ARE THINGS REALLY BETTER NOW?

People have more money today than they did before World War II. But here are some sobering comparisons: A worker who earned $3,000 in 1939 needs $6,122 today to be as well off. The family with a $5,000 income in 1939 has to have $10,583 now. And 1939's $25,000-a-year man was doing just as well as today's executive who brings in around $68,000 a year. Taxes and inflation make the difference. No denying it, the dollar has really shrunk.

Friday night the Mentone Bulldogs suffered their first defeat at the hands of Argos by a score of 60-44. The Dragons of Argos are now 5-0 for the season; Mentone 4-1.

Argos got off to a good start leading by a score of 12-8 at the end of the first quarter and increasing their lead to 22-16 at the close of the first half.

Argos had but two personal fouls called against their starting five in the first three quarters.

The second team also suffered its first defeat by a score of 29-22. Manwaring led the scoring for the Bulldogs with 10 points. Zink, from Argos, took the scoring honors with 11 points, all on free throws.

Lloyd of Argos and Mentone's Tom Hoover tied for honors in the varsity game with 18 points each. Hoover, however, saw very little action in the final quarter, when he was found guilty of a deliberate foul and ordered from the game.

Argos had a good offense from outside, hitting long one-handers like they were lay-ups.

Mentone played LaPaz at Plymouth Tuesday night and Syracuse comes here Friday, Dec. 7.

Yule Lights Turned On

The decorative lights along the main street of Mentone were turned on last week, giving our thoroughfare that Christmas look that is so familiar about this time each year.

Santa will make brief appearances at some of our stores, and on Saturday, Dec. 22, he will be here with treats for all the kiddies.

—And there's free parking in Mentone the year around — not just at the Christmas season.

SEVEN ENROLL IN FARM CLASSES

Seven young farmers, including four from Newcastle Township, enrolled in the Young Farmers class which was organized on December 4th. Those who wish may still enroll at the next meeting which will be held in the Voc. Ag. room of the Mentone School on December 11th. A special welcome is extended to residents of surrounding townships as well as residents of Harrison Township.

MISSED IN OUR LAST ISSUE

One of our notes became misplaced (really just left buried on my desk) last week. It seems that Verne Weiger found a can and a syphoning hose near one of the Co-op Mill trucks last week. Verne said the owner of the can and hose are perfectly welcome to it as they have no use for it. This appears like a case of too much car and not enough allowance for someone.

An Improved Sweet Corn

Two Lafayette agricultural researchers — agronomist G. M. Smith, employed cooperatively by the Agricultural Research Service and Purdue University, and E. V. Walter, entomologist for Agricultural Research Service—have cooperated in developing and improving a hybrid sweet corn variety that is resistant to corn earworms.

The improved hybrid is a result of a cross of two white inbreds—471-U6 and 811. Inbred 471U6 was developed in the early 40's from the earworm resistant variety Aunt Mary's Sweet. Walter and Smith have been striving to improve the line since then for earworm resistance and have made considerable progress.

Inbred 81-1 was selected from a line sent to Walter for testing for earworm resistance in 1941. Only one off-type plant survived the drought in 1943, and this became the parent of the 81-1 line.

The final test of the inbreds, and other strains, comes when Walter exposes the plants to the earworms.

Earworm tests with the hybrid developed from crossing these two inbreds have produced an average of 6 injured kernels per ear. This is considerably better than the average of 22 kernels damaged on Golden Cross Bantam, one of the popular hybrid sweetcorn varieties of today.

It is unfortunate that the greatest earworm resistance today is in late white sweetcorn and must be transferred to the popular early yellow corns.

This transfer, and other improvements such as earworm resistance in field corn, seem to be just around the corner—it appears to be only a matter of time.

Prevent "Hardware Disease"

Farmers have been advised by Dr. F. A. Hall, Purdue University extension veterinarian, to be on guard against "hardware disease" of cattle.

Hall said cows swallow their food whole and do not detect small foreign objects such as nails and pieces of wire. Such objects, after entering a cow's stomach, may penetrate the lungs, heart or other vital organs. Death is often the result.

If a cow is affected with "hardware disease" she may go off feed occasionally without an apparent cause, show stiffness—especially in the front legs, have a decreased milk flow, and develop a swelling in the brisket. Symptoms most often appear during dry periods and in pregnant cows just before calving.

If symptoms are noticed, a veterinarian should be called immediately. A successful operation can usually be performed if the trouble is spotted in time.

Prevention is the best defense against the disease, according to Hall. The barn and barnyard should be kept free of loose metal, baling wire, and nails. Baling wire should be placed in a receptacle as soon as it is removed from hay or straw. Brooms with wire bristles should not be used to sweep out the barn. And, it's a good idea to have a clean-up around the farm at regular intervals.

HOW TO HELP YOUR YOUNGSTER LEARN

Whether your young child is exceptionally bright or not, here are some ways to help him learn: Let him talk as much as he likes. And listen. Speak correctly to him. Answer his questions patiently—even when they get on your nerves.

Read to him. When he grows restless, though, let him go. Stick to good books.

Encourage him to reason, to plan ahead, to follow instructions. But don't press him to learn. And don't teach him to read—that's a specialist's job.

Have faith in him. If he's like other kids, fine. If he's different, that's fine, too. Let him know that he's yours and he's okay.—Changing Times.

In Hospital After Accident

Mrs. George Clark, Mentone, remains in the McDonald hospital where she was taken after an auto accident last Thursday morning, near Pierceton. She suffered a concussion and two broken ribs and it may be necessary for her to remain in the hospital another week or more. Her room number is 102.

The roads were icy that morning as Mrs. Clark was going to her work at the Pierceton division of the Arnolt Corporation, and in meeting another car, her auto left the road and into the ditch. The approaching driver, Raymond Cole of Pierceton, became confused and skidded into the Clark auto in the ditch. The Clark car was totally demolished.

Man Injured in Auto Accident

Morris Brannum, 47, of near Mentone, suffered a concussion and a deep cut on one ear late Saturday afternoon when his car left the highway and overturned about two and a half miles southeast of Mentone.

As Brannum met another auto

he lost control of his vehicle and went into the ditch. The passing auto stopped to help the injured man and then rushed into Mentone to call the Johns ambulance. Mr. Brannum was taken to the Murphy Medical Center.

The Brannum auto was reported as a complete wreck.

Ag Conference Highlights

Educational sessions and annual meetings of various agricultural associations will highlight the opening day program of the annual Agricultural Conference at Purdue University, January 2 through 5.

On the Wednesday, January 2, program is a day-long discussion of forage crops, the 28th annual Farm Electrification Conference, the annual meeting of the Indiana Farm Management Association, and the 4-H Health and Safety Conference.

In addition, meetings of the Indiana Sheep Breeders Association, nine Indiana sheep breed associations, the Indiana Draft Horse Breeders Association and five Indiana beef breed associations are scheduled. The Indiana Livestock Breeders banquet will be staged that night when kings of the show ring will be named and awards presented.

Purdue agronomists, dairymen and agricultural engineers will join forces to conduct a morning session on "Forage Harvesting, Preservation and Handling." The speakers and their topics will include: Lester Smith, agronomist, "Zero Grazing and Ensiling Practices;" Ray Lien, agricultural engineer, "Machines for Handling Forages;" Bruce Liljedahl, agricultural engineer, "Power Requirements for Forage Handling Machinery;" and C. H. Noller, dairyman, "Silage Preservation—Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow."

That afternoon grassland farmers can attend a session on "Producing and Utilizing Forages on Corn Belt Farms." W. M. Meyers, head of the department of agronomy and plant genetics at the University of Minnesota, will attempt to answer the question, "Are Forage Crops Needed in Corn Belt Agriculture?"

A highlight of the forage session will come when a panel discusses "The Production and Use of Forage Crops in Corn Belt Agriculture." Panelists will include: Meyers; Merle Teel and M. E. Heath; Purdue agronomists; Doris Salsman, a farmer from Greencastle; D. L. Hill, Purdue dairy researcher; and T. W. Perry, animal husbandman at Purdue.

Considerable time during the farm management meeting will be devoted to expanding markets. At the annual banquet the head of the agricultural economics department at Oregon State College, G. B. Wood, will discuss "Expanding Markets for Agricultural Products." The soil bank will also come in for discussion.

Persons who attend the 28th annual Farm Electrification Conference will be given a fast-moving presentation of research in the agricultural engineering field. In the afternoon, pork producers will want to attend the electrification conference session on environmental control in swine production.

The 4-H Health and Safety Conference will open that afternoon and awards will be presented at the annual banquet that evening.

More Output Per Cow

A dairy farmer's best bet to offset rising costs of labor and equipment is increased milk production per cow, says G. A. Williams, extension dairyman at Purdue University.

A study reported by the USDA shows that 20 cows producing 12,400 pounds of milk will return as much net income as 40 cows averaging 7,500 pounds of milk.

Williams says the effect of the higher production in net income is illustrated by figures from a northern Indiana Dairy Herd Improvement Association. The five highest producers yielded 63,053 pounds of milk, consumed feed valued at $660, and earned $1665 above the cost of feed. Since cost of feed is about 50 percent of total production costs, the five cows returned a net income of more than $1,000.

In contrast, the five lowest producers, each of which was in the herd the full 12 months, yielded only 35,077 pounds of milk. Those five cows were fed $630 worth of feed and returned an income above cost of feed of just $726. So, the owner secured only $92 net income from these five cows.

Plan Valley Forge Scout Jamboree

Official Poster of Fourth National Jamboree

Fifty thousand Boy Scouts, Explorers, and leaders from all parts of the nation and some from other lands will camp together at the Fourth National Jamboree July 12-18.

A 1,500-acre tent city is being prepared at historic Valley Forge in Pennsylvania. It will have its own water supply, electricity, telephone service, post offices, and other services for the largest gathering of boys in the Western Hemisphere.

Jamboree campers, all of them at least twelve years old, holding Second Class rank or higher, will share daily camp chores, cook their own meals, take part in displays, campfires, demonstrations, intercamp visits, and excursions to historic shrines in and near Philadelphia.

Outstanding Americans will take part in principal events,

DEC. 5, 1956

It would have required 11 groups similar in production to the five poor cows, or a herd of 55, to provide as much net income for the year as that yielded by the five high producers. Aside from additional feeds required, labor needed, and cash outlay for additional equipment, these 55 cows would have poured 322,792 pounds more milk on the market than their five "money-making stable mates" in order to return as much income to the owner.

Dairymen who persist in feeding and milking such unprofitable animals tend to menace the future of the dairy industry. And, they do this without deriving market prices for feeds and labor. Cows unable to produce at least 6,000 pounds of milk yearly as well as those that are unsound or irregular breeders should be sold.

4-H Girls Tops In Home Projects

Bonita Richards, 17, of Unionville and Beverly Rathbun, 18, of Warsaw won state honors and a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, Nov. 25-29.

Bonita ranked highest in the 4-H Home Improvement program. The Sears Roebuck Foundation, which is celebrating the 10th anniversary as award donors, provided the trip.

Bonita Richards Beverly Rathbun

Bonita converted the sun porch into a summer living room, re-upholstered a chair, finished a vanity desk and chair, made two pairs of drapes, two dressing table skirts, and completely redecorated her own room.

Her outstanding list of awards in all fields includes: five grand champions, four reserve champions, seven honors, four state and 26 county blue ribbons.

Beverly, an expert in planning nutritious, appetizing meals, learned to select, plan and serve a wide variety of dishes. For her achievement in the 4-H Food Preparation program, the Kelvinator Division, American Motors, paid for her Chicago trip.

A Club member for nine years, Beverly demonstrated and judged foods, winning several blue ribbons. The 4-H baking, food preservation, garden, and dairy projects have all contributed to her skills.

During an illness which confined her mother to bed for several months, Beverly planned and prepared all the family meals. She was junior leader of her Club. These programs are conducted under the direction of the Cooperative Extension Service.

A cow that is not bred within 120 days following calving may cause a loss of as much as $40 to her owner if she is not safely with calf. Each day that a cow remains unbred beyond 120 days after calving reduces her lifetime production by one pound of butterfat.

According to Purdue University veterinarians, laboratory tests are often necessary to tell the

WHO SAID WOMEN ARE EXTRAVAGANT?

Wives more often than husbands are responsible for saving money. According to recent surveys, both husband and wife manage the savings in 50% of the families, the wife in 25% and the husband in 15%. In families whose income is above $10,000 a year, the husband is more likely to see that some money is put away. But in families in the $2,000-$10,000 bracket, the wife plays the more active role in making sure something is saved. —Changing Times.

Mentone Native Dies Suddenly

Frank Meredith, 45, of Kenmore, N. Y., former band director for Warsaw high school, died of a heart attack Thursday afternoon.

Meredith, a mechanical engineer for Bell Aircraft Corporation, Buffalo, N. Y., was stricken about 4:20 while working at his desk in the Wheatfield plant near Buffalo. He was rushed to the first aid room for emergency treatment but died 10 minutes later. Meredith had not been ill previously.

Born in Mentone, October 14, 1911, he was the son of Dell and Mabel (Doddridge) Meredith, who reside at Warsaw. A graduate of Warsaw high school, he received an engineering degree from Purdue University in 1935. While at West Lafayette he was a member of the Purdue band. On August 25, 1935 he was married to Miss Doris Arnold of Warsaw.

Meredith taught mechanical drawing and shop classes in the Warsaw city school from 1936 to 1942. He also played an important part in establishing the high school band. He directed the band to many coveted marching contest titles in the '40's.

From Warsaw Meredith went to Buffalo to work for Bell Aircraft. He was a trustee for the Congregational Church of the Nativity in Kenmore, a member of the Blue lodge in Warsaw and of Ismailia Temple in Buffalo.

He leaves his parents; his widow Doris, and a twelve-year-old daughter, Marsha.

Funeral services were held at 3:30 p. m. Sunday in the Church of the Nativity, Kenmore. The body was shipped to Warsaw for the final service at 2 p. m. Tuesday. Rev. Edward C. McCance officiated. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery.

4-Way Tourney Dec. 28-29

Plans are completed for the four-way basketball tournament to be played at Mentone on the evenings of Dec. 28 and 29. The teams participating are Beaver Dam, Silver Lake, Akron and Mentone.

Tickets will be on sale at the school office starting Dec. 17th.

Fred Rush Buried Saturday

Fred C. Rush, 66, well-known Palestine farmer, died of complications at 2 a. m. Thursday in Lutheran hospital, Ft. Wayne.

In failing health for a year, Mr. Rush entered the hospital about a month ago.

Born in Grant county in 1890, he was the son of Bert and Elva (Coomler) Rush. In 1911 he married Alta Ethel Easton who died in 1951. Mr. Rush had lived two miles west of Palestine for the past 55 years. He was a member of the Palestine Christian church.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. George Houck, Route 5, Warsaw, Mrs. Dale Plew, Piercetown, and Mrs. Max Hire, Los Angeles, Calif.; two brothers, Roy of Mentone, and Earl of Detroit, Michigan, and seven grandchildren.

Last rites were conducted Saturday at 2 p. m. at Johns funeral home, with Rev. Ivan French, of Elkhart, officiating. Burial was in Palestine cemetery.

Pass First Aid Tests

Four Mentone firemen and seven Home Demonstration club women recently received a first aid certificate effective for three years. Mrs. Boyce Howard of Winoona Lake, was the instructor giving the 22-hour course, with classes meeting once a week at the Mentone Farmers State bank. Firemen qualifying for certificates are William Rathbun, Don Smythe, Dale Wallace and Lyman Mollenhour; clubwomen, Mrs. Glenn McGinnis, Mrs. Harold Markley, Mrs. Riley Parker, Mrs. Albert Hatfield, Mrs. Elwyn Teel, Mrs. Harold Eaton and Mrs. Marie Coleman.

Fire Destroys Poultry House

The Mentone fire department was called to the Hubert Keirn farm, just north of Mentone, about six o'clock Tuesday morning. A poultry house containing 1,800 six-week-old chicks was on fire. The building, about 20 x 50 feet, was completely destroyed, although another poultry house only about six or eight feet away was saved.

The fire started in the attic portion of the house, and as no brooder stoves were being used it has been assumed that an electrical short started the fire.

Monday noon the department was called to the Arthur Witham home where a car belonging to a Rovenstine boy from Atwood, started burning. The damage to the auto was slight.

Auto Lands In Ditch

Mrs. Lennie Feldman, of Mentone, started for Etna Green about 10:30 Saturday morning, and soon found herself and her auto in the ditch.

She was nearing the bridge just south of the Fred Mallott farm on road 19 when she slowed for another auto crossing the bridge. Evidently her auto skidded on the wet snow and the next thing she knew her car stopped upside down in the ditch. The water filled the top to within about six or eight inches of the bottom of the window glass (if the car had been right side up). She rolled the door glass down (up) and then had to duck under the water to crawl out the window.

Mrs. Feldman escaped with a few bruises and a few cuts on her legs, and the auto seemingly wasn't too seriously damaged.

LICENSE ISSUED

A marriage license was recently issued to Hubert Keirn, who lives just north of Mentone, and Alice Marie Surface.

Parents of Son

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Bryant are the parents of a son born Sunday evening at the Murphy Medical Center.

Economics of Egg Production

Lafayette, Ind.—Many egg producers today face the important question of whether or not to stay in business. According to Ed Carson, Purdue University agricultural economist, there are several considerations that must be made before a decision can be reached.

The first consideration is the alternative uses of labor, management, and capital. There has been a trend toward specialization in all phases of farming. In many cases the farmer has found it necessary to specialize in order to profit. A good example of specialization is the drop from 86 to 67 percent in the number of farms with chickens.

To stay in the egg producing business, enough volume is needed to gain the efficiency necessary to make a profit, says Carson. He estimates that it now takes 300 or more birds—in most cases—to make a profit. Twenty five hundred birds or more are needed to provide a full-time job for an operator.

Another consideration is how well the job of producing is done. Carson outlines these standards for the egg producer to aim for: 200 eggs per hen per year, 5 pounds of feed per dozen eggs, and 15 per cent mortality. If these standards had been met in the past, the producer would have failed to make a profit only 3 out of 22 years.

Carson concludes that if the egg producer isn't approaching these standards, he probably isn't making enough profit to stay in business.

Corn-Supplement Ratio

Cattle self-fed ground ear corn with Supplement A should consume 8 parts of corn to 1 part of Supplement A, reports Dr. T. W. Perry, Purdue University animal nutritionist.

The corn-protein ratio Perry recommends is based on the results of a feeding experiment conducted last winter.

Previous research had shown that cattle self-fed ear corn and protein on a free-choice basis gained more rapidly than similar cattle that were hand-fed. However, the self-fed cattle consumed more protein supplement than is normally required for fattening cattle. For this reason, an experiment to determine the best ratio of ear corn to protein to be fed fattening cattle was conducted.

The experimental cattle had an average beginning weight of 634 pounds. They were fed only hay and minerals before the experiment. Each of five lots were fed a different ratio of corn to protein with the narrowest 4-1 and the widest 12-1.

A free-choice mineral mixture of 2 parts steamed bone meal to 1 part of salt plus loose salt in a box was available at all times. Hay was offered early in the experimental period, but was omitted after four weeks because the cattle consumed less than two pounds per head per day.

Excessive looseness and scours appeared only in the lots with the widest corn-protein ratio—either 10 corn 1 supplement or 12 corn 1 supplement, but the droppings became normal after a 7-10 day adjustment period.

When the experiment was ended, after 161 days, the figures showed that the lot fed six parts of corn to one part of supplement, and the lot fed the 8-1 ratio gained the fastest both at the rate of 2.6 pounds per day. The lot fed the 8-1 ratio, however, put on the gain 1.2c per pound cheaper than the 6-1 lot.

On the basis of this experiment Perry recommends that the cattle be fed on a similar program should be fed 8 parts of ground ear corn to one part of Supplement A.

Farm Social Security Facts

Farmers 65 or older who have been covered by social security and have paid social security taxes for 1955 and 1956 may qualify for old age retirement benefits in 1957, according to Purdue University agricultural economists.

The amount of monthly payments received will be based on the average monthly self-employment earnings during 1955 and 1956. However, $4200 net earnings per year is the maximum amount which is taken into account for computing the average monthly earning for the period.

Farmers eligible for retirement benefits in 1957, who will have less than $4200 net earnings in 1956, might wish to increase their 1956 net income in order to increase their monthly benefit payments. These farmers should consider selling market livestock and cash crops before January 1 rather than after that date. Or, livestock might be fed to heavier weights and sold before January 1.

Net income under the cash basis of reporting income, can also be increased by reducing or delaying cash payments for expenses or by delaying building and machinery repairs until 1957. Or, feed, fertilizer and supplies can be bought on credit and not paid for until 1957.

Some farmers who will have a small net income in 1956 may be able to increase their gross income before January 1. If their gross income is from $600 to $1800 they may report and pay tax on two-thirds of their gross income. Or, if their gross income is over $1800 they may report and pay tax on $1200.

Produces 215 bu. ave. to win contest

Max Martin, Parke County farmer, has won the 1956 Indiana 5-acre corn contest with an official yield of 215 bushels per acre. G. P. Walker, Purdue University extension agronomist, announced today.

Allen Harris, Wayne County, was second in the contest sponsored by the Indiana Crop Improvement Association and the Purdue University agricultural extension service with a yield of 209 bushels per acre.

H. J. Roadruck of White Co., a three-time state winner, was third with 203 bushels per acre. It was the first yield Roadruck has had over the 200 bushel mark.

Max Lenderman of Vigo Co., with 202 bushels, F. E. Elliott of Benton County with 202 bushels and Harry McKowen of Madison County with 201 bushels also qualified for membership in the exclusive "200 Bushel Club" which now has a total membership of nine in the adult contest. McKowen's yield of 201 bushels gave him his second 200 bushel year.

Herman McCullough of Clay County with 199, David Grimes of Montgomery County with 198 bushels, John Snoeberger of Carroll County with 196, and Joe Ayers of Spencer County with 194 bushel per acre yields make up the balance of this year's "Big Ten" in Indiana corn production. Half of the 10 high men used Indiana certified hybrids and half closed-pedigree commercial hybrids.

Martin's 215 bushel yield is the third highest in the history of the official contest. He produced the highest yield in both the senior and junior contests which were entered by 404 participants.

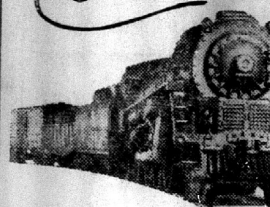

In preparing for his top yield on a 21 acre field, Martin plowed under a twice manured alfalfa sod with 500 pounds of 0-10-30 fertilizer per acre. He applied 100 pounds anhydrous ammonia while preparing the seed bed with two discings. On May 10 he planted in 38 inch rows a population of 20,000 seed grains of Indiana certified 680 hybrid per acre with 200 pounds of 5-20-20 fertilizer in the row. In 1955, an accidental thick planting at this high rate had helped win second place honors in the state junior 5-acre contest for his son David. In reporting to his county agent, Billy Beach, Martin said David's experience convinced him that he should again use a heavy population in his try for a high yield.

Harris also had a high fertility program. He plowed under sweet clover with 200 pounds of 60 per cent muriate of potash and 100 pounds 0-20-20 fertilizer and disked in a similar broadcast application before planting. On May 25 he planted mixed G hybrids in 38 inch rows with 200 pounds 8-32-0 in the row. He side dressed a heavy population of 20,000 plants per acre with 150 pounds of nitrogen solution.

Of 2065 senior contestants, a record number of 912 were awarded green gold medals for yields between 125 to 150 bushels per acre. Another all time high of 312 won rose gold medals for yields over 150 bushels per acre. The total of these premium special gold medal winners—practically 60 per cent of the senior contestants—is the highest for any year in the 43 year history of the popular contest. Plain gold medals were awarded for yields over 100 bushels per acre to 695 contestants. A total of 122 growers qualified for silver medal awards with a yield of 85 to 100 bushels. Of the 2065 farmers whose yields were checked, only 24 fell below the 85 bushel level. Yields over 150 bushels per acre were produced in 62 counties. 82 of the 84 counties with senior contestants had one or more to top yields of 125 bushels or more per acre.

Conference Highlights

Sessions on grain handling, pork production and soil fertility will highlight the second day program of Purdue University's annual winter conference January 2 through 5.

Also on Thursday, January 4, Purdue agricultural alumni and Indiana Rural Youth will meet on the campus for their annual meetings. The annual 4-H Health and Safety conference will be continued from the preceding day.

The discussion on grain handling will be conducted as a part of the 28th annual Farm Electrification Conference. Noah Hadley, Purdue farm economist, will answer the question, "How Should We Handle Our Corn?" and B. A. McKenzie, Purdue extension agricultural engineer, will explain "Efficient Grain Handling Systems." Three other Purdue agricultural engineers and their topics are: G. H. Foster, "Shelled Corn Storage Practices and Problems;" G. W. Isaacs, "Drying Equipment Problems;" and I. J. Ross, "Available Equipment for Grain Handling." W. J. Parvis, rural service manager of the Public Service Company of Indiana, and James Sherwood, power use advisor for the Whitley County REMC, will speak on automatic grinding systems.

Richard Hougham, Franklin, will preside at the pork production session. He is president of the Hoosier Commercial Pork Producers Association. The session will be climaxed by a panel discussion entitled, "Plan Your Systems of Hog Production to Meet Competition." R. Bauman, Purdue agricultural economist, will moderate the panel composed of James McCutchen, Waveland; Charles Withrow, Romney, and W. G. Congleton, Frankfort. Two other Indiana hog farmers—Leon Johnson, Orleans, and Paul Keffaber, Shelbyville—will also speak.

Two agricultural college agronomy department heads — J. B. Peterson of Purdue and M. B. Russell of Illinois—will speak at the soil fertility session. Another feature will be a report by Purdue agronomist A. J. Ohlrogge on "How to Get the Most Out of Starter Fertilizer."

At the Purdue Ag. Alumni Association meeting, officers will be elected, awards will be presented, and a fish fry staged. H. Roe Bartle, mayor of Kansas City, will address the group on "Agriculture and Industry—Partners in the Midwest."

Among speakers at the 1st annual Rural Youth Day will be Dr. F. L. Hovde, Purdue president, and Russell J. Humbert, president of DePauw University.

FALSE FRONTS AND LONG WHISKERS

The yule isn't the only thing that's tied about this time come December each year.

The younger set surely must get plenty confused about this Santa business when they meet up with some of the assorted Old Nicks that seem to drift around.

The tall and skinny ones likely get that way because their reins are too short and their reindeer are charged with high octane oats.

Some settle down into their boots like Christmas candles in an August sun, while others come lumpy as if mamma left their long handled underwear in the washer too long.

The jolly old boy is the one that put in a pillow that had a hole in it. The feathers were just drifting around the middle.

It used to be that Santa showed up the night before Christmas, but in this day and age the boys in red have the Thanksgiving turkeys so scared you can hardly hit their necks with a broad axe.

And by the looks of some of the Santas I sometimes wonder whether someone didn't get confused while stuffing the Thanksgiving turkey.

Some of them will really "sleigh" you.

Income Tax Management

Indiana farmers can save hundreds of dollars by being good farm tax managers the year around. Like many other costs, income taxes can be reduced by good management.

Valuable tips for farmers are given in Purdue University extension bulletin, 413, "Income Tax Management for Farmers." A north central regional publication, the bulletin covers the problems farmers encounter when making major tax planning decisions. It also gives a list of tax items often overlooked and a page of tax management tips.

One of a farmer's major problems is in making a wise choice in the method of keeping records. There are two choices. The young farmer, who is just starting out and is building up his business, will find himself with a smaller taxable income and less tax by using the cash method. A well-established farmer, however, will find the accrual method keeps his income and taxes more up-to-date.

Also from the publication, farmers can learn the value of increasing their income to cover personal deductions and exemptions. The three ways of figuring depreciation are also explained.

Income estimate sheets at the end of the bulletin are designed for farm tax planning. Careful use of the form will enable a farmer to see where he stands tax-wise at any point during the year. With this information, and a knowledge of farm business decisions that have tax effect, a good farmer can become a good tax manager.

For a copy of the bulletin contact the county extension agent or write to the agricultural publications office at Purdue for "Income Tax Management for Farmers," extension bulletin 413.

Soybean Champ Is Named

A Clay county farmer, Robert Bedwell of Brazil, led 95 Indiana farmers enrolled in the state 5-acre soybean yield contest for championship honors in 1956 with a yield of 61.8 bushels per acre.

K. E. Beeson, Purdue University agronomist who was in charge of the contest sponsored by the Indiana Crop Improvement Association, said the average yield of all state contestants was the highest in the 47-year history of the event.

Beeson said the winning yield fell only two bushels short of the all time record set by Tom Maddox of Benton county in 1954. The Maddox prestige as soybean growers was maintained in 1956 by Tom's father, Charles, who placed second with a yield of 55.6 bushels per acre. Charles was the 1953 state champion. Members of the Maddox family have garnered more top or near-championship honors than any other family in the state.

Bedwell used the new Clark variety planted in 40-inch rows at the rate of 65 pounds per acre. The beans followed two years of corn in a field that had been heavily fertilized each year. After the beans were planted, nature took over with an adequate supply of moisture whenever it was needed. Ideal growing conditions did the rest.

County Agent R. D. McHargue and his assistant, S. L. Liebert, measuring the best five acres to be combined on Bedwell's farm this fall, were impressed with the yield prospect but anticipated little better than a good yield. Not until the soybeans began to pour from the combine in unprecedented amounts, causing frequent stops to empty the hopper, did Bedwell or his assisting neighbors, R. H. Drake and W. H. Fogel, realize that the sensational yield was being harvested. In fact, when the entire 75 acres on the Bedwell farm were weighed in, the crop had averaged 42 bushels per acre.

The western half of Indiana had more favorable farming conditions than eastern Indiana in 1956. Every state contestant harvesting 50 or more bushels per acre lives on the western side of Indiana from Porter to Vanderburgh county. Vanderburgh and Warrick counties with ideal growing conditions placed four men among the top ten.

The eight growers following Bedwell and Maddox for yield honors are: John Moorehead, Vanderburgh, 55.3 bushels; E. G. Beavers, Parke, 51.4; Chester Vanada, Warrick, 51.3; Clarence Mesker, Vanderburgh, 51.2; L. K. Wyckoff, Porter, 50.9; Mitchell Farms, Tipton, 50.9; Virgil Gerhardt, Warrick, 50.7; James Porteus, Benton, 50.5.

All except three of the growers used the high yielding Clark variety. Maddox grew the Lincoln variety, Porteus the Hawkeye, and Wyckoff farming in northern Indiana like Porteus also sowed an early variety, the Harosoy. In all, 42 contestants planted the late maturing Clark, 24 Hawkeye, 18 Harosoy and the remainder used the Lincoln, Wabash or Adams varieties.

Beeson said the high yields reported by contestants this year are in line with the highest average state yield ever reported by Indiana farmers. They produced 24.5 bushels per acre on the largest acreage ever planted in soybeans in the state, making Indiana second only to Illinois among the soybean producing states in the nation.

Mrs. Howard ShoemakerGENERAL INSURANCE*MENTONE*PHONE 3-2235*What Would You Do?

If fire broke out in your house at this very moment, what would you do?

Yes, your answer is "call the fire department."

But how would you do it? What number would you dial?

Would you try to find that pink slip the fire department sent you many months ago? I imagine some people would, as it isn't unusual to see one of the little slips attached to the wall, or telephone directory.

If you did, you probably would not get the fire department as that slip was merely an emergency measure to be used until the new automatic system was installed.

The present number of the fire departments is on the first white page of your telephone directory. For Mentone it is 3-2345, and the numbers after the prefix are considered fire department numbers in our area, and are easily remembered.

So, just in case you didn't remember, think on this number long enough that it won't "slip" if you do need the help of the fire department.

The winter and Christmas season is one of the worst times of the year for fires, so let us all be extremely careful. Let this be a happy—and not homeless—holiday season.

Corn cobs are about the most satisfactory outside bedding for cattle, according to Purdue University animal husbandmen. Even on concrete feed lots, cobs will keep the cattle clean and dry. Make a pile of corn cobs in your feed lot and watch where the cattle spend their time, advise the Purdue specialists.

If farmers expect to advertise their seed for sale next spring they should have their seed tested at Purdue University now. Mailing envelopes are available free from county agricultural agents.

Veterinarians at Purdue University say that prolonged sneezing in swine could be signs of a serious nasal disease — atrophic rhinitis. A diagnosis can be made by having a veterinarian examine the nasal passages of a few of the affected hogs.

CLEANING THE FREIGHT CARS

On first thought, cleaning a freight car hardly seems a matter of much importance. But the amazing fact is that it costs the nation's railroads $110 million a year to clean their freight cars—which is a lot of money in any language. About half of the expense is a necessary part of the operation of the railroads in preparing cars to make them suitable for various types of commodities. But the other half is caused by cars left in dirty condition by the receivers of the freight.

To combat this problem, a clean car program was started in 1954. The heart of the program lies in car checks followed by re-checks and with personal contact by railroad representatives to explain the purpose of the campaign to receivers. These activities have stirred up considerable community interest. Chambers of Commerce and local newspapers have helped greatly. The Air Force, Navy, and main large commercial shippers are cooperating. As a result, the proportion of unclean cars to total cars released has been dropping substantially, and improvement continues. Shippers have learned that it is of real advantage to them to clean their cars properly—in some cases, strange as it seems, railroads have taken back cars loaded with debris, and found under it valuable shipments that the receivers had just overlooked.

Work of this kind, obviously enough isn't just a railroad affair. All the costs of operating this or any other service must ultimately be borne by the people who use it and their customers. So just about everyone gets an indirect benefit from the clean car program.

TREASON TO FREEDOM

Maxwell Anderson, in his book, "The Guaranteed Life," wrote: "The greatest enemies of democracy, the most violent reactionaries, are those who have lost faith in the capacity of a free people to manage their own affairs and wish to set up the government as a political and social guardian, running their business and making their decisions for them. This is statism or Stalinism, no matter who advocates it, and it's plain treason to freedom."

It is an unhappy irony that the fine old word "liberal" has been appropriated by people who want the government to run everything, and boss everyone. This is as far from classical and traditional liberalism as a man can get. The advocates of the super-state are, as Mr. Anderson points out, the real reactionaries.

Mentone Reading Club Meets

Mrs. Charles Manwaring entertained the members of the Reading Club at her home last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Denton Abbey was co-hostess. The spacious living room was tastefully decorated in keeping with the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Earl Shinn was in charge of the business meeting, in the absence of the club president, Mrs. Arvilla VanGilder.

Response to roll call was a Christmas quotation.

The program committee, Mrs. Chauncey Mollenhour and Mrs. Loren Tridle then presented a Christmas program, which included our favorite and well loved Christmas hymns; Bible readings fortelling and telling the beautiful Christmas story; poems about Christmas; legends concerning Christmas and the gifts of the Wise Men, truly a program which refreshed one's thinking about Christmas, and the true meaning of Christmas—the birthday of the Messiah.

Animal husbandmen at Purdue University report that a good mineral mixture for beef cattle is two parts of bone meal to one part of loose salt.

A PART OF CHRISTMAS

Holly branches are a part of the Christmas scene. Even before there was a Christmas the ancient Romans found that the shiny, prickly leaves and red berries of the holly tree were ideal as festive adornment for the halls where they celebrated their feasts. Holly came to be considered sacred by many because its beauty was greatest at a time when most other trees were barren. Evil spirits hold powerful sway in the legends and folklore of many peoples and they account for holly's present position as a doorway decoration. It was placed over entryways and windows in the belief that its thorns would ward off these unwanted visitors.

Basketball

Last Tuesday, Mentone's Bulldogs journeyed to Plymouth to meet the Lapaz Vikings on the basketball court and returned with 83-80 and 55-39 victories.

Tom Hoover hitting beautifully in the second and third quarters ended the game with an amazing total of 48 points, this however, might have been even higher but Mentone turned to a slow, deliberate type of ball in the last quarter, despite this Hoover still managed eight points in the final stanza.

Nellans and Manwaring led the second team with 19 and 10 points respectively.

Friday evening Mentone's Bulldogs extended their won and lost record to six and one at the hands of the visiting Syracuse Yellow Jackets by a score of 86-70. The second team also won 47 to 39.

The Bulldogs again had to depend on their brilliant guard, Tom Hoover, to keep them in the game. Hoover hit on 20 of 28 shots from the field for an amazing 71 per cent; he also cashed in on 13 out of 14 shots from the free throw line.

As a team the Bulldogs hit on 32 of 51 shots from the field for a percentage of 62.7. Syracuse hit 51 per cent from the floor.

Hoover is overshadowed by only one player in the state, that is 6 foot 5 in. Phil Willis from Grass Creek, who is averaging 43 points per game. The people who have seen both boys play however, say that Hoover has had to face much stiffer opposition than Willis.

The scoring for Syracuse was led by Nicolai and Kistler with 15 points apiece. Tom Holloway, a sophomore, led the scoring on the second team with 16 points and is improving with every game.

THE BARK AND THE BITE

A short time ago headlines announced that the official consumer price index had risen to a new high. But, as is often the case, the bark was worse than the bite. For the increase was a tiny one—only three-tenths of one per cent.

And certain relevant facts are rarely headlined. One is that, at about the same time, workers' real income had increased by more than one per cent, due to wage boosts. Another is that the amount of goods and services a worker could buy with his earnings has been at record levels.

Much of the credit for that should go to an institution which rarely is given its due—retailing. Retailers have had to meet higher wages and higher costs all along the line. But, by modern methods, they have cut the costs of food distribution by one-quarter since 1933. Much greater efficiency and economy is found in every phase of the business, from transportation to the store proper. And, in the case of food chains and supermarkets, the retail net profit is commonly only one solitary cent on each dollar of sales.

Comparable progress has been made in all the other retail fields. Retailing couldn't prevent inflation—but it has done a tremendous job in taking some of the sting out of it.—Industrial News Review.

Brucellosis Deadline Near

Indiana dairy farmers who wish to continue to sell grade "A" milk have only until January 1 to place their herds on a brucellosis testing program.

F. A. Hall, Purdue University extension veterinarian, has reported that 74 counties have been enrolled in the program and a number of other counties have taken some action.

Hall pointed out that farmers in counties without a brucellosis control program must have their herds tested and qualified for grade "A" milk production at their own expense.

The Purdue specialist asserted that brucellosis affects beef as well as dairy cattle and that the brucellosis control program covers all types of cattle. Hall added that there is just as much chance of humans contracting brucellosis from beef animals as dairy cattle.

The presence of the disease is much less than anticipated, Hall said. For example, in counties where the brucellosis program is underway, less than five per cent of the herds have shown reactors—cows showing presence of the disease. Only about two per cent of the cattle that have been tested are found to be reactors.

Grubs may show up in the backs of feeder cattle in December, according to entomologist at Purdue University. If so, spray or dust with rotenone. A ready-prepared cattle grub powder contains 1½ percent rotenone. To make a spray, add 7½ pounds of 5 percent rotenone to 100 gallons of water. Apply with a powder sprayer as directed on the package.

Basketball

By Larry Teel

Friday night Mentone's Bulldogs nipped Atwood's host Greyhounds, 46-43 in a rough version of a basketball game. Both teams returned to Mentone triumphant as the second team won 62-16 with Holloway and Utter leading the way with 14 and 11 points respectively. Atwood's second team was balanced in scoring with no one getting over four points.

Atwood's varsity shot to a 13-10 lead at the end of the first quarter but trailed 28-26 as McKinley made a jump shot just before the half ended. There was very little scoring in the third stanza as both teams employed semi-stall tactics. Mentone lead at the end of the third quarter 33-32.

In the fourth quarter Atwood grabbed a five point lead with three minutes to go. Mentone rallied to knot the score at 41-41. After trading baskets, the Bulldogs converted a foul shot and lead by one point. Mentone rebounded Atwood's shot and as Hoover was bringing the ball up the court he was fouled with just a few seconds left on the clock. Hoover made both of his foul shots and that was the ball game.

Mrs. E. D. Anderson is improving at her home at Mentone where she has been confined because of a catarrhal condition.

Dinner guest at the home of Mrs. Earl Meredith of Mentone, Sunday, was her sister, Mrs. Claud Barkman of Mentone. Mrs. Tessie Newton visited in the afternoon.

W.S.C.S. Meet

Mrs. Richard Manwaring was hostess to the Woman's Society of Christian Service Thursday evening, December 13th, to which 27 were present. Lois Davison read a very interesting article for the opening. Clippings from the outlook magazine, written by missionaries, on how Christmas is celebrated in Liberia, India, Africa, Philippines, Korea and Jacksonville, Florida were read by Mrs. Herschel Teel, Mrs. Curtis Riner, Mrs. Juanita Maple, Mrs. David Cooper, Mrs. Eugene Sarber, Mrs. Elener Sarber, Mrs. Vaughn Cooper and Mrs. Herman Olson. A very interesting letter was read by Bernice Rush from one of our missionaries, Mrs. Kutz of her work in South America. Mrs. Bunner requested that all cookies be brought to the church the 23rd for the plates.

The church and her children were introduced by the program leader, Harriet Abbey. She was assisted by Mary Francis Hudson, reading an article, Children's Faith in God and Jean Prichard reading the 128 Psalm for devotions. A poem was read by Mrs. Abbey.

The various needs of the children around the world as well as at home was brought out in the discussions such as, Community Centers to care for children, Christians Health Service, To Lift Up the Needs of the Public Schools as a follow-up of the White House conference on Education, To encourage women to assume their responsibilities to the world's children in an atomic age, and to encourage women to do more with children in the home, church, school and local community. Mrs. Persons then introduced Hazel Linn who is interested in buttons and has a collection of Star buttons ranging from 4 to 1 stars and she gave a very interesting discussion on what the stars meant and how they were associated with the star of Bethlehem.

The hostesses, Arvilla VanGilder, Becky Gross and Juanita Maple served dainty refreshments.

Beaver Dam School News

By Eleanor Shively

Our basketball team lost to Macy last Friday night at Gilead. The B-team won their seventh game of the season.

Tomorrow night we play the Cubs of Etna Green. Let's make it number 3 win!

We get out of school tomorrow around 12:20. There will be an exchange of gifts in the morning. Our vacation ends January 2.

A group of men from Winona Lake presented Gideon Bibles to the members of the fifth grade last week.

Our Junior High team defeated Macy in the 4-way tourney at Burket last Saturday. Burket defeated us in the final game that night to win the tournament.

Roger Neillans will be our sports editor for our school paper from now on. We know he will do a good job.

We had a new automatic bell system installed over the Thanksgiving vacation. We want to thank Mr. Butts for getting this for our school.

Our P. T. A. Christmas program was held last night at the school. Santa was present and gave treats to all the children.

Mr. Miller, our music instructor, attended a two-day Midwest Band Clinic in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Butts spent two days last week at the State Trustees Convention in Indianapolis.

Our school paper came out last Friday.

We are pulling for Beaver Dam to win the 4-way tournament at Mentone during our Christmas vacation.

Legion Aux. Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held December 11. Following the regular opening procedure, Opal Neillans called the meeting to order. Georgiana Teel sent a report that Christmas boxes had been sent to six servicemen from this area who are serving overseas. Lula Smith reported that a gift box had been sent to the orphan we sponsor at the Knighttown home. A letter was read concerning the Box Supper. Those Auxiliary members planning to take boxes should call Jean Rodibaugh soon, and she will report to the chairman of the project. The group discussed the storage of the hospital bed. It was decided to leave it in Burket, since there are others available in Mentone. Alice Secrist was appointed chairman of a rummage sale to be held at the Post Home, Saturday, January 19. After the business session, the group enjoyed a Christmas gift exchange and refreshments.

Old friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garrie Rose last Sunday for a Christmas dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reed of Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hindenlang of Laotto, Mrs. Zoa Warren of Argos, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brugh of Mentone and Miss Kathryn Bunch of Talma who called in the afternoon.

Darrel Miller spent Tuesday evening with his grandmother, Mrs. Leonard Boganwright.

A lighted Christmas tree dominated the room at the Christmas party of the Country Neighbors club held on Monday, Dec. 17th, at the home of the hostess, Mrs. Robert Hoover.

A 6:30 o'clock dinner was served by the hostess and co-hostess, Mrs. Floyd Bixler to 14 members and two guests.

Mrs. Arlean Walters gave the Thanks.

Following the dinner the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Allen Herendeen and a short business meeting was held.

Devotions were given by Mrs.

Lewis Pulling in the absence of Mrs. Leroy Norris who was ill.

The reading was "Symbolizing the Christmas tree."

Roll call was answered by giving your Secret Pal. The Secretary and Treasurer's report was read and approved.

An installation of officers was held with Mrs. Roy Maxwell acting as installing officer.

The new officers are: president, Mrs. Robert Hoover; vice president, Mrs. Howard Chamberlain; secretary, Mrs. Lewis Pulling; treasurer, Mrs. Earl Zent.

A gift was presented to the outgoing officers.

Secret Pal names were drawn for the coming year. Secret Pal gifts were received by Mrs. Carl Zolman, Mrs. Paye Long, Mrs.

Lewis Pulling and Mrs. Roy Maxwell.

Twin Calves Are Wanted

Purdue University is starting its annual search for identical twin calves to be used in nutritional feeding studies.

Hoosier cattlemen with identical twins of at least half beef breeding can find a market for them at the university. They should be less than a year old.

"Identical" refers to calves of the same sex, body size, shape and color patterns. Their general behavior pattern should be the same. They need not be purebred and may be of either sex.

Cattle raisers who believe they have such a pair of calves and want to sell should write Dr. M. P. Plumlee, Animal Husbandry Department, Purdue.

DON'T BUY THE BROOKLYN BRIDGE!

Half a century or so ago swindlers preyed ruthlessly on fresh-off-the-boat immigrants to this country. A great coup was to sell one of these innocents the Brooklyn Bridge.

Times and techniques have changed. Nowadays swindlers have subtler rackets—one of them being fraudulent and worthless stocks. Mounting complaints against unscrupulous stock salesmen led the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York State Attorney General to work out, with the aid of stock exchanges and reputable brokerage houses, a guide to prospective stock buyers. It has now been issued, and it is as sound as it is simple. Here are the basic rules.

Think before buying. Deal only with a securities firm which you know. Be skeptical of securities offered by telephone by a firm or a salesman you don't know. Guard against high pressure sales methods. Be particularly wary of promises of quick and spectacular price rises. Be sure you understand that there is a risk of loss as well as a prospect of gain when you buy securities. Get all the facts—never buy on tips or rumors. Request the person offering securities over the phone to mail you written information about the corporation, its operations, management, financial position, etc., and save this for future reference. If you don't fully understand the written information, consult someone who does.

Follow this guide—and you won't be buying Brooklyn Bridges!

Dumped From Box Car

John H. Chaplin, of Argos, a brakeman on the Nickel Plate Railway, was pretty badly cut and bruised about 8:10 Saturday evening when he was thrown from a box car at the Co-Op. Mill siding. He and another man were bringing a box car into the siding and the brake failed to hold. The car was gradually picking up speed coming down the incline, and the one brakeman managed to "shimmy" down the ladder and jump, but Mr. Chaplin's coat got caught and he was unable to free himself before the car hit the bumper at the end of the spur. He was thrown off the car and landed about 20 feet away and on some loose lumps of coal. He received first aid at a local doctor's office and was then able to proceed on to Argos with the freight.

Lions Treat The Ladies

The Mentone Lions Club arranged a fine ladies' night program Wednesday evening. They were all escorted to Osmanor Farm where a delicious turkey dinner was served. There were 58 Lions and ladies present.

Following the dinner, those present were favored with musical selections by Miss Sarah Urschel and Mrs. Persons. Two young men from Manchester college gave a dramatic presentation. They were Harold Daveier and Russell Sansbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Zanna Hammer are now located in their new home east of Mentone.

MENTONE HIGH SCHOOL
BASKETBALL

By Larry Teel

Thursday night, Mentone's Bulldogs played host to the Pierceton Cubs in a thrilling, action packed basketball which the Bulldogs won by the score of 65-62.

Mentone jumped off to an early lead in the first minutes and lead by eight points at the end of the first half, due to scoring of Larry Horn and Fred Anderson, two good boys who helped take the scoring burden off the shoulders of Tom Hoover.

Pierceton came roaring back in the third quarter and led the Bulldogs by three markers as the teams opened the final quarter. Tom Hoover then took charge for Mentone and proceeded to rack up 17 points in the final stanza. Mentone regained the lead with about two minutes to go and started to stall. Pierceton, trying to get the ball committed a couple of disastrous fouls which cost them the ball game.

Mentone now is on top in the county standings with 8-1 record. Green is second with 7-1.

The second team from Mentone also won led by juniors Jim Manwaring and Mel Keplinger who contributed 16 and 17 points respectively to the cause. Arms led the scoring for Pierceton with 7 points. The final score was 63-27 in Mentone's favor.

Indiana Cows Rank 6th

Cows in Indiana Dairy Herd Improvement Associations each have an average annual production of 9613 pounds to rank sixth in the nation, G. A. Williams, Purdue University extension dairyman, has reported.

Figures just released by the Bureau of Dairy Industry reveal that New York is in first place with 10,028 pounds per cow. In the midwest, Illinois and Michigan excel Indiana.

In the same summary is the average annual consumption of roughages and concentrates per cow. The difference in yearly concentrate consumption ranges from 4200 lbs. per cow in Florida to 1900 pounds per cow in Idaho. Cows in the Indiana DHIA consumed an average of 2700 pounds.

Roughages show even wider variations. In this division, Indiana ranks 27th among the states with 4600 pounds per cow. This is lower than the amounts fed in Illinois, Ohio, Michigan and Wisconsin but 700 pounds higher than Kentucky.

Williams pointed out that the number of dairy herds with more than 15 cows increased 14 percent between 1950 and 1954. If this trend continues many Hoosier dairymen will be forced to increase their cows' consumption of roughages—the cheapest source of digestible nutrients—or accept higher feed costs from feeding increased amounts of concentrates.

"Improved pastures during the summer and more liberal allowances of hay and silage after the grazing period ends are the key to efficient production," the specialist concludes.

DEPLETING OUR MOST VALUABLE RESOURCE

The pace of life today is far faster than it used to be. And a great many people are paying the price in the form of nervous tensions in varying degree.

One way to relieve these tensions, according to Dr. W. W. Bauer, who has long headed the American Medical Association's bureau of health education, can be found in more relaxation—along with "real" vacations.

He pointed out that, even as we concern ourselves with the possible depletion of the nation's natural resources, we tend to overlook the depletion of the most valuable resource of all—people. And that is where his remarks on the vacation problem have their significance. Many of us, especially executives, skip vacations, in the mistaken belief that we can't afford to leave the job for even a shore period of time. On top of that, many more actually make tiring work of vacations. We drive, dance, and play too strenuously. We eat and drink and smoke too much. As Dr. Bauer puts it, vacations should be a time when we "vacate our lives of their complexities"—and that means allowing ample time for just sitting and taking things completely easy.

In sum, we need to learn the virtues of moderation—and to develop the ability to get away from the cares and stresses of the workaday world.

THE HOME WIRING PROBLEM

"In millions of homes all over America this past Thanksgiving week-end, fuses blew, lights dimmed, pictures on TV screens flickered, roasters took an annoyingly long time to heat up, electricity bills were pushed to unnecessarily high levels," writes Sylvia Porter, the business and financial columnist. There's a very good chance that happened to you—for, Miss Porter continues, "a staggering 78 to 90 per cent of America's homes are not adequately wired." At least 20 million homes need rewiring in the near future while millions more need wiring modernization.

The reason, of course, is found in the labor-saving appliances which all American families want, and which they have been buying in tremendous volume. We are putting heavy and often excessive strains on the wiring capacity of the home. And this isn't just a problem of the owners of older homes—newly-built homes, too, frequently fall into the inadequately wired classification.

A spokesman for the Edison

Electric Institute has said, "We'll be on the way to licking the problem when home buyers will check on wiring as automatically as they check on the number of bedrooms and bathrooms." We Americans are going to want more and more appliances as time wears on. We must get ready for them.

Grain Show At Purdue

Indiana's state corn, small grain and legume show will observe its golden anniversary at Purdue University December 31 through January 1.

Inaugurated in 1907 when the Indiana Corn Grower's Association moved its annual meeting from Indianapolis to Purdue, the state show has become one of the most competitive events of its kind in the U. S.

Golden decorations will be the motif at the Association's annual banquet to be held at noon, January 4.

and gravy stains.

More than that, it apparently doesn't injure fabrics, corrode metal and evaporates without leaving oil rings. Best of all, it will not burn. With so many remarkable properties some people regard it as the perfect "safety solvent."

Safe you believe... but look at the record. In one year, 200 hospital cases of carbon tetrachloride, commonly referred to as C. T. C., poisoning in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. Over the past 10 years the national count of poisonings due to breathing carbon tet vapors or accidental drinking of the liquid is in the thousands. The exact count is unknown.

Maybe you wonder how it could have such a fateful record. After all, you've sniffed it now and then when removing gum from the rug or cleaning the bearings on your son's bicycle, and you haven't had any bad effects. And besides, the stuff is so easy to obtain.

Frankly, you were just plain lucky.

To the doctor and toxicologist, carbon tetrachloride spells danger. Excessive breathing of its vapors or accidental ingestion of the liquid can permanently damage the liver.

One swallow of the liquid by a youngster is generally fatal. Persons with inherent liver or kidney weakness, or those weakened by certain diseases are more subject to carbon tetrachloride injury. Even one alcoholic drink followed by exposure to carbon tet vapors may be serious or fatal to an adult.

In fact the misuse of C. T. C. is so hazardous to health it should not be kept or used in the home for any purpose. But if there is some around, at least keep it out of reach of the exploring children. Never use it except in very small quantities and then out of doors. If you can smell the solvent in the air, you're breathing too much vapor. But remember that your sense of smell fatigues quickly so that after the first few whiffs your nose may deceive you. Don't let your name become a vital statistic!

WHERE LABOR AND INDUSTRY AGREE

Industry and organized labor seem to take an attitude in common toward the federal income tax as now constituted—they both regard it as discriminatory and unfair.

Speakers at the recent National Tax Association Convention included a tax attorney giving the view points of the National Association of Manufacturers and the chief researcher of the AFL-CIO. Both attacked the income tax in forthright terms. As was to be expected, their particular criticisms varied materially in nature. However, The Wall Street Journal reports, "Despite their divergent approach to the question, both speakers found common ground in their concern over the middle income taxpayer."

There is every reason for this concern. We have long since passed the point where the income tax was of real importance only to the well-to-do. Now the surtaxes start at so low on income level, and progress so swiftly, that the people of moderate means as well as large find it virtually confiscatory. The lower-income groups are hit hard too. The minimum tax, on only $2,000 of taxable income is 20 per cent and the surtax starts immediately thereafter.

It is widely said that the present world crisis will lead to even greater military spending by this country, and has destroyed whatever chance there was for income tax reductions in 1957. That may very well be true. But we also need, just as we need ultimate tax reduction, an overhaul of the whole chaotic tax system with its overlapping and other inequalities. The country would be well served by a united drive by labor and industry—whatever their differences over detail—to accomplish this.

A LAW AT WORK

"That plunge of livestock prices last fall and winter still is receiving attention from farm economists," says a publication of the American Meat Institute.

An interesting explanation of it has been presented and illustrated in chart form by Professor of Agricultural Economics Sam H. Thompson, of Iowa State College. The Institute sums up his findings in these words: "There was the production of beef and veal—still pushing higher as in every year since 1951. Then hogs did a surprising turnabout from their cyclical decline and added a huge tonnage of pork for the market to absorb. Never before had there been a high point in beef production and another one in pork simultaneously. Combined they made a 27-million-pound total which was absorbed satisfactorily by consumers but only at lower prices. The lower prices at retail crept back along the meat pipeline all the way to the producer on the farm."

In other words, what happened simply illustrated the working of a natural law, with an old and honorable name—the law of supply and demand. Under this law, generally speaking, when supply is large in relation to the normal demand, prices decline. Conversely, when the supply is small in relation to the normal demand, prices rise. That law, in a free market, governs everything, whether it be the sale of automobiles or of farm crops.

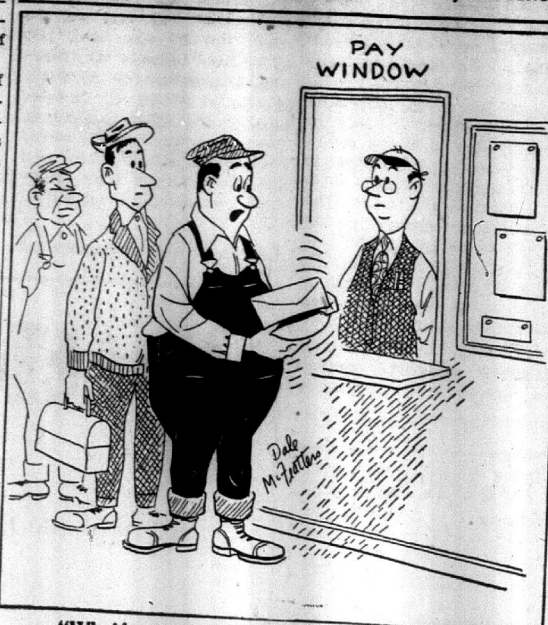

On some occasions the laws works to the advantage of the consumer—on others, to the advantage of the producers. In the long run, it averages matters out—with fairness to all.

FACTS OF LIFE RECOGNIZED

The United Mine Workers has gained a new contract providing substantial wage increases to coal miners—the basic daily wage will reach $22.25 next April. In reporting this to the UMW's quadrennial convention, John L. Lewis had some important things to say.

"Wha' happened? My deductions finally catch up with my take-home pay?"

Asked about the six-hour day proposal, he said: "If the convention would want to dedicate itself to that task, we could get a six-hour day in the next contract period, but it would have to be for six hours of wages. It's a question of relative costs, competitive costs, a question of the industry competing against gas and oil and atomic energy looming in the future. These are the facts of life. But any time that the organization wants to stop eating so much and loaf a little more, I can arrange it."

In another section of his talk, Mr. Lewis told the convention that under our free enterprise system "... invested capital is entitled to a return on that investment and the mine workers who produce the coal are entitled to participate in the modern advances of the industry and the increase in per-man-day productivity."

The miners are, and long have been, participating in the fashion Mr. Lewis described. The new contract makes matters still better for them. But coal investors have been less fortunate. Profits have been meager at best—and at times they have disappeared entirely with losses taking their place. And that isn't healthy for labor or any other group.

SURPRISE CHRISTMAS FROM SISTER IN WEST

Mrs. Alberta Poulson was awakened by the telephone about midnight Dec. 25th, and she soon learned that her sister, Mrs. Marksmiller, was calling from Los Angeles. The sisters haven't seen each other since 1931, and needless to say, hearing each other's voices and the exchange of Christmas good wishes were pleasant.

REALLY BIG

We hear much about big business. We should hear more, and think more, about big government—which makes the biggest business seem pygmy.

Our federal government employs more than 5,000,000 people—while the largest private employer, the Bell System, employs less than 746,000. The government has annual revenues of about $80.8 billion—while the private enterprise with the largest sales, General Motors, has about $12.5 billion. The government has total assets of $165.7 billion in the last year for which such figures are available—while the private enterprise with the biggest assets, Metropolitan Life Insurance, had a little less than $14 billion.

These and other big private businesses, remember are huge taxpayers—frequently, taxes account for a larger share of revenues than goes to the owners. Government, by contrast, pays no taxes and lives on our taxes.

PURCHASING AGENT

The housewife is the purchasing agent in most American homes. So every producer and seller of goods must be vitally concerned with what advertising medium she finds most influential when it comes to making out her shopping list.

The Illinois Consumer Analysis recently conducted 5,000 interviews in 15 Illinois markets in which this question was asked "What form of advertising do you find most helpful in buying general merchandise?" The answers were: newspapers, 50 per cent; television, 8.5 per cent; magazines, 6.7 per cent; radio, 1.1 per cent.

The newer media serve their purpose and are here to stay—but nothing can supplant or equal the local newspaper in the esteem and interest of the public at large.

WORKING FOR GOVERNMENT

The total cost of government in this country is far higher than most of us realize, one reason being that many taxes are of an indirect, or "hidden" nature.

U. S. News & World Report states, "Government in this country—federal, State and local—are spending $110 billion a year. That is the equivalent of about one-third of all the money earned by all people and businesses in the United States."

In effect, you spend one-third of your working time working for government.

Christmas

(The following from the Industrial News Review Bureau, may appear to be a day or so late, but the Christmas season extends to the New Year, and the message contained is certainly worthy of our attention. —Ed.)

Matt. 14:25 "And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea."

Matt. 14:29-31 "And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus."

"But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me."

"And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?"

The miracles which are recorded in many passages of the Bible had a profound effect upon those whose lives were touched by them because they were done with a calm authority and confidence that spoke eloquently of their divine origin. They were a challenge to the followers of Jesus during His ministry as a physical presence and to us today to have faith in God's Messiah and act according to His word.

Jesus did not write His teachings on golden tablets to be enshrined in great temples which time would destroy. He wrote them deep within the hearts and minds of living men and women where His message could not be stamped into oblivion by an sort of ruthless oppression nor worn away by the impartial attrition of time. This is the strength of Christianity—that it needs no outward trappings. With its message of hope and concern for the dignity and worth of each human being, it brings the greatest comfort and burns the brightest within those most sorely oppressed. This Christmas of 1956 let us all pause once more to burnish anew our thoughts of Him who came to build a Kingdom in our hearts. His teachings lend meaning to the humdrum life, dignity to the unfortunate, hope to people who have none and courage to those who must do the impossible. This troubled Christmas all men would do well to remember His outstretched hand and His words to one who has sinking into a stormy sea "O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?"

SINCERE THANKS

I wish to thank my many friends for the cards, flowers, prayers and interest shown to me during my stay in the hospital in my recent illness.

Mrs. Arthur Brown had charge of the program for the evening. Miss Mary Kate Miller opened the program with the singing of "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and "Silent Night." She was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Artley Cullum. This paved the way for our guest speaker, Rev. John Rea, Professor of Bible and Archaeology at the Grace Seminary of Winona Lake. He gave an interesting account of his time spent in The Holy Land as he showed colored slides of these places. Included were slides showing the latest unearthed Bible Scrolls. His entire program was interspersed with pictures and Bible quotations pertaining to the Birth of Christ. Following the speaker, Miss Miller sang "Hail The Wondrous Stranger" and closed with "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Maude Snyder presided at the piano throughout the evening of refreshments and at this time Miss Miller sang "Winter Wonderland" and "Beethoven's Moonlight Sonata."

There was an exchange of fully wrapped Christmas packages. Many gifts were brought to be sent to our D. A. R. school at Tamassee along with seven new rag rugs for our Indiana cottage and also twenty-five dollars for paint. Miss Mary Kate Miller, Mrs. Dale Cook, Mrs. Art-ley Cullum and Mrs. Maude Snyder were guests.

Swedish CB Builds Vast Underground Shelters

If nuclear bombs ever rain down upon the great cities of the world, one city above all others will be able to say that it was prepared.

That city is Stockholm, Sweden, where civil defense planning and money and advanced rock engineering have created vast, futuristic, comfortable shelters under 40 to 75 feet of solid granite.

In a peacetime 1,000-car underground garage, 20,000 of the city's citizens could survive all but a close nuclear hit in a self-sufficient setting of good lighting, filtered air, and ample food and water.

Tremendous blast pressures would be kept out by triple electrically-operated reinforced concrete steel doors and an ingenious maze of blind passageways off the entrance ramps to help dissipate pressure, according to Dr. Walo von Greverz, a Swedish civil defense official.

In smaller shelters scattered about Stockholm, and other Swedish cities, other tens of thousands could survive in underground dual-purpose structures designed for civil defense and used in peacetime as theaters, recreation halls or factories.

Where the shelters have commercial value, as in the underground parking garage, a private company holds a 30 year lease in return for paying 40 per cent of the construction cost.

Sweden now has shelter for 1,200,000 of its 7,000,000 people. Large numbers of the remainder of the population live in remote areas requiring little shelter. Two thousand more shelters of all kinds are being built each year to accommodate an additional 130,000 people.

Sweden's long-range civil defense program includes 150 large shelters for 600,000 persons who would have to remain on vital jobs in metropolitan areas.

So successful has Sweden become in tunneling vast caverns in granite for only 25 per cent more than the cost of surface construction that many peace time factories are now being built underground.

Swedes, accustomed to long hours of winter darkness, actually prefer working underground, says Dr. Von Greverz, Swedish civil defense medical director who recently visited the United States. They like the air conditionings and actually have a higher production rate, he says.

Less spectacular, but vitally important is the Swedish home shelter program. Since 1938, every multiple-family house has had gas-proof basement shelters capable of protecting occupants should the building collapse.

A 1945 law further strengthened and modified these shelters, although they are still conceded inadequate against nuclear weapons.

Sweden's geographic position forces it to rely more on instantly available shelter and less on evacuation than American civil defense. That is because Sweden would have only a few minutes warning of attack. Nevertheless, Sweden plans a strategic evacuation of the non-productive third of its population whenever the world situation warrants it.

EXCELLENT LAW

The Portland Oregonian has published a letter from a reader, Walter F. Buse, which says: "I have been reading the Taft-Hartley law, and from the standpoint of the laboring man, I think it is an excellent law. It protects the laboring man from the businessmen who want to exploit labor, and from the labor leaders who just want power and money for themselves."

"I am a strong believer in labor unions. They are necessary part of our American economy, but they should be organized from the bottom up and not from the top down. . . . The laboring man himself should have the right to say where the money should be spent. It should not be spent for power and political ambitions of its leaders."

Just what logical argument can there be against this position?
