Bigger and Better 4th of July Picnic

The committee in charge of the program for the NICA picnic report that plans have been completed for a bigger and better program than ever before.

The speaker of the day will be Mr. H. H. Halderman, former county agent of Wabash county, and now in the Farm Management Service, and his talk should be of educational benefit and interest to all.

Never a dull moment will be assured by the engagement of Mr. Cecil Mills of Wabash, as director of playground activities, and the children as well as grown-ups will have a great time. The ice cream and the usual big community dinner will be special features not to be overlooked.

Everyone come to Beachwood Park, at Huffman Lake, with a well filled basket, and a spirit of cooperation and make this a real day of pleasure for yourself and family.

The NICA Banner Formulas Approved

During the egg show a good number of our poultry breeders and egg producers listened to Raymond T. Parkhurst, Ph. D., head Dept. Agriculture Research of the National Oil Products Co., Inc., on the subject of nutrition and vitamins in poultry feeds.

At once recognizing Mr. Parkhurst's ability to analyze feed formulas, he was requested by the feed committee of the NICA to carefully study the Banner formulas and make suggestions for their improvement. This he gladly consented to do and we have his report and recommendation which include but very few slight changes.

These are his words concerning the Banner Starter: "I do not feel that it will be necessary to make any changes in the Banner Chick Starter with the possible exception of increasing the amount of salt to one per cent. Otherwise the ration looks very complete as it is, and in view of the good results that have been

CO-OP. PICNIC AT HUFFMAN LAKE.
Stockholders, Customers, Friends Are

WELCOME.

Whether you're young or whether you're old—you're going to enjoy this day at Huffman Lake as guests of the Northern Indiana Cooperative Association.

A splendid program has been planned and plenty of lively entertainment as well as interesting and instructive speeches will be enjoyed in the afternoon.

Come With Well Filled Baskets

And help make this the biggest and best picnic we've ever had.

obtained with it, I hesitate to suggest any changes."

This statement coming from a man so well informed is of much satisfaction to the board of directors.

However, his recommendations for the Banner Egg Mash were to include 260 pounds of ground whole oats and 70 pounds soy bean oil meal and reduce the corn meal, flour midds, linseed meal and fish meal sufficiently for these additions. Therefore just as soon as new tags are obtained this new Banner Egg Mash will be on sale. The regular Banner Egg Mash will still be in stock for some time, or as long as our customers require it.

NOTICE TO ALL EGG SHIPPERS

The Mentone Egg Car will be closed July 4. Eggs will be shipped July 3 instead.

NOW ANOTHER LARGE BUILDING

The rapidly increasing business and expansion of the NICA has made it necessary that they have more buildings in which to house their mammoth stock of merchandise.

Negotiations were recently completed for additional land just east of the Winona tracks on East Main St., and Monday work was started on a one story building with basement 60x100 feet.

We note that the association have purchased a tract of land large enough for a couple of more buildings, and if they continue to grow in the future as they have in the past they will have use for the extra land before many months.

Surely the marvelous growth of this institution is ample evidence that the Mentone territory is fertile soil for most any live enterprise that depends upon the farming community for a large volume of business.

The NICA Has 2nd Delivery Truck

For some time it has been evident to the board of directors of the NICA that one delivery truck was not adequate to serve all the stockholders and customers. Therefore a second tank was authorized and is now ready for service.

Mr. Lon Walters who comes to us from Kosciusko Farm Bureau, is the owner of the truck chassis and will be the service man. The territory has been divided into two parts, Mr. Weisert being allotted the territory north of Mentone and Mr. Walters that south.

These men will do all that is possible to give you the service you so justly deserve and the committee sincerely hopes that the stockholders and customers will report any suggestions for the improvement of the service.

The petroleum products handled by the NICA are second to none and the committee is well aware that profits will be made for the stockholders on the amount purchased. That should mean that every stockholder will use Tydol products and sell all of his friends. Watch for the new delivery truck.

Japanese Women Taller

Japanese women are now two and a half inches taller on an average than they were at the beginning of this century. The young men, on the other hand, have barely added an inch to their stature. These remarkable facts are revealed by an inquiry into the physical condition of the nation completed by an education ministry. A tendency to shortsightedness is considered the most startling development during the investigation. This was found to be most marked in the universities, where over 50 per cent of the students are definitely shortsighted. The small characters used in many of the books studied are blamed.

Whales Elude the Wiles of Any Would-Be Captors

South Africa has found a new aquatic sport to entertain beach crowds—a game of "hide and seek," or "catch-me-if-you-can," between whales and men in boats, writes a Langebaan, South Africa, United Press correspondent. Two whales and two boats have taken part in such a game before the excited gaze of crowds on the beach.

The whales were unexpected visitors. They first were seen from shore. The news quickly spread among the inhabitants, who streamed down to the water's edge for a glimpse.

Two boats, each manned by three men, then were put out to try to catch the whales by driving them on to the beach. But the whales were too clever. Again and again they eluded their pursuers—diving and appearing in unexpected places.

Spectators on the beach were aroused to excitement when they saw the monsters actually pass beneath the boats to outmaneuver the hunters.

Though nearly successful several times, the men were beaten by approaching dusk and the running of their intended prey.

Monument for Elephant

The quip that "an elephant never forgets" has been reversed in the Federated Malay states, for an elephant that derailed a train is being commemorated in connection with the fiftieth anniversary of the F. M. S. railways, writes a Singapore United Press correspondent. One of the earliest trains was running near Telok Anson, on the west coast of Malaya, when a herd of elephants crossed the line. The rest of the story is told in the words by an inscription erected by the government near the spot: "There is buried here a wild elephant who, in defense of his herd, charged and derailed a train: September, 1894.

MELANCHOLY SONG LEADS 18 TO TAKE THEIR OWN LIVES

"Sorrowful Sunday" Is Banned in Budapest After Sunday Epidemic.

Chicago.—"Sorrowful Sunday" is now a banned song in Budapest—a song of death. Hungarian orchestra leaders shake their heads when it is mentioned.

Its haunting melody, its bitter words, have driven 18 persons, disappointed in love, to commit suicide.

Frank J. Kovach, Hungarian radio entertainer who has broadcast the song a few times from a local station, has supplied what is believed to be the only copy extant in the United States. He brought it back with him from a recent trip to Budapest.

Now that so many persons there have ended their lives after hearing it, Mr. Kovach understands why he found "Sorrowful Sunday" so depressing—and why he did not care to continue broadcasting it.

Tried to Forget It.

From the time of the first suicide, Budapest orchestra leaders have tried to forget the song. But requests of patrons cannot be ignored.

Joseph Keller was the eighteenth to take his life. He asked an orchestra to play the mournful dirge—and fell dead at the leader's feet, clutching a note asking that 1,000 flowers be placed on his bier.

Then police acted. They ordered that the song never be played again in Budapest. But that order cannot stop the phonograph records, whose sale is reported to have been phenomenal.

Housemaids Stab Selves.

Several of the victims have shot themselves while listening to the record. Two fired bullets into their hearts as Hungarian gypsies strummed the song on their guitars.

Two housemaids heard the music in the drawing rooms of the families that employed them, and ended their lives with daggers.

Kovach, who was director of the first Hungarian air program broadcast from Chicago, translated the words into English:

Sorrowful Sunday, I waited for you, my dearest.

With hundreds of flowers and church prayers.

With dreams gone astray, Sunday before noon.

My own carriage of anguish returned without you.

Since then my Sundays have been sorrowful.

Tears are my drink and sorrow my bread.

Sorrowful Sunday.

On my last Sunday, dearest, again I will wait for you.

There will be a priest, a coffin, a shroud-covered bier.

Again flowers will await you.

Under the blooming trees my journey will be the last;

My eyes will be open so I can see you for the last time.

Don't be afraid of my eyes, because even in death they idolize you.

On my last Sunday.

WEDDINGS

A wedding ceremony of beautiful appointments occurred Tuesday evening at the First Presbyterian church in Warsaw, when Miss Virginia Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Coleman, became the bride of I Babcock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Babcock, of Warsaw.

Previous to the ceremony, a twenty minute musical was presented by Mrs. George Franklin at the organ, and Mrs. Frederick Olks, who sang two numbers, "At Dawning" and "Because." The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, baskets of flowers being arranged throughout the entire church.

The wedding party took their places before the altar which was banked with a profusion of fernery and flowers arranged around a large candelabra and tapers. At either end of the altar was a basket of Madonna lilies.

The father of the bride, W. A. Coleman, gave her away in marriage. Miss Priscilla Matthews of Evanston and Miss Elizabeth Perry of Warsaw attended Mrs. Babcock as bridesmaids, with Miss Doris Jean Coleman, sister of the bride, acting maid of honor. The bridegroom attended by Wayne Johnson saw. The bride was lovely in white chiffon wedding gown with a long train and long lace veil. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and baby's breath.

After the reading of the nuptial vows by Rev. S. A. Stewart, who performed the single ring ceremony, a reception at the Coleman home was enjoyed by sixty-two guests.

Mrs. Babcock is a graduate of Warsaw high school, and Mr. Babcock graduated from Etna Green high school. The bridegroom is employed at the Winona Grocery, and upon their return from a short wedding trip into Michigan, the couple will be at home in the Bluegill cottage at Winona Lake, near Kosciusko Lodge.

Hatfield-Holbrook

Jesse Frederick Hatfield of Palestine and Bureda Holbrook of Lake were married Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the United Brethren parsonage in Warsaw, by Rev. M. Linenwood. The attendants at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Metzger of Silver Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Hatfield will make their home on Warsaw rural route five.

Death Claims M. G. Yocum, Well Known Physician of This Community

Dr. Melvin G. Yocum, 70, practicing physician of Mentone for the past 50 years, died Tuesday night, July 7, at 10:05 o'clock at his home. Dr. Yocum had been ailing for several years but serious for only one month. His death was due to arterio sclerosis.

Dr. Yocum was born December 1, 1866, south of Yellow Creek lake, the son of Elmore and Amanda Yocum. He resided all his life in Fulton and Kosciusko counties, and was a man most highly esteemed by all his acquaintances. Dr. Yocum was a member of the Methodist church of Mentone and the Masonic lodge. His widow, formerly Emma C. Grube, is the only close relative surviving. One child of the couple died in infancy.

Funeral services were held Friday of last week at 1:30 p. m. at the Baptist church, Rev. E. E. DeWitt officiating, assisted by Rev. Yeager and Rev. Alexander. The church was filled to capacity, the members of the county medical association attending in a body. Quite a number were unable to enter the church, but as loud speakers had been installed all were able to hear the very fine discourse given by Rev. DeWitt. Burial was made in the Mentone cemetery.

In the passing of Dr. Yocum this community loses one of its best loved and highly esteemed citizens—a man who always held the welfare of our citizens above his own, ever ready to lend a helping hand in any movement for the betterment of the community, always being generous to the extreme. There is no one but regrets his passing.

In this sad hour the entire community fully sympathizes with the widow in her sorrow.

STRANGE ANIMAL IN COMMUNITY

George Stockberger, driver of Hill & Lemler grocery truck, tells us that some strange animal is at large in the county. Proof of his statement is found in a woods, located on the Taylor Lloyd farm near here. The bark of the trees in this woods has been gnawed off in a curious fashion by this animal, causing the destruction of approximately 300 of them.

No one, as yet, has been able to furnish Mr. Lloyd any information as to what kind of an animal it could be. Stockberger advances a theory that perhaps an escaped monkey from a circus now at Rochester could be living in the woods and obtaining food by this method.

The theory that insects could have done the work was disregarded when large claw marks were discovered on the bark. Lloyd expects to write Purdue University for an investigation if no further light is thrown on the subject in the near future. The News will bring you any latter developments.

PICNIC NEWS

The Northern Indiana Co-Op. picnic at Beachwood Park was indeed a success this year. "Co-Ops" certainly fit this group of people. To see the bountiful supply of food placed on the tables every year, to watch the ball games and other entertainments, to note the friendly hand claps and general pervading good will, is to appreciate the real meaning of the term "co-operation."

If you did not hear the splendid talk given by H. H. Halderman of the Farm Management service nor enjoy the entertainment afterwards under the supervision of Mr. Cecil Mills of Wabash—do make it your business to be with us next July 4th, and we will make it worth your while.

HONOR IS AWARDED TO DEAD SOLDIER

British Captain Honored With Victoria Cross.

London.—The Victoria Cross—the most coveted, and highest honor for gallantry in the British empire—has just been awarded to a member of the British army for the first time in 14 years.

It is not only an award, but a memorial for Capt. Godfrey Meynell, M. C. of the Fifth Battalion (Queen Victoria's own corps of guides) Twelfth Frontier Force regiment, Indian army, as he lost his life in the act of courage in which he gained the distinction.

The late King George V honored the man who lost his life with the Victoria Cross "for most conspicuous gallantry and extreme devotion to duty" during operations against the Mohmand tribesmen on the northwest frontier of India last September.

Captain Meynell, although wounded five times, rallied his men after they had encountered an overwhelming number of tribesmen, and held his position for many hours. His last words were: "Be brave, we shall get help soon."

The account in the Gazette says: "On September 29, while operating against Mohmand tribesmen, Captain Meynell was adjutant of the battalion.

"The enemy was closing in on the position from three sides. Captain Meynell had at his disposal two Lewis guns and about 30 men.

"Although this party was maintaining heavy fire on the advancing enemy, the overwhelming numbers of the latter succeeded in reaching the position.

"During the struggle Captain Meynell was mortally wounded, and all his men were either killed or wounded.

"He inflicted on the enemy very heavy casualties, which prevented them from exploiting their success."

Flames Destroy Home

Fire, said to have been caused by defective wiring, completely destroyed the large two story frame farm house of Samuel Cook, located about three quarters of a mile north of Palestine, about 9:00 o'clock Wednesday night. The estimated damage of the blaze that left four persons clothesless and homeless was $5,000.00 or more.

The Burket fire department was summoned and aided by neighbors succeeded in keeping the mounting flames from spreading to nearby buildings.

A radio, buffet, dining room table and chairs were the sole household furnishings saved from the ruins. One member of the household, Herschel Cook, a step-son, was reported to have lost the entirety of his bonus money in the blaze, but a later search located it in the buffet, one of the few pieces of furniture rescued from the burning building. However, fifty dollars in cash in Cook's trouser pocket were burned.

First evidence of the flaming home was discovered about 8:45 by Sam Cook, who at the time was out in the yard. He immediately aroused other members of the household who scurried to safety in night attire.

Nearly 700 persons watched the home burn to the ground. The property has been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Cook only for the past year. Prior to this time it was leased by its former owner, John Minear, of Warsaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook for the present are with the latter's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Longacre. It is reported that a new dwelling is to be erected immediately.

IN MEMORY

EATON

In memory of our dear husband, father and grandfather, Levi A. Eaton who passed away July 6, 1935.

***

One year among the angels
Beloved thou has been,
One year has heaven's white portals
Shut back the sound of sin.
And yet no voice—no whisper
Comes floating down from thee
To tell us what glad wonder,
A year in heaven may be.

Man Escapes Death Four Times in a Few Seconds

New York.—Charles Nundorff, forty-seven years old, of Babylon, N. Y., escaped death in a smashup, by electric shock, by explosion, and by fire all within a few seconds.

His coupe was struck by a Long Island railroad train at a crossing near Babylon. The machine was hurled against the third rail of an adjoining track, overturning as it went. Current from the rail caused the gasoline tank to explode, enveloping the wreckage in flames.

Nundorff retained presence of mind enough to smash a rear window of the car and drag himself out before the flames reached him. A short time later, while the train crew stood helplessly by, believing him trapped in the burning wreckage, he was seen wandering in a daze in a field alongside the railroad right of way.

He suffered concussion of the brain and severe burns about the head, face and arms.

the effects of the pressure on a photohai reports, when it was found that the films were unusually sensitive to pressure.

SILVER DOLLAR BRADY RENTS PENTHOUSE FOR PRIZE HORSE

Silver Dollar Brady, wealthy cowboy from Dallas, has the world's first "penthouse corral" high above Chicago on the 17th floor of Hotel Sherman. Brady and his horse are shown here "at home" looking out over the city's attractive skyline.

"More Silver Dollars in circulation will bring back better business conditions a whole lot faster."

That's the idea of Silver Dollar Brady, who arrived in Chicago today, with the intention of getting more Silver Dollars in circulation.

Brady, big, six-foot wealthy rancher from the West, walked into the Hotel Sherman today, his prize horse trailing behind. First, he registered with the horse at his heels . . . then he went into the coffee shop and both man and beast had a bite to eat.

He had wired for reservations for himself and horse, and was given a penthouse high above the street on the 17th floor, with a special corral, hay, oats and all, for his horse.

"The trouble with paper dollars is, you don't feel 'em in your pocket," Brady said. "Now, it's different with Silver Dollars. You know you got 'em. They seem to mean a whole lot more. But because they're heavy, you spend 'em a lot quicker."

Brady said he was going to urge Chicago merchants to pay their employees in Silver Dollars.

"Then you just watch business boom," he said.

Brady, who is an Ambassador of Good Will for the Texas Centennial Exposition at Dallas, wears a valuable belt made of old and rare Silver Dollars.

CLUB NEWS

Mrs. Dora Goodman was hostess to the Tippecanoe Home Economics Club's picnic last week to which the families and scouts were invited. Thirteen gallons of ice cream, many cakes and coffee were consumed during the not soon to be forgotten evening.

The president Mrs. Laird called the club to order just long enough to read an invitation from the Mentone Home Economics Club to hold a reciprocity meeting with them in September. The invitation was accepted.

The next meeting will be with their vice-president, Mrs. Eva Sauer in August. They will answer roll call with "Wonder Spots" in U. S. A., and the program will be "Trails in Texas."

Scale on Trees

Scale on trees, shrubs, plants, is easily recognized. It shows as a clinging, hard substance. Often it is white, or it may assume a fixed form, as does the oyster shell scale. Actually, the scale is the shell covering tiny insects, their protection against destruction, and a reliable protection it is. This stout armor, together with its rapidity of reproduction, makes the scale almost proof against the untiring efforts of scientists to preserve orchards and shade trees from extinction. The scale is a sucking insect. It saps the life-blood of its victim. Against its stomach poisons are useless, for they do not penetrate the stout walls of its home.

World's Longest River

The Missouri-Mississippi, 4,221 miles from the source of the Missouri to the mouth of the Mississippi, is the longest river. The Caspian sea, is the largest isolated sheet of water on the globe; Lake Superior is the largest fresh-water lake. Mount Everest in the Himalayas, 29,002 feet, is the world's highest peak.

Ability to Set Up Goals

One mark of "growing up" is the ability to set up goals and to work steadily to achieve them regardless of the obstacles which arise.
