Editorial

Many people have told us they enjoyed last week's editorial and that they agreed with our thinking the school corporation should be divided into two corporations. It has been gratifying to us to receive so many favorable comments from people who have obviously given serious thought to the issue.

One of the comments heard most often is, "Shotgun marriages just don't work, and at best this corporation was a shotgun marriage." Other comments frequently heard are, "The two towns in the corporation are too nearly the same size and have too nearly the same economic interests and each is the nucleus of its own community which would be torn asunder if the corporation is left as it now is." Or, "There is a limit to how far the children should have to ride to school, and we have passed it now."

In February, Dr. John Kohlmyer of Purdue University spoke to members and guests of the Akron Chamber of Commerce and during the question and answer period many questions concerning school reorganization were presented to him. Dr. Kohlmyer was a member of the committee which was responsible for school reorganization, and he stated then that he felt the committee had erred in originally setting the enrollment level at 1,000 and that it should possibly be closer to 750. In either event, the present TV corporation of over 2,000 students would qualify it for two corporations, according to our figures.

Kohlmyer further stated three purposes for schools. They are 1. to prepare students to be good citizens 2. teach skills the students will need after high school 3. give the students enough vocational work to explore their abilities but not enough to make them proficient in any one field except simple skills. In other words, he was saying that schools are to educate our children to the best of the school's ability.

Someone asked if it automatically followed that one school in a district would have better opportunities than two schools, and he replied, "If schools don't standardize, they'll stagnate, but there is no need to unite two schools if they would argue and if they can maintain good standards."

The thing we all, as parents as well as taxpayers, are most interested in is seeing our children getting the best education possible. This is done with good schools, good teachers, and good equipment. It is also better done on a local level within the socioeconomic area of the community, not over a wide area of territory formed by a shotgun marriage.

Parson Jones Speaks

Dear Mr. Publisher

The heats about got me, but I don't think I'm the only one. I read in the paper this week where some group in the United States was seeking equal rights for animals. It seems that some rich fella died and left a million dollars to his hound dog. Naturally, his wife just up and contested the hole thing. Well sir, a group of animal lovers come to the dog's rescue and hired him a couple lawyers. They claim they'll go all the way to the supreme court if necessary. One pretty strong claim they've got is that if a dog can serve in the U. S. Army he oughta be able to vote and receive money. Whee!!

I was reading a little book my daughter brought home from the library that throws a little light on this subject. (You know how them Buck Rogers books were like fortune tellers of the future? All them space rockets and things.) Well, this book I read could be a prediction of the future. It was a fella who started a animal church. This little congregation had three preachers. One was a minor bird. He picked it cause it had a pretty voice and could talk plain. But best of all, it said only what you told it. That way there wasn't any danger that it might "preach" false doctrine. Just in case it got to speaking too plain, and upset the other animals, a parakeet would take over. It could talk well enough that it sounded like talk, but not clear enough that anybody could understand it. The third preacher was a elephant. He was thrown in for the contrast and to step on "people's" toes once in awhile. He wouldn't have to step too often with all the weight he carries.

For the choir this fella used mostly birds and small animals. He wouldn't allow no crows or mocking birds in it though. He claimed the crows sung off tune, and he was afraid the mocking bird might mock the "preacher". Guess what he chose for the choir leader? A fox. He said it took a pretty sly fella to run that department. Not only that, he had a mighty pretty fur.

The ushers are what got me. This guy said he learned a hole lot when he use to belong to a human church - how hard it was to get money from the members. So, he appointed a pack of hound dogs to take up the collection. They could sniff out the money and find it. If the members left it at home they would still have the scent of it on their hands, so they could track it right to their houses. He figured if we could teach Army dogs the difference between North and South Vietnamese, we could surely teach 'em the difference between pocket change and paper money.

This animal church had turtles for elders and frogs for the younger set. The turtles wouldn't move too fast and the frogs would not just set still. Sorta like a balance.

Do you reckon this is a prophesy of the future Mr. Publisher? If so, maybe we better go to the moon after all. You take the light side. - I'll take the dark side.

Yours truly,
Parson Jones

THE SPIRIT BEHIND '66

THE "NEW" SHORT SKIRTS AND CRAZY STOCKINGS ARE A DIRECT DESCENDANT FROM THE "TWENTIES". IN 1926 WHEN THAT DARING HEMLINE CLIMBED TO ITS HIGHEST, FLAPPERS HAD 66 SHADES OF HOSE FROM WHICH TO CHOOSE!

TODAY'S "REVOLUTIONARY" TRANSPARENT DRESSES AREN'T REALLY NEW. DURING THE '20S THE ENGLISH EYELET EMBROIDERY BECAME FASHIONABLE, AND MANY SHIRT-WAISTS WERE MADE OF IT. THEY WERE CALLED "PEEK-A-BOO" WAISTS AND WERE CONSIDERED SCANDALOUS!

1966'S "CUT-OUT LOOK" IS OLD HAT TO ANYONE WHO REMEMBERS THE HALTERNECK EVENING DRESS OF 1934-S. BECAUSE THE BODICE WAS CUT ALL THE WAY DOWN TO THE WAISTLINE IN BACK THE TOP HAD TO BE TIED AROUND THE NECK LIKE A CHILD'S BIB TO KEEP IT FROM FALLING!

TODAY...WHEN BUYING WOMEN'S OR CHILDREN'S APPAREL LOOK FOR THIS LABEL-THE SYMBOL OF DECENCY, FAIR LABOR STANDARDS AND THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE.

Read Matthew 5:43-48

Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John... they wondered; and they recognized that they had been with Jesus. (Acts 4:13, RSV)

A Politician exclaimed, "I got real angry at the city council meeting today! I almost exploded. Then suddenly I remembered that I was a Christian! And I knew my reaction would have been a direct reflection on my faith. I controlled my temper, and reasoned calmly with my opposition."

This politician recognized an important truth. He realized that his Christianity should show—not just in church, but in the world, too.

A Christian's actions in the political world, the business world, the social world, and in his home advertise his Christian attitudes. In all our dealings we reflect the quality of our compassion, the depth of our understanding, and the height of our love for God.

In the midst of flaring tempers, irritating circumstances, or frustrating distractions, we can walk as children of light, reflecting the image of our Creator.

PRAYER: O God, help us to act in a Christlike manner, as ambassadors of Christ. We pray that in our spirit and by our actions others will recognize that we have been with our Master and are His disciples. In His name we ask. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

A Christian's actions and attitudes reveal the true nature of his faith.

Tippecanoe Church

Plans Services

Evangelistic services are scheduled for the Tippecanoe Community Church from September 7-11 at 7:30 p.m. nightly and 10:30 a.m. on Sunday, September 11. Rev. Edward W. Smith, deputation secretary of the Africa Evangelical Fellowship, will conduct the series of meetings.

Rev. and Mrs. Smith are missionaries working with the Africa Evangelical Fellowship, founded by Dr. Andrew Murray over 75 years ago. The work of the mission is primarily concerned with the establishing of churches among the nationals, and assisting in their growth to spiritual independence of the white missionary by creating the necessary schools, hospitals, and aids to assist the nationals with their task of soul-winning.

The Smiths spent ten years in Rhodesia, Africa, working among the Vandau People. It was their joy to establish the needed Teacher Training School and a Christian high school for Africans in their part of Rhodesia.

During their second furlough, Mr. Smith was asked to remain in the States as deputation secretary of the mission. Mr. Smith's ministry now carries him all over the States, traveling some 30,000 miles a year to challenge young people and adults to obey the command of Jesus Christ to evangelize all men, everywhere.

The public is invited to attend this series of meetings. The pastor of the local church is Rev. Robert W. Benton.

Fly-Free Planting Dates Set

The fly-free date for seeding wheat in Kosciusko County is September 23 for the north half of the county and September 24 in the south according to Don Frantz, County Extension Agent.

The Hessian Fly is again a problem in winter wheat production. The introduction of fly resistant varieties a few years ago appeared to have eliminated the insect as a wheat pest. However a new strain of the fly has developed, known as Hessian Fly Race B. A third type is also developing. The resistant varieties that have been popular such as Monon, Red coat, Riley and Reed are only resistant to race A. Knox 62 is the only Race B resistant variety now available.

The build up of the new strains of Hessian Fly will continue and the only control method now available is to wait until the fly-free date to seed winter wheat.

Chic Granny Gowns Made With Sheets

Granny gowns are "in" right now for lounging in fresh comfort, for sleeping in soft smoothness, for keeping you feeling pretty always. They're so feminine. And, a wonderful idea is to make your own to match decorator sheets.

Granny in pants or pajamas around the house? Never. She was a lady. Now fashion puts pants and pajamas out of the house too. For going out to smart parties or discotheques, maybe. At home, stay fashion feminine in flowery, washable cotton gowns. Lovely as a nightie too. Nothing could be prettier for every lady about the house from three years to eighty. Fun for college girls in the dorm too.

Granny didn't have combed percale soft sheets. Today, you do. Match granny gowns to the dominant prints of your bedroom linens. Here's how: all you need is your sewing kit . . . some elastic . . . simple granny gown patterns sold everywhere . . . and a Springmaid sheet in any of the several lovely floral designs and colors, bearing such exotic names as Floral Lace or Wind Flower. If you're really inventive, copy a curler cap and cover your slippers to match. Or make mother and daughter sets.

Sheet fabric has a practical advantage. A double-bed sheet of combed percale gives you seven square yards of seamless material for easy sewing and more fine fabric for your money.

Be a lady in your home in soft flowing granny gowns—be cool while lounging, tidying, or cooking. At bedtime, slip into one you custom created to match your lovely bed linen.

TVSC Total Reaches 2,106

The Tippecanoe Valley school corporation is experiencing crowding of class rooms, according to Superintendent Robert Forbes, who released enrollment figures of 2,106 in the corporation's five schools as of Sept. 6.

Though additions to the Akron and Mentone schools will have been made at the beginning of the school year 1967-68, a continual gain in pupils indicates the corporation enrollment is increasing about a room and a half each year, Forbes said.

Enrollment figures starting the current school year, kindergarten through fifth, show Akron with 488, Mentone 377, and Burket 178 for a total of 1,043; grades six, seven and eight at Talma 242 and Beaver Dam 223 for a total of 464.

High school enrollment at Akron is 312 and at Mentone 287 for a total of 599.

Forbes said the total increase over 1965-66 was 103 pupils. This was partly due, he said, to lack of transfers and was not all natural increase. Last year, 68 pupils were transferred out of the school corporation and this year only four are on legal transfer. The net increase is 39 pupils. The entrance age for kindergarten may have kept the enrollment from increasing another 25 pupils, said Forbes.

TVSC Pupil Transfer Hearing Is Delayed

The Commission on General Education of the State of Indiana postponed a hearing which was scheduled for Friday for an appeal by patrons of the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation who have protested a "no transfer" policy of the TVSC board.

According to Samuel Henderson, the attorney representing the group of families appealing the no transfer decision, said the hearing was postponed to allow time for one of the commissioners to visit the area and evaluate the situation first hand. Mr. Henderson said he had been notified that this would be done in consideration of the number of pupils involved.

A short business meeting was conducted and John Ellsworth was elected president for next year. Alice Secrist was named secretary-treasurer. Mary Teel was chosen secretary for the class of 1936 and Vadis Ward was named secretary for the class of 1934. In the future, all three classes will be combined.

Parson Jones Speaks

Dear Mr. Publisher:

In these days of great trouble I bring you good news - our Sunday School attendance has picked up. Things got so bad there for a while that I thought we was gonna have to boil our Sunday School down to one class. That would be a class for the teachers, cause they were about the only ones that showed up. It appears the more the government talks about education the less the church seems to have. Finally, one of our new members, Ben Worldly, suggested that we study all the pagan religions in our class. He said that most folks were more interested in other people's religion than they was their own.

Well sir, we tried it, and it shore turned out just like he said. We got people coming to learn about Buddhism that don't know the first thing about Christianity. Bill Longsnoot has been teaching this course with fine results. The members are going out during the week and talking about Buddha, Confucius and the like. Its a fine witness, and we've had some folks applying for membership to our church. In fact one lady wanted to be baptized in the name of Buddha.

I learned a lot from the course too. One thing was that long time ago people thought everything had souls - trees, rocks, and even water. That's the reason they knocked on wood to keep from having bad luck - that was just like praying to the wood spirit. And whenever they bumped their head on a door they would turn around and talk to it for the same reason. I shore am glad we don't live back in them days.

Another thing I learned from this class was that the Hindus don't believe in killing animals cause they think people's souls jump into these varmints after death. Lots of 'em don't wear clothes cause they're afraid a bug might get mashed in the process. And to think all these years that I been criticizing the nudists.

Studying about the Buddhists was real interesting. These folks are natural born pacifist. They don't believe in violence of no kind. That's why they killed some of our soldiers in Viet Nam - they don't want no murderers over there. The Buddhist believe in this reincarnation business too. Mr. Publisher, if our souls really go into bugs and trees, it appears to me that our over-population problem is worse than I thought. In our little town it would be awful hard to list the true population. It would take us a hundred years just to count all the bugs. And just thinks they're getting by without paying any tax.

Most of our men really like the Mohammedan's religion! Ole Mohammed knew how to get the fellas on his side. He allowed every man to have four wives, and promised 'em that in Heaven they'd have more women than they could shake a stick at. Us Christians believe that we ain't supposed to have but one wife. (?)

Gotta close now. In the meantime leave the screens off your window - your relatives might come calling.

GIRL SCOUTS

A Column of News By And For All Girl Scouts Of The Mentone Community

Junior Troop 25 met on September 8th for their first meeting of the fall season. The girls were thrilled to learn the Council had given its permission for an extra money raising project.

The project planned will be a combination rummage sale and bazaar. The exact date was not set at this time. The girls were asked to see what items they could come up with to donate to this project. Many items are needed before this sale can take place. The girls were told to either call Mrs. Allen or Mrs. Kelly to have things picked up. They will be stored at Mrs. Allen's home until enough is gathered to have the sale. The girls are also making things to be sold at the sale as work on their badges. The money raised at this sale will finance a trip to the Chicago Museum of Natural History.

Some badge work will be possible with this sale that would be hard for the girls to do otherwise.

Badge work was signed as the girls went outside to have their closing before going home.

The Junior Meeting are to be held at the Methodist Church from 3:30 until 5 P.M., the same as last year.

At the next meeting election of officers will be held. A weiner roast will be held at the Mentone Park and it is hoped that everybody will be able to attend.

Take your problems to Church this week -

We Are A Quartet?

We are a family quartet. Oh yes, we have a fourth member, not shown because somebody had to take the picture. It's Mother—she is our lead. Not only does she sing lead in our harmonizing but she is our lead in many other ways, in our homework, activities and games. She prefers to remain in the background—as in the picture—but nevertheless she is our lead. Of course Dad has his responsibilities but he, too, is happy to have Mother lead in our home. She leads us to and in church also, where we share our deepest and most beautiful common interests. We prize our church fellowship above all, for it sustains us in serious moments. With Mother as a lead we have learned how to get the most out of church attendance, for it is through religion that we are able to acquire faith and love and to achieve a peaceful, happy and united home life.

ODDS and ENDS

"If you really want to get a lot accomplished in a short period of time," read a bit of housekeeping advice, "you will begin at least three jobs at the same time. You can take down the bedroom curtains, clean the bathroom, and polish the floors on the same day if you will start all three jobs at the same time. You will hate to go to bed without the bedroom curtains and will therefore get that job completed just as you will finish the floors because who wants to go back on the same place two days in a row. Ditto for the bathroom. The object is to get a lot of things going at the same time."

Frankly, I didn't write that bit of advice but it does sound like me. For instance, Saturday was a nice day and it looked as if I could get a lot of things done. First, I would tackle the upstairs. I began by stripping all the beds. Now, washing bedding isn't hard. You just put things in the washer and then in the dryer and let the machines do the work. My agile mind moved rapidly over the other things that could be done while the washer and dryer did their bit, and it appeared that this would be a good time to clean the floors upstairs. While looking for the necessary sprays I spotted a bottle of Windex which reminded me that I'd better clean the big living room window again. I might just as well do it now, I decided, and then get back upstairs.

The living room window was not only dirty but it was new, a by-product of one two-year old and one baseball and one well-aimed pitch. At any rate, the putty had not been painted and the rest of the frame looked pretty bad. I noticed, as I washed fingerprints off the glass. Such a nice day, the upstairs could be cleaned at night or on a rainy day but when would a better painting day present itself, I thought, remembering an unopened gallon of paint in the basement. If it hadn't been such a nice day I would undoubtedly never gotten out of the basement, but as it was I twisted, dodged and darted my way around the toys, piles of empty fruit jars, etc. that decorate our basement, and found the paint.

By the time I had the paint stirred, it was lunch time, and I almost forgot my enthusiasm for painting but since the paint was right in front of me the truth of the article I had read came back. I couldn't ignore it; I had to do something with it, so I painted. I painted windows and doors and myself and the porch floor and two little boys who usually call me Mama. I had so much fun painting that I forgot all else, including the position ivy. The way my leg looks I may remember that for a day or two, but it didn't daunt my enthusiasm.

Only darkness drove me into the house but not before I had admired the greatly improved appearance of the window and the doors. They looked so wonderful that the other twenty-three windows and the other three doors and the trim and the porch looked terrible, and I knew with a bang that not only had I begun a one-day project but a long, long project for the trim on the house, if ever completed, is going to make the rest of the buildings look even worse and will call for more paint and the paint will make something else look so bad that it will need be repaired.

I ached in every joint and I took a hot shower, planning to retire early and contemplate a novel I want to write. One look at the upstairs told me that the novel would have to wait one more day and that the article I had read was true. You do have to finish somethings. Not a bad had a sign of bedding. The washer and dryer had long since stopped operating but I had not noticed.

Still, you cannot say my Saturday was a complete loss. I had four things to show for the day instead of only three. We did have clean sheets because I did have to re-make the beds, we did have a window and two doors that looked a lot better, and I did have poison ivy and a set of aching muscles. A day like that can't be considered a complete loss.

Is The Constitution Of The United States Old Fashioned?

The Constitution of the United States is 179 years old on September 17. It was on this date in 1787 that the Constitution was approved unanimously by the delegates. It has undergone few changes in those years. The relatively few amendments are testimony to the excellent job which the founding fathers did in providing a frame-work of government.

The Anthony Nigo Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution would like to urge all citizens to display the American Flag each day during Constitution Week, September 17-23, in patriotic observance of the 179th anniversary of the signing of this great document... assuring the blessed privilege of freedom. In accordance with Public Law No. 915 the President of the United States and the Governor of Indiana annually proclaim this week as Constitution Week, inviting the people of the United States to observe such week in schools, churches, and other suitable places with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

The personal rights, opportunities and freedom of the individual were foremost in the minds of the Founders of this Nation as they set out to build a structure of lasting government. Their immortal work was brought forth after long periods of bitter and eloquent debates. This marvelous document was built around three main concepts of freedom, namely, religious, political and economic. Their belief in God was the foundation of the religious concept. A Constitutional Republic (not a democracy) guaranteeing political rights and establishing obligations was the foundation of the political concept. A free enterprise profit-motive system, based on private ownership of property constituted the economic concept.

America was organized on the principles of representative government. We must fearlessly and persistently protect the concepts and precepts of the American way as the founding fathers envisioned and established them. Although attacked by many for our loyalty, we must not falter in our support of the fundamental principles which made and kept us a nation. We must understand that there is a well organized, highly financed plan to overthrow our free Republic, in the Communist-Socialist plan to destroy us. Attempting to mix Socialism or Communism with representative government is like trying to mix oil and water... it will not mix. There can be only one atmosphere of government, the clear, pure, fresh air of a free America, or the foul breath of Communism. Let us be practical. Our country can be taken over without an atom bomb or a guided missile. It can be taken over with four weapons; tax, spend, indoctrinate, and infiltrate. Why do good, gullible Christian American aid and abet the Communists and Socialists by accepting and using every technique they designate for our destruction? Even Rip Van Winkle only slept 20 years!

That this nation is established upon the rock of God's favor and protection will be proved, we devoutly believe, by its indestructibility. Time does not wear down nor eat away the eternal truths of the Constitution. Instead of fading with the ages the glory of the Constitution takes on new splendor with the passing of the centuries. The faith of the forefathers gave them strength to plan for the ages.

If America is to grow great, we must stop gagging at the word "spiritual". Our task is to re-discover and re-assert our faith in the values on which American life has rested from its beginning. Of growing concern is the moral pollution, as people stray from the Ten Commandments and the Sermon On The Mount. We cannot legislate morality. We cannot by law or by court decisions decree a state of mind. So much emphasis has been placed on "rights" and so little on "responsibilities" that instead of creating a Great Society we are destroying the one we already had. No society can long remain great, much less become greater, if, in the process our moral fibre as a God-fearing, hard-working, self-reliant people is undermined. The internal ruin of a nation does not take place overnight. It does not take "daring", it simply takes a time of "not caring" for a nation of basically decent citizens to become so accustomed to violence and vulgarity, obscenity and irreverence that a great society ends up irrevocably morally deased. Dr. Billy Graham has said, "The Church has been too soft on morals. Many of our ministers have been taught in college that morals are relative and that sin and the mention of it is antiquated or obsolete. We have sowed to the wind and we are reaping the whirl-wind."

J. Howard Pew, Chairman of the Board of the Sun Oil Company, in his article in the May issue of Reader's Digest says, "With seminary emphasis what it is not surprising that Biblical preaching in many churches has declined. Like most laymen, I go to Church to hear heralded the mind of Christ, not the mind of man. I want to hear expounded the timeless truth contained in the Scriptures, the kind of preaching that gets its power from 'Thus saith the Lord.' Such preaching is hard to find these days. This may well explain the curious fact, revealed by latest church statistics as well as a Gallop poll that while church membership is showing a steady rise, church attendance is steadily dropping."

Progress lies in both directions. The most progress the prodical son ever made was when he decided to go back to his father. There is a lesson here for all Americans. We have certainly spent our substance and our children's future in worldly living and we want to get back to American housekeeping. Whether we call it a prior reasoning or just plain horse-sense, we must fact facts. Just as we do not outgrow the Sermon on The Mount in our spiritual progress, just so, we do not outgrow the wisdom and demonstration of the Constitution and the free-enterprise system. These great principles must be taught in our schools, loved in our hearts, and practiced in our government if we are to preserve the American concept of liberty for our selves and for those who come after us.

We must rebuild a strong defense for one God, one Flag, and one Country, lest our Nation, as the symbol and demonstration of liberty for people everywhere perish from the earth. Let us resolve to be practical Christians and to make our forth-coming National election sure by supporting men and women for office who will believe that the Bible, the Constitution, Ray's arithmetic, and the McGuffey readers made a great and good country, whose people were God-fearing, independent, free-enterprising Americans. Old fashioned? Yes. So are the Ten Commandments. May we remember at all times to help the world appreciate, accept, and practice the great principles which make freedom and human liberty possible and may we also remember that our greatest contribution to the world is to keep that light of freedom burning in America. If we fall here, the light of the world dies. Our forefathers left us a great and good land; it is ours... as trustees... to have and to hold and to love, but, unless we hold it and teach our children to love it, their children will not have it.

May patriotism, which is love of country and individual freedom, find a rebirth in our Nation. It is not old-fashioned! Lord God of Hosts be with us yet lest we Americans forget.

County Extension Service News

Cattle feeders may want to consider using silage additives at ensiling time to improve the quality of feed for beef cattle, according to Don Frantz, County Extension Agent.

Recent tests at mid-western universities indicate that the addition of urea to silage as it goes into the silo gives considerably better results than adding the same amount at feeding time. The addition of ground corn, limestone, and trace mineral salt can complete the feed, making an all-in-one silage.

Reports from the University of Illinois show that a ration of 1500 pounds of corn silage, 469 pounds of ground corn, 10 pounds of feed grade limestone, 5 pounds of trace mineral salt, and 16 pounds of urea made an excellent combination. Cattle on this feed made a gain at a savings of $1.80 per 100 pounds of gain as compared to the same combination except that urea was added at feeding time.

Forbes Opens PTA Year With Report

Robert Forbes, superintendent of the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation, was the featured speaker at the initial meeting of the Burket-Mentone-Talma P.T.A. meeting which was held Wednesday night in the Mentone gym. Forbes worked into the title of his speech, "From There To Here To Where", by citing improvements which had been made in the schools since incorporation. Included in his list were five periods per day for teachers as compared to a previous 6, improved shop facilities, good guidance program, outstanding reading and English developmental laboratories, improved commercial program, improved speech program, higher quality instructional apparatus, an audio-visual program second to none in a 50-mile radius, a book rental system, no fees for classes, a foreign language program, improvement in curriculum content. He also cited the fact that many of the teachers are continuing their education by pursuing advanced degrees and noted that more emphasis would soon be placed on a physical fitness program and that the vocal music department would be expanded.

The biggest problems facing the corporation, Forbes said, are the size of the elementary classrooms. He noted that the proposed $125,000 addition to the Akron school and $250,000 addition at Mentone would alleviate this condition. He said that the question put to him most often was, "when will we have a new high school?" He indicated he thought the questioners meant when would a new centralized high school be built, and he noted that a centralized school needs support although he would be happy to see one built. He further noted that the school problem was a policy decision and as such the board would have to make that decision. He concluded his talk by saying that he would place the TVSC system against anyone's.

The question and answer period which followed saw Forbes reiterate his previous stand on most matters. He said that the longest time spent on a school bus was one hour and denied playing politics at Akron. He stated that a new school should not supplant qualified personnel and adequate supplies, saying that the building does not make the education.

To questions concerning whether he was dragging his feet and whether the corporation could expect more direction from him in the future, he denied dragging his feet and promised serious thought to the latter question.

He concluded the question and answer period by agreeing with a questioner that an educated person was one who sets out and reaches goals within his talents without infringing upon the legal and moral rights of others.

Also included on the evening's program was Dan Kuhn, No. Webster High School senior, who entertained with a medley of songs and accompanied himself on the guitar. The principals, Gaylord Toll, Marion Acton, and Oliver England, introduced their faculties.

Gaylord Toll announced that a five cent per day hike in lunch prices would need to be made and cited lack of government distributed foods as the reason.

William Ettinger, PTA co-president, announced that the theme for this year's program would be "Educating for a Changing Society."

Dale Kelley, a former principal, opened the meeting with the pledge to the flag and a prayer.

The Patricia award for parent attendance was given to the third grade class.

The October 12 PTA meeting will feature an address by Paula Barstara, an exchange student from the Netherlands who is staying with the Eldon Horn. Cont on back page

Other new officers are Karen Montel, vice president; Cindy Whetstone, secretary; Carol Huffman, treasurer; Cheryl Jones, parliamentarian; May Tucker, reporter; Janet Morrison, historian; Connie Teel, song leader; Diane Young, project chairman; and Sonja Baker, assistant project chairman.

At the first meeting officers planned an F.H.A. Roundup to

Auxiliary Installs New Officers

The Mentone American Legion Auxiliary met recently at the Burket Civil Center for their installation of officers. The impressive ceremony was performed by three members of the Silver Lake unit, Harriet Zimmer, installing officer; Sondra Sellers, sgt. at arms; and Eleanor Rowland, chaplain.

The tables were beautifully decorated and each officer received a corsage.

Officers installed were president, Lillian Smith, vice president, Alice Secrist; treasurer, Lucille Bowerman; chaplain, Blanche Jones; historian, Marilyn Baker, sgt. at arms, Helen Mollenhour.

Opal Nellans substituted as vice president in the absence of Bernice Jones who was unable to attend due to the death of her mother.

A short business meeting was conducted by the president and plans were made to have a style show in the Town Hall on October 19. The junior and senior auxiliary members will model.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Jean Pritchard, and Diana Sarber will be present to tell of her week at Girls State.

Delicious refreshments of homemade ice cream and various toppings, cookies, and coffee were served by the hostess, Mary Wise, to ten members and three guests.

Transfers, Bus Request Granted By TVSC Board

The regular meeting of the Tippecanoe Valley School board was held Monday night in the superintendent's office. Following the routine opening, an audience period was granted to various residents of the corporation and action was taken upon their requests.

The first request came from Mr. and Mrs. Omer Torrence, Newcastle township, who sought to have their freshman son transferred to Rochester in order that he might participate in a four-year vocational agriculture program. The board granted this request.

A similar request was heard from Mrs. Bob Dock, Harrison township, who sought a transfer for her sophomore daughter, Julie, to Warsaw in order that she could continue a college preparatory course which she had begun at Warsaw and which included French. This request was also granted.

Robert Runkle, Bill Merley, and Steve Hartzler, town township residents, sought use of a school bus to transport 4-H boys and girls to Ft. Wayne on October 9, and after considerable discussion this request was granted.

The first three items of business were transacted by four board members in the absence of the fifth board member, Gail Creighton, who was present for the rest of the meeting.

Dave Bowser, Mentone, was present to request the construction of a track at Mentone. He pointed out that Mentone had produced several good track stars but was forced to compete in away-from-home meets due to the lack of a track at the Mentone school. The board voted to begin construction of a track.

At the conclusion of the audience period, the superintendent gave a financial report and reported that the building program had been approved at the state level and that the working drawings were three quarters completed.

The bus manuals and bus policies came under considerable discussion, and some changes were proposed.

Mrs. Garwin (Peggy) Eaton was approved as a teacher aid in the Talma school, and it was reported she had begun her duties.

The board approved a motion to eliminate all candy and soft drink vending machines from the corporation schools.

The public meeting closed at 11:15 p.m., and board members remained for an executive session.

SIGHT METEORITE

The giant meteor that exploded over the Midwest Saturday night was sighted by local residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Rea H. Ward report that they sighted a meteorite near their home Saturday night. They said the colors were beautiful, being nearly rainbow-like in color. The meteorite soon disappeared from view, they said.

Admission to the roundup can be obtained by taking a dish for the pot luck supper. The dish must be prepared by the girl herself. The roundup is for all girls attending Mentone High School.

Eastern Star Opens Fall Season

Mentone Chapter No. 331 Order of the Eastern Star held the first stated fall meeting on September 19 at the Masonic Hall. The Worthy Matron, Cara Lynn Tucker, conducted the usual ritualistic opening, the pledge to the flag of our Country and singing of the national anthem. She then ordered that the Chapter Charter be draped in memory of two deceased members, Helen Huffer and Mara Louise Summy.

An announcement was made by the Worthy Matron that a new District 20 Chorus is in the first stage of organization and any members interested in singing in the chorus should contact Frances Marshall. Full organization is hoped for by November 25 when the chorus will sing at a District meeting. The long range purpose of the new group is to sing at the installation of the newly elected Worthy Grand Matron of Indiana at Grand Chapter in Indianapolis in April 1967.

The Chapter voted to support the Ten for Ten program of the Indiana Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron. This worthy program is planned to assist the Masonic order in the operation and maintenance of a new addition to the hospital at the Masonic Home, Franklin, Indiana. The program is based on ten cents per week per member for ten years.

The District 20 Deputy will pay a visit to the Chapter on Cont on page 2

The second meeting of the Girl Scout Troop #25 for the fall season was held Thursday September 15. Again this year all regular meetings will be held on Thursdays.

It was decided to order our Girl Scout calendars. They will go on sale the first of November in our community.

ODDS and ENDS

For many years it has been a standing joke that we have a ghost in our house. Oh, our ghost is reasonably friendly and doesn't do too much except open doors, walk up and down stairs, swipe scissors, and leave empty tin cans in the attic. He has been with us so long we have more or less gotten used to his antics and he is something of a family pet.

Our ghost has lived with us so long that we have noticed his visits run in cycles, and they no longer frighten us. In fact, I think he moved out for good a few weeks ago.

We had a long week-end, and though there were many things I should have used the time for, an opportunity to read presented itself that is so rare I jumped at it. Todd spent the day with a friend and Doug had played so hard the day before that he took a six-hour nap. Loren was busy outdoors and was not hungry. There I was with a brand new (to me) book, a quiet house, and a day off. The book was set in the moor country of England and the setting alone was eerie. The heroine was met at every turn by veiled threats of death and a few plots obviously intended for her failed. The house had eyes and all eyes seemed to focus on her. Each page became more gripping and I read on. When the footsteps came down my own stairway and opened the door, I only laughed and shut it. They were so warm and friendly compared to the watching eyes of the old house my heroine faced that it seemed ridiculous to fear them.

I read frantically, not noticing any of the strange sounds in our own old house, and I was within twenty pages of the end of the book and the outcome was still a mystery when the phone rang. It was Todd. "Can I stay a little longer?" he asked and his voice registered surprise when I said, "Please do," and hung up.

The noise aroused Doug who came into the room with me and wrapped himself in a blanket on my lap as I read on. Finally, he heard the funny footsteps in the house and left for the kitchen. The refrigerator sidetracked him and he came back armed with a huge piece of cheese. "Me hungry. Me eat this," he said as he bit a chunk out of the cheese. I grabbed the cheese from him with one hand and carried the book with the other hand as I ran to the kitchen to get him something to eat. When he picked up a butcher knife I didn't panic like I usually do, but calmly took it from him with my one free hand and continued reading. I had to see if the person I suspected was truly the ghost.

Doug ate and then asked for help with his pants; I didn't even know if they were going up or down, so engrossed was I in the book.

Finally, at long last, the last page came; the mystery was solved; the person I had suspected was indeed haunting the old house; and the young lived happily ever after.

It was only then that I realized the late hour and took note of my own hunger. Summoning the family to the table I fixed them a quick but tasty meal and described the book I had just finished. "Sounds wild to me," Loren said, and I agreed that it had been. In fact, I thought, it was so wild that our little house with its puny little ghost seems the safest, sunniest, warmest place in the world. I think that did it as far as our ghost was concerned. We heard the door open and the footsteps went on outside and he hasn't been back since.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Luce and children of Ft. Wayne were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Sheetz and sons.

Guns Stolen

Several guns and a box of shells were stolen from the Kenneth Bryant home last Sunday morning while the Bryants attended church.

The Bryant home, located in Newcastle township north of Athens, was entered by someone using a skeleton key. Taken were two 12 gauge shotguns, an antique muzzle loader, a German make shotgun, an old shotgun, and a box of shotgun shells. The thief did not take two rifles, a portable typewriter, a radio and other articles which were near the guns.

RCA VICTOR WEEK

Introducing color so real you'll think you are there!

Shown on cover: the Mark I Deluxe Lexington. Above, the Chatillon French Provincial lowboy. Mark I Deluxe Color TV.

RCA Victor—for color so real

NOW... WITH AUTOMATIC COLOR CONTROLS. New RCA Victor Mark I Color TV for 1967 is almost as easy to tune as a push-button radio. Just turn it on and electronic controls take over. RCA Victor Automatic Frequency Control tunes in the most precise signal—locks it in place—automatically. And RCA Victor Automatic Chroma Control keeps the color level constant—automatically. Just set the color tint you prefer—then sit back and enjoy color so real you'll think you are there. On all Mark I Deluxe models.

RCA SOLID INTEGRATED CIRCUITS are the latest in modern circuitry. These tiny "chips" are virtually indestructible—and perform key sound functions in all Mark II-A and Mark I Deluxe

Color TV. You get greater reliability, more trouble-free TV.

(A) The Lexington, with disappearing doors, has every Mark I Deluxe feature, is housed in a superb Colonial lowboy.

(B) The Mark II-A Deluxe Dumas for excellent performance, even in difficult TV signal areas. French Provincial styling.

(C) Exotic Spanish styling—the Ortega lowboy with Mark II-A Deluxe chassis. Color TV—and fine furniture!

(D) The Mark II-A Deluxe Evanger combines restrained Scandinavian styling with true-to-life color—from RCA Victor!

(F) From America's elegant Federal Period: the Bennington, with Mark II-A Deluxe color chassis. $675.00†

(G) The Ainsworth Mark II-A Deluxe Color TV moves where you want it—on casters!

Mrs. Linn Named Anthony Nigo D.A.R. Regent

The Anthony Nigo Chapter, D.A.R., held their first meeting of the season September 13 at the home of Mrs. Ernest Igo. Mrs. Wayne Smalley opened the meeting with the ritual service, with the first order of business being the installation of officers for the coming year. Mrs. Ray Linn was installed as Regent. Mrs. Wayne Smalley; Vice Regent, Mrs. Walter Lackey; Chaplain, Mrs. Max Smith; Secretary, Mrs. Dale Cook; Treasurer, Mrs. Thomas Fugate; Registrar, Mrs. Ernest Igo; Historian, Mrs. C. G. Carter; and Librarian, Mrs. William E. Cox.

Mrs. Cox read the message from Mrs. William Henry Sullivan, Jr., President General, who outlined some of the accomplishments at National Headquarters during the summer months. Ground was broken for a new Administration Building honoring Mrs. Sullivan at the Tamasee D.A.R. School in June. The major project during the summer was the air conditioning and renovating of Constitution Hall at Washington, D.C., which will enhance the Hall as the cultural center of the Nation's Capitol.

Mrs. Smalley read a letter from the Chapter to distant members of those unable to attend, which outlined the past year's activities and accomplishments of the Chapter. Other correspondence included a letter from the President General favoring the purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds, excerpts from the Indiana News relative to the State Conference on October 4 and 5, and information was given on the fall tour of D.A.R. schools.

Mrs. Igo, National Defense Chairman, said "The Communist Party of the United States held its 18th national convention in New York City in June 1966 and by acclamation elected Gus Hall as general secretary and Henry Winston as national chairman. This was the first identification of the top officers in the party since the party went 'underground' to hamper federal prosecuting for failure to register as a communist action organization. It was the first such convention since 1959. Spokesmen for the party indicated that 255 delegates from 40 states attended the convention along with 422 observers. The FBI director said that the Communist Party has boasted that its recent national in New York City will have historical significance because it was held at a time of 'mass up surge' in which communists are being increasingly accepted and listened to by non-communists groups. Mr. Hoover also said that the party will try to place Candidates on the ballot for local, state and national offices and is aiming one of its most aggressive programs to enlist the support of America's young people. Other excerpts from the National Defender included Russia's warning to the United States that Soviet nuclear submarines have cruised around the world and could strike targets thousands of miles away with rockets and torpedoes, and that the Soviet strategy aims at control over international waterways, including the Panama Canal.

Mrs. Smalley urged members to read "A Letter from Viet Nam" in the current D.A.R. magazine, and members voted to support the Red Cross by collecting articles for the Ditty Bags they are preparing which will be sent to U.S. Armed Forces personnel in Viet Nam.

Mrs. Lackey was elected delegate to the State Conference at Indianapolis, with Mrs. Glenn Claus as alternate delegate.

During the committee reports it was voted to contribute to the 1850 Census Library Microfilm Fund, and the co-operative ad in the D.A.R. Magazine which will feature a historical map of Indiana. Mrs. Arthur Brown urged members to leave good used clothing at the Mentone Library until October 15 to be sent to approved D.A.R. schools.

The meeting was turned over to Mrs. Lackey, Program Chairman, who thanked her committee, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Carter, and Mrs. Ray Rush. The D.A.R. Resolution on Re-dedication was read by Mrs. Paul Shireman. A tape recording of Mrs. Frank D. Smith's essay on "The Constitution of the United States vs. World Government" which won first place in the state was played.

Stamps commemorating Constitution Week, September 17-23, were given to members, and the meeting was closed with the American's Creed. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistants, Mrs. Max Smith and Mrs. Carter.

Milk Price Rises

Effective September 19, dairy farmers who produce milk for the Northwestern Indiana Federal Order 31 milk market will be paid a superpool price of $5.68 per cwt. of Class I (bottled) milk, 30 cents more than in August, a superpool bargaining committee of Pure Milk Association announced Thursday.

The committee said the increase in price results from stiffening competition for milk for bottling purposes from surrounding markets which are experiencing supply shortages.

The Northwestern Indiana milk market area includes St. Joseph, Lake, LaPorte, Elkhart, Kosciusko, Marshall, Porter and Starke counties.

The PMA bargaining committee negotiated the new superpool with area handlers at a meeting Thursday in LaPorte. The PMA committee is headed by Glen Schafer of Lakeville; Howard J. Ribordy, Rt. 2, LaPorte; and Harold L. Smith, Rt. 1, Akron—all members of the association's board of directors. The committee was assisted by W. H. Cope, director of marketing for Pure Milk Association, Chicago.

Other members of the committee are Harley Weaver, Rt. 1, Wakarusa; Wayne D. Coplen, Rt. 2, Macy; James Cook, Rt. 3, Elkhart; William Bannwart, Rt. 1, Wanatah; Nicholas Wirtz, Rt. 4, Crown Point; and Donald Showley, Rt. 1, Rochester.

A superpool price is one which handlers pay dairy farmers over the Federal order price to maintain adequate production for market needs.

Mrs. Weirick Entertains Club

The Mentone Home Demonstration Club met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Raymond Weirick. Mrs. Howard Horn, the vice president, opened the meeting with the pledge to the flag and by leading in singing of "America, the Beautiful." Three officers of the Progressive Homemakers Club of Warsaw were welcomed as guests.

Mrs. Glauz Gates gave the history of the song of the month which was then sung by the group, and Mrs. Harry Sullivan read two poems for meditation. Mrs. Darrell Tucker gave health and safety remarks about artificial respiration.

Mrs. Chester Smith and Mrs. Ellis Hill gave a report on their trip to Colorado Springs where they attended the National Council Conference.

The club decided to change their name to the Mentone Homemakers Extension Club.

Mrs. Howard Horn was elected president for the coming year. Other new officers are Mrs. John Laird, vice president; Mrs. Ralph Warren, secretary; and Mrs. Glen Sechrist, treasurer.

A silent auction was enjoyed during the social hour, and the meeting closed with the club prayer song and with everyone repeating the creed.

The hostess and her assistant, Mrs. Harry Sullivan, served delicious refreshments to twenty members and four guests. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Howard Addleman on October 13.

Pass First Inspection

All the buses in the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation passed the first State Police inspection which was held recently. Superintendent Robert Forbes said that this is the first time all of the school buses have been approved on the first inspection. He stated, however, that he was not surprised at their passing the inspection because starting last June considerable work was done on many of the corporation buses and that all of the buses were in excellent repair.

Parson Jones Speaks

Dear Mr. Publisher

You should have been at our church last Saturday. We played our softball championship game. This all-important contest was between us and the Holy Good Sport Church. The game went 14 innings and we finally lost 103 to 104.

We started this church softball league at the beginning of the summer. It seemed like most folks rather go to ball games than church, so the Preachers Association voted to have a softball league. They allowed as how if folks were gonna go to sports events, we might as well provide a little "holy ball" for 'em. According to the final report we had played 40 regular games, 14 protest games, and 5 series games.

After last Saturday nights long-winded contest, all the preachers met at home plate and decided to hold a revival next month to see if we can't recapture some of the religion we lost playing ball.

In the rules that we drew up for our games, we pointed out the purpose for our League: "To show the world the difference between Christian sports and worldly sports." During the season we had 3 fights, two between players, and one with the umpire. We had 78 arguments, 14 that ended up in protest games. Six players got expelled for cussing on the field and 17 fellas got caught trying to steal bases. After two weeks the teams got where they wouldn't hardly talk to one another. The worse thing of all was that some of our players got mad cause they didn't get to play every game, and they stopped coming to church. We had eight fellas that wanted to pitch and 10 that wanted to play first base.

Anyhow, the softball season is over and we can go back to being Christians again. The Deacons swear that there ain't gonna be no more church softball in our congregation. But, I told 'em it was a pretty good thing. A fella's religion ain't worth a hill-a-beans if it won't hold up under stress and strain. Playing softball is the best religious testing machine I know of. I'd a hole lot rather discover all these defects on the ball field than I would in the Big Court Room on judgement day.

I reckon that's the reason so many church members brag about being good - they ain't never been put thru a real test. Folks that's been thru the mill ain't so apt to go around with that holier-than-thou attitude. Yes sir, you play ball one season, and then you'll know how to say, "God be merciful to me a sinner."

Well, I gotta close for now, I still think I was safe at home plate, when that blind umpire called me out. I'm gonna see if we can't raise enough money to buy him some glasses. See you later. Watch them curves!

Yours truly,
Parson Jones

Editor's Viewpoint

We tip our hats to the school board of the Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation for providing the corporation with buses which all passed the first inspection. This is quite an accomplishment and one of which we can all be proud. When you consider that we are one of two similar sized corporations in the state to pass 100% on the first inspection, it is easy to see that we are in pretty select company. The board and Mr. Forbes have every right to feel elated at this report, and we are happy for them and for the safety of our school children.

A Column of News By And For All Girl Scouts Of The Mentone Community

Another busy afternoon was spent at the Mentone Methodist Church Scout Room Troop #25 made their final arrangements for the over-nite camp-out with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Greer. Everything is in readiness. It was decided all girls would sleep in-side due to the chill in the weather.

We welcomed a new member Wendy Deal, formerly of Kokomo. Introduction were made by playing the 'Name Game'. Letters were written by each patrol to their adoptive grandparents. They were mailed following the meeting.

Court of Awards, was held those receiving badges were Cheryl Clampitt, Leslie Senff, Lynne Knoop, Cindy Allen, and Debra Kelley.

Mrs. Howard Allen and Mrs. Joe Good completed a course in basic leadership training at the Scout cabin in Warsaw this week.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Rusty Ecker, and Mrs. Opal Hüssinger entertained 16 Girl Scouts for the evening. They cooked pizza, popped corn and ate potato chips and pop. They declared the pizza a success, and surprisingly enough they were all in bed by 10 o'clock although it was noted that none of them was asleep at eleven. Nancy Ettinger showed the girls how to smell real good while they slept.

A 1:30 a.m. check on the girls showed sleeping bags everywhere with nine girls in one room, three in another, and four in the third room.

The girls arose when the sun came up and cooked breakfast inside and outside the house. Mrs. Allen came out about eight and signed their books for the work they had completed and everyone was ready to return to town by ten. Everyone, parents and girls alike, reported they enjoyed the experience very much.

All of the girls except Windy Deal, our new Girl Scout, got their troop camper badge. Receiving the badge were Cindy Allen, Kathy Bush, Cheryl Clampitt, Sharon Crawl, Pam Ecker, Nancy Ettinger, Kathy Greer, Jessica Gross, Barbara Johnson, Debra Kelly, Lynne Knoop, Sheryl McGowen, Terry McGowen, Leslie Senff, and Kathy Tucker. Cheryl Clampitt also received the Community badge.

The couple has eight children: Mrs. Clara Finney, Mrs. Erma Coplen and Charles, all of Rochester; Mrs. Carol Azbell of Columbus, Orville of Detroit, Merl of Indianapolis, Harold of Cleveland, and Donald of Fort Wayne. COOPERS CORNER

This is a beautiful bright cool and frosty morning. It makes you dig in your wardrobe to find something suitable to wear. Now is just the time to stop in at Coopers in Mentone for some new fall wearing apparel. Our racks are hanging full of new jackets and coats for men and boys, girls and women. The style trend in coats for men and boys includes the fur look, the mod pea coat with epaulet shoulders, the western jacket, the corduroy coat and the country squire plaid coat. Insulated jackets are just right for these cool days, and, as usual, we have a wide selection of these jackets in many styles and colors. It's ideal sweater weather. Our sweaters by Campus are knit of the finest yarns in the new fall shades.

Ladies, we extend to you an invitation to stop in and look at our new lines of women's sportswear by Queen Casual and Jane Colby. This includes skirts, slacks, sweaters and blouses in wool, orlon and double knit cotton. In addition to these two lines we are also stocking Jeanie slacks and Maverick jeans by Blue Bell. We invite you to use our lay-away.
