate to handle the 63 per cent increase in plane passenger traffic of the past decade.

A study by Joseph R. Hartley, Indiana University associate professor of transportation, noted that airline service now links 12 Indiana cities—Indianapolis, Muncie, Evansville, Terre Haute, Bloomington, Columbus, Richmond, Marion, Kokomo, Lafayette, Fort Wayne and So. Bend, as well as helicopter service to Gary.

Hartley said local communities would have trouble raising the $20 million to $28 million recommended by the State Aeronautics Commission for airport development.

F. F. A. News

The Mentone Agricultural Department are now painting tractors and pick-up trucks. We are also repairing farm equipment and cleaning it up. The price is very reasonable, so if you would like to see your farm machinery in good condition this spring when you start to farm, contact an agriculture student and we will get started on it as soon as possible.

Also don't forget to purchase your flower and garden seeds from a FFA member.

FINE MEETING OF LIONS

The Mentone Lions entertained the Lions from Burket and Tippecanoe, and their ladies, at a special meeting held at the Mentone school on Wednesday night of last week. The Talma Lions were also invited, but other commitments prevented them from being present.

The tables were beautifully decorated by Mrs. H. V. Johns, Mrs. Raymond Lewis and Mrs. Kenneth Romine. President Paul Rush performed admirably as toastmaster. Leo Henderson, the District-Governor, gave a few remarks and special guest Richard Haupt, of Fort Wayne, gave a very interesting program on folk lore.

Mr. Haupt, a historian, became interested in folk songs for their historical value, and to illustrate his points, sang a number of the ballads brought down to us through many generations. He and his wife have charge of the Allen County-Fort Wayne Historical Museum, and he extended an invitation to all to visit the museum at any time.

CARD OF THANKS

Speaker For Lenten Service

The guest preacher for the Sunday Evening Lenten Service will be the Rev. Dwight Conrad, pastor of The Church of Our Saviour, Methodist, of Wabash, Indiana. The Rev. Mr. Conrad is relatively new to Indiana Methodism, having served churches in the East while attending Boston University School of Theology where he received his Theological degree, and began his work for a Doctor's Degree.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Rev. Conrad attended Taylor University where he was active in sports, and where he received his A. B. degree.

Since his return to Indiana, Rev. Conrad has served as Associate Pastor, First Methodist church, Marion, Indiana, and at his present church in Wabash.

The Rev. Mr. Conrad has been very active in youth work, and has a positive appeal to the young people of Methodism.

it thinner. People eat bread by the slice, not by the pound."

(And so the case went to the courts.)

We would be inclined to challenge the statement of a noted economist who says that one person can eat well on $200 a year (inflation prices.)

He qualifies his statement when he goes on to say that this requires a study of nutrition and food substitutes, quantity buying and excellent discipline, (all of which are disliked by most of us.)

We enjoyed this:

A little old lady was sitting next to a soldier on a bus. She watched him intently as he vigorously chewed his gum. Finally she leaned over, patted his knee, and said, "It simply isn't any use trying to talk to me, young man. I'm completely deaf."

AN ABBEY GALE HOME

Dr. Urschel had medical business in Tulsa and in Oklahoma City this past week, so he asked his good friend and technician, Denton Abbey, to ride along with him. Some of Dr. Dan's friends felt that this was a brave gesture, inasmuch as bad weather has always seemed to make a habit of following Mr. Abbey around in the airplane.

To prove that this was no exception, in a 4-day period our brave voyagers encountered thunderstorms, tornadoes, hail as large as three-quarters of an inch in diameter, snow storms, and temperatures which ranged all the way from 9 above zero to 78 above zero! However, on Sunday, nature appeared to be trying to make amends for her previous conduct, and the men came home from southern Nebraska in 3 hours, covering 575 miles in that period of time. They were helped by a tailwind which, at 10,000 feet altitude, reached a maximum of 60 miles per hour at one time.

Dr. Urschel has stated that he thinks he will let Mr. Abbey go with Dr. Wilson in the future, inasmuch as they both seem to attract the same kind of weather.

ADVERTISE! IT PAYS!

BITTEN BY RACCOON

Mrs. Frank Hardesty was bit on the ankle just above the heel by a pet raccoon Tuesday evening, causing a painful injury.

The Hardestys have had the pet 'coon for a long while, and it and the family dog have a lot of fun playing together. However, the raccoon takes about so much from the dog and then proceeds to put the pup in his place.

Tuesday evening Mrs. Hardesty had the raccoon on a leash and the dog was doing his usual bit of teasing. The leash became wrapped around Mrs. Hardesty's legs and evidently got too tight on the animal. It bit that which was closest — Mrs. Hardesty's heel.

A LONG WHILE AGO

In reference to the Golden Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Haimbaugh last Sunday, Mrs. Agnes Baker says that she clearly remembers when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zach Grifis, attended the Golden Wedding celebration of Mack's grandparents, Henry and Adeline (Aunt Duck) Haimbaugh, in the same house.

Mrs. Baker was a young woman at the time. She is now 83 years young, and still enjoying life.
