BETTER HOMES CLUB HEARS MRS. GLASSLEY

Mrs. Clarence Horn entertained the Better Homes Club Thursday afternoon at her home, she was assisted by Mrs. Harley Walburn.

The meeting opened by community singing led by Mrs. George Fryer. The creed was repeated by all, then devotions were given by Mrs. Cleo Drudge and Mrs. Keith Hollingsworth. The song of the month "Suzanna" was given and sung. Roll call was answered by each member telling their own fortune. The Club voted to donate $10 to the polio fund. The lesson on aluminum etching was given by Mrs. Glassley.

Lovely refreshments were served to 16 members and two guests, Mrs. Kermit Biddinger and Mrs. Nancy Warren, and two children.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Victor Tobey, with Mrs. Keith Hollingsworth as assistant hostess.

JOLLY JANES CELEBRATE

The Jolly Janes each received an invitation from the program committee Mrs. Earl Anderson, Mrs. Loren Tridle and Mrs. T. J. Clutter, to meet at the home of Mrs. Tridle Wednesday evening January 31, at 6:30. The invitation requested each member to come dressed just as she was when it was read.

Fifteen members gathered at the designated place, dressed in house dresses and wearing their most comfortable everyday shoes.

With Mrs. Tridle in the lead car and the rest in the several other cars, we headed south on road 19 to what is called Lover's Lane, and I might add, a rather rough and rugged lane. The "parade" then turned north on the Burket road to 25 and back to Mentone ending at the home of Mrs. T. J. Clutter.

Here the other members of the committee, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Clutter were putting the finishing touches on a very delicious dinner prepared to celebrate the beginning of the Jolly Janes fifth year as a club.

Following dinner, we retired to the living room where games were played. After an evening of hilarious fun eighteen happy and well-fed Jolly Janes bid each other "good-night" and went home.

HAS PUZZLING MALADY

Johnnie Gosser, 5 year old son of Rev. and Mrs. Gosser, had several members of his family completely nonplussed recently.

Johnnie and his father had gone to the doctor's office for an examination, as Johnnie was suffering with an irritating and painful affliction. After the examination, Johnnie rushed on home to break the bad news to the family.

When Rev. Gosser arrived a few moments later, he found a breathless and some what exasperated Johnnie and a very puzzled household, who immediately asked to have the situation made clear. Johnnie had been telling them his ailment was "Roofings", and they could make neither head nor tail of the case. Rev. Gosser soon cleared the case by explaining that young Johnnie was suffering with the "Shingles". Johnnie's understanding was good but his explanation somewhat confusing.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baker attended the Indiana Hardware Dealers' Convention in Indianapolis last Thursday. On Friday evening they went to South Bend where they enjoyed the Bendix Home Appliance demonstration.

CLAIM POTATOES MAKE GOOD LIVESTOCK FEED

Farmers are getting returns up to $1 a hundred pounds and more from "white elephant" spuds worth from nothing to 40 cents a hundred on the market. Capper.s Farmer says that low-grade potatoes are worth more as livestock feed than as food for humans.

"Feeders spread spuds in the sun, on airstrips or hard ground, to dry," says the nationally-circulated farm magazine. "They'll dehydrate even in a fairly damp climate. In the Midwest and South it's whole fresh potatoes for cattle and sheep, cooked potatoes for hogs and poultry and potato silage for all kinds of stock."

"Newest trick in feeding cull potatoes is to dry them by open-air freezing. Spuds are spread out, 2 to 3 inches deep, in a field in freezing weather. Freezing ruptures cell wall and juice drains into the ground. No carbohydrates are lost. Potatoes shrivel up into hard lumps that keep indefinitely in the open."

"In July and August, when pastures are brown, cattle eat them readily. Beef cattle on the Arden Burbidge farm, Walsh county, North Dakota, gained 2.07 pounds a day for 72 days on pasture and frozen spuds. His hogs gained more than a pound a day on frozen potatoes and a little protein supplement."

"At Colorado A & M College, lambs on dried potatoes and alfalfa gained 7 pounds more per head in 84 days than the check lot on shelled corn and alfalfa."

"Demand for eating potatoes stays about the same regardless of price," the story points out. "In normal-to-big crop years, producers can afford to practically give away culls and low-grade spuds for livestock feed rather than ruin the market for good grades by selling them for table use. In an average year, says the USDA, 50 million bushels could be classed as culls."

INTERESTING SPEAKER AT LIONS CLUB MEETING

Mrs. Fawns, of Akron, who lived in Korea for many years, gave a very interesting and thought-provoking address before the Mentone Lions club Wednesday evening. She has a story which every American citizen should hear, and every club would do well to have her appear on an early program.

NEVADA SENATOR TO BE LINCOLN DAY SPEAKER

U. S. Sen. Geo. W. Malone, of Nevada, will be the Lincoln Day speaker at a dinner to be given at the Eskimo Inn at Winona Lake Feb. 17. Tickets for the dinner will be $1.75 and reservations must be made by Feb. 15. Send remittance to Pauline Jordan, Warsaw.

PLAN AMERICANISM MEETING

The American Legion Auxiliary believes that the principles and ideals upon which the American republic was founded, and for which American blood has been shed, are still the cornerstones of our democracy, and as such should be safeguarded for the welfare of our future generations. Having had a loved one in war, our rehabilitation and child welfare programs and our tragic personal contacts with the results of war make us fully realize that freedom and democracy can only be maintained by a well-informed public and a nation prepared to protect its ideals.

The Mentone unit cordially invites the citizens of Mentone and the surrounding community to participate in an Americanism meeting which is to be held in the Mentone High School assembly on February 13 at eight o'clock. Mr. Dale Kelley will be the speaker for the evening. A film entitled "The Power Behind A Nation" will also be shown. Please come and join us in this patriotic observance and share in the spirit of this Americanism program.

☆ FOR IMPROVED FEED EFFICIENCY . . .

Improved feed-gain ratios up to 5% for chicks and 10% for poult were obtained in controlled feeding tests.

☆ FOR GREATER UNIFORMITY . . .

More birds attained the heavier weights and there were fewer small birds in the test flocks which received Antibiotic Feed Supplement in their mash.

☆ FOR HEALTHIER BIRDS . . .

Fewer culls resulted from use of Antibiotic Feed Supplement in Master Mix mash listed. The principal benefit of Antibiotic Activity is its capacity to check growth of harmful organisms in the bird's digestive system. It is believed that restricting those harmful bacteria not only gives beneficial organisms a better chance to grow but means more of the nutrients can be utilized for growth of the bird. Regardless of how it is accomplished, the tests prove it does promote growth.

Antibiotic Feed Supplement does not replace Methio-Vite. This exclusive feature of Master Mix feeds contains Condensed Fish Solubles which supplies Vitamin B-12 and other factors so essential to proper development and rapid growth.

Addition of Antibiotic Feed Supplement to these quality mash containing Methio-Vite gives you improved feeds which will produce better results and greater profits for feeders.

ATTENDANCE PARTY

The country Neighbor's Attendance party was held Wednesday evening with the losers entertaining the winners.

The winners had received several cards written backwards telling them to wear print dresses and to meet at the home of their leader, Mrs. Carl Zolman, at 6 p. m. The winners not knowing where the party was to be were then picked up by three of the losers and taken to the house of Mrs. Frank Nellans where the other losers were waiting. Entering the back door was a sign informing us that it was to be a backwards party. We were then taken to the basement where we left our wraps and were informed that we were all to put our dresses on backwards for the rest of the evening. We were then taken up stairs and seated at a table for our dinner. Being a backwards party our dinner was served backwards, first our desert of apple pie and ice cream, then our main course of fried chicken and all the trimmings, then our appetizer. Our silverware consisted of a large wooden spoon and fork and our coffee being served in a 2 cup dipper. The fork, spoon and dipper were taken home by the winners as gifts from the losers. The table cloth was of paper and our only lights were two oil lamps on either end of the table. After dinner we adjourned to the living room where we were entertained by a radio program Station C. N. S. The master of Cermonies Mrs. Don McNeil played by Mrs. James Richardson. The program was opened with a toy band which consisted of most anything from a wash tub to the little brown jug. Other features on the program was the lady of magic tricks, Madam Zo Zo by Mrs. Earl Zent, also our dancer from the south seas. There were also several interesting interviews. The party then adjourned with pictures being taken of the winners and losers. This party proves very worth while in keeping our attendance high through out the club year. We had perfect attendance for our party. Those present were: winner: Mrs. Carl Zoleman, leader; Mrs. J. A. Teel, Mrs. Allen Herendeen, Mrs. Richard Notz, Mrs. Henry Konneck, Mrs. Bessie Gross, Mrs. Glen Law, Mrs. Russel Walters, Mrs. Charles Shock, Mrs. Wilber Utter, Mrs. Fay Long, Mrs. Isabelle Peterson, Mrs. LeRoy Norris, and Mrs. Roy Maxwell. LEGION AUXILIARY NEWS

Mentone Unit No. 425, The American Legion Auxiliary, presented an Americanism program Tuesday evening, February 13, in the Assembly Room of the Mentone School. The meeting was open to the general public and many residents of the Mentone community were present in spite of the inclement weather.

Mr. Dale Kelley was the speaker of the evening, and his address received the applause of the audience. Mr. Kelley recalled the hardships undergone by the early settlers in opening our country, pushing back the frontiers of civilization through the wilderness. He stressed that the United States we now live in, rich and strong now in material wealth, is the last strong citadel of freedom, and that it is a heritage handed down by the past to present generations, whose duty it now is to defend it.

Another feature of the program was the showing of the Warner Brothers Technicolor film, "Power Behind the Nation".

The program for the evening included: Advance of Colors, American Legion; Pledge to Flag, Boy Scouts, led by Frank Manwaring; Welcome, Mrs. Robert Whetstone; History of the Star Spangled Banner, Mrs. James Rodibaugh; Star Spangled Banner, Mrs. Jack Shaffer; Introduction of Speaker, Mrs. Miles Manwaring; Address, Mr. Dale Kelley; Americanism Chairman, Mrs. Miles Manwaring; Girls State Chairman, Mrs. Allen Shirey; Battle Hymn of the Republic, Unison; Film, "Power Behind the Nation"; God Bless America, Unison; and Retirement of Colors, American Legion.

The Americanism Chairman, Mrs. Miles Manwaring, spoke briefly on the Americanism work of the Auxiliary. She emphasized the activities of the Five-Point program which the Auxiliary participates in, those are—Americanism in the Home, Unit, Youth Groups, Adult Groups and in the Community. The subject and title: "Holding Fast to Our Ideals of Freedom" has been selected for the Americanism Essay Contest for the year 1951. All pupils of Junior or High School age shall be eligible to compete.

Mrs. Allen Shirey, Girls' State Chairman, gave a brief summary of the Girls' State program sponsored by the Auxiliary. She then introduced Madeline Holt last year's Girl Stater. Madeline spoke enthusiastically of her experiences while attending Girls' State. Martha Creighton is the girl who has been chosen as delegate for this year's attendance. Her alternate will be Geneva Whetstone. Mrs. Miles Manwaring was program chairman for the evening.

A short business session was held at the conclusion of the Americanism meeting by the members of the Auxiliary. Mrs. Robert Whetstone, president, presided at the meeting. An invitation from the Piercetown Unit to an Americanism meeting to be held at Piercetown on March 27, at the Menzie Reece Post Home No. 258, at Piercetown, was read. The Unit members who are planning to attend will meet at the Mentone Post Home on the above date at 7:00 o'clock.

There will be no meeting of the Mentone unit on March 27.

Note: The American Legion has made other plans for food for the Kosciusko County Council which is to meet at the Mentone Legion Home, Sunday, February 18. Please do not bring any food.

WIFE FINDS HUSBAND
IN OVERTURNED AUTO

About the only physical damage was fright Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Elmer Hoffman was the first to greet her husband when his auto skidded on the icy highway and overturned.

It seems Mr. Hoffman was returning home, south of Sevastopol when Mrs. Hoffman and Mrs. Igo were going the opposite direction to a club meeting. Before the autos met the one coming from the north was seen to go into the ditch and turn over on its side. Mrs. Hoffman failed to recognize the overturned auto as their own and was quite surprised when she opened a door and looked down at her husband. Said husband, we are told, was amused, either at the situation or for the fact that he wasn't injured.

TELEPHONE BUSINESS OFFICE HOURS STATED

E. H. Gochnour, commercial manager of the Indiana Associated Telephone corporation was a caller at our newspaper office Wednesday morning. He explained that our local operators are now on the company employee plan which will enable them to get the company insurance and benefits.

In an advertisement elsewhere in the Co-Op News the new business office hours are published for the information of the patrons.

It is hoped, in the near future, to have two operators working at the board each day, and also a special night operator.

Mr. Gochnour said that it has taken many months to install the replacement made necessary by the sleet storms, but that the new materials used will hold up much better.

The telephone corporation is aware of the needs in each community and is doing all possible to meet these needs. It will take time and patience but, eventually, these needs will be met.

SCHOOL NEWS

Martha Creighton has been selected to represent Mentone at the Indiana Girls' State at Bloomington, Indiana, June 27-July 5. Geneva Whetstone has been selected as alternate. The high school faculty made the selection. Bonita Miner will represent Mentone High School on Monday, February 19 at the Indiana General Assembly as a page. She has been given this honor by Mr. Rarick, State Representative from Kosciusko County.

There have been several pupils moving into or out of the community. Dean Gary and Noretta Shively entered school from Warsaw. Mary, Ester and Donald Quier have entered Mentone from the Mishawaka schools. Earl Shirey has transferred to Fort Wayne.

Mr. Burt has arranged a four team tourney of the second team squads of Burket, Atwood, Etna Green and Mentone in the local gym this Saturday.

The games start at 1:30 and 7:30. The local boys won their fifth game of the season at Claypool by a score of 71-38. The second team also won. The games with Milford this Friday start at 7 in the local gym.

Sectional tourney tickets will go on sale at the Principal's office this Friday morning. The price of tickets this year is $2.50 (16 team tourney). It is thought there will be sufficient supply of tickets to satisfy the local demand. The Sectional begins on Wednesday evening, February 21. There will be no school on Friday, February 23 due to the tourney.

The soloists who are entering the contest at Walkerton will give a rehearsal of their numbers for the high school on Thursday of this week at 12:30. The public is invited to attend any assembly programs at any time.

Mr. Burt, Mr. Kent, Mr. Tucker, ten of the first string basketball squad and the student manager attended the annual fish fry for all Sectional Tourney teams held at Claypool on Monday evening. Fred Schaus and Murray Mendenhall of the Fort Wayne Zollners were the main speakers.

FHA held a regular meeting at the school on Monday evening.

Movies shown this week have been "You and Your Friends", "Bookkeeping and Accounting", "Art in Abstraction", and two films loaned through the courtesy of Mr. Gosser and the Boy Scouts "The Constitution of the United States" and "The Bill of Rights".

THE PRAYING MANTIS

The Praying Mantis gets his name from the way in which he holds his forelegs together, as though he were saying his prayers. But that's only the way it looks to human beings. What the Mantis really has on his mind is a meal of insects, and he has his forelegs in readiness to reach out and snare his victims.

The two limbs are good weapons for this purpose, because they are studded with sharp hooks. The Mantis keeps them folded back, partly hidden, while he stalks his prey. When he sees what he wants, he waits until he has the insect within reach. Then he sticks his forelegs out, grabs the victim, pins it between the sets of hooks, and pulls it to his hungry mouth.

The Praying Mantis especially likes to catch flies, mosquitoes, grasshoppers, and katydids, but now and then he makes a meal of a caterpillar. He is death on spiders, too, though they have their own poisonous fangs with which to fight.

So it is easy to see why the National Wildlife Federation lists the Praying Mantis as a real friend to man. The strange fellow is not only harmless to human beings, but he also destroys many insects which do cause trouble. You yourself may know a gardener who likes to have Mantises living among his plants to keep down the pests.

The Mantis has his troubles, however. There are wasps and flies which feed on Mantis eggs. Ants eat tiny Mantises which have just hatched, and some birds devour Mantises of all sizes.

Despite these losses, the Mantises seem to have no difficulty in thriving. One reason is that they lay so many eggs. The female Mantis deposits a patch of anywhere from 100 to 1,000 tiny eggs on a twig, a fence rail, or an old board. She covers the cluster with a coating of glue which hardens and protects the eggs.

All this happens in the fall, finds the National Wildlife Federation. Unless they are destroyed, the eggs stay where they are through the winter, and finally hatch out in May or June. The young Mantises grow slowly and do not reach full size until August.

The adult Mantis is about two inches long, and may be either green or brown in color. Besides his pronged forelegs, he has a pair of spindly hindlegs which are used in walking and leaping. For longer jaunts, he can fly with the aid of four wings.

The fore part of his thin body has the appearance of a long neck. At the top of this is a tiny head with two beady eyes and a pair of short feelers. He can turn his head in all directions—front, sideways, and backwards—as he looks for insects.

Interesting information about other species can be obtained by writing to the National Wildlife Federation, Washington 10, D. C.

Grain Crops

Famine and severe food shortages are generally very closely associated with failure of the grain crops from which both man and domestic livestock derive a large part of their total food supplies.

Marco Polo Remarked
In 1275, that gallivanting gallant, Marco Polo, had this to say about the great hall of Kublai Khan: "The walls are sculptured and varnished in green, decorated with gilded dragons. The columns are incrustated with a sort of paste, coated with red varnish."

HOLD SCOUT COURT OF HONOR

Impressive was the Boy Scout Court of Honor held at the Methodist Church Scout room on Monday evening, February 12th when the scouts received their badges for work accomplished. The meeting was called to order by Wayne Tombaugh who is Scout Commissioner of Mentone, Atwood and Etna Green. After prayer by Rev. Milton Dowden and group singing led by Roland Ferwerda, chairman of the Troop committee, Mr. Clarence Hartman was introduced. Mr. Hartman is the County Boy Scout Commissioner. Another guest was Mr. Cecil Armstrong spoke on the subject of cub scouting. Rev. David P. Gosser, the Scout Master presented the Boy Scouts in a program consisting of the flag salute, the Boy Scout oath, and an impressive ceremony in which each scout lighted a candle and gave a scout law and connotations of the laws and insignia. The Boy Scouts also gave demonstrations of their work, and especially effective were the demonstrations of Morris code by flashlight and buzzer and the field semaphore signals.

When Rev. Gosser presented the awards the mothers accepted them for their sons who in turn presented their mothers with a lovely large red carnation and a pin-emblem similar to their award. Rev. Gosser was assisted by Assistant Scout Masters James Rodibaugh and Kenneth Simcoe. The fol-

Mrs. Lyman Mollenhour accepted Terry Utter's award for Mrs. Utter who is in Florida and Robert Holloway's Aunt, accepted for Mrs. Holloway who is ill.

Lovely refreshments were served by the troop committee Roland Ferwerda, Ora McKinley, Richard B. Manwaring, Dr. F. B. Davison and Assistant Scout Masters Kenneth Simco and James Rodibaugh. Others who assist with the work are Denton Abbey, Assistant Scoutmaster, and Dr. Dan Urschel, the institutional representative.

CIVIL SERVICE NURSES

The Sixth Region Office, U. S. Civil Service Commission, Cincinnati, Ohio, today announced examinations for General Staff Nurse and Head Nurse with salaries ranging from $3100 to $3825 per year. The rapidly expanding defense program is resulting in current and anticipated vacancies in these positions in Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky. The need for Nurses to care for our returning veterans is urgent.

No written test is required. Applicants will be judged from a review of their experience, education and training in the field of nursing, and related subjects or occupations.

Further information may be obtained from the examination announcement. Applications forms and information concerning how to file for these examinations may be obtained from the Commission's Local Secretary, Mrs. Tom Standford located at Mentone; from any first- or second-class post office or from the Civil Ser-

MAIL THOSE SPORTSMEN'S QUESTIONNAIRES

More than 25,000 Hoosier Conservationists will by this time have received Sportsman's Questionnaires from the Pittman-Robertson Wildlife Research Project, Division of Fish and Games, Indiana Department of Conservation.

These questionnaires are mailed annually to a cross-section of Indiana's hunting, fishing and trapping enthusiasts. Names are picked at random from the records of the Fish and Game Division. The period involved covers five months, beginning with the opening of last year's squirrel season and ending with the close of the hunting and trapping season of the present year. Information thus obtained will enable game managers to examine the year's wildlife harvest and promote the remaining crop for future hunting success.

The Pittman-Robertson project leaders and experts in the Fish and Game Division urge each person who has received a copy of the form to please fill out same and mail in immediately.

Those who have received them are requested to state the number of times they hunted, together with the total seasonal bag. Trappers should list the number of days traps were set together with the total catch. Those who used their licenses for fishing only are asked to also return the forms.

Please forward them to the Indiana Department of Conservation, 311 West Washington Street, Indianapolis 9, Indiana as soon as possible.

HEALTH FACTS FROM YOUR STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

Hearts are rationed - one to a lifetime - so a warning was issued today by Dr. Wendall C. Anderson, director, Division of Chronic Illness, Indiana State Board of Health, to not let either the Valentine season or the winter weather make too many demands on your heart.

Such exertions as shoveling snow, pushing stalled cars or stoking furnaces are common causes of sudden death in persons having weak hearts.

The week of February 11-17 appropriately has been designated as National Heart Week.

"A large number of deaths due to heart disease, particularly those occurring in the middle, productive years of life could have been prevented if people had only learned to live with their hearts," Dr. Anderson pointed out. "To create an awareness of this the National Heart Institute and the American Heart Association are developing an extensive program through out the country in education as well as conducting research in heart disease.

"It is only through early discovery of heart conditions that a person can adjust to a way of living so as not to demand too much of his heart. This means that everyone who might suspect a heart condition must be thoroughly examined and his future activity be controlled as recommended by the doctor. Most cases of heart disease allow for continued activity and added years of life simply because one person has been instructed in what he can do."

Furniture

The size of furniture must be right for the comfort of those who use it most. For example, some tables do not have enough knee height for long-legged people; some chairs are too long in the seat from front to back for short people.

If you have doubled your income since 1940, and your present income is more than $12,000 a year, you actually have less purchasing power compared with 1940.

If you were making $4,000 a year in 1940, unless you are making $7,394 a year now, you actually have less purchasing power than you did 10 years ago.

These facts arise from a study of the rise in taxes and the depreciation

Now! ANTIBIOTIC FEED SUPPLEMENT

in all BANNER Starting and Growing Mash

★ FOR IMPROVED FEED EFFICIENCY . . .

Improved feed-gain ratios up to 5% for chicks and 10% for poults were obtained in controlled feeding tests.

★ FOR GREATER UNIFORMITY . . .

More birds attained the heavier weights and there were fewer small birds in the test flocks which received Antibiotic Feed Supplement in their mash.

★ FOR HEALTHIER BIRDS . . .

Fewer culls resulted from use of Antibiotic Feed Supplement in Master Mix mash es listed. The principal benefit of Antibiotic Activity is its capacity to check growth of harmful organisms in the bird's digestive system. It is believed that restricting those harmful bacteria not only gives beneficial organisms a better chance to grow but means more of the nutrients can be utilized for growth of the bird. Regardless of how it is accomplished, the tests prove it does promote growth.

Antibiotic Feed Supplement does not replace Methio-Vite. This exclusive feature of Master Mix feeds contains Condensed Fish Solubles which supplies Vitamin B-12 and other factors so essential to proper development and rapid growth.

Addition of Antibiotic Feed Supplement to these quality mash es containing Methio-Vite gives you improved feeds which will produce better results and greater profits for feeders.

At the Marion Veteran's Hospital each year, monthly birthday parties are given by the eleven American Legion Auxiliary Districts of the State of Indiana. These parties are given in honor of the veteran patients whose birthdays occur during the current month.

The Second District, consisting of 47 units, including Mentone, sponsored the party, Sunday, February 11, at Marion. The Auxiliary members from the various units provide the entertainment for the party. The Mentone unit presented Rev. David Gosser, who gave a very entertaining, humorous chalk-talk which the hospitalized veterans greatly enjoyed. For their other number on the program the unit presented a mock bull-fight.

Approximately 800 patients were served cake and ice cream. The members of the auxiliary assisted with the serving of the refreshments. Gifts of cigarettes, candy bars, gum, an apple, and an orange were given to the veterans as they left the party. Refreshments were also distributed to the patients who were unable to attend the party.

Contributions from the Mentone unit included: A cash donation of $5 to the ice cream fund, 16 dozen cup cakes, 4 cartons candy bars, 6 boxes pipe tobacco, 9 cartons gum, 5 cartons cigarettes, 2 1/2 boxes cigars. Mrs. Leroy Stickler donated approximately 50 books for the recreation rooms at the hospital.

The Mentone Reading Club held its February meeting at the home of Mrs. Conda Walburn on last Wednesday evening.

Following the business meeting the program committee, composed of Mrs. Byron Peterson and Mrs. Wayne Tombaugh presented Rev. David Gosser.

Rev. Gosser gave a most interesting and entertaining program of caricature and sketches, following the patriotic theme. To begin with he drew cartoons of a number of men who had never been president. These types are to be found on the streets of any of our small towns. He then went on to Washington and Lincoln and his final graphic portrayal was of Washington talking to Betsy Ross as she stood in the doorway of her home.

Mrs. Gosser assisted by reading poems of patriotism and valor which so suitably harmonized with the drawings.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistant, Mrs. Stanley Boggs.

HOME ECONOMICS LEADERS

LEARN "HOUSEHOLD PLASTICS"

Leaders from forty-seven Home Economics Clubs of Kosciusko County received information on "Household Plastics" for two lessons they will present to their local clubs later. Meetings were held February 13 and 14 at the Crystal Dairy Lounge in Warsaw.

Mrs. Ruth Snellenburger, local home demonstration agent, presented the lesson material which included information on the beginning of plastics, the classes of plastics according to the way heat affects them, the types of plastics in each of these classes, and the treatment of household plastics. The need for information labels on plastic items of all types has become very evident as a result of the discussions on plastics.

Mrs. Frank Leslie, Warsaw, served as hostess at the first training meeting on February 13.

COW-BELLE OF THE MONTH

The belle for January goes back to Emra and Millard Stookey's registered Holstein farm, and this time it's Plus Bessie Eva Fransy who topped production in Kosciusko County Dairy Herd Improvement Association. During January Eva produced 2198 lbs. of milk testing 56% butterfat for a total of 123 lbs. of butterfat.

Eva was purchased by Stookey's at the Getz dispersal in November 1946, and has been in the Stookey herd since that time. She has been kept in the herd because of her broad cow ability. George Stookey has shown one of Eva's heifers in 4-H for 4 years. In 1949 the 4-H heifer was junior and reserve grand champion at the Elkhart County black and white show. She was beaten by Postermore Bessie Rex Pearl also owned by Stookeys and who was belle of the month in October.

Place and show in the January production race in Kosciusko County went to Stookey's Bessie with 102.6 lbs. of fat and a Guernsey cow owned by Howard Metzger named Star produced 92.6.

Pvt. Dale H. Stiffler, who has been stationed at Camp Carson, Colo., had a 10 day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Stiffler. Dale flew from Denver to Chicago by United Air Lines and left Monday night for Seattle, Washington.

THE RUDDY DUCK

It takes a quiet, patient watcher to get a good look at the Ruddy Duck swimming in a pond. When startled by a sudden noise, he disappears in a flash by diving beneath the surface. As he comes back up, he protects himself for a while longer by keeping his body underwater and showing only his head and neck, like the periscope of a submarine.

Another way to identify this expert swimmer and diver, says the National

© National Wildlife Federation
Ruddy Duck

Wildlife Federation, is to watch how he holds his tail. While swimming, he tilts it toward his back or points it straight up in the air, with the feathers spread out. Either way, he may remind you of a toy duck sailing about in a tub of water.

You will know him, too, by his white cheeks and shovel-shaped blue bill. The male, in spring and summer, also wears a bright reddish-brown over most of the upper part of his body, except where he has a black cap and dark brown tail feathers. Underneath, just below his neck, there is some light reddish-brown fading out into pure white.

When cold weather arrives, the male turns mostly gray, but keeps his white cheeks, black cap, and blue bill. This is the same outfit that the female wears all year, but she does have one little mark all her own. Across her light cheeks, from below the eye to the back of the neck, is a dark line.

Because he dives when frightened and does most of his traveling at night, the Ruddy Duck is hard to spot in the air. But when he is seen on the wing, he appears to be wearing himself out at the job of flying. With his short wings beating rapidly all the time that he is aloft, he is not a graceful bird in flight.

In the nesting season, declares the National Wildlife Federation, the Ruddy Duck builds a home of reeds and places it among plants growing in water. The nest may float on the surface or it may be hung like a basket, slightly above water. In it are laid from five to fifteen eggs. The eggs may be either gray-white or brownish in color. They are fairly small, too, being only about half the size of chicken eggs.

For food, the Ruddy Duck family likes water plants and insects. Among its favorites are wild celery, pondweeds, duckweed and rushes—all of which are found growing near its home.

When it is time to build a nest, lay eggs, and raise a family, the Ruddy Duck is likely to be found in our most northern states or in Canada. As the weather turns cold, he moves southward. He may go as far as California, Florida, and the Gulf of Mexico, or he may stop anywhere along the Atlantic Coast, from New York down.

Wherever he settles, winter or summer, you may be sure it is on a pond or lake of fresh water where he can find his food and swim. He flies when he has to, but he would much rather be in the water, wearing his tail at a jaunty angle, and plunging down now and then in a quick dive.

Interesting information about other species can be obtained by writing to the National Wildlife Federation, at Washington 10, D. C.

MOTHERS OF WORLD WAR II
UNIT 106, MEET FEBRUARY 14

Mrs. Madge Stevens of Rochester, District President, was the guest speaker at the Meeting of the Mothers of World War II, Unit 106, held recently at the home of Mrs. Edith Scott. The meeting was opened by pledging Allegiance to the flag, singing one verse of America and prayer by the chaplain. After a moment of silent prayer for peace, the meeting was declared opened for business by the president, Mrs. Paulus, who then welcomed our guests, Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Dollie Miller, president of the Rochester Unit. The secretary's report was read and approved. The treasurer reported $81.49 balance. Nineteen members answered roll call. A rehabilitation report was read by Mrs. Paulus. The ninth annual convention to be held at Bloomington April 3, 4, and 5 was announced, also the district meeting of the second district is to be held at Winamac March 2nd. All were urged to go as this is the meeting for election of new District officers. Mrs. Wagner and Mrs. Mollenhour were appointed as voting delegates. It was accepted that we remember our boys who have or will leave Mentone each month. Opal Tucker and Mac Borton were made chairmen for this month. Mrs. Stevens read a poem as a thought for the day at the close of her remarks and Mrs. Miller gave a short talk. Mrs. Stevens also reported that a large number of veteran mental patients had been moved from the Wentfield hospital at Indianapolis to Logansport. These boys need our help. Are we going to help them? A bill of $2 was allowed to Mrs. Newell for flowers. Grandma Nellans gave a gift of $10 for the use of the wheel chair. Thanks Aunt Emma, this is greatly appreciated. Mrs. Newell and Mrs. Meredith gave their birthday money.

Eleven lap robes and six sponge rubber cushions are ready to be sent to the boys as soon as we hear where they are needed the most. Mrs. Julia Smith won the door prize and the next meeting will be held at the home of Opal Tucker. The meeting was closed with Mothers creed, singing God Bless America and prayer by the chaplain. During the social hour the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Ethna served lovely refreshments. The following auction sale was held. Here is the sale bill.

We the undersigned, having decided to go in the business of aiding our Sons and Daughters who fought in our last wars and who are now in our many hospitals, are offering for sale the following items at the residents of Mrs. Edith Scott on North Broadway St., Mentone, Indiana, February 14, 1951: to wit: One pillow top, one hand made rug, one pair baby crochet booties, one hot pad and holder, one relish dish, and a two piece dish to the highest bidder. Terms cash, all goods to be paid for before leaving said premises. Lunch will be served by the refreshment committee. Not responsible for accidents. Mothers of World War II,

Unit 106, Ethel Wagner, Auctioneer, Clerk, LaVera Horn. Opal Tucker, Belle Morrison, Ethel Wagner, LaVera Horn, Dollie Miller and Madge Stevens were the high bidders.

MENTONE MURMURS

by DAVID and SALLY GOSSER

Murmurs has been playing the role of Demosthenes this winter, hunting for the honest man who admits that there are winters as long and severe as in the "good old days".

At present there may be a mid-winter thaw, but if the Rushville weather prophet speaks truth there is plenty more winter where the rest came from. Bear in mind the fact that the ground-hog had a whole day of sunshine to see his shadow on February 2.

Next week begins another weather cycle, for, as the saying goes, "If March comes in like a lamb, it goes out like a lion," and vice versa. All this just adds up to what Mark Twain said, "Everybody talks about the weather, and no one does anything about it". Murmurs takes comfort in the thought that he is frequently lost in that anonymity of the crowd. There is no particular virtue in it, but just a smug comfort.

There have been some great champions of the masses, like Abe Lincoln, Mark Twain, Will Rogers, Eddie Guest, Edwin Markham, Walt Whitman, Wendell Wilkie, James Whitcomb Riley, Carl Sandburg and Sinclair Lewis. Some of these men attained their following through the faculty of reminiscing. The poetry of Guest and Riley are examples.

To the list Murmurs would add another, Barton Reece Pogue, who wrote "The Post Office Pen" and other poems which smack of experiences many people in the work-a-day world have. It warms the hearts of humanity to hear the little common things, failings and virtues, to which all men are heir; and makes for better understanding.

The strength of the American Legion rests largely on the common interests and experiences shared by our forces in situations where a bond of fellowship meant the difference between life and death. There is much to learn from the men of the Legion applicable to civilian life in the sharing of common experiences, both pleasant and sad, and Murmurs might add, indifferent.

Murmurs recommends a sense of humor and the sharing of experiences to ease the pressure of prejudices, inhibitions and eccentricities. These should however, not be made the subject of gossip, but indulged in by those who find them in common. It is good to stand back and be able to laugh at ourselves. It helps us to keep our sanity. After all, although we may take

Our 1950 Taxes Amount to more than $77,000 a Day!

● That's a lot of money. It's nearly 3 times as much as the total taxes paid by the electric companies of Indiana in 1940 . . . reflecting, like your own taxes, the need for more and more money to pay for the rapidly mounting expenses of government and the heavy cost of national defense.

And today our defense requirements must be met. The electric companies of Indiana, like all investor-owned businesses and industries, and like individual taxpayers, are carrying their full share of the tax load. In addition, they're building more and more electric power facilities as rapidly as possible to help our farms, businesses and industries meet the great demands that may soon again be made upon them.

Fortunately, not a day has been lost in the biggest electric expansion program ever undertaken in Indiana. Already our 1940 electric power supply has been DOUBLED. By the end of 1953 ANOTHER 600 thousand kilowatts—over half as much as we had altogether in 1940—will have been added. These huge additions to Indiana's power supply will have cost over $500 million in 13 years . . . dollars well spent to power greater prosperity for everyone in time of peace, but ready now—if need be—to power Indiana's farm and industrial machinery for all-out war!

HIGHWAY HYPNOSIS

A motorist traveling a long distance on a smooth and comparatively straight highway can be lulled into a state of three-fourths consciousness by the hum of the motor, the tires whirring on the pavement and by the fixation of his attention on the road ahead.

The Chicago Motor Club says that when a car leaves the highway or crashes into another vehicle without leaving skid marks it is assumed that the driver dozed off. This can often be explained by physical weariness but in many cases, as reported by drivers who caught themselves nodding, it is the monotony of sight, sound and sensation which brings on a feeling of drowsiness.

Three factors unite "highway hypnosis" to the methods used by a hypnotist to put his subject into a trance. The first is what scientists call 'repetitive stimuli'. It refers to the repeating words and motions—the hypnotist saying "sleep, sleep"—over and over while passing his hand back and forth in front of the subject's eyes. This is designed to dull the subject's sensations by filling them without let-up with only a single object.

In motoring on the open highway, this can be compared to that rigid attention given on pavement and the humming of the motor.

Second, the "power of suggestion". The hypnotist will say, "you are becoming weary—you are getting more and more sleepy—you want to sleep—". On the road, the suggesting is done by the sameness of the sensations received by the driver. But the "suggestions" received by him are the more dangerous because he actually feels them; the hypnotist must be content with merely trying to make the subject think he is becoming weary, whereas, with the driver, the "suggestion" is felt physically—he really is getting tired.

The third factor is a combination of the other two. A "lowered alertness" is brought about in the subject by the manipulations of the hypnotist. By this time his will has been jellied and he is susceptible to the desires of the other.

With the driver, this is when the danger is acute. His reflexes are sluggish, his eyes are heavy and senses dull.

What are the defenses against "highway hypnosis"? The motor club says that the need is for an outside influence to alert the motorist, to distract him from his reverie. The car radio or windshield wiper can be turned on. There should also be good ventilation so that the warmth of the heater cannot create a stuffy atmosphere in the car.

But the best defense of all, according to the club, is to pull off the road and take a nap.

DREAM COMES TRUE

Like all small boys, Chuck Richards, of Lemont, Ill., has always dreamed of some day becoming a railroad engineer and driving one of the big locomotives that pass through his town every day. When he was stricken with polio two years ago and had to be placed in an "iron lung," his dream seemed like a lovely impossibility—and so did a lot of ordinary things like walking and playing about with other children. But through the work of the March of Dimes Foundation, Chuck, now five and a half years old, is back on his feet again. He still has to wear arm braces, but that is a small matter to him, especially since he was invited by Mert F. Dodge, of Battle Creek, Mich., engineer of the Grand Trunk Western's International Limited, to come to Chicago and try his hand at the controls of the streamlined steam locomotive. Here Chuck manages to lift his arm up from the brace to fulfill his boyish ambition, sounding a loud blast on the whistle while Engineer Dodge holds him on the edge of the driver's seat.

Emma Fern Clutter, administratrix of the estate of Thomas Jay Clutter, has filed a partial inventory of the estate in circuit court, showing personal property valued at $2,942 and real estate of $4,000. She has been granted authority to sell personal property at private sale.

FARMERS PETITION FOR SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT

Four hundred six Kosciusko county farm owners signed a petition stating that there is need in the interest of public welfare for a soil conservation district to function in Kosciusko county. The petition proposes that the district be called the Kosciusko county Soil Conservation District and that the district should include all of Kosciusko County. The petition asked that the state soil conservation committee define the boundaries of the district and hold a referendum on the question of the district establishment. The state committee scheduled the petition for review at its meeting to be held in Indianapolis on February 9 and at that time will determine whether further steps shall be taken toward organization. If their reaction is favorable, a hearing date will be set for early in March at which time representatives of the committee will come to the county to hear opinions of county farmers. Before final steps can be taken, however, a referendum must be held on the subject and landowners given the opportunity to vote.

Members of the state soil conservation committee are Lt. Governor John Watkins; Harry Reed, Dean of Agriculture of Purdue University; Leroy Hoffman, Director of Agricultural extension work in Indiana; Ernest Miller, representing the state association of district supervisors; Kenneth Kunkel, representing the Indiana Department of Conservation; and Anson Thomas of the Indiana Farm Bureau.

HEALTH FACTS FROM YOUR STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

The build-up of the military population in Indiana has resulted in no evidence of increase in venereal disease and few requests for investigation of contacts have been made by the Army, according to Dr. Andrew C. Offutt, director of the Division of Communicable Disease Control, Indiana State Board of Health.

"Close cooperation between the military and civilian authorities exists in the control of venereal disease and provides a sensitive indicator of the current situation," Dr. Offutt said.

Special programs to stimulate public interest and support for social hygiene objectives are being held throughout the nation this month with "Safeguard Our Stronghold—The Family" as the theme. Indiana will mark Social Hygiene Day February 24 with a luncheon meeting at the Claypool Hotel, Indianapolis, with Major General Daniel B. Strickler, commander of the 28th Infantry Division, Camp Atterbury, speaking on "Your Community and the Man in the Armed Forces."

Mrs. Meredith Nicholson, Jr., president of the Indiana Public Health Association and secretary of the Indianapolis Social Hygiene Association, co-sponsors of the luncheon, says that indications are that the luncheon will be largely attended. Other agencies sponsoring the luncheon include the Indianapolis Servicemen's Center, Inc., Indianapolis Church Federation's division of Social Service, the Indiana Congress and Indianapolis Council of Parent-Teacher Associations and state and city boards of health.

Rev. and Mrs. John Knecht and family, of Clay City, visited a few days last week in the home of Mrs. Knecht's mother, Mrs. Hill.

SECOND DISTRICT COMMANDER AT LEGION MEETING HERE

Mentone Post 425, The American Legion, was honored Tuesday evening with the presence of Earl Johnson of Lake Village, the commander of the second district. Commander Johnson spoke briefly about membership and Americanism.

Comrade Don Wertenberger of the Akron Post, was also a visitor.

Comrade Harry Gibble announced another dance to be held this Saturday night. John Husted, of Goshen, and Lester Funk, of Mentone, were voted into membership. R. L. Harris, Ft. Wayne, was the name drawn for the attendance prize. Following the meeting three combat films were shown.

VETERAN WELL PLEASD

Bob Riewoldt, of the Midwest Spring plant at Mentone, received a fine letter from F. G. Baer, service officer of Wabash county, Tuesday. Monday Bob made a spring for a veteran's foot and really put new life into the unfortunate polio victim. Virgil Bloxson has one leg and muscles in his back and abdomen paralyzed and if his toe trips on anything while walking he just falls flat on his face. The spring that failed lifted his toe so it would slide over obstructions. When he couldn't find another he was ready to give up his job at the General Tire & Rubber Co. The boys at Midwest put him back on the job.

IF YOUR DOG HAS BAD HABITS

It's easy for a farm dog to develop bad habits. It's almost as easy for you to break them. Here are some pointers on how you can help convince your dog himself that he shouldn't fight with other dogs or scare horses. The instructions are from the informative Purina Farm Dog Book on how to care for and train the farm dog.

Fighting

Dog fights can be very annoying, especially if it's your dog that has chewed up the neighbor's pet.

You can separate fighting dogs quickly by pouring water over them. Or, if water is not available, just reach for one hind leg, preferably the one of the aggressor, and lift him up in the air. If you have help available, the hind legs of both dogs should be lifted at the same time to prevent either one being temporarily at the other's mercy.

Don't try to pull them apart by their collars. After the fight has been stopped, take steps to prevent similar occurrences in the future: first, see that the collars of both parties fit pretty snugly. Then tie them together by their collars quite tightly. Leave them that way for at least several hours.

To be so close to each other without being able to fight, proves a very effective cure, much more effective than spanking

Scaring Horses

In spite of tractors and mechanization quite a few horses are used on farms for pleasure rides and handling beef cattle. It's nice to have a dog come along on such a ride, unless your dog tries to get more than his rightful share of the fun.

Barking at the horse or pony might scare the animal and even cause accidents. Borrow Junior's water pistol, fill it with water and carry it along on your ride. If he tries his tricks again, a squirt in the face will help cure him. A handful of small pebbles can be used instead of the water pistol.

Disciplining the dog from horseback with a long whip is not advisable since it may scare the horse and make it permanently afraid of dogs

A copy of the Purina Farm Dog Book may be purchased for 50c at Purina dealers.

DENTON'S DRUG STORE

IT'S IN THE LIVING National Brotherhood Week Feb. 18-25
(By Roy A. Roberts, president, The Kansas City Star)

It takes a big volume of living and just a small pamphlet of words to make brotherhood a reality in these United States or anywhere else.

"Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal."

The word "charity" here means "love." It means observance of the Golden Rule; it means the same regard for the rights of the other fellow that you expect for your own; it means respect for the individual, for his dignity, feelings and convictions, whatever his race, color or creed.

The real test of brotherhood for any person is in the simple question, How am I living it? What, if anything, does it mean in my daily business and contacts with others? Is it merely a fine sounding word or a way of life?

This country has the climate that is and should be highly favorable to the growth of genuine brotherhood. It is in fact the American way of life. The principle of tolerance and individual rights is bound up in American democracy. It became the impetus of the earliest migrations across the Atlantic. It entered the Mayflower Compact, the Virginia Bill of Rights, the Federal Constitution and was stated or implied in every document that had to do with the founding and the development of this republic.

In the face of such a grand tradition, prejudice, hatred and intolerance are completely alien to the real American character. They have cropped out at numerous times and doubtless will be appearing hereafter. But they are a minority sentiment, a grating discordant note in the prevailing harmony of the American theme.

Nowhere else in the world should it be easier to live brotherhood than in that nation that is founded on the essence of it. At times the work of it has been slow, but at no time has the power of it ever been lost. At an hour in the world's history when freedom and democracy are challenged by the denial and the slavery of totalitarianism it behooves every American to stand up and be counted in the living of the brotherhood that he preaches.

BAPTIST NEWS

Next Sunday morning the pastor will bring a message on tithing in preparation for the Month of March. This will be "Prove Me" month and old tithers are being urged to "double tithe" for the four Sundays and those who have never tithed are asked to try it and see if God will not do as He has promised in Malachi 3:10.

Final preparations are complete for the Missionary Conference from March 11-18th. A different Missionary will speak and show pictures each night and the church is looking forward to a time of blessing.

In the March business meeting the church will vote on the question of fellowship in The General Association of Regular Baptist Churches. This is a group of over 600 Baptist churches who are like-minded on the fundamentals of the faith and the stress that should be placed on Missions. The pastor's message Sunday evening will have to do with information on this matter.

ANNUAL STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING MONDAY

The annual stockholders' meeting of the Northern Indiana Cooperative Association will be held at the Mentone school on Monday, March 5, starting at 1:30 p. m., at which time the officers of the association will give their reports on the business of the association for the year 1950, and such other business that may properly come before the governing group. There will be door prizes distributed to some of those in attendance.

To Elect Three Directors

The terms of Kyle Gibson, Everett Rathfon and Elmer Dickey, as members of the board of directors, expire and their successors are to be elected by the stockholders. An impartial nominating committee composed of Hobart Creighton, Leroy Norris, Chas. Leininger, Fred Beeson and Dr. E. D. Anderson recently nominated two candidates for each of the vacant director seats. Those named included the three directors listed above and Gerald Ballenger, Maurice Dunnuck and Russell Shipley. All stockholders were mailed ballots which they could use to vote on the directors. Many of these ballots have been returned to the secretary and all others are urged to do so at once so they will be ready to hand to the tellers Monday. The envelopes are not to be opened until handed over to the tellers and all names of voters will be held in strict confidence. (Stockholders, even though they vote by mail, are urged to attend the meeting in person if at all possible.)

To Distribute Dividend Checks

Dividend checks, representing patronage earnings and interest on stock, will be distributed at the meeting. However, in order to avoid confusion at the meeting, no dividend checks will be given out to patrons who have an unpaid account with the organization. Checks thus withheld will be credited to the customers' accounts the same as a cash payment.

ADDS GIFT ITEMS TO STOCK

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown, who have been remodeling their jewelry and appliance sales room recently, announce that they have added many new and unusual gift and home items to their stock of merchandise. See advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

THE MEANING OF WILDLIFE WEEK

Dr. Hugh H. Bennett, chief of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, commented recently in a talk with Claude D. Kelley, President of the National Wildlife Federation, on "What Wildlife Week means during the current serious international situation."

"Proper use and care of soil, water and related resources is of primary importance in times of national emergency," said Dr. Bennett. "Our present and future welfare rests on our resources and the way we use them. During periods of stress, it is more than ever necessary that we have at our disposal opportunities for healthful relaxation and recreation. For an ever-increasing number of people, restoration of mind and body is to be found in the out-of-doors. Wildlife provides hunting for millions who yearly find release from a complex world in the quiet of the fields, woods, marshes and waters of our nation. For millions of others, wildlife photography or the opportunity to observe and study birds and mammals in the wild also provides needed relaxation.

nett, "that we consider in all programs for the conservation of our natural resources the perpetuation and improvement of suitable habitats for fish and wildlife as a part of our efforts to sustain a strong national economy and a healthful citizenry. The fundamental aspects of living persist in times of emergency as in normal times, including the need for the recreational opportunities provided by land and water that sustain a natural abundance of wild creatures. Wildlife is a valuable heritage which flourishes where man has succeeded in living compatibly with the land. Sound soil and water conservation and management are inseparable parts of sound wildlife conservation."

Dr. Bennett's remarks were made in reference to observance of National Wildlife Restoration Week, sponsored by the National Wildlife Federation, Washington, D. C., to be celebrated this year during the week March 18-24.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Finlay of Columbia City were guests at the Arthur Brown home on Friday of last week.

COUNTRY NEIGHBORS MEET

The Country Neighbors Home Ec. Club met at the home of Mrs. Earl Zent with 19 members, 2 guests and 23 children being present.

The meeting was opened with the group singing "America, the Beautiful". Mrs. Russel Walters gave the devotions.

During the business meeting it was voted to give $25 to the March of Dimes and $2 to the heart fund. Plans were also started for a food and bake sale for March 17 at Lemler's Market.

Mrs. Glassley, Fulton County Home Demonstration Agent gave an interesting lesson on remodeling clothing. Mesdames Richard Notz, Jake Gross and Sam Norris received secret pal gifts.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jake Gross with Mrs. Martin Notz as co-hostess. Each member is requested to bring an old or home made Easter bonnet in a sack to the March meeting.

MENTAL HYGIENE — A GROWING FORCE

This job of everyday living is the toughest job there is for all mankind. The toughest, that is, if man faces it squarely knowing why he is living and where he is going. Wouldn't it be wonderful if everybody in the society today could do just that? Unfortunately all too many have stumbled on the building blocks of life and found them unsurmountable. Those stumblers are your concern. In January, 1949, the Indiana Mental Hygiene Society was founded with the main purpose of understanding the men and women who cannot face life. The Society's purpose is to create concrete efforts to save those people. Already much has been done by the leaders of the organization to encourage interest in Mental Health through inter-personal relations in schools, industry, family life, law enforcement and other aspects of contemporary life.

Senator C. Oliver Holmes, the Society's President, agrees that the urgent mental health need in Indiana today is more and more psychiatrists and other trained workers to swell the all too poorly staffed public mental institutions. Those people are needed to hasten the cure and release of thousands who will die without ever knowing what it is to be alive and happy. What can you do about it? The answer to that question probably is, "nothing as an individual." In order that something can be done, you must first become interested and then stimulate others to investigate legislation pertaining to Mental Institution support in Indiana. To have a sincere concern for the Mental Health of the state, Mr. Walter Argow, Executive Director of the Indiana Mental Hygiene Society, says, "Everyone must recognize flexibility in human relations, personal self assurance, creative individual ex-

D. A. R. HOLDS MEETING

The Anthony Nigo Chapter of the D. A. R. held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Ray Linn on Tuesday evening.

The meeting was called to order by the regent, Mrs. Frank Smith, after which the chaplin, Mrs. Emma Gill, led in prayer.

Following the pledge of allegiance to the flag of our country, Mrs. Arthur Brown read the minutes of the last meeting.

Mrs. Orpha Blue read the message of the president general in which she stressed the loyalty to our country as exemplified by George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.

Several articles were brought in to send to the Indians.

At the conclusion of the business session, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Miles Manwaring, program chairman for the evening.

As February is the birthday month of Scouting she introduced the local scoutmaster, David P. Gosser. Rev. Gosser gave a brief but interesting history of the founding of the Boy Scouts. He also brought along a group of scouts some of whom gave a demonstration of the unfolding and folding of the flag. An explanation of what the different parts and colors of the flag represent and when it should be flown was given by another scout.

They gave the scout oath and the twelve points of the scout law.

Scoutmaster David Gosser gave the story and meaning of the different points of the scout badge.

A demonstration of signalling by flashlight was given by two of the scouts.

We are very proud to have such a fine organization of youth in our midst. Mrs. Manwaring gave a report on the newly formed girl scout troop.

Scouts attending were Chas. Urschel, Bill Clark, Ted Ward, Don Rush, Terry Utter, David Gosser and Dick Tombaugh.

Lovely refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistant, Mrs. Emma Gill.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Frank Smith. At that time we will entertain the good citizenship girls from the seven schools sponsored by the Anthony Nigo Chapter.

OUR FRIENDS

The friends of ours who yet remain Who gather round us day by day They fall like leaves in deaths cold stream And in its current float away.

We see the place wherein they fell But there their image do not see They glide along the cold dark stream To that great ocean of Eternity.

Oh what was life if this was all Of our friends that we would see The world would be a struggling din Of darkness, death and misery.

But there is hope in that Eastern Star Whereby we have the hope to live And trust that we will see our friends And He who has the power to give. "OLD TIMER" Written March 25, 1897

DICK BOGANWRIGHT WRITES

Camp Breckinridge, Ky.
February 18, 1951.

Dear Art:

Thanks very much for sending the home town paper to me. I look forward each Tuesday to receiving it. I appreciate it and enjoy reading it. It really brings home a little closer, and reminds one of the song, "Those Dear Hearts."

The sun actually shone all day Saturday, but as usual it is raining again this morning.

I have enjoyed the army life so far. We have had a lot of fun as well as some unpleasant times.

I am with a swell group of fellows, as most of them are Hoosiers. There are three of us fellows from our county in this company.

I saw a car today bearing the license of our county. They looked pretty good to me. They were the Whiteheads from Warsaw.

Thanks very much, Art.
As ever,

FARM BUREAU NAMES DOUP LIVESTOCK MARKETING HEAD

George Doup of near Columbus, a Bartholomew county farmer and a former president of the Indiana Rural Youth, has been chosen by the officers and board of directors of the Indiana Farm Bureau to head livestock marketing department. It was announced this week by President Hassil E. Schenck. He is scheduled to start his new duties on March 1.

by

DAVID and SALLY GOSSER

Welcome, sweet spring time, seasonal or otherwise! The sunshine stirs the imagination of the women-folk to treasonable acts of house-cleaning, but sol is still preferable to those winter days of fog and rain we experienced the past few years.

There's certain advantages to giving the house a going-over every once in a while, like finding the camping equipment you had almost forgotten you owned, or the fishing tackle, that old picture of Uncle Ben in the antique hand-carved frame, the books you had stored away to read some rainy day, and those old love letters you received from the wife before you were married. They all bring back fond remembrances and memories.

You untie the packet of letters with a tenderness you almost forgot you had. It hasn't been so long since Valentine Day, but there is some unusually sweet fragrance about that you were not aware of then. It could be part of the perfume that lingers through the years in the paper that is turning yellow and the lines fading, but you finally become conscious of the fact that it comes from somewhere deep inside of you.

There is a warmth and a glow that wasn't present when you started the task of attic sweeping. You pause long enough to think of some recent times when you haven't been worthy of the confidence and trust that was pledged by marriage vows, times when harshness and bitterness almost seemed to terminate the air of romance that you knew once existed. You wouldn't admit it, but with a sweeping wave of self reproach, a tear slides stealthily from an overburdened eye lid, and you sniff a time or two and look cautiously about to be sure that the one you've had this little ping of emotion for hasn't caught you off guard—afraid to let him or her see your softness, mistaking it for weakness. If it is weakness, it is the kind that belongs with strong character, with love, with repentance, with the admission of imperfection. It is the kind that will build strong homes and Christian communities.
