A tip from the entomology department at Purdue University says that crickets move indoors as cold weather approaches and may live all winter, even raising a brood of young right in your own basement. They may damage clothing unless control measures are taken. A two per cent chlordane spray applied to areas where the insects are found will do the job.

SCHOOL NEWS

School got underway again Monday morning with a few changes. The new school library had been partially set up and pupils had been reassigned seats in the study hall. Mr. Hoffman, with help from Jack Smythe, Clifford Nicodemus and a couple of others, had refinished the tables in the science room. The entire building had been cleaned and a number of floors waxed. All in all the building presented a clean and fresh appearance.

There were also some changes in pupil enrollment. Bobby and Jane Hoover withdrew. Bobby was a second grader and Jane was in the fourth. Allen Creighton withdrew for a month or so to enroll in the Florida schools. Sonja Lockridge quit school to get married. Darlene Reed enrolled in the ninth grade.

First Semester to End Soon

The first semester of school will end next Wednesday evening. Examinations are scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday. The new semester opens officially on Thursday with several class changes. Freshmen will study literature instead of English. Sophomores change from English to literature and from health to occupations. Juniors change to literature, and Seniors will study sociology in place of government and Bible in place of English. There are two changes in the seventh and eighth grades: seventh graders will study history in place of geography and reading in place of English; eighth graders will study Indiana history and reading.

Akron Wins Mentone Tourney

A large crowd of fans saw Akron win the second annual four team holiday tourney held in the local gym last Friday and Saturday evenings by defeating Beaver Dam 54-50. Akron had won its way into the final round by eliminating a strong Silver Lake quintet. Beaver Dam ousted Mentone in the first round 53-44. In the consolation game Silver Lake defeated Mentone 59-48. Mentone played without three varsity players: Ted Ward, who has become ineligible because of marriage, Francis Rickel and Rex Dickey, who were dropped from the squad for breaking training rules by staying out too late. Gross receipts from the tourney amounted to $1020. After expenses were paid, each school received $233.58.

Classes Attend Matinee

school matinee at Warsaw on Wednesday. The production, "Julius Caesar," which the sophomores study in literature next semester, was shown. All high schools of the county were invited to participate in this special showing. Mr. Hoffman sponsored the group with Mr. Kelley driving the school bus.

When farmers pay their hard earned cash for fertilizer, they should make sure they are getting their money's worth in terms of plant food. According to the agronomy department at Purdue University, it pays to read the state tag. If it shows O-O-O that means just what it states--no guarantee of any available nitrogen, phosphate or potash. Despite all the claims a salesman may make about such a product, the material must contain some readily available plant food to produce profitable yields.

SCHOOL NEWS

School got underway again Monday morning with a few changes. The new school library had been partially set up and pupils had been reassigned seats in the study hall. Mr. Hoffman, with help from Jack Smythe, Clifford Nicodemus and a couple of others, had refinished the tables in the science room. The entire building had been cleaned and a number of floors waxed. All in all the building presented a clean and fresh appearance.

There were also some changes in pupil enrollment. Bobby and Jane Hoover withdrew. Bobby was a second grader and Jane was in the fourth. Allen Creighton withdrew for a month or so to enroll in the Florida schools. Sonja Lockridge quit school to get married. Darlene Reed enrolled in the ninth grade.

First Semester to End Soon

The first semester of school will end next Wednesday evening. Examinations are scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday. The new semester opens officially on Thursday with several class changes. Freshmen will study literature instead of English. Sophomores change from English to literature and from health to occupations. Juniors change to literature, and Seniors will study sociology in place of government and Bible in place of English. There are two changes in the seventh and eighth grades: seventh graders will study history in place of geography and reading in place of English; eighth graders will study Indiana history and reading.

Akron Wins Mentone Tourney

A large crowd of fans saw Akron win the second annual four team holiday tourney held in the local gym last Friday and Saturday evenings by defeating Beaver Dam 54-50. Akron had won its way into the final round by eliminating a strong Silver Lake quintet. Beaver Dam ousted Mentone in the first round 53-44. In the consolation game Silver Lake defeated Mentone 59-48. Mentone played without three varsity players: Ted Ward, who has become ineligible because of marriage, Francis Rickel and Rex Dickey, who were dropped from the squad for breaking training rules by staying out too late. Gross receipts from the tourney amounted to $1020. After expenses were paid, each school received $233.58.

school matinee at Warsaw on Wednesday. The production, "Julius Caesar," which the sophomores study in literature next semester, was shown. All high schools of the county were invited to participate in this special showing. Mr. Hoffman sponsored the group with Mr. Kelley driving the school bus.

When farmers pay their hard earned cash for fertilizer, they should make sure they are getting their money's worth in terms of plant food. According to the agronomy department at Purdue University, it pays to read the state tag. If it shows O-O-O that means just what it states--no guarantee of any available nitrogen, phosphate or potash. Despite all the claims a salesman may make about such a product, the material must contain some readily available plant food to produce profitable yields.

To make sure your car can start when stopped in snow, pack a firm foundation for the wheels by driving the car back and forth several times, says the Chicago Motor Club.

4-H CLUB CHATTER

By Ruth Snellenberger

Dear 4-H Members and Friends,

Leadership is my topic for today. The comments made, I hope, will be helpful to both 4-H members and 4-H leaders.

The suggested practices for good leadership I'm taking from a talk given by Dr. Doris Seward, assistant dean of women at Purdue University, when she spoke before the staff of the Indiana State Fair School of Home Economics last September. These practices, I believe should help 4-H members—particularly junior leaders—to direct their activities toward developing good leadership by practicing them. For adult leaders, I think knowing these suggested practices could serve as criteria for judging or recognizing good leadership in their 4-H members.

First, a leader should know the names of others in his or her group and should try to find out a little more about each of them—special abilities or talents each has, things each likes to do especially well, how much each helps at home, where each one lives, and so forth.

Second, a leader should have an attitude of bringing members "from where they are to where you're going." In other words, there should be growth in experiences in project work to be done, in association with others as members of a group, in participation in activities planned for the club.

Third, "set up certain criteria—what you are looking for," or hope to accomplish. That's one purpose of this topic, to help leaders know what they are looking for in junior leaders, what junior leaders are looking for in younger members, and what any 4-H member could expect of himself or herself if he or she wished to become a leader.

Fourth, "a leader should be interested in helping others." This is a little more than just being cooperative. It is wanting to help others less experienced so that they might improve. This influence on others—their growth and improvement—is a big factor in 4-H achievement.

Fifth, a good leader will "not sit down when hers is done." This is a quality of doing more than is absolutely required. This, in an extreme form, could lead to domination; however a good leader would recognize the limit of enough.

Sixth, "when someone fails to show up, without much ado, a good leader will go ahead." This is humbleness, a desirable quality of one who does without boasting. One needs to be alert to recognize this when it happens in order to give just credit.

Seventh, "a leader may not be pretty but usually she's an attractive person that other girls will be proud of." (Dr. Seward was referring to girls attending the school.) Thus cleanliness, neatness, well-mannered, friendly, pleasant, appropriately dressed, and so forth—all become important factors in being a good leader, whether it's a boy or a girl, a man or a woman.

Eighth, "a good leader must be one with good morale." The group will accept him or her if he or she is even tempered, always in good spirits, has good but not malicious fun.

Other practices of good leaders? Probably more could be added—certainly much more could be said about leadership—but perhaps this much will be helpful. Yes, helpful not only to 4-H people, but to other organized groups too, I hope.

Bye now.

USE OF TRACE MINERAL

FERTILIZER

Each year brings many new technical advances to the farmers. Also, each year we hear of many new diseases and insects which attack both plants and animals. Another problem that we are hearing more about each day is minor elements in the soil and their effect on animal nutrition.

Actually we can not talk about animal nutrition without considering the plants which the animal eats. It has been said that the cause of many diseases is malnutrition. In fact, the most common disease of humans and animals is malnutrition. In many cases malnutrition is caused by a deficiency of minor elements. It has been proven that resistance to many diseases and insects is directly related to minor elements available to the plant or animal.

The term minor element is therefore really a misnomer. They should be called trace elements, in fact some should be called secondary elements. Animals fed on plants or products from plants that have been grown in soil containing adequate amounts of these elements require no additional supplementation of those elements in their feed.

Also the lack of the required amounts of some of these trace elements causes vitamin deficiency in livestock. In short we can say one of the best places to start control of diseases and to increase resistance to some insects is to properly nourish the plants fed to livestock.

Carrying this one step further people who eat animals and plants that have had an adequate supply of trace elements are also usually healthier. This has been proven in several test cases.

Animals will select, when given an opportunity, food raised on adequately nourished plants. For example, if two shovels of corn are fed to a hog, one from a field with sufficient trace minerals present or added, the other from a field with deficiencies, it will eat the corn from the first field first. Also, if hogs are fed from a field with no trace elements needed and abruptly changed to corn from a field short of needed elements, they will go on a "hunger strike" for a few hours or even days.

Another advantage of supplying trace elements to the soil is increased production per acre. Of course, this is the easiest yardstick to use in measuring the returns for the dollars invested in the secondary and trace elements.

Probably one question in your mind by now is, "Do I need to add secondary and trace elements to my soil?" The best answer to this question can be made by you. Just try a few bags of mineralized fertilizer, such as "TENNCOMIN" in the middle of your field. Then you will see the results of adding these elements to your soil. Remember test for both yield and nutritional value. It is true that some farms as yet and some fields do not need these additional plant foods. Soils that have been farmed heavily and those which have produced high yields for many years are in the most need of these elements. Also, as your per acre yield increases the need for trace elements increase.

Let's stop right here and look at an example of what happens to a plant when one or more needed elements are not available to it. The plant when short of the required elements then operates like a tractor with a burned or sticky valve. By this, we mean it fails to function properly and economically. It wastes other plant foods, or in case of the tractor, wastes fuel. If all the valves become badly burned and then stick, the motor will quit functioning and die. A plant that grows in a soil that does not have the necessary plant food elements available and in the required amounts under severe conditions will also die.

Getting back to some of the questions in your mind, probably you have been wondering what are the secondary and trace elements. Secondary elements or plant foods are calcium (limestone), magnesium (dolomite) and sulphur. The trace plant foods are manganese, boron, copper, zinc, iron and molybdenum.

Another question that arises is: "How much should be applied of these plant foods and how often?" The answer to this question can best be answered by following the fertilizer manufacturer recommendations and by what proves most profitable on your farm after a trial. For an example, the use of 300 to 400 pounds of 5-10-10 "TENNCOMIN" will usually supply a profitable amount of all elements needed. On some fields larger amounts will be more profitable. The "TENNCOMIN" contains a full 100 pounds of trace and secondary elements per ton.

The cost on the per acre basis if using mineralized fertilizer as compared to non-mineralized will be about equal to or less than the price of one bushel of corn or wheat or about one-half bushel of soybeans.

What should a farmer do about trace elements? Try them on a part of each of your fields. Apply them mixed with your fertilizer. On your trials make sure the applications of the basic elements, nitrogen, phosphorus and potash are adequate and are equal on all the areas in the same field.

Many Hoosier farmers are commenting on these high yields and wondering why applications of nitrogen didn't boost grain yields in lots of cases.

AVERAGE PER ACRE
YIELD TOPS ALL RECORDS

Lafayette, Ind.—Indiana's 1954 wheat yield per acre, average, topped all records since the Civil War. And yields of oats, barley and corn were high, too, according to agricultural statistics at Purdue University.

According to S. A. Barber, Purdue University agronomist, nature was especially generous with its stored up nitrogen for the 1954 crop.

A dry winter and spring gave the soil's nitrogen producing bacteria a perfect workshop—dry soil, plenty of air and warmer than usual soil temperatures. Bacteria worked overtime and digested lots of organic matter which released stored nitrogen for use by this season's grain crops. Then too, very little leaching of this nitrogen took place.

Barber cautions farmers that this situation doesn't happen often. And that lots of rain and cold soil temperatures can reverse the situation and cause nitrogen starvation and low grain yields unless nitrogen fertilizer is used.

PHONE PATRONS FILE PROTEST ON RATE HIKE

Nine Indiana cities and towns, including Etna Green, Akron, Bourbon and Mentone, petitioned the Indiana Public Service Commission Thursday to deny the General Telephone Company's request for another rate increase.

The petition said the rates now charged by the company are probably the highest for communities of comparable size in Indiana and the service does not justify even the present rate. It said the commission should order the utility to reduce rates instead of increase them.

The petition, filed by former assistant public counselor, Lloyd C. Wampler, Plymouth, was also in behalf of LaPorte, Elkhart, Goshen, Hobart and Ogden Dunes.

A petition seeking a rate increase for General is now pending before the commission. A preliminary hearing was held several weeks ago and the hearing was continued at the request of protesting telephone patrons.

LEROY NORRIS CHAIRMAN CO. EXTENSION BOARD

Leroy Norris of Mentone was elected chairman of the county extension board at the recent meeting held in the county extension office in the courthouse. Delford Nelson of Burket was named vice-chairman; Carroll Eiler of Warsaw, R. 5, secretary; and directors for 1955 were Harold Gawthrop of Etna Green, Lowell Knoop of Warsaw; and Mrs. Carl Duncan of Milford, and George Welch, Burket.

During the meeting the board reviewed the extension program for 1954; interviewed and approved Phil Stansfield for the position of assistant county agent; and heard Dr. S. S. Shippides of the state veterinarians office discuss the new state law for the eradication of brucellosis in cattle. Dr. Shippides explained that all grade A milk going to the Chicago Market after July 1 must come from herds on a Brucellosis control plan. He stated that this would affect all grade A milk producers in Kosciusko County because one dairy often sells milk to another; and although a producer does not ship directly to the Chicago market his milk may eventually be sold there. So it is important that each grade A milk producer get qualified on the Brucellosis control program. Producers can qualify by signing up their individual herds on Plan A with the state veterinarians office or 75% of the cattle owners in the county could petition the state veterinarian for a test of all the cattle in the county. Under this plan every herd of cattle in the county would be tested and brucellosis infected cattle eliminated.

3 MILLION FARM RESIDENTS WORK OFF THE FARM

Many people who live on farms don't work there, USDA says. About 3,000,000 of them work longer hours in other industries, including a million farm women. Farm population has been dropping about 750,000 a year since 1950.

CO-OPS LEND HELP TO NEW VENTURES IN BACKWARD LANDS

Zurich — International Cooperative Alliance will try to see that co-ops become a central force within the underdeveloped economies of Asia, Africa, Latin America, and the Pacific islands.

ICA's 14-man executive committee, meeting here December 13-15, agreed to prepare pamphlets, posters, and films in native languages and to train local co-op leaders.

Sir Harry Gill, ICA's president, pointed out that the world co-op organization will do what it is prepared to do—to educate, to train leaders. It won't finance any co-op, he said. Nor will ICA compete with technical assistance programs of United Nations agencies or its member states.

Jerry Voorhis, executive director of the Cooperative League (IA), emphasized that the first co-ops in these backward areas must meet the need for credit. They must, he said, "lift the centuries-old burden of usury from the backs of these people."

The second co-op task, Voorhis said, is to meet the essential needs of producers—farmers, fishermen, handicraft artisans. Through co-ops, these people can get the supplies they need and market their products. The co-op ideas of industrialized Europe and North America will need to be adapted to local customs and institutions, he said.

Poultry Raisers and Farmers:

The system of supply and demand is having a very depressing effect on the poultryman at the present time. If our memory serves us correctly, we recall three other periods quite similar — the years of 1932, 1937 and 1949. It is true that those who continued to stay in the poultry and egg business were able to reap a good harvest a few months after the low point of the cycle was reached. January seems to be the low point in the present down swing.

No one can be sure these days, but we believe that faith and perseverance will win again, and that there is real opportunity ahead next summer. Last spring was our largest chick hatching season by many, many thousands of chicks, and other hatcheries were also increasing. It became apparent that there would be too many pullets on the farms to expect good egg prices last fall. However, we spent more money and effort on breeding flock improvement than ever before; more new housing and equipment was added. So now we honestly believe that NELSON'S LEGHORNS and NEW HAMPSHIRE are the finest we have ever produced. The thought was to be ready for the future.

Today there are signs of egg demand that lead to optimistic thinking. America's population is rapidly growing ... estimated to be 167 million now. Egg consumption is about 412 eggs per person per year, highest in history. Annual wage earners' income is good and most likely will continue.

In contrast, the egg supply picture for the future is in the opposite direction. Estimated chick placements for January and February by hatcheries is 20 to 30 per cent of last year. Farmers have sold out their pullet flocks to the dressing plants, in many instances. Everywhere we hear that future chick orders for March and April are practically non-existent.

Some large commercial poultrymen have seen the opportunity for profit and have ordered, however many others say they are going to stay out this year. Have YOU decided on your plans yet? If not, we invite you to send in your order for NELSON'S CHICKS soon. Our Early Order Bonus of 2 cents per pullet or 1 cent per straight run chick is still in effect. Mentone Takes Second Team Tourney

The Mentone second team won the four team tourney held at Beaver Dam. The final games Monday evening saw Beaver Dam defeating Silver Lake in the consolation game and Mentone whipping Akron in the finals. The local boys won a nice trophy, cut down the nets, and celebrated with a bonfire on the public square. A short assembly was held on Tuesday morning to recognize the team, yell leaders, student managers, and coach.

Sidney Defeats Bulldogs

In an interesting contest held at Pierceton last Saturday evening the Mentone Bulldogs went down to their ninth defeat at the hands of the Sidney five. The local team played without the services of four first team players who were sitting on the bench in a disciplinary action invoked by the coach. The final score was 42-36. Tom Hoover was high for Mentone with 20 points. The Mentone second team had little trouble winning, 36-26.

Students Looking Forward to Tourney

A number of basketball fans are planning to attend the County Tourney to be held at Warsaw this Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Mentone plays its first game on Friday afternoon against the winner of the North Webster-Sidney game. There will be no school Friday. School will also be dismissed on Thursday afternoon although the teachers will remain at the school to grade semester exams and record grades. The new semester will open next Monday.

A representative of Robert's Studio of Fort Wayne was at the school on Tuesday to take those pictures missed during a previous trip here.

The State School Inspector, Mr. Davidson, and Mr. Whitehead inspected the Mentone School on Monday. A report with recommendations and comments will be returned to the school at a later date.

Joe Boggs substituted for Mr. Witham on Monday afternoon.

The student library assistants, Orpha Kurtz, Betty Mellott, Linda Beeson, LaVonne Montel, Janet King and Sandra Gross have been working hard to get the new library ready to open. All books already on hand, are being checked for proper classification, repaired when necessary, and properly shelved. New books are beginning to arrive. These will be processed and added to the library as rapidly as possible.

At present about nine hundred new books have been approved by the library board.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the many acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings received from our relatives and kind friends, and to thank all others who assisted in so many ways during our recent bereavement.

WURLITZER ELECTRIC ORGAN

4-H CLUB CHATTER

By Ruth Snellenberger

Dear 4-H Members and Friends,

Today I'd like to comment about some of the projects which either are rather new or are not participated in very extensively in this county.

The electric project is one which is rather new—new because just in the last two years has it been outlined separately as a project for boys with certain requirements and for girls with different requirements which more nearly fit their needs. Certainly this should prove a worthwhile project for either a boy or a girl.

One of our local electrical dealers ably expressed the situation, I think, when he said, "We're always going to have electricity, so we'd better find out something about it." To this I would add that with so many electrical appliances added to our homes since they were first wired for electric lights, we need to know the load each appliance adds, the amount each particular circuit can carry, and thus learn whether our homes are safely wired.

Another aspect of the electric project relates to good lighting. If either a boy or a girl makes or selects a lamp for this project, it could be one that meets the requirements for a good lamp according to the use which is to be made of it. Only a good lamp should be worth making.

For the girls' electric project, there is a slight change for 1955. The work requirements are practically the same but division I record books and division II record books are each separate. Requirements for division one are (1) improve one lamp or area of light in your home, (2) plan and give one demonstration, (3) learn one safety practice in using electricity, (4) report what you did in the record book provided, and (5) exhibit your improved lighting or your safety activity.

Division two is similar but has an additional activity added for subdivision A, and another additional activity then for each of the other three subdivisions—B, C, and D.

A girl must be twelve years of age during the calendar year to enroll in the electric project.

Another project in which only a few enroll is crafts. Actually there have been many questions about the requirements. The standards committee for crafts have stated that only crafts listed in the record book will be accepted for requirements. This is done to avoid confusion. Any other crafts done which are not listed specifically in the requirement section of the record book will not be accepted toward fulfilling requirements. Such crafts, however, can be listed as extra things done. A state committee is in the process of revising the crafts project.

Home improvement is a project in which only a few girls enroll. Since

I have already discussed division one in a previous column, I shall not go into detail again. The value of this project is still great and both division one and division two offer learnings for the girl and benefits to her and her family.

Home grounds beautification is a project participated in by few girls and boys. Perhaps it is because one cannot recognize progress as readily from year to year. Certainly this is a project in which the whole family would benefit.

Food preservation enrollment has been low for several years. Surely more people have freezers than formerly and need help of girls to prepare foods for them. In this project all foods preserved may be frozen, or all may be canned, or some frozen and some canned. Actually this project is best started in the fall. For division one, however, members do not have too great a difficulty getting fruits during the summer to preserve.

All 4-H projects have merit. These mentioned are some that many girls might also find interesting if they'd participate in them.

I'd be happy to try to answer any questions if you'll let me hear from you.

Some changes in dates for coming 4-H events have become necessary. The Junior Leader meeting scheduled for January will not be held until sometime in February. The County 4-H Council Directors will meet Monday afternoon, January 17, in the county extension office instead of an earlier date. The 4-H Officers' Training School will be held the first Saturday in February instead of the last of January in order to avoid conflicts of activities.

'Bye now.

The 4-H Junior Leader meeting planned in last year's program for January 17 has been postponed until sometime in February because of the revised system for junior leader enrollement.

The County 4-H Officer's Training School will be held Saturday morning, February 5, instead of the last of January in order to avoid a conflict of activities.

MRS. EDNA TEEL

BURIED SUNDAY

Mrs. Oliver Teel, aged 40, died at 2:43 p. m. Friday at the McDonald hospital, Warsaw, where she had been a patient since Dec. 26, with carcinoma.

The deceased was born June 7, 1914 to Orville and Mary (Knepper) Elzinger, of near Tippecanoe. She graduated from the Tippecanoe high school. She received her A.B. degree from Adrain College Adrain, Michigan, and her Master's degree in religious education at Hartford, Connecticut. She taught in high schools at Tippecanoe, Lapaz, and West High, all in Marshall county.

August 20, 1950 she was married to Oliver Teel. A son, Jay, was born on February 15, 1952.

In addition to the husband, son, father and mother, she is survived by one sister, Mildred Walters, of Napanee. There is one step-daughter, Judy Teel, of Bloomington.

She was a member of the Congregational Christian church.

Funeral services were held at the Johns funeral home Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, with Rev. David Gosser, officiating. Burial was in the Syracuse cemetery.

PTA MEETS

Mrs. Robert Hoover opened the meeting in the gymnasium by leading the pledge to the flag. Carroll Eller gave the devotion, dealing with respect for authority, as admonished in Romans 3.

Mr. Weiss then explained how films are used in education today. A film, "Children of Switzerland," was shown, and Mrs. Tombaugh's fourth grade geography class then discussed the lesson as derived from this film.

An adult film, "The Sixth Chair," was then shown, depicting another type of film available through our county film library.

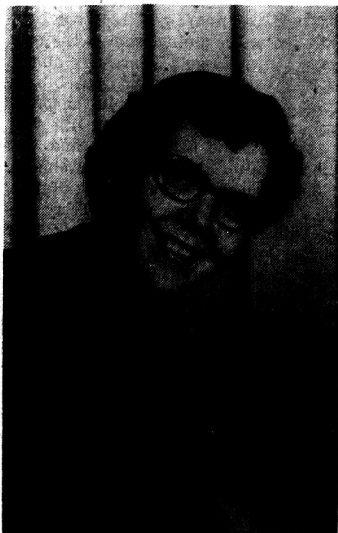

A report was heard from Mrs. Delford Nelson, chairman of a committee appointed to investigate and alleviate some of the needs of our school band. After much discussion it was decided that the PTA should investigate a fund raising project for the band.

After the grade count, which was won by the fourth grade, the meeting moved to the cafeteria for refreshments.

ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT

Mrs. Edith Ummel, of route 1, Claypool, announces the engagement of her daughter, Lois June, to A. E. Knouff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Knouff, Route 2, Warsaw.

On Monday evening, Robert Huffer was also arraigned and paid a similar fine for failing to observe three stop signs. Night officer Dwight Reichard made the arrests.

Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the trial of Wayne Romine, who had entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of reckless driving, at a hearing Monday evening, a verdict of not guilty was handed down by Justice C. O. Eller.

The state was represented by Attorney Phil Harris and the defendant by Attorney James Snodgrass.

PRACTICED WHAT HE "PREACHED"

Recently Richard Manwaring, of the Manwaring Leghorn Farm, was on a TV program at Fort Wayne, advertising January as Poultry Month. Dick took 412 nice white Leghorn eggs along to illustrate the annual per capita consumption of eggs in America. After the program—and Dick started putting the eggs back in the case to bring them home—studio employees asked if they could buy some of them. (Good eggs you can't hardly get no more in Fort Wayne.)

Like the camel's head starting in the tent, Dick didn't feel like charging the folks that had given the industry free time on the TV, but before the requests were all satisfied, he could just about gather up the balance of the display in his pockets.

Well, anyway, it could have been worse, Dick. Just think how it would have been when eggs were 80c a dozen.

LICENSED TO MARRY

PREDICTS GOOD YEAR FOR EGG PRODUCERS

Pointing to the fact that less replacement chicks will be started this year, David Jackson predicted that egg prices will pick up this summer and will be very favorable in 1955-56.

Jackson, Purdue Extension Poultryman, discussed "The Egg Outlook for 1955-56" at the January meeting of the Kosciusko County Poultry Association. This meeting was held last night at the Wagon Wheel, Warsaw.

An informal survey among the hatcherymen from the Kosciusko County area showed that bookings were one-third below last year. Jackson said that these figures pretty well reflected the picture in the whole country.

He urged egg producers not to get discouraged now because of the low egg prices, and said that the large commercial poultrymen are raising as many replacement chicks as ever, but farm flocks are being cut down. No major change in the feed situation is expected.

Also present at the meeting was Dr. J. Holmes Martin, head of the Poultry Department at Purdue University. He briefly outlined the research work being conducted at Purdue.

Delford Nelson, Burket, reported on how January Egg Month has been boosted by the distribution of posters and booklets. January is egg month because this is the month during which eggs are an exceptional buy for the housewife.

PURDUE OFFERS WINTER
'AG' SHORT COURSES

Lafayette, Indiana. Winter courses in agriculture are scheduled for January 3 to February 25 at Purdue University. This annual event is planned for those who cannot go to college for a regular four-year plan of study. The eight-week training program includes general agriculture, animal husbandry, dairy production and dairy manufactures.

Due to the progressive developments of agriculture, more people must be more thoroughly trained to meet the current problems. It is important that farm youth be adequately trained for a successful life work, according to Associate Dean V. C. Freeman.

Short courses offered will treat with such current subjects as capital investment required for modern farming, care and operation of the farm machinery, agriculture a business and a profession, improved varieties of grain and other seed crops, maintenance of soil fertility, recommended feeding practices and control of livestock and plant diseases and pests.

Instruction will be given by members of the staff of the several departments of the school of agriculture, and each course is scheduled to be complete within itself! A student is not permitted to select subjects from more than one program of study. A certificate is granted to those who satisfactorily complete any one of the eight-week plans of study.

With the exception of the dairy manufactures program, courses will be conducted continuously from January 3 to February 25, 1955. Dairy manufacturers will be broken into four ten-day sessions. These will include market milk, cottage cheese and buttermilk, technical control of dairy products, and ice cream and sherbet.

Applicants must be at least 18 years old and have a good common-school education. Persons who have had some practical experience on the farm or in other agricultural work will probably derive the greatest benefit from the short courses, Dean Freeman said.

Non-residents of Indiana are required to pay a tuition fee of $75 in addition to the regular fees. No tuition is charged to residents of Indiana. Each student is charged a fee of $10 to cover the cost of materials supplied in the various laboratories and, an additional fee of $3 for medical and infirmary service. Additional fees are charged for the dairy manufacturers short courses. Total cost for Indiana students, including room, board, books, and incidental expenses will range from $145 to 175, depending somewhat on the course selected and the personal economy of the individual student.

Scholarship, housing and general information may be obtained by writing to V. C. Freeman, associate dean of the school of agriculture, Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana.

4-H CLUB CHATTER

By Ruth Snellenberger

Dear 4-H Members and Friends,

Today I want to make some suggestions about serving as chairman of a committee. Actually I do not claim to be an authority on the subject. What I suggest here are practices from my own experiences which have proven helpful.

Since one of the aims of 4-H work is to help its members become useful citizens of tomorrow, leaders need to give them an opportunity to learn to lead. Serving as chairman of a committee is one of the common forms of leadership in a club. Being an officer carries with it more responsibilities, depending on the importance of the office.

How then, to start this job as a chairman; first, know what job is expected of your committee. If you're not sure or the assignment isn't clear, ask your president or whoever appointed you chairman.

Second notify your committee members of a meeting date and at the same time explain the job of the committee so they can be thinking of some ideas.

Third, before the meeting, you, as chairman, should get some ideas, have suggestions for action, and/or have some pertinent information necessary to proceed.

Fourth, at the committee meeting, ask the members first for their ideas. Take notes as to what is said. Then give your ideas. Discuss each of them. This is a democratic procedure and each member has an opportunity to be a real part of the group.

Fifth, the outcome of the committee could result from a motion made, duly seconded and voted upon, or it could be a verbal agreement. Or maybe further study or action needs to be made for another meeting before reporting back to the club.

Sixth, when making your report to the club, be sure to give credit to the other members who have helped, prior to actually giving the report.

The point about being prepared before the committee meets is important in this day and age when everyone is so busy and has so many meetings to attend. The meeting will proceed more rapidly.

Remember, too, that the president of your club is ex-officio member of all committees. She or he should be invited to attend the meeting of your group.

A suggestion to the president is that since a responsibility has been delegated to a committee, you would be wise to check with the chairman that he or she is on the ball doing the job.

At the 4-H Officers' Training School, Saturday morning, February 5, officers will be given instruction for their jobs. It is hoped the information given in this column will prove helpful to committee chairmen.

A word to the wise president is that she or she, too, will find it helpful to think over the business to be considered prior to the actual club meeting. Consult your leader about what you've listed (I hope no adult leader will make out the list and hand it to the president!) to get her or his counsel on some of the matters to come before the group.

Anyone else have any ideas on this subject? I'd love to hear from you. Bye now.

Ruth R. Snellenberger

TALMA ROD AND GUN CLUB HOLDS MEET

The members of the Talma Rod and Gun Club met at the home of their secretary for their first meeting of the year at the home of Lavoy Montgomery Monday evening at 7:30. The meeting was in charge of the vice-president, Claude Jameson. A business meeting was held and election of officers was held at this time. The club voted to help the conservation officers by helping to take politics out of the Conservation Department. They voted on the bills No. 46 and No. 48 H.-B. Plans were also made to have some kind of display at the Farmers Institute. There was a very nice turnout for this meeting. The following officers were elected for the new year: President, Joe Duzan; Vice-president, Claude Jameson and Secretary-and-treasurer, Lavoy Montgomery. Rex Haimbaugh is delegate and Harley Matthews, Alternate Delegate. The next meeting will be held on Monday evening, February 21.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served to the members.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the flowers, gifts, cards and prayers during my illness. They were greatly appreciated.

Mr. ORVEN HEIGHWAY

Icy roads are more dangerous on warmer days than in zero weather, because melting ice offers less traction. Warm winter days call for extra caution when stopping.

Mentone Goes to Semi-Final In County Tourney

Although the Mentone Bulldogs did not keep up with last year's five, the local boys made a very fine showing by defeating Sidney 48-46 in a double overtime. In the semi-final games on Saturday afternoon, Mentone lost to Pierceton 48-42, but not before throwing a real scare into the Pierceton team. The Warsaw sportswriters placed Larry Boggs on the first team, Tom Hoover on the second, and gave honorable mention to Royal Baum. Silver Lake defeated Pierceton in the final game 54-52.

A number of Landmark books which were sent on approval have been arranged as a display in the lower hall.

Mr. Erwin of the State Department of Public Instruction inspected the lunch facilities on Tuesday.

Miss Aughinbaugh returned to school on Monday after being absent for several days due to an operation. Mr. Gosser served as substitute during her absence.

The Mentone Bulldogs lost two basketball games to the Tippecanoe Greyhounds on Tuesday evening in the local gymnasium. The second team lost 40-31, although Mentone was ahead at the half 19-18. Playing a stall game throughout much of the game, Mentone fell behind badly in the last half and lost 41-32. Tippecanoe was ahead 19-17 at the half. Bob Holloway with 17 points was high for Mentone. Dumnuck scored well for the Greyhounds.

FEEDING DAIRY CATTLE OVER WINTER

A difference between "the dairy herd keeping you or you keeping the herd" will depend largely on feeding practices followed this winter, according to G. A. Williams, Purdue extension dairyman.

Williams suggests making a feed budget. This should be influenced somewhat by the quality and variety of feeds available, but every cow has basic feed requirements which must be met.

Daily feed requirements are based on the body weight of the cow and daily milk production. If the average live weight of the cow and daily milk production. If the average live weight of the herd is 1000 pounds, each cow should receive at least 20 pounds of good quality legume hay. Silage may be substituted at the rate of 30 pounds of silage for 10 pounds of hay per cow.

Grain allowance is the part of the feeding operation which decides whether there is a profit or loss at the end of the month. When all legume hay is fed a grain mixture containing corn and oats supplies enough protein. The same concentrates are satisfactory if silage is made from hay crops. If corn forms the source of silage, a good mixture is 500 pounds of corn and cob meal, 200 pounds of ground oats and 100 pounds of soybean oil meal or ground soybeans.

To each 100 pounds of either of the above grain mixtures add two pounds of steamed bone meal and one pound of trace mineralized salt. You should also provide some of the same mineral mixture free choice in the dry lot or shed.

Assuming a feeding period of six months, a cow should have at least two tons of legume hay, or one ton of hay and three to four tons of silage. The amount of concentrates will be determined by daily milk production.

A cow averaging thirty pounds of milk daily for six months should receive 1500-2000 pounds of grain depending on the amounts and quality of roughages fed. Add to this the 15-20 pounds of salt, and double the amount of steamed bone meal. If this amount of feed is not available, or cannot be purchased at a cost that is in line with milk prices received, it will be more profitable to sell some of the lowest producers or those infected with diseases such as mastitis or brucellosis. An empty stanchion may be more profitable than a half fed cow, says Williams.

GRUBBS — NEER

Miss Phyllis Grubbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Grubbs, of near Mentone, and Richard Neer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Neer, of Piercetown, were united in marriage at the Mentone Methodist church recently.

Rev. David Gosser performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with poinsettias and candelabra. White satin bows and sprigs of holly marked the pews.

Mrs. Dan Urschel, organist, played "Romance," "Sweetest Story Ever Told," "O Perfect Love" and the traditional wedding marches. Miss Marita Tucker sang, "The Lord's Prayer" and "Indian Love Call" and David Gosser sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me."

The full net skirt was trimmed with a wide band of lace at the bottom. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a tiara of white satin leaves trimmed with seed pearls and she wore small pearl earrings. She carried a white satin and net muff trimmed with a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Eleanor Rush, also of Mentone, attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a dress of red nylon net and lace. 4-H CLUB CHATTER

By Ruth Snellenber

Dear 4-H Members and Friends,

Today I want to give information about the 4-H Radio project.

But first, a reminder to 4-H members who plan to be junior leader this year. The deadline for enrollment is still February 1st. You are responsible for getting your enrollment card into the county extension office by that date. When you present your application form to your adult leader he or she will give you an enrollment card and a junior leader report sheet. Send or bring the proper portion of the enrollment card to the extension office, copy from the application form onto the report sheet the things you have checked to do. Your leader then keeps the application form and the leader's copy of the enrollment card. You keep the junior leader report sheet. DO NOT LOSE THIS SHEET. It is to be attached to the project record book of your choice at county fair time in order for you to complete your junior leader project.

The Radio project was started in Kosciusko County several years ago, the first of its kind in the state, I believe. The aims of the project are still the same: To provide opportunity for 4-H members to participate in radio broadcasting, to broaden knowledge of all concerned regarding the fields of radio, to help 4-H members recognize need for improvements in the voice diction and tone quality, to develop leadership responsibilities, to create more interest in 4-H club activities, and to further acquaint people with 4-H club work in general.

Who may enroll in the radio project? Any 4-H member 14 years of age within the current year and who has been in club work three years (including the present year) is eligible.

What are the work requirements?

In division one, (1) have voice recorded and criticized at beginning and near close of project year, (2) write two scripts --- one one-minute script and one two-minute script --- and have corrected for grammatical construction, (3) study three radio programs --- one variety, one quiz, and one newscast --- and write reports of general conduct of each, (4) prepare and be responsible for presenting a 15-minute program on the air, (5) make at least one other appearance on the air.

For division three, a member prepares and presents three radio programs and watches on TV or listens on radio to five programs and then writes criticism of them in addition to voice recordings.

Arrangements have been made with the form director at the local radio station, WRSW, to have the programs aired on Saturday.

Members interested, either boys or girls, should write in the word "radio" on their enrollment card. It would be helpful if you would send word to the county extension office—to me, if you wish — of your enrollment so that a meeting can be arranged to record and criticize voices, to give help on preparing programs, and to explain procedure for arranging to air a program.

That's all for now. 'Bye.

The pictures were taken by airplane and not even the photographer knows one from the other. It will be interesting to see who is the first to identify the pictures each week. Phone Mentone 38. We will endeavor to publish the names of each person correctly identifying the pictures each week.

The farm owner will be given the original 5 x 7 mounted picture absolutely free of any cost. All we require is that the operator himself come to our office and give us a little information about the farm, its operation, etc. Additional prints, colored enlargements, etc. can be obtained by contacting this newspaper.

CO-OP TO MOVE STAFF UNDER ONE ROOF

Consumers Cooperative Association will bring under one roof its staff of four hundred people, now divided in two downtown office buildings in Kansas City, Missouri. Its new headquarters will be three miles north, on the north bluffs of the Missouri river.

CCA's Employee Retirement plan will build the two-story, air-conditioned structure. It's expected to cost $800,000 to $1,000,000. CCA will take a 25-year lease. The ten-acre site is on U. S. Highway 71, opposite a city park.

At present, CCA occupies five- and seven-story buildings in Kansas City, three blocks apart. It owns the smaller of these and leases the other.

Tobacco

In ancient America men only were permitted to smoke, and then just in certain ceremonies. Tobacco was used as an offering to the gods. Stone or pottery pipes were utilized, and the rising smoke was an "incense which relieved distress or disease, lessened danger, and brought help in time of need."

CO-OP. BUILDING DEPT.

Three-month-old Bobby Hill of Blanchester, Ohio was America's youngest iron lung polio patient in 1954. This emergency March of Dimes respirator saved his life. Now freed from the respirator, Bobby will continue to receive all the March of Dimes help he needs in his journey back to health. The March of Dimes will end on January 31.

THE HOPE:

This past summer 440,000 school children throughout America were inoculated with a trial polio vaccine, which offers great hope for the future. Now the results of this enormous trial operation are being evaluated by Dr. Thomas Francis Jr. and his staff at the University of Michigan. The Francis Report will be issued some time this spring. Until then, no one will know whether the trial vaccine is the beginning of the end for polio.

THE OUTLOOK:

If the vaccine is licensed for use, it will mean that thousands of children, and adults too, will be spared the ordeal of Bobby Hill, youngest iron lung patient stricken in 1954. But for Bobby Hill himself, a proven vaccine can be of no help. His will be a long and difficult fight, just as it will be for thousands of other polio patients. And even with a successful vaccine it will not be possible to prevent many thousands of new cases during the next few years.

To pay for all this . . . vaccine, treatment of patients like Bobby Hill, new scientific research, training of treatment personnel and for special equipment such as iron lungs . . . your generous contribution to the March of Dimes is needed.

THE GAMBLE:

While the Francis Report is being awaited, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is taking a $9,000,000 calculated risk on the success of the trial vaccine. Here's how: the National Foundation is purchasing enough of the vaccine right now to give three inoculations each to about 9,000,000 people. This is so it can be used immediately where most needed, if the Francis Report is favorable. The stakes are high but worth it.

WSCS MEETS

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church had their January meeting at the home of Mrs. Bernice Rush on January 20.

Mrs. Dan Urschel presided over the business session.

Mrs. F. B. Davison, vice president, introduced the program topic "The Family Stewards of Christian Life."

Mrs. Rea Ward gave the devotions, using as a call to worship Psalm 31, verses 1-3, and the hymn "Happy the Home When God is There". Main emphasis was on the thought that the greatest opportunity for development of Christian character is the home.

Mrs. Mary Utter led the round table discussion on "The Importance of the Christian Home and Christian Family Living". Participants in the discussion were Mrs. Rosa Kinsey, Mrs. Betty Sarber, Mrs. Sally Gosser, and Mrs. Elizabeth Blue.

The program was closed with the reading of two poems, "How Mary Taught", and "Love" by Mrs. Gosser. Hostesses were Mrs. Rush, Mrs. Myrtle Davis, Mrs. Emma Cook, and Mrs. Mary Teel.

SCHOOL NEWS

The Mentone varsity basketball players were guests of Manchester College at a basketball game on Saturday evening at North Manchester. The students were accompanied by Mr. Hoogenboom. The game proved a real thriller with Manchester winning by two points.

Jackie Smythe and Junior Bare working under the direction of Mr. Weiss have recently completed additional steps in the bleachers on the south side of the gym. These steps were needed badly. The boys are to be complimented on the quality of their work. Money for the materials was provided by the athletic department.

An assembly line for processing the new library books was used last Thursday morning. 112 books were prepared for circulation in about two hours. Those helping were Mrs. Dan Urschel, Mrs. Ora McKinley, Mrs. Opal Tucker, Mrs. Everett Long, Orpha Kurtz, Betty Mellott, Linda Beeson, LaVonne Montel, and Sandra Gross. A similar line will be used this Thursday afternoon to process another group of new books.

Teachers to Attend Workshop

About all of the Mentone faculty plan to attend the Teachers' Workshop to be held at North Webster this Saturday. A similar workshop was held at Mentone last year. The workshop this year will deal with three problems: Improving reading abilities, helping the slow child, and best methods for guiding children.

The Sophomore class will again sell subscriptions to magazines. The class plans to launch its sales campaign on March 1.

The Senior class will stage a Talent show in the gymnasium on Tuesday, February 1. There will be contestants from elementary grades as well as adult groups.

The inclement weather brings up the question of having or not having school. Parents and pupils are reminded of the following: the township trustee makes the decision as to whether to have school or not. If at all possible announcements will be carried over WRSW between 7:00 and 8:00 in the morning.

Unless absolutely necessary it is best not to call the trustee or principal to make inquiries about school, since both officials will need the line to notify bus drivers and teachers. It is usually safe to conclude that there will be school unless you hear otherwise.

Mentone junior high teams will play Burket at the local gym after school on Thursday of this week. The local eighth grade team has not been defeated so far this year. Last Thursday evening the seventh and eighth won both games from Silver Lake in contests played at Silver Lake.

The high school teams play at Silver Lake this Friday evening. A fan bus for the students will leave from the drug store at 8:00. The small charge of 5c is used to help defray the cost of the gasoline.

CLUB PLANS FOR TENTH ANNIVERSARY PARTY

Mrs. Clarence Pfeiffer was hostess to the Country Neighbors club recently. The vice-president, Mrs. John Allen Teel, presided. The meeting was opened with the group singing "America the Beautiful." The pledge to the flag was given followed by the ladies repeating the collect. Devotions were given by Mrs. Arlean Walters reading Luke 2:21. Also an article entitled, "Watchword for Today." The history of the song of the month, "Home Sweet Home" was given by Mrs. Robert Hoover.

Roll call was answered by, "The Magazine I Most Enjoy," the favorite magazines being Readers Digest, Better Homes and Gardens, Farm Journal, Household, American Home, Guide Post, and Ideals.

A short business meeting was held. Plans for the anniversary and annual party were made. The new club yearbooks were passed out and club lessons for the year were assigned.

Secret Pal gifts were received by Mrs. Allen Herendeen, Mrs. Arlean Walters and Mrs. Robert Hoover. High bidders for auction were: Mrs. Norris, Mrs. Hoover, Mrs. Herendeen, Mrs. Zent and Mrs. Craig.

Two contests prepared by the program committee were enjoyed by all. The winners were Mrs. Wilbert Utter and Mrs. Allen Herendeen. The door prize went to Mrs. Leroy Norris.

Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Clarence Pfeiffer, to eleven members and one guest, Butchie Teel.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Wilvin Long.

EGG RECEIVER MEETS WITH AREA PRODUCERS

Barney Kottler of Decatur Farms, met with a representative group of large and small egg producers of the area, last Friday afternoon, and discussed the egg marketing situation. The following information was given at the meeting:

With the completion of our first year, of activity here, it is well to go over some points of past understanding and try to answer some questions that may arise in the future.

We are going to continue on the same pricing schedule as originated, with which you are all familiar. On less than 5 case shipments, our price is 5c under the market; on 5 to 24 cases our price is 4c under the market; on 25 cases or over, we will pay 3c under the market. The "market" is the New York Nearby quotation of Tuesday covering all eggs received the previous Saturday.

In order that we may continue to pay these premiums, we ask each individual producer to conform to good production practices, and to pack a uniform product. All Mentone eggs are marketed as a group, so any irregularity affects not only the individual producer, but directly has influence on the acceptance of the entire lot. Modern marketing demands uniformity and dependability. Some points to remember are:

1. Keep eggs clean. The best way we've found to do this is to just prevent them from becoming stained or dirty.
2. Keep cool at all times. Heat is an egg's worst enemy.
3. Pack in new cases, and use only new fillers and flats. This will prevent the absorption of staleness and odors.

4. Pack points down. This will retain the yolk in central position.
5. Remove culls. Checked or cracked eggs should be packed separately.
6. Grade properly for size.
7. Mark cases properly.
8. Keep confined and range eggs separate.

By closely adhering to the points outlined above, you producers will not only help us in the proper sale of your product, but you will help yourself to continue to receive the premium pricing arrangement we have set up.

ADAM BLUE COMPLETES BASIC MILITARY TRAINING

Pvt. Adam J. Blue, son of Mrs. Bessie Bowser, Mentone, has completed his basic military training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and is home on a short furlough from the 6th Armored Division.

After induction into the army, Pvt. Blue was processed through the 5045th ASU Reception Station at Fort Leonard Wood, where he received his initial army clothing and took the basic qualification and aptitude tests to determine his assignment in the army after completion of basic training.

Adam leaves Thursday for Fort Lee, Va.

MINOR COLLISION TUESDAY EVE.

A collision occurred in front of the Peterson Lunch Tuesday evening about nine o'clock. Eldon McIntyre, 28, of Tippecanoe, was traveling west on Main street when Devon Jones started backing out of a parking place at the curb. Neither driver was able to stop on the icy streets. It was estimated there was about $225 damage to the right front fender, bumper, etc. of the McIntyre car. Damage to the Jones car was minor.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Miner and children have moved from the Brown property to the Estella Emmons-Swick property.

ENTERTAIN FIREMEN

Forty-five men, representing 12 fire departments, were present at Mentone last Thursday evening when the Mentone firemen were host to the County Firemen's Association.

They reported only 10 runs during the month of December with a total loss of only $2,200.

BEAVER DAM BETTER DAUGHTERS CLUB MEETS

The Beaver Dam Better Daughters 4-H club met at the home of Karen and Sharon Heighway January 20th.

The meeting was called to order by Laura A., our president. The pledges were led by Karen L. Then we nominated our officers for the following year. They are as follows: President, Sharon H.; vice president, Betty D.; secretary and treasurer, Karen H.; reporter, Carol Ann D.; Health and Safety, Wilburta L.; Song leader, Linda S.; recreation leader, Karen L. and Sherry B. Linda S. then led us in several songs.

Our assistant leader for the following year will be Mrs. Harvey Smith.

Delicious refreshments were served to 13 members, two mothers and two leaders.

LOST

My name is Cindy Lou Grant and I have lost my good tricycle. A man told me he saw two high school students riding it toward the school from the corner in front of the Baptist Church. I am lonesome without it and, my little brother, David, would like to have it when he grows up. Do you know where it is? Please let my Daddy know if you do. We think it has been gone about a month to six weeks or more. It is a black and white tricycle and has one hub cap off the back wheel.

INVESTIGATING THEFT OF HOGS

It is reported that State Trooper Geiger is investigating the theft of six hogs from the barn lot of Hurshel Drudge and the farm home of Don Stackhouse. A few weeks past, it is reported an attempt was made to load helpers from the Drudge field, but Mr. Drudge frightened the intruders away. No arrests have been made, as yet.
