Selling Many Eggs To Government

In the last three weeks the N.I.C.A. has sold 3600 cases of eggs to the United States Government for use in flood districts. The price averaged from 1½c to 2c per dozen above the New York market price. A further saving of 45c was made on each case as no freight was charged on these government eggs.

This was made possible through federal grading. A machine for this purpose was installed several months ago by the N. I. C. A. The producers egg checks were held up for about ten days, but the increase in price and the added freight saving more than justified the delay. More than $2000 extra dollars went to the producers of this community through this government shipment.

Basket Ball News

The Mentone Bulldogs won their final scheduled game of the season last Friday night when they defeated the Claypool Knights 38 to 29. The Bulldogs were trailing 17 to 14 at the half but they rallied in the last half to put themselves definitely test. The local team won over a third of their scheduled games.

The Mentone Checkers lost to the Claypool Seconds in the preliminary tilt in a very close game. Claypool held the Checkers to four free throws until almost the close of the first half, when Secor dropped in two in a row from the field. After that the boys started hitting, but they couldn't keep up with Claypool's Seconds. "Bud" Paulus turned in one of the best guarding exhibitions of the season, and kept the Checkers in the running by holding the score down.

Between halves of the first game Claypool's high school band gave a fine marching exhibition, and looked very fine in their orange and black capes. They also played between halves of the first team game and between games.

The Mentone Bulldogs will play Sidney for their first game of the Sectional Tournament.

NOTICE

semolina

Hard grains of wheat left in the bolting cloth when the fine flour has passed through its meshes are called semolina. It is also sometimes manufactured by millers. Certain hard, large-grained wheats growing in Southern Europe produce the best semolina, which is used for thickening soups, for macaroni, for a French bread, as an addition to Italian polenta and is employed in puddings.

CAMOUFLAGING NOT EASY TASK IN WAR

The range of the first cannon was so short that strong archers could outshoot them. As cannon grew in size and range, the musket supplanted the bow and arrow as the principal rival of artillery. It was not until the invention of rifling, by which an elongated projectile is kept on a straight course, that the range of cannon increased sufficiently for them to shoot farther than a musket.

Since that time the greatest enemy of the cannon has been the cannon itself. Opposing artillery units tried to drop shells on each other. The flash of an enemy gun, seen from two points, was enough of a mark for opposing gunners to blast it to pieces.

During the World war, observes a writer in the Washington Post, a new rival of the cannon appeared—the airplane. Since then much effort has been expended to hide big guns from the prying eyes of airmen.

But the cannoners have not wholly succeeded in camouflaging their weapons. That was demonstrated recently when two army planes scored direct hits with dummy flour bombs on twin coast defense guns being transported by train to San Diego, Calif.

VIRGINIA APPLES AN ANCIENT CROP

Virginia people have never been without apples, writes Vera Palmer in the Richmond Times-Dispatch. The colonists sent for home varieties in order to graft them onto the native crabapple stock, found here in abundance. In 1647 Sir William Berkeley had as many as 1,500 trees at "Green Spring," his plantation near Williamsburg, while a grower in northern Virginia had no less than 10,000 at about the same time. All of which, however, is a long way from the 6,500,000 trees standing today in commercial orchards, in addition to many thousands grown on the farms of every county in the state.

Because there was no method of transportation, most fruit in Colonial days and in the early years of the Commonwealth, was used at home. Many a bushel went into the making of good old apple brandy, for which Virginia early became famous. Large quantities also were used for cider. Virginia today has no less than 4,000 commercial apple growers whose orchards are scattered throughout the northern section of the state on both sides of the Blue Ridge mountains and all the way down to the North Carolina line.

Pin Sales Once Limited

Pins, when first invented in the Fourteenth century, were permitted to be sold only on the first two days in January.

His Sermons for Posterity

Rev. William Davy, an English clergyman, born in 1743, constructed his own press, bought a quantity of worn and cast-off type, and composed and ran off one page at a time of his sermons. In thirteen years he thus wrote and printed twenty-six volumes of nearly 500 pages each; went off to London and deposited fourteen copies each in every one of the principal libraries there—to insure that he would be remembered by posterity.

Sand Into Stone

In Denmark the loose foundations of a famous cathedral have been made into practically solid rock. The dry soil was filled with a solution of silicic acid under pressure, after which a solution of mineral salt was forced in, resulting in the loose particles of sand and gravel being tenaciously bound together. A similar process was used in a tunnel under a London street.

Toasters and Lightning

Almost everyone has at some time or other been impressed with the apparently large amounts of electricity going to waste during electrical storms. Now comes science to tell us that even so small amount of current as is used by an electric toaster in one second would require all the electricity contained in five ordinary lightning bolts.

Waitresses Registered

It's trying for an honest girl who wants to earn an honest living as a waitress in Peiping. The latest decree by the city fathers requires all waitresses to be registered with the police. The decree is issued in the name of preservation of decorum and good custom.

Diving Cat

A cat in Sydney, Australia, sits on the veranda of its home overlooking the sea and dives in whenever a fish approaches near enough to be caught. The cat, which rarely comes up without a prize, is said to prefer mullet.

TEACHERS DEPLORE LEARNING BY ROTE

Memory is put on a pedestal and reasoning powers are left undeveloped in present-day education. University of Chicago speakers told 300 executives at a conference of public and private school administrators, reports a Chicago United Press correspondent.

Prof. Ralph W. Tyler said he found that 60 per cent of the college students whom he questioned relied for the most part on their instructors' memorized statements.

"Instructions given in schools and colleges overemphasizes the mem-said, "go to the few who are able to carry on the higher types of men-

"This does not mean the mere ability to reproduce information."
Both educators advocated greater opportunity for independent study.

CORONATION TO BE COLORFUL CEREMONY

Renovate Westminster Abbey for Great Event.

Washington. — Westminster Abbey, London's historic church of kings and poets, pageantry and solemn ceremony, has been closed to the public to prepare it for the coronation of George VI in May. The only part now open for services is the small Chapel of St. Faith, at the southern end of the South Transept, which is usually reserved for private devotions.

"As early as last summer craftsmen were renovating the organ," says the National Geographic society, "and worshipers missed its impressive booming tones as they sang hymns to the thin notes of a piano."

"Tiers of wooden seats will be built this spring high among the lofty columns of the nave and transepts to permit the squeezing of several thousand more spectators into space normally seating about 2,500. On the coronation day, when these galleries are filled to overflowing with ruling kings and queens in gorgeous robes, peers and ambassadors in smart uniforms, and peeresses glittering with gems, they will blaze with brilliant colors like a flower bed against the gloomy aisles of the somber building."

"The climax of the impressive, centuries-old ceremony will be reached when church dignitaries place on George VI's head the historic St. Edward's crown."

Revered by Britons.

"Other great English churches may be larger, older, or more impressively situated, but Westminster Abbey is more revered than any, holding a unique position as the church in which English monarchs are crowned. Since the first coronation in the existing abbey, that of Edward I in 1274, all the English sovereigns have been invested with their sovereignty there."

"In the Chapel of St. Edward the Confessor stands the famous coronation chair. To unknowing eyes it is a plain battered oak throne with a curious large stone under the seat. To loyal Britons it glows with more glory than did the gilt and decorations which originally covered it. For ever since Edward I had it constructed in 1301, it has served as the seat of the British monarch during the solemn coronation ceremony. The ancient stone, brought from Scotland by Edward I, is the famous stone of scone, on which the Scottish kings had formerly been crowned."

"The coronation chair which the Queen will use was made for Mary, wife of William III."

"The spectator who knows his history may well be thinking of the next as he watches George VI presented with the ring, orb, and scepter next May. In his mind's eye he may see approaching from out of the shadows of centuries the long procession of British kings and queens who were crowned under this same roof."

More Solemn Events.

"Not only coronations, but also royal weddings have filled Westminster Abbey with splendid pageantry. George VI, then Duke of York, was married there on April 26, 1923."

"In contrast to such festive occasions are solemn times when the hushed Abbey is draped in black for the funerals of royalty or of noted Britons. Until the middle of the Eighteenth century, the Abbey was the favorite burial place of English monarchs, and contains many of their gilded, or elaborately carved marble tombs. Even little Edward V, one of the princes murdered in the Tower, has his remains preserved here, thus achieving his rightful resting place, although he was cheated out of his coronation."

"Westminster Abbey is so called because it originated as the church of a Benedictine abbey, or monastery. For centuries, abbots and monks thronged its cloisters, and its now are incorporated in adjoining Westminster school. Beneath the building that was the monks' chapter house is an Eleventh-century crypt whose stout pillars and round arches still show the Norman type of architecture employed in the church which preceded the present edifice. The latter was erected chiefly by Henry III."

"For a brief time during the Reformation, the Abbey was made a cathedral. Mass-books and stone altars were destroyed, monks were made canons, the abbot—a dean, and a bishop was appointed. Today there is a dean, but neither monks nor bishop."

Fishermen Pick Up Mail Posted in Sealed Cans

Miami, Fla. — Fishermen and life guards have qualified as volunteer mail carriers for an unofficial Atlantic ocean postoffice.

Following a long-established custom, cans containing letters and postal cards frequently are tossed overboard from European ships which pass within two miles offshore en route to the Gulf of Mexico and points south.

The cans are either picked up by fishermen who chance by or drift into shore where they are found by life guards and the mail is posted.

JUNIOR NEWS

The Juniors have been pretty busy this week. The literature assignments keep us with our noses in our books nearly all the time. We hope that our grades will be a little more satisfactory next time.

Our Bible class is reviewing the life of Solomon. It is quite interesting to read about his thousand wives and his sagacity. It is known that he spent thirteen years to build the palace for his favorite wife, while he only spent seven and one half years to build a temple to Almighty God. His living expenses alone per year were $300,000,000.

Our typing scores are coming up rapidly. The highest has been 49, made by Bob Thorne. It is expected that a good number of the class will be on the par with this score before long.

EIGHTH GRADE NEWS

In general science we are studying "Applications of Electricity." This is a very interesting topic to most of us but it requires a lot of study.

The other day Mr. Harrison was performing an electro-plating experiment in class. John Rickel loaned him a nickel. When he had plated the 5 cent piece with copper, he returned it to John, who removed the copper much faster than it was put on.

The Eighth graders have also been studying the Constitution of Indiana in their Civics class.

Our gymnasium work has been very interesting. We have been doing some tumbling. We tumbled at the game Wednesday evening.

We regret very much that our classmate Alice Cleveland is ill with scarlet fever. The whole class joins in wishing her a speedy recovery.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

Woman King

Christina, daughter of Charles XIV of Sweden, mounted the throne as king on her eighteenth birthday. Brought up in as masculine a way as possible by her father, who had no sons, she had herself crowned as king, not queen, following his death in Austria after he had conquered Russia, Poland, Germany and Denmark. She gave up the throne rather than marry. She ruled forcefully and until she tired of being importuned by her ministers to take a husband, then abdicated in favor of the fiancé they had chosen for her, and rode off alone on a horse to see Europe.

The "Earth Pig"

The aardvark or "earth pig" is rarely seen, because it is shy and nocturnal, but its large burrows are a common feature of the African landscape. Often they threaten the safety of the traveler on horseback who must thread his way among them at the risk of bad falls for himself and his mount. As an excavator the aardvark is unexcelled among animals approaching it in size. It proceeds underground at an astonishing speed and is consequently very difficult to hunt.

Catawba Grape honors river

The famed Catawba grape is so called because it grows along the banks of the Catawba river. The Catawba river—meaning "river of grapes"—was named by the Indians.

The final game was a close one, with both teams fighting tooth and toenail for the lead. At the end of the fourth session the teams were deadlocked, thus necessitating an overtime period. ## Students Receive Aid

State officials of the National Youth Administration announced that 52 youths in Kosciusko county are participating in the NYA high school aid, college aid and work programs.

Among high school and college students, this assistance represents the margin by which the participants are enabled to continue their education, NYA officials say. The purpose of the work program is to provide training for girls and boys in the type of work for which they are best fitted.

A total of 28 youths are participating in the high school aid program in the county. They are employed in 12 schools and are engaged in such socially desirable work as taking an educational census of the students who had dropped out of school; reporting school news to local newspapers; serving as extra clerical assistants for teachers; assisting school nurses; working as library assistants; landscaping playgrounds and taking care of athletic equipment. In no case is a student permitted to do work for which there is a public appropriation.

In the college aid program, 14 students from Kosciusko county are receiving assistance at various colleges in the state.

State records reveal that a total of 10 girls and boys are participating in the county NYA work program. A majority of the girls in the state are employed on sewing projects. Garmens made on these projects are turned over to the township trustee for distribution among needy persons in the community.

One of the outstanding projects in Kosciusko county has been playground construction work.

The Tippecanoe Home Economics club met on Wednesday, March 3rd. at the home of Mrs. Vida Fites with her daughter, Mrs. Hope McPherson, the daughter-in-law, Mrs. Geneva Fites and Mrs. Maud Hutchinson assisting. The president, Mrs. Eva Seaverns, called the meeting to order promptly at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Ruby Ford-Shafer at the piano giving the 'Invocation Song' by Iva B. Linebarger, followed by the 'Collect' by Mary Steward, in unison. The roll call was given by twenty-eight members answering to 'Helpful house-cleaning hints' and all the history connected with the dress worn (and the accessories to match) as some of these dresses were 50 to 75 years old. With these gowns went hats, shawls, hightop shoes, a hand bag (that was owned and carried by Dr. Fish's wife) aprons etc., that were very old.

Our county president, Mrs. Neal Thomas of Argos and our county music director, Mrs. Ruth Huff Gerard of Bourbon were present at this meeting. Since this was a Colonial day program Mrs. Gerard sang most beautifully 'Old Fashioned Garden' and other very appropriate selections. Mrs. Stella Brosius had a very interesting paper on 'Colonial Homes' but being ill with a cold her daughter of Bourbon, Mrs. Herman Lemlen read it for her. Mrs. Amanda Harley gave 'Colonial Poems' and the address in this book from which she read was 'Ilion' which was the name given to the village before it was named 'Tippecanoe'. Mrs. Thomas, in her instructive and encouraging remarks, said that the county was stressing 'Safety' and 'Child Welfare' and was pleased that we had given fifteen minutes to the 'Institute of Safety' which articles had been read by three members, pertaining to this department. The club will sponsor the 4H club as they have in the past several years. All enjoyed the social hour that followed and the delicious refreshments. Reporter.

Wheat Dangerous Cargo

Wheat is considered one of the most dangerous cargoes carried by ocean freighters, because it may shift and cause a heavy list, or, when wet, generate a gas that, in the heat of the hold, is an explosive as deadly as dynamite. Wheat has caused many shipwrecks, among them being that of the British steamer Antiope, which sank in mid-Atlantic in 1926.

Musings of a Senior on Graduation

Graduation-how the word thrills us! Diploma is another word that falls well upon our ears. Yes, we are excited about graduation! However, the best thing for us in our last days of high school is to spend a few moments in introspection and retrospection.

In the far away dim past, we remember our first year in school. It was a year filled with fears and delights. We found that we had minds and fingers. We learned too, that we could begin to read and write. Our first four years of school opened many wonderful, new worlds to us. It opened the world of books, of science, invention, history, travel, nature, health and physiology. We learned startling facts about ourselves and our surroundings.

The next four years of our school life were spent in deepening and widening our knowledge of the subjects into which we had just peeked in our first years. In these years we were further delighted with the intricacies and complexities of our lives.

As we think of our last four years spent in high school, we remember that we came into contact with great artists. Artists of the pen, sword, and mind. Through books, we became acquainted with such men as Emerson, Thoreau, Shakespeare, Franklin, Bryant, Cooper and Longfellow. We have just touched on the surface the delights of such masterpieces as The American, Thanatopsis, Snowbound, The Woods and many other pieces of art. The thought that we want to hold uppermost in our minds is the old adage that "a little knowledge is a dangerous thing." We want to remember that we are mere babes compared to the real intellectual giants of the past and present. With this fact in mind, we want to "keep our headlights in front" and go on and get a really deep meaning of life and acquire more than a shallow superficial knowledge of the things about us. We want to go on in the quest for the best things in life which our high school career has merely begun for us.

SENIOR NEWS

We have been studying Public Utilities such as gas, water, electricity, and telephone in our Civics this past week. We have been made to realize how important each is to our everyday life. It would be terrible if all of these utilities were cut off for a very long period of time. When we realize how important they are, then we realize how necessary it is, for the companies or plants who handle them to give never-failing service and service at a rate that everyone can reach. We should be thankful for this public servant and in every way we can to help our public utility companies to make their service more efficient. Doing this will vastly improve our type of citizenship.

The Senior girls learned this past week that Miss Viola Aihler of Talma won first prize in the short story contest sponsored by the Psi Iota Xi sorority. As a group, we girls wish to extend our heartiest congratulations to Miss Aihler.

We are glad to have Helen Marvel and Julia Busenburg back with us again this week.

JUNIOR NEWS

The Juniors feel not a little depressed this week as Paul Smith has been giving us some more difficult Literature tests. We wouldn't be surprised if we receive quite a few X's this month.

The typing scores are going up gradually and we are taking longer speed tests. These tend to reduce our net words per minute but we are trying to hold our own.

The Old Testament stories have become more interesting to the Bible students. We are reviewing Daniel in the lion's den, the fiery furnace, and Jonah and the whale. We find that in the book of Jonah it does not mention a whale but calls it a great fish. The fish is mentioned as a whale in the book of Matthew.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

Mervel: "What is in the footnote in the lesson today, Betty?"
Betty: "I don't know."

Mervel: "You had better read your footnotes for tomorrow rather than so many of your other notes."

The Sophomore literature class is dealing in verse now. They are just starting on the delightful tale of Enoch Arden.

The Sophomore Latin class is studying relative pronouns now. Most of them say that they are a bit mystified.

FRESHMAN NEWS

In literature these people are reading Sir Launfal's Vision. Most of them find the tale of this knight of yesterday very interesting.

In our biology class we are studying the structure of a bean and a pea. We are also studying the conditions necessary for the germination of these seeds. One funny name for a part of the bean is hypocotyl. Did you know that with every bean you have ever eaten you have eaten a hypocotyl along with the bean.

EIGHTH GRADE NEWS

Wayne Baumgartner joined our class last Monday. We hope he will like our school as well as we do.

NOTICE TO SENIORS: We, the Eighth Grade, do declare that hereafter you shall be subjected to one swift kick for each hour that our civics books are borrowed.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

In our arithmetic class we have been studying about lines, angles and parallelograms. We think it is very interesting. Today we are learning how to find the area of a parallelogram.

In literature class we have been reading and discussing the interesting story of the Courtship of Miles Standish.

In History we studied about the telephone. We find that the United States had 75% of all the phones in the world. Also the printing press which is the invention of Richard Hoe, the typewriter, invented by Sholes, and the Sea Plane by Curtiss are very prevalent in America. Charles A. Lindbergh made his famous solo flight across the Atlantic in May 1927.

HOME ECONOMICS NEWS

The boys in home economics are learning to cook rapidly. They first tried their skill at cooking breakfast. Miss Langell said it was very good. The next day they tried their luck at Blanc Mange (just plain pudding to you and I.)

Today the boys tried to cook steak. It smelled very good for a while, but we would like an explanation for the burnt smell and the blue smoke that arose from the lower chambers of the school house on Thursday.

AGRICULTURE NEWS

The Junior and Senior class have been making window boxes for the Home Economics room and have been helping the Freshman class test seed corn.

KNOCK! KNOCK!

This game is going to be quite different from any you have ever played before. The object of this game is for you to guess the person who is described below in the little character sketch:-

A certain young lady enters the assembly room. Let us put on our spectacles and see her outstanding characteristics. This is the way her physipue reads--rather tall, medium build, brown eyes, brown hair, shingled, and one dimple if she smiles wide enough.

Normally this person is very well-behaved, but being a natural clown it is a sight to see her going through some of her side-splitting tricks. When she gets disgusted with typing or bookkeeping she lets out a vicious snort, picks up her books and stages a walk-out. However, after she does something of this nature she is always very sorry and penitent and comes to class the next day very subdued and meek. In our public speaking class she was one of the most interesting story-tellers accompanying her stories with many comical motions and elongated sighs.

This person, all considered, is very likable and very well liked, a swell sport and a good friend.

All right--it's your job to guess who she is.

SENIOR NEWS

We have had some very interesting discussions in our Civics class this past week. We decided that since the Supreme Court is under such heavy gunning at present that it would be a good idea to make a thorough study of its members and functions.

We looked for the biographies of the members and found their ages. They stand as follows: Chief Justice Hughes is 75 years old, Judge Brandies 81, Judge Butler 71, Judge Cardozo 67, Judge McReynolds 75, Judge Roberts 63, Judge Stone 65, Judge Sutherland 75 and Judge Van Devanter 72.

Another interesting fact is that three of these distinguished gentlemen are bachelors. Another interesting thing is that a majority of these people now on the bench served as attorney-general in some president's cabinet. The seat of attorney-general seems to be the route to a Judgeship.

After a little thought on this fact it is easy to see why this would be true. An attorney-general's duties are that of being an expert lawyer and this knowledge of law would qualify a Supreme Court Judge for making a fair decision.

The parts are being cast for the Senior play this week. The name of the play is "A Bachelor's Honey-moon". It promises to be a scream. Don't miss it! The date for presentation has not been set, so watch this page for the announcement.

JUNIOR NEWS

The Juniors have taken all the literature tests that Paul Smith can devise and are anxiously awaiting the results.

The history class has been studying the problems of Cleveland during the days of the gold standard question. We find we are not quite intelligent enough to debate much on this.

In our Bible class we have started on the New Testament. Our present work is reading of Christ's preparation and his disciples work. We like it very much.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

In the sophomore history class the other day Mervel had pointed out that Africa, the second largest continent in the world was divided up into many little sections. Then he said, "Can you see how Africa is like a big water melon?"

Betty E. "Yes, because of all the Negroes."

EIGHTH GRADE NEWS

In General Science we are studying automobiles. The boys enjoy it immensely.

Mr. Harrison: "Elnore, how many cylinders has a Chevrolet?"

Elnore: "I don't know."

Mr. Harrison: "Juanita, how many cylinders has a Ford V8?"

Juanita: "I don't know."

Mr. Harrison: "I'd certainly hate to be out riding with some of you girls. If something went wrong with the engine, you'd probably look under the back seat for the trouble."

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

In literature we are now reading the story of "Stickeen". It was written by John Muir who had the exciting experience with Mr. Young and Hunter Joe while exploring Alaska. Stickeen was a dog who is the hero of this story of crevices and ice dangers.

At present in history we are studying about the six principals of education. They are as follows: 1. Health and physical fitness for all children. 2. Expression of thoughts and their communication. 3. Worthy citizenship in the home and community. 4. Correct use of leisure time. 5. Character building. 6. Vocational training.

HIGH SCHOOL MUSICALS

The members of the Girl's Glee Club and the High School Band will present a program of vocal and instrumental numbers Friday, March 19, at 8 o'clock in the community building. The public is cordially invited to attend. There will be no admission charge.

ORATORICAL CONTEST

The local elimination oratorical contest will be held at Mentone at the Community Building on Friday, March 26. The person winning this contest will have the privilege of representing Mentone in the county contest to be held Friday, April 2, at Pierceton.

KNOCK! KNOCK!

Well, how did you get along last week? If you thought that was interesting, try this one:

This time we see very tall slender lad who has a thatch of tow hair, and blue eyes. This person was unfortunate one day when he was trying to be athletic and to his regret his proboscis was inclined slightly to the right, but you'd never notice it unless someone called your attention to it. This person is very well known for his "Oh Hen!" and "Aw Gee!"

The last, but certainly not least, clue that we will give you is the fact that not so long ago this particular person did some very meritorious service in the interest of patriotism.

READING CLUB

The Mentone Reading club met Wednesday evening, March 10 at the home of Mrs. Conda Walburn. Meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. G. Taylor. Roll call responses by fourteen members were selections read from "The Club Woman". After the transaction of necessary business, the meeting was turned over to the program chairman, Mrs. Orpha Blue.

Mrs. F. R. Burns very ably reviewed "Morals of Tomorrow" by Sockman. Then a general discussion followed by members of the club.

Mrs. Orpha Blue gave a vivid portrayal of prison life at San Quintin as portrayed by David Lamsin in his book, "We Who Are About To Die".

The club bought towels made by the blind women in Indianapolis to the sum of $4.85.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Conda Walburn and Mrs. D. L. Bunner. Club will meet April 14, at the home of Mrs. Elmore Fenstermaker.

Think Men Better Looking

In the judgment of many artists men are on the whole better looking than women, although the kind and uniformity of their clothing may make them seem less so. In large families of boys and girls, it is said, there are always more handsome brothers than sisters.

Recreative Happiness

Mankind are always happier for having been happy; so that, if you make them happy now, you make them happy years hence by the memory of it.

Sharptail Grouse

Sharptail grouse are not to be confused with ruffed grouse, commonly called the "partridge" of the North. In flight, the sharptails are large buff or light-brown birds, with long, narrow, inconspicuously marked tails, while the ruffed grouse are dark gray or brown birds, with broad, fan-shaped tails marked with a conspicuous dark band near the margin. On the ground, the light-brown coloration, long narrow tails, and long necks of the sharp-tail at once distinguish them from the dark-colored fan-tailed, short-necked ruffed grouse.

Slander Is a Poison

Slander is a poison which extinguishes charity, both in the slanderer and in the person who listens to it; so that a single calumny may prove fatal to an infinite number of souls, since it kills not only those who circulate it, but also all those who do not reject it.

recognized in modern English usage. For a period during the Twelfth and Thirteenth centuries, before the invention of printing, the form
"alright" was used to some extent by English writers, but the phrase
"all right" had been previously preferred and it has been regarded as the correct form ever since.

ADVANCE IN FARM INCOMES IS SHOWN

Pass Half Way Mark in Climb From Low of 1932.

Minneapolis. — Reaching an estimated average of $1,277 per U. S. farm family in 1936, agricultural income passed the half-way mark in its climb from the bottom of $752 per family in 1932, back toward the 1929 income figure of $1,736. While gross income thus showed a gain of $525 per family from 1932 to 1936, average annual operating expense increased only $26 from the 1932 cost, according to a statistical study by Northwestern National Life Insurance company.

The farm family found interest rates on mortgage money shrunk to 4 1/2 per cent in 1936, with emergency rates as low as 3 1/2 per cent, compared with 5 1/2-6 per cent in 1929 and 5 1/2 in 1932. Wage rates for hired labor, however, had risen from the low of $15.86 per month with board given the average farm hand in 1933 to $21.86 per month with board in 1936. This was still far below the $34.74-and-board earned by the average farm laborer in 1929.

The family's total expense for farm operation in 1936 reached an estimated figure of $567, including depreciation on farm buildings and equipment, compared with $541 in 1932 and $911 in 1929, the company's analysis showed.

Government benefit payments accounted for $64 of the average farm family's gross income in 1936, based on the latest available estimate, leaving $1,213 produced by the farm itself. This figure includes value of produce consumed by the family, and value of harvested crops still in storage. Cash income, including government benefit payments, amounted to $1,065 in 1936, compared with $816 average cash income per U. S. family in 1932, and $1,524 in 1929.

Fossil Remains Found in Minnesota Aid History

Minneapolis, Minn. — Dr. A. E. Jenks, University of Minnesota anthropologist, chapter by chapter is turning back the history of man, with the moulds of northern Minnesota his most fertile source of information.

With a great mass of data, collected in operations in the northern part of the state, Jenks returned to the university to begin to integrate his findings.

The professor, aided by students and WPA workers, spent the summer digging near Red Lake Falls, Bronson, Malmo and Brown's valley. At the latter place in 1930 he found found bones out of which he constructed the Brown's Valley man, whose age was estimated at 3,000 years, and in the same area, a few years ago he found "Miss Minnesota," who, it is believed was a belle 20,000 years ago.

The scene of the professor's operations is on the "shore" of what once was Lake Agassiz, a body of water that covered 18,000 square miles following the recession of the Wisconsin glacier.

In the gravel deposits at the lake shore have been found implements which the "early settlers" used in their homemaking.

London Accords Chorus Girls Superior Ranking

London. —The day of the "wise cracking cutie" of the chorus is gone, and the chorus girl of today is a serious person of education and ability, who takes her profession seriously, a survey of a revue at the Grosvenor House cabaret here indicates.

Two of the girls in the chorus, for instance, come from distinguished New Zealand families. One is Meg Williams, twenty-three, who is the great-granddaughter of Bishop Williams, one of the first settlers of New Zealand. She went to a fashionable school and finished her education in Paris before starting her dancing training. The other is Annette Strange, twenty, daughter of Walter Strange, the New Zealand polo player. She went to school at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Roehampton, speaks French, German, and Italian, and is widely traveled.

Among their companions in the chorus are Gola James, granddaughter of a diplomat and daughter of a doctor, and Claire Alexander, twenty-one year old daughter of a distinguished artist and herself a fine student of art.

All these girls love dancing and that is why they work in the chorus.

Runaway "Flyer" Is Checked by Engineer

Hudson, N. Y. —Passengers of the crack "Knickerbocker Flyer" of the New York Central railroad were unaware of the drama going on in the engine cab as the train rolled through the yards. An undetermined explosion had blown the engineer and fireman out of the cab into the coal and water tender.

Charles Ferguson, engineer, braved scalding steam and searing flames to dash back into the cab and turn on the emergency brakes. Both engineers were severely burned, but the quick action of the engineer saved a possible runaway train accident.

First Insurance Gauge in 1762
The first company to work out what was held to be a safe, reliable basis of insurance was the "Old Equitable" of London in 1762.

Service Wins Success
The pathway to success is in serving humanity. By no other means is it possible, and this truth is so plain and patent that even very simple folk recognize it.

High School Musicale March 19, 8:00 p.m.

The Girls Glee Club and the High School Band will present a concert Friday evening, Mar. 19, at eight o'clock in the community building. The members of these organizations under the direction of Walter Bowers, music instructor, have been working hard to make this evening of entertainment a success.

Included in the evening's program will be the selection "Organ Melody," by Ed. Chenette. This number features a muted cornet quartette and a cornet and baritone duet. "Pals" polka, for cornet and trombone, will be another speciality played by Devon Cain and Justin Long. Other concert selections and stirring marches will make up the remainder of the instrumental program. A piano duet by Jean Burns and Marjorie Long will be an added attraction.

The Girls Glee Club will sing several numbers one of which is "Moon Money". When the moonlight falls in round spots through the leaves the darkies call it 'moon money'.

The public is cordially invited to attend this free concert.

CORRECTION

Due to an oversight on our part an error occurred in the announcement of the Mentone Egg Show on page one last week. Class number 4 should have read - Farmer's Flocks under 500 hens-White Eggs, instead of brown eggs as was stated. We are very sorry this error occurred, however, the entire list of rules, the score cards and the correct list of classes that eggs may be entered in will be published in a later issue.

Mentone Egg Show April 29th and 30th

To win means, to gain by superiority in a contest. Our ten contests will discover ten such winners. To win means, to be successful or triumphant. Our ten contests will discover hundreds of such winners, as any party bringing better eggs than they themselves have ever entered in a previous contest have in so doing been winner over themselves and that is the victory that lasts.

Never before were the classes so divided as to give such equal chances to all.

Only criticism heard to date was -----

The answer to that is, in the Mentone 1936 Egg Show the Top Money, two cups and a bicycle were won by an eleven year old boy who selected his own eggs from his fathers flock of 150 hens.

Any one over eleven years old or with over 150 hens should not hesitate to enter this year.

Select eggs like Purdue Score Cards, to be published later, and the Purdue Judges who are coming to judge the eggs will place you at the top.

Study those Score Cards. They are the yard stick by which all the eggs entered will be measured. Winners in the ten classes receive handsome cash premiums and ribbons. Rotating Trophies and a $25.00 watch also are going to be given. Contest rules and score cards will be published later. WATCH FOR THEM!

The Trocadero

The Trocadero was a palace on the chaillot slope of the right bank in Paris. It was an ugly building, a poor version of the Hispano-Moresque order — an ironic fact, since it was named to commemorate a French victory in Spain. It was built for the Paris exposition of 1879. It was torn down to make way for a new Trocadero.

Sea Lions Have Many Enemies

Aside from man, sea lions have many natural enemies. Killer whales (Orca) have been known to attack whole herds and, according to Paul Bonnot, in Fish and Game, as many as eight adults have been found in the stomach of one of these enormous beasts. Sharks also attack sea lions.

SENIOR NEWS

The Senior Civics class has been studying Socialism and Communism this past week. We have taken both the socialistic and the communistic programs and torn them up to view their fundamentals. We find that both programs are very revolutionary and impractical. Some of the reforms they propose are quite all right, but others are so radical as to render them impossible.

We also took another look at the American's Creed this week. We hope that the expressions embodied in this creed may be taken as our own aspirations.

The Seniors are working very diligently on their play "A Bachelor's Honeymoon". Most of the parts are well on the way to complete memorization.

JUNIOR NEWS

We were all a little surprised at our cards, because we discovered we were not as dumb as we had thought. Anyway our Literature grades are coming up to the average mark again.

The typing class is to have the monthly Woodstock fifteen minute test for pins and seals this week. We will publish the results of this test in next weeks issue.

A spelling contest being sponsored by WOW of Fort Wayne, has been announced to the high school. There will be a county, state and national contest between high schools broadcasted over this station. Winifred McCutcheon, a Junior, and Katherine Eiler, a Senior, are representing Mentone in this contest.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

The principle subject that these people are interested in is Latin. They seem to like it very much and do well in the class.

EIGHTH GRADE NEWS

In our General Science class we are studying transportation by air and water. The question arose 'why does a steel ship float'? At first it was rather perplexing, but after we investigated the realms of water displacement and so forth, we can understand it much better now.

In arithmetic we are all trying our best to learn the formulas to find volumes and areas of different figures.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

In Home Economics Friday we are going to prepare omelets. We have had quite a few laboratory lessons in the past month. They are very interesting to us. Today we studied about table manners.

Yesterday in Literature we had a very hard test. It covered the selections that we have been studying for the past two weeks. Today we read the story of the "Great Stone Face."

HOME ECONOMICS

The clothing class has just finished its project in sewing for this last semester. Miss Langell has two pins to give to the girls who have produced the best garment.

SIT-DOWN STRIKE

Herein we have an account of the funniest and most unusual sit-down strike that ever happened right here in Mentone. Miss Eleanor Wallace sat down on a bench in her father's garage and said that she wouldn't get up again until she got a pair of skates. The next morning she came skating to school, so we presume that the strike must have been successful.

This young man possesses the fine quality of good manners. His politeness is outstanding. He is very interested in music and is the only one in the School Band who can let things slide.

Will Speak At Community Bldg.

An educational meeting of special interest to poultrymen, cattle and hog feeders and to which the public is invited, will be held Thursday, March 25, at 7:00 p.m. at the Mentone Community Hall, Mentone, Ind.

A.G. "CHICK" PHILIPS

It has been announced that A. G. "Chick" Philips and W. B. Krueck, formerly Professors at Purdue University, have been secured as the speakers and will discuss "Newest Development in Poultry Nutrition" and "Applying Nutrition to Cost and Profit in Livestock Production".

For over twenty years Mr. Phillips has been actively identified with the poultry field, and he has long been recognized as one of the leading poultry authorities. He is the author of numerous state bulletins, has contributed much to the public press, and has written extensively for various farm papers. He is also widely known for his poultry lectures.

W. B. KRUECK

His work in connection with various poultry organizations has been outstanding. He is a past president of the American Association of Ins-tructors in Poultry Husbandry. Besides being a member of the board of directors of the International Poultry Congress he has served as secretary of the National Poultry Counsel and as a member of the board of directors of the United States Egg Society.

Mr. Krueck has had extensive experience in managing and operating successfully a large stock farm and he thoroughly understands exhibiting, feeding and breeding of livestock and poultry. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin and taught Animal Husbandry and did extensive work at Purdue University for four years. Don't miss this fine program next Thursday evening.

CLUB NEWS

The Magazine Club held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Cora VanGilder Wednesday evening. Roll call was responded to with Irish jokes some of which were very humorous. The lesson in better speech was so conducted that all took part and proved to be instructive as well as entertaining.

Mabel Landis of Warsaw gave "England's Big Show" very capably and it was enjoyed very much.

Kitty Dennis read a story and conducted a contest in which Ava Teel and Vina Minear won prizes.

At the close of the evening refreshments were served by the hostess. She was assisted by Mrs. A. H. Stanford. Club meets again in two weeks March 31.

Boost for Peanuts

Nutritionists consider peanuts valuable because they are low in cost and yet are concentrated in nourishment, rich in both protein, fat and vitamin B, a good source of phosphorus and a fair source of iron. Peanut protein is a superior protein, adequate to build and repair muscle tissue.

Lightning and Thunder

Lightning and thunder occur at the same time and place, but light travels at the rate of approximately 186,000 miles per second and sound at only 1,090 feet per second when the temperature is at 32 degrees, therefore the sound usually follows several seconds after the lightning.

Naming the Red Sea

The drowning of Pharaoh and his host in the Red sea had nothing to do with its name. It takes this from a peculiar reddish color remarked at certain seasons of the year in parts of this sea, due to marine plants, or to reddish animalculae, called by sailors "whale feed," which float on it like scum; or to the reefs of red coral which abound in many parts of it; or, possibly, to the fact that its upper coast was one of the boundaries of Edom, "the red." No biblical scholar of any repute, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer, has ever asserted that the sea took its name from the overthrow of Pharaoh.

average-sized banana is equal to 20
grapes, 4 dates, 2 figs, 3 stewed prunes, 2 small apples or a cup of orange juice

"Lottie" is the mother of "Little Nell" as well as "Little Pat" so her new daughter should possess some genuinely fast and furious track blood. Baby is a handsome animal. Watch her career.

C. C. C. CAMP NEWS

Additional Indiana young men are to be eligible for reenrollment in the Civilian Conservation Corps at the April enrollment because of a change in regulations, it was announced recently at the headquarters of the Governor's Commission on Unemployment Relief.

The rule requiring junior enrollees to have a record of four months of previous service has been rescinded. The one-year rule governing reselection, however, remains in effect. Applicants are eligible for reenrollment if they have an honorable discharge and have been out of the CCC for a period of one year.

Young men enrolling for the first time must be between 17 and 28 years of age, from relief or needy families, unemployed, unmarried and physically fit.

The April enrollment is to be conducted in all counties in the state sometime between April 1 and 20. A date is to be announced later by GCUR officials. The Indiana quota is yet undeveloped.

GCUR visitors in various counties already are taking preliminary applications, and compiling a file of eligible young men who wish to enroll.

"Talking Through Nose"

When we say we are "talking through our nose" we are not really doing so; we are talking with the nose or nasal passages closed, observes a writer in Pearson's London Weekly. When we have a cold we say that our speech is nasal, but in fact it is lacking in nasal resonance. The nose is one of the most important resonators of the speech mechanism, and when it is obstructed by adenoids, colds or other causes, our speech becomes harsh and colorless. This should not be called "nasal" talking, but rather "mouth" talking—without the normal nasal resonance.

New England Smithy of 1776 Still in Operation

North Andover, Mass.—The town smithy here, reputedly the oldest in New England, still stands today where it stood 160 years ago, a relic of the horse and buggy days.

And, despite the motorization of delivery and farm equipment there remain, Blacksmith Samuel Lawes said, enough horses to provide the means of a livelihood.

The shop, which Lawes now operates himself, once employed 17 men. Until a few years ago it was owned by Charles Wilcox, one of the oldest blacksmiths in the country when he retired in his eighty-sixth years.

One of the most notable changes since the days horse shoeing was a thriving business is, Lawes said, that today instead of shoeing most of the horses in his shop he makes the shoes there and carries them around to farms where the shoeing is done on the premises.

Among exhibits remaining in the shop are the split irons for the cloven hoofs of oxen, brown and faded posters advertising spavin and colic cures, and dust coated, time stained carriage wheels.

Record of War Hero Is Revealed After Demise

East St. Louis.—The international World war reputation of Walter Welsh was disclosed here through death.

Welsh, a bystander, was fatally wounded in a shooting affair at a tavern.

With his death it was revealed that Welsh, a native of Vermont, served with the Canadian troops in France, and after being wounded while carrying messages was decorated personally by the late King George.

"Good boy," said the king to Welsh.

The Canadian government, on learning of Welsh's death and his poverty, paid the funeral expenses of $100.

SENIOR NEWS

The Seniors are all very much excited this week about their invitations and name cards for commencement. We received them this week and not a single Senior was satisfied until he or she had exchanged name cards with the other members of the class.

The Senior Civics class has been making a study of the history of voting. Our attention was centered upon our Australian Ballot. We each had to make a copy of this type of ballot then learn how to mark and fold them correctly.

The Psi Iota Xi sorority delightfully entertained eleven Senior girls at a 6:30 dinner party Wednesday evening at the school house. The tables were arranged with three girls at a table accompanied by a member of the sorority. The dinner was very unique and was carried on as if one were in a restaurant or a hotel.

The group was entertained by several singing and tapping numbers presented by Patty and Sally Myers accompanied at the piano by their mother, Mrs. Carl Myers Jr.

The girls who attended were Doris Matthews, Doris Wiltout, Marcella Leininger, Helen Shoemaker, Helen Marvel, Edith Whetstone, Julia Anne Busenburg, Kathrine Eiler, Winifred Mollenhour, Joy Long and Louise Paulus.

JUNIOR NEWS

The Juniors feel that they are not getting along so well this week. However, as yet we have not heard of any casualties caused from the numerous tests suffered under Paul Smith.

A few in the two typing classes have been making over fifty words per minute for the past week.

Some members of the class are participating in the Oratorical Contest. The entire class expresses its best wishes to each and every one who has entered.

The other day in history class we learned that Jack Shinn does not know his directions. We are all living in the fear that at sometime Jack will run off to war and fail to return to his beloved friends. Not because he has been mortally wounded or taken prisoner, but because he has failed to find his way back from 'no mans land'.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

The Sophomores were informed that for typing next year a suggestion had been made to look at each persons work during the first semester of the course and if he had not made a creditable showing that he would be asked to change to some other subject.

EIGHTH GRADE NEWS

In Literature we are committing to memory the poem entitled, "Oh Captain, My Captain." This poem was written by Walt Whitman. Last week we learned a part of "Snow-Bound" by John G. Whittier. Now in this subject we cannot say that we especially enjoy learning poems. It is very amusing to listen to Mr. Smith read poems, although at times it is very sad. When he reads a very touching poem and puts a large amount of feeling in it, our first impulse is to get our handkerchiefs out and dry our tears.

In arithmetic we are learning to extract square root. Mr. Fenstermaker introduced the process to us some time ago and now our books are doing likewise.

In General Science we still get our quizzes very frequently.

In Civics we are learning, "The American's Creed" which we all hope to live up to. In this class we are thinking of staging a sit-down strike if Mr. Smith doesn't come across with a story in a very short time.

We are very happy to have our classmate, Alice Cleveland, who has been ill with scarlet fever, back with us again.

Oh, say do you like ham? Well if you are not sure consult a certain girl in our class. She will give you the required information. Here is her description: of medium height, she is a brunette and has a good disposition. She wears red frequently. Can you guess who she is? If so, she is the one to consult.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

The Seventh Grade history class is going to draw a map of the world. Our aim in doing this is to set off the United States and its possessions from the rest of the world. We have a week from today to make it in.

We had another test in Literature this week over the story of "The Great Stone Face". Incidentally the school dictionary is becoming frayed around the edges from use is this class.

Friday the Home Economics girls are going to prepare a breakfast in class. It will consist of an orange, oatmeal, toast and cocoa.

HIGH SCHOOL MUSICALS

The high school musicals held at the gymnasium Friday night, March 19, was well attended by an appreciative audience. The members of the band and their director, Mr. Bowers, are to be highly complimented upon the splendid work they are doing. As a school, we are very proud of our band and are looking forward to a great future for it.

There are several new members which will be added to the band in the future.

KNOCK! KNOCK!

What have we here? An immaculate Junior coming down the hall. Listen, what do you hear? An exact reproduction of the voice of Bob Burns whanging away on some crazy wise-crack. There is one thing about which this person is very serious, however, namely his appearance. Don't you dare to even misplace one hair of his slickly oiled coiffure, or you'll raise his ire. Honest, I'll bet you that it takes him at least half an hour each morning to arrange his patent leather bob.

One thing that we must say for this eligible young man (the eligible being for Miss Langell's sake) is that he is one of the most industrious people that we have in our entire school.

Willing Workers Class

The Willing Workers Class of the Methodist Sunday school met at the home of Zella Jean Elliott Thursday afternoon after school. There were nine members and three guests present. The home was tastefully decorated in keeping with the Easter season and the games and contests were also appropriate for the holiday. Prizes were won by Mary Ellen Paxton, Mrs. Broda Clark and Jean Elliott. After the games delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Wilson Honored

J. L. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Wilson of R. 5 Rochester, was recently selected to serve on the Publicity Committee of the Purdue Egg and Baby Chick Show which is to be in progress May 5, 6, and 7 in the judging pavilion of the university poultry building.

"Jonny", as his local acquaintances will recall him, was graduated from Talma high school in 1933 climaxing a very active career here which included vice presidency of his senior class, and two letters awarded him in recognition of his activities with the Talma basketball squad.
