WHAT DO YOU REMEMBER?

If you guessed Mrs. Adam Bowen as the resident who has lived in the same house since 1890, you were correct. This question really provoked a great deal of thought and interest. Mr. and Mrs. Eli Brown were the parents of Mrs. Bowen. Mrs. Mae Borton says that she remembers one Sunday when she was but 7 years-old. that she and her mother, Mrs. Sarah Widmeyer, spent in the Brown home. Her mother, at that time, was working for a Mr. Lash, who owned the sawmill.

Mrs. Borton recalls another time when she was 12 years old, when she attended a masquerade party at the Carol Weissert, daughter of Mr. and Red Man-Pocahontas hall in Burket The grand march was followed by an ovster supper. Some of the faces she remembers were: Dr. Snodgrass, Kate and Pearl Hatfield, Clifford Hatfield, Lizzie, Lura and Blanche Milbern, Myrtle Robson, Henry and Lucy Emrick, Henry and Nancy Cochran (who were dressed as Uncle Sam and Columbia), and Bill Clark.

DOCTOR TO TRAVEL EAST

SCHOOL NEWS.

Our seniors are employed with thoughts of another year. The life ahead is so close - and they feel it's time for decisions. College training and higher education is included in their thinking. The following list is not meant to include all who have their plans in the making. Dave Cooper, Jim Mollenhour, and Bill Reed this past week have visited the industrial college in Fort Wayne where they are interested in radio and television engineering, mechanical engineering, and aeronautical engineering respectively. Eddie Greighton plans to study agriculture at Purdue. Forst Dunnuck is taking up teaching and is debating between Purdue and Manchester College. Junior Emmons recently in company with Keith Stackhouse, of Bourbon, visited De Pauw University's campus.

The girls' college intentions are for shorter courses (wisely enough). Virginia Rush, Mary Hedington, and Nondas Hodges are planning to enroll in South Bend School of Cominerce for secretarial training. Elaine Creighton also plans for a secretarial career though she plans to take it at Manchester College. Richard Gibson also plans to study commerce intending to study business administration at Fort Wayne's International College of Commerce. Others of our seniors (Continued on back page)

Squaring of the circle was famous problem of the ancient Greeks. It was to draw a square having the same areas as a given circle, using nothing beside the pencil but a compas and an unmarked straightedge. Though never solved, it was not until 1882 that it was proved impossible.

We are very pleased to hear from our good friend Chester Manwaring, who has been visiting in California, and feel that many other friends would enjoy his letters which follow: La Jolla, Cal. March 29, 1950.

Dear Artley:

California may be forgiven the expression "most unusual" when applied to the beauties of their wonderful state. From mountains to the rocky-chores of the blue Pacific, from hot deserts to snow-clad peaks, the greatest system of hard surfaced roads that I have ever seen carries you through orange, grapefruit, date, grape and almond groves that really are "most unusual."

Everything seems to be on such a big scale. Mt. — lacks only 5 ft. of bening 15,000 ft. (the highest spot in the U. 8.) and one spot in Death Valley is 280 ft. below sea level (the lowest spot in the U. S.). Then again Los Angeles has more than 2,000,000 autos not counting trucks and buses, and covers the unbelieveable area of 451 sq. miles. Incidentally, I got my first traffic ticket in 35 years of driving a car. It cost me $5.00 but hurt my pride a lot more. I told the officer that we would take the same care of him when he came to Indiana.

Los Angeles seems to be fertile soll for queer religious sects and isms. In fact, rackets of almost any kind seem to flourish. One old gal with a shop in Hollywood did her best to induce me to let her try and grow hair on Mentone is still tops with me. Callfornia has many "unusual" sights but Mentone has the most unusually fine people in the world.

Cordially yours, Chester Manwaring Dear Friend Artley:

Just remembered I forgot to name the high mountain. It's Whitney. I saw the mountain when Charles was here, and aimed to verify it but forgot.

GREATER MARSHALL COUNTY YOUTH FOR CHRIST

"That Kid Buck," a 35 minute sound motion picture, will be shown by Greater Marshall County Youth for Christ, Saturday evening, April 8th, at 7:30 p. m. in the Plymouth High School auditorium.

Produced this past summer in and near Muskegon, Michigan, the picture written and production directed by Ken Anderson, outstanding Christian writer, gives the story of a juvenile deliquent rehabilited through the influence of a religious camp. Youth

Haven, near Muskegon, specializes in helping underprivileged children, and boys from the courts, and the major portion of the film was shot during the camp's annual "Mid-Western Training School for Boys."

Buck, the protagonist, comes into his third scrape with the law. Due for a major juvenile sentence, he is surprised to learn that the owner of the hardware store he had plundered wants to pay his expenses to Youth Haven. Reluctantly, Buck accepts the offer.

From here on, the film moves into a plot involving Jerry Van Cleve son of the hardware dealer — and the young outlaw. The climax is reached when Buck, soundly convinced of his error of his ways, finds the Gospel of Christ a new lease on life.

Muskegon County law enforcement officials appear in the film, together with Youth Haven Camp personalities.

The entire picture will thrill Christians, generate new enthusiasm for winning lost boys to Christ and—most important of all — challenge the unsaved with their need of the Saviour. A good musical program has been planned, featuring Dave Saulmer, instrumentalist, boys quartette, from Lapaz and Youth for Christ Orchestra.

This is a program that you will not want to miss one minute of, so bring someone with you, come early. All ages welcome.

The seniors are going to take the full six-day trip as planned by Principal Frank Sanders that includes Washington, D. C., New York City, and Niagara Falls. This trip will be via Nickel Plate, Baltimore and Ohio, and Lackawanna Rialroads. Most of our travel will be at night, so that maximum pleasures of day time sight seeing may be enjoyed. The seniors are having to each pay a sizeable chunk of money in addition to their class savings for this trip. If people can see fit to employ seniors to do some yard work and cleaning jobs that householders have to do in springtime, the class will be appreciative.

The track entrees have been working out regularly this week. Because their free periods vary, the boys have been working at different times. With school time lengthened now in the spring, we have definitely set our spring sport as track. We are much in need of a good track. Certainly we can't be hosts to any meets on our roads. Another of our needs is an asphalt basketball court on our playground such as the Lions of North Webster built for their school and community. And then while

DAVID and SALLY GOSSER

Humph! Who said anything about Spring? It may be around the cor-ner, but it's like the corner behind which PROSPERITY was hiding during the depression of the "thirties," you can't find the corner. Murmurs noticed that even in Miami the thermometer has been doing a swan dive, with a reading of forty-four degrees. It wasn't that cool when we were there, or have your forgotten that you left Murmurs eating away at a big turtlesteak dinner three weeks ago, on Key Largo.

It didn't produce any nightmares either, and early Monday morning we were driving north from Homestead towards the Tamiami Trail. To some folks this would have been a long uninteresting drive, but to Murmurs and the Croxalls it was one of the most pleasant of the entire trip. There were but most of the day was spent under pleasant skies as we skirted the canals lined with Australian Pine, palms, and Slash Pine. Thousands of cranes, MURMURS egrets, and herons waded the swamp, and only a few of them rasied to the slow beating of their wings when we stopped to snap pictures of them.

Occasionally we passed Seminole Indian dwellings, usually thatched with swamp grass, reeds, or palm fronds. These Indians live in family groups, and seldom were there more than four or five huts in their compound. The industrious ones had bridges across the canal, but more frequently their contact with the highway was by long slender dug-out canoes that were tied in front of the homes. Several times we saw shallow-draught swamp boats propelled by airplane engines. These are driven back into the Everglades to catch frogs to be shipped to market. (Frogs legs are a real delicacy, better than chicken and steak - for those who like them.)

Murmurs stopped at one of the trading posts along the Trail, but the price of the products, although well made, were too high for many purchases. The little Indian girl was not to be drawn a few scattered rain drops and clouds, into conversation, but she watched us with a silent friendliness.

As the Trail turned nothward, we noticed that the clusters of palms purchased for jewelry and large ones thinned out and large groves of Cypress for lamp bases and book-ends. were visible. Few roads and only two rail roads penetrated the area to bring out the timber, but at every siding there seemed to be car loads of pulp-wood and cypress logs.

At noon we were on the West Coast and ate lunch on the beach at Naples. The sand was white and gleaming in the sunlight, the calm waters of the Gulf lay blue and quiet, but clouds were piling up fast along the horizon. Murmurs took off his shoes and hastily collected shells without sorting or discriminating against duplicates and imperfect ones. At places the shells could be scooped up by the hands-full. This indeed would be a mecca for collectors. The Sanibel

At Fort Myers we paused at the entrance to the Edison experimental station, but did not wish to pay the price to see it. Rain had hindered us from the time we left Naples; in fact, it had brought an abrupt end to our shell collecting there, and we were anxious to make Bartow before nightfall. This we did, and after finding suitable quarters, dined at Johns, a very popular place for tourists and natives alike. When Murmurs stopped in for a mid-night snack they were still busy. The State Fair at Tampa was the occasion for many late travelers.

That Monday night was one of those nights when Murmurs couldn't sleep, Islands on the southwest coast are and he greatly missed his family, was the ideal sources for shells, but at home-sick, and even after driving Bonita Springs we found a large shell back to the motel (he had been to house where we purchased those we Lakeland to a show) he tumbled and did not find on the beach. This is one tossed until it was time to start out of the markets for shell-handcrafters again; our destination the Cypress Garwhere the tiny delicate ones may be dens and the Singing Tower.

Mr: Ar	tley Cullum Editor	th

Co-op News, Mentone, Indiana. Dear Artley:-

There is a matter of public interest which I hope you can in some way present to the citizens of Mentone.

The Lions Club is an organization which seeks to make a community a better place in which to live. Through the medium of "projects" it attempts to carry out_its objectives. At various times projects are presented by Club members or are presented to the Club. If the Club feels the project is worth while it may "sponsor" the project. All projects are not assisted in the same manner. Some-are of such nature as to require direct outlay of Club funds while other require, perhaps, endorsement and work on the part of the Club membership.

Several months ago a project was suggested from within the Club. By its nature it is not a proposition to be financed by the Club. Rather, if the project is completed, the Club's activiwill be endorsement of the movement viding adequate and modern directional nd work to complete it. And, being a roject to affect the whole town, the lub would like an expression from nose who take pride in this their home town and community.

In the early 1920's among the things new to Mentone was motor driven fire fighting equipment. Many residents will remember that Ford truck. Part of the equipment is still in the department. And at that time all the houses were given numbers. Most of the 'houses still have those numbers which were made of aluminum. The street names were placed on metal signs painted blue and lettered in white. Many of those street markers still show here and there. Many sales of household goods have been advertised making use of those markers and numbers. Without doubt, utility bills have likewise been designated. And, perhaps, through the years countless persons have been directed to homes by the same means as well as to the home of the Co-op News.

The Ford truck is gone and in its place is a fire fighting depatment with equipment and personnel equal to the best in the country. Most of the street markers are gone, but in this we are behind our neighboring towns in proWednesday, April 12, 1950 street markers.

As president of the local Lions Club, I appointed a committee to make a survey of the situation. This committee has filed its report. It has plans and costs on the project. It' is not beyond the means and realization of a community wishing to serve itself, and at the same time be nationally known, not only as the Egg Basket of the Middle West, but also by its various enterprises nationally advertised.

We in the Lions Club would like to know the views of the citizens on such a project. Perhaps the people feel, that, knowing the way to their doors there is no need to direct other. On the other hand they may be progressive, proud of their home town and glad to tell the world.

We wonder, Artley, if through the Co-op News you could ask the folks to write us a card or letter saying how they feel. And since you are busy and we do not wish to publish their communications, please ask them to address their comments directly to the Club.

.Thanking you kindly, we are, Sincerely yours

> MENTONE LIONS CLUB Oliver Teel, President.

4-H Forestry Champions Know Woodlot Potentialities

One of 1949's state 4-H Club forestry champions and a local club advisor examine young pines that started him out on a forestry career. Four-H forestry lessons will later pay dividends in regular cash crops harvested on well-managed farm woodlots.

As an incentive to local farm boys and girls to turn their woodlots and small timber tracts into money-making properties, four college scholarships of $300 each are being offered again this year in the 4-H Club forestry project. All 4-H Club members, working under Extension Service supervision and enrolled during the current year in a 4-H Club forestry project, are eligible to compete for national awards.

As in previous years, top awards will be made on a sectional basis to the boy or girl having the best forestry record in each of the four Extension Service sections of the Nation. In ad-dition to the scholarships, national winners will be given all-expense-paid trips to the 29th National 4-H Club Congress to be held in Chicago, November 26-30 inclusive. Medals will be awarded to each state winner.

This is the third consecutive year American Forest Products Industries, a national non-profit association of wood-dependent industries, has sponsored the 4-H Club forestry project. In the past two years' competition, eight of the college scholarships and free trips have been won by farm youths from the states of Arkansas, Georgia, Idaho, Montana, New York and Wisconsin, the latter two states who excel in forestry.

having had national winners both years

"It is most gratifying to see the upsurge of interest in forestry that is being shown by 4-H Club members everywhere," declared Charles A. Gillett, managing director of American Forest Products Industries, in announcing the association's continuing sponsorship of the scholarship awards for 1950. "These young people are learn-ing the basic fundamentals of sound timber management and how to apply them to the farm woodlots of America. Certainly this assures an even greater progress in private forest management in the next half century and an ever increasing wood supply for this Nation and the world."

The local, county extension agent, will supply detailed information about the 4-H forestry project and the 1950 awards awaiting those boys and girls

Bonnie became ill two weeks ago and was taken to the Woodlawn Hospital on Tuesday of last week. She has been in a semi-conscious condition. She has lived with her grandparents since she was about three years old. Her grandfather, Harry Clymer, has been seriously ill in the Woodlawn Hospital and came home from the hosnital on the day she took sick. Bonnie was the Talma high school candidate for Egg Queen at last year's Egg Show.

ENJOY FELLOWSHIP SUPPER

Over 100 members and friends of the First Baptist Church gathered Tuesday evening at 6:30 for a fellowship supper in the basement of the church. After a fine supper they went upstairs where Dr. Paul Bauman, vice president of Grace Theological Seminary of Winona Lake, showed some colored pictures taken on his world tour. The pictures shown were taken of the Dyaks of Borneo. These former head-hunters now have accepted Christian faith in large numbers and the work of the missionaries have done wonders in their midst. Some native churches had over 700 members and put some of our local churches to shame in the way they lived for Christ in that pagan land. Dr. Bauman has many other pictures taken on the trip and it is hoped that the church may be able to have him again some time soon.

The pastor has chosen for his sermon subjects this coming Lord's Day, "Wheat and Tares," of Matthew 13, in the morning and in the evening he will discuss two timely subjects in the light of the Bible, "Federal Union" and "Mercy Killings." You are invited to these services.

VETERANS URGED TO FILE FOR BONUS

All World War II veterans who have not filed for their Indian Bonus payment were urged today to do so at once by Bob Whetstone, service officer of Mentone Post No. 425 of the American Legion.

"It's much later than you think." for many veterans who haven't yet filed for the bonus. "The deadline for making application is rapidly approaching and unless veterans file soon, they are going to get caught in a jam on December 31, 1950, the last day.

It takes several months to proce many applications because of complications that arise in proving residency, disability, etc., as required under the bonus law.

"Since your claim might be one that requires extra time to process, it would be best for you to file at once and give yourself and the Bonus Division plenty of time."

Application forms are available at Post headquarters or from the service officer at the Post, and assistance will be given in filling out the forms.

Progress in Fight On Breast Cancer

Cancer of the breast is one of the most common types of cancer found in women—and one of the most curable in its early stages. Last year more than 17,000 women died of cancer of ied of cancer of the breast. This is tragic since three out of every four cases could and should be saved by early. diagnosis and prompt treatment. We are making progress-last year.

it is estimated, two out of five women with cancer of the breast were saved —but much more could be dane.

Most important symptom of this type of cancer is a lump. Not all breast lumps mean cancer; in fact, most of them are entirely hormless, but every lump should be carefully examined by a qualified physician. When the lump is small and the malignant cells are limited to the breast, the possibilities of cure are excellent.

The American Cancer Society recommends that every woman over 35 examine her own breasts — gently and carefully — once a month for lumps. She should also have her family doctor examine her breasts twice a year. Such a program on a national scale could save nearly 12,000 women every year, women who are for the most part in the prime of life.

The campaign to save lives from cancer of the breast is being pushed with a special film for physicians, a special film for women, selected pamphlets, through all means of reaching the public. Support this compaign by contributing to the 1950 Cancer Crusade of the American Cancer Society. Strike Back: Give to Conquer Cancer.

MURMURS

DAVID and SALLY GOSSER

Since our last meeting together we have been blessed with some wolf weather (when a young man's fancy turns to love.) Our eyes are turning towards the spades (not Canasta bound), the rakes and hoes, to seeds, and the prospects of crisp green vegetables right from the garden.

The Florida sunshine has finally found its way to Indiana, but there is another detour along the way again, this time via Palestine, and the travalogue will be continued at a later evening when Dr. Ralph Bunche, of the United Nations, spoke on the settlement of the Palestine question.

Dr. Bunche is well qualified to speak on the subject, because he was assigned to the Mission which was sent there to study the possibility of a peaceful agreement. He was, for some time, assistant to Count Bernadotte, of Sweden ,who was killed in ambush while assigned as mediator between the Arabs and the Israelites. Following this incident, Dr. Bunche became mediator, and upon him rested the full responsibility of the mission.

He said, "The difficulty is with the human element every time. Never was there a question about the principles and ideals of the United Nations as such. Like the farmers of Indiana who date. This interruption came because must wage a relentless battle against of a lecture Murmurs and friends heard insects and weather, the United Naat Manchester College last Saturday tions must wage as relentless a battle againt the folly, weakness, and per-versity of man who is so determined to kill himself by this tragedy of war.

He emphasized and illustrated the fact that "It was the human element that broke down every time in our attempts to bring the Arabs and delegations of Israelies together," and although at the time he did not consider the situations humorous, there were evidences that the petty and absurd grounds for personal insults had a tinge of humor when one looked back at them, especially after the mission was a success.

One of the strong assertions that Dr. Bunche made was, "It is loose and faulty thinking on the part of the American people to belive that the United Nations cannot prevent war." He supported his statement with the evidence of the convincing illustration of the Palestine problem, Iran, Korea, the Berlin blockade, Indonesia, Greece, and Kashimer, all of which had the makings of creating World Wars if they would have been permitted to run their courses.

Murmurs is sure that diplomats, as capable and reassuring as Dr. Bunche was to his audience of seventeen hundred persons, may be able to bring some order out of the chaos of International Today. The picture does not appear quite as hopeless as many people present it. If we in Mentone could place as much confidence in our men of Peace as we do in War-Mongers and Sensationalists, then, by the grace of God, we could have Peace.

PRIMARY ELECTION TUESDAY

Tuesday, May 2 is the day we've all been hearing so much about of late. It may seem about like the day of judgment for many of our citizens who are seeking public office, but there will be others who will be elated with the all the citizens, too, as it is their opportunity to choose the men and women they feel are best qualified to manage the affairs of government, locally and nationally.

Merril Peterson was the scout chosen by the local scout committee to represent the troop at the National Scout Camp at Valley Forge the last week in June and the first week in July. One week will be spent in camp and the second week will be spent on one or two sightseeing trips.

Merril will spend one week in Preparation Camp at Elkhart, along with other scouts from this district. The committee based their decision on scout participation, scout attitude, and use of scout knowledge at home, school and in the community and at scout meetings. Merril is to be congradulated on this honor, especially since, as one scout put it, "He would have been the choice Kenneth Romine, postoffice; Marilyn of all the scouts." This speaks highly Tucker, Cooper's Store; Porky Jones, for him.

MENTONE TO JOIN IN DAYLIGHT SAVING SCHEDULE

The Town Council announced this week that due to the fact that all other towns and cities in the area will operate on Daylight Saving Time this summer, that Mentone, to be consistent, would join with them.

Daylight Saving Time becomes effective Saturday night, April 29, at midnight and somewhere we will have lost one good hour of sleep until next October.

Starting Monday, the Mentone schools will be on the new time.

Daylight Saving Time has been the excuse for a lot of arguments the past few years, but one wonders why it is so important. The laboring man in the cities is all for it, but while a man on one shift gets another hour of daylight, the boys on the other shifts receive an extra hour of darkness. If we want a faster schedule when the sun starts coming up sooner;" why not alter working hours accordingly. Our rural friends on the farms have been doing that for years and it never seemed to do any more harm than embarrass a few late sleepers.

Very likely many businesses will alter their open hours in such a way that they won't inconvenience any of their patrons.

ALUMNI BANQUET CARDS MAILED

Jean Pritchard, secretary of the Mentone Alumni Association, was in the Co-op News office on Wednesday morning to tell us that cards have been sent to all known graduates. If any graduate does not receive a card it is due to an improper address, and all graduates are urged to get their tickets for the banquet.

Tickets will be on sale at the door, but will go on sale Saturday, April 29, at the following places of business: Jones Barber Shop; Gerald Romine, Sinclair Service Station. The Alumni officers also will have tickets to sell. They are Vance Johns, Kenneth Romine, Jean Pritchard, Eileen Bowser, Robert and Kathryn Whetstone.

At an impressive ceremony held in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Statler, in Boston, last Wednesday evening, Dr. Dan Urschel was among a group of doctors receiving the degree of Fellow of The American College of Physicians. The Fellowships were conferred by the President of the College, Dr. Reginald Fitz, of Boston. The Convocation oration was delivered by Baron Moran, President of the Royal College of Physicians, of England. Fellowships in the College are limited to physicians specializing in Internal Medicine and are granted upon fulfillment of a number of qualifications, which include specialized training, original research work and medical publications, certification as a specialist by the American Board of Internal Medicine, and general attainment in the special field of practice. The degree is equivalent to the Fellowships given to surgeons by the American College of Surgeons. Drs. A. N. Ferguson, of the Duemling Clinic, and A. C. "Want `free' medicine ... at twice the price"?

How much would Socialized Medicine take out of your pocket?

Under this compulsory medical plan, wage earners would pay extra taxes. Employers would pay extra too. The self-employed, however, would pay the entire tax out of their own pockets.

In other words, the farmer must pay twice as much for Socialized Medicine!

And that's only the beginning of sky-rocketing governmental costs to grab chunks of your income. Our Nation's health is at an all-time high under the present system. Let's keep it that way.

Word has been received here that Audrey Miller, who is now a patient at the Warm Springs Foundation, Warm Springs, Georgia, will receive a new handling of checks by banks and portable wheel chair which will definitely be a great help. REPUBLICAN ANNOUNCEMENT

One of the great advantages of a two-party system in government is that each party is permitted to choose its candidates at a primary election. It naturally follows that each party must be held responsible for its own acts while in power and on less is the duty of the party to choose candidates in the primary who will serve of their respective offices with fidelity and honesty of purpose. This is my creed in politics. This is the type of government that voters and taxpayers are entitled to. If nominated and elected Kosciusko County representative to the Indiana Legislature. I will represent all the people honestly and with the best of my ability while in office. My name will appear on the Republican Primary ballot May 2, 1950, and I ask honest consideration of my candidacy.

As Murmurs and the Croxalls were leaving the grounds, the gentleman said, as he walked along the car, "By your license you are from Indiana." When Murmurs mentioned Mentone, he said that the plates indicated the vicinity of South Bend, and he was right. He introduced himself, and Dr. Croxall immediately recognized him as having spoken and shown pictures for a "Know Your Neighbor" program in Mishawaka.

THE WORD "newspaper" oversimplifies the functions of the institution so named, because a newspaper publishes much more the news of its community. Virtually all newspapers regularly contain editorials, features such as this, and advertising, none of which is included when speaking of news.

Strangely enough, the histories of famous newspapers disclose most won fame because of contents other than news. That proves, editors believe, that readers approve of, want and enjoy a variety of material in their newspapers.

To give read-Functions better ers а cross-section of of current events, Newspaper a newspaper impartially and objectively reports the news, discusses and interprets it with editorials, and entertains and informs in feature and advertising columns.

News is an accurate account of highlights of a happening of interest to the paper's readers. That is why it is necessary to say black is white, if that is what someone stated, even though the reporter, editor and newspaper know differ-ently. And that is why a report about a meeting of local officials is as important news here as a session of the legislature or of the congress.

The home town newspaper's editorials and its educational and entertainment features may not rewidespread attention, ceive 88 numerically, as do those of metropolitan papers, but proportionately they are even more important. They are more closely representative of what the "grass roots" of our country thinks, approves and disap-proves, because America's home towns are the backbone of our nation.

NURSES STILL IN DEMAND

There is still a need for trained nurses in Indiana, according to Miss Edwina MacDougall, head of the Professional Couseling and Placement Service of the Indiana State Nurses' Association, who during the past year Aled 158 of the 179 positions listed with her.

"The greatest number of positions left unfilled were those calling for mature experienced nurses with either post-graduate or advanced nursing ed-MacDougall said. Miss ucation," "Teaching supervisors and clinical instructors seemed hardest to find for placement. And there seem to be very few nurses who are interested in or prepared to assume responsibility for tuberculosis or psychiatric service."

Applications were filed with Miss MacDougall by 184 registered nureses during the year, most of them seeking vocational, educational or personal counseling as well as placement in it there. That is the kind of competinew positions. Of the new applicants, 2 came from other states seeking work in Indiana.

Prospective nurses also are given as-sistance by the counseling service, pro-imagination." That's one reason we're vided with literature, information on the various schools of nursing in the state and their requirements.

This is a part of a national counseling and placement service designed to help young women become nurses and to assist them in finding the right jobs when they have completed their training.

RETAILING IN THE GRASS ROOTS

Since 1939, according to a speech by William C. Truppner, chief of the Census Bureau's business division, retail sales the country over have tripled. Even allowing for a doubling of prices in that time, this means that 50 per cent more goods are moving into the hands of consumers.

As Mr. Truppner put it, "The smaller, less populous counties have been gaining more than national average. The large cities have gained far less than average, and the counties around the large cities have gained far more than average."

This speaks well for the improvement in living standards that is taking place in the grass roots. And it speaks well too for the progressive spirit of retailing which has brought the same standards of service, the same kinds of goods, and about the same price levels to the country as are enjoyed in the great cities. The smaller town shopper has a wide choice of stores to patronize — chains, independents, speciality shops and so on. And if he can't find what he wants in the home town, he can hop into the car and go to a nearby community and get tion that keeps retailing on its toes. Mr. Truppner also said that retail-

REPUBLICANS

I AM A CANDIDATE FOR THE OFFICE OF

COUNTY COMMISSIONER

Middle District

I believe the office of County Commissioner is most important and should never be used as a political football by any group of politicians. I believe the party belongs to all the Republican voters and that party affairs should be managed by the duly elected Republican Committeemen. If nominated and elected I shall endeavor to discharge the duties of the office in a fair and impartial manner. A good, clean Republican ticket chosen in the May Primary is sure to win in the Fall election.

ORIEN DEATON

ATTENTION VOTERS!

I want to call your attention to the May 2nd Primary Election, and its bearing on the Fall election. Any man or woman who does not east a ballot in the party primaries deserves to carry on his conscience part of the blame for the shortcomings of American government.

• Primary elections give the voter the privilege of helping select the best candidates; therefore, don't take the "stay at home or business as usual" attitude. It only takes a small amount of your time. Go vote don't let someone else choose your candidate.

• The great danger in a small turn-out at a Primary is that it oftens results in a weak ticket, so if we don't have a good strong ticket we may lose in the Fall election.

REMEMBER - Campaigns are not won only in November elections, but also in preceding Primaries.

Yours for good government,
