Heart Attack Fatal To Calvin D. Beltz

Calvin D. Beltz, aged 70, died suddenly at his home in Mentone at 5:30 o'clock Saturday evening, January 28. He was walking from the kitchen to the living room when the attack struck him, and he was pronounced dead a few minutes later. Several of his friends had seen him up town less than an hour before his death.

deceased was born in Ohio, 19, 1868, the son of David and Beltz. At an early age he moved to Indiana where he became owner of the Tippecanoe Grain Elevator. In 1890 he was united in marriage to Rosa Paulin who preceded him in death several years ago. After having the Elevator for twenty-five years he retired in 1918 and took up his residence in Mentone, where he became manager of the Mentone Cooperative Shipping Association. In 1934 he was united in marriage to Rhoda Moon, who survives. He was a member of the Mentone Baptist Church.

She's in Good Hands

Eight Good Years

Few people realize what the Northern Indiana Cooperative Association has done during its short span of life.

Its sales have been over $1,900,000.00.

It now gives employment to 23 people, and has paid for labor in Mentone over $86,000.00.

Its net profits have been over $124,000.00, all of which reverts back to the patrons.

At the conclusion of the first year's business the total assets were $17,873.97, but so great has been the growth that the total assets are now over $98,000.00.

Good years, yes, but the financial side isn't all. The greatest asset has been the harmony within the organization. Co-Op. business, plus Co-Op. harmony, equals a successful Co-Operative.

ELLIS BROWN PASSES AWAY

Ellis Brown, aged 55, died at his home five miles west of Warsaw Wednesday morning, January 25. Death was due to angina pectoris. He was the adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Brown and had spent his entire life in Kosciusko county.

He is survived by the widow, two sons, William and James, one daughter of Phoenix, Arizona.

Funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon at 2:00 p. m. with Rev. John Jones of Milford officiating. Burial was at Cook's chapel.

Transportation Halted By Old Mother Nature

Mentone and the surrounding country was blanketed in the heaviest snowfall in years Sunday night and the snow continued to fall heavily all day Monday. Men were busy clearing highways, but were faced with a mountainous task. Schools of northern Indiana and Illinois did not open their doors, due to the impassable country roads. Business was in a state of inertia but Mentone businessmen were having a merry time shoveling sidewalks and steps in front of the stores.

The deluge of snow took everyone by surprise and marooned many week-end visitors and Sunday night callers. Old residents are comparing this snow with snows of previous winters and chatting reminiscently of hazards brought on by the snow 'way back when'. Mentone's rural carrier did not leave to drive his route until nearly nine o'clock due to the fact that some of his mail was detained by the storm. Several cars became stalled in the heavy drifts at the main intersection of town. The N. I. C. A. trucks had to be shoveled out of the storage building and Coop. station manager Preisch and his assistant Doc Jefferies worked for hours shoveling nearly twelve inches of snow from the driveway around the pumps. Tucker's Dairy delivered their milk from a trailer, powered by an Allis-Chalmers tractor. Several Sunday night 'dates' were extended far into Monday.

No casualties have been reported, but the radio forecasts more snow and cold weather for us this week. Mother Nature has proved again that when she decides to assert her authority, there isn't much we can do about it.

WHAT WE THINK

(By Grank Dixon)

I once knew a man who believed that the earth was flat. All of the arguments and all of the proof that might be presented could not convince him that the earth was anything but flat. His friends used to delight to get him into an argument with a stranger just to hear him give his side of the case.

The thing I noticed about him was his very earnestness and conviction. There was no half way hesitation or faltering or halting between two opinions. He believed the earth was flat and his belief amounted to a conviction, a positive conviction, for which he was ready to take the stand and go to the mat, as we say, to prove it.

He was wrong, of course. His position was several hundred years behind the times. It went back to that day when everyone believed that the earth was flat and was prepared to prove it. The point about him that I wish to make was that he had a conviction for which he was willing to stand up and battle against all odds. He believed the thing and was willing to fight for it. I have often thought as I have heard him present his views vigorously, here at least is a man with a conviction, wrong, it is true, but at least a conviction.

I have often thought, too, that wrong though he was, he was ahead of many men of the community who never appeared to have a conviction upon any matter. They were neutral, lifeless drifters. They had no conviction about any matter of local interest. They had no conviction about the things of life and religion. In all such matters they were consistent, they merely drifted and drifted.

To me one of the most pathetic things in life is the young person without convictions in life or the matter of religion, and there are thousands of them today.

The young man who finished school without any conviction of the thing that he wants to do and continues to drift through life aimlessly, haphazardly, with no desire, no goal of any kind, is a tragic sight. All of his youth, his energy, his potential enthusiasm is lost because he does not have in his makeup that directing and centralizing force known as a conviction. Instead of centering his energies upon one thing and seeing it through he drifts in the great ocean of life like a ship whose sails are set and filled with wind but whose master's hand lies inert on the rudder, permitting the ship to drift with each changing wind hither and yon with no goal in sight. How tragically unsatisfactory and unprofitable is such a life.

I have seen many men like that in the matter of religion. They have never achieved a conviction about any important phase of the great philosophy of living. They have never met the issue squarely in their own minds. They have chosen to consistently dodge and evade the issue until finally evasion becomes a habit with them and they go through life without any real religious conviction. The tragic part of it is, that, lacking this, their religion never becomes a thing of much practical value to them. It is not a thing of strength and comfort and assurance, a thing that they can take into their lives and make a vital part of their living. They have failed to make it so because they have no abiding conviction.

THE NORTHERN INDIANA CO-OP. NEWS

Published Every Wednesday by Northern Indiana Co-Operative Association.

JESSIE RUSH, Editor and Mgr.

Back of every successful business is a man who has worked tirelessly and ceaselessly early and late, to whom there was no such thing as an eight hour or a six hour day, to whom there has been much of self denial and self sacrifice, and before whom there has ever been a vision of the thing he wished to accomplish.

A superior person, by the way, is one who puts everything he has, thought, energy, intelligence and concentration into the job he is called upon to do and isn't satisfied until he does it the very best he knows how.

It is always a good policy in business to collect in advance from the customer who "don't care what it costs" and then asks to charge it.

A plan to provide pensions of $200 a month would result in the idle receiving more than ninety per cent of the workers of the country. Few workers would be able to keep up appearances in company with the idle. It would create a situation contrary to all our time honored copy book philosophy.

A good deal has been said about the fact that a couple of boys got into the government mint at San Francisco recently. It should be remembered that access to the federal treasury is by no means as difficult as it used to be.

If you are glad to get back to your work after a holiday of a day or two it is a good sign that you enjoy the thing you are doing. Any man so situated is indeed fortunate.

Those who say that the winters were colder fifty years ago than they are today are correct. Scientists report that a careful check of average temperatures shows that the earth has become three and one-half degrees warmer in the past one hundred and seven years.

Give me the avowed, the erect manly foe,
Bold I can meet, —perhaps may turn his blow!
But of all plagues, good Heaven, thy wrath can send,
Save, Save, Oh save me from the candid friend.

Two Minute Sermon

By

Thomas Hastwell

CASTING SHADOWS: In the life of Peter, the apostle, it is told that as he became known for his good works people came to him from far and near to be healed, and some, unable to reach him because of the press of the crowd, prostrated themselves along the road that his shadow might fall upon them and they might be healed and blessed thereby.

Every one of us today casts a shadow of influence. Everyone who comes in contact with us comes under the spell of that influence whether it is good or bad, whether it is helpful or demoralizing. There is no neutrality, our influence is either good or it is bad. Each of us has observed his shadow as he has walked in the sunlight. Sometimes it is short and does not extend very far. At other times it extends a considerable distance. Long or short, both shadows are cast by the same person. So it is with us in daily life. We never know how the shadow of our influence may reach, but we do know what the influence of our shadow is. It is the responsibility of everyone to make that influence always what it should be—always like Peter's, a healing, cleansing shadow, an influence for the things that are fine, wholesome, good, and true.

HOROSCOPE

JANUARY 31, FEBRUARY 1—You have a marvelous power of fascination of the eye. If you can get anyone to look you in the eye you can rule them. You make up your mind hastily and often on second thought change it. You have a vein of skepticism in your nature. You are hospitable and fond of entertaining.

FEBRUARY 2, 3, 4—You have abilities for a real promotor. You have a line of conversation which can sell itself to the public. You have much artistic ability which you use equally well in your personal adornment as well as your home. You have a knack of purchasing at bargain prices and getting full value for what you sell.

FEBRUARY 5, 6—You are vain and like to wear good clothes. Your tastes are scientific and refined and you are fond of cultural social activities. Your ideas are not always practical. You have very economical tendencies. You seldom get behind a project unless you are assured of the success of the outcome. You take no chances. You would make a good educator or scientist.

They are grown in Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, Oklahoma, and Texas. Peanuts are used in making more than 300 products, including candies, cheese, instant coffee, pickles, oils, shaving lotion, dyes, lard, grease, wood stains, butter insulating boards and even gasoline.

We note that a number of the radio performers announce that they will refuse to perform over the radio unless their pay is considerably increased. We try not to be vindictive about such things but we can think of at least forty of these so called performers whom we believe could contribute considerably to the excellence of radio programs by going down strike.

The Blue Book suggests that the approved way to terminate an interview is for the busy person to rise to his feet but it doesn't say what a man should do if his visitor doesn't take the hint.

A new comer in this vicinity was in this office the other day, "I can't get used to this place," she said. "We have been here six months and only three persons have been in to call upon us. We don't like to call upon people first but it begins to look as though we would have to if we make many acquaintances here." We wonder if this is true.

The best trained children these days are just as likely as not to be found in the homes on the other side of the railroad tracks. The training the child gets does not depend on the size of the home he lives in so much as upon the kind of parents he lives with.

Acrobatic perfection is not usually regarded as an accomplishment necessary for the legislature but in no other way are we able to explain the headline which recently appeared in a state Capital daily: "Solon Holds Seat by the Skin of His Teeth."

THE SENIOR OF 1938

To the Seniors of last year we want to pay our highest tribute and want to wish them all the good luck and success we can give. We thought that you as readers would like to know what the Senior of last year are doing now.

Mary Alice Mosier has graduated from Laura Lee Beauty Culture and is now working in a beauty shop in Nappanee. Lucille Lightfoot, Mary Ellen Myers and Bob Tucker have entered Business College. Lola Moltenhour and Winifred McCutchen are attending the Wayne Beauty Culture School. Jean Eurns is attending the Western College in Oxford, Ohio. Sam Blue is going to law school at Indiana university.

The remaining members have local jobs or are spending this year at home, with the exception of Jeanette Blue who has taken up the duties of a housewife.

INFORMATION ON RESCUING A DROWNING PERSON

Two students of the Safety Class demonstrated artificial respiration before the class recently.

At this season of the year there is much danger of venturing out on ice that is too thin to support the weight placed upon it. By all means, avoid ice that has many air holes. Ice on rivers is always treacherous. When in doubt about the safety always carry some kind of a stick.

When games are played on the ice always avoid the grouping of players until the ice is thoroughly tested. Ice can be tested by forming a chain while a sufficient number of players stay on shore to help in case of an accident.

If one person falls through the ice it will naturally not support the weight of another person, so trying to rescue a drowning person is very dangerous. Therefore the rescuer must spread his weight over a large amount of space. A branch of a tree or any form of support should be pushed to the victim who has broken through if nothing of the sort can be found the rescuer should lie on the ice and spread his body over as much space as possible; never stand on the ice at this time. He should push himself along very slowly and carefully until he reaches the victim then pull the victim slowly out of the water allowing the ice to break away if it is not strong enough to support his weight.

However if the victim is under the ice it is almost hopeless but if the victim keeps his wit he will have a slim chance. He can press his lips against the bottom side of the ice and therefore be able to breathe because the hole which he has broken through will supply him with air. Then by moving against the current it may be possible for him to find the opening and with the aid of others can save himself.

GOCHENOUR'S TEAM WINS

HOME EC. QUESTION BOX

An interesting Experiment is being made by the seventh grade Home Economics class, who have started a question box. In this box each member places her girlhood questions. They are taken out and answered by different members of the class. The girls express their own views and opinions.

ACADEMIC BITS

The eighth grade government class is studying the Bill of Rights. The members of the class have been discussing the different parts of its contents. These students are bringing out many different points and also many interesting views.

The Senior Economics Class is studying the value of the Balance Sheet and profit and Loss Statement to the business man.

The Girl's Glee Club of eighteen members are working on several numbers which will be given with the musicale in the spring.

The High School Art Class is making various kinds of posters.

The seventh grade agriculture boys have completed plans for their gardens this summer. The plans include the layout of the gardens and the cost of the seeds and plants.

Agriculture boys are finishing this month's work in the shop.

The Senior Physics group is studying sound.

The eighty grade general science class is starting on the study of physiology and the care of the body.

Many students are wondering what their grades will be for this month because of the many new subjects which have been added.

The typing students are now typing to rhythm. Typing to rhythm gives the student an even touch which aids in developing speed and accuracy.

Mr. Mervil Smith acted as principal, during the absence of Mr. Kelley, who made a business trip to Ohio Wednesday.

First Spanish Bullfighter

Although tradition names the famous Cid as the original Spanish bullfighter, it is probable that the first Spaniard to kill a bull in the arena was Don Rodrigo Diaz de Vivar, who about 1040, was proficient with the lance in the sport. The first great professional bullfighter was Francisco Romero of Ronda in Andalusia, who introduced the estoque, the sword, and the muleta, the red flag.

Nickel Adds Strength

Nickel imparts toughness, strength and ductility to steel. When used in large amounts in steel it makes the metal resistant to heat and acids. Steel with nickel alloy is used for tools and machinery parts. The United States uses 50 per cent of the world output of nickel, importing chiefly from Canada, Norway, and New Caledonia.

Ancient and Honorable Artillery

The Ancient and Honorable Artillery company was organized in 1637 and was then called the Military company of Boston. It was a company formed of the leading citizens of the city of Boston and later the organization took part in the American Revolution. The company never joined the Massachusetts militia, but remained a separate organization. It is now composed of descendants of the founders.

Two Minute Sermon

By
Thomas Hastwell

A MAN IN THE MAKING: I like the story of the life of Peter the apostle. To me it is the true picture of the life of a man. It is a true picture because it shows his weakness as well as his strong and admirable qualities. It is the story of a man taken as an unlearned fisherman by the Christ and developed step by step until he became one of the towering figures in history. We see him cocksure one hour that nothing could ever shake his loyalty, and the next hour we hear him vigorously deny the Christ. The events that happened afterward took from him all his superficial confidence and burned into his heart and soul convictions that remained with him throughout life.

So it is with men today. The experiences of life purge from them the false, and the superficial, and bring in their place the sane, sound, clearer convictions that remain. We are prone to protest against the difficulties, the obstacles, and the griefs, and heart breaks that come our way, but often, very often, they are the things that take out of our lives the petty, and the little, and the false things and bring in their place the true, and the good, and the fine things that remain with us through life and make us ever after stronger, more confident, and more secure in our convictions and beliefs. We do not understand them because we do not see their purpose and cannot foresee their results.

HOROSCOPE

FEB. 7-8-9—You have a fine, active mind but inclined to be sly and tricky. You have large ideas which you fail to carry to completion. You have high ideals, musical and artistic abilities.

FEB. 10-11-12—You are selfish and like to dominate others. You always think your own way best and blame failures upon others. You have an action disposition and can be courteous and affable if it will work to your interests. You have great possibilities which will develop sometime.

IT'S HERE! The NEW Firestone CHAMPION TIRE

with the NEW Safety-Lock Cord Body and NEW Gear-Grip Tread

Stronger Cord Body
More Non-Skid Mileage

Plus FAMOUS
TRIPLE-SAFE
CONSTRUCTION

FLOYD ROBERTS
1938 National Race Champion

Champion race drivers, whose very lives and chances of victory depend on tire safety, know tire construction and that is why they select and buy Firestone Tires for their racing cars.

FIRESTONE triumphs again! This time with the new Firestone Champion, the tire that sets the safety standards for 1939. This new tire provides a combination of safety features never before built into a tire. It is a completely new achievement in safety engineering.

From the experience gained on the speedways of the world and in the Firestone laboratories, Firestone engineers have developed a revolutionary new type of cord body called Safety-Lock, which provides amazingly greater strength. This outstanding achievement makes possible the use of a thicker, tougher, deeper tread which assures much greater non-skid mileage. Because of this new Safety-Lock Cord body and Gear-Grip tread, the modern streamlined Firestone Champion Tire establishes completely new standards of blowout protection, non-skid safety, silent operation and long mileage.

The Firestone Champion Tire embodies the famous Firestone Triple-Safe construction — you get the exclusive and patented Firestone construction features of Gum-Dipping, two extra layers of Safety-Lock cords under the tread and Gear-Grip tread design. Never in all the history of tire building has there been such a triple-safe combination to protect you against the dangers of blowouts, punctures and skidding.

Come in today and equip your car with a set of new Firestone Champion Tires — the only tires made which are safety proved on the speedway for your protection on the highway.

through moving traffic, may save a few seconds but may lose his life in the effort. Crossing streets between intersections and through traffic is the principal cause of pedestrian accidents. Many traffic ordinances grant the right-of-way to pedestrians at crosswalks, but require that walkers grant the right-of-way to vehicles between intersections.

3—Crosses streets at right angles.

Crossing through an intersection diagonally, instead of crossing each street at right angles, is a form of "Jay Walking" which has resulted in frequent accidents and many deaths. When an individual is walking at an angle in the path of oncoming vehicles, it is difficult for the approaching motorist to judge just how soon and where their paths may cross. Furthermore, this unsafe practice requires the walker to cross several paths of vehicular turning movements.

4—Uses care in getting on and off vehicles in moving traffic. While all pedestrians are not street car riders or motorists, all passengers of these vehicles, at some time, become pedestrians. Where no safety zones are provided, standing near the tracks instead of going as quickly as possible to the nearer curb, places one in the midst of traffic when the car moves. Crossing behind or in front of a car which obstructs the view of approaching motorists may result in serious accidents. For safety, passengers leaving motor vehicles alight at the curb.

When crossing streets, it is important that the walker observes moving traffic and makes sure that he can cross safely. On two-way streets, he looks first to the left, then to the right, remembering that the first line of vehicles which he will encounter will be coming from his left. As he reaches the center of the street he glances to the right to determine if he can reach the curb in safety. On one-way streets, he looks in the direction of oncoming traffic.

The remaining five rules for safe walking will appear in this column next week.

Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise: Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler, provide her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest—Proverbs 6:6-8.

It seems there are few things that contribute more to a man's enjoyment than a comfortable pair of old shoes.

It requires a pretty unusual college to make anything out of a young man or a young woman whom father and mother have thoroughly spoiled before sending him to college.

The family who went broke trying to keep up with the Jones's is still even with the Jones's. The Jones are broke too.

Alas the fearful unbelief is unbelief in yourself.—Thomas Carlyle.

A unique experiment was conducted recently by Rev. Grant Robinson of the Methodist church of Walton, New York. Rev. Robinson caused to be passed among the congregation collection plates loaded with one dollar bills. He invited the 127 members of his congregation each to take one dollar—invest it and return it with the earnings in three months. The 127 members returned $604. Every dollar came back and with it a 375 per cent profit.

The story is told of a London missionary society which recently received a report from the interior of Africa telling of the visit of the missionary to an old cannibal chief. The missionary told the old chief of the World War, and how thousands of people were killed because of it. "But how could so much human meat be eaten?" the old chief asked. "We whites do not eat human beings," the missionary replied. "Do not eat them" the cannibal chief exclaimed, "then why do you kill them?"

Did you know American investments in Germany are said to total $228,000,000.

Two Minute Sermon

By
Thomas Hastwell

•IT IS GOOD: In the first chapter of Genesis is told the story of the creation of the world. After the earth was created, we are told, the Lord looked upon it and said: "It is good." What man has not, in a measure at least, had a like experience, when, following the completion of a task or a day's work he has looked back upon his work and truly said, "It is good. It is well done." What finer reward can come to any worker than his own inward approval of "Well done?" The satisfaction, the commendation, the reward of self approval is a compensation so satisfying that no one who has ever experienced it would ever wish to forego it. To the true workman there is nothing more satisfying. Thus should every day be lived, lived in such a way that we can look back upon it when night comes and say: "It is good." It is only in such days is there found real satisfaction, true happiness and content.

IT'S A HIT! The NEW Firestone CHAMPION TIRE

Because IT'S THE ONLY TIRE MADE WITH THE NEW SAFETY-LOCK CORD BODY and GEAR-GRIP TREAD

CAR OWNERS everywhere are acclaiming the extra blowout protection and non-skid safety of the new Firestone Champion Tire. And automobile manufacturers, knowing its outstanding performance, have adopted it for their new 1939 models. On every hand you hear, "It's the most effective tire we have ever had on wet pavement and in mud and snow!" It's the hit of 1939!

The Firestone Champion Tire is a completely new achievement in safety engineering and the result of a new and revolutionary means of locking greater safety into the cord body of a tire. This is accomplished first by the use of a new type of tire cord called "Safety-Lock," in which the cotton fibers are more compactly interwoven to give greater strength. And then the fibers in each individual cord, the cords in each ply and the plies themselves are all securely locked together by a new and advanced Firestone process of Gum-Dipping, which provides amazingly greater strength—and greater strength means greater safety.

The new Safety-Lock cord construction gives the added strength that makes possible the use of the new thicker, tougher, deeper Firestone Gear-Grip Tread, which provides remarkably longer non-skid mileage. This sensational new tread is called "Gear-Grip" because of its unique design which has more than three thousand sharp-edged angles that grip the road with a sure-footed hold to protect against skidding and to assure a safe stop.

Come in today and equip your car with a set of new Firestone Champion Tires, the only tires made that are safety-proved on the speedway for your protection on the highway.

The final mailings of patronage dividends for the 1938 year of the NORTHERN INDIANA COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION was made last week.

There have been a few inquiries by persons who found dividends were set up to their credit, and perhaps a general explanation is in order.

The NORTHERN INDIANA COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION is purely cooperative, which among other things means that in the distribution of surplus profit or patronage dividends, all patrons receive dividends of the amount of purchases made. Almost 2000 people were customers or patrons of the Association in 1938 and consequently each person's purchases earned a dividend. In some cases these were small and in others large.

Where the customer was not already a stockholder and his dividends did not equal $25 or one share of stock, such dividends were set up in the customer's name until such time as dividends accumulate to an amount equal to the par value of a share of stock. In many cases the dividends of a non-stockholder amounted to more than a share of stock and he was issued a share of stock and the balance in cash.

Stock in the NORTHERN INDIANA COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION is non-assessable which relieves the stockholder of liability further than the share of stock itself. Ownership of a $25 share of stock entitles the owner to 8% interest on the investment and where the patronage dividend was less than enough for a share of stock, several have paid the difference so that they might receive the 8% interest per year which each share of stock earns.

Thanks to our customers, 1938 was a pleasant and successful year and we hope to be better able to serve you in 1939.

Co-operatively yours,
No. Ind. Co-Op. Ass'n.

Mentone High School News Items

EDITOR: Mary Deaton.

The month of February is the month in which we celebrate the birthdays of two of the greatest presidents. We honor these men for that which they did for their country. Why can't more of us be Lincoln's and Washington's, willing at any cost to give our lives for our fellow-men and our country. A certain poet who lived in the century before Christ, wrote in a poem, "It is sweet and glorious to die for one's country." The love for one's country has lived through all ages. If all could think as Nathan Hale whose dying words were "I only regret that I only have one life to give for my country!" This expresses the feeling of true patriots of all lands and ages.

There is no finer quality of love for country than that which inspires men and women to be good citizens; such a patriotism makes them sacrifice leisure, pleasure, money, and personal preferences to serve the state. It makes voting and intelligent study of the problems of the day a sacred duty. To the right-minded person, there are no points of the compass on the chart of true patriotism.

The spirit of Patriotism should be cultivated in the lives of children as well as adults. The spirit of patriotism should be started in the hearts and minds of children in the home. They should have access to books and magazines which will instill noble ideals and inspire them to heroic living. The boy who sees his father evading the law or neglecting his duties as a citizen will naturally follow in the same footsteps.

A good example of patriotism is found in the story of "The Leak In The Dyke." Here a small boy who heard water trickling through a hole in the dyke, placed his tiny hand in the hole to stop the water. The absence of the boy aroused the parents, so they went to search for him. When the boy was found he was almost dead from exposure. This boy would rather have given his life for his fellow country-men than to have saved his own life. Why can't we try to be more patriotic?

AN ACT OF COURTESY

Monday morning our high school Art teacher was following a school bus to school. After having stopped for the loading of school children in Palestine, her car would not continue on the journey for some unknown reason. Mr. Ward, the bus driver, after continuing on his route noticed that Miss Dohner's car was still stalled in the middle of the road. Mr. Ward returned and aided the motorist in her task. Mr. Ward must have been a magician because after the first step on the starter the car went speeding down the road. Magicians come in handy, don't you think? Thank you Mr. Ward for your splendid act of courtesy.

It was recently announced that a gadget had been perfected by which driving may be controlled from the back seat. It is not every man who has the temerity to refer to his back seat driving controller as a gadget.

A local subscriber of ours, when he read here recently that certain radio artists were going on a strike for higher pay exclaimed, "Higher pay, heavens have they been getting paid for that stuff?"

There are thousands of cases on record where careless drivers have been arrested and fined and even imprisoned, but there is no record of a careless pedestrian being fined for careless walking. If the truth were known there are perhaps more careless pedestrians than there are careless car drivers.

When a boy fails to make good grades in school his mother blames his teachers. When he fails to make good after he gets out of school she blames his wife.

May we point out the fact that the gals in the advertisements who model foundation garments invariably have figures that don't need foundation garments anyway.

Some folks seem to have the idea that all it takes to make a home is a new house with a lot of new furniture and carpets. If this were true the building of a livable home would be a simple matter. The charm of a home does not consist of expensive furnishings, but in abiding love, and the spirit of hospitality which pervade, to shed their charm on common place things.

Our grandmothers would have called it "Ferdinand the animal."

WHEN THEY FOLLOW AFAR OFF: On the night when Christ was arrested in the garden, taken prisoner by the soldiers from the midst of a group of his disciples and dragged before Pilate, his disciple and friend Peter, followed him, as the story goes afar off. But a short time before when Peter was with his Lord he was sure of himself, he was confident of his strength, he declared he would never be tempted to deny him. The story tells us that only a few hours later as he followed Christ and his captors afar off he denied to the woman who questioned him that he ever saw him. The secret of Peter's strength and confidence a few hours before, lay in the fact that he was near his Lord. His doubt and fear and denial came when he followed afar off.

How like many people today. They protest their allegiance to Christ when they near him and with his followers, but as soon as they begin following afar off, as soon as they permit un-christian things to come between themselves and Christ their faith weakens and they deny him. Not in the open manner that Peter did perhaps, but just as effectively by their surrender of principle, their wavering and their doubt. They are sure of themselves and confident until they begin following Him afar off.

A WISE PEDESTRIAN— (Continued from last week)

7—Does not stand in the street. Sidewalks and crosswalks are provided for pedestrians, whereas the remainder of the street surface is provided primarily for the movement of vehicles. Many accidents have resulted because pedestrians have stopped in the street to talk or look around. The practice of standing in the street to beg rides of motorists has resulted in many serious accidents. The safe walker stays out of the street whenever he can, only entering it when he is able to cross in a safe manner.

8—Teaches children not to play in the streets.

Nearly five thousand children are killed annually by automobiles. The majority of child accidents on streets and roads occur in the afternoon after school. Many result from the practice of playing and running in the streets. Adequate provision for children to play safely in yards, playgrounds and recreational centers will prevent many of these unfortunate accidents. In addition, the careful parent will teach his child how and where to play safely and will always set a proper example to children.

9—Walks against, instead of with traffic on open highways.

On roads and highways where no sidewalk exists, the safe walker keeps off the paved portion of the road when ever possible. He also walks on the left side of the road so he can see approaching vehicles in time to take proper care of himself. If an individual walks on the right side of the road, he may be overtaken by vehicles which he cannot see approaching. When near a curve or obstruction to sight, the safe walker is careful to prevent stepping into the path of any oncoming car.

10—Uses particular precaution at night.
