ANNUAL FISH FRY TO BE HELD NEXT TUESDAY EVE.

The officials of the Mentone Conservation club are busily engaged in making arrangements for the annual fish fry to be held at the Mentone school building on Tuesday evening, Nov. 9th.

There is little that can be said of this affair that isn't well-known to all conservationists, and the public in general. There have never been any complaints of either the meal or the programs in times past, and all eagerly await this event each year. The fish are on hand, cleaned and ready for the famous "Jonah" boys to take over, and when they fry fish there are never any complaints from the dining room.

The price of the meal and program is one dollar, which also includes a year's membership to the conservation club.

The program committee is arranging for an appropriate program, and as has been customary, Harrel Mosbaugh, of the state department, will be one of the speakers. Motion pictures may be included in the program.

We'll be seeing you there. (Hope I don't get sick before Tuesday.)

DISCUSSION GROUP MEETS

Tuesday evening the group leaders for discussion groups on the Christian Basis of World Order met for the first time. They will meet again next Tuesday evening at 8:00 p. m. at the M. E. church to complete their plans after which time they will begin group discussions. All persons interested in these discussions please contact one of the group leaders or Rev. Stoner. It is hoped many individuals, irrespective of church affiliations, will join in these discussions which will consider the great issues before us, a Christian people, at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pickett returned to Fort Wayne Wednesday after a three-day visit at the Artley D. Cullum home.

WAR FUND QUOTA $21,860 FOR KOSCIUSKO COUNTY

The Kosciusko County War Fund Drive begins Thursday of this week. From that date until Nov. 18 a strong campaign will be waged to raise the $21,860, this county's quota, to support the activities of the United Service Organizations (USO) and other war relief organizations. This amount is three times as large as the quota assigned our county last year and it amounts to $3.50 for every family in the county. Let everyone be sure to give our family's share of this quota and add a little extra for those families, which, due to sickness or misfortune, cannot contribute to this fund which is to be used to provide necessities and comforts for our men in the service—your boys and mine.

The quota for Harrison township is $1049.69; Franklin township, $784, and the town of Mentone $432.

Solicitors in the town of Mentone are as follows: M. O. Mentzer, Lloyd Rickel, Ray Rush, Nellie Reed, Emma Clutter, Yolande Riner, Nettie Arnsberger, Lois Davison and Dorothy Bare.

DAUGHTER HONORED WITH A BIRTHDAY PARTY

Saturday afternoon, Oct. 30th, Mrs. Elizabeth Blue entertained in honor of the ninth birthday of her daughter, Miss Jacquelin Blue. The decorations were in keeping with the spirit of hallowe'en. A treasure hunt was much enjoyed by the guests and was followed by games and contests, and climaxed by the serving of ice cream and cake. The guest of honor was presented with many pretty birthday gifts by her friends.

Those present were: Mrs. Martha Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Oral Welch, Mrs. Elizabeth Blue, and the Misses Martha Creighton, Patty Sue Starr, Donna Jean Dillman, Romona Goodman, Bonnie Emmons, Carolyn and Marilyn Lockridge, Carol Peterson, Mary Louise Bare, Judy Clutter, and the guest of honor, Miss Jacquelin Blue.

POLITICAL PARTIES DIVIDE HONORS IN ELECTION HERE

Mentone's voters, to the extent of 307, found their way to the polls Tuesday where they chose the officials who are to execute the municipal affairs of the town during the next four years.

From a political standpoint, the citizens should be well pleased in that both parties have two representatives on the winning side.

The official tabulations were as follows:

Clerk-Treasurer
Elmore Fenstermaker (D) -----	164
Raymond S. Bare (R) -----	131
Trustee First Ward
Artley D. Cullum (R) -----	172
Earnest W. Igo (D) -----	122
Trustee Second Ward
Fred Lemler (R) -----	164
William Vernet (D) -----	128
Trustee Third Ward
Cloice Paulus (D) -----	162
Max Smith (R) -----	129

The election officials were: Charles Meredith, inspector; Elias Smith and James Gill, judges; Howard Kohr and Grover Janke, sheriffs, and Mrs. Arlo Freisner and Mrs. Earl Shinn, clerks. The newly elected officials take office on January 1, 1944.

The candidates are appreciative of the support given them and also for the expressions of congratulation. All of them are aware of the responsibilities of their civic duty and are hopeful that they may be able to dispatch the duties of their offices in a manner which will warrant the commendation of every citizen. This, we know, is almost a virtual impossibility, and it can be attained only through the cooperative effort of everyone.

Those attending the county Shrine party at Westminster Hotel, Winona Lake, Tuesday evening were Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Davison, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manwaring, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Greulich, Hrs. M. G. Yocum and Maurice Dudley.

SPEAKER FROM SOUTH PACIFIC AT LIONS MEETING NOV. 3

The regular meeting of the Mentone Lions club was held Wednesday evening and a very enjoyable time was had by all. A good portion of the business meeting following the dinner was taken up with discussions of various matters.

Donald Onthank, who was at the Pearl Harbor Naval Base at Hawaii Dec. 7, 1941 when the Japanese made their treacherous attack, gave a very interesting talk on this event and the other experiences he has had while serving as an experienced employee of a civilian contractor erecting government airfields, etc. at Pearl Harbor and other islands in the Pacific.

Wednesday evening, Nov. 17, is to be ladies' night and all Lions members, wives and lady friends are expected to be present to enjoy the affair.

MENTONE CHURCH OF CHRIST

A capacity audience greeted our evangelist at the Sunday night services, when he discussed the theme, "Why America Could Not Escape War." The speaker likened the building of a Nation to the laying of a foundation. "If your foundation rests securely upon the rock you can build securely upon it. But if it rests upon the sand neither the foundation or the superstructure can be permanent. In the foundation of a nation, if the FEAR OF GOD and RIGHTEOUSNESS AMONG MEN does not make up the chief cornerstones, that nation cannot build for time or eternity," said the speaker. He then pointed out the alarming growth of Infidelity, Atheism, Deism, Agnosticism, Skepticism, Materialism, Destructive Higher Criticism and Unitarianism in our Nation. "The American Association for the Advancement of Atheism," continued the speaker, "is bent on removing the name of God from all our coins, from all school text books, and from all legal documents; and to bar the bible from all public schools." "This is a sad commentary on a nation whose foundations were laid in the fear of God," he remarked.

Placing his finger on the pulse of the Nation's righteousness, from the files of the Federal Bureau of Statistics the evangelist read the following staggering facts:

In the past thirty years crime has increased by 500 per cent.

There are over 4½ millions of criminals operating in America.

1,333,526 major crimes committed in America last year.

This cost the nation 16 billion dollars.

But three billion was spent for education.

240,000 prisoners in our prisons. 75% are under 21 years of age.

There was a murder committed every 45 minutes; a robbery every two minutes, and a suicide every thirty-five minutes.

50,000 homes burglarized in America last year.

1933 350 million spent for liquor; 1936—5 billion spent for liquor.

Over 500,000 places where liquor is being sold.

Drink crime costs six billion yearly. Divorce increased in past five years by 63%.

65,000 girls swept into red light districts.

16 million children and young people who have never been inside a church building.

30 million young people and children receiving no religious training or instruction either in the church or home.

J. Edgar Hoover says, "Juvenile delinquency in America has now become a 'national scandal.'"

"With both these cornerstones crumbling in our foundation, America had to feel the stern hand of the Father of Nations. No nation can hold these serpents to her bosom and escape the sting. We are now paying dearly for our folly. If the stroke upon our backs will bring us back to God, and back to holy ideals, the price will not be too great. But, if we come out of this war as Godless and wicked as we entered it, the whole effort will have been in vain," concluded the speaker. That audience went home aroused and awakened.

Next Saturday Bro. Kepple will again spend the day (10:00-3:00) with the children and young people of the community. Last Saturday's experience was one never to be forgotten. Every young person in the whole community is invited next Saturday. The present series of meetings will close next Sunday night.

Mrs. Goldie Kessler visited Mrs. Mildred Friesch at the Murphy Medical Center Saturday and presented her with a Memory Book containing messages of cheer from her many friends in and near Mentone. Goldie reports Mildred in the best of spirits and very happy to hear from friends.

REV. COLLINS WRITES FROM CAMP IN GEORGIA

Under date of October 28, C. C. Collins, former pastor of the Mentone Methodist church and now a chaplain in the armed forces, wrote the editor of this paper a letter from Spence Field, Moultrie, Georgia. He didn't give me permission to reprint it, but feel others would appreciate the information it contained. It was as follows:

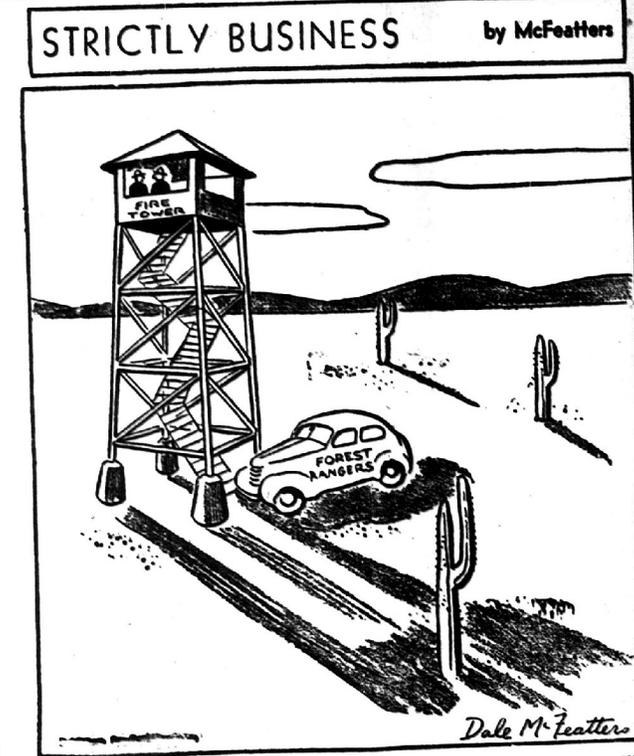

Dear Art:

I have intended to write you so many times but just keep waiting until later. I have quite a number of letters to write and it is really hard to find the time for they have been keeping me plenty busy.

It just doesn't seem possible that I have been in the Army almost six months, will be the 6th of next month. The time has certainly passed rapidly. I have been here at Spence Field five months the 13th of next month and from all indications I'll probably be here for a good many more. My Supervising Chaplain says it is next to impossible to get replacements on chaplains and the Catholic Chaplain has been here for about 20 months and therefore will be due for overseas pretty soon so it looks like I will be here as he says "for some time." However, that is where they want me I am willing to stay. I suppose most of you would like to see some foreign duty. My friend, Chaplain Travis Purdy, formerly pastor at Syracuse, wrote me a few days ago that he had his alert two weeks ago and is just waiting final word as to when and where. I guess they are taking all chaplains according to the length of time they have been in the service.

I have noticed from the Mentone News that you have several accomplished flyers around town. I suppose you have been doing some flying yourself. I have been up but do not expect to attempt learning how to fly just now. In fact I have really been initiated into the Air Corps for I have had to use a hose on the plane after coming down because I lost a perfectly good meal.

I have been having many unique experiences in the Army. Many of them have been with the German prisoners of war at this field. I have been conducting worship services for them on Sunday and visiting them during the week. They have been doing many kinds of work on the field but have been helping especially with the harvesting of the peanut crop. Last Sunday night they presented a musical and comedy program to the military personnel of the field. They gave a good program and had a fine crowd.

Perhaps I should tell you how I have been preaching to these prisoners in spite of the fact that I don't know German. One of the Wacs has been translating my sermons into German and then one of the prisoners has been reading it to the group. So one Sunday morning while I was driving across country to preach in the First Methodist Church at Tifton I was also preaching a sermon in German in the compound at Spence Field.

Will you please tell George Clark that I had fully expected to have a picture of myself for his display by this time but that the photographer in Ligonier who did the work has been ill. I'll make another inquiry soon however, and see if I can get some more pictures made.

I must close and get to some more work. Thanks so much for sending us the Mentone paper as we do enjoy keeping in touch with our many friends back there. Please remember us to your wife and family and also to our friends as you may see them. Mrs. Collins and Barbara are still with me, having been here since the 18th of July, and we have really been enjoying the warm weather. I think we will be going into woolen clothing by the week end as it is getting just a little cool.

Thanks again for your kindnesses and say "hello" to everyone for us.

Sincerely Yours,
CLARENCE C. COLLINS,
Chaplain, 1st Lt.

Lt. and Mrs. C. C. Collins,
Dear Friends:

If others have as little time to actually write letters as I have, congress wouldn't be using up much time debating about raising the postage rate on letters. They slipped those little purple ones over on us in the first war and they lasted for 25 years. That helped pay the deficit created by congressmen sending all their speeches and other "literature" free to every newspaper, office holder and other gullible Americans, but judging by the amount of such material being sent us today, we'd all have to stick a dollar bill in the upper right hand corner of every letter to keep the department from ending up in the red. I guess they're gonna stick another penny on cigars, but at that every smoke ring a man blows will just be another cipher to hang on the tail of our deficit.

Mentone is still Mentone and proud of it. Even so much alive that some of us even got a bit jittery while the election was in progress Tuesday. (If it gets too tough down around the fire station a couple of us may be enlisting soon).

The hens are multiplying and laying eggs at the same time. Heard of a good many big pig crops and the corn turned out better than it looked at one time this fall. There was a good hay crop, but most of the boys put the blame stuff in the bank. Did have an idea I'd buy a little but I may just try to feed the livestock on subsidies, or whatever the government has to offer.

Liberators, Fortresses, P-39's, Taylorcrafts, Darts, Cubs and many other types of aircraft, including gliders, have been drifting along overhead about as thick as flies at an old-fashioned watermelon festival, but I've been sticking to the ground tighter than a louse on a shipwrecked sailor. It's not that I wouldn't enjoy flying one of those things again, but it just never seems to work out that I can find enough time to do as much of it as I'd like—and there doesn't appear to be much logic in just dribbling along at it. That's too much like licking the straw after the soda is gone. If you ever hear of anyone hollering "here comes grandpa," it may be me.

Been trying to get a good sticky hair ointment these days. My hair always has been a bit unruly and I don't want too many to think that Hershey has me scared. McNutt has been a "silent partner" for the past few weeks. Must either be on a vacation or threatened with one.

I'm not much on the writing business. Never can think of much to say after I get the introduction over with. Hope you continue enjoying your work and that you and your family enjoy the best of health and happiness.

As ever, your friends,
The Cullums.

"FOR AS IN ADAM ALL DIE, EVEN SO IN CHRIST SHALL ALL BE MADE ALIVE." (1 Cor. 15:22).

Adam was made of the dust of the earth. He became a living soul (Gen. 2:7). He was put on probation. He was created a free moral agent. He could choose. He could never be spoken of as being morally upright if he had no choice.

So he was on trial. He must believe either God or Satan. He can obey, or disobey. The penalty was death. Adam knew what death was. Animals and plants died. They had died for thousands of years before Adam. So Adam was not ignorant of the nature of death. He knew that it was something that was terrifying in its finality. It is declared in the Word to be an enemy. It is the last enemy to be put down. So Adam had the Word of God that in the day that he disobeyed, he would begin to die; that total death would finally overtake him and that would be the end of his existence.

Dr. Dale A. Rigdon

OPTOMETRIST

"IT'S THE EXAMINATION THAT COUNTS"

OFFICE AT FITCH'S JEWELRY STORE
WARSAW, INDIANA

For Your Convenience — Please Phone 781 for Appointment

But Adam deliberately chose to disobey; he was not deceived. It was Eve that was deceived; she believed Satan rather than God (1 Tim 2:14). So death came upon the race.

When the transgression was discovered a new revelation was given. Although they had forfeited the life that God had given them, a promise was given that Satan would not always triumph, but that a new life would some day be furnished by the Seed of woman. God could not change His law and be just. All in Adam must die, for the soul that sinneth, it shall die (Ezek. 18:4, 20).

Just as God has life in Himself and can give it to man and take it away from man so also, does the Lord Jesus have life in Himself and He can give it to man or take it away from man. But there is a little catch here that must be observed. This final and eternal death that comes upon Adam and all his seed must remain final and eternal as long as man retains his guilt of sin. So before the Lord Jesus could ever give a new life to any man, this guilt had to be done away with. That was accomplished on the cross. The sin of the whole world was not only laid upon Him and judged there, but He was made sin for us. So the guiltless suffered for the guilty. That our Lord's death was satisfactory in every respect was proven by His being raised from the dead. All penalty for all sin, past, present and future was ended there on the cross. The only bar to eternal life for any man is the rejection of the Savior.

So when the penalty was removed, then Adam and his seed are not required to remain forever dead. In Christ all shall be made alive. Some will enter into blessing with their Lord. Others will die the second death. There is no indication that this second death will be any different from the first death, except that it will be final and eternal in that none will ever come out of it. Immortality or eternal existence is possible only in Christ.

It is true that some will die and remain forever dead with no resurrection of any kind. But they are not of Adam. They are the seed of Satan. They are mentioned in Isa. 26:14 and are described as being the offspring of sons of God (fallen angels) and daughters of men.

But the great truth to remember is "FOR AS IN ADAM ALL DIE, EVEN SO IN CHRIST SHALL ALL BE MADE ALIVE."

SCHOOL NEWS

The Mentone Bulldogs opened the season with a 27 to 25 victory over the Atwood Greyhounds at the Etna gym Tuesday evening. Scoring seven points before Atwood could score and holding a 13 to 5 first-quarter lead, it looked as if it might be a runaway. Sharpshooting was at a peak in this quarter as Mentone did not miss a single shot. In the second quarter Atwood was held to a single basket while Mentone scored 6 points. In the second half Atwood came back strong to score 8 points while Mentone had to be content with 2 foul shots. A hectic last quarter saw Mentone pull away to a 27-21 lead, but suddenly Atwood came to life and with two quick baskets narrowed the score to 27-25. Mentone stalled the last minute and a half and once refused a foul shot in order to control the ball. Jim Whetstone, senior forward, led the Bulldogs with 8 points. Jimmy Marsh and Bill Bradbury scored 6 points each for Atwood. The game was marred by many personal fouls with 29 being called.

The Pups showed tremendous power by smothering Atwood to the tune of 34 to 12. Thirteen players were used in this contest. Atwood used 17 to no advantage.

way that both the individual and society will be benefited to the greatest possible extent.

The official beginning of agricultural clubs was the Corn Club started in 1899, in Marcoupin County, Illinois. The first girls club was a small tomato-growing club organized in South Carolina. The years 1905 to 1913 may be regarded as the pioneer years in 4-H club work in Indiana. In 1912 the Department of Agricultural extension, Purdue University, began co-operating with the U.S. Department of Agriculture in boys' and girls' club work. Dr. Z. M. Smith was appointed club leader. Under his direction club work was organized on a permanent basis and has grown from a few hundred members to many thousands.

This preference can come to only a very limited number of the great groups of illustrious men and women whose enterprise and energy have been spent in the upbuilding of the various societies which make up this congress.

WINS PILOT'S WINGS

(The following news release from the Public Relations Officer of the Marianna, Florida Army Air Force Advanced Single - Engine training school, was received this week. The young man whose name appears in the article, is now at Mentone visiting friends and relatives.—Ed.)

Richard B. Manwaring today received a much coveted pair of pilot wings and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army. This event marked the completion of one of the most rigorous courses of training prescribed by the Army.

Lt. Manwaring entered the Army Air Forces as an Aviation Cadet and was sent directly to the classification center at Nashville, Tenn., where he was chosen as potential pilot material. From there he went to an Army Air Forces Pre-Flight School where he underwent two months of arduous toughening up exercises and study. He received his primary and basic flying training at various training fields in the Southeast and was then sent to the Army Air Forces Advanced Flying School at Marianna, Fla., for two months intensive course in single engine flying tactics and operations.

Lt. Manwaring is the son of Mrs. Ersie Manwaring of Mentone, Ind.

LEWIS FOOR REMEMBERED ON 75TH BIRTHDAY

Lewis Foor has been a very important person the past few days, the occasion of his 75th birthday being the attraction. On last Friday night a few of his neighbors surprised he and Mrs. Foor by running in for the evening, taking their own refreshments of ice cream, strawberries and cake. The surprise was complete and thoroughly enjoyed.

Sunday another surprise was afforded Lewis when his son Ben and wife and grandson Lewis and wife and two great-grandbabies, Anne and Billy Foor, all of Kendallville, came bringing a fried chicken dinner with them, complete with birthday cake.

Merl F. Newby, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Merl F. Newby of Sidney, has reported at the Midland army air field, Midland, Texas, known as the nation's No. 1 bombardier school, for three months of intensive training in the use of the bombsight, loading, fusing and dropping bombs, navigation, camouflage detection, enemy ship and aircraft identification and use of automatic flight control devices. At an outlying "combat camp," he will experience simulated fighting-front conditions, including living on short rations, ducking into foxholes during "raids" and carrying out missions against targets night and day. The training will lead to his commissioning as a second lieutenant or appointment as a flight officer in the army air forces. He is a nephew of Mrs. Don Bunner and a cousin of Mrs. George Clark.

BOB DUGLAY WRITES FROM
"SOMEWHERE IN ITALY"

(The following letter was received last week by George Clark, from Bob Duglay who is located with a bombing squadron "somewhere in Italy." It was written Oct. 8. —Ed.)
Dear George:

I have been putting off writing to you for some time. I received your last letter while I was still in Sicily. I haven't received any of the papers you spoke of though. Sure am sweating them out so I will know a little of some of the things that are going on in the quiet little village.

Things were pretty hot here for awhile. One of the biggest fire-works programs I ever seen. One of the prettiest sights I have ever seen since I have been here was a JU-88 shot out of the skies. It was at nite and when he hit the ground the thing exploded and lit up the whole country. I speak of this one plane because it is the first one I ever saw shot down. There were some more that nite but they were not so close. It is sure good to see all of our anti-aircraft cut loose but there is still that old law, all that goes up must come down, for that reason I use my helmet for more reasons than taking a bath. Everything is going swell here now and with the exception of a little rain now and then it's not so bad. A lot better climate than Africa or Sicily. I have seen quite a lot of places here that look more like a civilized country. It looks like some of the towns were pretty nice places but they are quite badly beaten up now. It seems like we are doing pretty good in the real estate business here. I hope to eat my Thanksgiving dinner in Rome that is if they don't change the date again. How about that, have they made any changes on that this year?

George I would like to invite you to our tent for a little shot of raw whiskey. It seems to be the most popular after dinner drink here. It is about 130 proof and just about like drinking gasoline. We spike it with cool aid and go to it. At the present we've been slowed down a little due to the fact that the CO was awakened from deep slumber the other nite by an intoxicated G.I. rendering his version of, "Lady Play That Mandolin For Me." I guess we will have to be satisfied with a spot of tea for our evening drink. Even though the Jerries have taken a lot of the food from the country it is still easy to find a good steer around and a couple of times the boys have come in with a good beef in the truck. We have found a lot of good apples here too.

George you ask about pictures. I have plenty of films to last me for awhile but I could always use some more. I can get them developed over here and I am just going to keep them till I get home. There is quite a lot of red tape about sending pictures home. If you can find any 35 mm film I can use it. I have written for a camera several times and don't seem to have any luck. I have a pretty good one here but it belongs to another fellow. This kid lives in Chicago so we are going to get together after we get home and get prints of both our pictures. I have some pretty god ones now.

I hope this finds you OK and hope to hear from you soon.

Your friend, "BOB."

Nov. 11, 1918

25 YEARS AGO TODAY—the eleventh hour . . . of the eleventh day . . . of the eleventh month—the world was thrilled by the announcement that the hostilities of a war of hate and greed had ended. The Armistice was signed and had been declared in full force and effect. After many months of another war we now know this was not the end of hostilities, but was merely “a rest period between the quarters.” We are grateful, however, for the interim of peace which the historic document gave us.

Looking back over the past 25 years we see hundreds of accomplishments for which we are very thankful. Our organization, with the complete cooperation of almost everyone in the community, has grown to a place where it is serving vital needs in almost every line of human endeavor. We do appreciate the assistance and loyal support which we have had from every patron. We trust that we may continue to enjoy the same high type of cooperation and thereby become even better able to serve you economically and efficiently.

Two payments will be made for the quarter, according to the bulletin. The first payment will be for milk and butterfat produced in October, and the application for payment must be filed during the month of November. The second payment will cover the months of November and December, and application for payment must be filed during the month of January. Payments to producers will be made by a sight draft signed by a member of the county AAA committee. These drafts can be cashed at your local bank.

ANNUAL FISH FRY STILL A VERY POPULAR AFFAIR

The Mentone Conservation Club held its annual fish fry at the school building Tuesday evening and every indication was that it was one of the most enjoying ones ever held. Well over 200 gathered to partake of the bounteous repast and if anyone went home still hungry for fish it was his own fault.

The Jonah club, famous throughout the state for its fish-frying ability, did not injure their reputation a bit Tuesday night. The Jonah club is growing, too, judging by the program put on by Jonah Chief "Skinney" Higgins and his brother Jonahs. Four applicants for membership were given the first degree. ("Skinney" stated that the club's requirements are very rigid and the subsequent degrees increase in intensity.) Raymond Lash was chosen as a candidate because of his fish-eating ability while Hobart Creighton came in a close second. Les Ball was adjudged the noisiest while eating (so noisy, in fact, that a second was not chosen), and Lyndes Latimer was selected as the "man they'd like to be stranded on a fishing trip with." The Jonah Abdominal Inspector took numerous "depth soundings," etc. of the applicants to determine not only the evening's consumption but the potential capacity of each. (He even found a piece of fish in Applicant Ball's pocket which he evidently had hoped to have as a lunch while hunting the next day.) The Inspector admonished Raymond Lash, claiming he had "two beers" before coming to the fish fry.

At the regular business session, secretary Paulus gave a financial report and President Mollenhour gave a brief report of the material assets of the club. The nominating committee renominated the president and secretary and chose the members of the board of directors. The Palestine and Yellow Creek clubs have merged with the Mentone club and both those clubs were given representation on the board.

Maurice Lung of the state fish hatcheries; Henry Cottingham representing the Robinson-Pitman Act to establish game habitats, and Harrel Mosbaugh of the state fish and game department, were present and spoke. Mr. Mosbaugh was the main speaker of the evening. Kenneth Riner served as toastmaster.

Motion pictures taken at the state game farms and three reels of "Action in Idaho," showing fishing in the seldom-fished lakes and rivers of that area, were shown. The latter picture was supplied through the courtesy of the South Bend Bait company.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lemler, M. and Mrs. Raymond Werrick and family, Mrs. Edith Darr and Mona Lou and Norbert Darr, Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Beeson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Zent, Mr. and Mrs. George Rans, Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre, and Mrs. S. M. Hill all attended the revival services at Fulton Sunday night. Rev. R. Orville Yeager, who was a former pastor of the Mentone First Baptist Church, is conducting a two week's meeting in Fulton. Rev. Yeager drove to Mentone after the services and was entertained at supper by Mr. and Mrs. Lemler and family and spent the night as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Cox.

(A well-known Mentone citizen submitted the following poem for publication. The name of the author was not included.—Ed.)

A man stood at the pearly gate
His face was worn and old;
He merely asked of the man of fate
Admission to the fold.

What have you done, St. Peter asked,
To seek admission here?
Why, I tried to estimate my income Tax from now to the end of the year.

The gates swung open sharply,
As St. Peter touched the bell;
Come in, he said and take a harp,
You've had enough of hell.

The Sunday School Is An Amazing Institution.

The Sunday school, with its associated organizations, is now practically the only institution working for the spiritual welfare of the children, and is still the safest place I know outside the home.

The blessings, both direct and indirect, resulting from the Sunday school movement, are incalculable. Not only does it bless by training the children in that "righteousness which exalteth a nation," but at the same time fits our youth for all kinds of religious, social and civic service. The Sunday school has been the university from which thousands and tens of thousands of our best citizens graduated.

As an organization alone, the world's Sunday schools are an amazing institution; whether it be in the mere bricks and mortar or in the vast number and character of the workers, what other political or social organization can boast as much as they?—Sir Harold Mackintosh, Conyngham Hall, England.

NUGGETS FOR BEREANS

No. 83

"IT IS TIME FOR THEE, LORD, TO WORK: FOR THEY HAVE MADE VOID THY LAW." Psa. 119:126.

In this present dispensation, as in all previous ones, judgment and rule and power in the earth have been committed unto man. It is called "Man's day." (See I Cor. 4:3 and note on judgment.)

But man is a failure in his responsibility. Nationally, he is a miserable failure and good government is the crying need of the world today. Individually he is a failure, both in the church and in the world. He is the worker of untold evils.

But another day is coming. It is a day men pray for when they say "Thy kingdom come." It is the "Day of the Lord" (Isa. 2:11, 17). This day with all its works is described in the Revelation. It is there called "The Lord's day," (Rev. 1:10). It is a time when the Lord will rule the world in Judgment and Righteousness. It is also called the "Day of Christ" in Phil. 1:6 and 2:16.

This day concerns the world. It will overtake the world at a time when it least expects; when "peace, peace" shall be its cry, and "safety" its creed.

To the believer, the promise is, "that day shall not overtake you as a thief." That is because believers are "not in darkness" concerning it. "IT IS TIME FOR THEE, LORD, TO WORK: FOR THEY HAVE MADE VOID THY LAW."

SCHOOL NEWS

Hopes for a successful season took a big jump Friday nite as the Mentone Bulldogs showed strength in whipping a strong Beaver Dam quintet. Beaver Dam, using a zone defense, held Mentone to a 14-7 half-time lead, but in the second half the Mentone team came back strong to score 21 points. Mentone played great the first half at Atwood on Tuesday nite but tired in the second; such did not happen Friday, for it was the Beavers who tired and let the Bulldogs score on numerous set shots. The Beavers, led by all-county forward Eldon Ummel, and Dick Whittenberger, couldn't seem to find the hoop and were forced to take many poor shots from all over the floor. The Beavers fought hard the first half, but Mentone, hitting a very good percentage eventually won out. The Beavers outweighed Mentone and took many rebounds, but the Bulldogs came up with three boys, Mosier, Tinkey and Fore, who before the year is over should make Mentone an excellent rebound team. Junior Fore led Mentone in scoring with four baskets and one free throw for a total of 9 points; Ummel and Whittenberger each collected 5 for Beaver Dam.

The Seconds, led by Dick Filarsky, who scored 7 points, rolled over the hapless Beaver Seconds by the score of 28 to 4.

Mentone meets Akron on Friday, Nov. 12 at Akron. This should be another good game as Akron always has a strong team.

Our School, Mentone High School, and It's Library.

What is the use of our school library? How should it be used? What should it contain?

I, as a student, am going to try to tell you about our school library, and its use.

Our school library is in a room which is also used for various classes. We, as students, as a result of this cannot get full benefit of it. At various periods you can not even get an encyclopedia, much less hunt around for material.

Our school library contains dictionaries, encyclopedias and class room texts from the past several years for reference books. As far as encyclopedias, etc. we have a good supply for a small school but my main plea is for it to be a place where it can be used to its full value at any period of the day.

A Pupil of Mentone High School.

CO-OP NEWS TO PUBLISH PICTURES OF CHILDREN

Through an arrangement with the Woltz Studios (announcement on the back page of this issue) this newspaper expects to print the pictures of a number of the children of Mentone and vicinity.

The arrangement is not for profit as far as this newspaper is concerned but is purely for the news interest that may accrue. The studio, also, makes no requirement upon either the children or the parents, other than selecting the proof which you may desire to have published. There is nothing which will compel you to buy pictures under any circumstance, however, the studio is confident that the quality of their pictures is such that many will desire prints from them. This is the only way whereby they can expect to make the enterprise worth while to them.

As editor of this publication, I hope that we may have a number of pictures to print in our paper. I also desire to impress that no expenditure of money is required by any parent to accomplish this. If you desire to purchase additional pictures for your own use, you may do so. These pictures must be ordered from the representative of the Woltz Studios.

SCHOOL NEWS

The Mentone Bulldogs dropped their first game of the season to a tall Akron Flyer team Friday night in a game at Akron. Akron, getting off to a fast start, lead 11 to 3 at the end of the first quarter. The remaining three quarters saw Mentone fight hard and hold the Flyers to a standstill. Mentone matched them point for point but couldn't overcome the first quarter lead. Landis, Akron forward, was high point man of the game with 11 points. Mentone's scoring was evenly divided among the team.

Tuesday night found Mentone hitting the victory trail once more as they downed the hard-fighting Milford Trojans, 42 to 41. Mentone trailed Midway through the second quarter 24 to 10, but by the end of the third quarter saw each team score 6 field goals but a Mentone foul shot proved the margin of victory. Johnnie Tom, Milford forward, lead the Trojans with 22 points while Fritz Wolferman also got 11 points. Joe Boggs and Junior Fore led Mentone with 18 and 14 points respectively.

The week end saw the second team win both games. Royal Blue lead the scorers with 8 points in the Akron game and 13 against Milford. The scores were Mentone 19, Akron 17; Mentone 23, Milford 22.

Wouldn't It Be Neighborly?

A rather unusual circumstance is prevalent today, and as inconvenient as it may appear, it is a splendid opportunity for us to exercise some of the attributes which unfortunately have not been utilized as frequently as they should for our own happiness and contentment.

Many homes in Mentone are cold today—because the occupants have no fuel for the stoves. Other homes, too, contain many tons of splendid coal, which for the moment is serving no laudable purpose. (We were asked to "hoard" coal during the summer months and there is no reflection upon those who did buy during the hot summer days.)

A challenge is given us who do have more coal than we need now to see that our neighbor, who has none, is supplied, either by sale or loan. Those who do not have no coal should make their needs known.

From a personal viewpoint, I have no fear but that we will not suffer too much because of a lack of fuel this winter. Many bins are filled with a whole winter's supply, which should make less demand on the regular shipments that local dealers state, are due to arrive periodically. Those who have a good supply should make no effort to get more coal until those who have practically none are supplied. The finger of scorn and shame has already pointed to a few parties who "got the limit" from recent cars even when they had a good supply in their bins. The general public is extremely critical, and is generally well informed and seldom gets very far away from the true pathway. Our manhood is being subjected to the test—how well we pass that test is our individual responsibility.

Selfishness and panic is the irrevocable evidence of failure; calm, rugged determination the unmistakable countenance of a manly victor.

SHADES OF ST. PATRICK!

I know now about how it feels when a delayed-action bomb unexpectedly lets loose. Errors in newspapers usually show up at a time when all one can do is "let it explode."

In our last issue we lost a bet with the odds six to one. In the store closing notice submitted by Clark's, Hill & Lemler's, C & C Hardware and the Locker Plant, we used the word "Sunday" instead of "Saturday."

The stores named will close each week-day evening at six o'clock except Saturday when they will remain open in the evening as usual. (Sunday hours are by appointment only. See your local groceryman.)

TRAPPERS SUPPLYING NEW, VITAL NEED

Illustration reproduced by permission of Photo Section, Philadelphia Q. M. Depot

America's trappers—including the youngsters and the women who are carrying on for absent sons, brothers and husbands—may rightfully smile with pride as they keep the nation's trappelines going. For the product of their endeavor, fur, is playing a new role today.

Always valued as a source of income and as an article of high fashion and warmth, fur is now doing its part in outfitting Uncle Sam's Arctic fighters—so that they may better withstand the rigors of cold. As an example, parka hoods for the uniforms of our ski troopers (see illustration) are among the items whose production depends upon the output of the country's trappelines. Also the fur vests worn by the men who sail our ships through Northern waters. With increased attention being paid to materials for warm clothing, furs are becoming more and more important to a fighting victory-bound America.

The raw fur crop is here—along the streams, in the woods and fields—literally waiting to be taken. Practically no investment is required—only some traps and the effort needed to run the trappeline. And as for the effort, if desired it can be limited to spare time—a feature which fits in beautifully with either a schoolboy's or housewife's daily routine.

Authority

We want guidance! We want a knowledge of right and wrong! This is the cry of many young people today, according to Doris Drucker, whose article, "Authority for Our Children," appeared in Harper's Magazine for February, 1941. The article is an analysis of a poll conducted by the Research Bureau of America among college students to find out what authority had been exercised by their homes, schools, and churches, and what "reaction" they had to it.

It was found that the home has given up most of its authority, and that the schools and churches exercise even less. The result has been that the young people are wandering about as sheep without a shepherd. Or, as Miss Drucker puts it, they have "no generally valid standard by which to go—only individual experiences and individual solutions." From this she draws the conclusion that the freedom which young people have "enjoyed" has given them an insecurity which they fear and wish to escape.

Further, the author says, the abandonment of authority by the home is due to the fact that the parents themselves have almost no valid standard which they can fall back upon in exercising discipline. Almost no valid standard, because she says that there is one "remaining absolute authority of our times—science."

Parents of to-day have discarded the Word of God as their standard of faith and goodness and therefore have had to turn to the word of man for the support they need in exercising authority over their children. But the children realize that the word of a man, no matter how brilliant or well educated, is not an absolute standard. They resent other men's telling them what to do. So they reject the "authority" of men and flounder about by themselves as best they can, crying for guidance.

May God grant that the parents, teachers, and preachers of this nation shall realize their children's need and give them the authority they are failing to give them now—that of God, found in His Word, the Bible!—Presbyterian Guardian.

We are endeavoring to help the young people of our community. Won't you help us by bringing yours to Sunday School? Classes for all ages.

No. 84

"THEREFORE WE ARE ALWAYS CONFIDENT, KNOWING THAT, WHILST WE ARE AT HOME IN THE BODY, WE ARE ABSENT FROM THE LORD . . . WILLING RATHER TO BE ABSENT FROM THE BODY AND PRESENT WITH THE LORD." 2 Cor. 5:6,8.

In the preceding chapter, verse 1, the Apostle says, "we faint not." This is a negative statement, but is an expression of confidence. As we read on, we discover that the basis is that, tho we be but earthen vessels and death works in them, yet we have a pledge of resurrection, (verse 14). This naturally would follow the teaching of the Word that we can never see Christ except in resurrection (1 Cor. 15:18).

Going on in chapter 4, we again find the expression "We faint not" in verse 16. Here the grounds of confidence are that, tho we be in an earthly house in which is the working of afflictions, yet there will certainly be a working of God in resurrection (5:5).

After making clear the promise of resurrection as the hope of the believer, Paul then comes in with the positive statement "We are always confident." Why? Simply that as he is at home in the body, (the church of Corinth which he has in this and the former epistle spoken of as "a body"), in the resurrection he will be in new surroundings and at home with Christ. When one is in accord with his surroundings, he is at home. So Paul could be at home in the body of Christians at Corinth. He is also perfectly willing and confident that in the resurrection he will be at home with the Lord.

"WILLING RATHER TO BE ABSENT FROM THE BODY AND PRESENT WITH THE LORD."

COURT NEWS

Probate Will, Open Estate.

The will and codicil of Etta Coplen, who died at South Whitley Nov. 11, have been admitted to probate in circuit court and the estate opened, with a brother, Walter Martin, South Whitley, qualifying as executor. The will was made Jan. 6, 1939, but the codicil, executed March 24, 1939, revised the division of the estate, leaving one-sixth of the residue to each of three brothers, Walter, Nathan, Toledo, O., and John C. Martin, and brother-in-law Frank and Ada Coplen jointly, a sixth to sister-in-law Justine Taylor and a sixth to sister, Ester Allen. Frank and Ada Coplen and Ester Allen are now dead and their shares go to their heirs. Sums received by the decedent from the estates of two brothers and a sister go share and share alike to the brothers and the estate of the sister. A specific bequest of $800 is made to the trustees of the First Baptist Church of Mentone, to be used in decoration or improvement of the building. Personal property is valued at $4,000 and real estate at $1,000.

Petitions Filed.

Ralph R. Beltz has filed a petition in circuit court for adjustment of equities and interests of heirs in the estate of his father, Calvin Beltz, in aid of distribution and has also filed a petition to intervene and be made a party in setting up his interest in the claim on note of Sarah Shirley, his sister, against Rhoda R. Beltz, administratrix of his father's estate and his widow. The three are the sole heirs. The son charges that while his sister and he occupied the Beltz farm after his father's death, the sister took most of the landlord's share, of which he was entitled to half, and, pretending to pay off a note owed by the father, actually bought the note and presented it as a claim. The son asserts that he is entitled to half the money found due to his sister in her claim action.

Inventory Filed.

Earl R. Shinn, administrator of the estate of Harold O. Shinn, has filed an inventory in circuit court showing personal property to be valued at $1,572.55.

Members of the queen's court will also be gowned and will receive awards from the Legion.

A Soldier Speaks . . .

TO THE FOLKS AT HOME

These lines, written by Maude Harget for the Washington Times-Herald, need no introduction and no explanation—

So you're sick of the way the country's run,
 And you're sick of the way the rationing's done,
 And you're sick of the standing around in a line,
 You're sick, you say—well, that's Just fine.
 So am I sick of the sun and the heat,
 And I'm sick of the feel of my aching feet,
 And I'm sick of the mud and the jungle flies,
 And I'm sick of the stench when the nights mists rise,
 And I'm sick of the siren's wailing shriek,
 And I'm sick of the groans of the wounded and weak,
 And I'm sick of the sound of the bomber's dive,
 And I'm sick of seeing the dead alive.
 I'm sick of the roar and the noise and the din,
 I'm sick of the taste of food from a tin,
 And I'm sick of the slaughter—I'm sick to my soul,
 I'm sick of playing a killer's role,
 I'm sick of blood and of death and the smell,
 And I'm even sick of myself as well,
 But I'm sicker still of a tyrant's rule,
 And conquered lands where the wild beasts drool
 And I'm cured darn quick when I think of the day,
 When all this hell will be out of the way,
 When none of this mess will have been in vain,
 When the lights of the world will blaze again,
 And things will be as they were before,
 And kids will laugh in the streets once more,
 And the Axis' flags will be dipped and furled,
 And God looks down on a peaceful world.

NUGGETS FOR BEREANS

No. 85

"BUT HE THAT SINNETH AGAINST ME, WRONGETH HIS OWN SOUL; ALL THEY THAT HATE ME LOVE DEATH." Prov. 8:36.

Many times this passage is taken for a sermon text with the supposition that the speaker is the Lord. A careful reading of the whole Psalm will soon reveal that the speaker is supposed to be WISDOM. However, it would also be true if Christ were the speaker. To sin against Christ, (to reject Him) does bring a man under condemnation. Those that hate Him will see death, for the Scriptures say, "He that hath not the Son of God hath not life."

Wisdom, and I mean real wisdom which is from above, will lead a man to seek Christ. Wise men from the East sought Him. I once saw a road-sign with the words WISE MEN STILL SEEK HIM. How true!

Paul told the Romans how that the nations "professing themselves wise, they became fools." In writing to the Corinthians he revealed that "the world by wisdom knew not God." God is not found by any wisdom a man may have in his head, but the Holy Scriptures can make a man wise unto salvation through faith that is in Christ Jesus (See 2 Tim. 3:15). "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." So any scheme or method that man may make for his salvation will only end in death. Jesus said, "I am the way

. . . no man cometh unto the Father but by Me."

So true wisdom which comes from God to man still speaks, "But he that sinneth against me, wrongeth his own soul; all they that hate me love death."

322 Years of Thanks

SOMETIMES we wonder what there is for which we can be thankful, yet there is no doubt, once we pause to concentrate, that we have almost everything which we can ever hope to have. Three hundred and twenty-two years have passed since the Pilgrims first landed on our shores—322 years of grateful thanksgiving. And in comparison with the things which we have today, one wonders what was so joyous in 1621 that a day was dedicated to Thanksgiving.

Moments of despair, too often, are merely illusions. Our eyes are centered upon something un consequential or fictitious. Those owning little of this world's goods look with envy to the ones who have an abundance. And all the while the abundantly surrounded man attempts to gaze through the thick haze which surrounds him, praying that he might be capable of enjoying the simple pleasures of those of few possessions and worldly cares. Wealth, looking at it from the bottom side, appears as the "pot of gold at the end of the rainbow." But as wealth accumulates, fear takes its deadly hold and the one who dreamed of freedom, finds himself afflicted with a strange malady, deadly and maddening. His former acute senses of reason and faith are vanishing, his touch with his fellow man is being numbed. In the last fleeting moments of life he would trade the thing which he once thought he most desired for one more day of life—and throw in a leg, an arm or an eye for good measure.

Regardless of our station in life, we have much for which we can be thankful. May this Thanksgiving season find us free from the unfaithful superstitions and suppositions which appear so abundant—let the spirit of freedom radiate from our every move, and thank God that a passion of thankfulness is still alive within our very souls. That passion has been the motivating power which has permitted this great Nation to constantly add to the things for which we have been thankful the past three and nearly a quarter centuries.

The yardstick by which we should measure time is not calibrated so much in years, months or days, but by the progress which we are making. It is our sincere hope and desire that this organization, with your faithfulness and patronage, may continue to progressively serve you and your community.

MORE INTERESTING LETTERS FROM SOLDIER FRIENDS

(George Clark, who has made a continual effort to keep in touch with the boys from Mentone who are serving in our armed forces, contributes the following letters which were among some of those he recently received.—Ed.)

Nov. 13, 1943
Camp Shelby, Miss.

Dear George and Family:

Hello George. I am sorry that I have never written to you since I have been way down here in Mississippi. But George I have been in touch with all the news from Mentone through Louise and the good little Mentone paper.

You know George I've been thru quite a bit since I've been away from town and I hope that in the following years the boys will never have to go through this again. It's pretty tough on us married men to be away from our wives and now my son, too. But sure could be a lot worse if I was across.

The boys of 18, and older that are not married seem to get quite a kick out of army life, but I sure wish I could be fixing tires and selling gas, but wishing is about all you can do about it.

How are you and the family? Just hoping you are all well. Louise tells me that winter is commencing now. It sure gets chilly here at evening, in fact you have to have a fire in the barracks at nights. In the daytime it gets fairly nice. Not nearly as hot as it was this summer.

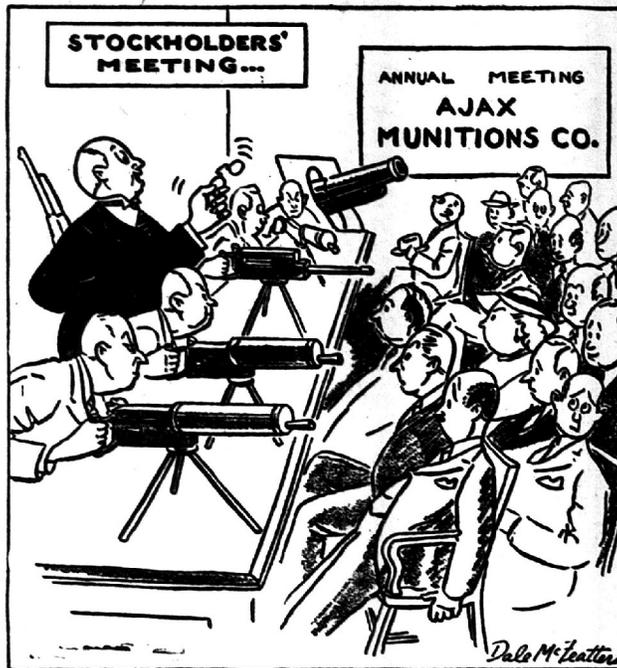

I am feeling pretty good myself, but we sure had a tough time of it on 9 days of "Bivwack" last week and two days. In one of our problems we waded through two creeks up to our waist and boy was the water ever cold. You know a person sleeping on this damp ground at nights gets plenty wet. I can't see why we don't die, but I guess you just get toughened up enough to stand it.

The war news sounds pretty good. Maybe we won't have to be in these camps for so very many months yet. I hope.

By the way George there is a town of Hattiesburg close to camp Shelby, only about 13 miles from camp but

STRICTLY BUSINESS

by McFeatters

"We are confident you will vote in favor of your management's proposal."

22 miles from where I am located in camp. Well, anyway, before the war the town had a population of around 15,000 people. Now they claim around 32,000, so you see the town has grown pretty fast.

Yesterday I was in town and I just walked around by myself to see what I could see. You remember I was always nossey anyway so I wanted to see how and what some of the stores looked like inside. So I went down in one part of town where most of the negroes and farmers around here traded and I do believe he had most of all the farm trade and the poor class of people.

Well now I am going to describe this store and then you will know how lucky and thankful you are to be in little Mentone running a nice clean store.

Well the first thing I bought to start out with was 15c or 1/2 pound of pecan nuts and 10c worth of grapes. Ha. The building was about the size of the Reed's hardware store.

I asked one person, I believe the owner, if he cared if I just looked around and he says go right ahead and we got to talking and he went to a college in Indiana so we got to talking about Indiana and he took me around in the store.

The store wasn't papered and the rafters were not even sided over.

The cobwebs were so thick they looked like drapes. In one corner of the store he did have a nice meat case like yours and had some meat in it, too, but he had tables that never did see varnish and oranges and tangerines were piled on them in heaps. Pecans on a pile on the floor, glassware on another table, with several kegs of nails under the table, some hardware in another corner and on his counter he had grapes piled in bunches. The eggs were in a large wire basket, raisins still with the stems on in another place, cookies in boxes wherever you looked, mule collars hanging down along the rafters, harness hames and iron chairs and canvas back bands which cost $6.75 for one-half set, and rope lines hanging along the beams. And even in another corner they had chickens in crates and to top it off he had a feed store and baled hay in the back and there wasn't a petition in the place. He had oil barrels and kerosene in barrels. Even had three saddles that some person brought in for him to sell, in fact anything you wanted you could get in this store and honest George the floor sure was dirty and you can imagine the smell with all the feed and other things, too. But of all the people that came in and out just while I was there. He really has a good business. Now compare your store with this and count yourself lucky, George.

Down the street about a block and across was a stable barn filled with mules and horses and what do you know. They get from $200 to $250 for an old mule and around $200 for a horse. Gee I can't see how they get such prices.

Well George I just wanted to give you an idea of this store, because it just struck me that you would like to know about the stores here. They have some very nice stores, too.

The farms around Mentone sure look like palaces compared to these buildings around here. Some of the buildings are still roofed with homemade slab shingles and the buildings never did have any paint on them. They sure don't live like we do, that is one thing certain.

Well George I must close and maybe I won't forget to write. I want to, but just neglect. Goodbye and I hope to be seeing you soon.

Your friend,
ALBERT (Tucker)

India, 11 Nov. 1943

Dear George:

I received three copies of the Co-Op. News today, dated August 4th, 11th and 18th. Was quite interested by the letters of yours contained therein and realize that it has been a long time since I sat down and wrote you one. However, as you will note from the above location, I have been quite busy the past few months having traveled over half way around the world.

And of course I, as well as many of the other fellows, am convinced that there is no place like the United States. Especially here in this country things are probably as mixed up as any place in the world. There are so many different kinds of religion, strange religion, among the 400,000,000 people of India, over 100, and each has a different language than the next. Hindustani is spoken by the majority however and is the predominate language. Moslem or Mohammedism comes next.

The people are all of the black race with the exception of a few Britishers and are especially different in their dress. They wrap a piece of cloth around their waist and let it drag the ground, it's something on the order of what we would call a pair of pants. The children very seldom wear any clothes until they are four or five years of age. We are surrounded by rice fields and some of the best tea plantations in the world. India has the largest irrigation system in existence, it is all hand made, and is really quite an agricultural country in parts. At the present time as you will note from your newspapers, they are having quite a famine in one particular section and it is taking quite a toll of lives.

I have seen several elephants and have been bitten by plenty of mosquitos. Mosquitos, plus the Japs, are our big menace over here. We also have the jackals, an animal that is similar to a dog but one which can eject one of the weirdest sounds I have ever heard. They are perfectly harmless but when a pack of them starts talking to one another it sends chills up and down your back.

We have decent living quarters and a water system all our own. We have an air compressor that works two wells by forcing air into the well and lifting water into tanks that give us a gravity system. Our food is our main concern. We are existing under what is called Reverse Lend-Lease. The British are supplying us with food, the cost of which will be deducted from the bill of goods we are leasing them. No refrigeration is available so it will be years before we see any milk, creamery butter or things along those lines.

As far as the war situation over here is concerned, I am under the opinion that its going to take a long time to get things straightened out. The Japs have too much territory in their possession and are at the present time even widening their occupation of China. The war in Europe seems to be coming along in good order with the Russians really on the march at present.

I was surprised to hear that "Cornie" Wallace was in Sicily. The last time I saw him was on a visit to Keesler Field back in 1941. I also hear that my old classmate Harold Horn is back in the States for OCS. Congratulations on that decoration fellow. I also very recently was surprised to hear that my brother was transferred from Peru to Submarine School at New London, Connecticut. Lt. Gochenour, I hope he gets combat duty. He seems to be tired of his teaching and wants to get a slap at these Japs. Come on over here, there is plenty to do. I was interested too in Don Bayne's description of the food situation. I don't understand it either Don, but we have to take into consideration the difficulties encountered in getting it to us. However, I don't believe we are starving and we are definitely getting the correct amounts of calories and vitamins. That is what counts. There were many other of the letters I enjoyed reading but it is getting late so perhaps I should save them for future comments.

Here it is the middle of November and getting well along towards Thanksgiving, yet we over here are sweltering with the heat. It doesn't seem possible, especially with the cold weather that you people must be having.

George, it's way past my usual bed time so perhaps I should crawl under the mosquito netting. We are keeping quite busy over here and doing a good job. Let's just all hope that this mess gets straightened out one of these days. I am well and fine and have never felt better in my life. Will close with best regards to all.

Sincerely,
Tech. Sgt. Robert Q. Tucker.

J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the FBI, writes:

"The story of crime is a series of unpleasant chapters concerning men and who missed their goals in life.

"Fiction often presents these outlaws of society as individuals who thrive upon their abuses of the privileges of other people. The greatest sorrow, however, of those who stoop to crime lies in the reflection that they have embarked upon a road that can lead only to disgrace.

"Take the case of St. Clair McInerney, a member of the "Terrible Touhy Gang," who was killed last December in Chicago while resisting arrest.

"Found among his effects after death was a brief newspaper article entitled, 'My Wish In Life,' which read in part, 'I wish I now were old enough . . . To give some sound advice . . . To make each person weigh his thoughts . . . And turn them over twice . . . I wish my eyes had seen enough . . . So I could make him see

. . . The way impressions in this life
. . . Can fool us easily.'

"That was the dying lament of a man whose days had been crowned with tragedy. In these few lines we can see 'regret,' 'remorse,' and 'despair.' It is the plaintive cry of a beaten man—a failure.

"Nor was St. Clair McInerney the first outlaw of society to one day face the stark fact that somewhere along the road of life he had chosen the wrong path.

"The same story is repeated over and again. It is the unpublished biography of every criminal entangled with the law.

"These men and women have lost, or never had, an appreciation of the fundamental concepts of morality and good living. Perhaps if they had the right opportunity in their early formative years things would have been different.

Our Sunday schools across the land offer this opportunity.

"If young men and women are taught to understand and appreciate the lessons of love, honesty, and charity enunciated by the Bible at an early age, they will always respect the life and property of their fellow man. The Ten Commandments are the foundation stones of decent living—the laws from which all other laws proceed.

"Today with juvenile delinquency on an ever rising scale our country leans more heavily upon its Sunday school workers. There is a heavy responsibility to toil with renewed emphasis in behalf of our youth. These good men and women have done excellent work in the past, and I urge all of them to continue their efforts.

"America needs clear-minded, dependable, God-fearing citizens to carry tomorrow's burdens. The road thru the open portals of our Sunday schools is a straight one leading to good citizenship and a more se-

The Bulldogs lost their second game in five starts as they fell before the sharpshooting Bourbon Comets in a 37-29 contest played on the Comet's floor. Mentone played on even terms for the first half, but the Bourbon five came back with nine points in the first two minutes of the third quarter and put the game on ice. Mentone tried hard the last fourteen minutes but only succeeded in cutting one point from the lead.

Bowers, 6 foot four inch center of the Comets, led the scoring with 5 field goals and 5 free throws for a total of 15 points. Joe Boggs, Emery Mosier and Junior Fore each scored six points for the Bulldogs.

The Mentone Pups lost their first game of the year when, after leading for the first three quarters, fell behind to lose 21-18. Don Shilling scored six points for the Pups.

Mentone hopes to add Burket to their list of wins when they meet on Wednesday night. Next week Mentone plays Etna Green and Warsaw on Tuesday and Saturday nights. Both games are at Mentone.
