Notes From Your County Agent

Cletus Griffith of Etna Township was top yield winner in the Five Acre Corn project in Kosciusko County with a yield of 175.7 bushels per acre. The Five-Acre project is conducted by the Indiana Corn Growers Association. Lowell Vining also of Etna Township placed second with a yield of 171.2, according to Donald E. Frantz, County Extension Agent.

Junior awards went to Alan Grimm of Prairie Township with a yield of 161.1 bushels and Miles Nellans of Menone with 156.1 bushels.

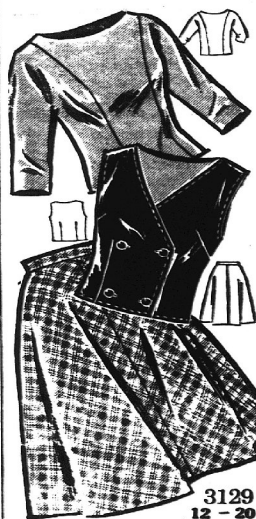

The average yield of 125 bushels for 1964 does not reflect a true picture of the crop this year as many fields that were reduced by dry weather were not checked. Adequate rainfall was received in some localities and these were the areas of high yields.

There was no one variety of corn that evidenced superiority. Seven varieties were found in the top ten yields. The trends toward less cultivation and more chemical weed control was continued. Single crossed hybrids were continued but showed more variation due to weather conditions.

The top ten producers in the adult and junior projects were as follows:

Friendly Neighbors Install Officers

The Friendly Neighbors Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Charles Manwaring for their Christmas party. The evening meal, prepared by the social committee which consisted of Mrs. Manwaring, Mrs. Golda Mollenhour, and Mrs. Conda Walburn, was impressively served by candlelight.

A brief business session followed during which time Mrs. Guido Shirey installed the coming year's officers. The social committee presented various selections of poetry with the other members also participating.

The remainder of the evening was delightfully spent by playing bingo and exchanging gifts.

Parson Jones Speaks

Dear Mr. Publisher

Our little Church has just got through taking a religious census. We got the results compiled up and they shore are revealing. Our little book of statistics reads about like a newspaper. It's got some serious things and it's got some humorous things—kinda like the funny papers.

The sad thing is that so many people ain't members of no Church at all. Add to that figure the Church members that don't attend, and it looks like we're sending missionaries to the wrong heathens. Instead of all this fuss about putting Christ back into Christmas it looks like we better start doing something about putting Him in our people.

There was one right funny fact in our book. It listed a heap of folks that don't belong to no Church, but listed a certain denomination as one they preferred. That's a funnier joke than Bob Hope ever wrote. If these folks preferred a certain Church they would be in it. What they really should have said was that they preferred to stay home. I reckon the hole thing is our fault cause we didn't list the heathen denomination as a possible choice.

Ain't it funny how folks will claim they lean toward the Baptist or the Presbyterians or the Methodist, when it's obvious from their actions that they lean toward the Devil? Being a Methodist and not going to Church is about like being a husband when you ain't married.

There was another group, Mr. Publisher, that struck my fancy. Some said they didn't have no Church preference. I wondered what these folks meant by this remark so I called one on the telephone. She claimed that she didn't hate one Church no more than she did another. She disliked 'em all equally. That's what she called "no Preference". I don't reckon everybody who listed themselves under this category feels the same way. It is pretty obvious from the facts of the case though that they ignore all Churches equally.

Well, it all shows that we got freedom in this country—freedom of religion and freedom from religion. A fella is free to do almost anything he wants to do. He can shoot his wife, stick his feet in the fire, jump off the Empire State building—and he can even reject God. Course it's always good to see the other side of things. The man that shoots his wife is going to jail; the dumbell that sticks his feet in the fire is gonna get burnt dogs; the idiot that leaps from the Empire State building is gonna turn into a spot of grease. The freedom lover who rejects God will go to hell. Yessir, freedom is a funny thing.

I hear my wife hollering Mr. Publisher, so I'd better be signing off. We're going calling on a man that listed himself as being a Devil worshipper. I want to ask him if they've got a special meeting place for Devil believers, or whether they just use the Church buildings already in existence. See you.

Yours truly,
Parson Jones

Deaf Man Perfects Tiny Hearing Aid

A remarkable tiny hearing aid has been perfected by a man who has been hard of hearing for nearly ten years.

This small device has no dangling cords or separate transmitting units and represents a new unusual design idea in a product to restore natural hearing.

It was developed especially for those persons who can hear but can't understand. This new hearing instrument provides "ear-level" hearing with the wearer picking up speech, sounds, television and radio at his ear.

Due to the use of transistors, the user cost is extremely low. The instrument weighs only ¼ oz. It is about the size of a sewing thimble — hardly noticeable yet powerful.

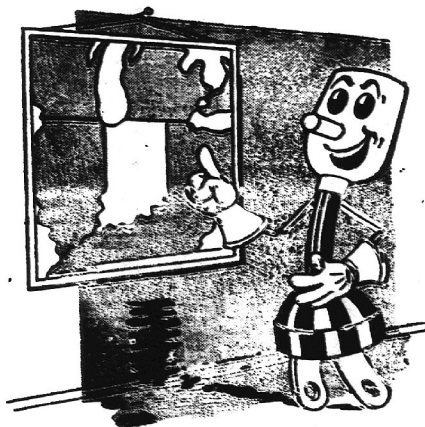

Send your name and address on a postcard to Hearing Assistance, C. Eckert, West Salem, Wis. You will be mailed in a plain envelope information without any obligation whatever.

Rural electric GENERATE in EVERY state bordering INDIANA

Many people think that REMCs in Indiana will set a precedent by generating their own electricity. Some believe that the REMC generating plant at Petersburg would be the first of its kind in the country.

The fact is that Indiana is an island in the midst of states where rural people are generating electric power for themselves. For example—there is one rural electric generating plant in Kentucky, and another one under construction. There is one in Illinois... two in Michigan... one being built in Ohio. Wisconsin—which almost borders Indiana—is the home of four generating plants owned and controlled by rural people.

It is hard to understand why we REMCs should have difficulty getting permission to generate our own power here in Indiana. Rural electricians originated here... and we have done an outstanding job providing an electric service to the rural community. Surely we have earned the right to generate, the same as our neighbors.

We refuse to believe that Indiana is a world of its own.

ODDS & ENDS

by Ann Sheets

One of the first lessons a parent learns, among many, is that appearances are deceiving.

The scene in the delivery room is the usual one. Tired mother, crying (thank heaven) baby, and used-to-it-all doctor. The doctor holds the screaming infant up for the new mother to view and says "Congratulations, you have a fine perfect baby." The mother, being a little weary, agrees and from her vantage point it looks like the baby is truly a work of art. Later, the nurse brings the baby into the mother's room and the mother checks over the baby as carefully as a salesman perfects his pitch. Sure enough, two eyes, two ears, a little rosebud of a mouth, two arms, two legs, and the necessary body in between. A perfect work of art, hair or no hair. The new father doesn't think the baby is quite that beautiful but he does agree that the necessary parts seem to be there and they may all fall into shape a little better later.

The first few weeks are spent with diapers, feedings, and more feedings. Then suddenly, the tiny little baby you once handled with kid gloves is crawling, pulling himself up by means of the lamp cords, drooling over the furniture, and spitting up milk on the living room rug, not to mention smearing the television screen and emptying wastebaskets.

It's then you know the doctor lied, your own eyes deceived you, and a giant hoax was perpetrated on you. Those two tiny little eyes are now bright eyes of mischief, seeing everything, constantly searching for new outlets for his growing energy, and filling with angry tears if things don't go quite right.

The two ears have developed on the outside, but the inside has not kept up with the growth. This condition becomes more alarming with the years. A crawling baby cannot hear "no". He can see it when his mother runs after him and pulls him out of trouble. A six year old can hear the mention of ice cream, grandmother or grandfather, candy bars, the shout "here comes the bus". He cannot hear bed time, shower time, study speech lesson time, or get meal time, pick up toys time, dressed time. Sometimes he can hear whispers three rooms away if they concern something he likes, but often cannot hear direct command when he's looking straight at the speaker.

Most deceiving of all is the little rosebud mouth babies are born with. Those little rosebuds open into, not full blown roses, but opening hatches for box elder bugs, flies, other people's apple cores, Kleenex, marbles, small toys, newspapers, furniture legs, and anything else that will fit into his mouth or that his mouth will fit around.

The two arms and two legs develop into accessories for the crimes. At age fifteen months Tod learned to stick his leg over the top of the crib and playpen and shiny down. Doug shows great promise of following. Loren swears Doug was born with extensions in his arms. You can put something on the table twice the length of his arm away from him and he can get it every-time even if you hold him back.

On well, appearances may be deceiving but who cares as long as those little mouths still break into big smiles when Mommy and Daddy come home, the little legs still run to meet us, the little arms can still hug, and the little ears can still hear us when we whisper, "Gee, we have two nice boys."

Remember When

Composed by Fay Whetstone
Fifteen years of club work have come and gone

And we are all glad to the Merry Mollys we belong.

Let's play a little game of "Let's Pretend"

Or better yet, lets play "Remember When?"

During the day we would stop for a bite

And then shop the stores with all our might.

Yes, 15 years have come and have gone

With lots of changes made a-long

We have all added a gray hair or two

And some - pounds - quite a few

But I'm sure we will say, with honor bright

Being a Merry Molly is sure all right!

Do you "remember when" at Syracuse Park

A certain little dog had quite a lark

As on a certain tree it did wet Just exactly where the game prize was set!

"Remember When" we won first at the fair

For our club exhibit was beyond compare?

Remember the party at Maxines And the oldest clothes you've ever seen?

Some had dresses and some had pants

Some turned out to be rather scant!

"Remember When" Frances gave a lesson on bread

And then later we were all generously fed?

We had lessons on table setting and silverware

Also one on how the vegetables should be pared.

Lessons on plants, delinquency, dogs and pets

Don't go way, there are lots more yet!

We had lessons on decorating, color and walls

How to braid rugs and make corsages for all,

Also a lesson on how to care for our feet.

Then another on shoes to make us look neat.

Just recently we had one on rugs and their care,

What to do for spots and how to get longer wear.

Remember the lesson on detergent and soap?

We got the real low down and the latest dope

On how to get rid of washdry blues

The last minute word on what cleaner to use.

We all fixed broken cords - no one shirked.

We even learned how the toilet worked.

But all work and no fun is not good for anyone.

So "Remember when" to the picnic we went

This year thunder and lightning were heaven sent

But the food and conversation were divine

We all left saying "What a wonderful time."

Remember our August meeting this year

When the Palestine Club and husbands did appear

The Butts family came with songs and rhyme

Their entertainment was simply sublime

Remember the "hard time" parties we had

In some families times were really bad

Also the goblins, ghosts and crazy costumes.

When Halloween we celebrated in dark rooms

Remember the pot luck suppers on family nights,

The bingo games turned out to be quite a delight.

Remember all the trips that we took

To big cities we went to look and look

We visited a TV station, went to a candy factory

We all enjoyed ourselves to a

Read Mark 1:32-42

"You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you shall be my witnesses...to the remotest parts of the earth." (Acts 1:8, Weymouth)

In the early days of radio we used batteries which arrived with the chemicals inside, but we had to add water to activate them.

Similarly, the one vital element necessary to fill our hearts with power is the Holy Spirit. Through prayer, His power becomes activated in us. We must be charged with power before we can be a force for good.

During His ministry, Jesus often left the press and throng of humanity and departed to a quiet place, there to commune with His Father and receive new strength and power. If the divine Son of God needed to draw fresh strength from time to time, how much more do we need revitalizing!

As the disciples at Pentecost received power, so also may we when we open our hearts and let the Holy Spirit take control of our lives.

PRAYER: Our Father, grant that we may be willing to open our hearts and let the Holy Spirit fill us with His radiant power. Through the radiance of His power working in us draw others to Thee. For the sake of Jesus, who taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven... Amen."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
"Do not pray for tasks equal to your power. Pray for power equal to your tasks!"

Mentone's Chicken Industry Described In 'Fortune'

Charles L. Manwaring of the Manwaring Leghorn Farms located at Mentone and Holland, Michigan sent us this article which appeared in the January issue of Fortune magazine under the section on agriculture.

The magazine featured thirty three pages of articles on Indiana industry with some articles on individual communities.

AGRICULTURE

Probably the most populous town in the state—if you count chickens instead of humans—is Mentone (people census: 813). The town is not ashamed to call itself the "Egg Basket of the Middle West," largely because of the Manwaring Leghorn Farms which annually produce some 3,000,000 "Kimberchicks" for egg producers in northern Indiana and western Michigan.

A typical Manwaring customer has a 40' x 350' commercial laying unit, fully automated, which contains 7,500 wire cages. For 14 months of their lives 15,000 Leghorns live two-to-a-cage. The 8" x 18" cages do not allow much room for exercise, a stratagem which saves one-half pound of feed per dozen eggs.

Unlike Manwaring, which supplies birds to egg producers, the huge Creighton Brothers operation at nearby Warsaw processes its own eggs from approximately 500,000 chickens. Daily output: 18,000 dozen.

Eggs from approximately 500 producers in Indiana's poultry and egg belt, and there are some 20 million dozen a year, channel into a huge Kroger egg buying plant at Wabash, the largest of four such plants maintained by the grocery firm in the U.S. The Indiana eggs eventually supply Kroger outlets in 19 states.

The 40% of Indiana which is agricultural is sufficient to rank the state 7th in the nation on the basis of cash receipts from farm marketing, although it is 38th in land area. Estimated value annually of Indiana's farm production at retail is well over $3 billion. Central Indiana has highly productive feed grain and livestock economy. The hilly and wooded southern part of the state adapts to general farming, while northern Indiana, in addition to feed crops and livestock, has a substantial specialty crop production, especially in the muck soils of the lake area.

Indiana has no orange groves, snow-clad mountain, scenic resorts, cotton fields, gold mines or the saline savor of ocean breeze. But then, neither does it have smog, storms named after girls, landslides or boll weevils. It does have a stretch of beautiful dunes on the south shore of Lake Michigan, a superbly balanced economy and a whole lot of Hoosiers. Hoosiers come in diverse sizes but their attributes are pretty much the same.... good workers, forthright talkers, honest, proud, sincere. A good place to stop.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. James Everett Goshert, R. R. 1, Mentone, are the parents of a son born Sunday morning. The infant weighed eight pounds and four ounces. Mr. and Mrs. Chancey Tucker, R. R. 1, Mentone, are the maternal grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. James Goshert are the parents of an 8 lb. 4 oz. son born Sunday. The little lad has been named Jerry Keith.

Mr. and Mrs. William Creighton are the parents of a 7 lb. 2 oz. daughter born Monday.

Jolly Janes Meet

The Jolly Jane Home Ec Club met at Loziers Restaurant Monday evening for their anniversary dinner.

After the smorgasbord dinner, a game "Search Me" was played with Mrs. Raymond Lewis winning the prize. Dirty bingo was played the remainder of the evening. Mrs. Towry Jacks won the door prize.

Present were Mesdames Wayne Baker, Wayne Bowser, Ora Carmean, Elias Bazini, George Welch, Towry Jacks, Kenneth Romine, Frank Hardesty, John Ellsworth, Hap Utter, Al Hatfield, Loren Tridle, Jim Romine, Raymond Lewis, Jim Miller, Russell Eber, Dick Gross, Harold Markley, Del Nelson, George Mollenhour, and Annabel Cole.

DID YOU KNOW?

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ross moved recently to Warsaw. They had been residing in the farm rental home owned by Russell Antonides on Road 19.

Two New Courses Offered

Two new courses are being offered for the first time at Mentone High School. The new courses being offered are Problems of Democracy and Economics. The courses may be taken by students in grades 10, 11, and 12. These two courses are designed to supplement the offerings in social studies and in business.

Attending Ag Course

Ed Newton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newton of Rochester is attending an eight week winter course in agriculture at Purdue University in Lafayette.

Dr. Urschel Attends Board Meeting

On Saturday, Dr. Dan Urschel flew to Adrian, Michigan, to attend a meeting of the Alumni Board of Adrian College. Dr. and Mrs. Urschel both graduated from this school, and the doctor was honored a few years ago when he was awarded their Distinguished Alumnus Award.

With The Sick

Mrs. Towry Jacks underwent eye surgery at the St. Joseph Hospital in South Bend Wednesday.

JoEllen Boggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Boggs, is recovering at home from an appendectomy.

Con Shewman of Akron, who underwent surgery on Monday in Memorial Hospital in South Bend due to burns he suffered December 20, is reported to be slowly recovering. He will be confined there for a minimum for three months and would appreciate hearing from friends. His room number is 444.

DID YOU KNOW?

Cheerleaders Win Award

The Mentone cheerleaders are Judy Decker, Sherry Bryan, Connie Smythe, and Dena Nelsons.

Firemen Called

An old building which formerly was known as "Dolly's Place" and more recently "Walt's Recreation" partially burned Friday night. Tippecanoe and Mentone firemen brought the fire under control in the unoccupied building.

Early Saturday morning Mentone firemen were called again when an old barn east of the Harrison Center Church was ablaze. This was too far advanced to save.

Local Business

Samuel S. Talbert, Ph.D.
Chairman, Dep't. of Journalism
University of Mississippi

Last year when strikes closed newspapers in New York and Cleveland the business community was aware that retail sales had been seriously affected.

Sales figures have been released which indicate specifically how serious the losses to retail stores were. In Cleveland, according to Federal Reserve figures, department store sales ran 21 per cent below the previous year.

In New York the weekly losses to department stores because of the newspaper strike was 11 per cent. This loss came about in spite of the fact that the New York stores used many substitute outlets for advertising including quickly organized newspapers, increased radio and television advertising, and increased use of circulars.

During the period of this strike other cities were experiencing great sales increases, some running as high as 60 per cent. This means that sales in stores where tests were made—that is, Gimbels and Macys—might have been 75 per cent higher if the stores had had the use of their local newspapers.

The effects on hundreds of smaller businesses which depend upon the movement of consumer traffic in the shopping center was probably ever more pronounced. Consumers do not use small specialty shoes service establishments, and entertainment facilities unless they have come to town to make purchases which they have seen advertised in the newspaper.

TAKE-HOME PAY

Company theft costs American business $2 billion a year, the Catholic Digest reports.

RED PLANT ROUTES

Not one of Mars' canals, seemingly, comes to any sudden end, the Catholic Digest finds. All of them terminate either in one of the regions we call a "sea," or by connecting with another canal.

VENEZUELAN INCOME

Venezuela has the highest per capita annual income in Latin America—$600—the Catholic Digest reports.

COLUMBUS AND DOOMSDAY

Columbus' four voyages were undertaken partly because of his fervent belief in unfulfilled prophecies, the Catholic Digest states. For example, he had calculated from a study of the Bible that the earth's course had only 155 years to run; this caused his sense of urgency.

AIR FORCE ONE

The Boeing 707 jet, Air Force One, is the fifth Presidential airplane, the Catholic Digest states.

Deaf Man Perfects Tiny Hearing Aid

A remarkable tiny hearing aid has been perfected by a man who has been hard of hearing for nearly ten years.

This small device has no dangling cords or separate transmitting units and represents a new unusual design idea in a product to restore natural hearing.

It was developed especially for those persons who can hear but can't understand. This new hearing instrument provides "ear-level" hearing with the wearer picking up speech, sounds, television and radio at his ear.

Due to the use of transistors, the user cost is extremely low. The instrument weighs only 1/4 oz. It is about the size of a sewing thimble—hardly noticeable yet powerful.

Send your name and address on a postcard to Hearing Assistance, C. Eckert, West Salem, Wis. You will be mailed in a plain envelope information without any obligation whatever.

Parson Jones Speaks

Dear Mr. Publisher:

Did you make any New Year's resolutions? We had a special service at our little Church last Sunday where everybody got a chance to start the New Years right. I preached on the subject "Progress Is Our Most Important Product." I drove home the point that we oughta always aim up. Later, ole Big Slim who is a well digger, and he couldn't hardly go along with that. After the sermon we passed out cards for the members to write down their New Year's resolutions. Later on we're gonna compile these promises into categories and give out the statistics. I'll run something like this: 85% promised to come to Church every Sunday unless providentially hindered (or unless they've got a good excuse). 60% promised not to slam their hymnals shut while the preacher is pronouncing the benediction. 90% promised to give the same amount of money as last year. (Its funny how wages keep going and folks give the same as last year.) 10% promised to help around the Church. This was also the same as last year.

All in all I would say things look pretty good for the coming year. Course, I'm lying but this optimistic approach is one a my New Year's resolutions. I'm gonna use the positive plan on our people this year. What give me the idea was the election. I never saw so many people against so many things as them politicians. One candidate was so against everything that it boomeranged and the voters turned against him. I got to thinking that preachers are a hole lot like politicians when it comes to being against stuff. I got a feeling that the same thing that happened to that candidate I told you about has happened to us preachers—folks are voting for the Enemy. I reckon they hear the Devil run down so much that people go to feeling sorry for him.

So, beginning next Sunday, Mr. Publisher, I'm gonna be "for" something. I'm gonna be for big offerings, perfect attendance, long sermons and good singing. Hows that for a positive program?

My wife says the new approach won't work. She allows that preaching is like automobile battery—it's gotta have a positive and negative pole to give any energy. I didn't know the maddam knew so much about batteries but she swore that if you left o: either the positive or the negative the thing wouldn't work. According to her theory I'm gonna have to mix my sermons with both "fors" and "agains."

Maybe she's right Mr. Publisher, but I don't see how any kind of sermon is gonna work when folks don't come to hear 'em. Batteries ain't worth much if you don't have motors to hook 'em to.

Mr. Publisher, I gotta be signing off now. It looks like 1965 is gonna be the best bad year we ever had.

So long.

Yours truly,
Parson Jones

Odds And Ends

by Ann Sheets

Are the morals and values of today worse than they were fifty, sixty or seventy years ago? Social critics, law enforcement officers and educators will long argue the point. That there is much in the world that is all wrong is a very accepted fact, but I sometimes wonder if those who think the world is going to the dogs at jet-age speed have failed to remember.

One of my duties is to glean information from old copies of the Akron News for use in the "This Was News" column. This research frequently points out how much we have forgotten or how much our elders have forgotten when they tell us life in this old world is getting horribly worse.

There was trouble in Cuba 65 years ago. Trouble with Russia 50 years ago. Sound familiar. A war in Europe to be avoided 10 years ago.

All of the trouble is not confined to the national scene. These old papers are full of crime, infidelity and violence that even make some of our present acts of violence seem tame in comparison. For instance, the man who murdered his partner and shot his mule. He buried the partner and covered the grave with the carcass of the dead mule.

Another man became so infuriated at his horse that he beat the animal to death in the middle of the highway. Beat it to death in fact with such fury that the animal was left lying in the road completely cut in two.

The crying of a baby son infuriated the child's father that the man beat the cold, starving tyke and threw it into the snow. He later retrieved the child and hung the body in the attic.

Throughout the papers can be found charges of infidelity (they named names in those days) or paternity charges (names also used.)

The subject of incorporation of a town received as much criticism and comment as the school incorporation presently receives. Some wanted it. Others didn't. Each side was vehement in the arguments presented. Some thought it would save money, others thought it would cost too much. One town tried to unincorporate.

Vandals today wreck everything. Fifty or sixty five years ago they still wrecked everything.

Among blessings we can count now is the fact that news items no longer appear describing the horrors of a family of eight children stricken with diphtheria. And their neighbor's children no longer die of small pox.

It looks like, for the most part, the world has always been pretty much as it is now—just what we make it, for better or worse. Wonder what it will be like fifty or sixty five years from now.

Culver's Black Horse Troop To March In Inaugural Parade

Culver Military Academy's Black Horse Troop will represent the State of Indiana in the Jan. 20 inaugural parade in Washington D. C.

Major General Delmar T. Spivey, superintendent, said the Academy had accepted its fifth invitation to the inaugural in the past half century and will serve Indiana's marching unit in the parade honoring President Lydon B. Johnson.

Ninety Culver students representing all parts of the nation and several foreign countries will make the two-day visit to Washington. Selections from among the 140 Troopers who make up the largest remaining mounted military organization in the nation were made on the basis of academic standing and horsemanship ability.

It was in the Kennedy inaugural that the Black Horse Troop won second place in competition for the base marching unit among 36,000 participants.

"Keepsakes" Discussed At Club Meeting

The Pleasant Valley Community Club met January 6 in the home of Mrs. Kermit Biddinger with 19 members and two guests, Mrs. Betty Torrence and Jay DeMien, present.

Mrs. Delbert Hunter, president, opened the meeting by reading the poem, "New Year". Accompanied by Mrs. Biddinger on the piano, Mrs. Patsy Utter, chorister, led the group in singing, "Reuben and Rachel" and "Circibiribee."

Pledges to the flags were given and Mrs. Blanche Eisert read a poem, "Keepsakes" after which each member responded to roll call by showing and telling of a souvenir which she treasured most.

An offering of $2.55 was collected for the March of Dimes. Communications were read and two get well cards were signed to send to friends.

A report of the nominating committee for new officers was given by Mrs. Chloris Barkman. They were: president Esther Fenstermaker; vice president, Charlotte Nickles; secretary, Lena Alspach; and treasurer, Betty DeMien.

Mrs. Susie Morris gave devotions reading. "You are invited to 1965, 'Some of These Days' and 'This is Your Year'."

Mrs. Biddinger introduced James Schultz of the Rochester Telephone Company who showed a film, "Beyond Three Doors" through the courtesy of the Bell Telephone Company.

Kathryn Barkman and Betty DeMien won prizes in a "can" contest.

Dirty Bingo was enjoyed by the group after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Dee Berrier will entertain the club on February 3.

Today's MEDITATION

The World's Most Widely Used
Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

at THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Thursday, January 14, 1965

Read Psalm 103:8-18

Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. (John 14:1)

In these words our Master is saying to us today, as He did to those gathered in the upper room nearly two thousand years ago, that the universe is in the hands of the heavenly Father. Life is not easy, but the hardest hour God will not let us down if we have faith in Him. This is Jesus' answer to life's ultimate questions. These words of His have stilled more grief and steadied more souls in time of trial than any others ever spoken.

We must never forget that we belong to God. There is no closer relationship than belonging. We must bear in mind also that we belong to one who never breaks His word. In giving His words of assurance, our heavenly Father means what He says.

As we sorrow, God is there ready to comfort and strengthen us. As we become involved in perplexing problems, He is there wanting us to place ourselves and our situations before Him. God never lets us get out of His sight. Together with Him, we think, feel, live, and decide.

PRAYER: O God, our Creator and our heavenly Father who are always by our side, we thank Thee for this relationship and close companionship. We seek Thy grace this day to overcome our frailties; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Life is not easy, but in the hardest hour God will not let us down.

Frances Kay Herd Weds Granville Elliot Tyler

Francis Kay Herd became the bride of Granville Elliott Tyler at 6:30 p.m. December 23rd at Columbia St. Church of Christ with Granville W. Tyler, father of the groom, officiating.

The double ring candlelight ceremony united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hale Herd of Logansport and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Granville W. Tyler, Decatur, Alabama. Two sets of candelabra and green palms banked the altar. Individual candles surrounded with greenery marked the pews.

Given in marriage by her father the bride appeared in a floorlength gown of white de-lustered satin. The skirt ended in a chapellength train and featured lace and seed pearl trim along the edge of the hemline and train and on the front skirt. The gown was accented with a fitted midriff highlighted with seed pearls and lace motifs. A modified scooped neckline and long sleeves tapered to bridal points. The bride wore a pearl tiara securing a white silk illusion veil. She carried a white bridal Bible, topped with an arrangement of gardenias and white stephanotis.

Mrs. Elmer Herd of Lucerne sang Because, Whither Thou Goest, and Father, Hear The Prayer We Offer. Mrs. Herd and Susan Rock of Knox sang the processional and recessional hymns. Bridal attendants included Miss Martha Tooke, La.; Miss Susan McMasters, Fla.; and Miss Lynn Baird, Okla. They wore treasure blue satin, floor-length gowns with gently flared skirts. The dresses were belted with bows accenting the waistlines, featuring a midriff-length jacket with elbow length sleeves. Each carried a candlelight lantern with white mums cascading from the top of the lantern.

Paula Sue Herd and Bonnie Jean Herd served their sister as candlelighters wearing frosty blue delustered satin, featuring scooped necklines, short set-in sleeves, and emperor waistlines with a full gathered floorlength skirt. The belts accented the waistlines.

Kyle Wallace and Tivis Nelson, both of Tennessee, and Anthony H. Herd, Logansport, served as groomsmen.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception for 150 guests was held in the YW annex. A five tier cake was served from a table decorated with candelabra surrounded by pink and white flowers by Mrs. Edgar Conrad, Mrs. Everett Alder, Miss Faye Owens, Miss Susan Rock, Miss Christine Earwood, and Miss Harriet Baird.

Following an eight day trip to New Orleans and the gulf, Mr. and Mrs. Tyler will reside at 705 W. 2414 Pierce Ave., Nashville, Tennessee.

Mrs. Tyler is a 1961 graduate of Lucerne High School and will graduate in June from David Lipscomb College, Nashville, Tennessee. Mr. Tyler is a 1959 graduate of Decatur High School, Decatur, Alabama, and a 1963 graduate of Harding College, Searcy, Ark. He is attending Vanderbilt University Graduate School, Nashville, Tenn.

On Monday January 11, the student body of Talma Junior High had a great treat. Mysterious Lawrence entertained with a varied and interesting program. This program included Modern Magic, Trouble Wit, Rope Spinning, Juggling Act, Rolly Bolly act, Trick Bicycle act and other acts.

Vision Testing Completed

To culminate a complete vision testing program for every student in the Talma Junior High, Mrs. Henrietta Ferguson, the Fulton County Health Nurse has checked those students that seem to have had vision difficulties.

In the past weeks the students have worked on a unit on the eyes in their Health classes. The teachers screened the students during this period of time. Mrs. Ferguson will complete this program with a follow up letter to the parents of those students that need further attention.

During the previous school years, this program has been very helpful in finding and helping students with vision defects.

TALMA JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

The first semester at Talma Junior High School will be coming to a close this week. With the starting of the second semester we will see something quite different. The 7th grade girls will have Industrial Arts during this period and will be studying simple home repair and industrial practices.

TALMA VS. ROCHESTER

The Talma Tigers will host the Junior High seventh and eighth grade teams from Rochester. The games are scheduled for Monday evening January 18, at the Talma gym. The first game will start at 4:00.

Wallace - Knisely Exchange Vows

Miss Connie Jo Wallace and David E. Knisely repeated their marriage vows at half after 7 o'clock Friday evening, December 18, in the Mentone Methodist Church. Rev. Glenn Campton officiated at the candlelight service.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Dale J. Wallace of Mentone. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. Jack Knisely, of Warsaw.

White satin bows with red ribbon roses marked the pews. The altar was decorated with large red poinsettias. The musical prelude was presented by Mrs. Glenn Campton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza and re-embroidered alencon lace.

The basque bodice was fashioned with a scalloped neckline high lighted by alencon lace appliques misted with pearls and sequins and three quarter length sleeves. The full skirt of organza had large motifs of alencon lace on the front. A chapel length train swept from a bustle bow in back.

Her fingertip length veil of French illusion fell from a crown of crystal and pearl.

She carried a cascade of red carnations on a white Bible.

The maid of honor, Mrs. Barbara Leckrone wore a red velvet street length dress styled with a scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. A white fur-trimmed pill box hat with short veil complimented the gown. She carried a white fur muff accented with a red poinsetta.

Chad Tucker, cousin of the bride, carried the rings on a red velvet heart shaped pillow trimmed in white lace.

The best man was Mr. Steven Shirey, cousin of the bride. Seating the guests were John Knisely, brother of the groom and Dan Henderson, cousin of the groom.

The guest book was taken care of by Miss Linda Smith who also served at the reception table with Miss Susan Shirey, cousin of the bride. The church social rooms were beautifully decorated in keeping with the holiday season.

The bride is a 1964 graduate of Mentone High School and is now employed there as a secretary. The groom graduated from Warsaw High School in 1963 and is employed by the R. R. Donnelly & Sons, Company.

The couple now reside at R. 3, Warsaw, Indiana.

Joe Baker Starts 36th Year

Joe Baker, owner of Baker's Jewelry and Appliance Store in Mentone, is beginning his 36th year in business here this month.

Joe is a graduate of Mentone High School and is married to the former Clara Eve King to whom he gives much credit for his longevity in business. He says, "I just couldn't have done it without her. She wasn't always in the store, but someone had to raise the three kids". The three "kids" are Don who is manager of the Marshall County Farm Bureau at Tippecanoe, Wayne who is in charge of the radio and television department of the business and who helps in the store, and Linda, the wife of William Gothan who also works in the store. Linda is employed as secretary at the Talma School.

Joe remembers that after graduating from the Chicago School of Watchmaking in December, 1928, he opened his first jewelry store during the first week of January, 1929 in the house now occupied by Bob Kinsey. He was located there until April when he moved into the house north of the present post office. In March of 1931 the store moved into half the building now occupied by the Brown Jewelry. The other half of the store was occupied by Luther Fife's Plumbing and Heating, and Joe assisted Fife in his work. Another move was made in 1933 to the room now occupied by Barnes Shoe Repair Shop where he was located until 1939 when he moved back to what is now the Brown store. Arthur Brown had owned a monument business in that location and Joe took him in as a partner in 1947. He began renting the whole building in 1944, and added radio and appliances to his line.

The present building was purchased in the fall of 1950 and the

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baker are shown here in their store as they begin their 36th year in business here in Mentone. They operate Baker's Jewelry and Appliance Store here.

Later this spring, the State Homemaker of Tomorrow, together with a school advisor, will join first-place winners and advisors from each of the 50 other states and the District of Columbia in a tour of Colonial Williamsburg, Va., Washington, D.C., and New York City. Climax of the week-long tour will be the naming of the Betty Crocker All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow. To be chosen on the basis of original test score and personal observation and interviews during the tour, she will receive an increase in her scholarship to $5,000. Second-third- and fourth-place winners in the nation will have their grants raised to $4,000, $3,000, and $2,000, respectively.

The Betty Crocker Search for tomorrow was initiated by General Mills in 1954 to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career. Including this year's record enrollment of more than half a million senior girls in more than 14,000 high schools, the total number of participants during the program's 11-year history stands at four million. Anthony Nigo D.A.R. Hears Story Of Foster

The January meeting of the Anthony Nigo Chapter of the D.A.R. was held Jan. 12th in the Home Economics Room of the Mentone School. The regent, Mrs. Paul Shireman presided at the Ritual opening. After the roll call and the Secretary's Report, Mrs. Fred Surguy read The President General's message for the new year.

Mrs. Ernest Igo read a letter of thanks from the D.A.R. School, Tamassie, for the Christmas gifts sent to the students by the chapter.

Mrs. James Welch gave the National Defense message which was a warning against Free World trade with Communist countries.

The chapter voted to order new membership cards and to name Mrs. Frank Smith as delegate to the National Convention with Mrs. Ray Linn as alternate and Mrs. Paul Shireman as Outstanding Junior Member.

Mrs. Ray Rush read the following resolutions which were passed by the National Society D.A.R. (1) We urge that both Houses of Congress reassert the long established powers of the legislative branch of the government and restore the authority vested in them by the Constitution of the United States of America. (2) We urge our members to be aware of any legislation that would deprive each and every citizen of his basic freedoms.

Mrs. Everett Rathfon read the following D.A.R. Resolution: The National Society D.A.R. commend the broadcasting stations making available to the American public educational, patriotic and religious programs.

One member of the chapter, Mrs. Edna Carey, was reported ill. She is a patient in Memorial Hospital, South Bend.

The Program Chairman, Mrs. Helen Gross, introduced the speaker of the evening, Mrs. Ford King. Assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Charles Tucker at the record player, Mrs. Koenig gave, "A Night with Stephen Foster," which was both worthwhile and very enjoyable.

Stephen Foster was born on America's 50th birthday, July 4, 1826, the seventh child of William and Eliza Foster. Stevie Foster was a merry sweet tempered little boy and from the beginning, he loved music. At the age of two years, he picked out his first tune on his sister's guitar. When the family acquired a piano, Stevie taught himself to play it.

When Stevie was seven, he made a trip to Augusta, Kentucky on an Ohio River boat. Stevie was thrilled by the songs of the negro boatmen and stored them away in his mind and heart for the future.

Stephen's mother recognized and prized his gift for music but his father disapproved, insisting that he go to school and learn a trade. Stephen was never happy or successful at school although he tried several schools. Instead he loved to write songs and especially songs for the popular negro minstrels.

Finally his music gained recognition and he sold a great many of them but for so little money that he could not make a good living. He married but his marriage was not successful. He began to drink to excess because of his troubles and died in a charity ward of Bellevue Hospital in his 38th year.

This loveable, kindly, gentle writer of songs left to America and the world a wealth of rich melody and graceful lyric poetry although in world goods he left only a shabby purse containing 38¢; one penny for each year of his life.

The melodic wealth he left to it of us includes such well loved songs as "Beautiful Dreamer," "Jeannie with the light brown hair," "Old Folks at Home" and "Old Black Joe." His music is played today by the famous symphonic orchestras and by b njo and guitar strummers.

After the program, the hostess Mrs. Arthur Brown and his assistant, Mrs. Everett Rathfon served lovely refreshments. The Chapter adjourned to meet Feb. 9th with Mrs. Thomas Fugate for an American Heritage program.

Mentone Wins

Phyllis E. Ummel Weds Eldon D. Swick

Mrs. Eldon D. Swick

Miss Phyllis Evelyn Ummel and Eldon Dewayne Swick were united in marriage in the afternoon of January 2 in the Akron Church of God. Rev. Harold Conrad, minister of the First Church of God in Winchester, Kentucky, former minister of the Akron church, performed the candlelight ceremony.

A prelude of bridal selections was presented by the pianist, Mrs. Stanley Ummel, R. R. 1, Claypool, who also accompanied the vocalist, Mrs. Michael Colbert of Mentone.

The double ring ceremony was performed before an altar decorated with large yellow chrysanthemums and was flanked by double candelabras and palms. Candles decorated the piano, organ and windows and the pews were decorated with white satin bows and candles.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Edith Ummel, a former resident of R. R. 1, Claypool who now lives in St. Louis, Missouri. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Swick of Burket are the parents of the bridegroom.

The bride, given in marriage by her eldest brother, Robert D. Ummel, R. R. 3, Argos, selected a gown of silk organza over satin. The fitted basque waist with bridal point sleeves featured chantilly lace trim around the sabrina neckline and extended down the front of the bodice and across the shoulders and also formed an applique on the front of the semi-bouffant skirt. Seed pearls and sequins highlighted the lace and a Watteau chapel length train of chantilly lace edged with organza fell from the shoulders. A crown of seed pearls and lace held the bouffant waist length veil. She carried a white Bible topped with a cascade arrangements of white and yellow baby chrysanthemums and carnations.

Mrs. Michael Summe of Akron served as matron of honor and Miss Elvera Kleinschmidt of Mt. Vernon, Ind. was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Hathaway of Butler and Mrs. Robert Peters of Indianapolis. The four attendants were attired in similar gowns of antique gold, cocoa brown, champagne beige and moss green satin and were styled with floor length sheath skirts, round-necklines, and elbow length sleeves. Each was detailed with a flat back bow at the waistline. The open pillbox headpieces were of matching satin with a bouffant veil. Each carried a single large yellow chrysanthemum.

Miss Linda Ummel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Ummel of Syracuse, a niece of the bride, scattered flower petals. She wore a dress of antique gold which was similar to the bridal attendants.

Michael Summe of Akron was the best man. Other attendants of the bridegroom were Max Ummel, brother of the bride, and Frank and Ronald Swick, brothers of the bridegroom. Bruce Knouff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Knouff of St. Louis, Mo. and nephew of the bride, carried the rings.

The candles were lighted by Dale and Greg Ummel of Syracuse. Guests were seated by Stanley Ummel, brother of the bride, and Orvin Thompson, both of R. R. 1, Claypool.

Miss Janet Welty of Mentone registered the two hundred guests. A reception immediately followed the ceremony and was held in the church basement. Hostesses serving at the reception were Mrs. Arthur Hines and Mrs. Wayne Kirkham, sisters of the bride, and by Mrs. Melvin Miller, Messes Marilyn and Nancy Swick, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Ronald Swick, Mrs. Frank Swick, and Miss Maxine Hines also assisted with the serving of the five tiered wedding cake and the sherbert-punch.

Assisting with gifts were Misses Sandra Dersch, Judith Lynton, Carole Rodda, Barbara Crowe, and Carolyn Surface, former roommates of the bride.

Mrs. Swick is a graduate of the Indiana University School of Nursing and is employed at the Veteran's Administration Hospital in Ft. Wayne. The bridegroom has just completed two years service in the U. S. Army and is now employed by the Farmer's Grain and Feed Company in Columbia City.

After their return from their wedding trip to St. Louis Missouri, the newlyweds will reside at Little Cedar Lake, R. R. 4, Columbia City, Ind.

On Tree Planting Club Sees Slides

A lesson on landscaping was given by Mrs. Barbara Brock to members of the Merry Molly's Home Demonstration club when the club met recently. The slides showed the right and wrong methods of planting trees and shrubs.

Mrs. Jerry Hudson was the hostess with Mrs. Donald Horn assisting her.

The club quartet sang the song of the month, "Santa Lucia," and Mrs. Joan Anglin read about frostbite for health and safety.

Today's MEDITATION

Thursday, January 21, 1965

Read Ephesians 6:10-20

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. 'Matthew 28-19, RSV)

I was watching a spirited football game between two grade schools in our community. Suddenly there was a fumble, and the team that had been on the defensive suddenly found itself on the offensive.

The coach whose team had gained control of the ball called out, "Offensive team, go in," and the new team ran out on the field. At the very end of the line came a little boy with a helmet still in his hand. Not quite sure whether he should go in, he stopped in front of the coach and asked, "Coach, what does offensive mean?"

I wonder if too many of us are like that lad. We are not sure whether we as Christians are on the defensive or offensive team. But the New Testament makes it very clear that a Christian is always on the offensive. Jesus gives the Christian his marching orders: "Make disciples," "Preach the gospel," "You are witnesses," "Feed my lambs."

PRAYER: Heavenly Father, help me to take seriously today the marching orders of our Lord. "Where hate rules, let me bring love; where malice, forgiveness; where dispute, reconciliation; where error, truth; where doubt, belief; where despair, hope; where darkness, Thy light; where sorrow, joy." In the Master's name.

10 years of research behind Purina Early Weaning Chow

Purina Early Weaning Chow for baby pigs is extra palatable, highly-fortified, nutritious. It's made for hogmen who plan to wean pigs at 3 weeks... or even earlier. It's used in early weaning of late-farrowed litters, for orphan pigs or undersize pigs at normal weaning age.

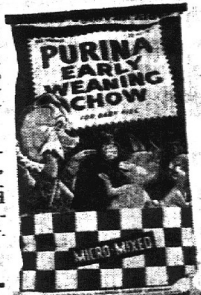

In 6 tests on 616 pigs, Early Weaning Chow-fed pigs gained as fast as pigs on sow's milk and creep feed from the 3rd to 6th week — .77 lb. per pig daily — made 1 lb. gain from only 1.27 lbs. feed!

In on-the-farm tests, pigs followed the same pattern, weighed 23-33 lbs. at 6 weeks. Cost per lb. of gain on good pigs raised under good management ranged from 12¢ to 14¢.

Triple Trio Entertains PTA

Last Wednesday evening, the first PTA meeting of 1965 was held in the Mentone gym. The president, Mrs. Tom Harmon, opened the meeting, followed by the pledge to the flag. For decorations, the Talma Triple Trio sang a lovely hymn. Mr. Shoemaker, teacher in the Talma school, then read scripture and led in prayer. The complete report on the Penny Supper was given by the treasurer, Mrs. Kenneth Wagner. The profit was about $340, which we feel is quite good. Two committees were appointed by the president. The one, headed by Kenneth Wagner, is to inspect the playground equipment at the Burket and Mentone schools. Much of the equipment needs fixing or replacing, so this committee is to look into this. Others helping with this are Paul Knoop, Mrs. Howard Allen, Duane Eckert and Mrs. Don Snipes. Hopes are to have this new play material installed and ready for use by spring.

The second committee appointed is to sort, handle and mail all the books that come in for the project labeled, "Books for Appalachian Schools." This is a worthwhile project in which PTA's nation-wide are participating. Books of many kinds are needed for the children and also adults in the Appalachian area. We hope the community will also help in this project. Books needed are reference books, such as atlases, encyclopedias, dictionaries; supplementary subject material; textbooks, novels, poetry and picture books—for all ages. The three schools, Burket, Talma and Mentone, are to be the receiving stations for the books. The committee will then gather them up and do the sorting, etc. Mrs. Wm. Ettinger is chairman of this committee, ably helped by Mrs. Florence Caldwell, Denton Abbey and Kermit Zent. We have tentatively set the deadline as the last of February.

The program was on scholarships, and Mr. George Welch, the guidance and vocations teacher in Mentone, gave a very interesting and informative talk concerning scholarships and or financial aid. This was beneficial not only to parents of high school students, but to parents of children of all ages. A skit, directed by Mrs. Allen Shirey, also pertaining to scholarships, was presented at the close of Mr. Welch's talk. Ladies participating in the skit were; Mrs. Denton Abbey, Mrs. Zanna Hammer, Mrs. Bob Whetstone, Mrs. Lloyd Bowerman, Mrs. Jim Meredith and Mrs. Gene Sarber. The February PTA meeting is Open House at the Burket School. Plan to meet with us then, won't you? Mr. Oliver England will be the host principal.

Aptitude Test Given

A United State Navy Aptitude test will be given to senior boys on January 26, 1965. The purpose of this test is to indicate to the student his areas of special aptitude.

Bakers began occupying it in January, 1951.

Mrs. Baker remembers that they had the first television set around Mentone, and the Bakers have sold and serviced them ever since. They are assisted in this, in addition to their son and son-in-law, by Joe Good who has been there ten years, and by the use of three radio equipped trucks. They note that color television is selling very well right now with more color than black and white sets being sold.

The Bakers seem so happy with their chosen work it is easy to see they might be thinking of a second 36 years in business! At any rate, our congratulations are extended to them as they begin their 36th year here.

Bank Officers Are Elected Here

A recent meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers State Bank here saw Floyd L. Tucker being elected chairman of the board of directors. Other directors elected were Charles L. Manwaring, Dr. O. L. McFadden, Donald D. Poulson and Forest D. Miner.

Charles Manwaring was elected president by the directors for the coming year and Forest Miner was named executive vice president. Other officers named were Thomas M. Fugate, cashier, Larry D. Pyle and Iris M. Anderson, assistant cashiers.

Dr. Dan's Day February 8

Volunteers are wearing messages saying "Be My Donor" and "Dr. Dan's Day" in Mentone and the surrounding community hoping that donors will oversubscribe the usual quota of the blood mobile when it visits in Mentone. The quota this year is 200 pints of blood. The Blood Mobile will visit Mentone on February 8 at the Methodist Church from 11 a.m. until 7 p.m.

Dr. Dan Urschel, leading cardiologist from Mentone, along with Fred McKown, Sr. and Mrs. William Long, executive secretary of the Kosciusko county chapter ARC, late in 1950 appeared before the medical society, civic groups, clubs, American Legion posts and many other organizations throughout the county, explained the merits of the Blood Program. The first visit of the Blood Mobile unit was in Warsaw on February 28, 1951 and 127 pints were collected with the mayor, Charles (Bush) Rice, being the first donor.

Since that first visit in Kosciusko county it is estimated that untold lives have been saved by use of the blood donated through this program. This life saving fluid which science and mankind have been unable to reproduce have saved our county residents thousands and thousands of dollars.

Mentone will be the scene of the 14th anniversary visit of the Blood Mobile and will be named "Dr. Dan Day" in honor of Dr. Urschel.

The Mery Mixer Home Demonstration Club is doing the recruiting for the visit. Recruiters, in addition to club members, are Lyman Mollenhour, Mrs. Ralph Mollenhour, Richard Whittenberger, Mrs. Joe Boggs and Mrs. Alton Perry of Mentone; Dwight Bechtol, Alton Bruner, and Mrs. Clifford Ehermann of Burket; Mrs. Ivan Wer-

Attend Scout Meeting

Mrs. David Cooper, Mrs. Denton Abbey, Mrs. Bill Ettinger, Mrs. Dale McGowen and Mrs. Tom Harman attended a Land-of-Lakes Neighborhood Girl Scout meeting last Wednesday afternoon. This meeting was held in the Scout Cabin near Center Lake in Warsaw. During the business meeting, Mrs. McGowen was elected as the new secretary for the group. She succeeds Mrs. Cooper in this job. Various reports were made by the leaders, and plans were also discussed for Girl Scout Week and Day Camp. Our local girl scouts plan to have some window displays during National Girl Scout Week, with possibly some other activities besides.

Rev. Stauffer To Be Featured Speaker At Annual Kosciusko SWCD Meeting

Plans are nearing completion for the seventh annual meeting of the Kosciusko County Soil and Water Conservation District, according to Loren Decker, chairman of the board of supervisors. The banquet type meeting will be held in the Shrine building at the Warsaw fairgrounds on Feb. 3. The dinner is scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m.

Don Frantz will serve as master of ceremonies for the program and the principal speaker will be the Rev. William Stauffer, popular conservation speaker from Sugar Grove, Ohio. Awards will be presented to the winning soil judging teams and to the Outstanding Conservation Farmer for 1964.

Committees for the banquet and annual meeting are as follows:

Dinner—Mr. and Mrs. Myron Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Watkins, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Byrer.

Decorations—Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tuttle, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norris.

Election—Howard Workman, Myron Metzger, and Leland Kinsey.

Speaker—Leland Kinsey, Philip Beer, and Howard Workman.

Tickets may be obtained from any of the supervisors, at the Extension Office, and at the Soil Conservation District office.

Mentone Shares In Area Tax Funds For Road Repairs

A report received this week from the Indiana Motor Truck Association shows that Mentone and the other incorporated towns in the county shared in a total of $824,669.79 in license fees last year.

The report shows Mentone received $5,995.82. March Of Dimes Campaign Begins

by Jody Harmon

This is the time of year when we again give to the March of Dimes. This is such a worthwhile campaign which should not be taken lightly. Don't leave it up to the other person to feel the responsibility or to do all the giving. Right now, let's step up to a conveniently placed canister and drop in some money, or else mail back the March of Dimes envelope which you received, adding a dollar, or whatever you can. Many men, women, and especially children, receive untold aid from your giving. As a community, let's all give together for the March of Dimes.

PTA NEWS NOTES

We want to give complete details this week about the project we are participating in—BOOKS FOR APPALACHIAN SCHOOLS. These books are needed for one and two-room schools in the Appalachian Mountains. This need is very real. In isolated parts of Appalachia, even the adults have little understanding or awareness of what is going on in the world. Our PTA is trying to secure books to be sent into this area. Our three schools, Burket, Talma and Mentone have been designated as the receiving stations for the books. Here is a list of needed books: reference works such as atlases, encyclopedias, dictionaries; supplementary subject material; new imaginative textbooks; novels; poetry; picture books—in fact, many books that no doubt each home has that are not being used. If the community would like to enter into this worthwhile project with us, please just gather up all the old and used books you have and take them to one of the above-mentioned schools, or call Mrs. Bill Ettinger at EL 3-3055. A committee is in charge to gather, handle, sort and mail all of the books. We hope to make a report on the outcome of this when our PTA has completed its part in this national project.

Weed - Insect Conference Planned

A weed and insect control meeting is set for February 9 at the Fairgrounds. The starting time will be 1:00 p.m. Here is a real opportunity to get answers about all the weed killers and the insecticides on the market.

O. C. Lee of the Purdue Botany Department and Glen Lehker of the Entomology department will conduct this meeting. Both are recognized nationally as experts in their field. Mr. Lee serves on the Mid-West weed control study committee that tests all weed killers before they are released. Mr. Lehker is a consultant for the Pure Food and Drug Adm. that decides which insecticide is safe and which one is not. They will tell you which chemicals are recommended for use in 1965 and which ones are not and why.

There are a lot of so-called weed control clinics being conducted now. These mostly are sales meetings and are very well conducted, usually with refreshments. The drawback with these commercial meetings is that they have the purpose of selling a single product and not for the purpose of giving complete information about all products. For example, you can't get any data on atrazine from a salesman for Alanap. This isn't his job.

We hope to have a good turnout on the afternoon of February 9. Chemical herbicides and insecticides are under real fire from some consumer groups and if we are going to be able to continue using them, we must use them correctly. Here is a fine opportunity to get a lot of up to date information from men who know the answers.

A college level course, English 101, will be offered in a night program at the Warsaw Community High School starting February 8. The classes will be held each Monday from 7 to 10:00 for 16 weeks. The credit received will be the same as if the course were taken at the Purdue campus or any of the off-campus centers. The cost is $45.

Registration will take place from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. in room A-109 at the Warsaw High School. The one requirement is that to enroll a person must have graduated from high school. There are no restrictions as to school corporation boundaries, students can live in any of the school corporations.

This program, to start offering college level courses locally, was arranged by the superintendent, Carl Burt, and the County Extension Agent, Don Frantz. Further information may be obtained from either office.

—O—

The first of the current series of Better Farming-Better Living classes will start February 4. We could enroll one or two more young farm families who will work with John Couey and Mrs. Ruth McCleary in this program. There will be three meetings involved, after that the schedule will be at the convenience of the participants.

Everything is coming up spring! Well, anyway we have received our spring flowers. Our display includes a nice selection of five cent, ten cent and nineteen cent blooms.

Marjorie and I spent one day last week at the "Women's and Children's Apparel Market" held in Indianapolis at the Claypool Hotel. The lobby of the hotel contained a large display of stock feed and supplies, complete with a pen of pigs.

Hope you ladies and girls are as thrilled with the new spring blouses as Marjorie. Frankly, I thought she would never quit buying from Ship'n Shore. Good thing they don't ship them at one time.

Little girls will sure look sweet in the new Easter dresses she ordered. Some will have their own jackets and coats.

Our February sale starts this Thursday morning. We must sell our winter clothing to make room for our spring collection now starting to arrive in our warehouse. Buy clothing, shoes, and sno-boots now and save ten percent to fifty percent. This is a store-wide sale. Includes all-weather coats, insulated coats, sweaters, shirts, thermal underwear, sweat shirts, lined work jackets, caps, gloves, dresses, pajamas, ear warmers, dusters, bibs, ect.

See you in Mentone.

there's some things you can't cover up. But after all politicians is supposed to represent the people so I reckon it takes a crook to represent crooked people. (No reflections on you Mr. Publisher.) The world is getting so cock-eyed that it's gonna soon need bi-focals or else a seeing-eye dog.

While I was reading the Bible I got to wondering what Moses and the Hebrew children would have done if they'd been living in our times.

In the first place when them Israelites was slaves in Egypt, instead of leaving like they did, they would have appealed to the Supreme Court and the President would have sent troops in.

Another thing that would be different was the crossing of the Red Sea. I reckon you've heard how the Lord parted the water and Moses' bunch went through on dry ground. Well, now-a-days Moses would put in for a federal gift and build a super-highway over the top or else a tunnel underneath.

Instead of wandering through the wilderness for 40 years, Moses would have drove through that place lickidy-split in a brand new model automobile. The only thing that would have slowed him down was the Highway Patrol. Instead of going around with their throats all parched for water they'd have stopped at Howard Johnson's for a milk shake or a belly-washer. Moses might even have stayed in the wilderness and started the Moses' Realty Company. In place of all them tents there would be rows and rows of houses built around a shopping center.

Some enterprising fellow would be running a resort area on Mount Sinai.

One thing's for sure—if Moses had been living in our day, I doubt it we'd have got the Ten Commandments. For one thing we'd have taken a poll to find out how people oughta act, instead of appealing to the Lord. Wilderness Herald; "Poll shows I can just see the results in the 2% for God, 98% backing Devil." Not only that, the Supreme Court would have declared the Ten Commandments unconstitutional on the grounds that they discriminated against the wicked.

If Moses had reached the promised land under modern conditions the Lord would never have got credit for it. The Democrats would claim they done it, and the Republicans would swear they done it.

All in all Mr. Publisher, I'd say us 20th century boys think we're real big shots. If you don't believe it ask us. And, if you won't take our word, just listen to the racket we make.

So long and remember the slogan, "We never had it so good before."

Yours truly,
Parson Jones

Odds And Ends

by Ann Sheets

If you owned a bowl of plaster, what would you do with it? We have a bowl full of very hard plaster which we would actually give anyone who could think of something to do with it.

We have considered plugging an unused chimney with it, but the bowl and the hole are not quite the same size. It would make a dandy boat anchor except we neither fish nor own a boat. It would make a good practical joke if we could think of a mean enough way to pawn it off. A door stop would be fine if Doug didn't cut his teeth on it. It's too full to make a good feed bowl for Schatzie.

Bowls of plaster aren't too hard to acquire. Ours came rather unexpectedly this week while I attempted a bit of do-it-yourself repairing. Something in our house always needs fixing and we keep large quantities of glue, paste, and plaster for untold emergencies. This time some wallpaper was loose and I got out a big bag of paste and mixed for a long time. First it was too wet and then too dry and then too wet and then too dry. And suddenly it was apparent it wasn't going to paste anything down. It gitted. I used a bottle of our favorite glue and finished fixing the wallpaper and forgot the bowl of gitting paste. This morning the bowl was still sitting there in all its hardened glory. It looks as if we must be out of wallpaper paste, but we certainly have plenty of plaster. Only an idiot could have confused plaster for paste, and I'm the idiot that did it.

Any suggestions for its use?

How can men preach unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those preach good news!" (Romans 10:15, RSV)

On our way to the Orient last winter, my wife and I spent a day with one of our missionaries on Oahu, Hawaii. During our talks he remarked, "The people back home have been liberal in providing the money we need in our expanding program here."

As we continued our conversation, he went on to say, somewhat wistfully, "But one of the hardest things about being a missionary is that so many home folks forget you."

He doubtless was speaking for a great many others who have gone afar to represent Christ and the church and, in effect, have not been remembered. We forget or postpone writing to assure them of our continuing love and prayers for them.

A good letter is almost like a visit, it can serve to encourage and to boost morale. It can be evidence of our interest in those in the ministry of the church serving far from home.

PRAYER: Father, bless us as we give support to the work and outreach of the church. Help us to live our faith by our daily prayers, our understanding, and the outreach of our love for our fellow Christians everywhere. In Christ's name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Financial support of missionaries is not enough; they need our prayers, our love and appreciation.
