Library News

The fall and winter Library Hours, now in force, are as follows: Monday through Friday, 12 noon to 6 p. m. Saturday, 12 noon to 8 p. m.

The Library now has a very unusual display of photography arranged by Mr. Jerry Hudson of Mentone. Be sure to stop in and see the framed, electrically lighted transparencies and the many snapshot enlargements. Outstanding is the picture, "Down by the old Mill Stream." This is a picture of the Roann Mill at Roann, Indiana. This picture was one of those winning in the final week of the South Bend Tribune snapshot contest. Jerry's picture will now compete with the thirty-five other winners of the contest. Four of these pictures will be chosen and entered in the national competition.

Although it isn't Christmas, the Library has received three more lovely gifts. Mr. and Mrs. James Buck gave the Library a large, round low table for the children's department. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bybee of Florida presented the Library with two large framed photographs of Bell Aircraft airplanes.

Mrs. Agnes Rans is in the Woodlawn hospital in Rochester for observation.

COUNTERPOINT

By the Editor's Wife

(The editor and his wife are again in Michigan, so the daughter once more returns to this column.)

On our vacation into Michigan we appreciated the many roadside parks, all with drinking water and restrooms, and the numerous picnic tables placed along the highway for the convenience of travelers and vacationers. With small children, traveling a long distance can be more enjoyable and comfortable for everyone if stops are made more often. (Service stations serve a very definite purpose, also, but in a day's time, your car only needs so much gas, etc.) We later learned that Michigan was the first state to have public picnic areas and roadside tables, and they really take this public service seriously—and we thank them for helping make our trip more pleasant.

A recent letter to the Times-Union was urging all housewives to use sugar substitutes, (in regards to the U. S.-Cuba situation.) Strained honey has been used at our home for many months as a sweetening agent, but evidently none of the rest of the family was aware of it until one meal they saw me prepare iced tea with the honey. During the meal complaints were frequent, on how the tea tasted "funny," etc. They presumed the honey would be done away with, but it's still being used in tea and other food preparation, and nobody has said anything since, which bears out the idea of "it's all in your head." (To you homemakers who are wanting something a little different and really much more healthful for your family, why not try using honey as a sugar substitute?)

We enjoyed this:

Not long ago a mother and her son were shopping in a local supermarket. The child, trying to be helpful, picked up a package and brought it to her. "Oh no, dear," protested the mother. "Go put that back. You have to cook that!"

Palestine Homemakers

The September meeting of the Palestine Homemakers Club was held at the home of Mrs. Mont Laker of near Warsaw with a delicious fried chicken and pot-luck dinner served at the noon hour.

The afternoon meeting was opened by the vice president, Mrs. Albert Tucker. The pledge to the flag and club creed were repeated by all. Mrs. George Hipsher had meditation. The history of the song of the month, "The Last Rose of Summer" was read by Mrs. Mont Laker.

Health and Safety on Cancer was given by Mrs. Edwin Shirley. Mrs. Gordon Hackworth, president was in charge of election of officers.

There were ten members and three children present.

The October meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Edwin Shirley of Palestine.

SIGHT DEER ON FARM

This (Wednesday) morning when Joe Miller went to get the cows, he surprised a deer which jumped the fence and disappeared in a corn field. A short time later Mr. Miller noticed that the sheep were huddled together in an unusual manner near the barn so he took a good look and spied the buck behind a brush pile. He told Mrs. Miller and the two of them were able to observe the deer from a distance of not more than 125 feet. As soon as they moved he gracefully cleared a fence and disappeared in the woods.

The Millers live about 5 miles southwest of Mentone.

FARMERS TAX DISCUSSION

Three Farmers union Property tax discussion meetings are planned for September 8th at 7:30 p. m. at Leaters Ford High school building, September 15th at 7:30 p. m. at Talma High school and September 22nd at 7:30 p. m. at Grass Creek school building. Public is invited.

KINDERGARTEN MEETS

The Mentone kindergarten met Wednesday, September 7th to enroll students for kindergarten, starting Monday, September 12 in the afternoon. Those who wish to register may do so by contacting one of the following officers, Dale McGowen, Mrs. Lamar Leffert, Mrs. Kenneth Shoemaker or Mrs. Kenneth Bush.

Mrs. Wrigley will teach the class in the school cafeteria.

TALMA LADY DIES

Mrs. Victoria Cichowicz, 79, of near Talma died at her home Saturday at 7 a. m. after an illness of two months.

Mrs. Chowing was born Aug. 14, 1881 in Reesow, Poland and came to the United States in 1914. She moved to the Talma area in 1947.

Her first marriage was to Joseph Lachick, second to Vincent Cichowicz. Both preceded her in death.

She was a member of the St. Joseph Catholic church at Rochester and of the Zwyoncz Polek Lodge of Chicago.

Surviving include two sons, George Lachick at home and John Lachick in Poland, and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 10 a. m. in the St. Joseph Catholic church at Rochester with the Rev. Father George Lanning officiating. Burial was made in the L.O.O.F. cemetery at Rochester with Foster and Good funeral home in charge.

ANOTHER SIDEWALK PROJECT

Family Finances

Three out of five women who work are married. What are the advantages and disadvantages of being both job-holder and housewife? Here are some questions to consider before you apply for a job:

Is hubby merely tolerant or is he prepared to meet the increased demands this will put on both of you? Will he help with the housework? Will the children get adequate care and attention?

A job may free you from some routine housework, but your responsibility to the home is still there. Can you arrange your schedule to handle both assignments without damaging yourself or your family, either physically or emotionally?

Does it put you ahead financially? At first glance, a pay of $40 or $65 a week seems like a good addition to your budget; but, is it really that much after taxes, transportation, lunches, clothes, baby-sitters, increased social obligations?

Planting Time For Evergreens

September is a favorable time to plant evergreens in most parts of Indiana, reports H. W. Gilbert, Purdue University extension landscape architect.

If these evergreens are kept well watered, they should be established before winter and will make an early start in the spring.

Hemlocks and firs, however, are best planted in early spring in all parts of the state.

Drying winter winds are especially trying on evergreens since the frozen earth prevents watering effectively and the leaves give off moisture constantly. This is an argument for early spring planting throughout the northern half of the state, although in sheltered, well-drained sites fall planting is usually satisfactory.

Sites exposed to drying winter winds are best planted in early spring.

Most broad-leaved evergreens suitable for Indiana conditions should be planted in early spring. All should be balled and burlapped when dug.

Best results in transplanting small evergreens with naked roots are usually experienced when early spring planting is done, Gilbert says.

Indiana popcorn growers planted an estimated 32,000 acres this year, report state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University. Because of late June flooding the acreage for harvest is 29,000 acres. Indiana production last year totaled 61,600,000 pounds.

Fatigue and drowsiness at the wheel are invitations to accidents, says the Chicago Motor Club. Fight fatigue in the following ways: Get plenty of rest before any trip so that you start refreshed; stop for a break every two hours, even if it's just to get out of the car and stretch your legs; and stop for the day when you begin to have difficulty concentrating on your driving.

Control Of Coccidiosis

Some 20 different drugs or mixtures of compounds are available for the prevention and control of coccidiosis in chickens, but the poultry raiser who depends entirely upon medication for good results probably will be sadly disappointed, says Joe W. Sicer, Purdue University poultry extensionman. The ideal coccidiostat for all conditions has not yet been produced, says Sicer, adding that those available should be used with an understanding of their limitations.

Chief dependence for control and prevention of coccidiosis still rest upon sound management practices. The combination of good management and wise use of drugs should give most effective control.

Management practices that should be followed include the maintenance of a deep, dry, built-up litter; the use of no ground for runs that has been used by other chickens within the past eighteen months; the use of feed troughs and waterers so built as to keep dirt out and to prevent spilling of feed or water.

In controlling coccidiosis, the principle involved is not to prevent all contact of the chickens with the one-celled protozoa that cause the disease. The coccidia are already widely spread on most poultry premises. In fact, a mild infection is desired so that the flock can build up an immunity to the disease. Through good management practices, the amount of exposure to infection is limited and conditions are maintained which do not favor rapid multiplication of the coccidia.

Drugs are of benefit because various ones of the coccidiostats are able to kill the parasite in some stage of its life cycle, thereby helping to hold down the severity of the infection. Some drugs are so very effective that they do not permit the chicken an opportunity to build up an immunity. This is not desirable in pullets being raised for flock replacement purposes. No drug, however, when given at the preventive level will protect all birds against overwhelming infection.

State-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University forecast Indiana's 1960 timothy seed crop at 875,000 pounds, 44 percent smaller than last year's crop and 45 percent smaller than the 10-year (1949-58) average. Seven thousand acres were harvested, compared to 13,000 in 1959 and clean seed yield per acre totaled 125 pounds, five pounds more than last year.

It is most important that all drivers know their traffic signs, says the Chicago Motor Club.
Good drivers should know what a traffic sign says even before they are close enough to read the lettering. You should be able to recognize the sign's meaning by its standard shape.
For instance a stop sign is octagon-shaped; a yield right of way sign is triangular; a hill warning is diamond shaped; and a railroad crossing warning is round.

Nitrogen Defi- ciency In Corn

Indiana farmers who observe nitrogen deficiency in their corn crop this year can get a tip in fertilizing the same field next year points out Russell K. Stiv-ers, Purdue University extension agronomist.

Nitrogen deficiency in corn is characterized by yellowing that starts at the tip of the leaves and moves along their middle.
Bottom leaves turn yellow or fire first. The higher on the stalk the leaves are fired the greater the yield loss, he explains.

Yellowing on the edges of corn leaves may be confused with nitrogen deficiency symptoms, Stivers says. This yellowing generally results from a potash deficiency. It appears as a scorching along the tips and edges of the lower corn leaves.

Just because nitrogen deficiency isn't observed, doesn't mean that the corn is getting an adequate diet. One way to find out if the crop is under nourished is to establish test strips.

Stivers suggests that twice the usual rate of broadcast nitrogen, phosphate and potash be applied to these strips. This can be done several spreader widths running the length of application in the spring. Then the field. Plow this under after harvest the same number of rows in each area and compare weights.

Plant tissue tests also will aid in determining hidden hunger in corn. Details on tissue tests are contained in SB 635,
The Purdue Soil and Plant Tissue Tests, available without charge to Indiana residents from the Agricultural Publications office, AES building, Purdue University, Lafayette.

More than 600,000 American motorists lock themselves out of their cars every year, according to the Chicago Motor Club. The club advises you always to carry a spare key on your key chain or in your wallet. It could come in very handy.

State-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University forecast the 1960 Indiana shorn wool crop at 3,489,000 pounds, five percent smaller than the 1959 crop.

CASH FARM INCOME OFF

Indiana cash farm income totaled $1,055,654,000 in 1959, about eight percent less than the 1958 total, according to state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University. This figure includes income from farm marketings and government payments. It excludes income from work done off the farm, income from farm investments and crop insurance.

While the 1959 total lagged behind the record high of 1958, it was at about the same level as most years back to 1947, the statisticians point out. Government payments totaled $16,529,000, less than half as much as the 1958 figure and the smallest since 1956.

Sale of crops brought Hoosier farmers $370,117,000, 35 percent of their total cash farm income. Livestock and livestock products accounted for $669,008,000 or 63.4 percent. Cash receipts from crops were three percent higher than in 1958, but livestock and livestock products income declined 11 percent.

Hogs continued as the major source of Indiana cash farm income. Cash receipts from hogs amounted to $245,284,000, compared to $296,241,000 in 1958. This was 32.2 percent of the cash receipts. Cattle and calves accounted for 18.8 percent; corn 13.3 percent; dairy products 11.6 percent, and soybeans 9.4 percent.

Poultry and eggs, which until 1959 were among the five most important sources of cash farm receipts, dropped to sixth place. Corn, in sixth place in 1958, jumped to third last year and soybeans, third in 1958, fell to fifth in 1959.

The Chicago Motor Club says, that driving in traffic and reading a map just don't mix. Motorists on trips should plan their routes in advance. A good driver always anticipates a change of directions. Last second stopping or turning may result in an accident.

Pave feed lots and lanes to prevent some of the mud problems experienced last winter, Purdue University dairy scientists advise Hoosier dairy farmers.

Transportation to kindergarten must be supplied by the parents.

The kindergarten school term will be the same as the regular school, with vacations and "no-school" dates also the same.

Mrs. Kenneth Bush, treasurer, will take registration at any time. The amount is 50¢ per day, or $10.00 per month, to be paid once a month. This amount may be lowered in the coming months. Earl Boggs, township trustee, is supplying some financial aid for supplies and equipment. Two dozen small chairs have already been ordered for the class.

COUNTERPOINT

By the Editor's Wife

Our bird story today concerns owls—a whole family of them. They "took over" our small bird sanctuary, and filled the night air with a continuous clamor of owl tones. By day, the two parents found perches high in the weeping-willow tree, and the children were safely tucked away behind the big leaves of the cottonwood tree across the street.

We didn't mind the owls being with us. In fact, we were happy to have this bird-insurance against the starlings. Then we gradually became aware of a stillness-by-day and knew that we had no little birds. The sunflower seeds were untouched in the feeders.

We haven't heard the owls for several nights. We hope the young ones have gone seeking their own territory, and that the parents will go back to that barn where they belong. Oh, yes, they were barn owls, according to the bird book. Even an owl can wander into the wrong area, if the inducement is great enough.

We came through Goshen late last Wednesday evening and could hardly believe our eyes. Stretched across Main street was a beautiful Christmas decoration of colored lights. In the restaurant, a young man told us that one of the groceries that day was selling Christmas trees (on contract). Good psychology to forget the weather. Remember? The temperature was over 90 degrees that day.

Our neighbor, Mrs. Ora Tucker, showed us a small two-piece suit of blue checked gingham. It is made in a sailor-suit style and has cross-stitching around the gathered skirt, on the blouse and collar. A tiny crocheted pocket and small lace frill completed the blouse trimming. There had been a small gold watch to fit in the pocket, but it disappeared long ago.

Who wore this suit? Ora did, over 70 years ago.

We enjoyed this: Wife, reading her husband's fortune on a weight card: "You are dynamic, a leader of men and admired by women for your good looks, strength of character. It's got your weight wrong, too."

No conditional bid or bid for less than the par value of said bonds at the interest rate named by the bidder will be considered. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. If an acceptable bid is not received at the time here-in fixed, the sale will be continued from day to day thereafter without further advertisement for a period of thirty days, but no bid shall be accepted which is lower than the highest bid received at the time fixed for the sale in this notice.

Watch out for the petty chiseler who is a mail box racketeer.

Nearly everyone's name and address is on someone's mailing list. Some of these are used by the chiseler who mails unordered merchandise. Sooner or later you may receive—if you haven't already—something you did not order. Of course, a letter will be with the item and ask you to pay for it.

If you don't pay, you may receive up to 10 follow-up letters. They start out kind and friendly and wind up threatening legal action. Some may even go so far as sending a false "Notice of Suit".

This mail order fraud is frowned on by the Better Business Bureaus, bona fide charities and the Bureau of Good Business Practices, Inc.

Remember—You are under no legal or social obligation to pay for or even return the merchandise or to answer the letters.

TAKE ANNUAL CLUB TRIP

Seventeen Jolly Janes left the drug store corner Monday noon as a group and drove to Nappanee for the first part of their trip. Coppes Kitchens of Nappanee, a well known firm for fine cabinets, was first on the schedule. Elizabeth Blevins very capably led our tour, answered the numerous questions and showed us the lovely kitchen displays, which were complete in every way. In the final kitchen the group was seated and after the coffee pot was plugged in, Mrs. Blevins put her cakes into the electronic oven and right before our eyes we saw the refreshments being prepared. Baking time for the cakes was 3½ minutes! After eating, the ladies were free to browse around and really look into the kitchens at their own leisure.

Pletchers Maple Village completed the day in Nappanee. Here the group mostly oohed and ohed! There were such lovely pieces of furniture, accessories and conversation pieces to mill in and out and around and among. (No doubt, several husbands are now scheduled to make a trip to Nappanee to visit Coppes and Pletchers with their wives!)

From Nappanee the group then drove on to South Bend for supper and an evening of shopping. The trip committee planning this very enjoyable day were: Mrs. Raymond Lewis, Mrs.

Jim Miller and Mrs. Delford Nelson.

Other ladies making the trip were: Mrs. Wayne Bowser, Mrs. Morris Bitzer, Mrs. John Ellsworth, Mrs. Jim Romine, Mrs. Royal Baum, Mrs. Kenneth Romine, Mrs. George Mollenhour, Mrs. Max Friesner, Mrs. Harold Utter, Mrs. Harold Markley, Mrs. Dick Gross, Mrs. Dwight Reichard, Mrs. Albert Hatfield and Mrs. Tom Harman.

Modernizing Hen Houses

An ideal time to repair and modernize the poultry laying house is the period between selling the old hens and housing the new pullets, says Joe W.
Sicer, Purdue University extension poultryman. With the house empty, work can be done un-hampered by the fear that the noises and movements may upset the chickens. But needed improvements should still be made even though the presence of chickens can not be avoided.

Sicer suggests that poultrymen consider the following:

Provide adequate insulation in the ceiling and side walls for winter and summer comfort and as a step toward improved ventilation. As a general rule, more insulation value per dollar can be bought in bat or blanket type insulation than in structural board insulation.

Be certain that an effective moisture barrier protects all insulation. Large polyethylene sheets make excellent moisture barriers but must be protected against puncturing.

Install ventilation fans, where needed, of capacity adequate for the number of birds and the construction of the house. Be guided by the capacity of the fan in cubic feet of air per minute rather than the diameter of the blades.

Arrange nests to best suit the wants of the chickens and your convenience in gathering eggs. The egg aisle principle has much in its favor. A monorail carrier can save time in egg gathering.

Build a refrigerated egg room adjacent to the laying pen. It will save work and go far toward maintaining egg quality.

Where layers are fed by hand, install feed storage bins that can be filled from a truck and from which can be taken from the inside of the house as needed. With mechanical feeders bulk bins should be erected to empty directly into feeder hoppers by gravity or by auger.

Letter To The Editor

I enjoyed your article on state parks and roadside tables in Michigan very much. As a citizen of Indiana and having had the privilege of visiting in Michigan several times I would like to elaborate a little and also make a comparison.

You will find no litter around the tables or ground in the larger parks or even the roadside tables of just one table. The trash containers, at least all that we have seen, are covered with a metal cover, and the area around the tables are kept very neat and mowed.

When you stop to consider our roadside tables and the conditions in connection with said tables the difference is certainly somewhat distressing, if not disgusting.

As I understand it the Michigan State Highway employees are not political pawns and changed everytime the state politics change. They are employed on a plan similar to the civil service tests.

You are able to tell immediately when you leave Indiana and enter Michigan. The highways are not littered with trash and you really appreciate traveling there. I was as far north as Kalkaska this summer and appreciated the accommodations very much.

W. E. Fowley, Mentone

The Chicago Motor Club urges drivers to respect the cleanliness of roads and streets by not throwing litter from moving cars. Trash thrown from cars not only mars the natural beauty of the countryside but also adds extra expense to highway maintenance.

IS IT OLD-FASHION?

Is our Constitution of the United States of America old-fashioned? Our Federal Constitution is 173 years old on September 17. It was on this date in 1787 that the Constitution was approved unanimously by the delegates. It has undergone few changes in those years. Many have attested to the perfectability of the Federal Constitution. While it is not perfect, it has proved to be more adequate and less erratic than most of the products of human beings. The relatively few amendments are testimony to the excellent job which the founding fathers did in providing a framework of government. It has endured a long time with few changes and has been comprehensive and flexible enough to meet the needs of a people who have grown from 3,000,000 to more than 180,000,000.

The week of September 17-23 will be honored throughout our Country as Constitution Week, celebrating the birth of a concept never before adopted by any people as their governmental philosophy. The framers of the Constitution believed that all powers of sovereignty should forever reside in the people and that the government they were about to establish should be a limited government subject always to the will of the people. They sought to create a government which also would incorporate such checks and balances as would insure that all public officials should forever remain subservient to the will of the people.

The personal rights, opportunities and freedom of the individual were foremost in the minds of the Founders of this Nation as they set out to build a structure of lasting government. Their immortal work was brought forth after long periods of bitter and eloquent debates. This marvelous document was built around three main concepts of freedom, namely, religious, political, and economic. Their belief in God was the foundation of the religious concept. A Constitutional Republic (not a democracy) guaranteeing political concept. A free enterprise profit-motive system, based on private ownership of property constituted the economic concept.

We must fearlessly and persistently protect the concepts and precepts of the American way as the founding fathers envisioned and established them. Although attacked by many for our loyalty, we must not falter in our support of the fundamental principles which made and kept us a nation. We must preserve the lost art of American patriotism.

We must understand that there is a well organized, highly financed plan to overthrow our free Republic, in the Communist-Socialist plan to destroy us. They are succeeding far beyond our comprehension or imagination.

Let us be practical. Mr. Krushchev knows he can take our country without using the atom bomb or a guided missile, unless we wake up. He can take it with four weapons, tax, spend, indoctrinate, and infiltrate. Why do good, gullible, Christian Americans aid and abet the Communist and Socialists by accepting and using every technique they designate for our destruction? Even Rip Van Winkle only slept 20 years!

Progress lies in both directions. The most progress the prodigal son ever made was when he decided to go back to his father. There is a lesson here for all Americans. We have certainly spent our substance and our children's future in worldly living and we must get back to American house-keeping. Whether we call it a prior reasoning or horse-sense, we must face facts. Just as we do not outgrow the Sermon on the Mount in our spiritual progress, just so, we do not outgrow the Constitution and the free wisdom and demonstration of enterprise system.

These great principles must be taught in our schools, loved in our hearts, and practiced in our Government if we are to preserve the American concept of liberty for ourselves and for those who come after us.

We must rebuild a strong defense for one God, one Flag, and one Country, lest our Nation, as the symbol and demonstration of liberty for people everywhere perish from the earth. Let us resolve to be practical Christians and to make our forth-coming National election sure by supporting men and women for office who still believe that the Bible, the Constitution, Ray's arithmetic, and the McGuffey readers made a great and good country, whose people were God-fearing, independent, free-enterprising Americans. Old-fashioned? Yes. So are the Ten Commandments.

The battle lines are being drawn today for the final conflict between Christendom and atheism. It is symbolized by the two stars out of the East . . . the Star of Bethlehem and the Red Star of Russia. Whatever conflict appears on the scene, whether it be strife between capital and labor or between race, creed, or color, these planned struggles are only the outward sign of the Communist-Socialist attacks on our free institutions. Only the good, gullible Christian Americans, awakened out of their sleep and mesmerism, induced by false propaganda, can save our nation.

May we remember at all times to help the world appreciate, accept, and practice the great principles which make freedom and human liberty possible, and may we also remember that our greatest contribution to the world is to keep that light of freedom burning in America. If we fail here, the light of the world dies. Our forefathers left us a great and good land; it is ours . . . as trustees . . . "to have and to hold and to love" but, unless we hold it, and teach our children to love it, their children will not have it.

May patriotism, which is love of country and individual freedom, find a rebirth in our Nation. It is not old-fashioned. Fly your United States of America Flag every day during Constitution Week, September 17 to the 23rd.

Suffers Sudden
Heart Attack

Miles L. Manwaring, 50, prominent Mentone poultryman, died at 9:30 p.m. Sunday in his home of a heart attack. Although he had been in ill health the past two years, his death was unexpected.

He was associated with his brothers, Charles and Richard in operating the Manwaring Leghorn Farms at Mentone. He was a lifetime resident of this county.

Mr. Manwaring served in World War II and was a retired major in the Air Force Reserve. He was a graduate of Indiana university.

He was born August 18, 1910, the son of Frank and Ernie (Latimer) Manwaring. He was married June 14, 1941 to Mary Rush, who survives. He was a member of the Mentone Methodist church, the Masonic lodge of Mentone, the Scottish Rite, and the Elks club of Warsaw, also the American Legion.

Surviving are his wife; a son, Larry, a senior at Mentone high school; a daughter, Elaine, a seventh grader at Mentone; and two brothers, Charles and Richard, both of Mentone.

Services were conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Methodist church. Burial was in the Mentone cemetery, with the Johns funeral home in charge.

P.T.A. POTLUCK
SUPPER HELD

After a bountiful potluck supper, P.T.A. president, Mrs. Jean Pritchard welcomed around 150 mothers, dads, teachers and children. Mrs. Robert Smith read the secretary's report of the last meeting held in the spring. Mrs. Charles Hunter gave the treasurer's report.

Mr. Boggs gave a list of several new additions, accomplishments and purchases made for the school during the year. Principal John Frederick then introduced each teacher. The room count was won by Mrs. Tombaugh's fourth grade. This same class was quite consistent in winning last year at each P.T.A. meeting.

The membership committee is hard at work getting folks signed up for the new school year. If you haven't been contacted and wish to join this worthwhile organization, please see Mrs. George Hatfield, Mrs. Earl Bruner, Jr. or Mrs. Clarence Taylor.

TO SELL WATER-WORKS BONDS

There is an advertisement in this issue, advertising the fact that up until one o'clock CST on October 4th, the Mentone town board will receive bids on the sale of waterworks revenue bonds totaling $113,000 which will be used for the construction of an elevated water tower, a new well and a number of new water distribution lines.

The bonded obligation will extend until September 1, 1990, unless the department finds it possible to redeem them sooner.

TO CELEBRATE
GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. William Schooley will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary at an open house next Sunday afternoon, September 25 from 2 until 5 o'clock at their home in Mentone.

They were married in Warsaw by a Justice of the Peace.

They have resided in Mentone seventeen years and lived in and around Mentone all their married life, except about ten years in Elkhart.

The family includes three daughters, Fern Reichard of Mentone, Mildred Neer of Warsaw and Clara Parker of Bourbon.

COUNTERPOINT

By the Editor's Wife

The death of a man or woman in our community always brings sadness; even more so when that person has been a part of the community from infancy, through childhood and youth, and on to the prime of life. When that person is gone, he has taken with him an intangible segment which was his alone, and cannot be replaced. On the other hand, the influence of that life goes on and on, to be remembered and cherished.

Senior Citizens' Day was Sunday, September 18. We wish to take this opportunity, even though a little late, to salute the Senior Citizens of our community. There are 450,000 of you, over 65 years of age, in Indiana.

"Supreme Court About to Rule On Sunday Laws," was a recent headline. Three cases are to come before the United States Supreme Court, beginning October 3.

Will this outcome have as great an influence on the American way of life as the ruling on desegregation?

Mrs. Pearl Horn tells us that she believes that our owl family nested in a hollow tree limb near their house, but that we are welcome to them.

A couple of weeks ago, young Bill Rush and I were in our back yard doing some watering. In trying to locate the owls (high in the willow tree) I was backing up slowly, ever gazing skyward. My feet hit a wriggling obstacle, and, almost before looking, I knew that I had stepped on a snake. My surprised yell brought Bill on the run. When I pointed out the fast-fleeing culprit, his words of great consolation were, "It's only a rattle-snake."

We enjoyed this: Want-ad placed by a little boy: "I want to contact men who were in the fifth grade in 1923, and who knew my father at that time. Object: to find out if he was as good a student as he says he was."

Mrs. Lillian Workman, past president of Pierceton unit 258 and member of Warsaw chorus led the service for installation. A candle light service was held with auxiliary emblem as the center piece with red poppy's as decorative back-ground.

Sgt. of arms, Phyllis Williamson escorted the following officers to their stations and repeated their pledge of service to the unit.

MENTONE H. D. CLUB MEETING

The Mentone Home Demonstration Club held its September meeting with Mrs. Claude Barkman.

The meeting was opened by the vice president, Mrs. Eloise Long. The club creed and the pledge to the flag were repeated by all. History of the song of the month, "The Last Rose of Summer," was read by Genevieve Warren. The meditation was given by Gertrude Hill, who used two selections, "Old Friends" and "Mom's Apron." Lesson on "In & Out of the Freezer" was given by Esther Sarber. For Health & Safety, Maude Cox gave the second lesson on polio.

Roll call was answered by naming "my first school teacher." The secretary's and treasurer's report were read and approved. President, Esther Sarber conducted the business session. A report was given by the chairman of the nominating committee on the new officers. The secretary made a motion, which was carried, that the following officers be elected for the coming year; Esther Sarber, president; Eloise Long, vice president; Pearl Horn, secretary; and Helen Weirick, treasurer. Lyndall Vernet and Edith Darr received gifts from their Cheerio Pals. Eloise Long won the mystery package.

Plans were made to go to Roann in October to the home of Blanche Whitmyer. The meeting was closed with club prayer songs.

There were 12 members present. Gertrude Hill was co-hostess.

Anthony Nigo DAR Meets

The Anthony Nigo Chapter of the DAR met at the home of Mrs. Edna Carey, with Mrs. Herschel Drudge as co-hostess, on September 13, with 16 members and one guest present.

Mrs. Ernest Igo, Regent, opened the meeting with the pledge to the flag and the Star Spangled Banner.

The president general's message was read by Mrs. Miles Manwaring. Mrs. Glenn Clauss read the Resolution, "Study of Communist Techniques & Strategy" in the plan to destroy our system of government, the Communist manifest calls for a heavily graduating income tax, abolishment of the right to inheritance through taxation, thereby inducing America to spend herself into national bankruptcy.

The Communists seek to destroy the United States through such tactics as cultural exchanges, cessation of nuclear tests, aid to under developed countries, nullification of anti-Communist legislation and the current so-called "peace" offensive.

Mrs. Dale Cook gave excerpts from "For what Avail—if Freedom Fail," an address of the president general, Mrs. Ashmead White, given at the 69th Continental Congress at Washington, D. C. in April. In this, emphasis was placed on the two most serious problems facing the country today, namely: Communism and loss of individual freedom.

A tape recording of the winning speech on the "Constitution" as given by Roger Mazak, Forsenic Title winner of 1959 was played. He was an eighteen year old youth of Lansing, Ill., whose speech and form of delivery were excellent. He stressed that with every freedom as set forth in the Constitution, a duty to uphold and protect this freedom, was as essential as the freedom itself.

A report on flags sold by the members was given and plans for the members attending the State Convention at Indianapolis on October 3 and 4 were discussed.

Mrs. Frank Smith, Northern Director, gave a report on National Defense, also an outline of the things for which the DAR stands. Publicity plans for Constitution-week of September 17th to 23rd were also discussed by Mrs. Smith.

A study course of Communism was taken under advisement and would be available for anyone interested.

Two new members, Mrs. Kenneth Leiter and Mrs. Carl Metheny of near Bourbon, were welcomed into the Chapter. The next meeting will be October 13, a joint meeting with the Mentone P. T. A. to be held at the Mentone High school. Cpl. Billy D. Martin, U. S. M. C., guest speaker will talk on "National Defense." This meeting will be open to the public.

Mrs. Dale Cook,
Press Relations chairman

MENTONE JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

Work is progressing on the Mentone junior class play, "One for the Money", a three act comedy revolving around a situation where Miss Drusilla Baird wins $50,000.00 on a radio program. Things get pretty exciting for the whole town, and even throughout the nation as events progress completely out of hand, especially when Miss Baird disappears and everything is chaos.

Miss Drusilla Baird, a grab old maid, portrayed most notably by Sandra Miller, is transformed into a beautiful young woman after she receives the news. At least the news came. Prof. Pippis (Doyle Elder) is to notice her and become infatuated immediately.

The 14 year old twins Linda and Barbara Prescott (David Feldman and Tana Henderson) keep things lively with their quarrels and banter and tricks.

Janet Besson takes the part of Mrs. Prescott, a widow mother of the twins and an older daughter, Helen (Madonna Nelson). Helen's fiance, Bill Attridge, is Fred Harte. Another friendly couple is Alan Kim and Morton Grant (Karen Menzie and Gary Harmon). Two older nose neighbors who are both trying to capture Prof. Pippis are Miss Exie Watkins (Sheryl Olson) and Mrs. Couch (Melvina Secor).

Owner of the Bon Ton Dress Shop, Darthula Mattson, who furnished a complete new outfit for Drusilla to wear to New York City, is Linda Mellott. Two policemen are Jim Patterson and Bernard Loer. Delivery boys are Charles Smith, Joe Cook and Jerry Blackburn. Sam McDougal, newspaper photographer, is Dick Teel. Prompters are Kathy Randall and Anne Tucker. The director is Mrs. Florence Caldwell.

Tickets will go on sale Monday. The juniors are hoping for a record attendance to inspire them to do their best with their first play. Come and help the juniors. You will be able to hear anywhere in the gym. Reserved seats and bleachers are available. Tickets will also be sold at the door.

The play will be given Friday and Saturday, September 30 and October 1 at 8:00 p.m.

The senior penny supper will be held in the school cafeteria Saturday night, October 1 before the performance of the play.

No conditional bid or bid for less than the par value of said bonds at the interest rate named by the bidder will be considered. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids if an acceptable bid is not received at the time herein fixed. The sale will be continued from day to day thereafter without further advertisement for a period of thirty days, but no bid shall be accepted which is lower than the highest bid received at the time fixed for the sale in this notice.

Said bonds are being issued for the purpose of procuring funds to be applied on the cost of construction of extensions, additions and improvements to the waterworks owned and operated by the Town of Mentone, pursuant to Ordinance No. 154 adopted by the Board of Trustees of said Town on May 9, 1960. Copies of said ordinance and the annual reports relating to the operation of the Town's waterworks may be examined at the office of the Clerk-Treasurer in said Town. All bidders shall be deemed to be advised of the provisions of said ordinance and as to the property, revenues and financial condition of the Town's waterworks. Said bonds will not constitute a corporate indebtedness of the Town within the provisions and limitations of the constitution of the State of Indiana. Said ordinance provides that 50% of the gross revenues as received is to be deposited in a special account designated "Bond and Interest Redemption Account," from which said bonds are payable. The Town has reserved the right to issue additional bonds ranking on a parity with the bonds now being offered, upon certain terms and conditions specifically set forth in said ordinance.

MARRIED RECENTLY

Mr. and Mrs. James Allen Thomas, who toured the southeastern states on their wedding trip, will reside north of Atwood. He is engaged in farming and operates a milk route.

Mrs. Thomas is the former Karen Sue Latimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Latimer, Route 5, Warsaw. Mr. Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Thomas, Route 4.

Their marriage in the Burket Methodist church took place Sunday afternoon, Aug. 14, in the presence of 200 guests. Rev. Robert Carmin read the vows in a double ring ceremony before an altar graced with yellow and white gladioli and candelabra. Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Jay Swick, organist, and Miss Diane Ballenger, soloist. Altar tapers were lighted by Jay Anglin and Dennis Fisher.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a floor length gown of silk organza over nylon net and taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and a bouffant skirt which ended in a chapel train. Appliques of jeweled lace adorned the scoop neckline and front of the bodice. A queen's crown of lace, iridescent sequins and seed pearls held her circular veil of imported silk illusion. She carried yellow rosebuds with a white Bible.

Ballerina gowns of yellow chiffon over net and taffeta were worn by the matron of honor, Mrs. Richard Williamson, of Pierceton, sister of the bride, and the other attendants, Mrs. Glen Deaton, of Fort Wayne, and Miss Sue Ann Thomas, sister of the bridegroom. Each had a bow of yellow chiffon and net in her hair and carried a spray of white carnations. Douglas Powell, of Route 2, Leesburg, was ring bearer.

William Thomas served his brother as best man. Ushers were Richard Williamson, of Pierceton, Steve Creighton, of Atwood, and Kent Parks, of Route 4, Warsaw.

Assistants at the reception in the church social rooms included Miss Susan Knauer, of Auburn, Miss Nancy Stoll, of Fort Wayne, Mrs. Kent Parks, Miss Nancy Shively, of Tippecanoe, and Miss Caroline Hazen of Elletts Green. The Misses Cynthia and Sonja Baker, of Burket, helped with the gifts. Mrs. Jerry Nelson was in charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas are graduates of Atwood and Beaver Dam high schools, respectively. The bride also attended International college, Fort Wayne, where she was affiliated with Alpha Theta Chi sorority.

Debbie and Brenda Coplen and Mr. and Mrs. Tub Coplen visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Austin Borton, Mr. and Mrs. William and Jacob family at Warsaw.

GARDEN WEDDING

Miss Sandra Kay Wentzel and Terry Lee Tucker of Mentone exchanged marriage vows in a garden wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Wentzel, Mentone. Mr. and Mrs. Dearl Tucker are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. Roger Wrigley, pastor of the Mentone Methodist church, conducted the double ring rite beneath a floral arch. Nuptial music was presented by Miss Janice Mollenhour, Mentone and Mrs. Robert Boggs, Warsaw, sisters of the bridegroom.

The bride given in marriage by her father, was dressed in the traditional white satin and lace. Her gown was fashioned with Sabrina neckline, sculptured bodice and long pointed sleeves. A tiara of pearls held her veil. She carried a nosegay of white roses attached to a white lace fan.

Mrs. Theodore Larson, Northfield, Ill., was matron of honor; Miss La Vonda Eileen Murray, Leiters Ford was the bridesmaid; Miss Valeria Carter, Culver was the junior bridesmaid and Miss Julia Ann Murray, Rochester was the flower girl. All are cousins of the bride. They wore taffeta dresses in pastel pink, yellow, green and blue, with small matching hats of tulle and taffeta. Their white silk fans were decorated with pastel nosegays of carnations and snapdragons.

Theodore Britton, Roachdale, the bridegroom's room mate at Purdue, served as best man. Ushers were David Spangler, Peru and Richard Bookwaiter, Twelve Mile.

A buffet supper for 100 guests was served at the reception in the Wentzel home with five aunts of the bride assisting. They were; Mrs. Avaughn Murray, Leiters Ford; Mrs. Arnold Murray, Rochester; Mrs. Percy St. Clair, Northfield, Ill.; Mrs. Shirley Carter, Culver, and Mrs. Orville Wentzel, Roverdale, Ill. Miss Gretchen Persons, Albion, Mrs. James Irwin, Burket and John Wentzel, brother of the bride, took care of the gifts and the guest book.

The couple will be at home at 12 Waldron street, West Lafayette. Both are 1959 graduates of the Mentone high school and both are sophomores at Purdue. Tucker is in the school of agriculture and the bride is preparing for a career as an elementary school teacher.

CELEBRATES 8TH BIRTHDAY

Miss Sara Jo Smith celebrated her eighth birthday Monday evening at her home. Ice cream and cake were served to her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Max Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooper of Tippecanoe and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith.

Sara Jo received many beautiful gifts.

ANTIQUE

Mrs. Frank Justus of Rochester has a treasured memento of her grandfather today which she discovered in a most unlikely place. While browsing in an antique store near Kokomo last week, her eye was caught by an attractive picture frame. Upon inspection of the frame's contents, out fell a marriage certificate of Frank Nelson and Julia Blue, who were wed in Rochester May 16, 1885, by the Rev. Noah Heeter. The latter was the grandfather of Mrs. Jutus, also of Noah Shively and Mrs. Ray Woodcox of Rochester. The Rev. Heeter lived near Athens for years, later moved to Akron. He was a Progressive Dunkard minister. Mrs. Fred Swick of Mentone and Ora Nelson of Logansport are the only local survivors of their brother, Frank Nelson.—Rochester News-Sentinel

Early Frost Profits

Does an early fall frost normally follow a late, cool, wet spring such as occurred in Indiana and over much of the Corn Belt this year? Is the risk of frost damage to crops greater than usual this fall?

Answer to the first question is no, based on statistical studies of past weather records, says James E. Newman, agricultural climatologist at Purdue University. The answer to the second question is yes. But the risk of a killing frost is only about 20 percent greater this fall.

Most major crops in many sections of Indiana are from five to eight days behind in their development; risk of a killing frost increases about 20 percent each week after the third week in September in major crop producing areas of central and northern Indiana. However, most crops in the state have plenty of time to mature if September weather is near normal with little or no killing frosts.

Newman points out that a slight risk of a killing frost begins about September 10 in the low muck of northern Indiana and reaches the 50 percent level in the closing days of September. A slight risk begins about September 20 on the uplands of northern and central Indiana, reaching 50 percent about October 5-10. A slight risk begins in southern Indiana about October 1, reaching the 50 percent level about October 20. These observations are based on statistical risk calculations of past climatological records over Indiana, Newman explains.

Last-minute signaling is a

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA MEET

The first meeting of the Mentone chapter of Future Homemakers of America was called to order by the president, Marilyn Sullivan, on Monday, September 12, 1960 in the school home economics room.

The Future Homemakers discussed ways they could make money this year. They decided to keep on with the coat check at home basketball games. They also are planning on a Valentine's dance.

Other business discussed was as to where and when the homemakers' meetings would be held. It was decided to have them every first Monday of each month in the home economics room at 7:00 p.m.

Committees were named to plan the initiation of new members and also to get speakers for our future meetings.

The minutes of our previous meeting were read and approved.

The group was then led in a few songs and the meeting was adjourned until the next meeting which will be held October 3, 1960.

Proper use of headlights, according to the Chicago Motor Club, can help your own driving visibility as well as that of other drivers. Use your bright lights discriminately. Don't forget to dim them when approaching another vehicle coming from the other direction, or when coming up behind a car traveling in the same direction.

Purdue University poultry scientists recommend starting a good set of records on the laying flock when new pullets come into production.

Family Finances

Gasoline is your most expensive transportation cost next to the depreciation on your car. To get more mileage for your gas dollar, consider these points:

Lighter cars get more mileage. Everything else being equal, a 3,000-pound car gets 50 percent more mileage than a 4,000-pound auto.

"Tire drag" is a big gas cheater. Wheels out of alignment (toeing in or out) by one degree, increases drag about eight percent.

Tires not sufficiently inflated waste gas. Five pounds of under-inflation wastes a half-gallon of gas every 20 gallons.

Keep your car serviced and adjusted properly for best mileage. Correct carburetor adjustments, spark timing, a slow or stuck choke, dirty or faulty spark plugs, stuck manifold and cooling-system valves to keep good mileage records.

You can also waste gas thru bad driving habits, e.g., jack-rabbit starts, staying too long in low gears before shifting, rushing to a stop and then jamming on the brakes.

COUNTERPOINT

By the Editor's Wife

The Public Health Service has given the "Go Ahead" to the new polio vaccine. This decision was reached after the usual long and careful testing. This new vaccine will be given orally (swallowed) instead of by a needle, and will probably not be available for Hoosiers until next summer or fall.

Mrs. Lackey, our librarian, is going into the "home stretch" of an undertaking, begun several years ago when she became librarian. This is the classification and cataloging of the books in the library.

There are now 14,000 volumes in our library. All but 3500 have been catalogued. First step in cataloging is classification, and which may require extensive reference work. Then the book is classified according to title, author, and special information. This requires at least three cards. Some books have as many as ten cards.

From this brief summary, one can see that this has been no ordinary task, and has been accomplished along with many other duties of a librarian.

We have a "squatter" family on our premises. By some peculiar cat-sense reasoning, mother cat (who belongs to our young neighbors, Ann, Barbara, and Bill) decided to have her family under a low bush north of our garage. Her secret was soon discovered, and the ensuing attention and publicity was too much. She moved the furballs to another spot, but this, too, was short-lived. Another move was made, with the same results. (She didn't seem to appreciate the blankets the children brought for the baby kittens.) Now she has made another move. She seems a little smug, for we (yes, I got into this, too) can't find the kittens. We know that they are in the garage, back of some stored windows and doors, but we can't reach them. We'll have to wait now until mother cat decides that they are ready for exhibition.

We enjoyed this: (Thanks to Truman Long).

J. Ballinger, son of Mr. and Mrs.
James O. Ballinger, of Route 3,

The ceremony took place at the Tippecanoe Community

HERE! '61 CHEVY TRUCKS

WITH WORK-PROVED
INDEPENDENT FRONT SUSPENSION!

Chevy's '61 fleet swings in with a ready-made reputation as the trucks that are worth more because they work more... the latest editions of the haulers that scrapped the I-beam axle and proved the important advantages of independent front suspension!

You'll find new models for '61—long-wheelbase 4-wheel drive units—and thoughtful refinements throughout the line. But the big news for '61 is nailed-down proof (based on owner reports) that Chevy's torsion-spring design is the best thing that's happened to trucks in decades!

With Chevy's independent front suspension and Sturdi-Bilt design, you cruise over trails where other trucks creep. You feel the difference in less wheel fight and vibration. You can see why drivers are happier, why loads are better protected and why the truck itself will stand up to thousands of miles of more work. That goes for any size Chevy, too—pickups, tilt cabs, tandems, all of them.

Check the latest specs with your Chevrolet dealer: capacity, power teams, options. Then, by all means, drive a '61. Once around the block and you'll never be satisfied with a front axle truck again!

Miss Mary Jo Vandermark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elgie Vandermark, became the bride of James Carey Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilson, Greenfield, in a double ring ceremony read in the Rochester Church of Christ by the Rev. Ernie Norman. The candlelight service was performed before an altar of palms and baskets of yellow gladioli and white mums. Miss Marilyn Horn, Miss Janice Mollenhour and Miss Susie Sullivan, Mentone, sang "O Promise Me," "Because" and "Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of banquet taffeta fashioned with a basque bodice and bouffant skirt. The Sabrina neckline and three-quartered sleeves were embroidered in iridescent sequins. Lace and sequins extended from the sides of the bodice to the skirt hemline. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of pearls. She carried a crescent bouquet of white Fuji mums with natural wheat tied with ivy and white streamers.

The maid of honor, Miss Donnetta Chaffin, Charthage, Tenn., and Miss Linda Barkman, bridesmaid, wore identical dresses of toast taffeta designed with scoop necklines and box pleated skirts. They were trimmed with lace and self material roses at the waists. They wore headpieces of matching taffeta leaves. They carried crescent bouquets of beige and tangerine pompons and china mums.

The little flower girl, Sarah Wilson, sister of the groom, was dressed identical to the bride's attendants and carried a miniature bouquet.

Randy Joe Vandermark nephew of the bride, carried the rings.

Robert Eugene White, Kokomo, served as best man. Jack Horn was the groomsman. Ushers were Lyle Vandermark, brother of the bride, and Noel and David Wilson, brothers of the groom.

Mrs. Vandermark chose for her daughter's wedding a green suit with beige and brown accessories. Her corsage was of beige and brown cymbidium. The groom's mother wore a green suit and black accessories. Her flowers were green cymbidium.

Order Trees Now For Spring

Indiana farmers who plan to plant trees next spring should place their orders soon, advises E. J. Lott, Purdue University extension forester.

Lott said about six million trees are being made available to Hoosier farmers at the cost of production through Indiana's three state nurseries.

Each year these trees are sold for general reforestation, wind-breaks, Christmas trees and erosion control purposes. Interested farmers can obtain application forms from the county agricultural agent, the forestry extension office at Purdue, or the Division of Forestry, 311 Washington Street, Indianapolis.

Farmers are urged by Lott to order trees early in order to get the desired species.

Varieties of trees available for planting next spring include tulip poplar, black locust, red oak, Chinese chestnut, and shortleaf, Virginia, Scotch, jack, pitch, red and white pine.

Trees secured from the state nurseries must be planted in rural areas outside of city or town limits. All purchases must be in quantities of 50 or more of each variety ordered. The buyer must pay the transportation cost.

If help is needed to determine what, where and how to plant trees, farmers should contact their county agent or nearest extension forester. Circular 306, "Trees for Reforestation in Indiana," may be obtained from the agricultural publications office at Purdue.

Two Machine Hitch Bulletin

Farmers might want to try eight-row corn planting by hitching two four-row planters, points out C. L. Hill, Purdue University agricultural engineer, in Mimeo AE-58, published by the Agricultural Extension Service.

Well illustrated, "Two Machine Hitch" outlines two hitching methods—a trailer and wide "tow bar"—and shows a commercial manufactured hitch and how to build one that will be equally satisfactory, allowing short turns and enabling the planters to follow the contour of the soil.

A copy of Mimeo AE-58 "Two Machine Hitch" is available to Indiana residents without any charge. Request it by writing to the Office of Agricultural Publications, AES building, Lafayette. A postal card is sufficient. Or a copy may be obtained at the office of the county agricultural agent.

BEAVER DAM SCHOOL NEWS

Group and individual pictures have been taken. Orders for group pictures are being taken now.

The junior class members are selling magazines. They will appreciate any magazine that you will order from them. If for some reason you do not get the magazine, please contact Mr. Haney or Mr. Webster. There is no reason why anyone should place an order and not receive it. Be sure and keep your stub for proof that you paid for the order.

The sophomores will be selling Christmas cards soon. Please order from the members of the class if you need any. This will help them and also will keep the money in the community.

The Beavers have played seven baseball games so far and have lost all of them. However, most of the team is young and they are looking to the future.

Mr. Butts and Mr. Cumberland will attend a joint meeting of the county trustees and custodians this coming Monday at Pierceton.

The first P. T. A. meeting of the 1960-61 school year was held Tuesday evening. Mrs. Dan Ur schell, Mentone, spoke on the progress of the county committee on school reorganization in Kosciusko County.

Several teachers are enrolled in graduate courses this first semester. Mr. England and Mr. Malott are enrolled in courses at North Manchester and the classes meet on Monday evening. Mr. Haney and Mr. Webster journey to Fort Wayne each Wednesday evening for further training. All classes are Indiana University extension courses.
