FUNERAL SERVICES FOR LEE DUNCAN HELD SATURDAY

Funeral services for Lee Duncan, aged 65 years, were held at the Johns funeral home Saturday afternoon at 1:30. Death attributed to complications, occurred at the county home at 9:30 Thursday evening.

Mr. Duncan, a retired farmer, had been ill since last fall and had been a patient at the Woodlawn hospital at Rochester.

The deceased was born in Ohio county, Indiana November 5, 1878, the son of the late Joseph and Mary Duncan. Most of his life was spent in and around this city.

A brother, whose exact location is not known, and a half-brother, Fred McKinley, of this place, survive.

Burial was in the Mentone cemetery.

LOCAL STUDENTS ELIGIBLE FOR STATE CONTEST

Last Saturday, March 28, the soloists and ensemblists from our high school band participated in the Districts I and III Solo and Ensemble contest held at Akron.

The soloists that participated were Robert Nelson, 1st division; Juanita Baker, 1st division; Barbara Creighton, 2nd division, and Jack Dillman, 1st division.

The Brass Sextet which also made first division, was composed of Juanita Baker, Robert Nelson, Richard Hudson, Jack Dillman, Forrest Meredith and Geneva Gibson.

Our first-division Mellophone Quartette included the following members: Richard Hudson, Elma King, Frances Baum and Jack Dillman.

The members of the Clarinet Quartette to play at the state meet will be: Robert Anderson, Lola Tucker, Barbara Creighton and Katherine Snider.

Barbara Creighton is filling the oboe position in our band this year which was left vacant when Malcolm Long moved to Talma. This has naturally affected her solo contest rating on the clarinet, but the additional experience on the oboe is possibly of more value. Her versatility is much appreciated by the members of the band and her director.

Don't forget the concert date—April 14, at 8:00 p. m. in the Community building. Mr. A. R. Jinks, band director of Wabash High School, will be guest conductor. Remember! This is not our basketball "pep-band," but is the band the judges hear in the spring contests. An interesting program composed of a great variety of numbers will be presented. A complete program will be printed next week.

MOST BUSINESSES TO CLOSE HERE FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Indications are that most business houses in Mentone will be closed for a short while Friday afternoon while Good Friday services are in progress. Services are planned for the Methodist church from 12:00 to 3:00 o'clock.

CATHERINE BROWN DIES AT AGE OF 94 YEARS

Catherine Brown, aged 94 years and 16 days, Mentone's oldest resident, passed away at the home of a niece, Mrs. Geo. Ditsch, at Mishawaka last Friday evening at eight o'clock. Death was attributed to asthma and heart trouble. She had been in poor health for two years but had lived in Mentone until last fall.

The deceased was born in Steuben county March 11, 1848. The husband, who was a Civil war veteran, died 23 years ago. She was a member of the Baptist church.

The only surviving relatives are a number of nieces and nephews. A foster daughter and the husband preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held at the Reed funeral home Monday afternoon at two o'clock, with Rev. V. E. Squibb, of Morrocco, officiating. Interment was in the Mentone cemetery.

The words of many of those who called to view her at the funeral home indicate that she was always friendly and kindly, and even in her affliction she maintained a sunny disposition.

TAX EXEMPTIONS FOR VETERANS, THEIR WIDOWS

Attorney Thomas Fitzgerald calls our attention to a law enacted by the 1941 Indiana general assembly which permits, or entitles, any veteran who served in the military or naval forces of the United States between April 6, 1917 and Nov. 11, 1918, and who was disabled with service-connected disability of 10 per cent or more, deducting the amount of one thousand dollars from his taxable property. The law also applies to the widow of such veteran. This law carries a proviso that it applies when it does not bar the recipient from other exemption benefits.

Miss Jean Burns, who has been attending Indiana University at Bloomington, is expected home for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Burns, Thursday.

On last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Charley Hire, of Sevastopol, had a narrow escape from a case of accidental poisoning. At supper time Mrs. Hire filled the pepper box with what she thought was ground pepper but later proved to be powdered cantharides. Both became critically ill. The proper antidote was given by Dr. Burket. Charley was able to come to town Monday but Mrs. Hire's recovery wasn't so rapid.

MOTOR CLUB ADVISES
EXERCISING FAMILY AUTO

Drive your car everyday, at least far enough to warm up the motor, is a rule recommended by Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club, as one of the most important means of preserving an automobile.

"It is now the patriotic duty of every car owner to do his part to see not only that his car lasts as long as possible, but also to prevent unnecessary repairs," Mr. Hayes pointed out. "Moderate, sensible usage is the surest way of accomplishing these ends."

The motor club says that daily operation of a car prevents deterioration of tires, battery and engine which set in after the vehicle has been idle even a short time. Club engineers declare that complete disuse results in nearly as rapid wear and disintegration as excessive or abusive driving.

A BEREAN SPEAKS UP

"The words crucify and cross are absolutely out of place in any description of the death of our Lord. He was executed on a stake, the same as any other criminal of his day."

These are words of the author of Nuggets for Bereans in this paper, March 25.

He asserted the Greek word staurós means a "stake, an upright piece of timber" and that it cannot mean "two pieces of timber as the cross is pictured."

In reply this Berean calls attention to Acts 5:30 which says, referring to Jesus, "whom ye slew, hanging him on a tree." See also Acts 13:29 and I Pet. 2:24. There is more than one piece of timber or a stake in a tree. The cross was made out of the wood of the tree. Again, this Berean cannot accept the above definition of Staurós. Abbot-Smith's Greek lexicon defines Staurós, "The Roman instrument of crucifixion, the cross." Any large English dictionary defines and pictures twelve crosses and not one of them is a "stake or upright piece of timber." The ancient Greeks, say about 500 B. C., did execute criminals by impaling the victim on a sharp stake, but the Romans did not. Our Lord was executed not by Greeks but by the Romans. He was affixed to a cross or crucified on the "Roman instrument of crucifixion, the cross." If Jesus was impaled on a sharp stake in the Greek manner, how can we account for the "print of the nails in his hands"? See John 20:24-29. This Berean knows of no accepted English translation that renders Staurós "a piece of upright timber or stake." This Berean prefers to accept the great scholarship that gave us the King James (1611) and the Revised Versions, 1881 and 1901, than that of the author of the article under review.

Both the Lord and the Apostle Paul used the cross in a symbolic sense. Read Matt. 16:24 and Gal. 6:14. Mr. Baker asks: "who can doubt that the mark of the Beast in Rev. 13 is any other than the ancient symbol of Babylon, the cross?" The answer: Every true Berean knows this affirmation in the question form is nothing but a wild guess—purest speculation. Therefore, it isn't a nugget of truth at all, merely a nugatory opinion without any Biblical evidence.

NUGGETS FOR BEREANS

The term EASTER occurs only once in the Bible (Acts 12:4). In this passage the Passover was meant. The use of the word EASTER was a terrible error, for the word comes from the Saxon EASTRE which was a goddess corresponding to the Syrian VENUS or ASTARTE which is called ASHTORETH in the Old Testament.

According to the Levitical Law, the Passover was to be observed from the 14th to the 21st of Nisan (April 4-5 to 11-12). Now if we study the events concerning the death of our Lord, we find that the Last Supper was the beginning of the Passover. It was observed after sunset on Tuesday night. The trial was held during the same night and Christ died on the tree at 3 p. m. on Wednesday. This was the precise time for the killing of the Passover lamb. He lay in the tomb 3 nights and 3 days and arose sometime after sunset on Saturday night.

Friday could not have been the day of His death, for there was a meeting of the Sanhedrin the following day which was unlawful for the Seventh day, but was allowable for the High Sabbath which came on Thursdays.

Those who wish to keep the exact time of these events will find that the time of the Last Supper would be the evening of April 4th this year. The death of our Lord on Sunday the 5th and the Resurrection after sunset of the 8th.

Check with the Jewish calendar and see whether these things be so. —Oscar M. Baker.

In our last issue, while announcing the arrival of a new grandson at Attica, Indiana, for Mrs. Allie Lyons, we may have left the impression that Mr. and Mrs. Fred Evans were the happy parents. The new boy, John Frederick, was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Lyons, who also reside at Attica.

BANKS ORGANIZE TO SUPPORT FOOD PROGRAM

The Food for Freedom program of the Department of Agriculture will have the full support of the nation's banks which are getting set to put their credit service behind it. Under the leadership of the American Bankers Association and the various state bankers associations, a nationwide plan is being set in motion to organize this support for the program on a county by county basis. Meetings are being held in every state for the purpose of informing bankers in regard to the production goals asked by the government, the commodity loans and price supports surrounding them and of pointing out ways in which banks can enlarge their credit services to farmers.

The plan for the banks is laid out in a working manual entitled, "How Banks Can Assist in the Food for Freedom Program," which was prepared by a group of country bankers from all sections of the country. The manual contains complete data on the program, including charts setting forth the production goals for 1942, the increases required over 1941, and the commodity loans and price supports provided. In addition, it stresses the responsibility of banks and other agencies for the success of the Food for Freedom program and suggests methods by which they can help themselves and in cooperation with other lending agencies can assure to farmers the credit necessary to finance their wartime production.

A copy of the abovementioned booklet is on file at the Co-Op. News office.

Down in Bloomington the Indiana University football team's end coach, C. A. "Tim" Temerario, was all ready to accept a new appointment at the University when Uncle Sam gave him an appointment he wasn't expecting. He's in Annapolis, Md., now for a one-months training and indoctrination course leading up to a commission as a lieutenant, junior grade, in the Naval Reserve. Upon completion of his course Temerario will become one of 200 athletic instructors to assist in training Navy pilots in physical education.

The line of applicants for enlistment in the Navy's construction regiment became a family affair for a time one day last week. Applying for enlistment were two brothers, Clifton Allison, a welder, and Ralph Allison, a shipping clerk. Right behind them in the line came Glen Vaughn and his father, Howard Vaughn. The elder Vaughn spent four years in the Navy during and after the United States' participation in the first world war. All four men are from Indianapolis.

LETTER FROM MOTHER TO ME.

As I sit here in my military home I am happy, contented and gay, In my hand I hold something dearer than gold,

It's a letter from one far away. The writing so dear, old fashioned and clear

Makes my heart beat in deep ecstasy It's written by one who thinks of her son;

It's a letter from mother to me.

There's only one mother, on earth there's no other

Who'll ever love you as fondly as she.

Bitter tears have I shed as I lay on my bed

Over those letters from mother to me.

When I left for my year she hid every tear

And she kissed me a tender good-bye But she couldn't beguile that back of her smile

Was a heart that was aching to cry.

Her tender designs I read 'tween the lines

When she tells me, "Don't worry son

Just be a good lad, for mother and dad

Are proud of the way you've begun" For in this new plan you are Uncle Sam's man

Though soon may you're dear face I see

And on mother depend, she will stick to the end

Said the letter from mother to me.

—(Pvt. DeVon Hibschan, stationed at Elmendorf Field, Anchorage, Alaska, sent the above verses to his mother, Mrs. Raymon Hibschan, Mentone.)

NEWS?—CALL 39

Just as long as he's fighting for his country, Albert Riley Theobald, 42, Greenfield electrician, doesn't care which branch of the service he's in. A private in the United States Marines who fought in the Meuse-Argonne area during the first world war, Theobald will get his action in the Navy now. He enlisted recently as an electrician's mate, third class.

Lewis A. Cain, Lafayette, and James W. Turner, Greensburg, will soon be serving the Navy for a second time in a world war. Cain has returned to the Navy as a boatswain's mate, second class. In the last war he made thirteen trips across the Atlantic aboard the U. S. S. Culgoa, a refrigerator ship carrying food cargoes.

Returning to his duties as a Navy fireman, Turner served the last several months of the war on the transport U. S. S. America, a former German liner which had been sunk, then raised and reconditioned.

For a state that is almost a thousand miles from the nearest ocean, Indiana is certainly doing more than its share toward making the United States Navy the greatest sea force in the world.

When 1,000 enlisted men report at the University of Notre Dame on April 15 for a one-month indoctrination course eventually leading to a commission as ensign in the Naval Reserve, the machinery of the state's seventh major naval function will be set in motion. Capt. H. P. Burnett, head of the Notre Dame unit of the naval R. O. T. C., has been named general commandant of the program. On April 17 Rear Admiral John Downes, commandant of the ninth naval district, will come to South Bend for the Blue Network's radio show, "Meet Your Navy," which will originate on the Notre Dame campus in honor of the naval school's opening.

Besides the two Notre Dame schools, five other Indiana Navy units are now operating successfully. The state's main recruiting station

In order to prepare elementary school children for the traffic dangers of rainy Spring days to come, the March safety poster now being distributed among 40,000 classrooms in Illinois and Indiana by the Chicago Motor Club bears the headline, "Be Extra Careful On Rainy Days." This poster is the sixth in the "Teach Your Friends" series of the 1941-42 school year, according to Charles M. Hayes, motor club president.

is located in the Indianapolis Federal building. It has substations in Muncie, Lafayette, Kokomo, Fort Wayne, Richmond, Columbus, Evansville, Terre Haute and Vincennes. That they are doing a good job is proved by the fact that Indiana enlists more men, per million male population, than any state, in the union. Indianapolis is also the home of a U. S. Naval Radio Training school and a Naval Ordnance plant.

Outside the Hoosier capital is the Burns City Naval Ammunition depot near Bedford which is performing another valuable service. In addition several Hoosier firms are filling ordnance contracts and companies in Evansville, Fort Wayne, and South Bend have already won the Navy "E" for excellence in production.

Indiana naval activities are still growing, too, and before many more months there'll be a new naval aviation base near Peru, a training school at Butler University and another school at the Michigan City Naval Armory.

The Navy Department has set April 15 as the deadline for college men wishing to enroll in Naval Reserve Officer Training to attain junior status and thus be held at their respective schools pending successful completion of their senior years. Other college underclassmen may enlist in the Naval Reserve as apprentice seamen, Class V-1, and later transfer to Class V-7 as they become eligible.

As soon as a state chairman is appointed, the Navy Relief Society will begin a drive in Indiana to raise $165,000 to aid in caring for the families of Navy men killed in the line of duty. Several benefit performances, athletic contests, etc., have already been proposed to assist in the drive.

Since the attack on Pearl Harbor, the enlisted personnel of the Navy has greatly increased. More and more demand has been placed on the Navy Relief Society until finally an appeal had to be made for public help. The Society was incorporated in 1904 and is administrated by Navy personnel and their wives. Supplementary assistance is often given to families where the regular government pensions are not sufficient to prevent distress.

With the abandonment of the Indiana state fair this year, the various county fairs will come back into their own and with them will come the United States Navy. The fleet won't dock in the fairgrounds but some of its officers will, bringing with them displays of Navy equipment, material and pictures of the fleet in action. The Navy exhibit will give the public a chance to see what the U. S. Navy does, how it operates, how your friend in the Navy lives, etc.

Among those accepted as blacksmiths for the Navy's construction regiment this week were two brothers, Thomas Cline and Fred L. Cline of Camden.

knew more about art than they did about the Bible, have pictured this POLE as a cross, the emblem of Babylon. But the word is singular and cannot possibly mean two pieces of wood.

The same is true of the Greek words used to describe the pole or stake upon which our Lord was nailed.

Now the beloved apostle, in obedience to the Holy Spirit, has written that Christ must be lifted up just as was the serpent in the wilderness. Was God careless in His use of words?

Now here is food for further thought. The Greek, STAUROS and XULON (translated CROSS by the slaves of tradition) can only mean a dead pole, stake or tree. DENDRON is a live tree. Yet XULON is used four times in Rev. 2:7; 22:2, 14 and rightly translated THE TREE OF LIFE. It has leaves and bears fruit. In Num. 17:8 we find that the rod of Aaron over night budded, and bore leaves and fruit. What else is this but RESURRECTION?

Mr. C. W. Devere
 Union City
 Indiana

Dear Mr. Devere:

I am sending you herewith a tabulation showing the production of eggs in four houses which we used last winter, to check the results of feeding your Dried Produlac. We fed Dried Produlac in Bldg. #17 entirely replacing the dried milk in our laying mash. I might say that this Dried Produlac was fed 200 lb. to the ton of mash, the same as the milk was fed in the houses #18, 19, and 20.

After keeping the record of production for five months, we find that the birds in house #17 laid 166,303 eggs, compared with those in house #18, laying 166,778, #19 producing 166,101, and house #20 producing 164,296.

While we do not regard these figures as being significant so far as showing the superiority of Produlac Dried mash over milk, we do feel that it adequately and satisfactorily replaced milk in our poultry rations.

This experiment was undertaken after a great deal of hesitancy on my part in recognizing the merits of Dried Produlac. However, after trying it out for five months, keeping an accurate record of production, mortality, and hatchability of building #17 compared with three other buildings which were made up of pullets of the same age and grown under the same conditions, we cannot help but come to the conclusion that Produlac Dried satisfactorily replaces milk in the laying mash.

We fed a certain amount of condensed skim milk and condensed whey to all the birds, which means the birds in houses #17, 18, 19, and 20. This milk and whey were fed in a wet mash which was fed on top of the dry mash in hoppers.

The percentage of hatch in building #17 was 1.7% higher than the average of the hatch in buildings #18, 19, and 20, so we find that in addition to giving satisfactory egg production, we also receive satisfactory hatchability; and, our mortality in building #17, 18, 19, and 20, was almost identical.

In view of the present high price of milk, it seems to me that Produlac Dried is certainly a very attractive buy to the commercial poultryman. We do not look upon this substitution merely as a means of saving money, but rather as a more economical way to do a good job of feeding chickens.

You may compile the figures on the enclosed chart in any way you choose, and use any part or all of this letter in any way you please.

Very truly yours,

LIONS CLUB ENTERTAINS BASKETBALL BOYS, COACHES

The Mentone Lions club was host Wednesday evening to the basketball players of the Beaver Dam and Mentone schools and their respective athletic instructors. There was an exceptionally large percentage of club members present.

As a zone meeting was planned following the regular club meeting, a number of guests were present from the Lions clubs at Argos and Bourbon.

Guests introduced were: President Umbaugh, Secretary Sissel, Past Presidents Beigh and Amos, Tail Twister Burket and First Vice President Bowell, all of Argos; Zone Chairman Paul Smith and Secretary Shaffer of Bourbon; Raymond Lash, trustee of Franklin township; Principal Buroker and Coach Nenian Kesler of Beaver Dam; Lloyd Miner, trustee of Harrison township, Principal Dale Kelley and Coach Ernest Harvey, of Mentone. The coaches introduced the boys of their squads.

Lion President Harrison, who had charge of the meeting, introduced Mr. Phil Eskew, head of the Social Science department of the Wabash High School, who gave a very fine address. Being interested in athletic games and a basketball official, his talk dealt especially with that phase of the life of a boy. The four points used as a basis for his discussion were: honesty, willingness to learn, ability and a desire to win—all of which are vitally necessary for a boy to succeed whether it be on an athletic field or in his school or business activities.

Quite a flyer on the cinders for the Indiana University track team for the last three years, Campbell Kane of Michigan City hopes to be just as good a one for Uncle Sam's Navy in a few months. Holder of the Big Ten record for the half-mile, Kane enlisted in the Navy's class V-5 this week for aviation cadet training.

Having worked in the merchant marine, George Louis Ward, 23, of Boonville was able to enlist in the Navy as a seaman first class without going through the usual seaman's apprenticeship required of men without previous naval experience.

Clerical experience gained during a three-year Army enlistment will go into the making of a clerical career in the Navy for Williard Lansing Tilford, 26, of Bloomfield. Tilford enlisted as a yeoman third class. He was a company clerk in the Army.

It'll be more than patriotic flag-waving you'll see on the Butler University campus after June 1. A naval training school for signal men will be opened there then and approximately 800 sailors will be quartered in the Butler Fieldhouse while they receive their training.

James Albert Bender, Bloomington, who gave his occupation as a cement finisher when he volunteered for the Navy, may be finishing cement on a bigger scale than he ever dreamed. The Navy recruiting station in Indianapolis enlisted him in the construction regiment as a carpenter's mate, third class.

Milton A. Harding of Sullivan has had a varied career in the Navy during the short time he has been in the service. Harding enlisted in the Navy in October as a yeoman, third class, but soon found there wasn't enough excitement for him in that rating; so he transferred to aviation cadet training. He is one of five Hoosiers who reported to the Navy's main flight training centers at Pensacola, Fla., and Corpus Christi, Tex., last Friday.

Four other Indiana men who will be seeking their Navy wings include Harold J. Bitzgaio, 621 N. Fifth St.; Leonard E. Byrer, 610 S. Twelfth St.; and Paul J. Pfister, 2340 N. Tenth St., all of Terre Haute, and Robert L. Klingler of Clay City.

Two Muncie brothers will get their Navy indoctrination at the same Naval Training Station as the result of extraordinary procedure authorized by Captain E. M. Senn, inspector of recruiting for the central division.

Kenneth P. Walsh, 36, was among a group of recruits sent to the San Diego station March 30. Lawrence R. Walsh, 25, enlisted later and was scheduled to be sent to another station. Upon the father's request, however, Captain Senn interceded and Lawrence is on his way to San Diego by himself under special orders.

Forrest Jess Leeper, 36, son of Mrs. Grace Wagley, Bremen, will use his seven years' automobile mechanic's experience in the Navy. He was enlisted as a motor machinist's mate, third class.

Having been an electrical contractor eighteen years with three years experience in the army, Albert Fay Price, 41, Frankfort, will take a turn in the Navy during this war. He's now an electrician's mate, third class.

Lloyd Charles Wampler, 21, Gosport, an Indiana University senior who has done clerical work for the Indiana State Department of Conservation during five summer vacations, will have a clerical assignment in the Navy as a yeoman, third class.

No more seeing the world from a movie projection booth for James Graydon Moon, 23, Logansport, a motion picture operator. He'll see it through a porthole from now on because he's an apprentice seaman in the Navy.

Mike Joe Hart, 24, who completed nearly four years in the Navy in 1940 as a storekeeper, third class, is going back in as a storekeeper, second class.

The Indianapolis station for Navy recruiting is clearing its books this week and young men will no longer have extended waits between enlistment and shipment to Naval training stations. Congestion at training stations since Pearl Harbor has been relieved by expansion and will be able to accommodate all men recruiting stations can send them. At the present time, approximately 500 in the Indiana area are on the inactive duty list.

NUGGETS FOR BEREANS

QUESTION: Why is the preaching of the cross foolishness to them that perish, as written in 1 Cor. 1:18?

ANSWER: You will probably be surprised to find that nowhere in the Bible is the preaching of the cross in any way connected with salvation in its evangelical sense.

I believe from the Scripture teaching on this subject that Christ could have died for the ungodly by some other means. He could have redeemed us and obtained for us forgiveness of sins by shedding His blood in some other manner. But, there was a necessity for the cross in His own life as well as in ours. In looking at Matt. 10:38; 16:24; Mark 8:34; 10:21; Luke 9:23 and 14:27 we find the cross used in relation to denying self and taking up the cross and following Him. This then is not referring to salvation, but rather to perfection. In each case is reference to future recompense.

No book in the Bible gives the basic facts of salvation like the epistle to the Romans; yet in it there is no mention of the cross. The cross is always associated with the crown, the suffering with the glory, and the loss with the gain. Christ went to the cross and bore the shame that He might be "perfected through suffering."

Since it has no message of salvation, it is only foolishness to them that perish. But to us that are saved it is the power of God, to go on to perfection, to make us more than conquerors in Christ Jesus, to lead us on to a crown.

SO-LONG, CLASSMATES

Our high school days are at an end, The time has come and we must go. What is our fate we do not know, But as our Class Day too, has drawn nigh,

So just this thought before good-bye: We all see very clearly now We did too much raising heck, So you and you, and yes, you too To the old studies and to the new Just buckle down and do your best Then you won't flunk in every test. To your ball club for "43",

You'll soon forget to think of me And Kenny, Buck, and Pew and Mort These friends are not the sort To fuss and worry, fret and stew, Because we know, you're comin thru. You have a coach that's wise and smart,

And then, too, Kelley does his part To boost you boys to higher fame. There's just one way to play the game.

Oh yes! Boys, when the going's tough And when things get a little rough, Just grit your teeth and dig right in. And if you get it on the chin, Don't squirm and fret and try to blame

It on some other fellow's name. Instead, just slap him on the back, "You couldn't help it Bill or Mac. Because that last foul didn't light Just where you hoped and prayed it might."

And when a battle has been won Don't try to say, 'twas your dad's son

That made the shot and quenched the flame.

It takes fine men to play the game, And so my friends—"I say good-bye." I hope hope I haven't told a lie. Just to show I'm not ashamed I'll sign to this poem My very own name.

—John Beeson Tucker.

OWNERS CAUTIONED
ABOUT WANDERING DOGS

The attention of the city council has been called about a number of dogs that have been playing on lawns and gardens. To safeguard against losses due to the antics of the innocent animals or the creation of ill feeling among friends and neighbors, each dog owner should watch his prized pet to see that he is not an offender.

YOUR CAR How to Get the MOST out of It

Note: Every motorist needs to know how to get the most out of his car—for his own and for his country's sake. Following is the first of a series of articles on car conservation. They are based on material just published in a book, Automobile User's Guide, which was prepared by the Customer Research staff of General Motors in cooperation with General Motors engineers, Proving Ground experts, research technicians and service specialists.

To make your car serve for the duration, you must be both a careful driver and a careful owner. You must (1) operate your car sensibly and (2) see that it is kept in top-notch condition.

A careful driver, from the point of view of your car, is not just a good driver. Many things that a good driver can do under normal, peacetime conditions, a careful driver would be foolish to do today. A careful driver would not drive fast today even on the best and safest road in the country unless saving a few minutes' time were of paramount importance.

Similarly, the rules of car maintenance have changed. Points that were of minor importance before Pearl Harbor now must be given first consideration. Under-inflation has always been bad for tires, yes. But some were willing to pay in decreased tire mileage for a more cushioned ride. Today that price has become prohibitive.

It will be worth your while to review your motoring habits and decide how they must be changed to meet changed conditions. The next two articles in this series will discuss how to operate your car to squeeze every ounce of mileage out of it. Tires, lubrication, motor, brakes, instruments and car appearance will be dealt with in subsequent installments.

SARGEANT SMITH WRITES

(The following letter, written by Sgt. Louie E. Smith, was received this week by a Mentone citizen.)

You will have to pardon me for not writing sooner. We have been so darned busy lately. We have been firing most all the time these last few weeks. So far this Battery is leading the rest of the Division Artillery. That is a pretty good job.

I don't remember if I told you I took an exam for the Air Corps. Passed it, too. Now I am just waiting here till a new class is started to be called. If I don't wash out I can get a commission. Don't know what I am going to try for yet, but it will be either pilot, navigator, bombardier, or gunner. They said that if I flunked all of those I would get my sergeants stripes back and stay in the air corps on the ground. I don't much like that ground stuff, tho. If I wanted that I could stay in the artillery.

That was too bad about Bataan, wasn't it? I don't think so much about the boys that got theirs over there, but when you think about the ones that are prisoners of the Japs it sort of hits deep. Our battery is right across the street from the stockade here. Last night the authorities brought in over 200 japs for us to keep. And I'm telling you that they were just hoping some of them tried to get out. No such luck tho. This is a mad bunch right now.

I wrote the Air Cadet Board in San Angelo a letter yesterday asking for a furlough. I am hoping I will get about 30 days at home. Haven't had but 15 days in the last 16 months. That isn't very much.

We are school troops out here. Getting the finest training we ever had. It is a heck of a country, tho. You can be up to your neck in mud and choke on the dust. It will be as hot as blazes at noon, and you will start looking for an overcoat at three. Beats me. There is more country out here with less to see. More rivers with less water. More cows with less milk than any place in the world. That just about covers it.

Not much else to say, so until something happens to write about I'll have to close.

(Sgt.) LOUIE E. SMITH.

An Explanation

For the past three months, I have had an increasing amount of angina-like pain in my chest. Because of Dr. Clutter's illness and the decreasing number of doctors in our community, I kept working until it became so severe as to cause me to be out of office at irregular intervals. About two weeks ago, I consulted the doctors at the Duemling Clinic at Ft. Wayne and one week ago, went to Henry Ford Hospital for examination.

The opinion of the men at these two places was that there were early signs of a very serious heart condition and that only by extended rest and drastic curtailment of my practice would I be able to keep going.

As you may well realize, this news was a great shock to me. I have been very proud of my practice in Mentone and vicinity. It was suggested that I give up this practice and enter study for some specialty. The only alternative was to stay in Mentone and limit my practice. That is easy to say, but extremely difficult to do. I cannot say to one of you, "I will see you," and to the next, "I will not take care of you." I cannot make one home call and refuse the next.

As most of you realize, my chief interest has been in diagnosis and in internal medical treatment. My training, two years in the department of internal medicine at Henry Ford Hospital all pointed towards that. My equipment here, laboratory, x-ray, electrocardiograph, basal metabolism, etc., show what I like most to do. In the past 5 years that type of practice has come increasingly to me. Patients from a distance have been coming because they knew I did that type of work. It seems to me that in this, medical diagnosis and treatment, lays my chance to remain in Mentone.

This will mean much change in my work as a community doctor. In fact, it will mean the end of much of my usefulness to the local people. I will take care of no obstetric cases, nor will I make any home calls except in such cases of serious emergency where no other doctor can be located. Office hours will be conducted purely on an appointment basis, as the dentists do now. It will be necessary for you to call or write for appointments, while those patients who are making regular visits will be given appointment cards for their next visit each time they are in the office. This method is used in most cities and in all the clinics. It is of definite advantage to the patient, as it enables him to know that he will be taken care of at a certain time. He doesn't have to come and wait for hours for attention. He knows that a certain amount of time has been allotted to him and he will get all of that time and not have to be hurried through just because so many others are waiting. From my point of view it is necessary because it will enable me to regulate the amount of work I do.

I will be gone from now until May 18. A nurse will be in the office during all regular office hours during my absence to make future appointments, to take care of those patients needing medicine and special treatment.

Because of Dr. Clutter's illness and my own, it may be that we will be able to get another doctor to locate in this community.

BAND PRESENTS

SPRING CONCERT

On Tuesday evening Mr. Bowers presented his band in a concert which was very much appreciated and enjoyed by a large audience.

Those of you who may have heard the concert six years ago, when the band was in its infancy, and are able to make a comparison, can see what has been accomplished. The band has grown from a small group of 13 instruments to a well balanced band of 38 members.

The program on Tuesday evening was composed of comparatively difficult numbers, which our band played so well that the guest conductor, Mr. Jinks, expressed his own satisfaction and pleasure in working with this group of young people.

The secret of a first class band lies not alone in hard work and talented players, but in a band leader, who can "feel the pulse" of his group, and by tact and his own particular manner of persuasion, get the best out of his players. Mentone is fortunate in having such a band leader.

Mr. A. R. Jinks, of the Wabash High School, was the guest conductor. Mr. Bowers received a great part of his band training under Mr. Jink's leadership.

The five graduating band members were presented with their music awards for their service. The band will greatly miss these members who are: Iola Tucker, Barbara Creighton, Juanita Baker, Robert Anderson and Kenneth Romine.

During intermission the fourth grade Tonette band played several numbers which were much enjoyed.

Katherine Phebus, 14, was taken to the Riley hospital at Indianapolis Monday where she is receiving treatment.

BURKET MAN DIES IN RAILWAY CROSSING WRECK

John Fisher, 73, was killed, and Orlando Meredith, 62, was severely injured when the truck in which the Burket men were riding was hit by a fast freight Monday forenoon near the Burket railway station.

Ernest Williamson, Nickel Plate agent, saw the men proceeding toward the crossing in Meredith's truck and attempted to warn them but was not successful. In fact, his own life was in danger when the mangled truck was hurtled past him where it came to rest against the depot. A corn drill was being towed behind the truck.

Fisher, who was thrown free of the wreckage, evidently died instantly while Meredith was still in the truck cab. He suffered severe injuries and little hope is held for his recovery according to late reports. An operation was performed Wednesday morning. Three vertebrae of his neck were crushed or broken.

Mr. Fisher, who was employed by Mr. Meredith at his farm near Sevastopol, was born at Fowler, Ind., Nov. 17, 1869 and had resided in this county for about 27 years. Surviving relatives include three daughters, Miss Lucille Fisher and Mrs. Paul Fawley of Warsaw and Miss Esther Fisher of Fort Wayne; four sons, Leo of Milford, Ivan of Fort Wayne, Edgar of South Bend, and Kenneth of Indianapolis; one brother, Ernest, of Waterloo, Iowa, and two sisters, Mrs. James Gay and Mrs. Anna James, Aurelia, Iowa.

Funeral services for Mr. Fisher were held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock in the Haworth & Bilby funeral home at Warsaw with Rev. John Chambers of Burket officiating. Burial was in Oakwood cemetery, at Warsaw.

ALL INTERESTED IN FAIR TO MEET FRIDAY EVENING

A. F. Mollenhour, secretary of the Mentone Fair Association, wishes to announce that a special meeting will be held Friday evening, April 24th at 7:30 p. m. at the Library. Everyone interested in the fair, whether members of the Lions club, fair officials, or what, are requested to be present. The fair this year is expected to be as big as ever but a big fair means a lot of work. This year, especially, every person in the community should see that he or she assists in the work.

FLAMES DESTROY

FULTON RESIDENCE Arthur Miller Home in Richland Township, North of Rochester, Is Razed by Fire.

Flames gutted and razed a seven room house on the Arthur Miller farm, eight miles northwest of Rochester, early Sunday afternoon with property loss estimated at $1,500. Personal loss to the tenants, Mr. and Mrs. John Callahan, was estimated at about $500.

The blaze, believed to have started from a spark on the roof, had already gained headway in the upper part of the house and the roof when it was noticed by the farm tenants, who only two weeks ago moved into the place from Culver. Neighbors gathered at the scene and aided the Callahan family in carrying out belongings from the lower floor. All of the furnishings in the upper floor were destroyed as well as from 400 to 500 cans of fruit stored in the basement. The Rochester fire department was summoned but before it arrived, the house had burned to the ground. The farm is in Richland township.

SUGAR RATION CARDS TO BE ISSUED SOON, BUT HOW?

An effort was made to get some definite information regarding the issuance of sugar rationing cards but there appears to be too much conflicting information. Local officials have been told that information will be forthcoming—but it has not arrived. Daily newspaper releases, too, are very conflicting.

BIG MOBILIZATION EVENT PLANNED FOR COUNTY

K. E. Riner, local chairman for the Civilian Defense program, attended a meeting with the other representatives of the county at the Hotel Haynes at Warsaw last Friday evening where plans were made for a big parade and program there on Friday evening, May 1st, starting at 6:30 o'clock. Hobart Creighton, county Civilian Defense chairman, was in charge of the meeting.

The purpose of the meeting will be for the mobilization of all the resources of the county for the successful and efficient operation of the Victory program. The hour when peace will again come to our land and our fighting sons return home will come sooner if we put forth the effort of which we are capable. If we fail in this critical hour we may never again have the opportunity to choose between freedom or bondage.

All homes and business places in the county are invited to fly the American flag on that day and the members of all Boy or Girl Scout troops, auxiliary firemen, policemen, fire departments, vigilantes, etc. are invited to participate in the parade that evening. At eight o'clock all will gather at the armory where Mr. Clarence Jackson, state Civilian Defense chairman, will speak. It is expected that all the bands in the county will march in the parade and give a brief concert before the meeting at the Armory.

T.H.E. CLUB MEETS

The T.H.E. Club met recently at the home of Mrs. M. F. Deamer of Talma with seventeen members present. Roll call was answered by: Gardening Hints. Mrs. Ada Bowman gave a paper on "Crime Prevention." An invitation was extended to all members of the club to be the guests of the Pleasant Valley club on May 6. Plans were discussed for entertaining the County Federated Clubs on April 30. A clever auction sale was held with Mrs. Myrtle Horn as auctioneer.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistant, Mrs. William Deamer.

Geo. Lyon did a heroic act Tuesday in stopping a run-away team. Levi Brown's team took fright on Tucker street and started to run with a load of household goods on the wagon. Passing George, as he was driving a single horse and buggy, he stopped his rig, and gave chase to the run-aways. George is a sprinter and after running about two blocks, he came up with the wagon, climbed in, and crawling over the furniture he got hold of the lines and stopped the team. It was a risky act, well done.

She will go to the home of her son and daughter-in-law in Muncie soon for a short visit. Mrs. Minar, who has been meat market manager of the new Super Kroger store in Logansport, resigned there and has accepted a position with the Keener Packing Company at Muncie.

On Sunday the following were entertained at the William Lardon home, the occasion being Mrs. Lardon's birthday anniversary: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cochran and Mr. Curby Cochran of Walkerton, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mull and son, Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. V. N. Daniels and family, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Cochran and family, and Mrs. Nina Anderson and daughter Virginia of Mishawaka, Miss Erma Ryggs, Lynn Ryggs and the guest of honor, Mrs. Lardon.

On Monday morning, April 13, Mr. William Mahoney passed away at the Woodlawn hospital at Rochester where he had been a patient for 12 weeks and two days. During that time he never at any time fully regained consciousness. Finally, after some weeks, an operation was performed, but he lived only a couple of weeks after that. Funeral services were held at Tippecanoe and burial at that place. Everyone extends sympathy to the family.

Mrs. Wm. Lardon was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. J. L. Cochran, of Walkerton, Thursday. Mrs. Cochran is suffering from heart trouble.

TALMA ALUMNI

BANQUET HELD

The Talma Alumni held its annual banquet Saturday evening, April 11, in the high school gymnasium. A business session was held preceding the banquet with Von Kochenderfer, vice president, in charge. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Harold D. Miller. Officers were elected for the coming year as follows:

President, Cloris Barkamn; vice president, Delbert Hunter, and secretary-treasurer, Doris Emmons.

A three-course dinner was then served by the Methodist Ladies Aid of Talma to 84 members and guests, including 11 seniors. The tables in the center of the gym formed the letter "V" for the seniors. These tables were beautifully decorated in the patriotic colors, red, white and blue. Blue crepe paper was run down the center of the tables with bouquets of red and white carnations in white vases forming the center pieces. White candles in red holders were placed at the end of each table.

Boyd Peterson, of Rochester, acted as toastmaster and the welcoming address was given by Mrs. Olin Waggoner, with George Weidner, Jr., giving the response. The following program was presented: A solo by Mrs. Von Kochenderfer, accompanied by Mrs. Kermit Biddinger at the piano; a reading by Mrs. Henry Sherrard and several songs were sung by three high school girls, Rosslee Good, Dorothy Meiser and Bonnie Jean Hubbard. Several quiz questions were cleverly asked the seniors by the toastmaster and answered by the graduates. The members of the initiation committee then initiated eleven seniors into the Alumni association.

Mr. C. W. Devers
 Union City
 Indiana

Dear Mr. Devers:

I am sending you herewith a tabulation showing the production of eggs in four houses which we used last winter, to check the results of feeding your Dried Produlac. We fed Dried Produlac in Bldg. #17 entirely replacing the dried milk in our laying mash. I might say that this Dried Produlac was fed 200 lb. to the ton of mash, the same as the milk was fed in the houses #18, 19, and 20.

After keeping the record of production for five months, we find that the birds in house #17 laid 166,303 eggs, compared with those in house #18, laying 166,778, #19 producing 166,101, and house #20 producing 164,296.

While we do not regard these figures as being significant so far as showing the superiority of Produlac Dried mash over milk, we do feel that it adequately and satisfactorily replaced milk in our poultry rations.

This experiment was undertaken after a great deal of hesitancy on my part in recognizing the merits of Dried Produlac. However, after trying it out for five months, keeping an accurate record of production, mortality, and hatchability of building #17 compared with three other buildings which were made up of pullets of the same age and grown under the same conditions, we cannot help but come to the conclusion that Produlac Dried satisfactorily replaces milk in the laying mash.

We fed a certain amount of condensed skim milk and condensed whey to all the birds, which means the birds in houses #17, 18, 19, and 20. This milk and whey were fed in a wet mash which was fed on top of the dry mash in hoppers.

The percentage of hatch in building #17 was 1.7% higher than the average of the hatch in buildings #18, 19, and 20, so we find that in addition to giving satisfactory egg production, we also receive satisfactory hatchability; and, our mortality in buildings #17, 18, 19, and 20, was almost identical.

In view of the present high price of milk, it seems to me that Produlac Dried is certainly a very attractive buy to the commercial poultryman. We do not look upon this substitution merely as a means of saving money, but rather as a more economical way to do a good job of feeding chickens.

You may compile the figures on the enclosed chart in any way you choose, and use any part or all of this letter in any way you please.

Very truly yours,
Harbert Creighton

DONALD BLUE WRITES FROM "UNKNOWN" ISLAND

The following is a letter received by Mr. and Mrs. Pete Blue from their son:

An Island Somewhere in the Pacific,
April 10, 1942

Dear Mother and All:

I think I have a few minutes to write so will let you know I am feeling fine and hope you all are the same.

Well, first of all, we had a very interesting boat trip, and many things I can tell you when I get home. It sure was pretty some of those nice warm moonlight nights. Now we can see the moonlight thru the palm trees. It is pretty warm here. I saw some sharks and flying fish along the side of the boat on the trip here where we are. There are a lot of things I could tell you but it is impossible now. About all I can say is that I am feeling fine and in good health, and in a pretty safe place now. So don't worry about me.

Well, Mother, tell all the family, relatives and friends I said Hello, and that I think of everyone back home but it will be impossible for me to write all my correspondence as we are very busy now and are working seven days a week and part time nights. So please tell all to write to me as we do like to get mail, and don't disappoint me so hope you are all well and in good health.

Love to all,

DONALD (BLUE)

P. S.—Just a word to let you know how you can get mail to me quicker. Send with twelve cents worth of

Legion Sponsoring War Bond Drive

Solicitation is in progress in and near Mentone this week gathering pledges from all individuals as to the number of War Bonds they anticipate purchasing during the year.

The solicitation is in charge of the American Legion and captains have been named for every precinct.

The government needs your financial assistance and if the voluntary purchase of bonds is great enough, no one will be given an outright command to do so. However, if the voluntary purchases aren't sufficient, the "slackers" will find themselves in a spot where they will wish they had DONE THEIR PART when the others did.

Buy bonds, and undergo the hardships necessary in an all-out war effort, and let's have no complaining. Our sacrifice is nothing compared to that of the boys who must meet the enemy FACE TO FACE.

RED CROSS ANNOUNCES MRS. STOOKEY'S SON A PRISONER

A radio announcement Tuesday noon stated that Sgt. Walter Bowers, son of Mrs. Jeff Stookey of Talma who was postmaster on Wake Island, was one of 120 prisoners who had been officially contacted by the International Red Cross.

Primary Election Tuesday, May 5th

Tuesday, May 5th, will be a big day for many Kosciusko county people. That will be the day when their friends go to the polls to cast their ballots in the primary election.

The Primary election is not only a privilege but is of primary importance. If you do not use your influence to select the best candidates, you may have to choose between what you may term, less capable candidates, this fall.

OTHO 'Shorty' PIPER Winona Lake

Four years ago I sought this same office and made a very thorough campaign of Kosciusko county, personally. I wore out a set of tires, used several hundred gallons of gas, and finished wearing out my car.

This year I am seeking that same office, but under abnormal conditions, and as a patriotic citizen I have tried to reach all Republican voters by mail. If you were missed it was not intentional; perhaps a change of address.

My qualifications for this office are FAIRNESS TO ALL, and at the service of the public at all times. If nominated and elected, I will be the SAME "SHORTY" PIPER who has served the public of this county for 15 years as a Republican citizen.

Your support will be greatly appreciated.

GET YOUR SUGAR CARDS NEXT WEEK

Every sugar user must go to the schoolhouse Monday or Tuesday, May 4 and 5, and sign up for his sugar rationing card if he desires to make any sugar purchases this year. When you go to secure the book, be sure you know how many pounds of sugar you now have in your home—brown, white or powdered. There's a maximum of $10,000 fine and 10 years in prison, or both, as a penalty for anyone found falsifying his application.

Commercial users made their applications this week.

MANY TREES PLANTED

The past two weeks the Mentone Conservation Club has planted over 1500 trees. Several hundred were planted on the two-acre reserve on the A. F. Mollenhour farm, south of town, a week ago Sunday. The following Tuesday the high school boys assisted in planting several hundred more near the fish rearing ponds and last Sunday several varieties were planted on the McClure Lake camp grounds.

LAST CALL

Bring your "pocket" full of money and your basket full of eats to the Methodist church Friday evening, May 1, 7:00 p. m. sharp. Rev. Edgar Moore, of Boyville fame and now of Neighborhood House of Fort Wayne, will present a varied program including moving pictures. The theme will be, "Americans in the Making." Our conference trio, of which Mrs. Collins is a member, will sing. A rejoicing occasion for all.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Owing to the resignation of Rev. Fowler from the Mentone Baptist Church, candidates will be heard, beginning Sunday. The Fowlers are yet undecided as to their permanent plans but hope soon to be reunited as a family. The resignation becomes effective June 1.

Rev. and Mrs. Fowler appreciate the fairness of the church towards them and feel they are leaving many friends throughout the community.

Floyd E. Robbins, of northeast of Warsaw, trustee Wayne township and former president of the Taxpayers Association of Kosciusko County, was in Mentone Thursday in the interest of his campaign for the republican nomination for county assessor.

NUGGETS FOR BEREANS

When Abraham's faith was being tried and he was ready to do God's bidding in the matter of offering up his son Isaac, the Word says, "And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked." There in the thicket was a ram to be used for an offering instead of his son. (Gen. 22).

Just before this we have the story of Hagar and Ishmael in the wilderness. Hagar had given up all hope for the lad and was weeping and the word says, "And God opened her eyes." She saw a well. It had been there all the time, but she was unable to see the help that was at hand. (Gen. 21).

When Elisha was at Dothan and his enemies sought his life and the city was surrounded and no help in sight, his servant was afraid. The Word says, "And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man." He saw, in the mountains the armed hosts of the Lord. Deliverance was at hand. (2 Kings 6).

Two of the disciples were on the road to Emmaus and Jesus walked and talked with them, but they did not know Him. They were discouraged because of His death and all seemed lost. The Word says, "And their eyes were opened, and they knew Him." (Luke 24).

In each instance help and assurance were at hand. All that was needed was the opened eyes. Let us remember these examples and when things do not go right and there seems to be no way out, let us pray that our eyes may be opened.

BUILDING ORDER DOES NOT STOP ALL CONSTRUCTION

There has been considerable confusion since the recent government order curtailing building construction went into effect. To assist in clarifying a few of the main points,
the following is given:

No civilian building of any kind will be permitted EXCEPT:

1. Residential construction, including farm homes, costing less than $500 on any one residence in any 12 month period.

2. Maintenance and repairs.

3. Farm production and service buildings (costing $1000 or less per structure).

4. All other civilian construction (commercial, industrial, recreational, etc.) costing $5000 or less.

5. Residential buildings destroyed by fire, earthquake, tornado, enemy action, etc., may be rebuilt.

6. Buildings under construction may, at present, be completed.

7. Any kind of civilian building for which a real need can be shown. A permit will be issued in that case.

Any building falling into the first five classifications may be done without permission, or license, or other requirements. That means if you have an attic room which you want to remodel and the cost is $495, the builder may go ahead and his dealer may sell the materials (including the nails) without red tape.

Or the farmer may build or remodel barns (or other structures, up

YOUR CAR How to Get the MOST out of ItTIPS ON DRIVING

Have you signed up with a new set of driving habits for the duration? Like defense bonds they pay interest, but it is interest many times compounded. You may only be thinking of saving tires, but more careful operation of your car also means less gas and oil used, less wear on mechanical parts, less likelihood of accidents, injuries and replacement of hard-to-get parts.

Here are some suggestions that other experienced drivers have found effective:

Depress the clutch pedal while starting the engine.
Then the battery isn't given the extra job of turning the transmission gears.

Don't race the motor during the warm-up period. By taking it easy at first you save gas and give the oil a chance to get to work.

Use the hand choke (if you have one) sparingly. Improper use wastes gas and may cause serious dilution of oil in the crankcase.

Shift gears at the lowest practical speed. Low gear is needed principally to overcome starting inertia. Shift to high between 15 and 25 miles an hour. Remember: you pay for a jack-rabbit start in tire and clutch wear and extra gas used—and the fellow you outdistance usually pulls up beside you at the next traffic light.

Married at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. A. E. Clem, Saturday evening—Lyndes Latimer and Miss Nellie Lyon.

Fire, driven by the high wind, on Tuesday did heavy damage in M. M. Latimer's woods, burning up a large amount of timber and cordwood. The fire also played havoc in O. A. Harding's woods.

W. O. Smith, of Juniata, Neb., is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Frank Hamman and his sister, Mrs. Celia Swihart, of Beaver Dam.

The first building on the burned district has been erected within the past week and is already occupied. Ed. Turner has built an iron-clad bakeshop in connection with the ruins of his oven which was still standing and which has been repaired and put in good condition for use. Later Mr. Turner expects to build a substantial brick building in front of the present structure.

The seining of Cedar Lake, under the direction of the state fish commissioners, to rid it of objectionable fish, was a dismal failure. One day's work resulted in the capture of one dog fish, one sun fish and several black bass. The objectionable fish are all in deep water and will not come out until vegetation grows up, then seining cannot be done. The same plan was to have been employed at Wawasee, and other lakes, but will now be abandoned.

I have no office-holding record to which I can point, but my past as a farmer and Kosciusko County citizen is open for your inspection. The duties of the sheriff are important to the welfare of everyone, and if elected to that office I will do, my best to handle the affairs efficiently and fairly.
