He was a member of the Mentone Church of Christ, and an elder for the past 30 years.

Born August 25, 1878, in Fulton county, the son of David and Hester (Thompson) Leininger, he had resided his entire lifetime in the Mentone-Akron communities. He was a retired farmer.

On January 21, 1903, he was married to Myrtle Nelson who survives.

BITTEN BY DOG

Mrs. Don Bennett, who lives about a mile west of Mentone on Road 25, was bitten on the hand by the Gross dog last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Bennett's dog had gotten loose and as she attempted to retrieve it, she was bitten by the Gross dog. The dog has been placed under quarantine to determine whether or not it is rabid.

C. O. Eiler, Mentone justice of the Peace, states that all dogs over six months of age, according to Indiana law, must be vaccinated for rabies regardless of whether they are confined or not. Many people unfamiliar with the law, likely feel that if their animal is restrained or confined, it is not required to be vaccinated.

Report On Style Show

Approximately 300 persons attended the Fashion Parade held November 19th at the Mentone H. S. Gym. Several came from distances including Marion, Wintatah, Kokomo, North Manchester, Laporte, Roann, Rochester, Warsaw, Akron and others.

When the curtains opened at 7:30, Mrs. Eldred Paulus, Regent of the Anthony Nigo Chapter gave the welcome. In authentic G. A. R. Civil War Uniforms our Honor Guard led in the pledge to the Flag. The Honor Guard was composed of Reed Riner, Commanding Officer; George Istok, Mitchell Tucker and Steve Bruner. The uniforms belonged to Morris K. White.

Mrs. Paulus then introduced the narrator for the modern day fashions, Mrs. C. W. Best of Kline's Store, Warsaw, and for the period fashions, Mrs. Ray Linn of Mentone.

M. K. White at the Organ and Miss Marilyn Rathfon at the piano gave excellent performances as they played throughout the show.

Miss Mary Kate Miller sang a few lines of "Long, Long Ago" to pave the way for the first scene which was the Crinoline Age 1852-1870.

Mrs. Joe Boggs and Mrs. Eldred Paulus modeled gowns of about 1860 date. A Baby carriage belonging to Clarence Tink of near Mentone was used in this scene. It was one of the earliest styles made with two large wooden wheels at the back and a smaller one in front. A decal showing an Eagle perched on top of the U. S. Flag had only 13 stars in the Flag's field.

Modeling in the gay Nineties scene were Miss Janet King, Mrs. Kenneth Leiter and Mrs. Robert Smith of Mentone, Mrs. Don Rush of North Manchester and Miss Carol Hutchison of Akron. Children were Sara Jo Smith and DeWayne Igo of Mentone.

The Lake City Quartette of Warsaw composed of Guido Davis of Burket, Frank Rarick, Herbert Dye and Max Baker of Warsaw, favored us with barber shop harmonies of The Gay Nineties. They were dressed in character for the occasion.

Mary Kate Miller sang "Strolling Through The Park One Day" which introduced the Park Scene where the following modeled Gibson Girl (1900-1912) attire: Reed Riner and Linda Sue Linn, Mrs. Robert Hill and daughter, Diane Mrs. Richard Manwaring, and Mrs. Harold Nelson, Mrs. Frank Smith and niece Rita Paulus.

In the same period, "Sweet Girl Graduates" modeled graduation dresses of 1910 and 1908.

Modeling were: Mrs. Ned Miller, Miss Barbara King, Miss Beverly Horn and Miss Bonnie Kay Hudson. Kathy Boggs sang "School Days."

In the Flapper Age and Roaring Twenties Mary Kate Miller and Reed Riner sang "Roll 'Em, Girls, Roll 'Em." Mrs. Howard Stutzman of Etna Green and Mrs. James Randall of Akron demonstrated The Charleston. (Dance of this period) They gave an excellent performance. Modeling in this era were: Mrs. George Slabaugh of Etna Green, Mrs. Paul Shireman of Akron, Miss Marilyn Rathfon of Rochester, R. F. D., and Mrs. Wayne Smalley of Warsaw.

Modeling Period Wedding Gowns were: Miss Lillie Tucker of Fort Wayne, Miss Mara Lee Smoker of Akron and Miss Janet Mollenhour of Mentone.

Modeling in the Bridal Party of Today were:

Mrs. Merlyn Holt and Mrs. Carla Perry as bridesmaids; Little Patty Jean Silveus of Warsaw, flower girl; and the bride, Mrs. Charles Mishler of Milford. Others styling the new fashions were Mrs. James Randall, Mrs. Paul Shireman and Mrs. Omer Drudge of Akron, Mrs. Don Bennett, Mrs. Loren Tridle, Mrs. Noble Babcock, Mrs. Richard Kindig, Mrs. Eugene Sarber, Mrs. Robert Hill, Mrs. Everett Rathfon, Mrs. Merlyn Holt, Mrs. Garwin Eaton, Mrs. Eldred Paulus, Miss Carol Rathbun and Mrs. Glenn Clauss of Bourbon. Children were: Rita Lou Paulus, Brent Paulus, Michelle Jean Clauss, Diane Hill, Gary Teel, Elaine Manwaring and Gregg Shireman.

Avoid the Last Minute Rush—Be Sure Your Christmas Cards and Gifts Arrive on Time.

Have you considered these reasons for faithful attendance each Sunday in the Services of Divine Worship and the Sunday School Sessions in the Church of your Faith?

- There is nothing so stately as the church, seeing that it is the temple of God.
- Nothing so worthy of reverence, seeing that God dwells in it.
- Nothing so ancient, since the patriarchs and prophets labored in building it.
- Nothing so permanent, since God Himself undergirds it.
- Nothing more closely united and indivisible, since God's love sustains it.
- Nothing so lofty, since it reaches as high as the heavens and to the throne of God Himself.
- Nothing so well proportioned, since the Holy Spirit was the architect.
- Nothing more beautiful or adorned with greater variety, since it consists of all ages, nationalities, and all sorts and conditions of men.
- Nothing more spacious, since it spreads over the whole earth and offers men everywhere the knowledge of God's forgiveness.
- Nothing so beneficent, since it gives shelter to the poor, the wretched and distressed of every nation, kindred and tongue.
- The Church is the place in which God does His marvelous works.
- The Church is the setting of His justice, mercy, goodness and truth.
- In the Church we meet God face to face.

Adapted from Adam Clarke

The Methodists of Mentone believe that if everyone would "Let God Have His Way", all churches of our community would be filled for services of Divine Worship and Sunday School each Sunday, and everyone could have the consciousness of God's indwelling every day of the week.

BEAVER DAM HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL

By Roger Nellans

On Wednesday night, November 27, Beaver Dam extended their perfect record to four wins, 64-60, over a scrappy Talma quintet on the Beavers' floor. Talma took an early lead which the Beavers overtook in the second quarter and held the rest of the game.

Talma put on a finishing drive to pull within two points, 60-62, but Bibler's two charity tosses in the final seconds put the game on ice for the Beavers.

Chuck Coplen for Talma was the game's leading scorer getting 27 points; Deamer was close behind with 21. Bibler led the Beavers' scoring, netting 22 points.

Winterize More Than Radiator

Motorists not only should take their winter clothing out of moth balls but their winter driving habits, too, according to Matthew C. Sielski, director of the Chicago Motor Club's Safety and Traffic Engineering department.

Winter, with its slippery roads and visibility problems, is a critical time of year for drivers, Sielski said.

Most skidding accidents occur in the pre-winter and early winter months because motorists are caught by surprise. It is easy for drivers to forget how slippery roads can get, Sielski said.

Tests have proved that the braking distance on glare ice is twice as long at 30 degrees as at a zero temperature. The greatest skidding dangers exist when it is just cold enough for water to freeze.

"A winter changeover doesn't mean just adding anti-freeze to your radiator," Sielski said. "The changeover also should take place in the attitude of the driver himself."

Wet roads require motorists to drive cautiously and at a reduced speed. Slushy roads, usually accompanied by fog and early darkness, present many visibility problems, he said. Falling sleet or snow and splashes of slush from passing cars require motorists to have properly working windshield wipers.

In this kind of weather, headlights, not parking lights, should be turned on to warn both pedestrians and oncoming traffic. Windshield washers installed on the car can aid visibility, Sielski said.

Cold and wet weather also affect the inside windows of a car. For safety's sake, inside windows should be wiped or scraped clean, and defrosting equipment should function correctly. If fogging of inside windows persists, one of the side windows should be opened slightly, Sielski said.

Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served with crocheted booties holding nuts and mints.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Warren called on Lou Robbins and Mrs. Mildred Carpenter Sunday evening.

Attend 1957 National 4-H Congress

An aspiration shared by many Indiana 4-H'ers will be fulfilled for these top ranking club members when they arrive in Chicago on Dec. 1 for the opening of the 36th National 4-H Club Congress. They are the 1957 state winners in their special 4-H projects, and their award is an expense paid trip to the Congress. They will be among the 2,000 participants attending the five-day event.

Sandra Link, 21, of LaPorte county demonstrated expert canning ability in order to win the state 4-H Canning award. Utilization of home grown foods was one of her achievements.

A 12 year 4-H member, Sandra canned over 1,500 jars and helped to can another 1,500 jars during eight years in this project. She won four blue and three red ribbons at the state fair, and gave many canning demonstrations.

Sandra completed projects ranging from baking to rabbits. She was a junior leader, local 4-H officer, and active in the county 4-H group. She is majoring in home economics at Purdue University.

She will be guest of Kerr Glass Mfg., donor of the Congress trip.

Outstanding work in the 4-H Boys' Agricultural program won the state award for Ronald Roberts, 17, of Kosciusko county. Pride and respect for agriculture on his home farm and in his community were among the ideals that aided him in attaining this honor.

Some of Ronald's many projects were: 15 animals each in beef and beef feeding, 20 hogs, over 3,000 chickens, 72 acres of corn, and over 80 acres in wheat, oats, barley, hay, and soybeans. He also participated in a tractor project.

His awards include 10 championships and 11 reserve championships in heifers, crops and poultry. He was Master Beef Showman.

Ronald's trip is provided by International Harvester Co.

Learning good construction principles and how to dress appropriately were prerequisites in the state 4-H Clothing award won by Ann Harlow, 18, of Jackson county. Initiative and imagination in designing her clothes helped win the Congress trip provided by Coats & Clark.

Ann began developing her knack with a needle as an eager young 4-H'er eight years ago. Today her wardrobe is richer by 35 garments, ranging from a woolen suit to gingham school dresses.

She was county 4-H Dress Revue champion for two years, and in 1954 won third place in the state revue. Twice she was chosen as a 4-H model, and last year as the "Typical 4-H Girl of Indiana."

Ann's latest stitching efforts were directed toward a well-rounded college wardrobe. She is a freshman this year at Purdue University.

David Cochard, 17, of Hancock county, is state winner in the 4-H Dairy program. His dairying efforts were rewarded by the Oliver Corporation, donor of the Club Congress trip.

David began his dairy project eight years ago with one cow, a great deal to learn, and many hardships to face. In his fourth year his heifer broke her neck the night before the county fair. The following year, his best cow died of milk fever. But though temptation to quit was strong, David redoubled his efforts, and slowly began to get results.

His cow "Gypsy" won her class in both junior and open shows at the 1956 International Dairy Show, and was reserve senior and grand champion in the 4-H show.

Today David's herd numbers 23, and has helped him earn 100 blue ribbons, 34 championships, and $1,500 in premiums.

The Cooperative Extension Service and the University of Purdue direct these national 4-H award programs.

"Messiah" to be Presented

Upland, Indiana—Taylor University's annual presentation of Handel's "Messiah" will take place Sunday, December 8, 1957, at 7:30 p. m. in Shreiner Auditorium on the Upland campus. The one hundred voice choir will be directed by Professor Burton P. Mahle. Soloists are Miss Rose Marie Lorenzana, soprano, Miss Nancy Rowley, alto, Mr. Harold Jackson, bass, and Dr. Albert W. Schroer, Chairman of the Division of Fine Arts at Taylor, tenor.

Accompanists for the performance will be Professor Lorraine Dillon, organ, Professor Dale Shepper, piano and Mrs. Roger Beaverson, timpani.

The Messiah, composed in the incredibly short period of twenty-four days, is considered by many to be the greatest oratorio ever written. There is little doubt that Handel was divinely inspired while writing the Messiah. When he completed the "Hallelujah Chorus" he exclaimed to his servant, "I did think I did see all Heaven before me, and the great God himself." Many times his servants found him in tears as he put to paper an awesome phrase or a devout passage. And then, after the monumental A-men had been written, he confided simply to a physician, "I think God has visited me."

Admission to the presentation is free; an offering will be taken.

Mentone Boy one of Students Aiding in Fuel Research

Rocket to Moon is Aim Of Purdue Research

[The following story appeared in the Nov. 3 issue of The Indianapolis Times, and the picture that was used in the story showed Dr. M. J. Zucrow, Dr. Bruce A. Reese, associate professor of Mechanical Engineering, and Don (Junior) Emmons, Mentone, who is working on his Master's degree. Junior is one of the students who has been experimenting with rocket fuels and their development. —Ed.]

Because of rocket research at Purdue, man someday may fly to the moon.

How would you like to take a stroll through a rocket lab? There is one at Purdue University. Part of it's secret—part of it isn't. It's one of three in our nation.

One small boy visiting was allowed to step into the concrete cell where they actually run a rocket motor.

"That's a rocket?" he gaped. "Oh, no." He knew better.

The comic books don't show the insides of a rocket. They don't explain chamber pressure or heat transfer or two-phase flow hydrodynamics.

At Purdue, they do.

"Sure we can go to the moon—and will—we know how to now," Dr. M. J. Zucrow said calmly.

"We'll go farther—we'll go to Jupiter and Mars—and beyond and there is no end, for when we get there, we'll look for another planet. But to blast off, we need two things: People and money."

Purdue, under guidance of one of the top 10 rocket experts of the world—Dr. Zucrow—is putting up the people—at least some of them.

"Football coaches get paid. Science teachers don't. This isn't funny," said Dr. Zucrow.

"If no one feeds us the right minds from high school, we'll grind to a scientific halt."

As Dr. Zucrow walked from concrete cell to concrete cell where rocket motors were mounted with Rube Goldberg-like test devices, he blasted away:

"We face armament danger. Only if our retaliatory powers are so great no one dares to touch us, will we be safe.

"To be best, we must prepare. Anybody's a good cook when the grocery store's full of supplies. Our country won't be a leader unless we stock our shelves with trained scientific teams and basic research knowledge," he said.

Stopping a moment, he introduced one of his "boys." There are about 25 taking their masters and doctorates under Dr. Zucrow.

Ten years ago, there were none. The rocket expert came to Purdue to find a cornfield awaiting him. There were no people, there was no money.

With money mainly from the Navy, a bunch of greenhorns and some buildings built by Purdue, Dr. Zucrow began.

Now 102 men have picked up their graduate degrees and gone out to head up research projects all over the nation.

"We are, I believe, one of three university rocket labs in the country. Ours is the only one where the students do the work.

It takes five-six years to get a doctorate here, but our boys have some breadth as well as depth when they get out," the rocketeer said proudly.

"These are the boys who may help put us on the moon," he said, pointing out the students.

"They don't just go to school here, they get their hands dirty in the rocket business," he added.

What they have accomplished since that first day 10 years ago when Dr. Zucrow stared at an empty field?

It used to be that maximum chamber pressures were 300 lbs. per square inch in a rocket. They thought that's all a rocket could take.

How high they are now is classified—but they're thought to be twice as high—thanks to the research of Dr. Zucrow's crews.

Rocket propellants build up tremendous heat inside the motor—up to 7000 defrees F. and more. Zucrow's boys are tackling various propellants, heat transfers and ways of cooling rockets.

Their blackboards and notebooks look like foreign code. In the low-slung buildings of the rocket lab they peer through bulletproof glass inside cells with walls a foot and a half thick to the danger valves and wires and cylinders that make up rocket motors.

"In the old days we had a few mishaps," recalled the professor. One day the students were prepared for a visiting general. Zucrow had briefed them. He wanted to walk in with the dignity, push a button, and see a rocket go boom. It did.

"I pushed the button—the whole thing blew up," he laughed.

"Oh, my boys make mistakes—I let them—for they learn—but their findings, their papers are being published and looked to by the government and industry," he said.

Lions Present Fine Program

The Mentone Lions club was host to a large group Wednesday evening and a special program was given to the more than one hundred present.

The tables were beautifully decorated with pine bows, pine cones and lighted red and white candles.

A committee headed by Lion C. O. Eller spent many hours in preparing and barbecuing the chicken for the banquet dinner.

Following the dinner and the official business of the club, Lion President Kenneth Romine introduced Lion Artley Cullum, a member of the program committee. Lion Cullum had the privilege of introducing a mixed sextette from Grace College of Winona Lake, which sang three fine numbers. Miss Marilyn Rathfon, of Mentone, accompanied the group. David Hacker of Dayton, Ohio, a member of the sextette, named the numbers and introduced the other members of the group. They were: Shirley Smith of Jackson, Michigan; Larry Crabb of Argos, Indiana; Jeanette Turner of Portis, Kansas; Marinel DeLattre of Altoona, Pennsylvania, and Edna Robinson of Leon, Iowa.

Hobart Creighton, who has been privileged to make five trips to Europe in the past eight years, in addition to one trip to Africa, another to South America and a complete circuit of the world, gave a few interesting remarks about some of the places and people he has visited.

Lion H. V. Johns led in a number of group songs, while Lion Sherman Bybee preformed at the piano.

Special guests of the evening were the wives and lady friends of the Lions members and the ladies of the Mentone Reading Club. Mrs. Denton Abbey, president of the Reading Club, introduced the members of her club who were not escorted by Lions.

All expressed themselves as enjoying the evening immensely, and everything seemed to have been well planned.

CHRISTMAS GREETING ISSUE

It is the usual custom of the News to publish the Christmas messages of business firms and individuals, and preparations are now under way for that issue. It is a bit difficult this year, with Christmas day coming on a publication date, however the issue will likely be published on Monday to permit delivery of most of the papers by Christmas day.

Gosser - Sterret

Miss Carolyn Sterrett became the bride of David Paul Gosser in a double ring ceremony at seven o'clock Saturday evening, November 23rd, at the home of the bride at 3922 North Kildare avenue, in Chicago. The candle-light ceremony was read by the groom's father, the Rev. David P. Gosser, before a large bay window decorated with giant plants, white crysanthemums and white gladioli.

The bridal march was played by Mrs. Goldsmith, a friend of the bride's family, and preceding the reading of the service Mrs. J. Arthur Sterret, the bride's mother, sang "Ich Liebe Dich."

Acolytes for the seven-tiered candelabra were Judith Sterrett, sister of the bride, and Jonathan Gosser, brother of the groom. The best man was Charles Urschel, of Mentone.

The bride was given away by her father, who also served as her attendant. The bride's gown was embroidered white nylon over pale blue taffeta and of ballerina length. A crown hat of pale blue held her finger-tip length veil of illusion. Her bridal bouquet was of roses and stephanotis. Her pearls were a gift of the groom.

The mother of the bride wore blue lace over blue taffeta with a corsage of pink camellias. The groom's mother wore a gray lace over pink taffeta with a corsage of pink camellias.

The groom is employed by IBM in the River Forest Branch, and the bride is employed as a medical technician in the Monroe building. Both the bride and groom are attending Wright-Junior College. Following a short trip they will be at home in their apartment on Monticello avenue, Chicago.

Sister Dies In Accident

Miss Janice Louise Ooley, 17, of Brazil, Indiana, sister of Mrs. Agnes Ruth Tibbets of Mentone, died in a head-on auto crash Friday night on U. S. 40, about 10 miles west of Brazil. She was riding in an auto driven by Floyd A. Winn, 19, also of Brazil, when it crashed head-on into an auto driven by Dr. John M. Palm, 48, also of Brazil. Dr. Palm also died from the crash injuries and Mr. Winn suffered multiple fractures and chest injuries.

Miss Ooley was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loran Ooley and was a senior in the Brazil high school. Funeral services were held Monday.

SCHOOL HAS THREE MEMORIAL FLAGS

We are indebted to Omer Morrison, custodian at the school, for the information that there are three memorial American flags in the Mentone school.

The flags have been donated to the school by the relatives of men who have died while serving in the armed forces.

The flag hanging in the cafeteria honors George II Myers.

The John Tucker flag is in the band room, and the Robert Fisher flag hangs on the west wall of the gym.

INJURED IN ACCIDENT

Dr. Donald Rhodes, of Napoleon, suffered some broken ribs and other cuts and bruises Friday night when his auto left the road, north of Mentone, and ended up almost under a bridge, on Road 19. He was taken to his home in the Johns ambulance.

WINTER IS HERE

Just to give a little boost to the morale of our friends and neighbors who are sojourning in warmer climes, we mention that we are having a bit of winter in these parts. The ground is well covered with snow and the temperatures are getting a might too close to that zero mark for comfort.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS ELECT OFFICERS

At a recent meeting of the Kosciusko County Funeral Directors Association, Chauncey Tucker, of Claypool, was elected president. The vice president is H. V. Johns of Mentone, and Malcolm Landis of Warsaw, is secretary-treasurer.

Decorated For Christmas Season

Mentone is now decorated in the usual Christmas manner, with three strings of colored lights across the Main street.

A change has taken place in the decorative scheme this year. A committee from the Merchants Association purchased three large heavy plastic decorative pieces that contain lights to illuminate them. The fixtures cost about $70 each, and add much to the appearance of the decorations.

Individual business houses, too, are adding bits of decoration to add to that promoted by the Chamber of Commerce committeemen.

IN JUSTICE COURT

On Thursday evening, December 5, as the result of a collision between his automobile and another car, on main street in Mentone, James Cumberland was charged with failure to yield the right of way in the court of justice C. O. Eiler.

On arraignment, the defendant filed an affidavit for a change of venue from the township, stating that he did not believe he could receive justice in the township on account of bias and prejudice. Change of venue was issued by the court to the court of Justice of the Peace Wilbur Gill of Warsaw.

State trooper J. D. Geiger filed the complaint.

On Monday evening a plea of guilty to a charge of not having an adequate muffler on a car she was operating was entered by Eva M. Horn of Warsaw. A fine of one dollar and costs was suspended by the court on a probationary promise, by the defendant, to have the muffler replaced.

Also on Monday night, Paul Blue entered a plea of guilty to a charge of operating a motor vehicle without adequate headlights. A fine of one dollar and costs and suspension of driver's license for 90 days was imposed by the court. Officer Clarence Brown filed the affidavit.

On Tuesday evening, Betty Thornton was assessed a fine of one dollar and costs for operating a motor vehicle without an operator's license.

Officer Davis filed the affidavit.

Mrs. H. V. Johns plans to leave by train for California Thursday where she will visit with the David Johns family at Riverside.

Indiana 4-H'ers Win Chicago Trip

Hard work and perseverance brought success and a trip to the 1957 national 4-H Club Congress in Chicago to three 4-H Club girls. Their records in 4-H Health, Frozen Foods, and Dress Revue were judged best in the state, according to the Cooperative Extension Service which directs the programs.

Scarlett Whitton

Mary Jo Thompson

Gretchen Kintz

Health and happiness walk hand in hand with Scarlett Whitton, 17, of Henry County who won the state 4-H Health award. Learning to share a responsibility in home and community health and welfare led to her trip award provided for the second year by Eli Lilly & Co.

This marks the fifth year of health and safety leadership for Scarlett. For four consecutive years her club was among the top 10 in the state in health and safety projects. She received many medals and won a $100 U.S. savings bond for her leadership at last year's state health and safety conference.

Scarlett belongs to the high school glee club and is school reporter.

Plenty of fresh frozen fruits, vegetables, meats and baked foods are served the year around in the home of Mary Jo Thompson, 19, of Carroll County. Her excellent record in the 4-H Frozen Foods project brought her state honors.

According to her record she froze 664 pounds of food in six years.

Mary Jo participated in more than 100 demonstrations, judgments, and exhibitions, and won 72 district, state and national ribbons. Her other 4-H projects include sheep, baking, food preparation, clothing, beef, and junior leadership.

Mary Jo was one of the 4-H members to win a trip to Washington, D.C., last year, and was also a delegate to Camp Minwanaea. She is now studying home economics at Purdue University, where she is a sophomore.

Mary Jo's expense-paid trip to Club Congress is provided by Whirlpool Corporation.

The coveted 4-H Dress Revue award—a week in Chicago as a state delegate to the national Club Congress — was won this year by Gretchen Kintz, 18, of St. Joseph County. She is outstanding in clothing construction and styling, and her dual role as seamstress and model helped bring about this honor. The Simplicity Pattern Co. will sponsor the trip, and be host to Gretchen and girls from 47 other states.

Gretchen will model her winning ensemble at the gala style show during the Congress. Her costume is a navy wool sheath dress and bolero jacket with three-quarter length sleeves, pointed jacket collar, and tab and button detail at bustline and hip-line. A navy hat of the same wool, white gloves, and navy leather pumps are the accessories.

Winning a 4-H modeling scholarship last year brought her modeling jobs in local department stores and dress shops. After attending Purdue University, she hopes to be a designer, model or a teacher.

The Inside Story...

Since 1907, most American families have received... and responded to... a letter which contains Christmas Seals and requests a contribution to fight tuberculosis year-round. This has made possible extensive research and other activities which have helped cut the TB death rate 95%... yet tuberculosis still kills more people than all other infectious diseases combined. The anti-TB methods financed by Christmas Seals are case finding, education, research, and patient rehabilitation. They have proved successful, and with new research developments may some day solve the tuberculosis problem entirely. So use Christmas Seals from now 'till Christmas... and remember to answer the letter, please.

Insects, Garden Reward 4-H Boys

Two industrious 4-H'ers won trips to the 26th annual 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, Dec. 1-5. They are Don White, 18, of Rush County, and Robert Holm, 17, of Tippecanoe County, named state winners in the 4-H Entomology and Garden programs.

Don White

Robert Holm

When the bug hit Don White, 18, of Rush County to enter the 4-H Entomology program he dreamed of winning the state award and a trip to Chicago. Now after eight years in club work the dream came true. Hercules Powder Co. provides the Entomology awards.

Don learned new ways to control insects on the farm. He represented his club in insect identification at county, district, and state fairs and contests. His collection contains about 350 types of insects. Don gave 11 entomology demonstrations and helped 4-H members to make killing jars and to identify insects.

He was elected recreation leader for the county junior leader club and demonstrated great leadership ability.

Don completed 15 different projects and saved $3,300 toward his college education.

Sharing in the production of nutritious fruits and vegetables guided Robert Holm, 17, of Tippecanoe County to greater knowledge of healthful living and won for him the state 4-H Garden award. His trip to Club Congress is provided by Allis Chalmers Mfg., Tractor Group.

Robert's eight-year career in 4-H gave him an all-round competence rarely equalled. Holder of many blue ribbons for his widely varied garden crops, he also exhibited champion livestock, grain-judging ability, knowledge of health and safety practices, and blue ribbon cookies and cake!

To prove that this is more than "theoretical" knowledge, Robert has complete charge of his family's 80-acre farm, preparing, planting, cultivating, and harvesting all crops.

This year Robert became the first ever to receive the 4-H key award in Tippecanoe County.

FACTORY CLOSES AT TALMA

Mrs. Mildred Kramer, manager of the Kabo, Inc. garment factory in Talma, Monday announced that the plant has been closed until January 1, 1958. Mrs. Kramer explained that the plant was in process of making garments for Sears, Roebuck and Company and that the style had been changed. The company employs 14 women.

Finishing hogs will use shelter this time of the year if it is available, Purdue University animal husbandmen point out. They suggest providing shelter whether the pigs are on pasture or in drylot.

If advice is all you want, you can get it without expense.

4-H Girls are Tops in Home Ec

Top state honors for 1957 were won by two charming young Hoosiers for outstanding records in 4-H Club project work. They will be among Indiana delegates to attend the annual 4-H Club Congress in Chicago during the week of December 1-5, according to the state 4-H Club office.

Preparation and serving food in an especially attractive and appetizing way helped win a state award for Sharon Ritchie, 18, of Delaware County. Her prize project was 4-H Food Preparation. Her all-expense trip is provided by Betty Crocker of General Mills.

A 4-H'er for nine years, Sharon also excelled in sewing, baking, and food preservation. Many county and state awards came her way.

Sharon is active in county and district 4-H, and was state president of her church youth fellowship. She worked on her high school paper, appeared in the senior class play, and played clarinet in the band.

Sharon Ritchie

Joan Shively

A song she and her sister wrote was used at many 4-H meetings. In 1957 Sharon was named outstanding 4-H Club girl of her county.

Joan Shively, 20, of Allen County, knows how to make a house a real home. Proof of her ability is that she won the 4-H award in Girls' Home Economics. Rewarding this future homemaker with a Congress trip is Montgomery Ward, donor of awards.

"Givin' 4-H demonstrations and talks helped me at college, and my home economics projects will help me in the future," at tests Joan, a junior at Indiana University and granddaughter of one of the first 4-H leaders in the county.

Joan completed 76 projects, among which were baking, food preparation, canning, clothing, and home improvement.

CHOCOLATE PEANUT CLUSTERS

1 package chocolate pudding powder (not "instant" kind); 1 cup sugar; ½ cup evaporated milk; 1 Tablespoon butter or margarine; 1 cup small salted peanuts.

Mix all ingredients except peanuts in heavy 1½ qt. saucepan. Cook and stir to full, all-over boil. Lower heat and keep stirring while mixture boils slowly for 3 minutes. Take off heat. Stir in peanuts all at once. Beat until candy starts to thicken. With 2 teaspoons, drop mixture quickly onto waxed paper to form 24 clusters — Mrs. Ruth McCleary

Sorghum In Dairy Ration

Indiana dairymen are asking whether sorghum can be used in place of corn for dairy cattle, says G. A. Williams, Purdue University extension dairyman.

The answer, he replies, is a qualified yes.

Grain sorghums, grown rather extensively this year in Indiana, resemble corn grain in composition and feeding value.

The sorghums, like corn, contain 70 percent nitrogen-free extract which is largely starch. Most grain sorghums contain more protein than corn, but are lower in fat. Too, they generally are lower in vitamin A than corn.

Williams points out that the hard-coated sorghum seeds, when apparently dry, contain considerable moisture. As a result they are apt to heat in the bin unless the grain is well cured before it is harvested.

Sorghum may replace 50 to 70 percent of the corn in a dairy ration, Williams asserts. Crushing is preferable to grinding.

When ear corn is worth $1.30 a bushel, 100 pounds of grain sorghum is worth $2.33, according to the U. S. D. A.'s Agricultural Research Service.

1957 CORN CROP HARVEST REPORT

(Based on estimates from DeKalb's Crop and Weather Observers)

The best corn prospects this year are in the Western Corn Belt where Nebraska and Iowa have much higher yields than last year. Northern Illinois has an excellent crop, but south and east from there, wet weather delayed planting and hurt yields. New York has one of its best crops in several years. The East Coast was hurt by a prolonged summer drouth and Illinois, Minnesota and Indiana river bottoms had much drowned out corn.

Short Course Scholarships

For the fifth year, Indiana bankers are offering $100 scholarships to Purdue University's annual winter short course in agriculture, January 6-February 28, 1958.

Fifty-five farm youths received scholarships from their local banks to this year's short course.

The Indiana Bankers Association sponsors and encourages scholarships to assist worthy and well recommended older farmers and young people to attend the eight-week winter course. They are for young men and women, 18 years or older, who plan to continue in farming or farm management in their home community.

Young persons interested should get in touch with their local banker to obtain application forms, or write to the executive secretary, Indiana Bankers Association, Union Title Building, Indianapolis.

Some 5,000 persons have completed the eight-week course in the school of agriculture at Purdue since its inception 70 years ago. Three programs of study are available—general agriculture, animal husbandry and dairy production. The total cost for Indiana students, including room, board, books and incidental expenses, will range from $225-$275.

Requirements for entrance are that the applicant be at least 13 years of age and have a good common school education. No entrance examination is required.

Applications for admission can be obtained by writing V. C. Freeman, associate dean, school of agriculture, Purdue University, Lafayette.

Farm-stored grain should be checked periodically for evidence of insect infestation, remind Purdue University entomologists. The top foot should be examined for presence of insects. A broomstick or long rod with thermometer attached should be pushed into the grain at several places. If one reading is several degrees warmer than the others, insect activity is likely.

BEAVER DAM HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL

By Roger Williams

An inspired and hard-working Claypool quintet, handed the Beavers their first loss of the season, 68-55, on Friday night, December 6.

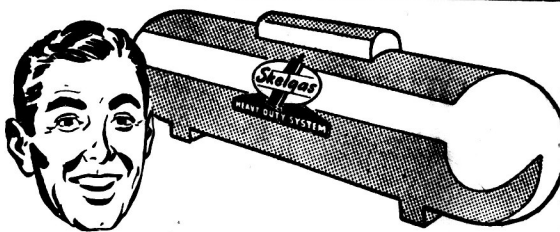

Claypool hit the net with phenomenal accuracy and led throughout the game. After a slow start the Beavers pulled within one point in the second quarter, 23-24, but from then on it was Claypool all the way leading at one time by 26 points.

The Beavers probably played their worst game of the year and coach Reutebuch used all ten men in trying to find a winning combination, but they appeared to lack the fight and drive shown in previous games.

Bibler for the Beavers was high point man of the game netting 27 points.

Farmers Costs Hit New High

A general rise in retail prices lifted the index of prices paid by farmers for commodities and services nearly one percent to 288 on November 15, a new high, Purdue University agricultural economists and state-federal agricultural statisticians report.

Farm product prices for the country as a whole also advanced during the month, leaving the parity ratio steady at 81, the same figure as in November 1956.

Purchasing power of Hoosier farmers dropped one point to 77 as the result of slightly lower hog, corn and milk prices. These lower farm prices caused both Indiana livestock price index and the Indiana grain price index to sag slightly in November.

Except for the whole milk feed ratio, which declined five percent, and the butterfat feed ratio which was unchanged, feed ratios improved to November 15. The Indiana corn-hog ratio improved slightly as corn prices dropped relatively more than hog prices. The corn-hog ratio stood at 17. Over a long period the Indiana corn-hog ratio has averaged 13.5.

The Mentone Chapter, Future Farmers of America, this year is joining the fight to cut down on the number of corn harvest accidents in the community.

The decision of the FFA to devote time and energy to this cause is surely justified and to be commended.

Studying the reports of corn harvesting accidents reveals some interesting facts. In most cases, the injured man left the picker running while he tried to clean or adjust it. And some of the most serious accidents occurred when guards and shields furnished with the machine were not in place.

The manufacturers of corn pickers, forage harvesters and other equipment used in harvesting and storing corn have designed this equipment for safe operation. The operator, however, must follow the manufacturer's safe operating instructions.

When an FFA boy calls at your home to explain the project, listen to him. Don't overlook the information he gives because of differences in your ages.

Surviving beside the parents, are one sister, Connie Jean, at home; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher, of Tippecanoe; paternal grandmother, Mrs. Flossie Coplen, also of Tippecanoe.

Services were held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Community church, Tippecanoe. Rev. H. J. Hiddinga officiated. Burial was in the Tippecanoe cemetery. The Johns funeral home was in charge.

FORMER TALMA LADY KILLED IN CRASH

Funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 p. m. in the Zimmerman Bros. Funeral Home at Rochester for Mrs. Eldora Henderson, 70, who died at 9:40 p. m. Friday in an automobile accident northeast of Evansville on State Road 57.

The Rev. F. I. Willmert of the Rochester EUB Church officiated and burial was in the Rochester IOOF Cemetery.

Mrs. Henderson, a native of Fulton county, died instantly of a basal skull fracture when the auto driven by her son, Howard, ran into a truck parked on the highway. Buying Lots By Mail Dangerous

New schemes for selling real estate by mail are growing, according to the editors of Changing Times, the Kiplinger Magazine, with the result that many thousands of people who think they are buying a nice retirement spot wind up with a treeless and raw piece of land, often far from highways or towns.

Ordinarily, anyone buying real estate near home knows what he is getting. Buying property hundreds of miles away and sight unseen through advertisements and fancy brochures can be dangerous without thorough investigation.

Do you know who the promoter is and what his performance record is? Does the price mentioned cover a large enough lot for building purposes or will you be required to buy more than one lot to comply with zoning requirements? How far is the property from highways, towns, schools, churches, etc.? What is the value of land in that area? Are there sanitary sewers, or must septic tanks be put in? Is the land dry or must it be drained? What about land taxes and local zoning restrictions? What are the full details on financing your lot?

The answers to these questions should tell you something about the development. Many times you pay almost as much for a lot in the development as you would for an entire acre in the area. And, although the ads show palm-studded beaches, lovely girls on water skis and a community house with golf course, all that may be there is what has always been there—scrub palmetto and a muddy pond.

In order to estimate for yourself whether or not this is the dream spot you really want, you should make a personal visit to the lot and look at it, even if this involves traveling hundreds of miles. An alternative is to ask a relative or friend who lives near the area to make the inspection for you.

Whatever you do, investigate before you invest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mollenhour and son Roger will leave Saturday morning to spend Christmas with their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Mollenhour of Jacksonville, Fla.

Corn cobs a foot deep in feed lots help keep cattle clean and dry, Purdue University animal husbandmen point out. Arrangements should be made to obtain cobs whenever they are available.

NEWS — Ph. ELmwood 3-3985

Feeding cows cooked or heated feeds may cut butterfat production as much as 50 percent, Purdue University dairy specialists say. Studies show that cooked or heated feeds are broken down by rumen bacteria quite differently from unheated feeds.

Purdue University entomologists suggest checking bees to see that all colonies are ready for winter. Hive entrances should be screened (five mesh to an inch) to keep out mice. Covers should be kept in place and hives should be sloped slightly forward to prevent accumulation of water inside.

Maintaining Net Farm Income

Lafayette, Ind. — How were some some 300 central Indiana farmers able, during a period of sharply falling agricultural prices and mounting farm expenses (1950-56), to maintain an average annual net income of about $10,000?

N. S. Hadley, Purdue University agricultural economist, analysed the records of these farmers and found that they enlarged the size and volume of their operation, specialized in enterprises most favorable to them and greatly increased their efficiencies.

Land was added (tillable acres were increased from 206 to 234 acres per farm) and a higher percent (up from 34 to 41) was put into corn. Corn production per farm was increased from 4,000 to 7,000 bushels.

These farmers specialized in hog production and cattle feeding. The number of hogs raised jumped 80 percent and the number of cattle fed 250 percent. A 10 percent decline in the number of dairy cows kept was more than offset in production per cow (up 50 percent).

Production per man increased 40 percent in only six years. To do this, farmers increased capital investment by more than 50 percent. The total capital investment per farm rose from $62,000 to $95,000.

"These good farmers had to do all these things just to keep their income constant," Hadley pointed out.

What happened to farmers not able to meet the competition?

Their incomes from farming are falling.

They are moving into non-farm occupations at a rapid rate. Nearly half of them have non-farm incomes greater than their farm incomes. Their total income per capita is about 15 percent higher and their purchasing power is about the same as it was in 1947.

"We are in a period of great agricultural change," Hadley observed. "The next 15 to 25 years are likely to be among the most interesting and challenging of all time. Competition will be fierce, stakes will be high, and those who will win will win big."

Holds Annual Christmas Party

The Anthony Nigo Chapter, D. A. R. held their annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Frank Smith.

Mrs. Eldred Paulus, Regent, opened the meeting with our Ritualistic service. Mrs. Ernest Igo read our State Regent's message.

Mrs. Kenneth Riner gave a very enlightening article on the Marxism influence in Christmas Cards. Mrs. Bernice Rush gave an interesting talk concerning Conservation.

Mrs. Miles Manwaring, D. A. R. Good Citizens Chairman, reported that Rosalene Baker from the Sidney School was chosen as the D. A. R. Good Citizen.

A contribution to our Fashion Parade from the Dr. Manasseh Cutler Chapter of North Manchester was gratefully acknowledged.

Mrs. Frank Smith was in charge of the following program:

The Christmas Story as given in Luke by Mrs. Arthur Brown.

What Do You Want For Christmas? given by Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Ray Linn read, Giving of Yuletide Gifts, Symbol of God's Love, and Childhood Yuletide Scenes.

Mrs. Linn then trimmed a Christmas Tree with early ornaments from her collection dating before 1890 when Woolworth's first imported electric light bulbs and ornaments for Christmas Trees. She also told of the significance of the decorations used. Displayed also were some of the early Candy Containers from Mrs. Linn's collection.

The Warren Sisters, Bonnie and Carol, favored us with selections on the accordion and Hawaiian Guitar as follows: Silent Night, Joy to the World, Rudolph The Red Nosed Reindeer, and Bringing in the Sheaves. While refreshments were served they played other numbers.

Mrs. Smith showed colored slides of our Fashion Parade and pictures taken at State Conference this fall. The house was beautifully decorated in keeping with Christmas. A pink Christmas tree trimmed with fuchsia colored bells had gayly wrapped packages underneath which were exchanged, after which our hostesses served dainty refreshments from a table lovely with its decorations in keeping with the color scheme of pink, fuchsia, silver and bronze which was used throughout the house.

An Auction of Christmas Cookies was held. Our next meeting will be January 14 with Mrs. Sherman Bybee as hostess.

Some Christmas gift suggestions for the home owner could be good pruning shears, a duster or sprayer, a seed order for flowers or vegetables, home and garden equipment, or a subscription to one or several horticultural magazines.

MISINFORMED

In a recent article in the News we find that the memorial flag that hangs on the west wall of the Mentone gymnasium was donated by the Rush family, honoring Earl Rush who died at Iwo Jima.

VISITING IN THE SOUTH

Roy Rush is spending a week in Belleview, Florida with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Coyle, formerly of Burket. He will spend Christmas in Winter Garden with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Danielson. He expects to be away about four months.

Country Neighbors Meet

Mrs. Carl Zolman and Mrs. Allen Herendeen were hostesses to the Country Neighbors Club for their annual Christmas party on Monday evening, December 16th, at the home of Mrs. Zolman.

Following a delicious Ham dinner the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Hoover. The pledge to the flag and club creed were repeated in unison. Mrs. Maxwell read Luke 2:1-19, for Devotions. She also read a story "Mother Gets Ready for Christmas" and compared the way we get Christmas dinner now and the way it used to be done. Roll call was answered by guessing our Secret Pal.

Mrs. Herendeen installed the following officers: President, Mrs. Eleanor Hoover; Vice President, Mrs. Howard Chamberlain; Secretary, Mabel Norris, and Treasurer, Mrs. Elma Zent. Mrs. Hoover then stated that the committees would be the same as last year.

Secret Pal names were drawn and sides were drawn for our annual party.

Gifts were then distributed from the beautifully decorated Christmas tree.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Jerry Smith and Mrs. Pearl Horn.

Mrs. Leonard Boganwright is now visiting with her sister at St. Petersburg, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Cramblet and sons were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Verdie Brockey of Talma.

New Year's Eve Service At First Baptist Church

First Baptist Church will hold its annual New Year's Eve Service from 9:00 to 12:00 o'clock on Tuesday, December 31st. Rev. Lawrence W. Newans of Indianapolis will be the speaker. Rev. Newans is the State Representative for the Indiana Fellowship of Regular Baptist Churches, and was formerly the pastor of The Berean Missionary Baptist Church in Indianapolis. At the 9:00 o'clock service he will bring a report on the Baptist work throughout the state and will present the challenge of starting new churches in the state. At the 11:00 o'clock service he will bring a devotional message which will be followed by a time of prayer fellowship as we welcome the new year. Refreshments will be served in the church dining room from 10:00 - 11:00. You are invited to join with us at First Baptist in this New Year's Eve Service.

New Arrival

A daughter, Sherry Lee, weighing seven pounds 10½ ounces, was born to Mr. and Mrs. David Johns at 9891 Victoria Ave., Arlington, California, Friday noon. Mrs. H. V. Johns, of Mentone, is visiting at the home of her son and family.

Mrs. Allie Lyon, who had been visiting her son at Arcola, spent a few days in Mentone last week visiting the Robert Reed family and other friends.

AIRPLANE DAMAGED

The Mentone Flying Club airplane suffered some damage on Sunday morning during a landing at the Lima, Ohio airport.

Dr. Wymond Wilson, a member of the Mentone club, was on his solo cross-country flight and as he attempted to land at Lima, a cross-wind coming over a wooded area interfered with his control while about to land. The plane hit the soft runway and as it bounced into the air the pilot immediately applied full throttle (the proper procedure whenever a plane takes any perceptible bounce.) The crosswind changed the direction of the plane sufficiently to head it for a fence along the runway. As the plane went over the fence, a post just touched the lower side of one wing. This tipped the plane into a muddy area where one side of the landing gear was bent. Doc wasn't injured in the least and damage to the plane was not extensive.

Dale Sinclair and Chick Herendeen, with the help of Jake McClone and his truck, hauled the plane back to the Warsaw airport today (Monday) where it will be repaired.

Mr. Herendeen said the airlines planes were still not landing at Lima today because of the soft runways.

Christmas is the time for gifts

. . . gifts that are meant to bring us joy. Greatest of all gifts we can ever have is the gift of life itself. This we can learn from children who in their simple way squeeze out endless joy from every moment of life. To them the world is beautiful, all people are friends, and living is a wonderful game. To feel, to laugh, to breathe, to sing, to run . . . all this they do with enormous delight. Our hope is that you will enjoy such priceless joy this Christmas and that all your days of the New Year will be brightened by such a happy view of life.

Tippecanoe Lady Dies

Mrs. Minnie May (Biddinger) McPherron, 82, R. R. 1, Tippecanoe, a native of Fulton County, died of a stroke at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Blair Nursing Home in Bourbon. She had been ill for six months and suffered the stroke three weeks ago.

Mrs. McPherron lived in the Sand Hill and Richland Center Communities before moving to near Tippecanoe 20 years ago. She was a member of the Tippecanoe Community Church, Tippecanoe Progress Club and the W. S. C. S. of that Church.

Born December 22, 1874 in Fulton County, Mrs. Pherron was the daughter of William and Lydia Leiter Biddinger. She was married in Rochester in 1893 to Thomas McPherron, who died in 1914.

Surviving are two daughters,

Miss Wilma McPherron Biddinger, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Armen (Mary) Warnock, Converse; four sons, Edwin, Bloomington; Clarence and Harry, Tippecanoe, and Emil, address unknown; seven grandchildren; five great-grandchildren and a brother, Harry Biddinger of Billings, Montana.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at Argos with Rev. Henry Hiddings officiating. Burial was made in the Reichter cemetery near Talma in Newcastle township.

Cost per ton should not be the only buying guide for fertilizer this winter, say Purdue University agronomists. High analysis fertilizers cost more per ton, but less tonnage will be need to cover the field with the same amount of plant food, compared to a low analysis fertilizer, they point out.

ADVERTISE! IT PAYS!

Purdue University poultrymen suggest that special cockerel feeders be provided in hatching egg producing flocks. A male bird will usually eat his fill from a feeder that is just high enough that he can reach the feed in it, but the hens can't. An empty pound coffee can tacked on a post will do.

Fertilizer delivered in the winter for spring use should be stored on a dry floor and piled not more than eight bags high, say Purdue University agronomists. They advise keeping livestock away from stored fertilizer.

BEAVER DAM HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL

By Roger Nellans

On Tuesday night, December 17, the Beavers came home with a double victory from Deedsville. Beaver Dam put on a rally in the last half to win after being behind 36-24 at half-time. Larry Bibler continued to lead the Beavers' scoring by pumping in 36 points which is an all county high by an individual this season.

On the following Friday night Etna Green defeated the Beavers 63-47 at the Mentone gym. They played on fairly even terms throughout the first quarter, but the sharp shooting of Ronnie Hoffer and Jim Stouder coupled with the fine defensive work of Stine and Heisler proved too much for the Beavers. Hoffer led the game's scoring with 23 points while Bibler led the Beavers' attack with 19.

Roughages Cut Feed Costs

Some Indiana dairymen, short of hay this winter, are asking what results they will get if daily hay allowances are reduced and more grain fed.

G. A. Williams, Purdue University extension dairymen, calls attention to results of feeding trials conducted at the Belmont county, Ohio, experiment farm.

Jersey cows were fed 24 pounds of silage daily. They received also home-grown alfalfa hay and a grain mixture containing 14 percent protein. Two different rates of grain feeding were compared for 41 lactations by 17 cows.

Cows in the limited group received five pounds of grain for each 20 pounds of milk produced daily and 11 pounds of grain for 40 pounds production daily, with corresponding allowances for other levels of production. Cows in the liberal group received eight pounds of grain for 20 pounds of milk and 15 pounds of grain for 40 pounds of milk. Each cow was fed 24 pounds of silage daily and as much hay as she would consume.

The average production per cow was 8,765 pounds of milk for the limited group and 9,277 pounds for the liberal group. Weight gains during the lactation were greater for cows on the limited intake. All ages considered, higher production at lower costs resulted with limited grain feeding.

The daily grain allowance can be increased, Williams concludes, but costs also may be increased.

Use a heat lamp to warm the tractor engine for easier starting during cold weather, suggest Purdue University agricultural engineers.

BELL TO BUILD NEW ADDITION

Bell Aircraft Corporation has announced it is beginning construction immediately of a $2,500,000 addition to its main plant located on the Niagara Falls Boulevard in the Town of Wheatfield adjacent to the Niagara Falls, N. Y. airport.

The addition will contain about 220,000 square feet of floor space and will be erected at the eastern end of the present main manufacturing building.

Leston Faneuf, company president, said the new construction project is the third step in a program announced early this year for Bell Aircraft's long-range facility expansion and consolidation in the interest of increased efficiency of operation, growing technical demands and operating economy.

TO ALL OUR FRIENDS

Now . . . when echoes of the angel choir are heard throughout the land, it is time to pause and count our blessings. They are more numerous by far than we had imagined, for which we should be duly grateful.

And the employees and members of this concern are grateful to you for the happy relationship we have enjoyed during the year, and pledge ourselves to strive still more earnestly to deserve your continued friendship.

Boom In Skilled Jobs Due In 60's And 70's

A massive demand for workers in nearly every type of occupation and industry will come with the U. S. economic boom in the 60's and 70's, predict the editors of Changing Times. In a copyrighted article in the December issue of the magazine, the editors state that 10,000,000 jobs will be added to the work force by 1965, another 10,000,000 to 15,000,000 by 1975.

The well-educated and the highly skilled will have greater opportunities than ever before. Semiprofessional and semiskilled workers will be in heavy demand too. And openings will abound at all levels for women, for part-timers and for older employees.

In manufacturing, employment will be up 28% in 1965, 56% in 1975. The fastest growth will be in the manufacture of transport equipment, machinery, metal products, paper products and chemicals. The heaviest employment needs will be for semiskilled machine operators, including women, and for salespeople, managers and technicians.

New industries developing during the 60's and 70's will mean new jobs. One large company expects that 80% of its output ten years from now will be items not developed today.

In the atomic energy field, jobs will multiply with a strong demand for chemists, nuclear physicists, mathematicians, biochemists and nuclear and other kinds of engineers. Many semiprofessional technicians will be needed for inspection and decontamination teams.

Electronics manufacturing will require thousands of new engineers, draftsmen, office workers, as well as skilled and semiskilled plant workers.

Plastic-products manufacturing a relatively new industry, will hire faster than most other industries. Most openings will be for inexperienced workers who will be trained on the job.

There will be a big rise in construction where most jobs will be filled by craftsmen and other skilled workers.

Jobs in the wholesale and retail trades will swell 45% by 1975 with work at that time for more than 19,000,000 people in sales clerical and managerial positions.

Demand will grow in local and state governments for all kinds of teachers, nurses, engineers, office help, policemen, postmen, and skilled workers.

In the finance, insurance and real estate fields, jobs will increase by 80% in 1975. Nearly half the employees in this field are women.

Growth in the professional occupations has been three times as fast as for the rest of the work force, and swift expansion will continue. Biggest needs will be for teachers, engineers, natural and physical scientists, technicians and medical people.

In the clerical and sales occupations, the demand for operators of automatic data processing equipment will leap. The heavy turnover in stenographers, typists and secretaries will continue, assuring jobs for newcomers. The high turnover in sales occupations will provide a wide variety of openings.

The service occupations will continue to have heavy turnover, but most industries in this field will have lots of room for part-timers, women and older workers.

There will be a big need for all kinds of skilled workers, particularly for industrial machinery repairmen, electronics technicians business machine repairmen and building trades workers.

Although there will be more machines to do the work of people today, the over-all growth of the economy will pull up the slack. Machines will actually help double the output per worker in the next 25 years. Growth in the manufacturing industries will offset job reductions caused by automation. And demand will spurt for skilled hands to develop, produce, operate and repair the new machines in industry and the home.
