Former Local Girl Expert Nutritionist

"The greatest food deficiencies of the average American are probably vitamins A, B1, G and calcium," according to Miss Bernice Anderson, newly-arrived nutritionist, whose office is now located in the District Health department office on E. Third street, Bloomington, Indiana.

Miss Anderson received her training at Purdue university and obtained a master's degree in nutrition at the University of Chicago. She was hospital dietitian for five years, was promoted to rural food economics for the past year-and-a-half and also has been a school teacher.

The main purpose of Miss Anderson's work is the education as to the best items of food. She is available to any group interested in nutrition for talks and demonstrations. One of the activities she has planned is that of attempting to show people how to make their food dollars "go the farthest."

According to Miss Anderson, the addition of the four food elements so commonly lacking in American diet will aid in retaining 'vim, vigor and vitality.' The best source of vitamin A is in dark green and yellow vegetables and in liver, she states. Vitamin B1 is best obtained in beans, cracked wheat, rolled oats and whole wheat bread. Calcium and Vitamin G may best be obtained in milk.

The best way of getting vitamins is the natural way—in food, says Miss Anderson. Unless prescribed by a physician, vitamins had best be obtained in foods rather than in "pills." Those foods, and especially milk, prolong the characteristics of youth.—Bloomington Daily Telephone.

Miss Anderson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ora C. Anderson, of five miles southwest of Mentone, a niece of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Anderson, and has many friends and relatives in and around this community. She is a graduate of Mentone high school and of Purdue University.

Prepare for Fishing Season—Get Licenses

While Indiana's open season on bass, bluegills and other popular game fish does not open until June 16, Virgil M. Simmons, commissioner of the Department of Conservation, urged anglers to get their licenses early. The Indiana law requires, he pointed out, that all persons 18 years old and older, must have a license to fish in waters of this state.

Two fishing licenses are issued to Indiana anglers—the combination license good for fishing, hunting and trapping during the calendar year, and the special women's license for fishing only also good during the calendar year. A special 14-day fishing license is issued for non-resident anglers at a fee of $1.00, while a non-resident fishing license, good for the calendar year, costs $2.25.

Two Minute Sermon

By

Thomas Hastwell

NO ENDURING TRIUMPH FOR RUTHLESSNESS: In a group in which I was present recently, the discussion turned to world conditions and the ruthless attack by Hitler against peace loving and peace desiring people. The question arose as to whether peace will ever come in this world, and right and justice rule or will Hitler's ruthless policy continue to be exercised indefinitely. Hitler may win this war. I do not know. He may succeed in crushing France and England and bring all of Europe to its knees. But even if he is successful in this, wrong cannot continue indefinitely. It is doomed to failure as is every other act or movement set up on a wrong basis. Everything about Christ's program teaches the ultimate supremacy of right over wrong. If we can believe anything, we must believe that one day the Kingdom of God will come upon the earth. It's coming will mean that all wrong has been banished and in its place right has come. There is no other alternative that man can consider, except the ultimate supremacy of right. Under no other system would it be possible for the Kingdom of God to ever come upon earth.

Mothers-Daughters Feted by D.A.R.

Last Tuesday evening, May 28th, at the Methodist church, the Anthony Nigo chapter of D.A.R.'s held a very lovely mothers-daughters banquet.

An interesting program consisted of a violin solo by Rowena Lackey; reading by Mildred Kurtz, of Burket; and a solo, "Mother Macree," by Mrs. Essig, of Warsaw, Ind.

An unusual pageant, "The Perfect Gift," depicting mother love, portrayed the Colonial, George Washington's, pioneer and modern mothers and ended with a song of tribute to Mrs. F. R. Burns, as a mother of Anthony Nigo chapter of the D.A.R.

During the pageant, Mrs. Walter Lackey gave the reading, "The Perfect Gift," and Mrs. Walter Fenstermaker sang "M-O-T-H-E-R." Mrs. O. Martin, of Warsaw, Ind., gave an interesting address using the theme, "Grandma Was a Lady."

NOTE OF APPRECIATION

In this way I wish to express my sincere thanks for the many beautiful flowers and cards of cheer received during my convalescence at the hospital.

Barber Recalls 'Calamity Jane' Hit Him With Jug

DOUGLAS, WYO.—Johnny Mills, one-time barber for Wild Bill Hickock and President Theodore Roosevelt, celebrated his eighty-eighth birthday here by showing friends the spot where Wyoming's wild and woolly "Calamity Jane" once bounced a water pitcher off his head.

Sixty-two years ago the old-time western barber had a bump on his head as a monument to the temper of "Calamity Jane," the woman gambler and quick-draw expert who ranked with the West's No. 1 bad men in her ability to take care of herself.

Mills was working in a Laramie, Wyo., barber shop in 1878, he related, when "Calamity Jane" came in for a shampoo. It was while she was bent over a basin washing her hair that a prankster took advantage of her posture and struck her a solid swat.

"Calamity Jane," thinking the barber had hit her, picked up a pitcher of water and smashed it on Mills' head.

Mills tells a story about Hickock, the fast-shooting peace officer responsible for bringing law into the region. Wild Bill came into his barber shop and placed his two six-guns on a shelf near the barber chair. Hickock's only warning to the barber was: "Don't knock them off." Mills said he never touched the guns.

Urge to See Old Home Saves Another's Life

WINCHESTER, ENG.—Edward Passey owes his life to the urge of another man to have a look at his old home.

Passey was walking in the darkness, up the path of a lonely disused house some miles from his own home, when the ground suddenly gave way beneath him and he fell 50 feet into the mud and water of an old well shaft.

For 24 hours he called for help but no one heard. And no one would have heard but for the fact the previous tenant had an urge to see the place, and was just in time to save Passey's life.

Pedestrian Death Causes Discussed

Causes of pedestrian accidents on Indiana's state highways and city streets were discussed recently by Hallie Myers, director of traffic for the state highway commission.

"The development of our automotive transportation system has been so rapid that the individual has not been able to adapt himself to it either as a driver or a pedestrian," Mr. Myers pointed out. "More than 60 per cent of all traffic deaths in cities today are pedestrian deaths. Not all pedestrians drive cars, but all drivers walk, so at some time or other all of us are a part of this problem. Most pedestrian accidents occur in cities and towns and very few in strictly rural territory. However, the death rate per accident is higher in rural territory due to increased velocity. Most victims are aged 50 years or more and an extremely large percentage of them are non-drivers."

With most of the pedestrian accidents occurring at night, Mr. Myers placed most of the blame on inadequate street lighting at dangerous intersections. Safety islands at the unusually hazardous locations on wide streets, night enforcement of speed laws, painted cross walks and voluntary obedience to parking laws were other points brought out to reduce pedestrian toll.

Trapping Tsetse Flies

Medical authorities in Leopoldville, Belgian Congo, have adopted tsetse fly trapping on a large scale as an auxiliary method of controlling sleeping sickness. Bush clearance is also being employed, but is difficult in native areas.

In the Belgian Congo the disease has declined steadily since 1930, the number of new infections being only one-quarter of what it was. Much of this success has been achieved by treatment. A cure is assured in all but the most advanced cases in Africa, although no certain cure has been discovered for the disease as it occurs in South America.

CLARK'S

Veteran of A. E. F. Recalls of Once Arresting Hitler

Picked Up Fuehrer When He Started a Small Riot in 'Occupied Territory.'

SARANAP, CALIF.—Carroll Boswell, assistant city engineer, is glad that he is an American citizen and is back in the United States instead of being back in what was known as the "occupied territory" of Germany after the World war.

The reason is that Boswell and his one-time buddy in the A. E. F. had occasion once to arrest Adolf Hitler.

Boswell saw a year's action in France with Company F of the Fifth infantry. He was wounded and gassed but after his recovery served another year and a half with the American army of occupation in the Rhineland. It was at Mayen in October, 1920, that he and Corporal Jeffries of the same company arrested Hitler when the latter was an obscure agitator.

"The American army of occupation at Mayen," Boswell said, "was at one time left alone to police the entire city, which has 50,000 inhabitants, while other Allied contingents went to simulate war maneuvers near the Polish front, but which in reality was intended as an effort to halt the Russians who were then threatening to move in through Poland on an armyless Germany."

Guarded Munitions Stores.

"We had a big job on our hands, because in addition to policing the city in general, we were charged with the protection of the bridgeheads and the ammunition stores. The result was that any agitator that showed up usually got short shrift."

"Corporal Jeffries and I were on our round of duties through the city that evening when we passed the Hofbrau, one of the city's 'hot spots.'"

"It was usually going full blast till one or two in the morning, but this evening, although it was 8:30, all the windows were shuttered and the door was locked."

"We peeked in through a broken shutter and saw a slim, youthful appearing man on the platform and about 125 people listening."

"Suddenly, a one-armed man, who, we learned later, was an ex-major in the German army, picked up a wine bottle and threw it at the speaker, knocking him off the platform. A riot started at once."

"We knew the place and its surroundings well, as we had been at Mayen for a year, and when we saw the speaker dive for the rear door, which we knew opened on a narrow alley, we dashed for it, stationing ourselves one on each side."

Hitler Not Armed.

"Then as the man dashed by we up. He was unarmed, so we merely trussed up his arms and turned him over to the provost officer."

"Before the military police he gave his name as 'Adolf Hitler' and at once launched into a long tirade."

"The next day Hitler was turned over to the German civilian police and they kept him moving from city to city, wherever he provoked a riot, while all the military police were notified to pick him up at any time and turn him over to the local German authorities."

"Two months afterward I was returned to the United States and to my home at Oakland, and never heard of Adolf Hitler again until his name began to appear in the news in 1926."

Boswell said that while Hitler was making his Mayen speech he still talked in the accent of his native Austria. He had his "toothbrush" mustache at that time, too.

Only Hardy Skiers Dare

Use Skipping Ski-Plane

ST. GALLEN, SWITZERLAND.—The St. Gallen Aero club operates a mountain skipping skiplane for skiers only.

Their special plane leaves airports near the railroad and main commercial air lines and skims across snow-covered Alps, which few commercial planes would risk crossing to the ski resorts of the Engadine.

It is equipped with landing skis and has room only for the pilot, two passengers and three pairs of skis. The extra pair is for the pilot—just in case.

The plane's top speed is 112 miles per hour and it can land on any flat stretch of ground over 40 yards in length—which is a good thing in Alpine country.

Stephen Decatur Trophy

Is Found in Pawnshop

WASHINGTON.—A silver goblet awarded to Stephen Decatur, naval hero of the War of 1812, has turned up here in a pawnshop where it was left as security for a 50-cent loan.

Detectives making a routine check of pawnshops found the cup recently. It is inscribed: "By the citizens of Philadelphia to their townsman, Commodore Stephen Decatur. Esteemed for his virtue, honored for his valour."

A "Mr. Johnson" had "hocked" the cup and given what the police discovered was a fictitious address. They had no record of the goblet's having been stolen.

Wally's New Mitten

Learning that French soldiers disliked fingerless mittens because they hamper their hands, the duchess of Windsor, the former Wallis Warfield Simpson, has invented a new-type mitten. Equipped with a zipper fastener, it permits the soldier to free his trigger finger quickly in emergencies. The new mitten is rapidly becoming standardized, other volunteer knitters adopting the duchess' design.

FISHING IS IMPROVING

TROUT ANGLERS SAY

Reports received from fishermen in the northern part of the state and from game wardens in that area, indicate that trout anglers are having exceptional luck, Virgil M. Simmons, commissioner of the Department of Conservation, reported today.

With the fishing season closed on all game fish except trout, most of the game fishing being done in Indiana at the present time is limited to the fourteen northern Indiana counties where stream temperatures are low enough for trout. Most of the trout taken so far have been rainbow and brown, although a number of brook trout catches also have been reported.

THAT'S RIGHT, WE'RE WRONG

The News wishes to apologize for the incorrect statement that the 100th anniversary of the Methodist church would be observed on Saturday instead of Sunday, which appeared in last week's issue. It is very evident that during the

Local Band Members Presented Awards

Last Thursday evening the members of the high school band and their parents and families, enjoyed a pot-luck supper at the school cafeteria. Before the supper, those members who had played in the contest band were presented with medals which they had won by placing in second division at the District Band and Orchestra Contest in Huntington on April 20.

Barbara Creighton and Forest Meredith received medals won at the District and State Solo contests and now each of these soloists have a grand total of five medals won in participation in district and state solo and band contests.

Four seniors were presented with music lyre awards. They were: Letha Walters, 4 years; Juanita Black, 3 years; Josephine Blackwell, 3 years, and Robert Nottingham, 3 years.

Prospects for next year's band are the best that they have been. Because of the small number of students lost through graduation and an increasing number of recruits coming on, the band will probably number around 40 by the end of next year.

The bill for baseball admission tickets in this country last year was over $30,000,000.

Fertilizer Brings Indiana Farmers More Than Seventeen Million Dollars

Extra dollar returns on Wheat, Vegetables, and Corn, which farmers received Nationally for each dollar spent on fertilizer.

The gigantic sum—three billion dollars—which farmers have received from the Government under the AAA since 1933 is equaled by the extra dollar value of increased yields produced by fertilizer in the same period, according to estimates made from personal interviews with 32,000 farmers in 35 States.

Indiana farmers gave the interviewers grass-root facts which show that for every dollar they spent for fertilizer they received an average return in increased yields of $2.86. In other words, Indiana farmers spent $6,178,000 for fertilizer. The extra return which they received from its use amounted to $17,675,000, leaving an increased income above the cost of the fertilizer of $11,497,000.

The returns from each dollar Indiana invested in fertilizer, as shown by The National Fertilizer Association survey, varied from crop to crop. Tomatoes led the list with an increased value return of $7.92. Potatoes ranked well up with a return of $4.15. Other crops reported were corn, which brought $3.61 for each dollar invested, and alfalfa, $3.56.

Indiana farmers also had their say about the effects of fertilizer on quality of crops. Over 76 per cent said they got better market quality in all cash crops, while 62 per cent said they got better feeding quality in grain and hay, and 18 per cent declared they observed better shipping quality in fruits and vegetables.

Average return in increased yields for all crops in all States shown by the survey was $3.60 for each dollar spent on fertilizer. Nationwide, the crops showing highest rate of return were: tobacco, cotton, fruits, and vegetables.

H. E. Nottingham Buys Metal Shop (Communicated)

The George Buchel Tin Shop, of Mentone, has been sold to H. E. Nottingham, who resides one mile east of Mentone on Road 25.

The shop hereafter will be known as the "Mentone Metal Works."

Mr. Buchtel has produced a clever, practical and economical line of poultry feeders that have won without advertisement but by its merit alone, a home on poultry farms not only in and around Mentone, but also for a considerable distance from this great little town, the center of the Poultry Industry of the nation.

Mr. Buchtel has felt the need of a prolonged vacation for sometime and hopes now to satisfy a long cherished desire to see the West.

The Mentone Metal Works will continue the established line of feeders known as the "Hen-Ri-Etta" feeders and also stock and hog feeders and will do special order work. The new firm is also prepared to do any kind of roofing, spouting, and general tinning.

Mr. Nottingham has had over fifteen years experience in machine shops of varied lines of work. He also had an electrical shop in Ashland, Ohio, for four years. The fifteen years prior to his coming to Mentone was spent in sales work.

The technical points of the tinning and roofing will be guided by a cousin, Marcine Nottingham, a former manager of a tin shop in Sharon, Pennsylvania. He has had wide experience in handling both inside and outside work. He comes from a family of tanners and roofers. His grandfather, father, brothers, uncle and cousin have all been owners and managers of tin shops in Greenville and Sharon, Pennsylvania.

The Mentone Metal Works hopes to be more than just a tin shop some day, therefore the name. This will depend partly on the cooperation of the community. Give us your support and help us grow.

Our motto is "Service as you want it." We aim to please. If we do, tell your friends; if not, tell us.

Two Minute Sermon

By
Thomas Hastwell

THE TRUE MEASURE OF SUCCESS: Ask the first one hundred persons you meet on the street what their definition of success is and they will, with notably few exceptions, tell you that success consists in doing big things, accumulating a great deal of money, of operating a big business, owning a fine home and driving a fine car, etc. They will stress material values. Success isn't measured in material values alone. These are evidences only, of success in certain lines. Success consists in being and doing the best that is in one. In this way one fits himself to the larger tasks and larger victories. Rattling around in a big job is much worse than filling a small one to overflowing. Dream, aspire, hope by all means, but do not spoil the life you must lead by dreaming of things you can never attain. The trivial, trying little tasks at hand may be the thing that is steeling and training you for greater things to come. He who does the small things well will not fail when big things come. Christ made it clear in the parable of the talents that success is not in the sum total of what one does, but what he does with the means at hand. To him with small means, who does a good job of it he still says: "Thou hast been faithful in small things I will make you ruler over many."

Delivering Game Bird Chicks to 589 Clubs

Delivery of quail and pheasant chicks from the Jasper-Pulaski and Wells County State Game Preserves to the nearly six hundred conservation clubs which are operating game bird brooders is now under way, Virgil M. Simmons, commissioner of the Department of Conservation, said last week.

A total of 589 clubs are operating brooders for the rearing of pheasants and quail this year, with a total of 750 brooders approved. The game bird chicks are hatched at the two game farms and delivered to the club brooders for rearing by the club members and then released in the vicinity of the participating club. Birds reared and liberated by the clubs are in addition to those released in various counties by the Division of Fish and Game.

This is the largest number of club brooders to be operated under contract with the Division of Fish and Game since the cooperative bird propagation program was inaugurated. This program has greatly increased the annual production of game birds for stocking purposes and is showing results in improved hunting throughout Indiana.

Local Club Receives Pheasants.

The Mentone Conservation Club received their allotment of 200 2-day old pheasants from the Wells County State Game Preserve, Wednesday afternoon. They will be reared in the brooder house on the James Sarker property, and released in this vicinity in the late summer.

A shipment of quail will be sent to the club in the near future and will be reared in the other brooder house at the mill yard.

LOCAL BUSINESS PLACES ARE RE-ARRANGED

Noticed this week was the streamlining and re-arranging of equipment in the local Frozen Locker plant, and also that the Farmers' State Bank has finished its redecorating program and is now furnished with attractive looking Venetian blinds.

Patrons of those concerns always notice changes such as these and realize that the managers desire to give even better and more up-to-date service in a modern and attractive atmosphere.

Palestine Club Meets

The Palestine 4-H club met at the home of Esther Jean Secor, Wednesday afternoon. All of the regular members were present.

Demonstrations of different kinds of material and the washing of silk hose were given by Genevieve Kraatz and Esther Jean Secor. After the business session, songs were sung and games played. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

A TEA IN THE TIME OF ROSES
(See Recipes Below)

Was there ever a homemaker who didn't wish now and then that she could "play hooky" for one afternoon without the dire consequences of leaving her family to shift for itself at meal time? It can be done and it's a wise homemaker who arranges her schedule during the pleasant summer weather, to allow for a few hours of leisure, here and there.

Plan a meal, for "Mother's Day Out," that will cook without watching while you're away; casserole dishes that require long, slow cooking are ideal.

With a simple salad dessert and beverage, you can have a highly satisfactory dinner.

Or perhaps a menu that permits beforehand preparations will suit you better. Select, for it, foods that can be made ready (except for a few last-minute touches), hours ahead of time. Make use of canned and packaged foods, too, that will permit you to serve a tempting evening meal with a minimum amount of time and effort.

Here's a menu that's quickly and easily prepared, yet so delicious that it's bound to please even a critical family.

Menu for a Quick Meal.

Scrambled Eggs With Creole Sauce
Mixed Green Salad
Hot Rolls Strawberry Jam
Fresh Fruit Cookies
Beverage
The scrambled eggs with creole sauce are easily prepared and they're a delicious basis for a very quick meal. To save precious time at the very last moment, collect and measure ingredients beforehand, and, if you like, prepare the sauce ahead of time, to be kept in the refrigerator and reheated just before serving.

Salad greens can be washed, picked over and carefully dried, hours ahead of time, then stored in the vegetable crisper in the refrigerator until you are ready to use them.

Rolls, from yesterday's baking, or fresh from the bakery, can be buttered, and placed in a shallow pan ready to be popped into the oven for quick heating. (Be sure they're kept covered during the afternoon, to prevent drying out).

For dessert why not serve fresh pineapple, which is better by far when it's peeled and cut early, generously sprinkled with confectioners' sugar, and allowed to mellow and chill before serving.

Summer Salad Bowl.

(Serves 6)

- 1 head lettuce
- 1 cucumber (unpeeled) (sliced)
- 1 green pepper (cut in thin rings)
- 3 fresh tomatoes (cut in wedge-shaped pieces)
- 1 bunch radishes (sliced)
- 6 green onions (cut in strips)
- French dressing

Prepare and chill vegetables thoroughly. Line salad bowl with large crisp leaves of lettuce and shred remaining lettuce rather coarsely. Place all vegetables in salad bowl and toss together with a well-seasoned once. ssing. Serve at once.

Graham Refrigerator Rolls.

(Makes about 4 dozen)

- 2 cups milk (scalded)
- ¼ cup strained honey
- ¼ cup shortening
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 2 cakes yeast softened in ¼ cup lukewarm water
- 2 eggs (well beaten)
- 5 cups flour
- 2 cups whole wheat or graham flour

Pour scalded milk over honey, shortening and salt, in large mixing bowl. Cool to lukewarm. Then add softened yeast and well-beaten eggs. Add about half the flour, beat well. Add remaining flour and mix until the dough is smooth. Place batter in greased bowl, grease dough generously and cover. Store in refrigerator until needed, then let dough warm to room temperature, shape into rolls, and let rise until light. Bake in a moderately hot oven (400 degrees) for about 20 minutes.

Six Layer Dinner That Cooks While You're Away.

(Serves 6)

- 1 cup potatoes (sliced raw)
- 1 cup uncooked rice
- 1 cup onion (raw and chopped)
- 2 cups round steak (ground)
- 2½ cups tomatoes (cooked)
- 1 cup green pepper (chopped)
- 3 strips bacon

Butter a baking casserole and place all above ingredients in order, given, in layers, in the casserole. Season layers with salt and pepper while putting together. Cover casserole and bake in a slow oven (300 degrees) for about 2 hours. Remove cover during last 20 minutes of baking time, cover with bacon strips, and complete baking.

erately hot oven (375 degrees) for approximately 12 minutes.

Scrambled Eggs.

(Serves 5)

- 6 eggs (slightly beaten)
- ½ cup milk
- ¾ teaspoon salt
- Dash pepper

Heat butter in frying pan over low heat. Combine eggs, milk, and seasonings and pour into frying pan. As mixture cooks, stir with a spatula, forming creamy flakes. Cook for about 5 minutes or until eggs are firm but tender.

TRAIN KILLS NINE

Gloom hung heavy over the Lake Trail Cafe last Sunday, June 2, when it was reported that Josephine, the popular black cat mascot had lost a line of her lives under the wheels of a fast Nickel Plate train near the Broadway crossing. Patrons of the Lake Trail will miss her as she was always a favorite fixture of the front window.

TOURISTS COMMEND STATE ROAD MARKING

The marking of Indiana's state highways for the convenience and safety of motorists is one of the most frequent compliments paid by tourists traveling over the Hoosier State, T. A. Dicus, chairman of the State Highway commission, reported recently.

Especial mention is usually made in the letters received from tourists of the wide use of reflectorized signs along the state highway system. This type of sign, considerably more expensive than the ordinary marker, has contributed materially to the increased safety of motorists traveling at night. Reflectorized signs are standard on all important highways and at extra-hazardous points, over-size signs are used as an additional safety factor.

BULLETIN: UPPER PLATE RETURNED TO OWNER

Several weeks ago a want ad was placed in the columns of the 'Co-Op News by a gentleman who had lost his upper plate. It was found only last week. The finder remembered having read the ad in the paper, and immediately contacted the News office.

Late last week, a man who lives several miles from Mentone called at the News office to pay for a seed ad which he had run in the Want Ad column several issues back. His words were—"That ad really sold lots of them."

Replies have been coming in on a keyed ad which was run in last week's issue. A keyed ad is another of the ways to be sure that our Want Ads are getting the desired results.

If you have an article around the home or farm that needs a buyer, let a Want Ad sell it for you. The price is small and the results are large.

Asks Protection of Fish Spawning Beds

Cooperation of all anglers, particularly those using motorboats and motors, in protecting spawning beds of fish in both lakes and streams, was requested recently by Virgil M. Simmons, commissioner of the Department of Conservation. Due to the extended cool weather, spawning has been delayed and many fish are still on the nests, particularly in the northern part of the state.

Conservation club members, working under the supervision of game wardens, are marking spawning beds in many of the lakes as a means of protecting the nesting fish. In Indiana it is unlawful to catch fish from any designated spawning grounds; unlawful to operate any power-propelled boat on or over such spawning grounds, or to remove or to destroy signs marking spawning areas.

Royal and Jeannine Blue have been spending several weeks with their sister, Mrs. Ralph Baker, of Bremen.

On Flag Day, observed June 14, a huge American flag, which measured 12 by 18 feet, was displayed over Main street in Mentone. The flag, newly purchased with money contributed by the merchants and solicited by H. V. Johns, hung from a rope stretched from the tops of the two corner buildings at the intersection of Main and Broadway and reached to within a few feet of the street. Other flags were also displayed by merchants and in various homes in town.

Flag Day seemed to have even more significance this year than it had in other years, due to the turmoil in Europe. Now is the time for every American to realize what the flag of the United States means to him, and what it stands for. Only last week the head of an allied government called on the United States for "material and moral" aid, or even more.

BITS O' BUSINESS

Employment in ship-building and machine tool making is running one-third higher than in 1937, which was the best year since fabulous 1929 . . . in aircraft manufacturing, it's two and a-half times. Sadly enough, we have to credit the war which much activity . . . The end of "bargain prices" on steel brought an upturn last week in domestic ordering, to get in under the deadline. . . . Spread of the war is costing American farmers $10,000,000 a month in exports, an analysis for the first six months shows. Cotton exports were up 123 per cent, but the average for all other farm commodities shows a 21 per cent decline from the comparable six months' period of 1938-39; tobacco fell off 70 per cent, wheat exports, 72, and fruits, 38 per cent. . . . Nevertheless the farm machinery industry is looking for its third best year in history, to be topped only by 1920 and 1937. . . . Wheat, corn and cotton are all bringing better prices than a year ago.

The Master 85 Town Sedan, $699*

It's the biggest package of value in the busiest price range; and, of course, its extra length and extra weight mean extra worth to you, the buyer, in all ways.

That's why people are saying, "Why pay more? Why accept less?" That's why they're buying more Chevrolets than any other car, for the ninth time in the last ten years!

Flushing Bar Saves Nesting Game Birds

An appeal for use of flushing bars on mowing machines to save quail and other ground nesting birds, was made recently by Virgil M. Simmons, commissioner of the Department of Conservation, in a message addressed to farmers and others engaged in mowing along the roads.

Each year thousands of ground-nesting game and song birds are destroyed in Indiana during the season that farm crops are being harvested and weeds and grass are being cut along the roads. Sometimes the birds are crippled by the sickle blades, or driven away from the nests and the exposed nests are easy prey to natural enemies.

Flushing bars of this type, brushing through the grass or weeds ahead of the sickle, cause the birds to leave the nest before the blade reaches them and does not damage the nest. When a bird flushes, it is an easy manner to raise the blade, leaving a small patch of grass or grain to protect or shelter the nest.

A light pole, attached to the neck-yoke of the team pulling the mower and extending out as far as the mowing blade, and an old sack suspended from the pole are the only materials required to make a flushing bar. be weighted to be effective.

Police Solve Mystery of

Missing Diapers, Sheets

BERKELEY, CALIF.—Police believed that their baffling diaper, bed sheet and scanty mystery is near solution.

Baffled for weeks over the strange disappearance from clothes lines of assorted garments and bed clothes, authorities finally got a clue.

From Mrs. Anna Friedman came a routine report that a pillow had been stolen from the lounge on her porch.

Patrolman R. V. LaRue was sent to investigate. In a house-to-house canvass he came across a neighbor who reported seeing a dog cavorting down the street with the pillow in his mouth.

Unable to identify the dog, police reported the theft to the pound. Where the pillow is found, they hope, will be the scores of thefted bed sheets, the diapers and the scanties. As one officer pointed out:

"It's spring. Maybe he wanted to feather his nest."

His Wallet Lost in River,

Owner Risks Life in Vain

NEW ORLEANS.—John Nedwick took a double risk when he jumped into the Mississippi river after his wallet.

First, he took the risk of drowning, but he didn't consider that important when he jumped in. Second, he took the risk of being an unidentified body if he didn't save those papers.

Nedwick had accumulated the papers in his wallet for 22 years, and he wasn't going to let them get away without a try for them. He wasn't a good swimmer, but he bucked the strong current and the undertow, anyway.

Three hours later a fishwife heard Nedwick's feeble calls. A sheriff's boat pushed out into the stream and gathered him in as he clung leech-like to the post.

He still didn't have the papers.

"Excuse me, please," said Sergeant Mesch.

Seek Aztec Wealth In Mystery Pool

Deep Sea Diver May Try for Fabulous Treasure.

WALSENBURG, COLO.—A deep sea diver may come to this southern Colorado region thousands of miles from any ocean this summer to use his equipment to look for Aztec treasure.

R. R. Holderman, Walsenburg archeologist, revealed he is negotiating with Paul J. Flynn, famous underwater explorer from Duluth, Minn., to probe the mysteries of the "bottomless" pool in Huerfano county's Mustang canyon near here.

The archeologist said he had investigated markings on the canyon walls and identified them as having been made by ancient Indian tribes—possibly Aztecs who migrated to this region from Mexico—and that these writings indicated there might be treasure concealed in the canyon.

The Mustang pool—a large natural reservoir pounded into solid rock by the constant hammering of a 60-foot waterfall—has never been sounded. During construction of a railroad through this territory years ago, engineers pumped water from the pool for locomotives; however, the hose never reached bottom and the pool was never drained.

Holderman said he believed the Aztecs came to this region following the Spanish invasion of Mexico, and evidence of their camping in Mustang canyon had been found.

"It was a part of their religious practices to make a sacrifice to rain gods by dumping valuables into lakes and pools," the archeologist explained. He added that the Indians also were believed to have used the blind canyon as a corral for game following prairie round-ups.

Local Driver Fined

Charles Eaton, of northeast of Mentone, was fined $1 and costs last week in a Warsaw Justice of Peace court for reckless driving. The affidavit was filed by Wade Powell, of Burket, who was driving a motorcycle which collided with the Eaton car. Eaton has also filed a suit charging Powell with reckless driving. According to reports, the car and motorcycle were racing, and had driven in zig-zag fashion about three miles before the accident occurred. David Derring, riding with Powell, received a broken nose and had five front teeth knocked out.

Two Minute Sermon

By

Thomas Hastwell

BROADCASTING THE LIFE WE LIVE: The other day there came into my office an itinerant peddler. He was dirty and unkempt. He needed a shave badly and his clothing was soiled and shining with grease. He exhaled an unpleasant odor that indicated that he had not bathed for many weeks. After he had gone there clung to the room an unpleasant reminder of his presence. Not long after he left a young lady came into the office. She was wholesome to look at in her attractive summer print and spotless white broad-rimmed straw hat that framed a face wreathed in a happy smile. She was a picture of health and life and animation. For some time after she left her radiant, joyous presence seemed to pervade the place. How like people the thought came to me. The man who is selfish, profane, irrelevant, sensual, who cares nothing for the better things of life or its finer spiritual values brings into any group into which he comes just that kind of an atmosphere. The individual who has the spirit of Christ in his heart, who loves his neighbor and his fellow men, carries just that sort of an atmosphere wherever he goes. We can't have ugliness and sordidness and sweetness, any more than we can have the spirit of Christ in our lives without revealing it to those about us. We broadcast the life we live.

A committee meeting is one of man's greatest inventions when it comes to wasting time. A committee of ten usually requires about two hours to do what one person could accomplish in ten minutes. The reason why a committee wastes so much time is that it requires the one member who knows what ought to be done considerable time to bring the other members of the committee around to the point of admitting he is right.

Millions in the United States have never known the pangs of acute hunger. Millions in other sections of this world do not know what it means to have all they want to eat every day. This fact alone should make this country a coveted war prize. It should also prompt every one who lives in it to be for it rather than going about flirting with foreignisms whose object is to destroy this government.

National Corn Champ Tells How It's Done

The winner—Clark W. Dellinger.

It wasn't done with mirrors, that record-smashing official yield of 180.1 bushels of corn per acre which made Clark W. Dellinger, Clark County, Indiana, 1939 national champion corn producer. The enormous production was the result of a systematic use of the latest and best corn-growing practices.

The five-acre plot in a 14-acre field on the Ohio River bottom which Dellinger chose for his crop was naturally fertile, but it came a long way from the perfection which he set as his standard. The land had usually been planted to corn. Last year he allowed it to make a tremendous undergrowth, which was plowed under about nine inches deep in May. The land was fitted by two double discings, two harrowings, and two cultipackings before planting. Corn of the Johnson County white variety, of his own growing and selection, was planted late in May. It was rowed three feet each way, with from two to three kernels per hill.

Though the land was rich, he knew that it had been used and was not up to its once virgin fertility, so he added fertilizer of 0-14-6 analysis, applying it to the hill at the rate of 125 pounds per acre. Six cultivations through the growing season cleared the way.

H. E. Smalley, Director of Soil Improvement Work, The National Fertilizer Association, commenting on why the corn champion used fertilizer on rich soil, said, "Big yields take fertility from the richest soil. The grain alone removed from Dellinger's land 250 pounds of plant food per acre. A 50-bushel corn crop, including stover, removes 156 pounds of plant food from the land—82 pounds of nitrogen, 29 pounds of phosphoric acid, and 25 pounds of potash. Return of this plant food to the soil is essential to continuing yields."

The mill buys wheat, oats, corn.

Medieval Mummers

Mummers were bands of men and women in medieval times who during periods of public festivity, particularly at Christmas, dressed in fantastic clothes and wearing masks, or disguised as animals, serenaded outside homes and in the public squares. The practice seems to have been a survival of the Roman custom of masquerading during the Saturnalian orgies. Mumming led to such outrages in England in the Sixteenth century that Henry VIII issued a proclamation declaring the wearing of a mask or disguise a misdemeanor.

FARM TOPICS

FARM GROUNDS NEED ATTENTION

Trees and Shrubs Provide Best Landscaping Aids.

By JOHN H. HARRIS

(Extension Landscape Specialist, North Carolina State College.)

Farmers and city people have different problems in beautifying their homes. In the city or town, space usually is limited, but long summer evenings allow time for the attention to annual and perennial plants that offer most flowers for the least space.

On the farm, rush seasons in the fields mean long hours and little leisure at the very time flower gardens may be most in need of weeding, cultivating, and watering. But the grounds around the farm home are usually ample for more of the ornamented trees and shrubs than those of the town dweller.

These two sharp differences are worth considering when the farm family considers plantings to improve the home grounds. Planting a few shrubs each season, and adding a few more from time to time will soon make the home more attractive, and will conserve time in busy seasons.

Shrubs and trees will need good care and watering for two or three seasons, but after that, if they are well selected, good woody plants will practically take care of themselves. What work is needed can be done at odd times and when farm work is slack.

Drouth Years Favored Weed Rivals of Crops

The "weed problem" on American farms has changed radically in the last generation, according to L. W. Kephart, in charge of weed research in the federal bureau of plant industry. From concern over cultivation of annual weeds in tilled crops, interest has shifted chiefly to the "noxious weeds," mainly perennials which have been spreading alarmingly.

Fifteen years ago the notorious weed areas did not greatly exceed 1,000,000 acres, Kephart estimates. Now these weeds have "taken" about 6,000,000 acres of good farmland west of the Mississippi, with crop production checked or prevented, not only on single farms, but in whole townships.

Two factors have played a great part in this spread, Kephart finds. Since 1930 an unusual series of dry years has proved extra favorable for seed by the weeds.

Economic depression increased farm tenancy and a general let-down in farm care. "The indications are," says Kephart, "that the present situation will not greatly improve and that noxious weeds will continue to increase, unless vigorous measures are taken to combat them."

The situation has roused many farmers. The federal seed law has been made more effective. Thirteen states have adopted new laws or revised old laws on weed control, and eight states are co-operating with the bureau of plant industry in weed-control research.

U. S. Wheat Insurance Is Expanded in 1940

Wheat growers of the nation took out more than two and one-third times as much "all-risk" crop insurance for 1940 as for 1939, the Federal Crop Insurance corporation reports. Increased grower interest swelled the number of contracts in force from 166,000 in 1939 to almost 380,000 in 1940. These are estimated to cover 11,000,000 acres, insuring farmers of income from at least 106,000,000 bushels of production.

There was increased enrollment in 1940 for all but two states in which insurance was offered. The greatest increase occurred in the major winter wheat states, where in 1939 growers did not have an opportunity to make use of advances from Agricultural Adjustment administration payments to finance premiums. Nebraska and Kansas both registered more than a 300 per cent increase, Nebraska going from 13,000 contracts in 1939 to almost 57,000 in 1940, and Kansas from 15,000 to 60,500.

Pennsylvania leads in crop insurance in the eastern winter wheat area with 5,900 growers in the program, an increase of 158 per cent. In the Far West, Idaho leads with 6,836 contracts, an increase of 325 per cent.

Straw Erosion Control

If you have an old straw stack which you don't need for feed or for any other purpose, don't burn it, or just let it stand out in the field. You can make good use of the straw for erosion control. Straw—as well as pine needles, leaves and other mulch materials—can be made to save your soil. Soil savers have a pat slogan for gully control: "Seed it, fertilize it, mulch it and watch the grass choke the gully to death." The idea is worth trying.

Invention of Bronchoscope

The bronchoscope, an instrument for the extraction of foreign bodies from the lungs and bronchial tubes, was invented by Dr. G. Killian of Vienna and originally used by him. It was brought to this country by physicians, modified and perfected by Dr. Chevalier Jackson of Philadelphia, and is now in use in practically every large hospital in the country.

Two Minute Sermon

By Thomas Hastwell

MAN, NOT GOD, HAS FAILED:

Why is it, some one asked in a group in which I was present yesterday, that God permits a mad man like Hitler to destroy the world? Why doesn't He stop him? Has he ceased to watch over mankind and to protect His children? I can see no evidence in the present conflict that God has failed mankind in any particular. Rather there is ample evidence to be found that mankind has failed God and has failed himself. Mankind failed God when he did not work out a way of peace by which all nations could live together in harmony and peace. Mankind failed himself when he did not unite the forces of right and crush the enemy before he became strong. Mankind also failed himself when he sat idly by and permitted a war mad moron to build up a machine beneath the wheels of which he could grind civilization into the dust. God has not failed man in the present crisis. God has given man reason and decision and has trusted him to use it. The failure in the present crisis has been man's and man's alone.

Some one has truly said: Take the middle of the road. Save some, spend some. It's not necessary to be a miser or a wastrel. Combine reasonable provision for old age with reasonable spending for today's enjoyment. That is the only sensible path to follow.

"I've often heard it said," a reader of this paper said yesterday, "that the Lord puts obstacles in the path of a man to train him, through their overcoming, for bigger tasks. If this is true he must be coaching me for a real job."

What the world wants to see most just now is two old men sawing wood in Doorn, Netherlands.

Solar Therapy Hospital

Reports to Moscow from Mak-hach-Kala in the Crimea indicate that the first hospital for solar therapy is operating successfully. It treats ailments by concentrating sun rays. The location is an open field beside a river and the hospital building is surrounded by an orchard. Preliminary study of the new method of treatment was made for five years by the Theodosia Institute of Physical Therapy under the supervision of Prof. E. A. Nil-sen. Syco-sis of the face, an exceptionally tenacious disease, yielded to the sun-ray method after 50 treatments. A hospital patient, a chauffeur, was cured of eczema of the hands after 16 treatments.

Open Season, Zones And Bag Limits for '40 Squirrel Season

Open season dates, zones and bag limits for taking squirrels in Indiana were announced today by Virgil M. Simmons, commissioner of the Department of Conservation. No change has been made in the counties making up the Northern and Southern Zones; the bag and possession limit will remain five squirrels, and a 60-day season will be observed in both zones.

The only change in the 1940 regulations from those in effect during the past year has been to delay the opening of the open season in the Northern Zone from Septemehr 1 to September 2, as the 1st is on Sunday when hunting is prohibited. The season will end on Oct. 31 this year instead of Oct. 30 as in 1939. No change was made in the open season dates for the Southern Zone, the season there starting on August 10 and ending on October 8.

TRAFFIC DEATHS ARE ON THE INCREASE AGAIN

A nation-wide survey has revealed that in February the traffic death toll had increased 10 per cent over the corresponding month in 1939, according to the Chicago Motor club. This marks the fifth consecutive month in which the total deaths have exceeded the same month for the preceding year.

Most of the big enterprises in this country were one time a single little idea. They would have continued to be a single little idea except for the fact that they became planted in the mind of a thinker and worker. In such fertile soil they grew and bloss-idea but planted in the mind of Henry Ford it became a great instithousand men. The world is filled with ideas just as good as the idea that came to Henry Ford. All that is needed to cause them to grow and expand and unfold their possibilities is for them to find lodgement in the mind of a man who can have dreams and see visions and who has the faith and the courage and the energy to back up his dreams and visions.

This is a good year to promote the
"See America First" idea.

-oOo-

There is a good deal said these days about the danger of this country becoming hysterical over the war. Sometimes a little hysteria is a good thing. It jars a people out of a rut of complacency. It would have made a heap of difference in Europe
if England had managed somehow to have become hysterical over getting prepared for the war about two years ago.

-oOo-

The war has taught the world that modern invention and science are an inseparable part of every human endeavor, war not excepted.
The styles in war equipment and in the tactics of fighting in use today are quite different from those used in the World War. Obsolete tactics and obsolete equipment must be cast aside for the new if victory is to come. The machine age has also invaded the battlefield.

In an effort to make clear the possibilities of the extent to which soil erosion may proceed a local farmer calls attention to the Grand Canyon. Soil erosion, he points out, is what made the Grand Canyon.

Fish Ponds Shown In Outdoor Indiana

On page 27 of the June issue of Outdoor Indiana, the official monthly publication of the Indiana Departments of Agriculture and Conservation is a page-wide picture of several local conservation club members at work on fish ponds near here.

The lines below the picture read:
"This is how the conservation club at Mentone goes to work on fish ponds. The club has constructed excellent ponds and it looks as if production this year would be heavy."

CATCH LIMIT TUESDAY

Kenneth Riner, local banker, and turned from a fishing trip Tuesday weight. Kenneth refused to divulge the name of the lake, but added that he caught 7 more on returning Wednesday morning.

THOUGHTS FOR SERIOUS MOMENTS

Choose the best way of life, and habit will soon make it pleasant for you.—Pythagoras.

A well-governed mind learns in time to find pleasure in nothing but the true and the just.—Amiel.

He who wishes to secure the good of others has already secured his own.—Confucius.

Every duty brings its peculiar delight, every denial its appropriate compensation, every cross its crown; pay goes with performance as effect with cause.—Charles Mildmay.

The fact that there is a 70 per cent income tax to pay is only one of the discouraging facts about earning a million dollars.

Chevrolet Builds Its 900,000th 1940 Car

Here is the 900,000th car of Chevrolet's 1940 model production, as it left the assembly line at Flint, Mich., June 12, less than one month after No. 800,000 was completed. Beside the car are M. E. Coyle, general manager of the Chevrolet Motor Division (left), C. E. Wetherald, general manufacturing manager (right), and Arnold Lenz, assistant manufacturing manager, who were present in the plant when the car was produced.

"Chevrolet has built 300,000 cars in less than three months," Mr. Coyle pointed out. "The 600,000th of these models was built on March 21, the 700,000th on April 16, the 800,000th on May 13, and the 900,000th on June 12. This production rate closely parallels the consistently heavy sales volume since the introduction of the 1940 models last October, sales during March, April and May alone totalling 307,345."
