BIRTHDAY CARD RETURNED AFTER ROUND-TRIP OVERSEAS

Friday Thos. Fitzgerald received a birthday card which he had sent to George 2nd Myers. Mr. Myers' birthday was the same date—March 17—of Mr. Fitzgerald's son, Tom, and it was a habit of Mr. Myers to drop around and treat young Tom with ice cream or candy. Last March 17th little Tommie said: "Daddy, I guess George won't be here today," so Mr. Fitzgerald sent a birthday card that day. It arrived at its address April 19th—a few days after George had been killed—and came back to Mentone July second.

He brought home a number of souvenirs to show his mother, Mrs. Alpheus Smith, and his brothers and friends. He is in the heavy artillery and is to report back for duty by July 26th.

SON OF ROSS DAVIS GETS ARMY CITATION

Last week this news paper had information that Sgt. Joseph F. Davis, of Mentone, had been given a citation for valuable service in a signal battalion in New Guinea, but we were not fortunate enough to locate anyone that knew the young man. Soon after our paper was published, however, the information came from several people. He is the son of Ross Davis, an employee of the Co-Op. Feed Mill.

According to Mr. Davis, his son had been located in California and had completed a three-year enlistment in the army. He spent some time at Mentone and after returning to California, enlisted again. He is 26 years of age.

Lost in Christmas Rush

A number of Dowagiac, Mich., residents were recently wished a Merry Christmas when the postman called. The greetings were not premature, but actually almost a year late. The delay came about through an error made last December when a pouch containing the mail was sent to the N. Y. general post office. It was laid aside in the rush and confusion, and only recently was it discovered and sent on its way.

YOUR SCRAP AND OUR BOY

Once upon a time there was a boy, a grand boy who lived in our neighborhood. He was full of the love of life...that fullness of life that has only been offered to the youth of America. Then came the call to arms. Our country, which had always been able to offer our boys and girls the countless advantages of our great resources, was called upon to retrench so that our armed forces could be adequately maintained.

This boy, perhaps your own boy or your neighbor's boy, made a promise to his God, his country and his family to fight, if need be to die, that this selfish intrusion in our way of life might be forever stifled. As we all know, he has kept his promise with all the courage and cunning at his command. He will continue to give that which is expected of him...many times over. But he can't do it with bare hands and courage.

This boy may be lying in advanced foxhole position in the Solomon Islands, half submerged in muck, tortured by insects, bugs, and reptiles, where he waits for his chance to strike a blow for our security. To strike this blow he has to have courage, a gun, ammunition, grenades; to protect his movement in position, he must have smoke bombs; to protect his battalion, his communications set must receive the information on the disposition and strength of the enemy's troops. If and when he is detected and wounded, he must have tubes of sulfanilimide ointment to protect him from infection. Then, if by the grace of God he is returned to a field hospital for first aid, he will be given blood plasma in the hope that his life may be spared.

It could have been the tin can you prepared that supplied the necessary tin to make the hand grenade; it requires only one properly prepared tin can for this.

It could have been the scrap iron that you collected that supplied the necessary metal for a machine gun; it requires only 50 pounds of scrap to build a heavy one.

It could have been the waste fats that you saved that supplied the necessary glycerine for his ammunition; two pounds of waste fats will produce enough glycerine to make five anti-tank shells.

It could have been the discarded hosiery, brass and copper, or reclaimed rubber that has saved the lives of many of our boys.

School Kids Plenty Busy

In Curry county, Oregon, where shells from a Jap sub landed, 33 school children collected 160,000 pounds of scrap, averaging almost 2½ tons each.

Incentive Payments (Montana Farmers Union News.)

The old saying "It makes a difference whose ox is gored" certainly applies to the attitude of congress toward so-called incentive payments. The obstructionist stooges of the privileged groups figuratively throw up their hands in horror at the idea, for instance, of providing incentive payments to farmers for production of essential food crops, but they have carefully provided means for bonuses to great corporations for production of materials in excess of the amounts produced in pre-Pearl Harbor days.

Early in 1941, prices on certain materials, among them being copper, were supposed to have been "frozen." At that time, the Anaconda Copper Mining Company in our state was not working its mines in Butte to the manpower capacity available. The market price of its copper was then 12 cents per pound, and in view of the fact that during that year, the company showed net earnings of about $40,000,000 after all expenses of operation, certainly indicated that the 12 cent a pound price was not too low.

However, the company apparently had deliberately planned a "squeeze play" by not producing copper in that year to the extent of the manpower available, though it will be recalled that the government was urging increased production of such essential metals.

The Metals Reserve Company had been organized to see that stock piles of strategic materials were accumulated. Heading this organization was Jesse Jones, "angel" of Alcoa and all other industrial and financial monopolies. Either his mighty brain or the wily subliminal-self of some master-mind of the Anaconda, had conceived the idea of a "bonus" for the increased production of copper in excess of the amount produced in 1941, when there were plenty

Payroll Savings Buys Comfort For Your Fighting Relatives

Not all of your payroll savings and other War Bond purchases are used for tanks, planes and gunpowder. A part of your investment goes for the comfort of your father, brother, son or friend.

Put your war bond buying through your payroll savings plan on a family basis to do the most effective job in providing for the care and safety of your men in the armed forces. Figure it out for yourself how much beyond 10 per cent of the aggregate income of your family you can put into war bonds above the cost of the necessities of life.

Remember a single $18.75 war bond will buy for a fighting soldier on the front: Two cotton undershirts at 44 cents; two pairs of cotton shorts at 76 cents; two pairs of cotton socks at 34 cents; one pair of shoes at $4.31; a cotton khaki shirt at $4.64; pair twill trousers at $4.16; one web waist belt at 23 cents; two cotton neckties at 44 cents; 2 khaki caps at $1.26 and one twill jacket at $2.16. Total $18.74.

An $18.75 war bond should make a marine comfortable for the night with a 23-pound mattress at $4.20; two blankets at $13.54; a pillow at 56 cents and two pillow cases at 30 cents. Total $18.60.

Or he could be provided with a rubber poncho at $4.77; a helmet with its lining and other items of its assembly at $5.62; a rifle cartridge belt at $2.15; a marine corps pack consisting of haversack, knapsack and suspenders at $5.10; a canteen and its cover at $1.05. Total $18.69.

Those of you who worry about the comfort of your boy in service can help insure his comfort by buying war bonds. And 10 years from now you'll take back $25 for every $18.75 you put in.

U. S. Treasury Department of miners walking the streets without a chance to work.

It wasn't an opportune time for a suggestion of an increase in the fixed price of copper in view of the tremendous profits reaped by the company in spite of curtailed production. But the happy thought of the "bonus" or "incentive payment" solved it all.

So it was arranged that the Metals Reserve Company agreed to pay the Anaconda Copper Company a bonus of six cents a pound for all copper produced last year in excess of the total production in 1941. And there was never a whimper heard from congress about that incentive payment.

Moreover, the company has been exempted from the payment of a metals mine tax to this state on bonus price over the regular price of copper. The bonus is all "velvet" for the company as far as the metals mine tax is concerned. The metals mine tax is paid only on the 12 cents a pound price.

One can easily imagine the horror with which any effort to form a company with, say the Secretary of Agriculture as its head, for the purpose of building up stock piles of essential agricultural products and offering bonuses for increased production, would be met by the reactionaries in congress.

To date there has been no wailing about the incentive payments to any industry except the farming industry.

(Our readers will remember that a subsidiary of the Montana firm in Indiana was recently given a gentle slap on the wrist for defrauding the government on several million dollars worth of government contracts. Judge Slick told them in the future to comply reasonably with government specifications in the future. In other words—don't steal so much all at once. Any American soldier caught performing any such act, regardless of how petty the amount or degree, would likely be shot as a traitor. Your editor is personally acquainted with the officials of the Montana farm organization and also with the un-American and un-democratic tactics of the ACM. The firm is a perfect example of numerous monopolistic abscesses on the body politic.—Ed.)

A. I. NELSON INJURES TOE ON "BUGGY RIDE"

A special committee was appointed at the Mentone Lions club meeting Wednesday evening to send a not-so-fragrant but appropriate floral spray to A. I. Nelson, the retiring president.

Mr. Nelson, although not injured seriously, suffered a broken toe nail and a rather bruised metatarsophalange.

It seems that Mr. Nelson was enjoying his usual night's rest when he wandered into a dream. He, his father and son Bobby were riding down the road in an old fashioned horse and buggy. 'Twas a lovely day (that night) and all was lovely. But fate turned cruel as they passed a neighbor's farm and a yellow dog followed along heckling them. A lash from the shiny black whip failed to discourage the pup so A. I. promptly grasped the small end of the whip and proceeded to hit the dog with the heavy end—the one that always had the little iron core. The whip, however, broke and floundered in the dust, but the dog heckled away. In a final desperate attempt the driver of the carriage gave the dog a terrific kick on the closest end.

Mr. Nelson awakened at this instant and, like most dreams, all would have been forgotten—except—it was pretty tough on his toe where he kicked the tail end of an iron bed.

The Lions club boys figured, even though the patient was not hospitalized, that a bouquet of hollyhocks and rhubarb would be quite appropriate.

WHY EDITORS GET GRAY

The letter supposedly coming to G. C. and which you as Co-op news editor printed was the silliest and greenest stuff type setting was ever wasted upon. It was squandering Co-op subscribers money by you supposedly being an editor and was weak trash to send over the World to those in the service. I think you lacked the little backbone required to refuse our papers space for such trash and hope you have enough or can borrow enough backbone from the board of directors to publish this letter. Or would you prefer a group of stockholders to ask the directors to take you up? If you publish this in the Co-op news it will show all who receive it that all the common sense and business judgement didn't leave Mentone Community when our brave boys answered our Countrys call.

Why not train the office cat to drag in scrap paper from the alleys and back yards, and publish that? Or send the paper out with blank spaces if no news or advertisements or boiler plate stuff are available.

The Sunday School Needs Universal Support

Young people are engaged in learning how to live and do things. We have institutions devoted to training minds and bodies for all of life's vocations, and parents contribute to this educational system. But training for living a well balanced life is left almost entirely to the church and schools of religious education. The power for character building among the youth of the American community emanating from the church school, is inestimable. The need for universal support of this institution is thus apparent.

The opportunity for extended service and influence appeals to me as greater than ever before, because of today's tendency among young people toward independent thinking and the selection of those things which they feel will make their lives complete.—Herold M. Harter, National Secretary, The National Exchange Club.

Give your children the advantage of a Sunday School training for a "well-balanced life."

To Hasten Victory

No American wants this war to go one minute beyond the time we can bring it to a victorious end. To hasten that victory—to save possibly the lives of millions of our boys on our far flung fronts—it is imperative that every American do his part in the Second War Loan. There is an investment to fit every purse. The most you can do is little enough compared with the sacrifice offered by our boys in service. They give their lives —you lend your money.

4-H CONSERVATION CAMP WILL BE HELD JULY 26-30

Lafayette, Ind., July 6.—Instruction on fundamental conservation practices will keynote the eighth consecutive 4-H club conservation camp, to be held at the Hassmer Hill 4-H club camp near Versailles, July 26 to 30, F. L. Reynolds, in charge of camp projects for the 4-H club department at Purdue University, announced today.

Delegates to the camp will be chosen by county agricultural agents or committees appointed for the purpose, the selection being based on individual reports of 4-H members regarding the conservation activities in which they have participated, and a 300-word story by the member on the same subject.

Four club members may be selected from each county. From the reports and stories submitted for these 4-Hers, a state committee will choose at least one boy from each county group represented to receive a camp fee award. However, the four members from each county all will be eligible to attend, and it is expected that transportation expenses and fees will be paid from county funds, conservation clubs, or the Izaak Walton League.

The camp staff feels justified in continuing the camp this year, says J. L. VanCamp, extension forester at Purdue, because of the necessity, especially in the face of the present expanded production, of maintaining the fundamental conservation viewpoints on which the future of the country depends. It also affords an opportunity for farm boys who have worked hard the balance of the year, to enjoy a brief vacation.

"We must guard against heedless waste and destruction," VanCamp states, "because next to winning the war, we know that conservation of our great natural resources is most important."

SHOULD THE OLD SCHOOL BELL BE PRESERVED?

The question has been asked on various occasions why the bell from the old Mentone school couldn't be placed in some proper place that it might be a lasting memorial? The thought has been presented to your editor from so many quarters and on so many occasions that we feel that the question should be presented to our old time residents—those who in years past, trudged to the school at the beckon of this old bell. Likely it will bring back many pleasant memories—or call to mind the times when some of the gang climbed up in the belfry and unhitched the rope or removed the "donger" for a joke on the school authorities.

As this is the fiftieth anniversary of the Mentone school, according to the date inscribed above the entrance of the old building, it would be appropriate for recognizing the fact.

One Mentone citizen, who attended no other grade school but at Mentone, was recently given the bell for memorial purposes.

Many have suggested that the bell be placed somewhere on the present school grounds or buildings and used for school purposes. Mentone is one of the few towns where the children do not have the aid of a bell to announce whether school is being held or to warn them that it's time to get going or be late. In these days with electric clocks (that stop when the electricity is off) it is very nerve-wracking to parents and children attempting to get to school on time. This condition is further aggravated by the fact that children are warned not to get to school too early. The bell could be equipped with an electric motor that would make it simple to operate yet as effective as it was in the days when the janitor had a tug-of-war with a rope.

What's your opinion?

CORN CRISIS ATTENTION FEEDERS!

The corn situation is very serious so far as supplies for manufacturing feeds are concerned. Since ceilings were put into effect the condition has become increasingly worse for us as well as elsewhere over the country.

At the time this is written we are unable to secure corn. By the time you read this, the condition may be better but it becomes necessary to say to you as a feeder of poultry that the sure way to get your poultry mashes is to bring your own corn to the mill. We will have the other ingredients and you can still get your feeds.

Naturally, it will take more time at the mill. As Tuesdays and Saturdays are the busiest days you can help yourself by coming on other days as our men can only do so much and we dislike to keep you waiting fully as much as you dislike to wait.

Perhaps this emergency will pass before long. You have been mighty fine in bearing with us this season and we have been doing everything in our power to meet your needs. I want you to know that we appreciate your cooperation and I can truthfully say to you that the feeds we have built under our brand name and tag registrations have had quality in them. While we have been handicapped in practically every step of the way, the feed committee and myself have been in there fighting to give you feeds that would do the job and we have no apologies, for we have given you good feeds.

Thanking you for your earnest consideration and cooperation in the present situation and assuring you that we shall always strive to build good feeds, I am,

Sincerely yours,

OLIVER C. TEEL, General Mgr.,
Northern Indiana Coop Assn.

addressed to: Chief, Fats and Oils Branch, Food Distribution Administration, War Food Administration, Washington, D. C., Ref. FD-31.

(Yes Sir! Oiticica oil is a new one on me and Mr. Webster, but that was what I figured all the time. Like the old gent once said: "Mister, all I can see for you to do is to throw your fork in the wagon and move on to the next pile.)

(There's enough sideboards on that regulation that would keep a slippery eel in an oyster barrel if the juice was piled four inches over the top. That must be pretty slick stuff.)

They Are Expendable

IN the language of the Navy a ship is expendable if it can be sacrificed to protect a larger and more valuable force.

On the production front railroad cars and coaches and engines are expendable—for to those charged with winning the victory they are less valuable these days than the materials of war they carry.

Ask any traveler, or any shipper, or any railroad employee about the war job being done by these tireless servants of steel and wood.

All previous performance records have been broken and broken again. Despite the fact that thousands of old cars and locomotives have been brought back from retirement and pressed into service, the ton-miles of freight now carried per car and per engine are the highest in railroad history.

But the situation is not without its cost—to the country as well as to the roads. For rails and engines and cars wear out with use rather than with age. And during the war emergency they are being "consumed" at an enormous rate.

It is not to be expected, in the midst of total war, that such equipment can receive normal maintenance and repair. The men and materials this would take are needed for ships and tanks and guns.

But if our railroads could put away in a tax-free reserve the earnings that would now be spent on such repairs (were it possible to make them), it would help to solve the problem. After the war, when the work can be done, the roads could put themselves back in good order.

If the railroads could make the repairs now, the cost, of course, could be charged to their normal expense of doing business. But because they cannot, the money is subject to tax as "profits."

No thinking American wants us to face our post-war reconstruction with impoverished and depleted railroads. And one of the best ways to guard against it is to allow the railroads to set aside now tax-free reserves for deferred maintenance.

The iron horse is expendable in wartime. But he is also indispensable to our American future.

L. M. Hines, Pres. Indiana State Teachers College, Terre Haute said: "The Sunday School during my entire life has been my chief interest in church work. The greatest need in our religious situation in the United States is a better opportunity for children and adults to secure better training in knowledge of the Bible and in correct living. The Sunday School has my endorsement at all times and everywhere."

Any influence that surrounds the growing child is an influence which becomes important in the shaping of permanent character. Therefore, the Sunday School, developing self control and stimulating good impulses, becomes a definite agency in behalf of individual and community welfare. This is merely a by-product of the Sunday School. The primary purpose of the Sunday School is to teach the children the Word of God and to lead them to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Bring your children Sunday.

NUGGETS FOR BEREANS No. 67

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He hath anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He hath sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord." Luke 4:18, 19. Jesus read these words from Isa. 61 in the Synagogue in His home town of Nazareth. At this point He closed the book and then announced, "This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your ears."

But if we look up the reference in Isa. 61, we find that our Lord stopped at a comma and did not read the next phrase, "AND THE DAY OF VENGEANCE OF OUR GOD." If He had also read this part with the other, then He could not have said that it was fulfilled in that day. For the fulfillment of the latter part is yet to come. The day of vengeance is connected with His second coming. So Jesus was dispensational in His teaching and was careful not to apply to one dispensation what was intended for another. So this little comma already has lasted nearly 2,000 years.

Some may ask why there is no mention of the present time in this passage in Isaiah. It is because that this dispensation was a mystery or secret that was hidden from ages and generations until such a time that it should be revealed by the apostle Paul (Col. 1:26). That this is a different dispensation is not only a stumbling block to many today, but was one of the main reasons for the rejection of the Lord in His day. They could not see that there was to be a gap between the suffering and the glory. So when no signs of the glory appeared, they rejected Him. Those who do not believe that

He is coming again reject Him upon the same grounds.

War Takes 96¢ Of Each Dollar

Out of every $18.75 that is invested in a War Bond, $18 goes into guns, planes, tanks, ships and other military equipment. The 75 cents goes for ordinary governmental expenditures. Out of every dollar 96 cents goes toward the war effort and 4 cents goes for Government "business as usual."

The same ratio applies to all other securities the Government has offered investors in the Second War Loan campaign for 13 billion dollars.

LOG OF THE U. S. MARINES

A Year Ago This Week

A group of Marine Corps aviators and a Navy torpedo squadron played vital roles in the American victory at Midway Island, Washington announced. Their courage and willingness to sacrifice their lives stood out in the story of that battle which was replete with heroes. The handful of Marine Corps pilots who defended Midway against 100 Japanese bombers, while other American forces were out seeking contact with the enemy, were all but wiped out, but not before their important mission had been accomplished.

Three Years Ago This Week

Major General Saburo Miura, in command of Japanese gendarmes, demanded an apology from U. S. Marines stationed at the International Settlement at Shanghai for alleged mistreatment of 15 plain clothes gendarmes who had been held by the Marines. Gen. Miura had previously apologized for the presence of gendarmes in the American defense area of the International Settlement, a violation of an agreement between Japanese and American officials.

Five Years Ago This Week

Japanese authorities conferred with officers of U. S. Marines in China and protested against the eviction of Japanese gendarmes and plain clothes policemen from the American defense sector of the International Settlement at Shanghai.

77 Years Ago This Week

A large portion of the city of Portland, Me., had been destroyed by fire and bands of thieves infested the city. The situation became so serious that U. S. Marines were called.

89 Years Ago This Week

Commodore Perry and his Naval Squadron, including detachments of U. S. Marines, arrived at Napa, Luchu Islands, to open negotiations for the signing of a treaty of commerce between the islands and the United States.

145 Years Ago This Week

President John Adams approved an Act of Congress which provided for the establishment of the United States Marine Corps. William Ward Burrows was selected as its first Commandant. The Marine Corps Band also was officially established with William Farr as its first leader.

ELECTRIC POWER is one of the biggest bargains you still enjoy. In the face of rising production costs, labor shortages and rapidly growing industrial demands for power, electric rates have not increased. In fact, during the past eight years alone, the cost per unit of your residential electric service has been reduced one-fourth.

ELECTRIC POWER plays a many sided role in our daily lives. It saves countless hours of toil and drudgery, bringing comfort and convenience to your home, while at the same time it is used in enormous quantities to speed war production in every conceivable way.

We are meeting this huge responsibility to Northern Indiana homes and industries with all the resourcefulness and experience of our entire organization, backed by our perfectly coordinated, interconnected electric transmission system, which continues to bring you dependable, economical service at the same low "pre-war" rate

DWIGHT CLEMANS AND BRIDE TO BE AT HOME IN GARY

The wedding of Miss Betty Doran, Mentone, and Dwight Clemans, Gary, Indiana, was solemnized Sunday night at eight o'clock in the A. L. Doran residence, 228 W. Dickson St., Plymouth. Rev. William H. Bleam, pastor of the first Methodist Church, Plymouth, officiated at the impressive candlelight rites.

Attending the couple as matron of honor and best man were the brother and sister-in-law of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Doran.

The bride chose for her wedding, a floor length gown of pale pink styled in matching satin and net. She wore a fingertip veil and her flowers were a colonial arm bouquet.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the Doran home for the guests. Mrs. H. Parker Link and Mrs. Lillian Boyle, both of Plymouth, presided at the refreshment table. Among the out of town guests present for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Teel, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Moullenhour and Miss Mary Esther Smith, all of Mentone, Mrs. Emma Nelson, of Akron, Mrs. Hazel Clemans, Mrs. Hand, Walter Zimmerman and Mr. Hall, all of Rochester.

Mr. Clemans and his bride will reside in Gary where the bridegroom is employed by the steel mills.

The bride has been employed in the office of the Northern Indiana Co-operative Association at Mentone the past seven years and has a wide acquaintance.

The young couple are now at home at 675 Buchanan Street, Gary, Ind.

C. G. PAULUS NOW SECRETARY OF CONSERVATION CLUB

We've been advised to announce to all the members of the Mentone Conservation club that C. G. Paulus is now secretary. E. G. Harrison, our former secretary, has moved to another city and Mr. Paulus was selected, or persuaded, to take his place.

Jack Kercher underwent an operation for appendicitis on Monday night at 11 o'clock at the McDonald hospital at Warsaw.

HOOF SLINGERS TO DEDICATE NEW FACTORY BUILDING

Free Dance Scheduled for Saturday Night

We've been advised to announce that a free dance will be held at the old Ford garage building on Saturday evening, July 24th. The dance will be in the form of a dedicatory exercise for the new factory that is to occupy the building in the near future.

The dance, we have been told, is being sponsored by many members of the former Possum Hollow Dancing Club.

Several workmen have been working on the building the past few weeks and have made many improvements. A new floor has been laid, the roof completely fixed, windows have been installed in the east wall, the plumbing has been modernized and in many other respects the building has been greatly increased in value.

STATE HATCHERIES ARE RESTOCKING HOOSIER WATERS

Hoosier lakes and streams, which provide good fishing for a half million Hoosiers, are being restocked with bass, bluegills and other game fish from the hatcheries operated by the Division of Fish and Game, it has been announced by Harrell F. Mosbaugh, director.

Planting sites have been selected by the Conservation Officers with the cooperation of conservation club officials in each county and a schedule of delivery dates is being worked out. Conservation Officers and club officials are notified in advance of the deliveries to be made in each county and will accompany the hatchery truck on its local schedule. As in past years, no plantings will be made in waters which are not open to the public for fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blodgett of Ann Arbor, Michigan, arrived Saturday at the H. O. Blodgett home. Robert returned to his work at Willow Run while his wife and daughter remained for a couple weeks visit.

LIGHTNING AND WIND DESTROYED PROPERTY HERE

This part of Indiana was visited by a devastating wind and rain storm about supper time Friday evening. Much damage to buildings and growing crops has been reported.

The fire department was called to The Cal Fretz home while the rain was falling so heavily that visibility was limited to less than two blocks. A stroke of lightning struck the large barn and set it afire from end to end. No effort was made to extinguish the fire as it was absolutely hopeless. The bolt also shattered a small tree near the house and every electric light bulb in the house was reported to have been out completely. One bulb exploded near Mrs. Fertz and she was completely unnerved. The shock was almost too much to bear, along with the fear that her husband may have been in the burning barn. Fortunately, he was not and first reports were that no livestock was destroyed.

While the firemen were "standing by" at the Fretz home to protect the other buildings if necessary, a call came that Earl Nottingham's garage was burning. This necessitated another long drive, but fortunately the fire was practically out when the fireman arrived. Mr. Nottingham said he saw several balls of fire come down a large tree near the garage but figured no material damage had been done. Soon, however, it was noticed that the garage roof was burning.

Another lady residing near the old school building stated that at one time she saw three large balls of fire (over a foot thick) at three different places near the school building. Local citizens commented that this was the first instance they had heard of where lightning hit at more than one nearby spot in one bolt.

Damage of varying proportions has been reported from various parts of the county. Many barns, chicken houses and other buildings were either blown down or damaged. Shocks of wheat from one field were seen to move across the sky like a flock of ducks in formation, while at another

DR. URSCHEL CALLED FOR ARMY SERVICE

Dr. Dan L. Urschel, Mentone doctor for the past six years, Saturday received his official notice to report for active duty as a First Lieutenant in the Medical Corps of the U. S. Army. He leaves Chicago July 30 and is to report to the Hoffman General Hospital at Santa Barbara, Calif. (The telegraphic notice of his commission appointment inferred that he was to report at Santa Barbara July 30th, and as a consequence he had made his plans according. Later notification, however, allows him a couple more days time.)

On June 30th Dr. Urschel sent in his enlistment papers—just about two weeks previous to his call to duty.

Dr. Urschel will not be in his office here after Saturday, July 24th, but Mrs. Urschel and Miss Mentzer will remain there for about three weeks for the accommodation of patients who have or are now undergoing treatments of one sort or another.

GOOD HONEY CROP IS PREDICTED FOR STATE

Predictions of a good honey crop in most parts of Indiana as a result of favorable working conditions for bees in recent weeks, were made today by James E. Starkey, chief apitary inspector for the Division of Entomology. The honey now being taken from producing colonies is in demand.

Production may not equal that of past years, due to the unusually heavy loss of colonies during the winter and inability to replace them with bees from other states as has been the practice in the past.

place some men in a barn saw the twisting black cloud approaching and sought shelter in a lower part of the structure. A few seconds later the barn disappeared from above their heads, leaving them unharmed.

Telephone and electric lines, too were damaged extensively.

THE CAMEL'S HEAD IS IN THE TENT—

The fable, or whatever it was, about the man that finally consented to permit the camel putting his head in the tent to protect himself from the storm and then soon found that the animal had "wormed" his entire structure into the tent to the discomfort of the man, is an illustration of our present threat to freedom of speech.

Today I was struck with horror when I read that our own congress recently passed an appropriation bill with a rider that is contradictory to every concept of a democratic nation.

Possibly all of you read the news release of where the War Food Administration, in announcing the new appropriation for the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, itemized the restrictions placed upon every part or full time employee of that government agency. The congressional terminology was listed as "Prohibiting any employee (of the AAA and employed by the government) to praise or criticize the organization or ANY ACT OF CONGRESS."

The WFA went further and listed seven "don'ts" which said employees must adhere to. Included were: Must not give any information, picture or data to any newspaper or periodical; not to compose or assist in composing any article or radio script; not to talk (for or against) any phase of the farm program; not to show any motion picture or conduct any educational program; not to speak or appear before any civic or community group, etc.

Ladies and gentlemen, this happened in Our America this year of 1943. It wasn't an act of our President, evidently, but the act of a congress that of recent weeks has been tossing the administration for a loss at every turn.

It is purely a political move—an effort to defeat, by any means even if it is destroying democracy, the political prestige to be gained from any ap-

Molly Pitcher Tag Day, August 4

The modern Molly Pitcher will greet you throughout the nation on August 4th when brigades of Mollys will tag every buyer of War Bonds and Stamps. They will carry on the tradition of the Revolutionary War heroine who has gone down in history because she aided her fighters at the battle of Monmouth in 1778.

pointive government agency.

My objections are not necessarily from a political standpoint. But reverting again to Voltaire, I quote: "I wholly disagree with every word you say. But I'll fight to the death your right to say it."

The "don't" list also stated that all such employees dared not advance any statement or information. Like pawns at a puppet show, they must hibernate behind the desks and the counters of their offices and never speak unless they are asked a question.

I'll grant it isn't proper for a government employee to campaign on government time, but very likely they are hired for a certain number of hours each day but there should be a few hours out of each 24 that he could exercise his birthright as a free-thinking, free-speaking American citizen. We are supposed to enjoy the sportsmanship of a nepotism law but investigation has disclosed that some political men, and their friends and relatives, get a total salary of more than the President. Like ants at a picnic—if one finds his way to the table, hordes of his friends are soon overrunning the place.

The Farm Bureau is an organization of sincere people of agriculture, almost to a man they are as honest and trustworthy as any humans could ever be, but through the Judas Iscariot leadership of their president, their efforts and prestige are being diverted into unprofitable channels. Their Mr. O'Neal used his influence—and the confidence of his membership, to sponsor the AAA appropriation bill. It was he who used his every influence to help destroy the Farm Security Administration a few weeks ago (and this organization was the only thing other than God's graciousness that kept the American farmer a free man or even in the industry). Mr. O'Neal, or maybe it's McNeal, has also been helping to destroy farming in the south where share-croppers are held in virtual slavery because of poverty and the poll-tax laws.

I only hope that the whole fair is not so. I hope that congress never placed such a statute upon our law books, but that the WFA misinterpreted it and elaborated without authority. At any rate, it is up to EVERY AMERICAN to secure the true facts immediately before "the camel crowds Americans from democracy's abode."

Corn—Home-Canned to Keep!

"Corn, a favorite food of man, beast, and bacteria, is the victim of defense propaganda and I am not talking about war." Gladys Kimbrough, Home Service Director of Ball Brothers Company, made the above statement and went on to explain, "Persons who refuse to take the time and trouble to understand corn, defend their canning failures by claiming that it refuses to keep. The truth is, corn is more than willing to be canned, but is doomed to spoilage unless right tactics are used, because it has no acid to protect it against the invasion of bacteria. Tactics? Why," says Miss Kimbrough, "they can be summed up in one sentence: i. e., learn what is to be done, begin at the right time, keep things moving, and turn on the heat."

The first thing to be done is to get jars, lids, rubbers, and canner ready. If you have no pressure cooker, get along with a water-bath canner. Examine every jar and lid to see that it is in good condition—remember glass top seals and two-piece metal vacuum seal caps won't work unless the top edges of the jars are perfect. Wash everything clean; cover jars, glass lids and zinc caps with luke-warm water and put on the stove to heat. Cover vacuum seal lids and rubbers with boiling water and leave until needed. When everything is ready, gather the corn—bring in no more than needed for one canner full. Keep in mind that canning too much too late is a common cause of spoilage. Place the corn on a board and use a strong sharp knife to cut the husks (shucks to you in the Middle West and South) off at each end just where the corn begins and ends. There shouldn't be any worms if you have followed Victory garden directions, but if there are worms in the tassel end, cut deep enough to leave them with the husks. The husks will come off easily and bring most of the silks with them.

Examine every ear of corn and use only those having plump, glossy, juice-filled kernels. Remove all silks; rinse the corn and cut it from the cob. One or more cuttings may be made, but scrapings should not be used unless processing can be done in a pressure cooker, because the scrapings make a thick mass that heats through slowly. Cover the corn with boiling water, using about half as much water as corn; cook five minutes; then pour immediately into clean, hot jars. A generous amount of water helps the corn heat through quickly and aids in preventing its sugar from caramelizing and causing a brownish color. Add one teaspoon salt to the quart and seal jars according to manufacturer's directions. Then put into the canner and process.

If possible, use pint jars, as they heat through more rapidly—the quicker the jars can be heated through, the more certain the destruction of bacteria. Process pints and quarts 70 minutes at 10 pounds pressure or by boiling 3½ hours in hot-water bath. Remove the jars from the canner as promptly as possible after processing; finish sealing all jars that require rubber rings; set jars as far apart as possible on folded newspaper or cloth so they can cool quickly, but be sure they are not where a breeze will strike them.

The jars should be examined after twelve hours in order to make sure they are sealed. To do this, remove bands from glass top seals and metal vacuum seal caps (leave the bands off when the jars are put away). Test the glass top seals by pulling gently on the lids with the finger tips. Vacuum seals are tested by pressing down on them with the fingers—if sealed, they won't move under this pressure. "Lightning" type are tested by holding upside down and watching for leaks. There won't be any leaks if instructions are followed and there won't be any spoilage if you keep in mind that Vigilance means Victory. Furthermore, you will never know how good canned corn can be until you have tasted your own home-canned brand.

NUGGETS FOR BEREANS No. 68

"And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance." Acts 2:4.

In the 10th chapter of 1 Cor. we find several gifts mentioned and among them are the gifts of tongues and interpretation of tongues. Now these things have been a source of inquiry and wonder with many people. The first question many ask is, "Do people have the gift of tongues today?"

To that question I can without any hesitation answer, "No, there is no such thing as a gift of tongues today." I can go farther and say that for almost 1900 years none of the 9 gifts of the Spirit have been manifested in any way whatsoever.

Now you may ask why I am so sure about this. It is for the simple reason that the gifts of the Spirit were given to Jews. They were the ones who were to go to all nations and make disciples of them and baptize them in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. The Jews were chosen in the first place that they might be an example to the nations and lead them to God. So when they were commanded to preach to all nations, God immediately gave them the ability to speak in such a way that these nations could understand, every man in his own language. Some were given the gift of interpretation, that is, they could understand any questions that a person from any nation might ask. These gifts were not given to be used to show off or boast before one another, but as a means of communication with those of other tongues. These gifts ceased with the setting aside of the nation of Israel at Acts 28:28. Healing ceased at this point and not only were some of the helpers ill, but even Paul himself suffered illness after the passing of the gifts. I do not mean to say that God does not heal any more, but I mean to say that in this dispensation none have the gift of healing or the gift of tongues or any other of the nine gifts of the Spirit.

Marvin Jones' Crop Report

War Food Administrator Marvin Jones said recently that, on the average, farmers are meeting this year's year's production goals for field crops. Earlier reports indicated that livestock and livestock products also will reach production goals. Mr. Jones said, "We will have enough food in this country given at least average weather for the rest of the year—to give civilians adequate and healthful diets, in addition to meeting military and other essential wartime requirements. This does not mean, of course, that there is any better chance than appeared earlier for having all the food that civilians would like to buy or that civilian supplies for some individual items will not be far below the demand."

"For some important crops—including rice, oats, flaxseed, and potatoes, estimated 1943 average is well above the year's goals."

"Acreage of corn, hay, barley, grain sorghums, cotton and tobacco is about at the goals. Acreage of sweet potatoes, dry field beans, peanuts and sugar beets is below 1943 goals."

Soldiers' Life Insurance

Soldiers—at home or abroad—are reminded that less than three weeks remain in which they can get National Service Life Insurance without a physical examination. Until August 10, 1943, every application will be accepted regardless of the individual's medical condition. After August 10 a rigid physical examination will be required.

Program To Avoid Clothes Rationing

A program to make clothes rationing unnecessary, recently announced by Donald M. Nelson, chairman of WPB, contains these six points: (1) increased production, (2) orderly and adequate distribution, (3) more "volume" merchandise, (4) allocation of materials to essential needs, (5) increased imports of burlap, and (6) proper care of clothing by consumers. There is an adequate supply of textiles to meet civilian needs, the WPB has determined.

Farmers Will Get Gasoline

Farmers are entitled to first call in receiving motor fuel when they present valid 'E', 'R' or bulk coupons or ration checks which are issued pursuant to Ration Order 5-C of the Office of Price Administration. Dealers (whether retail or wholesale) must accord them this privilege. This means, that if necessary, the dealer shall not deliver any motor fuel for non-agricultural or non-military use until these preferred demands have been "satisfied"—statement by Acting Petroleum Administrator for War Ralph K. Davies.

TIRES

We have most all standard sizes in FIRST and SECOND LINE Tires for all those eligible to purchase them.

A great portion of our tires are good pre-war stock.

Co-Op. Oil Station

Dairy Products Supplies

Civilians will get eight out of every ten pounds of butter produced in the year which began July 1, the War Food Administration has announced. The armed forces will get 1½ pounds and the Russian army will get ½ pound. Civilians will also get 5½ out of every ten pounds of cheese, and 4-1/3 cases of evaporated milk out of every ten.

Dry Beans For Civilians

Civilians will get more dry beans and peas this year than they consumed in 1942, said the WFA in announcing allocations of these foods. More than half of the 22,200,000 hundred pound bags of beans will go to civilians, who will also get 1,624,000 bags of dry peas—more than were eaten in 1942, and 76,000 bags more than the 1935-39 average civilian consumption.

Canned Vegetables and Fruits

Nearly 70 percent of the canned vegetables, and 53 percent of the canned fruits and juices available in the next 12 months will go to feed civilians. These quantities, allocated by the WFA for the 12 months beginning July 1, constitute about 4 percent more canned vegetables but about 40 percent less canned fruit than were consumed on the average during the 1935-39 period.

Egg Supplies Hold Even

About the same quantity of eggs will be available to civilians in the 12 months beginning July 1, as in the same period last year, the WFA has indicated. Of the total of 5 billion dozen eggs, civilians will get about 3½ billion dozen.

Soldiers Send Money by Radio

American soldiers overseas except those in Alaska, Hawaii, Panama Canal Zone, and Puerto Rico may send money home by radio. In a recent week more than 9,000 soldiers sent nearly $1,000,000, in amounts of $10 or more, with no maximum limit. Money may be transmitted to an individual payee, or to a bank.

No Corn for Liquor

Corn cannot be used for manufacture of distilled spirits and high wines, a recent directive of the War Production Board says. (I thought we had been informed that liquor wasn't being made anymore.—Ed.) The action was taken to conserve stocks of corn for essential purposes, although the amount of corn saved is likely to be small because distillers already had shifted largely to the use of wheat. (Also essential grain.—Ed.)

8 Million Pounds of Waste Fats

American housewives salvaged almost 8 million pounds of waste kitchen fats in May—highest total since the fats and grease salvage program was started. This result surprised government officials who said that a drop might have been expected because meats and fats have been rationed since March. Nevertheless, the 8 million pounds is only about 50 percent of the needed quota of 16,667,000 pounds per month.

You Are Ever Welcome to This House of God

George J. Hecht, publisher of the Parents' Magazine, says: "Granted that society needs the higher ideals, sounder morals and more acceptable citizenship which it believes organized religion has the power to help shape, one can hardly over-emphasize the importance of the Sunday school. For the Sunday school is the church's earliest contact with the child and for that reason has unlimited opportunity for influencing his ethical sense."

Clayton H. Ernst, Editor, The Open Road for Boys, says, "It is painful to imagine what America would be without the Sunday School. In that cradle we nurse the spiritual power which is the greatest hope of our people. The unselfish service of the Sunday school teacher is the older generations' noblest gift to the younger."

"The Sunday school is just as essential to our national welfare as the little red schoolhouse" yet how indifferent many of our citizens are toward it. The American Sunday school has meant more to our American way of life than many people have stopped to realize. Its future depends upon the present generations. Help build up our Sunday schools and you will help build a better world in which to live.

A BIRTHDAY TO BE REMEMBERED

Speaking of surprises—Sunday the 25th was filled with them for the Raymond Hibschiemann family. It being Mrs. Hibschiemann's birthday they were invited to the lake by friends for dinner. Upon arrival, however, they were very happily surprised to be greeted by their soldier-son, Devon who had arrived from Alaska just a few hours before and whom they had not seen for about two years.

That evening Mrs. Hibschiemann was gathering eggs when she was again pleasantly surprised as a group of friends dropped in with well-filled baskets to have supper with them. Among them were: Mr. and Mrs. John Fenstermaker, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brugh, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Jefferies, Mr. and Mrs. Addie Bybee, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Elick and Miss Belva McGowen.

After a short time three more families came with two big freezers full of delicious ice cream and two birthday cakes. In this group were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Warren and family, Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Sellers and son, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Bryan and daughter. All had a very enjoyable evening and left wishing them many more surprises and happy birthdays.

Note: anyone desiring cracked eggs should contact Mrs. Raymond Hibschiemann.

TIME MAGAZINE PRINTS STORY OF LOCAL PHYSICIAN'S WORK

Time Magazine (Aug. 2) carries an article about the research work of Dr. Dan L. Urschel of Mentone and Dr. Neal Davis, of Lowell, on undulant fever.

The current issue of the Indiana State Medical Journal also comments in the editorial section about the work of these two doctors and how now, after the death of the famous Edsel Ford by undulant fever, doctors are realizing more and more that the disease is of major importance.

The articles frequently mention that both doctors are from small towns, and Time Magazine even went so far as to give the population figures to prove their statements.

Our congratulations to Drs. Urschel and Davis for their work and may their research prove to be of great value in the alleviation of human suffering.

MENTONE LIONS "WIN" SOFTBALL GAME TUESDAY

The Mentone Lions club softball team (almost) journeyed to South Whitley Tuesday evening in an effort to demonstrate that the South Whitley Lions weren't such "hot" softball players either.

The Mentone boys were all enthused about the game but when the appointed hour of departure showed up only six or eight were on hand to make the trip. Like Elijah, as our Bibles relate, some of them saw a little cloud in the western sky and they disappeared like cream puffs at a Sunday school picnic. Doc Clutter assured them that it wasn't going to rain, but it didn't help a bit.

Dr. Urschel, and Mrs. Urschel, who had been in Fort Wayne on business, stopped at South Whitley and Artley Cullum arrived before the evening was too far gone. Those two, with the assistance of eight other players borrowed from the South Whitley group, came out victorious 8 to 7 and still had one inning of batting left.

South Whitley has a nice softball diamond, beautifully lighted with huge floodlights. The evening air was exhilarating and the sportsmanship beyond reproach. Mentone is grateful to the South Whitley boys for helping us "win" the game and for the fine hospitality.

IF YOU HAVE NO CANNER, MAKE ONE

"All authorities on home canning advise that non-acid vegetables be canned by processing (cooking in jars) in a steam pressure cooker because a pressure cooker is the only household utensil that can retain a much hotter than boiling temperature. High temperatures are desirable when canning beans, peas, corn, greens, etc., because they insure more certain destruction of bacteria and because the canning can be done more quickly. But," says Gladys Kimbrough, Home Service Director of Ball Brothers Company, who heartily approves using a pressure cooker whenever possible, "the time is at hand when we must be practical. Don't worry if you can't buy a pressure cooker for surely you can find a wash boiler, lard can, baby bath tub or some deep container in which water can be boiled. Tack a few strips of wood together to make a rack or platform to hold the jars about one-half inch from the bottom of the container. Find something, even if it has to be a board, to use as a lid. Then you will have a water-bath canner for those Victory garden vegetables.

"You are afraid to eat vegetables canned that way? Nonsense! A lot of folks who say a water bath can't be used were raised on vegetables canned by that method. But let's get three things of or before we go any further: first, there have been a few instances of poisoning from eating canned vegetables; second, all such danger can be avoided by boiling the canned vegetables 15 minutes before tasting or serving—they should be re-boiled before serving if left from one meal to the next; third, a pressure cooker is not a guarantee against spoilage. There will be spoilage if the pressure gauge registers too low or if poor judgment is used in the selection, preparation, and packing of food into the jars. And don't let anybody tell you otherwise.

"Now, back to the water bath. The water should be steaming but not boiling when the jars are lowered into it and deep enough to cover the tops of the jars two or more inches. No, water won't get into the jars if directions are followed. The water should be brought to boiling as quickly as possible and kept boiling steadily throughout the canning period.

"Any jar suitable for use in home canning (and only those with names lettered on them are suitable) may be used for water-bath processing. Mason jars may be sealed with one-piece zinc cap and rubber—if you can find the caps—with glass top seal, or with two-piece vacuum seal caps. Glass top seal closures and vacuum caps seal on the top edge of the jar, therefore it is necessary to make sure the top edges of the jars are even, smooth, and perfect in every respect. The bands are screwed down tight on the vacuum seals as soon as the jars are filled to within from one to one-half inch of the top, and should not be tightened again. Zinc caps are screwed down on the rubber and then loosened slightly. Bands for glass top seals are screwed down and then loosened. This tightening and loosening is called 'partly sealing' and should always be done before jars are placed in a canner. Seals are completed by tightening caps or bands immediately after processing.

"Then there is the jar with a glass lid and rubber ring held in place with wires—it is ideal for canning, especially when fitted with high-tension, stretch-proof, steel wire. It is partly sealed before and completely sealed after processing.

"Those who select vegetables that are young, tender, and right out of the garden, and waste no time in washing them clean, cooking them five to ten minutes, and pouring into clean, hot jars and processing immediately, will live to laugh at those who say it can't be done. It is the Cans, not the Can'ts, who are going to win the war on both home and battle front."

VETERAN LEATHERNECK ONCE HELD FINEST JOB

Marine Gunner Edward E. Steele, a veteran Marine Corps officer stationed somewhere in the South Pacific once held what he terms "the finest job the Marine Corps ever had for a sergeant."

He was first sergeant of the Fita Fita Guard in Samoa in 1930, in charge of 76 members of a native guard at the U. S. Naval Station at Pago Pago.

All members of the Samoan guard were chosen especially for their height, he said, and were picturesquely garbed in neat lava-lavas trimmed with red. They wore brilliant red turbans.

WONDERFUL ARMY

We're somewhere in the army
Where the sky is never blue
And the rain comes down in buckets
Till it soaks you through and through.
The wind rips round the mountains
And the snow blows off the peaks.
You lie shivering in your bedrolls
Cause the roof is full of leaks.

We're somewhere in the army
Though we cannot say where
It doesn't make a bit of difference
Because no one seems to care.
We're Uncle Sam's lost soldiers
And we haven't any friends.
We hope they don't forget us
When this darned war finally ends.
We hate all Japs and Nazis
And we step right in their face.
If it weren't for those mad men
We'd never have seen this place.

We're somewhere in the army
Where the girls are scarce as tires
And your only relaxation
Is to sit huddled round the fire.
We're always damp and chilly
But we never die of thirst.
It starts raining May second
And doesn't quit till May the first.

We're somewhere in the army
Where you work from dawn till tap
Where you break your back with labor
While you're waiting for the Japs.
The sun comes out just once a year
And stays out for an hour
If it doesn't snow it's bound to rain.
Can we help it if we're sour.

We're somewhere in the army
Where the nights are black as pitch
If you happen to miss the fox hole
Then you break your leg in a ditch.
This is a poem of the army
With its beauty and wonderful rights
But I'd give you the place for nothing

VICTORY'S SONS

Out from "Shangri La" flew General Doolittle with a force of bombers.

He led them to the island of the Rising Sun.

Reaching the shores of that island they dropped so low they flew under high tension wires. They were too low for anti-aircraft guns.
Then they fanned out.

Some of the bombers went to Tokyo, some to Yokohama, some to industrial and "prohibited" zones near those cities.

Like good sowers, their bombs fell on fertile "grounds. Debris flew skyward, oil storage tanks were fired, munition and plane plants flattened.

They left behind them destruction. Bewildered and amazed were officers, soldiers and natives.

As quickly as they came, they departed.

A few weeks later ace airman Jimmy Doolittle received the Congressional Medal of Honor for "conspicuous leadership" from the president at a White House ceremony.

BOYS ESCAPE DEATH WHEN TRAIN HITS CAR

Two Tippecanoe youths, Isaac Mullen, 17, and Ernest Reed, 19, escaped death at 2:30 a. m. Thursday morning of last week when their 1939 Studebaker was completely demolished by an eastbound Erie train on road 25, one mile east of Rochester. The boys failed to see the approaching train on the siding and immediately after they jumped to safety the car was hit by the train, knocking it into the main tracks where the fast freight hit it.

Mullen suffered a cut on his knee and external bruises, while Reed escaped with minor cuts and sprains.

Damage to the auto was reported by Sheriff Summers at between $500 and $600. (It was completely demolished).

Figure It Out Yourself. How can you effectively join in saving all the little children of the world from human slavery, death and injury from the Nazis and Japanese? Put more and more of your pay into war bonds every payday. Your savings will go to war in the form of war equipment and other munitions. How much more should you put into war bonds? The only ones who can answer that are—you and your family. It's up to you to decide just how much more you'll do to win the war.

If you were fighting in the Solomons or in Africa or forcing a landing in Europe you'd like to feel that the folks at home were back of you—all the way—you'd be proud of your family and your friends if you knew they were buying war bonds not at 10 per cent or 15 per cent, but with every cent beyond that which they need for necessities.

Franklin C. Hoyt, while Presiding Justice of the Children's Court in New York City said, "From experience gained from handling thousands of cases of delinquent and neglected children, I feel that the religious training and moral guidance of every child is of supreme importance. Each boy and girl must be given an opportunity to learn religious truths and to worship God."

These religious truths are best learned in Sunday School. Every child should be in Sunday School as Justice Fawcett of the Supreme Court in the same city has said, "If all the children could be kept under the influence of the Sunday School and the grown-ups were active in some church we could close our prisons and jails."

It seems that this testimony of these men should convince us of the value of the Sunday School and church in our own social life. If they had no other value they would be worth the effort to maintain them. But the social value is merely a by-product, the real value reaches the very soul of of man and purposes him for eternity. Bring your children Sunday.

NUGGETS FOR BEREANS No. 69

"WIST YE NOT THAT I MUST BE ABOUT MY FATHER'S BUSINESS?" (Luke 2:40).

This is the first recorded utterance of the Lord as the Son of Man. He must have learned to speak early in life just as other children learn to speak. But not one has the Holy Spirit written down until twelve years have passed by. And then not another one is written until eighteen years later.

So this one short question is all that is written of what the Lord said through the first thirty years of his earthly life as the Son of Man. Joseph and Mary could neither understand nor answer this question.

It was a rebuke. Mary had spoken of "thy father and I." The Lord speaks of "I" and "My Father."

This utterance fully, completely, and beautifully summed up His whole mission. Centuries before, it had been written "in the Volume of the Book," concerning Him (Ps. 40:7. Heb. 10:7), "LO I COME TO DO THY WILL, O GOD."

When He came to the end of His life as the Son of Man, He made another utterance. When we compare the two, no language can describe their fulness of meaning, significance, and importance. Here was one Who too had finished His course; He too had fought a good fight. As He is ready to depart from this life with His mission completed, He said from the cross, "IT IS FINISHED."

COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION

HIRAM MEREDITH
WRITES FROM NORTH AFRICA

July 18, 1943

Hello Folks: (Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meredith)

Well, received your letter and some stamps which were very welcome and needed. In your letter you asked me to describe the country and the people and their customs, so will try, but don't blame me if you don't believe it but it's true. Come and see for yourself. Ha. Ha. The country first. It is very hilly or I should say mountainous. Can see mountains any way I look. There is some very good farming ground in the valleys and very fertile. Of course they use some of the hillsides for farming if it isn't too steep. They raise a lot of wheat but haven't seen any corn. There is lots of oats and barley and lots of lemons, oranges and olives and most fruit that grows in a warm climate, and it's plenty hot here in the daytime. On top of lots of the mountains is what they call moslems where they go to pray and it's a sight to see them treak their way up and back. I had an occasion to see about 150 going. There is some very deep gorges here. There is one in the town that's close by that makes the Grand Canyon look like a ditch. It winds all the way through the town and opens up in a very fertile valley that supplies the town with most of its fresh vegetables. Well I guess that is enough for the country. Now the people.

On the way here we rode African deluxe (in a box car). On the side it said 8 horses or 30 men but there were about 40 men in a small car. We didn't travel very fast—about 30 miles an hour was top speed and sometimes about as fast as you could walk and stopped at every small station to talk to the stationmaster. He is a very important man on the railroad here. Some of the hospital trains are better than ours at home. They have rubber tires on the wheels. Along the way we got our first look at the Arabs. They are very dirty and never wash and clothing never comes off night or day. They wear anything, even burlap bags. I think they put patch upon patch. Their trousers are very baggy and the seat of the pants hangs down around the knees and even lower. The custom of these people meeting each other is shaking hands, with their right hands and kissing them. Oh yes, their shoes are made of wood or rubber of an old tire with straps on it to keep them on their feet. In a crowd the men walk hand in hand to keep from losing one another. The wife of a man here walks behind the husband. The babies are carried like Indian children. Saw Bastile Day the 12th of July. It's something like our Fourth of July. The soldiers marched first then about two hours later the people marched. They marched for about an hour and always singing and shouting Viva La France, England and America. They always have their doings in the mornings because it is cool and between 11 and siesta time (sleep). War doesn't make any difference to them. Well I guess I have written too much now so will write more later if you care to hear about it.

So Long
Love to All
