Phil Eskew to address athletic banquet

Mr. Phil N. Eskew, Commissioner of the Indiana High School Athletic Association, will speak at the Mentone High School All Sports Dinner on Monday, May 8, 1967. The dinner is being held at 7:00 in the Mentone School Gymnasium, all interested students, parents and patrons are invited to attend. The dinner is to be a carry in type dinner with meat, coffee, milk, and rolls being furnished by the Burket, Mentone, Talma P.T.A. Those attending should bring some food and their own table service.

The dinner is in honor of all athletes who have participated in interschool sports and also honors all cheerleaders.

Mr. Eskew was born and reared in southern Indiana. His study in the fields of education and law at several Indiana colleges and universities has earned for him B. S. and M. S. degrees and an honorary L. L. D. degree.

His experience includes working at many trades while getting his education, teaching positions and serving as coach, athletic official, dean of boys, principal and superintendent of schools in various sections of Indiana. He worked as public relations director with Minneapolis-Honeywell at Wabash for several years.

He is a member of Masons, Scottish Rite, Shrine, Elks, past president of Rotary, teacher and trustee of the Methodist Church, Phi Delta Kappa professional education fraternity and Indiana High School Athletic Council. At present, he is the Commissioner of the Indiana High School Athletic Association.

Russell Borton Is Heart Victim

Russell L. (Pete) Borton, 56, died unexpectedly of a heart attack at his home Sunday morning. A former Mentone town marshal, he was an employee of the Northern Indiana Co-operative Hardware.

The son of John L. and Alice Jefferies Borton, he was born Dec. 5, 1911 in Mentone. He was a veteran of World War II and a member of the Mentone American Legion.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Clyde (Delta) Yazel, Etna Green; an uncle, Linus Borton, Mentone; and two nephews, Harold (Mike) Yazel and Rex (Arkie) Yazel, both of Mentone.

Funeral services for Mr. Borton were conducted Tuesday afternoon in the King Memorial Home with Rev. Howard O. Adelman officiating. Burial was in the Mentone cemetery.

He has spoken to over one-half million people in more than 2,000 audiences, many of them return engagements. He has appeared at many industrial conventions, service clubs, commencements, church groups, women's clubs, farm organizations, educational institutes athletic banquets and chamber of commerce meetings throughout the Middle West. He has a homespun Hoosier philosophy that holds his audience's attention completely. He combines fun, horse-sense and entertainment until he is one of Indiana's most popular and sought after speakers. Although his talks are highly entertaining, he never fails to leave some wholesome philosophy for his listeners.

Grade School Music Program, PTA Officer Installation Held

Students in the third, fourth, and fifth grades of the Mentone school presented a music program Monday night in the school gym. Several group songs were presented.

Burket grade school students entertained members of the PTA, the sponsor of the program, with a Maypole dance which was quite colorful and well received by the spectators.

Jerry Kralis installed the new PTA officers. Mr. and Mrs. George Welch are the new presidents. Other officers are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hanes, co-first vice presidents; Joe Boggs, second vice president; Mrs. Jerry Hudson, secretary; and Mrs. Bill Boardman, treasurer.

A small permanent PATRICIA trophy was presented to Mrs. Pearson's third grade class for having won the traveling trophy the most times during the year.

Luana Sarber Is Queen Of Ball

Luana Sarber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sarber, R. 1, Mentone, reigned as queen of the Murphy Medical Center Appreciation Ball Saturday night. Miss Sarber, a sophomore at Mentone High School, has donated 150 hours as a volunteer candy stripper.

Miss Diane Cole, 16, daughter of Mrs. Annabelle Cole and also a sophomore at Mentone High School, was chosen princess. Miss Cole has also spent 150 hours in volunteer duty as a candy stripper. Both girls plan to take nurse's training following their high school graduation.

The annual ball is given by Mrs. Hazel J. Murphy, administrator of the hospital, along with the hospital board of directors and hospital employees in honor of the volunteer workers.

The ball, held in the National Guard Armory which was decorated with a lighted Eiffel Tower in the center of the dance floor, French paintings sketches, a terracing fountain and a fountain which blew bubbles through colored lights, was attended by 675 persons. They danced to the music of Bill Briscoe's orchestra and ate smoked salmon, roast beef, turkey, shrimp, lobster, relishes, fruits, desserts and French pastries.

Hospital employees designed the decorations.

They Really Work

We know our classified ads work and so does Mrs. J. V. Garver, Rochester, who recently advertised for homes for her cocker puppies. Mrs. Garver was in Friday and said, "You had such good luck getting rid of the pups that we're going to get rid of the mother too." If you want a nice black female Cocker Spaniel, see Mrs. Garver's ad in the classified section.

Spring Concert Is Planned

The Spring Concert will be held May 12, 1967 at 8:00 P.M. in the Mentone School gym. The high school band and chorus will perform. Also participating will be the stage band. All senior band members will be recognized. Awards will be presented. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Trustee Urges Assessment Be Completed

Ray Eckert, trustee of Harrison Township, today reminded residents of the township that May 15 is the deadline for assessment. Anyone who has not completed his assessment is urged to contact the trustee at once in order to avoid the penalty.

Hydrants Will Be Flushed

Harry Sullivan, water works superintendent, has announced that all hydrants in Mentone will be flushed Friday evening between 6:30 p.m. and 10:00 p.m.

Wins Trip To Florida

Mrs. Harold Utter was the lucky winner in the first drawing at Lemler's Market for a free holiday for two in Florida. She is shown receiving her award certificate from Fred Lemler. Three more winners will be chosen in the next three weeks.

Speed limit to be doubled

If you've ever driven over eight miles per hour in Mentone, you've been speeding according to an ordinance discovered Monday night. Jerry Sechrist, head of the Mentone Boys League, attended Monday night's board meeting and asked the board to pass or enforce the speed limit in the area of the ball diamond. It was then that the group found the ordinance of May 17, 1912 which established the limit at eight miles per hour had never been revoked.

The board will draw up a new ordinance calling for a 20 m.p.h. limit.

Resolutions of respect were made to Ben Scarbrough for his long years of service as cemetery caretaker and to Harry Meredith for donating his services in repainting the sign at the entrance of the cemetery. Bob Griffith will replace Scarbrough as cemetery caretaker.

A request by Richard Dickertoff to vacate two alleys near his property was granted and the matter will be advertised.

Zoning Board To Hear Appeal

Members of the Mentone Zoning Board of Appeal will meet May 16 at 7:30 p.m. at the Town Hall to hear an appeal for special exception to place a mobile home in an industrial area on North Highway 19. Remonstrations to the appeal will be heard at that time.

Marvin White

Dies Of Viet Injuries

Pfc Marvin R. White, 20, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest White, R. 5, Rochester, died Saturday morning in a Vietnam hospital of hand grenade wounds he had suffered in combat on April 24.

White was a friend of James R. Utter, R. 5, Rochester, who was killed in Viet action April 15. The two families live half a mile apart in Newcastle township.

A lifelong resident of the Talma area, White was born Dec. 23, 1946 to Ernest and Alice Miller White. He attended the Talma schools and worked at Midwest Spring Co. in Mentone before entering the Army April 20, 1966. He received his basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky. and was stationed at Ft. Polk, La. before being sent to Vietnam six months ago.

White is survived by his parents; a brother, Keith, R. 5, Rochester; the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller, R. 1, Logansport; four aunts; an uncle; and a niece.

The Foster and Good funeral home will be in charge of the arrangements. The body is expected to arrive here within a week.

Cubs Are Honored At Pack Night

Members of the Mentone Cub Scouts met recently for the monthly pack night which opened with roll call and inspection.

The urgent need for a new den mother was announced and Jim Miller, Packmaster, urges anyone who is interested to contact him at once.

A trip to Bunker Hill Air Force base was planned.

Awards were presented to Den Chiefs Darrel Miller, Gary Wise, Eddie Baker, and John Lowman. Their outstanding work was praised.

Other awards were Chris Miller, bear book; Doug Miller, bear book, year pin; Mike Walton, lion badge, 1 gold and one silver arrow, Webelos badge; Pat Stiffler, one silver arrow; Curt Robinson, wolf badge, gold and silver arrow; Matt Holt, wolf badge, one gold and one silver; Rickel, wolf badge, gold arrow; Floyd Dorsey, silver arrow and bear book.

Kevin Rose received his Bobcat pin and John Hill received the wolf badge. Other awards were received by Danny Warren, bear badge; Jack Peterson, bear badge, gold and silver arrows.

Mrs. Ted Peterson received a three-year pin for her services as a den mother.

Several boys showed articles they had made, and Den 5 gave a skit.

Talk on parade practice was set and the meeting adjourned.

What They Wore... by PHYLLIS JOYCE

THE WORKING GIRL
IN THE EARLY 1900'S THE TAILORED SUIT, THE PERENNIAL FAVORITE ATTIRE OF THE WORKING GIRL, HAD NOT YET BECOME POPULAR. DRESSES WERE WORN FAR MORE OFTEN. CONSIDERED ESPECIALLY SMART WAS THE DRESS THAT WAS DRAPED AND CROSSED IN THE FRONT.

IN 1926 THE VOGUE FOR ENSEMBLES BECAME SO STRONG THAT EVEN SUITS ADOPTED THE "TOTAL LOOK". THE SHORT SKIRTS HAD DRESSY OVER-BLOUSES WITH JACKETS LINED TO MATCH THE BLOUSE.

THE WORKING GIRL IN 1937 WAS PROVIDED AN EXCITING NEW LOOK WHEN SCHIAPARELLI BECAME THE FIRST DESIGNER TO USE PADDING ON THE SHOULDERS OF WOMEN'S SUITS. SHE BORROWED THE IDEA FROM THE LONDON GUARDSMAN'S UNIFORM WHICH IN TURN HAD BEEN TAKEN FROM THE 15TH CENTURY MAN'S COSTUME WHEN THESE FAMOUS PUFFS WERE PADDING FOR ARMOR.

TODAY, WHEN BUYING WOMEN'S OR CHILDREN'S APPAREL LOOK FOR THIS LABEL THE SYMBOL OF DECENCY, FAIR LABOR STANDARDS AND THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE.

SANTA PAULA, CALIF., CHRONICLE: "Constant efforts have to be made to protect freedom of the press and people. This year a milestone was reached in the passage by Congress, and the President's signing, of the federal open records law... From now on the burden of defending secrecy in federal affairs will be on those who would withhold information. The reporter has the right to question and inspect government records... The press of America is the guardian of freedom. Those who exercise the Freedom of the Press in the public must be ever worthy of the trust given to them."

FINDLAY, OHIO, REPUBLICAN-COURIER: "Businessmen predict widespread unemployment on farms and higher prices for food, hotel rooms and various merchandise as a result of the higher federal minimum wage law... This was the lead paragraph of a news article which appeared... in the New York Times. The situation to which it referred was not unexpected. A warning was sounded prior to enactment of this legislation that this would be the case. But the warning went unheeded."

WALTHAM, MASS., NEWS-TRIBUNE: "The current struggle between school administrators and boys with long hair is not new to American education. According to B. B. Chapman of the Florida State University History Department, back in 1901 the Office of Indian Affairs began a campaign to make young Indian males stop the 'objectionable and immoral' practice of wearing long hair. The Indians resisted, and it wasn't until they became more assimilated into American culture that they voluntarily gave up their long hair, says Chapman."

LA PLATA, MD., TIMES-CRESCENT: "In answer to labor's demands the government is constantly imposing greater burdens on business management. Doesn't the government have an obligation to compensate for these increased burdens by providing incentives to those whose industry, ingenuity and capital investments provide the jobs, without which the economy would grind to a complete stop?... cooling off, as the theorists put it, let it be by less government spending and... not by taking away incentives..."

MILLINGTON, TENN., STAR: "Almost daily the charge is made that Americans are losing one more freedom. Freedom of the press is being dangerously tampered with, from high places where secrecy is preferred, and where an idea is created that people are not smart enough to know the whole truth. There is little question that many freedoms have gone by the board—such as freedom from taxation without representation, which covers many areas today of federal spending."

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, MINN., JOURNAL: "One of the disturbing facts about the increasing death toll in traffic accidents throughout the country is the fact that rural deaths are gaining, while city deaths decline. That is true in the bigger states. It indicates that education and law enforcement are having their effect in urban centers but not widely enough implanted in rural areas. Also, perhaps, that the effect of expressways is to encourage speed on country roads, where access is unprotected."

CRESWELL, ORE., CHRONICLE: "The only question remaining in our minds is: will there be a 'war on poverty' to support the taxpayers after they support the rest of federal government's poverty fiascos?"

WISH YOU WERE HERE?

Suzy is on 'surfari'. With her cute bikini and rented surfboard, she's exploring the golden beaches of South Africa's 2000 miles long East Coast. Stretched between Capetown and Loureco Marques, it's a vacation paradise sure to bewitch the most seasoned traveler.

For those with a yen to 'shoot the curl' or 'hang ten,' there's surfing—the best experts say. For here the Indian Ocean's slow rollers lift hundreds of feet from shore—then cascade beachward, giving one of the longest rides in 'surfdom'.

The less venturesome can enjoy the luxury of sun-drenched beaches and the ocean's 70 degree water twelve months of the year. And 'surf-bunnies' like Suzy make watching a delight!

Once you've had your fill of sun, sea and sand, explore the fascinating coastal cities. Here the ultra modern and picturesquely primitive meet in a kaleidoscope of fun and color.

Ocean front hotels offer the most up-to-date accommodations and the finest of foods for only a few dollars a day.

Quaint rickshaws and modern cars ply the roadways. Native markets display exotic wares and Paris fashions grace the shop windows.

You can attend a colorful Shembe Festival, where thousands of Zulus dance in tribal dress, tour a fascinating game reserve, view a fire-walking ceremony at a Hindu temple—or—listen to a fine symphony concert, stroll through an art gallery, enjoy a trip to the theater.

You'll find adventure and entertainment to please every mood. "A great formula for a fun vacation", says Suzy!

Parson Jones Speaks

Dear Mr. Publisher

I been taking night courses in school for a couple weeks now. I was gonna keep it a secret but my wife found out last night when she followed me to see where I was going. I'm taking a brick-layers course.

If you wonder why, its on account of that new trend science is taking. Over the television the other day there was a program showing how pretty soon science could control the birth of children. According to these educated folks it won't be long til we can make kids born the way we want 'em. We can mix the right ingredients and come up with a hole town-full of Abraham Lincolns. Or, we can run a chemical analysis on some great preacher and run out a hole batch of them.

So, you can see my problem. Mr. Publisher. They're getting ready to take my job away from me. If they make all these good people from scratch, I'm gonna be outa work. And to think, all these years I been working like 40-leven to change peoples ways, only to find out that they've just got their chromosomes in the wrong place. Or else, they-ve got four parts water when they only need two parts water.

I wonder whats gonna happen though if some scientist wants to turn out a hole mess of Al Capones. Or suppose the Russians make a big batch of Joseph Stalins. I wonder if the Democrats will push for more Franklin D. Roosevelts and the Republicans will want a million carbon copies of Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The reason I decided to take up brick laying, Mr. Publisher, it looks like bricks have a more promising future than humans. It looks from where I'm sitting, that Americans have been watching too many cartoons on television. There was a time when it was fairly easy to tell the crazy folks from the sane ones, but nowadays we don't have any rules to go by. The wilder a fella talks the more likely people are to listen to him. You take for instance more people will go to church to hear that God is dead then will go to hear that He's alive.

Mr. Publisher, they're even talking about freezing people and bringing them back to life thousands of years from now. Its got to the place where man not only can't live in peace anymore, he ain't even allowed to die in peace.

Well, I gotta go and practice my brick laying. Bricks are such nice people to work with - and they stick together well.

Yours truly,
Farson Jones

The United States, even though it possesses resources of a size unparalleled in history, cannot foot the bill for re-designing the world. Indeed, even if we could afford it, we hardly have the wisdom or the right to try shaping the social, political or economic life of other nations—underdeveloped or not. As The Wall Street Journal observes: "The strains of the Vietnam fighting are themselves proof, it seems to us, that the U.S. cannot do everything for everybody everywhere. It can continue to resist communism where absolutely necessary for its own interests. It should forget the foolish dream of re-making the world."

Tribute To The Dog

by Henry Whetstone

One of the best friends a man has in the world may turn against him and become his enemy. His son or daughter that he has reared to manhood or womanhood, with loving care may prove ungrateful. Those who are dearest and nearest to us, and those whom we trust with our happiness and our good name, may become traitors to their faith.

The money that a man has he may lose—it flies away from him, perhaps when he needs it most.

A man's reputation may be sacrificed in a moment of ill-considered action.

The people who are prone to fall on their knees to do us honor when success is with us may be the first to throw the stone of malice when failure settles the cloud upon our heads.

The one absolutely unselfish friend that a man can have in this selfish world, the one that never deserts him, the one that never proves ungrateful or treacherous, is his dog.

A man's dog stands by him in prosperity and poverty; in health and in sickness. He will sleep on the cold ground where the wintry winds blow and the snow drives fiercely, if only he can be near his master's side.

He will kiss the hand that has no food to offer; he will lick the wounds and sores that come in encounters with the roughness of the world. He guards the sleep of his pauper master, as if he were a prince. When all other friends desert him he remains.

When riches take wings and reputations fall to pieces, he is as constant in his love as the sun in its journey through the heavens.

If fortune drives the master forth an outcast in the world, friendless and homeless, the faithful dog asks no higher privilege than that of accompanying him, to guard against this danger and to fight against his enemies.

When the last scene of all comes, and death takes the master in its embrace, and his body is laid away in the cold ground, no matter if all other friends pursue their way, there by the graveside will the noble dog be found, his head between his paws, his eyes sad, but open in alert watchfulness—faithful and true, even in death.

If you want to establish a lawn in a hurry before winter, plant sod, say Purdue University extension horticulturists.

There's still time to build fences and trellises around the yard, according to Purdue University extension horticulturists.

Lemon Poppy Seed Bread

BREAD WITH HINT OF LEMON SPARKS ANY MENU

This fanciful quick bread combines lemon tang with the crunch of poppy seeds in an enticing way. Easy to make — this picture-pretty bread is especially delightful served as a warm accompaniment for fresh spring salads.

Lemon Poppy Seed Bread is made with enriched flour, containing the essential B-vitamins, thiamine, niacin, and riboflavin, and the mineral, iron. The nutritional advantages of using enriched flour in all baking is an important consideration to the wise homemaker.

LEMON POPPY SEED BREAD

1/2 cup milk	1/2 cup shortening
1 tablespoon poppy seed	3/4 cup sugar
2 cups sifted enriched flour*	2 eggs
1 tablespoon baking powder	1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
1 teaspoon salt

Combine milk and poppy seeds. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cream shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in eggs and lemon rind. Blend flour mixture into creamed mixture alternately with milk and poppy seeds, beating well after each addition. Turn into 8 1/2 x 4 1/2-inch greased loaf pan. Bake in preheated 350° oven, 1 hour and 10 minutes, or until golden brown. Cool on wire rack 5 minutes before removing from pan.

*If you don't sift and in absence of other directions, spoon flour directly from container into a one-cup dry measure, level off, then remove two tablespoons according to USDA recommendations.

NOTE: If self-rising flour is used, omit baking powder and salt.

Phone long distance when you're away. Rates are lowest after 8 p.m.

After 8 PM and all day Sunday, call (station to station) anywhere in the Continental U.S. for no more than a dollar for the first 3 minutes. Alaska and Hawaii excepted. Taxes not included.

WHAT OTHERS ARE DOING

BLOOMINGTON: Students at the Indiana University regional campus at Indianapolis wrote a congratulatory letter to Guy Loftman, newly elected IU Study Body president, which read in part: "We would like to congratulate you on your recent election to Student Body President of the Bloomington Indiana University campus. Enclosed you will find a campus kit containing materials to improve your personal image. Also enclosed you will find to use in your office a can of Right Guard, which can be used to counteract the Left wing aroma that lingers there." It was signed, "with sympathy for you and the students who must recognize you as president." Loftman is a member of the "New Left."

NORTH MANCHESTER: North Manchester residents sponsored a "Clean-Up—Paint-Up" campaign last Friday and Saturday.

LOGANSPORT: A Logansport lady, viewing the dirt being hauled away by NIPSCO workers installing a gas main, called to see if she might have some of it for her patio. Asked how much she wanted, the lady replied, "Oh, five or six scoops," not thinking how much dirt a mechanical scoop would hold. Surprised and horrified when she found her yard filled with clay dirt and street bricks, she called the utility to see if they would take it all back. They did.

BAINBRIDGE, OHIO: The annual Ted Klusezewski Baseball School will be conducted here this summer. The first weekly session begins June 4 at Camp Valley Vista in Paint Valley, two miles north of Bainbridge. Information may be obtained by writing Ted Klusezewski Basketball School, Box 524N, Bainbridge, Ohio 45612.

Crash Injures Two

Two Burket teenagers were injured in a one-car crash near Claypool Saturday. Isom Stone, 19, is listed in fair condition with back injuries, and John Allen, 18, a passenger in the Stone car, was treated and dismissed for wrist lacerations.

State police officers said Stone told them he rounded a curve on County Road 700 South and the vehicle dropped off the edge of the road, skidded across the pavement and rammed an embankment. Damage to the car was listed at $100.

PROCLAMATION FOR: SOIL STEWARDSHIP... APRIL 30 - MAY 7, 1967. TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY COME, GREETING:

WHEREAS, in this day of rapid population explosion, it is highly imperative that due consideration be given to the conservation of our natural resources; and

WHEREAS, soil and water resources are of concern to every citizen; and

WHEREAS, natural soil characteristics are directly related to the desirability and development cost for any use of land, it is imperative that we secure and utilize soil survey information in making land use determinations; and

WHEREAS, the eighty-eight soil and water conservation districts of Indiana have proceeded to meet the challenge of the present and the future by carrying on an aggressive program of soil and water conservation and flood prevention particularly through watershed development, with participation by other governmental agencies, service groups, business organizations, schools, churches, and countless individuals; and

WHEREAS, it is of utmost importance that we accelerate this work of conserving our soil and water resources:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Roger D. Branigin, Governor of the State of Indiana, do hereby proclaim the week of April 30 to May 7, 1967, as SOIL STEWARDSHIP WEEK in Indiana and appeal to all Hoosiers to join in this worthy movement giving assistance in every possible way in the conservation and wise use of the soils and waters of the state.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF,

I HAVE HEREUNTO SET MY HAND AND CAUSED TO BE AFFIXED THE GREAT SEAL OF THE STATE OF INDIANA, AT THE CAPITOL, IN THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, THIS 25TH DAY OF APRIL, 1967.

Do they live happily ever after? Can there be a sequel to classics?

Not many authors write their own sequels. For the most part our favorite people in fiction remain ageless in the tales where we first met them.

Heidi is different. The little girl who grew up in the Swiss Alps has had fans in all countries since Johanna Spyri wrote about her in 1880. Now a new book, Heidi Grows Up, has been written by Johanna Spyri's translator, Charles Tritton. Faithful to the original mood, it takes Heidi off to boarding school and brings her back to her home village and the hut on the mountain. Peter the goat-boy is there, Clara comes to visit from Frankfurt, the Alm-Uncle pursues his familiar ways, and there are new adventures and new friends as Heidi chooses her way of life.

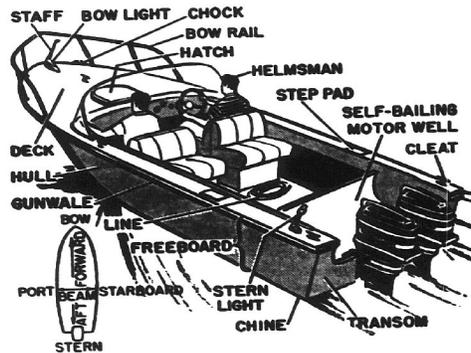

The second Heidi book, part of the classics and fiction line of Whitman Publishing Company of Racine, Wis., is a welcome addition to the bookshelf of any little girl.

Any young reader lucky enough to visit Switzerland can still see the birthplace of Heidi's creator, Frau Spyri, on a green hill beyond Zurich. The author, like the little girl she created, was content to spend a lifetime in a beloved country of snow-capped peaks.

Children embarked upon the adventure of growing up will enjoy the novelty of keeping in touch with a well-known fictional friend. Through the years youngsters everywhere have taken special characters to heart — Hans Brinker, David Copperfield, Huck Finn, Meg and Beth and Amy and other favorites are so vivid they almost jump from the pages of books.

For Heidi readers a sequel is a happy reunion, and there is promise of another book to follow.

Boating Tips...

NAUTICAL TERMS

Every good boater should recognize and use the colorful and traditional language of the sea. Without a command of basic nautical vocabulary the would-be boater dooms himself to the classification of "landlubber." To help prevent this calamity the Mercury outboard experts developed the above illustration to identify the proper nomenclature for an outboard boat. Gunwale is pronounced "gunel."

Be-About Missionary Group Meets, Cleans Church Kitchen

The Be-About Missionary Circle of the First Baptist Church met recently in the church fellowship rooms for their April meeting.

Carmen Acton led the group in singing "I Love To Tell The Story."

Phyllis Bowser had devotions, using the topic "Life's Reverses."

Roll call was answered by members giving a good Christian article or book they had read recently.

Odessa Addelman gave a report on the women's state missionary meeting of the GARBC which was held April 20 at Hobart. Seven ladies from the church attended the meeting.

Special prayer requests were given out and the ladies broke up into small prayer groups.

The remainder of the evening was spent in cleaning the church kitchen. Some of the women worked on Bible school material. Lunch was served to sixteen members.

A Column of News By And For All Girl Scouts Of The Mentone Community

Cadette Troop 30 opened their meeting by talking about their paper, "Troop 30 Uncovered." When all the articles were put together, the girls thought they didn't have enough so they decided they should add some more. Some of the articles are fashions, T.V. and movie screen, world wide wonder, recipes, sound of music, comedy, poems and short stories, interviews and upcoming dates.

Two of the Cadettes thought it would add something to the paper if we had a Caddetious. This person would be one of the Cadettes. The girls voted secretly. Caddetious should be a girl who could answer any question which the girls might write about. Questions are to be given to the troop leader, Lea Hudson, and she will give them to Caddetious, whoever she is! The girls discussed Guest Day which will be next week and closed with a flag ceremony.

Everett Shonk, who lives three miles north of Mentone, found a balloon used in a science experiment which had been released by Mark Supiana of Racine, Wisconsin on April 28. Everett found the balloon about 4:00 p.m. the same day. The card was attached to the balloon with the sender's name on it.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Marks were Mrs. Doug Marks and Mike Burnett of Etna Green, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Marks and family of Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Miller went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Welcome Miller and family of Tyner Sunday. They all were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gustafson and son, Jeffery of Valparaiso.

Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fretz and family were Mr. and Mrs. William Sweep and family of Fremont, Ind.

Receives Award

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Flory, Tippecanoe, have received word that their son, Sp. 4 Jerry Flory, received the Basic Air Medal at ceremonies held in Vietnam on April 15.

Dinner guests of Mrs. Sarah Blackford and Mr. and Mrs. Warren McIntire and family were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ward and family of Indianapolis. Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Blackford and family. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Krefl and family of Tippecanoe, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Blackford and family of Warsaw, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Kauffman and family of Bourbon, and Mrs. Lowell Swick Columbia, City.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Flory and family spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Flory of South Bend.

Mrs. Minor Fretz and Renaee of Bourbon were callers of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fretz on Friday.

Graduates With Honors

Mr. Gene Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ward will graduate June 10th from Indiana University Dental School and has been elected to the National Dental Association. He has been on the dean's list for four years, and is one of the top ten in his class. After graduation he will practice at Dr. Hampton's Clinic in Argos.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dickey of Culver spent Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Urschel.

Eighty Ninth Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Bauer of South Bends, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hawk of Argos, Mr. Sam Merley of Gilead and Mr. C. M. Urshchel of Tippecanoe met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Urschel to celebrate the eighty-ninth birthday of Mrs. Urschel. They all enjoyed ice cream and cake.

A group of ladies from the Tippecanoe Progress Club went Wednesday, April 25, to the County Farm Home at Plymouth. The club celebrated all the April birthdays; they had music, entertainment, and group singing. The club served homemade pies, ice cream and punch, and Mrs. Arnold Flory presented the home a floral arrangement.

Week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ward were their children, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ward and family of Indianapolis and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Korthal and daughter of Fort Wayne. Saturday night supper guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jan Metheny and family of Columbus, Indiana. Sunday afternoon callers in the same home were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lancaster of Chicago and Ralph Ward of Meritone, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fretz and Melvin of Tippecanoe.

ODDS and ENDS

For nine years Todd has been about as helpful around the kitchen as a dog in a cat hospital, and, with the exception of occasionally having him set the table, I was happy with the situation although I sometimes told myself that even boys should know how to cook. Now, thanks to the Cub Scouts, all this has changed.

To be a Cub is fine, but to advance through the various stages is even better and Todd has been smarting because some of the other boys have completed the requirements for their Wolf and Bear badges while he has had to be content to still be a Bobcat.

One of the big obstacles has been the cooking part of the work which says the boy must cook breakfast for his family. This family is so rushed so much of the time that breakfast looks like a busy day at Grand Central Station.

Saturday morning wasn't too busy and it seemed like a good time for Todd to begin the task of learning to cook. He was already hard at it when I got downstairs, and the kitchen had taken on the dimensions of a battle field as he scurried around, electric skillet in hand. Doug, with three-year old indifference, was planted firmly in front of the sink eating peanuts. He chose to ignore Todd's frantic activity completely.

After the first egg sprayed all over the kitchen and was scrubbed up, the rest went better, and he soon served us four eggs that appeared to have been made of rubber. At least they bounced when attacked with a fork.

Doug usually merely picks at his egg and since he had eaten so many peanuts I was sure he would offend Todd by refusing to eat. Instead, he decided his brother was a "good cook" and demanded more. This pleased Todd immensely and he ate all of his own egg (another first) and started cooking more for each of them. I say "started cooking" because we haven't gotten them stopped yet. At last count they had consumed something like a dozen and a half eggs cooked in over a fourth of a pound of butter.

"Boy oh boy! Now I know how to cook," Todd chortles as he dishes up eggs for both of them. Sometimes they bounce like rubber balls, sometimes they are so soft Loren swears they will hatch, and sometimes they look like a bad dream, but they all seem to taste wonderful to the Cub and his devoted brother.

The thing that really bothers me is that while signing for this bit of work in the Wolf book I noticed the next item said, "Help prepare and serve a gelatin dessert." I like gelatin desserts much better than eggs, but I wonder if we're ready for that phase. At least it'll be a change.

STANDARD CLIPPINGS BAG. TORO pioneered grass and leaf bagging attachments for rotary mowers in the first place, and this year they're even better. This standard equipment bag clamps on with one hand, and it has a heavy-duty bottom. No zippers to clog, either.

SAFETY SPIN START. You wind up the "impulse" starter, step behind the mower handle, for safety, and push the lever to "start" position. Chokes automatically.

THREE OR 3½ HP. FOUR-CYCLE ENGINE. Starts easily, runs smoother than cheap 2-cycle engines. No mixing of gas and oil.

MAGNESIUM HOUSING. The lighter-than-aluminum stuff they use in airplanes.

AUTO-OILER! A visual oil filler. Push the button and you're sure the crankcase is full. No plug, no funnels, no oily fingers.

CLEAN-OUT PORT. When you're through mowing, let the engine idle and run a little water into the clean-out port. The blade splashes it all around under the housing and washes it out like new.

TRIMMIT! You know that grass along the side, walk that won't stand up? This little device props it up so the blade can clip it off crisply.

WIND-TUNNEL® HOUSING. TORO's "S" shaped cutting blade actually creates a powerful suction under the housing. It pulls grass up for a more even cut. "vacuums" leaves, too.

Spring Concert to be presented Friday night

The Mentone Music Department will present their Spring Concert this Friday evening, May 12, 1967, at 7:30 p.m. in the Mentone Gym.

The concert band will begin the program and play the following songs: "The Greenbriars of Wexley" by Sammy Nestico, "Marachi" by Harold L. Walters, "Red's White and Blue March" by Red Skelton, "Light Cavalry Overture" by F. Von Suppe, and "Harlem Nocturne" by Earl Hagen.

Next the high school chorus will sing three songs. The first is "Deep River" arranged by Norman Luboff. The second is "Noah Found Grace in the Eyes of the Lord" by Schmertz and Emerson, and their final song will be a folksong, "Jamaica Farewell" arranged by L. M. House.

The stage band will then perform three numbers. They are: "My Funny Valentine" by Rodgers and Hart, "Bonaparte's Retreat" by Pee Wee King, and "The Preacher" by Horace Silver.

The highlight of the evening will be the presentation of awards. All Seniors in chorus and band will be honored. The Seniors in Triple Trio and Mellodears will be awarded a medal. A "perfect attendance" award is given. A blanket will be presented to the Senior who has accumulated the most merits. A baton is given to the Senior who helped the director the most in music. The "John Phillip Sousa Award" sponsored by Dr. and Mrs. Dan Urschel is also presented to a Senior. This recipient has been chosen by the band members, faculty, and Mr. Kenneth Bush, the band director.

The concert band will close the program with "St. Louis Blues March" by W. C. Handy and "Triumphal March" by Miklos Rozza from the M. G. M. picture "Quo Vadis".

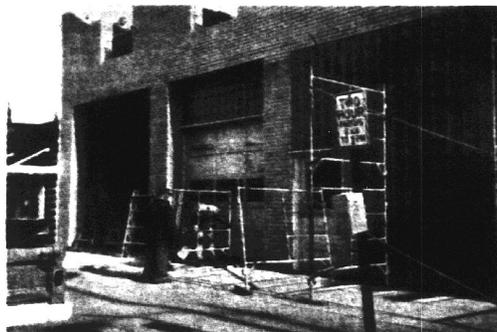

Mr. Bush, who has spent many hours working with the band and chorus, will preside and direct the program.

Boys League Work Is Begun

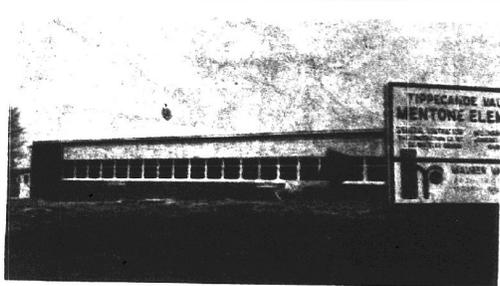

Work has begun on the Boys League diamond in the south part of town. Some grading was completed Sunday afternoon and the backstop was constructed. Jerry Hudson is in the process of painting billboard signs which will border the diamond.

Girls Program To Begin

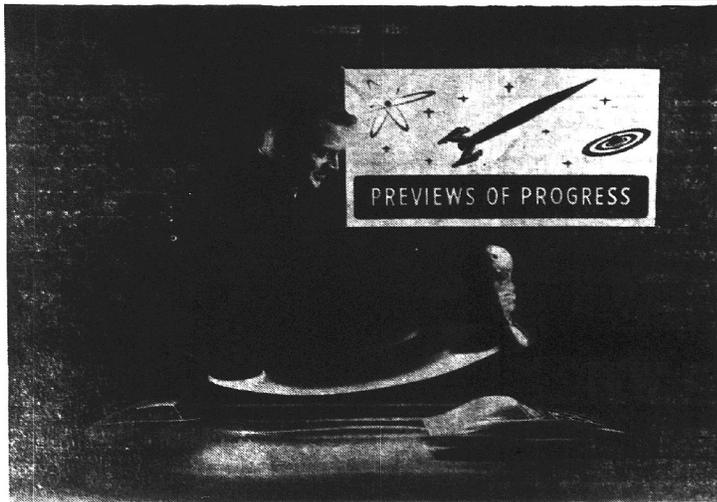

A program for girls similar to the Boys League will be organized here this summer. Enrollment forms will be given each girl at school this week. The same age limit applies to the girls' program as applies to the Boys League.

Workmen have begun rebuilding the Frank Manufacturing Company building which was partially destroyed by fire last fall. The building will be similar to the previous structure. Production facilities will be installed upon the building's completion. The firm presently occupies the building previously used by Hagan Mfg. Co.

Work continues on the addition to the Mentone school. Designed to alleviate the crowded conditions in the elementary grades, the five room addition will include a health and material center.

THE SUNMOBILE - WATCH IT GO! - The amazing Sunmobile, a car that runs on sunshine, is shown in action in this time exposure. The button-like photovoltaic cells on the hood turn light energy into electrical energy to move the model car. A 300-watt lamp simulates the sun. The Sunmobile is one of the demonstrations in the General Motors science show Previews of Progress. The 40-minute, admission-free, stage show dramatizes the wonders of science before two million American students and adults each year.

GM Progress Preview to be presented here

Previews of Progress—General Motors world-famed science show—will be presented before Mentone School students on Friday, May 19, 1967 at 2:00 p.m.

A non-commercial show, Previews has been seen by nearly 35-million students and adults in the United States, Canada and 22 foreign countries.

"We seek through Previews to inspire more young people to make science and engineering their career and provide the trained talent American must have to keep pace with the promise of the future," James M. Roche, president of General Motors, declares.

The latest version of the 45-minute stage presentation includes nine different sequences. Designed to show some of the many contributions of research and technology to modern living, the exciting demonstrations are narrated in non-technical language by a specially-trained two-man team.

A model car powered by sunlight, a roaring jet engine and an air bearing platform that slides across the floor on a thin layer of air, are just a few of the dramatic parts of the fast-moving show.

Seven Previews units take the program to all sections of the country. Audiences have ranged from groups of 100 to crowds of six thousand.

In the true tradition of show business, Previews has been staged under a variety of conditions. It has been presented on the platforms of stake trucks in rural areas and on the Starlight Roof of the Waldorf Astoria.

Previews of Progress has received wide acclaim from educators and civic and fraternal organizations for its success in awakening students and adults to the importance of science and engineering in America's technological progress.

State Police Requirements Change

Indiana State Police officials, in conjunction with the opening of a trooper recruiting campaign this week, announced several important changes in candidate requirements.

Any man, regardless of where he resides in the United States, is now eligible to join the ranks of the Indiana State Police if he can meet the necessary requirements. Prior to this time, only Hoosiers could apply.

The maximum age limit, which was 29, has been increased. Candidates must be at least 21 years old, but not yet 34, on the opening date of the next recruit school which begins September 18.

The maximum height requirement has also been increased from 6 feet 5 to 6 feet 7 inches. Minimum height is 5 feet 9 inches.

Applicants must possess a valid driving license. If there are any license restrictions noted, each will be judged individually. Prior to this time, applicants with license restrictions were automatically rejected.

In addition to these requirements, candidates must be U.S. citizens, possess an accredited high school diploma, be willing to serve any place in Indiana and must refrain from any manner of political activity except voting.

The starting salary for Hoosier troopers is $525. After one year of service, the pay is increased to $575 with a maximum trooper salary of $720 after six years. Uniform, ordnance and automotive equipment is furnished and the Department also provides a generous pension and benefit program.

The deadline for applications for the September recruit school is June 16. Indiana residents may obtain applications at any State Police Post. Non-residents may obtain applications at any Indiana State Police Post or by writing to "Superintendent, Indiana State Police Department, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204."

Volunteer Red Cross Workers Begin Volunteer Training

Mrs. R. F. Gast, chairman of volunteers of the Kosciusko county chapter of the American Red Cross, was in charge of the orientation given recently in the community rooms of the Lake City bank building for new Red Cross volunteers.

Mrs. Donald Greene, of Fort Wayne, national RC Field Volunteer representative, spoke on "The Importance of Being a Red Cross Volunteer". "Working with Other People as a Volunteer" was discussed by Mrs. Robert Whiteneck, chairman of hospital volunteers.

Mrs. R. M. Whitney, former chairman of volunteers, gave a history of the Red Cross organization pointing out the international services it renders. The American Red Cross is joined by 103 OTHER Red Cross societies around the world. Together they form the LEAGUE of Red Cross Societies and cooperate in humanitarian actions which governments often cannot carry out. For instance, ARC food parcels are delivered each month by CHINESE Red Cross to Americans imprisoned in Communist China. The American Red Cross is the instrument chosen by Congress to help carry out the obligations assumed by the United States under certain international treaties known as the Geneva or Red Cross Conventions. Specifically, its Congressional charter imposes on the ARC the duties to act as the medium of voluntary relief and communication between the American people and their armed forces, and to carry on a system of national and international relief to prevent and mitigate suffering caused by disasters.

"Inevitably, it is in the field of international action, in service to the suffering millions of prisoners, of sick, of disabled, of the hungry and destitute, that the Red Cross fulfills most completely the deepest needs of our age."

A film, "Symbol of Humanity" was shown by Mrs. Max

Mrs. Tracy Heads Progress Club

Mrs. Robert Elliott of South Bend entertained the Tippecanoe Progress Club at the May meeting with a delicious luncheon. The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Arnold Flory.

The group gave pledges to the flags and then sang the club song. Mrs. Harvey Elliott gave a sermonette entitled, "Facing The Future in the Home."

Installation of officers was then held. The new president will be Mrs. Don Tracy; the newly appointed vice-president is Mrs. William Elliott; second vice-president is Mrs. Just Jennings; and the secretary is Mrs. Harvey Elliott. Mrs. Sarah Blackford was appointed as treasurer and the advisory committee consists of Mrs. Chester Yound, Mrs. Loren Brockey and Mrs. Emanuel Worsham. Mrs. Arnold Flory will be the reporter.

The 19 members present then closed the meeting by repeating the Lord's Prayer.

Rosbrugh, Red Cross First Aid instructor and volunteer. Mrs. Bernard Hees, records and recognition chairman, and Mrs. Jack Whiteneck, transportation service chairman, presented a humorous skit on the proper and improper conduct for Red Cross volunteers and the correct and incorrect wearing of the Red Cross uniform.

Others assisting were Mrs. Paul Schermmmerhorn, scheduling chairman for nursing homes, and Mrs. Wallace Stouder, uniforms chairman.

Members of the class were: Mrs. Charles Wright, Mrs. James Benzenberg, Mrs. Harry Jackson, Mrs. Howard Funnell, Mrs. Cloise Clay, Mrs. Jene Lindsey, Mrs. Robert Tess, Mrs. David Easton, Mrs. Robert Stafford, Mrs. Walter Makemson and Mrs. Jack Sellers.

BROWNIE TROOP 142
Brownie Troop 142 met Tuesday with guests from the first grades who are interested in becoming Brownies. Each girl drew a picture introducing her family and pets. Some games were played and songs were sung.
Mrs. Gail John was a guest as she is going to be the new assistant leader. Refreshments were furnished by Melva Smith and Amy Bowser. The meeting adjourned with the magic tunnel. Lisa Owens was crowned birthday queen for the meeting and everyone sang "Happy Birthday" to her.
A recent meeting of the Brownies was opened by singing "The Brownie Smile Song" and the Girl Scout laws. Attendance was taken and the third grades were divided into groups who entertained the rest with songs and games and presented a little play which was enjoyed by everyone.
The girls each related the most interested thing seen at the museum.
Everyone played Riddle-deedee with someone describing something and the rest guessing what it was.
Delicious refreshments were served by Myra Eaton and the meeting adjourned with the magic tunnel.
Jr. Troop 25
Junior Troop 25 met on May 4th for their weekly meeting in the basement of the Mentone Methodist Church.
Opening was the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner." A letter was then read to the girls telling them that the Council had approved the idea of a Poetry Badge. Many other items were discussed including Brownie visit which is on May 11th and Fly-Up which is on May 23rd.

The girls then completed work on the gifts they will give their mothers on Mothers Day.
Each girl left as she completed her project.
NEW SCOUT TROOP FORMED
On Tuesday, Debbie Blackburn, Connie Norris, Janet Peterson, Cindy Yeiter, Paula Howard, Robin Secrist, Mindy Deal, Tammy Stokes, Peggy Hibbs, Nancy Nottsgar, Christina Brown, Joy Lucht and Denise Cooper held their first meeting as a new Brownie troop in the Scout room of the Mentone Methodist Church.
Mrs. Phyllis Howard is the leader with Mrs. Virginia Lucht as the assistant leader. Since they are new too, Mrs. Howard Allen, troop organizer, attended the meeting to explain some things that Brownies do and don't do and to answer the many questions asked by these eager girls.
Mrs. Betty Blackburn is the new committee chairman. Her committee is composed of Mrs. David Cooper, Mrs. Lee Norris, Mrs. Deal, Mrs. Carl Peterson, and Mrs. Ronnie Secrist.
The next meeting will be held on May 10, at which time the girls will work on Mother's Day gifts.

Parson Jones Speaks

Dear Mr. Publisher

I saw in the papers where the frost got most of the peach crop this year. The cold weather made them little peach blossoms just curl up their toes and die. I read where one cooking expert suggested we use sun-dried taters as a substitute. So, if you get any fresh peach pie this summer that tastes like tater, don't say I didn't warn you.

At our last men' meeting I brought this hole matter up to see if they thought a tater substitute was ethical. Most of the men voted no, with the exception of Big Slim. (He's in the tater business.) They said it wasn't right for a fella to call a tater a peach. I told 'em I didn't see why you couldn't have a peach substitute, if folks allow a religion substitute. Well sir, that remark snagged a hole in 'em and they wanted to know exactly what I meant. And having a liberal heart I quickly obliged 'em with the answer. I pointed out how Jesus said a Christian was supposed to be like a fruit tree - that a body who claimed to follow the Almighty oughta do something besides growing pretty flowery words. I told 'em the biggest weakness in the church ain't its preaching, but its practice. It seems like something is freezing our flowers off before we get any fruit. And when the fruit don't come we turn to ole dried substitutes like singing louder and building bigger buildings.

I told ole Hezekiah for example that if instead screaming at his youngsters all the time, he'd be quiet once in awhile he might get his point across.

I told Amos that if he wanted to teach his children love he oughta help his poor neighbors next door and maybe they'd get the message.

I pointed out to Ellie Nickelsinger's husband that the best way to teach their children the forgiveness of God was for them to stop pouting and speak to his uncle Zeb.

And I said to Big Slim; "The best way to teach Junior that God is a father is for you to stay home once in a while and be a daddy to your own boy."

Well, Mr. Publisher, I guess I got too personal in my presentation cause they all got up and left before I was through. So - it looks like the church is gonna have sun-dried taters again this year instead of fresh fruit. Either that or we'll have to go to plastic.

I've gotta close now cause I've run out of space. Even the paper is getting short these days.

Your friend?

Parson Jones

The 1967 Indiana State Fair is scheduled to run for eleven days - August 25 through September 4.

Lawrence Welk To Entertain State Fair Visitors

Lawrence Welk and his "champagne music" will be featured at the 1967 Indiana State Fair in the Coliseum on Saturday and Sunday, September 2 and 3 on Labor Day weekend.

Scheduled for two shows daily, Welk will have the entire TV line-up of performers with him he makes his second appearance at the State Fair. His first appearance was in 1965 when he drew capacity crowds.

Complimenting the maestro's famous style will be such TV regulars as the Lennon Sisters, accordionist Myron Floren, dancers Bobby Burgess and Sissy King, singer Larry Hooper, violinist Bob Lido, pianist Jo Ann Castle, and Irish tenor Joe Feeney.

ODDS and ENDS

Advice From The Chief For Teenage Activity

The chief of police of Manassas Park Va., wrote this "Open Letter to a Teenager".

Always we hear the plaintive cry of the teenagers: "What can we do?" "Where can we go?"

The answer is...go home.

Hang the storm windows, paint the woodwork. Rake the leaves. Mow the lawn. Shovel the walk. Wash the car. Learn to cook. Scrub some floors. Repair the sink. Build a boat. Get a job.

Help the minister, priest or rabbi, the Red Cross, the Salvation Army. Visit the sick. Assist the poor. Study your lessons. And then when you are through—and not tired—read a book.

Your parents do not owe you entertainment. Your town does not owe you recreation facilities. The world does not owe you a living. You owe the world something. You owe it your time and energy and your talents, so that no one will be at war or in poverty, or sick, or lonely again.

In plain, simple words: Grow up; quit being a crybaby; get out of your dream world...start acting like a man or a lady.

It has been noted, sometimes with alarm, sometimes with amusement, that ours is becoming a nation of watchers. There are bird watchers, people watchers, weight watchers, girl watchers, boy watchers, television watchers, Communist watchers, church watchers, court watchers--the list goes on and on.

Our family is no different except that we are "deer watchers." It is an interesting occupation and highly rewarding if one of the elusive animals is spotted.

For a long time Loren was the only one who claimed the distinction of having seen one, having seen them on two separate occasions while the boys and I had not seen one.

It all changed a few weeks ago when I glanced out the hall window and spied two deer gracefully glide over a fence into the field with our calves and then glide across the road into Safford's woods. I managed to call Loren before they disappeared and he joined me in admiring their grace. Our calves have never been noted for doing much except tearing down the barnyard fence and after watching deer as spellbound as we were, they turned and headed for the fence on a dead run. Loren yelled, "Those blankety-blank calves will ruin that fence if they think they're deer," and I laughed and the combined sound woke both boys who were furious when they learned they had missed the deer. (Fortunately, the calves missed the fence too.)

The watch was on. The boys have watched every inch of the farm, have prowled the creek bank for tracks and scoured the woods for sign of them. In the meantime, Loren and I keep seeing them. Once, returning home late at night, a large deer shot within inches of the car and Loren slammed on the brakes while Todd, asleep in the back seat, fell on the floor like a ton of lead and Doug, asleep in my lap, jumped a foot without opening an eye. It was hard to tell which made Todd the angriest, being dumped off the seat or missing the deer.

Friday night, enroute home from work, two deer almost ran in front of the car but instead dashed through a field while I nearly ran in the ditch watching them.

Bursting into the house, I proudly announced my latest deer watching accomplishment only to be greeted with bored yawns by the boys who then excitedly told me their big news--they had had a bird! That really did take the fun of deer-spotting away and after I'd seen the baby sparrow nesting in a shoebox on top of the china cabinet I was ready to take to the woods myself. Instead, I bought canary food for the thing, permitted Todd to water it with an old eye-dropper, and didn't mourn too much when it died.

Only after the bird had been disposed of did the watching begin again in earnest. "Where did you see those deer?" Todd demanded, ready to take up the watch again.

"What kind of deer?" Doug asked, looking into the sky. It was good to get back to normal again.

Boating Tips...

PORPOISING

This rhythmic up-and-down motion of the bow usually occurs at or near top speed. Porpoising can be eliminated quite simply in most cases, according to the Mercury outboard boating authorities.

First, try moving weights forward, a bit at a time, to see if this helps. Moving the gas tank or anchor, or changing seating positions, may do the job. Next, try experimenting with different motor tilt positions. Sometimes porpoising is caused by deformation of the hull bottom. That portion of the hull on which the boat planes should be a straight line when viewed from the side.

Internal stiffeners can sometimes be installed to straighten out bulges, hooks or warps.

Homemakers Conference To Be Held At Purdue

Lafayette, Ind., May 3. Women interested in making a campus vacation to learn, may attend Homemakers Conference June 6-8 at Purdue University.

Sponsored by the Indiana Extension Homemakers Association and the Indiana Cooperative Extension Service, the conference offers homemakers an opportunity to improve their homemaking skills and community service through education.

Sessions will cover money and credit management, consequences of prejudice, community achievement, influences of clothing, as well as health, safety, foods and personality improvement. Entertainment will feature performances of "Our Town" and the annual Choral Festival of home demonstration choruses.

Programs on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 6 and 7, are open to all Indiana women. On June 8, members of the Indiana Extension Homemakers Association will elect officers at their annual business meeting in the Hall of Music.

Reservations for all or part of the conference may be made by contacting county Extension offices.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Dora Norris.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mailbox Improvement Week

The Post Office Department designates a week during May of each year when residents on rural routes are encouraged to examine, and improve where necessary, the appearance of their mailboxes. The week of May 15-20 has been designated this year. The purpose of Mailbox Improvement Week is to call attention to the need for proving mail receptacles which are designed to protect the mail from the weather, and which are neat in appearance, conveniently located, and safe to use. The name of the patron must be shown on the side of the box visible to the carrier as he approaches, and, boxes and supports should be kept painted and free from rust.

TV schools begin speech program

A speech and hearing program was begun by members of the Tippecanoe Valley school board Monday night when they hired Diana Long as the corporation's first speech and hearing teacher. A need for such a program has long been felt. Miss Long will teach in all the corporation schools.

A complete list of teachers who have signed contracts to date was released at this meeting by Superintendent Robert Forbes. Forbes said that no definite assignments have been made yet as to schools. Three positions remain open in industrial arts, mathematics and physics, and kindergarten.

Forbes reported that 75 of the previous teachers remained with the corporation and fifteen would not return. He listed the following reasons for teachers not returning: two were pregnant, one was deceased, one contract not renewed because of necessity for change in assignment, two had requested leave for further degree, eight resigned to get advanced degrees, because of other jobs, moved away or because of personal reasons, and one resigned because of inability to split between two schools.

A list of the teachers who have been hired to date appears elsewhere in this paper.

The Four School Audio-Visual Program will be disbanded, it was announced by Forbes, and the Tippecanoe Valley system, a member of the four school group, will be forced to inaugurate another type of audio program. He announced that the Whitko corporation had asked the Tippecanoe Valley corporation to join in their program, and the board voted to accept. Owen Fry, the Whitko audio-visual director, will divide his time between the two corporations with Whitko paying three-fifths of the expense and TVSC paying two-fifths. Each corporation will be able to borrow films from the other under this arrangement, making a saving for both.

In further board action, members approved a contract for Robert Huffman, a business education teacher, and hired Carl Dick to begin janitorial duties at Talma in July.

Forbes reported that work was progressing nicely on the additions to the schools at Mentone and Akron and said he could foresee no problems arising as far as occupancy by September 5 was concerned. A financial report was given by Forbes, and the board handled other routine business.

A tentative school calendar was released and appears elsewhere in this paper.

Mrs. Ellsworth Hosts Jolly Janes

Mrs. Martha Ellsworth entertained members of the Jolly Janes Home Demonstration Club recently.

The meeting opened in the usual manner and Rosemary Bazzini related the story of the origination of Mother's Day. The first Mother's Day was held in Philadelphia, Pa. on May 10, 1908. Mrs. Bazzini completed her meditations with a poem, "A Woman's Love."

Health and safety remarks were given, urging each member to take the National Driver's Test on TV May 23.

The lesson on period furniture was given by Grace Lewis and Martha Ellsworth.

Each member wore a corsage for roll call. A brief business meeting was conducted.

Miss Paula Barstra of the Netherlands, a foreign exchange student at Mentone this year, was the guest speaker. She spoke of the customs and way of life and answered many questions.

The door prize was won by Mary Tridle.

Refreshments of cake and punch were served by the hostess, assisted by Becky Gross, to seventeen members and one guest.

A Column of News By And For All Girl Scouts Of The Mentone Community

New Troop Meets

On Wednesday, May 10, the new Brownie Troop held their 2nd meeting in the Scout rooms of the Mentone Methodist Church. There were 12 girls present. The girls practiced the Brownie Girl Scout Promise and some Brownie Songs. They played "Up-Set The Fruit Basket" which really got up-set once, and then made coupon books for their mothers for Mothers Day. Refreshments were served by Tammy Stokes, assisted by Joy Lucht and Robin Secrist.

JR. TROOP 25

Junior Troop 25 met on Thursday, May 11, for Brownie Guest Day. A total of 40 adults and girls were present. The Brownies attending were: Lisa Givens, Sandra Good, Amy Bawser, Barbara Toll, Cindy Deal, Sue Hiers, Pam Shephard, Jane Perry, Tammy Grimm, Mildred Bellamy, Sharon Burkett, and Regina Blankenship.

The meeting was opened with a song and some announcements were made. Each patrol then taught the Brownies a game or song.

A touch of either "Spring Fever" or "Hurray School is almost out" is in the air. This made for a rather noisy meeting. The Brownies were informed that Mrs. Allen has Junior Handbooks on hand that can be purchased for $1.00.

Plans were discussed for the summer. Refreshments were furnished by Leslie Senff. Happy Birthday wishes and song were for Leslie who is celebrating her Birthday.

Kathy Bush passed and received her World Games Badge. Closing was the singing of Taps.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Linn of Elkhart surprised his mother, Mrs. Hazel Linn, by attending Mother's Day services at the Methodist Church with her. They were also Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Linn.

Mr. and Mrs. William Everly entertained Mrs. Everly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Boonen, Sunday at the Highway Inn at Ft. Point, Indiana. The occasion was in honor of the Boonen's 54th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McDonald and sons Terry and Troy of Hoagland were also guests.

Anthony Nigo Chapter, DAR, Hears Vietnam Blame Placed On Russia

The Anthony Nigo Chapter, D.A.R., held their May meeting at the home of Mrs. Loren Gross of near Mentone, with Mrs. Carl Metheny and Mrs. Glenn Clauss as co-hostesses.

The meeting was opened by the regent, Mrs. Wayne Smalley, followed by the ritual service and pledge to the flag. The message from Pres. General Mrs. William Henry Sullivan, Jr.

which was read by Mrs. William E. Cox detailed some of the accomplishments of the outgoing administration. Other correspondence was read including a thank you note from Miss Diana Sarber, and an invitation to a meeting at Vincennes honoring the new state regent, Mrs. Glenn Wheeler.

In giving the report for National Defense, Mrs. Ernest Igo stated "Russia called real foe in Vietnam. Peace could come overnight in the Vietnam war if the Soviet Union - which is spending billions of dollars to supply war planes and other weapons, and is providing military technicians to the North Vietnamese - were to decide to withhold its aid unless hostilities are ended. The tendency heretofore has been to portray Red China as the principal factor in the bolstering of the North Vietnam government. But the evidence is coming out now that Russia has become in the last two years the mainstay of the North Vietnamese. The Red Chinese are continuing to supply light weapons, ammunition and rice, all of which is a big help to the guerrilla forces. The Russians, however, are providing the real sinews of the war."

The slate of officers for the coming year, as presented by the nominating committee, were voted into office and will be installed at the June meeting.

The program for the evening consisted of a report on the 1967 Continental Congress given by Mrs. Smalley. Keynote speaker at the opening session was Dr. Norman Vincent Peale.

A resume of the D.A.R. Resolutions passed was given. Congressman Louis C. Wyman introduced a bill in the House of Representatives which calls for a fine of $1,000.00 and one year imprisonment for anyone convicted of burning, mutilating or otherwise desecrating of American flag, bill HR 8768, as urged by one of the D.A.R. Resolutions.

Highlights of the President General's report to Continental Congress were given, including a gain of 2,000 new members. The expenditure to refurbish Constitution Hall was reported in the amount of $420,000.

The entire Congress congratulates attractive Joan Ellen Reynolds of Alhambra, California on winning the new NSDAR American History Scholarship of $8,000.

Mrs. Smalley concluded her report by announcing the new D.A.R. theme is "Progress is the Activity of Today and the Assurance of Tomorrow" - Emerson.

Spring colors of yellow, green and white decorated the table from which the hostess and her assistants served punch, salad, cookies, nuts and mints, against a backdrop of candles, foliage and white doves.

The next meeting will be held June 13 at the home of Mrs. Smalley.

Youngsters Can't Work On Farms During School Hours

Young people can work on farms after school, on weekends, and during vacations, but when school's in, work's out—for youths under 16, that is.

That's a reminder directed at farmers and growers, parents, and youths, from Earl F. Halverson of the U. S. Department of Labor, Chicago, Regional Director. Halverson of the Department's Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, said that the Fair Labor Standards Act prohibits youths under 16 from working during school hours in a district where school is in session.

The law applies to both local and migrant youths and to all farmers whose crops go directly or in directly into interstate commerce—which means, of course, most farmers. It doesn't apply to youths working for their parents on their farms.

Even though it's legal for youths over 16 to do farm work during school hours, Halverson urged all youths to stay in school and graduate.

"A youth who doesn't finish school is selling himself and his eventual family short," he said. "For in today's economy, unskilled jobs are fast disappearing and are, for the most part, unrewarding. The young person who sticks it out and graduates will reap much larger earnings over his lifetime than the youth who doesn't," he emphasized.

Halverson also reminded farmers that the minimum wage provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act may apply to some of them for the first time this year. Growers who use a lot of labor probably will have to pay at least $1.00 an hour this year, he pointed out. The nearest Wage and Hour office will be happy to answer any questions, he said.

Parson Jones

Dear Mr. Publisher

I had the funniest dream the other night I was at a chicken convention. The meeting was presided over by a big white rooster. He banged his bill on the speaker's stand and told all the dumb-clucks to stop clucking. The first item of business was the report on last year's work. A Rhode Island Red Hen stepped up front and crowed for 30 minutes about the progress they had made. He was especially proud of the Rhodes Island Red denomination for the work they had done. He said his group had laid more eggs than all the rest. This of course brought loud crackles from the group. A big white hen pointed out that while the reds laid more eggs, the whites had laid bigger eggs.

After an hour of cackling and crowing the second item of business was brought up. A pump red hen suggested they merge and pool their resources for better production. The white presiding officer nixed the idea because, as he pointed out, "any dumb-cluck knows that birds of a feather flock together". He also told how red ain't exactly a good color to do business with. After all the American people don't like Reds and a bull can't stand the color. "Why should chickens be any different from people and bulls?"

About that time the farmer came in the convention hall with an axe, so all the chickens huddled in one corner till he was gone, then they went back to their respective places—seeing as how the danger was over.

The business of employment was next on the docket. The Red chickens accused the White chickens of not doing their share of the work. While they were slaving away the white leghorns were just hunting and pecking - and no secretary gets far that way. I thought a real fight was gonna break out until a hefty hen laid an egg on the stage and this drew a cackle from all the ladies. Well sir, the meeting went on for about six hours and then I woke up when I heard my wife laughing.

Mr. Publisher, that dream was so real I'm having a hard time convincing myself it wasn't a dream. I could almost bet money I've been in that convention hall before. But, I guess I'm getting older I get cackling and laughing and crowing and bragging all mixed up. I been thinking about going to the doctor. Maybe it's an inner ear problem. Or, it could be my gall bladder.

Anyhow come see us when you can. We've moved you know - but just hunt us up and peck on the door. Ain't nobody home but us chickens.

What Is General Motors Preview Of Progress?

Previews of Progress in a non-commercial, 45-minute applied science show designed as a high school assembly program and presented in non-technical language by a specially-trained two-man team. Nine science-in-action demonstrations illustrate how the work of research scientists and engineers enriches our lives. Informative and entertaining. Previews gives students a greater appreciation of the importance of science and engineering and encourages them to consider the ever-increasing number of career opportunities in these fields.

Since 1946, Previews shows have been presented in 15 different languages to more than 34-million students and adults in the United States, Canada and 22 foreign countries.

Seven Previews units are now touring the United States with the latest version of the show that includes the following demonstrations:

POLYMER CHEMISTRY - Unique demonstrations of the manufacture of synthetic rubber in a pop bottle and of a small piece of foam plastic used in automobile and airplane cushions and safety padding.

IMPACT SLED - A miniature model of a versatile automobile testing device is used to demonstrate the importance of seat belt use in automobile crashes or emergency stops.

SUNMOBILE - A model car illustrates one possible method of using sunlight as a power source. Photoelectric cells on the hood convert sunlight, simulated by a 300-watt lamp in the show, into electrical energy.

FUEL CELL - A device that converts chemical energy into electrical power at an efficiency of 90 per cent.

GYROSCOPE - A "misbehaving" suitcase helps illustrate how modern guidance systems safely guide today's planes, ships and missiles along predetermined courses.

EXPLODING WIRE PHENOMENON - Using the principle of stored energy, a 10-watt power supply furnishes over 30-million watts in an instant to demonstrate the electrical disintegration of a fine wire. This phenomenon may some day propel space vehicles.

REULEAUX TRIANGLE - A demonstration of a mathematical "odddity" showing that an object of constant width is not necessarily round.

AIR BEARING PLATFORM - A thin film of air nearly eliminates the sliding friction from a platform that can be used to move 1,000 pounds with only 5 pounds of force.

Missionary Society

The May meeting of the Congregational Christian Church Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. Arnold B. Rhodes with fifteen members and two guest present. The guests were Mrs. Betty Murdick of Lakeville and Miss Carrie Cormican.

Mrs. Glen Morrison, the president, opened the meeting by reading the Mother's Day poem, "Going Home." The songs, "What a Friend" and "America," were sung by the group, followed with prayer by Mrs. Morrison.

The Scripture-Proverbs 31:10 21 verses were read by Mrs. Robert Lewallen.

The lesson, "Hannah, the Ideal Mother," was introduced by Mrs. Thomas Bump. The part of the "Modern Mother" was read by Mrs. Ray Tevaut and the "Mother Hannah" by Mrs. Floy Korthal.

A representative from the Child Evangelism Fellowship, Mrs. Betty Murdick of Lakeville, spoke on "Redeeming of Time" using the flannelgraph to illustrate her talk.

Roll call was answered by giving "My Mother's Maiden Name."

Flowers were given to the oldest mother and the mother having the most children, which was Mrs. Vern Bear, and the youngest mother, Mrs. Thomas Bump.

"Happy Birthday" was sung to five members of the group, Mrs. J. F. Urschel, Mrs. Baer, Mrs. John Elkins, Mrs. Martha Thompson and Mrs. Wendell Moriarty.

Reports were made on the sick and shut-ins to which cards were sent.

Mrs. Korthal gave the closing prayer.

Mrs. Rhodes and her co-hostess, Mrs. Tony Hoover, served refreshments of salad, fancy crackers, mints and coffee.

Clarence Fretz Rites Are Held

Funeral services were conducted in the Tippecanoe Congregational Church Tuesday afternoon for Clarence A. (Cal) Fretz, 85, R. 1, Mentone. Mr. Fretz died Saturday afternoon at the Miller Nursing Home after having been a patient there since December. Rev. Ernest Treber and Rev. Thomas Bump officiated at the rites. Burial was in the Summit Chapel cemetery. The King Memorial Home was in charge of the arrangements.

The son of Augustus and Anna Kreider Fretz, he was born Feb. 10, 1882 in Elkhart county and had lived in the Mentone area since 1919, moving from Etna Green. A retired farmer, he was a member of the Gleaners Lodge and the Tippecanoe Congregational Church.

He married Julia E. Jordan on Sept. 9, 1903, and she preceded him in death one year ago.

Surviving are a son, Gerald Fretz, Mentone; a grandson; and two great-grandchildren.

DID YOU KNOW?

Sunday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ward were Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Gible and family, Ron Ward, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Elick, all of Mentone, and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ward and daughters of Warsaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cochran were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Curtis in Marcellus, Michigan.

Harrison Center Sponsors Viet Orphan

The Mission Aid of Harrison Center Church met recently for the monthly meeting.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the president, Mrs. Joe Long. The group sang two songs, followed with devotions led by Mrs. Kyle Gibson. Business was concluded by voting to sponsor a Vietnamese orphan for the next year.

The ten members present were dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Maude Romine.

The remaining time was spent sewing baby gowns to be sent to Liberia and working on nursery chairs.

"THE HEALTHY LIFE" The Test You Can't Afford to Fail!

NEW YORK (CFN)—In the time it takes you to read this, several dozen Americans—under 50 years of age, seemingly healthy men—will have had serious heart attacks. For those who survive, rehabilitation will become the driving force in their lives.

It now remains for you to ask yourself, "How can I prevent my own heart attack?" But if you are like millions of other Americans—self-indulgent, hot tempered, partial to rich foods and late snacks, a chain smoker, and indifferent to exercise—there may be no way to avoid the coronary in your future.

Harsh? Shocking? Definitely. According to the editors of Time-Life's Special Report "The Healthy Life," the shock treatment is often the only way for those of us on a "collision course with our hearts" to put the brakes on in time.

To break with the patterns of a lifetime is no easy matter. The first step is to ask yourself honestly—"Am I among the unfit majority in this country?" Next, based upon the material in Time-Life's Special Report "The Healthy Life"—which deals with three aspects of fitness: the heart and cardiovascular system, exercise and nutrition—ask yourself these vital questions: (True or False)

1. As you grow older, you should exercise less.
2. Playing golf or bowling does not build physical fitness.
3. American men have the longest life expectancy in the world.
4. The healthiest diet eliminates all starches and is composed mostly of natural foods like beef, veal and dairy products.

strenuous games as handball.

6. When exercising, you should always rest as soon as you feel tired.

7. Heart attacks always occur at a moment of physical or emotional stress.

8. America is the most heart-disease-ridden nation in the world.

9. It is desirable to eat foods containing polyunsaturated fats to the exclusion of all other types of fats.

10. After following a strict program of physical conditioning, it is a good idea to "let yourself go" for a month.

Don't be surprised if you don't get 100 per cent. Few Americans really know all they should about physical fitness. But the need is immediate and pressing. Fitness protects against the disease of aging and against many kinds of sickness and mental decay. And as Time-Life's "The Healthy Life" points out, fitness may provide the needed strength and endurance to help you save yourself or a loved one in times of crisis.

Remember, nobody ever graduates from the school of physical conditioning. Either you continue working or you go downhill. Make up your mind to it. There is no other way.

5. Doctors now often recommend that post-coronary patients begin a program of gradually increased activity—even leading up to such

Club Members Tell About Mothers

Members of the Mentone Home Extension Club answered roll call by telling "something about my mother" when they met at the home of Mrs. Raymond Weirick Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. John Bowerman, assisted by Mrs. Eva Laird, opened the meeting. Everyone joined in repeating the pledge to the flag and the club creed.

The history of the song of the month, "Shenadoah," was read by Mrs. Claude Gates. Mrs. David Anderson led the group in singing it.

Mrs. Weirick read "The Things That Count" and "The Praying Hands" for meditation. Mrs. Elmer Sarber gave the lesson on interior decorating.

and Mrs. Chester Smith gave a lesson on citizenship in interest to the two ladies who toured Washington, D. C. and the places they saw.

During the business session, conducted by Pearl Horn, Mrs. Frank Curless was voted into the club.

The meeting was closed by repeating the club collect.

Refreshments were served. Mrs. Howard Horn won the door prize.

The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Agnes Rans.

67 MHS seniors graduate

Sixty-seven Mentone seniors received diplomas last night and heard Senator Birch Bayh salute their generation as one of accomplishment. Contrasting the 3% of the young population that receives the adverse publicity with the rest of the young people who have made the 4-minute mile a common thing, who have assaulted space and seen communication by satellite, who have the opportunity to serve mankind through the Peace Corps, he said the qualifications of today's young men who seek appointment to the military academies are so high the choice is extremely difficult. He commended today's girls as also being extremely accomplished.

Bayh challenged the seniors to remember three important thoughts: 1. It is important to never underestimate the value of learning. A high school diploma is worth $186,000, and each year of additional education adds to the potential earning power of the individual. He said two out of three welfare recipients who are heads of their families have less than an eighth grade education. 2. To have confidence. Tomorrow holds what you want it to hold; the government doesn't determine what we will do; we determine it ourselves. 3. Remember how fortunate you are to be born in the USA. It's not out of date or unpatriotic. Thank God every morning for having had the opportunity. He said two out of three of the world's 18-year olds have never known what it is not to be hungry. They never learn to read or write and do not live to reach their 40th birthdays.

He challenged the seniors to do as the past generations have done—serving in the armed forces, the Peace Corps and other similar groups, work in government and professional and business life. By making a community better, a state is made better and this in turn makes the country better.

He closed by reversing Edmund Burke's statement: Americans have the right to govern themselves. All that is necessary for evil to prevail in the world is for enough good men to do nothing. Bayh said it should say: All that is necessary for good to prevail in the world is for enough good men to do something.

Bayh was introduced by Denny Romine, president of the Student Council. Members of the band and chorus provided musical numbers for the event. Miss Diana Sarber presented the salutatory address and Daniel Murcia presented the valedictory address.

Early Deadline

The deadline for all news and advertising for next week's paper will be Monday, May 29, since Memorial Day falls on Tuesday, thereby shortening the work week. The paper will still be published on Wednesday.

Burket Students Tour Library

Burket first graders enjoyed a trip to the Mentone library last Tuesday.

Mrs. Pearl Lackey, the librarian, explained the summer reading program and told a story which she illustrated with flannelgraph pictures.

Accompanying the group were two mothers, Mrs. Vernon Meredith and Mrs. Ed Napier; the school principal, Oliver England; and the teacher, Mrs. Merdena Bechtol.

Camptons To Be Honored

The Mentone Methodist Church will honor Rev. and Mrs. Glenn Campton at a dessert smorgasboard next Thursday evening, June 1, at 7 p.m. in the church. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Witham and daughters Janie and Sally attended the high school music festival which was held recently in the Memorial Chapel of Valparaiso University. Greg and Susie Witham, children of Mr. and Mrs. Witham, sang with the Triton school chorus during the program.

Tippecanoe Girl Missing

Judy Sweet, 16, an eighth grade student at Tippecanoe, has been missing since last Thursday and area police have been notified. The girl was last seen entering a car as she left school Thursday afternoon. The girl's family urgently requests anyone knowing her whereabouts to contact them immediately.

The following letter was written by her sister, Coleen, pleading with her sister to return home:

Please, Judy Sue Sweet, come home. Mom and Dad and all of us are worried. We want you to come back home. You do not have to go back to school. We all love you very much. Mom and Coleen haven't eaten since last Thursday morning so please hurry back home. The police will not put you in jail. Please get in touch with us and we will come and get you.

Sincerely,
Coleen Sweet

Mentone Students Watch As Impact Sled Demonstrates Value Of Seat Belts

Scholarships Awarded

Twenty four of this year's graduating class of 67 plan to continue their education by attending college while another 14% plan to enroll in vocational training, making a total of 50% of the seniors who will further their education, it was announced at last night's commencement program.

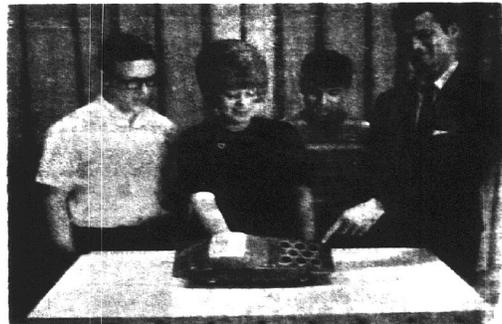

Members of the National Honor Society, award winners and students planning to go to college were recognized as they received their diplomas. One graduate, Miss Paula Barstra, a Dutch exchange student, had the pleasure of having her mother surprise her by attending the commencement, having come from Holland especially for the event.

Diana Sarber received the Ball State scholarship, the Psi Iota Xi scholarship, and the salutatorian's trophy. Daniel Murcia won a Purdue scholarship and the Psi Iota Xi scholarship, and received the valedictorian's trophy.

Other scholarships awarded were: Patricia Walsh, Ball State; Karen Horn, Manchester College; Steve Tucker, class president, Manchester College and Mentone Chamber of Commerce scholarship; and Gary (Butch) Teel, Manchester College. Ronald Stone received the PTA scholarship.

Seat belts save lives! Pam Abbey, Rex Bowser, and Kathy Boggs observe as General Motors representative Steve Gain explains the similarity between the impact sled and an actual automobile crash. The impact sled was demonstrated at the Mentone school Friday afternoon.

It runs on light! Stan Shand, Diana Shirey, and Terry Reed watch as General Motors representative Greg Harrell explains the operation of the Sunmobile, a model car which actually runs on sunshine.

Atwood Phone Numbers To Be Changed

General Telephone today announced that the numbers of most of its Atwood customers will be changed October 15 when a new central office switching center is placed in service.

G. W. Marsh, district manager, said the number change will be required by the new facilities and customers who are affected will be notified in advance.

He said General is postponing activation of its new Atwood switching center until October to coincide with changes United Telephone Co. is making in its Warsaw long distance center which serves the Atwood exchange. The switching center originally was scheduled to go into service in June.

Located at the intersection of the Nappanee and Etna Green roads, the one story concrete block building provides 1300 square feet of floor space and will house equipment to serve 200 lines. Marsh said the building has been designed to accommodate additional equipment in the future as growth requires.

Junior Troop 25 met on Thursday, May 18, in the basement of the Mentone Methodist Church.

The meeting was opened by singing "The Girl Scout Laws." A skit was presented by the 6th graders. Participating were Kathy Bush, Debra Coplen, Sharon Crawl, and Terry McGowen.

Those girls completing badge work and having it signed were: Kathy Bush, personal health and story teller; Debra Coplen, personal health, folklore, and community safety; Kim Bush, community safety and sign of the star; and Barbara Johnson, backyard fun.

While the girls were completing their badge work, the rest of the girls went outdoors to play games.

NEW TROOP MEETS

The new Brownie troop met Wednesday afternoon with ten girls present and two new girls, Patty Blankenship and Diana Peters. The girls played games, sang Brownie songs and practiced the things they will do at the Investiture Service.

Connie Norris, assisted by Peggy Hibbs and Debi Blackburn, served refreshments.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, May 23, at which time the girls will become full-pledged Brownies and will receive their pins.

CADETTE TROOP 30

Cadette Troop 30 met recently, opening the meeting by playing a new game. The troop leader, Lea Hudson, checked the badgework progress and surprised the girls their badges.

Plans for Fly Up were discussed and the girls formed interest groups to work on badges.

After closing with Taps and Scouts Own, the girls enjoyed a surprise scavenger hunt.

TROOP 142

Members of Brownie Troop 142 have been busy at their recent meetings, making jewel boxes from cakes of soap for Mother's Day gifts and little pots of flowers for their grandmothers. The new Brownies have been learning the Brownie Promise for Investiture and the third grade Brownies have been learning the Girl Scout promise.

DAR Good Citizen Winner Are Named

Anthony Nigo Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Mentone announces the Good Citizenship Medal Contest winners as follows: Talma Junior High, Ruth Hofer and Mark Hunter, Beaver Dam Junior High, Carmen Strong and Dean Conner. The names of all four winners will be engraved on the plaques placed by the Chapter in each school.

The Good Citizenship Medal Contest was designed to offer a concrete and tangible plan for training in American citizenship. Education of our youth in American citizenship is of supreme importance. The medals may be given to boys and girls in any school regardless of race, or creed and are presented to those who, by their personal acts and attitudes, have proven themselves the most outstanding citizens in the class.

Qualifications for the Good Citizenship Medal are based upon five qualities of honor, service, courage, leadership and patriotism. These qualifications are set forth as follows: Honor - honesty, high principles, trustworthiness, loyalty, truthfulness, punctuality, moral strength and stability, cleanliness in mind and body. Service - cooperation, meritorious behavior bringing honor to school or community, kindness, unselfishness, true Americanism and individual responsibility to home, to country, to God. Courage - Mental and physical, determination to overcome obstacles. Leadership - personality, originality, ability to lead and hold others, sportsmanship, responsibility. Patriotism - fundamental Americanism.

The Good Citizenship Medal is for American citizens. In promoting this worthwhile project the Anthony Nigo Chapter is manifesting its belief that attention to the patriotic education of our youth means building a stronger nation for the future. This contest should be an incentive in a school for greater appreciation of the qualities of citizenship needed by our nation if it is to retain sovereignty and independence of action.

Town & Country Charge. It gives you more time to enjoy spring fever.

Here's our plan.

You make a list of all the things you'll need this Spring—new clothes, garden tools, lumber, tires, everything—and we'll help you get to the bottom of it. And fast. So fast you'll have time to enjoy being lazy, for a change.

First, you can shop where it's convenient for you, because you've got the card that tells them who you are in over 43,000 stores. That's fast.

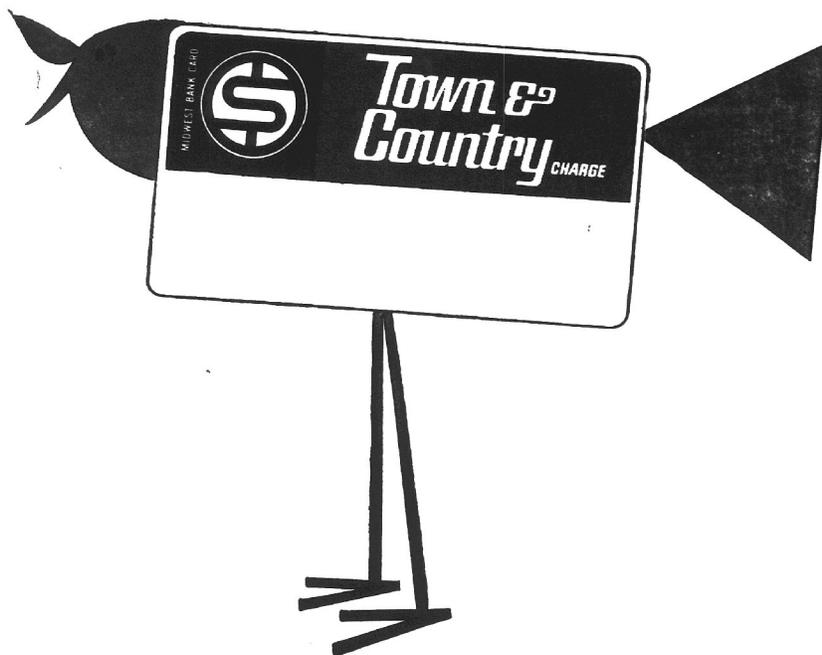

Next, you can't run out of money. You can shop all day, from Garden Center to gasoline station, and never be caught short. That's fast.

But, you always know where you stand. With every purchase you get a uniform little sales slip that tells you what you've purchased and how much it cost. That's organized.

And besides being fast and organized, your Town and Country Charge is free. As long as you pay for your shopping within 25 days of the billing date, there's no charge. If you extend payments, there is a charge, of course. But it's computed at low bank rates.

Stop in for your Town and Country Application. You don't have to be a regular bank customer to get one. It's just one of the services you can rely on from our bank.

The following Mentone merchants will honor your Town and Country Charge Card:

*Bakers Jewelry and Appliances
Coopers*

*Igo Oil Company
Mentone Service Center
Millers Hardware
Northern Indiana Co-op Hdwe.*

Northern Indiana Co-Op Service Station

*Romine Electric
Sinclair Service Station
Towne Hall Shoppe
Rex Tucker Motors*

In Burket, they will be accepted at:

Alberta S. Perry Dies At Warsaw

Mrs. Harrison (Alberta S.) Perry, 70, Warsaw, died Saturday morning at Murphy Medical Center of complications. She had been a patient since May 13.

The daughter of Albert and Alice Townsend Shafer, she was born Aug. 17, 1896 at Akron. She moved to Warsaw 25 years ago. Her first marriage to Wilbur Landis ended in divorce. She married Harrison Perry on Sept. 19, 1942, and he preceded her in death in January.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Ernest (Esther) Smith, Akron, Mrs. James (Vera) Grant, Lexington, Ky., Mrs. Dean (Helen) Copen, Warsaw, Mrs. David (Norma) Jamison, Burket; six sons, Howard Landis, Warsaw, A. W. (Bud) Landis, Leesburg, Willis Landis, Hammond, Richard Landis, Tucson, Ariz., Robt. Landis, Naperville, Ill., Don Landis, Warsaw; a stepson, Everett Perry, Warsaw; five step-daughters, Mrs. Ivan (Mary) Deaton, Silver Lake, Mrs. Opal Miners, Warsaw, Mrs. Wilda York, Indianapolis, Mrs. Freeman (Bernice) Neher, Mrs. Paul (Betty) Snyder, both of Warsaw; 31 grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren; ten step grandchildren and eight step-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mrs. Perry were conducted Monday afternoon at Warsaw with Rev. Claude Fawns of Akron officiating. Burial was in the IOOF cemetery.

Arthur J. Scott Is Crash Victim

Arthur James Scott, 20, R. 2, Claypool, was dead on arrival at Murphy Medical Center Sunday evening following a two-car crash three miles south of Mentone on State Road 19.

Enroute back to West Lafayette after spending the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott, R. 2, Claypool, he reportedly failed to halt for the stop sign at the intersection of County Rd. 700 South and State Road 19, and his west-bound car was struck broadside by a car driven south on SR 19 by Charles Martin, R. 3, Peru. The Scott Car, out of control, traveled 55 feet after the impact, crashing into a telephone pole. Martin was not injured.

Kosciusko county sheriff Dave Andrews, State Trooper Larry Yeiter, and Mentone Marshall Gene Norton investigated the crash.

Funeral services for Scott were held Wednesday afternoon at the Claypool EUB church with Rev. Wayne Johnson officiating, assisted by Rev. Fred Plugh. Burial was in the Graeceland cemetery.

Born Sept. 7, 1946 in Warsaw, the son of Robert and Eleanor Kinch Scott, who survive, young Scott was a 1964 graduate of Claypool High School and had been a student at Purdue for three years.

Also surviving are a sister, Mrs. Frederick C. (Helen Louise)

Shewman, West Lafayette; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Rollen Scott, R. 2, Claypool, and several aunts and uncles.

DID YOU KNOW?

Mr. and Mrs. Wilvin Teel entertained twenty five members of the Akron junior and senior classes Sunday night after Baccalaureate services. The occasion was a surprise party in honor of the 18th birthday of their daughter, Luanna.

Dunes Park Is Still Open

Vernon C. Jacks, manager of the Dunes Hotel and Pavilion at the Indiana Dunes State Park, writes that much confusion surrounds the Dunes State Park due to the publicity given the controversy about the harbor. The park and all its facilities are still open, according to Jacks, and visitors may enjoy the same benefits they have during the past.

Mrs. McGowen Hosts T.H.E. Club

Members of the T.H.E. Extension Homemakers Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Jennie McGowen.

The meeting, opened in the usual manner, was conducted by the president, Mrs. Nancy Parks, who also reported on the county council meeting.

Mrs. Lester White gave devotions, using two poems, "More His Size" and "My Prayer."

The last lesson and film on medical self help was shown by Mrs. Leroy Grossman and Mrs. Merle McGowen. Members took a final test on the lessons.

The history of the song of the month, "Shenandoah," was presented by Mrs. Betty McGowen, who led the club in singing the song. "Happy Birthday" was sung to Edith Walters and "Happy Anniversary" was sung to Betty McGowen and Jennie McGowen.

Style show information was presented by Mrs. E. C. McGowen and Mrs. Elgie Vandermark.

The meeting was closed by members repeating the club creed, and delicious refreshments were served to seventeen members. Mrs. Merle McGowen won the door prize.

Return From Trip Merry Mollys Have

Mildred Carpenter and Marie Coleman have returned from a vacation trip through Illinois, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas, Tennessee and Kentucky. Points of interest they enjoyed were Mark Twain's Memorials, Lake of the Ozarks, Shepherd of the Hills, Silver Dollar City, School of the Ozarks, Will Rogers Hall of Fame, Indiana City USA, Winthrop Rockefeller's farm on Petit Jean Mountain, and the rice and cotton fields.

Busy Meeting

The Merry Mollys Extension Homemakers Club was entertained by Mrs. Clayton Holloway with Mrs. Kenneth Anglin assisting her.

Mrs. Luke Hiers opened the meeting in the usual manner. Members joined in singing the presently popular, "Shenandoah," the Song of the Month.

Appropriate meditation about "A Mother's Reward" and "What Is A Mother?" was given by Mrs. LaMar Leffert.

Mrs. Luke Hiers read some very important remarks concerning "Lightening Protection" for Health and Safety. All members were urged to participate in the coming T.V. program, The 1967 National Driver's Test, on May 23rd.

Mrs. Loren Gross gave a informative report on the Special Interest Lesson, "Interior Decoration." One of her main points was to make a scale model of your room and furniture, then rearrange on paper before doing actual moving.

A very entertaining response to roll call was "A Favorite Expression of My Mother." The Merry Mollys of Dutch extraction quoted "Beauty Is As Beauty Does" as a special favorite of their Mothers'.

Visitors at the fair this year will see the Merry Mollys' exhibit, "Demonstration on Meats." Working on the project are Mrs. Donald Horn, Mrs. Kenneth Anglin, Mrs. Dale McGowen and Mrs. Robert Hibschan.

The Finance Committee is planning to take donations on chances to win a quilt in the near future. The quilt will be on display in a public place in downtown Mentone.

The Silent Auction consisting of jewelry, dishes, novelties and home baked goodies was fun as well as a financial success.

The game committee set up tables for Fifty-Fifty and Mrs. Joe Tucker won the prize for high and Mrs. Luke Hiers won the booby prize with a grand total of one point.

Mrs. Robert Hibschan won a beautiful white swan filled with flowers for the door prize.

Receiving Secret Pal gifts were Mrs. Dale McGowen, Mrs. Clayton Holloway and Mrs. Carl Whetstone.

DID YOU KNOW?

Mrs. Edison Tucker, Mrs. Charles Tucker, Mrs. Helen Black and Mrs. Gene Marshall attended a reception for the new Grand Page of the Indiana Grand Chapter, OES, Monday night at Rolling Prairie.

Boys League readies new diamonds, announces schedule

Mentone Boys League play will begin June 5 at the newly constructed diamonds in the south end of town. Two games will be played each night and each will begin promptly at 6:30 p.m.

Monday, June 5
Orioles vs Braves
Dodgers vs Yankees

Tuesday, June 6
Pirates vs Twins
Red Socks vs Giants

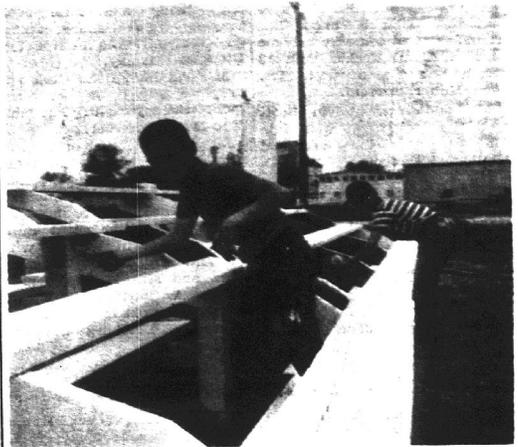

Wednesday, June 7
Girls 7, 8, and 9 grades will play

Thursday, June 8
Pirates vs Orioles
Red Socks vs Dodgers

Reception Is Planned

A reception honoring Cara Lyn Tucker, Grand Page of Indiana Grand Chapter, OES, will be held Monday, June 5, at the Mentone Masonic Hall at 8 p.m. The public is invited.

Officers are reminded that dress will be formal. All Eastern Star members are urged to attend.

Bud Hudson, foreground, and Don Dickerhoff paint the bleachers at the new Boys League diamonds with an eye on the opening date—June 5. Volunteer labor has constructed the diamonds, dugouts, and concession stands.

Vacation Reading Club Starts At The Bell Memorial Public Library

The 1967 Summer Reading Club will open June 5th and last until July 29th. All children who will be in grades two to five may join simply by going to the library and signing the Register.

The children then choose books to read at home. Parents must send slips listing the books the child has read unless the parent is present to report for the child. After the child has earned 4 points, he will receive a Wild Horse Roundup Ranch Card. For each additional 8 points he will receive a horse sticker for his ranch. There are 12 stickers for each card. When the child has filled his card, he will have 100 points and his name will be placed on the Honor Roll. For each 25 points after that, he receives a star after his name on the Honor Roll.

Each child receives 1 point for a book of the grade he will be in next year; 2 points for a book of one grade higher; and 3 points for a book two or more grades higher. No book earns more than 3 points, but he may read as high grade books as he enjoys. He will not receive credit for a book lower than the grade he will be in next year.

After school starts in the fall, prizes for the best readers in each grade will be awarded. The Burket and Mentone Reading Clubs will be combined this year and it is hoped most of the children can take part in the Reading Club at the Mentone Library.

SUMMER LIBRARY HOURS
Monday through Saturday
1 to 5 P.M.

Tours world's chicken industries

By the time Ross Donnelley, 20, returns to Sidney, Australia he will have been around the world and will have visited chicken farms and studied chicken raising methods in the United States, the Fiji Islands, Hawaii, Europe, and Asia.

Donnelley, the son of one of Australia's largest hatchery owners, has been in the United States for the past two and one half months, having arrived via the Fiji Islands and Hawaii where he visited various hatcheries. He visited Holland, Michigan before coming to Mentone where he visited Manwaring Leghorn Farms last week and is visiting Creighton Brothers this week. Upon leaving Indiana he will go to Arkansas. In all, he estimates he has received almost thirty invitations from hatcheries and poultry growers to visit. He said, "Americans have been very friendly. When I came here, I knew no one. Now I have all these invitations to visit."

The tour was arranged by his father, owner of Donnelley Brothers-Druce Proprietaries, Ltd. of Sidney. Feeling Australia's chicken production is five years behind that of the United States, the older Donnelley suggested his son visit the states to learn what their country's chicken industry might hope to expect in the coming years. Young Donnelley expects to spend nine months in the States before spending a month in England and two months returning home via the European continent and Asia.

Ross Donnelley, Sidney, Australia, and Frank Manwaring are shown studying records in the office of Manwaring Leghorn Farm. Donnelley has been touring American hatcheries and visiting various chicken raisers to get an idea of what his country's chicken industry can expect in the coming years.

Contrasting the size of the two countries, he said Australia and the United States, without Alaska, were equal although Australia's population is 12 million compared to the US's 200 million.

Australia, he said, is the only country in the world which does not raise American birds. A government regulation prohibits importing live chickens into the country. Their chickens are little different than ours, he said, although the production is not as good. Visiting with Donnelley and Frank Manwaring, it was learned that Manwaring recently hit 110% of their capacity when a mother duck laid and hatched 15 eggs in a bush by the office door. "That's pretty good," Donnelley said with a twinkle in his eye, and we all agreed.

Letters to

A MEMORIAL DAY OPEN LETTER

I am sure that most of you have noticed the American flag on veterans' graves in the Mentone cemetery and surrounding cemeteries. I am equally sure that many of you have noticed the American flag displayed on the light poles on main street.

I wonder if you have ever considered who was responsible in seeing that veterans graves were remembered and that the flags were displayed on the main street of our town.

The vast majority of credit belongs to one very active and faithful Legionier. His name is Chet Smith. I think the people of this country owe a great deal of thanks to the Chet Smiths throughout America who each year spend many hours to be sure that those who have given their lives for this country are not forgotten.

DID YOU KNOW?

Mrs. Daisy Eneyart of So. Bend and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eneyart and grandson of No. Liberty called on Mrs. Snowden Halterman and at the Chancy Tucker home Saturday.

Judy Sweet, 16, Services Are Held

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at the Rochester Citizens Cemetery for Judith Sweet, 16, Tippecanoe, whose body was found floating in the Tippecanoe river Saturday. The official cause of death has not been listed although no evidence of foul play has been found.

The girl, an eighth grade student at Tippecanoe, disappeared from the school on May 18. Two notes, one found in a Tippecanoe telephone booth and the other in the dead girl's coat, indicated she planned to run away from home, according to the Marshall county sheriff's office. She had evidently taken a change of clothing with her to school. The clothes she was wearing when she left school were found on the river bank near where the body was found about 400 yards west of Tippecanoe school.

After having been missing for some time, the girl's sister, Coleen, had written a letter pleading with her sister to return home. The letter, published in last week's Mentone News, obviously was never received.

Surviving are her parents, James Edward and Ann Lynch Sweet; two sisters, Ruby and Coleen, and a brother, James, all at home.

Ernest Honegger Dies In Crash

Ernest Honegger, 69, Plymouth, the father of Mrs. Everett (Joan) Welborn, Mentone, was pronounced dead at the scene of a tractor-car crash north of Mentone Friday night. The accident occurred on County Road 100 South.

County Coroner Dr. Joe Bill Musher said Mr. Honegger died of a torn left lung and massive bleeding from a severe puncture wound to the left hip when he was pinned beneath the overturned tractor.

The tractor was struck by a car driven by Amera Cook, 24, Ft. Wayne, who was admitted to Murphy Medical Center with a fractured right arm and bruises to her forehead. She told investigating officers that she was eastbound on the county road at approximately 50 miles per hour and as she started to slow for a bridge she saw the headlights of an oncoming vehicle but was unable to determine what type of vehicle it was. Officers said her car struck the left rear wheel of the westbound tractor, causing it to spin into the ditch and upset on the victim. Officers said the tractor's headlights were located high on the hood and close together, making it difficult for an approaching driver to determine the size and type of vehicle.

Damages of $1,000 were estimated to the tractor and $1800 to the car.

The son of Julius and Marie Barth Honegger, Mr. Honegger was born in Livingston Co., Ill. on May 12, 1898. He married Inez Williams, who survives, on Dec. 24, 1923. A retired farmer and a member of the Plymouth Bible Church, the victim had lived in Plymouth for the past ten years.

Surviving with his wife and daughter are a brother and seven sisters and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted Monday morning at the Mt. Pleasant Church near Plymouth with Rev. Maynard Tittle, Plymouth, and Rev. Howard Addleman, Mentone, officiating.

Dora Ring

Dies At 100

Mrs. Dora Ring, Warsaw, died Saturday night at Miller's Merry Manor at the age of 100.

Fifteen members of the Junior scout troop marched in Sunday's parade. They were accompanied by Mrs. Joe Kelley, the assistant leader, and Mrs. Dale McGowen who marched in the place of Mrs. Howard Allen who was unable to be present due to a death in the family. Twelve Brownies and one Cadette also marched.

Deaf Man Perfects Tiny Hearing Aid

OFFERS FREE MODEL

A remarkable tiny hearing aid has been perfected by a man who has been hard of hearing for nearly ten years.

This small device has no dangling cords or separate transmitting units and represents a new unusual design idea in a product to restore natural hearing.

It was developed especially for those persons who can hear but can't understand. This new hearing instrument provides "ear-level" hearing with the wearer picking up speech, sounds, television and radio at his ear. Due to the use of transistors, the user cost is extremely low.

A true life actual size replica of the smallest all-in-the-ear hearing aid ever made will be given absolutely free to anyone sending in this advertisement while supply lasts. So we suggest you write for yours now. No obligation whatsoever. Write to C. Eckert, 311 E. Lexington Blvd., Eau Claire, Wis.

Take your problems to Church this week -

Good Morning Judge

"May I inquire, Your Honor, why you have called me, your humble father, before you in court today? You wish to know where I was on Sunday between the hours of 9 to 12 A.M.? W-e-e-l-l, I'll tell you Judge—I stayed up a bit late Saturday night and to be quite honest I slept late Sunday and just lay around home most of the day. Why didn't I attend church services? Oh, Judge, you know how it is, I have gotten out of the habit, besides you and sister and mother represent the family and I am never even missed. What's that Judge? Why don't I just stay away from the table at meal times and let you, sister and mother represent me there? Why Judge, I couldn't do that. You know I would starve. Everyone has to have nourishment. Moreover, you need me there as a part of the family circle.

"What's that? Oh! Yes Judge, yes, your Honor. Yes sir, I think I can remember your orders, sir. I need spiritual nourishment the same as I need food. It is even more important that I be at church to complete the family circle than it is that I be at the table at meal time. Yes Judge, I understand and although you have been rather blunt I realize you are so very right.

"I'll take my place with the rest of you at church from now on."

News of the Tippecanoe Area

by Janet and Julia Moriarty

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Juday of Warsaw were Monday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Miller. The Judays had just returned from Florida.

Mrs. Dorothy Hagan of Mishawaka was a guest at home of Mr. and Mrs. William Martin and family of Tippecanoe.

The Tippecanoe Lion's Club met May 17th at Souther Riverside Restaurant for their supper and meeting. There were nine men present. Officers elected were Bill Heck president; Fred Sinclair, 1st vice-president; Paul Wheaton, 2nd vice-president; Kirk Livengood, secretary and treasurer; George Koger and Bill Shonk as reporter for advertising committee. Ray Tevault was nominated tail twister and Dale Wood as Lion Tamer. Bill Hepler, Eugene Weirick and Dale Marks are the Directors.

They made plans to have a chicken barbecue supper on Saturday night, August 12th.

Birthday Celebrated

Denise Davis of Tippecanoe was honored Saturday with a surprise birthday party given by her mother, Mrs. Larry Davis. Those present were Randy and Tim Overmyer, Diana Drockner, Shelly Anderson, Lisa Blackford, Debbie and Carla Kref, Chris and Tony Ballinger, Dale and Larry Rock, Sherry and Steven Benton, Scotty and Todd Davis all of Tippecanoe, Marlene Hill of Plymouth, and Jeff Cudney of Walkerton. The afternoon was spent playing games. Refreshments of birthday cake, ice cream and favors were served. Denise received many nice gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Fites had the pleasure of having their son, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fites and daughter of Geneva, Switzerland, visit with them this week. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fites will move to Peoria, Illinois in the future.

Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Irwin and children of Argos visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Fites.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Fites had their grandson, Jonathan LaTurner, of Hillsdale, Illinois visit with them this week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac McClure of Schererville visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ryval Fites and family, where they celebrated the graduation of Miss Margie Fites.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Warren and Jessie of Tippecanoe had as guests this Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shively all of Bourbon, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hall of Kokomo, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Warren of Argos, and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Crauder, Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Reichard and family all of Tippecanoe, Mr. and Mrs. Welcome Warren and Amy of Kendallville, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berger and boys of Plymouth.

Monday afternoon guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Warren were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sechrist of Tippecanoe.

Tuesday evening supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Warren and Jessie were Miss Lynne Hissong of Argos, Mr. and Mrs. DeWayne Warren of South Whitley and Mr. and Mrs. Milo Reichard and family of Tippecanoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cole of Tippecanoe attended the funeral of Bill Maze of Galveston, Indiana. The Coles then drove to Bruce Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fore of Rochester visited Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cole of Tippecanoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Weirick and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Weirick and Mrs. Bedelia Weirick were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Barry Weirick and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Witt and son of LaPorte, and Mrs. William Whitacre and daughter of Napanee were Monday supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barry Weirick and daughters of Tippecanoe.

Graduation Party
Janet Moriarty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moriarty was the honored guest Monday evening at her home in Tippecanoe.

Janet was celebrating her graduation from Triton High School. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Weiner, Lisa and Billy of Mishawaka, Mr. and Mrs. William Martin and Maria, Mrs. Wendell Moriarty of Tippecanoe, Mrs. Dean Nellans Sr. of Mentone, Julia, Karen, Rick, and Michelle Moriarty of Tippecanoe, and Cindy Listenfelt of Bourbon. Janet received many lovely gifts. She plans to attend Indiana State University this fall.

Tippecanoe Home Economics Club

The May meeting of the Tippecanoe Home Economics Club was held at the home of Mrs. George Feldman with Mrs. Louis Weissert as co-hostess.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Wendell Moriarty, who read the poem, "Mother, Keeper of the Flame."

Pledges were given to the American and Christian flags and the Collect was repeated in unison.

Roll Call was answered by giving a flower hint. There was an exchange of seed and potted plants.

Mrs. Hal Apple was elected the new vice president. Names were drawn for Secret Pals for the coming year. Reports on the trip to the State Convention were given by Mrs. Hollis Wisely, who gave a review of the speech on crime by United States Senator Birch Bayh. Mrs. Herschell Apple reported on the delightful meeting at the 13th District breakfast. Mrs. Moriarty reported on the address, "The Land We Love," given by Mrs. Oscar Ahlgren, Public Relations Director of the General Federation of Women's Clubs from Washington, D.C., and the convention in general. Mrs. A. B. Rhodes, who is chairman of the cheer committee, gave a report on the gift for the club Mother and cards to the sick.

The program consisted of a talk entitled "Flowery Talks" by Mrs. William Carl, who spoke on the history, growth, and care carnation, geraniums, and roses. Mrs. Enos Metheny gave a very enlightening talk on "Children of the Mist-Juvenile Delinquency," in which she explained that we as citizens owe it to the youth of American and to our children to keep America growing, so they will find the same opportunities that we found, and that they deserve.

The meeting was closed with the Lord's Prayer.

A flower contest was conducted by Mrs. Tom Ritter with the prize being won by Mrs. Herschell Apple, who had guessed all the flowers correctly.

Walter L. Wood Rites Are Held

Rev. Robert W. Benton conducted funeral services this afternoon at the Deaton-Beigh Funeral Home, Bourbon, for Walter L. Wood, 80. Mr. Wood, a lifetime resident of the Bourbon-Tippecanoe area, died Monday at Miller's Merry Manor, Warsaw, after an illness of eight months.

The son of Robert and Delia Sanner Wood, he was born at Bourbon on Dec. 25, 1886. He married Bertha Gaskill in 1909, and she preceded him in death in 1956. He was a member of the Tippecanoe Community Church and was a retired farmer and former Pennsylvania Railroad gatekeeper at Bourbon and Atwood.

Survivors include a brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooper, Tippecanoe; and several cousins, nieces and nephews who reside in the area.

ODDS and ENDS

Indiana is a land of beauty at any time, but in the spring she is even more lovely as the trees don their summer green and the flowers burst into bloom. This spring, as cold and wet as it has been, has been welcomed and we hope it will decide to stay with us long enough to enjoy a few balmy days before summer's heat arrives.

Along with the spring flowers, the dandelions, lawnmowing, and elusive mushrooms, spring has brought us stacks of mail concerning the beauties of our great state.

Union County (that's in the Connersville area) writes that their Covered Bridge Days will be held Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of Memorial Day week-end, and the members of that county's historical society invite shutterbugs and artists to visit the Dunlapville Covered Bridge.

Reading their letter, we learned that the United States was the only country in the world to build covered bridges. Indiana built 600 covered bridges between 1834 and 1923, and although most of them have been demolished, the remaining ones stand as monuments to the engineering skill of hard labor.

The Dunlapville Bridge is on the site of a proposed reservoir, and the committee hopes to raise enough funds from this festival to save the bridge and move it to a new site for the enjoyment of tourists who come to visit the new reservoir. Union county is located 15 miles south of U.S. 40 on Indiana 27 and 44 in east-central Indiana. Visitors can follow signs marking the way to the bridge from Liberty.

On Monday, May 15, Senator Vance Hartke introduced a bill into the Senate calling for a Wabash River Scenic Parkway. His bill would authorize the Secretary of the Interior in consultation with the Secretary of Transportation to survey and select a right-of-way for a board meandering roadway which would begin at Ft. Wayne and wend its way to the "toe" of Indiana where the Wabash meets the Ohio and Tradewater Rivers in Kentucky.

Beginning in Ft. Wayne, the visitor would see the restoration of Canal Street and the home of Capt. William Wells, the site of Chief Little Turtle's death. Proceeding on, the visitors would see the Salamonie and Mississinewa Reservoirs, the Frances Slocum cemetery, the site of Deaf Man's Village, Paradise Springs, the Tippecanoe Battlefield where Wm. Henry Harrison made the famous statement, "Tippecanoe and Tyler too," and Turkey Run State Park. In Terre Haute visitors could visit the home of Paul Dresser, author of the song, "On the Banks of the Wabash Far Away," and the Eugene Debs home.

Following the Harrison Trail from Terre Haute to Vincennes, the first capital of the Northwest Territory, visitors would continue toward the "toe" of Indiana where the restoration of the Rappite House is built at New Harmon. The Rappites sought to establish a socialist settlement at New Harmony which failed although many of the buildings remain.

Whether we tour the covered bridge or just go mushroom hunting again and if the proposed parkway never becomes a reality, we can still admire the great beauty of our historic state and work together with our neighbors to make its beauty lasting and enduring.

BEAVER DAM

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Heighway and family were Sunday dinner guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Shively of Tippecanoe.

Dedication of the church is set for June 11 at 2 P.M. Rev. Marshal Chambers, conference superintendent, will speak at the services.

Bible school is now underway with an enrollment of 83. The school will be May 31, June 1, 2, 6, 7, 8, and 9th. The program will be held on Friday evening, June 9th.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Leckrone and boys were Memorial Day supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Con Shewman and Ronnie.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haney were Sunday guests of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bowers of Waterloo.

Parson Jones

Dear Mr. Publisher

I just got back from Hezekiah's house, and I couldn't wait to tell you what I saw. He had a birthday last week and his wife bought him an electric shoe-shiner. When I first saw it I thought it was an electric tooth brush for a horse. But Ole Hezekiah explained to me it was an automated shoe-shiner. It looks like the pore little shoe shine boy has gone down the drain with the horse and buggy.

Mr. Publisher, have you ever seen so many changes in your life? I heard some fella say that even the lightning bugs are using transistor batteries these days. But the biggest chance of all is taking place in religion. Why, when I was a youngun the only people that talked about religion outside the church walls was preachers and fanatics. Nowadays, every body is getting in on the act.

Even the girlie magazines are going religious. "Playboy" for example is going heavy for theology these days. I reckon they got tired of hearing religion talk about Playboy, so Playboy started talking about religion. Some folks think the editor, ole Hugh Heffner, might someday become another Moses; course I've got some awful big doubts about that.

I also read where the Communist have gone to talking about the Almighty. One communist got up in a meeting over in Berlin and said he wasn't so sure God was dead. Ain't that funny, Mr. Publisher, when the atheist folks go to preaching religion and the religious folks go to preaching atheism.

Yes sir, strange things is happening. I heard about a fella one time that had such a pretty wife that he didn't want no other man to see her. He always locked her in the house when he went to work. One day while he was gone she broke out and went downtown. Shore nuff she was so pretty that all the men looked at her. Well sir, it looks like this is what has happened to God. The Church has kinda locked the Almighty in its little religious cage so the world couldn't see Him. But, now He's busted out and everybody is admiring Him. As a pore country theologian I'm kinda glad it all happened.

Well Mr. Publisher, I'm gonna have to sign off for now and go down to the local pool hall. That's where I practice my sermon for Sunday - on the boys. They give me some awful good ideas to go in my talk. I seem to get more discussion outa them, then I do the Men's Bible Class. Tonight we're gonna talk about religious meaning of eight-ball.

Yours truly,
Parson Jones

Joint Inspection Is Held For Mentone, Warsaw, Pierceton OES Chapters

Inspection of Mentone, Warsaw, and Pierceton chapters. Order of Eastern Star, was held recently at Warsaw by the Worthy Grand Matron, Maxine Moser.

Sister Maxine was escorted and presented at the altar by Helen Good, conductress of Mentone chapter. The soloist, Geneal Wolford of the Warsaw chapter sang "Cruising Down the River" to Sister Maxine. She was escorted to the East and welcomed by the Worthy Matron, Frances Marshall, who presented her with a May basket filled with love and candy kisses. She was given the grand honors and a hearty welcome.

The Worthy Grand Patron was presented and a song was sung in his honor. He was escorted east where he was introduced and given grand honors and a May basket from the three chapters.

Other distinguished guests present were Sonoma Woodruff of Ft. Wayne, a member of the Knight Templar Eye Foundation Committee of the General Grand Chapter and a Past Indiana Grand Matron, Mary Louise Little and Mildred Y. Smith, both Past Grand Matrons of Indiana, and Ray E. Walters and Clayton Herrick, both Past Grand Patrons from Indiana, were introduced.

Also introduced were Christine Oberly, Associate Grand Matron from Bremen; Mary McCulloch, Grand Ruth from Sullivan; and Grand Martha, LaVonna Risk, Madison. District deputies present included Sharon Sprawl and Margaret Hoffman from District 19 and Betty Myers of District 20.

Grand representatives present were Mary Dolan, Jean McGowan and Winifred Stayton. Grand committee appointments present were Ida Kammerer and Eugene Marshall.

The initiation ceremony was conducted by Warsaw chapter and the closing was given by the Pierceton chapter.

After the meeting, one hundred and sixty guests were served refreshments in the dining room of the temple.
