COUNTERPOINT

By the Editor's Wife

What happened to our mild winter? Well, it seems that the high Westerlies—currents of air which swirl around the Northern Hemisphere from west to east—have changed course. Until late November, these Westerlies were on the job, holding back the cold Arctic air. Suddenly, they changed course, going into great north-south loops, and the cold icy air is getting through and blasting down on us. Since these air currents don't change course until in April, your forecasting is as good as mine.

A Canadian physician has prescribed the rocking chair as a cure for old-age ills. He says that rocking chairs "enable the most feeble to take exercise, encourage circulation and promote respiration * * *"

There is a great psychological value, also, for the restless baby, the unhappy child, the puzzled teenager, the harried housewife and mother, the middle-aged, and the lonely elderly ones. Why not start a movement to put a rocking chair (preferably with a small squeak) back in every living room?

These lines by Haydn Pearson are very timely. "Beneath the snow and the ice, life waits for the time of awakening. This is the heart of winter, but when Time is fulfilled in Springtime, man's heart will lift to the Master Plan that governs the cycling season."

Psychologist Noel Keys questioned several hundred college men about the qualities they looked for when selecting a wife. Here they are, listed in order: 1. Common interests and tastes. 2. Intelligence. 3. Personality. 4. Qualities of Character. 5. Good health. 6. Sex attraction for them. 7. Education. 8. Attractive face. 9. Taste in dress, manners, and speech. 10. Attractive figure.

There you are, girls. How do you rate?

We enjoyed this: A speaker was lecturing to the Lions Club on the subject of forest preservation. "I don't suppose," he said reprovingly, "anybody in this hall has done a single thing to conserve our timber resources."

After a short silence came a

New Phone Numbers At Silver Lake

All telephone customers in the Silver Lake exchange will have their telephone numbers changed Jan. 11, 1961, according to T. E. Lemmon, District Commercial Manager for General Telephone Company. The new seven digit numbers appear in the telephone directory delivered November 1960.

Silver Lake customers had been requested to retain and use their 1959 directory until the January 11th change. After January 11th they must use the numbers in the new directory and are asked to destroy the old one. This number change is necessitated by the change to a new dial central office unit for this exchange. The new office is being placed in service in order to provide faster and better telephone service to present customers and also to provide equipment so that new customers can be served.

Burket and Claypool customers are urged to review the instruction on pages 2 and 3 of their directories before placing free service calls to the Silver Lake exchange.

CONDENSER FACTS

A defective condenser can cause a lot of trouble in a tractor's ignition system.

(1) Wrong condenser capacity may cause pitted breaker points.

(2) High internal resistance may result in condenser failing to take a proper charge, causing arcing and burning of the contacts.

(3) If condenser "flashes over," the engine may miss under high compression.

(4) If internal insulation is bad, leakage can occur, causing breakdown of the condenser and complete ignition failure.

(5) An open or shorted condenser can prevent the ignition system from operating.

(6) A condenser tester offers the only means of accurately checking the condition of a condenser.

TRACTOR TALK

LEAN CARBURETOR MAY CAUSE SPARK PLUG MISFIRING

If you're encountering spark plug misfiring while accelerating from low to high speed, better have carburetor checked before blaming the trouble on the spark plugs.

Too lean a fuel mixture being supplied by the carburetor may cause spark plugs to misfire while the engine is being accelerated from low to high speed under full throttle.

Why? Because voltage requirements are highest at this time and because the lean mixture requires more voltage to spark the plug's gaps.

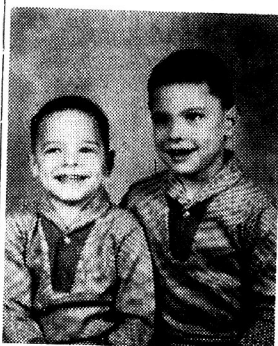

If the voltage required to fire the plugs is higher than the voltage available from the coil, spark plugs misfiring will occur.

TO SHOW FILM ON COMMUNISM

The Anthony Nigo Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Mentone, has been fortunate to secure the sound film, "Operation Abolition," which is to be shown to the public at the Mentone School on Monday, Jan. 9 starting at 7:30 p. m. It will also be shown at the school on the same day, according to Mrs. Frank D. Smith, national defense chairman of the DAR.

The 45-minute documented sound film of the House Un-American Activities Committee concerns the hearings of that committee held in San Francisco last May. The film deals with Communist activities and propaganda among youth. Recent world events clearly reveal that world Communism has launched a massive campaign to capture and maneuver youth and student groups.

J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI, in his report, "Communist Target Youth," states that this attack is in line with the long-standing Communist party aim to destroy not only the House Un-American Activities Committee but also the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee and every other "enemy of Communism." This film shows how it is possible for only a few Communist agitators, using mob psychology, to turn peaceful demonstrations into riots. Their success must serve as a warning that Communist infiltration efforts are aimed not only at the youth and student groups, but also at our labor unions, churches, professional groups, artists, newspapers, government and the like and can not only create chaos but also shatter our internal security. When Americans learn of the riots which Communists have created in other countries, they point to the strength of our Nation and say, "It can't happen here." The Communist success in San Francisco in May, 1960, proves that it can happen here! If you are not horrified by the actions that you see in this film, of the group of California college students at the San Francisco hearings of the House Un-American Activities Committee, then our cause is lost.

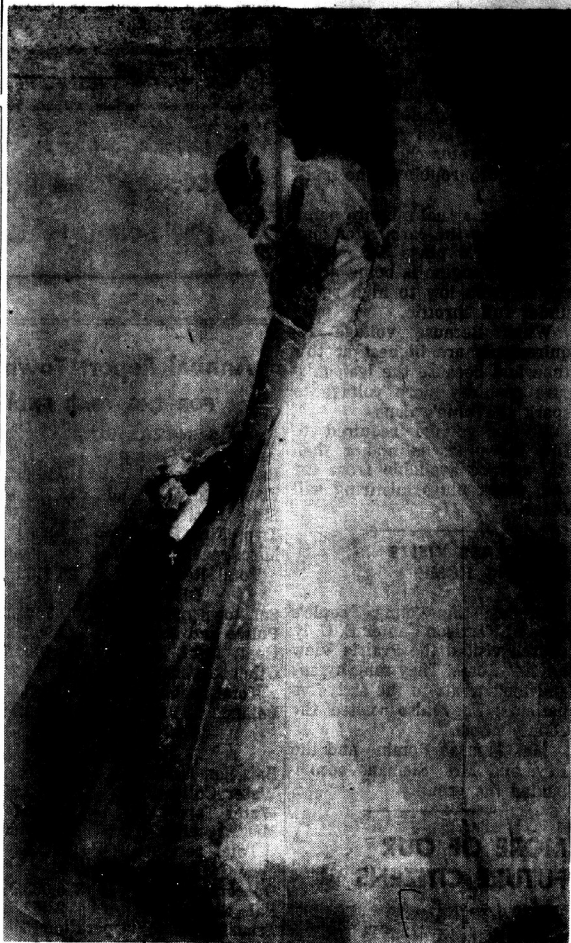

Will it take another Pearl Harbor to awaken us? Not if the Reds can help it. They want us to continue in our sleep-walking trance toward the precipice of no return.

The film is furnished to our community free of charge by courtesy of the American Legion Post No. 148 of Ft. Wayne. Everyone is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Reichard visited in Plymouth with relatives Sunday evening.

Mrs. E. D. Anderson plans to leave by train Thursday for Leesburg, Florida where she will spend the winter at her trailer house at the City Trailer Park.

MARTHA HOHMAN BRIDE OF STEVE BRUNER

Miss Martha Hohman became the bride of Pfc. Steven Bruner in a candlelight ceremony in the Palestine Methodist church at half-past seven o'clock Friday evening, December 23. The Rev. Robert Carmin read the double ring service in the presence of 100 guests.—Photo by Nelson Cook, Bourbon.)

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hohman, Route 1, Claypool, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bruner, Jr., Route 2, Warsaw.

Vows were pledged before an altar decorated with poinsettias and palms. Nuptial music was presented by Miss Janice Mollenhour, pianist, and Mrs. Wayne Bowser, Soloist, aunt of the bridegroom.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of embroidered tulle over satin. Fashioned with tapered sleeves, the molded long torso bodice was trimmed with Venice lace and tiny satin bows. Appliques of lace also adorned the bouffant skirt. Her finger tip veil of silk illusion fell from a lace and satin plateau edged with pearls and rhinestones. With her white Bible she carried a poinsettia.

Mrs. Raymond Croy, matron of honor to her sister, appeared in a gown of pink satin lined with darker pink. Her hat of pink silk illusion matched her gown and her bouquet was of pink carnations.

John Underhill, of South Bend, served his cousin as best man. Ushers were Douglas Bowser, of North Webster, cousin of the bridegroom, and Bill Gross, of Oswego, brother of the bride.

The newly married couple greeted guests at a reception in the church social rooms before leaving on a short wedding trip. After January 9, they will reside at Fort Knox, Ky. Both young people are graduates of Mentone High School.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dearest one, J. Arthur Witham, who left us two years ago January 3.

Words could never tell, our dearest one, how much we miss you. Nor could words express the preciousness of your beautiful memory, which is a vital and living part of each and every one of our lives every day. We shall dearly treasure the memory of you until that wonderful day when we meet in Heaven never to part again.

MRS. ARTHUR WITHAM
and CHILDREN

Extension Serves More Hoosiers

A record number of Hoosier farm and urban families, homemakers and youth received assistance last year in all of Indiana's 92 counties from the Cooperative extension service, according to L. E. Hoffman, state director of agricultural and home economics extension at Purdue University.

The cooperative extension service is an educational agency of state land-grant colleges and universities and the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Extension agents and Purdue resident specialists serve as teachers in this informal, off-campus and out-of-school type of instruction.

Extension served more than 320,800 Indiana farm, non-farm, rural and urban families last year. This is about eight and a half percent more than the previous year. It brought to them practical and useful information, much of which was developed at the Purdue agricultural experiment station, and assisted in application of this information.

Extension stepped up its work in rural development—an inter-agency program for assisting low-income counties through making fullest use of local resources. Perry county is a pilot county in this program aimed at developing human resources and opening of new job opportunities off or on the farm. Other counties recently added to this program are Crawford, Orange, Harrison, Clark, Jefferson, Ohio, Switzerland, Jennings, Spencer, and Monroe.

As educational leaders, extension staff members assisted large numbers of farm cooperatives, agricultural supply and marketing firms and helped to bring together farmers, business and civic leaders and representatives of farm organizations and government agencies to work as a team.

Nearly 1,000 county committees and other advisory groups assisted in planning and executing the extension program. Volunteer local leaders numbered more than 63,000, of which nearly 11,000 adults served as 4-H club advisors and more than 10,000 as junior 4-H leaders. Four-H club work, the youth phase of the extension program, currently has an enrollment in excess of 90,000.

Hoffman says that more than half of the state extension staff members and more than 20 percent of the county staff have advanced college degrees. Extension workers are both staff members of Purdue and employees of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Federal Extension Service. Federal, state and county governments supply the funds to finance the extension program.

Essential purpose of extension work is to promote learning based on a "self help" philosophy, Hoffman explains. This program is anchored in the needs of people as expressed by themselves.

Traditionally, extension has drawn its "students" from rural areas, specifically farm people. However, the service is being called upon more and more to assist non-farm families. Many of these families live in small towns or are part-time farmers. Others reside in cities or their suburbs and these make use of professional help on consumer buying, gardening, lawns, landscaping and homemaking.

COUNTERPOINT

By the Editor's Wife

A week after Counterpoint had some fun at the editor's expense (concerning his sudden jump in the snow), the writer of this column took a genuine "spill" in the kitchen, ruining a fresh wax job and a left arm and wrist. In a subtle way, the editor suggested that he might enjoy writing an item or two for the column this week. (Ha! Ha!)

Haydn Pearson has this to say about our long cold January:

"But the seed catalogs are arriving in the R. F. D. boxes; the sun has begun its climb back into the sky. A man can sit in front of his fireplace and do the best gardening he has ever done. Until Congress makes a new calendar, we will have to take January."

Here is something to think about the next time you are asked to do something. "A reason is something we give before a conclusion is reached; an excuse is something we give for not following out the conclusion."—Fulton J. Sheen.

In dealing with people, it is not so important WHAT people say as WHY they say it. In many cases, long buried hostilities may be the cause. Are we honest enough to recognize these and bring them out in the open? It's not easy, but it's good for what ails us. (Truly, just ask your psychiatrist.)

We enjoyed this: Two ladies were discussing their travels. One said that she had visited the Holy Land. The other asked, "Did you visit Tyre and Sidon?" "Why, no. Are they places? I always thought they were man and wife like Sodom and Gomorrah."

INJURES BOTH ANKLES
IN FALL AT HOME

Dr. L. Z. Bunker of North Manchester, sister of Mrs. K. A. Riner of Mentone, caught her heel as she was going down the back steps of her home Wednesday evening of last week. She was taken by ambulance to the Wabash County Hospital where X-rays disclosed a bone broken in one ankle and in the other one a bone chipped and torn ligaments. A pin was placed in the broken bone and casts were placed on both ankles.

WATER TOWER
GOING UP

Mentone is taking on that new look these days, as one views the city from a distance. Workmen have the corner posts and the main center section of the new water storage tower protruding into the air, and it will be completed within two weeks if fair weather continues.

The new 150,000 gallon capacity elevated tank is being erected across the street from the school and on the lot south of the old gymnasium.

The main water line, going from the new well in the southwest part of town to the new tower, is well under way.

FAMILY NIGHT TO BE HELD

Each member is asked to bring a covered dish and table service. After the supper hour, movies will be shown.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Eber returned Tuesday evening from a vacation trip in Florida.

Mrs. Charles Greer is a patient at the Murphy Medical Center.

ty standings in preparation for defense of their 1960 county tourney championship by downing South Whitley 68-58 at So. Whitley Saturday night.

NEW TELEPHONE EQUIPMENT IN USE

On January 11th, $86,000 of new telephone equipment was put into service at Silver Lake. This included the new central office building which houses new Automated Electric dial switching equipment and new telephone cable throughout most of the Silver Lake community.

Planning for this conversion began 30 months ago in July 1958 when a study was completed indicating that the dial switching equipment presently in service would not handle future requirements. A target date of the first quarter of 1961 was then set for the installation of a new central office unit.

The equipment of this type and installation must be engineered and designed especially for the community to be served. One of the features of the new equipment is selective party line ringing so that only the called customer's phone will ring, the other phones on the line remaining silent. Another feature is terminal per station equipment which will make it possible for a customer to move from one part of the Silver Lake exchange to another and retain the same telephone number.

Many hands have aided in the engineering, manufacturing and installation of the equipment placed in service Wednesday.

General Telephone employees from Goshen and Elkhart worked on the job testing the equipment after installation along with Howard Christenberry, No.

HERE'S HOW TO SPEND THE WINTER

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Nellans, of Mentone, are shown above with a recent catch of fish. They are spending the winter at Leesburg, Florida and evidently Herschel has found the better fishing spots. The photo was taken by their son, Dale, while he and his family were there a couple of weeks ago.

Manchester district senior central office maintenance man from Etna Green, and Ralph Ogan, central office maintenance man from North Manchester under the supervision of M. J. Weimer, district plant supervisor, North Manchester.

Anyone having used stamps they don't want can help needy ones. Send the envelopes to Mrs. Dale Smith, R. 5, Warsaw and same go for overseas milk. Others go to a school for retarded children. We also have a use for post cards — wanted by a crippled post card collectors' club.

Harry, Betty and Gigg Kinzie, former Mentone residents, surprised the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Smith on Christmas Eve by a telephone call. Harry says after his Korean tour he is quite happy to stay home for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tucker left Sunday for Largo, Florida to spend the winter.

Mrs. Meyer gave the report from the auditing committee.

Mrs. Gene Sarber gave the citizenship report. A trip to Indianapolis and State House on Feb. 15th was discussed. All reservations must be in by Feb. 10 for bus fare.

Mrs. Clayton Holloway gave the report on the county presidents' meeting.

A food sale will be held Feb. 4th at Romine Electric to help support the kindergarten, it was reported by Mrs. Dale McGowen.

The club collect was then repeated.

During the social period Mrs. Robert Hibschan was surprised with a handkerchief shower. The Hibschmans and daughters will be moving soon to make their home near Butler, Illinois.

The door prize was received by Mrs. Herschel McGowen, and secret pal gifts were received by Mrs. McGowen and Mrs. Puterbaugh.

Bingo was enjoyed by the group with Mrs. Harold Linn and Mrs. Holloway on the entertainment committee.

Delicious refreshments, from herb and spice recipes, were served by the hostess and co-hostess.

TRACTOR TALK

IMPROPER DIPSTICK MAY BE CULPRIT CAUSING OIL FOULED PLUGS

In cases of continued oil fouling of the spark plugs and/or high oil consumption, better check the dipstick to see whether it's the right type for the engine.

Service engineer at Champion Spark Plug Company advise that they have received several reports of cases where the dipstick was too short—as a result, oil was added to the crankcase in excess of requirements.

Champion engineers advise that this condition may also show up as excessive oil blowing out of the crankcase breather.

POINT SPACING AFFECTS TIMING

When installing distributor breaker contact points in a tractor, keep in mind that proper point spacing is important. Points spaced too far apart decrease dwell angle and advance spark timing. Points spaced too closely together increase dwell angle and retard timing.

An engine always should be retimed after new points have been installed.

Minimum Tillage Yields Are Best

Corn grown in minimum tillage demonstrations on three different soil types yielded equal to or better than corn on conventionally tilled land last year at Pinney Purdue Farm near Wanatah.

Donald R. Griffith, research leader at the experimental farm, reporting on the demonstrations, lists the soils involved as Tracy loam, Kouts fine sandy loam and Edwards muck. All are common soil types in northern Indiana.

Conventional tillage in the demonstrations consisted of plowing in early spring, discing once or twice and harrowing before planting. This method was compared on the three soil types with planting one to four hours after plowing and with wheel track planting on the two loam soils. No special equipment was used on the planter.

Yields for plow and plant were slightly greater than for conventional tillage on Tracy loam, 106.2 to 104.8 bushels per acre, and on Edwards muck, 99.4 to 96.6 bushels per acre; but on Kouts fine sandy loam plow and plant increased yield by 13.4 bushels per acre. All yields were limited by a nitrogen deficiency on the Kouts soil, however.

Wheel track planting showed no advantage over plow and plant in 1960 at these demonstrations.

Plant populations were slightly reduced by plow and plant growth was a little slower early in the season. Weed control, however, was aided by plow and plant. This was most important on the muck where weeds are a more serious problem. Before the first cultivation, broadleaf weeds between rows were reduced 35 to 40 percent and grass seedlings were delayed several days, giving the corn a head start and allowing more efficient cultivation.

Plow and plant allowed one cultivation to be omitted on the Kouts soil. On the other soils, weed control practices were the same for all treatments.

While comparative yields from minimum tillage may vary from year to year due to moisture conditions at planting time and during the growing season, these demonstrations show that it can be used profitably on a wide range of soils, says Griffith.

Corn For Laying Hens

Many Indiana farmers ask, "How much corn may I use in the ration for my laying hens?"

Roy Roberts, Purdue University extension poultry specialist, says that the all-mash layer and breeder ration now being used on the Purdue Poultry Farm contains 1321 pounds per ton or 66 percent of yellow corn. This ration, containing just over 15 percent protein, has given excellent egg production and high hatchability.

To produce the desired results, the specialist adds, rations containing large amounts of corn or any combination of grains must have the necessary proteins, minerals and vitamins to supplement the grain. This Purdue ration contains 400 pounds per ton of 44% protein soybean oil meal as the only protein supplement. Formerly all poultry rations contained some animal products such as meat and bone scraps, fish meal, and milk products. These animal products furnished not only protein but also minerals and vitamins to supplement the grain. Modern research has shown that soybean oil meal properly supplemented with minerals and vitamins does just as well.

For those who wish to feed a combination of grain and mash instead of an all-mash ration, 1000 pounds of corn may be omitted from the formula. The remaining ingredients will make a mash containing about 22 percent protein. Then this mash can be fed with an equal amount of grain. Roberts cautions against feeding a mash and grain ration free-choice to laying flocks of heavy breeds which have a tendency to eat too much grain.

The formula for this layer and breeder ration, as well as formulas for other poultry rations, may be obtained from County Agricultural Agents or from the Purdue Poultry Department, Lafayette, Ind.

Spring oat varieties certified and recommended for use in Indiana this spring include Clintland 60, Goodfield, Minhafer, Newton, Putnam, Clintland and Bentland.

Don't over feed beef cows which are nursing small calves, remind Purdue University animal scientists. Too much milk will cause calf scours.

Plan to visit 1961 Farm Science Days at Purdue University, Jan. 16-21, to learn about the latest advances in research as applied to farm enterprises.

MAGAZINE PREDICTS 'FABULOUS' FIFTEEN YEARS AHEAD

Radical Changes Seen in Houses, Cars, Industry

By 1975, a nation that has grown to 230 million in population will have built an additional 22 million homes, cook dinner in "miracle" kitchens, rely on ultrasonic sound waves to wash clothes, which will be made mostly of synthetics, eat meat that is tenderized on the hoof and frozen-dried fruits and vegetables, and drive cars of lightweight aluminum, steel or plastic, according to Changing Times, the Kiplinger Magazine.

The current issue of the magazine, looking ahead for the next 15 years, points out that ideas which may seem far-fetched now are not nearly so remote as present day products—jet planes, dishwashers and disposals, antibiotics—were 15 years ago, at the close of World War II.

Examining the "fabulous fifteen years ahead," the magazine editors see a population growth from 182 million; a gross national product in the neighborhood of a trillion dollars; inflation that will shrink the dollar another 25%; individual incomes that are up 50%. The most growth will be in the West, Southwest, Southeast and the upper tier of the midwestern states, they predict, with the biggest population boosts coming in small fry, teenagers and young adults.

All this growth, according to the editors, means more homes, more jobs, more schools. The working force will be around 100 million, over 30 million of them women. A higher percentage of them will be white-collar workers, and the trend from farm to city and industry will be in demand, and the coming construction boom will make jobs for contractors, carpenters, electricians and plumbers. The government—particularly state and local government—will employ about 25% more people.

Phenomenal Computers

Computers will develop a phenomenal capacity to remember and analyze data, the article continues. They will be used in production, in management, in government planning, in medicine and in air travel. The electronics industry will make dramatic strides in developing machinery for data processing. Automated machinery, using electronics as its brain and hands, will take over much of the manual work done in factories.

Plastic Houses

In housing construction, the editors predict, builders will have to trim the price of construction to equalize rising land costs. One way will be more prefabrication of wall and roof panels, flooring, brick work and even plumbing and electrical assemblies. Houses will be made of plastic—walls, floors, exterior, even the roof, with colors molded in, thus solving the problem of painting and maintenance; aluminum panel switches may eliminate structural framework since they would be load bearing. Such walls, hooked up to an electrical current, could also be used for heating, as could decorative wall surfaces of aluminum. Porcelain-enamelled aluminum bathroom equipment is on the way, as well as more lightweight aluminum appliances.

In steel, the magazine sees a revival of the all-steel prefabricated house, using the curtain wall principle that has proved successful for office buildings, as well as interior walls—textured and patterned in steel—that are mounted on rollers for rearrangement whenever the mood strikes.

Tomorrow's Kitchen

Tomorrow's kitchen is on the way, the article continues. There will be units consisting of a freezer and electric oven that will produce a full meal in 10 or 15 minutes; cabinets, ovens, dishwashers, and refrigerators that can be automatically lowered or raised to suit the housewife; automatic plastic dish makers in the kitchen; ultrasonic dishwashers; noiseless refrigerators. There will be refrigerated cabinets and drawers scattered around the kitchen; stoves that can be turned off and on by dialing "instructions" from a phone booth; concealed faucets; built-in beverage bars; plug-in gas appliances; servers and dishwashers that automatically go back and forth between kitchen and dining room or patio; water heaters that never run out of hot water.

Housekeeping by Remote Control

The housewife will have vacuum cleaners that run themselves, and homes in the suburbs will have power mowers that do the same thing. Small washer-dryers will replace the bathroom hamper; closed circuit TV will help keep an eye on the baby; fuel cells in the basement will provide power.

Ultrasonic sound waves will wash dishes and clothes. Thermoelectric refrigerators, freezers and air conditioners will be quieter and more efficient. Radios, TV sets and hi-fi equipment will be smaller, as tiny compactrons, diodes and transistors continue to replace bulky tubes and other components.

New Food, New Clothes

The magazine sees a whole new family of synthetics on the way, to make clothing light, durable, easily maintained. Also, in another ten years or so, the article predicts food stores will be selling beef, and maybe pork, lamb and poultry, tenderized on the hoof through special feeding of the cattle; precooked canned roast beef; freeze-dried foods—foods that are dried, then frozen and put into airtight cans or pouches where they will keep for years. As for atomic-radiated foods (no refrigeration needed), the editors say research is well along and they should be available between now and 1975.

Traffic Jam

Growth over the next 15 years will also create a traffic jam, according to Changing Times. By 1975, nearly three-quarters of the population will live and work in metropolitan areas. To move them from home to job and back will make today's commuting problems look simple. The answer, the editors predict, will be major emphasis on rapid-transit systems.

But there still will be cars—although they will look different, may function in different ways. The roof may be made of indestructible, glasslike materials. Bodies will be of lightweight steel, aluminum, maybe even of plastic so tough it can compete with metals. Motors will be smaller, and routine maintenance will be far less of a problem than now. Other changes will include total disappearance of the floor hump; devices that consume exhaust fumes and gases; central hydraulic units providing power for brakes, steering wheels, wipers, air conditioning, suspension; limited use of gas turbine engines.

And the electronic highways—

March of Dimes Research Grants Awarded Only to Top Scientists

By THOMAS M. RIVERS
Vice President-Medical Affairs
The National Foundation

If there is any one point that we scientists must get across to the "average man" (if there is any such person), it is that conducting a first-rate research program is much more than just giving money indiscriminately to various laboratories.

The key to right giving is selecting the right people to whom to give. This is a most difficult task but it is a job at which The National Foundation has proven itself exceptionally competent.

Research may be said to be a journey into the unknown to push forward the frontiers of knowledge. Inevitably, its nature is such that no man can foretell exactly where it will lead.

But this "average man" to whom we just referred, and who is perhaps dissatisfied with the uncertainties over where research will lead, might be reminded that The National Foundation has shown in the past what it can do—as, for example, initiating the research that developed the Salk and Sabin polio vaccines. This and other major accomplishments constitute the credentials of the world's largest voluntary health organization for going ahead.

A great deal of basic research, of this journey into the unknown, was needed to create the bases which made possible the development of the polio vaccines. This again will be necessary as The National Foundation moves forward in its expanded program which includes birth defects and arthritis in addition to continued work in polio.

Dr. Albert B. Sabin at his University of Cincinnati laboratory examines samples of his live-virus anti-polio vaccine, developed by him with $1,500,000 in March of Dimes public contributions. Sabin vaccine, to be taken orally instead of by needle, has been approved for eventual use in the U. S.

Perhaps you have heard the comment that a camel is a horse put together by a committee. This illuminates what I think is one of the principles of research. Great research is done by great men, not by committees. It is The National Foundation's job, among others, to find those great men, and to see that they have adequate equipment with which to work.

It is natural for the public to want immediate results. For the parents of a child afflicted with arthritis, for instance, to want quick cures is understandable. But we are trustees of public funds. We cannot spend those funds save for projects that have some promise of success, conducted by people who have shown what they can do.

If our aims in research could be summed up, I would say that The National Foundation operates like a rapier, not a bludgeon. We are selective. We put March of Dimes funds in the exact spot and under the specific man who will make the most of it. We do not dump millions into hundreds of projects with a vague hope that by the law of averages some may produce.

In short, we try to be as careful in the selection of research projects as an extremely fussy woman is in selection of a spring hat.

The research future is bright. With laboratory methods that have been developed, many under March of Dimes grants, we can move farther and faster than in years past. Indeed, I often think of the polio struggle as a time when we tooled up for what is to come. The methods that were so successful in that polio challenge are now being applied to the greater challenges that lie ahead.

To accomplish what The National Foundation desires requires great men. We have had them in the past. We shall have them in the future and, with public contributions to the March of Dimes, those men will accomplish much for the good of mankind.

Tractor Talk

CLOGGED AIR CLEANER MAY CAUSE FOULED SPARK PLUGS

If you're encountering spark plug misfiring on tractor engines with relatively new plugs, it may be due to improper air cleaner maintenance, according to Champion Spark Plug Co.

Pointing to a recent University of Illinois survey indicating that most farmers don't follow recommended procedures on air cleaner servicing, the Champion service engineers advise that a dirt-clogged filter easily can result in a rich fuel mixture which will cause the formation of carbon deposits on the spark plug electrodes.

The resultant spark plug mis-firing will reduce horsepower, fuel economy and contribute to excessive engine wear.

Champion reminds farmers that most tractor manufacturers recommend daily service of the air cleaner cup, and removal of the cleaner from the tractor at least once a year for complete cleaning and rinsing of the filter element.

According to the Illinois study only about a third of the tractor operators surveyed bothered to clean the cup oftener than once a week. Fifty per cent said their interval between cleanings was 60 hours or more, while 50 per cent said they had never removed the filter for cleaning.

Regular air cleaner service is extremely important to tractor operation. Dirt collecting in the filter element can reduce horsepower, waste gas and result in excessive engine wear. In the Illinois test, for example, intake valves and tractors receiving poor air cleaner service showed three times the wear as those in tractors receiving proper service. Cleaner neglect also accelerates wear of rings, pistons, sleeves and bearings.

Champion engineers advise

servicing the oil cup daily, cleaning the center pipe monthly and removing and cleaning the entire filter at least once a year.

She was alone at the time and after the fall had managed to crawl to a chair but was then unable to move or attract the attention of passersby. Mrs. Glenn Snider stopped for a moment and found her. She was taken to the Woodlawn hospital at Rochester. Since entering the hospital she was overtaken by pneumonia, but latest reports are that she is improving. Doctors have been unable to attempt repair of the broken limb as yet.

COUNTERPOINT

(The editor's wife is very busy this week studying for, and also taking exams, so their daughter will again take pen in hand—)

Just this week a homemaker, commenting on the Spring-like weather, said some of her tulips were up. Even though the sun has been shining brightly for several days, I'm afraid the tulips have made a mistake and are undoubtedly in for some more nippy winter cold!

Timmy and Lisa were all set and waiting to go to Grandma and Grandpa Harman's for dinner last Thanksgiving when they discovered one lone pansy, blooming under some dry leaves in a flower bed. They both were quite excited and breathless as they raced into the house with the important "find" tenderly clasped in hands. This one pansy, a stray or holdover from summer, made a cold November day seem more cheerful.

There's something about flowers—especially when they appear out of season—that is so refreshing, and perhaps encouraging. One realizes that another warm season will appear eventually.

A lesson on "Simple Household Repairs" was given last week in Warsaw for the Home Economics Clubs. The following questions were asked of the ladies attending:

1. What size service entrance panel (fuse box or breaker panel) do you have in your home?
  2. Where is this service entrance panel located in your home?
  3. How many 120-volt appliance circuits do you have supplying your kitchen?
  4. What size fuses do you now have in your appliance circuits?
- The specialist from Purdue conducting this class said every housewife should know these answers. (I was fortunate in that I did know where our fuse box is located, thus giving me one correct answer!)

Ladies, better have your husbands take a few minutes to explain, as simply as possible, how to change a fuse, where to shut off the water, etc. This information might be quite helpful in an emergency or just for everyday use.

We enjoyed this: Have you heard about the termite with false teeth? He walked into a tavern and asked: "Is the bartender here?"

HENRY ALSPACH DIES THURSDAY

Henry R. Alspach, 65, R. R. 4, Rochester, died early Thursday at his home just west of Rochester on Road 14.

Mr. Alspach, who had been ill for a year, had gone out at 8:30 o'clock to feed livestock. His wife became worried about him about 10 a. m. and went outside where she found him dead.

He was born July 25, 1895, in Newcastle township and had lived his entire life in Fulton county. He was the son of Cornelius and Mary Arnet Alspach, both deceased.

Dec. 22, 1917, in Michigan, he was married to Evaleno Smith, who survives. He was a carpenter and the owner of the Alspach orchard.

Surviving besides the widow are a daughter, Mrs. Charles (Joan) Clawson, R. 2, Warsaw; a son, Harold, Washington, D. C.; a foster daughter, Mrs. Alton (Janice) Perry, R. 1, Claypool; a granddaughter; a sister, Mrs. Howard (Edna) Belanger, West Los Angeles, Cal., and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 1:30 p. m. in the Foster and Good funeral home in Rochester. Rev. J. E. Longenbaugh, former pastor of the Athens EUB church, officiated. Burial was in the Mt. Hope cemetery, three miles east of Rochester.

Mrs. VanDoran reported to the club that last year the state of Indiana was rated 47th out of 50, and Kosciusko county was 78th out of 83 counties. Their goal for this year in Kosciusko county is $5,000. We hope the people of Mentone will help the club reach this goal and raise their county and state in their standing.

H. D. PRESIDENTS' COUNCIL MEETING

The County Home Demonstration Council, composed of Presidents from 72 clubs in Kosciusko County, met at the Steer Inn recently for brunch and business meeting. Mrs. Francis Reece, 1961 president of the organization, presided.

The council voted unanimously to ask each member to contribute 10 cents toward a fund to assist the Home Demonstration Chorus with their music expense. This assessment is to be paid to the county treasurer, Mrs. Floyd Faurote, Pierceton, at the time the county dues are mailed before April 1st. The group hopes that more club members will become members of the chorus which meets for rehearsal the first and third Mondays 7:30 p.m., at the Farm Bureau Co-op Building.

Mrs. Eugene Sarber, Mentone, chairman of the citizenship committee asked each president to lend her support to the county project of sending as many folks as possible to Indianapolis February 15th to see the Indiana General Assembly at work. More information will be announced later.

The County Home Demonstration Agent, Mrs. Herbert McCleary, explained the International Farm Youth Exchange program. Miss Judy Hoffer, a former 4-H member and chairman of the county fund will be asking for contributions from 4-H and Home Demonstration clubs. Six farm youth are sent overseas each summer to live with farm families and the same number of young folk from those countries are guests in Indiana. This is a program which helps to create a better relationship with these people and countries.

HOME FOR GIRLS AT PURDUE U.

February 1 is the final application date for residence in the Twin Pines Cooperative House at Purdue University.

Mrs. H. McCleary, Home Demonstration Agent in Kosciusko County, explains that this cooperative house gives women students an opportunity to live more reasonably while attending Purdue, since the residents of the house share the work and expenses.

The Twin Pines Cooperative House, sponsored by the Indiana Home Demonstration Association, was built to encourage girls to attend college and major in home economics.

Any girl who plans to attend Purdue in the fall of 1961 may obtain further information on the Twin Pines house by contacting any Home Demonstration Club president in this county.

Radio Evangelist At Talma Church

Rev. Toirac ministered in his homeland of Cuba for several years. He has also carried on a gospel work in France and Spain. He is a graduate of Grace Theological Seminary at Winona Lake.

In 1960 the Spanish-World Gospel Broadcasting Mission was founded by Mr. Toirac. His studio is located in Winona Lake. Prepared gospel programs are sent several hundred broadcasting stations which reach the Spanish speaking peoples of the world.

The evening Bible hour at the Talma Bible church has a new, interesting feature for the months of January, February and March.

Charles Hubler of Mentone, who has been before numerous courts of law to answer to the charge of driving an automobile without a driver's license, drove his car into a parked auto in Akron last Wednesday, and appeared in Justice of the Peace Louis Alt's court at Athens.

Charlie, it has been reported, contends he never had to have a license in the southern state he left over a quarter of a century ago, so never bothered to get one here.

GOOD ATTENDANCE AT LIONS MEETING

There was a full house of interested Lions at their regular meeting at the school Wednesday evening, to see the pictures of a 1959 Alaskan Bear Hunt, shown by Attorney Russell Williams of Peru.

The attendance officer who wrote out the cards to ditto to announce the meeting, spelled it BARE—and then changed it to BEAR. Wonder if this had any influence in getting out a full roster of Lions.

Robert Boley, of Warsaw, will be on the entertainment part of the program for Feb. 1.

February 15th a joint meeting with the Talma, Tippecanoe and Burket Lions is planned. It will be a ladies' night program and will start at 7:00 EST.

MARRIED RECENTLY

Miss Sheila Anne Fitzgerald and Thomas Eugene Laing were united in marriage recently in the Sacred Heart Catholic church in Warsaw. Rev. Lawrence Reddington officiated at the nuptial mass following a double-ring ceremony at 11 o'clock. White tapers in tall candelabra, red poinsettias and palms decorated the altar.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Iris Fitzgerald of Mentone, and the late Thomas Fitzgerald. Mr. Laing is the son of Mrs. Julia Laing of Logansport, and the late James Laing.

Mrs. Donald Hogan was organist and vocal soloist for the service.

Thomas Fitzgerald of Kalamazoo, Mich., gave his sister in marriage. Her gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over net and taffeta was fashioned with a basque bodice and long pointed sleeves of lace. Jeweled lace flowers adorned the Queen Anne collar. The voluminous floor-length skirt featured panniers of tulle and lace over ruffled tulle. Her circular fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was caught to a lace crown embroidered with pearls, sequins and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses and carnations.

Miss Martha Fitzgerald, of Mentone, maid of honor to her sister, wore a gown of emerald green satin designed with fitted bodice, scooped neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. An inverted front pleat, topped by bell-shaped skirt. A petal cap held her short veil. Her flowers were red carnations.

Similar gowns in candlelight satin were worn by two other attendants, Mrs. John Fitzgerald and Mrs. Gerald Fitzgerald, of Warsaw, sisters-in-law of the bride. The flower girl, Kathleen Fitzgerald, niece of the bride, appeared in candlelight taffeta with a corsage of red sweetheart roses. Christopher Lutes, of Alwood, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Michael Laing of Bloomington served his brother as best man. James Laing of Logansport, also a brother of the bridegroom, and Bernard Fitzgerald of Mentone, brother of the bride, were ushers.

After a reception in the church social rooms, a luncheon was served to members of the bridal party.

The newly married couple went to Chicago on their honeymoon. They will reside in Logansport at 29½ Eel River Avenue. Mr. Laing attended Logansport high school and is a surgical technician at St. Joseph's hospital. His bride, a graduate of Mentone high school and Elkhart University, is a laboratory technician at the hospital.

POOR OLD WEBSTER

(By Don Robinson in "The American Press")

I thought I had a pretty good knowledge of the meaning of simple words like "home" and "overnight" until I began perusing the government publication entitled "Tax Guide For Small Business."

Here is what "overnight" means according to the IRS Dictionary: "You are away from home overnight if your business activities require you to be absent from your tax home for a period which is substantially longer than an ordinary day's work and of sufficient length to necessitate relief from duty to obtain sleep. You need not be away from your tax home for an entire 24-hour day or throughout the hours from dusk to dawn, as long as your relief from duty during your absence is to obtain necessary sleep, and not merely rest or obtain a meal."

My first question would be: what if I have insomnia? Suppose I am away from my tax home, have every intention of getting a good night's sleep, but find that my head is in a whirl over income tax problems and I can't do anything but rest?

And just what is that "sufficient length" of time "to necessitate relief from duty to obtain sleep"? I know some night owls who, at press conventions, are still sitting around talking at dawn. I know others who have "had it" at the end of a morning business session and need a long nap after lunch.

As for "home", I'll have to study that more before discussing its meaning. The IRS Dictionary on this term, in part says: There are many instances in which you are traveling away from home even while you are working in the same city in which you and your family live. You can see that this is going to take a lot of thought.

Poor old Webster! All he says is: "Overnight—of the duration of one night." And "Home—one's dwelling place." How simple can one be?

And the News editor would like to re-affirm his stand that what we should have done back in 1933 was to put all those lawyers on relief and not send them to Washington where they've been phrasing such confusing regulations and living off us taxpayers ever since.

"Your Grandchildren will grow up under Communism!"

—says NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV

Will the Soviet threat come true? Will your grandchildren live under Communism? Forget God? Salute the Soviet flag?

"Never!" you say. But are you sure? What can you do to oppose Communism? There is one sure way. Help Radio Free Europe! What does it do? It broadcasts the news of freedom to 79 million captive people behind the Iron Curtain. It helps keep them from turning to Communism. It helps pose a major obstacle to the Russians starting a war. But Radio Free Europe needs help. It depends on individual Americans for its existence. Will you help? Give a dollar? Give 5 dollars... or more? Surely your heart tells you to give something—so that our children—and all children—shall live in freedom throughout the world.

Leaders from the clubs were taught how to replace a simple portable appliance cord and to put a new washer in a faucet.

They were also shown simple adjustment and repairs that the housewife could make in the bathroom stool storage tank. These were repairs that could be made for a nominal sum and which would save a repair man coming out to make the adjustment.

Three demonstration kits are available, Mrs. Herb McClary, says, for use in the club lesson and should be reserved through the Agriculture and Home Economics Extension Office in the basement of the Court House or call AM 7-8971.

Mrs. Tucker Hostess to Mentone H. D. Club

Mrs. Opal Tucker gave the lesson on "Herbs and Spices," and prepared a fruit punch, dilly beans and salmon curry served over rice for the Mentone Home Demonstration club January meeting. Mrs. Esther Sarber, our president and co-hostess, reviewed the plans for the coming year.

Genevieve Warren read the history of the song of the month, "America." The pledge to the flag was led by Mrs. Agnes Rams and meditation was given by Mrs. Esther Sarber with a reading, "My Little Girl."

Mrs. Helen Weirick won the mystery package.

The club constitution was read by Mrs. Pearl Horn.

Refreshments were served to 11 members and one guest.

Dairy Cow Numbers Drop

Indiana's dairy cow population declined from 581,207 milk cows in 1954 to 411,273—a 29 per cent drop—in 1959, but average yearly income per cow increased from $149 to $212, a 42 per cent increase.

Income from milk and cream to Indiana dairy farmers totaled $94,153,580 in 1954; by 1959 it had dropped $1,402,378, a decline of 1.4 per cent.

Elkhart county reported the largest number of cows in any of the state's 92 counties. This was 12,484 in 1959, compared to 15,501 five years earlier. The average income per cow was $291, up 32 per cent from the 1954 average.

S. M. Gregory, Purdue University extension dairyman, points out that three factors probably contributed to the decline in cow numbers. Many farmers are keeping closer production check and culling cows which don't return a profit; substantial capital investments are not readily available in many cases and farmers, seeking release from heavy labor requirements, have gone out of the dairy business.

Use of the electronic data processing method of dairy herd records is one way for farmers to improve their dairy operation since this method computes feed costs as well as production, he explains.

And, if a farmer, looking over his records finds that his herd has not met or surpassed the state average income per cow he is failing to keep pace with the technological changes within the industry during the last five years.

Farm Price Index Declines Slightly

Rising grain prices offset falling hog prices to hold the mid-December, 1960, Indiana farm prices index to a one point decline, report Purdue University agricultural economists and state federal statisticians. The index dropped from 229 to 228 in the period.

Purchasing power of both Hoosier and U.S. farmers remained unchanged, while both the indexes of U.S. farm prices received and prices paid by U.S. farmers rose one percent.

The Indiana grain price index increased five percent, but the Indiana livestock price index declined two percent.

Major commodities increasing: Corn, ten percent; soybeans and turkeys, four percent; wheat, cattle and chickens, three percent; potatoes, five percent; and apples, nine percent. Commodities declining: Hogs, six percent; and whole milk and lambs, one percent.

As a result of lower hog prices and higher corn prices, the Indiana hog-corn ratio declined 14 percent from 21.4 to 18.3. Other product-feed price ratios declining: Whole milk-feed, 3 percent and butterfat-feed and egg-feed, two percent. Ratios increasing: Broiler-feed, three percent and chicken-feed and turkey-feed, two percent.

LESSONS ON HOME REPAIRS

The County Home Demonstration Clubs have been having a leader training lesson given by Miss Ruth Hutcheson, Purdue University Extension Club. The lesson was given by Mrs. Esther Sarber, our president and co-hostess, reviewed the plans for the coming year.

Genieve Warren read the history of the song of the month, "America." The pledge to the flag was led by Mrs. Agnes Rans and meditation was given by Mrs. Esther Sarber with a reading, "My Little Girl."

Mrs. Helen Weirick won the mystery package.

S. M. Gregory, Purdue University extension dairyman, points out that three factors probably contributed to the decline in cow numbers. Many farmers are keeping closer production check and culling cows which don't return a profit; substantial capital investments required for dairy enterprises are not readily available in many cases and farmers, seeking release from heavy labor requirements, have gone out of the dairy business.

Use of the electronic data processes and other factors remained unchanged, while both the indexes of U.S. farm prices received and prices paid by U.S. farmers rose one percent.

The Indiana grain price index increased five percent, but the Indiana livestock price index declined two percent.

Major commodities increasing: Corn, ten percent; soybeans and turkeys, four percent; wheat, cattle and chickens, three percent; potatoes, five percent; and apples, nine percent. Commodities declining: Hogs, six per-

Baptist Church News

The First Baptist Church of Mentone held its annual business meeting on Thursday evening, January 5th. At this meeting reports were made of last year's income and ministry and the budgets for 1961 were approved by the congregation.

The total income reported for 1960 was $28,742.92, an increase of $3,721.46 over 1959. Out of this total income $12,329.03 was disbursed for missionary projects outside of the local work.
The operating expenses of the church were $9,913.29 and $2,500 was spent on building improvement, principally to install a new roof on the church building. The operating expenses of the Sunday School amounted to $1,537.13. The balance of the income was disbursed through the auxiliary organizations of the church.

The congregation approved
the following budgets for 1961:
Missions $10,080.00; general expenses $10,490.00; building improvements $2,000.00. This missionary budget represents our actual commitments and it is anticipated that the total giving for missions will exceed this amount again in 1961.

Twenty-one new members were received into the church fellowship bringing the total church membership to 327. The average Sunday School attendance for the year was 197.

First Baptist Church holds its worship services at 1:30 a. m.

School meets at 9:30 a. m. and

Control of Crabgrass

Research on crabgrass control in more than 1,000 plots each year at Purdue University continues to bring good news to embattled homeowners and turf managers.

Dr. W.H. Daniel, turf specialist, says the experimental work on more than 50 compounds continues to show that crabgrass can be completely controlled with proper application.

This means having toxic concentration of growth - stopping chemicals present in the surface rootzone, Daniel says, so that whenever crabgrass germinates, the seedlings are immediately stunted and killed. Therefore, it is important to have the material applied uniformly and prior to the germination of seedling crabgrass.

He points out that without crabgrass competition it is much easier to grow the desired bluegrass or lawn mixtures of grass. Of course, first the homeowner should have an established turf worth protecting. Once he has that, usually one application of the control compound will last throughout the season.

Work at Purdue in past years has shown that many different seedlings can be prevented from becoming established by-products such as Dacthal (Swift), Zyttron (Dow), and Chlordane (Velsicol). Newest of the products on the market is a diphenyl compound, Dipan (Lilly), which has shown in Purdue tests that it can be used to prevent annual grasses from infesting shrubs and flower beds.

Wider distribution of all products for crabgrass prevention, including arsenicals, can be expected for 1961. However, Daniel warns that homeowners should read and follow directions about making early, uniform applications.

Thank You

COUNTERPOINT

(By the Editor's Daughter)

My bit last week about the tulips in for more cold, was hardly out on the mail routes before this recent snow hit. I certainly wasn't predicting snow, because I'm one who rarely even listens to a weather forecast... but I am one who enjoys snow. Saturday morning all four of the Harmans, plus one puppy, were out playing in the snow. The wind was so terribly chilling, we didn't stay long! The children are now asking every day if we can go ice-skating. Daddy, who has weak ankles and isn't fond of the idea, has a legitimate excuse for the time being... It's too cold!

The week-end whirl of Inaugural Ceremonies is over and no doubt it's pretty quiet now in Washington, D. C. Monday morning on the Dave Garroway Show, he and his staff were discussing the Balls. Beryl Pfizer said she attended one of the Inaugural Balls, wearing a borrowed mink stole and Frank Blair, the weather man on the Garroway Show, said it was the first time he'd ever worn tails and he actually didn't know what to do with them! (Wonder how many others perhaps felt the same way???)

At the Governor's Ball, our own state was receiving acclaim because of the lovely 19-year-old twin daughters of the new governor, Matt Welch. The girls were sitting in the Governor's Box with Mr. and Mrs. Welch, and presented one of the prettiest pictures at the Ball.

Our rose tree needed special care this fall in regards to keeping it through the winter. Our solution—a huge cardboard box that covers the tree nicely, but which has undoubtedly caused several motorists to "take a second look", wondering just 'what and why'. We're offering this word of explanation to those of you who might still be wondering.

We enjoyed this: Fowl Play! Smith looked over his garden wall and said to his neighbor: "What are you burying in that hole?" "Oh, I'm just replacing some of my seeds, that's all." "Seeds", shouted Smith, angrily. "It looks more like one of my hens."

"It is. The seeds are inside."

Thomas Whetstone is seriously ill at his home.

Roy Maxwell remains about the same with some improvement. He is able to be up in a chair a short time.

Mrs. E. E. Wagner was dismissed from the Woodlawn Hospital Wednesday afternoon.

William Cook has been suffering with an infection in the lungs; on Monday he fell and fortunately suffered no serious effects.

Mrs. John (Leiu) Miller of Bourbon was admitted to the Alfran Nursing Home at Warsaw on Monday.

Mrs. Dora Norris who lives on North Tucker street, fell in her home sometime in the early part of Monday morning. Mrs. Vera Kelly had stopped to visit Mrs. Norris and found her lying on the floor. She had fallen in the kitchen and managed to crawl into the living room near the stove, but couldn't get up on the couch. Though there were no broken bones, Mrs. Norris was badly bruised and therefore it was necessary to admit her to the Prairie View Nursing Home at Warsaw.

Word has been received that Steven Dale Holloway, infant son of Spec. 4 and Mrs. Robert Holloway underwent a successful plastic surgery operation on Tues. at the Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D. C.

2 Million Women to Join Mothers' March To Support March of Dimes Health Goals

The Golden Key of Hope—a new symbol for a new decade of medical progress against crippling diseases—is the badge some two million volunteers will proudly wear in the 1961 Mothers' March climaxing the New March of Dimes.

Symbolizing the need for research to unlock the mysteries of such major cripplers as birth defects and arthritis, the Golden Key also represents the vaccine "keys" to polio prevention perfected through research made possible by the March of Dimes.

In most communities, the Mothers' March will take place the evening or afternoon of Tuesday, Jan. 31. Volunteers identified by the Golden Key badge will call on their neighbors for support in the campaign against tragedies which affect one in every four American families.

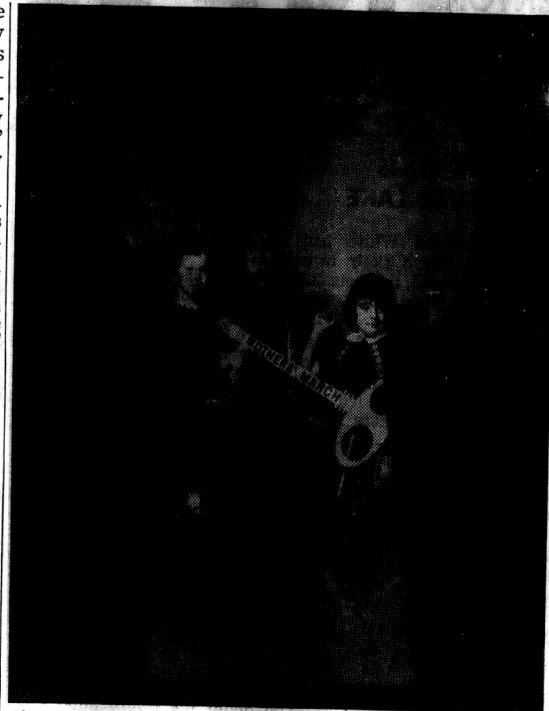

Each of the estimated 40 million households visited in the Mothers' March will receive valuable health information cards including Do's and Don'ts for expectant mothers, Arthritis Warnings, and Vaccination Alerts for the almost 85,000,000 Americans still not protected against polio.

Beclouded by centuries of superstition, birth defects are considered by medical authorities to be the nation's most serious child health problem. Yet the fields of cause and prevention were largely unexplored until funds from the March of Dimes began to make intensive research possible. Pointers derived from early research are included on the cards to be distributed by Mothers' March volunteers.

The cards are also designed to bring home the realization that more than 11,000,000 Americans suffer from some form of crippling arthritis. Many victims, grasping at straws, pay out a total of more than $250,000,000 annually on quack "cures." The fact is that the causes of arthritis are largely unknown. There is no known cure, no known preventive. But research to find the key is being rapidly advanced through March of Dimes support.

To improve treatment and rehabilitation of those crippled by birth defects and arthritis, a network of clinical study centers is being established by means of March of Dimes funds. Techniques developed by The National Foundation in aiding polio sufferers are applied to children suffering from birth defects and arthritis.

Glimpsed through a keyhole, three small victims of dread crippling diseases hold the Golden Key of Hope, 1961 Mothers' March symbol of March of Dimes-supported efforts to unlock the mysteries of their afflictions. They are, left to right, Gail Berg, 3½ years, arthritis patient; Allen Markowitz, 5, polio victim; and Rosalie Porretto, 7, born with a birth defect, all of New York City.

All of this research and patient care would be impossible without health manpower—and womanpower—to put it to use. To help meet this drastic problem, March of Dimes funds support a health scholarship program in every state each year. Thus the Marching Mothers also seek support for an increase in the critical supply of doctors, nurses, physical therapists and others dedicated to the improvement and protection of the nation's health.

An important part of winter driving, says the Chicago Motor Club, is to learn to recognize road signs by their shape. Signs sometimes become covered in a blizzard, or passing traffic may splatter them with mud and blot out the letters. Eight-sided signs always mean a full stop; diamond shaped signs indicate danger; and circular signs denote railroad crossings.

If you find yourself going into a skid, cautions the Chicago Motor Club, avoid jamming on your brakes. Instead, turn in the direction of the skid to regain steering control. When you want to stop safely on icy pavement, pump your brakes lightly.

The Chicago Motor Club advises that even though the highway on which you're driving is in excellent winter driving condition, it's smart to approach crossroads, side roads, and driveways with caution. On less heavily traveled byroads, snow and ice tend to linger longer. Drivers entering the main highway from these areas may not be able to stop as quickly or effectively as they should. At such locations, your foresight and precaution could prevent a serious accident.

The Chicago Motor Club advises drivers that one of the basic rules of safe winter driving is to get the feel of the road before proceeding too far. This is vital because the condition of the road greatly affects braking distances. For instance, hard-packed snow increases stopping distances with conventional tires about two and one-half times.

VISION AND HEARING TESTS

Dr. John J. Johnson, Director of the Kosciusko County Health Department, announces that he and Mrs. David Dilling, R.N., public health nurse, have recently completed vision and hearing testing. In many of the schools P. T. A. mothers furnished valuable and greatly appreciated assistance. The tests were done in all of the county and city schools in four different grades.

Hearing testing is done with an audiometer which is a highly accurate electronic instrument for measuring the hearing level of the individual student. No mass classroom testing is done as individual tests are much more accurate. There were 3027 students tested, of these 257 were retested, 160 audiograms were done and 137 were found to have significant hearing loss and their parents were notified by mail.

The vision screening is done with equipment designed for school vision screening. Visual acuity, farsightedness and muscle weakness tests are included. State law only requires that visual acuity be in the 1st, 3rd and 8th grades. Students in the 1st, 3rd, 8th, and 11th grades are tested. The vision test was administered to 3069 students, of these 716 failed the test and either need glasses, need to have their glasses changed or will need glasses in the future.

The results in Mentone and nearby schools are as follows:

The Chicago Motor Club says that failure to yield the right of way is dangerous at any time of the year, but especially during the winter when roads and streets are likely to be slippery. The safe driver shows extra caution and courtesy by yielding the right of way even when he knows it is legally his. This kind of common sense driving pays off in an accident-free driving record.

CONFERENCE FOR INDIANA YOUTH

"Food comes first" as the theme of the first Indiana Youthpower Conference will have real meaning to the more than one hundred young people who attend the state-wide meeting in Indianapolis Feb. 16-17.

The Conference executive committee, in meetings with management at the Hotel Severin where the Youthpower group will convene, has planned a series of meals, calculated not only to excite the appetites of the young conferees, but also demonstrate to them the importance of correct nutritional standards.

Home economists, dieticians and nutritionists have aided the planning committee to determine the menus at meals for the Youthpower delegates.

"Food Comes First for Youthpower" will thus not be a mere theme to the young people who will attend—it will be demonstrated and proven to them in every meal served.

Youngsters attending the Conference will include members of the 4-H Club, Sunshine Girls, Future Homemakers of America, Y-Teens, Tri-Y and Hi-Y groups, Future Farmers of America, Future Homemakers of America, Indiana Rural Youth, the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts. These will come from all sections of the state. They will be expected to take back to their organizations and communities the importance of following correct food habits.

All expenses of the young people and their chaperones will be paid while they attend the conference. The financial sponsors of the Conference in-

Sports Cars, Old and New

Vintage cars contrast sharply with the present at the current "Sports Cars in Review" at Henry Ford Museum near Detroit, Mich. The tenth annual show features nearly 50 outstanding high performance sports and competition cars of Europe and the United States, several shown for the first time in the midwest, and traces the history of these vehicles over the last 60 years. The two vintage cars in the background, a 1902 French Pan-hard, at the left, and a 1911 Empire Roadster, once made in Indianapolis, Ind., are among those that illustrate racing history. They could go only a third as fast as the third car, a Ferrari Testa Rossa, an Italian racer of today with a top speed of more than 150 miles an hour. The exhibition continues through February 5, with hours 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily. The 1960 show attracted nearly 50,000 persons.

clude food processors, farm groups, trade associations and others interested in food production and marketing.

Members of the Executive Committee include Estel Callahan, chairman, Ward Holm, Russell Cole, Charles VanNuy, and Acord Cantwell, all of Indianapolis. Callahan and Cantwell represent the Indiana Farm Bureau; Cole and Van Nuy the Indiana Chain Store Council and Holm is executive secretary of the Indiana Dairy Products Association.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

by Harold R. Driskell

Read Joshua 3:1-5

Bible Thought: "Let your hope be a joy to you." (Romans 12:12)

"We have not passed this way before." It is always so when we turn unto the highway of a new year. For some it will be new experiences in a new job, for some a move to a new community. Some will joyfully say as they put on Christ, "Old things are passed away, behold all things become new."

New experiences await us all.
Some of us will find ourselves in Gethsemane "where the night is long and dark, and the cup of suffering runs over, and it seems that morning will never come.
Others will find new and wonderful joys for which there are no words. But for all of us we will know real victory, this will be our best year if we walk steadily and hopefully with God on the new road of the New Year.

How do we walk with God?
We walk with God when we follow Joshua's instructions:
"When ye see the ark of the covenant... go after it." The Ark contained the laws of God.
We walk with God when we go nowhere without God's Word to guide us: We walk with God when we go anywhere without fear if we are following the Word of God.

Thanks to Helen M. Young.

CORN LOSSES FROM INSECTS

Ray T. Everly, Purdue University entomologist, reported losses in Indiana corn yield from attack by European corn borers, corn earworms and corn leaf aphids last year were slightly higher than in 1959. Losses from these three insects will total about 26,000,000 bushels.

Speaking at the Agricultural Pesticide Conference, Everly said the estimated loss resulting from infestation of the corn leaf aphid was 3.6 percent. The European corn borer accounted for the second greatest loss in yield, about 1.8 percent. Damage from corn earworm was of economic importance only in the southern fourth of Indiana, he said.

Dr. Fred N. Andrews, head of Purdue's dairy department, pointed out that the Food and Drug Administration would not permit any pesticide residues in milk and milk products. The dairyman has control over his own insecticide program, but in many cases can not guarantee the treatment of purchased feed stuffs, he added.

"The most confusing problem facing the dairy farmer is the freedom of cattle feeds from pesticides," Andrews said. "The Food and Drug Administration has taken the position that dairy owners, managers and herdsmen must be able to state that pasture, hay, silage, grain and other feedstuffs are free of illegal residues," he explained.

Gary Buckingham, LaPorte, Purdue freshman entomology student, received the C. C. Alexander memorial scholarship worth $400 this year. V. C. Freeman, associate dean of Purdue's school of agriculture, made the presentation at the Pesticide Conference. Alexander, who died in an airplane accident, May 12, 1959, was an alumnus of the Purdue entomology department.
