JONES—SADLER

On Thanksgiving afternoon at 5:30 o'clock Miss Geneva Sadler of Nashville, Tennessee became the bride of Joseph F. Jones of Mentone. The scene of the wedding was the West Nashville Heights Church of Christ. The altar was beautifully decorated with palms, white gladiola, mums and pompoms, flanked by candelabra.

Musical selections included "O Promise Me," "Because," "Sweetest Story Ever Told," "I Love You Truly," and "Bless This Home," all rendered a capella by a mixed quartette from David Lipscomb College. Lohengrin's march "Faithful and True" was used both as a processional and recessional.

The double ring ceremony was read by Warren S. Jones of Dearborn, Michigan, brother of the groom.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Henry Clayton Sadler. She was attired in a gown of white satin and tulle. The fitted bodice featured a sheer yoke edged with a matching ruffle on which were placed tiny satin bows. The long sleeves came to points over her hands and the ankle length skirt was caught to a tiara of white satin and pearls. She carried a Bible centered with a white orchid and showered with stephanotis and streamers.

Miss Ruby Doris Beasley of Centerville, Tennessee, was the bride's only attendant. She wore an ankle length gown of turquoise blue net and carried an arm bouquet of red roses. She wore matching mitts and headpiece.

James N. Jones was best man and the ushers were Earl Dillingham, Dillard Dillingham, Martin Lemon and Clyde Balderson.

A reception was held at the home of Mrs. Earl Dillingham, sister of the bride, for the bridal party and immediate families. Assisting were Mrs. Dillard Dillingham, Mrs. James N. Jones and Mrs. Henry Clayton Sadler.

For traveling to Florida the bride wore a black gabardine suit with black and white accessories. She wore an orchid corsage. Among places visited were the "Million Dollar" pier at St. Petersburg, Silver Springs, near Ocala, and Marineland.

The couple will reside in Mentone, where Mr. Jones is minister of the Church of Christ.

BAPTIST NEWS

Tonight at 7:30 the people will meet for the regular mid-week service. Rev. Glenn Smouse of the Pleasant Grove Bible Church near North Manchester, will baptize about 8 new converts in that church. Brother Smouse was the song leader at the recent revival meetings at the church. As soon as he is done with the Baptismal service the local church will begin work on the approval of a new constitution for the church. If the one recommended by the committee, composed of LeRoy Norris, Raymond Lewis, Everett Rathfon and the pastor, is approved, then next Thursday night the church will elect officers for the coming year.

The young people of the church have been invited to the Bourbon Bible Church on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 for a youth rally. A good program has been planned and it is hoped that this will be a regular monthly affair that will attract young people. Any young people are invited to come for the good time at this service.

Sunday evening at the first of the service the pastor will baptize a group who have been taking a four-week instruction course during the Sunday School hour. The pastor plans to teach this class each time before a baptism so that all will have a clearer understanding of the ordinances and doctrines of the church when they come into the church as new members. In the evening service the pastor will finish the book of the Revelation. This teaching ministry has been going on for several months and much has been learned concerning the prophecies in the book. With 233 to Sunday School last Sunday the group that have been calling on Tuesday evenings were much encouraged. Sunday School is at 9:30 and the public is invited to visit and have a part in this fine Bible teaching ministry.

The Sunday School Christmas program will be given on Sunday evening, the 23rd, and Mrs. LeRoy Norris and Miss Kenny Harper are in charge of the program.

The situation in regard to illness continues about the same. There are at present the same two cases of scarlet fever. Several pupils are absent with sore throats and colds. Last Friday Dr. Schultz initiated a policy of sending home all pupils in grades 4-5-6 who have a degree or more of fever. Nine were excluded on Friday, ten on Monday, and one on Tuesday. This is a precautionary measure in an attempt to deal with the danger of a more widespread scattering of scarlet fever. The parents have been very cooperative in keeping pupils home who are ill. All of us are hoping that with continued vigilance the disease situation will soon improve.

Cloanna Nelson, Eleanor Rush, Mary Ellen Bryan, Jackie Blue, Pat Starr, Sue Hammer, John Davis, and Larry McKinley were on the radio over the Mentone School program last Saturday.

This Saturday at Lemler's store the Future Homemakers of America, Mentone Chapter, will hold a food sale. The proceeds from this project will be used to pay state dues and finance activities of the club.

WURLITZER ELECTRIC ORGAN

P. T. A. HEARS MRS. RENE NINE

The November meeting of the P. T. A. was held at the school house on last Wednesday evening, Nov. 28.

Following prayer by Ralph Hoffman, devotions were given by Everett Rathfon.

Minutes of the last meeting were read by the assistant secretary, Mrs. Robert Reed.

The president, Carroll Eiler, announced that there will be no December meeting but that the Ways and Means committee will be in charge of the Jan. 23rd meeting, for which announcements will be made later.

The grade count was won by the 8th grade.

Mrs. Delford Nelson, chairman of the hospitality committee, stated that there was a need for funds to pay for the orange juice, paper cups, etc. being used downstairs by the children's hostesses for entertainment in the special session conducted while the parents attend the P. T. A. upstairs.

Mrs. Urschel presented the girls' Chorus. They sang, "It Is No Secret," accompanied at the piano by Sue Ann Lackey.

Mrs. Urschel then introduced our county health nurse, Mrs. Rene Nine. Her topics was, "The Physical Needs of the Child."

Mrs. Nine stressed the importance of pre-natal care as well as the care the baby receives in early infancy. The fact that a baby is kept warm, clean, and well fed in infancy assures him of the love of his mother, which provides the ever necessary sense of security.

The pre-school age of a child should include immunization for small pox, whooping cough, diphtheria and tetanus. At this age it is quite noticeable of how close the child clings to the mother, seeming to feel a special need of the security her presence gives him.

The years of 6 to 12 are called the "neglected years." A child goes through many changes which seemingly do nothing but add gray hairs to the mother. The child should have a thorough physical examination before starting to school, to ascertain that eyes, ears, skin, teeth, heart and other organs are sound. A well child has the ability to learn, and at this time begins to think and make decisions for himself.

Although not making such an open bid for it, the child now needs greater understanding and security than ever before in his short life.

At this time he begins to make his own friends and a parent's remarks are all important in forming the child's future attitudes and prejudices toward people.

The child needs to be proud of his home—if he doesn't bring his friends home, there's a reason.

Along with proper food, including milk and eggs, plenty of fresh air, rest and sleep is necessary. It is a real problem in these times to see that a child is assured of the proper amount of sleep. A child needs 8, 9 or 10 hours of sleep a night.

A child should have a physical examination once a year and a dental check every six months.

Contrary to the quite recent trend to remove tonsils, doctors now do so only if there is a definite need.

Sweets and candy are still labeled as harmful for the teeth.

Eyes should be checked as soon as a child shows signs of eye strain or complaints of headache.

Ears need immediate attention if the child complains of earache, certain types of headache, or dullness of hearing.

The parent is responsible for fostering the child's faith in God, and strengthening his sense of security by holding the proper attitudes himself.

Mrs. Nine's talk was much enjoyed by the parents, for the valuable information given and her own particularly winsome manner of presentation.

Hostesses for the social time in the cafeteria were Mrs. Ralph Ward, chairman; Mrs. Robert Reed, Mrs. Everett Rathfon, Mrs. Pearl Tucker, Mrs. Gilbert Griffiths and Mrs. Dan Urschel.

Special children's hostesses were Mrs. David Gosser and Mrs. Harold Markley.

Mrs. Delford Nelson reported that over five dollars had been "dropped in the saucers" in response to the need.

HEALTH FACTS FROM YOUR STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

More than 236,029 chest screening films have been taken this year by the five 70mm miniature X-ray units operated by the Division of Tuberculosis Control, Indiana State Board of Health.

Chest X-ray surveys held in cooperation with county tuberculosis associations took place in fifty-eight of Indiana's ninety-two counties during the first eleven months of this year, according to Ben Edwards, administrative assistant of the division. In addition, during the same period, X-ray surveys were conducted in two state universities, five state mental and penal institutions, one federal penitentiary and in a number of other state and federal agencies and institutions.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that these films intended primarily to uncover unknown cases of pulmonary tuberculosis also reveal other pathological conditions of the chest. Chest specialists and radiologists interpret the two-and one-half inch films with persons with abnormal findings urged to consult the family physician.

It is anticipated by Mr. Edwards that the number of X-ray films taken by the Board of Health units in 1951 will exceed the 250,000 total of the preceding year. Similar X-ray units owned and rented by various county tuberculosis associations will swell the state's total miniature films by many thousands.

James Mollenhour, who is in camp at Memphis, Tennessee, and attending school there, spent the week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mollenhour and Roger.

Richard Deafenbaugh of Warsaw, spent Sunday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kohr.

ONE MILLION MEMBERS GOAL OF NATIONAL AUXILIARY

One million members enrolled for service to America and America's war veterans will be the goal of the American Legion Auxiliary in its 1952 membership campaign, Mrs. Dale Wallace, membership chairman of the local unit, announced as she completes plans for the local part of the national membership effort.

The campaign here has already started and will continue until our quota for 1952 has been filled. During this time eligible women of the community will be invited to come into the organization and be ready to take part in the activities for the coming year.

"Already the largest women's organization of its kind in the world, the Auxiliary hopes to be even larger next year because of the increased need for the work it is doing," said Mrs. Wallace. For several years we have had a membership of almost one million women and in 1952 we are expecting to exceed that number.

"Eligible for membership," Mrs. Wallace explained, "are wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of members of the American Legion and those of persons who gave their lives in the World Wars or the Korean conflict, or who have died since honorable discharge from war service."

Women who themselves were regularly enrolled in the armed forces during wartime are eligible to membership in both the Legion and the Auxiliary.

The Auxiliary offers these women an opportunity to carry on the type of patriotic service given by their families in time of war, and to aid the disabled veterans and their families. Working side by side with the men of The American Legion, our women have rolled up an impressive record of achievements and we are looking forward to doing ever more in the future.

Name Three Indiana 4-H Winners

TOP RANKING records in the 1951 National 4-H Clothing, Food Preparation and Frozen Foods programs have brought state honors to three Hoosier State club members.

Sarah Smith

Alice Graves

Jane Mann

The art of cooking has real meaning to Sarah Smith, 18, of Bloomington, state winner in the 4-H Food Preparation program. Developing an understanding of the selection and preparation of nutritious foods, she has put these skills into daily use. The result has been improved eating habits for herself and family, as well as a considerable saving in food bills. A 4-H'er for ten years, Sarah has completed 36 projects, the majority of them in the field of food preparation. Helping her mother and occasionally managing a family of 11 herself has frequently tested her ingenuity with foods. In the field of junior leadership and judging Sarah has also been very active at local, county and state levels. She has given creative leadership to her local and county 4-H clubs for the past three years. During the past year she has been vice-president of the county 4-H organization. Sarah's trip to National 4-H Club Congress was presented by Kelvinator.

Of lasting value to Alice Graves, 18, of Bloomington, is the skill and technique she has acquired in learning to plan, construct and care for her wardrobe. As state winner in the 4-H Clothing Achievement program, she was awarded an educational trip to Club Congress in Chicago, provided by Spool Cotton. A 4-H'er for eight years, Alice has to her credit 60 garments made or altered. Experience with many fabrics constructed into suits, dresses, blouses and pajamas have made Alice well qualified to give demonstrations and teach younger members of her club the techniques of dress construction. During the past year Alice made three tailored wool suits as part of her college wardrobe. Alice's 4-H projects and leadership experiences are all valuable training for her anticipated career as a Home Demonstration Agent. She is now in her freshman year at the University of Indiana, majoring in home economics.

Jane Mann, 16, of Otterbein, was named state winner in the 4-H Frozen Foods program. Donor of the 17-jewel wrist watch award was International Harvester. Skill developed in preparing and packaging foodstuffs for freezing has added desirable variety to the home-raised supply, and has reduced the cash outlay for foods. It has also helped provide the family with a well-balanced diet at all times. A club member for seven years, Jane has included baking, garden, sheep and wildlife among the 69 projects completed. Her freezing efforts add variety to the family meal. Fresh vegetables and delicious fruits are enjoyed the year round. Her poultry, garden and bakery projects provide most of the food that goes into the family freezer. Jane's ambitious efforts last year so crowded their freezer that the Mann family had to rent a locker in town. When her dad on a trip south with a load of apples traded some of these for several hundred pounds of pecans this enterprising young miss packaged and froze a large quantity of them.

All of these activities are conducted under the direction of the Extension Service of the State Agricultural College and USDA cooperation.

NELSON WEDDING HELD AT WOODSTOCK, ILLINOIS

In an all green and white wedding Saturday (Nov. 24) at 5 p. m., Carol Nelson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Oliver E. Nelson, Woodstock, Ill., became the bride of Robert Eddinger Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Nelson of Mentone.

Ribbon bows centered with large chrysanthemums and evergreens were draped on the aisles of the church for the single-ring service performed by the Rev. Jesse Firestone and the Rev. H. L. Eagle, Evanston, in the First Methodist church of Woodstock.

The blond bride was clad in shimmering white satin made with a long train and featuring a chantilly lace bodice and chantilly lace sleeves. Pearls outlined the illusion neckline. Her fingertip veil was caught up into a satin cap trimmed with pearls to match her gown and she carried white roses, orchids, and lilies of the valley.

Dr. Nelson presented his daughter in marriage.

Janet Nelson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Vergene Fehrman, of Woodstock; Bonnie Lou Grove, Rochester, Ind., cousin of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Allen Kofoed, Chicago, were bridesmaids.

All of the bride's attendants were clad in green faille. Miss Nelson's made in a pale green color and those of the bridesmaids in deep forest green.

All of the attendants carried white 'mums and green fernery but the bouquet carried by the maid of honor was tied up with dark green ribbon while those of the bridesmaids were tied with pale green.

Marie and Jeanne Sanderson, Minneapolis, Minn., were dainty flower girls in floor-length gowns of green, one in the light color, one in the dark. Each carried a basket of petals which she strewed in the path of the bride.

Byron Belt, Evanston, served as best man.

All of the men in the wedding party were in formal full dress.

The bride's mother was clad in a plum-colored dress with silver sequins. With it she wore a plum-colored hat and matching gloves. The bridegroom's mother wore a gray dinner dress with iridescent trim. Her hat and gloves were pink. Both mothers wore corsages of white orchids.

The Nelsons will reside at 3710 North Meridian St., Indianapolis.

INDIANA R. O. P. BREEDERS ELECT LOCAL MEN

Delford Nelson, of Burket, was re-elected vice president of the Indiana Record of Performance Poultry Breeders Association at the annual meeting held at Purdue university last week. Charles Manwaring, of Mentone, was named as one of the directors, as was Frank Merkle, of Claypool.

NEW FARM DEPRECIATION BOOK

According to an announcement of County Agricultural Agent Paul E. Jackson, his office has received a supply of the new Indiana Farm Depreciation Book, and these books are now available at cost to farmers. This book has been prepared by the Department of Agricultural Economics of Purdue University. It is especially designed as a further help to farmers with their income tax records.

The book provides for a 10-year continuous record of investments of all depreciable items such as farm improvements, machinery and purchased livestock, non-depreciable items such as the farmer's dwelling and home improvements, and development costs which are not deductible for tax purposes. It also provides for continuous year-to-year inventories of livestock, feed and supplies. These features give the book a particular advantage over other books in which the taxpayer must recopy his depreciation schedules and enter the beginning and ending inventory values each year.

"A record of this kind" says County Agent Jackson "is useful for figuring annual depreciation on buildings, other farm improvements, machinery, equipment and purchased breeding animals. It is also valuable for computing profits or losses resulting from sales of depreciable items. It is of extreme importance in calculating capital gains or losses when a farm changes hands."

DAIRYMEN TO BE HONORED

More than 200 Hoosier dairymen will be honored Monday, December 3, when special awards for herd milk and butterfat production are presented at the 62nd annual meeting of the Indiana State Dairy Association at Purdue University.

Medals of Merit will be awarded to 186 owners of herds in which ten cows or more produced at least 300 pounds of butterfat during a 12 month period. Those herds with all cows producing 400 or more pounds of fat will get gold medals; silver medals will go to those herds producing 350 pounds; and bronze medals will go to those giving between 300 and 350 pounds.

Owners of 30 living bulls with six or more daughters which have each produced 300 or more pounds of butterfat during a 305-day test will receive awards in the Intorous Sire project. Each cow's production is calculated on a mature equivalent basis. Bronze medals are awarded for bulls whose daughters have produced 300 but less than 400 pounds of fat; silver medals are given for 400 but less than 500 pounds; and gold medals are presented for 500 or more pounds of butterfat produced by each daughter.

The Indiana State Dairy Association sponsors the two projects in cooperation with the Purdue dairy extension department.

County winners in the Medal of Merit Herd project are:

Gold medals: June Mishler, South Whitley.

Silver medals: Miller and Metzger Bros. South Whitley.

Bronze medals: Everett Rookstool, Claypool; Brallier and Liska, Warsaw; Millard Stookey, Milford; John Beeson and F. O. Rarick, Warsaw.

Green Proves Popular Interior Color

This young homemaker shows her neighbor one of the new popular paint colors, Pinchurst Green, which she selected from the Paint and Color Style Guide. The large book of home decorating ideas may be borrowed free from local Sherwin-Williams dealers.

Exciting New Colors Ready to Serve
Homemaker in Today's Paint Products

Today's homemaker has an unprecedented choice of fresh, new colors and versatile paint products that make interior decorating a thrilling task, according to Mr. Nelson, manager of the Valentine Elevators at Mentone.

"Certain shades, particularly—the deeper tones, were once elusive," said Mr. Nelson, "but scientific advances in the paint industry have changed the picture. Modern paints come ready-to-use in all popular colors. In addition, they dry very quickly and without lap marks. There is no longer any need for guesswork in home decorating."

Whether you prefer the modern deep colors, such as maroon and dark green, or the many pastel shades, you will find tested specifications in the 1951 Paint and Color Style Guide, available without charge at the Valentine Elevator. The large picture book presents natural color photographs of living rooms, dining rooms, bedrooms, bathrooms, kitchens, and of exteriors.

"The illustrations in the Style Guide are so large," said Mr. Nelson, "that you feel as if you actually were in the room. The pictures give practical help in planning color schemes which include wall, ceiling and woodwork, plus rugs, draperies and other fabrics. The book suggests combinations that are artistically correct."

Old Name

The name "turnpike" for toll highways is as old as America's roads. It arose from the type of gate used on early toll roads, a long pole studded with pikes. This barred the way until travelers paid the required fee, then was turned aside.

A mother recently related to me how interested her 9-year-old son was in playing checkers. Might this be a good hint for a Christmas gift for that age child?

Speaking of Christmas gifts, I'd like to hear suggestions from homemakers regarding how they teach their children to appreciate all the toys and games that are received for Christmas. May I hear from you?

It is safe to leave canned food in the can after it has been opened provided it is kept cool and covered. Many homemakers have been skeptical about leaving food in open tin cans. They think tin poisons or contaminates the food after it has been exposed to the air. Research shows that this is not the case if the food is kept in a cool place and kept covered.

A homemaker recently said to me that she belonged to so many organizations that she did not have time to attend their meetings, and that she knew she couldn't expect to get anything out of them if she didn't give something. Consequently, she felt she was going to have to decide which organizations would really benefit her and which ones she could get along without.

I wonder if some of the rest of us might think over our relationship with organizations. Which ones do you give to? Which ones do you benefit by?

GOLTRY-DAVIS

Mrs. Richard E. Goltry was Miss Alyce Davis, daughter of Mrs. Ina Davis, Mentone, before her marriage which took place at 10 Thanksgiving day in Forsyth Chapel at Fort Riley, Kansas. Sgt. 1st Class Goltry, son of Mrs. John Brinkman and Mr. Goe Goltry of South Bend is stationed at Fort Riley.

Preceding the ceremony, which was performed by Chaplain William J. Brown, "Because" was sung by Corp. Joseph Stanley. As vows were being exchanged, Pfc. Harland Pell, organist, played "Always" and "Faithfully Yours."

As the bride approached the altar, which was banked with baskets of chrysanthemums, she was attired in a white, two piece faille over satin dress which was styled with a double collar. The sleeves were caught in a wide cuff just below the elbow. Her only jewelry was rhinestone earrings matching the buttons of her dress. A dark green hat with finger tip veil and matching shoes completes the bride's ensemble. She carried a white Bible, a gift from Mrs. Arthur Sohke, Jr., on which lay a white orchid.

Miss Shirley Nettrouer of South Bend the maid of honor, was attired in a dress of black and pink striped taffeta. She wore matching black accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Sgt. Joseph Shaw, attended the groom as best man. Corp. Robert James served as usher.

Mrs. Ina Davis chose for her daughter's wedding a grey striped dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

The wedding party were guests at dinner in the "K" company dining hall.

Mrs. Goltry, who now resides at 925 E. LaSalle, South Bend, plans on joining Sgt. Goltry at Fort Riley the first of the year.

DEMONSTRATES CANDY MAKING

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 20, at the Mentone school, 15 homemakers viewed a demonstration of candy making given by Ruth Snellenberger, county home demonstration agent.

Mrs. Snellenberger was assisted in the demonstration by Mrs. Robert Parker.

The two major types of candies that were demonstrated were crystalline and non-crystalline.

One of the points brought out in fudge making was to cook to the right concentration and to cool well before beating. The use of materials to make invert sugar, including vinegar, cream of tartar, lemon juice, and corn syrup was stressed.

Nut caramels and fondant were prepared. Many different treatments for fondant were shown.—Warsaw Times-Union.

THE LODGEPOLE PINE

From Alaska to Lower California, the most common cone-bearing tree is the tall, straight Lodgepole Pine. It thrives from the Pacific Coast inland to the eastern slopes of the Rocky Mountains.

Wherever trees will grow in this region, the Lodgepole Pine is likely to be found. It grows from sea level to altitudes of 9,000 to 11,000 feet. It is at its best in the Sierra Nevadas, where the mountains stand 8,000 to 9,500 feet above sea level.

Some trees need plenty of room in which to rise and spread their branches. But according to the National Wildlife Federation, this is not true of the Lodgepole Pine. It flourishes in dense stands, where each tree becomes tall and slender. Only on the Pacific Coast does it often remain a low tree with many forked branches from the ground up.

© National Wildlife Federation

Lodgepole Pine

In the mountains, the average Lodgepole Pine may grow to be 150 feet tall and from six to twelve inches in diameter. Here and there are a few giants which measure three feet or more in thickness.

At the top of the erect trunk are branches which form the shape of a spire. The tree's needles, growing in clusters of two, are one to three inches long and about an eighth of an inch in diameter. They are yellow-green, giving the tree a light appearance.

Cones of the Lodgepole Pine are egg-shaped, and no more than two inches long. Covered with prickly scales the cones sometimes remain tightly closed for many years. Though seeds may stay within a cone for as long as twenty years, they are still good at the end of that time. The seeds are so tiny that it would take 100,000 of them to weigh a pound.

The wood of the Lodgepole Pine does not make fine lumber, but it has many uses. The trunks are trimmed into mine timbers, railroad ties, poles, and posts. The trees also yield pulpwood, fuel, and coarse lumber.

Like all trees, Lodgepole Pines protect the soil and keep it from washing away. They are especially valuable for this purpose because they so often stand where no other trees will grow.

They are trees which have served man for a long time. Many years ago, says the National Wildlife Federation, it was found that the straight trunks made good tent and lodge poles. Ever since then, the tree has been known as the Lodgepole Pine.

Interesting information on other wildlife species may be obtained by writing to the National Wildlife Federation, Washington 10, D. C.

YOU MUST NOT PASS STOPPED SCHOOL BUS

Many motorists are being arrested in Illinois and Indiana for failure to stop when meeting a bus which is discharging or receiving school children. Chas. M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor Club warned today.

Numerous motorists are not aware, the Club president said, that they must stop for school buses which are discharging school children on the opposite side of the roadway on which they are traveling.

Hayes emphasized that the statutes of Illinois and Indiana state clearly that motorists must stop for a school bus regardless of what direction the bus is facing.

Section 99, Article XIV of the Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways of Illinois states:

"The driver of a vehicle upon meeting or overtaking any school bus which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children shall immediately stop his vehicle and shall not pass such school bus while such school children are alighting therefrom and embarking thereon."

The state of Indiana has a similar statute on its books with the exception that a proviso is made for multiple lane highways divided by parkways or median strips. Section 47-2132 stipulates that "If the highway is a multiple lane highway, divided by a parkway or dividing strip unimproved for travel of 20 feet or more in width, and if the school bus is on the opposite side of such parkway or dividing strip unimproved for travel, the driver of the approaching vehicle need not stop but shall proceed with due caution for the safety of such children."

"School buses in Illinois and Indiana are required by law to have the words 'School Bus' in letters not less than four inches in height, plainly visible on the front and rear," Hayes pointed out. "In addition most of them carry flashing red signals which operate when the bus is discharging or taking on school children.

"When you're driving on the highways of Illinois and Indiana be particularly vigilant for stopped school buses. They're carrying precious cargo."

Fall is Season for New Color Indoors, Too

With nature's glorious fall colors running riot outside, these two young homemakers are planning new color for the interior of their homes. They are studying the Sherwin-Williams Paint and Color Style Guide and the Style Guide Companion, two new books containing hundreds of home decorating ideas.

FALL SEASON STIMULATES INTEREST OF
HOMEMAKERS IN NEW COLOR SCHEMES

Homemakers turn spontaneously to color at this season of the year to improve and brighten the dwelling in which they live.

As the countryside deepens into the rich, exciting hues of fall, people also seek expression through fresh color schemes for the home. A thrilling source of up-to-date color combinations is the 1951 Paint and Color Style Guide, according to Mr. Nelson, manager of the Valentine Elevator.

"The Style Guide pages are jammed with the latest ideas in decorating to modernize the home," said Mr. Nelson. "The poster-size pages of lived-in homes show how to create an entirely different atmosphere simply by varying the colors of walls, ceilings and woodwork."

These attractive color schemes echo the progress made by the paint industry's research laboratories. There are, for example, versatile new paints on the market today which open delightful avenues of color to the homemaker. Dramatic deep tones come ready-to-use and in a variety of colors. There are pastels in all popular shades. These amazing new products dry within an hour—and lap marks disappear.

The Style Guide gives tested specifications for all colors shown on its pages, making it easy for homemakers to duplicate them with expert accuracy.

The Style Guide is on display at Valentine Elevators. A copy may be borrowed without charge to study at home. A free booklet containing many helpful hints in home decorating, called the 1951 Home Decorator, also is available.

HEALTH FACTS FROM YOUR STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

A recommendation that safety centering around the Christmas season be planned is being made by the Indiana State Board of Health.

"Safety in Santa's Sack" and "Share Safety This Christmas" are safety pamphlets being included in film and literature requests being made to the Division of Health and Physical Education. The pamphlets are distributed through the courtesy of the National Safety Council.

Last December, accidents other than motor vehicle caused 104 deaths in Indiana with 65 occurring in homes. Falls killed thirty people; contact with fire took 15 lives and seven persons were accidentally shot.

"Planned safety may help to avoid these accidents" was the advice given today by Dale Harman, health safety consultant. "Check the strength of the stepladder or stool when trimming the tree; arrange the toys to prevent accidental tripping; place the Christmas tree in a stand filled with water away from sources of heat; check the light cords and sockets and use nonflammable tree decorations.

"Safety in the selection of toys may also be planned. Inspect the toy to be sure no parts might come loose for the child to swallow or inhale. Be sure the child understands the toy before you leave him with it."

"Even Santa Claus must make plans for a safe Christmas. He must watch his whiskers so all may enjoy a merry, safe Christmas."

• Today good will may starve to death. Keep it alive with customer courtesy and careful advertising.

JOLLY JANES HOME EC. CLUB MET

Mrs. Loren Tridle, of Mentone, was hostess at the Christmas Party enjoyed Monday night by the Jolly Janes Home Economics club. Mrs. Delford Nelson and Mrs. Frank Smith were co-hostesses. A ham dinner was served. Mrs. Kenneth Romine read scriptures from the Bible for the meditation.

Officers of the club for 1952 were installed in a ceremony conducted by Mrs. Romine. They are Mrs. Delford Nelson, president; Mrs. Wayne Bowser, vice-president; Mrs. Roland Ferverda, secretary and Mrs. Loren Tridle, Treasurer.

Plans were made to make Christmas a little brighter for others.

Julie Kent, Janet King, Leah Nell Lemler, Patty Parker and Mary Ellen Ferverda, Members of the girl scouts, put on a Christmas play. They also sang carols, assisted at the piano by Jolaine Smythe.

Santa distributed the gifts from our secret pals to the 23 members present and 3 guests, Mrs. Roger Kelley, Mrs. Juanita Paulus and Mrs. Edna Maloy.

Mrs. Robert Parker will be the hostess at the next meeting January 14th.

METHODIST CHURCH NEWS

The annual Candle-Lighting Carol Service will be held this Sunday evening at seven-thirty with both the Chancel and Junior Choirs participating. This will be the third season for this service which we hope to establish as a tradition in the local church as a part of the program of the Advent Season. The beauty of the Christmas music blends with the soft warm glow of candle-light and mellows the heart and makes it more receptive to the spirit of Christ.

The Christmas Program will be presented on Sunday evening, December 23, at seven-thirty. This will be a most unusual presentation of the Nativity, using beautiful colored slides and the children and youth of the church as the narrators and choir to present the Christmas story. The usual visit of Santa will be made, however, following the class and study period of the morning service.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship are planning a Carol Sing and party this coming week, which, by invitation of Mrs. Charles Manwaring, will be in the Manwaring residence at White City.

The pastor attended the business meeting of the Settlement-Day Program of the Warsaw District held at the Methodist Church in Nappanee this Tuesday, December 11. The report submitted bore evidence of a fine spirit of cooperation; all Conference Claims and Benevolences are paid to date, and a slight improvement shown on the attendance record. You are invited to help bring this last item to the desired goal of average attendance for the year in Worship Service to 200, the Study Period, 100; W. S. C. S., 50 and M. Y. F., 15.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS OF
ADDITIONAL APPROPRIATIONS

Notice is hereby given to the taxpayers of Harrison School Township of Kosciusko County and Harrison Township of Kosciusko County (the same being the Civil Township) that the Advisory Board and Trustee of said

School and Civil Townships will meet at the office of the Trustee, in the Mentone High School, Mentone Indiana, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock p. m. on the 27th day of December, 1951, to consider the following additional appropriations which said officers consider necessary to meet the extraordinary emergency existing at this time:

An appropriation of the funds of said School Township in the amount of $83,500.00 to be applied on the cost of construction and equipment of an addition to the existing school building, including the incidental expenses necessary to be incurred in connection with said building project and the issuance of bonds on account thereof. The funds to meet said appropriation are to be provided by the issuance and sale of bonds of the School Township.

An appropriation of the funds of said Civil Township in the amount of $83,500.00 to aid the School Township in paying the cost of said building project, including the incidental expenses necessary to be incurred in connection with said building project and the issuance of bonds on account thereof. The funds to meet said appropriation are to be provided by the issuance and sale of bonds of the Civil Township.

The foregoing appropriations are in addition to all appropriations provided for in the existing budgets and levies and an extraordinary emergency for such appropriations exists by reason of the inadequacy of existing facilities to accommodate the pupils of school age resident within such township.

Taxpayers of the School and Civil Townships appearing at said meeting shall have the right to be heard in respect to said additional appropriations. The additional appropriations, if finally made, will be automatically referred to the State Board of Tax Commissioners, which Board will hold a further hearing within fifteen days at the office of the Auditor of Kosciusko County, or at such other place as may be designated. MERRY MOLLYS HOME EC. CLUB

The Merry Mollys Home Ec. Clubs met on December 10th at 6:30 with Mrs. Kenneth Simcoe. The house was beautifully decorated with greenery, ornaments, bells, crepe paper and a brightly lighted Christmas tree. As the members and guests gathered around the food laden table, the club president, Mrs. Marion Smith, presented our guest, Mrs. Helen Rookstool, County President, with a lovely corsage, after which everyone enjoyed the bountiful pot luck supper.

The club collect was repeated in union by all the members. Then Mrs. Rookstool installed the following officers for the coming year: Mrs. Marvin Romine, president; Mrs. Herschel McGowen, vice-president; Mrs. Ed Smelser, secretary; Mrs. Lamar Leffert, treasurer.

Mrs. Ed Smelser in behalf of the club, in appreciation of services rendered, presented Mrs. Marion Smith with a president's pin and a beautiful Elgin American compact.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Eugene Sarber, chairman of the entertainment committee, who presented a playlet in pantomime based on the book "Little Women" by Louisa Alcott. The cast of characters included: Mrs. Eugene Sarber, "Maimie"; Mrs. Donald Horn, "Beth"; Mrs. Carl Whetstone, "Amy"; Mrs. Lamar Leffert, "Meg"; Mrs. Marvin Romine, "Jo"; Geneva Whetstone, "Reader"; Carol Smith, "Small Girl." June Romine played her accordion before the play and between the scenes.

Several Christmas carols were sung by the group. A messenger in the person of Mrs. Ed Smelser arrived pulling a gift filled wagon and bearing a special delivery letter for Mrs. Marion Smith. The letter was from Santa Claus appointing Mrs. Smith his helper for the evening and she then presented the members gifts from their Cheerio pals and also a little remembrance for the guests present.

New Cheerio pals were drawn for the coming year.

Those present were Mrs. Clayton Holloway, Mrs. Donald Horn, Mrs. Herschel McGowen, Mrs. Lamar Leffert, Mrs. Jack Pritchard, Mrs. Marvin Romine, Mrs. Eugene Sarber, Mrs. Kenneth Simcoe, Mrs. Ed Smelser, Mrs. Marvin Smith, Mrs. Elvin Teel, Mrs. Everett Welborn and Mrs. Carl Whetstone. Guests were Mrs. Everett Rookstool, Mrs. Elizabeth Simcoe, Geneva Whetstone, Carol Smith and June Romine.

Unpredictable

The musk ox is an unpredictable animal. It may, in its confusion, charge a party of hunters; yet, if it does not see or scent the gunner, it may refuse to run from gunfire.

BELL'S CRIPPLED DOG DIES.

A year or so ago we carried an article about a dog belonging to Lawrence Bell that was crippled by arthritis. His masters, Larry Bell and brother, Vaughn, improvised a two-wheeled cart upon which the dog would sit, and when it was strapped over his back he would pull himself along with his front legs. It was quite an attraction in the California city when Mr. Vaughn Bell and the dog took their daily nine-block stroll.

This week Dobbs Miller came in with a picture of the dog and a news story in a California newspaper. The 15-year-old dog became ill last month and died. He was given a burial seldom enjoyed by a departed dog.

SEE "MACBETH" AT PURDUE PLAYSHOP

Mr. and Mrs. Artley Cullum, accompanied by five freshman girls from Manchester College, went to Purdue last Friday evening where they saw the Purdue Playshop production of "Macbeth."

They were all dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hillis Hawkins, who reside near Lafayette. Mrs. Cullum and Mrs. Hawkins graduated from high school in the same class.

The girls who enjoyed the trip were: Elaine Harshner, Ann Shope, Kathryn Crothers, Laura Hawkins and Jo Cullum.

Sweet Corn

Sweet corn is sweet, research reveals, because above five per cent of each kernel is sugar when ripe. Hot weather, however, may convert more than half the sugar to starch in the first 24 hours after the corn is picked. Corn on the cob was shipped to near-by city markets by some midwest farmers last summer packed with ice in wet-strength paper bags. Chilling greatly retarded the sugar conversion, giving the urban customer a farm-fresh ear to butter and salt.

F. H. A. NEWS

The Mentone F. H. A. chapter held its Christmas party Monday, Dec. 10th at the school house. During the business session final arrangements were made to canvass the town for used clothing to send overseas to the needy, on Dec. 17th, and to go Christmas caroling on Dec. 19th.

The social hour was spent playing games. Those in charge were: Martha Creighton, Pat Starr and Cloanne Nelson. Darlene Boyer got 34 words from the word Christmas and Mrs. Ralph Hoffman got 30. A contest of 20 questions concerning Christmas was won by Carol Ruyle. After that all turned artists by making a Santa Claus from a piece of black and red paper, cotton and paste. Sandra Witham was first, Betty Cochran, second, Janet Reed, 3rd and BernaDean Sensibaugh 4th.

The room was given a Christmas spirit by Mary Esther Creamer, Colleen Kindig and Darlene Boyer.

We had a grab bag gift exchange and everyone received lovely gifts.

Refreshments of punch, nut cups and cookies were served by Lois Dowden, Mary Ellen Bryan and Elaine Goodman.

CLOANNE NELSON, Reporter.

P. T. A. CORNER

The query has been raised "Is a teacher's only duty to teach students to think?"

Educators say "No!" The teacher should make an effort to mold them individually into, to quote Plato, a "good man." A teacher should enlarge students' motives, teach them to get along with others, develop their personalities and fit them to be responsible citizens.

SCHOOL NEWS

The Syracuse-Mentone basketball game on Friday evening and the Sidney-Mentone game on Saturday evening have been postponed until later in the year due to the amount of sickness at Mentone. This measure has been taken on the advice of Dr. Schuldt County Health Officer. It is the opinion of Dr. Schuldt that school should not be closed at this time.

Tuesday there were thirty-two pupils absent in grades 1-6 and 11 absent in grades 7-12. Many of these were absent due to simple colds, several were under quarantine although not ill with scarlet fever. After temperatures were taken on Monday, twenty pupils were sent or taken home. Several of these were cleared by their family physicians and returned on Tuesday. On Tuesday, only one in grades 1-12 was found to have fever of a degree or more.

The Christmas vacation will begin about 11:00 on Friday, December 21. Pupils will return on Wednesday, January 2. There will be no school Christmas program this year, although various rooms will hold gift exchanges and parties on Friday morning, December 21. The high school will have an assembly program on that day. The special Christmas lunch will be served on Thursday, December 20. The first semester closes on January 17 with exams on that day.

The eighth grade will have a party in the gym on Wednesday evening. The junior and senior classes will have a Christmas party at the school next Tuesday evening.

The schoolhouse is very prettily decorated this year. The room teachers, Miss Harriman and the art students and the student council are responsible.

This Saturday over WKAM at 11:30, the Mentone School broadcast will include a Christmas play under the direction of Mrs. Lackey. Several eighth grade girls have the leading parts. Jon Cullum will serve as announcer. Janelle Smythe will play the piano and Eleanor Rush will present the schedule of events.

Last Friday evening in the local gym, the Argos team defeated our Bulldogs, 48-41. The game was close and hard-fought throughout. Our second team suffered their third defeat in seven tries 31-21. The 7 and 8 grade teams have a record of two wins and no defeats after beating Burket in two games last week.

The Mentone School contributed $19.20 to the Junior Red Cross. Every room enrolled for the year. The grade rooms are preparing packages to be sent to needy children overseas. Mrs. Wayne Tombaugh is the local Junior Red Cross Chairman.

Mr. Kent attended a principals' meeting at Warsaw on Monday afternoon.

Individual pictures were distributed last Friday. Purchase is entirely optional, however, pictures not purchased should be returned to the school. The senior class will receive a small profit from handling the sales.

By Mrs. Ruth R. Snellenberger
Home Demonstration Agent

Last week I asked mothers to write me suggesting ways to help children appreciate the many toys and games they receive for Christmas. But my address was not given anywhere in the column! I guess I just thought everybody knew my office was in the basement of the court house and thus my office address was Warsaw, Ind.

Speaking of everybody knowing, I have wondered sometimes if people realized that the various home agents throughout Indiana and other states do much of their adult education work through home economics groups because it is a means of reaching a greater number of homemakers. In about 313 weekdays of the year, I would have time to help only a few individuals, wouldn't I?

If you are making fudge, fondant, or any of the crystalline type candies, be sure to cool them well (until bottom of container is just barely warm) before beating. The proper cooling before beating is an important factor in having a smooth creamy fudge.

I talk about turkey for Thanksgiving, either a whole or half a turkey. It appeared like a good idea inasmuch as a 20-pound turkey so cut would have a good amount of meat on all four quarters. Then, too, a choice of light or dark meat could be made.

Do you make a list of names with addresses to whom you send Christmas cards? It is a good idea. Then on this list check those from whom you received cards and correct any addresses that have been changed. Your list is practically ready for next year then.

She will appreciate a Dormeyer Mixer with electric grinder, $38.50 or a Dormeyer Fri-well electric French Fryer at $29.24 at Coopers' Store.

A NEW DOCTOR IS COMING TO MENTONE

Mentone is soon to have another doctor, and for the first time in several years will have a man who is interested in the General Practice of Medicine.

Frank C. Waltz, M. D., is a native of Hagerstown, Indiana, and was graduated from Indiana University School of Medicine, in June, 1950. After internship for a year in Salt Lake City, he has been taking additional surgical training at Methodist Hospital, in Indianapolis. He is well qualified and trained for the general practice of medicine and surgery.

Dr. Waltz is a veteran of 4 years of service in the Navy, and holds a commission as Lieutenant in the United States Naval Reserve. This commission is as a line officer, however, and not in the medical corps, inasmuch as Dr. Waltz did not receive his medical training until after his discharge from the Navy. Because of this technicality, and also because of a minor physical defect sustained while on active duty, it is unlikely that he will be recalled by the Navy.

Dr. Waltz is married to the former Kathleen Williamson, daughter of the late Con and Mrs. Williamson, of Burket. She is a graduate medical technician, and will assist her husband in his office. They have a young son, William, 4 months of age. Temporarily residing near Burket with Mrs. Waltz's mother, they will move to Mentone on or about January first when they will occupy the apartments above Coopers' Store.

Dr. Waltz will occupy office space in the Urschel Clinic. The building is being remodeled so that he will use those rooms immediately adjacent to the waiting room, while Dr. Urschel will use the other rooms in the building for his Clinic facilities. Dr. Waltz is working independently, and is not coming in as an assistant or associate to Dr. Urschel. They will have independent office staffs, and will keep separate records. However, laboratory and x-ray facilities will be shared, and the clinical records of either doctor will be available at all times to the other if needed. This type of association has obvious advantages to patients as well as to the physicians. Dr. Waltz's charges will be based on those of other

TO CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ON SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Swick will hold open house Sunday afternoon and evening, December 23, at their farm home, two and one-half miles northwest of Akron, in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary. Guests will be received from 2 to 5 p.m. and from 7 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. Swick was born and reared in the Beaver Dam community. Mrs. Swick was formerly Miss Martha Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Barnes, of Akron. Rev. C. J. Miner, who performed the marriage ceremony on December 21, 1901, is still living. It took place at his home, in Burket, where he was residing then. He was pastor of the Burket-Fairview circuit of the United Brethren church at that time. Mr. and Mrs. Swick now attend the Olive Bethel Church of God.

They have four children, Lloyd Swick, of Rochester, Mrs. I. C. (Opal) Adams, of Dalton, Georgia, Mrs. Randell (Beulah) Smith, of Marion, and Merl Swick, of Akron. They also have six grandchildren, five boys and one girl, and a great-granddaughter. They expect their children and their families to be with them for this occasion.

DEVON EATON HOSPITALIZED WHEN CAR LEAVES HIGHWAY

Devon Eaton and son, Jerry, 9, were returning from Fort Wayne Saturday evening after Mr. Eaton had refereed a basketball game, when their car ran off the highway at the Edison Tucker farm, south of town. "Spud", as he is better known, went to sleep while driving and the car gradually left the road. The first jar awakened him and he tried to protect Jerry, asleep on the seat beside him, by holding him with his right hand. The car hit a big concrete post and then came to rest up against the grade to Tucker's barn. The impact threw Mr. Eaton against the steering wheel and his left hand crashed through the windshield.

Father and son were taken to the Woodlawn hospital at Rochester where the lad had four stitches taken in a cut back of his ear and "Spud" was taped up for several broken ribs and a cut on his left knee. His left hand was badly sprained and bruised. He remained in the hospital overnight and returned to his home Sunday.

The auto, we are told, is almost a complete loss.

IGO

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Igo are parents of a son born at the Woodlawn hospital last Tuesday, December 11.

The new boy weighed 7 lbs., 1 oz. and has been named Ned DeWayne.

WEATHERMAN GIVES BOOST TO CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

The weatherman has been very cooperative in this matter of snow for Christmas; in fact, it seems to us that maybe we yelled a little too loudly.

Our Main street is very beautiful with the twining holly and colored lights on each light post; the large Christmas tree at the intersection; and the banks of snow everywhere to enhance it all.

A number of the store windows have been decorated with special Christmas themes. One which commands special attention is the Nativity scene, painted by Rev. Gosser, on the whole west window at the Orthopedic Equipment Co. building on the north side of Main street. A winter scene will be painted on the east window.

So often we are inclined to see and not fully appreciate the sentiments and efforts which motivate our yuletide decorations, but we imagine that every soldier boy from Mentone is now remembering and cherishing a mental picture of our Main street from another Christmas. So it really is worth while.

HOME FROM ENGLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rees arrived here Saturday evening after having been in England for several months. They sailed on August 24th, having been called there by the serious illness of Mr. Rees' mother. She died shortly after their arrival.

Mr. Rees reports that both crossings were pleasant. He had not been in England for 32 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Rees are the parents of Mrs. Robert Nottingham.

MARTIN

Funeral services are to be held Thursday (this) morning at 10:30 at the Carlos Methodist Church for L. K. Martin, aged 73, of Lynn, Indiana.

Mr. Martin was found dead in bed Monday morning and was the father of Mrs. John Boggs. He had visited with his daughter and family here last summer.

Mr. Martin had not been well for some time and death was due to a heart attack.

FREE TREATS AND CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Lions Preparing Program and Free Treats for the Youngsters Here on Saturday Afternoon, Dec. 22

The Mentone Lions club announces that plans are now complete for the Christmas program to be held at the Mentone Community Building on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 22, starting at two o'clock in the afternoon. All the youngsters of the Mentone area are invited to the party. It will last for about an hour and a half and will include a motion picture film, singing and stunts—and Santa has promised to be on hand with a little gift for the younger folks.

Mother and dad are also invited to be present—but they'd better bring their own peanuts and popcorn for the show.

Free Sled Rides

Last week Rex Tucker—probably not realizing fully what he was saying—said if there was snow this Saturday he'd take the youngsters a sleigh ride. Judging by the amount of snow we received, all the youngsters must have been praying plenty. It looks now as if Rex will need a bob sled, but he still is going to give the youngsters those free rides Saturday—so be on hand, folks.

REGISTER HOMES DECORATED

We have been advised to announce that even though there are many homes decorated in keeping with the holiday season, not many have listed them to be judged. The Merchants' Association desires to know of all the decorated homes before judging takes place, so the time has been extended until Thursday night, Dec. 20, at six o'clock. Kindly notify, by telephone or otherwise, either Coopers' Store, Lember's Market or the Denton Drug Store.

CLUB CALENDAR

The Kosciusko County Firemen's Association meets the third Thursday night of the month.

There will be no Scout meetings until January 7 because of the holidays.

Have you all your Christmas packages wrapped yet? If not, try including a sprig of evergreen, holly or mistletoe with the ribbon ties. Three miniature Christmas balls or tiny bells might be added instead of these.

Make your own Christmas candles if you have some old candle stubs. Wax crayons can be used for coloring; cotton rug yarn can be the wick; and a star gelatin mold can make the shape.

To help family member not overdo the candy-eating during the holiday season, allow the candy dish to get empty and to stay that way at least a few hours before meal time.

Have you wondered how Christmas customs got started?
Sending Christmas greetings is a comparatively new custom, becoming popular in the 1860's.

A stolen kiss under the mistletoe was started by some young sprout in need of an excuse, so 'tis said.

Centuries ago, a poverty-stricken child knocked on the door of a farm house on Christmas Eve, begging shelter and food. He was welcomed to join the family in their festivities. The next morning he was gone—in his place stood a flowering tree. And so we now decorate trees for Christmas.

Bells became associated with Christmas in medieval times when they rang out from the church towers during the advent calling people to worship.

During this season of gift giving and receiving I hope all of you are mindful of the real purpose of Christmas—that of honoring Christ whose birth that day was announced by the Angels' saying "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to men and good will."

SCHOOL NEWS

In spite of the snowy weather on Tuesday, Mentone was able to have school. There was no unusual amount of absence, although one bus was about twenty minutes late. North Webster and Warsaw were other schools in the county which had school.

Pupils and teachers alike are looking forward to the Christmas vacation which will begin about eleven o'clock on Friday. School will reconvene on January 2nd.

Mr. Pavlick was absent on Friday and Monday attending services in Duluth, Minnesota, for his brother who was recently killed in Korea. Joe Boggs taught on Friday and Rev. Gosser on Monday.

Mr. Ralph Hoffman attended a meeting of the Rural Council for Education held at the Claypool Hotel in Indianapolis on Friday.

Rev. Franks of the Palestine Christian Church talked to the pupils of grades 7-12 on Monday. A group from the Grace Theological Seminary presented the Christmas Story to grades 1-6 on Monday.

Due to the cold weather, the Junior-Senior Christmas party was cancelled.

The 7th and 8th grade basketball teams have now won five out of six tries after defeating the Bourbon teams in two games played in the local gym on Monday evening. Charley Ross, Ted Ward, and Tommy Hoover played steady ball for the locals. The Junior high teams are coached by Lorin Burt.

A special baked ham Christmas dinner will be served on Thursday noon in the school cafeteria. The art class will decorate the tables for the occasion.

Mentone will play two games of basketball at Atwood this Friday evening starting at 7:00. The next home game will be with North Webster on Saturday, January 5th.

Dixie Bergstrom has withdrawn from the 4th grade to enter the Beaver Dam School. Larry Hatfield has entered the fifth grade at Mentone. Larry formerly attended school at Winamac.

The scarlet fever situation seems to have improved. Temperatures are not being taken this week, although pupils are carefully inspected by the room teachers. At present two families remain under quarantine with four pupils involved.

Up to the present time, we have had eight cases of scarlet fever involving school pupils. Several other children stricken with throat infections have found it difficult to regain strength. Some like Billy Whetstone and Don Beeson are absent with kidney infections, a secondary reaction to the germ.

Universal Electric Blanket will assure comfortable rest on cold winter nights. $44.95 and $54.95 at Coopers' Store.

BEAVER DAM HOME EC. CLUB

A carry-in supper was the high-light of the Beaver Dam Home Ec. Club meeting held last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Leininger. Twenty-six members answered roll call by guessing their Secret Pals. There were four guests present.

The president, Mrs. Ed Creakbaum, called the meeting to order by reading the verse at the top of the club book page. She then turned the meeting over to the vice president, Jingle Bells was the opening song, followed by the group repeating the creed. For meditation a Bible Scripture was read by Mrs. Bertha Meredith.

Mrs. Ray Middleton and Mrs. Flora Blesch had charge of the program. Mrs. Maynard played a piano selection. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Faith Slaybaugh. A poem was read by Mrs. Louise Swick mentioning each club member's name. A Christmas story was read by Flora Blesch. Mrs. Summe played and sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd."

Installing Officer was Mrs. Neva Kinder. The new president, Mrs. Maynard Summe, appointed her committees for the coming year.

New members received into the club were Mrs. Doyle Swanson and Mrs. Bonnie Whittenberger.

Gifts were distributed and names drawn for 1952 Secret Pals. Auction was held. Due to the storm everyone departed at an early hour so they could reach home safely.

LIONS MEET WEDNESDAY EVE.

There was a fairly decent attendance at the Lions club meeting Wednesday evening considering the bad weather we have been having.

Mr. Firstein, grand master of Indiana Masonic lodges, was a guest of the club.

Jon Cullum, a member of the high school speech class, gave a reading which he is to present before the high school assembly Friday. He was introduced by Mr. Kent.

At the last meeting of the Lions club two weeks ago, Lion Curt Riner had his Lions key-member pendant returned to him from the International Association at Chicago, stating that it had been found on the fairgrounds at Reading, Pa., this summer. The keys, given to all Lions members who secure two new members in one year's time, are numbered and registered, which is why it was possible to trace its ownership. Curt, unaware that the key was ever lost, thought he could go home and get his out of the dresser drawer, and that someone was just confused. But it was Curt who was confused when he found the key was no longer attached to the watch and chain where he had kept it. Investigation disclosed the fact that one of his boys had accepted his offer to let them use his old watch and the key was lost at the Indiana State Fair. One can only guess that perhaps a fair carnival worker found it and carried it until he then lost it at Reading.

RELAX, PERHAPS THIS WILL HELP YOU.

Our forefathers came with the Bible in one hand and the rifle in the other. Some of their descendents have lost the rifle, some the Bible and some both the Bible and rifle.

Let us restore the confidence and strength that knowledge of the rifle brings. Let us restore the spiritual strength the Bible gives.

Let us help to bring back both by purchase of a piece of the big Outdoors. Where strong men and spiritual power find the best nourishment.

When we lose our pep, when good food tastes bad, when friends do not satisfy, when life becomes a bore, when music seems out of tune, when the old dog annoys, when the doctor fails and the good wife irritates; there is but one remedy for the run down. It is found in the forests or on the streams in the big Outdoors.

There we go to church and worship God by conversing with the things He made, listening to sermons from rocks and trees, choir music from birds.

If you need a fresh start and want to lose the run-down feeling and get back your pep, go fishing.

It is a notable fact that of the Twelve Apostles selected by Christ, four were fishermen.

They are natural philosophers who made their living in the big wide open, who knew the stars, the tempest, the sea, the sun, the moon, the winds and the calm.

They were prepared for campaign for men because they had first campaigned with the elements of nature.

Study of nature had prepared them for a study of men, and their thoughts and teaching were big, like the outdoors whence they came.

THE AMERICAN WAY

CANADA'S RAILROADS

By George Peck

Any Americans who have paid the slightest attention to the "Put the Federal Government into the Rail way Business" proponents should take a good look at Canada. That examination will disabuse their minds of any thought that transportation would be improved in the United States, were Federal Government to take the railroads out of private ownership. In fact, it will convince them that transportation would be both less efficient and more costly.

Canada, with an economy more closely approximating ours than that of any other country, has experimented in government ownership of railroads— to its sorrow, as you will see as you read on. Our good neighbor to the North has two trans-continental railway systems: The Canadian National Railways, publicly owned; and the Canadian Pacific Railway, privately owned. Therefore, Canada provides an excellent proving ground to determine which better serves the people, the publicly - owned or privately - owned railroad.

Both types of Canadian railways operate under the same passenger and freight rates. Neither enjoys any special privileges. Both operate across the whole of Canada, so that neither enjoys any advantages over the other due to carrying passengers and freight in a more profitable operating territory. Now, let's pore over a few statistics to see what transpires railway-wise up north of the border.

The Canadian National Railways (government owned) operates a total of 33,122 miles of track. For the year, 1948, its deficit was $33,532,741; for 1949, $42,043,027; and for 1950, $3,261,235 or a total deficit for the three-year period amounting to $78,837,003. That huge sum came out of the taxpayers' pockets via Canadian treasury.

The Canadian Pacific Railway (privately-owned) operates a total of 17,080 miles of track in Canada. For the year, 1948, it paid in taxes $8,024,445; for 1949, $6,615,460; for 1950, $17,226,607; or a total for the three-year period amounting to $31,866,512. That huge sum was put into the public treasury to help lighten the burden of the Canadian taxpayers.

But that's only part of the story. In 1948, the C. P. R. paid dividends of $21,307,682 to its stockholders; in 1949, $20,622,768; and in 1950, $23,488,648; or for the three-year period a total of $65,419,098.

So, there you have the government-owned railway adding to the burden of the Canadian taxpayers, the while the privately-owned railway contributes to the general welfare and prosperity of the Dominion of Canada.

And in case you may be wondering if perhaps the Canadian people receive some compensation for the tax-money required to maintain the government owned railway by way of getting better service, disabuse your mind of that thought also. The Canadian Pacific service is equally as good as that of the Canadian National. In fact, many Canadians claim that it is better.

To sum up: the publicly-owned railway takes out of the public treasury while the privately-owned puts in, the while the latter gives the Canadian shipper and passenger at least equal value per dollar expended.

Canada's experience with its railways constitutes just one more proof of the superiority of private ownership over public ownership—an experience that should convince us that if we wish to have the maximum of railway service in the United States at a minimum cost, we'd better leave the railroads just where they are—in the hands of private owners.

Color Inspires Confidence

A doctor who is a child specialist employs the psychology of color to counteract fear in his young patients. Brilliant colors have been applied to the woodwork of the waiting rooms with stenciled animals rollicking above the dadoes. The draperies contrast agreeably with the woodwork and, except for the few seats necessary for grown-ups, the furniture is of diminutive size. Bright colored enameled toys are at hand which are easily cleaned. The inner rooms, also gay in coloring, are embellished with Mother Goose characters.

HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

On Wednesday afternoon, Kathy Shinn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shinn celebrated her fourth birthday. (Just a bit early, her mother explained, as it is actually on the 20th.)

The children played games and listened to a recording of "Happy Birthday."

Guests were: Sandra and Steven Nelson, Louise Cox, Vicki Bowser, Suzannah Blodgett, Teddy Shoemaker, Mary Ann Peterson, Candace Jane Shinn, and the guest of honor, Kathy.

LET'S FEED THE BIRDS

If you want to really make friends with the wild birds, just arrange to put out a little feed for them now. The heavy snow makes it difficult for them to find food and unless we help them out now many of them will perish.

Birds, even some of those we consider undesirable, do a splendid job of eating bugs, worms, parasites, weed seeds, etc., all during the year, and if all of the birds disappeared we'd soon find out how much they really help us in protecting our crops and gardens.

Indiana 4-H'ers Win National Honors

HIGHEST honors were accorded four Indiana 4-H Club members recently when they were named national winners in their project work. Accomplishment, personal achievement and participation in club and community activities were all considered when their records were judged. Pictured here are the champions in the National 4-H Poultry, Clothing, Safety and Dairy Foods Demonstration Programs.

An excellent poultry record won top honors for Marvin Evens, 18, of Greencastle. He was awarded a $300 college scholarship by Dearborn Motors. In eight years with poultry Marvin raised a total of 2,550 White Plymouth Rocks. Under the leadership of Gene Akers, he developed into a leading poultry breeder, using feed raised on six acres. He has won five trophies, four county medals, and first in the district and state on a poultry demonstration. From his 400 hens he sells brooding eggs to a local hatchery where chicks from his flock are in demand.

Alice Graves, 18, of Bloomington, received the national award for her superior clothing record. Spool Cotton presented her with a $300 college scholarship. Alice made three tailored wool suits this year, bringing her total for seven years to 60 garments. She took two grand championships in the state contest, and many awards at other levels. In her five years of Junior Leadership all members of her club had 100% completion of projects. Alice is majoring in home economics at Indiana University where she is a freshman.

Excellent leadership in the Farm and Home Safety Program as well as good personal safety practices won high honors for Carol Guenther, 17, of Fort Wayne. Her $300 college scholarship was provided by General Motors. Carol, president and song leader of her club, is also health and safety leader of the county group. Previously a county winner in dairy safety, she has given 13 safety speeches and 15 demonstrations. Carol makes yearly surveys of her home and farm to correct hazards and maintain safety devices, and has developed a "disaster" plan in case of fire, with specific rules and duties for everyone.

In the Dairy Foods Demonstration Program Elener Norris, 15, of Mentone, was accorded national honors. Her reward, an educational trip to Club Congress in Chicago, was provided by the Carnation Co. Elener specialized in food preparation, including dairy dishes, in all her five years in 4-H. This year in her demonstration "Be Wise, Pasteurize," she described two methods of purifying milk, a subject chosen after a study of undulant fever. This was of particular importance because many people in her community drank raw milk. Elener gave 12 dairy foods demonstrations, reaching more than 700 people. She has served in various club offices and helped younger members with their demonstrations.

LOCAL SCOUTS ENJOY CHRISTMAS PARTY

A large group of local boy scouts were guests of the Atwood scouts at a Christmas party held at the Atwood E. U. B. church on Monday evening. Scouts from the Etna Green troop were guests, also. Fifty-four scouts and adult leaders enjoyed the evening.

Two colored movies on scouting were shown. Games, a gift exchange and refreshments completed the evening.

Scout committee members from here who took the scouts were Walter Kent, Ora McKinley, Charles Manwaring and Wayne Tombaugh.

CORRECTION AND COMMENT

The name of Jelayne Smythe was unintentionally omitted from the list of characters in the school broadcast of "Little Women," last week. Jelayne played the part of "Marmee."

Those who heard the broadcast were very much interested to notice how well each girl took her part and with what seemed, great ease. (Although the girls said they were nervous just before going on the air.)

CLYDE JOHNSON BREAKS ARM CRANKING TRACTOR

Clyde Johnson suffered a broken right arm while trying to start his tractor last Sunday morning. The tractor had just been overhauled and the motor was still very stiff. This fact, along with the extreme cold Sunday morning, necessitated the use of both the crank and starter to manage to turn the motor over. While Clyde was cranking, the boy was using the starter in an effort to get the tractor motor running. In some manner, it fired at the wrong time—in reverse—and the crank hit his arm above the wrist. Clyde will not be using that arm for any heavy work for some weeks to come.

SCOUTS PLAN PAPER DRIVE

The Mentone troop, Boy Scouts of America, has made plans to hold a scrap paper drive on Saturday, Jan. 5. They would like to ask everyone to put the paper from their Christmas presents into boxes and in that way they can get it out of your way and still help out the Scouts.

DRINKING AND DRIVING DON'T MIX!

MEDICAL AUTHORITIES SAY THAT AFTER DRINKING FOUR HIGHBALLS OR COCKTAILS IT REQUIRES FIVE TO SIX HOURS FOR THE ALCOHOL IN YOUR BLOOD TO REACH A SAFE CONCENTRATION OF 0.05%. THE CHICAGO MOTOR CLUB ADVISES THAT IF YOU CELEBRATE THE HOLIDAYS TOO EXUBERANTLY LET SOMEONE ELSE DO THE DRIVING.

BARREN-GROUND CARRIBOU

Near the top of the world—from Alaska to Greenland—is the home of the Barren-Ground Caribou. As you might guess from its name, it spends most of its time where there is no grass. Moss, lichens, and dwarf shrubs are all it can find to nibble on.

This would not be nearly enough food for the Caribou if they spent their time in one small region. So they keep on the go. Roaming in herds, thousands of them range back and forth across the northern wastelands. With their broad, sharp hoofs, they have worn permanent trails in the ice, snow and frozen earth.

They also move northward and southward with the changing seasons. The National Wildlife Federation reports that in the fall Barren-Ground Caribou head south. When they reach the fringes of the Canadian forests, the husky animals find sheltering trees under which to spend the winter.

In the spring, the herds trot north again. As the snow thins out or disappears, they can graze on their favorite plants. They also grow their summer coats. The new hair is long and soft—gray or light brown on the ends and white underneath.

By the following fall, the dark ends are ready to break off. This leaves the Caribou almost white in color, and it is harder to see when snow covers the ground.

Just as they change color from season to season, Barren-Ground Caribou also change a bit in size and shape. In the summer and fall, they store up fat along their backs. In some spots, this hump of tallow grows to be four to six inches thick.

The Caribou use their fat during the long winter, when there is little to eat. It slowly passes into their entire bodies and keeps them strong. By spring the fat is all gone.

©National Wildlife Federation
Barren Ground Caribou

The animals are slimmer then, but no one would have any trouble in recognizing them as sturdy members of the reindeer family. The male weighs about 300 pounds. He is four feet tall and a little over six feet long. The female is slightly smaller. Both the male and the female wear broad antlers with many prongs.

As they roam, the Caribou know how to defend themselves against wolves and other animals, but they are no match for hunters. There were many more of the reindeer in the days before outsiders came to the north with guns.

Fortunately the Eskimos are more careful. They, too, kill Caribou, but not recklessly. The northern people do not want to wipe out the herds, for they eat Caribou meat and make clothing and tents from the hides. Bones are turned into needles, awls, and knives, and the antlers into fishhooks and spears. So the Eskimos would be poor indeed, if Barren-Ground Caribou were to disappear.

MERCHANTS EXTEND GREETINGS

This is our annual Christmas greeting issue, and in it you will find the printed messages of almost all the business and professional people of the area. They do appreciate the many favors extended them during the year and are anxious for this opportunity of joining together to express their thanks. We know they feel this way because each year many of them ask us about the issue before we make any mention of it, and they always say they don't want to be missed.

Read each of the greetings over carefully, and if you appreciate their message to you, take the first opportunity of telling them so.

FARM SCHOOLS TO BE HELD FIRST OF THE YEAR

The latest developments in farming and rural homemaking practices will be explained to Kosciusko county farmers as a series of extension schools to be held here in the near future. County agent Paul Jackson announced today.

Purdue University specialists in various agricultural fields will conduct the schools which are sponsored annually by the County Extension Office and Purdue. Approximately 659 persons attended similar meetings held in this county last year.

A total of 63,678 persons attended the 493 schools held throughout Indiana last winter, setting a new record for the 21-year history of the extension schools. Sixty-four specialists representing 15 Purdue departments cooperated with county agricultural agents, home demonstration agents and local planning committees in presenting subjects requested by the individual counties.

Since 1939-40 the average attendance per school has grown from 60 to 130 and the average attending schools in each county has increased from 268 to 674 persons.

The schedule of schools to be presented in Kosciusko County are as follows:

January 24—Farm Policy School
January 29—Poultry and Rodent Control.

February 7—Dairy Farm Work Simplification.

March 4—Grain Storage.

March 6—Home Grounds and Gardens.

Notice is hereby given to the taxpayers of Harrison School Township of Kosciusko County and Harrison Township of Kosciusko County (the same being the Civil Township) that the Advisory Board and Trustee of said School and Civil Townships will meet at the office of the Trustee, in the Mentone High School, Mentone Indiana, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock p. m. on the 3rd day of January, 1952, to consider the following additional appropriations which said officers consider necessary to meet the extraordinary emergency existing at this time: An appropriation of the funds of said School Township in the amount of $83,500.00 to be applied on the cost of construction and equipment of an addition to the existing school building, including the incidental expenses necessary to be incurred in connection with said building project and the issuance of bonds on account thereof. The funds to meet said appropriation are to be provided by the issuance and sale of bonds of the School Township. An appropriation of the funds of said Civil Township in the amount of $83,500.00 to aid the School Township in paying the cost of said building project, including the incidental expenses necessary to be incurred in connection with said building project and the issuance of bonds on account thereof. The funds to meet said appropriation are to be provided by the issuance and sale of bonds of the Civil Township.

The foregoing appropriations are in addition to all appropriations provided for in the existing budgets and levies and an extraordinary emergency for such appropriations exists by reason of the inadequacy of existing facilities to accommodate the pupils of school age resident within such township.

Taxpayers of the School and Civil Townships appearing at said meeting shall have the right to be heard in respect to said additional appropriations. The additional appropriations, if finally made, will be automatically referred to the State Board of Tax Commissioners, which Board will hold a further hearing within fifteen days at the office of the Auditor of Kosciusko County, or at such other place as may be designated.
