JACKIE BLUE CHOSEN MERMAID FESTIVAL QUEEN

Miss Jackie Blue, 19 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Blue, of Mentone, was chosen Mermaid Festival Queen at the final selection held Sunday night at North Webster. Miss Blue was chosen from many candidates from all parts of Indiana, and it is a distinct honor to Mentone and the Mentone Lions Club which sponsored her in the contest. Forrest Miner was chairman of the Lions committee, and an elaborate float was designed and built to carry Miss Blue in the queen parade. Jackie is a graduate of the Mentone high school and is employed at the Farmers State Bank.

Miss Blue is also a candidate for the Hostess Queen and Aqua Queen at the Centennial Festival at Warsaw this week.

Terry Wayne Teel, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Teel, was chosen as the "Cutie King" at the festival. His queen was Kathy Dorsey, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dorsey of near Syracuse. They, along with Miss Blue and her attendants, are shown in a picture printed on another page of this issue.

FEW INDIANA FARMERS
ADEQUATELY INSURED

Many Indiana farmers are underinsured, according to a recent survey of farms in the central and southern parts of the state. Purdue University agricultural research by Doctors H. G. Diesslin, J. E. Losey, and L. S. Robertson has revealed that only about one-fourth of Hoosier farmers carry adequate insurance.

About one-half of them have insurance programs which are unbalanced, and the remaining one-fourth have insurance which is inadequate in both type and amount.

What kind of insurance do farmers carry? Of those interviewed, 94 percent carried fire or fire and wind insurance on their property. A high percentage of auto and truck owners carried insurance on their vehicles.

TAKE CARE WITH SUMMER EGGS

Hot summer days are the signal for poultry flock owners to do a better job of caring for eggs. Purdue University extension poultrymen say that when egg prices are low, as they are now, it's especially important to follow practices that will win premiums paid for high quality eggs.

First and foremost, gather eggs frequently — four times a day. Use a wire basket to collect and hold eggs before casing. Eggs cool twice as fast in a wire basket as in a basket or other closed container.

The time eggs are held until the buyer makes his pickup is critical. Hot weather tends to dry out eggs. That means the egg holding room must be cool and moist.

The Purdue specialists report that some successful producers of high quality eggs have provided proper egg holding facilities at low cost. Usually, a basement room is best. Burlap sacks can be moistened and hung on the walls, and an electric fan circulates the air.

Or, low pressure spray nozzles, such as are used with weed sprayer outfits, can be attached to the water system in the egg holding room. A fine spray or mist from the nozzles will furnish proper humidity in a hurry.

Either of these two low-cost practices will create nearly ideal conditions for keeping high grade eggs.

ADJUST COMBINE BEFORE USING

Farmers who can spare the time from making hay and cultivating, should start up their combine and check on its condition before using.

C. L. Hill, Purdue University agricultural engineer, says it's vitally important that those burned out bearings be replaced and all moving parts be lubricated in order to rid them of accumulated dirt, water and rust.

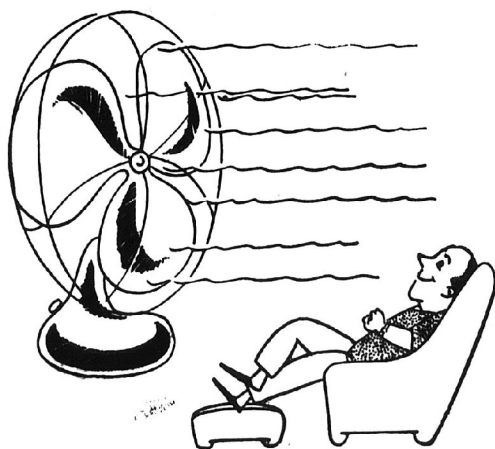

This machinery expert says to set the cylinder to proper concave clearance for the first crop to be cut. Hack-saw blades piled on top of each other to the desired depth make one of the best ways to set this clearance. Be certain that the clearance is the same at both ends and at the center of the cylinder.

Farmers who would like further information on how to do a better job of combining should ask their county agent for the extension leaflet entitled "Harvesting With Combines." This publication has been prepared by the Ohio State Agricultural Extension Service in cooperation with the extension services at Purdue and other midwestern universities.

4-H CLUB CHATTER

By Ruth Snellenberger

Dear 4-H Members and Friends,

The County Dress Revue is the next big event for 4-H home economics members. Even though it concerns clothing project members specifically, I hope others will be interested from the standpoint they might be in it next year.

Generally speaking the procedure for the judging and public showing are very much the same as last year.

Judging of costumes will be held Friday, July 16, at the Woman's Building on the Fairgrounds at Warsaw. The following schedule has been set up:

9:00 a.m. — Clothing II; 9:30 a.m. All other clothing members eligible for Junior Dress Revue (girls 13 years of age and younger); 11:00 a.m. Apron Revue (Clothing I girls); 1:15 p.m. — All clothing members eligible for Senior Dress Revue (girls 14 years of age and older with three or more years club experience); 3:00 p.m. Checking by judges of second garment member may wish to wear in public showing.

Pre-registration for Dress Revue judging is not required. Members are asked to bring a sample of their material (s) to have to attach to a description sheet which they will be asked to fill out for the commentator to use in describing their costume during the public showing.

Participation in county dress revue is optional. It is not a requirement for completing the clothing project. Even so it is hoped every member will participate in order to receive the help she will get from the judges' comment and to receive an award ribbon.

The clothing project record books are not required to be submitted on the day of the dress revue judging. It is anticipated that any girl who participates and receives a ribbon would complete her project requirements and exhibit at the County Fair.

During the judging on July 16, group placings will be made and blue, red, and white ribbons awarded. An honor group will be named (10-15 percent of those participating will later receive dress revue pins supplied through the State 4-H Club Office.) A champion and a reserve champion will be selected in the Junior Dress Revue and in the Senior Dress Revue but not announced publicly until the night of the public showing on Friday, July 30.

Before being eligible to appear in the public showing on July 30 a member is required to have her costume judged on July 16.

Judging of the complete costume means considering not only the garment made — it's becomingness to the wearer in style and color, the way it fits (workmanship is not considered except as it affects the fit and outward appearance), it's suitability for the occasion for which selected — but also the accessories selected to go with that garment.

Next week I'd like to discuss accessories and to give some additional information about the public showing of the Dress Revue.

'Bye now.

The Passing Scene by Irwin Caplan

"There's still nothing wrong with the old reflexes. Notice the neat way I avoided that joker in the car back there?"

FARM EFFICIENCY MEANS LOW-COST FOOD FOR ALL

Food is as inexpensive today as it has been in many years, in terms of how long the average American works to pay for it. Food consumption in the United States measured in terms of quantity and quality per person is higher than in any other country in the world.

These essential facts, plus many others, are graphically told in an educational booklet entitled "We're Lucky To Be Americans" just published by the Indiana Farm Bureau, Inc. The printed piece is made available in connection with the Farm Bureau's state wide program designed to promote better understanding between farm and non-farm people.

The distribution of the folder throughout the state is being done through County Information Councils, organized by, and composed of local farmers.

The folder also points out that Americans are eating better than ever before in history. Never before have the nation's farmers produced the high quantity and quality of food available today. The American people are eating 11 percent more today than they did 15 years ago.

The reason for the great increase in availability of high quality food, states the folder, is the many technological advances in production, processing, marketing and transportation. Research is the reason today's food is such a bargain — plus the willingness of American farmers to apply the results of that research in their farm-business operations.

In easy-to-understand picture form the folder describes the many unpredictable factors that affect the farm business. In spite of these, however, farm production has increased sharply during the past 25 years. This increased farm efficiency makes possible an abundance of food for everyone at the lowest possible cost.

Keep those roses looking attractive by dusting every week with one of the several commercially available rose dusts. Dusting will easily control bothersome leafhoppers, leaf rollers, mites and aphids, state Purdue University entomologists. Most of these dusts contain insecticides and fungicides which give both disease and insect control in one application. But remember to re-apply them after every rain.

Livestock require plenty of fresh water on pasture this time of year, and Purdue animal husbandry specialists remind farmers that all animals make more economical gains if their feed, shade and water are all located close together.

A new seed certification leaflet entitled "How to Certify Small Grains and Soybeans" is now available from county agents. Purdue University agronomists say any farmer who wants information on crop certification will find this leaflet of value.

DO YOU RECOGNIZE THIS SET OF FARM BUILDINGS?

WHOSE FARM IS THIS?

Can you identify the farm pictured above? This is another of the farm pictures to be printed in the Co-Op. News, and as no one knows whose farm it is, can you help identify it? There's no prize to the first to tell us whose farm it is, but it is interesting to know who will be first in reporting the information to this newspaper.

Call, phone or write us if you believe you know the farm.

Farm people have been very busy the past few weeks with hay harvesting, etc., and evidently have not had time to call at the Co-Op. News to get their free farm pictures. The farm pictured in our last issue was that of Carl VanDyke, of east of Burket, and he phoned to state that it was his place. However, he wasn't able to visit our office and give us any information about the farm. This is the third week in succession in which we have been unable to give you any particulars of the farms we have pictured.

NO COMMENT
by Walter Chamblin, Jr.

The General Tax Revision Bill, a major piece of the Eisenhower legislative program, is of importance to the general public as well as to business.

The bill should not be looked upon as a tax reduction bill. It is more than that. It is actually a tax reform bill, as its real purpose is to remove many of the barriers that have grown up in recent years that constitute brakes upon investment . . . the incentive to invest . . . and therefore discourages general economic growth.

The Senate Finance Committee, headed by Senator Millikin (R-Colo.), has given it careful study. Some observations in the Senate Committee Report are worthy of consideration:

1. The present tax burden upon the American people is too heavy . . . and any attempt to raise $65 billion in tax revenue is bound to throw the economic system out of balance.

2. The nation's economic health cannot be sound, or even reasonably sound, as long as the average taxpayer is required to turn over to the government approximately one-quarter of what he earns. Those with larger salaries suffer much more heavily.

The Committee has even indicated that it feels that too much emphasis is being placed upon the income tax as a source of revenue. It further indicates a belief that more thought should be given to increasing the revenue obtained from excise taxes.

If enacted, the bill will represent a major accomplishment for the Eisenhower Administration. The revisions in the tax code will return to the taxpayers close to $1.5 billion. Of this, more than $800 million will go directly to individuals and more than $600 million will go to corporations. (This really means that all of the $1.5 billion is for individuals as, after all, individuals are the ones who pay all taxes, including those classified as corporation taxes.)

The measure covers a wide range. For instance, mothers who hire baby sitters while they work will now be permitted to charge off the cost of the baby sitter as a business expense. Along with this comes more liberalized depreciation rules for business . . . partial relief from double taxation of dividends . . . permission to write off expenditures for research and development . . . and the elimination of many technical provisions blocking a free flow of the economy.

With the passage of the pending measure the total tax reduction by this Congress will approximate about $7-350,000,000 . . . by far the greatest tax relief ever given by any administration. But any further tax reduction would throw the budget too far out of balance.

LIGHTNING STRIKES ROY HOOVER HOME

Lightning struck the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hoover, of east of Mentone, about 12:30 a. m. today, causing a small fire and putting fright into Mrs. Hoover and the children. Mr. Hoover was at his Mentone store working at the time.

The lightning came in over the telephone line and set fire to the rug and baseboard as it traveled over the line. Mrs. Hoover put out the fire with water, but was unable to summon any additional help or notify anyone as the telephone was put completely out of order. All the electric fuses and some of the electrical wiring were also damaged by the bolt of lightning.

RAIN DISRUPTS WARSAW CENTENNIAL SCHEDULE

Heavy rains added difficulty to the proceedings at the North Webster Mermaid Festival last week, and this week heavy downpours have made it necessary for the Centennial officials at Warsaw to change the schedule of a few of the major events. The pageant has been delayed until 8:45 Thursday and Sunday nights, and the Hostess Queen contest (among entrants from this county only) will be at 7:30 on Thursday evening.

The Soap Box Derby, scheduled for Wednesday, will be at one o'clock Saturday afternoon. The Aqua Queen contest will be at 8:30 Friday evening at the fair grounds.

EXTENSIVE REMODELING AT CHURCH OF CHRIST

Workmen have been busy the past few weeks remodeling at the Mentone Church of Christ. The ceiling has been lowered, a baby's room made of the former cloak room, and the main entrance moved to the center of the church instead of the south side as formerly. Other changes have taken place in the interior.

Funeral services will be held at the Johns funeral home at 1:30 Friday afternoon with Rev. Dye, pastor of the Atwood EUB church officiating. Burial will be in the Oakwood cemetery at Warsaw. Friends will be received at the funeral home after 12:00 noon on Thursday.

JACKIE BLUE CANDIDATE IN "MISS INDIANA" CONTEST

Jackie Blue, who was chosen as the queen of the North Webster Mermaid Festival, has been entered as a candidate in the "Miss Indiana" contest being sponsored by the South Bend Jay-Cees. Her entry and expense-free trip to South Bend was by the North Webster Lions Club, sponsors of the Mermaid Festival.

Miss Blue will appear at the Palace Theatre in South Bend, Saturday, July 17th at eight o'clock, and will compete with eight other young ladies for the "Miss Indiana" title. The winner here will be entered in the national contest at Atlantic City. The contestants will appear before the judges in bathing suits and then in formals.

The requirements in this contest are far more demanding and include a three-minute talent showing, and professional talent is not restricted in the contest.

Jackie wishes to express her thanks and appreciation to her many friends for their loyal support, telegrams, cards and congratulations.

CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Thirty-nine friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sullivan gathered at their home, east of Mentone, Sunday to help them celebrate their silver wedding anniversary.

A silver tree centerpiece with twenty-five silver dollars hanging on it was presented to the honored couple.

A potluck dinner was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Herb Carlile and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dencill Walls and family, Mrs. Onada Crabbe, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Henderson and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Sullivan and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Masa Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Elgie Vandermark and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Johns, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Grant and family, and the couple's four children, Mrs. David Johns and Martha, Marilyn Sue and Larry Sullivan.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leininger were afternoon guests. Movies and snap-shots were taken in the afternoon.

WELCOME TO DR. WILSON

Elsewhere in this issue of the Co-op News, there is an announcement concerning the opening of an office by W. B. Wilson, M. D., for the general practice of medicine and surgery, in Mentone. It is not our wish that our town be stricken by a plague or epidemic in order that Dr. Wilson be quickly deluged by business, but we do hope that everyone in the community will welcome Dr. and Mrs. Wilson by a personal greeting.

In this day of medical specialization, there have been far too few young doctors choosing to settle in small towns. Dr. and Mrs. Wilson have decided to live and practice here because they liked the appearance of the Mentone community. In view of their reason for choosing Mentone, and because of the manner in which they quietly came into the community, we are particularly obligated to welcome them by our friendship and by our patronage.

So take the first opportunity to drop into their office and get acquainted with them.

Mrs. Hattie Thomas of Packerton spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. John Landis and Mrs. Velma Shaffer.

MENTONE BOYS TAKE SOAP BOX DERBY HONORS

Two Mentone boys battled it out in the final heat of the soap box derby held at Warsaw Saturday. Larry Hatfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hatfield, was the winner in Class "B" division and Dan Davis, son of Mrs. Ina Davis, was the winner in the Class "A" division. In the final heat for the championship, Davis came in five yards ahead of Hatfield and won the honor of going to the national races at Akron, Ohio, Aug. 15.

The Davis racer's construction was supervised by Hap Utter, whose son won the derby last year. Davis was awarded the Chevrolet derby plaque, and in addition to an all-expense-paid trip to Akron, will receive a fine wrist watch and other prizes.

Hatfield won an $85 bicycle for winning in his division and coming in second. Larry, naturally, is mighty proud of his bike and was riding it into Warsaw Monday when he met with a slight accident at the Devil's Backbone. He had turned off the pavement while a car was passing and as he attempted to come back on, the pavement ridge threw him down. Larry has his left wrist in a sling, as he nearly broke it, but didn't feel too badly about it—the bike wasn't even scratched.

All of Mentone will be cheering for Danny when he goes to Akron next month.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil F. McDaniel of Claypool, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Lou McDaniel to Larry Klein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Klein of Akron. Miss McDaniel, a graduate of Beaver Dam High School is now attending Warner Beauty College in Fort Wayne and her fiancé is a graduate of Beaver Dam High School and is attending Anderson College. No date has been set for the wedding.

CHARLES FELDMAN DIES SUDDENLY

Charles Feldman, 38, died suddenly at 3:45 p. m. Monday at the Elmer Newburg home near Argos where he was working. He complained of not feeling well, but did not think a doctor should be called, but when friends noticed his breathing becoming more difficult, medical aid was called, as well as the Argos rescuator. Dr. Ottis R. Bowen, Marshall county coroner, gave the cause of death as a coronary occlusion.

Born near Etna Green Nov. 16, 1915, the son of Ira and Seline (Ford) Feldman, "Chuck," as he was generally known, had lived in the Etna Green and Mentone communities all of his life. Married to Linnie Windbigler on Feb. 2, 1939, he did local trucking and carpentry work and was a member of the Mentone Baptist church.

Survivors include his wife; five sons, Charles, John, David, Dennis and James, all at home; his mother, Mrs. Ira Feldman; four brothers, George of Bourbon, Lawrence, Howard and Harold, of Etna Green; five sisters, Mrs. Pearl Mine and Mrs. Florence Hall, both of Bourbon, Mrs. Ida Quaney of Chicago, Mrs. Clara Wolfe of Warsaw, and Miss Inez Feldman of Etna Green.

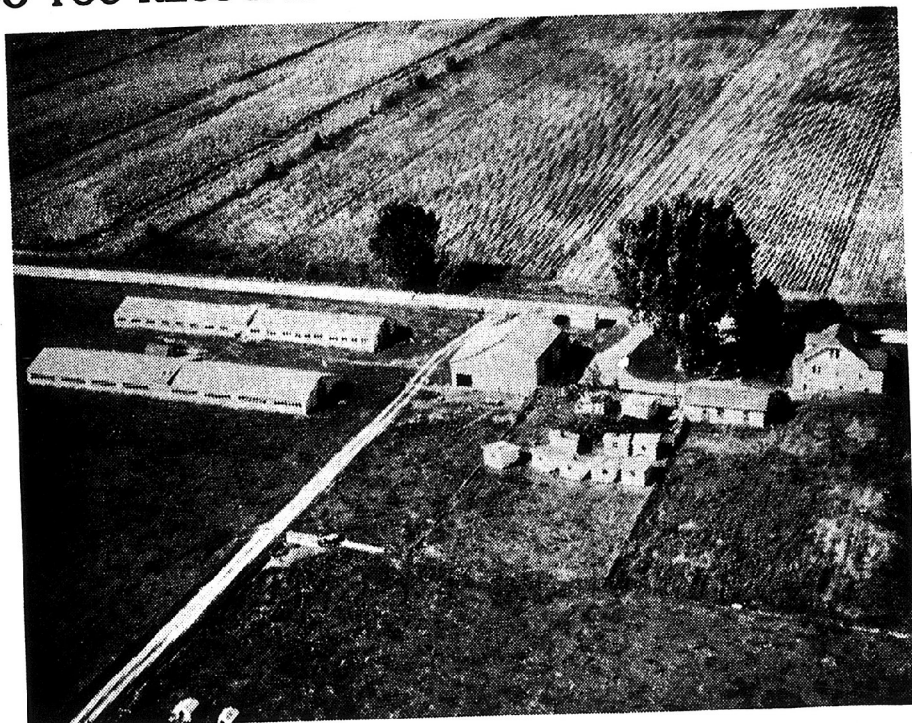

Funeral services will be held at two o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Baptist church with Rev. Milton Dowden, Plymouth, assisted by Rev. Chester Doden of Mentone officiating. Burial will be in the Summit Chapel cemetery, northwest of Mentone, with the Johns funeral home in charge.

DO YOU RECOGNIZE THIS SET OF FARM BUILDINGS?

WHOSE FARM IS THIS?

Can you identify the farm pictured above? This is another of the farm pictures to be printed in the Co-Op. News, and as no one knows whose farm it is, can you help identify it? There's no prize to the first to tell us whose farm it is, but it is interesting to know who will be first in reporting the information to this newspaper.

Call, phone or write us if you believe you know the farm.

The farm pictured in our last issue was that of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cotey, who reside two and one-half miles west and one-fourth mile north of Mentone.

The Cotey family moved from River Grove, Illinois nine years ago and purchased the 54 acre farm from Henry Meredith. In addition to raising some hogs, they do general farming.

The family includes Clarence and Veva Cotey, two daughters, June Cotey who works at the Warsaw Cleaners; Rose Baker, of Mentone, and one son, Leon, who works at the Arnolt Corporation at Warsaw.

The Palestine Busy Bees met recently at the home of Mrs. Herschel Shoemaker with Mrs. Paul Molebash acting as assistant hostess.

The lesson, "Into the Freezer and Out" was given by Mrs. Eldon Horn and Mrs. Richard Maple. A casserole consisting of beans, corn, soup and bacon was made and a cherry dessert also, which was enjoyed by all members along with delicious refreshments.

A lengthy discussion on our exhibit at the fair brought a motion for our August meeting to be set up another week so it will be July 27, at which time we will get the exhibit ready. The president also stressed the reason for wanting all of us to exhibit at the fair this year.

A report on the program planning of the county was given, and a description of the county float to be used in the Centennial parade.

Two members attended the Purdue Conference and gave a very interesting report on their activities that day.

Fifteen members and four children adjourned to meet with Mrs. Alan Valentine on July 27 to all help together for our exhibit.

New, bigger load space! New, lower loading height!

New Chevrolet Trucks...

do more work per day . . . more work per dollar!

You save on operating costs. The "Thriftmaster 235" engine, the "Loadmaster 235," and the "Jobmaster 261" (optional on 2-ton models at extra cost), deliver greater horsepower plus increased operating economy.

You save extra trips. That's because of extra load space. New pickup bodies are deeper . . . new stake and platform bodies are wider and longer.

You save time on deliveries. New truck Hydra-Matic transmission saves time and effort at every stop. Optional at extra cost on ½-, ¾- and 1-ton models.

You save with lower upkeep, too. There are heavier axle shafts in two-ton models, bigger clutches in light- and heavy-duty models, stronger frames in all models.

You save hours on the road. Thanks to new high-compression engine power, you can maintain faster schedules without driving at higher maximum road speeds.

And your savings start the day you buy. Chevrolet, you know, is America's lowest-priced line of trucks.

Come in and see all the wonderful new things you get in America's number one truck.

Now's the time to buy! Get our BIG DEAL! Save with a New Chevrolet!

RETURN FROM VACATION

Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Davison have returned from a three weeks' trip into the southwest. They were at both rims of the Grand Canyon, Carlsbad Caverns, Zion, Bryce and Mesa Verde National Parks and Colorado Springs. At El Paso they met Mrs. Williamson and daughter Sharon of Burket and they went on to Juarez, Mexico together.
At Black Canyon along the Gunnison River, muddy roads almost brought disaster to the Davisons. Doc's camera broke down on him, otherwise they would have gone on to Denver. Before their return home they spent a week visiting in Ohio. The total mileage on the trip was 5,600 miles.

Mrs. Myrtle Davis spent the weekend visiting her nephew and wife, Mr.

ver, Ind. and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Horn and daughters were Sunday guests.

THEY GAMBLE WITH DEATH

Going swimming? Then do it the safe way! Water sports are fun on hot summer days, but play without caution spells danger. Be alert when you go swimming or boating, warns Liberty Mutual Insurance Company in a summer safety message to all swimmers, experienced or beginner.

Always use the buddy system—never swim alone. Rest an hour or more after eating before going into the water. If you're a long distance swimmer, have someone go along with you in a boat in case you get tired. Children love boating and floating. See that they have sea-worthy boats and durable rubber foam water floats. Teach them to stay near shore when not accom-ppanied by an adult.

Every year thousands of persons lose their lives by drowning or are injured in water accidents. This summer you can help keep the death and accident rate low by swimming and playing safely.

THE STORY OF PHILLIPS 66

Flite-Fuel

FROM THE SKYWAYS TO THE HIGHWAYS

FOR MILITARY USE Phillips originated new super-power aviation fuel components—Di-isopropyl (pronounced di-iso-pro-pull) and HF Alkylate. These made possible more powerful, higher anti-knock fuels for combat aircraft.

RESTRICTED for use in high performance aviation gasoline, these powerful components have for years been on U.S. Government priority. But now restrictions have been released and Phillips is able to use them in automotive gasoline.

TODAY, Di-isopropyl is available to motorists exclusively in a new gasoline called Phillips 66 Flite-Fuel. It gives increased power, greater fuel economy, higher anti-knock quality, freedom from stalling... and it's clean-burning!

GET PHILLIPS 66 FLITE-FUEL at any station where you see the orange and black Phillips 66 Shield. Let your car's performance tell the story. You'll discover a new driving experience.

RETURN FROM CANADIAN TRIP

Dale Kelley and Floyd White have returned from a trip into Ontario, Canada where they took a canoe trip some sixty miles from their base camp. This includes some 15 lakes and 24 portages. They were accompanied on the canoe trip by Lionel Green, who is known to many Mentone people.

The "excuse" for the trip was to go to Northern Minnesota to pick up some fishing equipment Floyd's grandfather had left there previously. The grandfather had made extensive arrangements for the men's enjoyment, but after fishing for two days at Marcell, Wisconsin, with very little luck, they went on to Canada. Dale—who generally devises some scheme to make fishing seem terribly easy in Canada—bragged that he could take a pop bottle opener and catch fish on it. He drilled a hole in one end to attach a gang hook and then proceeded to demonstrate that it would catch fish. They said the walleyes didn't know the difference between this one and a "store-boughten" one.

WAR MOTHERS' NEWS

The Mothers of World War II, unit 106, are invited to the Akron unit to a golden wedding anniversary Thursday evening, July 15, at the Lions Den. All wishing to go contact the drivers.

The War Mothers met at the country home of Dora Whetstone Monday evening, July 12th. The meeting was opened in the usual manner and 13 members answered roll call. The secretary and treasurer's report was read and approved. All bills were allowed. Mrs. Hadley offered the mothers a wheel chair which they accepted. The meeting was closed by repeating the Mother's creed, retiring the colors and repeating the Lord's Prayer. The hostess assisted by Lavera Horn, served delicious refreshments of ice cream, cake and iced tea. The next meeting will be held Monday evening, Aug. 9th, at the home of Emma Cook.

Friday evening, July 9th, 15 members of the War Mothers of Mentone Unit 106 and five of the entertainers left Mentone at 5:15 p. m. in a chartered bus for Fort Wayne to entertain the boys at the Veterans' hospital. We arrived there at 6:50 and we were greeted by Mrs. Shady and Mrs. McNally. Then we went to the auditorium where we met quite a number of the boys. Mrs. McNally gave us quite a welcome, along with the boys. The first of the entertainment was Janet Tucker singing "The Lollipop Tree" and "Have You Talked to the Man Upstairs?" Janet Romine and Beverley Horn sang a duet, "Side by Side." Beverley had a few patches on her dress and Janet made a dashing young man. A solo by Jay Paulus, "The Dicky Bird Song, and a tap dance by Jay Paulus and Fritz McClure were given. They were dressed in pretty costumes, both alike. Shirley Walton sang, "That's What a Rainy Day is For." A reading, "My Corduroy Britches," was given by Dora Whetstone and group singing was directed by Mirabel Rieboldt. Mrs. Wing from North Manchester, was at the piano. The veterans requested several numbers and all were greatly enjoyed. Jay Paulus and Fritz McClure gave another song and tap dance, "Pretty Baby." Bertha Meredith gave a reading of sketches from an old reader. Janet Tucker sang "Peggy O'Neil while dressed in a beautiful costume and a special light. We then gave the boys cigarettes and candy bars after which we were invited up to the recreation room where one of the men, Gary Cooper, a talented musician, entertained us with several numbers on the piano, and singing. We then started back for Mentone, stopping in Warsaw for a little snack and arriving home around eleven.

Each one said they had an enjoyable evening. Those who didn't go really missed something.

Those who went were Blanche Paulus, Maude Romine, Lavera Horn, Ethel Wagner, Dora Whetstone, Belle Morrison, Sadie Ellsworth, Iris Fitzgerald, Dora Norris, Mildred Fawley, Cecell Tucker, Myrtle Davis, Emma Cook, Bertha Meredith, and Ella Stanford.

HEARS FROM WILDLIFE SERVICE

Jim Whetstone has received a letter from the U. S. Department of Interior, Fish and Wildlife Service, regarding a leg band which he found on a starling on June 9. The information states that the bird was banded Dec. 27, 1953, by a Mrs. Ben. Bo Coffey, at Memphis, Tenn.

According to the letter, bird banding in North America is under the general direction of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, with the cooperation of the Canadian Wildlife Service and participation by state and provincial game departments and many licensed and qualified volunteers. Reports of banding and recovery are the means by which information is obtained on migration routes, distribution to wintering and breeding grounds mortality, and other subjects important in regulation and management.

Also of interest are such extreme age records as that of the Caspian Tern, recovered 26 years after banding, a Ring-billed Gull and Osprey taken after 21 years, and a Mallard and a Pintail with known ages of more than 20 years. Among the longest intervals between banding and recovery for the smaller land birds are 14 years for Purple Martin and Blue Jay and 13 years for Chimney Swift.

Wild birds banded in North America have been recovered as far away as Siberia, Africa, France, and the mid-Pacific.

4-H CLUB CHATTER

By Ruth Snellenberger

Dear 4-H Members and Friends,

Since some of you clothing project members may still be making up your minds to participate in the Dress Revue, I would like to give some more information about it. At the same time, I hope this information will be both interesting and helpful to friends and to prospective participants.

Last Week, Friday, July 16, was mentioned as the day for County Dress Revue Judging. This is not open to the public but mothers are invited and encouraged to come hear the helpful comments of the judges. You know, that's the big question of the day: "What will the judges say?"

Whatever they may say (both are trained home economists), it should be realized that no two judges will judge exactly alike but will probably agree on accepted practices. The comments made to the girls and their mothers are to be concerning principles of good taste in selection of becoming dress, and so forth. Mothers are particularly asked to come hear the judges—frequently mother learns right along with her daughter.

With more than 200 enrolled in the clothing project, it would be wonderful to have that many costumes judged and then to have them appear in the public showing. That there are ninety-six members enrolled in division one of clothing is interesting (an increase of 25 over last year). And wouldn't it be interesting if there were seventy-five or more in the Apron Revue!

By the way, Clothing I girls, every girl who participated in the Apron Revue judging on July 16 will receive a ribbon this year. There will be Honor Group ribbons (more than ten will be named in this group if enough participate) and participation ribbons for the others.

The public showing of the County Dress Revue will be held Friday night, July 30, at the Warsaw high school auditorium. Again this year Carter's Department Store is sponsoring the showing and have arranged with Miss Patricia Hunt, director of the Northern Indiana Conservatory of South Bend, to stage the production. For several years she has been assisting with the St. Joseph County 4-H Dress Revue which is held in conjunction with their 4-H fair. The attendance reported there each year is certainly a fine recommendation. So it is hoped this year that the Warsaw High School Auditorium will be filled to overflowing the night of July 30.

Now to give some pointers to participants in the Dress Revue—both for the judging and the public showing. I have asked Miss Reba Pyle, our home demonstration agent, for some notes from her little black book that she took from comments made by Miss Hunt during instruction given to 4-H members on two Saturdays in June. And I quote:

"Everyone is a champion if he has the right attitude. Begin by weeding one's thinking so that one has pleasant thoughts, thus a pleasant expression even if one is frightened . . . Do think positively — avoid saying 'I can't do it."

"Good grooming is important — that means grooming from the skin out." "Emphasis should be placed on good posture . . . Stretch upward at the waistline so the waist doesn't sink into the hips. This pulls abdomen in and brings hips in. Avoid throwing shoulders back (as is oftentimes mistakenly thought to be a good practice) as this actually throws body out of normal shape."

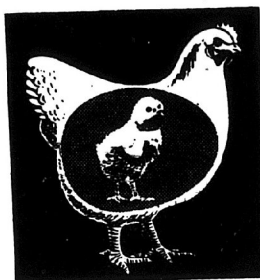

"For accessories, hats and gloves should be worn with better dresses and suits. Anklets are okay for little girls before the teens; for girls in teens wear hose or leg make-up."

Thanks to Miss Pyle for these notes. I'd like to add my comment that the practices suggested and taught for Dress Revue are not just for this event but for everyday living — appearances on the street, public gatherings, at home, and at all times.

Will I see you at the County Dress Revue public showing on July 30?

BRIDAL SHOWER

(This item was in our hands last week, but was misplaced.—Ed.)

Monday evening, June 28th, friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Grant in honor of Mrs. Merlyn Holt.

Several contests were held and then the bride was seated in a chair under a colorful umbrella decorated with a rose corsage and hanging from the rim, roses and small packages, which when opened, led the bride to different locations in the house, which yielded her an abundant supply of gifts.

Those present were Mesdames Mary Kehoe, Neva Bruner, Dr. Anderson, Shaffer, Winifred Smalley, Bud Wise, Helen Black, Myrtle Leininger, Dorie Norris, Ada Meredith, Bertha Meredith, Charles Horn, Dorothy Nelson, Alton Bruner, Vera Kelley, Carol McSherry, Curt Nellans, Herb Carlile, Fred Swick, Jeanette Horn, Mina Nelson, Myrtle White, Howard Horn, Grace Sullivan, Clarence Horn, Walbe, Herschel Nellans, Jeanice Horn, Mary Barkman, and the hostess, Mrs. Grant. Also Miss Mary Jo Vandermark, Barbara Carlile, Linda Beeson, Cloanne

Nelson, Annabell Horn and several children.

Those sending gifts and unable to attend were: Leona Eber, Eleanor Rush, Doris Deamer, Anna Bowman and Velma Vandermark.

The hostess, with the assistance of Mary Kehoe, served refreshments from the dining room table, laden with a well-filled punch bowl and assorted cookies. Pink tapers draped the table with a floral center piece, which made it very beautiful as well as impressive.

Everyone enjoyed the social hour and wish to thank the Grants for making it such a pleasant one.

"MERIT SYSTEM" OF HOG MARKETING TO START HERE

As a part of Producers Marketing Association's program of marketing hogs on a live graded basis, the Mentone Producers' market will soon be buying hogs on this merit system, according to W. R. "Dick" Cummins, general manager of the organization. "We have set Tuesday, July 27, as our first live hog grading day," Mr. Cummins said. "Hogs will be graded on only one day per week (on Tuesdays until 1:00 P.M.) at the start of this program," he continued.

Richard Maple, manager of the Mentone Producers' market, also announced today that there is to be a demonstration meeting held at the old gymnasium in Mentone, Thursday night, July 22, at 8:00 P.M. (Daylight Savings Time), for the purpose of presenting a live grading demonstration along with an explanation of the Producers' new hog marketing system.

All farmers in the county are urged to attend to get first-hand information on this new development in hog marketing.

E. C. Miller, Extension Swine Specialist and M. Paul Mitchell, Extension Marketing Specialist of Purdue University, will present the live grading demonstration and discuss the economic significance of this development. This meeting is being sponsored by the Mentone Producers Hog Improvement Committee in cooperation with the County Agricultural Agents of Kosciusko, Fulton and Marshall counties.

Six other Producers' markets in the state, Centerville, Logansport, Lafayette, Amboy, Montpelier and Columbus have been grading hogs on a one or two days per week basis. Over 50,000 hogs have been presented for grading at these six markets during the short time the program has been in operation.

MENTONE SHARES IN WINDSTORM DAMAGE

Mentone did not escape in the wind and rain storm that hit late Tuesday afternoon. After heat of nearly 100 degrees during the day, temperatures fell rapidly about six o'clock and wind and rain enveloped the area. Within a matter of minutes three trees were down, power and telephone lines severed and some TV aerials out of commission. One tree blew over at the Ina Davis home, and a big limb came across Highway 19 at the Verl Halterman residence. It fell across a power line to the Adams home across the street, and until the wires burned through, the top of the tree looked like a giant flare as flames arced from the power pole. One large twin limb fell across the highway at the Dr. McFadden residence and trapped two 1954 automobiles traveling in opposite directions. The Glen Moore car from Fort Wayne was traveling south while the Dr. Whallen car of Akron was going north. One branch of the giant limb came down on the top of the Whallen auto just above the driver's seat while the other portion hit the windshield and hood of the Moore car. No one was seriously hurt, but the four in the Whallen car were bruised and Mr. Moore had a cut over his eye.

The fire department was called to the Earl Davis home west of town when lightning hit a tree, followed a clothes line to a basement room setting it afire. No serious damage resulted.

No serious line damage was reported to either power or telephone lines within the city limits.

WAGNER REUNION HELD

The E. E. Wagner family reunion was held July 18 at Cook's Ranch, near Goshen, with forty-one in attendance. There were three visitors. The families came from New Haven, Young America, Michigan City, Elkhart, Burket and Mentone. After a bountiful dinner on roast turkey, ice cream and cake were served. Bonnie June Grubbs sang a few songs that were enjoyed by all. The afternoon was spent playing the "money" games and watching TV. The next reunion will be held at the same place July 17, 1955. Charles Warren was elected president and Ruth Warren Secretary and Treasurer. E. E. Wagner was the oldest and John Ervin Wagner the youngest in attendance.

RUDY E. STUCKEY

Funeral services were held at the Robbins funeral home in Bourbon last Thursday, for Rudy E. Stuckey who died in the Parkview hospital, Plymouth. He had suffered a stroke the week before.

Surviving is a sister, Mrs. Ida Fields, of near Tippecanoe.

Rev. Paul Trombauer, pastor of the Methodist Church, Bourbon officiated. Burial was in the Tippecanoe cemetery.

BLOOD DONORS NEEDED

The Bloodmobile Unit from Fort Wayne will be in Warsaw, Friday, at the Masonic Temple. It will be the first time in Warsaw, since January. As of Tuesday, there were only 88 donors listed for the quota of 125 pints.

Mrs. Orrin Smith, Blood Recruitment Chairman, said the list was falling below average, due to farmers working in the fields, vacations and hot weather. Whole blood is needed so urgently, for traffic accidents, etc., that it is hoped, those who can, will make the effort, and be at the Temple between the hours of 12:30 and 3:30 p.m., with the usual precautions, no fats such as cream, butter, fried foods or eggs, 4 hours before donating blood.

Light refreshments are desirable, however, during the 4 hour period, such as fruit, fruit juices, dry toast, black coffee, or tea.

TO ATTEND RESERVE CAMP

Capt. Ned Miller and Pvt. E-2 Ronnie Brown leave Sunday morning for an army reserve camp of the 770th Field Artillery, A Battery, at Camp McCoy, Wisconsin. This will be Ronnie's first camp while it will be the fourth for Mr. Miller. They will return Aug. 8th.

HORSE SHOW SUNDAY

The Tippecanoe Saddle Club will hold a rodeo and horse show Sunday, July 25th at the Lester Anglin farm at Tippecanoe. The program starts at one o'clock and ten events are listed. Where entry fees are required, the winners will share in the fee.

Mrs. Adam Bowen is improving after being quite ill at her home here.

RULE-HANEY

Miss Carol June Rule, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rule, Sr., of Route 2, and Glenn D. Haney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Haney, of Claypool, were united in marriage recently at the home of the bride's parents.

Rev. Keith Burch, pastor of the Packerton Evangelical United Brethren church, performed the double-ring ceremony before a background of palms, candelabra and vases of pink and white gladioli.

Mrs. Thomas Witham, aunt of the groom, pianist, and Miss Sally Williams, vocalist, both of Atwood, presented the prelude of nuptial music. Miss Williams sang "Through the Years," "With This Ring" and "The Lord's Prayer" at the close of the ceremony. Mrs. Witham played "The Desert Song" as Richard Rule, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a light blue palm beach suit with white accessories and carried a corsage of American Beauty roses on her white Bible.

Rosemary Haney, sister of the groom, was the maid of honor, and Dale Gadgion, of South Whitley, was best man. The guests were seated by Richard Rule.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rule chose a light beige linen dress with white accessories and Mrs. Haney, mother of the groom, wore a dark blue suit with navy blue accessories. Both wore corsages of red carnations.

Miss Barbara King and Miss Colleen Kindig, of Mentone, and Miss Katherine Rule, cousin of the bride, assisted at the reception held at the trailer home of the newlyweds following the ceremony.

For traveling the new Mrs. Haney changed to a pink linen dress with white accessories and wore her corsage of roses. The newlyweds are residing in their trailer home near the home of the bride's parents.

The bride, a graduate of the Mentone high school, is employed at the United Telephone company in Warsaw, and the groom, a graduate of the Sidney high school, is employed at the Kimble Glass company.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Jones are to leave Saturday for Rochester, Minnesota where Mr. Jones expects to undergo surgery.

BROOK BLACK WINS

Brook Black, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Black of Claypool, was named one of six winners out of a field of 63 contestants in a talent show at Lowell, Mich., Saturday.

Black is a tap-dancing roller skater who presents his act on a staircase. He will appear on the Lowell Showboat, an old-time river boat on the Grand River at Lowell, July 29 as a result of being chosen one of the winners.

Black recently finished a week's engagement at the grand ball room of the Conrad Hilton hotel in Chicago. He received the engagement by virtue of being named one of the 14 outstanding acts in the United States for 1953.

The 3 'J's, an Hawaiian vocal and instrumental trio from Camden, was also named one of the six winning acts in the Lowell contest.

4-H CLUB CHATTER

By Ruth Snellenberger

Dear 4-H Members and Friends,

Most of the chatter among 4-H members now I imagine is about finishing their projects and getting ready for the County Fair, August 9 to 14. So it's about exhibits that I'll comment today.

First, I'd like to call attention to 4-H home economics members, parents, and leaders, to the sources of information about the exhibits. The project record book is the first source. To clarify and standardize projects and exhibits a "Kosciusko County 4-H Home Economics Project Standards and Clarifications" was prepared by leaders and mimeographed for distribution, one copy per family. (If you failed to receive one there are a few more available in the county extension office.) Then the third source is the County Fair catalog (or mimeographed sheets with the same information which were distributed four weeks ago) which explains specific pointers about displaying the exhibit.

Too bad all the material isn't in one place, you say? I agree. What can be done about it for another year?

Now to go on about exhibits. In spite of all these sources of material, there are still questions arising when Miss Pyle, our home agent, and I make our visits to clubs to give exhibit helps. For the preparation of the individual meat loaf required (see Fair catalog) for division IV in Food Preparation, as a result of a discussion among leaders and mothers it was decided a girl might be wise to mix ingredients for a family size meat loaf. However, instead of making one large loaf, make individual meat loaves, the number depending on the number the full recipe should serve. For example, if a recipe is designated for serving eight, make eight individual loaves. Place them far enough apart so they do not touch one another. When done, select the one that looks the best, place on a small plate for exhibiting.

Regarding the size of this meat loaf, it is difficult to say, but perhaps three-fourth to one cup of mixture might be used. Perhaps some of each amount could be made. What is the reason for this variance? The amount of fat in meats varies. The amount of shrinkage varies, too. The amount of filling added varies.

For clothing project members, do be sure all garments which are made of smooth materials should be well-pressed. Actually, a good seamstress presses the garment as she progresses with the construction. Even so there always needs to be the finishing touch. In all probability, head-scarves, tray cloths, drawstring bags, aprons, and skirts can be washed and ironed while damp to get a neat finish before exhibiting. Skirts and aprons might need a little starch, too.

Baking, division I members, are reminded that their plain butter cakes are to be baked in square loaf pans (not layer pans). Reasons for this are being pointed out at the Exhibit Helps meeting for the clubs. This idea is one to help you have a better product.

Food preparation members are cautioned to be sure to have their name in ink on adhesive tape secured to the bottom of the dish in which their product is exhibited. And do discuss with your mothers regarding what dish to use — not her good china or glassware, please! Avoid thin glassware that might break easily, and long stemmed sherbert dishes, too.

Home improvement, division I members, please notice that a large "before" and "after" drawing is required along with the story, "Report of What I Did" and your exhibit.

All girls enrolled in the Electric project will have their exhibits judged by one of the judges procured for judging the home economics projects.

Any other questions?

Next week I'd like to discuss "What will the judge say?"

DO YOU RECOGNIZE THIS SET OF FARM BUILDINGS?

WHOSE FARM IS THIS?

Can you identify the farm pictured above? This is another of the farm pictures to be printed in the Co-Op. News, and as no one knows whose farm it is, can you help identify it? There's no prize to the first to tell us whose farm it is, but it is interesting to know who will be first in reporting the information to this newspaper.

Call, phone or write us if you believe you know the farm.

The farm pictured in our June 23rd issue was that of Mr. and Mrs. Noble Babcock, who live four miles south and one and three-fourths miles west of Mentone. They purchased the 160-acre farm from Mrs. Melissa Wise ten years ago.

In addition to general farming, Noble and his wife, Ada, have about 1,000 laying hens, raise about 100 hogs a year and keep some fifteen head of cattle.

The daughter, Sherry Lynn, aged 10 years, attends the Beaver Dam school.

The farm pictured in our June 30th issue was that owned by Clem VanDyke, of Wabash. The 120 acre farm has been in the VanDyke name for many years, and the son, Harold, who with his wife Olive, farms it now, was born there. The farm is located three miles east of Burket.

The farm operations include dairying and poultry in addition to general farming.

The VanDykes have one son, David, who is four years of age.

The farm pictured in our July 14th issue has not been identified by the owner, but Mrs. Dale Smith believes it was the Carroll Eiler farm, near Atwood.

VETERAN TRAINING TO START AT ATWOOD

An Institutional On-The-Farm training class is being organized at Atwood to start in the near future. Any veteran who is engaged in or just starting in farming is eligible. It is possible for veterans with two dependents to draw as high as $130 per month. All veterans discharged after June 27, 1950 are urged to contact A. G. Breaks, county service officer, in the courthouse at Warsaw or Robert Plummer at Atwood.

MERRY 4-H ERS MEET

A regular meeting of the Mentone Merry 4-H Ers which was held in the school cafeteria, July 12, was called to order by the president, Marilyn Horn. Pledges to the American and 4-H flags were led by Wilburta Latimer. Old and new business was called for and discussed. A demonstration by Wilburta Latimer was on doughnuts. Refreshments were served by Mary and Esther Quier.

TESTS INDICATE BAND SEEDING BEST FOR GRASSES

Band seeding is the common-sense way to get legumes and grass seedlings off to a stronger start.

It's a simple matter to convert your grain drill to a band seeder that will put legume and grass seeds where they belong: in a band on the soil surface 1 to 2 inches directly above a band of starter fertilizer.

You can reduce the amount of seed by one fifth, Capper's Farmer points out. The strong start helps eliminate failures from summer drouth or winter-killing.

Tiny seedlings get a fast start because they are so close to the fertilizer. Legumes especially need the help of starter fertilizer for quick root and top growth.

Dr. M. B. Tesar, Michigan State College, used radioactive phosphorus to prove band-seeded alfalfa seedlings got benefits 2 weeks after seeding.

In the Michigan tests, the band-seeded alfalfa got all its phosphorus from the fertilizer during the first month. Plants 3 inches away from the fertilizer band got practically no benefit in the first month.

Legumes and grasses over the fertilizer band soon furnish tough competition for between-the-row weeds. Stands have less weeds, and hay is of higher quality.

Band seeding is no cure-all. Lime, fertilizer, inoculation, seed treatment, adapted seed, weed control, proper seedbed preparation are important.

But band seeding is worth a trial. You can buy a conversion kit for your drill or use materials you have.

Lengths of rubber hose are attached to the conduit outlet at the legume seedbox and extend out behind the disks at least 12 inches. Seed is dropped on top of the soil over a band of

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church held their July meeting in the church dining rooms the evening of July 15. Mrs. F. B. Davison gave the devotions using two articles, The Sheep of His Hand and Jesus' Love For Rural Folk.

Mrs. Dan Urschel had charge of the program. The topic was Women and the Rural Community. Several ladies took part in the program. At the close of the meeting, Dr. and Mrs. Davison showed the pictures of their three weeks trip to Grand Canyon, Carlsbad Caverns and several National Parks in the southwest.

Everyone enjoyed them. Ice cream and cookies were served by the committee with Neva Carper as chairman.

LEAFLETS THREE . . .

Motorists leaving on vacations in wooded areas are warned by the Chicago Motor club to avoid poison ivy. Poison ivy, a shiny, green-leaved plant, looks like any other vine, but can be identified by leaves that branch off in threes. Its color is green in summer and red in fall. The leaves on poison ivy are sometimes a foot long, but normally are from two to six inches long. In May and June it has clusters of small greenish flowers; in late summer and fall it bears little clusters of white or pale green berries.

This troublesome plant grows most anywhere, as vines on trees, in thickets or as ground cover. It may even be found in gardens. Also, poison ivy can be found in just about every state in the country. The plant is dangerous all year around.

Poison ivy affects most people in some manner. A few people are immune. Children especially are susceptible to ivy poisoning. Motorists traveling with children should remember that prevention is the best medicine for poison ivy. They should watch for signs of ivy and caution their children to stay away. A good rhyme for summer travelers to learn is: "Leaflets three let it be!"

TOMORROW'S JOBS GREAT CHANGES GREAT OPPORTUNITIES

No one really knows, of course, how life will be in 1964. But from the trends of today, it looks something like this:

There will be many more people running machines, and fewer laborers and skilled craftsmen. An upper level of scientists, engineers and business school trained executives will run business and industry.

To get ahead in any trade or profession you will have to know more than you have to know today.

Industries that use the discoveries of science will be booming. They will include chemicals, electronics, labor-saving devices.

Big government, big business, big unions and the machines will tend to level people into a common denominator. It will be harder for a man to be independent, individualistic, be his own boss.

Chances are you will be more comfortable, better amused, more secure. Whether you will be happier and lead a more fulfilling life will depend on how well you can fit yourself into the complex economy that lies ahead.

4-H CLUB CHATTER

By Ruth Snellenberger

Dear 4-H Members and Friends,

"What will the judge say?" was the topic I said I'd chat about this week. Actually, 4-H members won't have an opportunity to hear a judge "say" anything; but at County Fair time, each member exhibiting will see what the judge "does" in placing her exhibit. It is about the placings made by judges that I wish to discuss in hopes that there might be a better understanding about those placings made by judges.

First, however, I'd like every 4-H home economics member and her parents to know that she is required to exhibit at the County Fair AND to bring her completed record book in order to complete her project. The Fair catalogue gives the necessary information. Read it carefully. Time for various project exhibits have been arranged considering the 4-H girls' time, the time workers are available to take care of exhibits, and other activities on the fairgrounds.

Now about judging. Blue, red, and white group placings in all project exhibits—that is 4-H home economics projects about which I will be referring—will be made this year. The judges are not instructed to make any certain number in each group.

From the blue ribbon groups in specific projects where there is an opportunity for a State Fair entry, the judges will be asked to single out one as a "representative of the best" in Kosciusko County. Believe me, that is a difficult job! For example, there are 96 girls enrolled in first division clothing. Suppose 60 of them made head scarfs of which 15 or 20 were placed in the blue ribbon group. It's not easy to select one!

To go on about judging, I'd like to say that both judges secured this year are trained home economists. No other two judges would judge exactly the same as they will do, yet the basic principles on which they judge will be the same. They probably won't judge exactly as Miss Pyle or I do. Yet, they have been hired in good faith and we should abide by their decisions. Just like a referee in a ballgame. Didn't I say one time that 4-H work was kind of a game?

In regard to differences in judging, one mother told me her daughter received a blue ribbon on her skirt, made in division II, at the dress revue (judging was on outward appearance, color and style becoming to her, accessories selected, etc.). At their local club exhibit she had received a red ribbon when construction was considered. At the County Fair judging when her skirt was displayed with all the other division II skirts, this girl received a white ribbon construction. Can you visualize how this could happen?

Every girl certainly would like to have a blue ribbon all will agree I'm sure. It's a known fact that everyone cannot place in that group. So the girl that does not, needs to realize that she has a chance to improve, that in all probability she has learned as much or more than the one who placed higher. The girl who places in the white ribbon group will either be discouraged and quit or be challenged to work much harder and, or more carefully next year.

One comment I'd like to make about placings as information to all—the baked products, counts less than one-third when judging. Thus the judge not only looks at the exterior, but cuts the product to look at the interior and to taste it. Actually, the flavor counts more than any one factor! And you can't see flavor!

Remember 4-H'ers, you are expected to exhibit and bring your record book to the County Fair. Read pages 31 thru 34 in the Fair catalogue.

'Bye now,

CONFUSION DOUBLES UP

It may not be true, but after some 31 years in newspaper work, I have almost convinced myself that if I ever make an error, then the next one will involve the same person.

An advertisement of our new doctor, Wymond B. Wilson, ended up with the office hours slightly confused. One line found its way above another so that nothing appears definite. We planned to revise it for our last issue, but failed. (If it isn't correct in this issue, I'm going to need either a doctor or a road map.)

1954 NATIONAL RIFLE
AND PISTOL MATCHES

Washington, D. C.—Almost 3,000 of the nation's finest military and civilian marksmen are now in training for one of sportsdom's most gruelling tests—the 1954 renewal of the National Rifle and Pistol Matches which will be fired at Camp Perry, Ohio, from August 15 to September 5. This will be the second year in a row that the high-power and smallbore rifle and pistol matches will be fired on the world famous Buckeye State ranges and the 34th time they have been returned there since 1907.

The firing for the coveted national shooting titles will stretch over a three week period with the high-power rifle shooters competing from August 16 to August 24 and the smallbore rifle and pistol marksmen shooting from August 31 to September 5. In all almost 100 individual matches will be fired with all American individual and team titles at stake.

The high-power rifle matches will be fired in two divisions with the National Rifle Association Match Rifle and Service Rifle crowns on the line. Both championships will be defended by U. S. Marines. Staff Sergeant Don L. Smith, 1953 Match Rifle winner, and Master Sergeant Maxim R. Beebe, 1953 Service Rifle title-holder, will match their skill against 1,000 civilian and military challengers who will gather from the four corners of the earth. Mrs. Alice Bull, of Seattle, Washington, will defend her women's title. Other defending champions in the high-power matches will be Col. John Barkley, Louisiana (National Guard), Thomas R. Barnes, Denver, Colorado, (Civilian), and J. M. Gabel, Oakland, California (Collegiate).

Harry Reeves, of Detroit, Michigan, only five time winner of the U. S. Pistol Championship, will be gunning for his sixth win over the challenges of 600 of the country's finest hand-gunners. The Motor City's police lieutenant's chief competition will come from the U. S. Army's Master Sergeant Huelet Benner, American Champion in 1947, 1949 and 1951. Reeves' previous winning years were in 1940, 1941, 1946, 1948, and last year. Since 1940 (no matches were held from 1942 to 1945) only one other man has been able to top the field. He was William T. Toney, Jr., of El Paso, Texas, surprise 1952 winner in Jacksonville, Florida.

Other defending pistol champions will be Mrs. Margaret Oulbertson, Sierra Madre, California (Women's), James E. Clark, Shreveport, La., (Civilian), George Roberts, Honolulu, Hawaii (National Guard), and Whitman Cross, Lafayette Hill, Pa. (Collegiate).

In the smallbore rifle matches 1,000 sharpshooters will take a crack at the crown now held by John J. Crowley, of Clintonville, Conn. Crowley will be

INSTALL MORE EASY REACH CABINET SHELVES

It is possible for homeowners to get additional space for kitchen items by utilizing efficiently all the space that is in their cabinets, says Miss Ruth Hutcheson, Purdue University extension home management specialist.

The bottom shelf of the wall cabinet and the top shelf of the base cabinet are the two places in the kitchen which are the easiest to reach. For convenience, the dishes and utensils used most often should be placed on these "easy reach" shelves. Actually only about half of this space is generally used. Full use of this space would eliminate stacking unlike items, such as small plates on top of large plates or reaching behind one row of glasses for another size of glasses. Such a situation can be corrected by placing half shelves above those now in use.

Half shelves may be made of three-eighth inch plywood supported by a one inch thick board screwed to the plywood under each end of the shelf. These shelves should be only four or six inches deep. They provide for saucers, cups, small bowls or other pieces often used.

Plates and other large items may be placed on the full depth shelves underneath. This saves time and energy in unstacking those smaller pieces to get the larger ones and reduces the scratching of china and danger of breaking stacked pieces.

Space may be made available for other small pieces by attaching inexpensive racks to the inside of the doors. A vertical file, set or built into a high shelf allows easy storage of items which can be stored on edge—such as small platters, pie plates and shallow baking dishes. A larger vertical file may be located on a lower shelf of the cabinet and provide "easy reach" storage for trays, cookie sheets, muffin pans and the like.

Analyze your cabinet space and the items you need to store, suggests Miss Hutcheson, and arrange them as efficiently as possible.

NOW is the time to put your car, tractor and truck in tip-top shape. It will save you from serious trouble later on. Mechanical failure always happens when you haven't time to fix it — so have them checked over now when you have the time.

"MULESKINNING" A TRACTOR ALMOST ENDS IN DISASTER

Young Jim Romine found out tractors are rather treacherous animals today as he pulled up in front of the Standard station to hook onto a loaded wagon. He turned too abruptly and the tractor just naturally laid over on its side. Jim escaped with only a few bruises on his elbow, and the tractor seemingly didn't get damaged much.

TRACTOR PULLING TO HIGHLIGHT FAIR

State-wide tractor pulling contests, Midwestern Hayride will highlight the a home talent show, and the WLW Fulton County 4-H Fair here Aug. 3 through 7.

Cash and merchandise prizes totaling $700 will be given to winners and placers in the heavyweight, lightweight, and ladies classes of the tractor pull August 6 to 7.

The Fulton County Home Demonstration Association Home Talent program Aug. 3 will feature 14 entertaining acts from county organizations. The acts will include singing, playlets, and musical instruments performances.

The WLW Midwestern Hayride troupe, which is on WLW radio and NBC-TV, will appear Aug. 5. Starring on the Hayride will be the Pine Mountain Boys, Bonnie Lou, Jimmie Haynie, Buddy and Marion Durham, and Buddy Ross.

Also on the fair's program will be an admission-free 4-H night Aug. 4 and a 4-H beef and barrow sale Aug. 5. There will be more than 2,000 exhibits, eight big midway rides, daily livestock judging, entertainment each night, and a free attraction each afternoon and evening.

The tractor pulling contest is open to Indiana owned tractors. All tractors will pull in the open class and Fulton County winners will be determined from the open class pull. Awards will be made in the open class and Fulton County class for each weight division.

Friday, Aug. 6, the lightweight tractors, under 5,000 pounds, will pull in both classes beginning at 7 p.m. in the amphitheater. Saturday the heavy-weight tractors, 5,000 pounds and over, will pull in both classes at the same time and place. There will also be an all-weight tractor-pull event for lady drivers Saturday.

A new and streamlined method of pulling will be used for the first time at the fair. Additional information may be obtained from Marion Gohn or Kline Blacktor, Jr., both of Rochester, or Elmer Douglass, Grass Creek, who are in charge of the contest.

THE STORY OF PHILLIPS 66

Flite-Fuel

FROM THE SKYWAYS TO THE HIGHWAYS

FOR MILITARY USE Phillips originated new super-power aviation fuel components—DI-Isopropyl (pronounced di-iso-pro-pull) and HF Alkylate. These made possible more powerful, higher anti-knock fuels for combat aircraft.

RESTRICTED for use in high performance aviation gasoline, these powerful components have for years been on U.S. Government priority. But now restrictions have been released and Phillips is able to use them in automotive gasoline.

TODAY, DI-Isopropyl is available to motorists exclusively in a new gasoline called Phillips 66 Flite-Fuel. It gives increased power, greater fuel economy, higher anti-knock quality, freedom from stalling... and it's clean-burning!

GET PHILLIPS 66 FLITE-FUEL at any station where you see the orange and black Phillips 66 Shield. Let your car's performance tell the story. You'll discover a new driving experience.

DO YOU RECOGNIZE THIS SET OF FARM BUILDINGS?

WHOSE FARM IS THIS?

Can you identify the farm pictured above? This is another of the farm pictures to be printed in the Co-Op. News, and as no one knows whose farm it is, can you help identify it? There's no prize to the first to tell us whose farm it is, but it is interesting to know who will be first in reporting the information to this newspaper.

Call, phone or write us if you believe you know the farm.

We have received no reports of anyone identifying the farm pictured in our last issue, July 21st. Did you recognize it?

The farm pictured in our June 16th issue was that of Mrs. Goldie Robbins, three miles northwest of Claypool. The 240-acre farm is tenanted by Chester Bragg, who moved to the farm last December. Homer Clark was the former tenant. Mrs. Robbins resides across the road from where Mr. Bragg, his wife, Ruth, and son Chester, Jr. 10, live. Another son, Dick Bragg, lives near Kokomo.

The farm belonged to Edward E. Robbins' grandfather. Mr. Robbins died in 1941.

In addition to general farming, Mr. Bragg maintains a herd of dairy cattle and a number of laying hens.

Mr. and Mrs. Estel Crall, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Davis and family, and Mrs. Myrtle Davis called on Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Boganwright Sunday afternoon.

WHEAT STRAW DAMAGES CLOVER, ALFALFA SEEDLINGS

Hoosier farmers can protect their clover and alfalfa seedlings, advise Purdue University extension agronomists, by removing heavy straw left in combining high yields of wheat.

Purdue Experiment Station field tests and farm trials show that heavy masses of straw left on top of the stubble badly damage legume stands. Shading is harmful to the young legume plants and allows molds and diseases to spread.

Clipping the stubble and removing all straw growth has resulted in the best survival of legume seedlings in field trials with heavy straw residues. Clipping the stubble and cultipacking the straw to get it down on the ground helps some, say agronomists. By using this method in field trials the researchers have gotten about eighty per cent of the hay yield they got when all the growth was removed. Cultipacking only or clipping only produced somewhat less hay than this combination gave, but was a much better practice than leaving the straw undisturbed.

Alfalfa that looks bad because of the hot weather may recover later on if there is sufficient rainfall after combining. If there is vigorous growth of the alfalfa at harvest time pasturing will help to break up the straw masses and to push them down under the legumes.

Sweet clover can take competition from straw and shading much better than alfalfa or the other clovers. If the sweet clover has made a lot of growth by combining time, leave it undisturbed, advise the agronomists, for clipping heavy top growth will do more to prevent further growth than the straw cover. If the top growth is small, the crop is not damaged as much by the clipping and heavy machinery.

It is important to remove heavy straw growth as soon as possible after combining. If annual weeds develop, a second clipping may be desirable in August. Seldom should it be done as late as September.

Little Ricky Hoffman of Akron spent the week end with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Teel of Rochester and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Teel of Ft. Wayne were guests Sunday of their mother, Mrs. Alfred Teel.

TIPS ON SUMMER DRIVING

With a new record likely this summer as the 90-plus temperature days mount, Chas. M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor Club, advised motorists to keep cool—mentally and physically—while driving.

"Don't allow hot, sticky and uncomfortable weather to affect your driving," Hayes cautioned. "If you get irked at a traffic signal, pedestrian or another driver, your driving ability suffers. You become a bigger traffic risk to yourself as well as others."

For physical comfort while behind the wheel, Hayes suggests:

Select a shady spot when parking your car. You'll find it cool when you return.

Leave the windows open just a crack at the top when parking to allow circulation of fresh air while you're away.

Dress cool. Avoid tight-fitting garments that chafe the skin and impair blood circulation.

To eliminate the rash driving practices that tend to increase with torrid temperatures, the motoring official lists a few summer safe-driving rules:

Drive at speeds lower than normal.

Exercise added caution to compensate for physical discomfort, poorer reaction time, and reduced powers of judgment.

Avoid alcoholic drinks.

Take frequent rests on long trips. Forget the heat by thinking of something more pleasant—like skiing in Switzerland.
