MEDICAL ASSOCIATION OFFERS SCHOLARSHIPS TO NURSING STUDENTS

Impetus was given the "Nurse Enrollment Week" campaign of the Junior Chamber of Commerce today when the Indiana State Medical Association announced that $200 scholarships would be awarded each year to six girls enrolled in any of the twenty-eight accredited nurse training schools of the state. The scholarships will total $600 for the three-year course.

"The purpose of the scholarships is to enable worthy girls who might be denied a nursing education because of financial reasons an opportunity to enter this noble profession," said Dr. C. J. Clark of Indianapolis, chairman of the Scholarship committee of the medical association. He added that the number of scholarships would be increased if the committee received contributions from business organizations and individuals wishing to support its objectives.

The nursing school scholarships will be awarded each summer by Dr. Clark's committee, which is composed of Drs. N. K. Forster of Hammond, M. R. Lohman of Fort Wayne, Herman T. Combs of Evansville, Floyd T. Romberger of Lafayette, Alfred Ellison of South Bend and Norman M. Beatty and J. William Wright, both of Indianapolis.

Endeavoring to encourage more girls to study nursing, the medical association is joining with the Indiana State Nurses' Association in the publication of a booklet listing high school subjects necessary for entrance to the various schools of nursing in Indiana. Supporting the movement is the Woman's Auxiliary of the Indiana State Medical Association which has adopted enrollment of girls for nurse training as its number one project for the year.

Concerned because many patients are not receiving adequate nursing care, the physicians of the nation have recognized the serious nurse shortage. At the recent annual session of the American Medical Association in Atlantic City, a committee on Nursing problems was created to make a study of the nursing situation and to recommend a solution.

In addition to the nursing school scholarships, the state medical association earlier this year established six or more scholarships for medical school students studying for the general practice of medicine. Each scholarship will pay $500 a year, or $2,000 for the four years.

HOW ABOUT THAT VACATION?

If you are planning a motor trip wouldn't you like to study a good road Atlas showing maps of very state in the United States, maps of Canada, and Mexico, a guide to places of interest, mileage charts and city maps? If you are interested, come to the library and ask for the latest 1947 improved edition of the Rand McNally Road Atlas. You may take it out for seven days.

If you are spending your vacation at home, come in and select one of our new books to enjoy during your leisure time.

How about "How Green Was My Father" by David Dodge? Wouldn't you like to take a trip to Guatemala? The Dodges, husband, wife and five year old daughter did. They couldn't get a boat and they couldn't get a plane but they had an automobile and they knew that Guatemala was somewhere off down that way, South! So they piled all their portable possessions into the car and started out.

They made it too, but only after some of the zaniest experiences. We'll wager that when you sit down to enjoy this book; you won't stop chuckling from page one until the last tire blows out on the streets of Guatemala City.

Then when in a more serious mood, try "Three Came Home" by Agnes Newton Keith, author of "Land below the Wind." In the first book, Mrs. Keith described her life in Borneo. In her latest book, she tells the experiences of herself, her small son and her husband as prisoners of the Japanese.

This is not at all a song of hate but a thoughtful account of the real things which happened to real people like ourselves, when the Japanese captured Borneo.

A suspicious looking colored transient was turned over to the county sheriff by Marshal Wagner, Sunday. The local marshal had kept pretty close tab on him during the day, and upon questioning, seemingly wasn't just certain where he did come from. He was placed in the county jail and later released when no particular charge could be found against him. He was given orders to get out of the county quickly.

CONSERVATION CLUB HOLDINGS TAX FREE IN MOST INSTANCES

Conservation Club club houses in most instances are exempt from property tax payment, the Indiana Department of Conservation reported today.

John H. Nigh, department director, said he has been advised in an official opinion from Indiana Attorney General Cleon H. Foust that: "(1) a Conservation club having as its objects the preservation of natural resources, the protection of wild life and the support of the activities of the Department of Conservation and owning and operating property which is exclusively used and set aside for such purposes may properly be held exempt from property tax thereon upon proper application duly made and filed with the County Auditor.

"(2) Intangible property owned by or held for the use and benefit of such organization is not taxable under the intangible tax law of this State" and "(3) Contributions, tuition fees, initiation fees, matriculation fees, membership fees and earnings on or receipts from sales of intangible property by such organization are exempt from gross income tax, but all other receipts of such organization are subject to gross income tax."

Nigh said the opinion was requested following the receipt of several inquiries from clubs anticipating a building program. Approximately 125 Indiana clubs own club-houses, which, under the attorney general's opinion, are tax-free if used only as club houses by a legitimate Conservation club.

MENTONE WINS COUNTY TITLE

Home Run Defeats Milford, 4-3

A home-run in the ninth inning by Devon Hibschan broke up a 3 to 3 tie and gave the Beeson Egg Farm softball team, of Mentone, on upset 4 to 3 victory over the Milford All-Stars Saturday night. The victory gave Mentone the county championship and moved the team into sectional play.

An overflow crowd witnessed the extra-inning contest, without a doubt one of the most thrilling tilts played on the local diamond this season. Several "breaks" helped both teams, as first Mentone and then Milford came from behind to tie the score after things looked hopeless.

Although Hibschan gets the hero role because of his game winning home-run, most of the fans were giving words of praise to Flenar, Mentone shortstop, who displayed great talent throughout the contest.

Milford Scores First

Both teams played excellent ball behind the brilliant pitching of Milford's Donnie Wolferman and Mentone's Lloyd Heckaman. There was no scoring in the first four innings of play, as Wolferman was giving up only one hit, and Heckaman but three safeties. In the second, third, fourth and fifth frames, Wolferman retired the side in order. His teammates scored a tally in the last half of the fifth inning to take a 1 to 0 lead. Claude Hamilton started the uprising by doubling to center field. The first break of the game came when Cooper, Mentone, third baseman, missed the catcher's throw as Hamilton attempted to steal third base. The ball bounced into left field, allowing Hamilton to score.

Mentone received its big break in the sixth inning, when with two outs and runners on second and third, Milford second baseman, Lew Speicher and shortstop Cliff Replogle let Flenar's easy fly ball drop between them for a hit, scoring both runners. This gave Mentone a 2 to 1 lead.

It became 3 to 1 in the seventh inning, as Pete McGowen doubled down the right field line and scored on Hibschan's single.

Tie Score in Seventh

Things looked bad as Milford came to bat in the last half of the seventh inning. Harry Haab batted for Replogle and grounded out to Flenar. Claude Hamilton then brought the Milford fans to their feet with a single to center field, his second straight hit. Wolferman dropped a double into short right field, scoring Hamilton. The Milford hurler stole third base and stayed there as Orn fled to second baseman McGowen in short center field. The break came on the next play. Wolferman was trapped off third base, but Leffert's throw hit the Milford pitcher, and he scampered home with the tying run.

Neither team could score in the eighth frame. There was one out when Hibschan lined a drive over shortstop in the ninth inning. Left fielder Gene Estep rushed in to pick up the ball, but it bounced past him for a home run.

Trailing by one run, Milford made its last desperate bid in the final half of the ninth inning. With one out, Claude Hamilton smashed his third straight hit into center field and then stole second base. Wolferman's slow dribbler was good for an infield hit, advancing Hamilton to third base. Darrel Orn then hit one straight up in the air, and Leffert took it for the second out. Wolferman stole second base leaving runners on second and third with two out. Up to the plate stepped Lew Speicher, who had previously hit two hard line drives, only to see them caught. Speicher, Milford second baseman, hit a slow-hopping ground ball to the right of Flenar. The Mentone shortstop picked up the ball and almost in the same motion whipped a peg to first base to catch Speicher by an eyelash and end the game.

Mentone Outlit

Milford collected ten hits to Mentone's five. Milford was charged with only one error, while Mentone made two miscues. Wolferman set 10 Mentone batters down via the strikeout route while Heckaman struck out three.

Following the game, a beautiful trophy, donated by Schrader's store, was presented to the Mentone players. It

CALL FOR STATE FAIR TICKETS HEAVIEST YET

Because of the heaviest demand in history, advance reduced price tickets for the Indiana State Fair are selling out throughout the state.

Orval C. Pratt, secretary-manager of the State Fair, said old time members of the fair board told him they had never seen the advance tickets sell so fast. The board's supply of 250,000 was sold out in five days after being put on sale July 10. That was easily a record.

Mr. Pratt urged State Fair goers to buy their tickets before the supply is exhausted at the hundreds of outlets throughout the state. Some of the outlets are already sold out.

County agents and farm bureau officers in many counties have the tickets, or they know where they may be obtained if they are available. Many retail establishments, including Hook's and Haag's drug stores, and banks received supplies of the tickets. They sell at 35 cents as against the regular price of 60 cents, both prices including tax. No more will be printed after the 250,000 are sold.

Attendance at the 1947 State Fair is expected to be as big, or bigger, than last year when 627,573 paid admissions set a new record. Dates of the State Fair are August 29 through September 5.

Game birds and animals in Indiana today have an increased opportunity for survival, according to field experts in the Indiana Department of Conservation.

Realizing that natural cover and food rather than artificial propagation produces the most wildlife, the Division of Fish and Game has pushed its Wildlife Habitat Restoration Program under the Pittman-Robertson Act. Under the program, small, unprofitable areas are leased for ten years and seeded to obtain plant life that will check erosion and produce food for wildlife. Six thousand acres are under lease now.

This year for the first time the Pittman-Robertson field men have had an opportunity to properly inspect areas established in 1941, and their findings will be presented in a report to be prepared in the fall.

Not only rabbits but also landowners are happy with the habitat areas since after a few years of development, the land once again becomes profitable through the production of marketable timber.

This year the Pittman-Robertson project leaders will be permitted, for the first time, to spend 25 percent of their allotted funds for maintenance such as fence repair and sign replacement, but most of the money will be spent, as usual, for actual development.

SQUIRREL SEASON OPENSAUGUST 15: PROSPECTS GOOD

Indiana's open season on grey and fox squirrels opens August 15 and prospects, according to the Indiana Department of Conservation, are for good hunting.

John H. Nigh, Conservation director, said the season was established in line with the recommendations for state Conservation clubs and from department game officials. Closing date has been set for October 13.

An article in OUTDOOR INDIANA, Conservation department magazine, reports that squirrel food has been in abundance this year and that breeding although delayed by weather conditions, was more successful than a year ago.

The author, John M. Allen, of the Fish and Game division, said the delay in opening of the season — which last year began August 10 — was necessary because of later breeding.

Mr. and Mrs. Kellows and Mr. and Mrs. Rapp, of South Bend, were callers at the Clarence Leininger home Tuesday where they visited Allen Nelson. Mrs. Rapp is a sister-in-law to Mr. Nelson.

Immediate delivery on steel posts, asbestos siding, windows and window frames, all types of asphalt shingles, Burdsal's outside white paint. Mentone Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Grubbs and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blackburn spent Saturday in Indianapolis.

BONDED AND LICENSED BUYER

Trucks available at all times. Loren L. Tridle, Buyer.

CATASTROPHE NEARLY OCCURS.

The Mentone fire department has had many rural calls lately, and last week as they were heading out of town to Palestine about two or three automobiles and one truck tried to pass one another at the post office corner. A strange car, about to enter the intersection, wisely stopped. How the cars and trucks managed to escape is still a mystery to those who witnessed the affair.

If the drivers who pull tricks of this sort could actually hear what the people on the street say about them, most of them would buy a one-way ticket to Mexico.

A fire is an emergency, and all traffic—in autos or afoot—must get out of the way and give the equipment the right-of-way. However, even in a case of this kind, no traffic rule or regulation can be legally disobeyed. Needless to say, interested spectators and firemen must still obey all such regulations. A rather important one, too, is that no vehicle drive any closer than 500 feet to the rear of a fire truck.

ANOTHER FALSE RUMOR

It has been reported that the story is going the rounds that if the townships purchase a new rural fire truck, Mentone will keep it in town and send the old one on a fire call.

One would naturally cast a questioning look at anyone believing a tale of this kind—but Logansport is rather crowded.

Any new fire fighting equipment that is purchased is mainly for rural use, and it is for the protection of the property of our country friends that the firemen and officials have been working to secure more adequate equipment. We know that we are expected to do everything possible to protect all property—and what an uproar there is if ever there is a slight indication of failure. The rural truck has been used for Mentone city fires and if another truck is purchased, the same procedure will follow in the future, although better than nine out of ten fires are in the country. Mentone owns and maintains another truck for city use and the law forbids anyone ever taking outside the city limits, otherwise insurance companies could refuse to pay any fire loss claims occurring while the equipment was out of town.

The new equipment will be used for rural protection, and the volunteer firemen, who leave their work or business to man the equipment and fight the fires, will do their best even though they do it practically without compensation.

SEVERAL FROM HERE ATTEND FLYING FARMER DAY

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Herendeen, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Shunk, Mr. and Mrs.

Frank Meredith and son Jimmie, Miles and Dick Manwaring and Bob Herendeen and Donnie Smythe flew to Urbana, Illinois Monday to attend the big Flying Farmer holiday there. About 700 planes visited the large airport there and not an accident of any sort was reported.

The Jonah Club gave a fish banquet to the 1200 assembled guests, and Lyndes Latimer said they were served in 45 minutes. About 36 Jonah club boys made the trip. Lyndes made the trip in a 14-place plane owned by the Firestone Rubber Co. The trip from the Peru air base to Urbana took 40 minutes.

Hobart Creighton and son Eddie flew up in their Ercoupe, and Mr. and Mrs. Herendeen made the trip in Chas. Creighton's Super Cruiser, while Mr. and Mrs. Shunk made the trip in the new Eeronca Chief they bought from Allen Herendeen last week. The Merediths used their plane while son Jimmy rode in the Manwaring 3-place plane.

FRANK BIDELMAN DIES

Frank Bidelman, aged 52, died suddenly at Three Rivers, Michigan on last Thursday, Aug. 7. He was in the hospital at the time and death was caused by a ruptured blood vessel in the heart.

Survivors are his mother, Mrs. Mary Bidelman, of Sevastopol; five children, Dennis, Bernard, Robert, and Mrs. Roberta Lehman, of Elkhart, and Mrs. Betty Newton, of Chicago; two brothers, John of Claypool, and Earl of Sevastopol, and a sister, Mrs. Lloyd Rickel, of south of Mentone. There are 11 grandchildren. A brother, Horace, was killed by a train in Fort Wayne in 1909.

Funeral services were held in Elkhart Saturday.

LEGION AUXILIARY

Tuesday evening the Ladies Auxiliary meeting was conducted by Emma Clutter, vice-president, in the absence of Nell Reed, president.

Miss Frances Clark, guest speaker of the evening gave a most interesting talk on the children's home at Knights-town in which she taught several years. The home is maintained by the Legion Posts of the state with the aid of state support. The Auxiliary units donate each year to the home.

Everyone that heard the talk by Miss Clark has a more complete understanding of the fine supervision and training of the children.

Refreshments were served by Vades Ward and Mary Frances Hudson.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 9, at 8:00 o'clock at the Legion Home.

4-H'ERS TAKE TOUR

Thirty-two 4-H members of Beaver Dam and 30 of their parents made a tour of 20 farms one day the fore part of the week. The tour started at the Sam Norris farm and poultry, beef, dairy, sheep, corn, wheat, oats and garden projects were visited. Dinner was enjoyed at the Everett Swick home and a business meeting was held at Francis Swick's. Delford Bowen, Armour field man from Rochester, took 16mm motion pictures of the entire tour.

CO-OP. EMPLOYEES TO ENJOY PICNIC

The local Co-Op. employees will be among the hundreds of McMillen feed dealers who will enjoy a picnic at the plant grounds at Decatur next Wednesday, Aug. 20.

At noon a barbecue luncheon is planned, when several choice steers from the McMillen Farms in Indiana will be prepared. Decatur merchants will furnish the balance of the menu and refreshments.

The all day program will include conducted tours through the Decatur plant, baseball, games, contests and horseshoe pitching, for which valuable prizes will be awarded.

The meeting will be held on the plant grounds and special large tents will be erected in which to hold the program and serve as an eating place. A short speaking program will be held in the afternoon and the guests will be addressed by D. W. McMillen, Founder and Chairman of the Board; R. H. Fletcher, president of the company, and H. W. McMillen, director of sales. The program will begin at 1:30 in the afternoon with a community sing and entertainment immediately preceding the speaking part of the program.

All departments of the Mentone organization will be closed that day.

JOLLY JANES HOME EC. MEETS

The Jolly Jane Home Ec. club met on Monday night, Aug. 11, at the home of Mrs. John Ellsworth. The history of the song of the month, "I Dream of Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair," was given by Mrs. Ralph Mollenhour, after which all joined in singing. Response to roll call was with a household hint. Oct. 1 has been set as the date when the club will go to Chicago to visit the Breakfast Club. Having no lesson for this month, after the business meeting, games were enjoyed by everyone. Delicious refreshments were served to the 19 members present by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Geo. Mollenhour.

A RECORD OATS CROP?

Alden Jones, who lives four and one-half miles southeast of Mentone, has completed harvesting 11 acres of Clinton oats that yielded 1,012 bushels, or an average of 92 bushels per acre.

This is considered a mighty fine yield, especially since the weather this year hasn't been too favorable and since the seed wasn't planted until May 12th.

Can anyone beat this yield?

Grover Janke went to Michigan City Saturday to visit his brother, who was visiting there from Evansville, and his two daughters. He made the trip up there in 35 minutes in one of the planes from the airport but it took him all day Tuesday to return by bus.

Mr. and Mrs. Garlen Smith and Carey Landis, of Mentone, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher, of Tippecanoe, returned last Saturday from a week's vacation in Wisconsin, where they reported the fishing was fine but the weather hot and dry.

HEALTH FACTS FROM YOUR STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

Many parents about to enter their child into a school for the first time, check the youngster's wardrobe, know the location of the school and fervently hope that Johnny will like the teacher. There the interest seems to rest.

A child's contentment and his ability to make satisfactory progress depends upon much more than liking the teacher, the school or the children. It depends upon his ability to readily adjust to new situations and to enjoy what is going on.

During the first five years lifelong attitudes, habits and traits are established. The child's basic emotional training for school entrance should consist of the following—

Ability to think and do for himself—wean the child from his mother, mentally and emotionally.

Early sleeping habits — the child should awaken early enough to eat a good breakfast in a leisurely, happy manner, have his accustomed bowel movement, and set out for school in a peaceful state of mind.

Healthful food habits—breakfast is a key meal. Adequate diets determine in a considerable measure the fatigue experienced by the child.

Respect for authority—point out to the child that everyone must respect the authority of someone higher up.

Temperamental Adjustments—develop an independent, courageous attitude toward life and prevent the formation of self pity attitudes.

The main lesson in school is HOW TO GET ALONG IN THE WORLD.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Breeden and son Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nelson and son Stephen, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Johns and Mr. and Mrs. Artley Cullum and son Jon enjoyed home-made ice cream and cake at the Forrest Kesler home Saturday evening.

ROADSIDE PARKS ATTRACT MANY PEOPLE

Popularity of Indiana's roadside parks, constructed and maintained by the State Highway Commission for the convenience of the traveling public, was shown by a use survey recently taken at one of these parks.

A total of 1,134 persons, traveling in 258 automobiles, stopped at the roadside park on S. R. 13, four miles south of North Webster, on Sunday, August 3, according to tabulated figures.

J. P. Parker, Fort Wayne district engineer of the State Highway Commission, said the survey was made during the hours of 8 a. m. and 8 p. m.

The North Webster park proper is situated on a high hill overlooking the Barbee chain of lakes. A flowing well is located just off the shoulder of Highway 13 and below the park. On the day the survey was made, it was estimated that nearly 5,000 additional motorists stopped at the well but did not drive into the park itself.

Parker said that the number of picnic tables at the North Webster park has been increased to 25 in order to accommodate the ever-growing number of visitors there.

Of the 258 cars stopping at the North Webster roadside park on the day the survey was taken, 241 were Indiana automobiles. The remaining 17 came from Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, New York and Arizona.

Highway officials pointed out that out-of-state motorists are more predominant at rest stops situated along the federal highways crossing Indiana.

WHY PLUG A WATERMELON?

Would you buy melons from a man who seemed offended by your request that he plug one? If he refused to have one plugged, wouldn't you be suspicious that something was wrong with the melons?

If a man holds to a doctrine or practice on which he fears to have the searchlight of God's word turned, is that not evidence that he fears it will not stand the test? Truth fears nothing by investigation!

That there are many conflicting religious theories in the world today, is admitted by all. Yet, very few of them are open to investigation. They want you to accept their religious melon without allowing you to plug it! Not only does this tendency to ignore differences and investigate none of them indicate that most folks know their doctrines will not stand investigation, but is also a violation of the commands of God. God orders us to investigate religious claims. (Matt. 24:23, 24; I John 4:1; I Thess. 5:21.)

Take a pencil and go through the Bible marking every place you find the doctrines which you hold. Then turn loose of all things you cannot mark at least once in the Book of God! This is a challenge. Try it!

Home Canning Gives You A Ready-to-Serve Desert

In search of an always ready-to-serve dessert? Then have canned baked apples in your pantry! The Ball Blue Book of home canning contains a recipe for canned baked apples that you're bound to thank your lucky star for following. Wash and core apples. Fill cavities with sugar to which a little cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg or ginger has been added. Bake in small amount of water, just enough to prevent sticking. When apples are tender, pack them into hot jars. Cover with hot sirup made of equal parts of sugar and water or with water and honey. Process 15 minutes in hot water bath.

And while you're working with apples, don't forget apple jelly. Tart apples, alone or combined with other fruits are old standbys for jelly. If you have a supply of canned, unsweetened apple juice, you are all set to make jelly throughout the winter.

Uniform System

The nation's first statewide system of traffic law enforcement is being launched by cities in Michigan. The plan is designed to give both traffic enforcement officers and motorists an even break. Through its statewide use, the public will know what to expect from police in all communities. At the same time this policy will take cops "out from behind the billboard" by giving them a forthright enforcement formula. Key device of the system is a special uniform traffic ticket.

Value of Rug

Value of an oriental rug generally is not determined by its thickness. Some of the finest and most expensive hand-woven rugs are relatively thin. The value of an oriental rug depends upon its artistry, closeness of weave and quality of wool used.

Mineral Wealth

Diamonds and gold are the minerals people think of in connection with Africa. But the continent has the greatest reserve of copper in the world in northern Rhodesia and the Belgian Congo. It is also probable that its rich deposits of coal will someday be more important than its gold and gems, in the opinion of geologists.

BEESON EGG FARM SOFTBALL TEAM LOSES SATURDAY

The Beeson Egg Farm softball team, playing in the final of the sectional tournament at Warsaw Saturday evening, lost 9 to 0. They played the Warsaw AA team, which had been given a spot in the tournament without playing through the county title. They have been playing league play and were considered strong enough to enter sectional play without entering the county tourney.

The Beeson boys played six games to reach the sectional finals. Heckaman, Beeson pitcher, was the only one of his team to make a hit in the final game.

JESSE BRUNER DIES.

He was a member of the Burket Methodist church and was affiliated with the Modern Woodmen lodge.

DEVON HIBSCHMAN WINS $5.00 SAFETY AWARD HERE

Devon Hibschman was one surprised lad last Saturday when he was handed a five dollar bill by the safety committee selected by the Warsaw Times and Union and Chicago Motor Club.

A local committee, in company with one of the campaign officials, watched Hibschman drive into town with his car and trailer. He stopped at all stop signs, gave the right-of-way to a group of bicycle riders, signaled properly and drove on to the Co-Op. Mill. The officials got into his car and started a routine of questioning with Devon still in the dark as to what was up. He was likely thinking back a long ways wondering what he had done to deserve such questioning—and then they gave him the nice new shiny "Abe."

The committee complimented Mentone and its auto drivers, stating they noticed but two or three infractions while in town. However, they did say the bicycle riders were meandering all over the streets and paying little attention to either the rules of safety or highway regulations.

Treating Pays

Sweet corn treated with Spergon before planting gave 20 per cent more yield than untreated seed in 1946. The increase for Arasan-treated seed was 10 per cent. Actual yield increases (weight of ears) were 0.39 tons per acre for Spergon and 0.19 for Arasan.

Porpoises, dolphins and whales are, according to science, land animals that have given up their original habitat for the ocean.

Contest Winner "Brands" His Prize

A pioneer of the auto industry, hunted throughout the nation in a contest to discover the oldest Chevrolet truck in America, turned up, appropriately, in the possession of a Montana homesteader. The venerable vehicle, vintage of 1918, was still serving Rancher Leslie A. Storey, of Jordan, Mont., whose ranch lies 18 miles from a typical "last frontier" town. The award for owning the oldest licensed and operating truck was a new Chevrolet "advance-design" model, which Storey "brands" here with his distinctive Circle-Heart brand. It was presented to him by J. W. Burke, manager of Chevrolet's truck department, as Mrs. Storey and Montana cowgirl Merle Spears (right) look on. Nearly 7,000 old-time Chevrolet trucks were entered in the contest won by this vehicle, which was one of 384 built by the division in 1918, its first year of truck production.

Corn relish is one of those appetizing dishes we rarely enjoy unless we know someone who does home canning and invites us over for a meal. Popular hostesses find that it pays to include corn relish in their home canning plans. The Ball Blue Book recipe for this taste treat is as follows:

- 2 quarts corn
1 quart chopped cabbage
1 cup green sweet pepper
1 cup sweet red pepper
2 large onions
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons ground mustard
1 tablespoon mustard seed
1 tablespoon salt
1 tablespoon celery seed
1 quart vinegar
1 cup water
- Boil corn five minutes. Cold
Cut from cob. Measure. Chop measure cabbage and peppers. C onions. Combine ingredients and s mer 20 minutes. (More salt sugar may be added if needed.) P into hot jars. Seal at once.

All who can squeeze into the fair grounds coliseum for the morning program beginning at 9:30 a. m. (CDT) that day may join in the All-State Hymn Sing sponsored by the Indiana Federation of Music clubs.

RELEASE 6,000 PHEASANTS
IN NORTHERN TIER

Release of between five and six thousand full-grown pheasants in the northern tier of counties was announced today by the Indiana Department of Conservation.

Donald R. Hughes, director of the Division of Fish and Game, said releases are being made in the northern 50 counties by Conservation officers. Average release is 120 birds to the county.

Hughes said the release represents a clean-up of breeding stock from the Jasper-Pulaski and Wells County State game farms. The birds, hatched in the Spring of 1946, have completed breeding.

Corn Experimentation

In the 30 years that the department of agriculture has been experimenting with corn hybrids, it has spent five million dollars of the taxpayers' money, and it is estimated that the states have spent about the same amount. From this 10 million dollars, farmers of the nation are now getting 750 million dollars every year out of higher yields and better grain from corn hybrids.

Don't waste good feed on non-producers. Cull out non-producers; keep the good birds busy on the nest! Give good hens the best of care — and plenty of the egg mash that contains the proper mixture of the essentials for heavy egg production... The formula for this feed has been tested in the Master Mix Laboratories.

FOR VACATION READING*"Give Us Our Dream," by Arthemuse Goertz.

Is easy reading fiction of apartment life in a large city, but it also contains the workable philosophy of old Mrs. Marsan. She says, "we all have our dreams. They don't cost a dime and they don't take up much space. . . . I expect to pass through this world but once. Any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now, for I shall not pass this way again." Fiction.

"There Was Once a Slave," by Frederick Douglas.

Is the story of Frederick Douglas, the man who escaped from slavery to become one of the great leaders of his century.

Frederick Douglas was denied the privileges of education, his lot, hard labor, brutal lashings and a starvation diet. How he learned to read and how he planned and accomplished his escape is a thrilling but true story. The story of his long public career, the work he did and the positions of honor and trust he filled is one of almost superhuman accomplishment.

This book won the Julian Messner award for the best book combating intolerance in America. If you wish to possess just a little more tolerance and sympathy for others, read this book. Non-fiction.

"The Thresher," by Herbert Krause.

Is the story of the wheat farmers of Minnesota, of their crushing struggle against odds, their sense of humor and homely customs. Fiction.

By Paul Rush

Well, here we go again. Yes another week has passed and I think that it is time that I explained a few things about the All-Star games. The chief purpose of the All-Star softball games is a source of revenue for the upkeep of Veterans' Park. To give you some idea about the expense incurred in running the park, please note the following items:

1. Umpire in chief, 3 nights at $3.00 $ 9.00
2. Balls, 6 per wk at $2.20 13.20
3. Lights (approx) 5.00

Approx. Total 27.20

(The estimate of number of balls is what we need. We aren't using that many now).

Now please understand that these are just current running expenses. No mention is made of buying bulbs, All-Star equipment, etc.

So far this year (excluding July 4th) our collections have averaged about $22 per week. While our average attendance has been between 350 and 400 persons. Surprisingly enough, with couples that are there, there have been very few one dollar bills contributed. Why do I mention the dollar bill? If a person were taking his wife or girl to a show or some similar place of entertainment we all know that he would spend at least that much.

However, before everybody takes offense at what has been said in the paragraphs above, I would like to add that there are several who are giving all they can afford, too, and some more than they should.

So, remember folks that the next time you are asked to contribute during an All-Star game that it is your contribution that enables the park to keep operating. Remember that and dig a little deeper, won't you?

And now for the results of last week's games:

COUNTY FAIR NEXT WEEK

The 31st annual Kosciusko County Fair will be held next week—August 26th to 30th inclusive, and the program that has been arranged indicates it will be bigger and better than ever. Milo Maloy is general chairman and Ross Stitler is secretary.

The premium lists and fair program booklets, again printed by the Country Print Shop, have been distributed throughout the county and are available from fair officials.

The fair officials have made many improvements on and about the grounds since last year's show. There has been a new grandstand, new 4-H building, new merchants display building, new rest rooms, etc. constructed, and the midway has been paved with black top.

Free acts will be provided daily by the Four Merrills, a troupe of aerial acrobats; by Happy Harrison's circus of dogs, ponies and a "sour-puss" mule; and by Chief Blue Sky, a full-blooded Pequot Indian who has been entertaining local clubs and lodges with his bird and animal imitations and tribal songs and dances.

The Duke of Paducah will present his stage show, "Grand Ole Opry."

The lightweight horse pulling contest will be Thursday afternoon and the heavyweights will pull on Saturday evening.

Friday night will be held the 4-H fat steer and barrow auction sale.

The fair will officially open on Tuesday evening, Aug. 26th.

NEW STOVE PURCHASED

A new ten burner gas stove was installed at the Home Economics room at the high school building Wednesday. This will be a wonderful help for our cooks when it comes to hot meals.

Another interesting piece of news which will be welcomed by the students and parents is that hot lunches will be served all of the school year. A more definite announcement will be made on Friday, August 29, when students go for their book lists.

INJURED IN JEEP ACCIDENT

Jack Robson, of Rochester was injured Wednesday afternoon when a tire on his jeep blew out. The accident occurred one mile west of Mentone at the Mark Burket farm.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Lemler, of Bourbon and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nobel Shaffer of Tippecanoe.

The single ring ceremony was read by Rev. Ducker, pastor of the church in the presence of the immediate families and a few close friends.

Miss Patricia Keesey, of Rochester, and Owen Moriarty of Tippecanoe attended the couple.

Following the ceremony the couple left on a trip through the northern states and Canada.

Mrs. Shaffer is a graduate of Bourbon high school and Mr. Shaffer of Tippecanoe high school. He is employed at the Studebaker Corporation in South Bend.

WRECK LAST FRIDAY

A 1947 Dodge truck owned by Hunter, Walton and Co., of Claypool and driven by Robert Shipley and a 1946 Pontiac Sedan driven by Lena Carey of Bay City, Michigan, figured in an accident last Friday noon at the bridge west of Mentone on Road 25.

The truck was going west and the other car was coming east, and they met on the bridge. The truck was damaged to the extent of $5.00, while the Pontiac suffered around $800.00 damage. Both sides and all four fenders were completely damaged, the doors having to be pried open before the occupants of the car could be released. Fortunately no one was hurt, and the parties in the sedan drove it on home to Bay City, Michigan.

The other ladies in the car were Kathryn Maarleveld, Alveta Touroo and Hazel Thirld. They were returning from a trip through Yellowstone National Park.

14 WILL DIE ON HOLIDAY

Labor Day week end traffic in Indiana will produce a toll of 14 deaths and 490 serious injuries while registering 180 million travel miles, Chas. M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor Club, predicts.

This estimate is slightly higher than the toll for last year, Mr. Hayes explains, because of a 15 per cent increase in travel.

However, traffic observers and police authorities attributed the failure of the traffic toll to realize the statistical probabilities of the record holiday motor mileage Decoration Day and July Fourth this year to the exceptional efforts of the press and radio to keep the highway hazard continuously before the motoring public, Mr. Hayes continued. The resulting improvement in driving attitude and alertness greatly aided the effectiveness of traffic enforcement efforts by police.

Further favoring a better Labor Day accident record than the record travel mileage would indicate is the peak efficiency of traffic enforcement by police following a summer in which all previous highs for motor travel were exceeded by 15 per cent. The accident rate per 100,000,000 motor miles in Indiana showed an increase of 4 per cent over 1941.

To insure safer driving, Mr. Hayes recommends the following holiday program for motorists:

(1) Drivers should not over exert themselves before starting on or returning from their trips. They must be alert physically and mentally to cope with situations which may arise in congested traffic.

(2) The mechanical condition of the car should be checked thoroughly. Fifteen per cent of all traffic accidents are attributed to mechanically defective cars.

(3) Obey all traffic regulations and speed limits.

(4) Do not over-indulge in alcoholic beverages.

(5) Leave a wide margin of safety when passing cars, and under no circumstances pass on hills or curves.

Local motorists can contribute to their own safety and convenience as well as others by using secondary roads to relieve congestion on main highways when the traffic volume is at its peak, Mr. Hayes added.

(Earl Shinn recently persuaded C. L. Teel to write a history of Mentone, and we are indeed grateful for the following excellent response.)

The wrecking of the old Hotel Building takes us back in memory to the time when Mentone was born, when the largest thing in the place was a large wooden windmill derrick that stood in the corner of a field just where this old hotel building is now being razed. As the writer recalls it, the well beneath this derrick became the town well.

It might be well at this point to mention the naming of the town. "Tucker" was the first name suggested for our town. The name of Mentone, I'm told, was suggested by a small girl named Flavia Underhill, later the wife of Carlin Myers and was taken from Mentone, France. Inasmuch as Carlin Myers' father, together with Albert Tucker, Sr. and a Mr. Hackerdorn were instrumental in getting the town located here and due to Carl's regard for this lady the name she suggested was chosen and our town became Mentone. This is the story of the naming as told to the writer.

The first business building was erected by the Manwarings on the present site of the Farmers State Bank Building. The hotel building followed soon after. From this time on buildings sprang up so fast it is hard to recall at this time the succession in which they came. There was a row of frame business buildings extending from the Ellsworth shoe shop north to the corner and west to Byron Linn's repair shop. Included in this row was the Old Opera House built by Wm. Mollenhour. The W. W. Kimes building occupied for many years by Warren Kimes' Store. Up and down and in and out in this row, for many years the town's saloons thrived and failed. This row was also the chief home of the restaurant business. Probably more meat has been sold in the rooms of this row of buildings than any place in town. The Farmers State Bank had its origin in one of the buildings now being wrecked. South on Broadway was the Kintzel boarding house later occupied as a home by the Aurelius Vandermark family.

Crossing Main Street there was also a row of wooden business rooms extending from Broadway on the east to the alley on the west. This half block was occupied at various times by grocery store, meat markets, etc. . . L. P. Jefferies had a furniture store in the building next to the alley in what was known as the Robinson building. This half block of wooden structures was destroyed by fire February 2, 1902. At the west of this block facing Main and along Tucker street stood the old livery barn, the present site of the Sinclair station. In its time this old barn was the sight of a thriving business. Hundreds of the country's best horses were taken into this barn later to be shipped to the large city trucking centers. To the east of the old hotel and facing Main street and extending to the alley at the old Gazette office, now occupied by Mentone Produce Co., was a row of wooden structures occupied at one time or another by Manwarings general store, the Tipton Harness shop, the Teel & Miller butcher shop, the Belle Mollenhour Milliner Block, all of which buildings except the room now occupied by VanGilder Dentistry were destroyed by fire Feb. 2, 1906. Just to the south of the present Farmers State Bank building was a small frame structure, still standing, the first home of our telephone exchange. Through the efforts of about a hundred men, some rope and wrecking hooks, this building was saved from fire which destroyed the buildings in this half block.

Crossing Main street north, we have what was the first really permanent business building of the town. Known as the Banner Block, extending in part from Broadway on the west to Morgan street on the east. Among the first occupants of these business rooms was the Forst general store, now occupied as a drug store. The Forst store was the first store in town to be lighted by electricity. These lights were produced by electrical fusing of two carbon sticks. Next to this room, now a cafe, was a skating rink. Next was the N. N. Latimer hardware store, now occupied by Hill and Lemler grocery. The writer is uncertain as to the earlier occupancy of the next three rooms but L. P. Jefferies, Furniture, The Big Drug Store and the Milbern Hardware were some of the earlier occupants. The room which is now the Cooper Store was the First National Bank for a number of years.

Crossing the alley and now occupied by our telephone exchange and the barber shop was the D. W. Lewis dry goods and grocery store. Farther along on the corner was the old Creamery building now the dental parlors and home of Dr. F. B. Davison. At the rear of the Forst building was a room, now a doctor's office, which at one time was occupied by the John Tabor Bank, later merged with the Farmers Bank of Mentone and operated by L. D. Manwaring and Elmer M. Eddinger.

Leaving the center part of town we will try to call to mind some of the outstanding features of the old town. One of the first to mention was the Geo. Jefferies sawmill which got a great majority of the lumber that went into the building of the residences in the earlier part of the life of the town. This mill housed the first dynamo that furnished the first electric lights in Mentone. The lights were turned on at dusk and turned off at ten or eleven at night. This mill stood on the present site of the Smith grocery in the southwest part of town. Just north of this was the old grist mill whose first miller was E. M. Eddinger, later the banker. Then there was the Lash stave mill, the Mollenhour and Moon sawmill, the Fitzgibbons boat oar factory and the grain elevators, all of these being located in the block south and west of the depot. Next to mention was the large band saw mill of Val Brown and Son, located just north of the present Mollenhour sawmill. Next to the northwest part of town to the Manwaring box factory where the first egg case that the writer ever saw was built. This factory was destroyed by fire some years later.

Other places of interest were the old M. P. Church which stood where Ray Rush now lives. The building was removed by L. P. Jefferies to its present location and is now Stanford's garage. The first Baptist church building now replaced by the beautiful new structure stood on the site of the present building. The Mc. M. Forst building (called Mery-Co-Round from the nature of its structure) was moved to its present location, the Dana Starr residence on Main street and the Church of Christ building was erected in 1909. The old M. E. Church building has taken its place, too, in giving Mentone three fine church edifices. There was the old wooden school house that stood where the old brick structure stood which recently was destroyed by fire. The electric light plant which preceded the present lighting system was housed in the old portion of what is now the town hall and fire department. The only automobile ever built in Mentone was built in the A. T. Mollenhour Mochine shop by Amos Mollenhour and his son Clark. The building, later the home of the Ernberger Lumber Co. is now operated by Elmore Fenstermaker in the production of eggs. But the sweetest place in town was the I. K. Smith sorghum mill at the extreme north end of Franklin street.

The first store to be opened in Mentone was the Manwaring store, where the bank now stands. Probably the next was the Allen Blue store which stood just east of where the present stockyards are located. The building was one which was moved up from what was formerly called Chicago, just one mile west of Mentone and which accounts for several homes at that point. Mc. M. Forst was another of the first liners.

Now coming to the more prominent personages of the early life of our town, it is fitting to mention the following: C. L. Ernberger is perhaps the only living man today who has seen the town grow from its origin to its present state and has been in business nearly the entire existence of the town. There was D. W. Lewis, dry goods and groceries; Hayden Ray, harness; John Dunlap, groceries; L. P. Jefferies, furniture; Wm. Huff, blacksmith; Henry Daman, butcher; Cal. Shinn, butcher; A. L. Ketterman, mason; James Cox and Elmer Leiter, horse dealers; W. Kimes, grocery; Philip Bowman, hotel prop.; John Johnson, lawyer; Mace Wertenberger, hardware; Melvin and Allen Milbern, hardware; Nash N. Latimer, hardware; H. D. Pontius, monuments; Philetus Leiter, carriage maker; John Welch, livery; Henry Mills, barber; Louis Salinger, clothing; Riley Ralston, carpenter; Loyd Dunlap, carpenter; David Dillingham, carpenter; Roland Ferry, electrician; Chas. Casad, acrobat; John Lee laborer; John Sellers, drugs; W. B. Doddridge, drugs; R. Railsback, undertaker; Wm. Clark, general store; C. L. Ernberger, drayman and lumber dealer; S. S. Mentzer, general store; Socrates Martin retired farmer; C. M. Smith, publisher; Jack Tipton, harness; John Clark, mason's helper; Frank Bowman, lawyer; Ernberger and Mills alone surviving this group.

Who lives now that can recall the old mud streets, the town sprinkler to keep the dust down in dry weather, the cisterns in the street intersections as a water supply to fight fires, the old pump to fight fires pumped by teams of men on either side of the pump, the arched street lighting system, and before that the carbon lights at street intersections, the open toilets and swarms of accompanying flies, the hitchhacks, the people now dead who came into town in the buggy or the wagon to visit or do shopping, the old wooden seats in front of all the business places where the people sat and enjoyed the scenery or fought flies or missed the curb with their tobacco? Who can now recall when we all rushed down to the depot to see the train come in? Who still remembers the staggering drunk and the stench that came from the drinking places? There were the street brawls and the "cooler" where they got a chance to think things over. And who remembers the oil well located just east of the cemetery where the writer has fifty dollars worth of post holes still for sale. And best of all, who living today does not recall when we got the city water system and the streets paved and the Winona railroad which has now been abandoned.

In fancy the writer looks back and sees all these people and businesses pass and fade away as the morning fog before the rising sun and a new day is ushered in. So has the fog been taken from our town and a new era ushered in, making our town not only a good place in which to live but a place where every citizen should be proud to say: MENTONE — MY HOME TOWN.

Respectfully,
C. L. TEEL

Roy Rush and daughter left Saturday morning for a week in Michigan.

Be An "Engineer in Good Eating"—Do Home Canning!

Simple Instructions Based on Science

You may not have a degree as an engineer, Mrs. Housewife, but when you're home canning you're using scientific principles just as surely as a mining, chemical, electrical or other engineer. That is, if you follow glass jar manufacturer's instructions, for they are based upon scientific discoveries made over a period of a century and a half.

Back in Napoleon's time, a Paris confectioner, Nicolas Appert, set out to find a method of food preservation and win a 12,000-franc prize offered in 1795 by the French government. Napoleon, like Frederick the Great, believed an army travels on its stomach, and the folks at home got hungry and discontented too!

Nicolas won the prize, after 15 years' work, but his methods and equipment have been greatly improved upon. He labored under many handicaps, not knowing a temperature beyond boiling is required for processing some foods and having to design his own glass jars. Not until 1860 did Louis Pasteur establish the fact that microorganisms are responsible for food spoilage. Fourteen years later, an American, A. K. Shriver of Baltimore, invented the "retort" or "pressure" cooker.

In 1858 John Mason patented the Mason jar with neck designed for receiving a screw type cap. The Mason jar with porcelain-lined zinc cap is an old reliable. Mason would probably be astounded by the 1947 cap for sealing the Mason jar. This new style cap is a two-piece metal affair with a Dome lid which has sealing compound on the under side and is tested for seal by pressing on the center of the lid with the finger. Sealing with the Dome lid is made doubly sure by the new type metal band which bears down on the lid at three pressure points.

Also reliable in seal is the lighting type jar with rubber ring, glass lid and wire bail.

Many scientific experiments and jar improvements have perfected processes for today's home canning and it is upon them that instructions you will find in reliable home canning literature such as the Ball Blue Book are based. Follow these instructions and you become an "Engineer in Good Eating"—much to the benefit of your family's health and increased pleasure at the table provided by delicious home canned foods.

Require Space

Each baby chick should have a half foot of floor space until it is eight weeks old, then the space should be increased to a square foot.

Muscle Shoals

The name Muscle Shoals for a section of Tennessee river reputedly was suggested by the muscular demand on Indians and early settlers in canoes bound upstream.

The number of milk cows on farms has been declining since late in 1944. A slower rate of decline and perhaps a halt in reduction of cow numbers are expected by agricultural experts.

An army of laborers worked constantly for 22 years to erect the Taj Mahal, one of the world's most beautiful structures, which is located near Agra in north India.

Welcome Babies

Parents aren't the only ones who welcome the arrival of new babies. A baby, figures show, will eat approximately 675 cans of strained baby food during the first 12 months. Estimated food bill for the baby's first year runs between $100 and $200, which has been instrumental in increasing the baby food business during the past two decades to a 100 million dollars retail volume annually.

Sugar Cane
On his second voyage in 1493 Columbus took sugar cane to Hispaniola, or as it is now called, the Dominican Republic. From this island it soon reached Cuba, Puerto Rico and the West Indies. It was Pedrarias, governor of Nicaragua in 1528, who requested some cane of Cuba and was responsible for its introduction to that country.

VET. CENTER AT STATE FAIR

The 1947 Indiana State Fair boasts of a Veterans' Affairs Center in the Manufacturers' Building at the state fairgrounds in Indianapolis where Indiana veterans of all wars and their families are welcome to stop in for information and assistance, and which all those interested in veterans' affairs will want to visit.

This Veterans' Affairs Center at the state fair (open every day and evening from August 29 through September 5) is sponsored by the State of Indiana Department of Veterans' Affairs in cooperation with the United States Veterans Administration and the Indiana Employment Security Division. On duty to assist veterans at all times will be a VA contact representative and a state veterans' official.

As a special feature of the center's week-long activities, the regular weekly broadcast—VETERANS' AFFAIRS—will emanate from the center over WIBC. The Indianapolis News-Mutual Network station. United States Senator William E. Jenner, of Bedford, also a World War II veteran, will appear as guest speaker on the noval broadcast to discuss veterans' legislation.

In charge of the Veterans' Affairs

Center is a Lake county war veteran and official of the State Department of Veterans' Affairs, Theodore L. Sendak, of Gary. Sendak is public relations director for the state agency and is also editor of the "Indiana Veterans' Review."

State Fair officials anticipate a record-breaking attendance this year at the Hoosier Fair and at all its many attractions including the new Veterans' Center.

HOWDY FOLKS: Did you hear about the waitress who kept insisting to a customer that there were no calories in the hash because they had the cleanest kitchen in town?

She: "Who was that girl you just spoke to?"

He: "Never mind, darling. I'll have enough trouble telling her who you are."

Math. Prof.: "Now, if I subtract 25 from 37 what is the difference?"

Little Willie: "Yeah! That's what I say. Who cares?"

But it does make a difference to you what kind of gas, oil and lubrication you buy. That's why you will find it pays to come here regularly for the services we offer. Let us show you what a difference good car care makes.

IS PAGEANTRY PIETY?

Those who judged the religion of Jesus Christ by its "wrappings" turned it down flatly. Many rejected Christ because he was a carpenter—they never dreamed that he was a representative of Heaven. They looked for streaming banners, flowing robes, blaring trumpets and pretentious display to hail their king. When he came without these things, they rejected the message of Heaven he brought.

Anyone who reads the New Testament can plainly see that showy and pretentious display is directly contrary to the nature of the meek and lowly Christ and his modest followers.

Often people believe that a certain church or doctrine must be right because some preacher, with high-sounding title and wide reputation, is affiliated with it. You cannot judge a book by its cover. Neither can you judge the worth of the church, its doctrine or its soundness by the eloquence, fame or popularity of its leaders. They may with "smooth and fair speech beguile the hearts of the innocent." Or like Paul, they may come, "Not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming the testimony of God . . . that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God." I Cor. 2:15.

Do not depend on the "wrappings," but look at the goods.

MEET TO SAVE THE SHADES

Indianapolis, Aug. 20 (Special) — Representatives of approximately 40 civic and fraternal organizations met this afternoon in the office of Gov. Ralph F. Gates to lay final plans for the campaign to Save the Shades.

The campaign, which gets underway August 29 and runs throughout September, is scheduled to raise $300,000 by popular subscription to purchase and partially develop the Shades as Indiana's 15th state park.

In his preliminary remarks the Governor pointed out that the 1452-acre scenic tract near Crawfordsville "might even now be destroyed had the state not stepped in to prevent its sale to lumber interests."

Through arrangement with the governor, Arthur R. Baxter, Indianapolis businessman, purchased the Shades early in June, to prevent its despoliation and leased it to the Indiana Department of Conservation until such a time as funds could be raised for its purchase by the state.

Asked what would happen if the $300,000 goal is over-subscribed, the governor said "every penny" collected would be used at the Shades. He estimated the Conservation department would spend "perhaps a million dollars" before the property is finally developed as a state park.

HEART DISEASE AND HAY FEVER EXHIBIT AT FAIR

Visitors to the Indiana State Medical Association exhibit during the state fair in Indianapolis August 29 to September 5 will have an opportunity to learn about heart disease and hay fever, two of the state's most widespread diseases.

Diseases of the heart are the Number One Killer, 10,919 persons having died from these causes in Indiana in 1946. The exhibit, prepared by the American Medical Association and the University of Illinois College of Medicine, shows the various types of heart disease and how to prevent them, or how to continue to live when afflicted.

The American Medical Association and the Medical College are also sponsors of the hay fever display. It consists of charts and transparencies showing the common causes of hay fever at different seasons, and what can be done about them.

Blood pressure determinations will be taken at the medical association booth. Persons whose blood pressure is abnormal will be notified.

An attractive booklet of Mother Goose rhymes on health subjects will be distributed by the medical association whose booth will be in the Educational Building.

The committee in charge of the medical association exhibit are Drs. Robert H. Wiseheart of Lebanon, chairman; Roy V. Pearce of Franklin; Mars B. Ferrell of Fortville; Howard W. Beaver, Loren Martin and J. Lawrence Sims, all of Indianapolis; C. G. Kern of Lebanon and Dick J. Steele of Greencastle.

POULTRY, EGGS AND CREAMHEALTH FACTS FROM YOUR STATE BOARD OF HEALTH*The Child's Physical Preparation for School Is Essential

The child about to enter school for the first time depends upon his parents to give him the right start and guidance. The success of his school life, which will influence his actions and thinking, depends upon his health.

Physical defects may put your child at a disadvantage with his classmates. Poor sight, hearing, and diseased tonsils may make him dull and cause him to be discouraged and disinterested in his school work.

Do not allow your child to reach school age with a handicap that can be corrected. Every child entering school should have a thorough examination by his family physician and dentist. Vaccinations and immunizations should be given to protect him from the added danger of acquiring communicable disease.

Ask yourself these questions—

Does my doctor consider my child's weight correct for his age, height and general structure?

Are his eyes, height, muscles firm, posture erect?

Has he been protected by immunizing agents from smallpox and diphtheria?

Are his nose and throat free from infection, or other abnormal conditions?

Are his teeth free from decay and well kept?

Does my child see and hear well? Has he good habits of bathing, sleeping, eating, elimination and self-control?

HOW DOES YOUR CHILD MEASURE UP?

AKRON FAIR BEGINS SEPT. 2

The annual Akron Agricultural fair will get underway Tuesday evening at 7:30 P. M. (CDT) when the team pulling contest is held at the fairgrounds. From that time on there will be a program every day and night until the curtain is rung down late Saturday night on the 1947 version of the fair that has grown in popularity thru the years.

Bernard Shaw, Akron farmer, is in charge of the team pulling contest and has announced that there will be contests for both lightweight and heavy-weight teams, with the break in weight coming at 3,200 pounds. There is $340 in prize money in the two contests with prizes being divided into seven places. Then there will be an additional prize of $5.00 for the best mannered team in each contest.

ANIMAL HEALTH COLUMN . . .

By R. A. MARRIOTT

Practically every disease has a significant chain of symptoms that is helpful in make a positive diagnosis. There are many general symptoms that every livestock owner should recognize. A recognition of these symptoms and a knowledge of their significance will serve as a warning to the owner. Symptoms of disease or disorders should never be overlooked or disregarded. Prompt recognition of sick animals and the proper treatment of the disease in its early stages are highly important. Some of the most commonly observed symptoms are: Loss of appetite, which is a very common general symptom of various diseases. However, loss of appetite also may be caused by overfeeding, insufficient water, lack of salt or other faulty feeding practices. Perverted appetite, eating bones, sticks, rags, leather or manure. Roughened hair coat, loss of hair, dull eye, emaciation, or a gradual loss of flesh or condition. Coughing and nasal discharge are most often associated with disturbances in the respiratory system, such as influenza, colds and pneumonia. Spasmodic coughing often accompanies lungworm infestation. Rise in body temperature is an early symptom of most infectious diseases. A marked rise in temperature is often accompanied by a dry nose. Rapid and labored breathing, skin changes, lameness and staggering, muscular tremors and quivering are all common symptoms of infection. Consistency of droppings that is normal for different animals is common knowledge to every livestock man. A marked change in consistency that cannot be associated with a change in ration is usually significant. In some diseases, the manure may be abnormally firm and hard, while varying degrees of scouring and diarrhea are early symptoms of other disorders. The droppings may also have an unusual color and an abnormal odor. Vaginal discharge indicates infection associated with reproductive system. Sudden drop in milk secretion is another early symptom of disease in lactating animals. Abnormal milk—that is, any change in the color or consistency of the secretion—has a definite meaning.

Strict and rigid barn and herd sanitation is a most important factor in the control and prevention of disease. Cleanliness and sunlight are natural enemies of disease. Use disinfectants after thoroughly cleaning stables, pens and equipment. Proper control of flies and mosquitos is desirable, since they may serve as carriers of infection from sick to healthy animals. Sanitation of pastures is essential in the control and prevention of common worm parasites of livestock.

In spite of the most rigid sanitary controls employed, infectious outbreaks are apt to occur wherever livestock are raised, therefore it behooves every livestock raiser to closely observe his animals for symptoms of infectious diseases or anything that will affect the animal's normal growth or productivity. More and more livestock owners are protecting their animals against many infectious diseases by using Lederle Veterinary products. Lederle Laboratories pioneered in the scientific production of effective products for the protection of livestock against infectious disease. Today, Lederle's reputation for quality gives assurance that any Lederle product, when properly used, can be relied upon.

VARIETY IN DESSERTS

Fresh peaches galore! Sounds good when one thinks of all the delicious summertime desserts that can be made with fresh peaches, doesn't it?

Miss Anna P. Ranier, extension nutrition specialist, Purdue University, stimulates memories and appetites by telling about some of those peach treats.

Peaches broiled or baked are not served too often but they are good, and simple to prepare, Miss Ranier says. Broil or bake peach halves, pit side up, in a shallow baking dish. To each piece add a little melted fat, a very little salt, and sweetening if desired. When hot through and lightly browned, the peaches are ready to be served hot with the main course or as a dessert.

Or for a very cool dessert, Miss Ranier suggests that you try peach Melba.

Just put a scoopful of vanilla ice cream into the hollow of a peach half. Then pour a little raspberry syrup on the top, add a few chopped nuts and there is a peach Melba. So quick and easy to make and so fitting for hot summer days.

The peach season would not be complete without some of the old favorites—peach shortcake, pie, cobbler, or turnover. Each homemaker undoubtedly has her pride and joy in this line.

And here is another cool peach dessert to please the youngsters as well as grownups . . . fresh peach ice cream soda. For each person, crush a perfectly ripened peach and place in a bowl. Add one cup rich milk (well-chilled) and a good sized serving of vanilla or fresh peach ice cream. Beat this together quickly, either with electric mixer or egg beater, and pour into large, tall glasses. Fill up with well-chilled sparkling soda water, stir gently—then serve.

So, for health as well as conserving wealth, Miss Ranier says, use these plentiful peaches in all manner of summer desserts.

PURDUE EXHIBIT AT FAIR

The latest and most efficient developments in the agricultural and related research fields will be portrayed in the Purdue University exhibit in the Purdue Building for the 1947 Indiana State Fair.

Among the exhibits expected to attract the attention of thousands of Hoosier farmers will be the poultry housing display and the soil conservation model farms. An eight foot section of the 30 foot wide, gable roof, laying house, built by the department of engineering, will show new details of proper construction.

Inside the laying house will be roosting racks, feed bins, automatic waterers, community nests, automatic electric timer for light control and a deep litter.

Purdue extension poultrymen credit this type of house with the following advantages: Low building cost per square foot of space, warm in winter and cool in summer, large doors on each end and driveway through center for saving labor at cleaning; houses egg-laying flock large enough for worth while, efficient production and is adaptable for other farm uses.

Building plans will be available at the exhibit for the laying house, roosting racks, feed bins, community nests and automatic waterers.

Fairs visitors will also meet the wise old owl of the Soil Conservation Department who says that "Wise Land Use Pays." The exhibit includes the gullied poor farm in miniature and beside it a farm with improved buildings paid for by the diversion ditches, good land use, contour cultivation, sod waterways, good pastures and healthy well-fed livestock.

FEED SOFT CORN TO LIVESTOCK

Handling high moisture corn and sustaining as little loss in feeding as possible will be the job confronting many Indiana farmers, this year. Soft corn can be turned into profit with little loss by feeding it to livestock through the fall and winter months. W. M. Beeson, Purdue University animal nutritionist, says.

When soft corn and dry mature corn are compared in feeding value on the same moisture basis, a pound of soft corn that has not molded, or spoiled otherwise, has about the same feeding value as mature, sound corn.

Prof. Beeson points out that of the four methods of utilizing soft corn for fattening beef cattle, feeding it as ear corn silage is the most profitable with shocked corn next in preference. The third choice is to leave corn in the field and husk as needed while the least efficient method is "cattling" down corn, which is a wasteful method as a rule.

Beef cattle probably rank first among livestock in being able to utilize large amounts of soft corn and corn silage products most effectively. Hogs are considered second choice and are capable of consuming large amounts of soft ear corn or soft shelled corn but are not well adapted to the utilization of silages made from corn as they do not make use of much fibre. Feeding soft corn to sheep is a good practice but sheep do not return as high a value for soft corn as either hogs or cattle.

Farmers are reminded that changes to soft corn should be made gradually. Any abrupt changes in feed from dry to soft corn will cause digestive disturbances. Soft corn should be consumed before warm weather arrives in the spring as high moisture corn deteriorates very rapidly and becomes unpalatable for livestock in hot weather. Gains of cattle, sheep and hogs on soft corn go down rapidly after the beginning of warm weather.

W. S. C. S. TO MEET

The W. S. C. S. will meet at the home of Mrs. Glen Snider on Friday, September 5, at 7:30 p. m. Those who do not have any means of transportation should meet at the Methodist church at 7:15.

Make Sauer Kraut for Winter Meals

Don't miss out on homemade sauer kraut served with spareribs or wieners next winter. Choose fresh, hard, sound cabbage now and make kraut. Remove the outside leaves, quarter, and discard cores. Shred and mix thoroughly with salt, one cup to 20 pounds of cabbage.

Pack firmly in a stone jar or tight keg and cover with wooden lid or dinner plate which will fit down on the inside of the container. A jar full of water on the plate will hold the kraut under the brine which forms as the salt draws the juice from the cabbage. Keep at a temperature of 65 to 75 degrees Fahrenheit and remove scum each day.

Sauer kraut is cured and ready to can in from 20 to 40 days, depending upon the temperature at which it is kept. Pack into hot Ball jars which seal with glass lid- or Dome Vacu-Seal caps. Should there not be enough juice to cover the kraut, add brine made by dissolving two tablespoons salt in one quart of water.

Process 30 minutes in hot water bath.

Sauer kraut may also be made by mixing one scant tablespoon salt with one quart shredded cabbage and packing directly into Ball jars. Do not seal the jars yet. Remove the scum as it forms. When cured, then process 30 minutes in hot water bath. Seal the jars according to the manufacturer's instructions.

Bulk-cured kraut is superior in flavor, texture and keeping qualities to that cured in jars.

White Animals

Although white mice are common in captivity, where they are bred in large numbers for laboratory use, they are comparatively rare in the wild. Albinism is in itself not rare: It may occur in many forms of wildlife. There are white crows, raccoons, opossums, squirrels, deer and even quail. The common belief is that such freaks do not last long, however, and this may be due to their conspicuous color, making them more susceptible to predation.

Love Token

The tomato was once a love token Sir Walter Raleigh introduced the vegetable in this role when he presented a very fine tomato plant to his queen.

LOCAL RESIDENT HEARD ON WLS

Among participants in Gladys Skelley's Prairie Farmer Air Edition broadcast at 6:15 p. m. Thursday was Mrs. Leo Adams, of Akron, Kosciusko county, Indiana. STRICTLY BUSINESS

by McFeatters

"Darling, will you be my beneficiary?"

ing up a lot of messy pots and pans, dishes and bowls.

I like to look upon my cooking as laboratory work and each recipe an experiment in chemistry. A good cook knows what chemical reaction takes place in a mixture with the addition of each ingredient and it is fun to work out new combinations. When proper mixtures are achieved, it is an easy step to convert them into palate teasing foods by the application of what the chemists call "thermal treatment." This means heat and heat means cooking.

FIXING UP the HOME

By Diane Greeter

Kitchen Is Food Laboratory

I LIKE to cook, but all the joy is taken out of this most interesting of household tasks if I don't have the proper equipment and tools to do the job. Then, too, I must have everything within easy reach and the kitchen has to be so arranged that I can keep every working surface clear and clean without too much trouble.

I clean things and put them away as I go along. It's no fun to finish the interesting part of the job and then have to buckle down to wash-

HOWDY FOLKS: A noted scientist says that the secret of health is to eat raw onions—but he doesn't tell us how to keep it a secret.

A little boy was saying his prayers in a low voice. "I can't hear you, dear," whispered his mother. Said the small one firmly, "Wasn't talking to you."

"That is the one thing I like about my girl."
"What's that?"
"The guy she goes with."

Well, he may be bragging but we're not when we say your car will run smoother than ever, after we service it. We really know the kind of attention it should have. For the best in gas, oil and lubrication, drive in regularly.

TO WIDEN HIGHWAY 30

The State Highway Commission began work last week acquiring real estate for the new route of U. S. 30 between Columbia City and Warsaw, according to Herman D. Hartman of Warsaw, a member of the Commission.

Bids for the construction of this modern, dual-lane highway, which will run just north of the Pennsylvania railroad between Columbia City and Warsaw, will be sought by the Commission when the large task of purchasing the right-of-way nears completion.

The Columbia City-Larwill section of road will be completed first, according to present plans. State right-of-way department officials said it will be necessary to move 37 sets of buildings in this one section, including several dwellings in the town of Larwill.

Except for existing streets in Piercetown and Larwill, complete new road construction will be required for the new route of Highway 30 which is to be relocated a few miles south of present course between Warsaw and Columbia City. Additional right-of-way is required in Piercetown for the intersection of S. R. 13 and the new highway.

Each of the dual lane pavements will be 22 feet in width with a 36-foot grass plot in the center, according to present plans, while the entire right-of-way will be 172 feet wide.

Three land agents of the Highway Commission's right-of-way department now are working on this assignment, and two abstractors soon will begin their duties there.

IRON LUNG AT STATE FAIR

An "iron lung", a complicated device that has meant life to many victims of poliomyelitis, will be on display at the Indiana State Fair, opening

August 29.

The mechanical lung is part of the free exhibit of the state office of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, in the Indiana State Medical Association's section of the Educational building. Two hot pack machines, used in treating victims of the crippling disease, also will be part of the Foundation's exhibit.

William Styring, Jr. (of Indianapolis, southern Indiana representative of the National Foundation, pointed out that the state fair display will be an opportunity for Hoosiers to see the intricate life-giving and pain-relieving machinery for which some of their money is being spent. The work of the Foundation and its state and county organizations is financed by the annual March of Dimes campaign.

Two iron lungs recently were provided by the county chapters for Ralph Brouette, of near Fowler, and Mrs. Jack Robinson, of Alexandria, permitting them to return to their homes after months in a hospital.

Fifty-three Hoosiers were stricken with polio this year.

Styring explained that the equipment at the state fair display has not been borrowed from a hospital, which might need it in an emergency, but is being loaned by the manufacturers. The iron lung, a new dome model respirator, was sent by the J. H. Emerson Co., Cambridge, Mass., while the hot pack machines were loaned by Mills Hospital Supply Co., Chicago.

Miss Betty Malinka, of Gary, northern Indiana representative of the National Foundation, will be on duty at the booth. Mrs. W. D. Keenan, of Indianapolis, chairman of the women's division of the Marion county chapter, is in charge of staff of hostesses.

THOMPSON AND DUNLAP REUNION

The annual reunion of the Thompson and Dunlap families will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Jefferies, at 505 E. 9th St., Rochester, Indiana on Sunday, August 31, 1947.

Remember the date and plan to attend.

Miss Gladus Wharton, Secretary, Kewanna, Indiana

Louie Smith, Lakeland, Florida, is visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reed. Mrs. Reed is an aunt of Mr. Smith.

Sunday the Intermediate Girls Class of the Baptist Sunday School enjoyed a picnic lunch at Yellow Creek Lake, after which the chaperons, Raymond Lewis and Lee Norris took them to Center Lake, Warsaw, and Winona Lake. An enjoyable time was held by all. Those present were: Joyce McIntyre, Carol Eaton, Lilly Norris, Grace Lewis, Alice Davis, Edna Quier, Monna Lou Darr, Geneva Whetstone, Raymond Lewis and Lee Norris.

OUR CHURCH DOOR

To all who mourn and need comfort, to all who are tired and need rest, to all who are friendless and want friendship, to all who are lonely and want companionship, to all who are homeless and want sheltering love,

THE LORD PRAYED

"Neither pray I for these alone, (his disciples) but for them also which shall believe on me through their word: That they all may be one, as thou Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me." John 17:20-21.

How different this prayer of Christ than the prayers of so many who thank God for the division among professed Christians so that every man may have a church of his choice! Jesus not only prayed that all believers might be one, but he described the type of unity which should exist—even as he and his Father are one.
They were one, not only in purpose, but in all things which they said and did to accomplish that aim. They were perfectly joined together in all particulars.

No wonder then that Paul said, "Now, I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment." I Cor. 1:10-11.

We can never unite on the theories, doctrines and creeds of man. Believers everywhere with nothing but the word of God in hand, can be joined in a unity approved of God.

WANTED — ONE EDITOR

Mr. and Mrs. Artley Cullum and children and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Kesler left Wednesday afternoon for a much needed vacation—destination: parts west. While we realize that the vacation was much needed, we are already wondering just how thick things are going to be on this end of the line.

We are hoping that they will enjoy their vacation very much. Walter Safford has taken off for the southern states. Hope he brings back some of that Suth'n fried chicken.
