INCREASE IN SOCIAL SECURITY

The telephone in the social security office has been ringing far more frequently than usual these past few weeks. Herbert O. Bultemeier, district manager, reports. A good many calls are from people who are receiving monthly benefit payments and who are concerned about getting the increase that was authorized recently.

Mr. Bultemeier reminds all social security beneficiaries that the increase in monthly benefits will come to them automatically. They do not have to phone, write or visit the social security office to request or file any kind of application for the increase.

The checks for January, 1959 which will be mailed out on the third of February, will include the full increase the law provides, an average jump of about seven percent, he said. In dollars this means 65-year-old workers will receive from $3 to $7.50 more, depending upon the amount of their present benefit. Where total family payments reach $254.00, individual benefits other than that paid to the worker may show a lesser percentage increase.

Also, starting January 1st, the social security tax on pay-rolls will increase to 2½% on the employee and a like amount must be paid by the employer for a total of 5%. The tax on a self-employed person will be 3¾% on the first $4800.00.

Den 4 Reporting a Review of Their Activities for 1958

January found David Tibbets, Rex Bowser, Mike Whetstone, Steven Tucker, David Smythe and Kenny Simcoe forming a new Den 4 with Mrs. Tibbets as our den mother. Our first job was to become Bobcats. We drew names at our first meeting for each boy's turn to bring refreshments and a game. In February we made hatchet favors, paper holders and place mats for the Blue and Gold banquet. Each boy was presented with his Bobcat pin at the banquet — by Kenny Simcoe.

In March our theme was "Exploring Alaska." We listened to a story about Alaska, made an Eskimo village, totem poles and bow classes. Our skit for pack night was carrying vaccine on a sled to the diphtheria epidemic in Nome. In April the theme was "Keep America Beautiful" and we made posters and litter bags. Also each boy, with help from his dad, made a bird house and a member of our den was chosen winner at pack night with the best bird house. Our theme in May was "Circus Days." We presented a freak show as our skit and had a two-headed monster, tattooed man, human octopus and Siamese twins. This month we made planters for our mothers. By Mike Whetstone.

The theme for June was "Trails, Treks - Trips." We made rock paper weights and pocket notebooks for Father's day presents. We learned bicycle safety rules. We took a trip to Fort Wayne and went through the newspaper office, a meat packing plant and the water purification plant. We had a vacation from scouting during July and August. The last week of August we held our first meeting after summer vacation.—By David Smythe.

"Cub Scout Corral" was our September theme. At our den meetings we made snapper pistols, boots from paper sacks, gauntlets and holsters. We learned a den yell, made musical instruments and started a "den doodle." We also made a treat basket for each boy to bring his treat in. We chose a boy to take roll and collect the dues each month. We also learned a new prayer to say before refreshments each meeting. We had a cowboy skit at pack night. In October the theme was "American Folklore." We chose Indian Folklore for our skit. During the month we made real moccasins out of leather and felt, Indian headdresses, macaroni necklaces, leggings out of feed sacks and Indian skirts that we painted and decorated. By David Tibbets.

Our theme for November was "See and Do It." Most of the boys had measles so we didn't have two den meetings. We made a Thanksgiving centerpiece. We had no pack meeting for November. In December the theme was "The Golden Rule." We made Golden Rule bookmarks and a Golden Rule chart.

When each of us did a good deed we got a gold star on the chart. We made feeders to hang out for the birds. We were pretty busy in December. We made Christmas gifts for our mothers and fathers, carved and decorated styrofoam tree ornaments and molded and decorated Christmas candles. Our skit was a Christmas tree puzzle and as each boy brought his piece out he told of Christmas customs in other countries. We had a grab bag Christmas exchange at the pack meeting. Our den had a party and gift exchange the last meeting before Christmas.—By Steve Tucker.

Both calf pneumonia and scours generally are aggravated by improper housing. Purdue University veterinarians say calf pens should be constructed and situated to facilitate easy cleaning, to provide dry quarters and adequate ventilation.

If you plan to plant trees next spring, now is the time to order seedlings. Order blanks may be obtained from county agricultural extension agents or from the forestry and conservation department, Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana.

Mentone Basketball

As Reported by Larry Teel

The "Hustling Bulldogs" of Mentone recovered from near defeat Friday night to down visiting South Whitley 71-69. It was a well-earned team victory for the local five, who have now won 9 of their 12 games. The Bulldogs jumped to an early lead and through the first half the scoring was pretty even as the visiting Whitley crew kept whacking away at Mentone's slim lead and as the first half came to a close, the Mentone lads had a 31-30 lead.

As the second half got underway Whitley hit for two quick baskets to take a 34-31 lead. Throughout the remainder of the third quarter the two teams traded basket for basket.

Early in the 4th quarter Whitley jumped to an eight point lead, the largest of the game, and things began to look bad for Mentone. Then the locals got three quick baskets and the Mentone fans were in an uproar.

But, just as quickly the South Whitley team upped its lead to seven points with 3:30 left in the game and Mentone appeared to be beaten, but you would have had a hard time convincing coach Paul Bateman and his five hustling lads that they were through as they came roaring back to tie the score with approximately a minute left to play.

Both teams missed shots and with 34 seconds remaining, Whitley called a time out, their sixth of the game. This gave the Bulldogs a free throw and the ball out of bounds.

The Mentone lads calmly stepped to the line and coolly sank the charity toss and Mentone led 70-69. In the following frenzy to get the ball another foul was called against the visiting So. Whitley Bulldogs and with eleven seconds left Mentone moved ahead 71-69 and that is the way it finished up.

Next Friday the Bulldogs play host to Etna Green, the only team to beat mighty North Webster.

The yearly subscription price to the Mentone News has been much lower than most weekly newspapers for a number of years, and the continued rise in the cost of production makes it imperative that the price be raised.

$2.00 RATE STILL APPLIES.

In order to give each subscriber an opportunity to renew or pay up any arrearage, the annual $2.00 rate will apply until February 4, 1959. (The limit of pre-payment at the $2.00 rate will be two years.)

Also, in order to keep our subscription list in a paid-in-advance condition, all names will be dropped from our mailing list on February 4, 1959 that do not show a paid-in-advance status. Even though many courts have decreed that a subscriber who continues to accept a newspaper from his mail box is liable for the obligation, our preference is that all be paid in advance.

more than the acreage seeded in the fall of 1957, but is 11 percent less than the 10-year (1947-56) average.

Seedings were made under generally good soil conditions.
Growings conditions have been good since that time.

Based on Dec. 1 conditions, a yield of 30 bushels per seeded acre is in prospect, the statisticians say. They forecast total production for 1959 to be 40-410,000 bushels, compared with 40,992,000 bushels produced in 1958.

Even though the seeded acreage for 1959 is 11 percent less than the 10-year average acreage, prospective production for 1959 is 13 percent greater than average.

SUNDAY PAPERS by OLSEN—Chicago, Indianapolis

War Mothers Have Party

December 15, the Mothers of the Mentone World War II unit met at the home of Mrs. Ethel Whetstone for their annual Christmas party and monthly meeting, with a carry-in supper and gift exchange. After a most delicious supper, the meeting was opened by presenting the colors, pledging allegiance, singing one verse of the "Star Spangled Banner" and prayer by the chaplain. The meeting was declared opened for business by the president, Dora Norris. All reports were read and accepted, and all bills were allowed. Eight overseas Christmas boxes were reported sent, and Christmas cards were to be sent to those who are in the States. A donation was to be sent to each of the veteran hospitals. It was decided to meet at the home of Mrs. Wagner to make out the report blanks to be sent to the district chairmen. The nominating committee made its report and the 1959 officers were elected. They will be installed at the January meeting, which will be held at the home of Myrtle Davis. Santa then presented each of the members present, and one guest, Mrs. Zentz, with a gift from under the beautifully decorated Christmas tree. If you were absent you missed something.

DR. URSCHEL SPEAKS TO MENTONE LIONS

Dr. Dan L. Urschel was the speaker at the Mentone Lions Club Wednesday evening. Naturally his topic was about heart disease, and his talk was very interesting. Some of the facts he presented included the statistic that five times as many men as women suffer heart trouble. Heredity and a heavy fat diet seem to have a great bearing on the incidence of heart disease. Tension, moderate use of tobacco and liquor may have some bad effects, but this is indefinite, according to the doctor.

What Is The Largest "Farm Group" In Indiana?

108,000 Farm Families That Regularly Save Trading Stamps Are The Biggest "Farm Group" In Indiana.

America's farm families are traditionally thrifty. The same pattern of thrift is found in Indiana. It is only natural, therefore, that the response of Indiana farm families to one of the oldest forms of thrift—the trading stamp—is so noticeable.

Today over 108,000 farm families save them. You might almost say that these savers constitute the largest single farm group in the state.

During 1957 alone, thousands of dollars worth of trading stamp merchandise went into farm households in the state, and every 2 seconds a farm family is redeeming trading stamps.

There is still another side—direct income for farmers. During 1957 the stamp industry purchased from Indiana farmers $1,462,000 worth of primary materials that go into the manufacture of merchandise for stamp redemption.

No one can contemplate these facts and fail to realize that both personally and economically the trading stamp industry is a meaningful and welcome force in the life of our state.

This message is published as public information by THE SPERRY AND HUTCHINSON COMPANY, originator 63 years ago of S&H Green Stamps.

Want to Boost Your Egg Profits? BABCOCK BESSIES from DeWitt's Make Money for You in 5 Ways!

1. LOTS OF BIG EGGS

Bessies are heavy layers, peaking at 85% to 90% and laying around 70 to 75% for months on end. They do more — they lay the big eggs which bring extra profits. In the Wisconsin Random Sample Test just ended, Bessies laid more large and extra large eggs than any other pen.

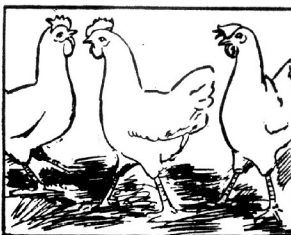

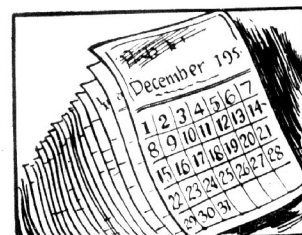

2. ECONOMICAL ON FEED

Bessies aren't big eaters. Actually, they're easy on feed. In the Wisconsin Test they produced the most eggs per pound of feed of any entry. In 2 New York tests for three years they had highest average profit over feed and chick cost. Bessies cut your feed bill per dozen of eggs.

3. LONG LAYING PERIOD

Once she starts, Bessie keeps right on laying for 12 to 15 months, and at a consistently high rate. These extra months of lay put extra dollars in your net profits.

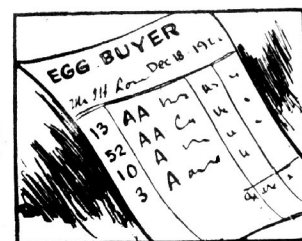

4. LOW MORTALITY

Bessie is bred to stay alive. Lots of inherited vigor and disease resistance keep Bessie producing. In the Wisconsin test, Bessie had only 2% mortality, half that of the next flock and 1/10 of the test average!

5. HIGH EGG QUALITY

Bessie eggs are good . . . good color, shell texture, shell strength. With high interior quality. There higher grade eggs means here's another way Bessie pays you extra profits.

Open House At New Hatchery

Open house will be held Jan. 20 and 21 at the new $100,000 Manwaring Hatchery building, east of Mentone on Road 25. Visitors are invited to call during the day or in the evening on the two days.

The new and completely modern building has 11,000 feet of floor space and is now equipped with four Buckeye Streamliner incubators and four new hatchers, the latter used on the last three days of the hatching period.

The 18 rooms in the building include three office rooms, a dealer and customer conference room with projector and charts and a connected kitchenette. An elevator is used for transferring eggs from the egg packing room to the incubators. All eggs are now automatically trayed by Traydex, an automatic unit that picks up 48 eggs at a time and places them in the setting trays. Eggs are graded and candled for market or hatching by two 3,600-per-hour machines. All eggs are held in insulated refrigerators with controlled temperature and moisture.

There is a 25,000-watt standby electric generator for emergency operation.

The building is heated by two large oil heating units and the building is "zoned" for automatic temperature control. Air in the hatching room is completely changed twice hourly by large ventilating fans. This is to remove the excess carbon dioxide that is thrown off by eggs during incubation.

All hatching trays are cleaned and sterilized by steam in a new washer and cleaner.

Manwarings have a franchise and distribute Kimberchiks in northern Indiana and southern Michigan, and they have a number of dealers in the territory who work with them in this distribution program. This year they expect to produce one and a half million Kimberchiks. Hatching eggs are also supplied by Manwarings to other franchised Kimberchik hatcheries.

All male and female breeders are sent to Manwarings as baby chicks, by air cargo express, and brought to maturity under the Manwaring feeding and management program. A total

Frank Jackson Buried Tuesday

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the Reed funeral home for Frank Jackson, 56, of Elkhart.

Mr. Jackson, a former resident of Sevastapol (southeast of Mentone), died last Friday in Healthwin sanitarium, South Bend, after an illness of six months.

He was born in Sevastapol March 15, 1902, the son of William and Sarah Allen (Creakbaum) Jackson. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Lloyd (Mary) Jones, of Elkhart.

Burial was in the Mentone cemetery.

New Son

Mr. and Mrs. Dean K. McIntyre, 1539 E. Beardsley Ave., Elkhart, are the parents of an eight pound one ounce son, Greg Kenton, born Jan. 7.

Mrs. McIntyre is the former Pat Starr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dana Starr of Mentone and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre of Elkhart.

IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Claude Gates is in the St. Vincent's Hospital in Indianapolis for a thorough physical examination. Her room number is 333.

of about 35,000 new breeders are purchased each year.

Kimber Farms, in California, are one of the oldest and best known breeders of Leghorns in the country, and the Kimber strain has been used by most of the large breeders today in the development of their crosses.

The Manwaring Hatchery was started by A. C. Manwaring in 1911. It was then known as White City Egg Farm. A son, Chester, later came into the business. A third generation came into the picture with Charles, Miles and Richard Manwaring who now operate the large concern. Charles' son, Frank, who is now a part of the working force, represents the fourth generation of Manwarings to take an active part in the operation.

The Manwarings will be happy to welcome you at the hatchery Jan. 20th or 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Baker, shown her in a photo taken in their store Tuesday evening, are busy making arrangements for a very special event—the celebration of their 30th anniversary in business in Mentone. In January, 1929, immediately after Mr. Baker's graduation from the Chicago School of Watchmaking, they opened a jewelry and electrical store in the home now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kinsey. The following April they moved to the property now owned by Mrs. Wade Whetstone, the first house north of the present post office building. Three years later they moved to the Luther Fife building, now occupied by Brown's Jewelry and Gift Shop. In 1951 they purchased their present building from Alfred Snyder.

The Bakers have three children, Linda, Don and Wayne. Don operates a farm west of Mentone and Wayne handles the TV and appliance repair at the store. Mr. Baker does considerable plumbing and electrical contracting and the store handles a full line of radios, TVs, record players, refrigerators, washers, dryers, watches, lights and electrical and plumbing supplies.

They are planning an open house Friday and Saturday, Jan. 16 and 17, with free coffee and doughnuts for everyone, and a large list of door prizes will be given away. (Read the advertisement on the back page of this issue of the News.)

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Baker for their many years in serving the people of the Mentone vicinity.

SUNDAY PAPERS by OLSEN—Chicago, Indianapolis

Farm Record Books Available

It's time to start farm records for another year, F. V. Smith, Purdue University agricultural economist, reminds Hoosier farmers.

An accurate farm record makes preparing income tax returns more easy. But perhaps more important, Smith points out, is the use of the record for a critical analysis of the year's business.

By comparing the figures with a good standard, a farmer can find strong and weak points in his operation. Thus, he has a basis upon which business management decisions can be made.

At the beginning and the end of the year a farmer can take a complete inventory, record current income and expense items and production records and keep his depreciation schedule up-to-date. The net change in inventory values needs to be considered along with net cash income to determine farm earnings, Smith explains.

Purdue's department of agricultural economics has three books available at cost—35c each. These are:

The Indiana Farm Record book. Bound in grey, it is designed for farmers who keep records mainly for income tax use.

The Indiana Farm Account Book. It has a yellow cover. This book is as satisfactory as the Indiana Farm Record Book for tax use; it also provides both landlord's and renter's entries.

The Indiana Farm Depreciation Book, used to supplement either of the other books, provides for keeping a 10-year depreciation record of farm property.

These Purdue books are available from either the county agricultural agent or from the Agricultural Economics department, AES Annex, Purdue University, Lafayette.

Dollar and Sense Farming

NUMBER OF LAYING HENS now in production is about 2 to 3% above a year ago. More hens plus a greater rate of lay mean increased production and lower prices during the next six months. However, with fewer expected chick starts in 1959—fall egg prices may top those of the past year. Look at the situation beyond the early part of the year before deciding to cut back on chick starts.

CONTROLLING LICE in your dairy herd can be a big help in maintaining milk production. Good preventive measures are to clip the long hair from the hind quarters and lower parts of the cows and to keep them clean. If cows are dusted use rotenone or 50% methoxychlor. Apply to the back line, sides of neck, dewlap and shoulders. Repeat this application twice at three-week intervals.

HOG PROFITS in the year ahead will depend on the number of pigs farrowed and weaned per litter. Proper feeding of sows can increase average litter size. Separate bred sows from bred gilts. Feed full grown sows to gain 3/4 to 1 pound per day. Growing gilts should be fed to gain 1 to 1 1/2 pounds per day. However, don't let them get over-fat. This reduces litter size.

A GOOD RESOLUTION for the year ahead is to be a better farm manager. Some important items to bear in mind are to: (1) keep good books, (2) make a cash income and expense budget, (3) review all insurance policies, (4) prepare a will if you haven't done so and (5) keep all valuable papers in a safety deposit box.

Gift of 300 laboratory mice to Purdue University's Population Genetics Institute from Mount Hope Farm, owned by Mrs. E. Parmalee Prentice, Williamstown, Mass., was announced last week by Dr. A. E. Bell, Institute chairman.

The mice will be used for basic research in population genetics, which deals with the hereditary structures of whole populations in contrast to individual make-up.

Three of the mouse strains are unusual. They are the Goodale Large White strain, the Falconer NF strain and the Goodale unselected strain.

The Goodale Large White strain has been selected for body size since 1931. It is the most famous mouse strain developed for population genetics research. This strain has been a pilot organism for Dr. H. D. Goodale's poultry breeding program. He was associated with Mount Hope Farm until his retirement.

The Falconer NF strain originated in Edinburgh, Scotland. These mice also have been selected for large body size. They vary in color from dark brown to albino, but are slightly smaller than the Goodale Large White strain.

The Goodale unselected strain was the foundation strain for the Goodale Large White strain. The only difference between these strains has been the selection for body size. Mice of the Goodale Large White strain are more than twice the size of the unselected strain.

Dr. Wendell H. Kyle and Dr. Truman G. Martin, both members of the Institute staff, will conduct the research with the mice.

Mice are studied in genetics research because they are one of the smallest mammals which can be used to develop genetic methods applicable to the improvement of economic mammals such as hogs, cattle and sheep. Three generations of these mice are produced in a year.

If loaded on a single train, it would take 2,000 freight cars, stretching seventeen miles, to carry the 3,000,000 CARE Food Crusade packages Americans are asked to send overseas this holiday season. Every $1 sent to CARE, New York 16, N. Y., delivers a 22-lb. Food Crusade package to the needy in other lands.

Nature seldom makes a fool — she merely furnishes the raw material for a do-it-yourself job.

Nineteen million people in the United States, or one out of every 9 persons, receive U. S. surplus through domestic relief and school lunch programs. In addition, the Government allocates commodities for foreign relief, through such agencies as CARE. Every dollar sent to the CARE Food Crusade, New York 16, N. Y., delivers a 22-lb. package of these farm foods to the needy in other lands.

Pesticides Are Big Business

During the past five years agricultural chemicals have become indispensable production tools for the modern American farmer. Approximately one percent of the value of all farm sales is spent annually for chemicals for the control of weeds, insects and disease.

During the last five years American farmers have purchased 60,000 to 100,000 power sprayers and dusters annually. There are approximately 2,000 operators with 5,500 airplanes engaged in custom pest control on American farms.

In 1939 the U. S. farmer purchased $480,000,000 worth of chemical fertilizers, which had increased to $900,000,000 in 1957. Projected estimates are that national commercial fertilizer sales will attain a volume of $22,225,000,000 in the United States by 1975. This is an increase of 153 percent over present sales volume.

Chemical pesticide sales in 1939 in the U.S.A. were only $40,000,000. By 1954 sales of weed killers, insecticides and fungicides had increased to $260,000,000 annually. By 1975 they are expected to zoom by 248 percent over the present sales volume to an annual sales level of one billion dollars. This is approximately twice the growth rate of fertilizer sales for the same period.

Purdue University staff members and speakers from other mid-western universities will discuss these chemical pesticides in Purdue's new Memorial Center Jan. 20-22, at the first agricultural Pesticide Conference. It will be held in connection with Farm Science Days.

SCIENCE IN BEEF, SWINE PRODUCTION

Health Department Reports Many Lack Disease Immunization

Do you know? We can easily have a smallpox epidemic in Kosciusko county. It sounds far fetched in a day like today. It shouldn't be possible, but it is! Dr. John Johnson has released information obtained from the Immunization Record Report of the county schools to the Indiana State Board of Health. It is revealed that about 54.2% of the children entering the first grade in Kosciusko county schools have not been vaccinated against smallpox. This means we are in a bad way as far as a potential smallpox epidemic is concerned. Children entering the first year of school would be expected to have the highest percentage of vaccinations. Adults are no doubt in much worse condition as far as smallpox immunity is concerned as adults are particularly lax as far as re-vaccinations are concerned. There is still plenty of smallpox in the world. With rapid transportation today, we can have smallpox in our midst and an epidemic before we know it. Dr. Johnson urges that anyone whose vaccination is not current contact his family doctor immediately since smallpox is still a killer and if it doesn't kill often leaves its victims horribly scarred. There is no known treatment for smallpox.

We are not much better off concerning immunization for another killer, diphtheria. The report shows that about 32.2% of children entering the first grade have not been immunized. Again, through indifference and neglect, adults have not had booster shots as they should have.

We have minor epidemics of whooping cough in the county every year. Whooping cough is a much more serious disease than is generally realized. It is particularly dangerous in young infants. 31% of first graders have not been immunized from whooping cough. Yes, we can still have a polio epidemic in this county. The county school children entering the first grade show 28.6% have been immunized for polio. An epidemic, if it were to strike, would hit the non-immune preschool children and non-immune adults.

As far as disease is concerned an ounce of prevention is worth many, many pounds of cure. It only makes sense to protect our children and ourselves from the scourge of disease by taking a simple immunization.

Please, please see your family doctor immediately so that you may be protected.

JOHN J. JOHNSON,
County Health Officer.

An average of 11 million people a month receive supplementary food through CARE distributions of U. S. agricultural commodities in needy world areas. Contributions to the CARE Food Crusade, New York 16, N. Y., help make this tremendous feeding program possible.

Effective February 4, 1959

Subscription to the NEWS

WILL BE

$3.00 per year

The yearly subscription price to the Mentone News has been much lower than most weekly newspapers for a number of years, and the continued rise in the cost of production makes it imperative that the price be raised.

$2.00 RATE STILL APPLIES.

In order to give each subscriber an opportunity to renew or pay up any arrearage, the annual $2.00 rate will apply until February 4, 1959. (The limit of pre-payment at the $2.00 rate will be two years.)

Also, in order to keep our subscription list in a paid-in-advance condition, all names will be dropped from our mailing list on February 4, 1959 that do not show a paid-in-advance status. Even though many courts have decreed that a subscriber who continues to accept a newspaper from his mail box is liable for the obligation, our preference is that all be paid in advance.

George King
Died Sunday

George King, 57, died of complications Sunday afternoon in the Murphy Medical Center where he was taken one day last week.

He was born May 23, 1901, to Loren and Stella (Fike) King. On May 23, 1924 he was married to Frieda Wagner.

Surviving are the widow; a son, Richard, of Warsaw, four daughters, Mrs. Jene Pritchard, Mrs. Harold Coplen, Miss Barbara King and Miss Janet King, all of Mentone; a brother, Roy, of Atlanta, Ga. and eight grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Johns funeral home with Rev. Milton Persons officiating. Burial was in Oakwood cemetery in Warsaw.

SOME WEATHER!

Indiana is living up to its reputation as a place with "lousy" weather this week. On Monday morning 4 to 5 inches of snow fell, and late Tuesday another five or six inches came down. This mess was adequately shoveled into piles and chewed into a slightly chocolate colored conglomeration, just in fine shape for the rain that began to fall Tuesday evening. The rain continued throughout the night and by morning the snow was nothing but puddles of water, many up to six inches in depth. Nice wading!

AT PURDUE

Dwayne McKinley of the Mentone Lumber Co. is attending the 1959 Illiana Lumber and Materials Institute intermediate course at Purdue University, until January 31st. This is a select group of students from the states of Illinois and Indiana interested in the lumber business.

FINE RESPONSE
ON SUBSCRIPTIONS

Many readers of the News have taken advantage of the special offer being given them this month, whereby they can renew for only $2.00 per year. (The price will advance to $3 per year, starting after our issue of February 4th.

P.T.A. to Sponsor
Benefit Supper

The Mentone P.T.A. enjoyed an interesting meeting on January 14 with Mr. Gwinn from Nappanee, as their guest speaker. Max gave a personalized talk on the ups and downs of being a commercial cartoonist. He said the most important attribute was a number of waste baskets to hold the rejection slips. He then showed some of his work and concluded with a comic series of drawings on basketball.

The P. T. A. voted to hold a baked ham, corn bread and bean supper on February 14, to help defray expenses of the book cases they are installing in the school for the elementary grades.

After the supper it is hoped to have a basketball game topped off by a puppet show conducted by Mike May of Channel 22 of South Bend, the originator and performer of "Pop-eye Theatre" starring Captain Piney, Barney A Cat, and Homer Horse. This part of the program will be sponsored by Cooper's Variety Store.

The whole show will be free to one and all, it is just requested that you come for the gram will be sponsored by Cooper's Store.

REPORT FROM CUBA

The Country Print Shop has been supplying printing for a children's home in Cuba for many years and the publishers are acquainted with those in charge of the homes. A report this week stated that there had been fighting in the street and the children had to lie on the floor for protection from the bullets. The report indicated that the atrocities of the recent past are at an end, and they were described as worse than any known in Hitler's days.

JUST A REMINDER —

Teddy Roosevelt, in the year 1900, is credited with the following remark:

"The things that will destroy America are prosperity-at-any-price, safety-first instead of duty-first, the love of soft living and the get-rich-quick theory of life."

That ought to make most of us grab hold of the saddle horn and roll those spur rauls along that pony's ribs.

County Winner
In DAR Contest

Miss Linda Walther, Silver Lake high school senior, has been named the Kosciusko county candidate in the state Good Citizen contest conducted by the Indiana Daughters of the American Revolution.

The announcement was made by Mrs. Ray R. Neal, of Greencastle, contest chairman. Linda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Walther, Route 2, Silver Lake, was the honor girl selected by Anthony Nigo chapter from among Good Citizen award winners in the southern half of the county. Another honor girl, Miss Judith Andres, of Leesburg, was nominated for the county title by Agnes Pruyn Chapman chapter which conducted a similar contest among schools in the northern section.

Miss Walther plays in the Silver Lake band, sings in the chorus and with two vocal ensembles. She's a member of the Sunshine Society, feature editor of the school paper and advertising editor of the yearbook. She also had roles in the junior and senior plays.

Active in 4-H work for seven years, and a junior leader for three, Linda represented the county in the Purdue Round-Up, was sent to the junior leaders' conference at DePauw and to the girls' school at the state fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Kehoe left last week for a vacation in Florida.

Mentone
Basketball

As Reported by Larry Teel

Mentone's Bulldogs defeated the Beavers from Beaver Dam Friday afternoon and thus advanced to the semi-finals of the county tourney. Neither team was spectacular as the Bulldogs played good enough to win but did not exert themselves in doing so.

Saturday afternoon our local five tangled with the Pierceton Cubs. After spurting to a 6 to 0 lead the Bulldogs began to slow down and the first quarter ended with the Cubs out in front 12 to 10. The next quarter was played on almost even terms and as the half ended the Cub lead was cut to 35 to 34.

The 3rd quarter told of Mentone's downfall. Pierceton now jumped to a big 11 point lead and it looked as if they would run away with the game. The Bulldogs fought back to within 4 points only to have the Cubs spurt ahead again. The quarter ended 53-44.

Pierceton held a 11 point lead about 3 minutes to go and all appeared hopeless for Mentone. Then came a last mighty surge by the rallying Bulldogs who fell short by 3 little points.

I feel that I speak for all of the local fans when I tell the boys that we are all proud of them for the valiant effort they put forth.

D. A. R. Meets

The January meeting of The Anthony Nigo Chapter D. A. R. of Mentone was held at the home of Mrs. Bernice Rush on Tuesday evening, January 13th. The meeting was called to order with our Regent, Mrs. Eldred Paulus presiding. The ritualistic service, pledge to the flag and singing of first verse of the Star Spangled Banner followed.

Mrs. Glenn Clauss served as Secretary in the absence of Mrs. Garwin Eaton. Excerpts from our President General's address given at D. A. R. Conference was given by Mrs. Fred Surguy. Quotes from this article are: "When we consider young people, it is always with anticipation and hope that they will achieve their ambitions more completely than we have our own."

"Will the coming generation rise up to call us 'Blessed', or will they ask of us; Why the astronomical national debt? Why the heavy military burden of foreign commitments to fight for the defense of other nations? Why the confiscatory taxes? Why the inflated dollar? Why the bad relations which we have created with the rest of the world? Why have we inherited a national debt for us to pay off, one that is equal to the national combined debt of all the nations?"

"We owe it to our children to work without ceasing toward the restoring of Constitutional Government" unquote.

The name of Miss Lillie Tucker of Fort Wayne was presented for membership.

Mrs. Paulus reported that once again The Anthony Nigo Chapter had filled all requirements to be a Gold Honor Roll Chapter.

It was voted to give ten dollars to the National Defense Fund.

Mrs. Frank D. Smith was elected delegate and Mrs. Ray Linn Alternate to Continental Congress held at Washington, D. C. in April.

Mrs. F. D. Smith gave our "Freedom of Speech" saying, "Our freedom of Speech is guaranteed in the first amendment to the Constitution. It reads thus: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of Speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances. . . . It has been said many times, 'how lucky we are to live in this country.'"

"It wasn't luck that brought the Pilgrims to America. It was stubborn determination to find a better way of life and freedom of religion. It wasn't luck that won the American Revolution. It was bitter fighting and high ideals. It wasn't luck that turned this struggling young country into the richest in the world. It was hard work and far-seeing vision. Things like that don't happen by luck. They happen because men and women who believe in freedom, democracy and a good way of life, work, fight and die for these things. It is time for solid, sober, patriotic action . . . The time for action is now. It is today and always if we are to protect the freedoms of this first amendment to the Constitution."

Our guest speaker was Mrs. Fred Schlemmer of Bremen, who reviewed the book, "Bending the Twig," written by Augustine C. Rudd. Mrs. Schlemmer is a well informed, forcible speaker, reviewing as many as 4 books in a week to various organizations. "Bending the Twig" presents an analytical account of the subversive, un-American, and degenerative influences toward a collectivist society in our country, aggressively promoted through indoctrination of students in the schools of the United States by the New Educationists.

The author uses this quotation by Alexander Pope, "This education forms the common mind just as the twig is bent the tree's inclined." Mrs. Schlemmer went on to say, "Thus is a book which grew out of the anguished concern of a typical American parent over the disturbing trends of American contemporary public school education. For instance history, geography and civics have disappeared as separate subjects. In their place is a new and confusing omnibus course styled Social Science, which was to become the 'core of the whole program.' The more the author examined the texts and the day to day lessons of this course, the more he realized that a whole set of new concepts and doctrines had been bootlegged into the school curriculum by the overwhelming majority of the American people, even the main purpose of the public school had been changed. Obviously, something was wrong. Who has done this to the tax supported school curriculum? He began to make inquiries."

Fifteen members and a guest Mrs. Paul Rush were privileged to hear this thrilling, thought-provoking review by Mrs. Schlemmer. Our meeting was closed with singing the chorus of "On the Banks of the Wabash."

Auction was held and the hostess served dainty refreshments.

Our February meeting emphasizing the Lincoln Sesqui-centennial will be held with Mrs. Vera Kelly.

New Feeder Cattle Trends

A veteran Purdue University

animal scientist says that in the future Indiana farmers may have to raise more of their feeder cattle or ship them in from the Southeastern states.

The Western states have long supplied most of the feeder cattle to the Corn Belt. But Henry Mayo points out that a growing population in the West, plus more irrigation and more feed available, means that more meat animals will be finished for market there.

The present day trend is to raise more feeder cattle in the Middle West and Southeast. From 1948-1958 beef cow numbers in Indiana doubled; in Eastern and Southern states the increase was 13 percent.

Sale of cattle and calves brought $192 million in cash income to Indiana farmers during 1957. This was 18 per cent of the cash receipts on Hoosier farms and two percent more than the previous year.

CARE Speeds Aid To Cubans

An emergency shipment of 25,000 packages, containing 625,000 pounds of food, will be rushed for distribution next week to needy families in Oriente Province, Cuba, CARE (Co-operative for American Relief Everywhere, Inc.) has announced.

Although the non-profit overseas aid agency does not regularly operate in Cuba, Richard W. Reuter, CARE executive director, said, the relief agency has offered help in the area where the greatest need exists.

The 25-pound packages, made up of U. S. farm surpluses, are now being assembled at CARE's Philadelphia warehouse and will be shipped from there to Santiago, Oriente's capital. Each of these $1 packages contains 10 pounds of flour, 10 pounds of corn meal, and 5 pounds of beans.

Distribution will be under the direction of an Emergency Task Force consisting of Bertran Smucker, chief of CARE's overseas operations, and Kurt Bachmann, who will go to Cuba from his CARE post in Mexico. Smucker and Bachmann had last served together on CARE's Hungarian Emergency Task Force.

Following receipt of a report of other Cuban needs by the Task Force, CARE will undertake to send additional aid, including drugs and medical equipment.

Send your contribution, in any amount, to CARE for Cuba, 1 S. State Street, Chicago 3, Illinois.

Hay Crusher On Exhibit

An opportunity to inspect carefully the best collection of a particular machine ever on the Purdue University campus will be afforded those attending Farm Science Days.

The largest laboratory of the Agricultural engineering building will be used to exhibit hay crushers, crimpers, conditioners and choppers with crusher attachments.

This exhibit will be ready for inspection Tuesday afternoon, January 20, and will remain open until Friday, January 23.

Ten manufacturers will place these machines on exhibit with the accent on providing Indiana farmers a chance to see how complete a line industry has produced.

All the types of machines will be available for inspection. These include the smooth roll crushers, corrugated roll machines, four roll machine, crusher with rubber rolls and forage choppers with attachments to convert to crushing hay.

Hay crushing, capable of reducing the drying time of hay from one-third to one-half, is particularly attractive to the Indiana farmer who lost much of his hay last year. Indiana farmers raised 69 million acres of alfalfa in 1957 and this legume is particularly well suited to crushing.

If loaded on a single train, it would take 2,000 freight cars, stretching 17 miles, to carry the 3,000,000 CARE Food Crusade packages Americans are asked to send overseas this winter. Every $1 sent to CARE, New York 16, N. Y. delivers a 22-lb. Food Crusade package to the needy in other lands.

"We Like DeWitt's Babcock Bessies"
SAY THESE INDIANA POULTRY PRODUCERS

Babcock Bessies are making extra profits for Indiana egg producers. Here's what typical Bessie users have to say:

LAY LOTS OF BIG EGGS

Mrs. Walter Stutsman, R. 5, Goshen, started with 585 pullets bought from her father. They peaked at 90% production, laid from one to 1½ dozen medium size a day. All the rest were large and extra large. She was so satisfied with the Bessies that she started another 800 last summer and 2800 in October, has put up a modern 34 x 150 foot laying house.

VERY GOOD EGG SIZE

Rev. Raymond Yoder uses the second floor of a converted dairy barn for his laying flock of Bessies. He wants big eggs, since they pay more profits. To get them, he has Babcock Bessies which he raises on the range on a restricted feeding program to get well-developed birds before production starts. He finds the Bessies lay large eggs almost from the very start.

THEY'RE ECONOMICAL TO RAISE

Simon Bontrager operates the Clinton Center Feed Mill, R. 4, Goshen. He also is a large commercial egg producer. Last fall he tried Babcock Bessies, and as usual kept accurate cost records. The flock had 8000 chicks. At 16 weeks, 3 days they had cost only 75¢. This included the chick cost, feed, medication, vaccination.

BESSIES ARE HARDY BIRDS

Ottis U. Mast of R. 1, Millersburg started 700 chicks, housed 640 pullets when they were 22 weeks old. "We raised them on range," says Mrs. Mast, "and animals got at least 30 or 40 of them that we know about." The birds laid large eggs when they got into production. "We like them," adds Mrs. Mast.

BABCOCK BESSIES MAKE EXTRA PROFITS FOR YOU IN 5 DIFFERENT WAYS.
THEY ARE:

1. Lay Lots of Big Eggs
2. Economical on Feed
3. Long Laying Period
4. Low Mortality
5. High Egg Quality

ENJOYING FLORIDA PART OF THE TIME

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Kehoe write from Leesburg, Florida: Dear Mr. Cullum:

We have been here about 10 days but the weather isn't so warm. It was 27 this a. m. (Jan. 17) and they say it will be 18 in the morning. Cold last week end, too, but warmed up to 70 degrees for three or four days. This is a nice town. We are having a good time and have met many hoosiers down here.

We are not permanently located so you cannot send our paper down here. You may stop it until we get home which will be 3 or 4 weeks yet. Tell everyone hello for us.

CLUB MEETS

Our January 4-H meeting was held at the home of Melody Phillips.

We had our business meeting and then singing, Health and Safety and also recreation.

Refreshments were served by Melody Phillips. Meeting was then adjourned.

Free Multaflora Rose Seedlings

The Indiana Department of Conservation, through the division of Fish and Game, announces that free multaflora rose seedlings will be available again this spring to Indiana farmers with five acres or more.

Seedlings may be obtained by writing to the Pittman-Robertson Project 6-D, 311 W. Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana or by contacting local agricultural agents, Soil conservation service offices or conservation officers.

Application blanks will be forwarded on request with complete information on the planting and care of the seedlings.

Under favorable conditions and with proper cultural care, the multaflora rose will mature in to a stock-tight fence in from 3 to 5 years. Multaflora rose does not sap the soil. The seedlings should be set in a straight line at one foot intervals. Multaflora rose can be used for erosion control, snow fences, noise barriers, and it provides food and shelter for Indiana's song and game birds and small animals. An average of 63 birds nesting per mile have been found using the rose as home sites.

Seedlings will be shipped from Indiana's three nurseries located at Medaryville, Henryville and Vallonia. Farmers living close to the nurseries may pick up their seedlings there. Shipments will start as soon as planting conditions are favorable.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

Effective February 4, 1959

Subscription to the NEWS

WILL BE

$3.00 per year

The yearly subscription price to the Mentone News has been much lower than most weekly newspapers for a number of years, and the continued rise in the cost of production makes it imperative that the price be raised.

$2.00 RATE STILL APPLIES.

In order to give each subscriber an opportunity to renew or pay up any arrearage, the annual $2.00 rate will apply until February 4, 1959. (The limit of pre-payment at the $2.00 rate will be two years.)

Also, in order to keep our subscription list in a paid-in-advance condition, all names will be dropped from our mailing list on February 4, 1959 that do not show a paid-in-advance status. Even though many courts have decreed that a subscriber who continues to accept a newspaper from his mail box is liable for the obligation, our preference is that all be paid in advance.

New Factory For Mentone

Workmen are now busy at the Mollenhour Lumber and Mfg. plant at the west edge of Mentone getting it ready for a new industry. The front or main building has been leased to a new firm, named Panel-Craft, which will form, fabricate and package a new line of painted aluminum siding. The firm was recently organized by S. C. Harter, of Chicago, who has been regional manager of the Building Products Department of the Kaiser Aluminum Co., and two other associates. They are also a few local men included in the list of stockholders.

The firm will purchase coiled aluminum sheeting, painted in a number of attractive colors, and form the strip material into residential home siding. In addition, they plan to handle a number of other allied products.

The new machinery for the plant has been on order for some time and it is expected all will arrive late in February. Actual production should begin the latter part of March.

Nothing definite will be available regarding employment until about March 15th.

Mr. Harter, who is president of the firm and will be general manager, is presently residing at Rochester.

C. O. Mollenhour, who has leased the building to the new firm, is moving his operations to the buildings to the north, where he has nearly completed a new office unit. Plant machinery is being moved now.

NEW DATE FOR CROP SCHOOL

The Kosciusko County Extension Crops School will be held February 5th instead of February 3 as previously announced. The meeting will be held at the CoOp. Building, Warsaw at 1:00 p. m. according to Donald E. Frantz, County Agricultural Agent.

Speakers will include Ollie Lee, Weed Control specialist, and Clifford Spies, Agronomist from Purdue.

Awards to 5 acre Corn Project winners will be made.

Judy Horn spent Monday evening with Mary Lou Horn.

Reed Baby Buried Sunday

Salena Ann Reed, three-day-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Reed, Route 5, Warsaw, died Thursday evening in the Murphy Medical Center at Warsaw.

Surviving in addition to the parents are two brothers, Terry Lee and Rocky, both at home.

Funeral services were held at the Johns funeral home at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. Ralph Burris, of the Church of Christ, officiated. Burial was in the Mentone cemetery.

News Of The Cub Scouts

The Cub Scouts of Pack 58, Mentone, held their regular pack meeting Tuesday evening, Jan. 27, at the Methodist church. Due to the illness of our Cubmaster, Frank Nellans, the meeting was in charge of our committee chairman, Jim Tibbets.

Each den presented a short skit in keeping with our January theme, "Cub Scout News-men," with Den 4 publishing their very own newspaper with copies for everyone present.

Mr. Tibbets announced that February is the 30th anniversary of Scouting and that Feb. 7 - 13 is Boy Scout Week. All Cub Scouts are asked to attend their church in uniform Sunday, Feb. 8, with Monday, Feb. 9 chosen as the day for Cubs of Mentone Pack to wear uniforms to school.

Achievement awards were presented to John Wentzel and David Smythe, with year's pins going to Dan Manwaring and Tom Whetstone.

The attendance banner was won by Den 4. After the meeting the boys enjoyed games with top honors going to Den 1.

The next Pack meeting will be held on Tuesday evening, Feb. 24, and will be our annual Blue and Gold banquet. The Cub Scout theme for February is "Carnival of Colors." We urge all Cub Scouts and their families to attend.

Mrs. Marilyn Rathfon and Larry Smith of Wheaton College spent several days visiting her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rathfon.

Open House
Well Attended

Despite the extremely bad weather last Tuesday and Wednesday there were many visitors to the new Manwaring hatchery grand opening. The Manwarings were delighted to show the visitors about the beautiful new building and explain the action and purpose of each of the new and modern pieces of equipment. Each visitor was treated to a delicious lunch and many door prizes were awarded to the fortunate ones among those who registered.

About six o'clock Wednesday evening, when Warsaw, Mentone and the immediate area was plunged into darkness due to a failure in the electric transmission lines, the Manwarings had an opportunity to demonstrate their 25,000-watt power generating unit. The only lights to be seen in any direction in this area—other than a few flickers from candles in the homes—was at the new hatchery. They were lit up like a Christmas tree, accentuated by the beautiful green neon sign. Your editor "accused" the KimberChik boys of sabotaging our electric lines just so they could "show off" their power unit. I don't believe I worried them very much, however.

The new building is a credit to all concerned—the owners, designers and the contractors who had a part in its construction.

BABY IMPROVED

Sonja Kathleen, 13-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Quenton Lantz, was returned to her home Monday after spending a week in the Murphy Medical Center at Warsaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Heckaman, Bremen, were honored with a wedding shower and dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Jones and sons Sunday. Others present were: Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Klinefelter, John Sparrow, Victor Sparrow and family of Claypool, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heckaman and sons of Bremen, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dickerhoff and sons of Mentone.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Graff and daughters of Milford, were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rush and family.

PTA Supper
And Basketball

We have been advised that the PTA baked ham and corn bread supper scheduled for the evening of Feb. 14th, has booked two basketball games. Starting at 5:30 and continuing until 7:30 the Junior High will play two games with Talma.

Following the games the puppet show featuring Mike May from South Bend, will be sponsored by Coopers' Store.

The supper will feature baked ham, corn bread, and beans and Mrs. Rans' famous cherry pies.

Everything is free except the supper.

TO HAVE SURGERY

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zolman left Sunday noon for Mayo's Hospital. Accompanying them were Mr. Zolman's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mock of North Webster. Mr. Zolman is going to have surgery.

Emerson Zolman is going to continue the hauling. People can contact him at Maude Zolman's.

SIZE OF FISH WITHHELD BY FLORIDA VISITOR

Friend Art:

We are at "The Pines," East Main, Leesburg, Florida, and probably will be for some time. Please forward the News until further notice.

The weather is nice here now, but has been quite cool some nights, though very slight damage to fruit. Grower's price for oranges this year is $2.50 per unit compared to 75¢ last year for the frozen crop. The crop is comparatively light. Fishing has been very poor, although I did catch one bass. Please don't inquire about its size. Fishing can be a pain-in-the-neck down here. License costs $10.75, buy your bait, pay $1.50 for the boat, hire a motor, and often don't even get a strike, and sometimes a cold wind blows up and you nearly freeze before getting back, but not always that way.

E. D. ANDERSON.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shireman and son of Akron, were Saturday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dickerhoff and boys.

Talma Woman, 79
Dies Sunday

Mrs. Clarence Craig, 79, Talma, died Sunday at 9:30 a.m. in the Woodlawn hospital, Rochester, where she had been a patient for two weeks. She had been in ill health for the past six months.

Born June 1, 1879, in Rochester as Angeline Ball, she was the daughter of John and Mary Ball. Her entire life has been spent in the community. Her first marriage was to George Wolf who died in 1923. Her second marriage was in 1925 in Indianapolis to Clarence Craig who survives. Also surviving are three daughters: Mrs. Everett (Dessie) Greathouse of Rochester; Mrs. Max (Mary) McCarter, Peru; and Mrs. Herman Wolfe of Glencoe, Ill., one brother, William Ball of Rochester, four grandchildren; and one sister, Mrs. Margaret Gotschalk, Rochester.

Mrs. Craig was a member of the Talma Christian church.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. in the Zimmerman Brothers' funeral home at Rochester with Rev. Delbert Ruberg of Huntington, officiating. Burial was made in the L.O.O.F. Cemetery at Rochester.

SPEAKS FOR YOUTH AT LIONS MEETING

Rev. Irwin Olson, pastor of the Mentone Baptist Church, gave an inspiring heart-to-heart talk on "Betraying Our Youth," at the Lions Club meeting last Wednesday evening. During the course of his remarks he indicated that the home, the school and the church were all failing in their obligations to youth.

Beef Prices May Lower

A top U. S. Department of Agriculture livestock forecaster told Indiana farmers that rising production will bring lower beef cattle prices. He added, however, that a "boom-and-bust" situation can be avoided.

Harold F. Breimyer, who has charge of USDA livestock outlook work, made these observations at the opening session of Purdue University's Farm Science Days.

Despite inclement weather, several hundred persons gathered for the meetings. Farm Science Days, initiated this year, emphasizes the importance of science to agricultural enterprise, such as beef cattle, feeder pigs, dairying and commercial hog production.

Breimyer pointed out that while cattle numbers are on the increase, "expansion has not been too fast, and there is reason to think that we can avoid a boom-and-bust."

"Rising production will bring lower prices, but, unlike hogs, cattle do not appear to be in danger of sharp price decline for another year or two," he asserted.

"There are some danger signals flying," he added. "For instance, cow slaughter has been very low."

The USDA official said that 1959 would be "a year of modest profit for cattle feeders since the number of heavy cattle on feed last Jan. 1 is 15 percent more than a year ago." This will lead to some price declines this winter, he went on. There is a chance that prices could rise again in the autumn, Breimyer declared.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the friends and neighbors for the cards and prayers while I was in the hospital. Also the Golden Rule Sunday School Class of Beaver Dam for the lovely gift.

Total Farm Workers Same

The number of workers employed on Indiana farms during the last week of December, 1958, totaled 200,000, the same as during a corresponding period a year ago, but 14,000 fewer than the last full week of November, state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University report.

The estimate is made up of 185,000 family workers and 15,000 hired workers. Family workers include farm operators doing one or more hours of farm work and members of their families working 15 hours or more without cash wages during the survey week. Hired workers include all persons doing one or more hours of farm work for pay during the survey week.

Indiana farm wage rates declined slightly from the previous quarter and a year ago.

The average monthly wage rate for hired help with house was $162 on January 1, 1959, the statisticians said. Single help with board and room received an average monthly wage rate of $120. The statisticians said that a year ago the rates averaged $166 and $122, respectively.

Day workers furnished board and room received an average of $6.10 and without board and room $7.60. Both rates were the same as a year ago. The hourly rate without board and room averaged $1.04, up a cent from October, but one cent below the rate of January 1, 1958.

"We Like DeWitt's Babcock Bessies"
SAY THESE INDIANA POULTRY PRODUCERS

Babcock Bessies are making extra profits for Indiana egg producers. Here's what typical Bessie users have to say:

LAY LOTS OF BIG EGGS

Mrs. Walter Stutsman, R. 5, Goshen, started with 585 pullets bought from her father. They peaked at 90% production, laid from one to 1½ dozen medium size a day. All the rest were large and extra large. She was so satisfied with the Bessies that she started another 800 last summer and 2800 in October, has put up a modern 34 x 150 foot laying house.

VERY GOOD EGG SIZE

Rev. Raymond Yoder uses the second floor of a converted dairy barn for his laying flock of Bessies. He wants big eggs, since they pay more profits. To get them, he has Babcock Bessies which he raises on the range on a restricted feeding program to get well-developed birds before production starts. He finds the Bessies lay large eggs almost from the very start.

THEY'RE ECONOMICAL TO RAISE

Simon Bontrager operates the Clinton Center Feed Mill, R. 4, Goshen. He also is a large commercial egg producer. Last fall he tried Babcock Bessies, and as usual kept accurate cost records. The flock had 8000 chicks. At 16 weeks, 3 days they had cost only 75¢. This included the chick cost, feed, medication, vaccination.

BESSIES ARE HARDY BIRDS

Ottis U. Mast of R. 1, Millersburg started 700 chicks, housed 640 pullets when they were 22 weeks old. "We raised them on range," says Mrs. Mast, "and animals got at least 30 or 40 of them that we know about." The birds laid large eggs when they got into production. "We like them," adds Mrs. Mast.

BABCOCK BESSIES MAKE EXTRA PROFITS FOR YOU IN 5 DIFFERENT WAYS.
THEY ARE:

1. Lay Lots of Big Eggs
2. Economical on Feed
3. Long Laying Period
4. Low Mortality
5. High Egg Quality

D. A. R. News

Governor Handley, in cooperation with the Daughters of the American Revolution, has signed a Proclamation designating February as American History Month. The Anthony Nigo Chapter, D. A. R. of Mentone asks that schools, churches and home folk reacquaint themselves with American History since two of our greatest patriots were born in February.

Abraham Lincoln, 16th President of the United States, was born in Hardin Co., Kentucky, February 12, 1809. When Abe was 7 years of age his parents moved to Indiana in the southern part at what is now Lincoln State Park and where his mother is buried. Lincoln's formative youthful years were thus spent in Indiana leaving here at the age of 21 years. Lincoln, "The Great Emancipator", was President when The Civil War was fought.

George Washington was born February 22 (new style) 1732, Westmoreland County, Virginia. He was our first President and was called "Father of his Country." He was Commander-in-Chief during the Revolutionary War. Let us look at the lives of these two great men—one from the cabin and the other from a mansion but equal before God. Despite the difference in their background Washington and Lincoln were much alike in the characteristics which made them great, both had a great compassion for their fellow men. They looked for the best in others and gave the best they had. They accomplished their task and left the World a better place than they found it. They sacrificed their all on the altar of freedom because they knew then as we know now that "man by his very nature, wants to be free—free to choose his own future and decide his own destiny. He wants to decide these things for himself; he doesn't want somebody else deciding them for him. As history has shown us time and again, he will die to gain this Freedom if necessary; and he had rather die than lose it." (quote Thurman Sensing)

Washington and Lincoln both possessed a simple and deep faith in a God who rules the our lives and guides our destiny. Both possessed the virtue of true humility which they so often displayed. An example is found in this story:

"One evening in the month of June in the year 17 a Stranger was lost in a wood near the Hudson River. He had traveled far over steep paths attended with many obstacles. A heavy downpour of rain made the clay soil so soft that his feet slipped at every step. His horse panted as if it had been hard pushed for miles and the rider was almost exhausted from the labors of the day. He was almost ready to pass the night with what comfort circumstances would admit when he espied a light glimmering through the trees; pressing on with utmost perseverance he found himself in front of a good looking farm house. At the barking of a watch dog the owner came to the door and said, "Who is there?" A friend who has lost his way, and in search of a place of shelter, was the answer. Recognizing that this stranger was above the common rank, the man and his wife gave their best both to him and his noble steed. After a splendid repast the host said that it was now time for their family devotions before retiring for the night. Lighting a pine knot he conducted their guest to his chamber wishing him a good night's rest; soon the sound of a voice came from the chamber of the guest, who was now engaged in his own private worship. After thanking the Creator for his many mercies, and asking a blessing on the inhabitants of the house, he continued, "and now, Almighty Father, if it be thy holy will, that we shall obtain a place and a name among nations of the earth, grant that we may be enabled to show our gratitude for thy goodness, by our endeavors to fear and obey thee — Bless us with wisdom in our councils, success in battle, and let our victories be tempered with humanity — Endow also, our enemies of their injustice, and willing to restore liberty and peace. Grant the petition of thy servant, for the sake of him whom thou hast called thy beloved son; Nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done. Amen."

"The next morning the Stranger said he must be on his way immediately. He tried to recompense these kind people for all their kindness and trouble but they refused — therefore he said, "Since you will not permit me to recompense you for all your trouble it is but just that I should inform you on whom you have conferred so many obligations. I had been out yesterday, endeavoring to obtain some information respecting our enemy, and being alone, ventured too far from camp. On my return, I was surprised by a foraging party, and only escaped by my knowledge of the roads and the fleetness of my horse. My name is George Washington." (Needless to say, George did prevail on the wife to keep "a token of remembrance" which they cherished all their lives.)

Lincoln's famous Gettysburg Address is now recognized as a Masterpiece of Literature. At the dedication of the Gettysburg battleground, Lincoln was considered not equal to the occasion in giving the address and a glib smooth tongued lawyer was chosen. After six weeks of preparation he gave a two hour oration. Lincoln was asked the day before to "say a few fitting words." On the train to Gettysburg he wrote his two and one half minute speech which is acclaimed today as one of the best addresses ever given. In the closing words of his address may we say with him, and concerning all wars since his day, "We here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of Freedom and that Government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

Yes, the lives of Washington and Lincoln are an inspiration—Their memory a benediction.

Since this is the Sesquicentennial year of Abraham Lincoln the Indiana Lincoln

Foundation has planned many things in its observance.

Sometime in the summer months the Boy Scouts are planning to run two covered wagons from Indiana to Illinois over the Lincoln Trail.

The re-enactment of the "Bates House Speech" ceremony will be on the afternoon of Feb. 10 in the lobby of the Claypool Hotel, Indianapolis. It is hoped to use the original balcony from which Mr. Lincoln spoke. This balcony is now on an Indianapolis home.

On Feb. 13, 14 and 15 a musical production based on Lincoln's life in Indiana from 1819 to 1830 will be held at Evansville, the heart of Lincoln territory. A cast of 92 men, women and children will tell the story of Lincoln's 11 formative years in Indiana.

Fort Wayne radio WOWO has tape recorded "A Lincoln Memorial Recording in words of the Supreme Court of Indiana, June 20, 1865." Tapes are available at cost.

"Gettysburg Address" anniversary celebrations will be encouraged annually.

Posters and postal cards as a medium of creative art will advertise Lincoln. Many other events are planned.

TAX FACTS

Don't Pay Tax On Non-Taxable Items

(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax filing. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Indiana Society of Certified Public Accountants, in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.)

If you are one of the millions of American taxpayers who spends the lion's share of his income feeding, clothing, housing and entertaining his family, chances are there is very little you can do to reduce your 1958 federal income tax bill—but you can do it to yourself to try. First of all, decide which of the two individual tax forms you are going to use to report your income. If you choose the wrong one, you may automatically cut yourself off from a possible tax savings.

The easiest way to file is to use the simple 1040-A Form. It's a card the size of a check, on which you answer a few simple questions and have the choice of either computing your own tax or letting the government do it for you.

You are permitted to use the card form if your gross income consisted only of wages, dividends or interest totaling less than $10,000, and if you did not have more than $200 of gross income apart from that listed on your W-2 withholding slips.

Facts to Consider

Before deciding to use the card Form 1040-A, you should consider these facts:

1. Your tax will be figured from a table which allows you a deduction of about 10 per cent of your income instead of itemized deductions for contributions, taxes, interest paid, medical and dental expenses, etc.

2. There is no provision in this form for filing as the "head of household," as a "surviving spouse" or for claiming special credits for dividends and retirement income.

If you are sure that these two points would not cost you any tax savings, and your income is within the limits for filing a Form 1040-A, you might as well use this simple card form.

Whether to Itemize

When you elect to use the regular Form 1040, you still must decide whether to itemize deductions or take the standard deduction which usually amounts to about 10 per cent of your income or $1,000, whichever is less. Generally, you will save by itemizing deductions if you:

- (1) Own real estate
- (2) Had unusual medical expenses
- (3) Had deductible child-care expense
- (4) Suffered losses from fire, storm, accident or theft
- (5) Made fairly large charitable contributions

If you are supporting a dependent, although you are unmarried, you may be able to qualify as a "head of household" and figure your tax on a special table that gives you part of the advantage enjoyed by married couples filing joint returns.

You may qualify for a "head of household" status if you provide more than half the support of a parent, and more than half the cost of maintaining the parent's household even if the parent does not live with you. You cannot claim a "head of household" status if you file a Form 1040-A.

The 1040 Form is arranged again this year so that a taxpayer whose income was entirely from wages needs to use only the first one or two pages. Pages three and four are for other types of income and for computing the special credits for dividends and retirement income.

The instructions which come with your tax forms give further information on how to select the correct tax form. Help is also available from the Internal Revenue Service.

Farming More Scientific

The head of Purdue University's agricultural economics department said last week the "Scientific Sixties" would place the highest premium on skillful farm management.

Dr. L. S. Hardin, addressing a session of the Indiana Farm Management Association held in connection with Purdue's Farm Science Days, declared that farmers who have acquired management skills would find the coming decade "both challenging and profitable."

"By sheer force of economic growth and development," he said, "agricultural production will become more specialized both on individual farms and by geographic areas."

"Technical developments will continue to be placed into use at a record rate. The capacity of our farms to produce more than we can sell at acceptable prices will still be with us in the 1960's. Economic forces will continue to press the less efficient unit—whatever its size."

M. Paul Mitchell, Purdue agricultural marketing specialist, told the association that net farm income in Indiana will decline in 1959 "despite an expected recovery from the business recession."

"Lower prices, associated with larger production, narrow or nonexistent price margins in cattle feeding and higher operating costs will contribute to reduced incomes," Mitchell asserted.

Addressing the association's annual banquet, W. Lyle Fitzgerald, agricultural economist for the Quaker Oats Company, declared that success in farming will continue to depend on individual initiative.

Tips on Cattle Rough Feeding

Cattle that are to be pastured next summer should be fed so that they do not gain more than 1 to 1½ pounds daily this winter. T. W. Perry, head of animal nutrition work at Purdue University, says.

Beef cattle that are "roughed" through the winter will utilize the pasture better next summer, he adds.

Silage properly supplemented with protein and minerals, may be used as the only feed for fattening cattle with good results. Corn silage alone will not meet the protein requirements of beef cattle.

Grass silage must be supplemented with corn or some other high energy feed to be of the same value as corn silage.

In comparing mixed hay and corn silage as a winter feed for beef cattle, Purdue trials have shown that gains with silage (supplemented) have been twice as fast as with hay (without supplement). Cost of gain has been 40 percent higher with hay than with silage.

Perry says the quality of the feed fed should be geared to the quality of the cattle on feed. For instance, choice steer calves that are to be fed grain on pasture next summer and finished as choice fat steers may be fed a full feed of corn silage and 1½ pounds of Supplement A per day. If the steers are to go on pasture with no grain until late summer, they may be fed full feeds of grass silage (with preservative); corn silage with 1 pound of Supplement A per day; legume hay alone; or ground corn cobs with 3 pounds Supplement A per day.

The first three of the rations listed above are very satisfactory for wintering good steer calves that are to be pastured and marketed as good slaughter steers.

Any one of the four rations, as well as the corn silage and 1½ pounds Supplement A ration are good for "roughing" good to choice yearling steers through the winter if the steers are to be pastured and marketed as choice two-year olds.

Do not feed cattle too well during the winter if they are to be pastured next spring, and match the feeding program with the quality of cattle for extra profits, Perry summarizes.

The equivalent of 24 million loaves of bread will reach the needy abroad through the CARE Food Crusade to share the United States farm abundance. Flour to bake bread is among the main ingredients of the 3 million Food Crusade Packages which will be delivered in the names of Americans who contribute $1 per parcel to CARE, New York 16, N. Y.

Mentone Basketball

As Reported by Larry Teel

Friday night Mentone engaged in a rough and tumble basketball game in the Silver Lake gym. When the blood was mopped off the floor the Bulldogs had won 57-52. It was the 12th conquest in 16 efforts.

It was a close contest all the way and wasn't decided until the final minute. Silver Lake lead by 5 points with 3 minutes left to play and then the Bulldogs started to hit. Before the Ramblers scored again the Bulldogs tied the score at 50 all. The two teams traded field goals and the Mentone team went ahead 54-52 on a layup with 30 seconds to go. A traveling violation gave the visitors the ball and before it was over they had scored on 3 foul shots for the final score 57-52.

Spaghetti, mainstay of Italian diets, will be specially made from U. S. flour and given to needy families in Italy as gifts from the people of America through the CARE Food Crusade.

In tiny villages of Pakistan, when CARE first began providing free milk for undernourished children, many of the teachers as well as pupils believed the milk powder grew on trees in the United States. It costs only $1 per package to send milk and other nourishing U. S. farm foods to the needy overseas through the CARE Food Crusade, New York 16, N. Y.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

Effective February 4, 1959

Subscription to the NEWS

WILL BE

$3.00 per year

The yearly subscription price to the Mentone News has been much lower than most weekly newspapers for a number of years, and the continued rise in the cost of production makes it imperative that the price be raised.

$2.00 RATE STILL APPLIES.

In order to give each subscriber an opportunity to renew or pay up any arrearage, the annual $2.00 rate will apply until February 4, 1959. (The limit of pre-payment at the $2.00 rate will be two years.)

Also, in order to keep our subscription list in a paid-in-advance condition, all names will be dropped from our mailing list on February 4, 1959 that do not show a paid-in-advance status. Even though many courts have decreed that a subscriber who continues to accept a newspaper from his mail box is liable for the obligation, our preference is that all be paid in advance.
