It can be safely stated that it is one of the neatest appearing offices in town.

FIRE DESTROYS SHOE AND RADIO SHOP

The Harry Watkins shoe and radio repair shop lasted about five minutes just before noon last Thursday, when an oil heating stove exploded. Quick work by the Mentone fire department prevented the fire from spreading to the rear of the drug store and the other buildings in the block.

The fire started so suddenly and with such intensity that Fire Chief Arlo Friesner, seeing the size of the fire, made an immediate appeal for help. Within a matter of minutes the Etna Green, Atwood and Warsaw departments were on hand ready to assist if the fire had gotten the start it looked as if it would at first. Mr. Friesner, and the Mentone town board, sent letters of thanks and appreciation to the neighbor departments for their quick response.

Mr. Watkins, who was not aware that his insurance policy had lapsed, states his loss will approximate $1,000. Some of his merchandise was not destroyed and the shoe repair machinery can be placed back in operation without great expense. The interior of the building suffered approximately $2,000 damage.

Mr. Watkins stated Wednesday evening that it would require about another week to complete the clean-up work in the shop, after which he will be available for radio service calls.

PALESTINE CHRISTIAN CHURCH NEWS

"Hidden Treasures," latest religious-science film of Moody Institute of Science, delving into wonders of creation as seen through telescope and microscope, will be shown at the Palestine Christian Church, Sunday (February 10), at 7:00 p. m.

The MIS cameramen risked life and limb to capture some of the unusual scenes. Their adventures took them all the way from dungeon caves to an exploration aboard the Hancock Foundation's research ship.

Among many strangely beautiful scenes, the camera reveals minute flowers, a hundred times smaller than the smallest rose; strange microscopic denizens of the sea; glassed-house plants called diatoms; iridescent cave crystals; paramacia, minute animals with oars; and the clownish amoebae, which look like animated ink blots forever changing shape.

Produced by Dr. Irwin A. Moon, director of Moody Institute of Science, "Hidden Treasures" represents eighteen months of tedious camera work in out-of-the-way places to find the small but perfect treasure of God's handiwork.

Delving into the infinitesimal things of God's creation, the film contains a featured sequence of diatoms—a one-cell plant that builds and lives in its own glass house. The plant is so minute that it would take 15 million to fill an ordinary thimble.

With the 200-inch lens of the Mt. Palomar telescope—the world's largest "Hidden Treasures" reveals some of the hundred million island universes around the billion light-year radius which have recently been opened by the fabulous instrument.

With eleven foreign sound tracks, Moody Bible Institute's preceding films "God of Creation", "God of the Atom", "Voice of the Deep", "Dust or Destiny" and "To Every Creature" have received widespread appeal throughout this land and 52 other countries.

The public is cordially invited to attend the showings of this unusual film.

SEED TREATMENT IMPORTANT PRACTICE

Seed treatment is one of the practices which every oats producer should religiously follow, thinks Paul Jackson, county agent. Treating is done to control blight and smut diseases of oats. Since new virulent races of smuts and blights are continuously appearing, and since new diseases may attack oats anytime, it is just good business to have the ounce of prevention ready in the form of treated seed. It's the same principle as installing lightning rods to protect a building.

Clinton and Benton oats were developed to be resistant to Victoria Blight and the smut disease which virtually destroyed the older varieties. However, it still is advisable to treat Clinton and Benton to control attacks of the more virulent strains of these diseases which may cause damage. Treating will help to eliminate "damping-off" of oat seedlings, and in experimental tests treating has increased the yield of Clinton. Because of resistance to diseases, stiffness of straw, superior test weight and higher yields, Clinton 59 and Benton are the two varieties recommended for production in Kosciusko County.

Proper treating of seed oats does not reduce the germination of the oats seed. Recent reports of low germination of oats planted last spring have been generally traced to storage conditions and were not caused by seed treatment.

If Ceresan is used to treat seed oats, treatment should be applied at least 24 hours before seeding, but oats may be safely treated as long as 90 days before they are planted. If planting is to occur within two weeks of treating, one half ounce of Ceresan should be applied per bushel of oats. If more than two weeks are to elapse between treating and sowing, the rate of treatment should be reduced to one fourth ounce per bushel of seed.

TIMELY TOPICS

By Mrs. Ruth R. Snellenberger
Home Demonstration Agent

Food is a topic of interest to everyone, isn't it? In about every conversation concerning it someone is sure to remark about the high cost of food. Right? So here's a thought I'd like to pass on to you: Consumer demand for an item is a factor causing the price to go up and or stay up!

Here's an example of how consumer demand affects the price of a food item. When a hog is butchered there may be both "center cut chops" and "end cut chops." Because many persons prefer and purchase center cut chops, the price per pound goes up while the price of end cut chops is as much as 20 cents less on the pound. This then should appeal to those persons trying to keep food costs down. If a butcher did not make this great price difference he would have an over supply of end cut chops on hands.

Can you think of other food items that may be priced similarly?

Some time ago Mrs. Norman Huffer of Warsaw vicinity asked about the proper placing of a salad fork for a dinner setting. Mrs. Huffer stated that she had generally practiced placing the salad fork to the left of the dinner fork, but recently she had seen a picture showing the salad fork next to the plate, with the dinner fork on the outside.

In reply to the inquiry, generally speaking our rule is to use silverware arranged from the outside in. Thus if the plates are filled and guests eat salad before the main course, the salad forks would be placed on the outside. If food was to be passed at the dinner table, the guests eat of the main course before the salad, then the dinner fork would be placed on the outside with the salad fork nearer the plate. The placing then would actually depend on which food the guests would be mostly likely to eat first.

If a fork were needed for the dessert, a dessert fork would be placed closest to the plate. Whether you placed the dessert fork in the place setting or not would depend on how you planned to serve the dessert.

Guests besides the honoree were her mother, Mrs. Isabella Lantz, Mrs. Iris Fitzgerald, Mrs. Harry Smythe, Mrs. Peter Blue, Mrs. Mervin Wagner, Miss Marjorie Mollenhour, Mrs. Donald Coleman, Mrs. Maggie Dillie, Mrs.

HEALTH FACTS FROM YOUR STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

This Valentine season brings with it not only hope for the bachelor girl during the leap year and new hope for the lovely and lovelorn, but also "New Hope for Hearts," which is the theme for National Heart Week.

Research sponsored by the American Heart Association with its affiliates including the Indiana Heart Foundation, and the National Heart Institute are bringing new hope to those suffering with a damaged heart, according to Dr. Wendell C. Anderson, director, Division of Gerontology and Chronic Diseases, Indiana State Board of Health.

Dr. Anderson pointed out that ten years ago an infection in an already damaged heart was 100 percent fatal. Now, not only can this be prevented, but a large percent can be cured with the newer drugs.

"New surgical procedures give a chance for a normal life to the 'blue babies' who formerly could expect only a short life of invalidism," Dr. Anderson said. "Surgery also shows encouraging prospects for adults suffering from certain types of heart disease.

"Diet research indicates that some heart conditions can be kept in hand by a special diet and gives hope that more will be controlled in the future. Only through further research will the mysteries hiding the cause of many heart conditions be solved.

"This Valentine season is truly a period of new hope for the heart patient," he concluded.

Britisher Amazed at 'Miracle Drug' Pigs

Chapman Pincher (left), science editor of the London Daily Express, recently visited Lederle Laboratories at Pearl River, N. Y., and got a first-hand view of what the American farmer is doing with the antibiotic feed supplements to increase the nation's pork supply.

It is obvious Pincher needed no tape measure. Both these pigs are from the same litter and received the same basal diet. The only difference was that the larger pig also received a supplement containing aureomycin and vitamin B<sub>12</sub>. While here, Pincher also observed similar growth-promoting results in poultry.

LEE NORRIS WRITES

3, February, 1952

Dear Art,

Thanks again for sending the Co-Op. News.

I just got back yesterday from San Antonio. One battery out of our Battalion went down there for a week to be in General Lute's retirement parade. He was commander of the 4th Army.

We are now preparing for our division test. I'm sending a news clipping that will more fully explain it.

Thanks again for the paper and here is my address if anyone cares to write.

Division Test

After ten months of continuous combat training the First Armored Division will begin a final ten day division-wide maneuver on February 12.

These maneuvers, described by General Clarke as "graduation exercises" for the division, will mark the end of

First Armored training. After the final tests the division will join with defensive forces for Exercise Long Horn.

From an assembly area in the southwestern part of the reservation, the division will march in three parallel routes to the North Hood area. After thorough pre-battle briefing, an attack southward will be launched spearheaded by infantry units.

Plans call for defender's withdrawal to Cow House Creek where their stiffened resistance will halt the First Armored advance.

On February 15, the division will unleash an all-out assault on the river fortification to shove the defenders back from Cow House Creek. When the bridgehead is secured, the First Armored will regroup behind posted security guards.

Subsequent withdrawal will be followed by a counter-attack employing tank, infantry and artillery units to complete a break-through.

To secure maximum training, Army maneuvers are always outlined in advance. General objectives are set up while means to secure and hold positions are left to unit commanders.

Umpires will patrol the maneuver area to evaluate combat proficiency of both aggressor and defensive forces.

Experience obtained in this division exercise will be used in this spring's Army-Air Force Exercise Long Horn.

Boy Scouts Observe 42nd Birthday

Official Boy Scout Week Poster

President Truman will greet 12 outstanding Boy Scouts in the White House during Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6 to 12, marking the 42nd anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America. Boy Scout Week will be observed throughout the nation by more than 2,900,000 boys and adult leaders. Since 1910, more than 19,000,000 boys and men have been members of the organization. "Forward ... on Liberty's Team" is the birthday theme.

CELEBRATES 71st BIRTHDAY

Sunday, February 3, was a very happy day at the E. E. Wagner home. Ten of the twelve Wagner children and families came home to help Pop celebrate his 71st birthday (which was the 2nd). It was also the first birthday of Jacque Pritchard, great grand daughter of Ervin Wagner. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shudrick of Laporte, Mr. and Mrs. John Powolska and two children of Michigan City, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren and two children of Elkhart, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wagner and son of Port Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Junior Wideman and two children of Warsaw, Mr. and Mrs. Myrl Wagner of Burket, Mr. and Mrs. Albert K. Wagner, son of Palestine, Mr. and Mrs. George King and three daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pritchard and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Wagner, Dick King and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Wagner and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Vandermark and three children, and Floyd Dorsey, all of Mentone.

The most surprising and happy event of the day was the arrival of Calvin Wagner, who got home about 6 o'clock that morning from ten months in Korea. It had been 11 months since he had been home. He is in the best of health and very happy to be back in old Mentone for a 30 day leave.

Mother Wagner had the table spread with a silk needle point embroidered cloth brought from Japan by Calvin, and silver which he sent home from Japan as a Christmas gift.

"Cal" was with the 23rd Infantry that took Heart Break Ridge.

(Editor's note—Calvin was in the Co-Op. News office and related a number of his experiences in Korea, especially at Heartbreak Ridge and Bloody Pass. The one statement which sticks with us is this: "I kept thinking that I had six brothers who had fought in a war to stop all wars." We needn't add that Calvin went to war a typical, carefree American youth and has come home a mature and sober older young man, having seen more tragedy and horror in a few short months than we will ever see in a lifetime.)

COMPLIMENT OR ???

Carl Rush, Alvin, Texas, sends us a clipping taken from the Beaumont, Texas Journal. If Harry Truman should happen to read it he would likely have about the same look on his face as Eisenhower did when he heard about Truman "canning" MacArthur.

The clipping showed a picture of Truman with the following wording: "He may decide to run again. Be prepared! Pay your poll tax today!"

For or against, evidently the Texans are going to have their six-guns loaded.

Mrs. Clarence Leininger spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Howard Horn.

ATTEND FUNERAL OF COUSIN

Mrs. Myrtle Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leedy, Mrs. Howard Horn and Harry Davis went to Chilli Monday to attend the funeral of S. Sgt. Donald Day who was killed when his car was hit by a train at Amarillo, Texas a week ago Wednesday. He was enroute to his work at the Amarillo Air Force Base.

He was a veteran of more than 10 years in the Air Force and was a prisoner of war in Germany for 15 months during World War II.

He was married to Ruby Bemerderfer, of Chilli, who survives, with two sons. She and Mrs. Davis are cousins. Other survivors are five brothers and one sister.

LEGION SPONSORING CHRISTIAN LIVING

The citizens of our Nation are more and more convinced that the only possible way to ever achieve peace and contentment in the present chaotic world is for its citizens and public officials to return to Christian living. Sin and debauchery in a land of big church memberships is an insult to a just God. The pages of history are filled with the stories of great nations that fell into defeat and oblivion when they forgot God. All of them created the conditions which destroyed them—the same as we in America have been doing for many years.

Faith in God and Christian living is our only hope. There is no other hope even though many are working day and night upon the theory that treaty, intrigue, maneuvering, and an abundance of arms will protect us. A nation is always defeated within—not without. We were once a great nation because we were oppressed—not because we were born and reared in a palace of ease and plenty.

The American Legion organization has taken upon itself the responsibility of calling this fact to the attention of the people of America. The local unit recently had a large billboard appeal placed on the outdoor billboard on the south side of Main street.

The Legion also supplied the picture and story of the four chaplains who gave their lives for their buddies in World War II, which is printed in this issue of the Co-Op. News.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS

HEALTH FACTS FROM YOUR STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

Indiana stands at the top in the "bookkeeping of humanity" with 99 per cent of all births occurring in the state on record in the office of Herschel M. Wright, director, Division of Vital Records, Indiana State Board of Health.

This high standing was given to the Indiana State Board of Health after a study was conducted by the United States Bureau of Census and the United States Public Health Service in cooperation with the state departments of health of the various states.

When the 1950 census was taken, a special card was filled out on children born in January, February and March in 1950 and this record was checked against the microfilms of birth records sent by Mr. Wright's office to the National Office of Vital Statistics. Indiana was found to be above the 97.8 per cent national average.

"This speaks well for the doctors and health officers of Indiana for it is upon them that we depend upon for our records," Mr. Wright said. "According to law each doctor has to report the birth within five days to the health officer having jurisdiction and these records are sent to our office at the end of the month for master recording and microfilming."

POSSIBLE TAX DEDUCTIONS FOR THE AUTO DRIVER

In order to aid confused motorists in the filing of their 1951 income tax returns the Chicago Motor Club today released the following simplified list of legal deductions.

By special provisions of the law, in computing his adjusted gross income on Form 1040, a motorist may deduct automobile expenses incurred in carrying on a trade or business. For this purpose an employee is not regarded as being in a trade or business.

If the motorist files form 1040 and itemizes his deductions on page 3, he may include these allowable non-business deductions:

1. All sums paid during the taxable year 1951 in the form of registration fees, driver's license fees and personal property taxes.
2. All gasoline taxes paid by motorists to the State. In Indiana this tax was $.04 per gallon during 1952. In Illinois the tax was $.03 per gallon until August 1, and $.04 for the balance of the year.
3. The interest on money borrowed for the purchase of an automobile.
4. Casualty losses sustained by reason of damage to a passenger car while being used for pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Paulus of Rochester spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cloice Paulus.

Imported Sunshine

In a kitchen which does not receive much natural light, the illusion of sunlight has been introduced with walls painted creamy yellow. The gleaming white finish of the equipment is repeated by the light-reflecting white ceiling. The cabinets and breakfast nook have a knotty pine finish and a copper hood above the stove adds charm.

WEDDING VOWS EXCHANGED

Miss Maxine Haimbaugh, and Mr. Gerald E. Yoder were united in marriage at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Feb. 2, in the First Baptist Church of Mentone. The Rev. Milton Dowden read the double ring ceremony, before a chancel of candelabra and palms, decorated with bouquets of carnations, jonquills and snapdragons. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Haimbaugh of Mentone, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Menno Yoder of Ligonier, Indiana.

A musical preceding the ceremony was presented by Mrs. Melburn Baker, pianist; Delbert E. Hunter, violinist, and Miss Denille Baker, vocalist. Selections were, "Because of You," "Be My Love," "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a full length gown of ice blue satin. The fitted bodice was topped with a snug jacket. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held in place by a helmet hat, fashioned with flowerettes of lace and scattered with rhinestones. Her only jewelry was a rhinestone necklace. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Donna Jean Haimbaugh, sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor. She wore a gown of American Beauty satin. Her bouquet was an arrangement of yellow carnations.

Miss Patsy Lee Hunter, niece of the bride, was the ring bearer. She wore a gown of white nylon net over orchid satin. The rings were carried in an arrangement of pink carnations on a silver tray.

The best man was Mr. Ronnie Heffner of Ligonier.

Mr. Alonzo J. Haimbaugh and Delbert E. Hunter, brother and brother-in-law of the bride, were the ushers. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Haimbaugh wore a navy blue dress with blue accessories and the groom's mother wore a purple dress with black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white carnations.

The couple greeted guests and a reception was held in the church basement. The guests were served by: Mrs. Delbert Hunter, Mrs. Kermit Biddinger and Mrs. Helen Emmons.

The couple will reside at South Bend. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Melburn Baker and daughter of Toledo, Ohio; Miss Denille Baker of Bloomington; Mr. and Mrs. Perry Yoder of Elkhart; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heiny of Mishawaka, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sack of South Bend.

MRS. S. ESSIG DIES FROM HEART AILMENT

Mrs. Elizabeth (Kubley) Essig, 77, of Rochester, passed away 10:30 p. m. Monday evening, February 4, at her home from a heart ailment. She had been in failing health for the past three months.

Mrs. Essig had been a resident of Rochester for the past eight years and for many years resided at her farm home near Talma. She has a host of friends throughout Fulton and Marshall counties.

Elizabeth, daughter of Jacob and Charolotte (Beeher) Kubley, was born November 8, 1874, at Pecan Point, Ark. She was married to Edward W. Essig who preceded her in death in 1938. Mrs. Essig was a member of the Christian Church at Talma. She moved with her parents from Tennessee to a farm near Talma in 1885 and has been a resident of Marshall and Fulton counties throughout most of her life.

Survivors are: two sons, Charles H. Essig of Rochester and Emil W. Essig of Indianapolis; a granddaughter, Barbara Jane Essig of Indianapolis, two sisters, Mrs. Charlotte Cram, of Argos and Mrs. C. M. Walker of Indianapolis; a brother, William A. Kubley of Argos, and several neices and nephews. Three sisters and two brothers preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held from the Talma Christian Church Thursday afternoon at 2 p. m. with Rev. Grant Blackwood officiating. Burial was in the Reichter cemetery near Talma.

SEVERNS AGAIN RECEIVE SUPERIOR PLACEMENT

In February of last year the Ed. Severn's Duroc hogs were given a superior rating at Lafayette. At Rushville Friday at the Indiana Duroc Breeders' Association bred gilt promotion sale and show, they again were given a superior rating.

Ed stated Tuesday that the association selects the three top breeders in each of five groups throughout the state. The fact that his animal placed among the top three in two consecutive years certainly speaks well for Kosciusko county hogs.

The gilt sold at Rushville Friday brought a price of $305, which is a little indication of the value of pure bred livestock with good breeding behind it.

BEESON FAMILY HAS PROLONGED ILLNESS

Don Beeson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beeson, is suffering with rheumatic fever. Mrs. Beeson has been confined in bed for around two weeks suffering with rheumatic fever following strep throat. Larry Beeson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Beeson, has been ordered to bed following a severe sore throat.

INITIATED INTO DE MOLAY

Five Mentone boys went to Ft. Wayne Tuesday evening where they received the initiatory degree of De Molay at the Scottish Rite Cathedral. They were David Gosser, Larry McKinley, Kay Flenar, Frank Manwaring and Charles Urschel.

Judge Jasper, of the state supreme court, addressed the initiates—28 in all—and guests.

Guests from Mentone were Ralph Mollenhour, Lavern Mollenhour, Fred Lemler, Wayne Bowser, Charles Manwaring and Rev. David Gosser.

IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Estella Snyder suffered a serious heart attack Wednesday night and has been taken to the Woodlawn hospital at Rochester.

ICY ROADS BRING AUTO-BIKE COLLISION

Icy roads resulted in a car-bicycle accident last Wednesday evening in Palestine. The bicycle rider was 15-year-old Charles Shepherd, and the car was driven by Wayne Nellans. The car did not hit the bike, but the bicycle skidded just as Wayne was passing and the boy fell against the moving auto.

Young Shepherd was taken to the Murphy Medical Center. He suffered a broken nose and severe bruises. Mr. and Mrs. Mabry Shepherd are the parents.

FIRE AT KENT HOME FRIDAY

The fire department was called to the Walter Kent home Friday afternoon when Mrs. Kent noticed fire on the outside of their oil floor furnace. The fire was extinguished with damage only to the furnace piping.

Mr. Kent states he has no idea why it caught fire and is still pretty much worried—wondering just when it may happen again.

BASKETBALL PLAYERS ENTERTAINED HERE

Joe Boland, prominent South Bend sportscaster and a former college football star and coach, was the principal speaker to some 200 basketball players, coaches and principals at the Mentone gym Monday night. The event was the fifth annual pre-tourney fish fry for the personnel of the 16 high schools who will compete in the Warsaw sectional on Feb. 27, 28 and 29 and Mar. 1. The fish dinner was prepared by the Mentone boosters, assisted by Principal Walter Kent, Coach Lorin Burt and pupils of the Mentone school.

UNLUCKY DAYS?

If Norbert Darr had never before believed in a lucky or unlucky season, he surely has reason to think so now.

On Wednesday of last week, while driving west on Main Street past the high school building, in Warsaw, a boy ran from between some parked cars into Norbert's car. The boy was knocked to the pavement but was uninjured.

Then, on Monday, Norbert's car and a semi-truck collided near Palestine. The total damage was about $175. Walter Corle, of Portland, was driving the truck. No one was injured.

We won't be too surprised, in view of the incidents just mentioned, if we find Norbert deep in the study of horoscopes from now on.

BLUE

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Blue, of Van Nuys, California, are the happy parents of a daughter, Karen Lynn, born February 3. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Johnston, of Van Nuys, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Blue.

Mr. Taylor is a nephew of Mrs. De Witt and both of the young people are graduates of the De Soto High School. After a 2 weeks trip through various sections of Florida, including Miami, they expect to return to their new home near Albany where Mr. Taylor expects to continue his work of general farming and stock raising.

FIREMEN ENTERTAIN GUESTS

The Mentone Fire Department treated the wives and children of each member to a delicious chicken supper Tuesday evening.

Guests were the telephone operators, Mrs. Gertrude Hill, Mrs. Mervin Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Whetstone. Supper was taken to Mrs. Earl Davis and Mrs. Bob Smith, who remained on duty. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Mentzer, Artley Cullum, Sherman Bybee and Dick Clark. Ora McKinley was unable to attend. Fire Chief, Arlo Freisner, and Harry Smythe delivered supper to "Mac."

Sherman Bybee played many lovely selections on the piano. Vance Johns "entertained" with several solos. Sound movies of two short Mickey Mouse comics and one comedy were shown by Dick Clark.

The ladies especially want to thank the Fire Department. It is so nice to eat a meal you didn't cook—and not even be asked to wash the dishes. It was wonderful!

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moffett, of Illinois, arrived on Saturday at the Eli Julian home. Mr. Moffett went on to Ohio to attend his brother's funeral. Mrs. Moffett remained at the Julian home. She and Eli are brother and sister. They returned to their home Wednesday morning.

THE AMERICAN WAY

LET US WORSHIP HIM

By Dr. Alfred P. Haake

Alfred P. Haake "freedom under God." The Declaration of Independence itself recognizes the overlordship of God in human affairs and acknowledge that men are endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights. Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness are not the gift of government, but are rights granted by God, and we have made it the duty of government to respect and protect those rights.

It is through allegiance to God that we escape slavery under despotism.

That is why communism is so deperately against religion and so vehemently denies God as the author of civil, political and religious liberty. It is when communism induces men to cease their reliance on God and to seek instead the grace of government, that dictatorship is on its way to fulfillment and permanence.

The most direct and effective step in the saving of our freedom is to establish the Lordship of God Almighty over government and other devices of men. So, on Wednesday, December 19, 1951, in the City of Park Ridge, Illinois, there was issued the following proclamation:

"To commemorate the birth of the Savior of mankind and our eternal debt to His love,

"In reverent homage to the Spiritual Power to which we must yield obedience if there is to be peace and good will among men, and

"As a pledge of our renewed faith in freedom under God, on which this nation was founded and without which it cannot endure,

"I have directed that the flag of Christianity be flown from the official flag-staff on City Hall Plaza from sundown on Monday, December 24th to sun-down on Christmas Day, December 25, 1951.

Alfred P. Haake
Mayor"

At sundown on Christmas eve one hundred girls and boys representing the youth organizations of Park Ridge, joined with their elders in the flag-raising ceremony on the City Hall Plaza. After a brief statement by the Mayor explaining the purpose of the ceremony to recognize the Eternal God as ruler of the universe and the giver of all good gifts, two girls and a boy stepped forward to present the Royal Banner of Christianity to the clergyman representing the all-denominational ministerial association of Park Ridge. He in turn placed the flag in the hands of a city official who attached it to the ropes and drew the flag slowly to the top of the flag-staff, while the boys and girls sang a Christmas carol. Then, the flag secured and waving over the city, the ceremony was concluded with the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison.

All through the night and on Christmas Day, the flag floated from the top of the pole, symbolizing the faith of a people in Eternal God as the Author of their freedom. Side by side and deeply within our hearts, we revere the flag of our country and the symbol of God Almighty who made this country possible as the home of liberty and justice for all.

It is so that we hope some day to establish the common denominator of faith, out of which will come peace and good-will to a world gone mad with greed and fear.

LEGION AUXILIARY NEWS

Twenty members of the Mentone Post No. 425, American Legion Auxiliary, met at the post home Tuesday evening for their regular business meeting.

A report on the Marion birthday party held last Sunday at the Veterans hospital in Marion, was given by Mrs. Ward Williamson, first vice president of the unit. Members attending were Mrs. Ward Williamson, Mrs. Thomas Stanford, Mrs. Maude Snyder and Mrs. Dale Wallace. This party was sponsored by the units in the second district. The unit also voted to travel to Fort Wayne in the near future to put on a party for the patients at the veterans hospital there. The date will be announced later.

Mrs. Miles Manwaring, Americanism chairman of the unit, announced that the title of the essay contest to be held in the local junior and senior high schools will be, "America—Land of Opportunity."

A card was read from Mrs. LuEthel

Ade, district chaplain, calling attention to the American Legion's "Go to Church" movement.

The next district meeting will be held in Valparaiso on the second Wednesday in April.

The next meeting of the unit will be Tuesday, February 26, at 8:00 p. m. at the Legion home.

The name drawn for the attendance prize was Mrs. Ralph Ward.

The meeting closed with the singing of "You're a Grand Old Flag" and "God Bless America," and was turned over to the program committee, Mrs. Jack Pritchard, Mrs. Kenneth Simcoe and Mrs. Robert Sanders. Members of the refreshment committee were Mrs. George Mollenhour, Mrs. Elizabeth Simcoe, Mrs. Robert Reed and Mrs. Jack Shaffer.

Jesse Myron Coplen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Coplen was one of the group of 12 men who left for the army last week. We hope to have his address soon.

POPPIES ARRIVE AT MENTONE LEGION HOME

Poppies which everyone in Mentone will be asked to wear in honor of America's war dead on Poppy Day in May, have arrived at the American Legion Home from the Marion Veterans Hospital where they were made by disabled war veterans.

The poppies are crepe-paper replicas of the wild poppies which bloomed "between the crosses, row on row," in the war cemeteries in France and Belgium. Each one has been shaped by some disabled veteran at the Marion hospital. Each one is slightly different, but each carries the same message, "Honor the dead and aid the disabled."

We are getting flowers ready for the volunteer workers from the Auxiliary who will distribute them on the streets on Poppy Day. We hope that everyone will be proud to wear a poppy this year in tribute to those who have given their lives for our country, and will contribute as generously as they can for the welfare of the disabled veterans and needy children of veterans.

Since all Auxiliary workers are unpaid, the entire amount of the contributions they collect on Poppy Day goes into the funds which support Legion and Auxiliary activities for disabled veterans for child welfare. Most of the money will remain in our local funds to aid local veterans and their families during the coming year. All members of Mentone unit No. 425 are proud to wear and distribute these poppies on Poppy Day. Will you have a poppy on your lapel in May?

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks to the members of the Mentone Volunteer Fire Department for the quick response in putting out our fire.

Mr. and Mrs. WALTER KENT

OUR SINCERE THANKS

We want to express our most sincere thanks and appreciation to everyone for all the favors, sympathy and assistance given us following our fire, and especially do we want to thank the members of the Fire Department, and the Merchants' Association, members and citizens for the financial and moral support.

TIMELY TOPICS

By Mrs. Ruth R. Snellenberger
Home Demonstration Agent

In refinishing furniture, boiled linseed oil is preferable to the raw. The boiled linseed oil can be purchased, do not boil at home. The boiled linseed oil in more concentrated and dries more rapidly. Mrs. Delmar Clark, of Silver Lake inquired about this and I thought some others of you might also be interested.

By the way, if oil alone is used, it penetrates better if heated over hot water. Heat only what is needed for one application, not the whole amount each time.

Some use equal parts of linseed oil and turpentine mixed. This penetrates well but requires more applications.

One of the more recent inquiries regarding the purchase of rugs has come from Mrs. Don Metzger of near Silver Lake. It is not possible to give all the information here but I will make a few comments about judging quality. The chief feature by which a customer can judge quality is density of pile—number of tufts per square inch. A good quality axminster rug, for example, may have as many as 77 tufts per square inch. Less than 60 is not recommended for good wearing quality. If a printed description of a rug states the tufts per square foot then the density (number per square inch) is found by dividing by 144—the number of square inches per square foot. For example if there are 8640 tufts per square foot, the density is 60.

During a conversation recently Dr. T. S. Schuldt, County Health Director, made this statement: "It would be fine if every mother whose daughter also had a daughter could say 'I want to raise my daughter just like my mother raised me.' A similar thing might be said of a father by his son. Isn't this a good challenge to parents?

With spring fast approaching, homemakers will be considering furniture arrangement changes. I like to suggest for the living room that the activities of the family members be considered and furniture placed so that these can be carried on to the best advantage. Instead of placing furniture around the walls, group pieces for convenience. Maybe, too, some pieces that really serve no purpose should be eliminated.

REFINISHING FURNITURE NOT TOO DIFFICULT

Indiana homemakers have found another way to stretch the family pay check. They are refinishing their old worn-out furniture instead of replacing it with new expensive pieces. In many cases, the refinished furniture is of sturdier construction and high quality than the new furniture that would replace it.

To many homemakers, refinishing furniture at home has become more than a means of saving money. It has become an interesting and relatively inexpensive hobby.

Miss Martha Po Bentley, extension home furnishings specialist at Purdue University, has prepared a short illustrated leaflet entitled "Refinishing Furniture." In this leaflet, she explains the best methods of removing old finishes, repairing and replacing damaged parts and applying a new finish to your old furniture. Such problems as scratches, burns and grease spots are discussed. Methods of giving furniture an antique or old ivory finish as well as the modern blonde finish are outlined.

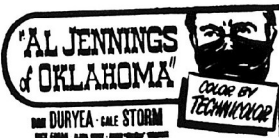

Copies of the leaflet are available at the county extension office or from the Agricultural Publications Office, Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana.

THAW FROZEN FRUITS SLOWLY FOR BEST FLAVOR

To get the most flavor and color from frozen fruits when they are served raw they need only be thawed.

Mrs. Ruth Snellenberger, home demonstration agent, of Kosciusko county, suggests that frozen fruit be left in the sealed container to thaw and be served as soon as thawed. If a few ice crystals are in the fruit, they improve the texture.

The package of frozen fruit may be placed on a low shelf in the refrigerator or may be thawed at room temperature. To help the fruit thaw evenly, the package should be turned several times. A one-pound package of fruit packed in syrup will take six to eight hours on the refrigerator shelf and two to four hours at room temperature. Fruit packed with dry sugar requires a little less time than that packed in syrup. Unsweetened fruits require more time to thaw than either fruits in dry sugar or syrup.

Only as much fruit should be thawed as needed to serve the family.

If frozen fruit is to be cooked as in pie, it should be thawed enough to loosen the pieces. If a recipe which calls for sugar is used, an allowance should be made for the sugar which was added at the time of freezing.

Since frozen fruits often have more juice than fresh fruits, only part of the juice should be used in baked foods.

Early to bed and early to rise, and your head will never feel three times its size.

Salt—Without It You'd Die

Modern technology has brought us such an abundance of things that we take them for granted. We forget that not so many years ago they were either non-existent or so scarce that blood was shed in struggles for their control.

Salt is such a product. Without it in your body, you would quickly die.

Yes, salt (sodium chloride or NaCl), has had a colorful history. References to it date all the way back to 2700 B.C., indicating the vital role played by this now common compound. Marco Polo spoke of it. So did the Bible. So did Plato and Homer and Shakespeare in their famous works.

In old China, salt was second only to gold in value. Salt cakes, bearing the stamp of the Great Kahn, were used as money in Tibet during the 18th Century. Slaves were once sold in exchange for salt on the Gold Coast of Africa. And in the days of the Roman legionnaires, soldiers received part of their pay in salt or were given a "salarium" (allowance to buy their ration of salt). Hence our present word "salary" and the expression, "He's not worth his salt."

No article of food has been so ruthlessly exploited by rulers to keep down their people as salt. The most famous example is the salt tax in France in the 18th Century. A small, favored group was given the right to refine and sell salt at prices too high for the poor to pay. When the poor tried to produce salt by evaporating sea water, they were imprisoned, and tortured, or in the event of a second offense, sent to their deaths by hanging. This abuse helped to stir up the French Revolution.

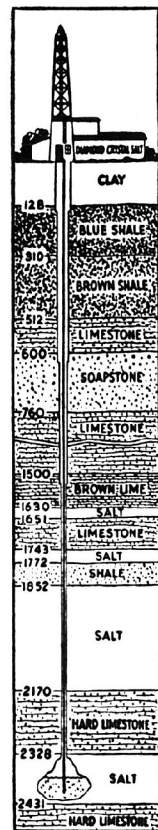

Salt has played an important part in wars, too. One of the reasons why Napoleon was forced to retreat from Moscow was because he ran out of salt for his troops. This deficiency caused low resistance to infection. Many of his soldiers' wounds, though not serious at first, proved fatal.

The early American pioneers, during their surge westward, fought the Indians over valuable salt licks. And during the Civil War, the North successfully waged a campaign to cut off the South's salt supply at the Saltville, Virginia works.

Vital to Diet

Why is salt so important? Because if it were left out of your diet, you would soon die. And that goes for animals as well as humans. Salt is present in your blood and tissue. It governs the exchange of water in your tissues and maintains the proper osmotic pressure. Your body is continually throwing off salt through your kidneys and glands, so it must be replaced. Every adult needs two-thirds of an ounce of salt every day.

At the last count, there were more than 14,000 ways in which salt can be used. In the United States, world's leading producer of salt, salt used in the manufacture of chemicals is the chief use. Dry salt for livestock ranks second, and salt for household use is in third place.

Salt deposits

In our country, most salt comes from deposits underground, yielding a much finer grade than is usually produced commercially from other sources.

Two methods are used to reach these deposits. One is to dig a mine shaft down to the deposit, blast it out, lift the chunks of salt to the surface in elevators, and then crush the chunks and screen the sale. The other method, yielding a far purer grade of salt, is to drill for it. This method is used by

MRS. C. MIKESELL GIVES LESSON ON FLOWERS

The Tippecanoe River Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harley Mathews with 18 members, seven children, and two guests, Mrs. Ernest Castlow and Mrs. Lavoy Hoffman.

The meeting was opened with singing of "America the Beautiful", pledge to the flag and club creed.

"Because of Friends Like You" was given by Mrs. Harley Mathews during the devotional period. The history of the song of the month was read by Mrs. Viola Adams and the group sang "Grandfather's Clock."

"How I Met My Husband" was given in response to roll call.

The lesson on house plants and flowers and their care was given by Mrs. Clarence Mikesell. Oon interesting point which she expressed was that flowers should be planted in the back yard, not in the front yard. She discussed preparation of soil, color, color scheme, and weed controls. She contends that the hoe and elbow grease are the best methods for the latter.

Mrs. Thurl Alber and Mrs. Adams were appointed to make arrangements for a club trip. The group voted to have a family night at the Talma gym in October. The next lesson will be on care of clothing.

An enjoyable contest was conducted by Mrs. William Squire. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

MORE OF OUR MONEY FOR EUROPE THAN FOR EDUCATION

President Truman's proposed budget indicates that European nations will get a gift of twice as much money as America spends on educating its youth through high school. In fact, the aid to foreigners is generally more than the entire revenue of the individual states.

The estimated figures, prepared by the White House statistician, show the following for Indiana and Illinois:

Indiana:
State revenue .....	$238,805,000
Foreign Aid .....	276,630,000
Schools .....	128,278,000
Illinois:
State revenue .....	419,249,000
Foreign Aid .....	606,900,000
Schools .....	275,439,000

Judging by some of the antics of our so-called government intellectuals—many of whom are merely WPA forerunners given a promotion—Americans are the ones that need a little educating.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie L. Welty are now located at the former Alva Shunk farm.

Chet Herendeen has returned home after being a patient in the Woodlawn hospital for several days.

Large Export

Approximately 45% of the United States rice crop is exported annually.

Rice Medicine

Rice has important healing properties. It is a nerve building food. It is the most antitoxic of all cereals—the most easily utilized of all foods—the least irritating and the most nutritive of all grains. It is a food recommended for persons suffering from Bright's Disease, and for invalids from almost any cause. Just recently it has been found to be of great value in reducing high blood pressure.

Wood and Leather

Artistically, leather and wood are compatible in appearance and texture as well as durability. Many fine tables and desks are made with leather tops these days. Leather can be finished in an endless variety of effects. It may be given any desired color, shading, decorated with inlay of gold leaf or left with the fine markings and grain of the leather to please the eye. The finishing of the leather when it is used in conjunction with wood requires highly skilled craftsmanship.

GIVEN FEDERAL FINE

M. F. Todd, of near Warsaw, who formerly operated a poultry dressing plant near Mentone, has been fined $500 and costs by Judge Luther M. Swygert in the federal district court at Fort Wayne.

Thomas O'Malley, regional director of the wage and hour and public contracts division of the U. S. Department of Labor, said that a previous investigation of the firm's records disclosed that the company had not paid proper overtime compensation as required by the wage and hour law. O'Malley stated Todd agreed to pay back wages to four workers, and on Jan. 16, 1951 Todd mailed to the department of labor nine receipts for unpaid wages signed by the employees. Subsequent investigation, according to O'Malley, disclosed that four of the employees had signed receipts but had not received the money.

In addition to the fine, Todd was directed to pay back wages of $844 to four former employees.

JOHN MARSHALL SAID IT ALL

Karl Marx, the intellectual father of communism, devised a ten-plank platform whereby, he believed, the capitalistic or free enterprise economic system, with its right of private ownership of property, could be destroyed. Two of these plans dealt with taxation and ran as follows: 1. A heavy progressive or graduated income tax. 2. Abolition of all right of inheritance—that is, a 100 per cent inheritance tax.

We have not yet reached the entire communist objective, but we have come an ominously long way along the road. Today the tax on individual incomes runs to a high of 92 per cent—and its minimum is 22.2 per cent on incomes of not over $2,000. The corporation tax is 52 per cent, to which 30 per cent more is added for so-called "excess profits." And the inheritance taxes are very steep.

It is this situation which has stirred up so much support for a constitutional amendment to limit the taxing power of Congress. The proposed amendment fixes the rate at 25 per cent, and provides that it can be raised to higher level in the event of such an emergency as war. The whole idea is to force economy and efficiency on the government by Constitutionally depriving it of excessive amounts of money. The cloth would have to be cut to fit.

Destruction of free enterprise and truly representative government can be accomplished by drying up the economic resources that maintain them. That is what our insane fiscal policy is doing now. John Marshall said it all when he said that the power to tax is the power to destroy.—Industrial New Review.

SERVICE IS THE MEASURE

A few months ago, during Oil Progress Week, an interesting demonstration was held. Old-time and modern motor cars participated, to graphically demonstrate the results of scientific tests proving that two gallons of today's gasoline can do the work that required three back in 1925.

Moreover, that gas costs no more than it did in 1925—save for taxes. The taxes over which the oil people have no control have gone steadily up.

In view of the incredible quantities of gasoline we consume in this country, this is an achievement of no mean proportion. It is one of the wholesome fruits of thousands of oil companies competing for business and consumer favor—each trying to offer a better product.

It is also a testimonial to the structure of the oil industry. Some of the companies which are part of it are very big. They have to be, to carry on enormously costly major operations, and to provide all the equipment and highly trained personnel and the other facilities which are needed. But thousands of other companies are small or medium-sized, and there is plenty of room in oil for them. In fact, the existence of the big companies does much to make the existence of small concerns possible. As an example, there could be no corner service station until there were some big concerns to supply it with the products it sells.

That is important, in these days of vicious and misleading attacks on bigness. Size is not the arbiter of worth and virtue. The real measuring stick is service....Industrial News Review.

CONTINUE 4-H PUBLIC SPEAKING PROGRAM IN INDIANA THIS YEAR

The 4-H Public Speaking Awards program is being continued in Indiana in 1952 for the third consecutive year, the State Club office has announced.

Thousands of 4-H Club boys and girls, realizing that speaking in public goes hand in hand with every type of 4-H project or activity, have taken advantage of the training offered through this program.

As incentives for outstanding records in public speaking in this and 27 other states, gold-filled medals are awarded to the top rating boy and girl in each participating county. The state winning girl receives a beautiful set of silverware, and the outstanding boy gets a 17-jewel wrist watch. Awards are provided by the Pure Oil Co., which this year also offers two college scholarships of $300 each, and two educational trips to the 31st National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next November for national winners. All states are eligible to submit candidates for these two national awards.

Last year's state winners in Indiana were Kay S. Poynter, Howe, and Barbara A. Abernathy of Liberty.

This program is conducted under the direction of the Cooperative Extension Service.

NOMINATED TO MEMBERSHIP IN HONORARY ORGANIZATION

Dr. Dan Urschel recently received notification of his selection for Fellowship in two national honorary medical organizations, the American College of Cardiology, and the American Geriatrics Society.

The American College of Cardiology, as its name implies, is a national organization limited to physicians working with diseases of the heart and blood vessels. It was organized in 1949, under the direction of Dr. Franz Groedel, of New York City, in recognition of the need for a national medical group devoted solely to the study of diseases of the heart. Fellowship in the College is granted to physicians who have had at least 5 years of training in the specialty of cardiovascular diseases and are actively engaged in practicing that specialty. Election to Fellowship is based upon this training and practice, plus specialty certification, published research articles, and personal recommendations from other cardiologists.

The American Geriatrics Society, on the other hand, is not limited to specialists in any one field, but is made up of doctors whose special interest brings them into contact with problems relating to Geriatrics (Diseases of the aged, or medical study of the aging process). By virtue of the wide advances in preventive medicine among children and young adults, a constantly increasing percentage of the American population lives to the age concerned in geriatric study. For this reason it has become increasingly important that doctors devote more time and research to these problems. The heart and blood vessels are particularly involved in geriatrics, and for this reason cardiologists play an important role in the American Geriatrics Society. Election to Fellowship is based upon this special interest, and upon recommendations.

CO-OP. ANNUAL MEETING WILL BE HELD MARCH 3

The annual stockholders' meeting of the Northern Indiana Cooperative Association will be held in the Mentone school on Monday afternoon, March 3.

Letters have been mailed to all the stockholders notifying them of the meeting. The letters also contained a ballot which the stockholder may use to cast his vote for two directors, in case he or she will be unable to attend the meeting in person. These ballots must be returned to the association secretary at least three days prior to the meeting date. (If you use the absent voter ballot and then find you can come to the meeting, you may pick up your absent voter ballot and take part in the voting at the meeting.)

The terms of Raymond Lash and Frank Nellans, as directors, expire, and two directors will be named by the stockholders. The nominating committee has named the following as candidates:

Leroy Norris
Frank Nellans
Chester Christian
Carrol Eller.

The ballots contain two blank lines where a stockholder may write in the names of other candidates and then properly mark the square before such names.

The directors of the association are very desirous of having every stockholder attend the meeting in person, as they want each one to know that their interest in the affairs of the association is appreciated. The directors and manager are doing everything they can to see that the association performs every service possible, not only to the stockholders but the patrons as well. Your sincere interest in the association can be a great encouragement to them.

Manager Ed Ward stated Monday that they will have a number of gifts that will be given as door awards at the meeting and every stockholder present will have equal opportunity to share in the awards.

FIRE DESTROYS FARM RESIDENCE

Fire, about 8:30 p. m. Thursday evening, destroyed the farm residence owned by Ned Smith and occupied by Calvin Ringle and family, just east of Newcastle township line on the Fort Wayne Road.

The Rochester fire department responded to a mutual call by the Akron fire department, but found the frame house practically gutted by flames before arrival. Some pieces of furniture were saved, but most of the Ringle household goods were destroyed. There was no insurance.

The blaze started in a well pit which had been packed with straw to protect the water supply from freezing. A short in the electric pump ignited the straw. The well house was in flames before the family was aware of it. The Ringles had no telephone, some time elapsed before the alarm reached the Akron fire department. In the meantime the flames had spread to the house.

Ringle is employed at the Enyarts Motors Sales at Rochester.

INDIANA PROHIBITION LEADER TO SPEAK HERE FEB. 26

John Lamey, of Winona Lake, chairman of the Indiana Prohibition committee, will be speaking in Mentone on the subject, "Repeal Has Failed," at the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening, Feb. 26th, at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. Lamey is exceptionally well qualified to deal with this phase of the liquor problem, having only a few years ago been enslaved by the drink habit himself. His information is factual and his illustrations are drawn mostly from personal experiences. He has a message of vital interest to all citizens who are concerned about the future of our great nation.

Thinking people the country over are beginning to realize that the liquor problem has risen to the position of Public Enemy No. 1. The majority of these people would like to do something about it, but do not know where to start. Mr. Lamey states that the only solution to the problem is national prohibition and will explain how anyone interested can assist in reaching that goal.

Adam Carper was confined to the McDonald hospital a couple days last week with a severe nose bleed.

NATIONAL WILDLIFE WEEK TO BE MARCH 16 - 22

Bert Myers, Indiana University, Bloomington, Secretary-Treasurer of the Indiana State Advisory Committee is Indiana Director of Publicity and Promotion for the observance of National Wildlife Week, March 16-22.

Appointment of Mr. Myers was announced recently in a letter from Carl D. Shoemaker, Conservation Director of the National Wildlife Federation, Washington, D. C.

The week, according to Mr. Myers, will be marked by proclamations by state and local government officials, speaking programs throughout the country, window displays and campaigns advertising the event.

Long active in conservation circles, Mr. Myers has sought the cooperation of all conservation organizations in Indiana in giving widespread support to Wildlife Week.

National Chairman is Ed Dodd, creator of the popular newspaper and radio feature, "Mark Trail."

During the 1952 observance of the week special stress will be placed on the preservation of a species of wildlife about to pass from the American scene—the diminutive Key deer of Florida.

Observance of the week has been on national scope since 1938, sponsored by the non-profit Federation as a means of calling public attention to the broad and pressing problems of natural resource management. This year's particular kind of wildlife—some species considered in critical or precarious condition, will be given special attention.

The National Wildlife Federation has created a special fund known as the Key deer Fund and contributions will be used to improve the island habitat of the little creatures and in constructing water holes and building fences along highways. Several of them have been killed recently by cars. Also a sum will be set aside to keep a special protection officer on the job at all times in the Key deer area. Contributions may be mailed to the Key deer Fund, National Wildlife Federation, Washington 10, D. C.

STATE MEMORIAL GATE
PRICE REDUCED

The Indianapolis office of Internal Revenue Division of the United States has informed the Indiana Department of Conservation that from now on it has removed from the admission price to State Memorials in Indiana, the government's former out of twenty per cent.

Thus the Department of Conservation is happy to tell the residents of Indiana and visitors from other states that from now on the admission price to the Hoosier State's Memorials will be a bit easier on the pocket book.

Adults and children will be admitted to Corydon Capitol State Memorial for ten cents each. Other State Memorials where it has been customary to charge thirty cents for adults and twelve cents for children but where this has been reduced to twenty-five cents and ten cents, include Lanier State Memorial, Madison; Lumberlost State Memorial, Geneva; Gene Stratton Porter State Memorial, Rome City, and T. C. Steele State Memorial, Bloomington. Visitors to the Territorial Capitol State Memorial at Vincennes will pay ten cents for adults and children.

The Division of Parks, Lands, and Waters, Indiana Department of Conservation also has under advisement before the United States Department of International Revenue, a petition to remove from the charge ticket at all its State Parks, the government's per cent for admission to these recreational locales. It is entirely possible, according to Kenneth R. Cougill, director of the division, that this will be accomplished within the not too distant future.

The reduction of admission prices to Indiana's State Memorials by a nickel helps—especially if you happen to be the father of a family of five or six conservation minded youngsters.

Rice Value

Rice is one of the most sanitary of all foods. The surface of a grain of rice is smooth and hard, making it almost germ-proof. Then too, in the milling process—in fact, from the time rice is harvested until it reaches the kitchen to be cooked—it never is touched by human hands, every step being handled by clean food-handling machinery.

GREEN LIGHT OFTEN INVITATION TO TRAGEDY

Traffic signals and their intersections should be areas of caution to all drivers, the Chicago Motor Club warned today.

Club officials pointed out that too many drivers regard a green light as an assurance of a clear road through an intersection. Often this over-confidence in traffic lights results in an accident. Even a green light and a clear street should be approached carefully and with the automobile operating at a speed that offers a safe margin for emergency stops, the Club cautioned.

Drivers who rush lights are a particular menace, especially the "jack rabbits" who leap away from their stopped positions at the first flicker of the amber light. The rest of this fraternity is composed of those drivers who dash through a traffic signal on the amber caution light or even dash headlong through the early flash of the red signal. When two such drivers meet, the spot of the meeting is apt to be the middle of the intersection, and the results of the meeting—property damage and injury.

"Light creepers" are another group who make stop-light intersections dangerous. These drivers inch their cars forward, anticipating the light change. Pedestrian cross-walks get blocked. People on foot are forced out into the flowing traffic.

Pedestrians themselves add to the hazards by dashing across the traffic pattern in a rush equal to that displayed by certain motorists. For their own safety, foot travelers should accord traffic signals the same respect expected of motorists.

Safety at intersections can be cheaply bought by all who follow these simple rules:

1. Never, on foot or in a car, "rush the light." Wait for a clear green light before starting up.
2. Approach all stoplights with caution—even when receiving a green light.
3. Signal your intention to turn or stop. Always stay in the correct zone for turns.

HEALTH FACTS FROM YOUR STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

George Washington's false teeth on exhibit at Mount Vernon could be used as a measuring stick of the strides made today in dentistry, according to Dr. Roy D. Smiley, director, Dental Division, Indiana State Board of Health.

"Of course George Washington as president of the United States would have the best teeth of the day. His teeth were made of ivory by Paul Revere, the famed gold and silversmith. Springs connecting the lower and upper dentures held them in position in the mouth," Dr. Smiley pointed out.

"Today, the job of the springs is done by proper adaption to mouth tissues. Tomorrow, the dentists hope that new preventive measures will result in minimum tooth troubles for the next generation. The fluoridation of public water supplies, fluorides applied direct to the teeth of children by dentists or dental hygienists in communities without fluoridation, regular visits to the dentist, proper tooth brushing, good nutritional diet habits with the minimum use of refined sugars will all contribute to minimum tooth decay."

PRAYER FOR GENERAL PEACE

Thy Footsteps, Lord, with joy we trace
And mark the conquest of thy grace
Complete the work Thou hast begun
And let thy will on earth be done.

O show Thyself, The Prince of Peace
Command the din of war to cease
O bid contending nations rest
And love pervade each human breast.

Then Peace shall lift her balmy wing
And through God's victory the nations
sing,
Reviving Commerce lift her head
And want and woe and hate be fled.

Thou good and wise and righteous
Lord

All move subservient to thy word,
O soon let every nation prove
The perfect joy of Christian Love.

BETTER PASTURES AND MORE PROFITS

A good pasture system is one of the secrets of economical livestock gains. As long as livestock can feed themselves on a green, succulent pasture, they will not need to be fed large amounts of costly grains and supplements.

How to establish and maintain a green, succulent pasture with a high livestock carrying capacity has been discussed in a recent leaflet prepared by the Purdue University agronomy department. In this leaflet, entitled, "Your Key to Good Pastures," (Extension Leaflet 244), extension pasture specialists explain the latest permanent and supplementary pasture recommendations.

These specialists suggest that the old permanent pasture be renovated by thoroughly disking the poor sod and seeding it with a grass legume mixture. The soil should be tested and heavy fertilizer lime applications should be made as needed. In addition, four or five tons of manure should be spread per acre over the entire pasture to give it an extra boost. It is suggested that a bag of superphosphate be spread with each load of manure.

Copies of the leaflet are available at the local county agent's office or from the Agricultural Publications Office, Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana.

POULTRY IS BIG BUSINESS IN COUNTY

The value of poultry and poultry products sold in Kosciusko County, increased from $3,008,489 to $4,188,360 between 1944 and 1949, according to 1950 U. S. census of agriculture figures recently received by the Purdue University Agricultural Extension Service. Of the 2,783 farms of all types in the county in 1950, 405 were classed as poultry farms.

Value of poultry and poultry products for Indiana as a whole increased 20.4 per cent between 1944 and 1949. Total value of the poultry industry in the state for 1951 was estimated by Dr. J. Homes Martin, Purdue Poultry Chief, at about $170,000,000.

In Kosciusko County, 1,640 farms reported sales of 830,245 chickens worth $924,799 in 1949. This included many farms where poultry is not the main source of income and therefore the farm is not classified as a "poultry farm."

A total of 7,307,758 dozen market eggs were sold in 1949 by 1,873 farmers in the county. The eggs brought $3,203,087.

County farmers raised 5,296 turkeys in 1944.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Blue and daughter, Jackie, were Friday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Anglin at Etna Green.

BAPTIST NEWS

Word has been received that Dr. Jon Rouch and family have left France and are on their way to French Equatorial Africa where Dr. Rouch and two other doctors will run a large hospital for the whole area. Dr. Rouch had started a weekly Bible class in his home which has been taken over by Rev. Robert Munn, a member of this church, and a teacher in the European Bible Institute in Paris.

Rev. and Mrs. Ralston are now working in Texas in their children's work. Word came this week from Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Phillips, in Mexico, and the Lord is blessing the work there. At the business meeting the church voted to support the Gordon Wray family in the Philippines for $75 a month. Mr. Wray teaches in a Bible Institute in Iloilo City on the Island of Panay. Last Thursday night Rev. Harvey Taylor showed pictures of work on the home mission field in South Dakota and Montana and among the Indians. Several small Baptist churches have been organized in needy areas in the Western States.

You are invited to bring your Bible and enjoy with us the Exposition of Zechariah each Sunday evening at 7:30. A large chart is used and the prophecies of the Book are most up-to-date.

TIMELY TOPICS

By Mrs. Ruth R. Snellenberger
Home Demonstration Agent

When talking with Mrs. Loren Tridle of Mentone, recently about losing weight, we were discussing the practice of many homemakers of frequently eating the small portions of food left in serving dishes at the end of the meal or of eating something that a child had left on his plate. Of this Mrs. Tridle said "I decided the food should go to W-A-S-T-E rather than to my W-A-I-S-T."

I think that is a good slogan for other homemakers to think about who are interested in losing or in maintaining their weight. Of course, it could also be a challenge to prepare and serve only what will be eaten or what might be used in left over preparations.

By the way, Mrs. Tridle stated she felt that the will to refrain from certain foods rested with the individual. Whenever a person becomes dissatisfied enough—her photographs portray her larger than she wants to appear, or she's not able to wear the style dress she'd like to wear and look well in, or she realizes that her health is being interfered with—, then only she can develop the will power to lose.

You know, these remarks are not limited to women. Even one of the comic strips portray a man's problems in trying to lose!

During this month of February in which the birthdays of both Washington and Lincoln are observed, it would be well if each of us could read about and think about the principles which they defended in serving our country. One aspect which impresses me, and I hope you will all agree that it is important, is that both Presidents were outspoken on the dependence of our people, collectively and individually, on Almighty God. Both professed and practiced belief in God. If our nation now is to grow and be secure I think more people need to profess and practice belief in God.

Have you your gardening plans made? Not yet, you say? Time is at hand when you need to know what varieties to plant, depending on what preservation processes you expect to use, if any. Some varieties of peas, for example, are better for freezing than others. The same can be said of corn varieties.

There is an extension bulletin on vegetable Varieties for Indiana Plantings available for the asking from the county extension office.

Bulldogs Lose Thriller

Mentone fans who attended the Milford-Mentone basketball game at Milford last Friday evening saw the Bulldogs lose a close contest. The Mentone boys out-played and out-scored the Milford team during the first half. A disastrous third quarter accounted for the defeat. A fourth quarter rally fell six points short, 66-60. Our second team also lost. This Friday in the local gym we wind up the regular season by entertaining Gilead.

Sectional Tourney Approaches

Drawings for the Sectional Tourney at Warsaw will be announced this Thursday morning. Tickets will go on sale on Friday. Preference will be given to school pupils, teachers and parents of players. Bernard Doyle enrolled at Mentone on Monday. They are: James, 12th grade, Connie, 9th Grade, Diane 6th, Susan, 5th and Kathleen, 2nd. They formerly lived near Rantoul, Illinois. Our enrollment at the present time exceeds that of any time during the last two years.

The teachers held a regular teachers' meeting Monday. The main topic for discussion was curriculum changes in the various grades. This same topic will be considered at the Principals' meeting this week.

Intelligence tests were given in grade 7 on Tuesday.

A devotional period will be held at 10:05 on Thursday. Joseph Jones, pastor of the local Church of Christ will be guest speaker.

Penny Supper

Parents and friends of the band students have been asked to help support the Penny Supper this Saturday evening in the school cafeteria. Proceeds of the supper will be used to purchase two new uniforms, both badly needed. Serving will begin at 5:00 and continue until 7:00.

Fourth Grade To Broadcast

The 4th grade will be featured in a broadcast over WKAM this Saturday at 11:30. Technical difficulties prevented the program being broadcast two weeks ago.

Pupils in grades 7-12 are being encouraged to enter the American Legion Auxiliary Essay contest. A five dollar award will be given to the winner in the high school and junior high. The topic this year is "America—Land of Opportunity." Sometimes encouragement at home helps increase participation in a worthwhile project such as this one.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Griffis and family have moved into the home recently purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parker. The Parkers are living in the apartment above the post office until their new home can be completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Paxton have moved from their home in the south part of town to South Bend.

METHODIST CHURCH NEWS

The speaker for the University of Life Program on Sunday evening will be Mr. Paul Verghese, a student from India who is attending Goshen College. Mr. Verghese spoke to the Woman's Society of Christian Service this past autumn and to a District M. Y. F. Rally in November.

It was the seriousness of his previous addresses which prompted the Program Committee to include him in this series of services. He will relate his National and the International situations to our subject, CHRIST IN THE WORLD TODAY, through the eyes of an Eastern Christian, as he has made his observations in India and in this country.

Program leaders for the Children and Youth are Mrs. Katherine Teel, Mrs. Joe Baker and Mrs. LaMar Anderson.

The Serving Committee consists of Mr. and Mrs. John Boggs, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Manwaring, and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Long, Co-Chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. James Rodibaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whetstone, Dr. and Mrs. Dan Urschel, Dr. and Mrs. Donald Van Gilder, Mr. and Mrs. DeVon Hilschman, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Horn, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Nellans, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pritchard and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Herendeen.

On Wednesday morning of this week the J-O-Y Circle of the W. S. C. S. began a study group to study "The Family—A Christian's Concern." The first chapter, "The Protestant Approach to the Family" and the Foreword were reviewed and discussed.

On Monday evening the Mary and Martha Circle will meet at the residence of Mrs. Glenn Denton. Devotions will be conducted by Mrs. Howard Kohr, and Mrs. Denton Abbey will present the lesson from the study book.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference of the church year will be held on Friday, February 29, at 7:30 p. m.

The program by the DePauw students will be given on Sunday, March 16, instead of March 2. Mr. Waldo Adams will speak on March 2.

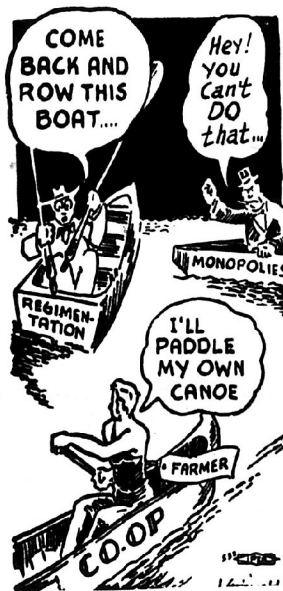

The Methodist church is observing Methodist Laymans Day this coming Sunday.

Floyd Tucker, who is in Florida, is running right up to par. Each year he sends the editor a copy of a special issue of the Tampa Morning Tribune. The issue is printed especially for the big Florida Fair and Gasparilla and there were 68 pages in the 1952 accomplishment. It seems the pirates invade Tampa during the fair and really "ransack" the city. Floyd didn't say which palm tree he was hiding in when the pirates landed.

MENTONE READING CLUB MEETS

The Mentone Reading Club held the February meeting on last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Harold Nelson.

Following the business meeting, which was conducted by the president, Mrs. LeRoy Norris, the program committee, Mrs. Elmore Fenstermaker and Mrs. Charles Manwaring, took charge. A book review was to have been given by Mrs. Frost, of Warsaw, but illness prevented her from doing so. A fine program was enjoyed, however, in spite of the short notice. Eleanor Rush, a member of the speech club, read a humorous skit portraying "the fond mother and junior." Mrs. Vance Johns then gave a graphic and colorful account of their trip to New Harmony, where they saw the Raintree pageant, which is presented each year in June.

Delicious refreshments, in keeping with the season, were served to the group by the hostess and her assistant, Mrs. Miles Manwaring.

MAKE THE PACKED LUNCH A NUTRITIOUS ONE

There is a direct relationship between a healthful diet, the progress a child makes in school and the efficiency of a worker on his job.

Many school children and workers depend upon a packed lunch for their noon meal. Therefore, the packed lunch should be prepared with the other two meals in mind and should furnish one-third of the daily food requirements.

Many people think that it doesn't matter what they eat for lunch if they have a good meal in the evening. Nutrition research has proved that one good meal will not make up for a poor one.

Opal Stech, extension home economist at Purdue University, has prepared Extension Leaflet 314, entitled "Packed Lunches for Health." In this leaflet, Miss Stech points out that the packed lunch should be planned and prepared with as much consideration as any other meal. It should include tasty sandwiches, raw vegetables, fresh fruit, dessert, and milk in some form. It is equally important that the food is properly wrapped so that it will stay fresh and appetizing.

Miss Stech includes many new ideas for sandwich fillings and tips for preparing packed lunches a week in advance to save time and vary the menu.

A free copy of this publication may be picked up at the local county extension office or may be obtained by writing to the Agricultural Publications Office, Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana.

CONSERVATION TEXT BOOKS NOW AVAILABLE

Illustrated books depicting birds, leaves, trees and other phases of nature common to the study of Conservation have found their way into the ninety-two counties comprising the State of Indiana, according to Henry W. (Heine) Moesch, Director of the Educational Division of the Indiana Department of Conservation.

Twenty-seven hundred books, all illustrated in color and so edited as to be easily understood by the primary grade conservationists in the state thus far have been distributed free of charge by this department of the State Government.

Distribution of the books was made following consultation with County School Superintendents who designated spots where the initial distribution should take place.

Field Representatives of the Division of Education called upon the various educators and discussed the matter thoroughly prior to the placing of these books in the schools.

The Department of Conservation thus opened the door to an educational program dealing entirely with conservation education in the school of the state.

Inasmuch as the conservation department cannot bear in its entirety the expense incurred in the further distribution of these books, other organizations such as P. T. A. groups, conservation organizations and civic leaders will be urged to place them in schools in the state thus far not having them. They may be purchased by contacting Mr. Moesch by telephone, Imperial 3411 or by writing to him at the Education Division, Indiana Department of Conservation, 311 West Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana.

The American Red Cross Fund Drive will be held during the month of March. The organization for Kosciusko county is now being completed with John D. Wideman and Phillip J. Harris of Warsaw, as co-chairmen for the County. Mrs. William Long, Executive secretary of County Red Cross, is working with the co-chairmen.

A kick-off meeting will be held on Monday, February 25 at the Warsaw Senior High School for the Township Chairmen and the workers. The county goal is $12,290.00.

Mr. Harris states that, "We think it is important that the people know that 70 per cent of the funds received in this county from the Red Cross Drive will be applied directly to the benefit of our residents. The remaining 30 per cent of the contribution is used for numerous National emergencies which are well known. It is imperative that we reach our goal of $12,290 for this county. There will be little doubt of the success if the people of our community are aware of the extensive projects in which the Red Cross is engaged."

KNOW YOUR SOIL

Most farmers know something about the soil on their farms. They know the depth of the soil, whether it's light, sandy and porous or heavy, tight and sticky. From experience gained over a period of years they know which crops do best on certain fields and which spots fail to produce satisfactorily for some unexplained reason. They do not however know too much about other factors which affect maximum crop production. Among these are the amount of available plant food nutrients present in the soil such as potassium, phosphorus, calcium, magnesium and other minor elements. Much of this knowledge, know-how or experience has been gained by the trial and error method. This method of crop production and treating the soil can be very expensive—the results in too many cases being slow or uncertain. One of the best ways to get better acquainted with your soil is to have it tested. Of course a soil test can be no better than the sample. Unless you have had some experience in taking soil samples, it is best to get in touch with your local County Extension Service agent or County P. M. A. Committee. They can tell you how to take the soil samples, how to pack them and where to send them for testing.

As guide to the soil technician, the samples should be accompanied by a brief statement of the crops grown on the land from which the samples were taken and the treatment given it in the form of fertilizer, limestone and other minerals or chemicals applied or crops turned under. You should also indicate the crops intended to be planted in your rotation plan for the next two or three years. The technician can tell you with considerable accuracy the amount and grades of fertilizer best suited to your needs and the amount of agricultural limestone needed to supply the minimum requirements of calcium and magnesium needed for best results in both the quantity and quality of the food or fibre produced.

Plan to get better acquainted with your soil as soon as the frost is out of the ground and before planting time.

FIRE AGAIN STRIKES

OUR BUSINESS DISTRICT

About three o'clock Wednesday morning fire was discovered in the Lake Trail Cafe, and in a matter of minutes seven to eight thousand dollars in damage was done to the building and contents. The mass of the fire was in the center of the room beneath the counter. About 100 square feet of the floor burned through and the counter was almost completely burned away. The intense heat scalded all the paint, discolored dishes and ruined merchandise. The water and steam cracked about all the glass and mirrors and some of the furniture was blistered badly. The heat even caused considerable damage back in the kitchen unit.

Estimators were busy today attempting to determine the total damage, but indications are that Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barkman, owners of the cafe, will find their $5,000 insurance a trifle short of their loss.

The fire was discovered by Walter Wilson, who lives in an apartment above. He smelled smoke and heard the crackling fire, and when Walt came down stairs he had a suitcase in one hand and some of his clothes over his arm.

Warsaw, Burket and Etna Green sent fire trucks here to aid Mentone's two pumpers.

The building is owned by Clayton Goodman and the fire was the first door east of the Denton Drug Store. A few weeks ago the Watkins radio shop, at the rear of the drug store, burned.

STORING OF GRAIN

A program dealing with the economics of storing grain will be held on Tuesday, March 4 at 1:00 p. m. in the Women's Building on the Fair Grounds according to Paul E. Jackson, County Agricultural Agent. Mr. Jackson has arranged to have J. A. Shute, specialist from the Agricultural Economics Department, Purdue University, lead the discussion.

Some farmers sell their grain direct from the combine at harvest time—others hold their grain for higher prices later in the marketing season. There is no set rule of thumb to help farmers in making this decision. Each farmer must size up the situation as it applies to his business.

Seasonal grain price variation, why grain prices vary from one time of the year to the other and what it costs farmers to store grain are some factors which will be discussed at this meeting. The possibility of buying grain futures instead of storing will be also taken into account.

This should be a profitable session for farmers who sell soybeans, corn or wheat.

GARBAGE COLLECTION

I will be in Mentone each Saturday to pick up garbage. When the weather gets warmer I will pick up twice a week. Also contact me for trash hauling. No charge for garbage collection.

NITROGEN APPLICATION AFFECTS CROP YIELDS

Nitrogen can step up yields of small grains, corn, and meadow crops if it is applied so that it is available during the period of most rapid growth, says Dr. S. A. Barber of the department of agronomy at Purdue University.

For small grains the best time to apply is before growth begins in the spring. For corn, heavy rates of nitrogen—50 pounds or more—may be applied any time between plowing for corn and last cultivation. Lower rates are more profitably applied closer to the time of the last cultivation.

The most efficient methods of application which have been developed are broadcasting on the surface, broadcasting on the surface and plowing under, banding in the furrow bottom or banding with a deep applicator, applying four inches deep midway between the corn rows at last cultivation, and spraying on the foliage.

Broadcasting on the surface and spraying on foliage may be effective application methods for small grains. Any of the methods except spraying on the foliage and broadcasting on the surface may be used for corn, Dr. Barber says.

Some materials are better than others for a particular application practice. Where the fertilizer is to be applied several months in advance of the time the crop will use it, an ammonia form of nitrogen is advised. This is not necessary on heavy soils but is essential on sandy ones. In ammonia form, nitrogen does not leach away but it may in the nitrate form.

The ammonia and nitrate forms are equally effective as a source of nitrogen for the plant. Where nitrogen is to be applied shortly before planting time, the use of an inorganic form is preferred. Organic forms become available more slowly since the first must break down into the ammonia form before they are of use to the plant.

MEMORIAL POPPY BRINGS HOPE TO WAR DISABLED

The memorial poppy, which will be worn to honor the war dead on Poppy Day in May, was described as a flower of hope for disabled veterans and their families by Mrs. Ward Williamson, president of Mentone Unit No. 425, American Legion Auxiliary, as the unit continues preparations for the observance of Poppy Day.

"Contributions made on Poppy Day are the main source of support for the extensive activities for the welfare of disabled veterans and needy children of veterans, that are carried out constantly by the Auxiliary," Mrs. Williamson said. "Because of the generosity of the millions of Americans who wear the poppy each year, we are able to bring hope into the lives of disabled veterans and their families."

"The coins which people drop into the contribution boxes carried by our poppy workers go to give comfort and cheer to disabled veterans in the hospital. They make possible aid to families of veterans left destitute when the veterans are forced to undergo hospital treatment, and they give a helping hand to veterans seeking to re-establish themselves in life after long hospitalization. Poppy Day contributions also work throughout the year for the welfare of children of veterans found in need, helping to keep homes together and to give these children a fair start in life.

"From the contributions, too, come the earnings to the disabled veterans who make the poppies. Working in their hospital beds, wheel chairs and hospital shops, or in convalescent work-rooms maintained by the Auxiliary outside these hospitals, these veterans have made approximately 30,000,000 of the little crepe-paper flowers this year, and have been able to help themselves and their families with their earnings. They are the only paid workers in the poppy program, the women who distribute the poppies on the streets serving as unpaid volunteers."

TIMELY TOPICS

By Mrs. Ruth R. Snellenberger
Home Demonstration Agent

4-H club work is the timely topic this week because National 4-H club Week is being observed throughout the nation, March 1-8. Usually special emphasis is placed on enrollment. Because most of the 4-H home economics clubs are already organized and have been having meetings, emphasis in this county might well be placed on new members.

Any boy or girl who is 10 years old (or who will be 10 years old any time during the year) or older but who will not have reached his or her 21st birthday this year is eligible to enroll. There are five major projects in the home economics field—Baking, Clothing, Food Preparation, Food Preservation, and Home Improvement—in which members may enroll. Work requirements in each are arranged by divisions with the first division being the simplest to perform and the fifth division or above being more difficult. A girl is encouraged to enroll in the division in which she will learn something—in other words, not repeat doing techniques or practices which she already knows how to do.

First year members in every club each year are important because they keep the club growing from year to year. It is well, too, to have some older members who can help the younger members with filling out record books preparing demonstrations, and so forth.

Have some of you wondered who sets up the work requirements for projects? Or who decides how the State 4-H Dress Revue is to be carried on?

In the State Extension Workers (made up of agricultural agents, assistant agents and home demonstration agents) there is a 4-H policy committee. Members of this committee are representatives of each of the Extension Districts (I believe there are 11 in the state) and of the State 4-H Club Office. Suggestions for improving 4-H projects or activities are made to the committee by extension agents. The committee discusses them in light of the all-over state program, decides on a state policy which is presented for approval at the Annual Extension Workers Conference in December of each year.

Some ladies who attended the Clothing School will recall that we decided a recommendation could be made that 5 inches instead of 4 inches should be allowed for hems. This is one place suggestions have a beginning.

Last year, after the State 4-H Dress Revue, I received a questionnaire and so did Elener Norris, of Franklin Township, from the State 4-H Club Office asking our opinions as to the matter of selecting the state winner and asking for suggestions for making the selection. Elener, you may recall, was Kosciusko County's representative in the State Dress Revue. This is another example of how suggestions are made.

Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Vera Kelley, of Mentone, were Mrs. Dora Norris and Mrs. McQueston. Afternoon callers were: Mr. and Mrs. Dave Henderson, of Atwood; Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Ummel, of Etna Green, and Mrs. Earl Meredith.

FIT FEEDING PROGRAM TO YOUR FLOCK NEEDS

Poultrymen can't change the egg-feed ratio, but adjustments in winter feeding of the laying flock may widen the profit margin, says R. L. Hogue, extension poultryman at Purdue University. Various feeding methods or programs are available to the poultryman today and include the all-mash system, cafeteria system and restricted grain feeds. Each of these methods has good and bad points. For the Hoosier poultryman, the restricted grain feeding normally holds the greatest potential return.

If the poultryman is using a 20 per cent protein ration, then approximately 100 pounds of grain is required for feeding 100 pounds of mash feed. If the birds have free choice, oftentimes they will have an excess intake of grain which will lower the protein level, and usually lower egg production follows.

Normally it is best to have the mash before the birds at all times, and then handfeed twice a day the additional grain needed. The grain may be made up of corn, oats, and wheat. To secure the 20 per cent ration, farmers can purchase many good commercial rations, or follow Purdue rations that are listed in "Care and Management of Layers," bulletin No. 275!

The amount of feeding space is also important. Thirty to forty feet of feeder space per 100 hens will help return greater income per hen housed.

A poultryman can still obtain dividends if he will take a little time and watch his birds, and spend some time in the pen with the birds.

THE AMERICAN WAY

PRIVATE ENTERPRISE By George Peck

Much has been written and said in recent years about Private Enterprise. Its friends and proponents have eulogized it in words of warm and enthusiastic praise, ascribing to it the credit for the unprecedented achievements of this nation during the first century and a half of its history.

The foes of Private Enterprise have vilified it in caustic and scathing language, blaming it for all the nation's ills, and demanding that this system be displaced by one or other of the economies which time and time again have been tried and found wanting.

Despite the fact that in two world wars America electrified the world with its production for war, the planned economists persist in venting their spleen against Private Enterprise, the spark plug of our American Capitalistic System, responsible for those miracles of production. It is strange that there are still some among us who are so blind as not to see what is so plainly visible.

The common sense of the American people, which at times has seemed to go temporarily into hiding, but which when the chips were down always has manifested itself, will indicate the retention of Private Enterprise. It is the nation's one great hope in the gigantic struggle to save us and the rest of the free world from godless, tyrannical communism.

From time to time rewards have been offered for the best definition of Free or Private Enterprise. There have been numerous contests in which prizes have been offered for the best essays setting forth just what Private Enterprise is, what makes it "tick" and what it has done for America. The scribes and poets of the nation bent their pens to the task and many beautiful compositions expounding the virtues of Private Enterprise have been written and publicized.

But the clearest description to come to this writer's attention is a little poem which appeared on the front page of the September 1944 issue of the "Arkansas Banker," the official organ of the Arkansas Bankers Association. Beg pardon, did I say little? Well, it may be little as far as length goes, but it bulks large in beauty, rhythm and inspiration. Who is the author of this glorious poem? I am unable to tell you. Apparently, he or she, with becoming modesty, prefers to be unnamed, for inquiry to the Arkansas Bankers Association failed to elicit a reply as to the identity of the poet who has made this magnificent contribution. I cannot tell you the author's name, but I can pass on the poem, and here it is:

PRIVATE ENTERPRISE

The power to choose the work we do,
To grow and have the larger view,
To know and feel that we are free,
To stand erect, not bow the knee,
To be no chattel of the State,
To be the master of our fate,
To dare, to risk, to lose, to win,
To make our own career begin,
To serve the world in our own way,
To gain in wisdom, day by day,
With hope and zest to climb, to rise;
That is PRIVATE ENTERPRISE.

This columnist would be the last to claim that Private Enterprise is a perfect system, but it's the best yet devised to serve mankind. Over the years we've made improvements in it—in the future further refining adjustments will be made—to make the best even better.

In the last game of the regular season, the Bulldogs defeated Gilead 56-48 in the local gym. The Gilead team held leads at the end of the first three quarters; however, a fourth quarter rally brought victory number seven for the year. The Mentone second team also won. The Mentone Lions Club has purchased a radiant daylight screen for the use of the school. With this screen it is possible to show pictures without darkening the room. ### Important Meeting of the School

Advisory Council

On Tuesday evening, March 4, at the schoolhouse, an important meeting of the school advisory council will be held. Two topics will be presented: the progress in getting approval for the school building addition, and the filling of the school inspection report. This meeting will give members of the council a chance to have a number of points concerning the school rating discussed. All members of the council are urged to attend.

Devotional Period on Tuesday

Joseph Jones addressed grades 6-12 on Tuesday in the school assembly. His topic was "The Truth about the Bible." In his talk he brought out the idea that the Bible offers hope for each individual, that each individual is important. The sixth grade, under the direction of June Aughinbaugh, sang three numbers. John Mellott introduced the program.

MACY'S IS A MIDGET ON MAIN ST. Says The Full Page Ad Of Nation's Business

Recently, in the big newspapers of the country, Nation's Business (circulation 660,000) ran an ad with the startling headline: "Macy's is a Midget on Main St." And then set out to prove the statement. The text ran something like this: When the average man (you and me) reads that Macy's had a million dollar day and made $316 million last year . . . that A&P did near $3 billion, Sears more than $2 billion, he gets the idea that the bulk of the country's business is in the hands of Big Business. Taint so.

 Recently the National City Bank studied the 100 largest retail corporations, with their 29,278 stores. They did, all told, $19 billion. But listen to this: 1,704,500 little fellows did $111 billion or 8 times as much.

Like the man on the street, too many manufacturers are unaware that this country's big business, agricultural, industrial, retail, is Small Business.

CORRECT PASSING PROCEDURES

Motorists must not pass to the right of other vehicles which are travelling in the same direction, except on roads of four or more lanes.

On narrower roadways, if you overtake another vehicle ahead of you, the proper procedure is to sound the horn for him to move over. The other driver is obligated to pull over and yield right-of-way to allow you to pass on his left.

It is illegal for the passed driver to speed up during the passing.

On roads of four or more lanes you can pass on the right only if the movement can be made in safety; but not if by so doing you must drive off the pavement on the road shoulder.

Occasionally accidents or stalled vehicles may force drivers to take to the road shoulders. The Chicago Motor Club strongly urges that extreme caution be used at this time when snow banks may hide culverts along the roadside.

There is also danger that victims of a collision may be laying prostrate on the shoulder of the road. Several instances have occurred recently in which victims of an earlier accident have been run over as they lay on the roadside waiting for medical attention. Careless motorists approaching the accident scene failed to anticipate the possibility of prostrate victims and pulled off the road to pass the car wrecks at too high a speed.

February thaws cause extra hazards on the roadside from soft shoulders. If the right wheels slip into mushy mud on the shoulder, there is danger of causing a sharp turn off the road or of careening abruptly to the left in order to regain the pavement so that the car swings into the oncoming lanes of traffic.

Pass only on the straight-away, the club advises, when sight distances show plenty of room for the maneuver.

ANSWER THEIR CALL

An army sergeant 2,000 miles from home needs help to fly to the bedside of his critically ill mother. A sailor's wife and children must have rent and grocery money until a family allowance check comes through. A reservist recalled to active duty needs expert counsel in planning for his family.

In Korea only the thin red stream of blood flowing into his veins from a transfusion bottle keeps death from a wounded soldier. On a thousand main streets across the nation, lifegiving blood stands between death and the victims of accident or illness. Blood means life to hundreds of men and women and children each day.

An elderly couple stand silently in the cold rain and watch their hard-earned home and everything they own wash away in a muddy flood water. A young bride bursts into tears as she vainly tries to wash six inches of river slime from her new furniture. A child sobs from cold and hunger as his parents work desperately to salvage precious possessions from their wrecked house.

Life ebbs away as blood spurts from the severed artery of an auto accident victim. A tiny child shrieks in pain and terror as fire sears her arm. A swimmer cries out and thrashes helplessly in the water as a sudden cramp seizes him. Each year the Red Cross trains hundreds of thousands in first aid and water safety to assist the victims of such emergencies.

An invalid at home needs the expert bedside care that only someone trained in home nursing can give. A polio-stricken community must suddenly triple its professional nursing staff. An overworked hospital staff nurse must have the help of trained nurse's aides in ministering to her charges.

A paralyzed veteran in his hospital bed needs contact with the outside world, needs daily assurance that life still has meaning and warmth. A crippled child needs daily transportation for clinical treatment. Thousands of acts of generosity, thoughtfulness and consideration for those in need or pain must be performed each day if even a tiny part of the world's distress is to be lightened.

Through your help, the Red Cross can answer their call.

Our hearts go out to those in need. We hurry to answer a neighbor's call. We help a stranger at our door. Our hearts go out to human need everywhere. But how can we answer a call from the other side of the country—or the world?

We answer promptly, with all our hearts, when we answer the call of our Red Cross. For the Red Cross is people everywhere, ready to help—trained, capable people at the scene where need is greatest—ready to do what you would do if you were there. The Red Cross is humanity in action.

Here are a few of the basic human needs the Red Cross will fill this year, as in the past, with your wholehearted help:

The need of servicemen, veterans, and their families for sympathetic aid with their problems.

The need of disaster victims for shelter, for food, for a return to normal living.

The need of a wounded soldier, or a mother in childbirth, for life-giving blood.

The urgent need of Americans everywhere to be trained for the protection of themselves and their families.

Answer their call—answer with your heart.

F. H. A. ENTERTAINS MOTHERS

Mothers of the members of the Mentone chapter of the Future Homemakers of America were guests at a tea, given last Monday evening, February 18, at the Mentone high school building by the chapter members.

A guest, Linda Lukens, of Rochester, was the featured entertainer. A ballet number, readings and imitations of famous stars, including Jimmy Durante, Hopalong Cassidy and others, were given by the little girl, who is a model and appears on television. Mrs. Robert Riewoldt was her accompanist.

Other selections on the program included "A Russian Drama", by Janet Reed and Marita Tucker; a vocal solo, "Wanting You", by Phyllis Grubbs, with accompaniment by Jalaine Smythe and a duet, "Garden in the Rain," by Phyllis and Jalaine, who were also guests.

The ritual was presented by the chapter members at the opening of the meeting.

Cloanne Nelson, program chairman, introduced the numbers. She was presented by Carol Rule, who was general chairman in charge of the arrangements.

Jackie Blue presided. It was announced that chapter members have collected 519 pounds of clothes to be sent to Korea.

Rose corsages were presented to Mrs. Ralph Huffman, chapter leader, and Mrs. Dana Starr, chapter mother, in appreciation for their assistance to the group.

Other guests were Roland Lukens, of Rochester, Miss Nell Harriman and Mrs. Walter Kent.

Betty Cochren, Eleanor Rush, Colleen Kindig and Martha Creighton were the members of the refreshment committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Kay Paulus and sons, of North Manchester, were Sunday evening visitors at the Cloice Paulus home.

Mr. and Mrs. Royse Tucker, of near Mentone, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tucker and daughters, of Argos, have returned to their homes after a two weeks trip to Florida.

FARM WOMEN'S CONFERENCE IS HUGE SUCCESS

Two thousand farm women returned to their homes and their daily routines February 20 after a two-day conference of the social and educational department of the Indiana Farm Bureau in Indianapolis. This event is the climax of the year and marks and awards achievements made during the previous year.

Mrs. Russell Cushman, state director of the department, was highly elated over the success of the conference. Speakers addressing the gathering were: Governor Henry F. Schricker, Miss Eva Goble, state leader of home demonstration agents; Hassil E. Schenck, president of the Indiana Farm Bureau; Mrs. Cecil Harden, Congresswoman from the Sixth District; Larry Brandon, vice-president of the organization; Dr. Earl Butz of Purdue University, and Mrs. Cushman.

Awards were made as follows:

High scoring counties—Vigo, Montgomery, Morgan, Tippecanoe, Marion, Fountain, Delaware, Jackson, Hancock, Vanderburgh, Madison and Decatur.

odist Church, Harrison county.

CLEANING WINDOW SHADES

"My window shades are soiled. How should they be cleaned or can they be cleaned?" Many homemakers are asking these questions.

If your window shades are washable, they can be cleaned. By all means, be sure they are washable before you attempt to clean them with sudsy water, warns Mrs. Ruth Snellenberger, home demonstration agent of Kosciusko county.

To begin with, take down your washable shades and unroll them on a flat surface. Take a clean cloth or sponge wrung out of warm sudsy water. Wash the shade in a circular motion, working on a small area at a time. Wipe off the suds with a damp cloth wrung out of clean cool water. Be sure the areas overlap. After you have finished washing both sides of the shade, hang it up to dry.

The appearance of your non-washable shades may be improved by laying them on a flat surface and erasing the grime with a dough-type cleaner or a hart gum eraser. Perhaps you call the dough-type cleaner "wallpaper cleaner." Here again, be sure to use light strokes. This method of cleaning will remove light soil from your window shades, but it may not remove spots or stains.

P. T. A. MEETING

The February meeting of the P. T. A. was held at the school building on Wednesday evening, February 20. Devotions were given by Delford Nelson.

Following the reading of the minutes, the financial report was given, showing a balance of $92.08.

The president, Mr. Eller, announced that the nominating committee is Mrs. Wayne Tombaugh, chairman, Mrs. Zanna Hammer and Charles Manwaring.

Mr. Dale Kelley reported on the executive committee meeting. A penny supper, to raise additional movie projector funds, is being planned for the near future. Dale Kelley is chairman of the committee in charge of this supper. Other members are: Mrs. Eldon Horn, Mr. Delford Nelson, Mrs. Eaton and Mrs. Tinkey.

H. J. Pearson, of Indianapolis, will be the speaker for the March P. T. A. meeting. His topic centers on the theme "The Glory Of Being An American," and has been received with unusual enthusiasm wherever he has spoken.

The pupils of Miss June Aughinbaugh sang several numbers for the P. T. A. group. First, they sang two choruses, "Thank You Lord For Saving My Soul," and "For God So Loved The World." These were followed by, "Little Sir Echo," "Dream Pipe" and finally a song written by Hugh Aughinbaugh, "Our Grand United States." This singing by the 6th grade students was truly appreciated by the P. T. A. for these youngsters, nearly without exception, seemed to thoroughly enjoy singing. Miss Aughinbaugh accompanied the group at the piano.

Due to illness the scheduled speaker was unable to be present. Mrs. Dan Urschel spoke briefly on the Founders of P. T. A. and the Ideals of P. T. A.

Mr. Kent gave a report on the progress being made in the preliminaries of obtaining a new school building.

He expressed his sincere appreciation for the fine cooperation the school has had from the parents.

Mrs. Hobart Creighton, who is publications chairman, told of the value of the two P. T. A. magazines—The National Parent-Teacher and Indiana Parent-Teacher. She touched briefly on Brotherhood Week and our part in this great movement.

Delford Nelson gave a short talk in which he stressed the importance of a closer relationship between vocational training and scholastic training. He showed, too, how each of us is a teacher, whether we are aware of the fact or not.

Hostesses at the social hour were: Mrs. Zanna Hammer, Mrs. Loren Tridle, Mrs. Eldon Horn, Mrs. Glen Sechrist, Mrs. Alton Bruner and Miss Wreatha McFarren.
