MRS. JOHN O'BLENIS, 77, DIES AT WALTON, IND.

Mrs. Caroline O'Brien, 77, died at 6:10 o'clock Monday evening at her home in Walton, Ind. She had been ill since February and the immediate cause of her death was pneumonia. The deceased was born near Sevastopol Sept. 11, 1864, the daughter of George and Margaret Kern.

LYMAN MOLLENHOUR TO BE BURIED THURSDAY

Lyman L. Mollenhour, aged 82 years, passed away at the home of a son, George Mollenhour, at Mentone Monday afternoon at about five o'clock. Death came easily as he was sitting in a chair.

Mr. Mollenhour, who resided on his farm near here, drove into town Saturday morning but wasn't feeling in the best of health. He remained at the home of his son until death made its call.

Mr. Mollenhour was one of eight sons born to Mr. and Mrs. William A. Mollenhour, pioneer residents of this vicinity. The father was born July 4, 1830, and the mother, Elizabeth Hartman, was born September 18, 1828. In those days, it is reported, the place where Mentone now is was mostly swamp land.

The deceased was married to Mary Josephine Morgan Oct. 13, 1881 and to this union was born seven children. Mrs. Mollenhour was born in a log cabin in almost the same spot where the telephone office is now located, her father's homestead covering the area where the town now stands. Mrs. Mollenhour died Dec. 31, 1937.

Surviving are three sons, George and Chauncey of Mentone and Harvey of South Bend; three daughters, Mrs. Rhoda Jones of Mentone, Mrs. Minnie Williamson of Burket and Mrs. Lydia Nelson of South Bend; three brothers, Hiram of Mentone, Amos of Rensselaer, Ind., and Miner of Washington Court House, Ohio.

In addition there are 18 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be held at the home of the son where he died Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, with Rev. Victor E. Stoner officiating. The Tucker funeral home, at Claypool, will have charge of arrangements. Burial will be in the Mentone cemetery.

The Co-Op. Oil Station is receiving a new coat of white paint and is being trimmed in red and black. It will be a very nice appearing station when the work is entirely completed.

DIES AT KANSAS CITY

G. W. Thomson, aged 80 years, passed away at a Kansas City hospital June 18th and was buried two days later, according to a report given this newspaper. He was a brother of Mrs. Nettie Mollenhour and also the late "Doc" Thomson, former Mentone business man.

Mr. Thomson was born and reared near Mentone and had left here about fifty years ago.

LAWRENCE BELL IN "CURRENT BIOGRAPHY"

Lawrence D. Bell, airplane manufacturer who was born in Mentone, Indiana, will be among the distinguished "headliners" chosen to appear in the July issue of CURRENT BIOGRAPHY. Mr. Bell will appear in this publication of "who's news and why" because of the importance of his position at president of the Bell Aircraft Corporation.

Lawrence Dale Bell was born in Mentone, the son of Isaac Evans and Harriet Sarber Bell, the H. W. Wilson Company publication reports. The interesting story of the man who is "president, nerves, voice, elbows, and heart of the Bell Aircraft Corporation, manufacturers of the famous pursuit ship, P-39, is accompanied by numerous other biographies.

FORMER MENTONE BOY HONORED AT MILWAUKEE

Dennis R. Jones, son of E. E. Jones of Mentone, who has been affiliated with the Smith funeral home at Palmyra, Wisconsin the past 18 years, was elected president of the Wisconsin Funeral Directors and Embalmers Association at Milwaukee June 18th.

Mr. Jones, who attended the Mentone and Beaver Dam high schools, has been prominent in the Southern Wisconsin association for some time. He was secretary and later president of that group and in 1938 was named as delegate to the national convention in New York City. He served several years as a member of the board of directors of the state association and in 1941 was elected vice president, which virtually assured him of the presidency in 1942.

NEW INDUCTION POLICY ANNOUNCED

Indianapolis, Ind., June 26.—Emphasizing that "the national interest requires that all calls to meet the manpower requirements of the armed forces be filled on schedule," Col. Robinson Hitchcock, State Selective Service director, has advised local boards that insofar as is practical in meeting these calls local boards should call men without dependents before inducting married men into military service.

The bill recently adopted by Congress providing family allowances for dependents of enlisted men in the armed forces, he said, sets up a new policy under which registrants will be selected for induction from categories in the following order:

Category 1.

Registrants otherwise qualified for military service who have no bona fide financial dependents.

Category 2.

Registrants otherwise qualified for military service who have financial dependents other than wives or children mentioned in categories 3 or 4.

Category 3.

Registrants otherwise qualified for military service who have wives with whom they are maintaining a bona fide family relationship in their homes and who were married prior to December 8, 1941, and at a time when induction was not imminent.

Category 4.

Registrants otherwise qualified for military service who have wives and children, or children alone, with whom they maintain a bona fide family relationship in their homes who were married prior to December 8, 1941, and at a time when induction was not imminent.

"While setting up the four broad categories, National Selective Service headquarters has made it emphatic that they do not provide for the permanent deferment of men with dependents but rather provide the order in which registrants with dependents will be inducted. * * *

"The White City," the name given to Manwaring's chicken ranch. When Mr. Manwaring's plans are completed and in operation, he will have provided an industry which will not only be a credit to this locality, but will add a large volume of business to the community.

The Culver Citizen tells this one on one of their drivers: "A Culver liveryman, who carried a little old lady to Hibbard, hit the high spots only, as usual. When he hauled up at Hibbard platform, he missed his passenger from the back seat. On investigation, he discovered her, rolled into a little heap in one corner, on the floor of the vehicle. Her bonnet was smashed down on one shoulder, her false teeth were gone, and both ends of her lace bonnet ties were wadded into her mouth, so that she could not utter a sound. However, the little old lady was plucky, and after straightening herself out and getting her false teeth in place, she remarked: "My son. I went through the San Francisco earthquake, but you're ahead."

PLANT FOR FALL STORAGE

Potatoes, beets, carrots, cabbage, kohlrabi, turnips and winter radishes may be planted now and mature before cold weather. These crops may be stored successfully in an out-of-door storage pit. The advantage of timely plantings under average weather conditions will permit maturity at the end of the growing and the beginning of the storage season, says W. B. Ward, Purdue extension gardener.

Potatoes will require from 75 to 100 days, cabbage 75 to 100 days after transplanting, and most of the other vegetables listed, from 60 to 80 days to mature. Other vegetables for storage include dry navy and lima beans, onions, sweet potatoes, pumpkins and squash. Parsnips, Salsify and horseradish may be left in the ground. Kale, fall Spinach, endive, chinese cabbage, broccoli and cauliflower may be planted during late June and early July. These vegetables are rather hardy and oftentimes continue to grow and produce as late as mid-November.

A small amount of garden seed and timely plantings will produce a large amount of quality food for the table and for preservation for winter use.

PARTY FOR MRS. BURNS

A lovely lawn party was held at the beautiful country home of Mrs. Stanley Boggs Thursday evening. The lawn was beautiful with lighted Chinese lanterns, masses of flowers and outdoor furniture. A short playlet, "And Truth Goes Marching On," was given by some members of the chapter, assisted by Virginia Rush and Junior Emmons. The acrobatic entertainment by Miss Bonnie Emmons was enjoyed by all. Talks were given by the past regents and a lovely gift was presented to Mrs. Burns. A huge bowl of punch suddenly appeared and was very much appreciated. Later delicious refreshments were served on small tables placed about the lawn. All departed at a late hour with best wishes to Mrs. Burns in her new home.

WAYNE BESSON WRITES FROM FORT BENNING

June 28, 1942.

Dear Sir:

I am very sorry that I have neglected writing you and informing you of my new address which is at present:

Pvt. M. Wayne Besson,
Med. Det. 151st Inf (R)
Fort Benning, Georgia.

Our regiment, the 151st infantry regiment, has been at Fort Benning since April 1st, and is being used as a demonstration unit for the many infantry officers that graduate from officers training school.

We certainly have been busy and according to our training program we will continue to be plenty busy in the future.

I certainly do enjoy the paper. I noticed a few weeks ago the large, long list of names of the boys from around Mentone. There have been a large number leave in the last year.

We are having hot weather, nevertheless we continue with our Army problems. I don't know whether we will go on Louisiana maneuvers or not.

It is rumored that we may get furloughs sometime in July, although one can never tell, and you can hear almost anything.

I certainly thank you very much for the paper that you have been sending.

Yours truly,

M. WAYNE BESSON.

Scrap Rubber

Clarence A. Jackson, WPB salvage chief for Indiana.

of rubber equivalent to the rubber used in a flying fortress."

Like rubber, scrap metal is vital to the victory program, and the Indiana Salvage Committee is urging industry and individuals to "get in the scrap."

Typical of Indiana industry's cooperation is the Schenley Company plant at Lawrenceburg, where a salvage committee with members from every department has been set up to scrutinize all scrap so nothing will be wasted if local "scrap saving" officials can find a use for it. At the same time, Indiana citizens are scouring attics, basements and garages for things to contribute to salvage drives.

"Every time Hoosier citizens help salvage 252 lawn mowers," Jackson says, "the government is assured the equivalent of enough scrap steel for another three-inch anti-aircraft gun, while the steel in 61 old refrigerators collected in Indiana is equivalent to that needed to send an additional tank to some distant battle front."

INDIANAPOLIS—Indiana, getting behind Clarence A. Jackson, chairman of the Indiana Salvage Committee and State Defense Director, has gone all-out in the drive to make sure that small amounts of vital material do the work of a lot in the victory drive.

Take rubber, for instance. When past all possible use, rubber articles can be put through a reclaiming process. So the Indiana Salvage Committee is organizing drives to collect discarded rubber goods and worn-out tires.

"The salvage drives are producing fine results," Jackson says. "They'll do even better when people realize that every Hoosier patriot who scrapes up an old like tire is furnishing the equivalent of enough rubber for a soldier's gas mask, and that 150 old auto tires collected by a group of 'scrap savers' contain an amount

It was a case of out of the frying pan into the fire when William Oakes, 17, seaman first class, came to his Kokomo home on leave. In his own words, Oakes "blew in Kokomo just about the same time the tornado did." And to make matters worse, he had blown in from service on the U. S. S. Lexington which went down in the historic Coral Sea battle. Oakes was a member of a gun crew on the topside of the carrier and saw all the action. When it comes to battling tornadoes or Japs, young Oakes says he will take the Japs every time. He is the son of Delbert Oakes of Kokomo.

Indiana Navy officials are making a special appeal this week for binoculars for use in the United States fleet. Because of difficulty in obtaining replacements for other sizes, the Navy accepts only 6x30 and 7x50 binoculars manufactured by either Zeiss or Bausch and Lomb. Persons who own binoculars meeting these requirements and who desire to lend them to the Navy for the duration of the war have been requested to pack them carefully and ship them to the Naval Observatory, Washington, D. C. An identification tag should be fastened securely to each instrument. Indiana has contributed only 8 of a total of 1,654 binoculars now in Navy hands since the beginning of the drive in February.

Stephen John Burich, Jr., R. R. 10, Indianapolis, is one of 29 Naval Academy graduates who have been commissioned Second Lieutenants in the Marine Corps following graduation exercises at Annapolis. Burich will report to the Marine Barracks at Quantico, Virginia, for further training.

Max Edward Dillard, R. R. 1, Birdseye, is one of 357 aviation cadets who have started advance training at one of the Navy's two big air stations at Pensacola, Florida, and Corpus Christi, Texas. Dillard's advanced training will require three months and the cadets who successfully complete the course will be commissioned as Ensigns in the U. S. Naval Reserve or Second Lieutenants in the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve and ordered to active duty.

★ Ensign T. M. Deckard, USNR, who covered a lot of miles in rapid time a few years ago when he was Indiana University's star distance runner Tommy Deckard, is covering a lot of miles in Indiana these days helping get candidates for the Navy's V-5, naval aviation cadet training. Ensign Deckard will eventually be stationed at the V-5 Pre-Flight Training School at Iowa City to assist in the thorough physical hardening of the cadets there.

★ Gene Storms, 20, of Muncie, didn't expect to find his old friend D. E. Oren when he came down to Indianapolis to investigate the Navy's V-5 aviation program. It's Lieutenant Oren now and he's recruiting aviation cadets for the Navy. Young Storms knew Lieutenant Oren and followed his athletic career at Ball State Teachers College a few years ago and saw him frequently on visits to Upland, where Lieutenant Oren formerly coached basketball.

★ One a month!

That's the cry which can be heard in every community and city in Indiana these days wherever you find a civilian organization pledging assistance to the Indiana Navy Recruiting Service's drive to get 2,000 recruits between the dates of June 10 and July 4. One a month means every member of these Civilian Navy organizations has volunteered to send one recruit a month to the Navy recruiting station as a part of this drive which will continue after the July 4 testing period deadline.

★ Navy recruiters spent Saturday afternoon and evening on Shelbyville's public square to answer any and all questions about the Navy's personal and patriotic opportunities. Their visit was in connection with the "One A Month" campaign.

★ Two changes have been made in the Navy's V-5 program which trains men for commissions as aviation officers. One provision grants deferments from call to active duty for college students who wish to complete their current college years and for those who are enrolled in Civilian Pilot Training courses. College students may be deferred until the end of their current college years, if request for such deferment is made at the time of enlistment in V-5 and if they are not urgently needed for immediate call to active duty.

★ Another aviation change permits aviation mechanics, metalsmiths, ordnance men and radiomen, to continue their vocational school instruction courses. Deferment will be granted to three months to permit completion of such courses.

NUGGETS FOR BEREANS

The epistle to the Hebrews was written by the apostle Paul to his brethren in the flesh after Acts 28 where the doors of kingdom promises were closed to them and judicial blindness began to settle. We find this epistle to be a last, loving, earnest word of exhortation.

The occasion of the writing of the letter is found in the 5th and 6th chapters. These people in their carnality, had begun to magnify angels, Moses, their fathers, the priesthood, their temple, their ritual, and their sacrifices. This, of course, rendered them unable to understand the deep things of God.

The predominant note of the epistle is that "in all things HE might have the pre-eminence." In the first chapter Christ is seen to be above the angels; in the third, above Moses; from the fifth to the eighth, above the Aaronic priesthood; in the ninth and tenth, above the many sacrifices. After the long list of Old Testament Heroes in Chap. 11, we find in 12:2 Christ the "Prince, Leader, and Finisher of Faith." The apostle is emphatically pointing them to Christ the risen Lord.

These Hebrews were so engrossed in ordinances and traditions that they were just babes in Christ. Here they should have been teaching others, but had need of learning the first principles themselves, (5:12,13). They still had to be fed milk, when they should have been receiving the strong meat of the Word.

What a shame that we have so many Christians today that have never grown up spiritually and still have to be fed with milk!

OFFICIAL U. S. TREASURY WAR BOND QUOTAS FOR JULY

COPYRIGHT BY RAND McNALLY & COMPANY, CHICAGO

The above map of Indiana shows the War Bond quotas, by counties, for the month of July, 1942. Total War Bond quota for the state is $18,800,000. With the National quota total placed at a billion dollars, the nation goes into high gear in its support of the War financing and to give our fighting forces adequate implements of war which will bring ultimate Victory.

American Soldiers, Sailors, Marines and Airmen are on every front. They are giving 100 percent for their country. What are we doing here on the home front? Are we lending at least ten percent of income to help them? It's very little. But to fight this war successfully our country needs a billion dollars in War Bonds every month from us—the People. Let's Go, America.

HOW TO CONTROL

CABBAGE WORMS

Cabbage worms are easily controlled, says G. E. Lecker, Purdue extension entomologist, and no Hoosier Victory Gardener need allow these pests to eat his cabbage. Any one of several insecticides, such as rotenone, arsenate of lead or paris green are known to kill the worms.

Contrary to popular belief, cabbage may be dusted or sprayed with an arsenical, such as lead arsenate or paris green, until the cabbage heads are at least four inches in diameter, he says, without leaving an objectionable residue. Even later applications afford little danger because the cabbage grows from the inside out, and external leaves are generally removed before cooking.

As a dust, Lecker recommends that one part of arsenate of lead be mixed with three of hydrated lime. Paris green is a stronger poison and can be mixed one part with seven of lime. Rotenone dust can be purchased ready mixed and applied at any time. It, too, is effective against the worms.

For those who wish to spray instead of dust the cabbage, Lecker suggests the use of lead arsenate at the rate of ten level teaspoonfuls in a gallon of soapy water.

CANNING IN ORDER

With the attention of Indiana homemakers turning to the canning of surpluses from Victory Gardens, Purdue University now offers a helpful publication to persons interested in solving storage problems.

A new printed leaflet on "Home Storage of Canned Fruits and Vegetables," prepared by the Purdue Home Economics extension department, has recently come from the press. The publication gives information on recommended spacing of shelves for a food storage room where space may be used to the fullest advantage.

This leaflet may be obtained from the office of any County Agricultural Agent or by writing to the Agricultural Extension Department, Purdue University.

SOMEWHERE IN HAWAII

June 30, 1942

Dear Editor:

Since the latter part of January, I have been receiving the "Co-Op. News" by my old address. From the time we left the States until the present time, my address has changed five times. Due to this uncertainty of address, I have not informed you of any change; but in order to speed the delivery of your paper I want to give you my latest address.

I might say that we are on one of the Hawaiian Islands. We are very much on our toes seven days of the week, and spare time is a thing of the past.

At the present time I am in a machine gun squad. We have many good times together along with our work; and, as each situation arises, we try to make the best of it. I have much faith in our army and its men.

I thank you for the paper and look forward to it, along with my letters from home.

Sincerely yours, —

Pvt. WILVIN TEEL.

THE POWERFUL MINORITY

As we struggle each day for a certain goal or secure some improvement through co-operative effort, we are apt to lose sight of the fact that strong, virile minorities play a very important part in helping us to attain a more perfect result. Accomplishments without strong opposition from the minority group would soon become filled with untested ideas or thoughtless decisions. Opposing forces are the ones which pick flaws in the proposals offered or challenge the merit of contemplated actions.

Spain, dominated by a powerful group of hi-jacking officials spent enough money to have had one of the finest navies in the world, but only a small part of the money was actually transformed into ships and when Dewey clashed with them they didn't have enough to even put up an interesting scrap.

Churchill was recently warned that there was a minority group watching his action. He weathered a "no confidence" vote with a big majority, yet he knows that the minority group is actually much larger than the vote indicated. For political reasons many voted in his favor but if the opposition should grow to the proper proportions they would switch their votes and his defeat would be as overwhelming as the confidence vote he did receive.

Many of Britain's possessions are populated by people who have never been privileged to secure an education and were easy to control by threats from soldiers and guns. The British officials in such places had no opposing minority and they withered into thoughtless rule. They had no need to be right or wrong and, as man always does, preferred not to do it unless necessary. In the present war, however, those generals have been faced with intelligent opposition and they can't understand why they can't fight this war as they have done for ages past among the uneducated.

The American people are contributing millions of dollars a day to Britain and her allies, to say nothing of our men who are placing themselves in dangerous positions, and it appears that those same Americans should have something to say about the distribution and use of the implements of war we are giving them. Would Mr. Churchill face a "confidence vote" in America?

We wouldn't want to be accused of saying anything more to the English for failing as we would to our own leaders, but we'll defend to the end our right to say as much.

YOUR CAR How to Get the MOST out of it

TO CHANGE OR NOT TO CHANGE

Whether to change crankcase oil and if so how often are subjects of perennial argument among motorists. Under ideal conditions oil would last a long time, although tests indicate that even then it would in time get "tired" and not do as good a job. However, conditions are never ideal. Cars are driven fast, dust and dirt get in despite filters, water condenses and mixes with the oil, gasoline leaks past the cylinders, carbon is washed down.

All of these things accumulate rather slowly, but they do make it necessary to change oil at reasonably regular intervals.

Some things to keep in mind in connection with oil are:
A dirty filter is no better than none at all.

Heavier oil does not necessarily provide safer lubrication. Frequently, the reverse is nearer the truth. Engines today are built tighter and run faster. If oil is too heavy it will not readily flow between the closely fitted moving parts.

Don't forget to warm the engine before draining the crankcase. Cold oil is like cold molasses.

Don't worry if your car consumes a small amount of oil between changes. That's natural even with normal driving. No harm is being done even if the oil level is as much as a quart below the full mark.

None of the statements which the Lord Jesus made of Himself is more emphatic than this, "I am the Light of the world." No assurance which He gives to man is more positive than this, "he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness."

He is Light and the Author of light, by Him were all things made. His hands lighted starry tapers and at His word were born the blazing suns of the universe. In Him there is no darkness at all—no darkness of ignorance, for He knows the end from the beginning; no darkness of death, for he is the Light of Life; no darkness of sin, for He is the Sun of Righteousness; no darkness of error, for He is Truth incarnate. Heaven itself finds in Him the source of its light. John on the isle of Patmos, catching a glimpse of the beauty and effulgent glory of the New Jerusalem, wrote, "And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the Light of His" (Revelation 21:23-24).

The man who follows Christ never walks in darkness. He may walk in the midst of darkness but his steps are lighted by the presence of the Saviour whom he follows, just as a man who walks on a dark night behind a guide with a lantern finds in the midst of the darkness light in the spot where he walks. The man who follows Christ has the light of divine wisdom cast upon the problems which confront him and in this light he is able to solve them. He may not be able to see the future or view the long way stretching ahead, but there is light where he needs it, when he needs it, in the very spot where he finds himself. In the night of great sorrow the man who follows Christ finds the light of hope to cheer his way. Christ proves Himself the true light to all who follow Him. Horatius Bonar spoke not only for himself but also for all who follow Christ when he wrote, "I looked to Jesus, and I found in Him my star, my sun; and in that light of life I'll walk, till traveling days are done."

BIRTHDATE TO REGULATE DRAFTING 18-19-20 YEAR OLDS

With registration of 18-, 19-, and 20-year-old men on June 30th, National Headquarters, Selective Service System, has announced that the registrants of the fifth registration will be given their serial and order numbers on the basis of their birth dates.

No national lottery will be held in Washington to determine the order numbers of the men who registered.

The 20-year-old men who registered on June 30 are liable for military service under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, and that younger registrants also are liable after they become 20. National Headquarters said that these registrants will be given their order numbers in the following manner: The local board will arrange the registration cards of registrants in a pile according to their respective dates of birth so that the cards of registrants born on Jan. 1, 1922, will be on the top, the cards of registrants born Jan. 2, 1922, will follow the cards of those born on Jan. 1, etc. on to the bottom of the pile where the cards of those born on June 30, 1924, will be located. When the local board has cards for two or more registrants born on the same date, such cards shall be arranged in alphabetical order.

Serial numbers will be assigned to the registrants with No. 1 receiving Serial Number N-1. The registrant will then be given the next available order number in the local board.

Credit Regulations

The Federal Government has established certain credit regulations effective July 10, 1942.

After seriously considering these regulations and their application to our business we find there would be some conflict with our own regulations of credit.

We find that by enforcing our own regulations which have been in effect for some time that we can comply with Federal regulations without any conflict or change and so we hereby are asking any and all with whom we have or will have any credit dealings to observe the following:

Where credit is extended, all accounts are due at the close of the month in which the charge is made. The customer has until the 10th. of the following month in which to pay the account and keep in good standing. After the 10th. of each month further credit will not be extended until all amounts owed at the end of the previous month are paid. It is our practice to render statements on the first of the month but failure on our part to render statement shall in no way effect credit regulations.

EXAMPLE:—Purchases charged in June are due July 1st. All such charges and any previous charges must be paid before July 10 or further extension of credit will be denied. This is a current example and applies to any month.

By publishing these regulations we do not mean to say that it is our policy to extend credit to one and all. At all times extension of credit is reserved by us as we see fit and this notice is for the information of those who have been and will be in the future granted a short period of credit. For periods longer than our regulations permit we much prefer that arrangements be made with recognized lending institutions rather than to ask us to carry the credit.

We respectfully ask that all interested take notice and be governed accordingly as it is our full intention to rigidly follow this procedure without fear or favor on and after August 1st.

Many recruits enlisted during this period were sworn in at a special ceremony on the steps of the Indiana War Memorial building in Indianapolis on July 4.

A ray of sunshine has finally found its way into the "Old Crows" nest at Butler, Indiana. By way of identification, the "Old Crows" consist of men who have attempted to enlist in the Navy but were turned down because of failure to meet physical standards. Reason for the sunshine is that they have found a way to help the Navy by joining its "One A Month" club which has as its object to send one recruit a month to the nearest Navy recruiting station. In addition some members now believe they can meet the physical requirements since their recent modification.

The Navy will now re-enlist former members of the service at ratings higher than those held at the time of their discharge. One of the first to take advantage of this new policy was Charles F. Stewart, 39, of Bloomington, who was honorably discharged from the U. S. S. Idaho in 1922. Stewart comes back into the Navy as a seaman first class.

Charles Herman Fry, 27, torpedoman second class, of Richmond, has been advanced to radioman first class for meritorious conduct in a storm. Fry's action in quickly draining off the water in the after compartment of his ship prevented the probability of damage to this unit of the ship.

Here's a long story that doesn't give a very satisfactory answer to the question, "What's in a name?" When Oliver D. Longest, Jr., of Vincennes came to the Indianapolis Navy Recruiting Station this week, he ran into L. L. Longer, chief water tender, and Chet Long, yeoman second class, who are on duty there. As they stood side by side, Longest was shortest and Longer was shorter than Long. Further complicating matters, Longer has been in the Navy Longest, but Long has been in longer than Longest.

Five yeomen at recruiting stations in the Indiana Area have been promoted. Francis J. Echert, 27, on duty at the Indianapolis Navy recruiting station, has been promoted from yeoman second class to yeoman first class. Echert formerly lived in Evansville. Also raised one class were Clare R. Beeler of the Lafayette substation; Clarence Jorgenson, Vincennes substation; Harley D. Myles, Terre Haute substation, and Robert A. Stanley, Muncie substation. Each was promoted to yeoman second class and each has been on duty approximately one year.

Donald Weaver, 18, of near Shelbyville, wanted to serve his country in the United States Navy so badly that he had a finger amputated to do it. When he applied recently for enlistment, he was turned down because of a stiff little finger on his right hand which, recruiters pointed out, might hamper his work. He returned to Shelbyville, had the offending member removed. Now he will complete his enlistment as soon as the hand heals.

When Paul Bouse, 35, formerly of Kokomo, was named winner of Red Skelton's contest on "Why I Joined The Navy," he already had gone to the United States Naval Training Station at Great Lakes, Ill. However, the $50 bond was forwarded to him there. Bouse wrote, "I joined the Navy because my country needs me and I need my country." Formerly an electrician at the Hotel Washington in Indianapolis, he enlisted as an electrician's mate second class. The contest was open to all who completed enlistment in the Navy through the Indianapolis Navy recruiting station between June 10 and 17.

Because new provisions have been made for enlisted men's dependents by the government, the waiver of dependency no longer is required for any Navy enlistment.

Three more Navy Relief chairmen have been appointed by Paul Fisher, state Navy Relief chairman, to assist in raising Indiana's quota of $160,000. Dave Henry has accepted the Brazil chairmanship, C. A. Keller will head the Corydon drive and Clifford Goshertis will direct Navy Relief activities in Warsaw.

Establishment of a ten-week Diesel training course at Purdue University for the training of engineering officers by the United States was announced this week by Lt.-Commander Herbert M. Hart, USNR, commanding officer of the U. S. Naval Training School, (Electricians).

NUGGETS FOR BEREANS

Take your Bible and turn with me to Eph. 6:11-18. Here we are exhorted to put on the WHOLE ARMOUR OF GOD. This is not our own works. Three times is the word STAND used, but it is in the armour of God that we are able to stand; not anything we have made or done.

Just as Israel had to wait till God helped them drive out the Canaanites, so we too must have the help of the Lord to dislodge those wicked spirits in heavenly places.

Again we have a study of numerics. Under the title WHOLE ARMOUR are six sub-topics. The total is seven, the number of Godly perfection, but the six refer to man and his number, which falls just short of perfection. We might outline it thus:

1. THE WHOLE ARMOUR OF GOD.
1. Loins girt with truth.
2. Breastplate of righteousness.
3. Shod—gospel of peace.
4. Shield of faith.
5. Helmet of salvation.
6. Sword—Word of God.

Now when we sum it all up, the armour is none other than Christ, "Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ." (Rom. 13:14). Jesus said, "I am the truth," in John 14:6. Christ "is made unto us wisdom and righteousness," 1 Cor. 1:30. "He is our peace," Eph. 2:14. We "live by the faith of the Son of God," Gal. 2:20. God is our salvation, Isa. 12:2. The sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God reminds us of the Word in the first chapter of John. The Word was God.

Finally we notice that there is no command to fight. We are to stand and hold the ground already won by our Lord. We dare not turn back, for there is no covering for the back in this whole armour of God.

YOUTH FATALLY HURT IN CAR CRASH

Harold Bailey, 18, Is Victim Near Buchanan

Injured at 5 p. m. Friday, July 10, in an automobile accident, Harold Leon Bailey, aged 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy (Shorty) Bailey, died at midnight Friday in Pawating hospital in Niles, Michigan.

The accident occurred as he was enroute to his home in the Wagoner district from Clark's Equipment company plant when he apparently lost control of his car and struck a tree near the Joseph Benak farm, west of Buchanan. Mr. Benak heard the crash and pulled Mr. Bailey out of the wreckage, which had caught fire. The victim suffered fractures of his skull and right wrist.

Born Oct. 9th, 1923, in Tippecanoe, Ind., the youth went to Michigan from Talma with his parents 14 months ago. Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Helen Kanous, Buchanan, and Martha at home; three brothers, Robert, Howard and Richard at home, and a grandmother, Mrs. Ollie Florey, of Argos.

The deceased was a graduate of the Talma high school.

The community extends sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Bailey in their hour of sadness.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2:00 p. m. at the Tippecanoe Methodist church.

KOREAN MISSIONARY AT METHODIST CHURCH SUNDAY

Rev. M. O. Burkholder, recently of Korea, will be the guest speaker at the Methodist church in Mentone, next Sunday morning.

Rev. Mr. Burkholder has served several years as a missionary of the Methodist church in Korea. During that time he studied the political and social life of the Koreans under the rule of Japan. When Japan began her hostilities on an enlarged scale and it became apparent that the United States was to be her next object of attack he returned to America. This was to protect the Christian movement in Korea from persecutions which could be traced to American causes.

Mr. Burkholder will have many curios which he will show, and will discuss the Christian movement, and the political problems of the Koreans in the light of the present international situations.

Everyone will be interested.

Rev. Burkholder has been the representative of the Mission Board on the faculty of the Epworth Forest Institute, and it is because of this fact that we will be able to have him with us.

HEN ON WAR PRODUCTION

We're due for another congressional appropriation of a million or two so a few senators can complete an investigating of the activities of a hen owned by Eli Julian.

One day last week the hen, or a fifth columnist extraordinary, left an oversize egg in one of the nests. It was 2 1/4 inches thick and nearly 3 1/4 in length. Without delving into the methods of determining the circumference of an elliptical object such as an egg, it is estimated it was at least 6 1/2 inches around the smaller way and nine inches over the ends. That's a fair sized egg and Eli was looking forward to a big breakfast. However, like a pre-war cigar, it was double-wrapped. The outer shell contained something similar to an egg except instead of a yolk it had another hard-shelled egg.

Eli figured one crack to an egg was enough and didn't investigate further. He was afraid he might find a young chicken, with a leg band reading "Manwaring Strain," or otherwise known poultry producers.

Workmen clearing the building where the new poultry processing plant is to be located, pulled an old horse drawn hearse out into the vacant lot east of the Mentone Cafe one day last week. It was quite a contrast with present day hearses and attracted considerable attention. The carriage was owned by the late L. P. Jefferies.

MRS. C. G. VINCENT DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Hannah Vincent, 63, wife of the minister of the Mentone Church of Christ, died Tuesday afternoon at her home following an illness of several months. Death was caused by carcinoma.

Mrs. Vincent had always been active in church work and served with her husband as a missionary to Japan from 1911 to 1916.

The deceased was born May 26, 1879, in Louisville, Ky., the daughter of William and Hannah Klingman. May 7, 1907, she was united in marriage to Mr. Vincent. They moved to Mentone from Linton, Ind., in 1937.

Surviving relatives are the husband; two sisters, Mrs. Lydia Bingham, Westfield, N. J. and Mrs. R. A. Zahn, Louisville, Ky.; four brothers, F. L. Klingman, Louisville, John A. Klingman, Atlanta, Ga., C. C. Klingman, Comanche, Texas, and W. G. Klingman, San Antonio, Texas.

C. G. Caldwell will officiate at the final rites Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. Interment will be in the Mentone cemetery with the Johns funeral home in charge of arrangements.

Frank Fleck, of Toledo, Ohio, and brother to C. F. Fleck of Mentone, gave a lecture at the Crystal Monday.

Mr. Fleck claimed to be the only survivor of the Custer massacre at Little Big Horn in 1876.

Mr. Fleck was in a group that had been given orders to guard a supply wagon and they had just left the Custer band when they noticed the Sioux were surrounding them. Shortly afterward a group of Indians appeared rather mysteriously before them and but two of his band remained alive. One other fellow was wounded in the hip and Mr. Fleck had four wounds—three from bullets and one from an arrow. The horses were shot from under them and Mr. Fleck had his leg pinned beneath the animal. They lay there for four days before being rescued. His wounded comrade, in the meantime, had insisted upon looking up at various times and a bullet from an Indian's gun hit him in the heart. A scout from another group managed to get a canteen of water to him otherwise he said he would have died of thirst.

Mr. Fleck stated that after the Indians had moved on they were taken past the remains of the Custer band and saw they were horribly mutilated.

NUGGETS FOR BEREANS

IT MAY SEEM STRANGE, BUT:

The word REPENT does not appear in the Gospel written by John.

Paul in all of his words recorded in Acts, and all the epistles that he wrote, never once used the word HELL. Yet he claimed to have declared the whole counsel of God.

The term TORMENT occurs but six times in the New Testament. In the first occurrence, it is concerning a man who had been pardoned, Matt. 18:24. Nowhere is it used of the present dispensation of the grace of God.

In the epistle to the Romans, which we consider as the one great foundational treatise on salvation, there is not one reference to WATER BAPTISM.

Nowhere in Scripture is Hell described as a Lake of Fire nor is the Lake of Fire ever called Hell.

The expression SPIRITUAL DEATH does not appear in the Bible at all.

The phrase LORD'S SUPPER occurs just once in the Bible, (1 Cor. 11:20). Some came from a distance and so they had a potluck meal, making the Lord the host or the unseen guest as we might say. Later the rich would eat by themselves and so the poor had little or none. Paul abolished the practice.

You might receive some more surprises if you would take your concordance and look up some familiar words and expressions and see if and how they are used in the Bible.

On the night of the Last Supper those who have little of the material things of life, no fame and no prominence, but who possess the unsearchable riches of Christ. Of course, the Christian has his sorrows. He is grieved by the death of his loved ones, but he sorrows not "as those who have no hope" and in the midnight of his sorrow sings the nightingale of hope bringing joy to his heart with the assurance that he shall see his dear ones again.

When the man without Christ loses his wealth and his friends and his family he has lost everything. Let the Christian see his family taken from him, his temporal possessions swept away, and his friends removed—he still has the abiding presence of Christ in whom his hope is fixed and who is the Author and Source of his joy. The man whose affections are set on Christ has every reason to rejoice because he knows that all things work together for his good (Romans 8:28). The man who lives in daily fellowship with the Lord is in contact with the Source of joy eternal. "In Thy presence is the fulness of joy; at Thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore" (Psalm 16:11).

YOUR CAR

How to Get the MOST out of it

KEEP IT LUBRICATED

The most important single thing to remember, if you want to get the most out of your car, is: keep it lubricated. If a front wheel lacked a bearing, you wouldn't think of running your car until a new one had been installed. Oil or grease is really a kind of frictionless bearing. It is structurally a part of your car. But how often do you check to see if it is on the job?

Best advice to the car owner is: follow religiously the instruction chart that came with your car. If a service man does your greasing, make sure he doesn't overlook anything. It is also important to be sure that the proper lubricant is used at the proper point.

Most trouble is caused by lack of lubrication, but it is possible to overdo it. Too much lubricant on the front wheel bearings may result in saturated brake linings; too much oil in the generator, starter, distributor, etc., may work into the wrong places.

Doing a good lubricating job is no simple matter. It means knowing what oil to use and where to use it. Using the wrong oil is almost as bad as putting in a repair part that doesn't fit. Don't forget that good lubricants are a lot cheaper than repairs and replacements.

Credit Regulations

The Federal Government has established certain credit regulations effective July 10, 1942.

After seriously considering these regulations and their application to our business we find there would be some conflict with our own regulations of credit.

We find that by enforcing our own regulations which have been in effect for some time that we can comply with Federal regulations without any conflict or change and so we hereby are asking any and all with whom we have or will have any credit dealings to observe the following:

Where credit is extended, all accounts are due at the close of the month in which the charge is made. The customer has until the 10th. of the following month in which to pay the account and keep in good standing. After the 10th. of each month further credit will not be extended until all amounts owed at the end of the previous month are paid. It is our practice to render statements on the first of the month but failure on our part to render statement shall in no way affect credit regulations.

EXAMPLE:—Purchases charged in June are due July 1st. All such charges and any previous charges must be paid before July 10 or further extension of credit will be denied. This is a current example and applies to any month.

By publishing these regulations we do not mean to say that it is our policy to extend credit to one and all. At all times extension of credit is reserved by us as we see fit and this notice is for the information of those who have been and will be in the future granted a short period of credit. For periods longer than our regulations permit we much prefer that arrangements be made with recognized lending institutions rather than to ask us to carry the credit.

We respectfully ask that all interested take notice and be governed accordingly as it is our full intention to rigidly follow this procedure without fear or favor on and after August 1st.

Nine more Hoosiers have finished their indoctrination and primary flight courses and are now embarking upon the intermediate phase of their pilot training which eventually leads to a commission as Ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve. The Indiana men are Bernard A. Blair, of Fort Wayne; Duane David Hester, Hammond; James Raymond Warrick, of Brazil; Frank Jacob Folz, Jr., Evansville; Billy Leon Eddy, Columbus; Donald Merritt Shultz, Lapel; Robert Earl Williams, Logansport; Walter Raymond Plew, Sheburn, and Harold Robert Hutchinson, Oakland City.

Indiana high school and college athletic instructors interested in coordinating their physical education program with the Navy's pre-flight training course have been invited to attend a coaching school for that purpose at the Naval pre-flight school at the University of Iowa, Iowa City. The two weeks' school will start on August 3. Information concerning the school may be obtained by writing to the commanding officer of the school.

Four Indiana men have reported to the U. S. Navy pre-flight school at the University of Iowa for a 30-day physical training program. They are John William Charles Eaton, of Summitville; Dick Wilson Driggs, of South Bend; Joseph Robert Kapsch, Gary, and Charles Leland Ingels, of Indianapolis.

Five days' leave may be granted recruits in the Navy who have completed their training period and who request and receive authorization from their commanding officer. No more than five days' leave may be obtained with a maximum of four days traveling time, a total absence of nine days. In certain cases where recruits are sent directly from training stations to schools for specialized work, they may obtain their 5 days leave at the completion of their school period.

One of the last things done by Wendell Pence, 24-year-old machinist's mate first class in the Navy, before returning to his ship was to help his brother Max, 21, enlist in the Navy. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Wes Pence, Marion. Wendell spent several days in Marion while on leave from his ship and headed back for the ship the same day Max was shipped to Great Lakes, Ill.

A Hoosier veteran of World War I has gone to join his son in the service with the Navy in this war. Maurice Myers, 44, of Elmore completed enlistment at the Indianapolis Navy recruiting station this week as a carpenter's mate third class and was sent to Great Lakes where his son, Wayne Richard Myers, 18, has been for the past week. They applied for enlistment together but the son went ahead to Great Lakes when necessity for dental repairs delayed the father's enlistment. The elder Myers served in the Marine Corps during the last war.

John Harrison Smith, 27, boiler-maker second class, has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Perkins, Oaklandon, after returning from combat duty in the Far Pacific. He left last Thursday for a new assignment, having asked for transfer to a newly completed ship when he re-enlisted recently.

The Navy recruiting territory centered around Lafayette led the eleven recruiting centers of Indiana's area during June, it was announced this week following official tabulation at area headquarters in Indianapolis. Ratings were made according to percentages of quotas set up for the different territories. Other recruiting stations followed Lafayette in this order: Marion, Muncie, Richmond, Ft. Wayne, Terre Haute, Indianapolis, Kokomo, Vincennes, Evansville and Columbus.

Applicants for enlistment in the personnel for the Naval Reserve Aviation Base near Peru will be interviewed by special recruiters from the base each Tuesday morning at the Navy recruiting substation in Kokomo. Following approval on the basis of interviews at Kokomo applicants will be enlisted at the Indianapolis recruiting station.

Direct from combat duty aboard ships in the war zones, several Naval officers have arrived at Purdue University to enter an intensive, ten weeks course in Diesel engine operation, which is being offered by Purdue in cooperation with the United States office of education and the Bureau of Naval Personnel.

Next Wednesday will mark the opening of another Naval Training school in the Indiana area when 300 Naval students report to the Indiana University campus in Bloomington for training as yeomen.

Lieut. (jg) Philip J. Chapman, USNR, has been added to the officer personnel of the Indianapolis Navy recruiting station. He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and formerly practiced law in Philadelphia.

CATTLEZE

for Cows, Horses, Mules and Swine, and for spraying barns, stables, sheds, poultry houses.

Cattleze kills and repels flies and other tormenting and disease-breeding insects . . . protecting cows and live stock in barns or in pastures. It is surprisingly pleasant to use as it does not stain, discolor or gum the hair, nor will it burn or blister the hides.

Milking and feeding are made easier by Cattleze because cows and other farm stock remain unmolested and quiet.

Cattle that are freed from the agonizing torments of insects are healthier. They give more milk and better butter.

Cattleze has a natural petroleum odor and is a powerful repellant and destroyer of flies without any unpleasant odored ingredient.

Cattleze can be applied with either a hand or compressed air sprayer. It aids in preventing infection of wounds and sores by killing and repelling the most common carrier of disease bacteria, the ordinary house fly.

A clear, clean dependable spray that does not tend to taint milk.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The giant four-motored Navy Patrol Bombers are the world's most powerful planes. They cost approximately $700,000 each. The Navy also has a lighter Bomber called the Scout Bomber which costs about $143,000 apiece.

The battle for Britain was almost lost because England had none of these giant four-motored planes with which to fight back. We need thousands of them and they are coming off the assembly lines in our production plants at a high rate of speed today. You can help buy these for your Navy by purchasing War Bonds and Stamps every pay day. Put at least ten percent into Bonds or Stamps and help your country go over its Quota.

A so-called "Broncho John" wild west show evidently was taking the little community bands for a merry ride in this part of the country. The Mentone boys led the parade, furnished the music and sat through a rotten performance to end up with a profit of 20c each. The local boys were such agreeable suckers that the Broncho John outfit went on to Claypool and advertised that the Mentone band was sponsoring that performance. Silver Lake contributed, too.

Burial was in the Rice cemetery at Elkhart.

Mrs. Hand was born March 15, 1898, in Elkhart county, the daughter of Fred and Marie Helbling. She was united in marriage to Charles Hand in Elkhart September 14, 1919. They resided in Elkhart until five years ago when they moved to this county where they engaged in farming. She was a member of the Methodist church.

Surviving are the husband; five children, Ferdinand, Leona, William, John and Dorothy; four brothers, Fred Helbling, East Chicago; Alfred, Chicago; Dr. George, Pueblo, Colo.; and Rev. IN MEMORY OF HOWARD LEE RANS

Missing Him

First, each hour was long and lonely
After he had gone away.
How we missed his boyish laughter
And the things he'd do and say!
Then the hours formed days of sadness,

As we seemed to hear and see
Everywhere some small reminder
Of the boy that used to be.
Slowly days grew into weeks; and
Then the weeks a month became.
Now a year has passed; and still we
Weep and miss him just the same.
Ah, we'll never cease our longing
For this dear one gone before,
Till with him we stand united Upon Heaven's Golden Shore.

FARMER LOSES 3 WAYS FROM UNCLEAN SEPARATOR

*Both separator and parts hard to obtain in wartime

Separating cream by any other method than with a centrifugal separator results in the loss of from 10 to 20 per cent of the butterfat, the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture has found. This, together with the prospect of new separators and parts becoming increasingly hard to get, makes it imperative for every farmer fortunate enough to own one to do everything possible to prolong its usefulness. An effective simple way to do this is to keep it clean.

Acids of the milk, habitually left to dry on an unwashed separator, have a damaging effect on the surfaces of the several parts. So treated, a separator is sure to "act up" before very long. Curd particles or slime tend to clog the bowl, making efficient skimming impossible. A clogged bowl causes an excess of skim milk to be forced through the cream opening, which results in a low-testing cream. The same film of dirt on the separator serves as a splendid breeding place for mold and bacteria which contaminate the succeeding batches of milk and cream, lowering their quality and depriving the farmer of the higher price the best grade of cream usually brings. There is always the chance, too, that if enough mold and bacteria find their way into the cream, the whole batch will be rejected as unfit and the farmer will realize not a dime for his time and work.

Good care means thorough washing and actual scalding after each use of all parts of the separator that come in contact with the milk or cream. The parts should also be rinsed again just before using—to remove any dust or dirt that may have collected on them since they were washed.

Many farmers find it profitable to check on the efficiency of the separator once a month by a test of the skim milk. If the skim milk contains an excess of two hundredths of one per cent butterfat, the care of the separator has not been all it should be.

Credit Regulations

The Federal Government has established certain credit regulations effective July 10, 1942.

After seriously considering these regulations and their application to our business we find there would be some conflict with our own regulations of credit.

We find that by enforcing our own regulations which have been in effect for some time that we can comply with Federal regulations without any conflict or change and so we hereby are asking any and all with whom we have or will have any credit dealings to observe the following:

Where credit is extended, all accounts are due at the close of the month in which the charge is made. The customer has until the 10th. of the following month in which to pay the account and keep in good standing. After the 10th. of each month further credit will not be extended until all amounts owed at the end of the previous month are paid. It is our practice to render statements on the first of the month but failure on our part to render statement shall in no way affect credit regulations.

EXAMPLE:—Purchases charged in June are due July 1st. All such charges and any previous charges must be paid before July 10 or further extension of credit will be denied. This is a current example and applies to any month.

By publishing these regulations we do not mean to say that it is our policy to extend credit to one and all. At all times extension of credit is reserved by us as we see fit and this notice is for the information of those who have been and will be in the future granted a short period of credit. For periods longer than our regulations permit we much prefer that arrangements be made with recognized lending institutions rather than to ask us to carry the credit.

We respectfully ask that all interested take notice and be governed accordingly as it is our full intention to rigidly follow this procedure without fear or favor on and after August 1st.

From now on he's just G. Schricker, seaman. Before he went to Great Lakes for his preliminary naval training, he was George W. Schricker, 18, son of Governor Henry F. Schricker. George is the second son of the Governor to enter the armed services of the United States. Henry F. Schricker, Jr., is already in the army.

Frederick Russell Stubbins, Jr., of Indianapolis has reported to one of the Navy's two big flight training stations at Pensacola, Fla., or Corpus Christi, Tex., as an aviation cadet. After three more months of training, he will be commissioned an Ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve or a Second Lieutenant in the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve.

Fifteen Hoosiers have returned to Indiana for their next stretch of Naval training. They have reported to the U. S. Naval Training School (electricians) on the Purdue University campus in West Lafayette. The Hoosiers starting their four-months course there include William Hughes of Gary; Ellis Funk, Spencer; Calvin D. Arnold, Noblesville; Forrest E. Brandon, Bedford; Earl E. Barclay, Boonville; Bruce K. Askren, Corydon; Edmund L. Halsema, Lafayette; Edward S. Gordon, Aurora; Robert Lutton, Anderson; Jack F. Turner, Harmony; Donald Wyatt, of Petersburg; Harry E. JOS. A. BAKER

Because of the expansion of facilities at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, there is an urgent need for the enlistment of men possessing cooking and baking experience in restaurants, hotels and country clubs.

An increase in the tempo of recruiting along with the establishment of several new Naval Training schools in the Ninth Naval District has made the enlistment of men with cooking and baking experience imperative, Commander R. H. G. Mathews, USNR, officer in charge of Navy recruiting in the Indiana area, pointed out. Applicants should be between the ages of 18 and 50 and in physical condition to meet Navy requirements.

That goal of 2,000 Navy recruits from Indiana in July seems more possible than ever now that the total of enlisted men has gone well over the 1,000 mark. Thomas N. Martin, 19, of Indianapolis was the 1,000th man to enlist for the month of July.

John Richard Gregg, 43, Brownsburg, has become the second of the Brownsburg Legion Post's officers to leave for service in the second war. He enlisted in the Navy as an apprentice seaman last week.

Gregg, who has a son and two step-sons in the army, was adjutant of the Brownsburg post until he resigned recently and announced his intention to enlist. During the first world war he served two years in the army eight months of it overseas. The Legion post's commander, Elbert Gerald Everett, who was in the Navy the other war, with two sons already in the Navy in this one, returned to the Navy late in June.

Having served in the army signal corps in the thick of the scrap during the other world war, Eldon D. Witherow, 49, Huntington electrician, has enlisted for this war in the Navy; "Seabees," where he may see plenty of action again.

Two other Huntington men, brothers, have completed Navy enlistment at Indianapolis. They are Jack Laurel Harvey, 17, and Robert Allen Harvey, 19, and both are now at Great Lakes.

There is still room for more enlisted men at the U. S. Naval Reserve Aviation base at Peru. Opportunities for service at the aviation base are open in the seaman branch, and ratings are open to men who can qualify as firemen for boiler rooms, cooks, bakers, aviation metal-smiths, aviation ordnancemen, parachute riggers, radiomen, signalmen, aviation machinist's mates, and yeomen with shorthand knowledge. Ex-service men who have held ratings are desired and in many cases will be advanced one step above their old rating upon re-enlistment.

NUGGETS FOR BEREANS

"Thou wilt keep him in PERFECT PEACE, whose mind is stayed on Thee; because he TRUSTETH in Thee." Isa. 26:3.

There is no peace without trust in the Lord. Why are so many hounded by doubts and fears all their lives? It is usually because they are trusting in their own goodness and good works to keep them saved. There is no certainty even of salvation in such a position. They are thus deceived by Satan so that every effort of the Spirit to work thru them is frustrated by this interposition of self and its attendant filthy works of righteousness.

God shut the door when Noah went into the ark. He did not have to hang on or hold out, as some say. The promise was given to Abraham 8 times without condition. No works demanded on his part. It was the purpose of God that was to be fulfilled. Jacob was loved and Esau hated, even before their birth. Take the life of every outstanding Bible character and note whether he had to hold out by works of righteousness, or was it the faithfulness of God? Study the following in connection with the text;

1. "I will not fail thee." Josh. 1:5.
2. "I will not forget thee." Isa. 49:15.
3. "I will never leave thee." Heb. 13:5.
4. "I will help thee." Isa. 41:10.
5. "I will strengthen thee." Isa. 41:10.
6. "I will comfort thee." Isa. 66:13.

CATTLEZE

for Cows, Horses, Mules and Swine, and for spraying barns, stables, sheds, poultry houses.

Cattleze kills and repels flies and other tormenting and disease-breeding insects... protecting cows and live stock in barns or in pastures. It is surprisingly pleasant to use as it does not stain, discolor or gum the hair, nor will it burn or blister the hides.

Milking and feeding are made easier by Cattleze because cows and other farm stock remain unmolested and quiet.

Cattle that are freed from the agonizing torments of insects are healthier. They give more milk and better butter.

Cattleze has a natural petroleum odor and is a powerful repellant and destroyer of flies without any unpleasant odored ingredient.

Cattleze can be applied with either a hand or compressed air sprayer. It aids in preventing infection of wounds and sores by killing and repelling the most common carrier of disease bacteria, the ordinary house fly.

LEG BROKEN WHILE RIDING ON AUTO RUNNINGBOARD

Royal Blue, sixteen-year-old son of Mrs. Pete Blue, of Mentone, received a fracture in the bone of the upper right leg Wednesday noon when he was knocked off the running board of a car by a tree. He and a number of other boys were on their way to the swimming hole, with Royal on the side of the car, and the driver steered his machine so close to the tree that the lad did not have room to escape.

The boy was brought to the office of Dr. Urschel where a splint was applied to the broken limb and he was then taken to the Rochester hospital in the Reed ambulance.

The young fellow was bruised about the head and chest but there was no indication of other serious injuries.

LIGHTNING DESTRUCTIVE AT SCHOOL SUNDAY NIGHT

During the rain and electrical storm last Sunday night, one powerful bolt struck the mammoth brick chimney on the school building at Mentone. The cement cap was rent asunder and the chimney split clear to the roof, several feet below. The cement coping and the few brick that were knocked from the top of the chimney fell onto the roof, puncturing it in a number of places. Rain, having access to the interior through the punctured roof, drained through the building doing more damage.

Preliminary estimates listed the damage at nearly a thousand dollars.

PAULUS BROS. WIN RUBBER- PURCHASING AWARD

The Paulus Bros. Service Station at Mentone received a prize of $3.50 in Defense Stamps for purchasing more rubber in the recent scrap rubber drive than any Sinclair station in Kosciusko county. They purchased 3,440 pounds.

H. O. Blodgett reports that his father, William Blodgett, is feeling fine again after his serious illness of a few months ago. He eats heartily and is able to get plenty of sleep.

SECOND CANNING SUGAR REG- ISTRATION NEXT WEEK ONLY

H. V. Johns announces that sugar users may make application for their second 1942 allotment of sugar for canning purposes on August 4th, 6th, and 8th at the library at Mentone. The hours will be from 1 to 5 in the afternoons and from 7 to 9:30 in the evenings.

The three days named above will be the only opportunity for users to secure certificates at Mentone.

FIRE AT EBER WHAT-NOT SHOP SATURDAY MORNING

The fire department was called to the Russell Eber WhatNot Novelty manufacturing shop Saturday morning to extinguish a blaze in the second story of the frame building. The fire started in the paint spray room and it was presumed the paint fumes were ignited by a small exhaust fan.

The loss to machinery and materials wasn't so great, yet a good many items in the process of manufacture were ruined. The paint spray equipment was destroyed along with several gallons of quality paint.

The loss was partially covered by insurance and the building has been repaired again.

BURNS FAMILY MOVES TO NORTH MANCHESTER

The F. R. Burns family moved to 608 Bond Street, North Manchester, on Wednesday after spending the past twenty years as residents of Mentone. Both Mr. and Mrs. Burns state they certainly hated to leave but business interests compelled them to do so. They said they have enjoyed their stay in Mentone and appreciated the patronage their bakery and delivery truckmen had received. They will continue to operate the delivery trucks from Mentone as in the past.

The people of Mentone, too, regret seeing the Burns family leave their city but will wish them well in their new location. They plan to sell their home here.

LEGION SPONSORING PHONO- GRAPH RECORD DRIVE

Don't forget the record drive!

Bob Reed, local chairman for the drive for old phonograph records, announces that Saturday, Aug. 1, will be the final day. A container has been placed at Clark's store, or if you are unable to bring them there, call Mr. Reed or any Girl Scout and they will be picked up.

The old records, whether broken or not, will be reclaimed and the money received from their sale will be used to purchase new records for the boys in camp.

Records, we are told, were formerly made from shellac and as our supply of this vital commodity was destroyed with the fall of Java, they are reclaiming or remelting the old records for the shellac content. The new records, which are to be secured for the army camps, are likely made of materials that aren't as vital or as scarce as the materials formerly used.

FIRE DRILLS EACH MONDAY, FRIDAY NIGHTS

The draft, out-of-town employment and the like is making it difficult to retain a list of voluntary firemen experienced in the handling of the city fire fighting equipment, and in an effort to have a well trained force, fire drills will be held twice each week—on each Monday and Friday evenings at eight o'clock, starting on Friday evening, July 31. Every member of the department and the members of the Auxiliary are urged to be at the drills.

At the fire meeting held Monday evening four new members were added to the department, and C. J. Paulus, H. V. Johns, Max Smith and M. C. Ernberger were named as captains to serve in the capacity of fire chief whenever Arlo Freisner or Bob Reed, chief and assistant respectively, are not present at a fire.

At the fire Saturday morning private cars were driven and parked next to the fire which interfered with the work of the department. It is unlawful to drive a private car within 500 feet of a fire or drive down a street ahead of the fire truck. All traffic must pull to the curb and park until the truck has passed and then proceed with caution and at a distance far enough behind the truck to permit the firemen getting off, removing equipment on the run, etc. There's no desire on the part of any member of the department to order any arrests made, but if these practices are continued, arrests will have to be made.

Present members of the regular department are: Arlo Freisner, Bob Reed, C. J. Paulus, H. V. Johns, Max Smith, M. C. Ernberger, K. A. Riner, C. O. Mollenhour, E. Fenstermaker, John Ellsworth, A. Cullum, Ernest Igo, Leroy Cox, Lyman Mollenhour, Kenneth Barkman and Everett Long. Long was named secretary of the department.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all the friends, neighbors and the fire department for the assistance they gave during our fire Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Eber.

Kenneth Riner and Robert Reed are spending their vacation this week at Lake James.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clutter and Miss May Clutter, of Fort Wayne, are spending the week with Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Clutter and son Clayton.

The purple martins are just now holding frequent councils in which they seem to be laying plans, arranging dates or choosing routes for their journey to the south land. They may be expected to give us their good-bye chatter and take their departure now most any day. They are one of the most useful and companionable birds that spend their summer with us. Every home should have up a few martin boxes for the accomodation of these jolly and friendly little birds.

JULY 31, 1902

A married lady of Kewanna about twenty years ago after sewing a button on her husband's trousers, broke the thread and placed the needle in her mouth. Presently she gave a sneeze, and in doing so the needle disappeared and could not be found. Last Sunday while conversing with a couple of neighboring ladies, she felt a sharp sting at the tip of the first finger on her left hand, and on close inspection she discovered a sharp point of some object sticking out. Getting a pair of tweezers she took hold of the object and pulled it out, which proved to be a splinter that she had run in her finger the day before while scrubbing the floor.

Rev. E. G. Saunderson, of Indianapolis, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, was giving a talk on the street at Etna Green the other evening when some saloon bums attempted to break up the meeting. The town marshal had overheard the men making the plans so was on hand, to prevent it. The men then tried a little rotten argument with stale eggs. Some women, however, got the brunt of the attack.

Mrs. Roy Cullum returned to her home in Chicago Monday after spending a few days visiting her son, Artley Cullum, and family. Jody and Jon Cullum returned with her to spend the week with their grandparents.

DRUDGE-KELLY

The couple was attended by the bridegroom's parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Drudge and son Larry of Burket; Miss Helen Howe, of Warsaw; Dale Nellans, Mentone; Miss Esther Silvius, Akron; Harold Jenkins, Claypool.

The couple will reside at 824 East Main street, Warsaw.

COMMUNITY BETTER PREPARED

A young couple starts out in life, usually, with high hopes and great aspirations. Quite often, they find, they had more plans than they could ever bring to a successful conclusion, but as they worked and struggled up the ladder of time they could see some of those plans come into being, materially. They had a home of their own modest and not too modern but a home nevertheless. They gradually improved the home, made it possible for the building to better withstand the ravages of sun, rain, heat, cold and wind. Other buildings about the farm were improved and a small savings account was beginning to reach a point where it could help out in an emergency.

The young couple, although growing in years, had bettered their position in life by working, learning and being somewhat conservative.

Twenty-four people of Mentone and vicinity recently passed their examinations and received certificates in First Aid. They had studied hard twice each week to learn some of the fundamentals of First Aid, and Dr. Dan Umschel, the instructor, gave considerable of his time that these people might be better able to care for members of their families, their friends or neighbors whenever the demand or need might arise. They are people of our community and because of their interest and determination to better themselves, they have added immeasurably to the strength of our community.

The Co-Op. News, and the people responsible for its existence, desires to extend congratulations to all who took part in this program.

FOR THEIR SAFETY

The Co-Op. News, like most all newspapers, has been publishing the names, addresses, and changes of address of boys in the service of our country. This was done as a public service with no thought of recompense or any other selfish reason.

However, in view of the many suggestions we have heard from various sources, governmental and otherwise, and the manner in which enemy agents have been able to secure information of value to our foreign enemies, this publication has discontinued the practice of publishing the addresses of the boys in the service. We shall, however, continue to send them the Co-Op. News each week and do desire their new addresses whenever a change is made. Friends of the community can secure these addresses from our office but they will not be published. An enemy agent would not hesitate to pick up a printed copy of a newspaper but he might be more cautious when it came to making a personal request for a soldier's address.

Publication of the addresses would give the location of various divisions, type of units, etc. and it wouldn't be difficult for anyone to soon locate every one of our fighting units.

Kindly bear with us that we might give our fighting boys all the help we can without exposing our "hand" to the enemy.

Credit Regulations

The Federal Government has established certain credit regulations effective July 10, 1942.

After seriously considering these regulations and their application to our business we find there would be some conflict with our own regulations of credit.

We find that by enforcing our own regulations which have been in effect for some time that we can comply with Federal regulations without any conflict or change and so we hereby are asking any and all with whom we have or will have any credit dealings to observe the following:

Where credit is extended, all accounts are due at the close of the month in which the charge is made. The customer has until the 10th. of the following month in which to pay the account and keep in good standing. After the 10th. of each month further credit will not be extended until all amounts owed at the end of the previous month are paid. It is our practice to render statements on the first of the month but failure on our part to render statement shall in no way affect credit regulations.

EXAMPLE:—Purchases charged in June are due July 1st. All such charges and any previous charges must be paid before July 10 or further extension of credit will be denied. This is a current example and applies to any month.

By publishing these regulations we do not mean to say that it is our policy to extend credit to one and all. At all times extension of credit is reserved by us as we see fit and this notice is for the information of those who have been and will be in the future granted a short period of credit. For periods longer than our regulations permit we much prefer that arrangements be made with recognized lending institutions rather than to ask us to carry the credit.

We respectfully ask that all interested take notice and be governed accordingly as it is our full intention to rigidly follow this procedure without fear or favor on and after August 1st.

Back in familiar surroundings for the next step in their Naval careers, nine Indiana men have reported to the U. S. Naval Training school for yeomen on the Indiana University campus in Bloomington. They will receive basic training in English, spelling, shorthand, typewriting, Navy regulations and Navy correspondence during their 16-weeks course of instruction which will equip them for shore or sea duty as Navy clerical workers.

The Indiana men include Robert L. Canada, Lebanon; Carl R. Bauman, Kendallville; Charles M. Ewing, Indianapolis; Joseph M. Clery and Charles D. Robinson, Vincennes; Charles B. Froelich, Evansville; Gerald H. Ewbank, Lawrenceburg; Curtis W. Dye, Valparaiso, and Phillip C. Campbell, Greenfield.

The Boonville Fair, which begins on Aug. 3, will feature "The Beginning of Life in the Navy" on its opening night. During the evening a large group of Navy recruits from the Boonville area will take the Navy oath from Commander R. H. G. Mathews, officer in charge of Navy recruiting for the Indiana area. A mock air raid will denote the opening of the evening program. Chet Long, Indiana's Navy radio announcer and a yeoman in the Naval Reserve, will act as master of ceremonies.

The brothers are Francis Baumgartner, 19, and Harry Baumgartner, 17.

Donald Weaver, 18, of near Shelbyville proved he wasn't fooling recently when he said he'd get rid of a stiff finger which caused him to be rejected by the Indianapolis Navy recruiting station. Weaver returned last week with the finger amputated and his hand healed. He's in training now at Great Lakes, Ill.

A father and son from Marion are beginning to learn the ways of the Navy together at Great Lakes. Chas. G. Dulhanty, 34, and his son Jack, 17, were shipped to the Naval Training Station there together last week after volunteering together.

Members of the second "Indianapolis' Own" Naval air squadron took the Navy oath Friday on the Federal Building lawn in Indianapolis. Governor Henry F. Schricker and Mayor Reginald H. Sullivan participated in the ceremony.

Here's the way the various Indiana Navy recruiting stations ranked in proportionate number of recruits for the first two-thirds of July: Kokomo, Marion, Columbus, Lafayette, Indianapolis, Richmond, Terre Haute, Ft. Wayne, Muncie, Evansville and Vincennes.

Justice Lewis L. Fawcett, Supreme Court of New York said: "My experience during 20 years on the bench, in which time over 4,000 boys under the age of 21 were convicted of crime before me, of whom but three were members of a Sunday

If all the children could be kept under the influence of the Sunday school and the grownups were active in some church we could close our prisons and jails, instead of being compelled to enlarge and increase their number."

NUGGETS FOR BEREANS

Much is heard these days in the modern church about the life and example of Jesus. Bible courses are prepared for young people in which the attempt is made to harmonize the accounts of the four gospels. So often the example of Jesus is stressed, even in songs like "More Like the Master" and the like.

But when we read the epistles of Paul, we find not one single detail of the life of Christ; but much about His death. To the Corinthians he was resolved to preach nothing save Christ, and Him crucified. He speaks to the Hebrews about our High Priest and the offering of His blood. In Col. 1:22 we read of "the body of His flesh through death". In Heb. 2:14,15 we find "that through death He might destroy ... and deliver".

Such is the continual testimony of Scriptures. There is no gospel in the spotless life of the Son of God taken by itself; that only aggravates our sinfulness the more, and, like the veil, bars our access to God.

Through the RENT veil, through that spotless life laid down in death is found a way into the holiest. No part of the mighty purpose of the ages shall be accomplished apart from the death and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ. This is a fundamental of all truth, yes, a very chief corner stone. "WITHOUT SHEDDING OF BLOOD IS NO REMISSION" (Heb. 9:22).

CATTLEZE

for Cows, Horses, Mules and Swine, and for spraying barns, stables, sheds, poultry houses.

Cattleze kills and repels flies and other tormenting and disease-breeding insects ... protecting cows and live stock in barns or in pastures. It is surprisingly pleasant to use as it does not stain, discolor or gum the hair, nor will it burn or blister the hides.

Milking and feeding are made easier by Cattleze because cows and other farm stock remain unmolested and quiet.

Cattle that are freed from the agonizing torments of insects are healthier. They give more milk and better butter.

Cattleze has a natural petroleum odor and is a powerful repellant and destroyer of flies without any unpleasant odored ingredient.

Cattleze can be applied with either a hand or compressed air sprayer. It aids in preventing infection of wounds and sores by killing and repelling the most common carrier of disease bacteria, the ordinary house fly.

A clear, clean dependable spray that does not tend to taint milk.
